Chapter 3651 Seeing An Object And Thinking Of People

"What? Tonight? Alright then, I won't disturb you any longer. " The poor guy nodded-he wasn't an Alchemist, after all, and didn't know much about things like this. He'd just let Lin Yi say what he wanted.

After sending the poor guy out of the cave, Lin Yi entered the Jade space and placed all three sets of ingredients into Shennong's medicine cauldron, ready to start the refinement.

With the automatic Shennong medicine cauldron that Han Jing Jing had modified, making elixirs was a piece of cake for Lin Yi-he just had to put the ingredients in, and all he had to do was follow the instructions on the cauldron and keep pouring in Sky Class full phase Qi.

It was a fool's play from the beginning to the end, without any technical difficulty.

The only test was that the supply of Qi couldn't be stopped. If it was when Lin Yi was still a complete heaven realm, it would be a big challenge. After all, the process would take at least a few hours, and if he kept using all his strength during the process, he might run out of energy at any time.

But for the Lin Yi now, that wasn't a problem at all-he was a Foundation early phase, after all, and supplying this bit of Sky Class full phase Qi was a piece of cake.

The breakthrough Foundation elixir was a level lower than the Golden Foundation elixir Lin Yi was preparing, but the two processes weren't that different for someone like Lin Yi who had the automatic Shennong medicine cauldron. This was like a training session for the Golden Foundation elixir.

He composed himself and suppressed all the random thoughts in his mind. He sat cross-legged for a while, adjusting his body to its peak condition before starting the process.

According to the recipe's description of the fire, time, and method, he entered everything into a tablet beside the cauldron. "Please wait a moment, Jingjing is calculating the time and temperature for Lin Yi-Gege, it will create an automatic recipe ..." Appeared on the screen.

Looking at the text, Lin Yi felt a surge of emotions! Han Jingjing had also come to Sky Class Island. Which island was she on now? Are you doing well?

However, with Han Jingjing's intelligence, if she really couldn't join the pill Hall, she would already be an impressive character.

The tablet let out two crisp beeps, and Lin Yi raised his head to see the display: "The pill refining script has been generated. According to the weight of the medicine cauldron, three sets of materials have been put in this pill refining. The estimated time of refining the pill is four hours and fifty-five minutes. The estimated number of pills produced is five!"

It's only been five hours? Lin Yi couldn't help but let out a breath of relief, but when he saw the number, he couldn't help but be happy-he actually made five!

However, this was only for Lin Yi and Han Jing Jing. If it was someone else, they could only make them one by one. If it succeeded, then it succeeded. If it failed, then it failed!

Lin Yi's mass production was able to combine the waste into a new pill, naturally, the efficiency was high!

Sitting down cross-legged, Lin Yi started channeling the art of Dragon mastery, quickly pouring all his stamina and Qi into the automatic medicine cauldron. The cauldron let out a clear hum, and the tablet beside it showed the words "refining in progress, heating in ..." With a countdown beside it!

After that, the medicinal cauldron began to heat up slowly. After warming it up for about an incense stick's time, it finally entered the pill refining state.

The automatic Shennong medicinal cauldron had been modified by Han Jing Jing's genius. As long as the flow of true Qi was not cut off, the internal program would automatically adjust the flame and temperature. The excess true Qi would be stored in the energy stone at the bottom of the medicinal cauldron. If the true Qi was exhausted at the end of the pill refinement, the medicinal cauldron would detect that there was not enough true Qi and automatically activate the reserve true Qi stored in the energy stone to make up for it!

However, an energy stone was still enough for a third level pill. A big energy stone was enough to make a third level pill. Even Lin Yi, who made a few at once, only needed one energy stone and some of his own Qi!

However, it was not possible for fourth-grade pills. To refine one, the amount of true Qi energy required was huge. Not to mention one energy stone, it would be good enough if ten or twenty energy stones could be used!

And so, Lin Yi decided to do some research and see if he could change the energy stones into spirit Jade! This way, he would be able to replenish more true Qi and not fail in his alchemy!

