Chapter 2631 Opportunity To Upgrade

He meiyue kept her head down and didn't say anything until Lin Yi and Guan Xin left. She glared at Bai Weitao, "Look at you. I told you to go into the woods, but you insisted that it was fine here and no one passed by at night. In the end, someone saw you, right?"

"This ... Lin Yi's my boss, is it okay if he sees us?" Bai Weitao explained with a smile.

He meiyue frowned slightly and did not say anything more, but a trace of regret flashed in her eyes.

"Let's go. We'll go into the forest. " Bai Weitao pulled he meiyue into the woods, but he meiyue shook her head.

"Forget it, I'm tired. Let's go back to the dormitory and rest early ..." He meiyue said tiredly.

"Alright, let's go back then!" Bai Weitao was very obedient to he meiyue and followed her to the school dormitory.

Lin Yi went back home after dropping Guan Xin off. The Miss and Shu were already asleep, and Xinyan had gone to bed even earlier. Xinyan's situation made Lin Yi suspicious-she seemed to like sleeping more and more, as if she didn't get enough sleep. Shu and the others usually went to bed around ten and woke up at six the next day, but Xinyan usually had dinner and went to bed at seven or eight, taking a nap in the afternoon.

It was the first time Lin Yi had seen something like this, but the results showed that Xinyan was too weak. The medicine he made for her helped with the symptoms, but it didn't seem to have much of an effect.

Shaking his head, Lin Yi took a shower and walked into the room. Xinyan was already fast asleep, so he didn't disturb her. He went straight to bed and lay down beside her, hugging her from behind.

Xinyan seemed to have felt Lin Yi's presence in her sleep-she shifted her body slightly, squeezing into Lin Yi's arms. It was fine if she didn't move, but Lin Yi's hand inevitably touched her soft chest!

Lin Yi wanted to make the best of it, but he wasn't the type of person to do that. He moved his hand into the Jade space.

"Phew ..." Lin Yi let out a breath of relief and continued to train!

The fight with small one today, on the verge of death, gave Lin Yi an epiphany. He hadn't been at Earth Class mid phase peak for a long time, but this time, he felt the prelude to a breakthrough.

But it wasn't too long, and Lin Yi didn't break through during the fight-it was a good thing he didn't do so, or it'd be too late to save Jingjing. Even if he did break through to Sky Class, he'd regret it.

So Lin Yi didn't regret not breaking through in this battle-he'd already found the opportunity to break through, and it was only a matter of time. With one more suitable opportunity, he'd be able to break through to Earth Class late phase.

Earth Class mid phase peak or late phase, Lin Yi didn't really care. Right now, he could kill a Sky Class early phase with his current skills-even if he was an Earth Class late phase, he could only kill a Sky Class mid phase in an instant!

There wasn't much meaning to that-what Lin Yi wanted to do now was to wait until he could complete the second stage of the art of Dragon mastery! That way, not only would he be able to create the space in the Jade, but he'd also be able to open the cave's stone door. Lin Yi was really looking forward to the third stage of the art of Dragon mastery!

The second stage of the art of Dragon mastery looked like it was only one step away from completion, but after days of hard work, Lin Yi still couldn't reach that peak. This made Lin Yi understand that the distance seemed small, but it wasn't!

Just like how Lin Yi felt the opportunity to break through to Earth Class late phase, but his practitioner's art didn't feel it. This made Lin Yi helpless, but he knew that he couldn't rush it.

"Elder Jiao, how's that damned thing?" Lin Yi turned to Jiao yazi.

Lin Yi didn't usually pay attention to what was going on in the Jade space during the day, but elder Jiao did.

"Isn't that it? it's still there. It hasn't been moved since we came in." Elder Jiao said.

"Oh ..." Lin Yi nodded. This thing went into a dormant state after coming in, and he couldn't wake it up. It didn't disturb Lin Yi's cultivation either. If he didn't want to wake it up, he could just ignore it.

Since it wasn't moving, Lin Yi didn't bother with it anymore. The thing was, there was no point in asking it to leave, and he couldn't communicate with it either. He could only let it live here for now.

Guan Xin, on the other hand, was greeted by the smiling gazes of boss Bai and Madam Bai as soon as she entered the villa. Guan Xin blushed. "We ... We ran into Bai Weitao, and we were delayed ..."

"Haha, we didn't ask. Why are you asking?" "I'm happy that you can spend more time with Lin Yi," boss Bai laughed, "don't use that brat as an excuse!" What's he doing here in the middle of the night?"

"I ... I really did see Bai Weitao ..." Guan Xin said helplessly, "He and ..."

"Alright, alright, let's not talk about this." Boss Bai waved his hand, obviously not too concerned about these things. "Han Jingjing has already sent over ancestor Zhang Liju's personal notes, you can take a look later ..."

"En, okay ..." Guan Xin nodded, conflicted. Should she tell boss Bai that she'd broken through to Mystic early phase? she didn't want to hide it from him, but could this be considered Lin Yi's Secret?

Lin Yi didn't say if she could tell boss Bai, so she had to hold it in for now. She'd find an excuse later to say that she broke through, and she'd ask Lin Yi for confirmation.

With that thought, Guan Xin quickly went back to her room to look at Zhang Liju's personal notes, while boss Bai and Madam Bai went upstairs to rest, all smiles ...

The night passed by uneventfully, and Lin Yi woke up early the next morning. He made breakfast and went to han Jingjing's Villa.

He didn't expect han Jingjing to wake up so early as well. When Lin Yi arrived, she was sitting in the living room fiddling with her tablet, and it seemed like she had already taken it back from Wang Xinyan's place. Fortunately, han Jingjing dropped the tablet on the floor-if little eleven had picked it up, the secret would've been exposed!

Chapter 2632 Three Things

"Good Morning, Jing Jing. How was your sleep last night? Did you have any nightmares?" Lin Yi asked.

"No, I dreamed that I was fighting monsters with Lin Yi bro last night, I slept really well!" Han Jingjing did not seem to be affected by yesterday's incident." "Jingjing, transfer all the information to the cloud Drive and set a password. Even if the tablet is stolen, it won't be a problem. We don't have to worry about them cracking the password. Jingjing can delete it from other clients at any time."

"Oh ..." Lin Yi didn't really understand, but he nodded and sighed in relief. He was worried about han Jingjing's mood, but it seemed like she wasn't affected at all," "Breakfast is ready. Let's go and eat together."

"Alright!" Han Jingjing nodded and went to wake her brother up so they could have breakfast together.

On this day, three things happened in the school. The first thing was that the school was going to hold a charity night party. This was an event held every year. The school consciously cultivated the love of the students. At the auction of the night party, some items would be auctioned. These items were donated by students and some famous people. However, the proceeds of the auction would be donated according to the situation, such as remote mountain areas, welfare institutes, orphanages, and so on.

The school randomly decided who to donate to, but Lin Yi's first thought after hearing the news was Yu Xiaoke's orphanage! At the school's auction, although students were the main group, there was no lack of successful graduates and celebrities. Although there were not many of them, the amount of donations they gave was much more than the students!

