

Bodyguard 10001

Chapter 10001

However, even if it was not simple, selling out her teammate could only barely give her a chance to catch her breath. Once the Megalodon Shark swallowed Xia Tang, the plot would still be one-sided.

That was the truth.

In less than three breaths, the oppressive bloody mouth had caught up with ning Wanjun again, and at this time, the woman had no more teammates to sell, and could only watch herself fall into the mouth.

"No! I can't die!"

With a strong will to live, ning Wanjun suddenly burst out with an unprecedented speed and rushed out before the huge mouth closed.

At this time, she finally noticed Lin Yi.

Ning Wanjun's eyes brightened. She knew that Lin Yi's strength wasn't as weak as it seemed, so she changed her direction without hesitation and shot towards Lin Yi.

"Tsk, tsk, that woman has taken a fancy to you!"

In his mind, Jiang xiaoshang whistled excitedly. With his current behavior, he was like a Street bumpkin who had seen a beautiful woman. Who would associate him with the avatars of the gods?

Lin Yi didn't want to bother with him.

Ning Wanjun's intention to run towards him at this time was obvious. She wanted to use him as the second Xia Tang.

But Lin Yi didn't have any intention of dodging.

Seeing that Lin Yi wasn't running away, but was actually preparing to attack, ning Wanjun couldn't help but be surprised and happy.

Of course, she didn't think that Lin Yi was a match for a supreme class super sea beast, but it was a great thing to meet a reckless idiot at a time like this.

Lin Yi was going to die, but if he was strong enough, he might be able to cause some trouble for the shark.

As long as they could delay her for even a second, she was confident that she could escape.

Two kilometers ... One kilometer ... Five hundred meters ... Three hundred meters ... One hundred meters ...

The man and the shark were getting closer and closer, and Lin Yi's body seemed smaller than ever under the cover of the Megalodon's huge body.

"Goodbye, idiot."

Ning Wanjun and Lin Yi walked past each other.

Finally, at the last moment before the shark got close, Lin Yi threw out a palm without any fancy moves.

A giant Golden Palm suddenly appeared at the bottom of the sea.

When she felt the movement behind her, ning Wanjun subconsciously turned around and saw a scene that she would never forget.

The ancient Megalodon, which was over a thousand meters long, was slammed into the ground by a giant Golden Palm, and its huge body exploded into countless bloody pieces of meat.

The deathly aura that had been shrouding her since the beginning of the battle had disappeared without a trace.

The Supreme level mega-Teeth Shark was gone.

“.....”

Ning Wanjun was also a person who had seen many big scenes, but at this moment, her jaw dropped.

That was an existence on the same level as the Supreme realm!

He was actually instakilled by a single palm. Who the hell was this guy?

Thinking back to how she'd schemed against Lin Yi, ning Wanjun felt a chill run down her spine and up to her head, her whole body cold.

Luckily, she was cautious and didn't make a move directly, otherwise, with Lin Yi's strength, she wouldn't even have the right to make a move!

They fled.

Ning Wanjun didn't dare to hesitate any longer and quickly distanced herself from Lin Yi. Lin Yi's current image in her eyes was much scarier than the Supreme class mega-Teeth Shark.

"Did I say you could leave?"

Lin Yi's light words made ning Wanjun stop in her tracks.

She wanted to pretend she didn't hear him, but what if Lin Yi did the same thing to her and pissed her off? she'd be dead for sure.

Ning Wanjun forced a smile and turned around, ""What instructions does senior have?"

Senior?

Lin Yi couldn't help but laugh.

However, it was not surprising. He had killed a supreme class mega-Teeth Shark in one move. Such strength was definitely unfathomable in the eyes of others. In addition, his realm was only at the ultimate completion of a Big Shot. At this moment, in ning Wanjun's eyes, he was an old monster who was pretending to be a pig to eat a Tiger.

Even if he were to take the initiative to tell the truth, he would probably not believe it.

"You don't really think that's it?" Lin Yi said faintly.

Ning Wanjun's body trembled, and her pretty face revealed just the right amount of innocence, making one feel pity for her.

If he was a Virgin who had never seen a beautiful woman before, he might really be fooled.

"Senior, I don't quite understand what you're saying. Previously, I failed to recognize Mt. Tai and indeed offended senior, but that was purely out of good intentions to invite you to form a team. I really don't know where to start with the word" scheming. ""

As ning Wanjun spoke, her face was already covered in tears.

Her entire mood and even the details of her expression were on point. If she were in the entertainment industry, she would definitely be worthy of being called a teacher.

Lin Yi didn't move and looked at her like she was an idiot. "Do you think I'm the kind of person who would waste my breath on you?"

"....."

Feeling the killing intent coming from Lin Yi, ning Wanjun was silent and didn't dare to show off her little tricks.

It was a real killing intent.

She had no doubt that if she continued to act, the other party would immediately slap her.

Even the Supreme class mega-Teeth Shark died so miserably, and she, a half-step venerable, would have an even worse fate. Her little tricks were enough to fool the inexperienced little white, but when it came to Lin Yi, she'd only be humiliating herself.

Ning Wanjun didn't dare to play any tricks and said honestly, ""Senior, please tell me what to do. As long as it's within my power, I'll go through water and tread on fire without hesitation."

These words were still carefully thought out, but at least his attitude was much more proper.

Lin Yi looked at her indifferently. "Help me find another twenty sea beasts. I'll let bygones be bygones for what you did to me."

"Ha?"

This time, ning Wanjun was really stunned.

She'd thought that Lin Yi might ask her for anything, even asking her to sacrifice her body, but she didn't expect it to be this weird.

"I don't dare to disobey senior's orders," ning Wanjun said carefully. "But I really don't know how to find a super sea beast."

She really wasn't trying to avoid it.

In terms of conditions alone, this was much lower than the ones she had just thought of. At least she didn't have to pay anything substantial.

However, the problem was that she really had no idea how to find a super sea beast!

Come to think of it, if she really had the ability to find the Super sea beast, why would she provoke those terrifying existences?

He was hiding as far away as he could.

Lin Yi looked at her strangely. "Don't you know your own physique?"

"What kind of physique?"

Ning Wanjun's face was filled with confusion.

"You're born with a unique scent," Lin Yi said faintly, "it's very stimulating to the sea beasts. They'll be attracted to you if they're within a hundred miles."

Ning Wanjun was dumbfounded, "how is this possible?" I've already used the pill to cover my body odor!"

Chapter 10002

The moment he said that, his face turned red.

She was indeed born with a strange fragrance, but this kind of strange fragrance was too strong for ordinary people, and many times it could even be called pungent, so she had the habit of using medicinal pills to cover her body smell since she was young.

Now, even the people closest to her could hardly sense anything strange about her.

She didn't expect Lin Yi to expose her right in front of her face. From a certain perspective, it was no different from digging up her dark history. Even with her cold and Black-bellied heart, she couldn't help but feel embarrassed.

Ning Wanjun stole a glance at Lin Yi-what kind of nose was that?

In fact, it wasn't Lin Yi who noticed it, but Jiang xiaoshang.

The official scientific name for her physique was the body of fragrance. The higher the cultivation level of the sea beast, the more obvious the stimulation would be. If she was placed at the bottom of the sea, she would be like a divine artifact that could blow up a pond.

Of course, such an effect was not good for her or her companions.

The Supreme class Megalodon just now was a living example of what would happen if a super sea beast was blown out.

But to Lin Yi, it was a benefit.

It was not that he was perverted and naturally liked to attack these super sea beasts, but the moment he killed the Supreme class mega-Teeth Shark, he suddenly received an unexpected surprise.

