

Bodyguard 10071

Chapter 10071

This was his full power as a mid phase golden class venerable, and he was aiming to kill with one hit. He was sure that other than a freak like Lin Yi, no other early phase golden class venerable could withstand this attack.

However, the strange thing was that the person in front of him clearly had very ordinary strength, but he did not die on the spot after being hit by his sure-kill.

Not only did he not die, but he even forced himself to fight back after letting out a muffled groan. There was only a shocking wound left on his body, and the real injury was far less serious than it looked.

However, almost at the same time, the other nine people's auras all faltered, and they all showed signs of injury, the degree of injury exactly the same as this person.

"We'll split the damage?"

Lin Yi's eyelid twitched as he revealed an interested expression, "This is a godly technique for team battles. You have to learn it well."

It was clear that the essence of the opponent's ten man battle formation was to share the damage. All other offensive and defensive changes were built on this Foundation to achieve.

After all, the worst thing in a team battle was to be defeated one by one, especially when an individual's hard power was not as good as the opponent's. This was almost an unsolvable problem.

In fact, the core essence of almost all brilliant battle formations that never changed was to maintain cooperation. Everything served this core principle.

Once the communication between the two was cut off, even the most brilliant battle formation would be instantly torn apart and collapse.

And the perfect solution to all this was the legendary damage sharing.

It wasn't an overstatement to say that just from the damage-splitting skill alone, this battle formation was the best Lin Yi had ever seen!

Lin Yi made up his mind immediately-he had to learn this!

As long as he could teach his men from Jianghai Academy how to split the damage evenly, the casualty rate would be greatly reduced in the future war against the beast God Hall. It would not be a dream to reduce it by ninety percent!

Just this point alone made this trip worth it!

At this moment, the Python had obviously realized this, and it fell into a bitter battle without any surprise.

In his situation, the only solution was to end the battle quickly and find a breakthrough point. However, now that he had an equal share of damage, the brittleskins who should have been able to kill him in one hit suddenly turned into health Bulls. How could he fight this?

Every time he attacked with all his strength, although he could still hit his opponent, he could still cause real damage. At first glance, the difference didn't seem that great.

However, the problem was that a fatal injury that could cause a reduction in personnel and a normal injury that did not affect the ability to move, even if the total amount of damage was the same, there was a huge difference between the two!

At first, the Python could barely hold on, but as time went on, the power of the battle formation gradually began to show, and he, a golden class mid-phase venerable, who had the absolute advantage, fell into a disadvantage.

Even if the enemy formation did not launch a joint attack and only trapped it by splitting the damage evenly, and then cut its flesh with the blunt knife, the damage was not great each time, but little drops add up to a lot, and it was a huge consumption for the Python!

Lyu Yangzhong laughed smugly. "It's rare to see a golden class middle phase venerable sea Python. You guys better be careful. Don't tear my sea python skin. I'm going to keep it for myself."

Oh right, and his sea Python gall, that's also a great supplement that can only be found by luck, so it's also mine. "

The great Python clearly still had the strength to fight, but in his mouth, it was already dead without a doubt, becoming his spoils of war.

"You're that confident that they'll win?" Lin Yi looked at him.

"If you still can't see the situation at this point, it only shows that you're stupid!"

Lyu Yangzhong sneered, "but it's not your fault. You're just a golden class early phase venerable. Your vision is so small. It's not strange that you can't see the situation clearly."

As he spoke, the Python had already suffered a series of attacks. Even with the strong body of the sea Python clan, it was suddenly a little overwhelmed.

These guards were only golden class early phase Venerables, and their formation wasn't focused on joint attacks, but it was still more effective than fighting alone.

A single attack might not be fatal, but once accumulated, especially when it was released at the same time, it could still be fatal.

To her surprise, Lin Yi suddenly smiled. "You just said that you've dealt with many experts of the sea Python clan. I thought you already had enough understanding of them, but it seems that's not the case."

"Ha? Don't I understand this bunch of trash?"

Lǚ Yangzhong looked at Lin Yi like he was an idiot. "I've already extracted so many sea Python galls myself. I've killed more sea Python women than you've ever seen. Do you know ..."

Before he could finish his sentence, the Python suddenly erupted.

A giant sea Python, hundreds of meters long, immediately shrouded the entire temple guards. The series of glaring wounds on its body became particularly shocking after being magnified.

Blood kept flowing out of the wound, and the amount of blood loss was simply appalling.

However, the strange thing was that the blood did not drip down. Instead, it stuck close to the huge Python's body and wrapped around it. The huge sea Python had turned into a Blood Python!

"He's dying. Be quick!"

Lyu Yangzhong could sense that something was wrong, but he did not think that he would lose control of himself.

After all, this was a full squad. Even if they weren't the strongest in the entire sea realm, they were still existences that could wipe out an area. If they couldn't even deal with a mere golden class middle phase venerable, then it really didn't make sense.

The ten-man team immediately accelerated their attack.

In order to kill as many people as possible, they had even given up on the coordination between parts of the battle formation. As the people involved, they could already feel a certain killing intent coming from the giant Blood Python in front of them.

Their strong intuition told them that if they couldn't deal with the other party soon, they wouldn't be far from death.

But it was too late.

At this moment, the Python's strength had increased more than ten times compared to before. It had far exceeded the upper limit of the combat strength of a ten-man team.

No matter how impressive the battle formation was, no matter how the damage was evenly distributed, it could not change the most basic nature.

Once the opponent's instantaneous burst exceeded the upper limit, the battle formation would be broken through from a single point and collapse instantly!

"Blood Python is the forbidden form of the sea Python clan. You can either kill them in one step or stay far away from them. It's just courting death to deal with the experts of the sea Python clan by cutting their flesh with a blunt knife. I thought this was common sense."

Lin Yi said faintly.

Just like when he had dealt with the Python before, he had used his absolute strength to crush it directly. If he really allowed the other party to turn into a Blood Python form, there might be many twists and turns.

Chapter 10072

BOOM!

Looking at the 10-man team that was instantly flattened, Lyu Yangzhong's face turned ashen and he was speechless for a long time.

"Oh ho, this is going to be fun."

In the conference hall, Du Hong's tone was as if he was just watching a show. He clicked his tongue and said, ""Killing an entire team in one go is definitely a major incident. I wonder how it will end next?"

Xi Bao laughed and said, "how else can it end?" Of course, if the small one dies, the big one will come out. Could it be that Lyu Yang Zhong will let this matter rest?"

As expected, Lyu Yangzhong's face darkened completely as he ordered to surround the three.

For a moment, the entire place was filled with a murderous aura, causing one's hair to stand on end.

"Vice commander Lu, are you going to give me a personal lesson?" Lin Yi looked around.

Lyu Yangzhong sneered, "hehe, I don't know if I should say that you're bold or stupid!"

You're the first in history to dare to kill me in my military camp. Do you really think you can do whatever you want with the empty title of King of the coastal waters?

Let me ask you, do you know how to spell the word "death"?"

Before this, he didn't think much of Lin Yi, the Sea King, but he didn't dare to be too reckless.

After all, no matter how strong the high priest's background was, he couldn't go against the sea God's will. If something happened to Lin Yi, no one would be able to save him.

However, now that the bodies of an entire squad were lying in front of him, he had sufficient reason to do anything.

He still didn't dare to kill Lin Yi directly, but if he wanted to cripple Lin Yi, he had the guts to do it.

