

Bodyguard 10301

Chapter 10301

the high priest was dead, and the wolf king had entered his grave. there was a high probability that he was also dead. only the weakest of the three giants, the great commander bai ze, was left. moreover, it seemed that he had no intention of standing up to carry the flag.

after all, he'd just been killed by lin yi in five moves-it was normal for him to be disheartened.

those with discerning eyes could see that the seagod hall was only one step away from falling apart.

This was a big ship that was destined to sink. If they didn't jump off the ship now, they would only be buried with it.

This was especially true for the group of priests. They couldn't carry this huge pot left behind by the high priest on their own!

Once the People's hearts were scattered, the team would also collapse overnight.

lin yi didn't have the time to care about the ocean goddess hall's feelings. the loss of life crystals would have an unimaginable impact on the entire sea realm.

the chaos of the sea was just around the corner.

"The old man has given me a difficult problem."

Even if he didn't believe the high priest's words 100%, he believed at least 70% of them.

before he died, he had publicly dodged all the life crystals in the warehouse.

this was a great gift that the other party had left for him, but at the same time, it was a difficult test.

The chaos in the sea was what the evil god was looking forward to the most. After all, the evil energy would grow after the chaos, and it would be one step closer to the sea turning back into the evil sea.

but if lin yi could forcefully suppress the situation, the lie of the life crystals would naturally be exposed!

without this crucial starting point, it would not be so easy for the evil gods to get involved in the matters of the sea.

whether it was lin yi or the evil god, it was a huge gamble.

They waited in formation.

lin yi specifically chose the hub city at the center of the four seas-he'd be able to react to any sudden changes in the shortest amount of time.

the development of reality was as expected.

When the news of the cut off of the supply of life crystals spread, the sea was instantly in an uproar.

the mermen's reliance on life crystals had been passed down from generation to generation for tens of thousands of years. it was ingrained in their bones.

if it was just that the stock was a little low and the price was a little high, the civilians would still be able to bear with it, even though they were angry.

but now that they were all gone, everyone from top to bottom would go crazy!

It wasn't just a matter of civilians rebelling, even the people within Lin Yi group would be worried.

After all, they needed life crystals as well.

the guards unit was still fine-as lin yi's only direct line of descent in the sea, their loyalty to lin yi was unquestionable.

as long as lin yi gave the order, they'd follow it no matter how hesitant they were.

As for the other elites that had joined later on, such as Yu baisui's dragonbird guard, they would quickly recover if they were given some time to react.

It didn't mean that they would be able to discover the life Crystal's scam.

it was just that this group of smart fence-sitters would know which side they should side with at the critical moment.

the heat of the moment caused them to stir up trouble. they had vented their emotions, but the road had also died along with them.

On the other hand, if they were lucky, they might have a chance of survival if they were able to cling onto Lin Yi, who was the most powerful person in the world.

And so, Lin Yi never worried about these smart people.

on the contrary, the people at the bottom who were easy to get into trouble were the real troublesome ones.

they had the advantage in numbers, but their strength was low, so they were the most vulnerable. once there was an accident, they would be the first to suffer.

It wouldn't be a big deal if Lin Yi was a pure hero, black-hearted and merciless.

treating the civilians as consumables and using this opportunity to take back power with lightning speed, truly controlling the four seas in his hands-to lin yi, this was the most cold-blooded and optimal strategy.

in any case, the life crystal was just a scam. after the chaos, all parties naturally came to their senses.

As one of the very few people in the entire sea region, perhaps even the only one who knew about this, Lin Yi's benefits would be immeasurable if he used this opportunity well.

as for the price, it was nothing more than the death of a group of lower-class civilians.

A few million, tens of millions, at most a few hundred million or a few billion.

in the eyes of many important figures, the lives of such lowly people were nothing more than a number.

But Lin Yi couldn't do that.

He didn't like to meddle in other people's business, nor did he have the awareness to care about the people of the world. However, it was nonsense to say that he was going to coldly watch from the side and disregard the lives of all the civilians in the sea.

even at this level, lin yi was still human, and he still had enough humanity in him.

So when the chaos appeared, Lin Yi didn't hesitate to send people to suppress it.

as for those ambitious people who wanted to fish in troubled waters, they didn't hesitate to personally go out and name them one by one as a warning to others!

"Twenty-three!"

"it hasn't even been two days, and lin yi's already killed twenty-three top-tier fighters. he's gone crazy!"

"When did the top level combat power become so worthless?"

"let's start from the day lord lin takes over."

Everyone was talking about Lin Yi's crazy performance these past two days.

under the shock of his crazy killing performance, even the chaos that spread to the entire sea area was suppressed for a while.

after all, that was the top combat power. even if it was just a third-tier top combat power that had just entered the sect, it was still a big figure that could run amuck in an area.

As long as they didn't seek death themselves, it wouldn't be easy for even a few top-tier figures of the sea realm to kill them.

yet now, in lin yi's hands, he was being killed like a chicken!

he killed 23 of them in one go!

Such a crazy killing performance was unprecedented in the entire sea region.

Not to mention the vast number of civilians at the bottom of the society, at least for the ambitious people from all sides, the psychological shock caused by this bloody high-end slaughter was absolutely unparalleled.

without prior agreement, all the ambitious people scrambled to present their letters of surrender.

she didn't want to take the risk-she was afraid that if she was even a second slower, she'd end up as the next chicken in lin yi's hands. she'd be crying her eyes out then.

In this way, although the sea was still in chaos, without the support of these behind-the-scenes ambitious people, the time for the chain reaction to form was greatly delayed.

this gave lin yi time to act.

lin yi used the luck of the four seas without hesitation and suppressed the nine places with the most chaos.

this wasn't the usual suppression.

with the mysterious nature of luck, when it was suppressed, there would not be any bloody scenes on the spot.

Chapter 10302

On the contrary, when a place was dominated by the strong Providence of the four Seas, all kinds of chaos would lose their foothold. Everyone under the Providence would be blessed and make the most reasonable collective decision.

in other words, the despotic group of people had taken over.

in theory, if lin yi could control enough luck, he didn't need much, just 50% or more, and it would be enough to suppress the chaos in the sea.

Unfortunately, this was just a thought.

even though he had ascended to the position of the ruler of the four seas, he could only mobilize 10% of the fate energy of the four seas at will.

but no matter what, with lin yi's swift and decisive measures, the chaotic situation was suppressed.

However, anyone with eyes could tell that this was only temporary.

As long as the issue of the life Crystal was not solved, there would be more chaos in the future, and it would be a huge chaos!

even lin yi, who knew the inside story, knew that it was only a temporary choice to suppress them. it was theoretically possible for the people to wake up on their own, but the price they would have to pay would be extremely painful.

he still needed a series of more precise control.

the true key was the reaction of the evil god.