One point of faith in the sea god.

"Every single one of them is born from the fate of the sea realm. Their existence is the foundation of the sea goddess Hall's control over the sea realm, and because their intelligence is limited, they're born with the belief in the sea god, so they all have some faith in the sea god."

This was Jiang xiaoshang's original words.

A little faith didn't seem like much, but with Lin Yi's special nature, he could directly convert it into control of the laws of the ocean!

At this moment, his control over the ocean's laws had already increased to 6%!

Even if each of the Super sea monsters only had one faith point, the ruins of the Empire were so huge that there were plenty of them hidden everywhere. As long as he was willing to spend some time farming them, it would not be difficult to farm them up to more than 20%.

Especially with Ning Wanjun, the human-shaped bait for fishing for the Super sea beasts, it was even more effective.

Of course, the premise was that they could not provoke a super sea beast of too high a level. Otherwise, let alone farming for sea God's faith, even their survival was unknown.

Ning Wanjun was conflicted.

She wanted to reject it-she wasn't a psycho like Lin Yi, after all. She'd have to run away from any sea beast she came across, and even getting out of it depended on luck. Why would she risk her life and fish for those beasts?

This wasn't the way to play with one's life.

"Senior, it's not that I don't want to cooperate, but I'm too weak to do so,"

Ning Wanjun bit the bullet and said.

"You don't want to cooperate?" Lin Yi asked. It doesn't matter. It's your body that's at work anyway, so it doesn't matter if you're Dead or Alive. I'll kill you first and then use your body to fish. "

"....."

Ning Wanjun looked at him as if she was looking at a demon.

Was this even human language?

Seeing Lin Yi's killing intent gathering again, ning Wanjun immediately recognized the reality,""It's my honor to be of service to you, senior. I'll definitely cooperate and contribute my meager strength to your great fishing career. "

"You don't have to force yourself," Lin Yi said, looking at her."I'm actually quite an easy person to talk to.

Ning Wanjun said righteously, "I'm not forcing you at all. In fact, I also want to try the effects of my own physique. It's all thanks to you, senior, for giving me such a good opportunity. I can only be grateful."

"As you wish, then."

Lin Yi was easy to talk to, as expected.

And so, the two-person Fishing Team set off.

Strictly speaking, although the number of supersea beasts was not small, they were built in the sea, which was ten times the size of the land. In terms of population density, they were not very dense. In fact, they were very few.

After all, that was a terrifying existence that started at the Paragon rank. They were not cabbages that could be seen everywhere on the side of the road.

Even in the ruins of the Empire, which was theoretically the best habitat for super sea beasts, it was rare to see one within a hundred miles. Most importantly, many of them were hidden very deeply, some even in a dormant state, and could not be detected easily.

If it wasn't for ning Wanjun, the natural bait, Lin Yi wouldn't have been able to find one even if he searched for a whole day.

Fortunately, ning Wanjun's presence greatly improved his efficiency.

He didn't need to waste his energy searching-as long as there were sea beasts in the area, ning Wanjun would wake them up. This was a hundred times more efficient than Lin Yi alone!

It had only been two days, and other than the Supreme class mega-Teeth Shark, Lin Yi had killed a total of seven sea beasts, earning ten faith points.

His control over the sea God's laws had suddenly risen to sixteen percent!

Even Lin Yi himself felt that the speed of improvement was ridiculous.

Although it was not as good as harvesting top-grade leeks like ye Tianbei 's, it was already ridiculous enough. Most importantly, top-grade leeks like ye Tianbei's were not easy to find, but there were plenty of super sea beasts in the ruins of the Empire.

At this rate, let alone 20%, even breaking through 30% would not be a problem.

Of course, even though it sounded simple, it was quite difficult to actually do it.

After all, every single one of them was a Supreme realm existence. With Lin Yi's current strength, he could easily deal with the weakest early yellow venerable, but it'd be a tough battle against a peak early yellow venerable.

In fact, he had encountered more than seven super sea beasts in the past two days. There were more than ten of them. However, those targets that he was not confident in had all avoided.

Even so, ning Wanjun, the human bait, was still frightened, and her heart was in her throat several times.

If Lin Yi didn't pull her into the new world at the last minute, she would've been turned into the Super sea beast's excrement.

However, after these two days, ning Wanjun's attitude towards Lin Yi had become more and more respectful.

Before this, she thought that Lin Yi was strong, stronger than most half-step Venerables, but she didn't really think that he was much stronger than her. At most, it was only a difference of one and ten.

They were on the same level, but it wasn't to the point of despair. At least among the Masters she knew, there were some who were no weaker than Lin Yi.

However, seven Supreme level super sea beasts had been killed in a single move. No matter how much ning Wanjun deceived herself, she realized that the gap between her and her opponent was not one to ten, but at least one to ninety-nine!

In name, the difference was only one order of magnitude, but in fact, the gap between the two sides was infinitely close to two orders of magnitude!

Chapter 10003

In a real battle, the difference was like the difference between heaven and earth. No matter how hard she tried, no matter how many schemes she used, she would only be slapped to death in a fight.

This might not even be Lin Yi's full strength.

In the beginning, Ning Wanjun still had the thought of taking advantage of the chaos to escape, but now, she had already taken the initiative to strangle this ridiculous idea.

Once Lin Yi's killing intent was triggered, only death would await her.

Her only thought right now was to fulfill the promise and find twenty sea beasts for Lin Yi. She didn't dare to think about anything else.

"This woman is quite smart."

Jiang Xiaoshang, who was watching the commotion in his mind, gave a pertinent comment. He then asked curiously, "When she finds twenty sea monsters for you, will you really let her go just like that?"

"Of course, I'm a man of my word," Lin Yi said naturally.

He paused and then added, ""But if she's in danger and needs my help, then I'll have to pay her another price."

"....."

Jiang xiaoshang held it in for a long time before finally saying, ""You are indeed an honest and reliable young man."

Lin Yi smiled, not thinking much of it. He had long passed the stage of following the rules, especially in the face of someone like ning Wanjun, who wasn't a good person. If he was too honest and kind, he would be the one at a disadvantage.

At this moment, another voice suddenly sounded in his sea of consciousness.

"Lin Yi, from now on, I'll be able to contact you one-way every day, and I'll provide you with real-time information."

Lin Yi blinked. The voice belonged to hai Wutian, who was guarding outside the ruins.

"There are a total of 116 participants. 17 have been eliminated and lost contact. There are 99 people left."

"Because the area of the Empire's ruins is too large, you may not be able to find anything even if you try your luck for eight to ten years. Therefore, the Lord seagod will regularly send down divine instructions to help you mark the area where the sea crown is located."

"This is the map of the ruins of the Empire that I spent a lot of money to get. I've already marked it. Take a good look."

With that, a huge map appeared in Lin Yi's sea of consciousness, marking out an area.

Lin Yi was speechless.

In order to fish for the supersea beasts in the past two days, he had covered quite a lot of places. However, when compared to this map, the area he had explored was insignificant. It was not even one-ten-thousandth of the area!

In comparison, the area that was circled out was much larger.

By rough estimation, it would take at least a year and a half to explore that area carefully!

"You'll head towards the designated area. After that, every time the Oracle comes, the area will continue to shrink. Of course, if someone is lucky enough to find the sea crown early, then it'll end early."

"I hope your luck won't be too bad."

Hai Wutian had full confidence in Lin Yi's strength, but it was clear that luck played a big part in this test.

It could even be said that luck would be the deciding factor before the designated area was narrowed down to a certain extent!

But Lin Yi didn't think so.

In this situation, luck was important, but strength was still the dominant factor.

