

Bodyguard 10061

Chapter 10061

"You don't know anything and you dare to ban the royal families of the four Seas?"

Hai Wutian rolled his eyes and frowned. "You're the only commander now, so it must be difficult for you to do anything. I suggest that we restore the personal guard Camp of the king of the coastal waters first. At least that way, we'll have more confidence."

"Guards unit? Is it the sea God's temple's establishment?"

Hai Wutian nodded. "More or less, but more independent. In theory, it's completely under the private power of the past kings of the sea. When the king of the sea is absent, it will be assigned to the temple guards."

"It's alright, it's not completely an empty title. "

Lin Yi asked, surprised.

Although he controlled the sea God's name, and he, the king of the sea, would not really be reduced to a light pole commander, it was not a bad thing to have such a legitimate force.

Hai Wutian suggested, "wait until you've truly taken control of the guards unit before you think about the next step. Before that, why don't you just stay in the main palace? it's a bit cowardly, but at least no one would dare to touch you under the eyes of the Lord sea god."

What he meant was that if he left the sea god's main hall, then it would be hard to say.

Lin Yi didn't comment.

It was safe to hide in the seagod's main hall, but it also meant that he would be watched and restricted everywhere, especially under the high priest's eyes. He couldn't do anything, which was obviously not in line with his plan.

"Also, there should be a Special Assistant priest next. His main duty is to assist you in completing the duties of the Sea King."

"The high priest will personally decide on this candidate," hai Wutian added. "You have to be careful."

What he needed to be careful of was self-evident.

Hai Wutian took his leave after he explained a few more things to take note of. As the ninth advisor, he was actually a busy man with high authority.

Furthermore, Zhang xiangding had died this time. There was a power vacuum in the crucial tenth advisor. It was a time when all parties had to make their move. He could not stay out of it.

Only Lin Yi was left on the scene, with the four pieces of the snake.

But surprisingly, the Python was still alive, thanks to the tenacious vitality of the sea Python clan.

Lin Yi crouched down and looked at the man's lifeless eyes. "Do you want to live a Second Life?"

"....."

A strange look flashed through the snake's eyes, but it did not give any substantial response.

At this point, the Python was very clear that the rapid loss of its life was irreversible. No matter how tenacious its vitality was, it would only be able to prolong its life for a while. It was meaningless.

He just wanted to die quickly, at least he would suffer less pain.

"You're not willing to die like this, are you?"

Lin Yi locked onto it as he spoke, pulling it into a new world in the next second.

Sensing the sudden change in the environment, the Python was shocked. It could feel the long-lost vitality!

"The world has clearly decayed. How can there still be such vitality?"

The great Python asked his question with great difficulty.

Lin Yi looked at him, surprised. "I didn't know you had this side to you. Is it okay if the world is decaying? this seems to be a 2d line ..."

"....."

The great Python clearly did not understand what he meant.

Jiang xiaoshang suddenly appeared and interjected, "you've misunderstood. He's not trying to act cool. The fate of the sea Python clan is deeply tied to the sea. The environment of the sea has been deteriorating in the past hundred years, causing the sea Python clan to fall apart and become homeless.

Otherwise, with their pride, they wouldn't easily lower their heads to anyone, not even the royal families of the four Seas. "

Lin Yi raised a brow, "the sea's getting worse?" Does this have anything to do with the loss of the seagod's divinity?"

"Smart!"

Jiang xiaoshang looked at him in admiration, ""These two are cause and effect. The deterioration of the sea's environment led to the loss of the sea god's godhood, and the latter accelerated the deterioration of the former, just like an ordinary human suffering from a terminal illness that is incurable."

"No wonder," Lin Yi said, understanding.

In other words, unless the sea god had a way to reverse the environment of the entire sea realm, it was useless no matter what he did. He was destined to be unable to change the overall situation of the loss of his divine spark, and everything would be in vain.

His fate had been decided from the very beginning.

Listening to the conversation between the two, the Python could not help but reveal a shocked expression.

As one of the few survivors of the sea Python clan, he naturally knew about the deterioration of the sea area. However, it was the first time he had heard about the loss of the sea god's godhood!

"The sea god is already dead?"

The great Python couldn't help but cry out in alarm.

Lin Yi and Jiang xiaoshang looked at each other with weird expressions, ""I forgot about you. It's not a good thing to know too much. You should understand this, right?"

"....."

"I'm dying anyway,"the Python said in a muffled voice.

Lin Yi smiled,"that's true, but there should be quite a few survivors in your sea Python clan, right? even a golden class mid phase venerable like you can only be a dog. Their situation must be even more difficult. Don't you think for them?"

The Python fell silent.

How could he not know about the miserable situation of his surviving clansmen?

As a former member of the clan leader's bloodline, his desire to save his clansmen was far more urgent than anyone else's. However, he had no choice.

The root cause of the sea Python clan's disaster was indeed the deterioration of the sea area, but the more direct reason for their current situation was the various forces led by the royal families of the four Seas.

There was no other reason. The ferocious sea pythons were natural Warriors, while the female sea pythons, after transforming into sea demons, were born with unparalleled beauty. In terms of beauty, they were the best among all the races in the sea area.

Such a talent perfectly met the needs of the various forces.

Even before their disaster, young sea pythons were often stolen and sold. After their disaster, they became popular among all forces.

No matter if they were male or female, old or young, every sea Python could be sold for a sky-high price!

Under such a background, no matter how strong they were individually, they could only be reduced to other people's slaves and playthings. Fate did not give them the chance to fight or choose.

Whether they could live or not, it all depended on master's mood.

It wasn't that the Python didn't think of resisting, but it really wasn't possible. If there wasn't a powerful external force interfering, they could only accept the friction of fate.

After all, their enemies were the royal families of the four Seas and even the entire sea region!

"Since I'm here, the rules of the sea area must change, and they will change."

Lin Yi looked at the snake's eyes with certainty. "As for what the final rules will become, whether it will be better or worse for your sea Python clan, it's up to you to fight for it. The opportunity is here."

Chapter 10062

There was no encouraging chicken soup, nor any decent guarantee.

However, the great Python's eyes instantly burned with passion.

If someone else had said something like "change the rules," he would have scoffed. After all, he was not an innocent child.

But hearing it from Lin Yi's mouth, he believed it immediately.

It wasn't just because he'd lost to Lin Yi and had personally experienced how terrifying he was-the Poseidon's death was a huge blow to him, and combined with what Lin Yi had done to the representatives, he was convinced that Lin Yi had a powerful background!

The most important thing was that he had already sensed the extraordinariness of the New World.

In this short period of time, he, who was already waiting for death, was shocked to find that not only was his life force not continuing to be lost, it was actually being replenished.

Especially after he put the four pieces of the Python back together, the wounds actually began to heal on their own!

"A miracle ..."

The great Python muttered on the spot.

There was no other explanation. This was definitely a miracle, a miracle that only gods could do!

A moment later, the snake returned to its human form and knelt in front of Lin Yi. "From now on, my life belongs to master. As long as you can save my clansmen, their lives will also belong to master. My sea Python clan is willing to become master's most loyal believers!"

In other words, he already saw Lin Yi as a God.

Lin Yi shook his head, "I can give you a chance and save your people, but I don't want you to be my dogs. You and I share the same interests. We are both fighting for ourselves, understand?"

"....."

The great Python's brain clearly went blank for a moment before it kowtowed heavily. "Understood, master."

Lin Yi facepalmed, speechless. He turned and looked at Jiang xiaoshang, "Is there a problem with this guy?"

Jiang xiaoshang laughed as he used his divine awareness voice transmission. "Don't worry. I just imprinted a thought steel seal on his mind. I can't say that he will remain absolutely loyal, but at least he will not reveal the secrets of this place to others."