The point was that this was his home ground, and Lin Yi wouldn't be able to handle a single word from him if he wanted to.

"I'm really trying to reason with you, why don't you listen?" Lin Yi said helplessly.

Lyu Yangzhong snorted. "In this Sea area, fists are the only thing that matters. You don't even know this basic common sense. It seems that you're stupid to a certain extent. It's not easy to live until now."

Since you've met a kind-hearted person like me, if I don't teach you a lesson, others will think that my divine Hall guards are not good at treating guests. "

With that, the hundreds of guards immediately formed a dozen battle formations, surrounding the giant python and Lin Yi at the same time.

Under the overlapping attacks, even the Python's situation became precarious.

After all, there were more than a hundred well-trained Supreme realm experts, especially with the addition of the divine skill of splitting the damage equally. It was no exaggeration to say that other than the top forces like the four Seas royal families, the remaining forces in the sea were basically no match for such a lineup.

Using it to kill a mid-stage golden class venerable was like using a butcher's knife to kill a chicken-there wouldn't be any more variables.

As for Lin Yi, he was nothing but a burden in lü Yangzhong's eyes. Other than the title of "king of the sea," he had no other merits.

In essence, he was just trash who had just entered the Supreme realm.

He even had to specially remind her,""The few of you, be gentler. Don't accidentally kill our King of the coastal waters with the aftermath. This crime is a bit big, and I can't bear it."

"Don't worry, commander. We're professionals in this. If we say we'll let him live, we'll keep him alive."

The leaders looked relaxed.

Even though they had learned from the mistakes of their entire team, they did not feel that they had been hurt by the same thing.

At the end of the day, as the only established armed force of the sea God's temple, from the day they entered the temple guards, their life and death were already disregarded. The only mission of their existence was to kill.

Other people's lives were not lives, and their own lives were also not lives.

Plus, they weren't fighting as a small team, they were fighting as a whole-they'd be a bit more careful if they were up against the royal families, but it was just Lin Yi and Lin Yi-there was no need to put on an act.

With the support bonus of equal damage, even if they wanted to go easy, they didn't know how to lose.

This was the truth. In the face of the absolute suppression of overall strength, no matter how much the great Python that had transformed into a Blood Python went berserk, the situation was still one-sided.

As more and more shocking wounds appeared on its body, the Python's aura clearly began to weaken.

Although it struggled a few times and tried to counterattack, it was firmly hammered back. In just a few moments, the great Python was already on its last breath, clearly not far from death.

On the other hand, Lin Yi's side wasn't the main target. He was only attacked by a few of the guards, and he didn't seem to be struggling at all.

Lyu Yangzhong did not seem to care much about this. He turned around and asked someone to bring a barrel of spirit wine over. "The fresh sea Python gall is a great match for wine. This time, I'll have to satisfy my mouth.

Sea King hai, just watch how your sea Python dies. Look carefully, he's going to die in your place. "

At that moment, Lin Yi's calm voice sounded from behind him, "If he's going to die in my place, then I wonder who you're going to die for, Lord vice commander?"

A chill ran up his spine and into his scalp. Lu Yangzhong's hair stood on end as he turned his head stiffly, his eyes filled with unconcealable horror.

"You? How did you get here?"

The 100-man battle formation of the guards of the divine Hall was extremely exquisite. Not only was it an unsolvable way to share the damage equally, but it also had countless changes.

Even a late phase golden class venerable wouldn't be able to escape if they were caught in it, let alone Lin Yi, who was only an early phase.

That's why he was so fearless-he thought that Lin Yi himself, or the Golden class mid phase giant python, were all fish in a net, and couldn't do anything to him anymore!

He didn't think that Lin Yi would just walk up to him without making a sound.

"I just walked over like this."

Lin Yi smiled normally, "I've done some research on formations. Your formation isn't much different from those formations. You just have to change the object into a person. As long as you can find the formation's eye, you'll be able to walk out, right?"

"....."

Lu Yangzhong's face was filled with shock. His words were like a heavenly book.

The logic was correct. Any battle formation was the same as a formation. As long as one could find the formation's eye, they could easily break it.

However, the problem was that the eye of the formation of the 100-man battle formation of the divine Hall guards was ever-changing. He could not even sense it, let alone capture it.

Chapter 10073

There was once a mid-stage golden class venerable who was good at spatial rule power. He couldn't even use his spatial power to escape, let alone break the formation, and was eventually exhausted to death.

"Luck! It must be luck!"

Lyu Yangzhong suddenly reacted, thinking that he had found a perfect explanation. ""You're cultivating the rules of Providence, so you're able to have such heaven-defying good luck time and time again. This is the only explanation. This must be it!"

Lin Yi didn't know whether to laugh or cry, but as a kind person, he couldn't ruin her beautiful fantasy. He only nodded, "You're right. "

Unexpectedly, Lyu Yangzhong's expression suddenly changed. He turned around and slapped, ""A piece of trash who can only rely on luck dares to play tricks in front of this commander!"

There was a crisp crack, and then he saw his arm bent at a strange angle.

After being stunned for a moment, Lyu Yang's painful cries reverberated through the entire scene.

Everyone's movements stopped as they looked at Lyu Yangzhong, who was rolling on the ground.

Lin Yi crossed his arms helplessly, "you're the Vice-commander of the temple guards, you can't do this to me. You were the one who hit me ..."

Everyone's expression became more and more strange.

Naturally, they saw what happened just now and knew that their vice commander had kicked an iron board. They were all on high alert against Lin Yi as if they were facing a great enemy.

A person who could easily penetrate their hundred-man formation and injure Lyu yang without even moving his hand, even if he was only an early phase golden class venerable on the surface, was definitely a dangerous person!

Although Lyu Yangzhong was able to become the Deputy commander mainly because of his relationship with the high priest, this did not mean that he was a good-for-nothing fake.

On the contrary, he was a true golden class mid phase venerable. In terms of strength, he was ranked at the bottom of the Vice commanders, but once he got serious, he'd also had shocking and heaven-defying performances.

If not for this, it would have been impossible for him to gain a firm foothold in the divine Hall's Guards Army, where the strong were respected, just by relying on the high priest's background.

"Preposterous!"

Lyu yang reacted and immediately flew into a rage out of humiliation. He immediately let out a low roar, and under the surge of the mysterious ocean rule power, he instantly integrated himself into the battle formation of 100 people.

With that, he'd be able to split the damage equally, and it was like he had a hundred early phase golden class Venerables as his backing. No matter how insane Lin Yi was, he'd be naturally undefeatable!

At the same time, he didn't forget to give an order to the others, ""Kill this sea Python first. Then, I'll play with him slowly. Let's see who can win!"

The group of divine Hall's personal guards acknowledged the order in unison. They immediately began to prepare their killing moves, ready to give the wounded Python the final blow.

"Why do you have to force me?" Lin Yi tilted his head helplessly.

As he spoke, a huge beast rule power surged out and an ancient demon God with a monstrous aura rose from the ground. It was the demon God Chi You!

"So this is your trump card?"

Lyu Yang's heart settled upon seeing this.

Of course, he knew how strong Chiyu was, but if that was all Lin Yi had, he wouldn't be able to shake the absolute advantage of his hundred-man battle formation!

"I'll personally meet you!"

Lü Yangzhong laughed as he transformed into an ocean giant. He was over 3000 feet tall, and his entire body was condensed from the purest ocean rule power.

