

Bewedded Not Beloved Chapter 41 – 50

Chapter 41

After I answered the call from Lawyer Hai, I went back to see Naven.

He was expressionless, as if wearing a mask.

I told him: “Even if I am willing to give you the shares, it is no longer possible. I was sued by my stepmother and my estate was frozen.”

When I said this, I was very calm, and there was still a kind of secret joy, at least for now, my stock Naven can't make up his mind.

Naven didn't even look at me. He stared at the computer and said coldly, “In other words, you have no use value anymore?”

“Tomorrow morning I will ask for leave, and I will meet with my lawyer.”

Looking unconcerned, he raised his head and asked Russel: “Should she be here now?”

Russel smiled and pointed to the sofa outside: “Miss Livia, you go over there to rest!”

I've long been accustomed to Naven being so mean to me. He would only attack me when the person he likes is not around when he vents animal desires.

I just got back on the sofa and Lina called me with a startled voice: “The front line, Livia, the vicious stepmother and the black step sister have taken you to court and said you are not the daughter of your uncle.”

“Not a step sister, they are also father’s daughters.” I said.

“You are really good, and I am still correcting my mistakes. Did you hear what I just said?”

“I heard, Lawyer Hai already called me before.”

“Oh, what do you have to deal with? Forget it, you are asking for nothing. In this way, I will ask my father’s lawyer team to contact you.”

“No, Lawyer Hai introduced me to a lawyer, and I will meet tomorrow.”

“Lawyer Hai is also pretty reliable. I have been with my uncle for many years and should be reliable. I will accompany you tomorrow.”

“Ok.”

“Don’t be afraid, Livia, they will definitely lose!”

I haven’t thought of the result yet, I only care if I am Dad’s daughter.

I curled up on the sofa all night. My legs are quite long. I can only stretch my legs on the armrest of the sofa all night.

Naven didn’t go to bed until late. He was very quiet. Several senior executives came to the company. They had a meeting until midnight. Then he sat on the bed and watched the computer. I saw him when I went to the bathroom at night and the room was closed. Lights, so his face was blue on the computer screen, so handsome and beautiful.

His new hairstyle suits him well. People like Naven don’t know if it is a good fate or a reincarnation. No matter what it is, it is perfect, unlike me, who has been strayed from childhood and has a chicken feather.

The next morning, I woke up and Naven hadn't gotten up yet. When I got up, I found that there was a set of clothes on the coffee table, including underwear from the inside to the outside. I think Russel should have prepared it. He knew I was going to see a lawyer today. , I haven't changed my clothes for two days.

There is a shower room in Naven's ward. I went in and took a bath and changed clothes, but I didn't bring any cosmetics. It was so white that it covered three ugliness.

I didn't say hello to Naven either, so I listened to him cynicly.

Lawyer Hai has a big law firm, which is very famous in Rovandel. My father took me there once. At that time I was very young. He passed the small building where my mother and I lived before under my name.

When I went to the lawyer's office, Lawyer Hai was not there. His assistant told me that Lawyer Hai handled some legal affairs in Mira, because the distribution of shares had to be reported to other senior officials in Mira.

The assistant took me to a reception room, served me tea, and asked me gently if I had breakfast. I really didn't eat it, but I was embarrassed to say that I didn't eat it.

The assistant went out without speaking, and after a while he came in with a plate in his hand, which contained ham and eggs, a piece of bread, and a glass of milk.

"Attorney Hai's order, he said you must have not had breakfast early in the morning."

Lawyer Hai is really considerate, he has always been a very warm elder.

I thanked the assistant for lowering his head to eat. He said, "You eat slowly. Attorney Nate just flew over from the United States yesterday. He didn't have time to overcome the jet lag. He is on his way."

"It's okay." I said, "I have more time anyway."

I was eating, and Lina rushed over, wearing a suit and leather shoes. She reached out and took the egg on my plate and stuffed it into her mouth: "I'm starving to death. I came here before I had time to eat."

"How do you dress like a tomboy?"

"This is my style." She sat down beside me: "Where is the lawyer? Haven't come yet?"

"Coming soon."

"Are you okay these past two days, did that abnormal Naven embarrass you?"

"It's fine."

"It's okay. If he dares to bully you, I'll shoot him another brick."

"Save it!" I glared at her, because Smith Ye, I broke my leg yesterday.

Her eyes froze on my forehead, and she stretched out her hand and touched it: "What's your situation? Why is it a little swollen!"

This has disappeared a lot compared to yesterday, and I pulled her hand down: "I hit the door."

"No, did Naven get revenge on you deliberately hitting you? It's shameful that a man hits a woman." She geared up.

“It’s not him.” I put the last bite of bread into her mouth and asked her to shut up temporarily.

However, Lina has always been unable to stop, and while waiting for the lawyer to come, Lina kept talking to me.

“Livia, the malicious stepmother is said to have the DNA identification report of you and your uncle in her hand. I think it is fake in all likelihood. Do you have uncle’s hair or something? You have to figure out this and make one yourself. Don’t worry, I can’t listen to her side words.”

Actually, I did. From the time I was very young, I often saw moms make hairstyles for dad, and when they encountered white hair, they would pull them out and put them in a small box.

Later, my mother passed away. This tradition was preserved for me. Sometimes I would comb my dad’s hair, and when I saw the white hair, I would also pull it off and put it away. Later, my dad said that more and more white hairs were on the head. Can’t keep it.

I have Dad’s hair, so I can hold my own hair to be firm.

But I think it is not yet time.

There are some things you don’t have to figure out too clearly.

Lina said that her mouth was dry and she drank mine after drinking her tea. He took the cup to add water.

I was bored with my fingers and painted on the smooth wooden tabletop.

At this time, the door was pushed open. I don’t know if it was Lina or the lawyer.

A man's shadow was reflected on the table, and I immediately raised my head and stood up.

I just looked at each other, and I was stunned.

There was a tall and young man in front of me. I was stunned not because he had long eyebrows and stars, but because it was a face I used to be very familiar with.

Chapter 42

This face, I sometimes dream of it in my dreams, but it was not as three-dimensional and mature as it is now.

At that time, he was still a teenager, leading me, who was also a teenager, and ran wildly on the grass in front of my small building.

My mother and his mother sat on our terrace and looked at us with a smile. When they were tired from running, they went back to drink the bamboo cane water that mother prepared for us. They were frozen in the refrigerator, and some lemons were added, sweet and sour. Sweet and delicious.

That time was the best time in my life. There was father and mother, friendship and Simon.

Later, Lina told me that it was a puppy love, and I didn't believe it. I was never precocious and insensitive to those things.

Now I know that even if it is not a puppy love, there is still affection buried in it.

Later, their family moved, moved out of Rovandel, and immigrated to the UK.

A few years ago, I still received his letter. Later, my mother died and I was taken back to Ron's house by my father. I wrote a lot of letters to him and told him my new address, but never received it again. His letter.

So our connection was broken.

I have been looking for him, using my method.

When my father went to England, I asked him to find it. The last time Mira escaped marriage to England, I asked her to help me find it, but I couldn't find it.

It turns out that he is not in country Y, but in country M.

I looked at him stupidly, my chest overflowing with incomprehensible emotion.

There is joy, there is surprise, anyway, there are all kinds of chaotic emotions.

He walked up to me and stretched out his hand to me: "Hello, Miss Livia, this is Simon, your lawyer representing this case."

Simon, yes, after eight years, he grew up and became a lawyer, but he was still Simon.

I watched him smirk, and he passed his hand again: "Hello, Miss Livia."

I came back to my senses, and reached out and shook his hand: "Brother Boat."