At this time, Ning Wanjun had also received the news from the outside world, and she suddenly asked, ""Senior, you're so powerful, it would be a pity if you don't fight for the position of Sea King."

Lin Yi looked at her with a half-smile, "This is different from what you said in the beginning."

Ning Wanjun shook her head and said, "If I only had this little bit of strength, it would naturally be a wild wish to obtain the Sea King. Even if I were lucky enough to get the sea crown, it would be a disaster and not a blessing. However, it's different for an expert like you, senior."

We might not be able to secure our positions, but with your strength, it's nothing.

Once he can sit firmly, the benefits involved behind him are astronomical. After all, that's the king of the coastal waters, a position with real power that is ranked among the four Seas!"

"The sea crown isn't something you can find with your strength alone," Lin Yi said faintly. "I'm not confident in my luck. "

"To a certain extent, it does require luck. However, with senior's strength, you can actually reduce the element of luck to the lowest!"

Ning Wanjun lowered her voice. "As long as we kill the other trial-takers we meet along the way, then luck will not be so important. After all, if you are the only trial-taker left, then all the luck is destined to be yours."

This was a Devil's suggestion.

"So you're saying that I should kill you too?" Lin Yi looked at her with a deeper meaning in his eyes.

"I'm not a threat to you," ning Wanjun said unhurriedly. "Besides, I'm still of some value to you."

As someone who was used to the evil in people's hearts, she knew that Lin Yi wouldn't let her go so easily.

Even the best-case scenario would be him being Lin Yi's tool until the end of the test.

If anything went wrong in the middle, it was very likely that she, as a human bait, would be abandoned directly and buried in the mouth of the Super sea beast.

She was naturally unwilling to accept such a fate.

Since she couldn't escape in the chaos, the only way she could think of was to increase her value in Lin Yi's eyes.

As a Pretty Woman, she thought that she was quite valuable, but Lin Yi didn't buy it at all. She could only settle for the second best and become Lin Yi's dog-head advisor.

She had some confidence in her own intelligence.

"Just do your job," Lin Yi said noncommittally.

Ning Wanjun suddenly felt like she had hit a ball of cotton. She thought that after pretending to be a little woman for two days, the other party would at least let down his guard against her.

According to her past experience of playing with men, even if Lin Yi didn't fall for it on the spot, he would be tempted, giving her a chance to take advantage of him.

He didn't expect this to be the result.

In the following days, Lin Yi continued to head towards the area hai Wutian had marked out, fishing all sorts of super sea beasts at the same time to increase his faith.

As his control over the laws of the ocean continued to increase, his movements at the bottom of the ocean became more and more like a fish in water. Compared to when he was on land, not only was he not weakened, but he was even slightly stronger.

In just one day, he had once again gained nine points of faith in the sea god and increased his control over the laws of the ocean to twenty-five percent!

"This feeling ... Is a little exaggerated ..."

Feeling the surging ocean rule power in his body, Lin Yi couldn't help but be more excited about his next upgrade.

Similar to the rules of bestification, although the rules of the sea were only level two rules, their destructive power was not inferior to some top-notch rules. In particular, their ability to kill in a large area could be said to be unparalleled.

Chapter 10004

Not to mention other things, if he were to encounter the dark Beast tide again, a super huge tsunami would be able to tear the entire Dark Beast tide into pieces!

The key was that this was far from the limit of his improvement.

Just as Lin Yi finished taking care of the Supreme level king squid and was about to head to the next fishing spot, a group of people suddenly blocked his and Ning Wanjun's path.

They came with ill intentions.

"What a coincidence. It seems like we are really fated."

The leader of the group was a young man who looked like a pampered son of a rich family. He had a rather graceful and luxurious aura. Although the people around him were all powerful existences at the half-step Supreme realm, their attitude towards this person was obviously respectful.

It was clear that he had a powerful background.

Ning Wanjun's eyes twitched, and she turned to look at Lin Yi.

But Lin Yi didn't even want to talk to her—he just stood there with a blank face, not even giving her a sense of presence. She wouldn't have realized how dangerous this guy was if she hadn't seen him so many times before.

The people on the other side were naturally even more unaware.

Their focus was on Ning Wanjun. At least on the surface, she was a half-step venerable, and one of the stronger ones!

As for Lin Yi, he was just an ordinary giant at the peak of the final stage. He wasn't worth their attention.

However, when he saw Ning Wanjun's subconscious reaction, the young man's eyes were filled with anger. He said coldly, "Unrelated people better get lost. Otherwise, you can only blame your own bad luck if you get caught up in this."

But Lin Yi didn't move.

Looking at his carefree expression, it was as if he didn't realize that the words were directed at him.

Ning Wanjun suddenly broke into a smile. "Lover boy, why do you have to make such a big fuss? It's fate that we met, and we used to be friends. Although we've parted ways now, it's only because we have different ideas. You don't have to be so distant, do you?"

"Different ideas?"

The young man known as the lover boy could not hide his anger. "What a good idea. You're just a cheap slut who has tasted red lips and yet you have the nerve to talk to me about ideas. Your idea is to hook men as your stepping stones, and when you're done using them, you'll just kick them away, right?"

With that, he turned to Lin Yi as if he was a pitiful worm. "You still don't know what she has done in the past, right? Hehe, I'll show you mercy and teach you a good lesson."

According to my incomplete statistics, there were no less than 300 men who were tricked and played by her. The ones who ended up the best were cheated to the point of bankruptcy, while the ones who ended up worse died without a complete corpse.

If I'm not wrong, she's preparing to use you as bait for hard labor. When the time comes, she'll use you as cannon fodder to feed those supersea beasts that are hiding somewhere.

Kid, you're already a dead man, do you know that?"

Lin Yi was confused.

Ning Wanjun's expression was even more interesting. She really did think that way from the start, but the truth was the exact opposite. She was risking her life to be Lin Yi's bait ...

Ning Wanjun's face turned cold. "Lover boy, don't you slander me and blame me for all the dirty things you've done. You're too ungentlemanly. You've harmed more than a thousand women. Otherwise, how could you have such an elegant name?"

The lover boy sneered. "It's true that I'm a Playboy, but I've never thrown away people as scapegoats. In terms of viciousness, I'm afraid I'm not even one-ten-thousandth of you!"

The more Lin Yi listened, the more ridiculous he thought it was.

Neither of them were good people. The only difference was that one played with women, while the other tricked men. The crow sat on the coal, so no one could say who was black.

However, according to his tone, this lover had probably suffered quite a bit because of Ning Wanjun.

To a certain extent, it could be said that the wicked had their own wicked ways.

However, perhaps because she was worried about his presence, Ning Wanjun did not fight to the end with the other party. Seeing that the other party was pestering her, she simply ignored him.

Ning Wanjun turned to Lin Yi and smiled apologetically, "I'm sorry, I've embarrassed myself. "

Before Lin Yi could reply, the lover boy couldn't hold back his anger anymore.

"I say, why are you so restrained today, you slut? it turns out that you haven't tricked anyone yet, have you?"

Lover boy looked at Lin Yi coldly. "Your taste is getting worse and worse. This stupid guy doesn't have any background, and he's a piece of trash in terms of strength and looks. I'm curious what you're after."

The jealousy in her words made Lin Yi choke.

She was the epitome of an ex-boyfriend who didn't want to be dumped, and Lin Yi couldn't help but feel curious. It seemed like Ning Wanjun's methods of dealing with men weren't that simple.

Of course, it could also be that the other party was used to taking advantage of women, and it was not strange for him to have an obsession after being killed by the woman.

