Barren Mother Give Birth To Sextuplets To The Hot Ceo Chapter 271

“You are the same with my ex wife. I give you my heart, my love, my affection and you abused it by ending up in bed with another man?” He asked in fury.

He wanted to kill her and bury her with her brother.

“I will revenge the pain you caused me now and the pain my ex wife caused me on you alone.” He carried her in that same hand and took her to where a large table was.

He threw all the books and files there away making it scatter to the ground then he slammed her on the table.

Amy let out a painful cry.

“You fucking cheat! you deserve death,” he said and removed his hand from her neck. Amy immediately began to cough, she almost coughed out her life.

Broderick looked around for how he can torture this woman, who dared to cheat on him, to death. He then sighted an acid.

He walked towards where the bottle of acid is and brought it over, “this is an acid, I’ll disfigure your face, your breast and your stinking pussy. You evil woman.” Broderick’s heart was hurting as he was saying this.

Whereas, Irvin has already woke up, when he saw Broderick open the bottle of acid and was ready to pour it on her sister, he immediately carried a plank and ran to hit it on Broderick’s head. The plank was so heavy that he expected for Broderick to fall.

But it was as if a foam was thrown to a mountain, Broderick only knew that something hit him, he didn’t feel a single pain.

He turned and threw the acid away then sent Irvin crashing to the far end of the wall of the room with his hard kick.

Irvin was also strong so he immediately stood and cried, “I’m sorry I have to fight you boss but I can’t let you hurt my sister.”

"I'll kill you and your cheating sister," Broderick said and Irvin flew towards him to attack him. Although Irvin was short, he was skilled in fighting.

All the blows he was sending was being guided skillfully by Broderick, Amy had used this opportunity to stand and ran to the exit of the door.

Irvin hit Broderick in the mouth all of a sudden making Broderick adjust back, he spat out blood and the fury in his face increased.

"You made me spit blood?" Broderick roared like like an angry lion, "I'll let you have your final breath." He charged at him angrily and hit him unexpectedly in his stomach, Irvin bent out of pain and coughed then he hit him in his jaw then in his back and then in his nose.

Irvin lost all strength with these consistent and fast hits and fell, Broderick stood on him and kicked him with his hard shoe in the groin, Irvin felt as if his scrotum will break.

Amy felt like Broderick will kill her brother so she ran to Lucifer's room.

"Broderick is about killing my brother and I, can you save us?" Amy asked quickly. Lucifer is the only person who can save them at this moment.

"Yes, untie me quick," he requested.

The ropes that Lucifer was tied with was so thick that Amy couldn't loosen it with her hand, but luckily, she sighted a knife. She picked up the knife and cut the ropes loose in no time.

Lucifer stood and roared as he beat his chest hard, "I, Lucifer, it's my time for revenge." He then said to Amy, "Lead me to Broderick quick."

Amy ran as fast as she could while Lucifer ran after her, Lucifer entered at a time when Irvin's face was covered entirely with blood. One could not recognize Irvin again.

Broderick was standing and hitting his face with the sole of his shoe while groaning in pain, "those who fight Broderick Alessandro don't always live to tell the stories."

"You! Broderick, today is your death day," Lucifer said and threw a knife swiftly to Broderick. He had picked up the knife that Amy used to unloose the rope that he was tied with.

Before Broderick could guide the knife, it hit him hard on his shoulder making blood spill immediately plus the knife was stuck deep inside of him.

He ran to Irvin and helped him up, then carried him in his shoulder, 'let me help you carry him to the hospital.' He began to run out with Irvin."

When the underground soldiers wanted to stop Lucifer, Amy motioned for them not to stop. Soon, Lucifer, Amy and Irvin was outside of the portal.

Amy suddenly felt bad for Broderick, what if he dies?

"Hold on!" She said to Lucifer and ran back to the underworld, she saw Broderick leaning on the wall and groaning in pain.

"Broderick, why are you angry because I have sex with Lucifer, huh?" She shouted angrily," as if you don't have a past too."

Broderick felt like throwing Amy inside a pit filled with snakes, with an angry look, he said," you cheated on me and made fresh the wound that my late wife caused me."

"I didn't cheat on you."

"You fucking cheat on me!" Broderick shouted back.

"I didn't cheat on you. We haven't even met each other when I had sex with Lucifer. It happened many years ago, I had just clocked eighteen and went to West Hill with my friends for some sight seeing and for tourism purpose, I fell in love with Lucifer who was a prince then cause he was charming and gave him my first time. Actually, it led to pregnancy." Her voice trailed off and tears streamed down her face.