This was already far beyond the limits of a normal mid-stage golden class venerable. It was the most special attribute of the Law of the Sea, the attribute of the sea containing all rivers, that gathered everyone's power in one place.

In terms of strength, Lyu yang, who had gathered the power of hundreds of early phase Venerables, and with his own Foundation, was no weaker than any middle phase venerable!

In addition, the damage was evenly distributed. At this moment, he could be said to be both offensive and defensive, and there was no obvious weakness.

The only way to defeat him was to crush him with pure strength. To put it bluntly, the opponent had to be at least a golden class mid phase peak venerable!

However, even in the entire seagod Hall, there were not many people like this.

Lin Yi, on the other hand, was a hundred thousand miles away.

Lü Yangzhong laughed maniacally as he controlled the ocean giant to slam down with its palm. The area it covered was so large that not only was Lin Yi caught in it, but the dying Python was also within the range.

He was going to kill both of them with one strike!

As the priest guide, Hou Mohe furrowed his brows slightly when he saw this.

Although he was Lin Yi's man without a doubt, there wasn't any concrete trust between them yet. He could even feel that Lin Yi was more on guard against him.

After all, he was a priest.

Lin Yi and the high priest were natural enemies-he'd be overthinking things if he thought a few words would be enough to dispel Lin Yi's suspicions.

Plus, while Lin Yi was testing him, he was also testing Lin Yi in secret.

This was the first test, the basic knowledge test. If he couldn't even pass this test, it meant that he found the wrong person. After all, Lin Yi's enemy wasn't just Lü Yangzhong, but the unfathomable high priest behind him!

However, Lü Yangzhong's unyielding attitude surprised him.

Sending an entire temple guard to kill Lin Yi was already far beyond the normal line. It wasn't the sea God's order, and killing the new Sea King by force was the same as rebelling!

He didn't believe that Lyu yang would have the guts to do so. The only explanation was that the high priest had incited this behind the scenes!

For a moment, hou Moshe could not figure out the priest's true intention.

While he was hesitating, the ocean giant that Lyu yang had transformed into had already hammered Lin Yi and the Python into the bottom of the sea. The once flat ground of the military camp was split into pieces in an instant, creating a trench that was hundreds of feet deep.

"As expected, he can't even withstand a single blow!"

Lyu Yangzhong laughed out loud. The worry in his heart just now disappeared.

He was worried that Lin Yi would be able to take it-this was his last card, and if he couldn't even do it, he'd lose the high priest's trust.

This was the foundation of his standing.

However, before he could finish laughing, Lin Yi's demon form, Chiyou, had already crawled out of the trench.

"The power of this palm is not bad."

Lin Yi commented, very objective.

Unfortunately, his good comment turned into an ear-piercing ridicule in the other party's ears. After all, according to common sense, only the stronger upper echelons were qualified to make such an evaluation.

Chapter 10074

"You're still acting tough even when you're about to die!"

Lyu Yangzhong attacked again in anger. He struck out three palm strikes in a row, each one more ferocious than the last. In particular, the power of the last palm strike was more than three times stronger than the first!

The ocean's momentum was monstrous, and the laws ran rampant.

If it was not for the restriction of the array, the impact of the last palm alone would be enough to raze the entire temple guards to the ground.

But this time, Lin Yi didn't get sent back to the bottom of the ocean like before. He remained where he was, blocking the first two palms with two consecutive tremor kill, and his body glowed with a golden light.

It was an unprecedented strike of the great mercy and great mercy with the body of the devil Chiyou!

Violent and kind, two completely opposite temperaments appeared at the same time. The key point was that there was not the slightest bit of disharmony, as if they were born like this.

Hou Maha, who was watching from the side, was dumbfounded. ""He's doing as he pleases, and he's completely natural. Has his comprehension of the rule force reached such a terrifying level?"

"Damn it, it's really like comparing goods to throw away, comparing people to people to die!"

"A golden class early phase venerable is actually higher than me? where the hell did this freak come from?"

Similar gasps of shock rang out in the conference hall as the top five advisors looked at each other once more.

The realm that they were talking about was naturally not the strength realm that was commonly known, but the level of comprehension of rule power. To put it simply, it was actually the comprehension of rule power.

Comprehension was something that couldn't be seen or touched. At first glance, it sounded very illusionary, but for a real master, it directly determined the upper limit of their ceiling.

The same strength, the same level of control over the laws, in the hands of a person with extremely high comprehension ability and in the hands of a person with mediocre comprehension ability, the final result would definitely be as different as heaven and earth.

The most important thing was that comprehension was something that could not be made up for in any way, and there was no way to cultivate it.

It was an innate ability that determined one's limits, just like the destiny of one's bloodline.

Hai Wutian didn't know what was going on, but he could feel that everyone's opinion of Lin Yi had gone up another level!

"He has an unparalleled divine body and monstrous comprehension. Our King hai hai is destined to be a Big Shot."

The fourth Walker, Xi Bao, chuckled as he expressed everyone's thoughts, his tone complicated.

Before this, the crowd wouldn't go as far as to tear them apart for Madam Qing's sake, but they didn't think much of Lin Yi's Alliance.

Even if they forced themselves to, they'd only treat Lin Yi as a follower, not an equal.

But now, even if Lin Yi's strength wasn't enough to be on the same level as any of them, they wouldn't underestimate him anymore.

With his God Body and monstrous comprehension, Lin Yi didn't even need to fully mature. He only needed to level up one or two more levels and he'd be able to join their ranks.

If they grew a little faster, they might even be able to leave them far behind!

When facing such a potential ally, their attitude would naturally be different.

At this moment.

With Lin Yi's unprecedented palm of great mercy, not only did he completely block Lü Yangzhong's full-force attack, but he even managed to counter the upper hand and split the ocean giant into pieces!

Lü Yangzhong vomited blood on the spot and fell. However, before he could stand still, the devil Chiyu's huge palm had already hit him.

Four consecutive tremor bombards were unleashed, and the terrifying tremor forces stacked on top of each other and swept across the entire area, causing the already raggle-filled encampment to be even more unrecognizable.

As a mid-stage golden class venerable, Lyu Yangzhong didn't even have the time to make a sound before he was hammered to death.

The insufferably arrogant aura instantly fell to the bottom of the valley, and it looked like he couldn't be more dead.

The whole place was dead silent.

The group of divine Hall's personal guards were collectively dumbfounded. They looked at the corpse of their deputy commander in a daze, unable to say a word for a long time.

"Alright, now that we've greeted each other, can we talk about business?"

Lin Yi dusted his hands and returned to his original form, summoning the injured Python back to the New World to recuperate. He also put away Lyu Yangzhong's body.

This was a good new world ingredient, and it was shameful to waste it.

Everyone looked at each other as if they were facing a great enemy. However, they no longer had the surging fighting spirit from before.

What a joke, even Lyu Yangzhong died so miserably, how could they be a match for a monster like Lin Yi without their backbone?

The 100-man battle formation looked fierce, but once their defenses were broken through, they would still die the same way. After all, their individual strength was far inferior to Lyu yang 's. They were not on the same level at all.

Lin Yi looked around and turned to hou Momo,""How many people do I have in my personal guard unit?"

Hou Maha was stunned for a moment before he answered truthfully,""There's no fixed number, but according to previous years 'practice, it usually ranges from thirty to eighty people."