Ning Wanjun was afraid that Lin Yi would be angry, so she quickly explained, "There's nothing between me and senior, don't you slander me!"

"Senior?"

Lover boy was stunned for a moment, and then he said sarcastically, "In order to bait someone, you really put in a lot of effort. You actually dare to call this kind of trash senior?"

What was even more ridiculous was that this kid actually believed it?

What are you thinking, kid? don't you know how much you're worth?

You actually dared to respond to her call? Don't you usually pee?"

The crowd burst into laughter.

One person might have made an error in judgment sometimes, but there were so many of them here. The possibility of all of them making an error in judgment was very low. To be precise, it did not even exist.

One had to know that there were not only half-step Venerables among them, but one of them had the power to skip a level!

Ning Wanjun thought that Lin Yi would fly into a rage, and she wasn't afraid at all. Instead, she was looking forward to it.

The lover boy on the other side was not a small threat to her. If he was alone, it would be fine, but this person had a deep background. Just the strong force behind him was enough to recruit top masters. She really could not deal with him alone.

If she could get rid of him with Lin Yi's help today, it would be a great benefit to her.

However, to her surprise, Lin Yi didn't move at all!

A master couldn't be humiliated, and as far as she knew, it wasn't unusual for someone at Lin Yi's level to go on a killing spree if he didn't get a good word out.

After all, at the level of the Supreme realm, the various restrictions of the secular world were extremely light. They had the feeling of returning to their original simplicity as they pleased. Killing people, especially those who were blind and weak, was just a matter of thought to them. They would not consider too much.

Not to mention that the other party's insult was practically stepping on his face!

Chapter 10005

But Lin Yi's reaction was calm, as if the words weren't meant for him at all.

"Could it be that he's preparing to play the pig to eat the Tiger again?"

Ning Wanjun suddenly had a flash of understanding.

She realized that she might have been wrong-her lover boy's words might have sounded harsh to her, but not to Lin Yi.

After all, to a real elephant, no matter how much the ants clamored, they would only find it funny and would not be affected by it at all.

That was the truth.

Lin Yi was watching her fight with the lover boy, and it was like watching a monkey show. It wasn't easy to anger him with his level!

However, in the eyes of the other party, his behavior had a different meaning.

"He's actually a turtle hiding in his shell. He's indeed a good-for-nothing!"

Lover boy cursed and couldn't be bothered to look at Lin Yi anymore. He turned back to Ning Wanjun, "But the matter between you and me will have to be settled sooner or later. Since we've met today, you can only count it as your bad luck.

For the sake of our past relationship, I'll give you two options now.

The first option is to obediently surrender and become this young master's plaything. Perhaps after a few years, when this young master is tired of playing with you, I might consider setting you free. "

Ning Wanjun interrupted him calmly, ""Stop talking nonsense. I choose the second option."

The lover boy's face suddenly changed. "You refuse a toast only to drink a forfeit!" He said.

Although he hated ning Wanjun to the core, he had always had an obsession with her.

With his status and means, he could get any woman he wanted. Only ning Wanjun, who didn't look very outstanding on the surface, had caused him to encounter an unprecedented defeat.

From the beginning to the end, he had been cheated of all kinds of resources, and the key was that he had not even touched ning Wanjun's hand, let alone put her into his room. It was equivalent to being given to him for free.

Who couldn't endure it!

If he could not get what he wanted from ning Wanjun, he was afraid that it would leave a knot in his heart for the rest of his life. In the worst case scenario, he might even go into Qi deviation and never have any further progress, let alone advance to the Supreme realm!

A half-step venerable beside him stood up, " "Lover boy, since this woman doesn't know how to appreciate kindness, then don't be polite with her. Wait until I beat her into submission, and then you will personally teach her a lesson. Wouldn't that be a wonderful thing?"

"Thank you for your trouble, brother Zhang Heng," the lover boy's eyes lit up.

Ning Wanjun's strength was not to be underestimated. If it was an ordinary half-step venerable, they might not be able to take advantage of her.

However, Zhang Heng was definitely an exception.

Among the half-step Venerables, ning Wanjun could be considered a first-class expert, but Zhang Heng was a top-notch existence.

He had once witnessed his opponent take on a super sea beast head-on without being at a disadvantage. Although he didn't manage to kill it in the end, that alone was enough to look down on all half-step Venerables.

After all, no matter how weak a super sea beast was, it was still a Paragon!

Thinking about it, the reaction of ning Wanjun and the others when they saw the Supreme realm Megalodon, they did not have the slightest intention to fight it. It was enough to show the huge gap between half-step to-be and Supreme realm!

"It's nothing. "

Zhang Heng chuckled and attacked ning Wanjun.

Ning Wanjun's eyes twitched as she subconsciously looked at Lin Yi, but Lin Yi was still unmoved and had no intention of helping her out.

Zhang Heng's body flashed, and ning Wanjun had no choice but to retreat.

Although she had never fought him before, she had heard of his name. Besides, she could tell that she was no match for Zhang Heng as soon as he made his move, even if it was just his aura.

This fellow had the strength of an initial stage Supreme realm cultivator!

But even so, the scene did not directly become completely one-sided.

Although ning Wanjun was at a disadvantage, her defense was flawless, and she managed to avoid many of the powerful moves.

As for the remaining violent attacks, although the scene looked very dangerous, and ning Wanjun's body began to be injured, anyone with eyes could see that these were the injuries she took on after weighing the pros and cons, and it was far from the point of serious injuries.

"You're a smart woman indeed!"

Lin Yi nodded.

If ning Wanjun only defended, she would be defeated sooner or later. After all, the difference in strength between the two was obvious.

However, it was simply a fool's dream to replace defense with offense.

Zhang Heng's strength was enough to suppress ninety-nine percent of half-step Venerables, and it was impossible for him to give her any chance to defend. Moreover, if he really did give her a chance, it was 100% a deliberate opening. If ning Wanjun were to take the bait, she would die without a doubt!

Only this kind of small injury in exchange for rhythm could be sustained.

Although as time went on, the accumulation of minor injuries would eventually lead to death, this strategy could at least last longer.

It was better to die later than earlier.

Moreover, this kind of slow suicide in theory might not be completely hopeless in reality.

After all, humans were emotional creatures. No matter how high a cultivator's realm was, there would still be times when they would be dominated by emotions. Once emotions got to their head, it was often the beginning of a change!

As expected, the battle between the two of them lasted for 30 minutes. Although Zhang Heng did not show any signs of it on his face, he was in fact a little impatient.

This was reflected on the battlefield. His attack rhythm had clearly become much fiercer!

At first glance, Ning Wanjun's situation seemed even more precarious, as if she would be swallowed up by the other party's attacks at any time, and the injuries on her body were also rapidly increasing at a visible rate.

But in fact, compared to the flawless attack at the beginning, her current situation was much better.

At least, she wouldn't be out of breath from the beginning to the end and eventually suffocate to death. Although it was dangerous, she already had the possibility of waiting for an opportunity to counterattack.

As long as there was a chance, she would have a chance of winning!

"If this woman can grow up, she will be extraordinary in the future."

Jiang Xiaoshang's interested voice sounded in Lin Yi's mind. He was observing Lin Yi's new world every day, and he knew Lin Yi's strength the best.

Even though he was mentally prepared for the perverseness of ancient God practitioners, he was still shocked by Lin Yi's improvement speed!

He'd thought that even if Lin Yi could make a name for himself, it'd take at least a thousand years-he'd even prepared to hibernate for a thousand years.

But at this rate, he'd be able to reach God state in less than a hundred years!

This was more than ten times faster than he had expected!