"When I noticed that I was pregnant, that was two weeks after I returned back to North Hill. I was still in college and was scared of what my stepmother and father will do to me if they get to know. They will literally stop me from schooling and make my life miserable."

She continued, with tears on her face, "I didn't tell anyone I was pregnant and I also didn't tell anyone before I aborted it."

"This is the secret between Lucifer and I, so why did you want me to kill my brother and I for a sin I committed when I was young? You have a past too and I don't care what your past is, I love your present." Amy cried.

"Lucifer said he had sex with you when you were in the prison," Broderick said.

"What!" Amy shouted, "prison? That's a lie. I was taken straight from home with my kids and taken to the prison. Lucifer and I didn't even talk about the past, we acted like total strangers."

"So he deceived me?" Broderick asked, the feeling of guilt was fast replacing the feeling of pain and anger.

"Clearly," Amy responded and walked up to him, "I love you, Broderick. How can I cheat on you? You need to trust me. What's a relationship without trust? If we don't trust each other, people will easily come between us."

Tears immediately rushed down Broderick's face, "can you blame me? My late wife damaged me, I couldn't fall in love for a long time but I eventually did. But to trust is hard. I trusted my late wife with my life and she..." Broderick couldn't complete his statement as more tears streamed down his face.

Amy understood him and didn't hold any grudges against him at all despite what he did to her.

"I hit you, I'm sorry," Broderick lowered his head and cried guiltily. Remembering how he slammed Amy to the wall and to the table in a hard way makes him feel a very sharp pain in his heart.

"Can you forgive me?" He raised his face up slowly, he had both blood and tears all over his face, "please! I have hit my woman, I don't deserve forgiveness." Broderick felt really bad that he sunk to his knees right before Amy, "my woman..." He said, looking at Amy's face, "I don't deserve you. You are a sweet, good and adorable woman..." As tears fall freely from his face, he added, "but I...am the opposite. I'm the opposite of good, opposite of adorable, my life is messed up. How long will I keep hurting you and putting the blame on my late wife?" His head shook painfully, the pain he felt in his heart for hitting Amy on the wall and on the table was more than the pain his shoulder that had a knife in it was feeling.

"I want you like that," Amy said, tears all over her face too.

"But I'm a bad man. I'm an abuser, I don't even respect women. The last time, I had tied your hands and legs and had sex with you mercilessly. You are a good woman who deserve the best from a man who would take care of you, be good to you and pamper you. I'm worst," the feeling of guilt was eating him up quickly like cankerworm.

"I want you like that. I know about your weakness before I fell in love with you. And you are not absolutely bad, you are also sweet. When all these is over, I'll teach you how to manage your weaknesses," Amy said.

"My woman, do you really want to forgive me?" Broderick asked.

"I have forgiven you," Amy said and added, "we need to get you treated."

Amy immediately ran out and asked one of the underground soldiers if they have someone who can treat Broderick, surprisingly, they even had many soldiers who are in the health department.

They quickly attended to Broderick and start to treat him.

Then there is no point for Irvin to have been taken out of the underworld since he can be treated here?

Amy immediately told one of the soldiers about Irvin been taken out by Lucifer.

"We can help you bring Irvin back, ma," one of the soldiers said and Amy nodded.

The soldier who just finished speaking to Amy went to select some soldiers and as they were heading out of the portal in order to bring Irvin back, Amy ran to them and said, "I want to follow you."

"No, ma. We won't return without bringing commander Irvin back, we assure you" the head of the soldiers heading out said.

"It's a command," Amy said and the soldiers immediately agreed.

In a jiffy, the soldiers and Amy left the underworld in order to save Irvin from Lucifer.

After a couple of minutes, Broderick was laying on the sick bed, the knife that was stuck deep in his shoulder had been removed and his shoulder had now been bandaged. Also, his face had been treated and cleaned too. He has regained his handsome composure back.

He stilled his mind for a while trying not to think about anything but he didn't know when he slept off.

(Amy received a hard slap from Lucifer that send her falling to the ground.

("You bitch!" Lucifer shouted, "Broderick ruined my country and I'll kill you as revenge.)

(Lucifer sat on her and gripped her neck, then tightened his two hands hard around her neck trying to kill her.)

Then Broderick immediately opened his eyes, it was a dream. All those scenes in brackets were his dreams.