However, Lin Yi didn't dare to change it recklessly. He didn't understand these things and it would be terrible if he messed it up! So, he'd better work hard on himself first. If he could meet Han Jingjing in the future, he'd ask her to help him transform!

Under the control of the pill fire generated by true Qi, the medicinal herbs in the medicinal cauldron began to change little by little. This process was slow and gentle. If it were an ordinary person, they would not be able to detect it at all. However, this was precisely the process that alchemists enjoyed the most.

However, Lin Yi wouldn't be able to enjoy it! He didn't know what was going on in the cauldron. He was looking at the tablet beside him!

Time passed by bit by bit. In the blink of an eye, two hours had passed. The medicinal properties and spiritual energy of all the medicinal herbs in the automatic Shennong medicinal cauldron had been completely released under the control of the pill fire.

The level of fullness was unbelievable. If it was said that the medicinal properties and spiritual energy of each individual herb was one, then at this moment, the 30 herbs mixed together in the medicinal cauldron, after the complex catalysis of the pill fire and various auxiliary materials, the result was no longer a simple one plus one Result of 30. It was far from 300, but 3000, or even 30000!

Even Shennong's medicine cauldron was unable to withstand such a vast amount of medicinal properties and spiritual energy. It began to hum continuously, and one could even smell the medicinal fragrance leaking out from within the Jade space.

Terrible! Lin Yi's calm face changed. He had absolute confidence in Shennong's medicine cauldron, but this was a little out of the ordinary. It wasn't time to produce the pill yet, and the cauldron was reacting so violently. Did something happen?

Lin Yi was a little nervous, but he couldn't just give up halfway. He had to continue.

He looked at the tablet beside him-there wasn't any indication. Lin Yi thought to himself. He'd never made a grade four pill before, and Han Jingjing only made a theoretical modification. She'd never made one before. Could it be that putting in three sets of ingredients at once was beyond the automatic Shennong medicine cauldron's limit?

Chapter 3652 Failed?

Although he had never encountered such a problem before, the foundation breaking pill he was refining this time was a true fourth grade pill. Who knew what kind of accident would happen!

Lin Yi continued to be on edge for another two hours, and while the cauldron buzzed non-stop, nothing else happened. Lin Yi let out a breath of relief.

Finally, along with the last buzzing sound, which was even brighter and clearer than the previous one, the pill refining finally ended. At this point, even Lin Yi, who was used to staying calm in the face of danger, broke out in cold sweat.

The first two hours were still fine, and everything was under control, but the last two hours were too fucking torturous. If it were a weak-minded person, they would have been scared to the point of insanity!

After calming himself down and stabilizing his breathing, Lin Yi stood up and opened Shennong's cauldron.

As soon as the lid was opened, a strong medicinal smell filled the entire space. Lin Yi only took a whiff and immediately felt refreshed.

Looking at the signs, it should be considered a success, right?

Lin Yi looked into the cauldron expectantly, and after a while, he froze. He turned to look at the tablet and understood ...

F * ck! No wonder he had been acting so strangely since two hours ago! No wonder he was so scared that he almost went crazy! It turned out that this was the source of all the abnormalities!

At the same time, at the entrance of cave number fourteen, the miserable senior brother was waiting anxiously. If Lin Yi was only worried about the last two hours, then the miserable senior brother had been worried for the whole night.

After all, Lin Yi's ability to make the breakthrough pill would directly affect whether he could carry Lu bianren's trust in Him. When facing Meng jueguang, an early Foundation Stage and a peak early Foundation Stage senior were two completely different things.

The foundation breakthrough pill was his only hope of breaking through, and if Lin Yi couldn't make it, then his hope would be gone.

Other than Lin Yi, the only other way to make pills was to go to the pill Hall. Even if Lin Yi gave him 30 pieces of spiritual Jade last night, plus the spiritual Jade he had saved up, it was still far from the 200 spiritual Jade requested by the pill Hall! Not to mention, even if they managed to gather two hundred spiritual jades, the alchemists of the pill Hall might not be able to refine it successfully!