Lin Yi nodded.

No matter what, it wasn't a loss to be able to recruit a golden class mid phase venerable.

In particular, if they could recruit more experts from the sea Python clan in the future, even if their numbers were limited, they would definitely be a force that could not be underestimated.

After settling the Python down, Lin Yi called Li Yuanji out again, and the three of them had a closed-door meeting.

After the previous incident, he, the newly promoted Sea King, could be considered to have officially made a name for himself, making all the forces aware of his existence.

On the one hand, it was true that his personal strength had increased the value of the Sea King. At least in the future, if the various forces wanted to deal with him, they would have to carefully weigh his weight.

However, at the same time, it inevitably made the situation more complicated.

"The royal families of the four Seas are eyeing you covetously on the outside, and the chief high priest is at your back. This is a nightmare difficulty opening."

Jiang xiaoshang exclaimed.

He'd always thought that he was a troublemaker, but compared to Lin Yi, he couldn't even look at him.

The thing was, Lin Yi always had that harmless look on his face, giving people the feeling that he wasn't the one looking for trouble, but that the trouble was looking for him. This was the real trouble-maker, after all.

"That's good," Li Yuanji said. "The only thing I'm afraid of is a pool of stagnant water. As long as we can make them move, it'll be an opportunity for us. Lin Yi did a good job."

The intention to protect her was obvious.

Lin Yi couldn't help but rub his nose as he watched Jiang Xiaoshang's weird smile.

In terms of age, Li Yuanji was more than qualified to be his ancestor, let alone his grandmother. But now, in front of him, she was like a gentle sister next door. The contrast was a strange experience.

Soon, Li Yuanji herself also reacted and couldn't help but blush.

She had been with Xiao Wudi for thirty years, and there had never been any romantic feelings between them. Even if Xiao Wudi wanted to get close to her, he was ignored by her.

Strictly speaking, even now, she had not realized Xiao Wudi's feelings.

The gods had no feelings. Although a top false god like her had not completely cut off her feelings, she rarely had emotional fluctuations, let alone feelings between a man and a woman.

She didn't know why, but ever since she met Lin Yi, even someone as slow as her started to realize that her emotions in this aspect were getting more and more frequent.

Could it be because of the ancient God cultivators?

"It's an internal affair of the Poseidon shrine," Lin Yi coughed and got back to the topic, "we can't act rashly before we get to the bottom of the high priest's background. We also need to find out the positions of the others, especially the top five followers. "

"It's not easy to ride on a wall. It's definitely not good to not take a side. The priest path has been blocked, so you can only take the walking path."

Jiang Xiaoshang frowned. "But you can tell from the relationship between Hai Wutian and Zhang Xiangding. The internal structure of the Wayfarer team is definitely not as united as it seems. We still have to carefully determine who is friend and who is enemy."

Lin Yi agreed.

The attitude of the second Walker, Bu Qinglian, who had the most experience, was worth pondering over.

"If it's not easy to break out from the inside, then we'll start from the outside."

Lin Yi said, setting the tone.

Jiang xiaoshang looked at him doubtfully. "That's right, but you're unfamiliar with this Sea region. There's nothing you can mobilize at the moment. The other party is the royal families of the four Seas. How are you going to use your power?"

No matter how he thought about it, Lin Yi couldn't find anything to do in his current situation.

After all, the royal families of the four Seas were no small matter. Even the sea god Hall would have to think twice before making a move on them, let alone an outsider like him.

Even if the royal families of the four Seas were not United internally, even if the other forces were also looking forward to their misfortune, anyone with a little brain would not jump out at this time to be the first bird to attack.

Even with Jiang xiaoshang's abilities, he could not help but feel troubled by this situation.

"There's nothing outside, but we have something inside," Lin Yi smiled.

He looked at Li Yuanji as he spoke.

"Me?"

Li Yuanji pointed at herself, looking confused.

Jiang xiaoshang was stunned for a moment, but he quickly reacted, ""Using the Emperor to command his vassals?"

Lin Yi nodded, "the four Seas 'royal families aren't made of iron. There's no lack of ambitious people in them, but they're bound by the big picture, so they have no choice but to lay low. What if I give them a proper name and let them break free?"

"The order of gratitude!"

Jiang xiaoshang's eyes lit up. "I understand what you're trying to say. You're trying to use the medallion of gratitude to make them fight among themselves!"

The medallion of gratitude could be said to be the most famous and unsolvable plot in history.

Using the name of giving your son Jain to forcefully sow discord, no matter how solid your business was before, a person's ambition can not be suppressed forever. Once you have many sons, they will inevitably have their own thoughts.

Chapter 10063

According to the original tradition, you can pass all the resources to the successor of the family head.

Even if there was bound to be internal friction in the process of fighting for the position of family head, as long as he successfully took over the position, he would naturally be able to regain his strength after re-centralization.

However, once the order of refusal was issued, the successor of the family master was no longer the only successor. Nominally, the other sons also had the right to inherit. It was conceivable what these people with all kinds of ambitions would do.

The unsolvable part of an Open Conspiracy was that even if you knew the stakes, even if you were open and honest, and had a consensus on the surface, you still could not stop everyone's ambition.

From the moment the medallion of gratitude appeared, you had walked into the self-splitting curse.

Even if one could use might to suppress the ambitions of others, using one's personal power and prestige, that was destined to only be temporary.

You can suppress it for a month, you can suppress it for a year, but you can't suppress it forever.

Lin Yi smiled innocently, "let's start with the royal families. No matter if they're the direct descendants, the ocean goddess will respect and recognize the right of inheritance for each child. She'll urge the royal families to treat everyone equally and not threaten anyone. Otherwise, it'll be a Public Enemy of the ocean goddess Hall and the entire ocean."

"You're the Worst," Jiang xiaoshang said respectfully.

The words were so overbearing that even Lin Yi himself felt choked, but he had no choice. He had no choice but to break out of this situation.

"What if the royal families of the four Seas join hands to resist?" Li Yuanji asked after some thought.

"Be more confident. There's no need for 'if' s. They'll definitely boycott us."

"Maybe they'll even make a special scene to show their internal unity and calm the people down," Lin Yi said, trying to sound a little suspicious.

Jiang xiaoshang raised his eyebrows, 'are we going to fight or not? If you can't keep your word, not only will the power of the sea god's Oracle be greatly reduced, you might even get yourself burned and make people suspect that the sea god is dying. "

Lin Yi nodded, "that's right. The High Priestess will definitely push the situation. If we don't give a positive response, this good move will become a dangerous one. We'll end up hurting ourselves."

"Then what do we do?"

"The sea god's Palace has so many people," Lin Yi smiled, "it might be tough for them to take down the four royal families at the same time, but they might be able to take down one of them if they only focus on one.

As long as there's meat to eat, I don't think it'll be difficult to find a few powerful allies, such as the top five advisors. "

Jiang xiaoshang's eyes lit up."As long as we let them have a taste of our own medicine, it will not be difficult to pull them into our camp next. It's all part of the plan. You've really calculated it well."

Lin Yi sighed helplessly."I have no choice. I'm an honest, kind, and innocent person, but I'm forced by life."

"Simple ... Kind ... Honest man ..."

Jiang xiaoshang felt as if his worldview had been refreshed.

"It's not easy for you either,"Li Yuanji said with a face full of agreement.

Jiang xiaoshang immediately felt that this woman was beyond saving. There was a reason why she had been betrayed in the divine territory.

Lin Yi turned to look at the still unconscious ning Wanjun."Actually, there's another hand that's ready."

Eastern Sea.