The high priest's move was equivalent to digging up the evil God's grave. If the evil god could not react effectively in a short time, as time went on, the truth of the life Crystal scam would be revealed, and everything it had done before would be in vain.

this was a grand scheme that had been set up for tens of thousands of years. even the evil gods would not be able to afford such a huge sunk cost!

therefore, the evil god would definitely react.

and this reaction would definitely be extremely violent and vicious!

as expected, the second day after lin yi took action to suppress the situation, the news came that 80000 civilians in a town in donghai suddenly died.

the four seas were in an uproar.

especially after the cause of death was found to be due to the shortage of life crystals-the situation that lin yi had just stabilized started to stir again.

"Even if there's a shortage of life crystals, 80000 people shouldn't have died in one night, right? this is obviously not normal!"

"who can't tell? but 80,000 people have died, and you and i might be the next 80000 people. what's the point of being normal or not?"

"Don't you think it's strange? It's very strange."

that's right. Things have become so serious, but not many people have died in other places recently. Instead, a whole town has been wiped out!

"Why do I feel like Yingying is a warning?"

After all, there was no lack of smart people among the civilians at the bottom. However, due to the limitations of their level, the information they could grasp was too limited.

even if they noticed something unusual, it was difficult to infer the truth behind the scenes. they could only make specious speculations.

lin yi, however, knew that these 80000 lives were a warning, a warning directed at him!

the only person in the entire sea realm who could curse 80000 people to death at once was the evil god's mortal body that was sleeping in the deepest part of the 18 levels of hell!

If he didn't respond quickly, the next 80000 or even 800000 people would arrive very soon.

According to the information disclosed by the high priest, the heretic God's curse could not cover the entire sea area, but if it was concentrated and killed hundreds of thousands to millions of people, it was definitely possible.

after all, that was an evil god.

If Lin Yi didn't do anything, the next warning would come soon.

"The news of the evil god scam has been released, but from the feedback, not many people believe it," ning Wanjun hurriedly ran over.

"I've guessed it,"

lin yi had expected this.

In theory, as long as they exposed the evil gods 'shocking scam to the entire sea, the threat they posed would be greatly reduced, and they might even be defeated without being attacked.

Unfortunately, just as the high priest had said before his death, the life Crystal was not only a great conspiracy, but also an unsolvable Open Conspiracy.

after tens of thousands of years of planning, everyone in the entire sea area had long become a part of the scheme.

It was a matter of life and death, and even if there was real evidence in front of them, most people still wouldn't believe it, let alone Lin Yi just spreading the news.

it was human nature to choose to be conservative at a critical moment.

according to the information gathered from various parties, the curse of the evil god has caused unprecedented panic among the civilians in various places. Some people are spreading rumors in private that it's a curse.

ning wanjun looked at lin yi carefully, " " including the high priest's death, all of this was your doing. by creating a crisis, you firmly controlled the four seas in your hands. "

"I'm flattered that they think so highly of me." Lin Yi couldn't help but smile.

" my intelligence department has issued an ultimatum to all the intelligence agencies. all of them must obey the order. no matter who dares to hold master back at this time, they must be killed as a warning to the others. we will not let them off easily. "

Ning Wanjun's killing intent rose as she felt bad for Lin Yi.

Everything he had done was for the sake of the entire sea realm, but in the end, he still had to be constantly blamed for this. It was really depressing.

"i don't like what you're saying," lin yi said, looking at her.

"ah?" ning wanjun was taken aback.

"i'm a good person, where did my hind legs come from?"

lin yi replied with a straight face, which made ning wanjun burst into laughter.

as she had taken up the responsibility of the intelligence department, ning wanjun was also a busy person.

she had to take care of all aspects, but she was extremely short of manpower. especially during this period of time, the situation in the sea was highly tense. if it were anyone in her position, they would definitely be under great pressure.

Fortunately, she could see Lin Yi more often during her work report-it was a rare reward for her.

even if it was tiring, he was willing.

According to the rules, ning Wanjun was supposed to leave after reporting her work. After all, she had a bunch of things to do, and she had to do her job well before she had the right to stay by Lin Yi's side.

These were the truest thoughts in her heart.

"If I don't step out, there'll be a second wave of the evil God's curse soon. Do you think I should step out?" Lin Yi suddenly said.

if the price for standing up is to sacrifice master, then it shouldn't be.

Ning Wanjun replied decisively.

With her understanding of Lin Yi, if he was hesitating like this, it meant that if he really stood up, the price he had to pay would be huge, even if he didn't have to sacrifice himself.

"You're thinking too much. Do I look like someone who'd sacrifice that much?" Lin Yi smiled.

"i also hope that master isn't."

Ning Wanjun pursed her lips and said in a low voice, " " although i am a native of the sea area, after seeing all kinds of performances, including those seemingly innocent civilians at the bottom of the society, i just want to say that they don't deserve master's good treatment. "

Chapter 10303

If word of this got out, she'd be seen as the number one traitor by Lin Yi's side, and some people might even come to clean the emperor's side.

However, this was the truth in the depths of her heart.

The people in the sea were unpredictable, and they weren't worth Lin Yi's time.

Of course, Lin Yi had never given his heart to anyone before-he'd always been walking his own path, and it was just that the path he chose was for the benefit of the public.

"I know what I'm doing," lin yi smiled. " something big is about to happen. you need to organize those intelligence agencies as soon as possible. public opinion can affect the luck of the four seas to a certain extent. we can't let it go out of control. "

"Understood."

ning wanjun instantly had a plan in mind.

things like public opinion were indeed difficult to control. even if one had great strength and power, there were still many cases of things going wrong.

however, if he found the trick, some things were not as difficult to control as he imagined.

For example, he could find a target for the general public to vent their anger on.

and the high and mighty priest faculty, which was now in a state of panic, was a ready-made perfect target!

sure enough, after ning wanjun's instructions, under the guidance of the intelligence agency, both openly and secretly, the focus of the entire sea area immediately shifted to the priest school.

under the pressure of anger from all sides, the priest system's days suddenly became particularly difficult, and it was difficult to move forward.

it couldn't be helped. this was the inheritance the high priest had left them. who asked the high priest to light the life crystal before he died?

since he had enjoyed the benefits of the high priest before, he could only eat the corresponding consequences now.

An eye for an eye.

With that, Lin Yi's pressure was greatly reduced.

Even if some of them wanted to continue instigating the public's anger towards Lin Yi, they were split up and even argued with each other.

after all, at least to most people, lin yi was on their side, protecting the life crystals.

if they had to say that it was a mistake, it was at best a lack of protection.

However, when they remembered that it was the high priest who had attacked, even if some people wanted to pursue the matter, they were too embarrassed to continue.

