

Bodyguard 2501

Chapter 2501 Broken Leg Again

However, pinliang walked into the classroom with Xiaofu, his steel rod still in his hand.

Youpan Hu quickly lay on the table and began to play dead. He had already wasted a small reversion pill to heal his injuries. If he were to be beaten again, not only would it be painful, but he would also lose the small reversion pill. He couldn't possibly carry a large number of small reversion pills in his hands every day, right?

"Hey, don't play dead!" Pinliang slammed the steel rod on the right side of Panhu's table, making a loud thud.

"Ah, I'm dead!" You Panhu said.

"Motherf * cker, you're lying to me, right? Do you think I'm easy to bully? If it was Lin Yi, would you lie like that?" Pinliang said, enraged.

"Alright, then I'm alive again ..." The right Panhu was shocked and quickly sat up. He asked with a bitter face, ""Liang bro, what are you doing here? Haven't you already taught us a lesson? We understand, we won't mess with Chu Mengyao anymore, okay?"

"It's not about this!" "Do you know Zhao Qibing?" pinliang said with a wave.

"Zhao Qibing? I know him. Why are you asking about him?" The right coiling Tiger was slightly stunned.

"It's good that you know him. " "Call him right now and ask him out," pinliang said. "I don't care what reason he has, I want to see him before school ends!"

"Ah? Ask him out? "Liang bro, what are you ..." Right Panhu heard that pinliang wasn't here to beat him up, and he let out a breath of relief, but at the same time, he was a little confused. Why was pinliang looking for Zhao Qibing?

"Oh, I'm going to beat him up, but don't tell him. If he runs away, I'll have to beat you up." Pinliang said.

"Is that so? that's easy." You Panhu nodded, as long as it has nothing to do with him. As for Zhao Qibing, I don't care if he lives or dies. The Hidden House Zhao and the Hidden House you didn't have a good relationship anyway, so if you Panhu sold Zhao Qibing out, so be it.

"Sure, give me a call when he gets here, this is my number ..." Pinliang was very happy to see that right Panhu was so cooperative. He gave him his number and left with Xiaofu ...

"Got it, Liang bro ..." Right Panhu noted down Zhong pinliang's phone number, wondering if this guy was Lin Yi's enemy. It would be great if it was Lin Yi's enemy, and she could just sit back and watch, but it seemed like this guy had the same goal as Lin Yi? Lin Yi's enemies were pinliang's enemies?

You Panhu gave Zhao Qibing a call. The reason was simple-someone from the school wanted to see him, and it was someone who came often.

Zhao Qibing was fighting for the position of the Hidden House Zhao's young master. He heard that you Panhu had a friend who wanted to see him, so naturally, Zhao Qibing drove to East Ocean industry University in high spirits. You Panhu then called Zhong Pingliang and told him to wait for Zhao Qibing at the parking lot in front of the school.

Not long after, Zhao Qibing drove his new Porsche Cayenne to the East Ocean industry University. He had just parked the car in the parking lot and was about to call you Panhu when someone knocked on the door.

"What are you doing?" Qibing rolled down the window and asked pinliang, "Who are you?"

"Damn it, Zhao Qibing, you don't recognize me anymore?" Pinliang's stick hit the hood of Qibing's car, creating a dent.

"You ... You're Zhong pinliang?" Qibing recognized pinliang immediately after taking a closer look! Fabai was once Qibing's underling, so how could Qibing not know who pinliang was? He didn't know why pinliang called himself "daddy" in front of him, though. Did this kid want to die?

"Very good, you still recognize me!" Pinliang reached his hand out and grabbed Qibing's collar, "Get out of the car! Damn it, you used to order my father and I around like dogs, and now you've offended Lin Yi! I almost died, but you just left!"

"Are you crazy? You actually dare to scold me? Do you know who I am? Do you know my current identity?" Qibing was furious-he couldn't stand his old man telling him what to do! He directly pushed the door open and got out of the car.

"I know, isn't he Zhao Qibing from the Hidden House Zhao? You're the one I'm hitting!" Pinliang's stick landed on Qibing's head, and he lost his bearings.

"You dare to hit me?" Qibing was shocked and furious, but pinliang's rod came at him again just as he was about to say something. Qibing didn't dare let his guard down-he quickly circulated his Qi to protect his body and started his counterattack, kicking at pinliang!

However, pinliang didn't even try to Dodge. He let Qibing kick at him, but the stick in his hand still hit Qibing's body!

Qibing only realized after kicking pinliang a couple of times that his Qi protection didn't seem to work at all. The metal rod still hurt! The true Qi protection was no longer useful? Or did pinliang have the ability to break through the Qi Shield?

At the thought, Qibing panicked-he quickly covered his head with his hands so that his head wouldn't bleed from pinliang's attacks as he kicked at pinliang with both legs!

"Damn, your legs are quite capable, huh? I'll let you kick!" Pinliang saw Qibing using his hand to protect his head, so he swung his dark steel rod and hit Qibing's right leg!

"Argh ..." Qibing cried out in pain. His legs were his weakest part, and although pinliang's strike didn't break his legs, it was enough to make him grimace in pain!

"I told you to kick me, kick me, kick me ..." Pinliang swung his arms and swung the steel rod, making a loud noise as he hit Qibing's leg. In an instant, Qibing's good leg was crippled, and he fell on his butt ...

Pinliang didn't seem to be satisfied yet-he swung the steel rod at Qibing's other left leg, breaking it as well. Qibing could only lie on the ground, twitching ...

"You ... Zhong pinliang ... I'll remember you! The Hidden House Zhao won't let you go!" Qibing didn't know how pinliang became so strong, but he still couldn't help but threaten.

"Oh, whatever. I'm not afraid to tell you that I'm now the disciple of the sect master of the everyday and every day sect, celestial venerable pure yang. If you want to go against the everyday and every day sect, do as you please! I don't mind having my master exterminate you all!" Pinliang said calmly.

"Gah?!" Qibing was dumbfounded by pinliang's words!

Chapter 2502 Shu's Bad Idea

He'd never thought that pinliang was a disciple of an ancient sect, the everyday and every day sect! No wonder he's so powerful, it turns out that he has a famous teacher!

Not to mention an ancient sect, Lin Yi alone was enough to make the Hidden House Zhao helpless, and an ancient sect was something the Hidden House Zhao wouldn't dare mess with. So Qibing didn't make any moves-his leg was broken for nothing again.

"I say, Zhao Qibing, do you still want revenge?" Pinliang was overjoyed when he saw Qibing's face turn listless after hearing the name of the sect.

"Zhong pinliang, even if you want me to die, you should at least know the reason, right? Although you were my subordinate before, I've treated you well, haven't I? What's the meaning of this?" Qibing didn't want to take revenge anymore, he just wanted to know what was going on.

"It's nothing, actually. My goddess asked me to hit you. You didn't provoke me, but you provoked my goddess!" Pinliang said.

"Your goddess? Who is it?" Qibing blinked as he remembered pinliang's crush."Chu Mengyao?"

"That's right, it's Chu Mengyao!" Pinliang nodded.

"You're with Lin Yi?" Qibing jumped in shock after hearing pinliang admit it.

"Of course not, I'm snatching his position." "Right, can I ask you something? what's Lin Yi's strength level now?" pinliang asked.

"Strength? Mid Earth Class or mid Earth Class peak?" "Why do you ask?" Qibing asked. You can beat Lin Yi?"

