

Bodyguard 10231

Chapter 10231

There had not been any large-scale reduction in manpower yet, but this group of powerful morowei experts had actually revolted. It simply subverted everyone's view of the world.

Lin Yi wasn't surprised at all.

In the past few years, the most important thing ao Taiwei had done was to control the Moro guards, and the Moro guards were indeed under his control.

However, this also brought about a huge drawback.

Mo Luowei's loyalty was only to him, not to the royal family of the southern sea. Once he died, the entire mo Luowei would lose its loyalty to someone.

To put it bluntly, the experts from morowei no longer knew who they should fight for.

If they couldn't even understand this, no matter how strong the ACE team was, they were just a group of scattered soldiers. It was only natural for them to collapse.

Lin Yi looked at the disciples and raised a finger, "Now, I'm going to announce the first mission of the sect, which is to capture prisoners. Every prisoner will be rewarded with a set of sword technique. The one who captures the most prisoners can enter the sword tomb to cultivate for a month."

The entire place was in an uproar.

With Lin Yi's newly-appointed Sword Saint rank, the sword skills he promised himself wouldn't be bad. To any Sword Master, sword skills were a deadly attraction.

Furthermore, he would have the opportunity to cultivate in the sword tomb!

The sword tomb was the birthplace of the sword Saint. It was like a Holy Land for everyone.

In the past, it was only opened once during the succession of sword Saints. Ordinary disciples of the Sword Garret were not qualified to enter, and even if they were lucky enough to enter, there was a high probability of death. It was impossible for them to cultivate in there.

She didn't expect Lin Yi to make such a promise!

Some disciples of the Sword Garret who knew the inside story were more or less suspicious. After all, as far as they knew, even the sword Saints of the past generations did not have such authority. At most, they could go in by themselves, but they could not let the other disciples of the Sword Garret go in with them.

However, they were still tempted.

Even if their aptitudes were the worst among them, a month of cultivation in the sword tomb would be enough for them to be Reborn!

If he missed this opportunity, he would definitely regret it for the rest of his life.

Lin Yi nodded with a smile as he watched the disciples rush out. The promise he made wasn't fake-he could do what the sword Saints couldn't.

After all, the sword Saints of the past did not have the help of the son of the sword.

As the disciples of the Sword Garret joined the battle, mo Luowei, who had already fallen apart, completely lost the will to fight. He no longer had any will to fight. All of them scattered and fled in all directions.

The overall situation was set.

"Congratulations, my Lord. The sword Pavilion has been decided. Even if mo Luowei is defeated, the entire South Sea will be at peace!"

Hou Moshe appeared behind Lin Yi and cupped his hands in greeting.

When Lin Yi entered the sea god temple alone and faced the priest division's suppression, other than a few of the top five advisors who were already on the high priest's side, no one had high hopes for him.

He was the only one who stood on Lin Yi's side-he was the priest who was supposed to be supervising Lin Yi, after all. Making this decision was a huge risk, and he could be killed by the high priest at any time.

However, it seemed that he had the last laugh in this gamble.

With Lin Yi's current power, even the high priest couldn't easily control him anymore. In fact, Lin Yi might even be able to suppress him in the overall situation!

After all, once South Ocean was taken down, north ocean would be the only ocean left.

In other words, Lin Yi was only one North Sea away from becoming the legendary ruler of the four Seas!

Lin Yi didn't have much of an emotional reaction to this and just smiled, "You're going to be busy again. The people from the sword Garret may look pure, but they're quite ambitious. You'll need to put in a lot of effort to sort them out."

"Understood."

Hou Maha nodded. He was now Lin Yi's assistant, and his most important duty was to help Lin Yi take care of these trivial but important matters.

If it was someone else, Lin Yi wouldn't trust them, nor would he have the ability to do so. He was the most suitable candidate.

"Should we send another team of brothers to ao Taiyi's side?" hou Mohe reminded after some thought.

The brothers he was talking about were naturally the guards unit experts.

Ao Taiyi's identity was of great importance. If he were to escape this time, he would be a hidden danger in the future.

Although it was unlikely that Wang hou would go easy on him, with Wang hou's strength, even if he brought a team of sword guardians, it was hard to say if he could successfully intercept and kill him.

As for the other disciples of the Sword Garret, no one knew how they were on good terms with ao Taiyi. If they were Birds of a Feather, they might help ao Taiyi from the inside, and that would be troublesome.

Lin Yi said with a wave of his hand. "Since I've left this matter to Wang hou, there's no need to worry about it anymore."

Hou Mohe paused, but he understood what Lin Yi was trying to do.

It wasn't that Lin Yi trusted Wang hou that much, but even if he didn't catch up to ao Taiyi, it wouldn't affect the situation in the South Sea.

After all, ao Taiwei was dead, and the morowei, the other cornerstone of the South Sea, had fallen apart. The remaining South Sea royal family might still look powerful, but they were no longer a threat to Lin Yi.

Furthermore, even if ao Taiyi was lucky enough to survive, he might not be able to unite the royal family of the South Sea after returning.

When ao Taiwei was still alive, he was the appointed successor of South Ocean, and no one dared to object.

However, now that ao Taiwei was gone, it was another matter whether he could still hold on to his position as the successor.

There was no lack of ambitious people in the world. Even in the wilderness, there was no lack of fierce and ambitious people, let alone the group of self-important Royal disciples of the South Sea.

He must have accumulated a lot of resentment against ao Taiyi.

It might be even more dangerous for ao Taiyi to escape than to stay outside!

As it turned out, Lin Yi had still underestimated Wang hou's ability.

On the surface, this guy looked like a straightforward boor, but in fact, he had a very meticulous side. The situation that the other sword guards were helpless about was actually found by him among the clues.

Then, after two hours, he really caught up to ao Taiyi, who was in a sorry state!

Looking at the nobles surrounding him, ao Taiyi shook his head with a bitter smile and said in a self-deprecating manner, ""In the end, it actually fell into the hands of an idiot like you. It seems that even the heavens have blind times. How sad."

Wang hou's mouth twitched, 'what a terrible bag? However, it's normal for a guy like you, who was born with the status of an Emperor, to look down on us.

It's a pity that you're just a maidservant with a young lady's heart. The so-called destined successor of the South Sea is actually just a daydream.

What ancestor's decision? in the face of true strength, it's nothing. "

Chapter 10232

"You dare to insult me?"

Ao Taiyi's face instantly turned green. When he was the eldest senior brother of the sword Garret, he could force himself to act like he was close to the people. But now, there was no need to continue the act. The contempt and disgust he felt for the bottom of the grass could no longer be suppressed.

Even if Wang hou's strength was not bad, in his eyes, he was still just a nobody who could not be shown in public.

Now that he was being ridiculed by such a small character in front of him, how could he not endure it?

Wang hou and the other swordsmen looked at him as if he was an idiot. ""You're already in this state and you're still acting like you're the successor of South Ocean? is there something wrong with your brain?

To be honest, if you kneel down and beg me to let you go, that might be a little more realistic.

Of course, even if you beg, it's all in vain. At most, you'll die a little more peacefully. "

The rest of the swordsmen burst into laughter.

No matter what, capturing ao Taiyi today was a huge achievement. He'd be able to get Lin Yi's attention when he went back, and he'd be rewarded handsomely too.

From the looks of it, ao Taiyi was their Lucky Star.

Ao Taiyi looked at the crowd coldly, and his lips suddenly curved into a ferocious smile. ""Do you really think you can defeat me like this? I'm the successor of South Ocean, do you really think I don't have any trump cards?"

Everyone was stunned.