What I called was the nickname Lina and I gave him. His name is Simon, and we will call him the boat.

He was expressionless, even a little cold. He retracted his hand and sat down, spreading the information in his hand and pushing me over: "I rushed over after receiving the call from the master. I looked at the file on the plane I think this lawsuit is not difficult to fight, it depends on the entry point we want to fight."

I was stunned. He called me Miss Livia, and he didn't say anything to me. He looked cold and looked like a stranger to me.

Does he remember me?

It doesn't make sense. I was fifteen when we were separated, and Simon was three years older than me. There is no reason for an 18-year-old to forget.

Why is he so indifferent to me?

I am a very emotional person, so I completely forgot that we were talking about business.

My whole body is about to reach across the table: "Brother Boat, don't you remember me? I'm Livia, Livia Sheng!"

"Miss Livia." He just glanced at me slightly: "You sit down and talk. If you have no opinion on the way the case is played, then I can explain it to you."

No, it's not like that.

I used to fantasize and look forward to the long-distance reunion for a long time, which is not like this.

Simon saw that I should rush towards me and lift me up, just like when he was a child.

I was only a few years old when we first met, but he has grown taller, and he always likes to lift me up high in exchange for the exclamation of his mother and my mother.

“Boat! Put Livia down quickly, don’t fall her!”

The meeting scene I thought was sensational and moving, my tears flowed, and he hugged me tightly.

It’s definitely not the way it is now.

He was cold, as if he didn’t know me.

I didn’t hear what he said next, and many small bees buzzed in his ears.

I have been trying to communicate with him, but he only talked about the case and didn’t even look at me.

What’s up with him?

He won’t forget me, and he didn’t contact me later.

Could something happen later, and then he lost his memory?

Although things like amnesia are absurd and bizarre, they are not impossible.

Yes, yes, it’s only when I am amnesia that I do this to me, for sure.

At this time, Lina rushed in again, holding two cups in his hands: “Livia, Lawyer Hai’s coffee is great. It is made from coffee beans. I drank a cup and grind it for you.”

She took a coffee and passed by Simon's side and looked back casually, and suddenly it froze.

"Oh oh, oh oh?"

I quickly took the coffee in her hand, for fear that her coffee would spill on Simon.

She bent down and looked down: "Brother Boat!"

She jumped up happily. When we were young, the three of us grew up together. Lina was a standard tomboy, and said all day that she would worship Simon to protect me.

Simon looked up at her and finally smiled: "Hey, Lina, it's been a long time since I saw you."

He recognizes Joe's, he has no memory loss.

"Brother Boat!" Lina opened his arms to embrace Simon, screaming endlessly.

I watched Simon hug Lina with a generous smile, and patted her on the head affectionately: "You are still like a little boy, I almost didn't recognize it just now."

"Why are you, Brother RonRon, you have to know that Livia is looking for you, but I didn't expect you to be her lawyer. It's a coincidence, isn't it?"

It was so easy for Lina to calm down, I just kept looking at Simon in a daze.

It turns out that he didn't lose his memory, and he recognized me, but he didn't want to recognize me.

The look he looked at me was a bit like Naven's eyes for an instant.

In fact, their eyes are not the same. Simon's eyes are inclusive and gentle, but Naven is like a wild beast, he will bite to death if he is not paying attention.

It's just that the coldness and disgust in Simon's eyes at this moment are very similar to the way Naven always looks at me.

He hated me, I actually saw this emotion in Simon's eyes.

My hands are cold and my head hurts.

After Lina and Simon recognized each other, they sat beside me excitedly:
"Brother Boat, Livia, are you stupid? Did you not recognize it?"

She pointed to my nose again and said to Simon: "Livia, Brother RonRon, why are you so calm?"

We are not only calm, but the atmosphere is also embarrassing.

The smile on Simon's face disappeared when he turned to me, his tone of business.

"Miss Livia, let's continue."

I can only work hard and listen. I am always distracted. As soon as I look up, I see Simon's white forehead, because he just looked down at the information and explained to me without looking at me.

I have been thinking, he hates me, but why does he hate me?

Chapter 43

“Miss Livia, if you do not approve the other party’s DNA identification report, do you have your father’s test sample, you can apply for another DNA test.”

I came back to my senses after Lina punched my waist. In fact, I heard everything Simon said to me, but there were too many things in my mind and no answer.

I raised my head and looked at Simon: “Do I need to make another one?”

“If you don’t approve of their appraisal results.”

“Is this result closely related to the case?”

“Not really. Your father’s inheritance does not mention the preconditions that the inheritance gave you. You must be his biological daughter. Even if there is no result, you can win. The other party is just lingering.”

“Since you have said so, there is no need to be firm.”

“Livia, are you not going to figure it out a bit?” Lina held my face in both hands: “Are you going to be so confused?”

“Regardless of blood relationship or not, I’m still father’s daughter.”

“I see, are you brave?”

Lina is Lina, a stick can knock me to death.

Yes, I just have no guts.

I looked at her: “Do you really want to do it?”

“Really do it.”

“Well then.” My greatest strength, and perhaps the greatest weakness, is that it is easy to be persuaded by others. Simply put, I don’t have my own position.

Simon closed the information and stood up: “Miss Livia, I will go to court next Monday. I will meet you again before going to court. Also, if your DNA test results come out, you must report it to me. If it is not beneficial to this case , You don’t need to go to court.”

After he finished speaking, he nodded to Lina: “Lina, go.”

He talked to Lina and talked to me in a completely different tone.

Lina is an old friend’s attitude, and I am a kind stranger.

Simon walked out of the reception room, and I still looked at the empty door in a daze.

Lina pushed me: “Why does Simon ignore you?”

“How do I know?” I was frustrated.

“Catch up and ask for clarity!”

“Forget it,” I said.

“You are so mad at me, you’re so hard.” Lina grabbed my arm and ran out. She is a good athlete, with long feet and long legs. She is strong in sprinting as long as she is good at sports. Strong, invincible in college.

Long-distance running endurance is strong, I usually run 800 meters to die, she is indeed a proper marathon runner.

I was almost dragged by her. I ran to the elevator door and saw that Simon had just entered the elevator. She dragged me into the elevator again.

Simon didn't seem surprised to see us running in, and asked us calmly, "Go to which floor."

"Which floor to go, Brother Boat, should you explain why you see Livia like a stranger?" Lina approached Simon, supporting the elevator car with one hand, like the domineering president wall in a romance novel Dong silly and white sweet.

She is about the same height as Simon. I found that Lina seems to have grown taller again in the past two years.

"No, I just don't know how to call her, is it appropriate to call her Miss Livia or Mrs. Jade?"

I suddenly understood why Simon saw me so cold, could it be because I married Naven?

It's evil. When I was a child, I was young, but I also knew each other. The letter I wrote to him shamelessly said that I must marry him in the future, even if a world-class handsome guy rides a white horse studded with diamonds to marry me, I Will wait for him.

Thinking about it now, it's really slapped.

Lina is not an idiot, and he understands in the blink of an eye: "You mean Livia is married? She can't help it. Her black-hearted step-sister suddenly regretted her marriage, and the demon Naven went crazy and must take a flute. Family, so who won't Livia marry?"

When Simon looked at me again, his eyes were much gentler than before.

Lina glanced at him suddenly, then he opened the door and smiled and said to me: "You talk to you, I will continue to drink coffee."

Lina slipped out the door, and the elevator door slowly closed again.

I looked down at my toes, and Lina stepped on a large footprint on the creamy white upper.

"Livia." He finally stopped calling me Miss Livia: "Is that so?"

"I don't know I will marry like this." My voice is similar to the text hum.

"Uncle forced you to marry?"