The arrogant ao tianchou was extremely respectful at this moment because he was facing his big brother, the king of the eastern sea, ao Tianxia.

Unlike him, who had pride written all over his face, this top-notch Big Shot in front of him, whose status was enough to rank in the top three of the sea realm, had a gentle and refined air. In the eyes of people who didn't know, they would never associate him with the royal family.

Instead, he was more like a teacher.

However, this was only on the surface. Even someone as unruly as ao tianchou did not dare to overstep his boundaries in front of his big brother. He was constantly trembling as if he was walking on thin ice.

That was because no one knew better than him how terrifying the king of the eastern sea was.

"He said he's going to ban the royal families of the four Seas?"

Ao Tian Xia looked at the written information with great interest.

It recorded everything that happened in detail. Not only did it include the actions of the important people involved, but it also included the reactions of everyone else.

"That was what he said at the time, but he's just a new Sea King without any Foundation. He's too arrogant to say such things," ao tianchou said carefully.

Ao Tian Xia didn't say anything. He turned to his sons and said, "What do you guys think?"

As the king of the eastern sea, he had hundreds of children, but the only sons that could catch his eye were these thirteen.

Only they were qualified to listen to his teachings at a close distance. Everyone knew that the future successor of East Ocean would be among the 13.

One of the obvious signs was that ao Tian Xia had given names to all his children, except for the 13 children in front of him. They were only ranked according to their ages from one to 13, and did not have official names.

The hidden meaning was that once one's name was set, it was the same as setting one's fate, and it could no longer be changed.

For the 13 sons who had yet to decide on a name, anything was possible in the future.

It was their honor and the pride of ao Tian. He was confident that he could control the fate of all the people in the East Ocean, no exception!

Ao Yi's aura was cold and he spoke like gold,"Kill!"

Ao Wu, who was standing at the side, chimed in."A mere king of the coastal waters with an empty title dares to clamor at us. He should indeed be killed. If he doesn't die, others will follow suit in the future. Where will the dignity of the four Seas 'royal families be?"

The remaining philosophers all declared that Lin Yi wasn't worthy of their attention yet.

Even if he killed the Golden class mid phase venerable Python in front of everyone!

Only ao si had some doubts."I don't think he's a reckless and brainless person. Since he dares to say this in front of us, he must have something to rely on."

"Reliance? Fourth brother, are you talking in your sleep?"

Ao BA snorted,"you're not trying to say that the sea goddess Hall is his backing, are you?" He had killed Zhang xiangding in front of everyone, which was equivalent to stepping on the high priest's face!

To him, the sea god temple is not his backing, but his enemy!"

Listening to the thirteenth Prince's discussion, ao tianchou lowered his head and completely regarded himself as an invisible person.

He knew that everyone was talking about Lin Yi on the surface, but they were all trying to leave a deep impression on the king of Donghai. They were all talking about the position of Donghai's successor.

His uncle in name didn't have any right to speak at this time.

Even if he was asked to speak, he did not dare to speak, for fear of accidentally offending one of them. If the other party were to gain power in the future, he, the Prince, might be used to establish his authority.

"What I want to know is, if you were him, how would you deal with the royal families of the four Seas?"
ao Tianxia asked.

Chapter 10064

The 13 sons were all silent.

It wasn't that they didn't want to show off, but from Lin Yi's perspective, they really didn't know what to do.

After a long time, ao si broke the silence. "If I were him, I would choose to sow discord. After all, a powerful fortress is broken from the inside."

"Fourth brother, you're not trying to sow discord between us are you?"

Ao Wu sneered. "You and US are always in a fierce quarrel, but we have father's personal guidance. At least we are all people who understand the big picture. Do you think he can sow discord just because he wants to?"

"Hmph!" Ao BA snorted coldly and said, "even if he can sow discord, he should at least bring out some real benefits. What can a grassroots like him bring out?" You and I don't even bother to look at him, and he's using his head to incite disharmony?"

The rest of the 13 disciples all sneered at him. Ao si did not refute them and was speechless.

However, at this moment, a Supreme and mysterious fluctuation suddenly swept across the entire sea area.

Ao Tian Xia's expression changed slightly, "what a good Oracle that understands the People's feelings!."

Everyone's expression changed as well, especially the 13th son 's. This divine decree covered the entire sea and was directly transmitted to each of their sea of consciousness.

The content was simple, and there was only one core meaning.

All the descendants below the royal families of the four Seas should be treated equally and enjoy the same right of inheritance.

This was Lin Yi's sea god version of the token of gratitude.

"What a joke!"

Ao Yi, who was a man of few words, opened his mouth again.

He was the most promising successor, and once the order of shirking grace was implemented, he would be the one affected the most.

"This is an open scheme of the sea goddess Hall," ao si said with a cold face. "They want us to split up and suspect each other."

Ao BA's expression was unfathomable, 'that king of the sea shore actually has such power that the sea god is personally supporting him? It's a little unbelievable. "

The rest of the people also looked at each other.

Although the royal families of the four Seas had always listened to orders but not disobeyed orders, and they only obeyed on the surface but disobeyed many of the seagod's orders on the inside, even the core of the royal families still instinctively felt respect for the seagod.

This was the most basic respect for the only immortal state warrior in the sea realm.

They could ignore the orders of the sea goddess Hall, but even Ao Tianxia, the King of the East Sea, would not dare to take the Oracle personally issued by the sea goddess lightly, especially this kind of official Oracle.

Although the gods were under various restrictions and couldn't attack them at will, if he was really convicted of blasphemy and gave the sea god an excuse to personally attack, his entire royal family of the four Seas would be in danger of being annihilated!

In the end, the key to the four Seas "royal families being so arrogant was that the sea god was unable to personally take action.

As long as they didn't step on a fatal red line, the group of people from the sea goddess Hall alone couldn't do anything to them.

"Your intention to kill me didn't die,"

Ao Tian Xia snorted and looked at the 13 disciples. "You've all seen the purpose of this Oracle clearly, and you know what to do.

I'll say this first, if anyone dares to be disloyal and harm the interests of the entire royal family of Dong Hai, I'll have no mercy even if he's my own son!"

"Yes, father!" The 13 sons nodded in unison.

That being said, only they themselves knew what everyone was thinking.

From the moment the Oracle was sent out, invisible thorns had already been planted in their hearts. The seeds of suspicion would soon sprout, and it would not change according to anyone's will.

Even if he was the King of the East Sea, he could not control the ambitions of his sons!

The same situation was happening in the other sea forces.

It was fine if it was just a small family or business, since there was nothing much to fight for anyway. But for the level of forces such as the four Seas 'royal families, this sudden order of refusal was like a deep water bomb, which would definitely have a profound impact on their internal structure.

Of course, this included the Qin family, which was known as the fifth royal family.

"Second brother, what do you think of this Oracle?"

A man with a powerful aura was sitting in the pavilion. His name was Qin Yitong and he was the future successor of the Qin family.

Sitting across from him was Qin Qing, the lover boy who had just returned from the ruins of the Empire.

Qin Qing said indifferently, "I'll just lie down and watch. It doesn't have much to do with me anyway. Even without this Oracle, big brother, you and father won't mistreat me."

"That's the truth." Qin Yitong nodded.

Compared to the four Seas 'royal families, which had many competitors, the Qin clan's position as the successor was much clearer.

Although in theory, Qin Qing and the other legitimate sons had a chance, the gap between them and Qin Yitong was too wide. If it was in the market, the odds were basically nine to one, and there was not much suspense to speak of.

Therefore, although this order of pushing away grace had an impact on the unification of the Qin, he still maintained the calmness of a superior.

He was very confident that he could definitely control Qin Qing, who was a competitor with limited threat.

