

Bodyguard 10141

Chapter 10141

To be honest, he was quite cautious before meeting Lin Yi in person.

After all, he had just suffered such a huge loss. If he still didn't remember, then he would be too arrogant.

But now that he'd seen Lin Yi in person, that fear was gone. At the end of the day, no matter how strong a golden class early phase peak was, there was no way he could threaten someone like him with his own strength.

Back then, ao Tian was instantly killed by the so-called God's punishment, not because the God's punishment was very strong, but purely because he was in the final stage of his terminal illness, which had drained all his strength. He was like an oil lamp at the end of its oil, so he took advantage of the situation.

As for that great battle, although the information he had was very detailed, he was only standing from the perspective of an onlooker. He did not know and could not experience the role of the world will from the New World.

What left the deepest impression on him was the illusory whale that appeared and disappeared unpredictably, as well as the guards who were as fierce as livestock using some unknown secret technique.

On the other hand, Lin Yi himself wasn't of much use to him. At most, he'd be a commander.

If it were any of his experienced commanders, they wouldn't be any worse.

As ao Yuzhou spoke, Lin Yi looked at him through the air as if he sensed something. His lips curled up into a playful smile.

"F * ck you!"

The dignified King of the West Ocean immediately flew into a rage, as if his scar had been opened. He didn't care about his image as a King at all. Like a Street bumpkin, he began to curse and swear, immediately attracting the attention of the surrounding people.

It was only because the boos were too loud that they suppressed his cursing. Otherwise, he would've replaced Lin Yi as the center of attention.

Lin Yi raised a brow at the scene before retracting his gaze, keeping his guard up.

It seemed like child's play, but that provocative look had already allowed him to see through the other party's actual strength.

This King of the West Ocean was indeed a great figure who stood at the top of the entire sea region. Even if his every move did not have the demeanor of a King, his unfathomable strength was not fake.

Previously, he had to borrow the sea God's power to deal with ao Tian Xia, who didn't have the dragon clan's rules.

Ao Yuzhou was at his peak, and he was much more powerful than ao Tian Xia who had lost the dragon clan's rules!

Under normal circumstances, even Lin Yi had to admit that he didn't stand a chance against such a dangerous person.

However, if they continued with today's plot, once they lost control, there was a high chance that they would face it head-on, so they had to be careful!

While he was thinking, the boos in the audience suddenly stopped, and then turned into thunderous cheers.

Amidst the cheers, shadows of gods and devils were projected down one after another. Any one of them was enough to suppress one side, and his level of coolness was instantly raised to the maximum.

To be honest, even Lin Yi couldn't help but stare at the scene, let alone the brainwashed audience.

Other things aside, at least in terms of the effect of his appearance, this master mo was truly a rare talent.

If he was in the secular world, he would be a rare talent in the film and television industry.

As master mo ascended the stage step by step, the gods and demons in the sky were like the stars surrounding the moon, shining behind him. Even though he didn't say a word, the atmosphere had already exploded!

The two of them faced each other from a distance. One of them was surrounded by gods and devils, while the other stood with his hands clasped behind his back.

Master mo looked at Lin Yi, but he didn't sound as fierce as everyone expected. Instead, he had a kind expression.

"As a grass root cultivator, it wasn't easy for you to reach where you are today. In truth, I don't want to ruin your future, but for the sake of Lord seagod's reputation, I had no choice but to use this plan."

The great Grandmaster paused and then said something that surprised everyone, ""As the saying goes, 'if you know your mistake, you can change.' As long as you forsake the darkness and join my sect, I will help you bear all the karma in the past. What do you think?"

Everyone was in an uproar.

Everyone could not help but whisper and discuss.

"Grandmaster is indeed Grandmaster. No one in the entire sea region can match such a Grand bearing!"

"Yeah, even this kind of swindler is willing to take him in as a disciple. If I had known earlier, I would have also become a swindler. Maybe I could even become a master's disciple!"

"Isn't this letting him off too easily? If even the bad guys are treated so well, who will be the good guys in the future?"

All sorts of praises and doubts filled the entire venue.

Even so Yuzhou was frowning. This wasn't part of the script that he had planned, and it was Master Mo who had made the decision.

What was this guy trying to do?

Master Mo, on the other hand, turned a deaf ear to the opinions of the audience and continued to look at Lin Yi with a face full of sincerity.

As the opposing party, Lin Yi didn't find it strange at all. After all, from the other party's point of view, there was no harm in putting on such a high and mighty front.

First, he had a superior bearing and consolidated his image of a master who bemoaned the state of the universe.

Secondly, while lowering the hostility from Lin Yi's side, it also gave him an escape route. Even if he lost, many people would say that he didn't want to ruin Lin Yi's future, so he went easy on him.

He was already in an undefeatable position and now he was even more helpless.

It had to be said that whether this master mo was really capable or not, at least he had some skills in grasping people's hearts.

Lin Yi raised his eyes, "that good?" However, it's a pity that I'm far inferior to you. After all, I don't have any plans to take in a disciple, so your ending today might not be very good. "

"....."

Master mo obviously choked for a moment, a trace of hidden malice flashed in the depths of his eyes.

He then revealed a smile that was 70% magnanimous but also 30% helpless. "If that's the case, then I won't force you. Let's not waste everyone's time. Let's start."

"Sure," Lin Yi nodded faintly.

Master Mo's face was full of calmness and his expression was still calm,""How do you intend to compete?"

Although the sea god's assembly had been hyped up, they had not made any prior agreement on the details other than the time and place.

Naturally, he was trying to catch Lin Yi off guard.

"Let's just fight," Lin Yi said directly, "what else can we compete in? we can't compete in eloquence, can we?"

Sure enough, the other party would not respond at all. He shook his head and laughed when he heard this.

"This isn't an ordinary Jianghu grudge between us. We need to prove to everyone who the real spokesperson of the sea god is. Fighting and killing won't solve any problems."

Master Mo's words were immediately echoed by the crowd.

Chapter 10142

His words were not unreasonable, not to mention that he had already imprinted an unbreakable mental seal on the crowd. The rhythm of this competition was destined to be in his hands from the beginning.

Lin Yi, on the other hand, was the Poseidon shrine's representative, but his words were being suppressed. It was a rare sight.

Following that, master mo revealed his true intentions, "Since it's a contest of credibility, we naturally have to let Lord seagod's vast believers be our judges. As for the content of the contest, let's see who can communicate with Lord seagod and send down a divine miracle."

Lin Yi looked at the fanatical fans and couldn't help but smile, "The judge has already been bribed by you, so why don't you just announce that you've won? that way, you can save some time."

As soon as these words came out, boos were heard.

Master mo looked at him with a serious face, ""Young man, you can maintain your suspicion of anything. This is your right, but I advise you to still maintain enough respect for everything in the world, especially the vast believers of the Lord seagod.

You have to believe that their eyes are as bright as snow, and nothing can deceive them. You can 't, and neither can I. "

His words were watertight.

Ao Yuzhou crossed his legs and looked at Lin Yi as if he was a joke, "That kid is also miserable. He encountered such an undefeatable veteran of the martial world. He'll definitely be beaten to a pulp today!"

The representatives of the various forces nodded.

They knew that Lin Yi wouldn't be able to turn the tables, but the scene in front of them made them determined.

Lin Yi didn't stand a chance against an opponent like this.

Lin Yi was probably regretting it now-if he'd taken the chance to become master Mo's disciple, he might've still been able to save some face.

But now, it was too late for him to regret. This King of the coastal waters, who had relied on luck to get to his position, was destined to become the joke of the entire sea region. The outcome was already destined to be unchangeable.