"Earth Class, huh? no problem, I'll take him down!" Pinliang nodded, relieved."Alright, Zhao Qibing, I'm done beating you up. You can go now. Since you were my boss before, I won't knock you out anymore. You can leave with your head clear!"

"I ..." Zhao Qibing was about to say that he was looking for someone when he suddenly remembered something, ""You didn't ask right plate Tiger to call me, did you?"

"It was me." Pinliang nodded.

"F * ck ... Right Panhu is really not a good friend. He actually dared to trick me?" Qibing was pissed.

"Oh, I also beat him up." "He's worse off than you," pinliang said nonchalantly.

"Is that so ..." Qibing felt much better after hearing that. He took out his phone and called the Hidden House Zhao, asking them to come and pick him up.

"I'm leaving, I need to report to my goddess ..." Pinliang held his refined Dark Iron rod and walked towards the economics building with Xiaofu.

Yushu, on the other hand, had heard everything through the bug and told Mengyao the whole story.

"You're saying that Zhong pinliang joined the everyday and every day sect as well, and became the sect leader's disciple?" Mengyao was shocked. "And he also got his hands on a Golden Cicada underwear? Is it because of this underwear that he was able to take the hits?"

"It should be like this." Chen Yushu nodded.

"That bra, didn't Lin Yi give us one too?" Mengyao remembered the low-tier Golden Cicada undergarments Lin Yi won at the Hidden House Summit. "But mine doesn't seem to be as high-end as Zhong pinliang's."

"Yeah, shield bro's undergarments can only defend against attacks from people under Earth Class. It's completely useless against people above Earth Class ..." Yushu nodded. Lin Yi had wanted to wash the undergarments and give them to Mengyao or Yushu for self-protection, but Chentian was there-he could basically take care of anyone under Earth Class. The Golden Cicada undergarments didn't have much value, so he didn't use them anymore.

"So pinliang's only strong because of this stuff. He's just an unkillable cockroach, he doesn't have any real skills." "But that iron rod he's using seems to have some tricks up his sleeve as well. Zhao Qibing and you Panhu have their Qi protecting them, but Zhong pinliang can still fight." Mengyao continued.

"En, this guy has quite a lot of treasures ..." Yushu's eyes started rolling around again, thinking about pinliang's treasures ...

"Shu, you're not thinking of taking his stuff for yourself, are you?" Mengyao knew the look on Shu's face all too well-it was obvious that she was after pinliang's stuff.

"Hehehehe ..." Yushu started laughing evilly. "This is good stuff ..."

"So what if it's good? You can't just take it from pinliang, can you?" Mengyao said helplessly.

"That's true, but you can think of a way!" Chen Yushu replied.

"No matter what, let's tell Lin Yi what happened here first so he can be prepared and see if he can think of a way to deal with Zhong pinliang." Mengyao said.

"Yeah, that's good ... But wait a minute, Zhong pinliang's here again ..." Yushu said.

As expected, pinliang appeared in front of Mengyao and Yushu's classroom not long after. Compared to his arrogance when he went to look for right-hand Tiger, pinliang was much more obedient in front of Mengyao's classroom. He disguised the dark Iron fine steel stick as a baseball bat and slung it over his shoulder. It wasn't that obvious.

Class was just about to end, and pinliang walked up to Mengyao and Yushu with a big smile on his face, as if asking for praise. "Yaoyao, Shu, I've already beaten up that Zhao Qibing, do you have any orders?"

"Hmm ... I heard that you only broke Zhao Qibing's legs and didn't knock him out? You seem to be showing mercy to him, is there something going on between you?" Chen Yushu asked.

"Ah?" Pinliang froze-he didn't think that the news would spread this fast. Yushu knew about it right after he beat up Qibing? did she have eyes and ears nearby? But thinking about it, it made sense for Lin Yi to arrange other bodyguards for Chu Mengyao and Chen Yushu when he went out!

With that thought, pinliang became alert. He wasn't afraid of being ambushed, but being watched didn't feel good.

"That ... No..." Pinliang quickly explained, ""Actually ... I heard that Lin Yi likes to break Zhao Qibing's legs, right? So I learned from Lin Yi ..."

"That won't do. If you want to learn from shield bro in every aspect, we only need shield bro. Why would we need a fake version like you?" "Liangy, your next step is to surpass shield bro in every aspect!" Yushu said with a wave of her hand.

Chapter 2503 Two Things

"That ... Of course ..." Pinliang quickly nodded, ""Shu, what do you think my next step should be?"

"The next step, I haven't thought of the next step yet. You stay here first!" "I'll let you know when I've decided!" Yushu said.

"I see ... Then when can I level up and become Yaoyao's personal bodyguard?" Pinliang asked, panicking.

"I say, liangy, haven't you heard of this saying? Do you know how long it took for shield bro to be accepted by Yaoyao sis?" "Hmph!" Yushu hmphed, "didn't you see how much Yaoyao sis wanted shield bro in the beginning? He even used you to teach him a lesson at school!"

"Yeah!" Pinliang remembered what happened back in school-when he, Xiaofu, and naipao were looking for trouble with Lin Yi, Mengyao and Yushu seemed to be very happy about it. This meant that Mengyao took a long time to accept Lin Yi as her bodyguard, and he couldn't replace Lin Yi in a day or two!

"So, liangy, you should be grateful that I didn't instigate Yaoyao sis to find someone to harm you and stop you from getting to the top. If you're in such a hurry, I'm not going to help you!" Chen Yushu threatened.

"Don 't, please don't ..." Pinliang was really scared."Sister Shu, you know me. I've always listened to you. I was like this before, and I'm still like this now. You see, I went to buy numbing spicy skewers when you asked me to. I've always listened to you!"

"En, so I'll try my best to think of a way, but you have to be strong yourself. Go back and wait for the news, I'll let you know when I think of the next mission." Chen Yushu replied.

"Alright, I'll be leaving then, big sister Shu!" Pinliang nodded respectfully at Yushu before leaving with Xiaofu.

Lin Yi's head started to hurt after hearing Mengyao's story. Pinliang had gotten a Golden Cicada bra from the everyday and every day sect? And it seemed to be a high-end item, able to withstand the attacks of cultivators below the Sky Class. Wasn't this a little too awesome?

Not only that, but he also had an iron rod that could break through the true Qi protection of cultivators. Wasn't this a legendary divine weapon? Pinliang sure had gained a lot from this-it seemed like the everyday and every day sect thought highly of him, or rather, they thought highly of naipao, for naipao's sake!

Could it be that naipao had recovered? Lin Yi hadn't heard from naipao in a long time-he'd crippled him last time, could it be that he'd recovered and could continue training? Lin Yi's face turned serious at the thought-it seemed that he couldn't underestimate the everyday and every day sect. They were an ancient sect, after all, and they could even heal an injury like naipao 's.

Of course, this was just Lin Yi's guess from Zhong pinliang's situation. If Zhang naipao wasn't safe and sound, and couldn't continue his training, then he would be a cripple, and the everyday and every day sect wouldn't value him anymore.

"Zhang naipao's this strong now?" Lin Yi took a deep breath. He didn't say it, but he was worried-could he handle him? Although he was an Earth Class, he could still use a Sky Class skill.

"Yeah, Lin Yi, do you have a way to beat him?" Mengyao asked. Yushu could handle pinliang for a while, but not for long. If pinliang came after them, Lin Yi had to take care of him.