He stood up fearfully and with a thumping heart, he ran out to the central hall of the underworld where the soldiers are mostly are. "Where is my woman?" He asked quickly.

"Boss, she has gone to save Irvin from Lucifer."

"What!" Broderick exclaimed loudly, his voice vibrating round the four walls of the hall, "where did you let her go?"

"She commanded the soldiers that wanted to help her bring Irvin back, sir," one of the soldiers responded.

Broderick ran to the exit of the portal while about one thousand soldiers ran after him, while Broderick was puncturing the code, the portal suddenly opened and the underworld soldiers immediately set and cocked their guns towards those that just have appeared on top of the portal.

But to their surprise, it was Amy holding Irvin whose leg was jelly and who looked like someone that will die soon.

"Take Irvin from her and treat him quickly," at Broderick's command, the soldiers brought Irvin inside and took him to the health care room.

Amy and the soldiers then walked in. Broderick led Amy back to his sick bed cause he still needed to rest according to the 'soldier doctor' treating him.

Broderick immediately asked, "did Lucifer hurt you?"

Amy smirked. We saw Lucifer and Irvin lying on the floor unconscious. I guess he was running away with Irvin but suddenly fell. I don't know if it was a car that hit him or something but it's weird that we found him on the floor. We even thought that it was a trap at first but until we leave, Lucifer was still on the floor.

Only then did Broderick remember that Lucifer had been injected while he was being tied in the underworld.

"You should have brought him back here, he's our hostage," Broderick said.

"Oh! I was more concerned about Irvin. Should I command some soldiers to go and get him?" Amy asked.

"We don't leave the portal anyhow. In fact, we leave once a day no matter how urgent it is. The injection in him will gradually weaken his body system gradually until he dies unless he sees a cure. So don't worry," Broderick said. Though he wished that he had Lucifer as a hostage but it will be too risky now to go after him.

Amy nodded and asked him, "how do you feel now?"

"I feel better, as you can see," Broderick smiled.

"I feel pain all over my body," Amy smiled.

"It's my fault, I'm sorry. Would you take some drugs?" Broderick asked.

"No, I'll just shower, hopefully, I'll be fine," she said and stood.

"Okay, will you come back?"

"Sure," Amy then walked out.

She went to take a long shower that lasted for almost thirty minutes then she wore a skimpy dress that barely went beneath her waist, if a wind blows, her pants will definitely be revealed. Also, she didn't wear a bra and she let her hair fall back to her shoulders.

She opened the door that leads from her room to the health care room that Broderick was in but saw that he had been asleep.

Amy went to close the door so that anyone would not just barge in. She wasn't a type that dresses this way. She had dressed this way for the purpose of Broderick. Seeing that it was only her and 'sleeping Broderick' that was in the room, she knelt before his waist and unbuckled his belt.

Broderick woke up immediately his hand touched her waist as he was always at alert but he didn't open his eyes. He can already perceived that it was Amy.

He removed his belt totally and then unzipped his trouser, then he brought out his dick. The dick wasn't hard at first but her hand was as though it carries a heavy current.

As soon as her hand touches his dick, the dick received the current and charged up hard immediately. The veins in the dick became clearly visible.

Amy loved how hard and long his dick was, she stroked his dick with her hand, up and down repeatedly while the dick kept getting harder. It was almost as hard as a rock.

Staring at it lustfully, she loved the cap of his dick, the shape was very tempting, she brought out her tongue and licked the cap.

Oh my! The pleasure that surged through Broderick's body was as if a heavy current spread quickly from his dick to his body. He almost shook like someone who got electrocuted but at the end, he didn't move nor make a sound.

Amy licked all the sides of the cap making it wet, then she swallowed just the cap of his dick and sucked on it hard.

Slowly, she moved her mouth to swallow his dick, as her mouth almost covered the entire length of his dick, Broderick couldn't stand the intense pleasure anymore. Pretending to sleep and not moaning is torture, he moaned gleefully and placed his hand on her head.

"That's my girl," he said.

Amy felt encouraged, she loved the fact that he liked her mouth on his dick. Then in a quick and skillful succession, he began to suck on his dick in a very passionate way.

Broderick couldn't help but moan even louder, his moan was like groan cause he was moaning with his thick voice that sounded like bass but it was sweet to the ear.

Amy kept sucking it passionately and wouldn't stop, when the pleasure gets too intense, Broderick foresee what was about to happen and attempted to pull her head away from his dick but Amy stopped him by holding his hand and sucked his dick even more.