As he waited anxiously, the sky brightened up. Just as the bitter senior brother was thinking if he should help Lin Yi ask for a day off from the spirit Jade Hall, the door of cave number fourteen finally opened and Lin Yi walked out.

"Eh? Senior brother ku, you didn't stay here the whole night, did you?" Lin Yi asked, surprised to see the guy standing guard at the door.

"Sigh, I'm just feeling nervous. I can't rest when I go back anyway, so I might as well wait here." Senior brother ku smiled awkwardly and said nervously, ""How is it? Did you succeed?"

It was rare for his senior brother to be so nervous! Lin Yi couldn't help but shake his head and chuckled, making the bitter-faced guy's heart tighten as he stammered, "Failed? But it's nothing, just a dozen or so spirit jades ..."

The miserable senior brother thought about it. If he failed, at most he would lose some materials, but it was really nothing!

Lin Yi didn't say anything. He stretched out his hand and revealed two snow-white pills in his palm. The medicinal fragrance was overbearing. They were the widely known Foundation breakthrough pills!

Gulu! The miserable senior brother swallowed his saliva. At first, he was in disbelief, but after confirming it, he was ecstatic. "He actually succeeded? Junior Brother Lin, you're really something! No wonder even senior brother Lu praised you for hiding your true strength!"

To be honest, although he was hoping that Lin Yi would succeed, he still felt that Lin Yi might not be able to compete with the alchemists from the hall of alchemy. After all, those people were the main force of the North Island. Although Lin Yi was also an Alchemist, he was from the secular world. He was not on the same level as these people.

Even these North island's local refiners had such a low success rate-it was obvious that a common refiner like Lin Yi would have an even lower success rate. They didn't think that Lin Yi would be able to produce two Foundation breakthrough pills in one night-it was like a dream!

It wasn't that he looked down on the world of ordinary cultivators-it was the truth. The world of ordinary cultivators was on a completely different level from the Sky Class Island, and alchemy happened to be the most important part.

According to his senior brother's knowledge, there was only one person in the world of cultivation who could look down on the Sky Class island's local alchemists in terms of alchemy-the divine Alchemist, Zhang Liju. But what he didn't know was that Lin Yi, who was standing in front of him, happened to be Zhang Liju's unofficially accepted disciple.

Lin Yi chuckled and gave the two pills to the guy. "Two Foundation breakthrough pills should be enough to ensure that you can break through the barrier, senior brother ku!"

Unexpectedly, the miserable senior brother only took one of them and said gratefully, "One is enough for me. You can keep the rest for yourself, Junior Brother Lin. After all, you will need them in the future."

Seeing that Lin Yi was still going to reject, the guy quickly said, "If it were the pill Hall, if they were to successfully refine two pills at once, not only would they have to keep one of them, but I would also have to pay two hundred spiritual jades in advance. In this way, I'm already taking advantage of them! So, Junior Brother Lin, please don't refuse, or else I won't be able to rest easy!"

"Hehe, senior brother ku, when did I tell you that I only managed to make two Foundation breakthrough pills?" Lin Yi asked with a smile.

"Ha? More than two? Could it be three?" The senior brother's brain suddenly stopped working.

He'd only provided three sets of ingredients, and Lin Yi made three Foundation breakthrough pills in one go-didn't that mean he had a 100% success rate? Even if Lin Yi did say that using Jade could increase the success rate, this was too much!

If these words were to spread out, wouldn't those pill Hall's so-called alchemists die of embarrassment!

Even now, the overjoyed and miserable Shixiong still didn't realize that the two Foundation breakthrough pills Lin Yi gave him had a Halo on them!

Even if it was the same type of pill, there was a world of difference between one with pill Halo and one without.

Pill Halo meant that it was the best of the best among this kind of pills. Its effects were far beyond that of ordinary goods. This was a rare item that could only be found by chance. Even if he had more spiritual Jade on hand, he might not be able to buy it!