However, Lin Yi didn't panic at all. Instead, he looked at his opponent with a playful expression, "You have the largest number of believers, and they are all on your side now. Do you think you can win for sure?"

"Young man, they're not on my side, they're on the side of the Lord seagod, the side of justice." Master mo corrected.

Lin Yi nodded. "You're pretty good at talking to Mister Poseidon and all his followers. And it looks like you're quite proud of this, aren't you?"

Master Mo's eyes flashed with ridicule, but his face remained calm, "It doesn't matter if I'm proud or not. I've already given everything I have to the Lord seagod. If the Lord seagod is happy, I'm happy. If the Lord seagod is worried, I'm worried."

The meaning of his words was the opposite. If he was happy, the sea god would be happy. If he was worried, the sea god would be worried.

A simple little word trick had once again piled up his image of piety and righteousness. With the brainwashing blessing of the thought steel seal, no matter who opposed him, they would be regarded as opposing the sea god.

If it had been anyone else, no matter how powerful they were or how brilliant their methods were, they would have already been killed by this attack.

In other words, the competition had already ended before it even started.

"Then what if the Lord wants you dead?" Lin Yi asked with a weird expression.

"I've already given up everything I have, including my life," master mo said with a strong sense of righteousness.

"That's good. "

Lin Yi nodded and made a praying gesture in front of everyone. Light that represented the sea God's blessing slowly spread out from his body.

Everyone turned to look at him.

Although these halos themselves weren't completely incomprehensible, they were publicly acknowledged to represent the seagod's protection. Whoever's halos were thicker, it meant that they were more favored by the seagod.

Because of the brainwashing earlier, they all thought that Lin Yi was a liar who relied on luck to get to his position, but the light in front of them made them have to admit that Lin Yi did get the Poseidon's favor!

For a moment, the entire place was silent.

Master mo did not panic when he saw this. Instead, he showed some approval,""To be able to obtain these halos, it's enough to see the Lord seagod's high hopes for you. Young man, if you know your way back early, your future will be boundless.

However, if you insist on going the wrong way, not only will you waste the Lord seagod's painstaking efforts, you'll also be consigned to eternal damnation. Consider it carefully. "

After saying that, he also made the same pious prayer gesture.

Then, his body glowed, and more and more protective halos gathered around him.

Everyone exclaimed in shock.

Lin Yi's protective Halo was already very rare, and it was one in a million among the vast seagod believers, but compared to master mo, it was like a Firefly's glow meeting a bright moon!

The protective Halo around master mo was more than a hundred times stronger than his. The two of them were not on the same level at all!

Ao Yuzhou couldn't help but reveal a shocked expression.

This time, the royal families of the three Seas had joined forces to push master mo out to fight. Although they knew that the other party had something, they really did not expect that the other party's capital was actually so strong to this extent!

Such a terrifying protective Halo was absolutely unprecedented, and there probably wouldn't be anyone else like it in the future. Even if the sea god Himself descended, it would at most be like this!

There were devout followers of the sea god at the side of the field, who were already kneeling down in front of master mo with tears in their eyes.

The rest of the people were immediately influenced, and more and more people knelt down on their own accord.

They weren't kneeling to master mo, such a rich Halo of protection was already a miracle in itself, they were kneeling to the sea God's miracle.

Although the seagod Hall had no power to rule over the four Seas, it had to be said that the seagod still held a Supreme position in the sea realm, and no one could shake his vast believers.

If not for this, the four Seas 'royal families would not have been so powerful as to act under the sea god's banner, and would have publicly rebelled long ago.

"That's impossible, right? Could it be that the Lord seagod really favors an old man of unknown origin?"

Hai Wutian and the others couldn't help but worry for Lin Yi.

If the enemy was just trying to create momentum, it'd still be hard to deal with on the surface, but it wouldn't be enough to deal a destructive blow to Lin Yi. After all, he was the Sea King chosen by the sea god.

With the identity of the official spokesperson, even if the other party had the upper hand, they would not dare to push their luck.

But now, the other party directly took drastic measures.

After displaying such a miracle, master mo had completely occupied the highest point. In everyone's eyes, he was not only the seagod's spokesperson, but also an existence close to the seagod's incarnation.

Chapter 10143

If he wanted to suppress Lin Yi, or even get someone to kill him in public, the ocean God believers wouldn't say anything. They'd clap their hands instead.

This wave was a fatal danger to Lin Yi.

Everyone was waiting to see how Lin Yi would break out of this situation, or was he just going to accept his fate?

Surprisingly, Lin Yi didn't do anything, as if he didn't feel anything. He still maintained his praying posture.

The corner of master Mo's mouth raised slightly. Just as he was about to start the next step of his performance, a profound fluctuation suddenly descended on everyone's sea of consciousness.

Everyone was shocked.

This was ... A divine decree from the Lord sea god!

There had been a divine decree of grace for the entire sea realm before, so they were naturally familiar with it. However, when they received the message from the divine decree, the whole place fell into a dead silence.

Everyone looked at master mo in unison.

There was only one content in this Oracle, which was to ask master mo to give up his life.

Master mo was speechless.

Lin Yi looked at him with envy. "The Lord seagod has never asked me for anything before. It's your honor, master mo."

His words almost broke the other party's defense on the spot.

It was as embarrassing as how high it was just now.

After all, just a second ago, you were still claiming that you could offer everything to the Lord seagod. In the end, you've turned around and gone back on your word. That can't be justified no matter what, right?

The key was that when he had imprinted his thoughts on the audience below the stage, he had also imperceptibly carried out a wave of strengthening tests on their loyalty to the sea god.

If they weren't loyal followers of the sea god, they wouldn't have been so easily brainwashed by him.

Ao Yuzhou was shocked as well as he looked at Lin Yi with suspicion.

With his level of strength, he could naturally determine whether it was true or not. There was no doubt that this was the real Oracle of the sea god!

In the entire sea region, there was absolutely no one who could disguise themselves, much less disguise themselves so flawlessly.

But in the past, although the sea god would regularly send down oracles, he would never send such an Oracle that was targeted at a certain person, almost like child's play.

"Could it be ..."

Ao Yuzhou looked at Lin Yi and fell into deep thought. No matter what, Lin Yi's appearance this time was enough to prove that he had a deep relationship with the sea god!

At this moment, everyone was waiting for master mo to break the deadlock.

If he went back on his word, the mental imprint that he had put in so much effort to plant would be broken. After all, the group of people below the stage were only deeply brainwashed by him, and not really had a problem with their intelligence.

Once there was a fatal flaw in logic, he would not be able to justify himself, and the thought stamp would loosen on its own.

By the time the 200000 people here came to their senses and realized that they had been deceived, the consequences would be unimaginable.

At the very least, he was sure that he would die a terrible death.

However, unexpectedly, master mo reacted quickly after a brief moment of shock.

Not only did he not lose his head, but he also ended his prayer with a calm expression. He stood up and said, ""I've already offered my life to the Lord seagod. If the Lord seagod needs it, I'll offer it at any time without even frowning. "

In one sentence, he was standing on the high point of righteousness again.

Lin Yi raised a brow-this guy was good at this.

If he came up to question the authenticity of the sea god's Oracle, he would definitely cause a backlash.

There were close to 200000 believers present. In addition, they had just received the sea god's divine decree some time ago. This had completely blocked the possibility of the divine decree being fake.

At least to everyone's knowledge, no one in the entire sea realm had such terrifying ability, unless it was another sea god.