He was the publicly acknowledged number one sea expert. Which warehouse could withstand his sneak attack?

there was the powerful deterrence of killing 23 top-tier combat forces in a row, and then there was the trouble of shifting the focus of public opinion.

Lin Yi didn't move at all, and many ambitious people couldn't help but beat their chests.

Unfortunately, they didn't dare to show their faces. Other than secretly drawing circles and curses at home, they were helpless.

The tree wanted to be quiet, but the wind would not stop.

lin yi didn't think that he'd be able to stay calm just like that.

he knew that as long as he could drag this out, until more and more people saw through the life crystal scam, he'd have the last laugh, but he still stayed clear-headed.

&Nbsp; the evil god would not admit defeat.

as expected, the evil god's killer move came very quickly. this time, the way he used it not only shocked everyone in the sea, but even lin yi was shocked.

The Oracle.

The evil god had actually given an Oracle to everyone in the sea.

The gods could not cross boundaries. The sea area was the sea god's territory. In theory, other than the sea god, no other God could interfere in the affairs of the sea area without permission, let alone give an Oracle like this!

This was equivalent to a country directly crossing the border and issuing administrative orders to the local institutions and civilians of another country.

To put it another way, this feeling was like asking the other party to come over and drink with him in front of the other party's husband. It was a proper Tauren's behavior!

the moment they received the evil god's oracle, the same thought flashed through the minds of every sea citizen.

i'm afraid that something has really happened to the sea god.

This had been a hot topic since a few months ago, but after Lin Yi became the Sea King, especially after the sea god's multiple prophecies and even a clone's personal appearance, it was thrown into the trash by the mainstream.

But now, it seemed that these words were not without reason.

after all, if the sea god was still alive, how could the evil god's oracle have descended?

however, compared to all the terrifying details behind this, what had the greatest impact on the entire sea area was the contents of the oracle itself.

"Seven days later, eight million people will die from the lack of life crystals. Only the master of the four Seas, Lin Yi, will go to hell Street alone and ask for enough life crystals to solve this problem."

Between the lines, there was a strong sense of evil.

there were problems everywhere but once evil gods were involved, these problems became normal.

After all, in almost everyone's impression, as the typical villain among the gods, evil gods should be like this.

As the divine decree fell, the entire sea region fell silent.

There was no doubt that it was a declaration of terror that was not hidden at all, and it was almost equivalent to the evil god taking the initiative to stand up and take responsibility for the 80000 people who had died suddenly.

If it had been any other God, they might have already been in a frenzy, even pointing out names and cursing.

after all, even the gods had restrictions, and they couldn't act recklessly.

However, facing the evil god, no one in the sea realm dared to have such a thought. If they dared to curse, it wouldn't just be eight million people dying seven days later. It might even be eight million people dying on the spot!

&Nbsp; it wasn't that the evil gods couldn't do such things.

They didn't dare to be angry or speak. At this moment, the entire sea area was left with endless panic.

compared to the population of the entire sea area, which was in the billions, eight million did not seem that exaggerated. in fact, it could even be considered a small number. the number of accidental deaths every year due to various reasons was far more than eight million.

however, a grain of sand in this era was like a mountain when it landed on a person's head.

Moreover, this eight million was not a small amount of sand.

However, some smart people obviously interpreted the sudden Oracle of the evil god differently from the ordinary people.

"this is a good thing! although the evil god is brutal, he still pointed out a clear path and didn't make us just sit there and wait for death!"

" that's right. although the evil gods are a little evil, they are still high and mighty gods after all. they wouldn't use such things to deceive us. "

"As long as we get Lin Yi to hell Street, we'll get enough life crystals. Where else can we find such a good deal?"

"didn't we already receive the challenge letter from the queen of the abyss and the nameless scholar? since we're both in hell street, we can end this together."

"as the sovereign of the four seas, surely you have the courage to accept this challenge?"

"that's not possible! Lord Lin has killed his way up here, and all of his battle achievements are full of gold. Why would he be afraid of this?"

Chapter 10305

The woman was stunned, and the millions of people outside who heard this question through the sound amplification array were also speechless.

in the world of cultivation, strength had always been the most important.

lin yi was able to get to where he was today because of his own strength, and the amazing battles he'd fought.

as for the so-called public opinion, he had never borrowed even the slightest bit of light.

on the contrary, he had stood against the will of the people several times.

if it wasn't for the fact that he had forced himself to laugh to the end with his perverted strength, he would have been the villain in the mainstream public opinion. the so-called status and respect of the other party had nothing to do with him at all.

lin yi chuckled at the silence, "You also said that the sovereign of the four Seas is unprecedented. Since that's the case, what rights and obligations do I have as the sovereign of the four Seas? do you have the final say or do I have the final say?"

His words once again made the three people opposite him choke and unable to say anything.

It wasn't that Lin Yi was good with words, but that he was able to completely crush his opponent. It was purely due to his strength.

In the face of absolute strength, any so-called high and mighty things were destined to be vulnerable, including the tens of millions of people who were regarded as undefeatable by the three of them!

The female representative straightened her neck and said, " based on what you're saying, Lord Lin, could it be that you really don't care about the lives of the billions of people in the entire sea region? you've cultivated such powerful strength. Could it be that you've done it for your own personal gain? "

As the sovereign of the four Seas, where's your outlook?"

"You're teaching me the layout?"

Lin Yi couldn't help but laugh. you don't have to beat around the bush. You might as well be direct. For you people, you're sending me to my death, right? "

Everyone was silent.

No matter how he phrased his words, this was the final truth.

For us, you can die.

the old man's representative coughed dryly. " there's a saying that goes,'even though there are millions of people, i will still go forward.' for the sake of the people of the world, being willing to pay and sacrifice is also a rare cultivation. "

"What a rare cultivation!"

Ning Wanjun suddenly interjected, " "may i ask you, what realm are you in now?"

“.....”

the old man's representative shut himself up on the spot.

He wasn't even at the original level yet, and while it was fine for him to act like an old man in front of normal people, it was humiliating for him to do it with Lin Yi.

not to mention the people on lin yi's side, even the millions of people outside thought it was ridiculous.

If you didn't have the strength to reach the top of the sea, talking about cultivation with someone like Lin Yi was bullshit.

ning wanjun still wanted to say a few more words. no matter what, they had to divert the public's attention. otherwise, if this continued, the situation would very likely become out of control.

even if lin yi had absolute strength, he'd still be under a lot of pressure if he really stood against the people of the sea.

The will of the people could not be violated. Although this sentence was a little abrupt in the cultivation world, it was not completely unreasonable.