The Qin family was known as the fifth royal family and had a large business. He didn't mind letting a little bit of soup flow out from the cracks of his fingers. It was not a problem to support a few rich and idle people.

Knowing that there was no chance, on one hand, they were taking the huge risk of being suppressed by the reckoning to go against him, and on the other hand, they were sitting back and reaping benefits to be rich and idle. He believed that anyone with a little brain would know which one to choose.

It was because of this that the two of them sat together like brothers, appearing unusually harmonious.

"Young master."

At this moment, a voice interrupted the conversation between the two brothers. Qin Yitong raised his eyes. He had some impression of this person. He was one of the guest officials that Qin Qing had recruited.

His name seemed to be Li Yuan.

"Greetings, eldest young master." Li Yuan cupped his hands and saluted him with a serious expression.

Qin Yitong nodded noncommittally. As for the group of guest officials under Qin Qing, he naturally paid some attention to them as a precaution. However, he did not take them to heart.

There was no other reason. This group of people's standards were too low.

Qin Qing definitely had her own reasons for recruiting these people, but it was a bit of a stretch to think that she could rely on a group of unpresentable people to achieve success.

Any of his personal guards could easily beat up these so-called guest officials. It was a pure waste of Qin Qing's wealth to raise such a group of trash.

However, it was also because of this that Qin Yitong was more at ease with his second brother. After all, from the perspective of a competitor, this was not a bad thing. On the contrary, it was a great thing.

When it came to their core interests, no one would despise their competitors for being too weak.

"What's going on? Can't you see that I'm drinking tea with big brother?"

Qin Qing frowned in dissatisfaction.

Li Yuan quickly apologized and said in a low voice, "There's an old friend outside looking for young master. I just happened to run into him, so I came to report this. "

Chapter 10065

Qin Qing was a little surprised and asked, 'an old friend? Is it a male or female?"

Li Yuan glanced at Qin Yi Tong and said awkwardly, ""Female,"

Qin Yitong laughed out loud on the spot. He was well aware of Qin Qing's romantic past.

Although being lustful was also a common problem for men, it was rare to see someone as lustful as Qin Qing. As her competitor, this was a big advantage that made him feel at ease.

If there weren't so many problems, with Qin Qing's identity, status, and support, the threat she posed to him wouldn't have been like today. It would have been raised by several levels at least!

If that was the case, it would be inevitable for him and Qin Qing to kill each other.

"Since the beauty has an appointment, then I will not disturb second younger brother's elegant mood."

Qin Yitong stood up on the spot in an understanding manner.

With an embarrassed look, Qin Qing repeatedly apologized, ""It's rare for me to sit down and drink tea with big brother, but I was interrupted by this kind of inexplicable thing. What a killjoy. "

Although he said so, the corner of his eyes revealed an irrepressible urgency.

Qin Yitong found it funny. He did not know if it was the Qin family's misfortune or his great fortune to have encountered such a useless competitor.

"You and I are brothers, we will have plenty of opportunities to drink tea. Second brother, you go first, don't let the beauty wait too long."

Qin Yitong smiled and waved his hand.

As he watched Qin Qing leave, he habitually used his divine sense to monitor her. Soon, he heard a woman's voice from a distance, and he was completely relieved.

At that moment, Qin Qing looked at Ning Wanjun, who was standing in front of her, and her expression was complicated.

"Long time no see, lover boy."

Ning Wanjun gave a graceful bow, and there was no trace of the previous life-and-death battle.

Qin Qing was silent for a long time before she finally sighed. "You're here. "

The two of them exchanged pleasantries for a moment as if they were old friends. It was not until Li Yuan made a gesture at the door to indicate that it was safe that Qin Qing smiled bitterly. "I didn't expect King Hai hai hai to send you here."

"You should have thought of it. After all, I'm the most suitable candidate."

Ning Wanjun put away the hidden bitterness on her face and instantly turned back into a strong woman with a decisive aura. "Qin Yitong is really careful. You are already so terrified and he still hasn't let go of his surveillance on you. Instead, he is getting more and more intense."

Qin Qing helplessly spread out her hands. "He's just such a person. He's lenient on the outside but cautious on the inside. On the surface, he's kind to everyone, but in fact, he's keeping a close eye on me. If I act strangely, he'll probably send someone to kill me."

"Are you scared?" ning Wanjun looked at him.

"Afraid? How can you not be afraid?"

Qin Qing didn't try to hide it at all, but her expression immediately turned stern. "Unfortunately, no matter how afraid I am, he will not let me go. Who asked me to be more important than him in grandmother's heart?"

He doesn't dare to touch me now because he's afraid of being discovered by grandmother. At that time, not only will he not be able to take over, but he will also be in trouble.

However, once he becomes the patriarch as he wishes and is confident that he can control the overall situation, he'll definitely take action Against Me!"

If he did not have this clear judgment, based on his character, he really did not want to be enemies with Qin Yitong.

It wasn't for the sake of Brotherhood, but for him, he preferred beauties over power. Once he was entangled with power, he wouldn't have so much time to be lecherous with women in the future. This was worse than killing him!

Ning Wanjun knew his temperament well, and a trace of disdain flashed in the depths of her eyes.

She'd tricked him before, but she'd still considered him a Big Shot before. After meeting Lin Yi, she felt that this guy was a frog in a mud pit, not even worth mentioning.

However, Qin Qing had really been wronged.

Compared to Lin Yi, who could become the king of the sea coast so easily and could turn the entire sea upside down, how many people in the entire sea could be compared to him?

"You've also received the divine decree. Since you're going to fight with Qin Yitong, you must grasp this opportunity well."

"You'll never be able to compete with him in a normal competition," ning Wanjun said lightly. "This time, I've given you a legitimate opportunity to take advantage of his power. If you don't take advantage of it, then no one can help you."

Qin Qing frowned slightly and asked, 'whose power? My father has already strictly ordered that no one is allowed to discuss the Oracle. If I were to forcefully jump out, I'm afraid I'll be the first to die!'

In fact, not only the Qin family, but almost all the major forces, including the royal families of the four Seas, had adopted a cold treatment toward this Oracle without prior agreement.

No listening, no asking, no discussing.

Although everyone knew that pretending to be an ostrich wouldn't solve the problem, the seeds of what was called ambition were actually suspicion had already been sown, and it was only a matter of time before they sprouted.

However, cold treatment had at least one advantage. It could prolong the fermentation time.

In this way, it gave the major forces a chance to react calmly. Perhaps in the end, chaos would still be inevitable, but at least it would not be a serious blow to their vitality.

"Your father can control his subordinates, but can he control the Empress Dowager?" ning Wanjun looked at him with amusement.

"You mean my grandmother?"

Qin Qing was stunned when she heard this.

The Qin clan was different from other powers. Back then, it had truly risen in the hands of his grandmother. It could also be said that it was his grandmother who single-handedly created the current Qin clan's fifth royal family.

Although her father was in charge in name and her grandmother had already retreated behind the scenes, as long as she was alive, her right to speak was destined to be above everyone in the Qin family.

After all, she was the Qin family's totem.

"She's your only hope,"ning Wanjun nodded.

Qin Qing couldn't help but feel troubled."But my grandmother has already said that she will no longer interfere with the family's Affairs. She has always been a woman of her word. She will never easily go back on her words."

After all, she wasn't an ordinary old woman. Although her grandmother doted on her, this kind of love wouldn't be above the family's overall situation. Qin Qing still knew this.

Ning Wanjun raised her eyebrows and smiled."Rules are meant to be broken. She didn't interfere before because she hadn't crossed her bottom line. Once she crossed it, it'll be a different scene."

"How do you mean?"