But now that master mo had taken the initiative to admit it, it immediately dispelled the doubts that had just risen in everyone's hearts. On the contrary, it further strengthened his thought stamp.

This was a proper way of retreating for the sake of advancing.

There were some things that he didn't say, but someone else would say it for him. And the same words were much more useful coming from someone else's mouth.

Sure enough, someone in the crowd quickly defended him,""The Lord sea God's divine decree is the greatest acknowledgment of master mo. The divine decree said that master mo should give up his life, and definitely not that he should kill himself on the spot!"

"That's right, the divine decree is a response to master Mo's sacrifice of his life, it's the Lord sea God's reward for master mo!"

"The meaning of the divine decree is clearly for master mo to better spread the Lord seagod's gospel in the future. That must be it."

All kinds of voices echoed one after another, never ending.

Hou Moshe, who was a priest, couldn't help but look at this scene.

The right to explain the Oracle was the most important power held by the priest Department. According to the rules of the sea god temple, no one was allowed to explain or misinterpret the Oracle except for the high priest.

The meaning of the Oracle just now was very clear. It wanted master mo to commit suicide on the spot. Any person with normal intelligence would not have misunderstood it.

Who would have thought that these few words would be forcibly explained as a reward for master mo!

Normally, this would be an unforgivable crime!

However, the 200000 people in front of him had been spurred on to stand on master Mo's side.

Deliberately misinterpreting the sea god's Oracle was indeed an unforgivable crime, but the law could not punish the masses. Once the matter was spread to a large group, especially to the scale of two hundred thousand people, even the sea god had to give in.

After all, if these 200000 people were all condemned, the sea god would not only lose 200000 believers. Once the matter developed, it would inevitably spread to the entire sea realm, and at that time, it would be the foundation of all the believers that would be damaged.

Master mo looked at Lin Yi, the pride in his eyes starting to get out of control.

"Young man, you truly do have some skill, but in terms of devotion to the Lord seagod, I'm not below anyone. I have absolute confidence in this."

Lin Yi looked at him,"you're good. The judges are on your side now. No matter what I say, they'll find an excuse for you. I don't stand a chance at all."

Master Mo's mouth curved into an obscure arc,""They're not standing on my side, but on the Lord seagod's side, on the side of justice. I hope you won't misunderstand this. "

To be honest, Lin Yi's actions really did surprise him. If he wasn't well prepared, he might've really died.

He really didn't expect Lin Yi to be able to communicate with the sea god face to face, and even send down such a clear message!

This kid is too dangerous, we can't let him live.

The killing intent in master Mo's heart grew stronger.

Before this, he really did have some thoughts of tricking Lin Yi and making him his puppet. After all, with the title of Sea King, he could use it to clear his name and even have the chance to enter the sea god temple in the future!

However, it seemed that he had been overthinking it.

Chapter 10144

He couldn't let someone who could truly communicate with the sea god live, even if he was beaten to death. After all, his methods could only bewitch ordinary cultivators, but definitely not the sea god Himself.

Master Mo's face was filled with kindness as he swept his gaze across the entire Hall, "Time is the most precious thing. Because of you and me, we've affected so many of Lord seagod's devout believers. I really feel bad, so I suggest we be a bit more straightforward."

"What do you mean?" Lin Yi raised an eyebrow.

"Please make your decision."

Master Mo's words revealed his true intentions.

There was a burst of cheers from the audience. Hai Wutian and Hou Maha looked at each other and frowned. "He's an old liar. How dare he do that?"

The so-called divine judgment was to let the sea god personally make the judgment. This was also the Supreme Judgment with the most credibility in the world.

If it wasn't for the Oracle just now, it wouldn't be strange for the other party to take the initiative to mention this.

This was because a divine judgment was not something that could be invited just because one wanted to. How could the high and mighty gods care about the thoughts of mere mortal cultivators? and as long as he followed this process, even if no divine judgment was made in the end, he could still put on a look of having a clear conscience.

And this should have been a high probability event.

But now that Lin Yi had asked for the real Oracle, it meant that the chances of him getting a divine judgment were much higher. If that happened, this old man would die for sure!

Divine judgment was an existence that was as terrifying as divine punishment. It would not joke around with you.

"What is he up to?"

Lin Yi had the same question in his mind, but he could guess something from the man's confidence.

"I'm afraid you're not going to invite any ordinary divine judges, are you?" Lin Yi asked.

"That's right, it's rare to have 200000 followers of the sea god as witnesses. This kind of opportunity can be said to be unprecedented. In order for everyone to personally feel the majesty of the Lord sea god, I propose to expand the divine judgement!"

As expected.

Expanding Holy judgment meant that all 200000 people in the audience would vote together. Although the final decision was still in the hands of the sea god in theory, in reality, the result of the entire Holy judgment had already been locked in by him in advance.

There were two possibilities. Either the sea god didn't care at all, or this divine judgement would become a fake one. It'd become a public vote between Lin Yi and him, and one could only imagine what the result would be.

As for the remaining possibilities, the sea god really did give a divine judgment.

Although in theory, both sides had the possibility of being unlucky, in order to expand the influence of the Holy judgment, the sea god had to take into account the thoughts of the 200000 believers. Even if they did not completely support him in the end, they would not stand against the hearts of the 200000 believers. That would be digging their own roots.

Therefore, no matter how he calculated it, he would not lose out.

"What if I don't agree?" Lin Yi looked at him.

"That's your freedom, but I'm afraid that you won't be able to convince the masses this way. "Master mo smiled and shook his head.

"Is ... That important?" Lin Yi asked, confused.

"You don't think it's important?"

Master Mo's eyes couldn't help but have a bit more contempt.

The purpose of the sea god's assembly was to see who was the swindler, and it was the general public who could truly decide who was the swindler.

Otherwise, if everyone thinks you're a liar, what's the use even if you're the sea god's appointed spokesperson?

The key to this battle was not to make the other party lose, nor to make the other party admit that he was a liar. This was meaningless. Even if he lost, the other party would never admit it in public as long as he had a problem with his brain.

Even if I lose miserably, I'll just say that you cheated, and I've only fallen for your dirty trick. What can you do to me?

The key was public opinion.

As long as the public opinion was on your side, it didn't matter whether you were real or not. If everyone thought you were real, what was fake would be real. On the other hand, if the public opinion was on your opposite side, even if you were real, what was real would be fake.

Lin Yi's actions did alert him, but he didn't even think of this level. It wasn't worth mentioning.

An idiot who couldn't even grasp the core key points, even if he had some extraordinary abilities under him, so what?

The more he did, the more mistakes he made. This kind of trash was not qualified to be master Mo's opponent.

For a moment, master Mo's interest was somewhat dampened, ""Whether you think it's important or not, the world will not change because of your will. You can only embrace reality, young man."

His words were sincere and sincere, with a little regret, firmly establishing the image of a highly respected master who wanted to guide the younger generation.

In everyone's eyes, Lin Yi was now a young man who had gone down the wrong path, a man who didn't know what was good for him and insisted on going down this path to the end.

"Master mo has already done his best. No matter what happens next, it's Lin Yi's own fault."

This thought appeared in the minds of the 200000 people almost at the same time.

It was as if they'd all given Lin Yi the death sentence-they didn't feel any guilt at all, and in fact, they were all very happy.

Without waiting for Lin Yi to say anything, master mo started the divine judgement ceremony.

Lin Yi didn't interrupt him and just watched quietly.

Putting everything else aside, the man opposite him had obviously put in effort in various rituals. His professional proficiency was almost no less than any of the sea god temple's first-tier priests.

Just this level of attentiveness was enough to intimidate many people.