As long as there was a chance, she didn't want Lin Yi to end up in that state.

unfortunately, lin yi didn't want to waste any more time.

sacrificing me in exchange for the lives of tens of millions or even billions of your people. This is indeed a good deal for you, but not for me.

lin yi's expression was calm as he looked at the representatives. "is there anything else you want to say?"

Before the three of them could react, the crowd outside exploded.

they had gathered here from all directions, not for some useless thing, but for their own lives.

although the evil god had only announced eight million, not all of them would die. the problem was that no one wanted to be one of them.

And this wasn't something they could control. It all depended on luck.

moreover, even if they were lucky enough to survive this wave, there was a high probability that there would be an even larger wave. no one knew the limit of the number of people killed by the evil god curse, and no one could afford to bet on whether they could break through this limit!

Lin Yi going to hell Street alone was the only solution in their eyes.

But if Lin Yi was determined not to go, even if they had tens of millions of people, they couldn't do anything.

Not to mention that they didn't have the strength to force Lin Yi, but if they really forced Lin Yi to a corner and he turned around to attack them, the casualties wouldn't be much less than the evil god curse!

The only reason they dared to gather here today and even pick three representatives to negotiate with Lin Yi was because they knew that Lin Yi hadn't touched ordinary people the last few times.

In other words, Lin Yi was a good person in this aspect.

but even so, they didn't dare to force him too much. if they forced a good person to become a bad person, that would be really fatal.

since there's nothing else, let's disperse and go back to our own homes. After all, only a few have bad luck.

lin yi ended the negotiation with one sentence.

lin yi was about to leave, but the female representative stopped him in a hurry.

" with your strength, you might not even die in hell street. what will it take for you to save us? "

"he might not die. in other words, he might die."

lin yi looked at her, " there's no such thing as a free lunch in this world. i'm curious how much you can afford to let me take such a risk. you can't expect me to sacrifice myself for nothing, right? "

The three representatives looked at each other, speechless.

that was what they really thought, and if lin yi really wanted something in return, they wouldn't be able to afford it.

The female representative gritted her teeth and said with her chest out, "for the sake of the millions of people in the sea area, i'm willing to be your slave and serve you!"

everyone couldn't help but look at her with strange eyes.

if it was an ordinary male cultivator, they might really be moved by these words.

"I don't need a slave like you?" Lin Yi asked, confused.

as she said that, she looked at the red-robed lady standing silently beside wei yu 'er. ning wanjun burst out laughing at the sight, while the other party broke through her defense on the spot.

the lady in red was only wei yu 'er's maidservant now. in terms of looks, she was far above wei yu' er. in terms of strength, she was miles ahead of wei yu 'er. wei yu' er was at the very least a top tier elite in terms of combat strength. what did wei yu 'er have?

"You're here to scam me on purpose, right?"

the woman in red glared at him.

Chapter 10305

although the evil god had only announced eight million, not all of them would die. the problem was that no one wanted to be one of them.

And this wasn't something they could control. It all depended on luck.

moreover, even if they were lucky enough to survive this wave, there was a high probability that there would be an even larger wave. no one knew the limit of the number of people killed by the evil god curse, and no one could afford to bet on whether they could break through this limit!

Lin Yi going to hell Street alone was the only solution in their eyes.

But if Lin Yi was determined not to go, even if they had tens of millions of people, they couldn't do anything.

Not to mention that they didn't have the strength to force Lin Yi, but if they really forced Lin Yi to a corner and he turned around to attack them, the casualties wouldn't be much less than the evil god curse!

The only reason they dared to gather here today and even pick three representatives to negotiate with Lin Yi was because they knew that Lin Yi hadn't touched ordinary people the last few times.

In other words, Lin Yi was a good person in this aspect.

but even so, they didn't dare to force him too much. if they forced a good person to become a bad person, that would be really fatal.

since there's nothing else, let's disperse and go back to our own homes. After all, only a few have bad luck.

lin yi ended the negotiation with one sentence.

" with your strength, you might not even die in hell street. what will it take for you to save us? "

lin yi looked at her, " there's no such thing as a free lunch in this world. i'm curious how much you can afford to let me take such a risk. you can't expect me to sacrifice myself for nothing, right? "

that was what they really thought, and if lin yi really wanted something in return, they wouldn't be able to afford it.

everyone couldn't help but look at her with strange eyes.

if it was an ordinary male cultivator, they might really be moved by these words.

the lady in red was only wei yu 'er's maidservant now. in terms of looks, she was far above wei yu' er. in terms of strength, she was miles ahead of wei yu 'er. wei yu' er was at the very least a top tier elite in terms of combat strength. what did wei yu 'er have?

Chapter 10306

the female representative was so scared that her face turned pale.

In that instant, she had felt a real killing intent.

the woman in red snorted, "you dare to come here and play tricks with such little guts?" Do you all have some ridiculous misunderstanding about this sovereign of the four Seas? do you really think that he doesn't kill?"

His casual words not only shocked the female representative, but also the millions of people outside could not help but keep quiet.

there were some things that only people like her, who were on the opposite side of lin yi, could see clearly. lin yi wasn't the kind of person who would be bullied because he was kind.

on the contrary, when it was necessary, lin yi would be more ruthless than any villain they had ever seen.

it was just that it was rare for ordinary people like them to see such ruthlessness.

with that, although most people were still under the illusion that lin yi would submit to the public's will, a portion of them finally woke up.

Then, there was a dispute and chaos.

This time, the spearhead wasn't directed at Lin Yi anymore, but the internal conflict of the millions of people!

where there were people, there would be conflicts. when a crowd gathered, there would always be various conflicts, especially in such a large gathering of tens of millions. the various conflicts in the open and in the dark were definitely beyond everyone's imagination.

the internal conflict could still be suppressed when they focused on lin yi.

It was clear that Lin Yi wouldn't be affected by force or persuasion, and all the emotions he'd accumulated over the past few days would burst out at the same time. It would be a disaster if he were to be in a crowd of millions!

at this moment, there were already people fighting and trampling on each other. in an instant, there were many casualties.

"at this rate, i'm afraid that more than a million people will be killed or injured today!"

Ning Wanjun's expression was grave as she watched this scene.

Naturally, she was happy that the crowd had shifted their focus away from Lin Yi, but if it caused the deaths of more than a million people, even if Lin Yi didn't do anything from the start, it would still be a stain on her life.

after all, he was the cause of all this.

if lin yi decided to take the villain's path, this would be fine-it could even make him more intimidating.

but she knew that lin yi wasn't that kind of person.

The master she had acknowledged did not care about the opinions of the outside world many times. When he was ruthless, he was not inferior to gods and devils. However, he still had that line in his heart.

As expected, Lin Yi attacked immediately.

The fate energy of the four Seas pressed down.

An invisible bang seemed to be heard, and the movements of the tens of thousands of people stopped at the same time. Many people who had already begun to fight instantly regained their clarity, and the intensity of the chaos immediately decreased by a large margin.