Only Wang hou looked unconcerned,'there's no need to Bluff anymore at this point, is there? If you really had that kind of method, would you have waited until now?"

"Well said,"

Ao Taiyi stood up slowly and tidied his clothes in an orderly manner. A noble air that he was born with rose spontaneously."If it wasn't for you guys forcing me to this point, I actually wouldn't want to use it. After all, it doesn't suit my personality.

Unfortunately, I can't help it. "

With that, the noble Qi in his body grew stronger and stronger, and in the blink of an eye, it was so dense that it almost materialized. When the nobles saw this scene, four words appeared in their minds.

It was extremely noble.

"Do it!"

The royal family immediately sensed that something was wrong and attacked with all their might without hesitation. The rest of the sword guardians also reacted immediately and hurriedly followed suit.

The duck was already in his hands, but if the other party still managed to escape, it would be a huge loss.

Ao Taiyi shook his head in disdain. ""Laughable."

Before he came to this realization, he would not have been able to defeat the nobles in his current state. However, now that he had come to this realization, it was no longer a question of whether he could escape unscathed, but whether the nobles and the other idiots could survive.

Everyone's violent attacks landed on ao Taiyi's body one after another, but without exception, they were all blocked by the materialized noble Qi and did not affect him at all.

Wang hou was shocked.

At this moment, the noble Qi around ao Taiyi suddenly surged and condensed, forming rows of golden characters that were engraved around him.

"We met by fate, and I'm sincere."

"You know because of your sincerity, and heaven and earth act as a medium."

"Good fate is concluded, and the wedding is done."

"A couple has just formed, and we respect each other like guests."

"Holding hands, growing old together."

"The flowers are good, the moon is full, and we will be of one heart forever."

Among them were ao Taiyi's name and his eight characters.

Wang hou and the others were dumbfounded. This thing was actually an engagement letter!

What was even more outrageous was that ao Taiyi's name had appeared in the position where the female's name should have been.

Wang hou was taken aback for a moment before reacting, and burst into laughter. "You're the successor of South Ocean, but you're marrying into someone else's family?"

The rest of the swordsmen also had strange expressions on their faces.

Although the sea area didn't place as much importance on etiquette as the land, the large clans in the area still avoided the matter of a man marrying into their family, let alone ao Taiyi, the successor of the Royal clan of the South Sea.

It would be a miracle if it were to spread out!

A hint of gloominess flashed in the depths of ao Taiyi's eyes. With his pride, he would not have taken this step if he had other choices.

However, he had no choice.

As the engagement letter was formed, a beautiful figure appeared beside ao Taiyi, and a pair of fair arms slowly wrapped around his shoulders.

Although they couldn't see the woman's face clearly, this charming scene still made everyone's mouth go dry. A common and strong thought emerged in everyone's heart. Dying under a peony flower, even being a ghost would be romantic.

If he could obtain the favor of such a beautiful woman, not to mention marrying into someone's family, even death would be worth it.

However, while Wang hou was drooling over it, he did notice something unusual.

He could vaguely see the outline of two dragon horns on the woman's forehead.

"Dragon Lady!"

Wang hou broke out in cold sweat, and quickly shouted to wake the other swordsmen. ""Damn it, this kid isn't marrying into the family to enjoy his life, he's just looking for death!"

There was a popular legend in the sea area that the Dragon Lady pursued her husband.

It was said that the dragon girl was the daughter of a true dragon. She had the world's first-grade beauty, and countless young men dreamed of getting close to her. However, no matter who got close to her, they would become a dried corpse the next day, and all their vitality would be sucked dry. There were no exceptions.

As more and more men died, the Dragon Lady's pursuit of her husband gradually became a terrifying legend.

Only the man she targeted would die without a doubt.

There was no way to verify the authenticity of this legend, but after a joint investigation by various intelligence agencies, they came up with a speculation that was closest to the truth.

The Dragon Lady was most likely the embodiment of the rules of the Dragon race.

The rules of the dragon clan were different from all other rules. It was an ancient and great life form. Although it would give human cultivators rule power, it would also absorb vitality from human cultivators.

Once one's life force was sucked dry, they would naturally become mummies, and the Dragon Lady was a typical example of this.

Ao Taiyi was so flustered that he didn't even know where to go. He had actually initiated an engagement with the Dragon King's Daughter, and it was an engagement like this. He didn't even know how to spell the word 'death'!

"Are you looking for death?"

Ao Taiyi looked at the silhouette of the dragoness that was gradually forming beside him and smiled sarcastically. "My clan's old ancestor has studied the rules of the dragon clan for over ten thousand years. In terms of understanding of the rules of the dragon clan, who can be more profound than him?"

A bunch of ignorant fools. Do they really believe in the curse of the Dragon Lady chasing her husband?

Hahaha, do you know who made up this legend of the curse? It's my family's old ancestor!"

The nobles were all stunned when they saw ao Taiyi laughing.

The story of the dragon girl chasing her husband was actually made up by that old thing, ao Taiwei?
Could it be that all of that was fake?

Little did he know that ao Taiwei had been planning this for ten thousand years. He had done all of this so that the dragon girl would become his grandson's wedding dress!

Strictly speaking, it was not a complete rumor that the dragon girl was pursuing her husband.

Chapter 10233

Ao Taiwei was well aware that if the whole story was fabricated, it would be easily exposed. After all, there were too many smart people in the world, and it was impossible for him to deceive everyone, even with his deep foresight.

The human cultivators targeted by the Dragon Lady indeed had a very high probability of being sucked dry of their vitality and turning into dried corpses.

Many of these examples were indeed backed by evidence. No matter how the world investigated, they would not be able to find any flaws, because they were true.

However, this did not mean that he would definitely be sucked dry!

If he did not spread the rumor that the Dragon Lady was pursuing her husband, there would still be people who would come in to try it no matter how dangerous it was. If he left it alone, there would be lucky people who would eventually find out the correct way to use the Dragon Lady.

That's right, the correct way to use the dragoness was to marry into their family!

As long as there was this ceremony, the rules of the dragon clan would treat him as one of their own. Not only would the Dragon Lady not absorb his life force, but she would also feed it back to him.

The only price this person had to pay was to completely become the spokesperson of the dragon clan's rules and no longer be able to come into contact with any other rule power.

This was the correct answer that Ao Taiwei had come up with using his ten thousand years of vitality. This was the most precious treasure that he had left for his grandson.

"Men should be self-reliant. Unfortunately, most things don't go as they please in life. Since God doesn't give me any other choice, I can only refuse."

Ao Taiyi laughed complacently as he enjoyed the looks of shock on everyone's faces.

"Damn it, do you really think that you can turn the tables by living off a woman?"

Wang hou did not believe it and charged at ao Taiyi again. However, before his fist and sword Qi could land on ao Taiyi, they were blocked by the Dragon lady's hair, which had not even formed a clear outline.

In the next second, his entire body was pierced by countless strands of hair, and he was riddled with holes!

An indescribable fear instantly occupied the minds of everyone present.

However, with the swordsmen's accomplishments, they were not scared off by this. After looking at each other, they immediately attacked together.

However, they ended up just like Wang hou, all of them riddled with holes. They were no match for this legendary dragon clan rule embodiment.

The only good news was that the wounds caused by the hair were too small. Although they looked dense at first glance, he wouldn't die immediately.

However, because of the continuous bleeding, if they didn't get timely treatment, it was only natural that they would receive a collective bento.

Ao Taiyi looked down at the crowd and said with a mocking expression, ""We're still considered fellow disciples. As the eldest brother, I can't just watch you bleed to death. After all, I'm a soft-hearted person. I'll send you on your way with my own hands."