However, a liar was still a liar. No matter how realistic the ritual was, it was only for show. There would not be any real divine judgment.

It was obvious what the script was going to do next-they were going to use the excuse of expanding the range of judgement to force the 200000 viewers to vote for Lin Yi and send him to his death.

Everything was so logical that no one could find any fault with it.

Lin Yi's death would also mean that the Poseidon shrine's credibility would take a fatal blow. Master mo, who had made a name for himself through this incident, would be able to take the Poseidon shrine's place one day with the support of the royal families of the three Seas.

It was a perfect script.

At the side of the stage, ao Yuzhou's face had already revealed the smile of a Victor. On the surface, the biggest winner of today's battle was master mo, but in reality, it was the royal family of the three Seas.

No matter how brilliant master Mo's methods were, it was a pity that he had no foundation. He was destined to be a puppet of the three Seas royal family.

In front of a true Sea Lord like him, master mo was like Lin Yi on the Dragon trapping platform, unable to resist at all.

However, after just three breaths, both his and master Mo's expression changed.

They felt the power fluctuations from the sea god!

The two beams of light fell from the sky and landed on Lin Yi and Grandmaster Mo's heads. The confused audience started cheering.

Chapter 10145

This was the pillar of light from the sea god, representing that the Lord sea god had responded to the divine judgment and would personally make the judgment!

The most recent record of the sea god's divine judgment was 150 years ago. They never thought that they would be lucky enough to witness it with their own eyes today. Moreover, it was a large-scale divine judgment that they had participated in. No wonder everyone was so excited!

In the future, if word got out, it could be said that they were sitting on the judge's seat with the sea god. It was enough to boast about for a lifetime.

However, they would never have thought that master mo, whom they had unconditionally supported, was already cold in his hands and feet on the stage.

"You again?"

Master mo looked at Lin Yi in shock.

First, it was an Oracle, and now it was a divine judgment. Although he was the one who invited them, he knew what it meant.

He couldn't understand why the sea god, who hadn't responded to his believers even once in decades or centuries, was so active today, declaring his existence one after another.

This definitely wasn't targeted at him. After all, he had been swindling people for so many years, and there had never been such a situation.

The only explanation was Lin Yi.

The two responses were for Lin Yi-the ocean goddess "favor for this guy had reached this level already?"

Master mo was caught in a dilemma.

If the sea god wasn't watching, he could easily kill an idiot like Lin Yi ten thousand times over, and he'd be more than happy to step on that step to get to the top.

But the Poseidon had declared his presence twice, and it was clear that Lin Yi was someone he valued. What would happen if he continued to kill Lin Yi?

He did not dare to think about it.

It was impossible for humans to fight against the gods. This was a deep-rooted thought that everyone had, even an old liar like him who used the name of the sea god to swindle others.

He was betting that the sea god would not pay attention to the believers below. The two words "sea god" were like the Buddha statues in the temple, never truly coming to life. That was why he dared to be so unscrupulous.

But now, not only did the sea god respond, but he responded twice in a row.

Lin Yi looked at him faintly, "what are you waiting for?" Continue. "

"....."

Master mo and ao Yuzhou, who was at the side of the stage, looked at each other. At this point, there was no room for him to turn things around. He could only brace himself and walk this path to the end.

With the expanded divine judgment, even if the sea god made the divine judgment himself, he was confident that he could gather the will of 200000 believers and force the sea god to stand on his side!

Although there were huge hidden dangers in doing so, he still had absolute confidence in this.

This was supposed to be his last resort and the last resort he wanted to use, but he had no choice. Only by passing the current difficulties would he have a chance to deal with the subsequent troubles.

Otherwise, if a divine judgment was made, he would die immediately. What hidden dangers would there be to speak of?

The Halo of divine judgment above the two of them grew brighter and brighter, like the sun without the ocean's barrier. It shone on everyone present, connecting the will of the 200000 people.

The two pillars of light showed all kinds of images. There were gods and demons, there was compassion, there was gospel, and there was also killing.

The different images meant that the sea god had different preferences for the two.

"Damn it, that guy wouldn't pooped just like that, right?"

Ao Yuzhou looked at the ferocious image that was gradually condensing above master Mo's head and couldn't help but break out in cold sweat.

On the other hand, the sky above Lin Yi's head was peaceful. It was clear that the sea god was on Lin Yi's side!

From the standpoint of the royal families of the three Seas, even though they were not going to fight directly, if master mo really ended up getting caught in his own trap, the royal families of the three Seas would also be greatly affected.

At that time, it would not only be the People's hearts and morale that would suffer a blow, but also the initiative of the overall situation.

The royal families of the three Seas who had been blessed by the righteousness were completely different from the royal families of the three Seas who had divided their territories. In particular, the West Sea had just lost an extremely crucial elite force. Once they fell into a huge passive state, things would be troublesome.

Fortunately, when the wills of the 200000 believers received the message, the situation on both sides immediately reversed.

Master mo turned the situation around in the blink of an eye, but Lin Yi's head suddenly became dangerous and unpredictable. One after another, negative killing images condensed rapidly, and after a short period of accumulation, it was about to fall.

Hai Wutian, hou Mohe, and the others were all in shock-if they let this thing land, Lin Yi would be doomed no matter how strong he was!

But then, before master mo could relax, the wind changed again.

The light of blades and shadows of swords appeared above his head again, and he was even more brutal than before.

This time, the divine judgment would not give him any more time to react after the preparation and momentum he had just gained. It would fall directly on his head in front of all 200000 believers!

"Has the sea god gone crazy?"

This horrifying thought flashed through master Mo's mind.

He had brainwashed 200000 followers. It was no exaggeration to say that these 200000 followers were hostages in his hands.

If the sea god still wanted to live a good life, he definitely wouldn't dare to joke around with the collective will of these 200000 believers. After all, once this event was over, their ideas would spread even further throughout the entire sea realm.

At that time, it would be more than two hundred thousand, two million, twenty million, or even two hundred million!

This was the sea god's most important Foundation. With the gods' emotionless and calculative nature, how could they make a mistake on such a big matter?

But no matter how shocked he was, the reality before his eyes was that the sea god had ultimately chosen to stand against the 200000 believers, and he had become the target of the divine judgment!

The light shone brightly, and the divine judgment fell.

"Good! This is what an old liar should end up like!"

Hai Wutian and the others clapped their hands and cheered. From the moment they came here, they had been ostracized by everyone, and they had accumulated a lot of anger. Now, they were finally satisfied.

No one could survive under the divine judgment. Even someone as strong as ao Tian Xia would be killed instantly. No one could!

Hou Moshe frowned and said, "Something's wrong. Why aren't these people moving at all?"

At this moment, the 200000 people present didn't make a single sound. All of them stood still with their eyes closed. At first glance, they looked like an Army of the Living Dead, which was quite horrifying.

"Are all those who join the expansion of Holy judgment like this?" hai Wutian asked curiously.

"We're joining too." Hou Moshe glanced at him. "Did we do that?"

"....."

Hai Wutian finally reacted and said in shock, ""Could it be that old Liar's doing? That's 200000 people we're talking about, is he really that capable?"

While they were talking, the scene suddenly changed.

At the last moment of the divine judgment, master mo suddenly opened his mouth and shouted, ""I'm not convinced!"

At the same time, all 200000 people opened their eyes at the same time. They collectively shed two lines of blood tears and growled in unison, ""I'm not convinced!"

Chapter 10146

The collective will then condensed into an unparalleled, terrifying power that actually distorted the sea God's light pillar. The divine judgment that should have fallen on master Mo's head was forcibly pushed back by this power.