Therefore, some things had to be arranged in advance, such as the apostles.

Chapter 10006

Jiang xiaoshang suggested,"talents are hard to come by. Why don't you take her in as your Apostle? when you've improved, you can even make her your advisor."

"An Apostle?"

"You think so highly of her?" Lin Yi raised a brow.

The Apostle was the exclusive servant of the venerable. To the venerable, it was equivalent to The Walking of the gods to the gods. It was a strict relationship of interests.

Although in theory, the venerable controlled the life and death of the Apostle and had the absolute initiative in the relationship between master and servant, in reality, the apostle's every move would constantly backfire on the venerable.

If something happened to the Apostle, the venerable would be greatly affected, even if it would not harm his vitality.

Moreover, unlike the gods who could freely choose dozens or hundreds of their advisors, each venerable had a very limited number of apostles. One used meant one less. To a certain extent, this was like an official position in the Imperial court. It was a rather precious core resource.

Therefore, he had to be careful when choosing his apostles.

Jiang xiaoshang explained, "you do have a lot of good seedlings under you. Even in my eyes, a few of them have frightening potential. However, if you want to be promoted, you can't just have clean people under you. You also need people who do the dirty work for you. After all, no God can leave a stain on their reputation."

"One Wei baizhan isn't enough?" Lin Yi frowned.

Wei baizhan's strength was strong enough, and he had enough potential. In addition, he had a natural villainous aura, so he was the perfect candidate for doing dirty work.

In fact, Wei baizhan had already taken up the responsibility in this aspect.

He wasn't as powerful as Shen Yifan, and he wasn't Lin Yi's most trusted subordinate like du Wang she or Yan Zhongyuan.

But anyone with eyes could tell that Lin Yi valued this man a lot-he'd definitely be one of the most important people in his team in the future!

Jiang xiaoshang laughed."Of course it's not enough. You're going to be an ancient God in the future. How can you only have one underling doing dirty work? you have to at least have a complete system.

Wei baizhan can be a great general, but he alone is far from enough. You need more ruthless characters who can take on great responsibilities. If you can make good use of this woman, she shouldn't be much worse than Wei baizhan.

Of course, this is just a suggestion. It's up to you whether you want to listen to it or not. "

Lin Yi fell into deep thought.

He didn't have much of an opinion of ning Wanjun. Although she had schemed against him from the beginning, she didn't calculate anything in the end. Instead, she had been dragged along by him as a human bait for so long, and had escaped death several times.

He was really a pitiful person.

As for ning Wanjun's way of doing things, Lin Yi didn't comment as a bystander.

It couldn't be said to be good or bad. After all, this was the general trend in the cultivation world. If you don't eat, others will eat you. Everyone had their own way of survival. As long as they didn't provoke him, he wouldn't be so bored to the point of meddling in other people's business.

However, if he really wanted to recruit this woman under him like Jiang xiaoshang had said, he would have to think about it carefully.

At the very least, he couldn't let a Tiger grow into a threat.

As she spoke, ning Wanjun had already stabilized her position. As a woman, she had actually resisted Zhang Heng's powerful attack by trading injury for injury. The iron-blooded stance she displayed made all the male cultivators present break out in cold sweat.

The lover boy was even more flabbergasted.

This woman was actually so bold?

He knew that ning Wanjun wasn't someone to be trifled with. Even though he was strong, he might not be able to defeat her easily. That was why he had specially found someone like Zhang Heng, who was stronger than him.

Who would have thought that the situation would not go as he had expected!

He could already tell that although Zhang Heng was not in a situation where ning Wanjun was about to turn the tables, he was obviously not in a stable position.

If this continued, ning Wanjun would at least have a 30% chance of winning, even if she was still at a disadvantage!

All of them had expected Zhang Heng to take down ning Wanjun without a doubt, and even a 99% chance of winning would be modest ...

"It seems that this woman is really something. If this continues, it will be a little dangerous. Lover boy, we have to help cheer for brother Zhang."

Someone beside him whispered a reminder.

"But with brother Zhang's temper, I'm afraid he'll be unhappy if we interfere rashly," said lover boy, feeling a little conflicted.

In fact, there was a deeper reason, and that was that he didn't want to be looked down upon by ning Wanjun.

It was already degrading to ask for help, but in the end, they still wanted to bully him with their numbers. Not only would ning Wanjun despise them, it wouldn't be good even if the rumors spread.

He was the lover boy, and he was a descendant of one of the four Seas 'major forces. He didn't want to be a laughingstock.

"Lover boy, you are wrong. With brother Zhang's strength, it is easy for him to take down that woman. We naturally don't need to do anything unnecessary. I just think that the pretty boy is a bit of an eyesore."

The people around looked at Lin Yi.

Lover boy's eyes suddenly lit up. That's right. Although it was not good to directly intervene in the battle, if it was only to attack the blind trash next to him, he did not need to worry so much.

Based on the attitude that ning Wanjun had just displayed, she was still very concerned about this pretty boy who did not know his place. As long as something happened to this guy, it would definitely affect her mind.

In fact, it was enough to break through her defenses!

In a battle between experts, a moment of distraction was enough to determine the outcome of the entire battle, not to mention that Zhang Heng still had the clear upper hand up until now.

"Then I'll have to trouble brother Li Yuan."

The lover boy nodded.

He still didn't plan to make a move personally. After all, his status was there, and a pretty boy who wasn't even a half-step Supreme realm wasn't qualified for him to make a move.

"It's a small matter,"

Li Yuan smiled and walked towards Lin Yi.

He knew the power behind the lover boy. He could earn a favor from the lover boy for such a small matter. It was definitely a great deal for him. After all, this kind of favor was a priceless treasure in a critical moment.

Ning Wanjun, who sensed this scene, was slightly stunned, but then secretly rejoiced.

She knew her value to Lin Yi, and he wouldn't give her up so easily, but that would only guarantee her basic safety. From Lin Yi's attitude, he didn't care if she was beaten half to death.

But now that she'd messed with Lin Yi, that was a different story.

With Lin Yi's strength that he'd just displayed, even if all of them combined their strength, including the strongest Zhang Heng, they wouldn't even be able to take one hit from him!

After all, he was an abnormal existence who had hunted and killed several Supreme-level super sea beasts in succession!

Chapter 10007

Lin Yi didn't know whether to laugh or cry.

He was still hesitating to continue testing ning Wanjun for a while, but he didn't expect the other side to come up with such a trick to break the situation. It could be seen that the group of people on the other side really didn't lack crouching Dragons and young phoenixes.

Although he couldn't be bothered to meddle in other people's business, his temper wasn't good enough to coax the other party for fun!

"Senior?"

Li Yuan stood in front of Lin Yi with a half-smile on his face, his face full of mockery. "Junior is Li Yuan. I've encountered some problems in my cultivation recently. I've been thinking hard about it, but I can't find a good teacher. It's better to meet by chance than to ask for a favor. Why don't senior give me some guidance?"

As he spoke, he raised his hand and conjured a condensed tsunami.

This was the concretization of the law power of the ocean, and its control over the law was not weak. It should be close to 20%, which was also the average standard of a half-step venerable.

This highly concentrated miniature tsunami looked ordinary, but once its power was released, it was enough to destroy a medium-sized city in an instant!

When such power was concentrated and exploded on a single person, one could only imagine how terrifying the damage was.

In the end, Lin Yi didn't even try to Dodge, he just took it head on.

"Are you scared silly? As expected, you're a good-for-nothing!"

Lover boy and the others shook their heads and turned back to Zhang Heng and ning Wanjun, not even looking at Lin Yi.

Because he didn't even need to look to know that this guy was already dead.