After he finished speaking, he was about to add salt to the wound.

Wang hou and the others could not help but feel despair.

In their current state, there was no way for them to resist. The group of sword guardians was filled with regret. They had thought that it would be a good job to take credit, but they did not expect to lose their lives here. It was really a joke of fate.

At the last moment when ao Taiyi's sword Qi was about to land, a majestic crescent-shaped saber Qi suddenly came whistling from a distance. Not only did it shatter the sword Qi, but it also struck ao Taiyi.

Although he was eventually blocked by the material noble aura covering him, he was still shocked.

"Who is it?"

Everyone looked in the direction of the saber Qi, and a tall man came into view. However, compared to his figure, the giant mo saber in his hand was more prominent.

When he saw the person's face clearly, Wang hou was instantly overjoyed. ""Swordsman!"

The rest of the people were stunned, but they quickly reacted and looked shocked. ""Watch the sword heroes?!"

It was rumored that no matter what kind of opponent this person faced, he would always end things with a single look at the saber. Over time, the name "saber-gazing" was also plastered on the streets.

It was said that his strength was unfathomable, and some people even once compared him with the sword Saint ye Qiyuan. However, according to the opinion of many intelligence agencies in the sea area, this person's strength was strong, but he was still far from the ceiling of the sea area, the sword Saint.

At best, he was at the level of a top goalkeeper.

Otherwise, he wouldn't have continued to be a loner. Instead, he would have settled down and rebuilt the legendary house of sabers like the sword Saint.

The house of sabers and the house of swords used to be known as the two saints of the sea realm. Their history was even longer than that of the sea goddess Hall and the royal families of the four Seas.

The sword Garret had the inheritance of the sword Saint. Even though it had declined, it was still one of the top forces in the sea area. However, the house of sabers didn't have a similar inheritance. After its glory, it disappeared in the long river of history and almost no one knew about it.

Rebuilding the house of sabers was the lifelong dream of every Saberman.

Unfortunately, until today, no one had been able to reach such a height. At present, it seemed that the sword-wielding man was the most promising person, but it was only limited to hope.

After all, rebuilding the house of sabers would have a huge impact on the power structure of the entire sea realm. This was not something that could be held back by a top-tier gatekeeper.

Ao Taiyi's expression changed.

Of course, he knew about the brave warrior. This person had once challenged his ancestor, ao Taiwei, and was defeated after a hundred moves. His strength had left a deep impression on him.

With his own strength, he would definitely not be able to block the other party's blade.

Chu Xia looked at Wang hou and frowned. ""Houzi, how did you become like this? Can you still hold on?"

Between his words, there was actually no sense of being an outsider, as if he was a familiar person.

Everyone looked at the royal family in surprise. Although the influence of the Chu Xia was far less than that of the sword Saint, he was still a Big Shot who could be ranked among the top battle forces. He was one of the top machetemen in the sea area.

He had almost never mentioned such a person, which was quite surprising.

One must know that Wang hou was not the type to keep a low profile.

"It's alright, it's no big deal. "

Wang hou laughed bitterly.

Back then, he and the other party were brothers. One of them learned the saber, and the other practiced the sword. They had agreed to make a name for themselves together. Now, the other party had become a famous Big Shot, while he was still unknown. He could not even be considered to have a firm foothold in the sword Pavilion. He was really too ashamed to meet people.

"Wait for my next move."

As he spoke, he walked towards ao Taiyi, implying that he could finish ao Taiyi off in one move.

Everyone turned to look at him.

Although the swordsman was strong, ao Taiyi was not an easy character to deal with either, especially now that the dragoness had appeared. It was a bit of an exaggeration to say that he could finish him off in one move, right?

Ao Taiyi narrowed his eyes and sneered, ""Then I'll wait and see how you'll deal with me in one move!"

Before he could finish his sentence, the cutthroat swordsman had already slashed his blade across the air without any fancy moves. A tyrannical blade energy instantly descended in front of him.

Chapter 10234

"Take my blade!"

Ao Taiyi's eyelids twitched in fear. He could feel death approaching. Fortunately, the Dragon King's Daughter didn't pull her leg. She managed to catch the saber Qi at the last moment with her hands.

It was blocked?

Wang hou and the others couldn't help but sigh.

As for ao Taiyi, who had just survived the disaster, he was even more ecstatic. He immediately burst into laughter and said, ""What bullshit blade! It's just a false reputation that an ignorant person brags about. You really think you're something, hehe. "

On the other hand, Chu Xia kept his mo saber at a steady pace and said indifferently, ""I'm attacking for the sake of Brotherhood. If you can survive this attack, I'll let you go."

"....."

Everyone was confused. This attack had clearly been received by someone else, so was he saying this to resolve his own embarrassment?

But in the next second, countless saber Qi exploded inside ao Taiyi's body. This self-assured successor of the South Sea couldn't even make a sound before he was killed on the spot, vanishing from the world.

Everyone was shocked.

This sudden turn of events made everyone's waists shiver. It turned out that the saber Qi that he had received just now was only a facade. The real killing move was coming after!

"As expected of a swordsman who kills without using a second strike. Your strength is getting more and more unfathomable."

Wang hou chuckled wryly as he stepped forward and cupped his hands, silently adding in his heart that the gap between them was growing.

The rest of the swordsmen also cupped their fists in greeting.

An expert would be sought after no matter where he went, not to mention that he had saved their lives. This was a great favor!

However, Chu Xia interrupted their conversation and looked warily at the spot where Ao Taiyi had been killed. Ao Taiyi was gone, but the dragoness was still there.

She was the embodiment of the dragon clan's rule power. No one knew how much rule power she could mobilize. In theory, her strength was above all the top combat forces, or even had no upper limit.

In the face of such an enemy, even the sword heroes did not dare to take it lightly.

"Sigh ..."

A helpless sigh was left in the air, and the Dragon Lady's blurry figure slowly dissipated until it completely disappeared.

Everyone heaved a sigh of relief.

Chu Xia looked at Wang hou with a strange expression, "houzi, how did you offend this guy?" Although you've always been reckless, you're not someone who would casually cause trouble, right?"

Although he could not recognize ao Taiyi, a Dragon Lady was enough for him to get a rough idea. Ao Taiyi must be a core figure with an extremely high status among the four Seas 'royal families. If he provoked ao Taiyi, he would definitely attract crazy revenge, and the consequences would be unimaginable.

"Actually, it's not just my business."

Wang hou quickly explained the situation. While this was an internal affair of the sword Garret and should not be disclosed to outsiders, there was nothing to hide given their relationship and the fact that he had just saved their lives.

"Lin Yi? The coastal water King, Lin Yi?"

Chu Xia slightly raised his eyebrows.

"You know him too?"

Wang hou's heart stirred, and he suggested, ""You're still wandering alone in the martial world, right? Now that the sword Pavilion has been reorganized, we're in need of people. Why don't you come to the sword Pavilion? from what I know about the new Sword Saint, he's not a petty person. You'll definitely be put in an important position. "

Seeing that the other party was silent, Wang hou added, ""Isn't the greatest wish of you sabermen to rebuild the house of sabers? As long as we can get his support, even if it's not 100% successful, there's still a lot of hope!"

Anyone could tell that with Lin Yi's status, he couldn't just guard the sword Pavilion with his life. The sword Pavilion was destined to be one of the forces under him.

Now, the East Sea, the West Sea, and even the South Sea were all going to be under his control. He was only one step away from becoming the sovereign of the four Seas!

With this kind of momentum, it wasn't a wild idea for Lin Yi to want to help someone rebuild the House of Blades.

This matter was very promising.