Especially in a provincial city like Donghai-celebrities usually donated at least a million, and so the total amount raised for each charity night was quite considerable.

Boss Bai was Lin Yi's only option for this kind of thing, and with his special status in the school, Lin Yi thought that he'd be able to put in a good word for him.

As expected, boss Bai agreed immediately after receiving Lin Yi's call, "Alright, I know about this. I'll suggest it to the school. It's not a big problem! I can't give this money to you personally, but it's fine to donate it to the orphanage. After all, this money was meant to be donated to people who need it. "

"Thank you, Mr. Bai." After yesterday's incident, Lin Yi's relationship with boss Bai had gotten a lot closer. Since boss Bai had agreed to help, there shouldn't be much of a problem.

"It's no big deal, it's not a big deal. " Elder Bai laughed and said indifferently.

The second thing was Zhao Qibing's floating cloud Bar. It opened near the school, and su jiaonang found some students to give out flyers. Lin Yi received one as well.

Lin Yi didn't expect Qibing to do this-the guy was actually trying to get close to him? Aren't you afraid of getting beaten up?

The third thing was that pinliang was back, but this time, he kept a low profile. He didn't challenge anyone in a high-profile manner, nor did he challenge Lin Yi directly. Instead, he went to register with Xiaofu and went to class as usual.

Lin Yi knew about this, but the two didn't do anything. Naturally, he wouldn't cause trouble for them, and he enjoyed the peace and quiet.

After the first class, Lin Yi called Yu Xiaoke, planning to ask her about the orphanage.

Yu Xiaoke had been having a headache recently. There was a saying that people were afraid of being famous and pigs were afraid of being fat. Now that the orphanage was famous and the new yard area was built beautifully and practical, the number of orphans increased a lot!

Especially the sick orphans, they were sent to Yu Xiaoke's orphanage from all over the country.

In fact, this was something that could not be helped. Some poor people gave birth to children, but their children were sick and had no money to treat them. They could only heartlessly leave their children in the hospital. These parents could not be blamed for being cruel. There was really no other way!

In their opinion, if a kind person or an orphanage took the child in, perhaps the child could still live. However, if they couldn't be treated and took the child home, it would be a dead end!

However, few people would adopt such sick orphans. Even if those infertile couples adopted children, they would adopt healthy ones. Who would adopt sick babies?

As a result, the monthly medical expenses had now become the second largest expense after the orphanage's construction and food, and it was still rising every day! These sick abandoned babies were sent here, and you Xiaoke couldn't just leave them be, right?

She wouldn't be Yu Xiaoke if she was that cruel! And so, Yu Xiaoke was willing to lower the standard of food for the children and save money for the medical fees to treat the children.

At this moment, Yu Xiaoke was trying to find a suitable mission for the thief sect. She thought about it but couldn't find a suitable one. The missions with a lot of money were either too dangerous or too unrealistic to complete. The simple ones were too cheap and wasted too much time. Yu Xiaoke didn't know which one to choose!

Lin Yi's call came in. Yu Xiaoke was already annoyed and didn't want to pick up when she saw her "admirer" calling, but Lin Yi was her Savior after all. It wouldn't be good if she didn't pick up, so she had no choice but to pick it up, ""Hello? Lin Yi, you're looking for me?"

"Oh, I was just asking. How's the orphanage doing recently? Do you have enough funding?" Lin Yi heard Yu Xiaoke's tone and frowned. What was wrong with this Yu Xiaoke? Did he eat gunpowder? Why was he treating her like this the last few times he saw her?

"It's alright, you don't have to worry about the funding, I'll settle it myself!" "I'm ready to accept a mission from the thief sect. It's hard, but if I do it well, I'll probably get ten million!"Xiaoke said coldly.

"You're going to accept another mission from the Steal sect?" Lin Yi was just about to say that he hadn't learned his lesson from the tomb raid. But then again, his identity was Lin Yi, not the male thief-how would he know about the stuff? Yu Xiaoke only told him about the mission, but she didn't tell him the details. Lin Yi quickly changed his words,"The missions there are all very difficult, right? It'll be difficult for me to complete it. If you go, I'm afraid you'll be at a disadvantage!"

"Do I need your concern?" Yu Xiaoke didn't know why, but whenever Lin Yi showed concern for her, she would be unhappy!

Chapter 2633 Charity Night Party

She felt that Lin Yi was after her, so she tried her best to keep a distance from him,""What should I do if I don't accept the mission? The orphanage receives sick and abandoned babies from all over the country every day. The medical expenses of these abandoned babies alone are a huge expense. What should I do if I don't accept the mission?"

"Is that so ..." Lin Yi didn't expect the orphanage to be so Grand, but that also brought a problem. He didn't want Yu Xiaoke to be too tired, so he said,""You don't have to be too hard on yourself. I'll help you think of a way! Other than fatty Lai's investment, I've been thinking of ways to help you! In a few days, our school will have a charity party, and there will be an auction to raise funds. I've already told my teacher that all the funds raised this time will be donated to your orphanage!"

"Ha? Donate it to me?" Yu Xiaoke froze for a moment, then was overjoyed. But after that, her eyes were filled with worry! Lin Yi was too helpful to her!

Yu Xiaoke didn't believe that Lin Yi was just helping the orphanage! Even if he was a good person, there was no need to do this, right? Only people like Yu Xiaoke, who was part of the staff in the orphanage, would do that, right?

In fact, Lin Yi wasn't that simple-he did it because of his other identity as the male thief, but Xiaoke didn't know about this.

"Yes, the amount of money raised this time should be quite a lot. According to my teacher, every year, the charity party can raise at least ten million and up to hundreds of millions. So, let's forget about the task of the thief sect." "How old are you?" Lin Yi asked. At this age, you should enjoy life more and do things that are suitable for girls your age. "

"What should a girl my age do?" Yu Xiaoke was confused-she really didn't know what she should be doing at this age. Ever since she grew up, she'd been running around to make a living in the orphanage, so she didn't know what she should be doing.

"For example, shopping, getting a facial, buying some pretty clothes, and so on." Lin Yi thought about it and told her what the Miss and Shu did.

Yu Xiaoke was speechless,""Do you think I'm a fair, rich, and beautiful woman? Where did I get the money?"

"I'll give it to you. " Lin Yi said.

"Goodbye!" Yu Xiaoke was so angry that she almost threw the phone. If it wasn't for the fact that she had to buy a new one, she would have thrown it out already! But she still hung up the phone angrily!

Hmph Hmph Hmph Hmph Hmph! The Fox's tail has finally been revealed, right? You're giving me money? You want me to go shopping and buy clothes? Isn't this the same as providing for me? I've finally figured out your thoughts. You're really interested in me!

But, what to do, what to do?

If Lin Yi was really interested in her, could she reject him? What if he stopped raising money for the orphanage if she rejected him? But, she couldn't let the male thief down! If she hadn't met the male thief, she wouldn't be so against Lin Yi. It wasn't easy to find someone who could pay for the orphanage's expenses, and being his mistress wasn't a bad idea. For the children, it was fine. She could bear with it.