Qin Qing was confused. "What my grandmother values the most is the unity of the family. Therefore, she fully supports father's decision this time. If I were to jump out, I would only make her unhappy."

"What if it wasn't you who destroyed the unity, but your big brother?" ning Wanjun said meaningfully.

"Him?"

Qin Qing shook her head repeatedly. "Although I also hope that he will make a mistake, the possibility of this happening is too low. With his current advantage, as long as he doesn't make any mistakes, the position of the future clan head will be in his pocket. Why would he make a mistake at this time?"

"He doesn't do stupid things himself, but we can help him do stupid things."

Ning Wanjun's face revealed a strange smile.

Chapter 10066

Qin Qing suddenly had a bad feeling. However, before he could react, a poisonous dagger was already stabbed into his chest.

"You ... Why ..."

The poison instantly spread throughout her body, and her life force was draining at a speed visible to the naked eye.

In the middle of dying, Qin Qing heard the other party's voice. ""From now on, you'll enter a state of feigned death. Of course, if you can't be treated in time, you may really die, but with how much your grandmother values you, the possibility of this is very low.

You just need to remember that I'm someone sent by your big brother. "

With that, ning Wanjun nodded to Li Yuan, who was guarding the door, and activated the spatial mark that Lin Yi gave her, and was captured into the new world.

Li Yuan immediately cried for help in panic.

Very quickly, the entire Qin family knew that Qin Qing had been assassinated. Most importantly, it had happened right after he had finished drinking tea with the eldest young master, Qin Yitong!

The Qin family was in chaos.

On this day, the Qin family's matriarch, who had not left her own courtyard for many years, made an exception and descended on Qin Qing's side courtyard.

After she personally investigated the scene, she still couldn't find any traces of the assassin leaving. This matriarch of the Qin family, who was once known as the legendary wife of the sea realm, was finally angry.

Because this could only mean one thing, the assassin did not escape from the Qin family, but was hidden by someone!

The biggest suspect was naturally Qin Yitong.

When he was called over, Qin Yitong was dumbfounded. When he first saw Qin Qing, who was on the verge of death, he even subconsciously felt a little happy.

No matter what, Qin Qing was the biggest threat to him in the family. As long as Qin Qing died, he would be completely free of worries. It could be said that he had won without doing anything.

However, when he noticed his grandmother's eyes that were suppressing her anger, he suddenly shivered.

She had brought the Qin family to the fifth royal family by herself. What kind of person was the matriarch of the Qin family? from the moment Qin Yitong entered the family, every subtle expression could not escape her eyes.

That included a hint of joy.

Combined with the recent Oracle and the decree of gratitude, and his position as the publicly acknowledged future successor, he had his men in the Qin family. The motive and conditions for the crime were all in place.

Qin Yitong was unable to defend himself.

Li Yuan watched all of this coldly, and couldn't help but be shocked by Lin Yi again.

As Lin Yi's earliest spy, he was still thinking about how to break out of the Qin family's situation. With the old Madam's help, even if Qin Qing was dissatisfied with Qin Yi, it wouldn't be easy to break out of the situation.

In his opinion, no matter how well-thought out the plan was, it would take at least two years to break through the Qin family!

In the end, he did not expect that in less than two days, the Qin family, which was as tough as an iron bucket, would actually be broken by such a violent force, and a huge hole was torn open!

Although the old matriarch had considered the big picture and did not flip out on the spot, she did not flare up at Qin Yitong directly. However, her next action still caused Qin Yitong to feel a chill all over his body.

She personally brought Qin Qing to her courtyard and let her take care of her.

"If we continue to stay here, I'm afraid that my grandson will die at any moment!"

These words were obviously meant for Qin Yitong.

From the beginning to the end, Qin Yitong did not receive any substantial scolding. Even the entire Qin clan was collectively silenced. No one was allowed to discuss this matter and no one was allowed to lead the wind towards Qin Yitong.

However, those with discerning eyes knew that from this moment on, this future successor of the Qin family was already covered in a thick shadow.

Once Qin Qing was saved, it would be hard to say who would win in the future.

There were no walls in the world that were impervious. The storm of the Qin family, the fifth royal family, soon spread throughout the entire sea area. This caused the royal families of the four Seas, who were already suspicious of each other because of the Oracle and the decree of grace, to become more turbulent and treacherous.

As the one who caused all of this, Lin Yi only smiled after receiving Li Yuan's Secret report.

For the entire sea area, this was not a small matter, especially considering the current situation. It involved the inheritance structure of the Qin family, the fifth royal family.

But to Lin Yi, this was just a chess piece he placed down.

At best, it could only be regarded as a prelude. The real big move was next.

The sea god's main palace.

Lin Yi couldn't help but feel a little dazed as he looked at the vast underwater buildings. He thought that he had seen the world, but now that he looked at it, he could only say that poverty had limited his imagination.

The majesty of a God was vividly reflected in the magnificent building in front of them.

Even an expert at his level felt subconsciously ashamed of his own inferiority in front of the sea god's main hall. He deeply felt how insignificant he was.

Fortunately, he was the sea god behind the scenes. Otherwise, he probably wouldn't even have the confidence to step into the temple.

"I've been leading priest hou mo he to wait for King Haihai for a long time. "

A middle-aged man in a God's robe appeared in front of Lin Yi quietly. Other than the eye-catching Mediterranean on his head, this man's appearance and aura gave people the feeling that he wasn't outstanding at all.

Lin Yi nodded.

The more unsightly a guy was, the more he needed to be afraid of him, especially when the other party was a priest.

"According to the rules," hou Maha said, "I will assist king hai hai in completing the corresponding duties and act as King hai Hai's personal assistant to deal with the corresponding matters."

"Personal assistant?"

"You're not just a priest for a while?" Lin Yi asked, surprised.

In his expectation, the so-called guiding priest was nothing more than a new assistant. After the new stage, the other party would naturally withdraw.

"The duty of guiding the priest is permanent," hou Moshe replied, "and will only be replaced under the following three circumstances.

First, the Sea King was killed;

Second, guide the priest to meet with misfortune;

Three, the temple will change their candidates. "

Lin Yi didn't know what to say to the guy's emotionless tone, so he nodded."Alright, what should I do next?"

"I understand King hai Hai's duties," hou mo he said with a straight face.

"Tell me," Lin Yi said, interested.

He naturally had some understanding of this, but it was just a piece of information. He was not clear about the true sequence of events.

Hou Moshe explained to him while leading him to the main hall.

"The origin of the position of King of the coastal waters, as the name implies, is to control the coastal waters. The true deeper meaning is to become a link between the land and the ocean, or to become a buffer zone for the conflict between the land and the ocean."

Lin Yi's eyes brightened. He thought that King hai hai was like the other Four Seas "royal families, a Lord of the sea.

However, it seemed that he had been too shallow.

Chapter 10067

"You are from the mainland, King hai hai," hou mo he continued, "I'm sure you are curious as to why there are so many humans living in this sea."

"Yeah," Lin Yi nodded.

Before this, he had always thought that the sea area was the world of sea beasts, and even if there were human activities, they were very few.

But now, it seemed that although many of the experts they had encountered were indeed sea beasts, the dominant ones were still pure-blooded human cultivators, which was very unexpected.

"In fact, in the beginning, there weren't so many humans in the sea area. For a long time, the sea beasts were the dominant race, and it was chaotic and disorderly."

"When the first batch of human criminals was exiled into the sea, they were fortunate enough to receive the Lord seagod's favor and obtain the ability to survive in the sea."

"They became the earliest believers of the sea god, and the sea god temple only took shape at that time."

Suddenly, hou mo he interrupted, ""The second advisor, Madam Qing, was one of the earliest believers."

Lin Yi blinked as the image of the old lady flashed through his mind.