"It's hard to say," Lin Yi frowned,"I don't know much about the cicada underwear either. I'll ask Han xiaopo later. But don't mess with him yet. Just let Shu deal with him. We'll talk about it when I get back."

"Okay, I know. Shu can still buy us some time. It's not too urgent, so don't worry." Mengyao comforted.

"En, I know. I'll think of a way." Lin Yi said.

"Alright, I won't disturb you any longer. You ... Be careful!" Mengyao said.

"Hehe, alright." Lin Yi hung up the phone with a smile. The Miss still seemed to be a little worried in front of him. She cared about him more than before, but Lin Yi felt that something was missing. Was it passion? It seemed to be the case. The two of them seemed to be a little too polite and there was no passion between them.

Lin Yi turned around and left the room. He had two things to do at the moment. One was to exchange the turtle ice crystal for the blood of the earth element sky rank spirit beast from the Sky Class practitioner. The other was to find han xiaopo to study the Golden Cicada underwear.

"Boss," Han xiaopo saw Lin Yi through the peephole and quickly opened the door. He didn't think that Lin Yi would come to find him so quickly. As far as he was concerned, Lin Yi had to deal with yang Qiqi first, then deal with Yu Xiaoke. He probably didn't have a night's time.

Lin Yi walked into han xiaopo's room, and she closed the door behind her, "Boss, you've settled everything on your side?"

"Hehe, it's settled." "I have something to ask you," Lin Yi said with a smile.

"Boss, don't say that. If you have something to say, just say it. I'll definitely tell you everything I know!" Han xiaopo said quickly.

"It's about the Golden Cicada undergarments. You know about this, right?" Lin Yi asked.

"I know, didn't you win one at the Hidden House Summit, boss?" Han xiaopo nodded and said.

"I did win one, but it's a low grade Golden Cicada undergarments. It can only defend against attacks from cultivators below the earth rank." Lin Yi nodded and continued, "Do you know what the Golden Cicada undergarments are? they can defend against attacks from practitioners under the sky rank?"

"Oh? Boss, are you talking about the mid-grade Golden Cicada underwear? The middle-grade cicada undergarments can defend against attacks from those under Sky Class!" "But this thing is a treasure," han xiaopo said. "Only the powerful forgers of the ancient times and the heaven rank Golden Cicada can make it."

"Mid quality Golden Cicada undergarments ..." Lin Yi nodded and asked, ""It seems that there are also high-quality Golden Cicada undergarments?"

"It does exist in the legends. After wearing it, one will be invincible under the heavenly Dao. Of course, that's just a legend. Whether it exists or not, and who has it, I've never heard of it." Han xiaopo smiled bitterly. "After all, this thing is too heaven-defying. I reckon that if this treasure were to appear in the world, it would attract a storm of blood to fight for it!"

"Hmm ... That's true!" Lin Yi took in a deep breath of cold air.

Chapter 2504 Exchanging For Treasures

If such a thing really existed, wouldn't it be an invincible existence? Only the legendary wielder of the will could hurt the person wearing the top grade Golden Cicada underwear!

"Boss, why are you suddenly asking this?" "Could it be that someone has taken out this treasure to trade in this trade fair?" han xiaopo asked, feeling a little strange.

"No, I don 't. I have an old enemy who became a disciple of the everyday and every day sect and got a mid-quality Golden Cicada underwear. I don't know how to deal with him." Lin Yi didn't hide anything from her.

"Oh? Han xiaopo thought for a while, but could not think of too many things. He just shook his head and said, ""I've only heard of it, but I've never seen it. The hidden han family doesn't have any records of it ..."

"En, I'll think of another way." "I guess we'll have to ask old man Pi to help out if we really can 't." Lin Yi nodded.

If Lin Yi really couldn't beat pinliang, then he'd have to get Grandpa Pi to do it. He didn't have any other options at the moment.

"That's good too-Sky Class fighters are the best counter to mid-grade cicada undergarments. " Han xiaopo said.

"One more thing. How can we find the cultivators who set up stalls to trade during the day?" Lin Yi asked.

"Cultivators who set up stalls during the day? Boss, what do you want to trade?" Han xiaopo asked.

"It's the blood of that earth element heaven rank spiritual beast. " "You should remember, it's the thing that the cool girl in the black leather jacket and pants asked about," Lin Yi said.

"Oh, it's that thing!" Han xiaopo nodded. "We can only check at the service desk downstairs. Some traders will also record the items they want to trade when they register their room number. This is also to make their transactions hidden!" Some cultivators who aren't strong enough don't want to trade with others in public because they're afraid of being targeted ..."

"Then let's go take a look." Lin Yi said.

"Okay, but he might not be able to register ..." Han xiaopo said and left the room with Lin Yi.

"En, let's take a look first." Lin Yi was just trying-he'd think about it tomorrow if he couldn 't.

The two of them went downstairs together and came to the service desk in the hall on the first floor. Han xiaopo asked, ""Hello, I'd like to ask if there are any customers who would like to register and trade for the blood of an earth-type heaven rank spiritual beast?"

"Sir, please wait a moment. I'll check for you." The waiter said.

"Alright," he said. Han xiaopo nodded.

The waiter skillfully searched for the information of the item han xiaopo was talking about on the computer, then said, ""Yes, there's information about the Registrar's level."

"Then can we go to him to trade?" Han xiaopo asked.

"Wait a moment, I'll ask." As he spoke, the waiter dialed an internal phone number. After getting an affirmative answer from the other side, he said to han xiaopo, ""Sure, but please show me your room card information first. I need to register."

Han xiaopo and Lin Yi took out their room cards and handed them to the waiter. The purpose of this was to ensure the safety of the transaction process. If there was any dispute, they could find the person.

After the waiter had registered, he said to han xiaopo, ""The trader is waiting for you in room 4109. Please take the elevator this way!"

"Thank you!" Han xiaopo and Lin Yi took back their room cards and took the elevator up.

The two stopped in front of room 4109, and Lin Yi knocked on the door. The Sky Class practitioner's voice came from inside, "Please enter!"

Lin Yi and han xiaopo pushed the door open and walked in. It seemed that the Sky Class practitioner was already prepared to welcome the guests. He had a tea set on the table and hot water was ready as well.

"Please take a seat. Do you want to trade for the blood of an earth element heaven rank spiritual beast?" The Sky Class practitioner pointed at the sofa on the side and got straight to the point. He was a Sky Class master, and naturally wasn't afraid of Lin Yi and han xiaopo. There were only a few Sky Class Masters at the trade fair, and he knew them all.

"Not bad." Lin Yi nodded and sat on the sofa with han xiaopo.

"Please have some tea!" The Sky Class master pointed at the tea set on the table, but didn't have the intention of pouring tea for Lin Yi and han xiaopo. It was no wonder, though-he was a Sky Class master, and it was normal for him to have a high and mighty attitude,"Since the two of you are here, I believe you know my rules? I only want to trade for something from a water element heaven rank spiritual beast. "

The Sky Class didn't reveal that Lin Yi and han xiaopo were the ones who had been with Qiqi during the day-he'd been paying attention to her all day, and didn't really remember them. After all, there were a lot of practitioners who'd come and look at his stuff, and he couldn't remember every single one of them-he only remembered Qiqi, who was interested in making a deal with him.

"Not bad." Lin Yi nodded again,"but, you used the blood of an earth element sky rank spirit beast to exchange for something from a water element sky rank spirit beast. It seems like an Equal Exchange, but you're actually asking for something from someone else. Shouldn't you pay more?"