But now, Yu Xiaoke had someone else in her heart, so her thoughts couldn't help but change. She was very repulsed by Lin Yi's "intentions."

"This is so annoying, what should we do?" Yu Xiaoke was depressed again. She couldn't reject the temptation of Lin Yi's money, but she didn't want anything to happen between them. No matter how she looked at Lin Yi, he didn't look like an idiot who didn't want anything in return, so ... Yu Xiaoke knew that the more she owed him, the more trouble she would get! She would be in big trouble!

Sigh, whatever, I'll just muddle through this first. I've never responded to Lin Yi directly, so it's his business if he's willing to give me the money. If he really does make it clear, I'll just reject him. He can't just take the money back, right?

The male thief was still the best, giving her so much money and good stuff without asking for anything in return, much better than Lin Yi!

If Lin Yi knew Yu Xiaoke's thoughts, he would probably become depressed! How much did the male thief give her? Her identity as Lin Yi gave her more than ten times what the male thief gave her!

But at this moment, Lin Yi looked at the phone in his hand, confused. What was wrong with Yu Xiaoke? Just hang up and say goodbye? And he seemed to be a little berserk? He just let her go shopping, did she have to go this far?

Could it be that she had a shopping rejection syndrome? Lin Yi shook his head, but didn't call Yu Xiaoke again. He had told her everything he needed to tell her. When the money was ready for the auction, he could just donate it to her.

After lunch, boss Bai settled the matter-he used the donation to the orphanage in Songshan, and announced the details of the charity party in front of the class.

"This Friday night, our school will be holding an annual charity party!" Boss Bai said, "I think many students have already seen this news on the university's BBS forum. I'll go through the details again. The charity party will be divided into two segments. The first segment is the auction!"

"The so-called auction is when everyone donates some items to be auctioned and put them up for auction. The specific type of auction item is not limited. Anything is fine, but it must be something that is presentable. Otherwise, it might not pass the review."

"This is a voluntary donation. There are no special requirements! The people participating in the auction are students like us, as well as a few former students, teachers, and public figures. Everyone is willing to bid, and the proceeds will be donated to the Songshan orphanage. "

"The second segment is a voluntary donation segment. There is no limit to the amount of donations. It can be more or less."

"As for the third segment, it's a masquerade party. However, the conditions for participation are limited. Only those who have donated an auction item and successfully traded for it, or those who have successfully won the auction item, can participate."

"Of course, this is also voluntary. Those who meet the conditions can also participate or not! "However, this event has been a tradition of our school. At The Masquerade, everyone can guess the identity of others. If they guess correctly, they can ask the recognized party to promise the other party one thing!"

Chapter 2634 Shocking News

"But it must be within the other party's ability and not in violation of moral laws. If it's ambiguous and the person is not willing to execute it, they can also file a complaint to the school or me. It's up to the school or me to decide whether this matter is acceptable or not!"

"However, if you're wrong, it's the opposite. The party who's wrong will have to agree to a condition of the party who's being guessed. The condition will be the same as before, and it'll be within the scope of their ability. Therefore, those who want to make wild guesses won't have much of a chance. "

All the students in the classroom were excited when they heard about the masquerade party. It was their first time attending such an event. They had seen this event on the school's BBS forum before and found it very interesting. The things they were asked to do were also strange, such as dancing in the cafeteria, eating instant noodles in the toilet, and so on.

Of course, there were also some people who were delusional. They made a request to push down the goddess of their dreams, but they were decisively rejected. Even if they complained to the school, they would not be supported.

However, the condition to participate was a bit of a headache. They had to donate something and successfully trade it or buy an auction item. Fortunately, boss Bai was a medical student and wasn't poor. It wasn't difficult for him to take out some auction items or bid for an auction item!

On the other hand, he couldn't participate even if he donated directly, which made him a little conflicted. Otherwise, he could just donate a hundred or two hundred Yuan and still be able to attend The Masquerade!

In fact, this direct donation segment was prepared for students who wanted to show their love but were not well-off. One or two Yuan was not a problem. Although they could not attend The Masquerade, it was still a kind gesture.

There were also entrepreneurs who didn't want to trouble themselves. They didn't participate in the auction and directly donated hundreds of thousands or even millions just to save time. After all, their time was precious and they didn't have the time to attend some masquerade party.

After school at noon, everyone began to get busy with the charity party. However, right Panhu was very depressed!

He'd already received news about the sky elixir sect from old man you, but he hadn't gotten any information about elixir refinement from han Jingjing. With boss Bai's protection, outsiders couldn't interfere. So, the heavy burden of exchanging information with han Jingjing fell on you Panhu again!

How could he change it? You can't snatch it from me, and now you want me to exchange for it? What if han Jingjing and Lin Yi suspect me and kill me? However, since it was a mission from his grandfather, right coiling Tiger could not reject it. He could only pretend that he did not know that han Jingjing had been robbed before.

That place, five elements sect.

Patriarch xuanchen looked at little one and little eleven and frowned. ""Little eleven, are you sure that Han Jing Jing is dead?"

"Yes, Master." Little eleven always called xuanchen master in front of outsiders. Only a few people knew that she was xuanchen's daughter. ""I've broken all the meridians in han Jingjing's body. Her breasts and uterus have exploded. If not for the small reversion pill to keep her alive, she would have died long ago!"

"Then, why did the news say that han Jingjing is fine? I can still go to school today?" "Is that possible?" patriarch xuanchen asked curiously. "Is that possible?"

"Han Jingjing is fine? You can still go to school?" Little eleven was stunned after hearing that, "how is that possible?" At that time, her injuries were on par with ta ganlong 's. If boss Bai had gone, I would have believed that he had a way to save her life, but if you say that he had saved her, I don't believe it. Could it be that boss Bai has a fourth grade great recovery pill?"

"Oh?" Patriarch xuanchen frowned and said, 'a superior-grade fourth-grade great recovery pill ... That's possible! At his peak, boss Bai could indeed make fourth-grade pills. Although he's useless now, it's hard to guarantee that he doesn't have any in stock ... But, why doesn't he eat it himself?"

"His injury was caused by Qi deviation. Maybe it's different from normal injuries caused by external forces?" Little one thought for a moment and said, "perhaps his meridians have already recovered. It's just that his pill refining skills have not recovered!" Otherwise, it's been so many years. According to common sense, his meridians are all broken, and he didn't practice physical body refining. Even if he didn't die, he would be half paralyzed. How could he be fine?"

"Little one, you're right. Maybe boss Bai has already recovered, but he just can't recover his strength ..."
Patriarch xuanchen nodded in realization and said, ""This old thing has hidden himself quite well. If I didn't guess it, I would still be in the dark!"

"That's right. However, in order to save taganlong, he should agree to donate a fourth-grade great recovery pill, right?" Little one asked.

"I'll ask. Who knows what this old thing is thinking?" Patriarch xuanchen shook his head and dialed boss Bai's number.

Boss Bai did not expect that patriarch xuanchen would call him again. He did not know what it was about, but he still picked it up. However, this time, he was already wary of patriarch xuanchen. He knew that patriarch xuanchen was ultimately a Wolf with wild ambitions, and he would only be at a disadvantage if he was too kind."Xuanchen, what's the matter?"