But strangely enough, after a few breaths, Lin Yi didn't die. When they turned around curiously, they saw that Lin Yi was completely unharmed.

At first glance, he looked completely fine!

"Could this be an internal injury?"

The crowd couldn't help but speculate. They were well aware of Li Yuan's strength. Although he was much weaker than Zhang Heng, he was definitely not a weakling at the half-step venerable realm. At the very least, he was above average.

The only explanation for this scene was that the condensed tsunami he had just used was not very common, and it was a new move.

He was using that useless pretty boy as a test.

Don't look at how intact that thing was on the surface, perhaps it had already been stirred into a ball of paste inside, simply a Living Dead!

Little did he know that Li Yuan's inner world had already begun to doubt life.

He was ten thousand percent sure that the condensed tsunami had hit Lin Yi's body.

Logically speaking, even a half-step venerable of the same level would not be able to withstand such a blow. Even if they did not die on the spot, they would at least be seriously injured!

But looking at Lin Yi's performance, he wasn't even hurt!

How was this possible?

"Could it be an illusion?"

This was the only explanation Li Yuan could think of. Otherwise, with his knowledge, he really couldn't understand.

Not only did Lin Yi control the ocean's laws like him, but Lin Yi's control over the laws was even higher than his.

The most important thing was that with new world as the base, Lin Yi's control of rule force was much stronger than other cultivators under the same level of rule force. He was at least an entire level higher!

With the two added together, the compressed tsunami was tamed even before it entered Lin Yi's body-it wasn't even as effective as a scrape.

It didn't hurt Lin Yi at all, and instead gave him quite a bit of ocean rule power, allowing him to merge into the new world.

At the end of the day, the difference in their ranks was too great. They were not on the same level at all.

Just as Li Yuan was suspicious and couldn't help but try again, someone suddenly rushed over. When he saw the lover boy's group, he was stunned and stopped.

"Lover boy, I just saw the body of a Supreme realm king squid nearby. It seems that it was killed in one move. I advise you not to stay here!"

After that, he hurriedly cupped his hands at love Prince and continued to run away.

Everyone was dumbstruck.

They knew very well what kind of existence the Supreme level King cuttlefish was. Even if they all joined forces, they might not be able to gain any advantage. In fact, there was a high chance that more than half of their men would be killed!

Such a terrifying monster was actually killed in one move?

"Could it be that person?"

Someone suddenly quivered. With his reminder, the others quickly reacted.

"The Super sea beast predator, dugu yixiong!"

"It's said that this person specializes in hunting sea beasts for a living, and his strength is so terrifying that it can overturn everyone's understanding. Because he cultivated some ancient secret technique, his strength will become stronger every time he eats a sea beast!"

"That's not right. If it's really that person, he wouldn't have left a corpse, right?"

"Hehe, do you think that hunting is just eating raw? what they're eating is definitely not ordinary flesh and blood, but the energy essence of the Super sea beast."

"If it's really him, then we really can't stay here any longer."

"That's right. I heard that he does things his own way. His intelligence is different from ordinary people, and he's extremely violent. He's a living humanoid supersea beast. If we were to encounter him, we'd really be in deep trouble!"

The crowd chimed in one after another, making love young master's eyelids Twitch.

However, the battle between Zhang Heng and Ning Wanjun had yet to be decided. If he were to leave just like that, it would be difficult for him to calm his anger, and most importantly, it would be embarrassing.

"If that person can really enter, it means that he is at most a half-step Supreme realm. It is impossible for him to have truly reached the Supreme realm. It is not as incredible as you all say, right?"

"Could it be that the rumors are too exaggerated?" the lover boy frowned.

Supreme realm cultivators were unable to participate in the selection. With his confidence, as long as they were not true Supreme realm experts, even if they were stronger than them, they would not be able to crush them one-sided. They would still have the ability to fight.

Everyone looked at each other.

One of them said carefully, "I've seen that man once from afar. In less than 15 minutes, he killed at least ten half-step Venerables. He's as brutal as a Demon God. You can't underestimate him."

Lover boy's face changed slightly, but he still said, "Even so, he might not be nearby. Maybe it's just a coincidence? It's not strange for the sea monsters to kill each other, right?"

"....."

Everyone was silent.

Although they felt that it was a little inappropriate, they were still half-step Venerables. They did not want to be scared off by a title, especially in front of a rich man like love Prince. This was directly related to their future.

"I have a technique that allows me to listen to the sounds of all living things, and I can investigate a radius of a thousand miles. Everyone, why don't you let me listen first?"

One person took the initiative to step forward.

After saying that, he released a mysterious Water-type rule power. It was different from the ocean rule power. Although the two could be strictly considered to be of the same element, the Water-type rule power was obviously gentler.

Chapter 10008

In comparison, the rules of the ocean were more open and powerful.

In terms of destructive power, the rules of the ocean were at least ten times more powerful than the rules of the water under the same degree of control. However, in terms of the myriad of changes and various difficult fine operations, the situation was exactly the opposite.

The two could only be said to have their own merits.

A moment later, the man opened his eyes with a serious expression. "There's more than one king cuttlefish that died nearby. I've detected more than five of them, so I can't rule out the possibility that there are more in other places."

"....."

At this moment, the expressions of love Prince and the others changed completely.

If it was only one Supreme level King cuttlefish, it might be a coincidence. After all, it was common for Supreme sea beasts to kill each other. However, with so many of them appearing all of a sudden, it would be a lie if he said it was a coincidence.

Dugu yixiong might really be nearby!

When this conclusion came out, everyone couldn't stand it anymore. They could touch anyone but that crazy monster!

"Let's go?"

The crowd couldn't help but look at lover boy.

Although the lover boy was in a difficult position, he would not hesitate to choose between his face and his life. He immediately nodded with an ugly expression, but the eyes looking at Ning Wanjun became particularly cold.

Seeing the poisonous rule power gathering in his hand, everyone was shocked. This was the love poison of the lover boy. Once hit, one would be tortured to death by him, and there was no cure.

This person was obviously not concerned about his reputation anymore and was ready to kill Ning Wanjun.

At the same time, on the other side, Li Yuan was still suspicious and trying to break the so-called "illusionary technique" that he believed in. Unfortunately, no matter what method he tried, he was destined to only break the loneliness.

There was no illusion to begin with, so there was no way to crack it.

Lin Yi thought it was funny and reminded him, "Are you still going to fight? If not, I'm leaving."

"Is it not an illusion? Did you use some other prop?"

Li Yuan felt even more incredulous.

He didn't connect it to Lin Yi's strength, however, and assumed that it was some sort of item that absorbed his attack. Since it was so powerful, it probably wasn't a permanent item, but a one-time-use item like a talisman.

That's right, it must be like this!

Li Yuan finally found the perfect explanation, and his tensed mind relaxed once more. Facing Lin Yi, he immediately regained his absolute confidence.

After all, he was a half-step venerable. No matter how good he was, he couldn't possibly lose to a mere Big Shot at the peak of perfection.

He didn't believe it and threw out another condensed tsunami, but Lin Yi still caught it calmly.

This time, he could see it much more clearly than before.

"No props? How can there be no props?"

Li Yuan's eyes almost popped out.

He wouldn't mind if Lin Yi had some crazy permanent item in his hands, but Lin Yi took his condensed tsunami with just one hand without anything.

More importantly, there wasn't any movement at all from the beginning to the end. Even if a stone was thrown into the water, there would still be a sound. What was going on?

Now that he thought about it, the entire process didn't seem like he was attacking at all, but more like he was paying tribute to Lin Yi.