"Hehe, since you've come to me for an exchange, then this earth element heaven rank spiritual beast's blood should be useful to you, right? How can you say that I have a favor to ask of you?" The Sky Class practitioner wasn't stupid, and smiled.

"To tell you the truth, I'm only earth Class mid phase peak, and my friend is only earth Class early phase. We're a fire-element practitioner and a wood-element practitioner." Lin Yi said as he performed the first style of the wild fire Fist to prove his words.

Han xiaopo, on the other hand, naturally followed up with a wood element skill to prove Lin Yi's words.

"Oh ..." The Sky Class practitioner went silent after seeing Lin Yi and han xiaopo's practitioner's Arts and strength. Lin Yi was right-the blood of an earth element Sky Class spirit beast really wasn't that useful to the two of them.

"To be honest, I'm just an opportunist." "I have something from a water element heaven rank spirit beast, but I don't need it. I can't use it, so I'm here to trade with you to get more benefits."

"What? You really have one?" The Sky Class practitioner stood up and looked at Lin Yi in surprise. He'd been searching for something from a water element Sky Class beast for many years now, and hearing that Lin Yi had it made him extremely happy.

"I've come here and said these words, so naturally I did. " Lin Yi said with a smile.

"I see ..." The sky rank cultivator slowly nodded,""Since you've already made it very clear that you want to get more benefits, then I won't haggle with you. Can I take a look at your goods first? As long as it's something I need, everything is fine!"

Chapter 2505 Another Spirit Beast Inner Core

"That's no problem at all. " Lin Yi reached into his pocket and took out the small bottle with the ice crystal. He gave it to the Sky Class practitioner and said, "It's here. "

The Sky Class practitioner took a deep breath and carefully took the bottle from Lin Yi's hands. He opened it and was instantly overjoyed! That's right, he could feel the powerful water attribute energy contained in the small bottle!

This was exactly what he had been dreaming of. He was so excited that his hands were trembling. He had finally found it! With it, he could modify the attributes of divine weapons!

Resisting the urge to snatch it away, the Sky Class practitioner carefully closed the bottle and placed it on the table, "Since you've already stated your conditions, then I'll be honest with you. My things are all here. You can take any one of them, plus the blood of an earth-type heaven rank spiritual beast!"

With that, the Sky Class practitioner opened up a bag and placed it in front of Lin Yi. The small bottle with the earth element Sky Class blood was in it as well! It wasn't that the Sky Class didn't want to take Lin Yi's stuff, but the purpose of the practitioner's market was to ensure fairness and fairness in the trade. If something went wrong, the practitioner's trade association would definitely look into it. He was a Sky Class, but there were even stronger Sky Class Masters in the Association!

Moreover, the thing he had been searching for for so many years had finally appeared, and he didn't want to cause any more trouble. In any case, the blood of an earth-type heaven rank spirit beast was of little value to him, so he didn't mind exchanging it.

In fact, even if he wanted to take it, Lin Yi wasn't afraid of him. Since Lin Yi dared to come, he was confident that he could escape unscathed.

"Spirit beast inner core?" Lin Yi said, surprised as he looked at the round bead in the bag.

"Oh? You want this thing?" The Sky Class practitioner looked at Lin Yi, surprised, "This is the inner core of the earth-type heaven rank spiritual beast. When I found it, it had just been killed by the enemy's spiritual beast. I took a bottle of blood and took out its inner core."

"Then you only took one bottle of blood? Where are the other things?" Lin Yi asked, a little disappointed.

"When it was killed by its enemy, the spirit beast, its blood was almost drained dry. I took a lot of effort to get a small bottle." The Sky Class looked at Lin Yi with a bitter smile. "Do you think I wouldn't have brought more back? Also, there's nothing special on it ..."

"I see." "Then I'll take this core and the bottle of earth element blood from a sky rank spirit beast." Lin Yi nodded.

"Alright, deal!" The Sky Class practitioner agreed readily-the neidan was of no use to him.

"Alright," he said. Lin Yi picked up the small bottle and the core, standing up with han xiaopo, ""Since the deal is done, we'll be leaving!"

"I won't send you off." The Sky Class practitioner nodded and impatiently picked up the bottle of turtle ice crystal Lin Yi gave him, studying it.

Lin Yi smiled and left the room with han xiaopo, walking back to their own rooms ...

"Boss, you exchanged this for ... That cool girl?" Han xiaopo was a little surprised by Lin Yi's actions, not knowing why he did it.

"Yeah." Lin Yi nodded, "he wants this to treat someone else's illness ... And ..."

Lin Yi's heart skipped a beat! Qiqi was going to treat little 9th, but little 9th? Lin Yi suddenly thought of someone!

Could it be her? The hacker Princess? He remembered that Qiqi was an assassin from the butterfly Castle, and the hacker Princess was from the butterfly Castle too. She also had a pet name, Xiao Jiu, and was also sick ... Was Qiqi really looking for something to cure her?

Lin Yi felt that the possibility of this happening was high-it was too much of a coincidence ... This meant that he wasn't just helping Qiqi, he was helping an old friend! The thought of the hacker Princess gave Lin Yi a headache ...

He hadn't contacted her for a long time. Would she be angry if he contacted her again? After some thought, Lin Yi decided against calling her to get to the bottom of things. It didn't matter if it was her or not, Lin Yi would just have another reason to help Qiqi.

"I see ... But boss, you're really too kind. Just because of this, you want to give the blood of an earth-type heaven rank spiritual beast to that cool girl for free ..." Han xiaopo said sincerely.

"You little brat, you're taking advantage of me so that I'll treat you well and help you level up. Can't I give others something?" Lin Yi said with a smile.

"Haha, of course not ..." Han xiaopo suddenly felt a little embarrassed.

"Let's go back and rest. I don't think there's anything else to do today." Lin Yi said.

The night passed without a word, and the next morning, Lin Yi saw the neatly dressed han xiaopo and Yu Xiaoke at his room door, as well as a Haggard yang Qiqi with red eyes. It was obvious that she didn't sleep well last night, and she was glaring at Yu Xiaoke the whole time before Lin Yi left the room. If looks could kill, Yu Xiaoke would be dead already.

Xiaoke, on the other hand, didn't even care about Qiqi. She pitied her, but she wasn't a generous person. This girl wanted to steal Lin Yi's stuff, and she didn't have a reason to do so. So Yu Xiaoke didn't even look at her, making Qiqi's eyes useless.

Qiqi couldn't find anything to vent her anger on, so she turned to Lin Yi with angry eyes. However, Lin Yi seemed to ignore her and nodded to han xiaopo, ""What time does the auction start?"

"Nineo' clock. Shall we go get something to eat now?" Han xiaopo asked.

"Alright," he said. Lin Yi said.

Qiqi didn't know that Lin Yi had let her steal the blue crystal on purpose-she thought that the whole thing had been exposed. Lin Yi didn't say anything, but she knew that her chances were slim. She didn't know why she was following him.

Was she planning to steal the blue crystal again, or was she planning to kill Lin Yi to get back at him for humiliating her? Qiqi's mind was a mess-it was a mess, like a zombie as she followed Lin Yi to the restaurant.

Lin Yi ordered four portions of breakfast, and Qiqi sat there, not rejecting anything. She finished her own portion, but remained silent.