However, Chu Xia did not seem to be moved at all. Instead, he gave Wang hou a deep look."Houzi, the reputation of your new Sword Saint isn't very good."

Wang hou was taken aback,'you mean the silent march? Wasn't it obvious that someone was up to no good? Including those so-called Lin Yi guilds, I bet they haven't even seen his face yet, and you believe that?"

"I'm not talking about that. "

Chu Xia shook his head. "I understand that the tallest tree in the forest will be destroyed by the wind. However, many things are not without reason. People in their positions have to work for their own government. Since he is in that position, some karma can only be borne by him."

Wang Houtong and the other swordsmen looked at each other. "What are you talking about?"

"I haven't found out the truth yet, but you know my personality. I'm a righteous man. If he really does something to harm the world ..."

Chu Xia paused for a moment and said slowly, "help me pass on a message, watch the blade .."

With that, he patted Wang hou's shoulder and turned to leave.

The few sword guards looked at each other and pouted. ""Isn't this guy's tone a little too arrogant? Does he have the final say in the world's righteousness?"

Only Wang hou's face was solemn.

Everyone else's righteousness was just a decoration, but he, his childhood friend, really regarded it as a life Creed.

In the world, righteousness came first!

If he could kill ao Taiyi for the sake of his friend, he would definitely do the same to Lin Yi for the sake of the world!

This was definitely not a joke.

Seeing his worried face, the swordsmen all comforted him,""You don't have to be so worried. Even if he really wants to attack us sword Saints, he has to have the strength to do so. He's just saying it."

Although the strength of the sword man was not bad, from the slash just now, he had indeed touched the threshold of the top combat power.

But compared to Lin Yi, it was still a clear difference in their eyes.

After all, Lin Yi had killed the old monster ao Taiwei in front of everyone, and that was a publicly acknowledged benchmark for the top-tier combat strength.

In other words, Lin Yi's position in their hearts was not the real ceiling of the sea, but he was not far away.

Ordinary top-tier combat power was no longer enough to pose a threat to him.

Plus, the sword rules inheritance meant that Lin Yi's strength would skyrocket even more, and it was certain that he'd reach the ceiling of the sea realm.

How could a mere swordsman be a match for such an influential figure who was destined to stand at the peak?

"I hope so."

Wang hou shook his head helplessly. On one hand, it was his new boss, and his temper was quite right. On the other hand, it was his little brother. If the day came when they really had to fight, he would really be in deep trouble.

Chapter 10235

By the time everyone returned to the sword Garret, they were already cleaning up the battlefield. Nearly half of the mo Luo guards were captured, 20% were killed on the spot, and the remaining 34% had escaped.

However, even if they were able to regroup after the incident, they would not be able to do much.

The Ace of the South Sea, mo Luowei, had fallen.

Hou Moshe looked at the dozens of Moro guards in front of him and said worriedly, ""This group of people are all well-trained experts. If I'm not mistaken, ao Taiwei should have left a soul imprint on them. If they are not handled properly, they will most likely cause great trouble in the future. Your Excellency must be on guard."

It was one thing to lose their backbone now, but once they reacted, Lin Yi didn't have a guarantee that he'd be able to suppress them with his current group.

The great Python continued in a muffled voice, ""Then what should we do? Do you want to kill them all?"

There was an indescribable pity in his tone.

Although the personal guards unit's overall combat power was not bad, enough to arm-wrestle with any of the sea's trump cards, but as the main general, he knew his own shortcomings the best.

Right now, the biggest bottleneck that restricted them from improving further was their basic strength.

Even the cleverest housewife couldn't cook without rice-the hardware was weak, and even with Lin Yi's software, the upper limit was limited. It was extremely difficult to improve further.

If he could tame these Moro guards, it would be a rare supplement for the personal guards unit. Unfortunately, even the Python's strength was only comparable to them.

It was unrealistic for him to tame this group of people by himself.

Lin Yi had the ability to do so, but he couldn't spend too much time on it. The situation was changing, and it was his golden period. There were many things more important than this, and he couldn't spend too much time on it.

If it was not possible for the guards unit, it was even more impossible for it to be placed in the sword Pavilion.

Lin Yi still had absolute control over the guards unit, and if it was in the sword Pavilion, he would've messed it up along with the sword Pavilion.

For a time, everyone was at their wits 'end.

Lin Yi said with a wave of his hand, unconcerned. "Don't worry about this. I've already arranged a place for them. Someone will settle them."

With a wave of his hand, the morowei captives in front of him disappeared.

Everyone was stunned.

They could guess that these people were sent to some isolated secret realm, but Lin Yi's spatial ability was still a big surprise to them.

They weren't ignorant, but they'd never heard of anyone like Lin Yi, throwing a bunch of Masters into another dimension like that!

His control of spatial rule power must be at least 50%, right?

That was the rule of space, a top-notch rule that was as difficult as ascending to the heavens to increase one's control by even a little. To actually have such mastery was truly unheard of and never seen!

Unsurprisingly, everyone's respect for Lin Yi increased by a huge amount.

If they knew that their boss's mastery of the rules of space was only five percent of the beginner level, they would probably break down on the spot ...

Lin Yi was only able to do this by using the new world's capture ability.

The moment these morowei experts were captured, he had already silently locked onto them. At this moment, they had all been transferred into the new world.

The New World was his greatest trump card. It was a core secret that he could not reveal to anyone, even to his closest allies.

Logically speaking, these morowei captives were not allowed to enter the New World no matter what.

However, Lin Yi still listened to Jiang xiaoshang's suggestion.

He might be powerful now, but he still didn't have enough trump cards. The only way to turn these morowei captives into his trump cards in the shortest amount of time was to remove the soul marks on them and leave his own mental seal on them at the same time.

"Those who achieve great things don't care about trifles. Let me do these dirty jobs."

Jiang xiaoshang looked at the morowei captives in front of him, who were all in a deep coma. He grinned sinisterly and said,""In any case, you guys didn't do anything good in the past. In the future, you can consider it as atonement for your sins. As for whether there will be a day when you wake up, it will depend on your performance."

After he finished speaking, he threw himself into his transformation plan with great interest.

"Give me a month, and I'll give you a stronger Moro guard!"

This was his promise to Lin Yi.

If it wasn't for that, Lin Yi wouldn't have taken the risk to bring people into the new world. No one had ever come out alive before.

The moment this group of people was brought in, they had collectively lost their self-consciousness. Next, the will of the New World would be inserted into them, leaving behind the highest level of thought stamp. Even the gods would not be able to crack it, let alone ordinary cultivators.

However, no matter how secure it was, it was still a hidden danger.

In order to make sure that nothing went wrong, Lin Yi had to set up a series of top-tier illusions with Jiang xiaoshang's help in addition to the highest level of brainwashing.

And these illusions would eventually lead to one result. Even if someone noticed it and used an almost impossible heaven-defying method to penetrate the thought stamps of these morowei captives, they would not be able to get any information about the New World.

What he would obtain would be layer after layer of illusionary realms that could pass off as real. Even the gods would be lost in these illusionary realms.

In fact, the real target of their arrangement was not even the gods, but the existence above the gods.

The God of creation.

After completing this series of major projects, Jiang xiaoshang could not wait for the God of creation to take the bait.

After he and Lin Yi's modifications, it wasn't so much a flaw that could reveal the existence of a new world as a super trap for the God of creation.

At Lin Yi's level, he didn't even have the right to fight the gods, let alone the God of creation.

However, with this layer of home ground advantage, it was hard to say. According to Jiang xiaoshang, with the current formation, even the God of creation would be bitten off!

