

Chapter 325 I Can Give You What You Wan

An emergency happened in the Lu Group. After receiving Corbin's call, Rayan immediately drove back to the company with Janessa.

Rayan drove very fast to reach the company as soon as possible. Normally, the ride would take an hour. However, with his speed, it only took half an hour.

As soon as they arrived at the company, Janessa immediately knew that the so-called emergency was Gracie, who was making a scene in the company.

Rayan looked at Janessa with determination in his eyes and held Janessa's hand tightly. They nodded at each other and walked into the company hand-in-hand, with an indifferent expression on their faces.

They saw Gracie sitting on the ground while crying about her love for Rayan and lamenting that Janessa was a bad woman who stole Rayan from her. It seemed that she tried to make herself the victim of this situation. She was putting on an innocent facade to gain people's sympathy.

As soon as she saw Rayan coming in, Gracie stood up from the ground immediately and wiped the tears on her face gently. Then, she ran toward Rayan and held his arm. She cried, "Rayan! I knew you would come. I thought you didn't want to see me anymore because you are so obsessed with that woman. Rayan, let's get back together, okay? I promise that I will never make a mistake anymore!" Tears fell down from her eyes again as Gracie spoke. She sobbed as she clung on Rayan.

At that moment, any man would want to hug her seeing her aggrieved appearance.

However, it seemed like Gracie had forgotten why Rayan was so angry with her in the first place. It was ridiculous to pretend that nothing had happened between them. Rayan would never forget it even if she did.

Janessa stood behind Rayan quietly while Gracie was making a scene. She knew that she should not step in because it was his problem. After all, she was sure that he would no longer fall in love with Gracie again. She trusted Rayan's feelings for her were stronger than anything. Therefore, Janessa could leave the matter regarding this woman to Rayan with peace of mind.

Rayan removed Gracie's hands on his arm and said coldly, "Stop it, Gracie. Just stop." Rayan looked at Gracie as if he was disgusted by her. Anyone with emotional intelligence would know that he was serious at that time.

It was also obvious that Rayan hated Gracie. Rayan hated her more and more as she behaved like this again and again.

Unfortunately, Gracie didn't listen to his words. She was still lost in her own imagination.

Pleading, Gracie said, "Rayan, I know I was wrong. I will make it right, okay? I will change. Just come back to me, please. Please be with me again!" Gracie cried as she clung to Rayan's body again. She sobbed and sobbed, not minding the people who were watching the commotion. She hung on Rayan's neck like a monkey. Anyone could see how desperate she was.

Janessa, who was standing behind Rayan, took two steps back automatically.

Janessa's action made the onlookers believe that she was so scared of Gracie that she chose to give up her position to her. This made those among the crowd who supported Janessa disappointed with her. They thought, 'How could she give up her position just like that! She should fight back!'

Seeing Janessa's reaction, Gracie smirked to herself. Indeed, Janessa was very self-aware. Gracie believed that since Janessa knew that she was not suitable as Rayan's wife, she just chose to quit voluntarily. In fact, Gracie wanted to win against Janessa.

However, this was a better outcome.

Only Janessa knew that the reason she stepped back was that she didn't want to get involved.

Janessa looked around and saw an empty seat behind her. She immediately sat down as an audience and watched the show played by Gracie.

Rayan turned to gauge Janessa's reaction. However, he was surprised to see that she had already distanced herself and sat down in the audience like she was watching a play. She crossed her legs and arms and looked directly at Rayan with a playful glint in her eyes.

Seeing that Janessa was enjoying the show, Rayan cast a stern glance at her. He also saw that the onlookers increased from before and sighed to himself. He should solve the problem right now or else all their employees would come down to watch it. After all, it was good material for gossip.

"Rayan, I know you still love me. So, let's go back together, hmm? You know I really love you so much. I can't live without you." Gracie looked at Rayan with her eyes filled with desperation. At that moment, Gracie had no idea how hideous she looked. Her mascara and eyeliner had smudged after she cried, making her look like a witch who cried black tears.