Chapter 3653 More Than Expected

Lin Yi smiled noncommittally and gave the pill to the guy as well, "So senior martial brother ku, you can rest assured and accept it. Although one foundation breaking pill is enough to break through from early Foundation establishment to the peak of early Foundation establishment, it's better to have two guarantees. Besides, even if you can't use the second one this time, won't you still be able to use it the next time you break through to the mid Foundation Stage?"

"Then ... Alright, thank you, Junior Brother Lin." The poor guy thought about it and accepted it, but he was thinking that he owed Lin Yi more and more favors-how was he going to pay him back?

He wanted to take advantage of the fact that Lin Yi wasn't that strong yet and do everything he could to protect him-this might be the only way he could repay him!

The poor Shixiong couldn't help but smile bitterly. He was the Shixiong, why was he always receiving Lin Yi's help? it seemed like what Shixiong Lu said was true, his Shidi Lin was not an ordinary person, he was going to soar to the sky!

He carefully put away the two Foundation breakthrough pills, and after informing Lin Yi, he couldn't wait to go back and break through.

Lin Yi, on the other hand, looked up at the sky. He didn't look tired at all and went to the spirit Jade Hall to report for mining as usual. It wasn't that he wasn't tired, but that he was in high spirits when something good happened, and he was very happy at this time!

As for the reason, it was naturally because the result of last night's alchemy had given him a huge surprise.

This surprise wasn't the three Foundation-breaking pills that his senior brother had imagined. In reality, when he opened the cauldron to check, he found six pills! There was actually one more than the tablet's initial estimation!

In the end, the tablet displayed a sentence: "Congratulations, Lin Yi bro, you got one more than expected!"

Lin Yi didn't know whether to laugh or cry! But later on, Lin Yi kept thinking about the same question- why would there be an extra one?

The conclusion was that the herbs on Sky Class Island had more spiritual Qi than those in the mortal world, so the quality was higher. With the same amount of herbs, it was natural to make more pills!

There were a total of six Foundation-breaking pills, and each of them had a core Halo!

This was also the reason why Shennong's medicine cauldron was constantly reacting abnormally during the previous pill refining process. Qianqian had only put in three portions of medicinal herbs, which was estimated to be five pills, but in the end, she had refined six Foundation-breaking pills. Moreover, each of them was of the highest quality, which could only be encountered by luck. How could this be reasonable?

Three sets of ingredients produced six pills at once, and the cauldron was supposed to be made with five pills ... Lin Yi guessed that if it was a normal Tier 4 cauldron, it would've exploded!

However, han Jingjing must have considered the possibility of refining an extra pill in such a sudden situation. Otherwise, she would not have said that last sentence! Therefore, although it was dangerous, han Jingjing probably had some measures in place, which was why she was able to successfully refine it!

This was a level four pill! He made six of them in one go! If word of this got out, all the refiners would be blinded! They'd be so embarrassed that they'd want to die, and they might even have to cut Lin Yi into pieces for research!

Comparing people to each other was really infuriating-with a freak like Lin Yi, how were the high and mighty alchemists supposed to live? Peers are enemies, this saying was indeed not false!

But the good thing was that Lin Yi's attempt to make the breakthrough Foundation pill was a secret that both Lin Yi and his fellow apprentice-brother would keep.

An ordinary man is innocent, but a treasure is a crime-this wasn't just for show. If word got out, it'd bring disaster to the world, and good things would become bad things. It didn't fit Lin Yi's usual low profile strategy.

Before he was strong enough to crush everything, he had to keep a low profile and make a fortune. This was the best way to settle down on sky order Island.

Of the six Foundation breakthrough pills, Lin Yi had given two to the poor guy and kept four for himself. He'd make a Foundation golden pill later, and with the two combined, he wouldn't have to worry about getting stronger in the Foundation Stage.

For the next few days, Lin Yi's daily mission was to report to the spirit Jade Hall and stay in the tenth Kuangqu for a day.

Because Lin Yi himself had his own choices of hiding two to three pieces of useless Jade every day, the number of good jades he got after inspection always fluctuated between eight to twelve pieces.

As one of the worst Kuangqu, it was shocking to see so much good Jade every day, but Lin Yi was no stranger to it.