"It's not a force. Dad let me choose by myself. But Naven is terrible. If I don't marry, I don't know what he will do. Naven threw me a contract the night before I got married and said it was one. Divorce after the year, I thought it was a contractual marriage, so I married."

I lowered my head and grabbed the corners of my coat, and suddenly I felt Simon's voice approach me.

"It turned out to be like this, raise your head, Livia."

I raised my head, Simon didn't know when he walked in front of me, I looked at him with my neck up.

The expression in his eyes became familiar to me again, and the coldness and disdain from before had disappeared.

He is the old handsome man.

He stretched out his hand and touched my hair. I saw the water in his eyes.

“Sorry, Livia, I heard the news of your marriage, so I just...”

“Understandably, if you beat gongs and drums with joy, I don’t know what to do.”

“Livia, you have grown up.” The corners of his lips raised slightly. He is the best-looking boy I have ever seen with a smile: “Before you only reached my chest, now it’s level with my ears.”

“I’m still the little one.”

“Are girls going to grow up to be the big and stupid Lina?” He smiled warmly, so Su, there was no sunshine in the elevator, but he felt that the sunshine and warmth of today are in his eyes.

“Brother Boat, I have been looking for you, but I have not been able to find you.” I murmured.

“I’m not in the UK, and then I went to country M.”

“Have you not received my letter to you? I was taken back to Ron’s house by my father later, and I told you my address.”

“I wrote to you, didn’t you receive it? I also told you about my going to country M.”

“I didn’t receive the letter.” I really didn’t receive it: “Dad went to country Y for business trips, I gave him the address to let him find you, Mira went to country Y, I also asked her to find you, but none was found.”

He looked at me pityingly, and his eyes suddenly became sad: “Dad died in a car accident in country Y. Mom was very sad and took me to country M to join my aunt.”

“Ah.” I didn’t know that such an embarrassing and heartbreaking thing had happened to Simon.

I don’t know how to comfort him, so I can only look at him stupidly.

He suddenly opened his arms to me: “Forgive my self-righteousness, can I hug you, Livia?”

Of course, God knows how long I have been waiting for this hug.

I plunged into Simon’s arms and hugged him tightly.

Chapter 44

I believe that some people remain the same.

For example, Simon, when I was a little girl, I was often tired of his arms. At that time, the feelings were innocent, and there was not much personal affection between children.

Later I learned that I liked Simon, and girls like boys.

But Simon had already gone to country Y. I later secretly told him in a letter that he might have left country Y at that time. I didn’t see it.

It turned out that his embrace has not changed, as warm and broad as ever.

He also hugged me tightly, and I buried my face in his suit.

He used to like to wear denim shirts with a nice smell of laundry detergent.

I like the roughness of denim shirts, it’s very lifelike.

The restlessness and restlessness of so many days disappeared immediately in Simon's embrace.

At this time, the elevator door opened, and I felt in a daze two people standing at the door.

But I didn't care. I didn't know which floor we went to. Anyway, I want to hold Simon like this, so I don't think much about anything else.

However, I heard a voice, and I suddenly trembled.

Because this voice is from hell, the kind of eighteenth floor.

"Livia."

I slowly turned my head in Simon's arms and slowly looked towards the door.

There were two tall men standing at the door, but I knew each other.

One is the jade-faced Ronfeilong Russel from Yushu Linfeng.

The other is the cold-faced and ruthless Hell Demon Naven.

I was short-circuited suddenly. I don't know why I was so unlucky to meet Naven here.

I was dumbfounded, and it took a long time to say: "Hi, such a coincidence."

"Don't introduce me?" Naven sneered.

I'm most afraid of seeing him sneer. It's okay when he is expressionless. Once he sneers, it really makes me feel cold all over.

“My lawyer Simon.”

“Oh, don’t you introduce me?”

“Uh.” I licked my lips: “Naven.”

“Ha.” He smiled happily, tilting his head to admire us: “Are you going to hold it so all the time?”

I realized that I was still in Simon’s arms. I took a step back and hit the car with my back. Simon quickly grabbed me and touched my back: “Does it hurt?”

Suddenly there was someone around me who knew the cold and the hot, and I shook my head with him: “It doesn’t hurt.”

Suddenly, Naven stretched out his hand to hold my wrist and dragged me out. I bumped my head on his chest. Naven’s chest was as hard as an iron plate, and my forehead was still a little swollen, so it hurts.

I yelled and covered my forehead.

“Livia, are you okay?” Simon’s voice.

Naven didn’t give me a chance to answer at all. He put his arm around my neck and turned to the parking lot.

It turns out that the elevator has been lowered to the underground parking lot.

I only heard Russel talking to Simon: “Hello, Lawyer Nate, you can rest assured that Mrs. Jade and Mr. Jade are safe.”

It turns out that Russel is also a super wise man. He used to call me Miss Livia, but now he calls me Mrs. Jade in front of Simon.

My neck was strangled by Naven and I was almost out of breath. He clamped my head to the armpit like a basketball. Fortunately, he didn't have body odor, or I would be smoked and mixed.

He held me and walked to his car, then opened the door and stuffed me in.

Then he climbed into the car and pulled the door hard.

When the lights were turned on in the car, I could see that he seemed very angry.

His car today is business and the back seat is very spacious.

I was pushed down on the seat by him, and he held the seat with both hands and looked at me condescendingly.

"Hold it tightly?" He was smiling again, grinning with white teeth, my goose bumps were all up.

"Don't say that, it feels like you are jealous." It is obviously impossible, but the appearance of his qi orifices is showing that he is very hot.

"What's your current status? Huh?" He asked me, "Have you heard Russel call you Mrs. Jade? Did you divorce me? No, you held Mrs. Jade's reputation so tightly with that little white face in the elevator, Do you think I should be happy?"

It turned out to be control desire. Anyway, I'm just like cheesecake. After it's baked, I have to print the bakery logo on my body, which means that it is his Naven's things and no one else can get involved.

I struggled out from under him and hid by the window: “Simon is my lawyer, he is not a little boy.”

“Need to hug so tightly with lawyers? Do you like the profession of lawyers so much? Do you want me to invite our Jade’s lawyer team over to give you a hug?”

I drooped my eyebrows: “We grew up playing with it.”

“Oh, it turns out that he is the childhood sweetheart you have been looking for.” Naven sat firmly, elbows on the window and looked at me in a particularly evil manner: “How do you feel when we meet again after a long time? I can’t bear it, in the elevator. Can’t wait to stay here?”

Where is it so dirty as he thought?

I retorted weakly: “It’s not the same thing in everyone’s mind when they meet.”

“What kind of thing?” He smiled lewdly, the diamond studs on his ears dazzling.

I have a guilty conscience and reason, so I dare not pick him up.

He suddenly stretched out his hand to pinch my chin: “Suddenly I feel that you look better today. Did you see your childhood sweetheart surging today and female hormones soaring?”

He is really low-interest, I don’t bother to care about him.

I was pretty good-looking at first. When I was a child, Nate’s mother, I was the president, taking the advantages of my parents, and my mother was very good-looking, she was a big beauty.

I freed my face from his palm, but my behavior seemed to irritate him, and he pressed me down as soon as I got out of the clutches.

“You still ask me, don’t forget. Anyway, you don’t have 10% of the shares to me now. I can put Lina in jail at any time.”

“The wound on the back of your head is about to heal. You don’t call the police for almost three days after the incident. What use do you think even if you call the police now?”

“I only found out now that you suddenly become sharp teeth? It is your love brother who suddenly came back, you have become beautiful and talkative?” He pushed me down on the seat, and suddenly his fingers pinched the silk inside my coat Neckline ribbon on shirt.