Han xiaopo didn't say anything. He knew that Lin Yi had gotten what Qiqi needed back, but if Lin Yi didn't say anything, han xiaopo wouldn't say anything. He thought that Lin Yi wanted to teach Qiqi a lesson.

In fact, Lin Yi didn't mean to teach Qiqi a lesson, but he didn't want to be too nice to her with you Xiaoke here!

Chapter 2506 Surprise

Yu Xiaoke was already interested in the male thief, and if he cared too much about yang Qiqi, Yu Xiaoke would be sad.

And so, Lin Yi decided to return it to Qiqi when no one was around.

After the four of them finished their breakfast, they walked towards the auction venue. There weren't many people who entered the auction venue, only about a hundred or so people. It seemed that many of the people who had participated in the city square didn't come to the auction. These people were still keen on setting up stalls and trading with goods.

The items for auction were all written on the bulletin board outside the auction hall. Of course, there were some people who gave up on the auction because they didn't have anything they liked.

At this moment, Lin Yi, han xiaopo, and the others were standing under the announcement board, carefully looking at the auction items on the board.

There was no doubt that there would be a lot of pills for sale in this auction, some of which were provided by Lin Yi, and the rest should be provided by the Hidden House you. The number was about the same as Lin Yi 's, but there were some other uses for the first and second class pills.

Lin Yi skimmed through the names of the elixirs, his eyes finally stopping on the "pure yellow jade." This auction really did have pure yellow jade for sale. It seemed like han xiaopo's information was true! In fact, every time the cultivator trade association auctioned something in the market, they would leak some information in advance. It was not a big deal for han xiaopo to know in advance.

Lin Yi and the others entered the auction hall and found an empty spot to sit down. Han xiaopo was about to sit next to Lin Yi when she saw that Yu Xiaoke was already on one side of Lin Yi, and yang Qiqi was about to sit on the other!

Han xiaopo smiled bitterly, then sat down beside Qiqi.

At around 8:50 pm, almost everyone was here. The Sky Class vice Guild Master Lin Yi met at the entrance of the market walked up the stage with the pawnshop Mister.

The heaven rank Vice President sat down at the side, but the pawnshop Mister stood up straight and stood beside the Vice President. He picked up the microphone and spoke to the cultivators below the stage, "Welcome to the auction organized by the cultivator trade association. I am Lu Xiansheng, and people call me Mr. Lu. I am also the auctioneer for this auction."

It was obvious that the crowd wasn't surprised by Lu Xiansheng's decision to be the auctioneer. They could tell that he had always been the host of the auction. Although it was Lin Yi's first time, they had met before when they were auctioning the pills, so they didn't find it strange.

"Alright, since no one has any objections, let's begin the auction!" Lu Xiansheng said, "according to the rules of previous auctions, the first item to be auctioned is the elixir from the hidden you family. This is also the item that takes up a large proportion of the auction items every time!" However, today's pills didn't all come from the hidden right family. Another seller also put some pills up for auction!"

"Wow ..." The moment Lu Xiansheng's words left his mouth, the entire place was in an uproar. Everyone was shocked. Which sect or family had the ability to provide the cultivator trade association with pills? Could it be the sky elixir sect? However, although the sky elixir sect also provided elixirs to the cultivator trade association, they only provided some high-grade elixirs. Moreover, they were very few in number. They would not put them up for auction in this low-level city square. Instead, they would put them up for auction in other large-scale cultivator auctions.

This low-end elixir business had always been monopolized by the Hidden House of the right. Even if the sky elixir sect refined these low-end elixirs, it was handed over to the Hidden House of the right for auction. As for the other sects and families, I've never heard of anyone who could refine a large number of elixirs.

Below the stage, a young man raised his eyebrows and looked at Lu Xiansheng unhappily. This man was from the Hidden House you, and he was the one who arrogantly opened the way for the short Sky Class master at the practitioner's market.

"However, you don't have to be surprised. According to my appraisal, the quality and color of the pills provided by the other seller are no worse than the quality of the pills provided by the hidden right family. They are even more balanced, and there is no difference in quality between each pill." Lu Xiansheng had thrown out another bombshell!

"What!" The cultivators below the stage immediately exclaimed after hearing this! As everyone knew, although the Hidden House of you was an alchemy family, and many of the earth-class elixirs were made by the sky elixir sect, not to mention that these elixirs were made by different alchemists, even the same Alchemist couldn't guarantee that the quality would be the same every time!

If he was in a good state, the quality of the pill would be excellent. If he was not in a good state, the quality of the pill would be slightly worse! Forming pills was the most basic requirement. However, after forming pills, the quality of the color would still be different. However, every auction was a mixed auction, and it was impossible for the auctioneer to choose. They would randomly bid for good or bad pills. It could only be decided based on one's character and luck.

But now, Lu Xiansheng was saying that there was no difference in quality between the pills provided by the new seller. What did this mean? How awesome was The Alchemist to be able to do this? Not even the sky elixir sect's old forefather could do it, right?

Unless it was ancestor Xuan Tian, who was once famous in the pugilistic world, perhaps only the Holy Doctor Zhang Liju could do it. Now, someone could actually refine pills of the same quality?

"Don't be so surprised, everyone. I'd like to add that each of these pills is of the highest quality! There's no need to try your luck or bet on your luck. Just buy it and you can bring the pill home!" They had to admit that Lu Xiansheng's words were very provocative, and many people present were tempted after listening to them!

However, the face of the young man from the Hidden House of you was even uglier! In the past, the hidden you family had been the backbone of every auction. They were very happy to see their elixirs being bought by cultivators at a high price!

But this time, there was an unforeseen event, and it was the young man and his granddaughter's turn to be responsible for the problem. He was naturally extremely unhappy.

"They're all of the highest quality. Heh, it's fine if the price is a little higher!" A cultivator sitting below the stage suddenly said.

"Nonsense, the price will definitely be high. Everyone knows that it's of the best quality, so they will naturally pay a higher price." Another cultivator immediately said.

It was just that Lin Yi felt that these two were the Association's underlings, but it didn't matter. The situation was in Lin Yi's favor, and he wasn't stupid enough to question them!

Chapter 2507 I Don't Believe It!

Although some people thought that the two people who suddenly spoke might have been hired, they were right. It was reasonable for the price of the best Pills to be higher.

"I don't believe it! It's impossible for anyone to have better pills than us. You should know that the sky elixir sect provided all the pills this time. Are you saying that someone else provided better pills than the sky elixir sect?" The young man finally couldn't help but stand up and ask.

In the past auctions, the representative of the hidden you family would always receive the admiration of many other cultivators, but this time, the same situation didn't happen to the young man. For this auction, he had coaxed and pestered his grandfather for a long time before he could attend. In order to enjoy the admiration of others, he had practiced acting tough for a few days and was ready to say a few words when everyone was buying the elixir. Now that he couldn't use it, he was suddenly angry.

"The right disc is high. If you don't believe me, you can come and appraise it." Lu Xiansheng glanced at the young man and said indifferently, ""You're welcome!"

"This ..." The young man hesitated. His grandfather was a guest elder of the you family. Because he was a Sky Class, he was allowed to learn alchemy from the you family. He was also given the name "pan" and was now considered a first grade Alchemist. Although his alchemy skills were not satisfactory, he still had the ability to distinguish the color of the pills. So when Lu Xiansheng made this suggestion, he really wanted to test it out! He really didn't believe that someone's alchemy level was so high, and he knew the source of this batch of you family's elixirs. It was sent by the sky elixir sect, so even if someone's alchemy level surpassed the hidden you family, it couldn't be higher than the sky elixir sect, right?