She felt something cold suddenly permeated through her throat and going through her esophagus, it tasted like ice, cream sincerely and she sucked on every single drop of his sperm. She didn't let a single drop fall off.

She then took her mouth off his 'now flaccid dick, this time, Broderick's eyes were now opened. When Amy looked at his face, they both chuckled.

Amy then fell on him but in a careful way so as not to hurt his shoulder, "Don't think because I cummed, I can't fuck you now."

"I even want it," Amy said and they both giggled.

She laid on his firm body and began to play around his chest, she moved her hand to his lips and separated it playfully. She played with his lips and kissed the lower lips. Then she told him to store huge amount of air into his mouth and he did.

She then used her index fingers from both of her hands to punch his swollen cheek, as she does that, the air that was stored in Broderick's mouth fell off his mouth easily.

Both adults laughed and Amy rested her head calmly on his chest.

Amy's phone then chirped and when she saw whom the ID of the person who sent message to her was, she saw that it was Joan.

She checked the message and it reads," Amy, please come and save my mum and I, we are currently on the run and North Hill soldiers are after us."

Once Joan's call came to an end, Broderick noticed the disturbing look on her face and then he sat upright and helped her to sit too.

"What's the matter?"

"Joan and her mum is in trouble, she said I should come and save her," Amy said.

"When did you become a superwoman that saves people?" Broderick asked and Amy furrowed her brow," what makes her think you have the capacity to save her?"

Amy thought about what Broderick said and then said," maybe she doesn't have anyone to call."

"Or maybe she's being used to get you," Broderick said.

"That may be true, Lucifer is desperate." Amy said.

“Switch off your phone,” Broderick said, he knew that Joan would keep calling her again and again and that may convince or deceive her to want to go and save her.

“Okay,” Amy didn’t argue with all. She simply did as she was told.

“Who exactly is ruling North Hill now? You as the president has been declared wanted and Lucifer who seems to be the backbone or maybe the real leader is probably sick and is likely to die soon.”

“Nolan is. Nolan and Lucifer are working together. So now that Lucifer seems to be incapacitated, Nolan can still rule both North Hill and EastHill together.”

“I can’t seem to understand Nolan and why he has been hellbent on having me, I have told him that I don’t love him but he’s still persistent,” Amy said.

“Well, I was informed that he and Martha are presently in East Hill, I don’t think he will want to leave East Hill for now cause it’s the safest place for him,” Broderick said.

“True, can’t w ust keep living here? This place looked peaceful,” Amy said.

“Living in the underworld? How will our children go to school and enjoy all the things they were supposed to enjoy if they are living in the city? It’s too early to give up. We have come this far and I’ll take over North Hill back but it will take strategy and rational thinking,” Broderick said.

“Okay, let me check on the kids,” Amy said and walked out of the room.

“So Lucifer can’t even say a word anymore?” Nolan asked COB, chief of bodyguards, the COB is the person with the highest authority at the moment in North Hill. Eventhough he’s not the president, he’s the one that had been controlling the affairs of North Hill since Broderick had dissappeared.

“Yes, sir. His condition has gotten worse and according to the doctor, it was said that he may die in eight days time. I think he was injected,” the COB said.

“Oh my!” Nolan exclaimed. He beieved that Broderick probably injected him before dropping him somewhere at North Hill. The more he thinks of how Broderick had singlehandedly fight himself and Lucifer is the more he fears him more.

However, he still have an hostage in custody and that’s Brett so he still has an upper hand. From what he gathered about Brett, he had been working for him for a very long time.

“He said some words before he couldn’t speak anymore again,” the COB said.

“What did he say?”

some numbers to which I wrote down,” the “He called COB said.

“Call it for me Immediately,” Nolan said and quickly signalled for the guard beside him to get him a book and a pen.

The COB called out the numbers and then added,” after he had struggled hard to call out those numbers, he said the world ‘underworld.’”

Nolan’s heart skipped. He knew that Broderick was the god of the underworld, surely. Is the number connected to the ‘underworld’ in some way? Nolan thought.

He then hung the call up and went to Martha,” I’ll be leaving to North Hill this night?”

“What? What are you going to do?”

“There is ninety percent chance that Broderick is in the underworld. I need to meet with Lord Douglas, Michael had told me once upon a time that Lord Douglas knows much about the underworld,” Nolan said.