Boss Bai's voice was very calm, as if nothing had happened the day before.

"Eldest senior brother, is han Jingjing alright? I'm really sorry about what happened yesterday. I was worried the entire night. If anything happens to han Jingjing, I won't let little one and little eleven off easily!" Patriarch xuanchen said hypocritically.

"Since you're asking this, you should already know that han Jingjing is fine, right?" Boss Bai's heart skipped a beat, but his tone was still as calm as ever. "Your news is quite fast. It seems that you've been paying attention to me!"

"Haha, I'm just concerned about eldest senior brother!" "Senior brother!" Patriarch xuanchen laughed. "Senior brother, congratulations on recovering your meridians!"

"What do you mean?" Boss Bai's heart trembled again, but he still asked calmly.

"Hehe, han Jingjing's injuries are so serious, but she's as good as new. If it's not the effect of a superior-grade fourth-grade great recovery pill, what is it?" Patriarch xuanchen smiled and said, "I didn't expect eldest senior brother to still have some in stock. Even han Jingjing could consume a superior fourth-grade great recovery pill. Of course, you've taken it too!"

"Oh ..." Boss Bai thought to himself. So, patriarch xuanchen had misunderstood! However, was han Jingjing's injury really that serious? But if it was that serious, how did Lin Yi cure her?

Yesterday, boss Bai had not carefully examined han Jingjing's injuries. He had only looked at her appearance and felt that her injuries were not light. However, they were only superficial injuries!

Chapter 2635 Boss Bai's Goal

He did not expect that han Jingjing's meridians would also be severely damaged. At this moment, he only understood after hearing patriarch xuanchen's words that han Jingjing's injuries were so severe that even the great recovery pill would not work. A fourth-grade superior-grade great recovery pill was needed.

However, boss Bai did not refute the xuanchen ancestor's words. If he did, it would be equivalent to exposing Lin Yi. Then, with the xuanchen ancestor's personality, he would definitely capture Lin Yi and use him as a lab rat for research. Thus, boss Bai agreed ambiguously.

"Eldest senior, you know about ta ganlong's injuries. A Grade 3 great recovery pill can only save his life, but it can't completely heal his injuries. Since you have a stock of Grade 4 great recovery pills, can you contribute one to the sect?" "What's the matter?" patriarch xuanchen asked carefully. "After all, you know how useful taganlong is. Therefore, it's rather important if he can recover!"

"Oh, but it's a pity that there's no more." Boss Bai said indifferently, "There was one last pill left. If you had told me earlier, I would have given it to ta ganlong. However, my disciple is injured, so I will definitely give it to my disciple first. So I'm sorry, there's no other way. If you want to blame someone, you can only blame little eleven for being too vicious. If you didn't use a fourth grade great recovery pill, you wouldn't be able to save her!"

"This ..." Ancestor xuanchen did not expect boss Bai to say that and was momentarily at a loss for words. However, he still did not quite believe it and did not give up, so he continued to lobby, "Big senior brother, this is a big event for our sect in the past thousand years. It has been the ultimate goal of our ancestors to return our sect to the level of the ancient sects. As the sect leader of this generation, you must support this plan, right? Compared to the sect's matters, you should be able to make the right decision as the sect master, right?"

"If I have more, I will definitely take it out. Don't worry, I will do the same even if you don't tell me." "I know who I am better than you," boss Bai said calmly. "I'm the sect leader of the five-elements sect, and I want the five-elements sect to return to the level of an ancient sect more than anyone else. Back to Sky Class Island, even if it means dying! Because this is also my lifelong goal ... Unfortunately, I really don't have any more! I'll refine it when I've recovered my strength!"

"This ..." Patriarch xuanchen frowned. Although he did not really believe it, he understood boss Bai's character. Since boss Bai said so, there was probably nothing else. Thus, he could only say, "Alright then, that's all for now ..."

"If I succeed in refining the fourth grade great recovery pill, I will contact you." Boss Bai still said calmly.

After hanging up the call, patriarch xuanchen frowned and felt a little regretful. "Looks like it was a bad move to cause trouble for han Jingjing and Lin Yi this time. If I could contact Boss Bai first, he might've given taganlong a peak fourth grade great recovery pill. With his feelings for the sect, he would've agreed. Sigh, I made a wrong move!"

"Master, don't be too sad. Since boss Bai's injuries have recovered, he may be able to refine a fourth-grade pill. Besides, isn't second uncle xuanzhen also trying to become a fourth-grade Alchemist?" Little one advised.

"En, that's true!" Patriarch xuanchen nodded.

After boss Bai hung up the phone, he fell into deep thought and shock! Lin Yi healed han Jingjing's injuries, how did he do it? Boss Bai suddenly remembered the questions Lin Yi asked him in his study last night!

Lin Yi said that if boss Bai's injuries recovered, what would happen to ancestor xuanchen if he found out? boss Bai thought that Lin Yi was just joking, but it seemed like that wasn't the case. Lin Yi really had the ability to recover!

A glimmer of hope and excitement flashed in boss Bai's eyes. Was his guess true? Could Lin Yi really do it? Boss Bai started to look forward to it ...

But boss Bai didn't call Lin Yi right away, thinking about the future ...

Now, it was inevitable that Lin Yi was involved in the future conflict of the sect. Whether boss Bai was willing or not, Lin Yi's Mark as a disciple had been imprinted on xuanchen's body. If he recovered his strength, he could naturally intimidate xuanchen, but what if he couldn't?

Once the Sky Class Island Plan started, the five-elements sect would return to the level of an ancient sect and regain its former glory. At that time, would the confident xuanchen attack Lin Yi and han Jingjing again?

However, how was he going to resolve this situation? Boss Bai thought about it for a long time, but he couldn't come up with a good solution. In the end, everything was because boss Bai's current strength was not good enough, but this was a hard wound that couldn't be changed.

Youpan Hu decided to go talk to Lin Yi and han Jingjing again, to see if he could get that special notebook from han Jingjing! However, he couldn't bring up the personal notes of Zhang Liju.

Yu Panhu was often tricked by Lin Yi, but that didn't mean he was an idiot. On the contrary, he was a little clumsy in front of Lin Yi, but he was still a little smart.

On one hand, he was really desperate to get what Lin Yi had, and sometimes he was helpless when he was cheated. On the other hand, Lin Yi was famous for killing Sky Class Masters in seconds, and he was a bit scared when facing him-it was natural for his intelligence to short-circuit.

Especially when he heard that even the Sky Class late phase Peak Master couldn't kill Lin Yi-he was even more shocked. Boss Bai was involved, but that was only because Lin Yi was strong-he'd be dead before boss Bai could even do anything!

Who would've thought that an Earth Class mid phase peak could last this long against a Sky Class late phase peak?

In fact, even Lin Yi himself didn't expect it, but sometimes things were just that coincidental. An energy bomb saved Lin Yi, and even small one himself probably didn't understand this.

So, if he mentioned Zhang Liju's personal notes, Lin Yi would definitely ask him how he knew about it. By then, if it was linked to little one and little eleven, then right plate Tiger would be in trouble, he might even be beaten to death.