His condensed tsunami didn't pose any threat to Lin Yi at all. Instead, it was more like some kind of supplement with no side effects!

Li Yuan's face instantly turned pale.

After all, he wasn't a real fool. He thought of a possibility, a possibility that he would never have believed before, but now it seemed very possible.

The other party's strength was far above his!

Not only was his strength far stronger than his, but his control over the rules of the ocean was also far higher than his. It was more than an order of magnitude higher. A conservative estimate was that his control over the rules of the ocean was at least 30%, and it might even have reached 40%!

That was a level that only a true venerable could reach.

"Senior?"

Now that he recalled how ning Wanjun addressed Lin Yi, Li Yuan wanted to give himself 14000 slaps.

No wonder such a fierce woman was willing to call him senior. With such a terrifying existence, what else could he be other than a reclusive old monster senior?

The correct answer had been on the table from the beginning.

It was a pity that he had been misled by the lover boy and thought that the other party was just a piece of trash that ning Wanjun had used. He had assumed that the other party was just an ordinary giant with the final perfection, which led to this embarrassing mistake.

What a F * cking pig-like teammate!

In his heart, Li Yuan had cordially greeted the 18th generation of lovers 'ancestors. At this moment, lovers' son just happened to send him a divine sense message."According to the information we have, dugu yixiong should be nearby. Let's get rid of that useless pretty boy quickly. We have to leave this place as soon as possible."

"....."

If it wasn't for the fact that he didn't dare to, Li Yuan really wanted to scold him in front of his face. "You F * cking take care of one for me!"

However, after listening to love Prince's analysis, he was suddenly stunned. There were so many Supreme rank super sea beasts that had died nearby. It was easy to associate it with dugu yixiong if one had a first impression. However, no one present had ever seen dugu yixiong before.

The so-called accurate information was, in the end, just an inference.

However, if it was really as he had thought, and the person in front of him was also a Supreme realm expert, then it was more likely that dugu yixiong was not the one who killed those Supreme realm super sea beasts. Instead, it was more likely that this person was the one!

Li Yuan subconsciously wanted to share this speculation with everyone.

But seeing Lin Yi's half-smile as he looked at him, that deep gaze made him shiver.

Therefore, Li Yuan made a decision that he already knew.

He wanted to send a message to Lin Yi.

"Senior, this junior was blind and offended you. I deserve to die. I'm willing to pay any price for this. Please spare my life."

Lin Yi's face turned weird when he felt the sudden message.

Jiang xiaoshang, who did not mind watching a show, laughed even harder. "In front of his own people, he decisively chose to join the enemy in private. This guy is also a talent. He's good at changing sides with the wind!"

"Should I say he's smart or weird?" Lin Yi asked.

The guy was smart, but he was just testing the waters at the edge of death. If it weren't for the fact that his ocean rule power was useful against Lin Yi, he'd probably be dead by now.

However, if one were to say that this person was stupid, he adjusted faster than anyone else. When he saw that the situation was not good, he immediately defected to the enemy. This kind of flashy operation was really not something that ordinary people could do.

Jiang xiaoshang chuckled. "Although he's a Living Treasure, he has his own value. He'll come in handy one day."

Chapter 10009

Lin Yi couldn't be bothered to respond to her, but after taking over the school, he'd become a man of authority. She didn't make a sound, but her eyes were full of flattery.

Capable people needed to be used, people who did dirty work needed to be used, and weirdos like this needed to be learned to use.

Making the best use of one's talent was the most basic underlying logic of using one's talent.

In the end, Lin Yi gave him a chance."Tell me, what value do you have to me?"

Li Yuan carefully looked at lover boy and the others.""If senior needs it, junior can be senior's spy."

"A spy ..."

Lin Yi wasn't unfamiliar with this-mu Shen was a spy he'd left behind to deal with the mayor's residence, and now that he'd joined Jianghai college, he was one of the top fighters under Lin Yi's command.

"You think I need a spy to deal with these people?" Lin Yi shook his head.

Li Yuan quickly said,"it's just that with senior's strength, it's easy for you to capture these people. However, love young master has a strong background in the four Seas. If senior wants to control the four Seas, his family is still of value."

"When did I say I'm going to be in charge of the four Seas?" Lin Yi asked.

Li Yuan still maintained a confrontational posture on the surface, not letting the lover boy and the others see any clues. In private, he hurriedly transmitted his voice through divine sense, "With senior's strength, it's a sure thing that you'll be able to take down the coastal Sea King. Since you're the coastal Sea King, you naturally have to deal with the four Seas."

"Go on," Lin Yi said, his face unmoved.

"Yes, yes. The family behind the lover boy is the only super family in the entire sea area that has connections with the four Seas' royal families. Even the four Seas' royal families are very polite to them, and they have a considerable amount of authority."

Li Yuan looked at Lin Yi's face and continued carefully, ""There's even a saying in the streets that his family is the fifth royal family of the four Seas, just that they haven't been recognized by the sea god Hall. "

Lin Yi said, deep in thought.

Before this, he had limited knowledge of the forces of the four Seas. After all, hai Wutian had never mentioned this.

As for Jiang xiaoshang, with his abilities, he would be able to find out for sure. However, it wasn't worth the risk if it wasn't necessary. After all, if this guy left any traces and the gods found out, it would be the end of Lin Yi.

At the moment, he had to do his best to avoid any possibility of being noticed by the gods. There could not be any mishaps.

"Continue,"

Lin Yi said, giving the man a way out.

Although this was not a secret and he would be able to find out in the future if he wanted to, it was better to know it one day earlier than one day later. After all, there were many things that were lacking an opportunity.

Finally getting the confirmation, Li Yuan's heart was greatly relieved. He quickly struck while the iron was hot. "The lover boy has an extremely high status in his family. He's the second-in-line heir and has a lot of influence on many matters. I've already gained his trust, and I can exert my influence at critical moments.

At that time, if senior has any instructions, I will cooperate from the inside and it will be enough to achieve many things.

If the opportunity is right, we can even replace them and completely control the entire family behind the scenes!"

Lin Yi's expression was getting weird.

This was like spending a big pancake for himself.

If it was really the fifth royal family of the uncrowned king, then there must be a true Supreme realm master holding the fort, and it was very likely that there was more than one. How could it be so easily controlled by outsiders?

But then again, if what he said was true, this lover boy really had a lot of value.

It wasn't certain if he'd be able to claim the title of King of the seas as he wished, but one thing was for sure-whether or not Lin Yi could become the next King, his school would have to work with the sea god Hall.

Even if it wasn't a concrete Alliance, they had to form a tacit understanding to fight against the menacing beast God Hall together.

Jianghai Academy wouldn't be able to handle a pincer attack otherwise-even if they didn't get wiped out with Lin Yi's new world and the connected realms, they'd still end up like stray dogs.

From then on, he would hide here and there, never to see the sun again.

Therefore, no matter from which perspective, it was necessary to lay down a piece in the four Seas.

From the looks of it, this lover boy who had delivered himself to his door was a ready-made entry point.

Seeing that Lin Yi was moved, Li Yuan's eyes turned and he quickly suggested, "If senior is worried about Junior's ability, then I can add another layer of insurance and let ning Wanjun return to my lover boy's side!

With her methods and the cooperation of the younger generation, it is enough to control the lover boy and make him our puppet!"

Lin Yi's eyes twitched as he glanced at ning Wanjun, who was still fighting, and lover boy, who was gritting his teeth and waiting for a chance to kill him.

"The two of them are like fire and water. How is she going to return to lover boy?"