"Hehe, if you don't come and appraise it, then our auction will continue." Lu Xiansheng said with a smile. He didn't want to offend the Hidden House you. After all, Lin Yi's high-quality pills might not be available in the future, so the business between the practitioner's trade association and the Hidden House you had to continue. What he said before was only to get a good price for these pills. First, he wanted to show his goodwill to Lin Yi and see if they could work together in the long term. Second, he wanted to earn more commission.

"Alright, since Mr. Lu has invited me, I'll be the appraiser for everyone!" Yu Pan Gao made his decision in an instant. He stood up and slowly walked up to the stage.

No one objected to Yu Pan Gao's actions. After all, it was only Mr. Lu who had praised himself before. After the auction ended, they could not go back to settle the score. After all, the concept of quality of the pills was too vague, and whatever others said made sense.

Of course, you Pan Gao dared to go up the stage because his grandfather, the short robber, wasn't here. The short robber was actually here to guard the place and bring the pills here safely. He spent the rest of the time cultivating in his room and left everything to his grandson to handle.

If the short robber was here, Yu Pan Gao wouldn't have stepped onto the stage so easily. He would have to act more proper.

"It's here. Mr. Gao, please appraise it for us." Lu Xiansheng pushed a pile of small bottles to the right side of the table, indicating that he could take a few out to examine.

Yu Pan Gao didn't stand on ceremony as he picked up a small bottle and opened it. Inside was a small Qi gathering pill. Although he couldn't refine it, he was very familiar with it. Yu Pan Gao's expression changed the moment he saw it!

This small Qi gathering pill was perfectly round, its color was even and full, and there were two faint lines on it, proving that it was a second-grade pill! These were the characteristics of Supreme-grade pills, so you Pan Gao naturally recognized them!

And of the pills he sent, only a few could reach this quality. The others were either uneven in color, or oval in shape, or had no texture. Of course, these only affected the final effect of the pill, but it was not without effect, so in other words, the effect was just a little worse.

It must have been a fluke! Yu Pan Gao thought to himself, he had just touched the best one, but the others might not be as good. So he quickly picked up another small bottle and opened it to check, but his face changed again!

This was only a small Qi gathering pill, and its quality was almost the same as the previous one. They were both of the highest quality. You Pan Gao took a deep breath, put down the small bottle in his hand, and opened another bottle that was further away. This time, there was a small reversion pill in it, but it was still of the highest quality!

Impossible, it was definitely impossible. You Pan Gao's movements became faster and faster. He had opened almost half of the small bottles in front of him, but they were all of the best quality! You Pan Gao was panting heavily and his eyes were wide open, filled with shock and disbelief.

"What do you think, Mr. Gao? Is it time to announce the results of your test?" Lu Xiansheng laughed.

"This ..." You Pan Gao hesitated for a moment, but he didn't dare to speak carelessly in this situation. He could only bite the bullet and say, ""Not bad, they are all Supreme grade pills ..."

In fact, everyone had already guessed this result from you Pan Gao's previous expression. It was just that when you Pan Gao said it, everyone was convinced. These cultivators didn't care about the face of the hidden you family. They just wanted to buy better things that were more useful to them. Therefore, each and every one of them was eager to participate in the auction.

"Hehe, Mr. Gao, thank you for your appraisal. You can go back now." Lu Xiansheng made an inviting gesture and then said to everyone, ""Alright, let's start the auction!"

You Pan Gao walked back to his seat gloomily, and the auction officially began!

As expected, the elixirs that Lin Yi sent over were sold for an average price of fifteen million, while the Hidden House you's elixirs were still at the same price of ten million, no more and no less.

However, although the price didn't decrease, you Pan Gao's face was filled with jealousy. Someone had stolen the hidden you family's business. In the past auctions, the hidden you family's elixirs were always in high demand. But this time, no one bid at the end of the auction. Obviously, everyone who wanted to buy the elixir had bought it. Seeing that the situation wasn't right, Lu Xiansheng had no choice but to sell the rest of the elixir.

Lin Yi's purpose here was for the pure yellow jade. The other items weren't of much use to him, so he closed his eyes to rest while the others were auctioning. He'd only focus when the pure yellow jade started.

Chapter 2508 Price Rises

"The next item to be auctioned is pure yellow jade!" Lu Xiansheng took a small box from a disciple and opened it in front of everyone. He revealed the contents and said, "I don't need to explain the use of the pure yellow jade. Everyone knows that pure jade is something that must be used to modify heaven grade weapons. This piece of pure yellow jade is not small, and the starting price is ten million. Alright, let the bidding begin!"

Lin Yi's eyes immediately lit up. Although Lu Xiansheng described how big the Jade was, it was in fact not that big. It was only the size of a fist. However, the market price of this kind of pure jade was high to begin with. Ten million was really not a lot!

Of course, the auction couldn't be closed at the starting price, especially in a place like this. Someone made a bid before Lin Yi even made one!

"15 million!" A cultivator raised the number plate in his hand and said.

Lin Yi followed the voice-it was the Sky Class practitioner who'd traded the ice crystal! After he returned, he was obviously going to modify his weapon. It was reasonable to bid for the pure yellow jade at this time. It was not a rare thing.

But Lin Yi was secretly regretting it-if he'd known this guy was coming, he'd wait until the auction was over to trade with him. He wouldn't have the passion to bid for a piece of pure yellow jade before getting the ice crystal.

"Twenty million!" Another voice rang out, and it was Yu Pan Gao!

Lin Yi wasn't expecting this to be so popular, even Yu panggao?

" 21 million." Another skinny and tall cultivator made a bid, but the increase in his bid was not as fierce as the previous two.

" 25 million." The sky rank cultivator bid again.

"Thirty million!" Yu panggao also raised his hand to bid.

" 31 million." The tall and thin man hesitated for a moment, then also reported his own price.

The price of this piece of yellow jade was increasing rapidly, even faster than the previous auction items. In the blink of an eye, it had already exceeded 30 million, and it seemed like the price was still increasing!

A smile appeared on Lu Xiansheng's face. This was the situation that he was most happy to see. The auction house wasn't afraid of people bidding. What they were afraid of was that no one would bid for the item! The same pure-colored jade had also appeared in previous auctions. However, sometimes, it was sold at a low price of more than 10 million Yuan. This made Lu Xiansheng's heart bleed!

One must know that a pure-colored jade could be sold for a similar price in the jewelry market, let alone in an auction for cultivators.

However, this thing was just a coincidence. Lu Xiansheng also understood that when no one was buying it, no matter how good the item was, it wasn't money. When someone was buying it, even if the item wasn't valuable, it was still money!

" 35 million!" The sky rank practitioner raised the price again.

" 50 million!" You Pan Gao looked at the Sky Class practitioner impatiently. He knew that this person was a Sky Class practitioner, but as far as he was concerned, how could a solo practitioner be a match for the Hidden House of you? Therefore, Yu danggao directly bid a high price of 50 million.

The sky-rank practitioner seemed to be very angry when he heard the high price, but he was a sky-rank rogue practitioner. Although he didn't rely on any family or sect, he made a lot of money as a bodyguard of a rich businessman. He also occasionally took on some international bounty hunting missions, so he had a lot of savings.

" 60 million!" The Sky Class once again stated his price. If he wasn't in urgent need of Jade to make weapons, he wouldn't have spent sixty million on these things. Wouldn't that mean he had no place to spend his money?