“Have the car shake tried? It seems not bad.”

“Naven, don’t mess around.” I struggled hard: “Is it the season for you to plant seeds? Why do you want to do that at all times?”

“You are my wife, I can sleep with you at any time reasonably and legally.” He pressed me with his leg, and then took off his coat and tie.

His untie action was savage, and he felt like he was going to be strangled to death.

He took off his upper body cleanly and then began to take off mine.

I won’t die today. I couldn’t hug Simon for a second because I just met Simon, and quaked with this animal car in the next second.

However, I am not as strong as him and not as perverted, what should I do?

I suddenly remembered that he still had a wound on the back of his head, so I slapped it hard.

Chapter 45

I got black hands and really hurt Naven.

He screamed, and then his face became very pale.

It seems that he is really in pain.

However, if I think he will let me go to the side to heal, then he is not Naven.

He is a pervert.

When the pain was like that, he pressed it down on me and bit on my neck with one bite, tears streaming out of my eyes.

Next, he did not continue to bite me, but sucked.

He is growing me strawberries!

I really want to kick him, but he is so powerful that I am not his opponent at all.

I think I have become a canvas, lying there and let him grow strawberries for me.

In fact, he didn't do anything to me next, he just got up from my body contentedly after filling my neck almost full, and then turned on the flashlight of the mobile phone to light my neck to admire his masterpiece.

"Well, yes." He nodded, "It's very beautiful."

I took out a small mirror and took a photo. The whole neck was covered in it. At first glance, it looked as scary as having leprosy.

I glared at him: "What are you doing?"

He was leisurely and leisurely: "I'm hungry, go to eat."

He climbed directly from the back seat to the front to drive, and then triumphantly told me: "Sit down and fasten your seat belt."

Where am I in the mood to eat with him? I said: "I'm not hungry, no more eating, you let me down."

"I want to eat, and I want you to eat with me." He started the car without saying a word, driving as fast as a cannonball shot out, and I had no chance to resist.

Naven is a barbarian. He never respects other people's ideas. He does whatever he wants. I can't wait to kick him to death behind him.

But, of course I can't kill him, and I have to worry about the side effects of not killing him, so it's best to be honest.

His car was driving too fast, so I had to fasten my seat belt, otherwise I was afraid I would be thrown out of the car by him.

Business can be driven like a chariot of fire. I really convinced him.

Lina's phone called, and she asked me on the phone: "Where have you been, Livia, brother Livia and I have arrived."

"What's here?" I was a little confused: "Did we have an appointment?"

“For dinner, Assistant Russel just said that you had an appointment with us for dinner, Wanguo Restaurant, we are here.”

Lina hung up the phone, and I suddenly understood why Naven was planting strawberries on my neck. He asked Simon again, which clearly embarrassed me.

He was revenge for Simon’s hug me.

Naven is such a stingy, so pitiful villain.

The smallest villain in the world!

I pierced Naven’s scolding in my heart, but he still drove up and down.

When he arrived at the restaurant, he jumped out of the car and opened the door, and suddenly reached out to me: “Go down slowly, don’t worry.”

His tone was so gentle, and I shuddered.

I hesitated for a moment or put my hand in his palm. A stingy person like him, if I don’t fall down the donkey, he is going to find a way to kill me in the future.

He held my hand and didn’t intend to let it go, and then he held it into the restaurant.

Lina and Simon were sitting by the window. When Lina saw Naven’s hand holding me, his face changed, and he kept winking at me, as if his eyes were cramping.

I also wanted to shake off Naven’s hand, but Naven squeezed my hand so hard, I couldn’t help it!

We walked to the table and Simon stood up. He saw the interlocking hands of Naven and I. I didn't dare to look at him and turned my face to the side.

However, Naven quickly squeezed my face and turned to Simon, and leaned over and k*ssed my cheek: "Just now I heard my wife said that I realized that Lawyer Nate was my wife's playmate when she was a child. Of course, I have to have a meal together. I heard that I just arrived in Rovandel last night, so this meal will be treated as a catch for you."

Simon didn't smile, but his tone was still polite: "Then thank you Mr. Jade."

"No need to call Mr. Jade so polite, call me Naven."

When did he become so approachable?

Naven is the most moody and uncomfortable person I have ever met.

We ordered each one from the menu. Lina hid his face behind the menu and asked me secretly: "What's the matter with your neck?"

How do I answer, put down the menu and pointed at it casually: "I want this," and then said to Lina, "Come with me to the bathroom."

Lina held my arm and we both ran all the way to the bathroom.

"Have you brought powder? Borrow me for it, and concealer."

She rummaged in her bag for the cosmetic bag, and simply threw the entire cosmetic bag to me: "What did Naven do to you? Has he been in estrus recently? Whenever he sees you, he will do it on you."

“He just planted strawberries for me, deliberately let Brother Boat see it.” I found Lina’s concealer and applied it to my neck. The concealing effect is quite good, much better than before, and it is not so shocking.

Lina helped me with powder, patted hard, it was a little painful.

I said: “You are gentle, Naven was very hard just now.”

“You can’t resist!”

“Do I also shoot him to death? You’d better be honest today, he has you filming his video, I beg him for a long time before he won’t sue you.”

“Just let him sue, my old lady, I will be a good man after a few years in jail.”

I wiped the powder, and suddenly nothing came out.

I hope that Simon will not see it. I told him just now that I and Naven are contractual marriages, and I don’t want him to think that I am the kind of watery woman.

“You said Naven is jealous, why do you want to ask Brother RonRon for dinner?”

“He is possessive. I am almost an accessory of him now. A car and a mobile phone. If you said that his car was driven away by someone else, can he not just let it go?”

“That’s what I said.” Lina put away her cosmetic bag: “It’s okay, I will cover you when the time comes, and then I will take the boat brother away when I have almost eaten, so as not to embarrass you.”

“Yeah.” I touched her face: “Joe, how can I live without you?”

“Then you and Naven divorce, marry me, and I will marry Brother RonRon. The three of us live happily together.”

“It sounds abnormal.”

“Then do you like it or not?”

“Really like.”

We laughed and bent over, and I felt sad again after we laughed.

Now, for me, divorce is beyond my control.

When Naven wants a divorce, I can leave.

We went back to the table, and the things I ordered were already here.

I was absent-minded just now, and only now I discovered that I ordered the Tomahawk steak, which weighed two catties, and I couldn't finish it alone.

Lina was excited: “I'll help you eat.”

“Well, I'll give you half.” I haven't picked up the knife and fork, Naven has already helped me pick up the knife and fork, and said to me thoughtfully: “I'll cut it for you.”

Naven helped me cut steaks for the first time.

He just let Simon see our sweet interaction and intentionally disgusted him.

It's disgusting to me anyway,

I wanted to kill him with the fork in his hand, but he had already dragged my plate over and creaked to help me cut the steak.

Cut a small piece and put it to my mouth: “Ah.”

Ah his dead head, let me first look at Simon’s face. He looked down and sliced his lamb chops as if he didn’t see it.

“Ah.” Naven said again.

Chapter 46

It seems that if I don’t eat this bite of steak, he will be endless.

I had to open my mouth, and he stuffed the beef into my mouth.

In fact, the beef is still very tasty, with a bite of gravy, the meat is tender and soft.

However, before I finished a bite, Naven cut another piece and handed it to my mouth.

I looked at him: “You eat yours, I can cut it myself.”

“I can only eat until you are full.” His smile was sweet and greasy, like butter cake.

“I thank you, but I can eat by myself.”

“I’m afraid you will cut your own hands.” Naven suddenly turned around and said to Simon: “I am here to cut steaks for our honey. I feed them personally, otherwise she won’t eat them.”

