Chapter 408 It Was Rayan's Command

Janessa felt that time flew by so fast with Alana's company.

They had a lot in common that they did not have to suffer through small talk. The two of them could talk endlessly about different topics.

"How come you're here?" It suddenly occurred to Janessa that she was confined to the house. Perhaps it was because of the conversation she shared with Rayan last night that he had sent Alana over.

Perhaps, he was doing it for the baby.

Whatever the reason was, Janessa felt loads better. She did not have to only be with the nutritionists every day.

Alana did not appear to be anxious with Willie's presence. However, Janessa felt differently. Her pregnancy made her more

"Mrs. Lu, I only did what Mr. Lu asked me to. He was worried that you've been feeling lonely since you've been alone for days. He wanted you to have some company," Willie replied. His words caused Alana to look at Janessa with envy.

Thoughtfulness was a sought after trait for any man. However, Rayan was not Janessa's boyfriend, so there was no need for him to be so accommodating.

Janessa was taken aback. It was, indeed, Rayan's command.

"Go about with your day. We're going out for a walk in the garden. We'll be back in time for lunch. Maybe in about half an hour. You don't have to come with us," Janessa said before heading out with Alana.

The look on Janessa's face was serious but Alana did not ask any questions. Without a word, she followed in Janessa's footsteps.

Willie followed their trail with his eyes. After a moment of contemplation, he took his phone out to call Rayan. "Mr. Lu, Mrs. Lu and Ms. Shen headed out. I think they're suspecting something."

The strained look on Janessa's face disappeared the moment they arrived at the garden. "Janessa, what's up with you and Rayan?" The question had been bugging Alana since they talked to Willie. However, she did not want to ask Janessa with Willie around. She took the opportunity of Willie's absence to ask Janessa about it. Alana was dying to know the score between the two of them. Janessa felt that time flew by so fast with Alana's company.

"Everything's alright. Your skin looks flawless and your cheeks seem to have plumped up. I'm assuming that your family's dilemma has been resolved, right?" Janessa asked as she sat on the swing.

Janessa answered with a smile and nothing else. "What is up with you? Is living in that house depressing you?"

She had been dying to find out if Alana's problem had gone away. However, since she moved to the villa, her phone was taken away, so she had no means of communication. Getting in touch with Alana was impossible.

"Don't worry about it. Everything's fine now." Alana could not look at Janessa in the eyes. She couldn't bear to betray Janessa, so she did not say a word about Janessa's whereabouts when Rayan asked. Her family went broke because of her refusal to divulge any information. However, despite that, Rayan still helped her family in the end.

It was his intention to let Alana know that it was because of Janessa that her family's business was saved.

Initially, she did not want to come when she was told that Janessa wanted to see her. Eventually, it dawned on her that the two of them were friends after all. No matter what happened, they had to be understanding "Everything's okay now? That's great news!" Janessa exclaimed. Relief washed over her after she knew that Alana's family was However, she could not help but think that if the Shen family came up with a plan to resolve the dilemma, it would have gone away earlier. She couldn't help but wonder how they solved the problem.

"Rayan financed us," Alana spilled. She knew that it was just a matter of time before Janessa found out the truth, so there was no point covering it up.

Janessa had mixed feelings over Alana's revelation.

'Why didn't he help the Shen family when I begged him earlier? What has made him change his mind?' Janessa wondered.

She was left in a very difficult position.

After lunch, Alana sensed Janessa's exhaustion, so she excused herself to give Janessa some space.

Janessa had known him for years, but she still could not quite figure out what kind of person he was.

"Of course not. Come, it's time for lunch. The chefs here are the best. You're in luck. They came here from overseas," Janessa said with a smile. She then took Alana to the dining room.

"Are you upset?" It was not Alana's intention to make her mad. However, she could not hide the truth from her either.