Of course, the chances of the God of creation taking the bait were extremely small. The two of them were just being prepared.

But no matter what, such a design at least reduced the hidden dangers to the minimum, and even had the possibility of winning the lottery, killing two birds with one stone!

While guiding the world will to help Jiang xiaoshang dig the hole, Lin Yi still had to take care of the outside world.

The sword Pavilion had just submitted to him, and there were a lot of things that needed to be done. Even with hou Moshe's help, he was still in a terrible fix.

Chapter 10236

"One old Shen is not enough."

Lin Yi couldn't help but reminisce about the days when he was the boss of Jianghai Academy.

To be fair, hou Moshe was considered a one-in-a-million talent. However, he realized that Shen Yifan was really useful after comparison.

As long as he's around, there are many things that don't even need to be mentioned. Everything will be arranged for you in an orderly manner.

On the other hand, it wasn't that hou Mohe wasn't capable enough, but that he'd never gone through life and death with Lin Yi before. Even if he knew the best solution, he didn't dare to make the decisions for Lin Yi.

Lin Yi, naturally, knew what the problem was.

However, this kind of life-and-death Brotherhood was something that could only be found by chance. Even if Lin Yi wanted to accept him, hou Momo might not be able to change his mind. He could only rely on time to get used to it.

It was a pity that Shen Yifan could not attend to many things at once. He was almost squeezed dry by the situation at the Academy.

This was all thanks to Lin Yi's new world's inter-school secret realm system, which gave everyone a strategic buffer. Otherwise, the pressure from the beast God Hall alone would've crushed them.

Even so, Lin Yi didn't have much time left.

The beast God Hall was constantly pouring in their forces. Not only was their front line of combat power unaffected, but their overall scale had also far exceeded the Jianghai Academy's capacity. Their target was clearly not just the Jianghai Academy.

Their target was the sea.

He didn't have any concrete evidence yet, but Lin Yi could feel that the beast God Hall wasn't being cautious because of the sea realm's overall strength from the spider webs they had seen earlier.

The sea realm was indeed vast, and the combined strength of the various factions was indeed impressive, but the problem was that they were in a state of disunity. Moreover, the sea goddess was already dead. It was extremely likely that they would collapse in a short time if the beast God Hall launched a large-scale invasion in their current state.

However, the beast God Hall remained surprisingly patient.

The reason was not that the new beast God was so cautious, but that there was a terrifying existence in the sea that even he was afraid of.

Even the beast God Hall wouldn't dare to act rashly before that existence was dealt with.

However, this did not mean that the terrifying existence was the protector of the sea realm. On the contrary, he might be an even more terrifying threat than the beast God Hall to the living beings of the sea realm.

The sea was just a piece of fat meat. Being targeted by two ferocious beasts at the same time, it could only maintain a temporary balance.

Unfortunately, most of the forces in the sea realm didn't notice this at all. They still thought that their lives would be the same as before and that they could continue to mingle around.

There were only a handful of people who were truly vigilant.

And even those few people were probably pawns of that existence.

He was in imminent danger.

Lin Yi had never felt so nervous before. The beast God Hall was eyeing him like a tiger watching its prey. Taking over the four Seas and becoming the ruler of the four Seas was only the first step.

And now, he was only one step away from the first step.

Of course, the prerequisite was that they had to take down the South Sea first.

For this purpose, not only his personal guard Camp, but the entire sword Garret was also making all kinds of preparations. Everyone was eager to show their brilliance in the upcoming Battle of the South Sea.

Especially after Lin Yi fulfilled his promise in front of everyone, opening the sword Qi passage and sending the people who captured the most morowei into the sword tomb to cultivate. All the disciples' ambitions were ignited!

Because Lin Yi had given her another promise.

In the following Battle of the South Sea, the ten people with the most battle achievements would also have the opportunity to enter the sword tomb to cultivate for a month!

Without ao Taiwei as their backbone and their trump card, the Moro guards, the southern sea royal family no longer had any advantage over the sword Pavilion, especially after Lin Yi's personal guard Camp. They were at a complete disadvantage.

The South Sea was in a state of panic.

Not only were many people moving their families away from possible war zones, but there were also huge cracks within the royal family of the southern sea.

The pro-war faction, the surrendering faction, and the quarreling qiniao faction were arguing with each other until their faces were red. They even fought several times, and it seemed like they were about to collapse on their own.

There was no one in the royal family of the South Sea who could truly intimidate the heroes.

Originally, the one with the most hope was ao Taiyi, the appointed heir. Unfortunately, ao Taiyi was already gone. The remaining princes and grandsons would not submit to each other. They were like a plate of loose sand.

Various intelligence agencies gave their predictions in unison.

The conclusion was surprisingly the same-Lin Yi would be able to conquer the South Sea in a short time. The only difference was whether it would take a month or two.

However, when the final result came out, it still surprised all the intelligence agencies.

Seven days.

Lin Yi only used seven days to settle the big South Sea.

In fact, the outcome was already set from the first day-Lin Yi himself had gone deep into the palace and executed them all!

It wasn't that the royal family of the southern sea was so weak that they couldn't find a decent top-tier combat force other than ao Taiwei-it was just that Lin Yi didn't play by the rules.

The first thing he did was to use the absolute-kill sword formation that didn't care about martial virtue. With the ten famous swords of the ancient times placed there, any normal person would be stunned.

Then, there was no then.

Even a Lion would use its full strength when hunting a rabbit. Lin Yi skipped the testing phase and used all his cards right from the start, killing the man in one move in front of all the southern sea Royal disciples!

Before this, there was a lot of discussion about whether or not Lin Yi could really be counted as one of the top-tier combat forces.

Even though he had killed ao Taiwei, who was the benchmark of the top combat power, it was the home ground of the sword Pavilion after all. He might have taken advantage of the home ground advantage.

But now, after killing the last elite priest of the South Sea with one move, all the doubts disappeared.

Without a doubt, Lin Yi was now a top-tier combat force!

Without their last support, the South Sea royal family didn't have the confidence to face the fierce sword tower disciples. Even if they had a few strong quasi-trump card battle teams, they'd be smashed to pieces by Lin Yi's personal guard.

In front of a true ace battle team, the so-called quasi-Ace could not even withstand a single blow. Even if their individual strength was stronger than the guards unit, they would only be crushed.

The difference in strength between the two sides was far beyond everyone's imagination.

This battle had been treated as a classic battle case by various intelligence agencies and studied repeatedly, completely changing their previous perception of the Ace battle team.

Before this, a strong individual's strength was recognized as the core element of an ACE Team. If one couldn't even reach this point, there was no need to dream about an ACE Team.

Chapter 10237

However, the existence of Lin Yi's personal guard unit completely overturned this common sense.

It was only today that many people realized that even if one didn't have such abnormal individual strength, they could still create a true ace Team!

Lin Yi, who had created all of this, was now the prime example for all the powerful people in the world, and they all wanted to replicate his success as soon as possible.

The result was obvious.

Without the world will, it would be a fool's dream to replicate the miracles of the guards unit.

However, this sea-wide discussion had greatly increased Lin Yi's influence in another way.

Lin Yi may have been famous before, but the big shots and commoners only saw him as a rising star. They didn't really see him as a Big Shot even if he kept creating big waves.

But now, everyone was shocked to realize that the times had changed.

Unknowingly, Lin Yi already had Three Seas under his control, only one step away from the legendary Four Seas. He was now a super big Shot in the entire sea.

A casual word from him could change the overall situation of the entire sea area.

Everyone had to seriously consider the possibility that the entire sea realm would submit to Lin Yi in the near future.

What was waiting for them was not only the legendary ruler of the four Seas, but also the unprecedented Sea Emperor!