In the past, Meng jueguang and Meng Tong would've tried their best to find out what was going on, but after the last time they had to change Kuangqu, they had completely given up on this idea.

Lin Yi was just lucky, what else could he do with all the good Jade he got from the tenth Kuangqu? If it was someone else who went in, they would not be able to dig out a single piece of good Jade!

Having learned his lesson from last time, Meng jueguang had already accepted this iron-clad fact. He might as well go out of sight and out of mind.

As far as he was concerned, even if Lin Yi could keep up his high yield, he'd only get three spiritual jades a month at most. Even if he did get the pay, he'd just have to tell the newbies, and they'd trade the good jades for it.

An idiot would always be an idiot. So what if they could earn more spiritual jades? in the end, they would still benefit from it!

And so, Meng jueguang couldn't wait for Lin Yi to dig out more Jade-the more he dug, the more his own people would gain!

Without the interference of Meng jueguang and the others, Lin Yi's mining days were rather ordinary. Just when he thought that this peace would last until the 25th, an unexpected incident happened on the day before the newbie test, which everyone was looking forward to.

And the source of this interlude was his enemy, Meng Tong.

On this day, Meng Tong reported to the spirit Jade Hall as usual.

Originally, he had planned to slack off. After all, mining every day was really boring and boring. Unfortunately, although he had the backing of Meng jueguang and it was not difficult for him to apply for leave, he still had to work hard to earn more spiritual Jade. Otherwise, even Meng jueguang, his ninth cousin who was related to him by blood, would not have given him spiritual Jade for free.

Chapter 3654 Meng Tong's Greedy Mouth

"It'd be great if that idiot Lin Yi had a lot of good Jade in his hands!" Meng Tong couldn't help but look forward to it.

It was an innate nature to hate hard work. Compared to digging in the Kuangqu all day and taking a few pieces of useless Jade from Meng jueguang to exchange for Lin Yi's good Jade, this was much more to his liking.

In fact, Meng Tong was starting to regret it. He regretted that he was so big-mouthed back then and let that idiot Lin Yi know that he couldn't tell the difference between good and bad Jade. Now that he thought about it, he was really stupid!

If she hadn't let it slip, the other newbies wouldn't have known that she could trade useless Jade for good Jade with the idiot Lin Yi. Wouldn't all of Lin Yi's good Jade be hers then?

That was a total of 15 pieces of good Jade! Even if he worked hard in the seventh Kuangqu for three months, he would not be able to earn half of those 15 pieces of jade! If that was the case, why would he have to go to the Kuangqu area every day? he could even lie down in his cave abode and play with spirit Jade!

But this kind of good thing could only be imagined. No matter how stupid Meng Tong was, he knew that if he did that, the Jade he got from Lin Yi would most likely end up in Meng jueguang's hands. At most, he'd be able to get some leftovers.

After sighing for a while, Meng Tong had to report to Kuangqu as usual. However, when he passed through the long underground corridor and was about to enter the mining area, he suddenly stopped.

"What's this?" Meng Tong couldn't help but look around. He had clearly caught a glimpse of a black and white shadow darting past his eyes. The Shadow's movements were quite Swift.

A normal person might not have been able to react in time, but Meng Tong was a Sky Class full master after all. He didn't see what it looked like, but he was sure that the shadow that had just passed him was a spirit beast.

"A spirit beast! That meat is much more delicious than the meat of ordinary wild beasts!" Thinking of this, Meng Tong couldn't help but swallow his saliva.

Logically speaking, Sky Class Masters should be able to completely skip eating and just absorb the Qi from the world every day to meet their needs-they didn't need to eat anymore.

However, this didn't mean that all the Sky Class and above didn't eat. In fact, most of the practitioners would still eat from time to time due to their habits. Of course, it wasn't necessary for them to eat now, and it was purely to satisfy their cravings.

Take Meng Tong for example-he'd been a Sky Class for years already, and even though he didn't need to eat, he still had the habit of eating all sorts of delicacies every day, even going out every few days to hunt a few rare beasts for a sumptuous meal.