This way, right Panhu could only beat around the bush and Exchange for some other information. From his point of view, han Jingjing was writing and drawing on the tablet every day. She must be recording some of her pill refining insights and experiences!

Chapter 2636 Looking For An Opportunity

Most alchemists had this habit, including Yu Panhu himself. These personal notes were the alchemists "own understanding of alchemy. Han Jingjing read Zhang Liju's personal notes and combined it with some of her own practical experience. The notes were probably similar to Zhang Liju's personal notes. At the very least, it could increase the success rate of making second-grade pills. This was very precious information for the Hidden House of you.

At the thought of this, you Panhu made up his mind to exchange Han Jing Jing's personal Alchemist notes.

Right at this time, his phone rang. He picked it up and saw that it was Zhao Qibing. He picked it up without thinking, ""Hello? What's the matter, master Bing?"

"Second young master you, do you have a bad memory? Did you forget what you promised me? It's been a few days and there's still no news?" Qibing asked impatiently.

"What's been there for days? What did I promise you?" Yu Panhu was still thinking about how he should ask for han Jingjing's notes in the afternoon, and he was taken aback by Zhao Qibing's question.

"Damn, you didn't really forget, did you?" "About my legs, when are you going to give me the chance to break them?" Qibing said quickly.

"Broken leg ..." Right Panhu suddenly remembered that he still owed Zhao Qibing this one! At first, he thought that it would be a piece of cake for Lin Yi to break Qibing's legs, but Lin Yi refused.

However, he had forgotten about it after that. He only remembered it now that Qibing asked. In fact, if he wanted to deny it, Zhao Qibing couldn't do anything about it. After all, he didn't sign it and there was no evidence.

But this wasn't good for his or the Hidden House's reputation. If Zhao Qibing was a normal person, it wouldn't be a big deal, but he was the Hidden House Zhao's heir. You Panhu couldn't just take his words as a fart.

"Yeah, second young master you, I'm begging you. Can you do it as if it's a matter?" Zhao Qibing heard right Panhu's tone and panicked, "When you lost your phone, I searched the entire city and found it for you. You can't just sit back and do nothing!"

"I will, I will definitely do it!" You Panhu frowned, "but do we really have to go to Lin Yi for this?" Can't you just find someone and break your legs? Who can't have their legs broken?"

"Other people aren't as good as Lin Yi, if I break it, my life would be over!" Zhao Qibing immediately denied it, "and it has to be someone stronger than me, or I'll always be subconsciously using my Qi to protect myself, and I can't control it as I please!" Unless you can launch a surprise attack on me and break my leg, you can only be stronger than me. Break it for me!"

"Why is it so complicated?" You Panhu felt troubled after hearing what Zhao Qibing said, but what Zhao Qibing said made sense. Practitioners would usually use their Qi to protect themselves when they were in danger, just like how a normal person would close their eyes subconsciously when a sandstorm blew by. It was an instinct, unless it was a sneak attack, but a sneak attack would require a very agile person, at least one with Qinggong. They didn't even have the movement techniques of ordinary professional assassins. Cultivators generally relied on head-on collisions of strength and rarely launched sneak attacks.

Of course, people like Lin Yi were different in the world of practitioners. He was fast, a killer, and good at sneak attacks. Most importantly, he often pretended to be weak to ambush high level practitioners. This was also the reason why he succeeded so many times. After all, which high level practitioner would let a low level practitioner go?

According to common sense, even if a Sky Class master stood still and let an Earth Class hit him, he wouldn't die. So there was no need for a sneak attack, and that was why those Masters who ran into Lin Yi died every time.

"It's not complicated. Can you help me think of a way?" Zhao Qibing heard right Panhu's tone and knew that the kid was trying to escape. He wasn't very reliable and quickly said, "I say, second young master you, we are all people with status. We can't go back on our words!"

"That's definitely not possible!" "Haven't I been looking for an opportunity for you all this time?" you Panhu asked as an idea struck him. You know how troublesome Lin Yi is-normal people can't handle him, so I'm just helping you take a roundabout route!"

"Oh? Have you thought of any good ideas?" Zhao Qibing thought that right Panhu was just patronizing him, so he didn't believe him.

"It's like this, our school is going to hold a charity party in a few days. It's like this ..." You Panhu told Zhao Qibing about the school's charity party in detail.

"You're saying that you want me to attend this charity party, right? and then go to that masquerade party or whatever, and recognize Lin Yi and make him promise me one thing-break my legs?" Qibing understood what he meant.

"Yes, that's it. Lin Yi will definitely be participating, this is a good opportunity ..." Right coiled Tiger was halfway through when Zhao Qibing interrupted him.

"Wait, from what I know, Lin Yi doesn't want to participate in events like this, right? Even if he's attending the auction, I don't think he'll be joining in on the fun at the masquerade party, right?" With Qibing's understanding of Lin Yi, he knew that he wasn't someone who liked to join in the fun, so it was normal for him not to attend The Masquerade.

"You don't know this, do you? According to my insider information, the donation target is Songshan's orphanage, and this suggestion was Lin Yi's!" "Boss Bai's already done it for him," youpan Hu said. "So Lin Yi will definitely attend this party. He has to give boss Bai face no matter what, or else he'll help him."

"Songshan orphanage ..." Qibing's mouth twitched. He wanted to curse at the orphanage. What the hell, this orphanage screwed him over! He didn't get any advantage at all, and got the whole building burned down for nothing, which made him even angrier than before ... But it was all in the past now, and Qibing thought about it. If what coiling Tiger said was true, then Lin Yi might really be able to attend The Masquerade, "Then what should I do? I say, second young master you, you're not helping me, are you? I'm just trying my luck at this masquerade party-what if I can't recognize Lin Yi?"

Chapter 2637 Hint

"I'll look into this first, and I'll give you a plan that'll help you recognize Lin Yi right away!" "Don't worry," you Panhu said. "I'll help you to the end since I've promised you."

"This is more like it!" "I'll be waiting for your good news then!" Qibing nodded.

"Alright, I'll help you settle it on my side!" "However, you should prepare yourself first," you Panhu said. "Sign up for the auction as a caring businessman and bid for something. At least you'll be qualified to attend The Masquerade."

"That's not a problem," "I'll go register in a bit!" Qibing replied readily.

In the afternoon, the school began to prepare for the charity auction. All the departments had temporarily given the students a break, so the students were free to go and prepare the items for the auction. The other students could also study in the classroom.

Lin Yi was in the middle of practicing when Yu Panhu sat down next to Han Jingjing again. Lin Yi exited his practicing state and turned back to look at Yu Panhu. There was an 80% chance that Yu Panhu was the one who leaked the news of Han Jingjing's attack, but Lin Yi didn't really hate Yu Panhu as a lackey. His hatred was mainly concentrated on little eleven.

"What are you doing?" Han Jingjing closed the tablet vigilantly and looked at right coiling Tiger.

"Um ... Han Jingjing, you're a second-grade Alchemist now, right? Are you trying to become a third grade Alchemist?" Right Panhu tried to find a topic to talk about.