I squeezed his thigh and he immediately turned his head and stared at me fiercely.

I lip-synch with him: "Don't be like this."

He smiled happily, so he just got close to me and kissed my face: "Honey asked me to kiss again?"

I prayed deep in my heart, and the meal passed quickly.

I don't know what Naven's motive is and why he did it.

However, it can be seen that he is very happy and is not tired of doing this kind of thing.

He was very happy to see me embarrassed. This may be his motivation for doing so.

Simon speaks very little, but he does not speak when he eats.

Naven has been looking for topics: "Lawyer Nate's lawsuit was very well fought, and Mark's lawsuit you fought very beautifully. He has always tried to dig you and failed. Then I don't know if I can get a month by approaching the water tower. You are my wife's friend."

"I'm in Master's law firm now." Simon took a sip of water.

"No conflict, you can join our Jade's advisory group."

"I don't have to." Simon was neither humble nor overbearing. His eyes fixed on the fork Naven handed me, and he gently reminded him: "If you eat too much beef, you will be allergic, especially in the spring, so she has eaten it now. enough."

“She’s already healed. Maybe you haven’t seen each other for many years, and many things have changed.” Naven was really shameless enough to lie without blinking.

I do get allergic if I eat too much beef, and I feel uncomfortable.

I pushed away Naven’s fork: “Thank you, I’ll have something else.”

“Then eat my shrimp.” Lina immediately divided me two big prawns on her plate: “The grilled is so tender and delicious.”

I cut my head down and peeled the shell with a fork.

Naven is still talking awkwardly: “I don’t know if you have any interesting things before, let’s share it together.”

I thought Simon would not pay attention to him, but I didn’t expect Simon to answer him: “I told Livia that I will marry her when she is an adult.”

I didn’t expect that Simon would suddenly say this, and it would be hard in front of Naven.

I was shocked and I forgot to chew the shrimp bag in my mouth, staring at Simon dumbfounded.

He looked at me deeply and lowered his eyes: “I am very happy to see her today. I think the previous promise is about to be fulfilled.”

“Really?” Naven’s voice couldn’t be heard unpleasantly. He held his head with his palms and looked at me with interest: “It’s about to happen? Livia, am I going to die?”

I don't know how to answer him, and he smiled and said, "Now it's illegal for bigamy, unless I die, otherwise your childhood promise may not be fulfilled."

I glanced at Simon quickly, and shook my head with him.

He did not continue to say, put down the fork in his hand: "Thank you, Mr. Jade, for inviting me to lunch. I'm full. There is still something to be busy in the afternoon. I will leave first."

"Desserts are not served yet." Naven leisurely, rushed to the door and raised her head: "This shop is very strange. If you don't eat desserts, you can leave."

Simon and I glanced at the door at the same time. There were several strong men standing at the door, all of them Naven's bodyguards.

This person is really disgusting and funny, and I must force Simon to watch his self-directed and self-acted.

Naven was very happy, and suddenly stretched out his hand and wiped it on my neck: "Huh." He looked at his fingers: "Why do you want to cover it? Old couple, what's the embarrassment?"

Suddenly he picked up the wet towel on the table and wiped my neck. As soon as the towel went down, the little strawberries appeared.

Originally, Simon really didn't care about my neck. Now that Naven does it like this, he can see it thoroughly.

His face suddenly became very pale and his lips lost blood

I know how shocking my little strawberry with my neck is. Obviously, I haven't been in the elevator with him in the morning. He understood what had happened between me and Naven just now.

In fact, there is no such thing, but I cannot explain it too clearly here.

My face flushed immediately, which should have achieved the effect Naven wanted. He looked so happy.

“My wife is easily shy, like a little girl.”

I avoided Naven and leaned towards me, but he held me around my neck and held me in his arms.

Simon held the spoon tightly in his hand, and suddenly stood up on the table and picked up the clothes on the back of the chair: “I’m leaving first, Livia, we will contact you later.”

“Brother Boat, I will see you off.” Lina also stood up.

This time, the bodyguard at the door did not stop them, and Naven’s goal was achieved anyway.

I watched them walk out of the restaurant and pushed Naven away hard: “Okay, stop acting, Brother RonRon has already left.”

“What do you call him? Brother Boat? It’s disgusting.” He also thinks others are disgusting? Don’t know when you are disgusting?

I completely lost my appetite, pushing away the plate and trying to escape: “I’m leaving now.”

“Sit down, I haven’t eaten well yet.”

“You eat slowly.”

“If you take a step outside, I will put Lina in jail immediately.”

“You’re endless, plan to use this to threaten me forever?”

“If you can, it’s totally fine, it’s easy to use anyway.” He laughed really cheaply, and I hated him to death.

I bit my lip and had to sit down and cut the steak vigorously. He suddenly changed his plate with mine.

“What are you doing?”

“I don’t like fish.”

“Then why do you want fish?”

“Then why are you allergic to beef?”

I want to say that I am still mad at him, but I am too lazy to say it.

It just happened that I was not full, so I silently ate the sea fish that Naven ordered. It was actually delicious. The cod was tender and smooth, and the tuna was grilled on fire and was very fragrant.

I was almost full, but Naven was calling the waiter: “Come on with a dozen oysters.”

I think he is about to finish eating such a big tomahawk on his plate, and he has some oysters.

“Are you not full?”

“Not really, but a man will be more brave if he eats raw oysters!” He laughed, I squeezed my fork, and imagined what it would be like to have blood on his neck.

Chapter 47

I continued to sit in my seat and watched Naven finished a dozen oysters. He didn't even squeeze lemon juice, and threw it directly into his mouth, like a wild man drinking blood.

I eat raw oysters, but I don't eat raw oysters, at least they have to be roasted before they can be eaten.

After he finished eating, I felt so strong in my stomach, as if those steaks and oysters were eaten into my stomach.

After he finished eating, he stood up and walked away from me. Russel sat in the corner and then got up to pay the bill.

He didn't even look at me after he had used me.

I called Lina, and she said that she had just separated from Simon and he had to go back to the lawyer's office.

I asked her to come back to pick me up, but I didn't drive.

Then I walked to the door to wait for Lina, after a while she drove back, and I pulled the door and got into the car.

"He didn't say anything, right?" I asked fearfully.

"What can he say? Naven has acted like this, and everything I saw was panicked. Why did you say he did that? Is it because of jealousy? Doesn't he like Mira?"

"Of course it's not jealous. I was hugged by Simon Nate in the elevator. He saw him. Maybe he feels shameless and wants to get back."

“Well, it’s like Naven.” Lina nodded and turned his head: “Where to go? Or go to my house, stay a few more days.”

“Good.” Of course I don’t want to see Naven.

As soon as I answered, the phone rang over there, and it was from Russel.

I put it in my ear: “Assistant Russel, hello.”

“Miss Livia, please let Ms. Smith Xie take you back to Jade’s house. If it is not convenient for her, I can pick you up again.”

“Uh.” I was very depressed. Naven didn’t even call me if he wanted to imprison me.

I said, “I want to live in Lina’s house for a few days.”

“Mr. Jade rushed to the company for a meeting. He told me this is what he said. Why don’t you discuss it with Mr. Jade?” The implication was that what Naven asked him to do, he could only do.

However, Naven can’t afford to offend, and I also know that I shouldn’t embarrass him.

I hung up the phone and said to Lina, “You take me back to Jade’s house.”

“Why are you afraid of him?”

“The less trouble, the better.”

“Well, it’s up to you.” She turned the car off again, probably affecting the car behind, and the man leaned out of the car and shouted: “You treat the road as your home. You can drive as you wish. How to drive?”