It didn't sound like a lot of people, but they were all Venerables and above. If they could control dozens of well-trained golden class early phase Venerables, it was a force that couldn't be underestimated.

The weight of the words "Sea King" was far heavier than many people imagined.

Lin Yi looked around and nodded,"There are a total of 103 people here. Since there's no fixed number, it shouldn't matter if it's slightly more than the previous years, right?"

"....."

The crowd did not react for a moment.

After a long while, Hou Mohe looked at Lin Yi with a weird expression and asked in disbelief, "You're preparing to take them all in?"

Lin Yi's serious nod almost drove the guards crazy.

What kind of F * cking people were these?

Not only did he kill the Deputy commander Lyu Yangzhong in front of them, but he also wanted to recruit them. They were the guards of the divine Hall, not the bandits in the forest!

Do you really think that you can take in any leader you want just because you killed one? Do you think you're the sea god?

If it weren't for the shocking strength Lin Yi had just displayed, and the fact that they'd lost their pillar of support, Lyu Yangzhong, everyone would've gone crazy already.

Not to mention that you don't have such qualifications, even if you can come up with a legitimate reason, whether they are willing to submit or not still depends on their own will.

After all, they were not ordinary soldiers, they were true Supreme realm experts.

The scene fell into a strange silence.

"Are you guys unwilling?" Lin Yi asked.

"Nonsense!"

Finally, a bad-tempered leader took the lead and stood up. "We're the upright personal guards of the temple. The Lord seagod is the only person we're loyal to. The only ones who have the right to command us are the great commander and deputy commander Lu, who just died at your hands. Who Do You Think You Are?"

Chapter 10075

"That's right, we admit that your strength is not bad, but this doesn't mean that we will go with you, unless you can bring out Lord sea God's personal Divine Domain!"

"You want us to bow down to you with just the name of the Sea King? I think you're blind!"

The temple guards were filled with righteous indignation, and the scene became tense again.

Judging from the situation just now, even if they were able to stand undefeated in a hundred-man battle formation, it was unlikely that they could take Lin Yi down. They might even be defeated one by one.

But don't forget, this was the base camp of the temple guards. In addition to the people present, there were other brother troops nearby.

Once they heard the news and surrounded him, Lin Yi wouldn't be able to escape no matter how strong he was.

Moreover, the commander himself was stationed at the headquarters.

Even ten Lin Yi's wouldn't be able to leave this place alive if they alerted him. After all, he was one of the top three big shots in the entire Poseidon shrine!

Listening to everyone's scolding, Lin Yi's face didn't show any signs of impatience. Instead, he was quite patient, waiting until everyone was done before he spoke.

"I can totally understand your feelings, but this is destined. No one can change it."

"When you can't resist your fate, you have to learn to accept it. You're not kids anymore, right?" Lin Yi said with a smile.

"Yes, your mother!"

An imposing curse came from the gate, and then a burly figure came into view.

He was over six meters tall, and he was clad in pure-gold armor from head to toe. He even had a pair of ferocious-looking horns on his head. Just by standing there, he exuded an unparalleled pressure, making it difficult for others to even breathe.

Hou Mohe quickly reminded Lin Yi, "He is the general of the temple guards, Bai Ze."

Lin Yi's eyes narrowed.

Ever since he had cultivated his divine body, he had never felt any substantial pressure from anyone. At least in terms of physical body, even in this vast Sea area, it was difficult for anyone to compete with him.

However, the person in front of him caused his body to instinctively tremble.

It was not fear, but an uncontrollable excitement born from the instinct after sensing the danger and challenge!

He had a strong premonition that even if the other party didn't use any other power, he could fight with his divine body just by relying on his physical body!

"We pay our respects to the Grand Commander!"

All the temple guards knelt down.

Commander Bai Ze looked to his left and right and snorted noncommittally as he walked towards Lin Yi.

Every step he took was like a huge war hammer heavily pounding on everyone's chest. Those who were slightly weaker couldn't even catch their breath and fell to the ground in a sorry state.

Each step was heavier than the last.

By the time he reached Lin Yi, the temple guards were all dead.

Lin Yi's eyelids twitched-this was the first time he'd seen something like this, it was an eye-opener!

"Not bad. To be able to remain calm in front of me, you're quite something, Sea King."

The commander was surprised by Lin Yi's performance.

If he didn't take the initiative to hide his presence, even the Vice-commanders would find it hard to stay as calm as Lin Yi, let alone the normal guards.

More importantly, this was only a golden class early phase venerable.

Even those at his level couldn't help but be secretly shocked. Otherwise, with his personality, he wouldn't have participated at all.

Lin Yi was also looking at him when the man was looking at him, ""Great commander, you're here at the right time. My personal guard Camp is under the command of your divine Hall personal guard. Now that I'm here, I'm going to take them back. I'll say hello to you, great commander."

"....."

The commander's face darkened.

He had seen savages before, but he had never seen one as Savage as this!

Not only did he kill someone in broad daylight right under his nose, but he also wanted to take her away with such a righteous tone. Did he really think that he, the commander, was a dead man without any temper?

The commander's eyes turned cold, "greet?" You don't seem to be aware of your situation, the new king of coastal waters. Didn't this guide priest teach you the rules?"

"What rules? Why don't you teach me, commander?"

Lin Yi looked at him indifferently. "I believe that the seagod Hall is a reasonable place. What I'm taking back is only what I deserve."

"What you deserve?"

The chief commander's lips curved into a strange smile. "This is the headquarters of the guards of the divine Hall. It's not up to you to decide whether you deserve it or not. I'm the one who decides it."

The rest of the temple guards laughed mockingly.

Lin Yi's ability to kill Lyu Yangzhong was indeed unexpected, but to speak to the commander as if they were equals was simply overestimating his own abilities.

"Oh?" Lin Yi couldn't help but smile. I thought that the Lord seagod had the final say in the seagod Hall, but it seems I was wrong. So the Grand Commander is the true master of the seagod Hall's personal guards. I'm sorry, I really don't understand this rule. "

"Uh ..."

The commander choked.

He was indeed in charge of the temple guards. Even though he was the sea god's guard in name, everyone knew that the sea god did not need such guards at all, and it was impossible for him to interfere with the internal affairs of the temple guards.

However, the essence was one thing, and the status was another.

Even with his position as a great commander, even if he was one of the three great heads of the sea god Hall, he would never dare to say such words. Otherwise, it would be blasphemy against the sea god, and he would die without even knowing how he died.

The commander's eyes turned dangerous, and a faint killing intent slowly enveloped Lin Yi.

He couldn't say things randomly, but if it was just killing a person, it would be much easier.

The name of the Sea King might have some value outside, but in front of him, the commander of the guards of the divine Hall, it was nothing.

Lin Yi squinted his eyes as he prepared to enter the New World.

The other party's strength was already so high that he could not detect it. If he really attacked, there would be no suspense at all.

Forcing himself wasn't Lin Yi's style-he'd fight if he could win, and run if he couldn't. This was the basic rule of survival as a practitioner. At most, he'd come back for revenge later.

The atmosphere suddenly became somber.

The group of divine Hall's personal guards retreated a bit at the same time. They had seen the chief commander's attack and did not want to be the unlucky ones to die under the aftermath of the attack.

Chapter 10076

Hou Mohe looked at Lin Yi, hesitating to speak.

He was able to kill Lyu yang just now, and Lin Yi's tough performance was already beyond his expectations. At least from his point of view, Lin Yi was qualified to be the king of the sea to a certain extent.