However, due to inertia, it was inevitable that there would be some trampling. Casualties were still unavoidable, but they would be much smaller.

"mother! mother!"

lin yi frowned when he heard a weak voice from the crowd.

In the next second, he carried back a little girl who was only four or five years old from the crowd.

The little girl had been covering her eyes nervously and her mouth was shriveling as if she was about to cry out at any moment. Now that there was no one around, a big question mark appeared on her little face.

"big brother, who are you?"

There were still tears in the corners of the little girl's eyes. Her long eyelashes blinked, and her childish voice instantly melted the cuteness of all the women present.

Ning Wanjun was not the only one who showed a look of adoration. Even Wei Yu 'er, who was usually cold to others, had a gentler expression on her face.

even the lady in red could not take her eyes off him.

"I'm not a good person, are you scared?" Lin Yi said, pulling a long face on purpose.

The little girl looked at him seriously, then shook her head. "Big brother, why did you lie to me? you're a good person. Wan 'er can tell."

"wan 'er, you're amazing," lin yi smiled.

However, he sighed in his heart. Although children looked weak and couldn't take any impact, to a certain extent, they were also the strongest group in the world.

even some extremely evil devils would probably melt in the face of this unreserved innocence.

"mother often says so."

the little girl sniffed proudly, then looked around and blinked her eyes blankly, " "Where's WAN 'er's mother?"

"he'll be here soon."

lin yi gave wei yu 'er a look, and wei yu' er immediately went into the chaotic crowd and brought out a travel-worn woman in her thirties.

"Mother! wan 'er is here!"

the little girl immediately ran over in joy.

The woman was originally a little frightened, but when she saw this, she was overjoyed. She hugged her younger daughter and cried with joy.

She had been scattered by the chaos in the crowd, and at that moment, she felt as if the sky had fallen. The consequences of a child who was not even five years old falling into such a large-scale chaos could be imagined.

After the excitement, the woman knelt down to Lin Yi. "Thank you for saving my daughter, my Lord. I can't repay your great kindness. I'm willing to do anything for you."

everyone's eyes flashed with a strange look.

this woman was weak, but she had a nice presence. if it were any other person, they'd be too nervous to speak.

"what are you thinking, bringing such a young kid to a place like this?" lin yi nodded.

If he hadn't noticed it, little Wan 'er would have been dead without a doubt, and there was a high probability that not even a complete body would have been left.

If the other party were those kind of ignorant parents, he wouldn't be bothered to say anything, but they clearly didn't look like them.

the woman smiled bitterly and said, "my lord, i didn't want to come here either. however, all my neighbors and relatives have come. there's only me and my daughter left in the house. i'm really terrified."

now that all the people in the sea are rushing here, i'm on the only way, so i can't do anything even if i want to close my door."

Lin Yi said.

With the current public security of the sea, it was indeed more dangerous for a single mother and daughter to stay at home.

After all, no one knew what kind of people were passing by. Once someone had evil intentions, the consequences would be unimaginable.

Normally, this possibility might not be high, but with so many people passing by, especially when there were more than ten million people, even a small probability event would be piled up into a high probability event.

on this point, the other party had no choice.

lin yi waved his hand and ordered, " "let's find a place to settle the mother and daughter first. we'll send them back after the storm has passed."

hou moshe accepted the order and left. the woman was very grateful to him.

before they left, the little girl suddenly asked, " "Big brother, are you going to die?"

"wan 'er, don't talk nonsense!"

the woman was shocked and quickly covered her mouth, afraid that she would say something earth-shattering again.

Lin Yi asked, interested. "How do you know I'm going to die?"

Chapter 10307

"wuwuwuwu"

the little girl blinked and broke free from the woman's hand. " "my mother said so. she said that big brother is soft-hearted, and no matter what attitude he has in the beginning, he will still go in the end."

"oh? your mother knows me that well?"

lin yi's eyes fell on the woman, probing and suspicious.

it wasn't strange for an ordinary young woman to know some of his deeds. after all, the news had spread throughout the entire sea area. however, it was not possible for ordinary people to infer his temperament and character from this.

The woman hurriedly said, " I've embarrassed myself in front of you, my Lord. I've just heard a lot from the neighbors and learned a few words in front of my daughter. I didn't expect her to actually remember it. I've offended Your Majesty, and I deserve to die a thousand times.

"Don't be nervous, I'm just asking."

lin yi smiled nonchalantly before suddenly asking,"Then, do you think I should go?"

The woman blinked, not expecting Lin Yi to ask about her. She quickly replied,"i'm just a commoner with shallow knowledge. i don't dare to speak nonsense in front of the lord."

Lin Yi looked at her. tell me. I might not listen to anything you say, but your opinion is more representative. At least it's better than the three of them.

the faces of the three public representatives who were sitting in a corner instantly darkened.

unfortunately, in front of lin yi, their so-called "the people's will" had no weight at all.

what's more, even they themselves were very clear that they did not represent the true public opinion at all. they were just a group of evil thoughts instigated by some people.

on the contrary, this ordinary-looking woman might be closer to the true public opinion.

The woman said carefully, "if I were in the position of the Lord, I would definitely not go. I shouldn't go. After all, everyone wants to live a good life. It's not wise to give up a good life and not go to die.

"I'm so foolish!"

the old man's representative couldn't help but stomp his feet when he heard this, "how can one person's life and death be compared to the lives of the world?" It is such a glorious thing to sacrifice for the sake of the world, and it will be praised by the later generations for thousands of years. Many people can't even get this opportunity!"

"Old grandpa, do you want to die too?" the little girl asked with a confused expression.

the old man's face turned black again, and he was so angry that his heart almost stopped.

Ning Wanjun chuckled and added, " "he doesn't have the guts nor the qualifications."

everyone smiled.

"if even you think it's unwise, then why did you tell the girl that i'd die? isn't that contradicting?" lin yi continued to look at the woman.

the woman hesitated, but seeing that lin yi wasn't blaming her, she decided to be brave."this commoner has heard of the honorable lord's deeds. the logic of many things is completely different from ordinary people. if one were to use a sentence to describe it, it would be that an extraordinary person is an extraordinary person.

whether it was a commoner's wife or the people outside, their level of experience was far from comparable to the supremacy.

no matter how well-reasoned it is, it is nothing more than a fantasy of the golden shoulder pole in the emperor's house. in the ears of a true master, it would only make people laugh."

"So, you think I'll go?"

Lin Yi couldn't help but be surprised.

the woman thought for a moment and nodded seriously, "you'll definitely go, and you'll definitely return victorious."

"what a great victory."