"Lin Yi's momentum is unstoppable."

Zhang xisheng, the high priest, looked at the latest information from his subordinate, but he did not look surprised.

From the first day Lin Yi stepped into the sea god's Hall, he'd already expected this. After all, no one in the entire sea knew Lin Yi better than him.

He was the person closest to the sea god, so he had more say than anyone about the sea god's condition.

The sea god was dead.

He'd confirmed it the moment he'd seen Lin Yi, and everything he'd done after that was just a test.

All of Lin Yi's subsequent actions showed that he'd inherited part of the seagod's divinity through some way, obtaining the power to command the vassals in the name of the seagod!

At first, after confirming this, the high priest was prepared to attack Lin Yi himself.

With the difference in strength, Lin Yi wouldn't be able to escape from him at all. Even with cruel malevolence and the top five advisors protecting him, it was impossible for them to really protect him.

If he wanted to, Lin Yi had to die.

But in the end, his master behind the scenes stopped him.

The high priest didn't know what his master saw in Lin Yi, but one thing was for sure-if his master saw Lin Yi in a different light, it meant that Lin Yi had a lot of luck.

The current development had completely fulfilled his prediction.

If there was anyone in the sea who could be called the son of fate, it would be Lin Yi without a doubt.

"Lin Yi's already established himself, and he'll only continue to grow stronger. If we leave him alone and let him conquer the remaining North Sea, it'll be troublesome if he becomes the true ruler of the four Seas."

The assistant reminded him carefully.

In fact, even if they didn't talk about the future, Lin Yi was already a tough nut to crack.

With Lin Yi's strength before, the high priest could easily control him, but now that Lin Yi had completely entered the ranks of the top-tier combat power, even if he was the ceiling of the sea, he couldn't be killed as he pleased.

One of the most important requirements for top-tier combat power was the ability to protect themselves against any expert. Even if they were up against the ceiling of the sea realm, they would still have the most basic means of survival.

In other words, if a top-tier combat power was determined to escape, even an existence at the level of the high priest would not dare to say that he could stop that person with 100% certainty.

Therefore, when they had joined forces against cruel malevolence the last time, although ao Taiwei and ao Sifang, the two kings of the four Seas, had already lost, the two of them had still managed to escape unscathed. At best, they had only paid a considerable price.

On the other hand, the reason why Lin Yi was able to kill ao Taiwei and the consecrated from the southern sea King clan wasn't because his strength was above the ceiling of the sea, but because the other party didn't expect him to be able to burst out with this kind of strength!

In essence, the other party had underestimated the enemy.

If they had treated him like a cruel malevolent Wolf, he would not have been able to kill ao Taiwei or the consecrated from the South Sea.

The high priest waved his hand indifferently. "Let him be. Lin Yi can't do anything by himself. These people are the real problem. As long as we take care of them, the rest will be nothing more than small problems."

In front of him, there was a huge floor mirror.

The mirror was blurry, but there were a few figures moving around. If one paid close attention, they would find that these people were none other than the top five with cruel malevolence as their leader.

In terms of individual strength, there was no conclusion as to who was the strongest in the sea, between cruel malevolence and the high priest. But if one wanted to say who was the most unsolvable group of five in the sea, then there was no doubt that it was the top five advisors of the sea God's temple!

However, at this moment, this Wang bomb combination was trapped in a dilemma.

Not only could they not find the direction and route to leave, but they would also be attacked by outrageously powerful super sea beasts from time to time. Most importantly, these super sea beasts were all in extremely abnormal States. They were all covered in blood, and it was obvious that they had been stimulated by some extremely dangerous external force!

In such a situation, it was fortunate that they were the king Bomb team. Otherwise, if it were anyone else, they would have died without an intact corpse.

The high priest did not relax at all. "To be able to last until now after entering master's great misty array, you really can't let me be free of worry."

Even though he said so, his hands continued to move.

Under his control, countless hibernating super sea beasts were awakened. Then, under his stimulation, they were bathed in blood and quickly approached cruel malevolence and the others from all directions.

The Deputy looked at this scene and said with regret, "It'd be great if Lin Yi's here too, I don't know how much trouble we'd save. "

The high priest shook his head, "master has other plans for Lin Yi. Just do your job. I heard that the priest faction has been unstable recently. Some even have the idea of joining Lin Yi. This can't do."

In the face of such a great change, we can't afford to have internal strife. This is a great taboo. "

"This subordinate understands."

"Yes!" The Deputy quickly promised, "I will do my best to ensure the loyalty of the priest division!"

The high priest nodded. "Loyalty is above all else. Some people should be dealt with. There's no need to be restrained."

Chapter 10238

"Yes!"

The deputy's heart trembled. The high priest's casual words had already decided the fate of many people. The priest branch was about to welcome a storm of blood.

The high priest looked at the floor mirror with a profound gaze. ""As for Lin Yi's side, he'll be busy soon," Eastern Sea.

Ever since they joined Lin Yi, the undercurrents in East Sea started to calm down, especially after Lin Yi took down the west and south Seas.

They both knew that Lin Yi's eyes were on the East Sea even though he wasn't there.

It was fine if these Royal Children knew their place-Lin Yi might let them live a life of luxury and leisure, but once they had wild ambitions, what awaited them would be a lightning strike!

In a situation like this, the more aggressive Lin Yi was, the more they knew their place.

"A bunch of good-for-nothings who just eat and wait for death!"

Ao Si was secretly worried as he watched this scene.

Especially when he saw that even ao Yi and ao BA, his two most important competitors in the past, had begun to sink into depravity and indulge in sex all day long, he was even more anxious.

Out of all his sons, the three of them had the highest chance of winning, but all of that was gone with Lin Yi's arrival.

Now, Lin Yi used the medallion of gratitude to let ao Yi inherit the position of King of the East Sea.

However, the territory and resources that he really controlled did not increase at all compared to the past. On the contrary, it shrank a lot, and he only got an empty title.

Not to mention the various realms in Dong Hai, even the internal royal families of Dong Hai scoffed at it. Things like pretending to be obedient but disagreeing in secret were staged in various ways every day.

Ao Yi used to be a powerful and ambitious figure, but now he was also deeply troubled and depressed.

The problem was that without Lin Yi's support, he couldn't suppress the other royal families at all. He had the title but no strength, so why would those ambitious princes and grandsons even care about him?

Under this despairing sense of powerlessness, even ao Yi's pride was quickly worn away. He drank and made merry all day long, completely immersed in the warmth of the land.

As for the ambitious ao BA, he'd fallen earlier than Lin Yi because he had a deeper understanding of the overall situation. He'd naturally have a deeper understanding of how terrifying Lin Yi was.

Therefore, he was even more desperate.

He was dispirited earlier than ao Yi, and the degree of absurdity was the highest among all the princes and grandsons of Donghai.

Only ao Si was left. Because he was good at forbearance, he could basically maintain his normal state. However, as his brothers fell into the enemy's hands one after another, the future became more and more uncertain, and even he became more and more desperate.

"He's the only one I can find ..."

Finally, ao si cast his gaze on the last name among his brothers.

"You're going to find ao Shi BA? With your past grudges, how could that fellow communicate with you normally?"

Han Qi had appeared behind him at some point in time. During this period of time, he had been staying with ao si, and they had gotten along with each other and developed some tacit understanding.

He knew very well that ao Si's ambition had not been extinguished. The reason why he tried so hard to keep him was that he had his eyes on the forces of the "master of the barren sea." If he had such a strong and solid ally, for ao si, he could attack and retreat at will. It was of great strategic value.