"Senior, you may not know this, but the reason why the lover boy is called the lover boy is that he has been merciful everywhere and hurt the hearts of countless women. However, there are two sides to everything. He is the love tribulation of countless women, but those women are also his love tribulation."

Li Yuan glanced at ning Wanjun and said, "love is like a battlefield. Whoever can take the initiative in love is the other party's doom."

With the identity and status of the lover boy, what kind of woman couldn't he get? why would he be so obsessed with ning Wanjun, who wasn't particularly outstanding in beauty?

The root of the problem was that he had been played by ning Wanjun, and she had become the Tribulation that he had to overcome!

If he can 't, his life will end here. "

"So that's why he wanted to kill ning Wanjun?" Lin Yi asked.

"Killing is the last resort. In the field of love, it's already a complete defeat to kill. Even if you pass the Tribulation of love in name, there will be endless trouble in the future."

Li Yuan acted like an expert."His best plan is to make ning Wanjun change her mind. She will become his like the other women. Then, he will abandon her. That is the best plan!"

"You've done a lot of research on this?"Lin Yi asked, curious.

Li Yuan smiled embarrassedly."In order to get into the circle of lovers, I naturally have to do some homework. It's convenient to cater to his interests."

"So you're using this method to mingle in the circle?"

Lin Yi's eyes had been opened-it was his lover's son's bad luck to have met someone like this.

Li Yuan was not embarrassed at all. "This junior is forced by life. Besides, they have eyes but don't recognize Mount Tai, so naturally they have to pay the price for provoking senior."

Chapter 10010

"Very good, your logic is unparalleled." Lin Yi was speechless.

"Senior is too kind."

Li Yuan finally relaxed and returned to the main topic. "I can guarantee that as long as ning Wanjun is willing to lower her status, my lover will definitely agree. When that happens, he will definitely not be able to escape from senior's control."

"We'll have to find a surefire excuse," Lin Yi said with narrowed eyes.

The lover boy himself was trapped by the love tribulation. Perhaps it was as Li Yuan said, and it would not be too difficult to deal with. However, the family behind him was not trapped by the love tribulation. If he really left any flaws, ning Wanjun would die without an intact corpse.

Li Yuan had obviously thought of this. He continued to pretend to fight with Lin Yi while looking at lover boy meaningfully.

"Isn't this a perfect excuse?"

As he spoke, the lover boy, who had been accumulating his strength for a long time, finally made up his mind. He condensed the highly pure power of the poison of love in his hand into an arrow and shot it at ning Wanjun!

Even though ning Wanjun was already on guard, the arrow was too fast for her to react.

On top of that, Zhang Heng's attacks were getting more and more intense when he was forced into a corner. If she really tried to Dodge it, she would die under Zhang Heng's frenzied attacks even if she was lucky enough to do so, let alone if she could Dodge it. It was not worth it.

The arrow pierced through his heart.

The love poison arrow pierced through her heart. Although ning Wanjun did not die on the spot, her expression changed.

She had once toyed with the lover boy in the palm of her hand, so she naturally knew how terrible the love poison was. Once she was poisoned, there was no cure unless the lover boy himself cured her!

Otherwise, the poison would act up every three days, and every time it acted up, she would be better off dead.

After that, the frequency of the attack would become faster and faster, until she completely collapsed.

As a result, there was a saying that there were only two ways out for those who were poisoned by love poison. One was to quickly kneel down to the other party, or to quickly commit suicide. That way, at least they would suffer less unnecessary pain.

Lover boy looked at her expression and couldn't help but show some satisfaction of revenge. ""You can try kneeling down and begging me now. As long as you obediently become my plaything from now on, I might be merciful and personally cure you of this love poison."

"....."

Ning Wanjun gritted her teeth and did not say a word. She used her inhuman willpower to suppress the love poison in her body!

"This woman is truly a monster!"

Li Yuan was flabbergasted. In his mind, since Ning Wanjun had fallen for his trick, she would definitely kneel down in front of the lover boy.

After all, that kind of all-round torture that was worse than death was not something that ordinary people could endure, especially for a woman like her. The power of the love poison was far greater than on men!

Lin Yi nodded to himself.

Up until this moment, he was still hesitating whether he should listen to Jiang Xiaoshang's suggestion to recruit this woman. However, he made up his mind when he saw this scene.

This woman was worth nurturing!

And with the excuse of the love poison, it would be logical for Ning Wanjun to get close to her lover boy in the future, and no one would be suspicious.

Lin Yi turned to Li Yuan, "that's a good suggestion, but how can I trust your loyalty?" With your performance, I'm afraid that your first choice would be to turn around and sell me out after you leave my sight, right?"

Li Yuan quickly made a vow. "Senior, you've misunderstood. I'm not a fickle villain. I'm willing to swear that if I dare to betray you, I'll be struck by lightning!"

A heart's vow was considered the most binding contract between cultivators. No matter how high one's strength was, one would not dare to easily break their promise.

But Lin Yi didn't believe that.

A heart's oath wasn't truly unbreakable. As far as he knew, as long as he paid the corresponding price, he could find a way to break it.

Especially for a guy like the other party who made a living by swindling and cheating, he must have some skills in this area. If anyone really believed him so easily, they would not be far from being sold by him.

"It's your business what oath you make. I don't believe in this. I only believe in my own means."

Lin Yi sent a mysterious spirit imprint into the man's sea of consciousness."This is my primordial spirit seed. Don't worry, as long as you fulfill your promise, it won't affect you in any way.

However, if you go back on your word, it will detonate at the first moment. As for the specific consequences, I believe I don't need to say more. "

"....."

Li Yuan immediately wanted to cry but had no tears.

The heart's oath he had just taken was indeed a back door for himself.

Even if he broke the oath, he would not suffer any substantial punishment. In the past, he had used this trick to win the trust of many people, including important figures like the lover boy. It had always been tried and tested.

He wasn't determined to sell Lin Yi out this time, but no matter how easy he made it sound, he knew better than anyone how difficult it was.

That was the fifth royal family in the entire sea area. What a terrifying behemoth. How could they be so easily schemed against?

No matter how well he had planned in advance, the execution process would inevitably be full of flaws. His wisest choice was to withdraw before the situation could be reversed.

He just needed to push the blame onto Lin Yi and he'd be able to sit back and watch!

However, his entire plan was ruined by Lin Yi's simple essence spirit seed. He could already feel the terrifying presence coming from the essence spirit seed.

If he was not careful, his entire primordial spirit would be wiped out immediately. There was no chance of him being lucky!

As such, he could only walk this path to the end.

"You don't seem very happy about it," Lin Yi said with a half-smile.

"No, no, this junior is more than happy to do so. It's just that I felt senior's divine sense technique and lost my self-control for a moment. I've made a fool of myself."

Li Yuan quickly clarified, and then carefully asked, ""If I leave you for too long, will there be any problems with this primordial spirit seed?"

Lin Yi smiled faintly, "it's attached to your heart's vow. If you keep your promise, it won't do you any harm. It'll even nourish your spirit. It's something you can't even buy outside, but ..."

Lin Yi didn't continue, and Li Yuan nodded in understanding. "I understand, I understand."

It was his nature to change his attitude when the wind blew, so he adjusted his mentality very quickly.

She'd said that she'd been bluffing Lin Yi, but it wasn't as if she didn't have anything to gain from it.

His plan wasn't that easy to implement, but if it worked, especially if Lin Yi had enough resources, it would have a bright future.

If they could really control the Diwu royal family, the huge benefits involved behind it were irresistible just thinking about it.

Even if he could only get a little bit of it, it would be enough for him to rest easy for the rest of his life.

Thinking of this, Li Yuan realized that he was actually a little tempted!