The tall and thin man was stunned. He had never thought that a pure yellow jade could be raised to a high price of sixty million. This was beyond the limit of what he could bear in his heart. So he shook his head, put down the sign in his hand, and gave up bidding.

However, Yu Pan Gao did not give up. He did not know what other people were using this piece of pure yellow jade for, but he was determined to get it! Because this was a mission given by old master you, and it seemed to be related to the sky elixir sect ...

"Eighty million!" Yu Pan Gao exploded in anger. Why was this person snatching from him? Can't you just buy anything? Why must you snatch this thing from me?

" 100 million!" The Sky Class practitioner was also anxious. He didn't have to buy it, but the opportunity had come. If he gave up and went back to look for pure jade, it wouldn't be worth it. So he also called out a sky-high price. If it worked, it worked. If it didn't work, he could only give up. After all, he wasn't as strong as the Hidden House of you.

"One hundred and ten million!" Yu Pan Gao continued to increase the bid. No matter what, he was determined to get this piece of pure yellow jade!

The Sky Class practitioner reluctantly gave up and put his card on the table, not continuing to bid.

Although Lu Xiansheng felt that it was a pity that no one continued to bid, it was already rare for a piece of pure yellow jade to be sold for more than 100 million Yuan. In the last auction, a piece of pure purple jade was only sold for 32 million Yuan, which was not even one-third of the price this time.

" 110 million going once ..." Lu Xiansheng started to bid.

" 120 million." Lin Yi raised his sign-the price was way out of his expectations. If it weren't for the three hundred million he'd gotten from selling the pills, he wouldn't even have the money to buy them if he still had two hundred million left.

"Gah!" You Pan Gao didn't think that the Sky Class practitioner wouldn't compete with him anymore, but someone else appeared out of nowhere and started competing with him! His face turned extremely ugly as he turned to Lin Yi, wanting to see if Lin Yi was a prop for the auction.

Lin Yi didn't bother with Yu gangao and sat down after reporting his price.

"One hundred and thirty million!" Yu Pan Gao probed unwillingly.

"One hundred and thirty-one million." Lin Yi had money, but he couldn't just spend it like that. Wouldn't it be better to give the extra money to Yu Xiaoke to develop the orphanage?

F * ck! Yu Penggao heard Lin Yi's way of bidding and was enraged. Who the hell increased the price like that? Is it fun? Although each bid could be at least one million, in fact, when the price of an item reached a certain level, no one would do that. This was equivalent to deliberately making things difficult for others.

"150 million!" Yu danggao glared at Lin Yi.

"One hundred and fifty one million." Lin Yi said faintly, but he was a little anxious. Although he made a lot of money on elixirs, he shouldn't squander it like this. In the blink of an eye, he had already earned 150 million. Although the materials belonged to house you and it wasn't a big cost, it was basically a one-shot deal. It was impossible to expect to get more materials from house you.

Chapter 2509 Speechless

"180 million. The hidden you family wants this pure yellow jade!" Yu Pan raised his board and looked at Lu Xiansheng! Yu gangao's intention was already very clear. He wanted Lu Xiansheng to make the final decision as soon as possible. He had already given the cultivators trade association enough face by calling out 180 million. He had increased the price from 150 million to 100 million by nearly 30 million!

Lu Xiansheng laughed bitterly in his heart. He didn't expect to face these two people in the end. One was from the hidden you family, and the other was the other bidder of the pills. He really didn't know how to choose. If it was any other time, he would give you face and make the final decision. But now, doing so was equivalent to offending a potential big supplier of the cultivators 'trade association.

"181 million." Lin Yi frowned. If this continued, he wouldn't be Yu Gangan's match. The Hidden House you had money!

"Kid, it seems that you deliberately want to make things difficult for our hidden you family?" Yu Penggao stood up and glared at Lin Yi, enraged. "I've already said that the Hidden House of you is going to take this pure yellow jade!"

"What a joke!" Lin Yi said coldly, "the auction rules state that the highest bidder gets it. I've never heard of someone saying that the item is mine and no one will bid for it!" However, if you insist that I'm going against your hidden house of you, then so be it. "

"You ..." You Pan Gao glared at Lin Yi, his chest heaving up and down. After a while, he said to Lu Xiansheng, "" 200 million! Kid, if you're smart, you'll give this to me. "

" 201 million." Lin Yi raised the board with his right hand, but his left hand didn't stop. He flicked a small stone he picked up from the ground, shooting it at Yu Pan Gao who wasn't too far away! The bid on the right-hand side was two hundred million high, and Lin Yi couldn't let him continue. He wouldn't have the money to pay if he continued.

So after much thought, this was the only way Lin Yi could come up with. He'd seal the man's acupuncture point to stop him from speaking, and then let Lu Xiansheng make the final decision.

"Two ..." Yu pangao wanted to continue bidding, but he suddenly realized that he couldn't speak! He may be a practitioner, but he was a practitioner of the arts of an elixir refiner, so he wasn't as alert. He didn't expect Lin Yi to attack him with a stone, so he didn't use his Qi to protect himself. The stone hit his acupuncture point, and he couldn't speak.

You Pan Gao's mouth was wide open in shock, but he couldn't say a word!

"Mr. Lu, since there's no more bidding on the right plate, can we drop the hammer now?" Lin Yi asked Lu Xiansheng.

Although Lu Xiansheng was curious as to why Yu Pan Gao had stopped bidding, he still followed the rules of the auction and asked, "" 201 million going once ... 201 million going twice ..."

"Ha ... Ha ..." Yu Pan Gao wanted to say something, but he couldn't. It was extremely difficult.

The heaven rank Vice President looked at Yu Panhu and frowned. However, Lin Yi did it more discreetly-he'd sent out the stone at the same time as he made his bid. Everyone's attention was on him at the time, so naturally, no one paid attention to Yu Pan Gao. Even the Vice President of the Sky Class Association didn't notice this detail!

It wasn't that he didn't notice it, but he didn't pay attention to it at all. He was only here to control the auction. In his opinion, it was impossible for anyone to cause trouble at the auction, so it was even more impossible for him to pay attention to everyone in the auction hall all the time.

Moreover, striking acupoints was only a legendary martial arts technique. Most cultivators had only heard of it, but had never seen it or used it, so no one thought about it in this way.

" 201 million going thrice, sold!" Lu Xiansheng raised his small hammer and slammed it down. ""Congratulations to the winner. After the auction is over, come to me to complete the procedures."

"Wait ... I'll bid ..." Not long after Lu Xiansheng finished speaking, Yu Pan Gao opened his mouth again, ""I bid 210 million! You can't sell it to him!"

"I'm sorry, but I've already gotten it. " Lin Yi said mockingly as he looked at him. "What were you doing earlier?"

"I ... I couldn't speak earlier!" Yu Pan Gao also felt that this was a bit strange. Why couldn't he speak all of a sudden? In fact, Lin Yi's timing was perfect-he controlled the strength of the pressure so that Yu gangao would be able to speak for a short while and return to normal after that. It wouldn't attract too much suspicion.

"A gentleman can't blame others. You can't say anything. Who do you blame?" Lin Yi glanced at him and turned away.

Although the situation was a little strange, Lu Xiansheng didn't have the time to study the right plate height so that the auction could proceed as planned. He immediately moved on to the next treasure.