“Nolan, your safety first. You already have your country back, what more did you want?” Martha asked him, “remember that you said Broderick was selfish after he regained his country yet he didn’t tell Brett to step down from East Hill.”

“Getting my country back is one of the two things I want the most.” Nolan said.

“What’s the second thing you want?” Martha questioned.

It took a while before he responded,” Amy!”

“Amy? There are many beautiful women here in East Hill, why are you after Amy?” Martha asked.

Nolan scoffed,” see who is advising? Are there not many men in the world? Why are you after Broderick?”

“The question should be why ‘was’ I after Broderick? I am no more interested in him,” Martha said and Nolan sat.

“Is that so?”

“Yes. For many years, I had loved him with passion but he never loved me. I played many gimmicks that worked for a while but eventually got exposed. How long will I keep going after a man that obviously will never love me? I even made him and the kids loose their memory, but before he even recovered his memory, he had divorced me for Amy... I need to get a life of my own," Martha said.

Nolan hummed, observing her keenly," do you really mean what you said?"

"Yes, I need a life of my own now," Martha looked serious.

"It's great you made this decision but as for Amy, I'm not ready to let her go," he said.

"But Amy didn't love you and I'm sure she would have told you that several times, you don't expect her to leave the father of her kids and come to you?" Martha asked.

"Don't interfere into my business anymore," Nolan said and walked out.

A few hours later, he took a flight over to North Hill and soon arrived before the Alessandro's mansion. On getting there, he knocked and the door soon got opened.

Seeing Nell before the door, he greeted her and asked," is Lord Douglas around?"

"Yes, come in," Nell welcomed him and lead him to sit after which she went ahead and invite Lord Douglas over.

Meanwhile, one of Broderick's spies had informed Broderick about Nolan's presence in North Hill.

When Lord Douglas appeared, Nolan greeted him politely after which he sat.

"Nolan, it's been quiet a long time. Our economy in North Hill had really fallen so bad," Lord Douglas said.

"North Hill is in crisis at the moment so that is normal. Even in EastHill, we are working hard to keep the economy stable," Nolan said.

"So why have you come to pay me a sudden visit?"

"Lucifer got captured by Broderick some days ago then a few days later, his body was found here in NorthHill, almost paralyzed, however, he mumbled some numbers and said the world 'underworld,' before he wasn't able to say a word anymore."

Nolan said.

“What are the numbers?” Lord Douglas asked.

Nolan called out the numbers as he had crammed the numbers in his head.

Lord Douglas thought about it and said, “Could be the secret passcode to the underworld.” Lord Douglas wondered. While Nolan was calling out the numbers, he had crammed the number in his head immediately.

“Really? Did you know the entrance to the underworld? | could other thousands of soldiers to attack it,” Nolan said.

“The underworld has many skilled soldiers, I don’t know if it will be a good idea,” Lord Douglas thought.

Before Nolan could say another word, a heavy sounds of gun shot could be heard. It was a battle that had commenced between Broderick’s soldiers and Nolan’s soldier who were waiting for Nolan outside of the Alessandro’s mansion.

Nolan immediately stood, same with Lord Douglas.

“Hope it’s not Broderick’s soldier?” Lord Douglas became very scared.

Nolan’s heart disappeared from his body for a second, he had sweats formed on his forehead immediately despite the fact that the air conditioner in the room was on.

“Is there any safe place here?” He immediately asked Lord Douglas who was already shaking in the hands.

Nell had immediately ran towards them with an heavily throb bing heart, “It seems we are being attacked, what do we do now?” She asked with a shivering heart.

Before Lord Douglas could even think of what to do, the door broke open and hundreds of soldiers immediately surrounded the three adults in the room.

“Please don’t shoot, please. I haven’t done anything wrong,” Lord Douglas pleaded.

“Then why are you scared?” A familiar voice asked and the three adults between the numerous soldiers turned to the voice that just spoke.

Seeing Broderick, they were all shocked to the gut. Nolan’s heart was beating that it was easy for Broderick to hear the sounds of his heavily beating heart from where he was.

He smiled victoriously, he loved the intense look of fear on the adults face.

“Broderick Alessandro is not someone you want to toy with, how many times will I say this?” Broderick asked.

“Broderick, you can’t hurt your family. No matter how ruthless you are, be responsible. Remember that I’m the twin sister to your mother? If you hurt me, did you think your mother will be happy about it wherever she is?”

“Although I still bear the surname ‘Alessandro.’ Be rest as sured that I have detached myself from the Alessandro’s clan a long time ago,” Broderick said. “Don’t be too confident that I won’t hurt you all.”