Lina is a fire-fighting temper.

She opened the car door and jumped out of the car to quarrel with the driver: "I didn't say not to turn around on this road. I found out that I was walking in the wrong way and turned around. I turned on the light a long time ago. You didn't see it."

The man got out of the car too. I thought that Lina was a good deal for a woman, but when they got off the car, they stood together and found that he was a head short, Lina said to himself: "fu*k, so tall. ."

The man got into the car and left, after a victory, Lina returned to the car and continued driving.

I couldn't help but scold her: "Can you change your violent temper and explode at every turn. What if the other party is a big man with a big waist?"

"Then do it!"

"Hey, it's really worrying." I sighed.

"You make people worry, only you make Naven play around."

"Last time you desperately pushed me to Naven."

"At this moment and then, isn't Brother RonRon coming back? I'm so touched by what he said just now. He said he wants to marry you, so please marry him!"

I glared at him: "How do I marry? Naven will not let me go, how do I marry? Bring Naven to marry him?"

"You can be fierce to me." Lina gave me a blank look and drove the car fast.

Lina sent me to the door of Jade's house: "I'm too lazy to go in, so I'm here. You ask the Jade's security to drive you in a battery car."

Because the Jade family menion is still inside, you have to cross an artificial lake and a garden to get there.

"I see, you can go and contact me again."

I got out of the car and walked into the gate. I didn't find a security guard to send me in. It wasn't very far anyway. I just happened to be alone.

The sun is very good today, and gradually the spring sun has heat, and it is very warm on the hair.

I remembered the look Simon looked at me, as warm as the sun.

I was very happy to meet him, but the lunch at noon was really embarrassing.

I subconsciously reached out and touched my neck, really depressed.

Naven is my nightmare, the monster that will appear in my nightmare in the future.

Someone is playing basketball on the front basketball court. Because Naven likes to play basketball, a basketball court was built in Jade's garden. He usually plays in it alone.

It was a tall boy, wearing a thin jersey, with a sports headband tied to his head, and his hair was flying in the air when he jumped.

Seeing him floating in my mind is a word, youth.

Although he did not see his face clearly, he felt that he was very young.

Suddenly, the basketball slammed straight at me. I was just thinking about being stupid. I didn't even notice that the basketball flew over and hit me in the face accurately.

It hurts, with a bang, I suspect that my head is going to be smashed.

The basketball fell to the ground, and I subconsciously touched my neck, with my head still there, and touched my mouth again, fearing that my mouth full of teeth would be knocked out.

Fortunately, the teeth are still there.

The basketball boy ran towards me, his face flushed with fright: "I'm sorry, miss, I'm sorry!"

He is so tall, almost as tall as Naven, very young, white, with a pretty nose and eyes like stars.

Oh, if a boy like this is playing on a college court, there will be a lot of girls holding water in their hands and waiting for him to drink it!

Everyone's youth seems to have such a beautiful boy who can play basketball, and mine is no exception.

However, I always have Simon in my heart, so I was an insulator in college.

I rubbed my cheek, and he also reached out his hand and touched my face, his face was red: "I will take you to the doctor!"

"No, it's okay." I moved my chin and could still speak.

"Really all right?" He looked like he was relieved.

“It’s really okay.” I said.

“But you blushed a lot.”

“Is it broken?” I asked him.

“No.”

“Then it’s okay.” I laughed to him: “It doesn’t matter, you didn’t mean it.”

Only then did he relax his whole body: “Then I will give you a bottle of water to drink?”

“it is good.”

I walked to a big tree with him and sat down on a bench. He took a bottle of water from the ground and unscrewed the cap and handed it to me: “Clean, untouched.”

I smiled with him, picked up the water and took a sip.

It’s cool and refreshing.

“My name is Jade Jinyuan, Jinxiu, the abyss of the abyss, I was embarrassed just now.” He stretched out his hand to me.

His surname is Jade, is he from the Jade family?

What is his relationship with Naven?

I pay attention to his eyebrows, which are somewhat similar to Naven.

Isn’t he Naven’s younger brother?

I heard that Naven is not the youngest. He also has a younger brother, but it is also heard from ears that he did not come when we got married.

I watched him shake his head, but didn't notice that he blushed again and touched my finger.

"Miss, my name is Jade Jinyuan."

Chapter 48

Jade Jinyuan, a name I have never heard of.

But his eyes are so beautiful, as if flowers are in full bloom inside.

Why do some people's eyes can be filled with sunlight, and some people's eyes are full of flowers.

But Naven's eyes are full of hell fire.

"Miss, who are you? Do you live in our house?"

"Oh." I nodded: "Yes, it is now."

"You are," he blinked: "Could you be my third brother's newlywed wife?"

He is indeed Naven's younger brother, he is very smart, as smart as Naven.

I smiled with him: "Yes, my name is Livia."

"You are very young." He looked at me from top to bottom and came to such a conclusion.

"You are also very young."

He smiled and bared his white teeth: "I am 20 years old and I am studying in California."

"I am 23 years old and just graduated."

"Just graduated and married my third brother. Are you in a good relationship?"

"Uh." I didn't want to answer this question, and pointed at the sky: "Look, dove."

He raised his head, the sun shone in his eyes, and then he smiled: "Oh, there are pigeons in the sky in our house. I thought there would be no living creatures in our house except people."

"Yes, Xu Ma brought a big white goose last time."

"And then?" He looked at me.

"The goose soup was stewed in the afternoon."

He froze for a moment, then laughed.

He laughed happily, and I couldn't help but giggle with him.

I haven't laughed like this in a long time.

Don't think about anything, the kind of stupid one who laughs at something that is not very funny.

He laughed enough, and panted and told me: "Since I was young, no one is allowed to raise animals. I like dogs very much. I beg my mother to not raise them for a long time."

“why?”

“Because my mother has hairball allergy.”

“What is hairball allergy?”

“She doesn’t like animals that look like balls.”

“Then you can have a hairless cat.”

We knew each other was talking nonsense, but we talked very happily.

I haven’t talked such nonsense to others for a long time.

The short-term happiness of my handsome man and I was quickly broken by the big devil. I heard Naven’s voice on top of my head: “Jade Jinyuan.”

The handsome man raised his head, joy blooming in his dimples, he jumped up to hug Naven’s shoulders: “Brother three! You are back!”

Oh, Jade Jinyuan is still slightly shorter than Naven. For some reason, under the beautiful sunset, Naven in a black coat is still like a god of death or a messenger from hell.

When Naven and Jade Jinyuan hugged, it was obvious that the brothers had a very good relationship.

At the Jade’s house, finally there are two brothers who have good feelings.

There are two older brothers on Naven, but they are not very emotional. To be precise, Naven doesn’t pay much attention to them.

Naven is really the most boocious person I have ever seen. In Taiwanese, he is a very locomotive person.

I was about to slip away when they knew each other intimately, but Naven grabbed my wrist: "Did you introduce yourself to my brother?"

"It's over." His grip hurts me. Didn't he go to the company? Why did he come back so soon?

"Jade Jinyuan, let me introduce to you again. This is your third wife. You can call her third wife."

"I still know her name is Livia, can I just call her name?"

Naven rubbed his hair and smiled: "It's up to you."

Hey, I actually saw a petting smile on his face.

Rarely, there are still rare people in this world, which is really not easy.

Afterwards, they talked very happily, and I slipped back into the room.

Fortunately, no one asked me why I didn't go home these days, and no one asked me why Naven changed her hairstyle.

After dinner, I was going to sleep, and I heard the brothers playing basketball on the basketball court. The sound of basketball hitting the ground made me unable to sleep, so I got up and lay on the windowsill to watch them play basketball.