Of course, this was only one of the reasons.

There was a more important reason why he had to stay-if he didn't keep an eye on things for Lin Yi, something big would've happened.

Ao si shook his head indifferently, ""We're in the face of a major event. Our previous personal grudges are trivial. I know what old eighteen is like. With his forbearance, even if all of us fell into his hands, he would never give up on himself."

Han Qi twirled the spinning top on his fingertips and raised his eyebrows, "You have quite a high evaluation of him."

Ao si smiled and then squinted his eyes, ""However, old eighteen only recognizes the strong. In my current state, even if I take the initiative to approach him, he won't be happy. To forge iron, one needs to be strong. It seems that it's time to make that decision."

Without waiting for Han Qi's response, he ordered the servants to arrange a grand family dinner.

Han Qi frowned slightly.

Ao Si was not the kind of person who was obsessed with pleasure. Obviously, he was going to make some kind of realization. With this person's temperament, once he really made some realization, it was very likely that it would be beyond everyone's imagination.

"Family dinner? Is he giving up on his family ..."

Han Qi glanced at the place where ao si had just stood. In front of him was a mirror that was half the height of a man. However, the mirror did not reflect any scene, only an unspeakable strange mist.

Han Qi could not help but feel his heart tremble.

What was supposed to come had finally come.

Three days later, terrible news came from the four royal families of Donghai. The whole family, including ao Si's wife, concubines, and children, had all died mysteriously. Ao si himself was missing.

When the news spread, East Ocean was in an uproar.

The discussions all pointed at Lin Yi, and the other princes and grandsons were all panicking, afraid that Lin Yi would target them next.

After all, with the current situation of Donghai, only Lin Yi could do this quietly. The others, including ao Yi, the king of Donghai in name, didn't have the ability to do it even if they wanted to.

When the news reached Lin Yi's ears, he couldn't help but be stunned for a long while.

Ao Si was indeed the most important target of his attention in the East Sea. If this person had any unusual movements, he would indeed take action to suppress him. However, the other party's decisiveness was still beyond his expectations.

"He sacrificed all his family members. He's really a F * cking madman."

Lin Yi cursed. He had a secret letter in his hand, an anonymous secret letter, but he knew that it came from Han Qi. This was a tacit understanding between him and Han Qi.

Ao si had paid such a huge price. Once he returned, the world would be turned upside down.

This person would definitely become a great enemy!

However, compared to ao si, Lin Yi was more concerned about the invisible but terrifying power behind him. That was the existence that he really needed to be on guard against.

He'd been able to rely on his intuition to detect its existence, but it'd never left any concrete traces.

However, it was different this time. Ao Si was its mark.

In other words, it was no longer restraining itself and was preparing to surface.

This was obviously not good news.

However, the trouble he had to face now was not limited to this. Qin Qing had come to him with a resentful face.

"This month, our Qin family's warehouse has been attacked for the fifth time, and this is not the biggest problem."

Qin Qing said with a bitter face, "the real trouble is that there aren't many life crystals left in the reserves. Even by the most optimistic estimation, the life crystals in the reserves can only be maintained for three months at most. In some places with poor conditions, the supply has even started to cut off."

Chapter 10239

The life crystals he was talking about were the land resources that the Marine human tribe couldn't do without for their survival.

Lin Yi had studied it before, and the key was a special mineral element that only existed on land. It was never found in the vast sea, so it could only be imported from land.

Due to the existence of a certain radiation, this element was not only useless to ordinary humans, but also harmful.

However, for the Marine human tribe, which was eroded by the seawater day and night, it was the most important guarantee to maintain their lives. To a certain extent, this could be regarded as an example of the incomplete evolution of the Marine human tribe.

The crucial point was that this type of Life Crystal was rare even on land, and Jianghai city did not have it.

Currently, the only known way to obtain life crystals was through the 18 levels of hell!

"What happens if you cut off your supply?" Lin Yi frowned.

Qin Qing forced a smile and said, "it's fine for one or two months. There will only be some skin symptoms. However, if the supply is cut off for a long time, all the internal organs will start to fail. Then, it will enter a stage of completely irreversible life loss."

Once that happened, even cultivators with decent strength would not be able to save them, let alone ordinary civilians at the bottom of the society. They could only wait for death.

I've seen it once when I was young. It was like hell on earth, and I still have nightmares about it. "

Lin Yi's eyebrows furrowed even more as he looked at the fear in the man's eyes. "It's a little difficult to clear the eighteen levels of hell in three months."

Although he had easily taken over a Sea area, only the North Sea was left, and it seemed like he was only one step away.

However, all of this required perfect timing!

Any of the four Seas "royal families were a giant, and if there weren't any internal problems, Lin Yi wouldn't be able to take down the North Sea in a day, even with his current power.

If he could get help from cruel malevolence and the others, he might still have a chance, but now that he lost contact with cruel malevolence and the others, Lin Yi couldn't even find any help.

Moreover, taking over the East Ocean did not mean that they would be able to clear the eighteen levels of hell.

Qin Qing reminded him, "brother Lin, you're in the middle of a storm right now. Once a large-scale incident happens because of the cut in the supply of life crystals, someone will definitely take the opportunity to add fuel to the fire. At that time, it will be troublesome."

Lin Yi looked like he was in the limelight, and everyone talked about him as if he was the man closest to the king of the four Seas, but he was like a ticking time bomb-he'd be blown to pieces if he wasn't careful.

"There are some places that don't have supply, but there should still be quite a bit of stock in other places, right?" Lin Yi said after some thought.

Qin Qing nodded."That's for sure. Life crystals are a necessity that all marine humans can't avoid. Hoarding happens every year, especially for the royal families of the four Seas. They are the real big shots.

My Qin family is known as the fifth royal family. Everyone thinks that since we made our fortune from the 18 levels of hell, we naturally have a large number of life crystals in our hands.

In fact, compared to the royal families of the four Seas, my family is only a fraction. "

It wasn't that he was crying about how poor he was-he'd seen how extravagant the royal families were, and it wasn't just one family-all of them were.

Just the resources and wealth that they spent every day was an astronomical figure.

If it wasn't for the fact that the situation wasn't settled yet, and it wasn't suitable for a large-scale operation, Lin Yi would've beaten these worms to the ground long ago.

"If that's the case, we'll have the royal families of the four Seas hand over the life crystals first. The three Seas will share the crystals, and we'll prioritize wherever there's a shortage. That should buy us some time."

Qin Qing's eyes lit up, but she was still a little worried. "We can buy a lot of time this way, but the life crystals are the lifeblood of the royal family. They rely on them for luxury and enjoyment. Will they be willing to hand them over?"

"If I'm willing, then I'm definitely not."

"But I've been observing them for so long, and I know who's the one who's causing trouble," Lin Yi said indifferently, "I've got people watching them. As for the others, they'll at most make a few noises, they won't be able to do much. "

The truth was as Lin Yi expected.

Once the news of the unified storage was spread, the entire sea area was in an uproar. The royal family disciples were all jumping.

Life crystals took up more than 60% of their income, and if Lin Yi took away their inventory, it would mean that their net worth would drop by more than half, and their extravagant days would be hard to continue.

Who would be able to stand this kind of thing?

However, there were also many ambitious people who laughed secretly. "Our future sovereign of the four Seas has finally done something stupid. He's making such a big move before his Foundation is stable. He's afraid that his position is too stable."

They didn't even need to think about what would happen next-the Royal descendants of the three Seas would all start fighting back, and Lin Yi, who was just enjoying the glory, would be in a terrible state-one wrong move would cause him to lose everything!

However, the result made all the ambitious people's jaws drop.