According to this statement, this Madam Qing was not only experienced, but also an old monster.

"Exiled criminals ..."

Just this point alone was enough to prove that the other party was by no means a kind person.

"As more and more believers came, there was inevitable internal division," hou Moshe continued. "Especially after the fall of the previous Lord sea god, the sea realm entered an era of unprecedented chaos.

After thousands of years of war, it slowly evolved into the current power structure. In order to distinguish themselves from the humans on land, the sea humans began to call themselves the sea humans. "

"What does that have to do with me, Sea King?" Lin Yi asked.

Hou Moshe glanced at him and said,"in the end, the Marine human race is not a true marine race. They are a race that was born with a curse. Although they can live in the sea under the protection of the sea god, they still need to consume specific resources from the land regularly. Otherwise, their bodies will collapse."

However, the problem was that, except for a few powerful individuals, the Marine human tribe was unable to leave the sea realm, just like the other marine tribes.

In order to ensure stable access to land resources and balance the relationship between the land and sea, the position of king of the sea was created.

This is the origin of the Sea King. "

"I see."

Lin Yi's eyes were really opened this time-he really didn't think that Ocean King had this kind of history.

"But if King hai has been empty for so many years, how did you solve the problem of land resources?" Lin Yi asked.

Hou Maha looked at him with a profound look and said,""All these years, it has been controlled by the four Seas 'royal families. Because of the Qin family's special ability, they have also taken a share of the profits. Therefore, their development momentum is extremely fast, and they are now known as the fifth royal family."

"No wonder the royal families of the four Seas reacted so strongly. They were afraid that I would touch their cake."

Lin Yi reacted immediately.

Once any industry was involved in a monopoly, it would definitely represent a huge amount of benefits, especially when the royal families of the four Seas controlled the resources on land. It could be said that they directly controlled the lifeline of the Marine human tribe.

One could easily imagine how great the benefits would be.

"If King hai hai just wants to live his life in an empty name, that's not a big problem," hou Moshe reminded."No matter how arrogant the royal families of the four Seas are, they won't dare to attack you in the open. After all, you're the king hai hai appointed by the Lord sea god."

However, if they really want to go all out, then we have to be careful. The possibility of them taking a risk in order to protect their vested interests is very high. "

"I understand."

Lin Yi said, surprised.

This was a priest. Since he was sent to be a guide priest, there must be the high priest's intention behind it.

As a potential enemy, the best thing to do was to take this opportunity to dig a hole for himself and let him fight with the royal families of the four Seas, silently killing with a borrowed knife.

And because of that, Lin Yi pretended to listen carefully to every word the man said, but he was actually confused inside-he wouldn't believe him so easily.

But now, it seemed that it was a little different from what he had expected?

Hou Moshe suddenly stopped in his tracks."King hai hai might have some doubts about me. I can understand that. And I can tell you clearly that the high priest did want me to do something that would harm you. But I refused."

"....."

The sudden honesty caught Lin Yi off guard.

Lin Yi's eyes lit up-the priest was showing his cards right away, it seemed like he was quite the person.

"May I know the reason?"

Lin Yi said.

"My loyalty belongs only to the Lord sea god, not to the high priest," hou Moshe said.

"That's a good reason," Lin Yi nodded.

Hou mo he shook his head and said,""It doesn't matter if you believe me or not, I will fulfill my duty with my actions. At least, I will be a qualified guide priest."

Lin Yi's eyes deepened."Then I'll wait and see."

The guide priest was the personal assistant of the king of the sea, and he was almost bound to the position for life. The other party's words were basically equivalent to expressing his loyalty in person.

This loyalty, in name, was for the sea god, but in reality, it was for him, the Sea King.

But if one day, he let this person know that the seagod had fallen, and that it had fallen at his hands, who knew what kind of reaction he would have?

The two of them walked silently for a while and came to a Palace at the edge of the building complex.

Although it was obviously much thinner than the core buildings, it was still better than all the other luxurious buildings in the outside world. The sole king's palace in the repeat school was only a little better than a dog's house.

"This is King hai Hai's Palace. If you want, King hai can stay here permanently."

Hou Maha led Lin Yi around, and the luxurious interior was once again an eye-opener for him.

Lin Yi didn't think much of it other than the surprise he felt at the start. It was a nice place, but he felt like there was someone watching him from behind.

There was more than one of them.

This wasn't strange. The high priest would certainly pay attention to his every move. The other important figures of the sea god temple, including the top five advisors who had yet to show themselves, would most likely be secretly paying attention to his movements.

It was foreseeable that he would be the focus of the entire seagod Hall for at least some time.

However, Lin Yi didn't have any intention to hide it. He asked directly, ""Where are my personal guards?"

Hou Mohe was slightly stunned, but he did not look surprised. ""The guards unit is now managed by the guards of the divine Hall. If Prince hai hai is willing, you can call them back now. Like me, they are all private staff of Prince hai hai."

Chapter 10068

"Then I'll have to trouble you."

Lin Yi nodded.

Hou Moshe answered and left, but he soon returned with an ashen face. He was alone.

"It's not going well?" Lin Yi raised a brow.

"The personal guard unit has been disbanded and incorporated into the divine Hall's personal guard," hou Moshe replied in a deep voice. "Deputy commander Lyu yang has bluntly said that those people are now members of the divine Hall's personal guard. If Prince hai hai wants a personal guard unit, you can build one yourself."

"I'll build one myself?"

Lin Yi gave a weird smile. "It's not impossible,"

He knew that his trip to the sea goddess Hall this time would not go smoothly. He had already expected such a scene.

Hou Maha nodded silently, but there was a hint of disappointment in the depths of his eyes.

Although from Lin Yi's point of view, as a new Sea King without a strong background, it was the best choice to back down now, but it was still frustrating.

As the priest, if Lin Yi was determined to just sit around and wait for his death, he couldn't do anything about it. He could only waste his time.

Lin Yi turned around and walked towards the door, leaving behind a single sentence.

"To the temple guards" encampment. "

Hou Maha blinked and quickly followed. Lin Yi's choice was out of his expectations, and he admired it from the bottom of his heart, but he still had to fulfill his duty as the priest's Guide.

"Lord Haihai, don't be impulsive. Lyu yang is the high priest's trusted aide and has been in the guard Army for many years. He has won over everyone. Moreover, he is clearly prepared this time. It is not wise to confront him head-on."

Hou Mohe's words of advice seemed to have exhausted his mind.

Lin Yi stopped in his tracks and turned back to look at him."Old hou, it's true that we need to use our brains to do things, but we can't just rely on our brains alone, because the brain is the most cowardly thing. It's best at deceiving itself and scaring itself."

“.....”

Hou Maha was stunned for a long time as he watched Lin Yi's back."Old hou?"

A moment later, the two arrived at the temple guards.

"The military camp is an important place, unauthorized people are not allowed in."

Two soldiers with heavy auras were guarding the door, blocking their way.

Lin Yi raised a brow-even the guards were half-step Venerables, and they weren't the kind of half-step Venerables that only had strength. The Poseidon shrine was indeed the peak of the sea realm.

Just this kind of personnel allocation was enough to make the strength of all parties far inferior.

If the royal families of the four Seas did not stick together, they would be crushed to pieces in minutes.

"I'm hai hai Wang, I'm here to get my Guards unit back," Lin Yi said faintly.

The two guards looked at each other. "Your personal guard unit is not here. Go back to where you came from. If you dare to take one more step, kill without mercy."

Lin Yi looked at the two. "While I'm still willing to reason with you, you'd better treasure this opportunity. If you miss it, you'll never have the chance to reason with me again."

The two guards laughed and replied in unison, "Idiot, get lost!"