"that's an evil god we're talking about," lin yi laughed, "you think they're cannon fodder?" who can guarantee that the gods can escape unscathed, not to mention that the other party is an evil god?"

"you definitely can," the woman said seriously.

lin yi didn't know what to say after seeing how certain she was.

the three representatives 'eyes lit up.

lin yi didn't think much of them from the start, but from the way he was acting, it seemed like the ruler of the four seas had really been convinced, and the one who'd convinced him was just an ordinary commoner.

it was simply unimaginable!

the three of them looked at the woman strangely. did lin yi have this kind of taste?

Lin Yi, naturally, couldn't be bothered with these dirty guys. His eyes went back to the girl, and he asked on a whim, "wan 'er, do you think i should go?"

"I should go, but I can't go for nothing," the little girl said after some serious thought.

This sentence shocked everyone.

"why can't i just go for nothing?" lin yi laughed.

"Mother has taught me since I was young that there must be a price for everything. Big brother, since you are going to do something dangerous, of course you should get the corresponding reward." The little girl said confidently.

"this method is not bad."

lin yi smiled and turned to the three representatives. "did you hear that? it's not completely impossible for me to take the risk in hell street for you, but you have to think carefully whether you can afford the price."

the three of them couldn't help choking.

at their level, they couldn't give lin yi a price that would satisfy him. even if they sold themselves together, they wouldn't be able to pay lin yi even a fraction of the price.

"You guys don't have to think too hard about it-this isn't just the three of you, after all. There're so many people out there, and they can all share the burden with you guys," Lin Yi said faintly.

the three of them looked at each other, and the old man's representative said solemnly, " "share what?"

" the only thing you have on you is the luck of the four seas. although one person is insignificant, if there are tens of millions of you, it's barely enough. "

Lin Yi looked at them calmly,"i've already said what i want to say. as for whether you agree or not, it's up to you."

because of the sound amplification spell formation, his words were clearly heard by the millions of people outside. the chaotic scene immediately quieted down.

After a moment of silence, the female representative could not help but ask carefully, " "What will happen if we lose the four Seas" fate?"

"It's nothing. It's just that my luck is a little worse than usual, and things don't go as smoothly as usual."

lin yi added, however, this is only for ordinary people. If you have done something harmful, you have to be careful. Retribution will come very quickly.

his words made many people's faces turn pale.

he wasn't being an alarmist. luck sounded ethereal and unpredictable, but at his level, he could already understand some things.

Just as the little girl and her daughter had said, he had to go to hell Street no matter what.

It wasn't just for the people of the sea realm, but more importantly, to break out of this situation!

Although it seemed that the evil God's control over the outside world was limited, as long as he could hold his ground, even if the other party really cursed and killed eight million people, it would not really shake his Foundation.

Chapter 10308

as time dragged on, the life crystal scam would fall apart on its own and everything would return to normal.

but lin yi knew that things weren't as simple as they seemed.

lin yi knew that if he wanted to have the initiative, he had to attack first.

even if he couldn't kill the evil god directly, he had to find a way to get his human body. just for this, he had to go to hell street!

Of course, it was one thing to go, but it did not mean that he would be pushed there without a word.

Based on his understanding of the sea realm's people, if they agreed so easily this time, they wouldn't get any gratitude in return. They would only push their noses up and go even further.

that was why he thought of extracting fate.

It was just right to be used against the evil God's human body.

lin yi's strategy of retreating to advance had an immediate effect.

"Please wait, Lord Lin. We are willing to agree to your conditions."

" but can we delay it for a few more days? " the old man's representative quickly asked. " when more people gather, we can share the fate. at least we won't really have no fate left. " the others nodded in agreement.

Although for many people, even if they had a little less luck, it wouldn't hurt. After all, they were the real bottom of the society, and their luck had never been really good.

those who were truly lucky wouldn't be at the bottom of the hierarchy.

At most, he would be unlucky and even more unlucky in the future. That was still better than being killed by the evil God's curse.

At least from their perspective, if Lin Yi didn't fulfill the evil God's request, even if they weren't on the list of the eight million people cursed by the evil god, they'd still die from the lack of life crystals.

In comparison, only a portion of his fate was extracted, which was already an insignificant price.

how much was luck worth?

"i can't just be unlucky, right?"

lin yi saw through the guy's plan with one sentence and smiled nonchalantly, "i have no problem with that. you guys just have to think about it clearly."

After that, he ignored the three people and turned to the little girl, " "Wan 'er, do you want to cultivate?"

"training? The kind that fights?"

The little girl was unexpectedly excited. "big brother, are you going to teach me how to cut people?"

"nonsense!"

the woman quickly covered her mouth again with an embarrassed look. " "wan 'er's father passed away early, and i've neglected to discipline her. i've made a fool of myself, lord."

Lin Yi walked in front of Wan 'er and squatted down, "If you learn to hack people, you'll be hacked sooner or later. It's very painful. Little girl, do you really want to learn? If you want to learn, I'll teach you."

Everyone present was collectively stunned.

she'd thought it was a joke at first, but lin yi's expression made it clear that he was serious.

this was the first time lin yi had thought of taking her as his disciple!

Although it was a little sudden impulse, he really wanted to take the little girl in front of him as a disciple.

it wasn't as simple as just liking her-the girl was likable, but it wasn't enough for lin yi to make such a big decision.

After all, taking in a disciple was no small matter.

If it was just a few casual pointers, then it was fine, but once the master and disciple relationship was established, according to the rules of the cultivation world, the master and disciple were one.

A master and disciple were like father and son, and their relationship was almost the same as that of their own blood. This was definitely no joke.

from then on, they were bound by karma and influenced each other. no matter which party was in trouble, it would inevitably affect the fate of the other party. it was impossible to get rid of it even if one wanted to.

For such a big matter, it naturally wouldn't be a simple sentence of a sudden impulse.

The reason why Lin Yi did this was because of the subtle reaction from the New World!

In fact, he had saved the little girl just now because he was influenced by the will of the New World. Otherwise, with tens of millions of people present and such a chaotic scene, he would not have noticed this little girl who was not related to him at the first moment.

For some unknown reason, the new world's will had imperceptibly developed an extremely intimate and subtle feeling for the little girl.

That feeling was as if he had found his own kind.

but after that short interaction and testing, lin yi didn't find any traces of the world's will on the girl, nor was there anything special about her.

Even if one's cultivation talent was evaluated by normal standards, it could only be considered average at best.

it was rare to find someone like this in the lower class, but at lin yi's level, anyone who could enter his eyes was a one in a million heaven-defying genius.

in comparison, the little girl's aptitude was really not worth mentioning.