Hai Wutian and the others were dumbfounded.

Even ao Yuzhou, who was the leader of the group of influential figures in the honored guests 'seats, revealed a shocked expression. Taking the divine judgment head-on was a heaven-defying act that even ao Yuzhou, a top-tier expert of the sea realm, did not dare to imagine!

'Damn, this old turtle really has something.'

Ao yuchu finally understood why master mo had deliberately planted the thought steel seal on 200000 people, even at the cost of his own money.

Not only did he take out all his assets, but he also borrowed an astronomical amount of resources from the three Seas 'royal families. If he did not have some value, the three Seas' royal families would not have agreed at all. After all, they might not be able to afford it even if they sold him.

From the looks of it now, he had spent such a huge amount of resources not only to win over 200000 believers, but also to get this death-exemption token!

Without a doubt, this was a huge gamble.

If such a twist and turn did not happen in the end, master Mo's investment of so many resources would have gone to waste.

But now that he had hit the mark, it could only be said that he had a unique vision!

Even so Yuzhou couldn't help but be unconvinced by such courage.

At this moment, the divine judgment was forcefully pushed back, but everyone knew that it was like an arrow that had left the bow. Once it was cast, there was no way to retrieve it.

Since he couldn't find master mo, he could only change his target.

Lin Yi, danger.

As expected, the divine judgment landed on Lin Yi's head, and master mo couldn't hide his pride anymore.

At the same time, he used a voice that only Lin Yi could hear, "Playing with me? Young man, let me teach you something. Arrogance is the biggest obstacle to survival. You're too arrogant. "

With that, he didn't even look at Lin Yi again and walked off the stage.

Today's battle was frightening but not dangerous. It really scared him into a cold sweat, but at the same time, it also proved his foresight.

After today, he would have a greater right to speak in front of the royal families of the three Seas. This also meant that he was one step closer to realizing his ambition!

But before he could leave the stage, he heard Lin Yi's voice from behind. "You took the initiative to step down, are you prepared to admit defeat?"

"....."

Master mo stumbled and almost rolled off the stage.

Master Mo's mind went blank as he turned around to look at Lin Yi, who was still in one piece. The divine judgement had already been cast, how could this guy still be unharmed?

The divine judgment had already disappeared, which proved that there was nothing wrong with his senses. The divine judgment had indeed landed on Lin Yi's head.

Not only him, even ao Yuzhou, who was at the side of the stage, opened his eyes wide in disbelief.

Unlike master mo who was intentionally acting cool, he had seen the entire scene clearly.

The divine judgment did land on Lin Yi, but it was like sunbathing. Other than making Lin Yi feel better, nothing happened.

Ao Yuzhou muttered, "damn, I've seen a ghost ..."

After a long while, master mo finally recovered from the shock and looked at Lin Yi with an ashen face, ""What kind of tricks did you use?"

"I don't think I'm as good as you when it comes to unorthodox methods, right?"

Lin Yi looked at him calmly, "do you really think the Lord Poseidon is a toy you can trick?" You can lie to me however you want? Do you really think that you're invincible just because you have the will of 200000 believers?"

Master mo choked.

That was what he thought. If he didn't have such thoughts, how could he have come to where he was today?

The sea god was his tool, the stairs he used to advance, that was all.

As for respect, he never did.

However, now that the sea god had repeatedly declared his existence, he was truly beginning to panic.

In the end, he was just an ordinary cultivator, only a bit more experienced in manipulating people's hearts. If he really was targeted by the seagod, how could he live?

But he was still not convinced.

Master mo pointed at the 200000 sea god believers with tears of blood on their faces and said through gritted teeth, "They are now completely bound to me. If I die, they will die with me. Do you dare to kill me?"

Sea god, do you dare to kill me?"

The gods could ignore the life and death of an individual believer, but they could not ignore the life and death of 200000 believers, especially if they were buried with great resentment. They would eventually bite back at the gods.

When the backlash reached a certain level, even gods would die.

Even Lin Yi couldn't help but shake his head, speechless. "Threatening a God with his believers? You're not just arrogant, I think you're invincible. Why don't we do something more exciting?"

"How dare you say that?"

Master Mo's eyes twitched, looking at Lin Yi as if he was a lunatic.

Even a liar like him who used the sea god as a stepping stone would never dare to say such a word. After all, there was a God three feet above him, not to mention the sea god who had just repeatedly declared his existence.

Lin Yi's words were practically pointing at the sea god's nose, saying, "I'm going to F * ck you to death."

Master mo thought of himself as a bold man, but compared to Lin Yi, he was a harmless little rabbit.

The most outrageous thing was that the God's Inquisition didn't work on Lin Yi-it was obviously the sea God's will, but the sea god didn't do anything to this guy's disrespectful words?

Were all gods so magnanimous?

Seeing Lin Yi's teasing face, master mo immediately understood and his face twisted, ""It doesn't matter. No matter what relationship you have with the sea god, it's none of my business. With two hundred thousand followers in my hands, even the sea god can't do anything to me today!"

The 200,000 followers were his last protective talisman, and he had to hold on to it tightly.

He really didn't have the courage to kill a God. He didn't even have the courage to say it out loud, because he knew the depth of it.

However, he still had the confidence to coerce 200000 followers into making a deal with the sea god. This was also because of his understanding of the gods.

In terms of strength, he was not even ranked in the sea realm. If he had not made such a big scene, he would not even have the qualifications to talk to a formidable person like ao Yuzhou.

However, in terms of understanding of the gods, if he claimed to be second in the entire sea area, he believed that no one could be first.

After all, if one didn't understand all of this and still rashly used the seagod's name to swindle others, then one really didn't know what death was.

"Is that so?"

Lin Yi couldn't help but smile strangely. "Do you really think that no one can crack the thought stamp that you've set up? is that why you're so fearless?"

Chapter 10147

"That's right," master mo sneered and nodded.

He indeed had absolute confidence in this. His deep hypnosis was unresolvable in the entire sea realm. As long as he planted a thought steel seal in someone, it would be impossible to remove it artificially in this lifetime. This was the true foundation of his standing.

Lin Yi smiled, "I tried it just now. It doesn't seem to work, but there's someone else who can try. He might be able to."

"Oh? Then I'd like to see it. "

Now that both sides had revealed their cards, master mo wasn't panicking at all. He didn't expect Lin Yi to force him to this point, but the situation couldn't get any worse.

No one could break the iron seal of his thoughts, no one could.

In the end, he saw yet another unprecedented pillar of light land on the trapped Dragon platform. It was at least ten times stronger than the divine judgment just now!

Grand Master mo was shocked, "you want another divine judgment?" It's useless, I have 200000 believers in my hands. No matter how many times you come, the result will be the same. No matter how strong the divine judgment is, it will only fall on you in the end. Are you sure you can withstand it?"

Lin Yi was looking at him like he was an idiot, and he suddenly felt uneasy.

Then, he saw a human figure gradually condense in the huge light pillar. At the same time, a Supreme pressure rose from its body.

Under the pressure, the 200000 believers who had lost their consciousness knelt down on their own and prostrated themselves.

"Godly ... Might?"

Master mo uttered these two words with difficulty.

Ao Yuzhou, who was at the side, was also shocked. Even if he had never experienced it before, anyone with a little bit of knowledge would know what it meant.

Only the gods had divine might.

"Your methods are so brilliant, I can't break it, so I have no choice but to ask the Lord Poseidon to come and try it out. I hope you don't mind?" Lin Yi said faintly.

As he spoke, the outline of the human figure in the huge pillar of light became clearer and clearer, even the lines of the face gradually became clearer.