Lin Yi didn't know what to do—he had no choice but to walk in after the invitation.

"You reckless fool, how dare you barge into the camp?"

The guards were furious. They didn't care about the Sea King. They were only responsible for carrying out the orders of their superiors.

No matter who dared to barge in, he would kill without mercy!

The two blades in their hands let out a shrill cry as they slashed at Lin Yi's shoulders from both sides.

Hou Maha's eyes twitched.

The other party's saber was not a different giant saber, but a divine weapon that was specially enhanced by rules. Even if it was the lowest level of mass-produced divine weapons, its power was still extraordinary.

To be struck in such a direct manner, even an expert who had officially stepped into the Supreme realm would not be able to withstand it, much less an existence below the Supreme realm.

According to the normal situation, Lin Yi would've been cut into four pieces!

But the strange thing was, Lin Yi didn't even make a single move to block the attack. He just let the enemy hit him without moving an inch.

The scene instantly froze.

The two guards' expressions changed. Then, they heard two cracking sounds and saw that the giant blades in their hands were covered with dense cracks.

“.....”

Everyone fell into a Strange Daze.

This was a divine weapon with the addition of rules!

No matter how strong one's physical body was, there should be a minimum limit. How could one be so strong that even the rule force would be shattered?

Just as the two fell into a daze, a strong figure appeared behind Lin Yi, its giant tail sweeping across and smacking the two guards to the ground.

It was the snake that Lin Yi had tamed.

The two of them walked straight into the military camp without looking back. Hou Maha was stunned for a moment and quickly followed. He had a faint premonition that there was going to be big news today.

At the same time, in the sea god's Wayfarer headquarters conference room.

Hai Wutian looked at the five big bosses sitting in front of him and swallowed nervously.

As the ninth-ranked sea God's Walker, this was the first time he'd attended an internal meeting of the top five. The big screen in the middle of the meeting room was broadcasting the camp live, and the owner of the screen was Lin Yi.

The only reason he was able to sit here today was because of Lin Yi. After all, he was Lin Yi's recommendation.

"The show is starting."

The old lady Bu Qinglian smiled as she spoke. This internal meeting was personally organized by her, and it was the first time in a hundred years.

The fifth Walker, Du Hong, leaned back on the recliner and chattered non-stop.

"I really don't know why we're wasting our time on this unremarkable guy. Just because he was lucky enough to pick up the sea crown? I'm very busy, I really don't have the time to watch a guy who doesn't know what he's doing put on airs ..."

The fourth Walker, the actor, interrupted with a smile, ""Old du?"

"If it weren't for Madam Qing, I wouldn't be sitting here. You all know that I'm a busy man ..." Du Hong was still complaining to himself.

Hai Wutian looked down helplessly. Hearing the fifth Walker's words, he felt a headache.

"Old du?"

"Can't you tell?" Xi Bao interrupted again.

Du Hong finally stopped talking and asked curiously, ""What did you see?"

"The saber is broken."

Du Hong was confused, "so what if it's broken?" I can also shatter this saber, which one of you here can't do the same?"

At their level, not to mention this kind of low-grade divine artifact, even the higher grade goods were not difficult to destroy. After all, other than those rare top-grade divine artifacts, the rest of the divine artifacts were just inanimate objects, no matter how powerful they were.

Destroying an inanimate object was naturally not a difficult thing for them.

Chapter 10069

I can 't, hai Wutian thought to himself.

At this moment, the third advisor Xing pojun said in a deep voice, ""He didn't use his rule force to counter the shock, but purely relied on the shock of his physical body."

Du Hong was still confused.

"Only the legendary divine body can achieve this," Madam Qing continued with a smile.

"....."

Du Hong immediately stopped talking.

Hai Wutian's jaw dropped in shock. ""Divine body?!"

As a top-tier sea God's Walker, they had a much clearer understanding of the concept of the divine body than ordinary cultivators, and they were even more aware of the invincibility and dominance of this thing.

For a moment, only the sound of the live broadcast could be heard in the entire conference hall.

Then, Madam Qing broke the silence again. ""We need to join forces with him."

Before this, even if her super qualifications made everyone feel intimidated, everyone present except hai Wutian would have scoffed at her.

The three words "Sea King" really didn't have much weight to speak of here.

But now, no one doubted Lin Yi's abilities. Even if he had nothing else, his God Body was enough to suppress everything.

The top five advisors looked at each other, and their gazes finally fell on the long-haired man at the very front.

The first Walker, Wolf Slayer.

Although the top five advisors didn't have a clear leader-they were basically each in charge of their own matters and rarely involved each other-they would still choose to stick together when it came to a critical moment.

After all, their enemy was the chief high priest, who was recognized as the number two figure in the sea.

Other than the sea god Himself, no one else in the entire sea realm was qualified to be mentioned in the same breath as him, including the few of them present. There was also a visible gap between them.

With the cracks between the two sides today, if they did not unite against the outside world, they would be defeated one by one.

In fact, even if they chose to group up, they would still be at an absolute disadvantage when facing the high priest's priest faction.

If they were to rely on themselves, it would basically be equivalent to a slow death, and there was almost no possibility of a comeback.

Therefore, they had to find a variable.

Lin Yi was the variable.

At this time, Lin Yi's group had already entered the heart of the camp, and the guards ahead were on high alert.

"Knocking down the guards without a word and breaking into the camp. Tsk, tsk, King Haihai is so mighty."

A middle-aged man with a big belly said with a strange smile.

In front of him were rare delicacies in the world, and any one of them was worth the entire wealth of an ordinary cultivator. Even the royal families of the four Seas probably did not have such standards.

He was the Vice commander of the guards, Lü Yangzhong.

Lin Yi commented sincerely, "The food is not bad."

"Sit down and eat?"

Lü Yangzhong acted like an unscrupulous master and laughed, "'I'm guessing you've never eaten such good food in your life, but it's more likely that you'll never be able to afford it in your entire life. "

"Alright."

Lin Yi didn't hold back and just sat down, eating in front of the other party and the guards, as if he didn't care about the mockery at all.

This scene truly shocked the other party.

Lü Yangzhong couldn't hold his face any longer as he looked at Lin Yi's unstoppable momentum-he wanted to give himself two tight slaps.

[He's a deputy commander. No matter how unrefined he is, he can't go back on his words in front of so many subordinates. He can't just say that I invited you just now because of my cheap mouth. I'm also bleeding in my heart for you to eat such a good thing, right?]

He didn't care about his face as the boss ...

Helplessly, lü Yangzhong had no choice but to lower his head and eat. He was afraid that the shameless Lin Yi would take an extra bite if he was even a second slower.

Everyone silently watched the two eat like crazy, and the whole scene was quite strange for a moment.

The top five advisors in the conference hall were speechless when they saw this.

The fourth Walker, the drama queen, giggled and commented, ""He's an interesting fellow. He should be quite compatible with me. "

Du Hong, the fifth Walker, rolled his eyes. ""That's right. You're a good freeloader. You've cheated me out of so many meals over the years without even giving me a bit of food."

Of the five advisors of the sea goddess Hall, the other three were usually distant and rarely came out to interact with others. Only the two of them moved around more often and had a rather close relationship.

Lü yang gritted his teeth as he watched Lin Yi finish the last bite as if there was no one else around.

The show hadn't even started yet, but he felt like he had already lost a hundred million.

"Now that we're done eating, can we talk about business?"

Lin Yi finally remembered.

The corner of Lu Yangzhong's mouth twitched. 'If you had even the slightest sense of shame as a human, you shouldn't have delayed it until now.'

"I heard that you're in charge of my personal guard Camp," Lin Yi said, getting straight to the point.
"Since I'm here, it's time to return it to its rightful owner."