Naven also changed his jersey, with a black base and a red jersey. If he wears red hair, he will be mistaken for the Sakuragi Flower Road in the comics.

I don't like any sports. Those who play basketball only know Sakuragi Huadao and Yao Ming, oh, and Ruchuan Feng.

Naven's basketball posture is very handsome. I extremely suspect that he has been playing basketball in front of girls for too long, and he is deliberately playing handsome.

I just don't understand why there are girls standing around the playground with mineral water bottles watching boys playing basketball. Just a few hours after watching the boys play basketball. After watching them for a while, I feel disappointed. After seeing the sleepiness, I closed the window and climbed onto the bed. continue to sleep.

I woke up very late the next morning, and there was always the sound of banging basketball hitting the backboard in my ears.

I went downstairs for breakfast, and my sister-in-law and my second sister-in-law were also opposite me. I was actually quite afraid of meeting them.

Xu Ma asked me what to eat, and I said what to eat. She said that her relatives brought bait shreds from Yunnan and made a hot and sour shredded pork. I got my appetite when I heard it and said yes.

When I waited for my hot and sour bait to be on the table, I tried my best to lower my head and swipe the phone without looking up at the other two. As long as I looked up and met their eyes, I didn't know what they would say to me.

However, even if I didn't look up this time, I still heard my sister-in-law's voice calling my name: "Livia."

I can only raise my head and smile with her: "Sister-in-law."

“I heard that you are not Ron Yuan’s biological daughter?” The sister-in-law was eating red oil and cheating, her teeth were covered with red oil.

The sister-in-law never considers other people’s feelings when she speaks, or she just never considers my feelings.

How can I answer such a question?

I lowered my head again as if I didn’t hear it.

“Livia, I’m talking to you!” Sister-in-law tapped the tabletop with her soup spoon: “Then you are acquiescence?”

At this time, Xu Ma brought up my hot and sour bait: “Mrs. San, are you used to it?”

I took a bite, the bait shreds were very chewy and the soup was very fresh: “It’s delicious, thank you Xu Ma.”

“There is still in the kitchen.”

“Enough to eat.”

Xu Ma went into the kitchen after getting the bait. I hope she stays longer and talks with me for a while.

I was bored to eat, and the second sister-in-law was saying to her sister-in-law, “Sister-in-law, if you ask her, she won’t admit it, she just feels panicked for our youngest third. How can we marry a wild species?”

How much they despise me, they don’t even say such things behind my back.

I should be angry. I should have thrown the bowl in my hand at them, sprinkling them with hot and sour soup.

I quickly raised my head, they were indeed a little panicked, and subconsciously hid back.

I held the rim of the bowl in my hand, but I never picked it up.

Then I lowered my head again, and I heard the two obviously relieved and contemptuous voices: “What, do you want to tell mom? Let her sway the market at our Jade’s house?”

Chapter 49

Lina often said that my personality would kill her in a hurry. Sooner or later, someone would poop and pee on my head and I would still swallow.

In the last period of my mother’s life, she often took my hand and said to me: “Livia, my mother will not be there in the future, and I will return to Sang’s house with my dad. You must remember not to cause trouble to your dad. If you say something lowly, you should treat it as if you haven’t heard it, and be tolerant.”

I listened to my mother’s words very much and endured it all the time. Over time, forbearance became my character.

No matter how bad the other person is, I can bear it.

Now that I am at the Jade’s family, most people don’t wait to see me because of my identity in the Ron family, and I am also forbearance.

Lina said that I was a ninja, and I would commit suicide by caesarean in the future. I complained from beginning to end. After I died, I became a wandering spirit.

Sister-in-law and second-sister-in-law probably see me not refuting, and can endure such ugly words, and speak louder and louder.

“The third child is really blind, and he has chosen such a person.”

“Where is he a thousand choices, he is excluding Wushan, not a cloud, as long as it is not a flute poem, anyone will do.”

The two seemed to be covering their mouths and whispering, but they couldn't use loudspeakers to yell.

I tried my best to eat bait silk, and I was about to choke myself to death.

“Sister-in-law and second-in-law.” I heard someone's voice and looked up through the hair. Oh, it was Jade Jinyuan.

For the four young masters who have just returned, the eldest sister and the second sister-in-law still burst out extremely enthusiastic.

“Oh, Jin Yuan, got up so early? Come here to sit, Xu Ma, Xu Ma, hurry up and get the breakfast of the Fourth Young Master, what do you like to eat Jin Yuan? If you grow up in a foreign country, eat milk bread!”

“Who likes to eat every day? I'm a Chinese citizen who eats beef noodles. Today, the kitchen has stewed beef bone soup. You can try...”

Fortunately, Jade Jinyuan appeared in time, and the second sister-in-law changed her direction and ignored me.

I hurriedly took a few bites to get up, but Jade Jinyuan smiled and called me: “Livia.”

He didn't call me Sansao, but it didn't matter what he called me.

I smiled with him: "You eat slowly."

Then he ran out of the restaurant as if he had fled.

I don't know what I should do today, but I don't want to stay at Jade's house. Although I can shrink in my own room, I always have to eat lunch and face my sister-in-law.

I'm very scared of them now, so I'm even more unscrupulous.

As soon as I walked to the living room, the sister-in-law who was next to my grandmother came over and said to me, "Mrs. San, the old lady is in the Buddhist hall. You will have a stick of incense."

"Oh." The old lady believed in Buddhism. I used to have a stick of incense every morning and accompany the old lady to recite the Diamond Sutra. The old lady gave me a pamphlet, which I often recited and memorized.

The old lady praised me, saying that I was clever, had a good memory, and had a buddha relationship.

When I walked into the Buddhist hall, the old lady had just chanted the sutra, and I had incense, she took my hand and sat down and squinted at me: "My little Shengsheng is thin!"

Grandma always thinks that I am skinny, but I did lose a little meat these days.

"It's time to lose weight." I said.

"What kind of fat I lost? I was thin and now thin again." Grandma touched the back of my hand, her eyes were suddenly red: "Livia, what the outside world says is to ignore them, as well as the boss and the second family. Talking nonsense in front of you, see me tearing their mouths."

The old lady is really magical, knowing the world without going out.

“Actually, maybe it’s all true.” I whispered: “Grandma, if I were not my father’s daughter, would you still like me like before?”

“Oh, silly girl, even if you are not your father’s daughter, then your father must know, did he not love you because you are not his daughter? Hasn’t he been so good to you?”

The old lady is so insightful, and a single sentence brightens my heart.

I raised my head and looked at the old lady’s white and fat face: “Yes, Dad has always been very good to me, but what if he doesn’t know?”

“You mean your mother lied to him? Do you think your mother is that kind of person?”

I shook my head like a rattle: “Impossible.”

“That’s all right, Livia, don’t think too much, we were only worried about blood ties in that era. What age is now, you have to accept it, it’s nothing.” The rare old lady is open-minded.

I looked at her gratefully: “But, I, an unidentified person, entered the Jade’s house...”

“Bah, baah, who’s unidentified, you can’t be led away by the two long-tongued women from the boss and the second family. Don’t worry, I will let them shut up, so I won’t dare to talk in front of you.

After chatting with the old lady for a long time, the rag-like melancholy in her chest seemed to be taken away.

It turned out to be a disaster in my opinion, but in the eyes of others, it is nothing at all.

I was sitting in the Jade's garden, Mira called me.

She usually seldom calls. The last time she called was because of an accident with her father.

When I picked it up, I couldn't help but shake my hands. If Naven saw it, he would definitely laugh at me and say I was scared.