"....."

Master mo was on the verge of tears.

Even if you beat him to death, he wouldn't have thought that there was a need for the great sea god to personally descend to a conflict between mortals. This was the first time in the history of the entire sea realm!

[When children quarrel, your family's adults follow in. What do you mean by rolling up your sleeves? isn't that too much?]

Although he had just said that even if the sea god came personally, he wouldn't be able to do anything to him, now that the sea god had really come, even if it wasn't the sea god Himself, even if it was just a clone that had descended, it was still not something he could take.

All he could rely on was for ordinary cultivators, but in front of the sea god, the thought stamp he was so proud of might not be so strong.

Don't forget, the 200000 people who had been deeply brainwashed at the scene, even if they were now forcibly tied to his ship, their most basic background was still the seagod believers.

In other words, when it came to the thought steel seal, the sea god's thought steel seal that had been brainwashed from birth was far more profound than his, master mo 's, means!

What's more, in order to successfully plant his own thought stamp, not only could he not conflict with the sea god, but he also had to further realize his own intentions on this basis.

The stronger his thought stamp was, the stronger the sea god's thought stamp would be.

As a result, even if he had control over the will of two hundred thousand believers, he absolutely didn't dare to truly challenge the seagod's will.

This was because if he dared to do so, the greatest possibility wasn't a life and death struggle, but rather that the 200000 believers would instantly wake up and unhesitatingly abandon him to stand on the sea god's side.

Therefore, no matter how fierce he shouted, he still did not dare to take the risk.

But in the current situation, it wasn't a matter of whether he gambled or not. If the seagod really descended, he wouldn't need a single word, a single look would determine his life and death.

He would still die without a doubt.

Master mo was drenched in cold sweat, unable to breathe under the pressure. Lin Yi didn't even do anything, but he was already kneeling on the ground with a pale face, retching awkwardly.

"Trash!"

Ao Yuzhou cursed in his heart and then attacked.

Seeing him turn into a shadow and suddenly appear in front of the sea god, all the forces 'representatives in the VIP seats were collectively dumbfounded. Even hai Wutian's group was dumbfounded.

Even a rational person like hou Mohe couldn't help but mumble, ""I've always heard that the King of the West Sea, ao Yuzhou, is the bravest among the royal families of the four Seas. But I didn't expect him to be this brave!"

From their point of view, Lin Yi casually mentioning the word "God-slaying" was already very impressive, but looking at ao Yuzhou's actions, it was obvious that he was going to put those two words into action!

"It's just an unformed clone of the sea god, do you think I can't afford to provoke it?"

Following ao Yuzhou's low roar, his body suddenly transformed into a real Dragon and clawed at the huge light pillar.

Lin Yi glanced at him.

Compared to master mo, who was scared to death when he got serious, this was a real tough opponent. This was a powerful enemy that needed to go all out!

As expected of a hero who could rule a region, just his courage to kill a God was enough to leave others two streets behind.

Compared to Ao Tian Xia, who was at the terminal stage of his terminal illness, the same rules of the Dragon race were obviously more domineering and terrifying in the hands of this King of the West Ocean. Just the pressure that came from him was on a completely different level.

But when the Dragon Claw landed on the seagod pillar of light, the fierce attack came to a sudden stop.

The beam of light was unscathed, but half of the Dragon Claw was gone.

Everyone who was still conscious was shocked. The same thought suddenly appeared in their minds. Gods were indeed invincible!

Ao Yuzhou's attack undoubtedly represented the strongest combat power in the entire sea realm, but it couldn't even break the outermost Halo of the deity's descent.

To a group of ambitious people, this was no different from pouring a basin of cold water on their heads.

No matter how many psychological hints they gave themselves, no matter how much they were willing to believe in the rumors that the sea god was dying, in the face of this cold reality, everything was just a joke.

However, as Yuzhou clearly didn't think so.

The Dragon Claw wasn't enough, so it turned around and let out a breath. The pitch-black turbid flow collided with the ring of light, instantly burning through it, and directly blasted the sea God's body.

The sea god hadn't completely descended yet, only taking a rough shape.

The sea god's outline was instantly destroyed by the sudden attack of the dragon's breath, and the divine might that enveloped everyone's heads weakened greatly.

The big shots in the VIP seats looked at each other.

The great reputation of the four Seas' royal family was indeed not for nothing. Ordinary people would have been scared to the ground by the sight of the sea god's descent, but this King of the West Sea had not only made an inhuman move, but had also allowed him to succeed.

It was simply heaven-defying!

Chapter 10148

Although no one had ever seen the sea god's descent, they could see that it had been forcefully interrupted.

The reason why the sea god's descent was so rare that it only existed in legends was because of its difficulty.

It was so difficult that even a God-level existence like the sea god couldn't do as he pleased.

They didn't understand why the sea god was acting so strangely today, and they didn't know why the sea god had suddenly descended. However, they were clear about one thing. If the sea god couldn't descend, then they were doomed to be helpless against Ao Yuzhou.

Otherwise, the royal families of the four Seas would have been wiped out for so many years, and they would not have been allowed to live freely until today!

The gods far away in the sky were nothing to this group of ambitious people.

Ao Yuzhou didn't stop there. He turned to where Lin Yi was and swiped down with his claw again. It was obvious that he wanted to get rid of Lin Yi completely. This was a complete fall out.

With Lin Yi's current strength, he couldn't take this claw at all.

However, Lin Yi was already aware of it. The moment the Dragon Claw was about to land, he had already dodged to the edge of the platform and left a clone where he was standing.

Without any suspense, the clone shattered.

Ao Yuzhou's surprised voice sounded: "You're quite something indeed-you're the first golden class early phase peak venerable to survive my attack. You should be proud of that for a while. "

His dragon claws were not just physical attacks on the surface. At the same time, they also carried the iconic Dragon might of the dragon clan's rules. Once an ordinary cultivator was locked on, they would not be able to move at all, let alone deal with it calmly.

A mere golden class early phase peak venerable was able to Dodge his Dragon pressure, and so calmly at that-this was unprecedented.

"Aren't you afraid the sea god Hall will go all out against you?"Lin Yi was curious as well.

He was now the official representative of the sea god Hall. If he lost to master mo in a duel, it would be a disgrace to the sea god Hall. Even if he died, he would only have himself to blame.

However, he had the upper hand now. If he were to kill him now, the meaning would be completely different.

Of course, strictly speaking, from the moment ao Yuzhou forcefully interrupted the sea god's descent, he was already destined to fight the sea god Hall to the death. There was no room for negotiation.

Ao Yuzhou didn't even try to hide his disdain, ""Hehe, do you think that the sea god Hall doesn't want to fight me to the death? Do you think that the royal families of the four Seas have been able to act like tyrants for so many years all because of the Poseidon shrine's charity?

I can live carefreely because of my strength. As long as I still have my strength, no matter how you describe me as an unpardonable criminal, you won't be able to do anything to me in the end. "

"Don't you think you're underestimating the Poseidon shrine too much?" Lin Yi asked, cocking his head. It might be difficult for the sea god Hall to deal with the four Seas "royal families at the same time, but now that the eastern sea has surrendered, the remaining Three Seas" royal families each have their own plans.

You're forcing yourself to stand out at this time. Do you really think that the other two seas will help you take the lightning?"

It was no secret that the four Seas 'royal families were at odds with each other. Any random uncle on the side of the road could talk to you about the dirty conflicts between them for a day and a night.

It was only because they feared the threat of the sea goddess Hall that the royal families of the four Seas could barely maintain a united front on the surface.