However, now that he was facing the commander himself, this was already a serious challenge. It should not be a test for a newcomer.

Just as hou Mohe was about to persuade Lin Yi to take a step back, several powerful auras suddenly appeared behind him.

The second Walker, Madam Qing, spoke.

"Sea King hai is joking. The guards of the divine Hall have always been the attendants of the Lord sea god. Their master can only be the Lord sea god. Am I right, commander?"

Looking at the unremarkable hunchbacked old woman in front of him, the chief commander's eyes narrowed. ""The temple guards are naturally the most loyal followers of the Lord seagod. There is no doubt about this, and there is no room for doubt."

"If that's the case, then I'll have to ask the commander to persuade them to return to their posts. This is the Lord seagod's will, after all."

"What a great will of the Lord seagod. I can't tell about other things, but in terms of the ability to pull off a Tiger's skin and pull off a big flag, you, the king of the seas, are the first."

The commander pouted in disdain.

But even so, he kept his killing intent back-if there was only one Lin Yi here, he'd just kill him if he wanted to, it wouldn't be a problem.

But now, in front of the top five advisors, especially when they were on Lin Yi's side, things weren't going to be as easy as they thought.

After all, he had always maintained a neutral position between the priest faculty and the Walker faculty.

This was also his way of self-preservation, and he would not easily overthrow it.

Therefore, even if his absolute strength was above everyone else's, and even if he was confident that he could win against lady Qing, who was the most senior in the legend, he would still not fall out with her in front of everyone.

Seeing this, Madam Qing said, "the personal guard Camp of the Prince of near the sea was handed over to the guards of the divine Hall. Now that it has returned to its original owner, it is naturally reasonable. I think with the general's magnanimity and pattern, he will not go back on his word. Why don't we just settle this matter today?"

Lin Yi was a little surprised.

He knew that the other party was trying to win him over, but it was still somewhat unexpected for him to stand up for him so openly.

This was practically embarrassing the commander in public!

As expected, the chief commander's face turned completely dark, and his cold eyes darted back and forth between the top five advisors.

Not to mention anything else, just that kind of material visual pressure was already suffocating.

"Lady Qing, are you sure you want to fall out with me, the Commander-in-Chief, for such an ignorant kid?"

As the commander spoke, he suddenly appeared behind them, including Madam Qing. Everyone was instantly shrouded in his huge shadow, and the scene that had just eased up became suffocating again.

The top five advisors' hearts skipped a beat.

They had joined forces to appear here, naturally to put pressure on the other party.

This wasn't just to win Lin Yi over and stand up for him, it was also to beat the other party.

In recent times, although the commander remained neutral in name and did not help either side, everyone could feel that he was already leaning towards the high priest's side. Otherwise, he would not have tolerated Lyu Yang's actions.

Even without Lin Yi's incident, everyone still had to do something. If they allowed the other side to lean towards the high priest, the balance would be completely broken, and it would be a disaster for the entire sea god Hall.

However, no one had expected the other party to be so aggressive!

If they were to make a move here today, regardless of whether they would end up losing or gaining an advantage, it would be a complete loss for a Walker. The difficulty would be equivalent to personally pushing the other party to the high priest.

"Do you really think that I'm a clay Buddha? Don't you have any temper?"

The commander's sinister smile was filled with boundless anger. "You think you can make me lower my head? I'm sorry, you're still not enough. It's not that I don't want to give you face, but you don't have the right to do so!"

Several of the first five advisors looked at Madam Qing together, but the second advisor, who had the most experience, remained unmoved. They couldn't help but feel a little anxious.

With their strength alone, even if they outnumbered the commander, they might not be able to control him. After all, this was the base camp of the divine Hall's guards. Once a fight broke out, it was bound to alert the other Masters of the divine Hall's guards.

Although those vice-commander level existences couldn't be compared to them in terms of individual strength, they had the advantage in numbers.

"The few of them don't have the face to do so, but I don't know if I have the face to do so?"

A lazy voice suddenly interrupted.

Hearing this voice, the top five advisors calmed down. On the other hand, the commander's expression changed. He looked at the lazy figure who had suddenly appeared between him and the others with an ugly expression.

The first Walker, Wolf Slayer.

With his strength and status, he had enough confidence to fight one on one, or even one on four against the other top five advisors. However, he had no confidence in facing this terrifying man who had risen like a comet in the past ten years.

"Are you sure you want to fall out with me? Just for this trash?"

The commander's expression turned extremely ugly. His aura became more and more violent, like a turbulent volcano that could erupt at any time.

Cruel malevolence yawned lazily and looked at Lin Yi, "This actually has nothing to do with him. It's not that we want to fall out with you, but you chose to fall out with us. I'm not wrong, right?"

That was the truth.

Lin Yi may have been the trigger for today's incident, but anyone with eyes could tell that the commander had already planned to use this as an excuse. Lin Yi was just a pretext.

At the end of the day, this was just a test for the walkers.

If a Walker's reaction had been slightly weaker, he would not have hesitated to side with the high priest. After all, standing at his height, he would not have been unaware of many of the deeper details.

In the past, he could sit on the wall and remain neutral between the two factions. However, with the arrival of the great change, this fragile balance was bound to be broken, and he had to make a choice.

Therefore, before that, he would definitely make all kinds of tests. With his rough appearance but meticulous heart, he would not rashly place a bet until he made sure that everything was in place.

It was precisely because they had seen through this that the top five advisors had collectively stepped forward to put pressure on them.

"They're all top people. "

Lin Yi saw this and couldn't help but sigh. The situation in the sea god's Palace was indeed unpredictable. It looked calm on the surface, but it could explode at any moment. Any small change could affect the whole.

The scene fell into a silent stalemate.

Chapter 10077

The commander was in a difficult position. If cruel malevolence did not show up, he would have tested the strength of the top five. However, now that cruel malevolence was standing in front of him, he did not have the guts to do so.

If they really fought and the other party took advantage of the situation to eliminate him, then he really wouldn't be able to find his grave even if he cried.

After all, he didn't know what the high priest's attitude was. He didn't know if the high priest was willing to choose to have an all-out conflict with the walkers in order to win him over!

"I still want to go back to sleep. Commander, you'd better make your choice as soon as possible."

Cruel malevolence raised three fingers in public.

One second later, he retracted one, and another second later, he retracted the second.

A drop of cold sweat fell from the commander's forehead. He watched helplessly as the other party slowly retracted his last finger, and his heart couldn't help but beat wildly.

"Must it be like this? it's so troublesome."

Cruel malevolence said this, but his movements were not slow at all. Almost at the same time as he spoke, he had already flashed in front of the commander. They were only one step away from each other.

He was less than 1.8 meters tall, and compared to the commander's huge body, he looked weak and fragile.

However, at this moment, the commander's pupils constricted, and he actually had the unprecedented urge to escape!

He had never fought with cruel malevolence before, but based on his past battle records, he had a basic judgment.

If the two of them were to fight one-on-one, his chances of winning would not exceed 40%.

Not to mention, Madam Qing and the other top five were also eyeing them covetously!

Even if their individual strength was not as good as each other's, they were at least on the same level. Even if one of them was sent up, it would be enough to turn the battle into a one-sided battle. Not to mention that the top five advisors were bound to advance and retreat together.

But in front of so many subordinates, he definitely could not retreat.