The Royal descendants of the three Seas were full of complaints, each one worse than the last, but in the end, only a handful dared to stand up against Lin Yi.

As for the less stubborn ones, the moment they stood up, Lin Yi's sword Hall enforcement team beat them up, making them more honest than ever.

She didn't even wait for Lin Yi's men to arrive before opening the warehouse, afraid that she'd be seen as a bad example.

At the end of the day, this group of royal descendants who indulged in the pleasures of life had long become complete waste.

It was fine for them to scold him verbally, but if they were to really do it, each and every one of them would lie flat on the ground.

Lin Yi did force them to hand over their life crystals this time, but he didn't take back their territory and property. Their lives were a little harder than before, but it wasn't to the point where they couldn't live anymore.

At least, they could continue to lie down like worms, just not eating as much as before.

The storm disappeared.

The ambitious ones could only lay low and wait for the next opportunity.

Now that he'd successfully taken over the three Seas "reserves, he had a lot more room for error, giving him more time to plan for the remaining North Sea and the eighteen levels of hell.

However, if the latter's progress was not ideal, it would still be a temporary solution. The flames that had been suppressed would erupt again sooner or later.

The facts had proven that Qin Qing's expectations had been too optimistic.

"Something has happened to the Qin family."

Lin Yi frowned as he looked at the stack of documents Hou Maha handed over.

Hou Mo he explained, "Originally, after the unification of the inventory, the previous supply cut areas were alleviated, and the situation had stabilized. But just three days ago, a family of nine, young and old, at the border of the East Sea, died.

The reason is that without life crystals for a long time, the organs in the body will fail, and after breaking through the lowest critical point, the life will be lost quickly. "

Chapter 10240

Lin Yi frowned, "What's Qin Qing doing?" Since we've already unified the inventory, how could something like this still happen?"

Qin Qing was now in charge of the Qin family, and with his relationship with Lin Yi, he was in charge of all the life crystals. This was the most crucial time for him to secure his position.

He didn't expect that such a problem would occur.

It was true that in the past, it was not uncommon for people to die because of the cut in supply of life crystals. Every year, the number of people who died because of this was at least in the six digits. Normally, no one would care about such things.

However, it was different this time.

Although it was house Qin who came forward, everyone knew that Lin Yi was the real boss. This was the first big move Lin Yi made since he took over the position, and it was directly related to the safety of everyone in the sea.

Even if he didn't want everyone to praise him, he had to at least use this to stabilize the People's hearts.

If Lin Yi wanted to move up to the next level, apart from his own strength, the People's hearts were the most important!

Yet, such a thing happened at this critical moment.

"Rumor has it that the Qin family's life crystals were too expensive," Hou Maha said in a deep voice. "That family didn't have the money to buy them, so they could only endure it. After a long time, something happened."

"Too expensive?"

"Didn't they lower the price already?" Lin Yi asked, surprised.

Now, all the inventory was being allocated by the Qin family. It was no exaggeration to say that Qin Qing was the Minister of Finance, and her words and actions had a huge impact on the economic activities of the entire sea area.

Because of the special properties of life crystals, Lin Yi didn't have any plans to profit from them even if he had a huge shortage of resources.

He had personally given Qin Qing the order to reduce the price.

Seeing Lin Yi's confusion, Hou Mohe explained, "It's indeed been reduced by 30%. The price is already at its lowest in the past hundred years. In order to avoid malicious bidding, they even set strict quotas.

Although it's inevitable that some people will take advantage of the loophole, the overall situation is still under control. "

"A family of nine people died. You call this being under control?"

Lin Yi looked at him and stood up to leave. "I'll leave the rest of the matters to you. I'll go out for a walk."

Hou Mohe acknowledged in a low voice.

Of course, he knew what Lin Yi meant by "around"-this was a private visit.

Back when the mess wasn't big, all Lin Yi had to do was focus on his own safety-he didn't have to worry about anything else as long as he was strong enough and had time to assess the situation.

However, things were different now.

As the saying went, the greater the power, the greater the responsibility. One had to plan for the government in one's position, or else it would be evil.

Cultivating was cultivating one's heart-this was something Lin Yi didn't understand before, but after opening up a new world and seeing it develop step by step, he finally understood it.

"The Qin family, good luck."

Although hou mo he had a good relationship with Qin Qing, he had no intention of disclosing anything to her.

As Lin Yi's most trusted ally, if house Qin couldn't even withstand this test, then they were destined to never make it big.

Four hours later, Lin Yi was already ten thousand miles away at the edge of the East Sea.

This was also the area where the family of nine had an accident.

Lin Yi narrowed his eyes at the thousand-meter long line in front of him. He walked over and asked an old man, "Uncle, what's your line?"

"Young man, you're not a local, are you?" the old man looked up at him.

"No, I'm just traveling," Lin Yi smiled.

"No wonder."

The old man shook his head. "Young man, you don't know yet. The supply of life crystals is almost out of supply. Our family of nine has almost died from working too hard. If we don't buy some now, we might not be able to buy any more in the future."

"I just came from somewhere else," Lin Yi blinked, "they were all talking about the unified supply of life crystals, right?" I've also heard that not only will they not cut off the supply, they're even lowering the price. "

"Reduce the price? We're also calling for a discount here, can you buy it?"

The old man rolled his eyes. "Young man, you're still too naive. If there's really such a good thing in the world, how can it fall on the heads of ordinary people like us?"

"Isn't this the place?" Lin Yi pointed at the long line.

The old man sighed, "in the beginning, we could still buy life crystals that were cheaper than before, but everyone was skeptical."

Later on, people said that Lin Yi, the king of the seas, was about to become the ruler of the four Seas, and the price would drop even more. He might even provide it to everyone for free, so many people were waiting to see.

After all, even if the price of life crystals is lowered, it's still a huge expense for ordinary people like us. We should save as much as we can. "

Lin Yi shook his head, "I don't think it'll be free, that's not realistic."

It wasn't that he didn't want to provide it to ordinary people for free. He had yet to clear the eighteen levels of hell, and even the normal supply of inventory was a problem. Free of charge was simply a fantasy.

What's more, free things were often the most expensive.

If the life Crystal, which was a necessity for survival, was free, it would be even more difficult for the mermen who really needed it.

"Sigh, if this old man had turned around from the start and not taken that chance, I wouldn't have to wait until now to suffer."

The old man sighed, "ever since the tragedy of that family of nine, everyone reacted and swarmed over to buy it. In the end, they directly increased the price by two times!"

You'll have to queue for days just for this!

We're really unlucky for eight generations to have met that damn king of the sea!"

"I don't think he's the one who asked for it," Lin Yi said, awkwardly pinching his nose.

"He didn't ask us to raise the price directly," the old man said grumpily. "But if he hadn't caused so many problems and destroyed the original supply chain, there wouldn't be so many problems now."

"Uncle, your words are a little biased."

The person who was queuing with him came over and said, ""If it wasn't for this Sea King, the situation would be stable, but the royal families of the four Seas and the Qin clan have monopolized all the life crystals. We can only be at their mercy forever!

Now that he's here, at least we're no longer a pool of stagnant water. Moreover, according to my observation, this person might really be thinking for the sake of our common people.

After all, he was representing the Lord seagod. What he wanted was the People's hearts and stability, not the same as those royal family descendants who drank human blood.

Only if he really takes the top spot will there be a chance of the price of the life crystals dropping!"

The old man glanced at him and asked, "how do you know we're not the same?" Just because he shouted a slogan, he was no longer a passerby? As the old saying goes, one can only listen to what he says and observe what he does. With the line we're in right now, doesn't he look like a passerby?"