I connected and put it in my ear: "Second sister."

"Livia, Simon found it." Mira said.

I thought Mira would talk about the lawsuit when he called, but I didn't expect it to be.

I hurriedly said: "Well, I saw it, yesterday. He happened to be my lawyer."

Mentioned the lawyer, she just talked about this topic: "My mother and the others have always minded about Dad's will, and the DNA report made her very angry, so she went through the legal process. I knew Dad didn't want to Seeing this, I will persuade my mother during this time."

"Thank you second sister, I really don't want us to go to court."

"I try my best, but if it is really inevitable, you have to cheer up."

Mira comforted me and others comforted me differently. I was so grateful that I almost shed tears.

However, she didn't talk much, and soon said goodbye to me and hung up.

I continued to sit in the garden, but saw my sister-in-law and my second sister-in-law come out of the menion. They are all ladies and don't work. They usually go shopping and play mahjong, and they have a happy life.

I didn't want to run into them, so I got up and walked towards the gate.

But I didn't bring my wallet, only my mobile phone, and I didn't change my clothes. I didn't go far, so I could only stroll around at the foot of the mountain at the gate of the Jade family.

The Jade family is at the foot of a famous mountain in Rovandel, and the scenery is infinite.

The rich have the best resources, which is why everyone wants to be rich.

I walked slowly on the tree-lined path, and suddenly heard a small hum.

Sounds like a puppy or kitten moaning.

I pricked my ears to listen, I heard it right, it was really the sound of a small animal.

I followed the sound and walked into the depths of the woods, and saw a bunch of gray furry things staying there under a big tree. I didn't know what it was.

I walked over and squatted down, and the thing suddenly raised its head, revealing black grape-like eyes from the messy hair.

Oh, a puppy.

Chapter 50

It's really a puppy, because it's too dirty, so there is no way to tell what breed it is and how old it is, but listening to its hum, it should still be a small milk dog.

It looked weak, dying, was either abandoned or lost with his mother.

I stretched out my hand to touch it, but I was afraid it would attack me.

As soon as my hand touched its head, it squinted its eyes.

Oh, it likes me touching it.

It looked very hungry and kept arching into my palm.

But I don't even have a jelly bean, what should I do?

I picked it up, it is so light, if there is no hair, it would be a bone.

The little guy raised his head in my arms and looked at me blankly. It hurts to see how it looked.

I have always liked small animals. When I was a child, I met a porcupine with Lina on the mountain. I didn't recognize it as a porcupine, so I brought it back and kept it secretly. Only when it had grown a thorn did I know it was a porcupine. Mother scolded for a long time.

But this puppy is cold, hungry and dirty, and if you leave it alone, it will soon be starved to death.

The Jade family was right in front of me. I thought about it. Although Ms. Jade doesn't like small animals, I secretly took him back to bathe him and feed him something to eat, and then send him to the pet hospital. No one should know.

So, I sneaked into the Jade's house with it sneaking in my arms. As expected, no one noticed that there was a puppy hidden in my clothes. My luck was also better. I slipped into my room and no one noticed me. .

I didn't have dog food, so I went to the kitchen and asked Xu Ma to ask for a bowl of broth to put on the rice, and then cut a large piece of meat, sprinkle the chopped pieces on the rice, and smell it by myself.

Xu Ma didn't know what I was going to do, and she said to me with a look of trepidation: "Mrs. San, if you are hungry, I will make something for you. You make it like dog food."

It's not dog food, I slipped out of the kitchen holding a plate: "I like to eat this kind of food, no trouble."

The puppy is really hungry. As soon as my plate was placed on the ground, it ate with its head and snored, like a pig.

A whole plate of broth rice was eaten in five minutes, as if it was not full.

It's been a long time since I can't eat so full at one time. I was just about to pick it up and take it to take a bath. Suddenly someone knocked on the door of my room.

I hurriedly hid it under the bed, and then went to open the door.

It turned out to be Jade Jinyuan, and he was standing at the door smiling.

"Hi, Livia."

I don't understand why he doesn't call me Sansao every time, and I laugh with him: "Hi, what's the matter?"

“It’s okay.” He shrugged.

“Oh, then I have something, I will close the door first.”

However, he put his hand against the door: “Is it convenient for me to come in?”

“Inconvenient.” This kind of foreign grown-up children have no taboos. I am his sister-in-law anyhow, so it’s not convenient to drop by!

“what are you busy with?”

“fuss.”

He smiled. He smiled so beautifully, his eyes were as bright as stars: “Livia, I found out that you talk to me and your sister-in-law are not the same, why are you so afraid of them? They said so badly in the morning. You should scold it back.”

“Thank you for your generosity, I don’t like quarreling.” I started pushing him: “Please go out, I have something else.”

“I just saw you enter the room with a plate of broth and rice.” The dimples on the corners of his smiling lips were looming.

“Oh yeah, I didn’t eat enough in the morning.”

“Do you use plates to eat?”

“none of your business?”

“I know, do you have a dog?”

I was taken aback. Would he be so smart, he noticed it within ten minutes after I brought the dog back? “

“No.” I denied it.

His eyes froze over my shoulder, and I turned my head to look into my room, and saw the little dirty dog slowly crawling out from under my bed and coming towards us.

This time someone got stolen and got it. I lowered my head in frustration, grabbed Jade Jinyuan by the collar and dragged him in, then slammed the door.

He was very excited and ran towards the puppy: “Ah, puppy, it’s so cute.”

lovely? I really didn’t see that such a dirty puppy is a bit cute.

“It’s an ancient animal husbandry.” Jade Jinyuan held up the puppy and observed it for a moment and told me.

“Oh,” I haven’t studied the breed of dogs.

“Where did it come from?”

“I picked it up in the small woods at the door. Seeing it half-dead from starvation, I was afraid that it would come back to give it something to eat and take a bath.”

“Do you have a dog bath shampoo?”

I shook my head: “I plan to use mine.”

“That’s different. Dogs can’t use human shampoo. It will be bad for its hair and skin. Besides, it’s still such a little milk dog.” He stood up from the ground: “I’ll buy it, by the way. It has many items to buy, such as goat milk powder, dog food, drinking fountains, and shampoo,” he said.

“I just fed him a meal, took a shower and then sent it away.” I interrupted him.

“You found the next home for it?”

“That’s not the case, you can send it to the pet hospital.”

“The pet hospital charges a fee, and will not try to help you take care of it, and keep it in a small dark room all day long.”

“That can only be done.”

He looked at me bitterly: “You have no love.”

I hid such a small dirty dog in my clothes and brought it back to eat. He also said that I had no love.

“Just treat it as if you haven’t seen it, OK?”

“No, don’t you know that if you abandon it, it will die and it is very pitiful. It is so easy that you have to abandon it after a full meal, it is better not to pick it back.”

“What on earth do you want?”

He suddenly smiled into a flower, and I was caught off guard.

“Shall we adopt it?”

I was so scared that I choked myself with saliva. After coughing for a long time, he kindly helped me shoot.

“No.” I coughed to death. I held the wall with one hand and shook the other hand: “It’s absolutely impossible. Your mother doesn’t like small animals. Your family has never kept pets. You said it yourself. of.”

“Livia, our Jade family is so big, it’s just such a big little pudding. Who knows if we keep it at home?”

“No, it will be called and it will grow up.”

“No, no, I promise you that Gu Mu won’t grow up, it’s just that big, and it doesn’t like to call it. When it is in heat, we will take it for sterilization, okay?”

“Not good.” I flatly refused, I don’t know how many days I can stay here, I still have a dog?

“Livia, please.” The little boy would act like a baby, and he shook my arm with a bitter expression on his face.