"What do you want?" Han Jingjing did not answer right coiling Tiger's question directly.

"It's nothing. You don't have to hide it from me. I know all the materials I gave you. If you're already asking for a third grade cauldron and the materials for a third grade pill, then you must be a peak second grade Alchemist. Otherwise, you wouldn't be able to break through to third grade Alchemist, right?" Yu Panhu said.

"What does it have to do with you?" Han Jingjing asked.

"It's fine. Didn't teacher Bai say so? Students should help each other. You are a peak second-grade Alchemist, so you must have a lot of experience in alchemy, right? Did you jot it down in your tablet?" Yu Panhu knew that there was no point in beating around the bush with Han Jing Jing. The final decision was still Lin Yi 's, so he spoke loudly on purpose so that Lin Yi could hear what he was saying, "Why don't you let me take a look at this notebook?"

"No, I won 't." Han Jingjing said very simply.

"..." Right Panhu was speechless, but it was within his expectations. "Then how can I borrow it? What do you want this time?"

"This time ... I didn't ask for anything ..." Han Jingjing was stunned and immediately said, ""It seems like you took the initiative to look for me, right? Lin Yi bro, youpan Hu seems to have some problems with his brain, can you treat him?"

"Is that so? Let me see. " Lin Yi came back to his senses and reached out his hand to touch the right Panhu's head.

"Don't touch me!" The right coiled Tiger jumped in shock and leaned back. However, he used too much force and fell to the ground with a loud "clang". Fortunately, he was a cultivator and was fine. He only looked a little embarrassed.

"As expected, there's something wrong with him. Why is his reaction so big?" Lin Yi looked at him, confused.

"It's nothing ... I'm fine. Maybe I didn't sleep well last night ..." Right Panhu made up an excuse and got up from the ground. "Lin Yi, do you want Han Jingjing's notes?"

Yu Panhu was afraid that Lin Yi would come back to treat him and quickly changed the topic! There was nothing wrong with his brain, and he was afraid that Lin Yi's treatment would turn him into an idiot! There was a precedent for this-Lin Yi had turned the blue fur into an idiot, too, so Yu Panhu had to be careful.

"You still want to change? But I don't have anything else I need." Lin Yi shrugged, disappointed.

"No..." Yu Panhu thought about it and agreed. Last time when he was exchanging for information on Boss Bai's master, he had already brought out most of his assets. Other than the things that Lin Yi didn't need, he really didn't have anything else. If he were to bring out these things, they would be the same things repeatedly. "Why don't you think again and see what you're missing?"

"I don't think I'm short of anything, except for some money." "I want to donate some money to Songshan's orphanage, but I'm a little tight on cash," Lin Yi said.

"..." Right Coiling Tiger thought, are you asking me to donate? But what if you don't give me the information after I donate? "How much money do you need?" Yu Panhu asked.

"Around 18 million." Lin Yi said.

"You mean you want me to go and make a donation? a donation of 10 million or so?" Yu Panhu frowned. Although 18 million wasn't much, he couldn't just waste it, right? This money was really nothing for the hidden you family who ran the pill business. You Panhu didn't need to pay for it himself. He could just go to his house and ask for it.

"I'll think about it. I didn't ask you to donate. " Lin Yi shook his head. "You go back first. I'll let you know when I've thought about it."

"That's fine too, but you have to be quick!" The right coiled Tiger nodded and instructed.

After youpan Hu left, Han Jing Jing whispered to Lin Yi, "Lin Yi bro, are you really going to exchange information with him?"

"No, but we can do this, like this ..." Lin Yi lowered his voice and reminded han Jingjing.

"En, en!" Han Jingjing quickly nodded and said, ""Okay, Jing Jing understands."

Yu Panhu didn't have the ability to read lips, and he was far away, so he couldn't see what Lin Yi was saying! Besides, Lin Yi was using pure energy to conjure his voice, so no one could hear him except for han Jingjing.

But he didn't think too much about it-he thought that Lin Yi was discussing exchanging information with Jingjing, and was quite happy to see Lin Yi take it to heart.

The Student Union had already begun planning for the charity party. According to past practice, the host and staff would be selected from the freshmen. The purpose of this was to give the freshmen Student Union members a chance to train.

What Lin Yi didn't expect was that Chen Yushu became one of the hosts. There were three hosts, one male and two female. Lin Yi didn't know the other female, but the male was a trap. He didn't know how the student council chose the hosts, and after the pictures of the hosts were posted on the school's BBS forum, Lin Yi thought that they were three girls ...

However, it was said that this trap was multi-talented, and was a cadre of the Student Union's Cultural Department. It was normal for her to be chosen as the emcee, but Lin Yi was surprised that Yushu was on stage as well.

Chapter 2638 Help Me!

After school, Lin Yi waited for the Miss and Shu to get in the car before asking curiously, ""Shu, when did you become a host?"

"Because Yaoyao sis" item is too special. If I don't host it, it'll be a problem if someone else does it!" Chen Yushu replied.

"What item?" "First kiss or something?" Lin Yi blinked.

"Wow, shield bro, you're so good! You're even better than genius Shu! You guessed it right away!" Yushu's eyes went wide, "But it's not my first kiss, I already gave it to shield bro ....."

"Ahem, Shu, can't you get to the point? If you continue with this nonsense, I won't cooperate with you in this auction!" Mengyao glared at Yushu, stopping her from continuing.

However, Wang Xinyan and han Jingjing were looking at Lin Yi and Chu Mengyao strangely. Wang Xinyan was too embarrassed to ask, but han Jingjing didn't avoid it, "Lin Yi bro, have you and Yaoyao sis been together since a long time ago?"

"Man, I just had a drink ..." Lin Yi explained.

"Is that so ..." Han Jingjing did not ask any further when she saw that there was no gossip.

But Mengyao was a little disappointed at the same time. She didn't know why, but she felt like she was being misunderstood. She didn't feel happy after Lin Yi explained everything.

"But this time, it's still Yaoyao's kiss? Shu, you're not trying to trick Zhong pinliang again, are you?" Lin Yi suddenly remembered that pinliang had come back to school. He kept a low profile, but Lin Yi still heard the news.

"Hehehehe, he's so rich. If I don't scam him, who else would I scam?" Chen Yushu replied.

"Alright, Shu, if it wasn't for the orphanage, I wouldn't be playing with you. Come home, I'm hungry." Mengyao explained. She didn't know who she was talking to, but she felt like she was talking to Lin Yi.

Lin Yi finally understood why Mengyao was messing around with Yushu-it was for the orphanage! As for the kiss, Lin Yi didn't really care. As long as Shu was here, the Miss wouldn't be at a disadvantage.

After they got home, han Jingjing and han Xiaochao had dinner at Lin Yi's Villa before going back. Han Jingjing still had a mission Lin Yi gave her, while Chen Yushu went to Lin Yi secretly and lowered her voice, "Shield bro ....."

"Why? You don't have to be so mysterious in your own home, do you?" Lin Yi couldn't help but laugh at Shu's sneaky behavior.