In fact, no matter which family it was, they all had their own plans in private. This was clear from the previous battle.

The elites of West Ocean were indeed wiped out by Lin Yi, but at least 30% of the results were attributed to the other two oceans. After all, if they didn't sell out their teammates so quickly, West Ocean might not have lost so much in the end.

"You want to sow discord between us?"

Ao Yuzhou couldn't help but laugh. "It's boring. We three Seas know each other's talents very well, so there's no need for you to worry about it. Instead, I have to remind you that the sea goddess Hall doesn't intend to let you go back alive."

If you want to maintain the balance of power, Lin Yi must die in the West Sea-that's what your high priest said. "

"Oh, really? Then I'll have to thank you for the reminder. "

Lin Yi, naturally, understood this.

In this trip to the West Ocean, his greatest enemy was not the West Ocean, but the sea goddess Hall.

Before this, the high priest had at least maintained some visible restraint, but this time, he had obviously changed his strategy. Not to mention other things, just the fact that this conference had made such a big scene, it was inevitable that he had added fuel to the fire behind the scenes.

It was obvious that once Lin Yi left the West Sea, the enemy's next move would only get bigger and bigger.

Compared to the AO Yuzhou and the royal families of the three Seas, the high priest, who had yet to reveal the tip of the iceberg, was the real Tiger.

However, that was a matter for the future.

As Lin Yi spoke, he transformed into the devil Chi You and faced ao Yuzhou in his dragon form. After all, it was a rare opportunity. It wasn't easy to meet a top-tier master of the sea realm.

In the end, Lin Yi lost half of his body.

"You're overestimating yourself!"

Ao Yuzhou snorted. "You don't even know your own strength. It seems that I have overestimated you. Or Do you not know what true power is?"

Lin Yi's body was back to normal in an instant, his image intact, but his breathing was much weaker.

With his current strength, it was inevitable that he would pay a price for fighting such a monster.

However, before ao Yuzhou could finish his sentence, a strange yet familiar voice suddenly sounded.

"Then, do you know what true power is?"

Ao Yuzhou's dragon form paused and he turned around stiffly. He looked at the unremarkable human figure in the center of the stage and his blood turned cold.

The sea god!

No one knew what the sea god looked like, but in this situation, even a three-year-old child would know that the human silhouette that walked out of the Halo was definitely the sea god.

To be precise, it should be the sea god's clone.

But even if it was only the sea god's clone, just this status alone was enough to suppress everyone present until they couldn't breathe.

Even ao Yuzhou, who had been so majestic and imposing just a moment ago, couldn't help but feel his aura weaken by 80% at this moment. The huge Dragon seemed particularly small in front of a mere thin human figure.

The giant dragon subconsciously crouched down, and its head fell to the ground powerlessly, as if it was bowing its head.

When the other leaders saw this, they were all left speechless. No matter how ambitious they had been, or how much they had thought they didn't care about the sea god, their bodies were now very honestly giving them the most honest answer.

They were all trembling.

After all, even ao Yuzhou, who was the most powerful and arrogant among them, was in such a state, let alone these second-tier competitors.

Chapter 10149

The sea god tilted his head slightly and looked at master mo who was sitting on the side.

Even though no one could see his face clearly, but at this moment, everyone could feel his solid gaze. Even from the perspective of a bystander, they did not dare to look directly at him, let alone master mo, who was the first to bear the brunt of it.

Peeing and shitting everywhere, this was definitely the most unbearable scene in master Mo's life.

But at this time, no one found it funny, and no one laughed at him, because if they were in the same situation, they would probably be in the same situation.

"You bewitched my 200000 followers. You have ulterior motives. Kill yourself."

The seagod's voice still didn't have the slightest human emotion.

There was no anger, no pity, and no bias. He simply made his judgment without any emotion. That was all.

Everyone had the same thought. This was a true divine judgement.

Looking at master Mo's ugly state, everyone thought that he would be scared to death. After all, the sea god had personally descended, so a liar like him had lost all his support.

The only thing he could ask for now was probably a quick death.

After all, no one could haggle with a true God. This conclusion didn't need any proof or reason.

However, unexpectedly, master mo actually struggled to stand up, his face showing an unprecedented madness.

When fear reached its peak, it became madness.

"I'll kill myself? Why should I commit suicide? These two hundred thousand followers will all listen to me. So what if you're the seagod? unless you're prepared to dig your own roots, you can only acknowledge my existence!"

Master mo had completely lost control of his emotions at this moment. Tears and snot flowed down his face as he spoke, but he still did not forget his ambition."Let me be your high priest, and the 200000 believers will completely regard you as their master!

Not just 200000, there will be 2 million, 20 million in the future!"

Everyone was speechless.

Making a deal with the gods was already a shocking move, not to mention this guy did it in front of the sea god. It had to be said that the most dangerous virus in the world was indeed ambition.

Once ambition grew uncontrollably, any kind of fruit could be borne.

The sea god looked at him quietly, saying nothing.

Master mo continued to Jabber on and on. His words became more and more outrageous and the content more and more crazy, but he had no intention of stopping.

It wasn't that he didn't want to stop, but he really didn't dare to.

Even though he had completely lost his rationality, he still knew instinctively that if he stopped, he would never have the chance to speak again.

Until the sea god indifferently said two words, "You're noisy. "

The noise stopped abruptly.

He didn't seem to have made any movements, but an invisible and substantial pressure appeared above master Mo's head. In the next second, he was crushed into a pile of indescribable meat paste.

As for the 200000 believers who were supposed to be controlled by him, they collectively fell down with tears of blood and no longer had any breath.

The whole place was dead silent.

This ... They were all buried with master mo?

A huge fear instantly lingered in the hearts of the big shots.

Before this, they knew that the gods did not care about the lives of their believers at all. However, in their opinion, since the believers were the foundation of the gods' power, once the number of believers reached a certain number, they would still be able to cause some scruples.

However, it seemed that they had all been overthinking it.

In the eyes of the sea god, even 200000 believers didn't have the qualifications to take a second look. They were all buried with him.

Everyone's hands and feet turned cold.

If they were still alive after today, they would definitely surpass the entire sea realm's understanding of the sea god and even all the gods.

The gods were definitely not high and mighty idols, and they would never spread mercy. The only difference between them and those vicious super sea beasts was that their strength was more terrifying, and they truly stood at the peak of this world. That was all.

The sea God's gaze immediately fell on Ao Yuzhou, who had transformed into a giant dragon.

Everyone's heart tightened again. After the 200000 followers, it would be the turn of the King of the West Ocean.

If they still had some confidence in ao Yuzhou's strength before this, this confidence had been reduced to zero along with the 200000 people.

Even if they had the same strength, the emotionless monster was far more terrifying than the God they had imagined.

"You don't need to struggle on your last breath. It's too tiring."

The seagod's words did sound a bit warmer, but behind him was still a cold killing intent.

This time, it was no longer a simple look, but a palm strike toward ao Yuzhou's dragon head. It seemed to be a simple strike, but when it landed on ao Yuzhou's body, it was earth-shattering.

The Dragon was instantly suppressed.

The crushed flesh and blood filled the entire trapped Dragon Stage. It was a spectacular scene. If the gourmet were to see this, he would probably bury himself in it and forget about home.

Although this was not the meat of a real Dragon, it was still condensed from the rules of the Dragon race after all. It more or less had the taste of dragon meat.

If it wasn't for the fact that the sea god was standing there, the crowd would have already snatched a few sacks. After all, this thing wasn't common.

At this moment, the entire place was deathly silent.