But then again, with Lin Yi's personality, even if he really met a one in a million super genius, he would never have the thought of taking her in as a disciple.

on the other hand, this little girl, who had an inexplicable affinity with the new world, could arouse his interest.

the girl tilted her head and thought for a while before her eyes lit up."then, big brother, can you teach wan 'er kung fu that won't hurt?"

everyone looked at each other, speechless.

This girl was also a talent. She found the blind spot so quickly.

"I really do," Lin Yi smiled,"do you want to learn?"

"Yes, I do."

the little girl immediately cheered.

Her mother was dumbfounded and felt as if she was in a dream. She finally reacted under ning Wanjun's gaze and quickly knelt down with the little girl.

" thank you, my lord. it is my daughter's greatest fortune to be your disciple. i'm so grateful that i'm in tears. i sincerely pray that my lord's martial arts will prosper and that i'll live a long life! "

wan 'er was very tactful as well, and she kowtowed to lin yi,"Master, I am here to pay my respects."

"good disciple."

Lin Yi smiled as he pulled him up. The moment the master-disciple relationship was established, he could clearly feel the new world's will become more active. Not only did it evolve faster, but even Lin Yi's strength seemed to be on the verge of a breakthrough!

even lin yi himself was shocked by what he saw.

at the level of the new world, even if it was a top-notch opportunity in the eyes of others, it was already very difficult to produce an immediate effect.

At the very least, he would have to swallow the top-tier combat power of the sea realm, or even directly swallow a Godhead, in order to make the new world's development progress by leaps and bounds.

the little girl clearly did not seem to have any special features, but merely establishing a master-disciple relationship with her had such a magical effect.

This was completely beyond Lin Yi's expectations.

For a moment, even he felt that it was a little unreal.

Chapter 10309

that feeling was like buying a bottle of drink in a small shop, but the bottle cap didn't open with a "thank you for your patronage" or another bottle, but a cash prize of 500 million yuan!

If it weren't for Lin Yi's ability to take it, his heart wouldn't be able to take it.

It wasn't an overstatement to say that just the benefits brought by this move alone were worth it for him to take her in as a disciple!

"don't tell me i'm really going to get a chosen one?"

lin yi looked at the excited lil wan 'er, lost in thought.

If he knew that this innocent and cute little disciple of his would make such a terrifying name in a hundred years, he was afraid that it would not be as simple as a moment of distraction.

the empress of a generation, xiao wan 'er, would be the peak of an entire era in the future.

at this time, the other people present didn't notice lin yi's expression. they were all looking at the little girl with envy.

not only the three representatives of the public, but even the arrogant woman in red could not help but feel a little jealous.

With her top tier combat strength, she was only fit to be Wei Yu 'er's Whetstone in Lin Yi's place. She was just an ordinary little girl, yet he valued her so much.

The difference between a human and a dog was truly greater than a human and a dog!

from an ordinary girl to lin yi's disciple, no matter from which angle, it was a step to the sky.

It wasn't an overstatement to say that as long as Lin Yi was around, she could do anything she wanted in the sea.

Royal Children, noble houses, they were nothing but farts in front of Lin Yi, the ruler of the four Seas!

from now on, if the little girl went out for a walk, all the forces would have to treat her as their master.

After all, who knew if Lin Yi would be in the mood to reason with them if something happened?

ning wanjun smiled and stepped forward. "little wan 'er, your name has the character wan, and mine has the same character. it means that we are fated to meet. this incense bag is a gift from auntie. i hope you will like it."

As he spoke, he hung an exquisite fragrance pouch on the little girl's waist.

the little girl was excited again, but then she asked doubtfully, " "but sister, you're so pretty. why do you want wan 'er to call you auntie?"

Ning Wanjun was stunned for a moment, then she smiled and said, " "Because Auntie likes to pretend to be the senior."

he glanced at a certain someone as he spoke, but lin yi was still in shock and didn't notice at all.

Little Wan 'er still wanted to ask, but her mother reacted and quickly said, "quickly thank aunt wan!"

"Oh, thank you, aunt Wan."

although the little girl was full of curiosity, in the end, she still followed his advice.

Ning Wanjun smiled and patted her head. "good girl, wan 'er."

Lin Yi came back to his senses and looked at the perfume bag on the girl's waist. He looked at ning Wanjun in surprise, " you're really willing to spend so much money. You can even give away a heaven and earth fragrant bag. There are only a few space treasures of this level in the entire sea area.

as far as he knew, this should be the best treasure the other party had.

Ning Wanjun smiled sweetly. you can't trap a Wolf without a child. This is my investment.

"alright, i'll get you a few more later," lin yi said, speechless.

with his current strength, ordinary tools had no effect on him.

The Abyssal Blade and the top ten swords were barely usable, but space-type items were useless to him now that he had new world.

After all, no matter how strong a space prop was, it was still a little brother in front of the source world, the New World.

Of course, if Lin Yi didn't use it himself, he could give it to his friends and family if he got it in the future. He could count ning Wanjun in as well.

"then i'll be waiting," ning wanjun said, her eyes as clear as water.

On the other side, Wei Yu 'er walked in front of the little girl and passed her a small sword without a word.

the little girl was overjoyed. she thanked her sister and immediately performed a set of sword techniques.

His swordsmanship was not bad.

However, she was a little brainless. In just ten moves, she smashed her own head three times and rolled two times.

Other things aside, her courage was shocking. At least she didn't cry.

if it was an ordinary small sword, even if it was not sharpened, the little girl would definitely hurt herself. after all, even if it was just a simple iron plate, it was no joke.

however, the sword that wei yu 'er had given him was not an ordinary item. it was formed by her natal sword qi and already possessed some spirituality.

although it did not give birth to a sword soul, it still had the characteristics of protecting its master. when the little girl held it in her hand, it would not be easy to hurt herself even if she wanted to.

at most, he would suffer some pain.

with ning wanjun and wei yu 'er taking the lead, hou mohe and the others also gave out their gifts.

Lin Yi only needed to say the word, and he didn't even need to do anything big like a ceremony or anything, but it was still a huge event for the entire Lin Yi group.

after all, lin yi didn't have an heir yet, and xiao wan 'er was his new disciple-to a certain extent, she was his heir.

the significance was extraordinary.

lin yi opened his mouth when he saw the gifts, " "since they've given you a meeting gift, it's not right for me, as their master, to not give you something."

The little girl blinked her eyes and said expectantly, " "What does master want to give Wan 'er?"

"Let me think."

With Lin Yi's inventory, he naturally didn't lack any good stuff. If he wanted, he could even take the four Seas "royal families" inventory for himself at any time. After all, they were all his spoils of war in name.

If he wanted to take it, no one would dare to stop him. No one could stop him.

However, normal treasures weren't enough to catch Lin Yi's attention. If the level was too high, the girl wouldn't be able to use it at all. Too much was just as bad as not enough, and there was a possibility that she could become the owner.