"You're right. " "Shield bro, do you have the kind of medicine that can make your skin swell up immediately?" Yushu asked with a smile. The more overbearing, the better. "

"What are you doing?" Lin Yi asked.

"Of course it's useful," "Really?" Yushu asked.

"I do, but why do you need it?" Lin Yi didn't know what Yushu was up to.

"To protect Yaoyao sis" chastity, of course. If you want her to become a second-hand woman, then forget I said anything. " "You won't be the only man who's kissed Yaoyao sis then!" Yushu said.

"Shu, what are you talking about?" Mengyao and Xinyan had just come out of the kitchen after picking up the plates when they heard Yushu say that it was second-hand and that Lin Yi had kissed her. Mengyao was pissed. "Do you want to be beaten up?"

"Ugh ... Yaoyao sis, I'm just trying to help you!" Yushu explained, not expecting Mengyao to come out at this time.

"Help me? I don't need your help with Lin Yi and me!" Mengyao blushed. "Go do what you're supposed to be doing. If you keep being a busybody, I'll let Lin Yi turn you into a second-hand one!"

"Gah?" Chen Yushu froze and looked at Chu Mengyao in a daze. After a while she said, "Yaoyao sis, are you misunderstanding something?"

"What misunderstanding? Misunderstanding my foot, weren't you trying to matchmake me and Lin Yi again? "And he made me ... Some second-hand ..." Mengyao was even angrier when Yushu denied it.

She couldn't be blamed for the misunderstanding-Mengyao had only heard half of it when she came out of the kitchen. She wasn't a practitioner, and her hearing wasn't as good-she wouldn't have heard it if Shu hadn't raised her voice.

But Shu said something about turning her into a second-hand girl and even asking Lin Yi to kiss her. Wasn't that what she meant by Lin Yi pushing her down? How could Chu Mengyao not be angry? This was something the two of them should talk about in private, how could they talk about it directly to Lin Yi?

"Uh ..." Chen Yushu was stunned for a long time before she said, ""Yaoyao sis, you really do like shield bro! Otherwise, why would you have a guilty conscience? Shu said that you'd become a second-hand toy after pinliang kissed you, and shield bro wouldn't like you anymore, but you heard it as if he wanted shield bro to ...

Chen Yushu was chased up the stairs by Chu Mengyao while Wang Xinyan covered her mouth and laughed. After living here for a long time, she realized that it was filled with joy every day ...

"Haha, Xinyan, Yaoyao and Shu are actually pretty easy to get along with. Are you used to it here?" Lin Yi smiled as he shook his head.

"Yeah, not bad. Yaoyao and Shu are nice to me, they don't seem like outsiders." Xinyan smiled, a little envious. "However, they were still a little polite to me. After all, how long have I known them? I don't have as deep of a relationship as the two of them. I want to participate in such a noisy situation, but I don't have the chance. "

"That's true, but I'll get used to it slowly. " "You're much better than me," Lin Yi said. " When I first came, the two of them really didn't like me, always wanting to kick me out. "

"Ah? It can't be, right?" Wang Xinyan was surprised at Lin Yi's words and asked in disbelief, "I can see that they care a lot about you. He actually rejected you at first and even wanted to drive you away?"

"Haha, the truth is, when we met on the train, I just arrived in Songshan. I was ordered by an elder to protect them." Lin Yi didn't mention this to Xinyan before, and it was a good time to bring it up. "When I first moved into their villa as a man, no one would welcome me."

"But the facts have proven that you are a gentleman." Xinyan trusted Lin Yi's character-the two were always flirting with each other, but Lin Yi was able to control himself and wouldn't cross the line before she gave him a nod, and Xinyan was impressed!

Chapter 2639 The Party Begins

If it weren't for the fact that Xinyan could sometimes feel Lin Yi's physiological reaction and his breathing when he hugged her, she would've thought that there was something wrong with Lin Yi's sexual orientation.

But the more she thought about it, the more she found Lin Yi to be a nice guy. Boys his age, if they shared a bed with a girl every day, it'd be hard for nothing to happen.

And so, there were times when Xinyan felt that Lin Yi didn't belong to the same world as them. He was a first-year student, but the calmness he showed was way beyond his age.

Xinyan couldn't help but chuckle as she recalled the way Lin Yi was dressed when they first met on the train. "Right, no wonder they're so against you. When you first came, you were dressed in such a rustic style. It's good enough that they let you in their clean villa!"

"Haha ..." Lin Yi shrugged helplessly, "My hometown is a small village. It's normal for me to dress like a country bumpkin there. If I were to dress like this, I'd probably be observed every day, right? And that time, I just happened to come from my hometown and didn't have time to change my clothes ..."

"Yes, I also thought you were an honest country man at that time. I was worried to death when I saw you being deceived by those scammers. Who knew that you were just pretending?" Xinyan recalled the first time she met Lin Yi, and she was a little entranced.

"Actually, if they didn't lie to me, I wouldn't have bothered to lie to them." Lin Yi said.

"That's true. " Xinyan thought about Lin Yi's personality and agreed with him. She wanted to say something more, but sleepiness came over her. She yawned and turned to Lin Yi. "Let's not talk about this for now. Let's go to sleep. I'm a little sleepy ..."

"Okay, you go first, I'll make Shu some medicine." Lin Yi didn't forget about the weird medicine Yushu asked him for-he didn't even need to ask to know that it was probably for pinliang.

It was true that pinliang was unlucky every time, but he got braver and braver every time, and even got accepted by an ancient sect? Lin Yi was starting to regret not killing pinliang right away.

But then again, back in Songshan city, the undercurrent was raging, and Lin Yi wasn't that strong himself, with so many enemies. It was hard for him to be cruel to his enemies, in case he attracted a collective backlash.

Lin Yi went out to the pharmacy to prepare the medicine Yushu needed before returning to the villa.

In the blink of an eye, it was the day of the charity party. On this afternoon, the school had finished class early. The school's auditorium was decorated with lights and streamers. The students and celebrities who participated in the auction were sitting in the front row. Everyone had a reflective board in their hands, which was also convenient for these people to bid.

Most of the audience at the back were just there to watch the fun. Most of the students didn't have the money to bid for the items. They came here just to have fun. Their way of showing their love was very simple. They would donate after the auction ended.

After all, the starting price of these items was not low. As it was a charity event, the value of the items was just a formality. The final price would depend on the amount of love donated by the people.

Lin Yi was sitting with Xinyan, Jingjing, meiyue, and Weitao-he wouldn't be participating in the auction, but he was the student council's cadre, and he had the right to sit in front.

The auction started punctually at Sixo' clock that night.

First, the school's leaders spoke, then the Student Union cadre promoted the significance of this charity party and the direction of the donation. Next was the official opening of the auction.

The first one was Chen Yushu ... And behind her was the crossdresser and another girl from another faculty-this was enough to make Lin Yi choke! Of course, those who knew Yushu were also shocked!

Normally, in a group like this, the guy would walk in the front or in the middle, and the girls would stand half a step behind or on the sides. But they just had to be Chen Yushu's background.

However, Lin Yi looked at the figures of the three people on the stage and understood the whole story! Chen Yushu's chest was the biggest among them. The trap was flat, and the other girl's chest was flat as well, so it was easy to understand why Chen Yushu was standing in the middle.