Everyone knew that the gods were undefeatable, but they never thought that it would be this exaggerated. It was just a clone that had descended, but it had directly destroyed ao Yuzhou, who was standing at the top of the sea realm. It was really incredible.

But what they didn't know was that while they were feeling despair, the invincible sea God's clone was silently counting down.

It wasn't a countdown that would wipe them out together, but a countdown to the time limit of his own duration.

After all, the person before them was not the sea god's clone that everyone had imagined, but a fake identity that Li Yuanji was controlling on her behalf.

With her peak false god strength, she could indeed mobilize a part of the power of the sea god's divinity, but don't forget that even the real sea god would find it extremely difficult to descend a clone, let alone a false god like her with the sea god's card.

It was all thanks to Lin Yi's new world that they were able to do what they were doing now.

It had to be said that the world's will was worthy of being the representative of the highest level of power. In theory, it was even above the gods. It was an absolute hard currency no matter where it went.

This was like a top-tier core processor. No matter what other hardware resources were, as long as they were integrated into it, they would be able to exert 100% of their performance. There was no possibility of pulling the strings.

The only pity was that although the New World had evolved to a certain level, it was still far from the origin world. To be precise, they were not in the same dimension.

Once it was used in the origin world, it would naturally be suppressed in all aspects.

In the end, the power it could truly mobilize was extremely limited, just like this time, the power it could truly use wasn't even one ten-thousandth of the seagod's divinity.

Chapter 10150

In addition, its duration was also very limited, not exceeding the time it takes for an incense stick to burn.

But even so, the situation was still one-sided. It could only be said that the difference in strength between the gods and the Supreme realm cultivators was like heaven and earth.

Even if Lin Yi and Li Yuanji's combined power wasn't even one ten-thousandth of a peak Poseidon.

Everyone thought that the matter had been settled.

But at this moment, as Yuzhou's arrogant voice suddenly sounded.

"Do you know why I chose the Coiling Dragon Stage as the venue?"

With the sound, a giant dragon condensed again, but this time it was no longer as fierce as before. It became ghostly, and there were constantly undead shadows swimming on its body.

And these undead phantoms, without exception, all exuded the aura of the Dragon race.

These were all experts who had mastered the rule power of the dragon clan when they were alive!

Lin Yi instantly understood the man's intentions. "Undead dragon? You've fused with the powers of the dragon clan's experts who died on the trapped Dragon platform? Aren't you afraid that they'll attack you and turn you into an idiot?"

The Coiling Dragon Stage was definitely not a good place for the dragon clan and experts who had mastered the rule power of the dragon clan.

After all, this was the place where their lives would end.

At first, Lin Yi was curious as to why the opponent chose this place. He thought that the opponent was determined not to fight personally, but to specifically target the Dragon race's rule force that was suppressing him.

But now, it seemed that he had underestimated the other party.

Fusing with so many vengeful undead phantoms at once was extremely dangerous, even for someone at ao Yuzhou's level. If he was not careful, the vengeful energy would attack his core Yuan spirit.

At that time, whether he, ao Yuzhou, would be able to maintain his main body's will was another matter.

However, behind the huge risk, there were also huge benefits.

At this moment, ao Yuzhou, who had forcefully transformed into an undead giant dragon, had his overall strength increased by an entire level!

Previously, he was already an existence at the top of the entire sea realm. The number of people who could be ranked above him could be counted with a finger.

He had become the ceiling of the sea realm's combat power!

Every top-notch expert had their own trump card. The undead giant dragon had a huge side effect, and they would not use it unless they had no other choice. Ao Yuzhou was obviously forced into a desperate situation.

It couldn't be helped, this was the pressure from the sea god's clone.

"Die!"

Ao Yuzhou's voice was particularly muffled, as if thousands of dead souls were roaring together. This was a sign that his true body and primordial spirit were suffering a huge impact.

The giant undead dragon swooped down, its huge mouth pointing directly at the sea god's clone.

BOOM!

As the shockwaves from the impact landed, the sturdy Coiling Dragon Stage was actually shattered into pieces by this impact. One must know that even when he had trapped and killed the top experts with the dragon clan's rule power so many times in the past, he had not left a single trace.

"Quickly look!"

Even though the side of the stage was also affected by the aftershock, hai Wutian and the others were still able to maintain their form.

From their point of view, the undead dragon that was looking down from above had not been able to charge to the end. Instead, it had been forcibly stopped by a slender hand, and everything had come to an abrupt end.

The owner of that hand was the sea god's clone.

One big and one small, one moving and one quiet, the huge contrast between the two made everyone's eyelids jump.

However, the more he felt this way, the more he could feel the despair in the situation at this moment.

Ao Yuzhou had already bet everything, but to the sea god's avatar, he didn't seem to have exerted his strength at all. Everything was still as simple as before.

After today's battle, not to mention what would happen to West Ocean in the future, at least the ambitions of the big shots of the other forces had been almost crushed.

The premise of their ambition was that the sea god was unable to control the entire sea region.

However, from the looks of it now, it was not that the sea goddess did not have the strength to do so. She had just never truly cared about the sea realm before, which was why she remained indifferent even when the four Seas "Royal clans isolated her.

If these so-called ambitious people were just doing some small tricks under the table, the sea god definitely wouldn't even give them a glance.

However, once the bottom line was crossed, it would be a different situation.

If he didn't want to die, he had to live obediently.

This was perhaps their greatest gain from this trip.

However, as Yuzhou clearly didn't intend to resign himself to his fate.

After a moment of stalemate, the undead giant dragon began to madly dance around without caring about the cost. Countless undead phantoms rushed towards the sea god's avatar from all directions, wailing as they penetrated his body.

Every spirit that passed through would take away the other party's power.

If it were other cultivators present, they would probably be squeezed dry and die on the spot after being pierced through eight to ten times.

However, it landed on the sea god's avatar's body and passed through more than ten thousand times in the blink of an eye. The aura around him didn't change in the slightest, and he was already firmly holding onto the undead dragon.

It was still single-handed, and he was doing it with ease.

Such an outcome was truly despairing.

You've already used your ultimate skill, but the boss didn't even lose a bit of health. How are you going to play?

Even so Yuzhou, whose mind had been in a state of disorder after being attacked by so many undead creatures, couldn't help but let out a sorrowful cry. He was truly unwilling!

As the King of the West Sea and a hero of the sea realm, he had always thought that even if he couldn't kill a God, he could at least arm-wrestle with the sea god.

At least in the West sea's home ground, especially in the Coiling Dragon Stage that he had carefully chosen, he had enough confidence.

But now, all his pride had turned into a joke.

Even a clone of the sea god had been able to easily crush all of his trump cards. The cruel reality was telling him that he, the respected King of the West Sea, was nothing in front of the gods.

"I'm not convinced! I'm not convinced!"

The undead giant dragon let out an exhausted roar. The deeper ao Yuzhou's consciousness was, the more terrifying his power was.

But even so, the situation didn't change in the slightest. The sea god's clone was still calmly suppressing it.

Just as ao Yuzhou was about to lose his last bit of consciousness and sink into the endless darkness, he suddenly felt the sea god's avatar loosen up.

It was like a fine and flawless piece of porcelain had suddenly cracked.

"There's a change!"

Ao Yuzhou, who had grabbed onto the last life-saving straw in his despair, immediately became spirited!

The big shots of the forces at the side were also shocked.

They were all people with extremely sharp senses. Even if there was no change in the situation, they could instantly see the signs of a reversal.

Once something like a crack appeared, it would definitely not just be one crack, but would directly split into thousands of cracks, and in the blink of an eye, it would develop into a complete collapse!