"You don't need anything else for the time being, so I'll give you a gift of good luck to help you achieve your dreams in the future."

With that, Lin Yi grabbed at the air, and vast amounts of fate from the four Seas were pulled out from the group of ten million people, gathering towards him.

Everyone was shocked.

It was rare to see such a dense and substantial luck. It could only be compared to the previous Ascension ceremony.

under lin yi's guidance, the fate turned into a solid vortex, spinning around the little girl for a while before entering her body, until it completely disappeared.

Although the little girl looked the same as before, in everyone's eyes, she seemed to be emitting an invisible light.

the world around her seemed to be much brighter than other places.

"Golden body of fate!"

The red-robed woman couldn't help but blurt out.

She had been around the Queen of the abyss and the nameless scholar, the two top figures of the sea, and her knowledge was naturally far beyond that of ordinary people.

Chapter 10310

But even she couldn't help but be stunned by Lin Yi's generosity.

destiny golden body, its effect was equivalent to forcefully creating a son of destiny!

From now on, unless she suffered a destructive blow of a higher level, the little girl would definitely be blessed with good luck no matter where she went.

this was a big deal that even the ceiling of the sea area might not be able to achieve!

"master, is wan 'er very lucky now?" xiao yatou asked eagerly.

"You can try." Lin Yi nodded.

"Alright," he said.

The little girl immediately performed another set of sword techniques, which was completely different from the previous one, showing her extraordinary talent.

The only flaw was that he had knocked on his head three times.

However, he didn't fall. The effect of the Golden body of Providence was indeed immediate.

After a while, the little girl put away the small sword with a serious face and said, "let's stop here for today. going too far is as bad as falling short."

"what do you mean?" lin yi asked.

"My head hurts," the little girl sighed.

everyone laughed.

After the interlude, Lin Yi sent the three representatives away and started preparing for the trip to hell Street.

hell street was a place he had to go no matter what. however, not only were there two experienced top combat forces guarding it, but there was also a human body of an evil god.

such a formation, no matter who it was, they would all tremble in their hearts.

lin yi wasn't afraid, but he wasn't confident either. if it was only the former, it would be fine. with his current strength, even if he couldn't take on two at once, he could at least retreat safely.

but the evil god's human body?

Just as Jiang Xiaoshang had said, there was no God in the world that could be provoked. Even the most useless and insignificant gods in the eyes of the world were existences that could be killed at will if placed in the human world.

Even if they were deprived of their god powers and forced to the level of cultivators, they could still easily stomp the ceiling of all humans into the ground.

There was no other reason. Since they could become gods, they were the ultimate scroll Kings that were born from all humans!

every single one of them was an existence that was even more heaven-defying than heaven-defying.

Even Lin Yi had to admit that he might not be a match for these gods if they were on the same level.

Last time, he was able to eat the sea god, to a large extent, because he picked up a ready-made bargain. After all, the pit was dug by the evil god. The food was ready and served, but the plate was taken away by him.

Even so, if Lin Yi didn't have new world's support, there was a high chance that he'd still get hit by Poseidon's backlash!

Now that they had to face an even more troublesome evil god, the difficulty could be imagined, considering their previous conflicts.

therefore, this time, he had to be fully prepared. otherwise, it would be really awkward if he couldn't return.

Sword sacrifice, divine body, absolute-kill sword formation, and all sorts of rule power.

lin yi silently counted the cards in his hands. if they were outside, they were enough to kill anyone, but against the evil god's human body and the two sea celestials, the effect would be greatly reduced.

the only move that could truly cause a fatal threat was probably sword sacrifice.

but even if lin yi was able to turn the sword sacrifice into combat, it was still unknown how well he could perform it.

"I don't have enough cards."

Lin Yi's eyes fell on the demon devouring sword. It was still fighting with the abyss blade in the New World, and it seemed like it was still in a stalemate. There was no sign of a winner.

In this case, the violent power of the demonic devour sword could not be used for the time being.

At this moment, Jiang xiaoshang's voice suddenly sounded in his mind, " "actually, if you want to use it, there's still a way."

"you're saying we'll use the world's consciousness to speed it up?" lin yi blinked.

although there was no specific operation, a hard currency like the world will was a jack of all trades, and there was almost no time when it would not be used. the only limitation was whether it could be used up.

"this is a bottomless pit. are you sure you can afford to squander it?"

jiang xiaoshang gave a half-smile and then looked at son jian with interest, " with his help, the time it takes for the demonic devouring sword to devour and evolve will definitely be greatly shortened. Moreover, its power will definitely increase greatly!

the sword son seemed to sense danger. he glanced at him and quickly fled without a word.

"isn't that a little cruel?" lin yi frowned.

The sword's son was only an embodiment of the sword's rule. Strictly speaking, he wasn't an independent life form.

even though it had the appearance of a human and seemed to be able to speak, no different from a human child, it actually did not have a complete mind. if one had to say, it was more like an intelligent program.

compared to wei yu 'er's sword shadow, it was much weaker, let alone compared to normal people.

jiang xiaoshang's intention was clear. he wanted to use his son as the soul of the demonic sword.

this way, the demonic devouring sword would be able to speed up the process of devouring the abyssal blade, and there was a great chance that the power of the demonic devouring sword would be increased by another level.

this would give lin yi another powerful trump card.

for the following trip to hell street, one more trump card would mean one more point of confidence. the result might be the difference between life and death.

The only price was that the sword's son would be tied to the demonic devouring sword from now on.

With the unfathomable power of the demonic devouring sword, he might even lose his spiritual intelligence completely and become an accessory to the sword soul!

at least in lin yi's eyes, it was cruel.

jiang xiaoshang glanced at him. "from what i can remember, you're not this indecisive. why didn't you show any mercy when you brought me in?"

"that's different. you're the one who asked for it. he's not."

Lin Yi made his decision quickly.

he had no intention of sacrificing the freedom of the sword's son, even if he was now the ruler of the rules of the sword. in theory, the sword's son was equivalent to his personal belonging, no different from the demonic devouring sword.

those who achieve great things don't bother about trifles.

but there was a certain bottom line that lin yi had to keep in check.

However, Jiang xiaoshang's suggestion did remind him. Even though he could not bear to sacrifice his son, it was not a bad idea to get a sword soul for the demon devouring sword.

There were quite a few of these things in the sword tomb.

lin yi didn't say anything and returned to the sword tomb. as he entered, all the ancient swords buried in the sword tomb fell to the ground, showing their submission.

It could be seen that his previous performance in the sword tomb as the new Sword Saint had left a deep impression on these ancient swords. To some extent, it could even be said to be psychological trauma.

They weren't human, but they all had sword souls. Even if they were damaged sword souls, they had already experienced countless years in the sword tomb.