Besides, the boy and the girl were dressed the same, so it looked like Chen Yushu was being surrounded by the girls.

"Dear guests, school leaders, and students, good evening. I'm the host of this charity party. My name is Shu, the caring host!" Yushu said with a smile as she picked up the microphone.

"Pfft ..." Lin Yi almost burst out laughing. Shu, the host of love? Another name? People who weren't familiar with Shu wouldn't think anything was wrong with it. After all, it wasn't a big deal to change a name to fit the theme of the show.

As expected, everyone started clapping after Yushu finished. No one laughed because they didn't know that Shu had other names.

"I'm the host, tai Weiliang ..." The boy who looked like a trap also introduced himself.

"I'm the host, Zhen huanzi ..." The flat-chested girl also introduced herself and said some words of thanks. The charity party was about to start.

A cross-dresser? A real man? Lin Yi felt like he was struck by lightning-was he overthinking things, or did he do this on purpose?

However, these were all unimportant matters. The auction was soon pushed to the climax by the three of them. It had to be said that other than the sharp-tongued Shu, tai Weiliang and Zhen huanzi were also two outstanding hosts who were very good at stirring up the atmosphere!

Although the items being auctioned were not eye-catching, it could explain the origins of the items and the love they contained! For example, a passbook that had been emptied and only had a few Yuan left. It was donated by a poor student, but it was of great significance!

He came from the village. He was a poor student who lived with his grandmother when his parents died early. In this passbook was the help of all the villagers. It was a public account in the village. Whoever had some spare money would deposit it. The numbers were small, but when accumulated, it was a big number.

Chapter 2640 Breaking New Record

This passbook had accompanied this poor student through high school and all the way to University. Now, the passbook had been filled to the last page, but the student was not willing to change it. Instead, he had kept it!

Now, he could already tutor and work part-time while studying. He no longer needed help from the villagers. However, he copied every number in the passbook and prepared to pay them back one by one after he graduated from college and found a job. He would pay them back double.

It had to be said that this passbook was quite significant and was in line with the theme of this charity auction. Therefore, this passbook was won by an entrepreneur who often donated to poor students at the high price of one million Yuan. He was prepared to keep it when he went back.

The items after that were also very meaningful. Of course, there was no lack of truly valuable items, such as jewelry, antiques, and so on. However, these were mostly donated by the university's professors and staff.

The auction continued in an orderly manner, and those rich people also had a tacit understanding. Unless it was something valuable that they really liked, there would be little competition. The final price was also related to the financial resources of their respective companies. Some items were sold for tens of thousands, some for hundreds of thousands or even millions. No matter how much it was, it was a show of love.

"The next item up for auction is a piece of artwork, provided by Lin Yi from the Biology and Medicine major. This is a piece of artwork he made himself, and the starting price is five thousand Yuan." It was tai Weiliang that was introduced, not Yushu. Yushu didn't need to be introduced, since Lin Yi's donation was just a normal item.

The carving was exquisite, but Lin Yi wasn't a master sculptor, so a couple thousand Kuai was already quite a high price. The starting price was five thousand, and that was purely for the rich to show their love.

Zhao Qibing was sitting beside you Panhu and Kang Zhaolong, waiting for an opportunity to bid for an item to get into the masquerade party. However, it was still early and the auction was only halfway through. He was in no rush, he just wanted to see if there was anything he liked. Wouldn't this be killing two birds with one stone?

However, when he heard the host say that the next item was donated by Lin Yi, he raised his auction board immediately and shouted before he could show tai Weiliang the details of the artwork, ""Five million!"

"Whoosh! Whoosh!"

The crowd was in an uproar. Such an impatient bid, and it was five million the moment it came out, had never appeared in the auction until now! Even if it was a donation, everyone would raise the bid step by step. Who would directly call out such a high price?

Plus, usually, high-priced items were things that were already valuable or had some sort of sentimental value. Lin Yi's mementos were one of the least popular items, and the starting price was low. They were mainly reserved for small business owners who didn't have much money, or for those who had just returned to their school and worked there for a short time. Qibing's bid of five million made everyone look at him like he was an idiot.

However, Zhao Qibing didn't care about them. He was still holding his auction board leisurely as he looked at the guests who were looking at him with disdain. He thought to himself, "you people don't know that five million for a broken leg is worth it!"

Tai Weiliang was dumbfounded as well. He only reacted after a long while. Did he miss out on something? Isn't this just an ordinary craft? How could it be auctioned at such a high price?

Could this be something good? But ... He didn't see anything wrong with it. If he had known that this thing was so precious, he would have placed it at the end of the auction instead of taking it out so early.

However, what tai Weiliang didn't know was that if he had placed it at the end of the auction, it wouldn't have been sold for such a high price. The reason was simple-Zhao Qibing wouldn't wait until the end to bid for it, he would have bought one before the auction ended.

Even if they saw Lin Yi's item at the end, they wouldn't bid five million immediately because they already had something else in their hands. Even if they wanted to please Lin Yi, they would only bid two or three million.

"Five million. The gentleman in number 74 has bid five million. Is there anyone else who wants to bid higher?" Tai Weiliang asked expectantly. After all, Zhao Qibing had raised the price to five million all of a sudden. In his opinion, this might really be something good, and there would definitely be people competing for it! The result was to his satisfaction, because someone else had made a bid!

"Six million!" A voice rang out-it was fatty Lai!

Lin Yi didn't think that someone would bid five million for a handcraft he just made! This item was originally for fatty Lai. Fatty Lai wasn't a businessman from Donghai city, but he was from a famous company in the nearby Songshan city, so it wasn't a surprise that he was here.

Fatty Lai, on the other hand, didn't expect Qibing to make the first bid, but Lin Yi had told him to bid for Lin Yi's artwork, so he still made his bid.

"F * ck!" Qibing froze-he didn't think anyone would fight with him over a piece of junk! As far as he was concerned, he wouldn't even pick it up if it was thrown in front of him, let alone buy it if it wasn't Lin Yi's work.

But he'd already called out his price, and if he didn't bid, Lin Yi might break his leg if he got upset. After all, Lin Yi could have told the school that someone had requested for his legs to be broken, but it was too difficult a request-he couldn't do it!

The school would definitely support Lin Yi, too-breaking someone's leg wasn't something they could do, after all. It'd be considered intentional.

So, Qibing continued to bid,""Eight million!"

To the heir of the Hidden House Zhao, this amount of money was nothing. If he could master the thousand legs technique, that would be the most important thing. Old master Zhao was also very supportive of this, so money was not a problem.

Tai Weiliang was dumbfounded. There were actually people competing for it? And not only that, Qibing had made an even higher bid right after? Was this thing really that good?

In fact, not only was tai Weiliang dumbfounded, everyone else was dumbfounded as well! The owners, especially, had good taste, but none of them could tell what was so good about Lin Yi's work.

"Eight ... Eight million. Is there anyone who wants to bid higher? "The Mister in number 74 has bid 8 million ..." Tai Weiliang quickly asked after he regained his senses.