Once he retreated, not only him, but the entire temple guards would not be able to raise their heads in front of the Wayfarer team.

However, if he didn't retreat, with cruel malevolence's past performance, he wouldn't be able to stop once he started fighting. At that time, he wouldn't have the chance to stop even if he wanted to.

If it wasn't handled well, it might turn into a completely unmanageable situation.

In that short instant, the commander deeply understood what it meant to be in a difficult position. He regretted it-he shouldn't have jumped out and targeted Lin Yi. Nothing would've happened if he'd just been a turtle hiding in its shell.

At most, he could just tell others that he was in seclusion. Even if there was some gossip, it would be harmless.

He wouldn't be like now, forcing himself into a desperate situation with no way out!

"Damn it, I admit defeat."

Just as the chief commander sighed and was about to take a step back and find a relatively decent posture to admit defeat to the other party, an ethereal aura suddenly enveloped the heads of everyone present.

Everyone's eyes twitched.

Time seemed to have stopped.

However, Lin Yi didn't feel any fluctuation of time rule power. This was not a physical freezing, but everyone's spiritual perception, including his, was distorted by the mysterious power.

"Unfathomable!"

The white-robed old man descended slowly from the sky, and Lin Yi didn't even need an introduction to know who he was.

It was the high priest of the sea god's Palace, Zhang xisheng.

Wolf face and the Grand Marshal's exchange of blows paused for a moment, but he was the first to break free from the inexplicable freezing. He continued his attacks without even looking at the publicly acknowledged number one beneath the sea god.

However, the attack did not land on the commander. Instead, it was blocked by an invisible force.

Lin Yi raised a brow-this wasn't just pure spirit energy, it was some sort of composite energy that was fused with laws!

As a master who was good at using spiritual energy, he knew the difficulty of this more than anyone else. Even if it was just a simple primordial spirit attack attached to an ordinary attack, it was not an easy thing, let alone this level of deep compound.

Just this point alone showed that the other party's attainments in this aspect were far beyond his reach.

"Phew ..."

The commander heaved a sigh of relief. If the high priest had not intervened, he would have been ready to bow his head.

After all, he couldn't beat them. He couldn't really throw his entire life away for such a small matter, right?

As an objective and neutral third party, in a situation where he was weak, rushing to fight with someone head-on was not just an iron-headed idiot. Perhaps the water of the entire Four Seas could not fill his brain ...

The high priest had obviously noticed this, so he had intervened to help him out of the situation.

It had been thirty years since the last time this boss had made a move.

"The two of you, please calm down."

The high priest opened his mouth to suppress the situation. However, before he could finish his words, cruel malevolence attacked again. He easily broke through the restraint of his will.

Not only that, but he also released the commander and turned to attack the high priest!

Everyone was in an uproar.

Although the first Walker usually looked drowsy and didn't seem to be a threat to anyone, once he moved, he was really earth-shattering and heaven-shaking. The moment he made a move, it was a big move that shocked everyone!

From the looks of it, he was actually going to start a fight with the high priest!

Not to mention the other people present, even Madam Qing and the other top five advisors were clearly stunned for a moment.

The conflict between the school of walking and the school of priests had accumulated to this day. Although it had long been irreconcilable, if it continued to develop like this, everyone knew that there would be a Great War.

Moreover, if the two sides were to shed all pretenses of cordiality and start a fight, it would definitely be a world-destroying super war that was enough to overturn the power structure of the entire sea realm.

But no one had thought that this scene would come so early and so quickly!

Everything had happened too suddenly.

Everyone's minds were racing as they came up with all sorts of schemes, but Lin Yi was the only one who was watching with great interest like an outsider.

This kind of super level exchange was too rare. To be able to witness it up close, even he would benefit a lot.

In the blink of an eye, cruel malevolence was already in front of his opponent. He clawed at his opponent with one hand. The entire process was simple.

Everyone was watching the high priest's response.

As a result, the kind-looking old man did not change his expression. He threw away the dark gold robe that represented the status of the high priest, revealing a body of strong muscles that was completely different from his appearance and temperament, and threw a punch at him.

BOOM! BOOM!

As they watched the two sides exchange blows, the crowd did not feel any fluctuations in rule power. From the looks of it, there was no earth-shattering phenomenon, and it was even worse than two ordinary Supreme realm experts.

However, just a short while later, the shockwaves from both sides erupted. Not only did the ground beneath them shake, but the entire sea goddess Hall and even the entire sea realm shook violently.

It was like the end of the world!

Chapter 10078

As the first to be struck by the aftershock, even the top five advisors had ugly expressions on their faces. As for the ordinary personal guards, they vomited blood. Some of them had even fainted on the spot.

"Damn, so this kid is also a tough one."

The commander noticed Lin Yi's reaction, or to be more precise, he didn't react at all. He and Lin Yi were the only two people who didn't show any obvious reaction.

Just this point alone made Lin Yi's title of golden class early phase venerable enough to overwhelm most of the people present.

At this moment, the high priest and cruel malevolence had tacitly retracted their fists. The sudden disturbance disappeared.

Everyone heaved a sigh of relief in unison.

It seemed that these two big bosses were only testing the waters. If they really started fighting, unless the Lord seagod personally appeared, the entire seagod Palace would be torn down.

Some people were paying attention to the changes in the expressions of the two, hoping to find some clues.

Although from the looks of it, no one was at a disadvantage in the first exchange, there was no first in literature and no second in martial arts. Since there was a test, there must be a difference in strength.

Who was stronger or weaker between these two was directly related to the power structure of the entire seagod Hall.

However, he could not see anything.

Cruel malevolence, who had been excited for a rare moment, quickly returned to his drowsy and lazy appearance. On the other hand, high priest Zhang xisheng, who had fought for the first time in 30 years, calmly put on his dark gold robe again and looked as kind as ever.

"You're the new Lin Yi?"

The high priest looked Lin Yi up and down for the first time, and everyone looked like they were watching a good show.

Everyone knew that Lin Yi had killed Zhang xiangding and Lyu Yangzhong. These two were the high priest's trusted aides.

No matter how much he cared about the big picture, as the number one figure under the Lord seagod, the high priest would inevitably have some reaction.

Lin Yi nodded, "greetings, high priest. You're here just in time to help me with my justice."

The high priest was slightly stunned, and then he revealed a playful smile. "I wonder what justice you need me to uphold?"

Lin Yi pointed at the commander, "my personal guard Camp has been detained by the commander. You're the Lord seagod's most loyal believer, and you must be someone who values rules the most. After thinking about it, I can only trouble you with this."

"....."

The commander's face turned into one of Spartax.

Good fellow, The Grudge between the two of you is much deeper than mine, and you can actually drag me into it with one sentence?

The high priest turned to look at him, his face asking, ""There's such a thing?"

The commander was helpless. It was obviously you who incited this behind the scenes, but your acting skills are really amazing. You acted as if you really didn't know anything.

If it wasn't for you encouraging me from behind, how would I be in such a difficult situation?

Unfortunately, he didn't dare to expose her face to face, so he could only cooperate and say, ""In fact, it can't be said that I deliberately detained them. Because of some previous reasons, that wave of coastal water King's personal guards have been scattered and mixed into the entire temple guard Army, and have completely adapted to their new identity.

If they were to be forcefully transferred out, they might not be willing to do so, and it would have a huge impact on the combat power of the entire temple guards.