Rayan pushed Gracie away and said, "Listen, Gracie. We are already over. Whatever we had, it was all in the past now. Our relationship is completely over. I can forget what happened today for the sake of our relationship for so many years. However, if you continue to bother me like this, you will lose everything. If you leave my life for good, I promise the rest of your life will be well-provided." Rayan knew that Gracie had always been a woman who valued material things the most. In the past, Rayan didn't care about it. Everything she liked, he could give it to her. However, if she didn't have his support, she could never afford a luxurious life.

Although Rayan knew there were many ways to solve this problem, this was the most direct one. He knew that Gracie wouldn't want to lose his financial support.

Shocked, Gracie's hand lost energy and slid off Rayan's clothes. Hearing from him that they were really over, she looked at him in disbelief. Gracie's eyes were filled with tears. Then, her loud cries filled the entire hall. However, Rayan continued to look at her with indifferent eyes. Even if she cried sadly, nothing would change. He already made up his mind.

"Gracie, I know you'll be fine. This is not the end of your life yet. I'm sure you will have a better future," Rayan whispered in Gracie's ear lightly. Then, he came up to Janessa, held her hand, and went upstairs silently.

Janessa looked back at the disappointed look on Gracie's face. Then, she looked at Rayan's solemn expression. Janessa couldn't help teasing Rayan. Grinning, she said, "A beauty was crying in front of you and you didn't feel sorry for her?"

"Stop it," Rayan growled while clenching his teeth. Holding Janessa's hand, Rayan pulled her to the elevator.

The employees pretended to be busy as soon as Rayan and Janessa passed by them. However, they had been secretly watching the development of the situation. All of them were shocked to see that Rayan suddenly took Janessa to the elevator.

"Hey, what are you doing?! Don't you need to work?" Upon hearing Rayan's angry voice, all the employees around them left at once.

Now that their boss was in a state of anger, no one would want to annoy him any further.

The two security guards of the Lu Group looked at each other. One of them asked, "Do you think we should see her out now?"

The other one replied, "We'd better do. Did you hear their conversation? Looks like that woman was Mr. Lu's ex. Mr. Lu already went upstairs anyway. We should wrap it up on our end, too."

The two security guards nodded at each other. Then, they went to Gracie silently. With one on the right side and the other one on the left side, they lifted her up from the ground.

"Where are you touching me? Let me go! How dare you?!" Furious, Gracie shouted at the two security guards.

However, no matter what Gracie did, the two security guards kept silent. They also didn't stop until they reached outside of the Lu Group. Then, they put her down and went inside without looking back.

The security guards threw Gracie on the stairs outside. Feeling lost and humiliated, she lost all her energy and slumped on the ground. She knew that she lost and could never be with Rayan again.

However, she didn't want to give up. That cunning evil woman Janessa... What did she do to win Rayan's heart? She had been with another man as well. But Rayan didn't care. Gracie too, had only been with other men a few times. How could he not forgive her, then?

She was not convinced. Surely Janessa did something to bewitch Rayan. What did she do?

Gracie thought about it deeply. However, her concentration was disturbed when her phone rang.

An unknown number appeared on the screen. Confused, Gracie quickly hung up the phone. She didn't want to pick up calls from people she didn't know.

However, her phone rang again, with the same unknown number flashing on the screen. Whenever she hung up, that same number called again.

When the phone rang again, Gracie finally answered it.

"Who's there? Tell me who you are." Annoyed, Gracie asked the caller.

"It doesn't matter who I am. You're angry now, aren't you? You are wondering why the man who was supposedly yours are now Janessa's, am I right?" An unfamiliar male voice came through the phone. Although Gracie couldn't recognize the voice, the man knew everything about her.

"Who the hell are you?! How the hell do you know so much about me?" Frightened, Gracie shouted at the caller. She didn't know what was happening. However, Gracie also had a vague feeling that it was her chance. This man would give her another chance to get Rayan back!

The man chuckled. "I can help you get what you want. However, I would never make a deal where I wouldn't gain something. You have to give me something in return."

"Fine. What do you want?"

The man laughed, pleased by her answer. Then, he said, "There's a Rolls-Royce Phantom to your left. Get on it!"

Gracie looked to her left and saw the car the man was talking about. Quickly, she walked towards the car.