Lyu Yangzhong sneered, "what personal guard Camp?" I've been the Deputy commander here for so many years, and I only know that this is the divine Hall's guards, but I've never heard of any Guard Camp. Could it be that Prince Haihai has made a mistake?"

Lin Yi looked at him helplessly, "I'm actually a very reasonable person. I don't use force unless it's the last resort. This world is already chaotic enough. You should treasure my good temper."

"Oh? From what you're saying, you're planning to use force here?"

Lü Yangzhong snorted coldly. "It seems that Prince hai hai doesn't know our rules here. Come, a few good-for-nothing trash, and teach him the rules of the divine Hall's guards!"

As soon as he finished speaking, a few lazy experts walked out from the queue.

Compared to the other normal guards, these people looked more relaxed, but they were clearly golden class early phase Venerables. Even in the temple guards, they were considered elites.

Although the sea realm was the domain of Supreme realm experts, and every force had a Supreme realm expert in charge, it was not a Supreme realm that just anyone had the right to enter.

Supreme realm experts, especially those who formed groups, were a force to be reckoned with no matter where they went.

"Three? Isn't that a little too little?"

The snake stood out from behind Lin Yi. He had placed all his hopes on Lin Yi, and he knew why Lin Yi let him out.

After all, as the boss, if he had to personally deal with a few small minions, it would be too demeaning.

"The sea Python clan?"

Lyu Yangzhong raised his brows slightly and said with a smile that was not a smile, ""Your sea Python clan is now synonymous with dangerous elements. In the past month alone, we've dealt with no less than five rebellions.

Chapter 10070

They had already sold themselves as slaves, but in the end, they all went back on their word.

Hehe, your race doesn't seem to know the meaning of keeping one's promise?"

The temple guards were the establishment of the sea God's temple. In name, they were only responsible for the safety of the sea God's temple, but in reality, they cooperated with various forces. Many times, they also worked as part-time fighters. Of course, the premise was that the money was paid.

The great Python's anger instantly exploded. "You are the accomplices to the murder of my clansmen?"

The aura of a mid-stage golden class venerable immediately pressed down on everyone's head.

Everyone in Lyu Yang's group felt their eyelids Twitch.

In the home ground of the temple guards, although they were fearless, they were still a little stressed to suddenly encounter such a tough opponent.

A mid-stage golden class venerable was definitely not a weakling no matter where he went in the sea, especially when the guards of the divine Hall were strong as a whole, but it was never a place where individual strength stood out.

In terms of individual strength, they had reached the venerable realm, but that was all they had. There weren't many golden class early phase peak Venerables, and even fewer mid phase Venerables.

"Can I kill people?"

The Python turned to Lin Yi, his killing intent showing signs of going out of control. His people were his reverse scale, and whoever stepped on it had to be prepared for a backlash.

Lin Yi looked at Lyu Yangzhong indifferently, "we're here to discuss something, of course we'll talk it out. But if they don't want to talk about it and force us to be friends through martial arts, we'll have to do as the Romans do."

However, fists and legs have no eyes. If there is any accident during the process, there is no other way to kill someone. I think deputy commander Lu should be able to understand. "

"I understand! Of course, I understand!"

A vicious smile appeared on Lyu Yangzhong's face, ""We, the temple guards, don't know anything else except for some rough work of fighting and killing. We've dealt with at least 800 sea pythons before, so it's not a big deal to have one more."

With a look, seven more golden class early phase Venerables stood up and stood side by side with the three from before.

A full ten people, this was a full combat Team!

The top five advisors in the conference hall were immediately interested.

The fifth Walker, Du Hong, clicked his tongue and sighed."Lü Yangzhong is really ruthless. He actually used a full team. That's enough to destroy a force."

However, I remember that the Grand Commander has to personally approve the use of a small team-level operation. He's just a deputy commander who's ranked at the bottom, so he doesn't have the right to do so, right?"

The fourth Walker, Xi Bao, laughed."He has a strong backing. It's nothing to mobilize a full squad in the military camp. Even if he uses an entire Brigade to besiege our king of the sea, who would punish him?"

Everyone knew that the chief commander of the temple's guards was neutral in name and would not side with either the priests or the advisors, but in fact, anyone with a discerning eye could see that this one of the sea God's temple's top three most powerful men was actually standing on the high priest's side.

Without his tacit approval, Lyu Yang's personal strength was not enough to sit in the position of deputy commander.

The position of a deputy commander was coveted by many people in the sea god's Palace. Even within the personal guards, there were several powerful people who coveted it. In the end, it fell into the hands of an idiot like Lyu Yangzhong. It was truly a surprise.

Even when Lyu Yangzhong was in this position, he caused waves of trouble again and again. At one point, it even developed to the extent of a mutiny in the military camp.

However, they were all suppressed by the commander in the end.

The root of all this was that Lyu yang was the high priest's man. To a certain extent, this was actually a token of allegiance given to the high priest by the commander.

At this moment, Madam Qing suddenly said, ""That's not impossible,"

"Ha?"

The crowd didn't react for a moment, but when they combined the context, their expressions changed.

Hai Wutian, who was watching from the side, was dumbfounded. Lü Yangzhong really wanted to kill Lin Yi at all costs? that was impossible, right?

No matter how strong his backing was, he couldn't be stronger than the Lord seagod, right?

Lin Yi was the sea god's personal acknowledgment of the new Sea King!

For a moment, the atmosphere in the meeting hall began to change. The expressions of the top five advisors changed, and no one knew what they were thinking.

At this time, facing a full team of personal guards, the Python's aura had clearly become much more solemn.

Of course, he was a mid-stage golden class venerable, two whole levels higher than these people. In theory, he could easily take on ten of them at once.

However, the problem was that although the individual strength of the temple guards was limited, there was nothing special about one-on-one combat, and they were not even as good as many solo Masters of the same level.

However, once they formed a team, especially a full team, their combat power was far more than just one plus one greater than two.

This was a combination of trump cards that could form a qualitative change!

There had been golden class middle phase Venerables, and even golden class middle phase peak Venerables who had died at the hands of these small teams!

The soldiers on the opposite side all had a lazy smile on their faces. They moved forward in a relaxed manner, without the slightest trace of elite combat strength.

However, after taking a few steps, the Python had fallen into their invisible encirclement.

"There's something. "

Lin Yi nodded slightly. The entire encirclement was loose on the outside but tight on the inside. It looked full of flaws, but it was actually full of traps. There were at least a hundred changes, and each change was enough to kill the Python, a mid phase golden class venerable!

It was easy to tell if there was an expert or not. Just this encounter alone was enough to show the power of the divine Hall guards.

Although the sea realm wasn't United, they didn't lack powerful combat strength.

It was no wonder that the beast God Hall had not made a move even though it was ready to march into the sea realm. It had been preparing for a long time. If it did not have a real Super Combat force, the guards of the beast God Hall would be able to crush its teeth if it attacked recklessly!

A moment later, the Python let out a low growl and took the lead to attack.

He'd obviously seen through the enemy's formation as well-he didn't fall into the trap right away, but used the explosive power of a golden class mid-phase venerable to create a very short one-on-one opportunity!

"This is a good opportunity!"

On the screen, hai Wutian was excited.

He was not as strong as the great Python, but he could tell that the great Python's attack was brilliant.

It seemed to be reckless, but in reality, he was using force to break through. As long as he could take advantage of this opportunity to kill one person, the power of the opposite battle formation would be reduced by at least 30%. Then, he could break them one by one and forcibly stack his advantages into victory!

BOOM!

The Python's tail, which carried unparalleled rule power, slammed into the chest of the person in front of it.