This matter is directly related to the safety of our entire sea god Hall, so we can't afford to be careless. "

The high priest nodded and turned to Lin Yi, "As director Wang of the coastal waters, you still have to consider the big picture. Of course, I will definitely give you a full guard unit, but you need to recruit new people. Do you want to do it yourself or let the commander do it for you?"

“.....”

The commander's face darkened again.

He knew that this was a quagmire, and he didn't want to beat Lin Yi up anymore. He wanted to hide as far away as possible, or else he might lose control and end up in the same dangerous situation again.

At that time, no one would come to help him out.

It was a pity that he couldn't clear his name right now, or he'd be offending not just Lin Yi, but the high priest himself!

"Well, it's not that troublesome," Lin Yi chuckled, "you can just hand over the elites to me-it shouldn't affect the strength of the entire Army, right?"

The commander can recruit a new wave of soldiers, and I can also have ready-made manpower to use. It's the best of both worlds. "

God F * cking had the best of both worlds!

The commander's face turned as black as the bottom of a pot. There were nearly a hundred well-trained Supreme realm experts. Even if he were to sit in such a position, he would feel the pain.

After all, this was not as simple as just recruiting a hundred Supreme realm experts.

Even with the vastness of the sea area, it was not an easy task to recruit so many people, not to mention that they had to go through years of special training. He had poured his heart and soul into this.

Seeing his troubled expression, the high priest helped him out of the situation, ""I'm afraid this request is a bit difficult. The stability of the temple guards should still be the first priority. King hai hai, why don't you think about it again?"

"There's nothing else to think about. I only have one request. "

Lin Yi's tone was firm, not allowing any room for discussion. It was as if he was going to fight to the end.

The rest of the people were stunned.

You're the new Lord of the coastal waters, and you're only an early phase golden class venerable. Where did you get the courage to ask for such an exorbitant price in front of the high priest and the commander?

The high priest turned to look at the top five advisors and asked with a meaningful look, ""Is this also what you all want?"

Everyone looked at cruel malevolence. However, the first advisor was yawning in boredom. It was as if his soul had left his body. He didn't even hear the high priest's words and directly ignored him.

In the end, it was the second advisor, Madam Qing, who spoke on her behalf, ""The Sea King's request is reasonable, and we think we should satisfy it. Otherwise, if he doesn't even have a guard unit, he'll become a light pole, and how can he serve the sea god?"

This answer was completely within everyone's expectations.

Supporting Lin Yi was just one of the reasons the top five had come here. The main reason was to pressure the commander. Now that the high priest was involved, they wouldn't back down.

The high priest looked around and smiled bitterly. ""This is a bit difficult. Since we can't reach a consensus, why don't we ask the Lord seagod to personally make a decision?"

The crowd was in an uproar.

The sea god Hall naturally followed the Lord sea God's orders. If the Lord sea god could personally decide, then no one would have any objections.

Chapter 10079

But the problem was that asking for a divine judgment was a very serious matter.

Unless it was absolutely necessary, the people under him would never easily ask for divine judgment. After all, if they disturbed the Lord seagod's peace, it would be a great sin to their group of believers.

This was especially so for the matter at hand, where the high priest could clearly make a decision on his own. There was no reason for this.

The situation was in a stalemate.

"I thought the high priest was the one who would share the Lord sea God's burden the most," Madam Qing said faintly. "It seems that we have misunderstood."

The other side's request for a divine judgment didn't sound like a problem at first, but everyone knew that the high priest was the sea god's first spokesperson. Unless it touched the sea god's bottom line, all his words and deeds would be acquiesced.

If they really did call for a judgment, the high priest would probably decide the outcome. No one believed that the high and mighty gods would make an appearance just for Lin Yi, especially for such an insignificant request.

To put it bluntly, this was an open scheme.

The high priest was clearly using his status to reject Lin Yi, and he was using the sea God's words so no one could object.

"The seagod Hall's followers, each one will do their best to share Lord seagod's worries. Everyone's intentions are the same, no one is superior or inferior.

In this dispute, he stood on the side of the commander. He had his reasons for considering the big picture, and it was only natural for him to stand on the side of King hai hai.

Since neither of us can convince the other, I won't rashly favor either side. Asking for a divine judgment is the most appropriate method.

What do you two think?"

"I have no problem with it, everything will be in accordance with Lord seagod's will," the commander hurriedly said.

This declaration was not unexpected at all.

After all, he was about to fight cruel malevolence. If he disobeyed the high priest now, he would be offending both sides at the same time. How could he live in the future?

Everyone turned to look at Lin Yi.

Lin Yi wouldn't agree if he could see the trick behind the scenes, but to everyone's surprise, Lin Yi actually nodded in agreement!

"I have no problem with that either. Let's invite the divine judgment then."

Madam Qing and the others couldn't help but look surprised.

They were prepared to fight for Lin Yi again, but now that even the owner herself had agreed, what else could they say?

Du Hong, the fifth Walker, twitched his mouth speechlessly and sent a divine sense message to the others, ""Tsk, tsk. We were just about to fight to the death. Why did Your Majesty surrender first? I thought that you were an extraordinary and ruthless character, but you softened the moment this old man came."

The rest of them did not say anything, but their eyes were filled with disappointment.

They wanted to recruit Lin Yi to deal with the high priest, but they didn't think that Lin Yi would pull them away when it was time for real. What was the point of recruiting him?

Madam Qing looked at Lang Mie, who was lost in thought, and said, ""Don't be impatient, let's continue watching. "

Now that he had gained the approval of both sides, the high priest immediately began to ask for divine judgment in front of everyone.

A powerful mental strength immediately reached the depths of the sea goddess Hall.

After a short while, a Supreme Oracle was sent back.

Sensing the hidden message in the Oracle, the high priest's expression remained unchanged, but an imperceptible shock flashed through his eyes.

"May I know what Lord seagod's judgment is?"

Madam Qing asked on behalf of the others.

This time, the Oracle was different from the sea god's version of the order of grace. It was not announced to the public but directly issued to everyone's sea of consciousness. Instead, it was a one-to-one Oracle reply.

The high priest was the first to receive the Oracle.

This was normal. According to the process, this should be the case. Otherwise, the high priest would not have been the first spokesperson of the sea god.

Whether in law or in reality, the will of the sea God has the right to explain.

However, the crowd was not worried that he could do whatever he wanted. After all, even though the Oracle could be interpreted from all angles, it could not be changed from the root.

If anyone raised any doubts, he would have to disclose the contents of the Oracle.

Therefore, from the high priest's perspective, even if he could give some ambiguous interpretation because of his personal preference, it was still very risky to completely reverse right and wrong.

Unless he could come to an agreement with the other big shots of the sea god's Palace and suppress all the opposing voices.

Unfortunately, in the current power structure, this was simply unrealistic.

The high priest looked at Lin Yi and spoke slowly, ""Lord seagod's meaning is that with the current situation in the sea realm, stability should be the priority."

The commander was delighted.

The divine Hall guards were the most important bargaining chip to maintain stability. In this case, it was impossible to attack his divine Hall guards.

However, Madam Qing said, "the position of King hai hai is directly related to the stability of the four Seas. Since the Lord seagod's decree is so clear, let's follow King hai Hai's suggestion as soon as possible."

"....."

The commander's face turned red. "You're being unreasonable. Anyone with eyes can see what stability means. Madam Qing, are you going to publicly distort the will of the Lord sea god for a young boy?"