Lord Douglas was too scared to even utter a word.

“Nolan, I warned you in the last letter I sent to you to release Brett but you remained obstinate,” Broderick said and went to sit on the couch while the adults remained standing of course.

“Broderick, we can talk about this like adult,” Nolan was scared to the gut. He knew about Broderick’s temper, he had been a victim before. Broderick’s anger is very scary.

Broderick hummed and commanded,” put a call across and ordered for Brett to be sent over to North Hill immediately.” He added,” put the call on loud speaker.”

Nolan immediately brought out his phone, he dared not to be reluctant, he placed a call across to Amold, his twin brother and commanded,” send Brett over to North Hill immediately.”

“Why? What happened?” Amold asked.

“Just do as I have said.” Nolan said.

Amold wondered why Nolan suddenly made such command, nonetheless, since he had commanded, he had to obey his com mand, “Okay.” He said and Nolan hung the call up.

“We will all be here together until Brett arrives,” Broderick said.

Nolan and Lord Douglas exchanged surprising glances, it will take about an hour for Brett to arrive here if he will be brought over by flight. That means, that will have to remain like this for another one hour.

The room was dead quiet for another one hour, Nell’s back was hurting her seriously cause she had been standing for long but she dared not to complain.

Broderick checked his wrist watch and commanded Nolan,

“Call and ask if he has arrived in North Hill. It’s more than an hour already.”

Nolan placed a call across and it got answered, immediately, “Arnold, are you at North Hill already?”

“Almost.” Arnold responded.

Unbeknownst to Broderick that during the one hour that they had been waiting, Lord Douglas had sent a text message secretly to Nolan stating where the portal of the underworld is and that he should tell Arnold to come with a lot of soldiers and go directly to the underworld and attack it. He also added that Amy and the kids must be held as hostage as it’s the only leverage they can have to be free Nolan had immediately texted Arnold about it and as at this moment, Arnold had already arrived at North Hill and heading towards the Portal. Infact, as at the time Nolan called him to ask if he had arrived at North Hill, he had actually arrived and was heading towards the Portal that leads to the underworld.

When Arnold and about ten thousand soldiers of EastHill got to the portal that leads to the underworld, he punctured the code and surprisingly, the portal gave way.

“Attack!” He said and the soldiers immediately rushed inside the underworld. It was the first time in five hundred years that there would be an outside world invasion to the underworld.

When Broderick realized that another twenty minutes had passed, he stood angrily and shouted, “ why haven’t they ar rived?”

Nolan received a text message at this moment and it reads, “ Amy, her children, Irvin and all the soldiers of the underworld have been captured.”

Nolan smirked wickedly and showed him the message that Arnold sent, Arnold actually attached a picture to the message as prove.

Broderick realized that he had been outsmarted.

“What now?” Nolan asked with a smirk but a heavy slap came crashing immediately to his cheek. He staggered back as he held onto his cheek painfully. He had been slapped heavily by Broderick

He could feel a metallic taste of blood quickly in his mouth.

Broderick wondered how it was possible for them to be able to open the portal that leads to the underground.

“Arrest them,” Broderick commanded and Nolan, Lord Douglas and Nell were immediately arrested.

With their hands cuffed to the back, Broderick collected the phones from the three adults and slammed them hard on the floor.

“How did you gain access to the underworld?” Broderick asked Nolan. He had a guess that Lord Douglas must have helped him.

While Nolan was hesitating to talk, Broderick sent him a kick in the chin that immediately made all his lower teeth begin to ache, he shouted, “how did you gain access to the underworld?”

“Broderick, if you keep hurting me, I’ll tell my men to hurt your kids too,” Nolan said. He wasn’t ready to reveal how Arnold and his men were able to unlock the portal.

Broderick smirked, “How do you intend telling them to hurt Amy and the kids? You forgot that I’m here with a lot of soldiers too.”

“Beat him!” Broderick commanded and two soldiers walked to where Nolan stood and began to hit him with the baton in their hands. He was beaten mercilessly for another forty minutes until he couldn’t make a sound anymore. He laid on the ground like someone who would die any moment from now.

Lord Douglas and Nell became scared to death. Broderick then commanded the soldiers beating Nolan to stop.

He then asked Lord Douglas, “you already saw what happened to the one who failed to tell me how the secret of the portal got leaked, now tell me how Arnold gain access to the portal?”