You Pan Gao, on the other hand, glared at Lin Yi with hatred. "It doesn't matter what the reason was," he thought to himself. "You didn't do anything to it, but I'm definitely going to get this Jade. I'll let you have it for a while, and it'll still end up in my hands. I'll save a lot of money!"

You Pan Gao had already made up his mind to snatch it and was prepared to let his grandfather make his move once the auction was over.

He didn't know what this pure yellow jade was used for. He only knew that this pure yellow jade was something the hidden you family was determined to get. If something went wrong, it would be difficult for him and his grandfather to explain to the family! Especially after their grandfather had just failed a mission, they were even more eager to make a contribution to wash away the humiliation!

Of course, the failure of the previous task wasn't his grandfather's fault. The enemy was too strong, and his grandfather couldn't do anything about it. After the hidden you family knew the reason, they didn't say anything, but his grandfather felt a little embarrassed.

The task of this auction was simple and easy. He had thought that it would be completed very smoothly. Who would have thought that someone else would interfere?

Lin Yi didn't pay much attention to the auction since there wasn't anything he wanted. Time flew by, and the auction ended in a blink of an eye. Lin Yi stood up and walked to the inner room at the back of the auction hall to settle the pills and Jade he bought.

Most people at the trade fair didn't want to reveal their names and identities, especially when cultivators were around. So, except for a few people who swiped their cards, most people carried large suitcases filled with Switzerland Francs to trade.

It seemed that this was a long-standing rule. The exchange rate of Switzerland Francs was relatively high, and the face value of banknotes was relatively large, so it was used as the currency used by the cultivators 'trade association.

Chapter 2510 Qiqi's Disappointment

Lin Yi walked in front of Lu Xiansheng according to his number plate.

"Oh ... You have items for auction and also items for auction. Shall we settle the bill together?" Lu Xiansheng asked after looking at Lin Yi's number.

"Let's settle the bill together. " Lin Yi said.

"Alright," he said. Lu Xiansheng nodded and started calculating. He was a bit vague, only saying what Lin Yi was auctioning and not what he was auctioning, so no one would suspect anything. After all, there were so many things being auctioned at the same time, who knew what Lin Yi was auctioning?

Lu Xiansheng calculated Lin Yi's bill and realized that he still owed him nearly 40 million, which was more than 6 million Switzerland Francs. "Do you want to transfer or cash?"

"Cash," Lin Yi said. He didn't want to reveal his true identity yet. As for the matter of refining pills, it was better to hide it as late as possible. With the relationship between house you and the practitioner's trade association, it wouldn't be hard to get Lin Yi's information, so Lin Yi tried not to leave any information related to him, like his bank account number!

Lin Yi had an anonymous account overseas, but he'd used it many times. He'd told people that it wasn't hard to contact him if they wanted to.

"Alright," he said. Lu Xiansheng passed Lin Yi a piece of paper and the pure yellow jade he got from the auction, "You can go to the counter over there to get the cash."

"Many thanks!" Lin Yi took the note and put the Jade away carefully. He went to another window and handed the note to the disciple. The disciple took a look at it and went to the inner room to prepare. Not long later, he came back with a leather case and gave it to Lin Yi. "Sir, your money is here. You can count it."

"No need." Lin Yi took the suitcase and walked towards the door. The size of the suitcase was fixed-even if it was only ten thousand Switzerland Francs, the practitioner's trade association would use a big suitcase for the sake of secrecy. People wouldn't be able to tell how much money was in the suitcase just by looking at it, and they wouldn't be able to guess what the bidder was auctioning.

Lin Yi, naturally, wasn't stupid enough to count the total on the spot-that'd be confessing without a fight. If someone added the price up based on the price of the yellow jade, it wouldn't be hard to imagine the total amount of the pills. Besides, Lin Yi didn't believe that the practitioner's trade association would lie about this.

Lu Xiansheng didn't think much of it, but the Sky Class vice president's eyes lit up when he saw Lin Yi leave. He didn't tell Lu Xiansheng his plan. After all, although the practitioner's trade association was strong, it was still a fair and just organization. Lu Xiansheng was a relatively upright person. Although his position wasn't as high as the Vice President 's, he was the chief auctioneer and appraiser of the market. His position in the practitioner's trade association was still above the rest. Even if they didn't give him face, he couldn't do anything to them!

This was a special talent of the cultivators trade association. Even the president would be polite to him.

And what the Vice President wanted to do was against the morals of the Association. His disciple was killed for trying to get a bribe, so it didn't make sense for him to seek revenge. If the Vice President knew about this, he wouldn't let him off easily. Especially if the other vice presidents knew about this, he would lose a layer of skin. So, the Vice President didn't have any intention of telling Lu Xiansheng.

After Lin Yi left, the Sky Class vice president found an excuse and left the office as well. He needed to plan how he'd ambush Lin Yi at the foot of the mountain ...

After Lin Yi left his seat, a lot of people got ready to take their positions. Qiqi saw that the Sky Class practitioner was getting up and ready to leave-she hesitated a bit, but quickly followed after him, "Senior, please wait!"

"Oh? It's you!" The Sky Class practitioner turned around and saw yang Qiqi-he had some impression of her. She was the little girl who wanted to use the blue crystal to exchange for the blood of an earth element Sky Class spirit beast.

"Senior, my blue crystal ... I don't have it with me at the moment, but don't worry. I'll definitely get it as soon as I get home and then exchange it with you. Please don't exchange the earth element heaven rank spiritual beast's blood with anyone else, I beg you!" Qiqi said sincerely to the Sky Class.

Lin Yi had taken the blue crystal, but Qiqi knew that there would be another blue crystal for sale at an auction abroad soon. She'd do her best to get another blue crystal and trade it with the Sky Class.

"Hehe, little girl, I'm sorry. I've already exchanged the earth element heaven rank spiritual beast's blood." The Sky Class practitioner turned to Qiqi. "That's why I can't exchange with you anymore. "

"Ah? What!" Qiqi's face went pale at the words. "You've already exchanged it? How was this possible? How could this be ..."

"Just last night, someone took what I needed and exchanged it with me. I couldn't refuse." "So, little girl, there's nothing I can do," the Sky Class practitioner said.

"Ah? What did he exchange with you?" Qiqi asked quickly.

"It's what I need, a water element heaven rank spiritual beast's item. " The Sky Class practitioner said.

"Then ... Can you tell me who was the one who exchanged the earth element heaven rank spiritual beast's blood?" Qiqi had no choice but to ask for the next best thing.

"I can't do that. This involves my personal privacy. I can't disclose his identity without his consent." The Sky Class practitioner shook his head, thinking, isn't he the one sitting next to you and fighting with you panggao for the pure yellow jade?

But he couldn't say that-Lin Yi and Qiqi seemed to know each other, and they were even sitting together, but that only made the Sky Class feel even more suspicious. The two of them were sitting together, and Lin Yi didn't tell Qiqi the truth-wasn't he trying to hide it? So, the Sky Class wouldn't be the bad guy and reveal these things.

On the contrary, he was very grateful to Lin Yi for giving him what he needed. In the competition for the pure yellow jade, Lin Yi had won over Yu Pan by a head, allowing him to vent his anger! He didn't have any ill feelings towards Lin Yi because he'd joined the competition later, and the sky Class practitioner had already given up.

"Is that so ..." Qiqi knew that she was making things difficult for him.

"Alright, little girl, I'm leaving." The Sky Class practitioner turned around and quickly left the auction hall.