Madam Qing looked at him calmly and said, "Did I twist it? The Sea King selection was the Lord seagod's most important matter during this period of time. With the sea region suffering from internal and external problems, wasn't this position important?"

Or does the commander think that Lord seagod is making a mountain out of a molehill?"

The commander choked again. He snorted and turned to the high priest. "The high priest has the most right to speak about the interpretation of the Oracle. Everything should be based on his interpretation. I'm too lazy to argue with you."

"That's good," Madam Qing said with a smile. "We're all ears."

The group of top five advisors also revealed expressions of interest.

Although this seemed to be giving the high priest the initiative, to a certain extent, it was also putting the high priest on the fire. After all, any interpretation with a clear bias could become the target of attack. Only an ambiguous way to muddle the situation could stand in an undefeatable position.

The other party would either not make a clear statement, and everyone would continue to fight this war of words.

Once they decided on a side, they'd offend Lin Yi and push him to their side completely. It wasn't a bad deal for the walkers.

Under everyone's gaze, the high priest smiled and nodded to the commander.

However, before the commander could be happy, he suddenly changed the topic. "The temple guards are the stabilizer of the sea god's Palace and even the entire sea area. Although they are extremely important, it should not be a big problem to temporarily withdraw a Brigade.

On the other hand, the coastal Sea King's side would have a hard time without the personal guard unit. This matter is even more urgent, and the Lord seagod's decree also has this intention. "

Chapter 10080

Everyone was speechless.

The commander was dumbfounded.

On the surface, he looked forthright, but in reality, he was also an extremely shrewd person. However, even if he was beaten to death, he would never have thought that there would actually be such a miraculous turn of events.

It was fine if the other party didn't take the opportunity to win him over, but they did this in public and put him, the commander, on the spot. It was the same as publicly making fun of him. Wasn't this deliberately making enemies?

What was this boss thinking ...

Not only was the chief commander caught off guard, but even the top five advisors could not help but look at each other. They had anticipated all kinds of possibilities, but this was the only one that had not occurred.

The high priest was still trying to get on Lin Yi's good side after all the grudges they'd had. How was that possible?

Although the old man looked like a gentle elder, he always made people feel like they were bathing in a spring breeze no matter when and where. In fact, in terms of ruthlessness and viciousness, this man was definitely the person who stood at the peak of the entire sea area.

If he didn't kill Zhang xiangding and ¼ Yangzhong, Lin Yi might have been roped in by him.

But now, the two sides were like fire and water, and there was no room for negotiation. Even if the high priest didn't care, the other priests couldn't keep their faces.

Plus, even if he really did take the initiative, Lin Yi might not have the guts to accept it.

You just killed two of their trusted aides, and in the end, they actually smiled at you. Who wouldn't be suspicious in their hearts?

He was the center of attention again, and Lin Yi smiled calmly, "As expected, the high priest is the one who understands Lord seagod the most. I'm sincerely convinced. Then I'll respectfully comply."

"You flatter me, Prince hai hai. It's been a long time since I've seen such an outstanding young man like you. I wonder if you could come to my priest Hall and have a good chat."

The high priest's words once again shocked everyone.

The man was a friendly person, but they'd never heard of him inviting anyone. Lin Yi was just a new king of the seas, and he had the face to do that?

"Be careful of traps."

Madam Qing quickly sent Lin Yi a message through her divine sense.

After today, everyone would realize Lin Yi's value. Roping in Lin Yi was his established strategy as a Walker, and he couldn't afford to lose it.

If Lin Yi really couldn't handle it and decided to join the high priest, then they'd be in a very difficult situation.

Lin Yi made eye contact with her and replied calmly, "I know what I'm doing,"

"Then, please."

The high priest turned around and left without a word.

Lin Yi smiled and cupped his hands at the top five advisors before turning to Hou Mohe. "I'll leave the matters here to you. I want to see a complete guard unit later. "

"Understood."

Hou Mohe was still as calm as ever, but his eyes were now more serious than before. It was obvious that he was impressed by Lin Yi's performance.

Although Lin Yi's power was far from being able to compete with the huge priest and runner divisions, and even the weaker commanders, in the long run, he had the potential to grow to the fourth level of the sea god Hall.

Just this possibility alone was worth him taking a gamble.

The advisors were worried as they watched Lin Yi leave with the high priest.

"He shouldn't be that confused, right?"

"It's hard to say. We've experienced the old man's methods before, but he didn't. It wouldn't be strange if he really fell for it."

"Actually, I'm more curious about why the old man would suddenly do this. Isn't he afraid of going for wool and coming home shorn?"

The others didn't know what was going on—they all thought that the high priest had some other reason for doing this. Only Lin Yi, who was the one involved, knew that there wasn't.

The high priest had suddenly spoken up for him in public not because he wanted to, but because he had no other choice.

The reason was very simple. The Oracle had just been sent by Li Yuanji. It was definitely not ambiguous words like "the overall situation is more important" but "she" had directly stood on his side.

The Oracle simply said, "use the divine Hall's guards to supplement the king of near sea's Guards unit."

Although the high priest had the right to interpret the Oracle in name, there was a prerequisite. The interpretation had to be self-explanatory.

Only an ambiguous Oracle would give him room to operate.

For such a clear message that was directly written on the face, he could only be responsible for conveying it. There was no room for interpretation.

Otherwise, once everyone requested to disclose the contents of the Oracle, they would be exposed instantly.

Once this matter was confirmed in public, his position as the high priest would come to an end. The Wayfarer would definitely pursue him relentlessly, not giving him any chance to struggle or react.

Even within the priest system, there would be a huge wave of opposition.

No matter how powerful the high priest's subordinates were, they couldn't change the most fundamental premise. Loyalty and belief to the sea god was the foundation of all priests' existence.

He could deceive everyone, but the premise was that he absolutely could not expose himself. Otherwise, he would definitely suffer a backlash, and the consequences would be unimaginable.

"I've finished watching the show. I can finally go home and sleep. "

Cruel malevolence stretched his back and turned to look at the commander,""You don't look like you're happy. Why don't we have some more fun?"

"No need, no need."

The commander's mouth twitched stiffly, and he waved his hand.

He had lost an entire Brigade of the divine Hall's guards in vain. He was already unlucky enough today. How could he dare to cause more trouble?

The key was that he had seen the exchange between this guy and the high priest just now. He was very clear that he was no match for this monster. Fighting with this perverted monster was simply asking to be humiliated.

Madam Qing smiled profoundly."You are a wise man, Grand Commander. We admire your past actions."

In other words, he didn't appreciate his actions today.

"The same goes for you." The commander's mouth twitched.

Today's change was essentially a test by him. He wanted to use this opportunity to test the bottom line of the high priest and the top five advisors, trying to fight for more room for himself to operate.

After all, a great change was coming. If they were to remain neutral like before, it was very likely that they would be the first to be eliminated.

Thus, he had to change.

It was a pity that from the results, his test this time had clearly kicked an iron plate. Now that the conflict between the Walker and priest systems was getting more and more ruthless, they would not leave him, a third party, any room for negotiation.

Cruel malevolence and Madam Qing's words were like a warning to him. If he wanted to do anything in the future, he would have to think twice.

"Farewell."

The two sides cupped their hands in a tacit understanding and left, leaving hou Moshe and hundreds of the divine Hall's personal guards who were at a loss.