From his experience, even the meat of a rare wild beast could not be compared to the meat of a spirit beast.

One must know that spirit beasts were equivalent to cultivators among wild beasts. Even the weakest of them were the essence of the spiritual energy of heaven and earth. Their meat was not only far more delicious than ordinary wild beasts, but more importantly, it contained spiritual energy. Even for cultivators, it was a rare tonic. Its effect was not comparable to that of medicinal pills, but it was not much worse.

Before Meng Tong had come to the welcoming new pavilion, he had often feasted on the spirit beasts in the deep mountains and old forests of the North Island. Of course, they were all relatively weak spirit beasts of yellow rank or even non-class, so it was not too difficult to capture them. Secondly, it would not cause too much of a commotion and attract the attention of others. This was of great importance.

The Sky Class Island was different from the secular world. In the secular world, as long as you had the strength, you could kill any spirit beast you wanted. But on the Sky Class Island, you couldn't. Even the weakest spirit beast could be killed. If this kind of thing was exposed, it would be a big problem.

There was no other reason. On this Sky Class Island, spirit beasts were cultivators just like humans. They could even transform into human forms after becoming stronger. In the pursuit of the heavenly Dao, everyone was on equal footing.

The southern part of the sky-class Island was known as the spirit beast Island. The powerful spirit beast clan gathered there, and their strength was no less than any human sect.

The declaration issued by the spirit beast clan clearly stated that anyone who dared to kill a spirit beast on the Sky Class Island would be regarded as an enemy of the entire spirit beast clan, and they would not rest until one of them was dead. This declaration had been acknowledged by several top sects on the middle Island through the relentless efforts of the spirit beast clan.

This way, not only the spirit beasts on the southern part of the sky-class Island, but also the lives of the spirit beasts on the other islands would be protected to a certain extent.

However, the spirit beast clan's true power was ultimately limited to the South of the Sky Class Island. Although the human masters in other places would avoid it in public, they might not really take the declaration seriously in private.

For example, a cultivator like Meng Tong, who was used to eating, would never kill a spirit beast in front of others. However, behind his back, he had eaten at least 80, if not 100, weak spirit beasts. Anyway, as long as no one found out and reported him, he would be able to eat him up without anyone knowing.

"I wonder what kind of spirit beast it will be!" Meng Tong's eyes lit up. He immediately turned around and began to search for the figure.

He had been in the welcoming new pavilion for more than twenty days. However, he had not been able to eat a single bite of meat because of the surrounding environment. He had been holding it in for so many days that his mouth had long lost its flavor. Now that a spirit beast had taken the initiative to come to his door, how could he let it go?

The spirit Jade Hall was heavily guarded both inside and outside. However, there were no guards in the corridor in front of the mining area.

This made things convenient for Meng Tong. After all, if there were guards everywhere, he couldn't openly capture spirit beasts, or he would be arrested as a suspicious person.

However, Meng Tong searched around the corridor but could not find the shadow of the spirit beast. When he finally decided to give up and resentfully returned to the Kuangqu, he once again found the black and white figure in front of the gate.

"A Curly Bear?" Meng Tong's eyes widened when he saw the small figure sneakily trying to sneak through the gate.

When it stood up, it was less than half the height of a human. It had a round head, a chubby body, and a body full of milky white fur. Only its eyes, ears, and chest were black. It was clearly a Curly Bear cub.

Of course, it couldn't be said to be a pure Cub. In terms of age, this Curly Bear was at least a teenager!

Chapter 3655 Elated

However, it was a natural spirit beast, and its life cycle was much longer than that of humans, so it was still in its infancy.

If it was an adult Curly Bear, even a Sky Class full master like Meng Tong would have to take a detour- but this Cub was at most a golden class mid phase. Normal people might not be able to do anything to it, but if Meng Tong wanted to catch it, it would be a piece of cake.

However, what happened next made Meng Tong's jaw drop.

The baby Curly Bear tried to sneak into the Kuangqu, but the metal door was too heavy. No matter how it pushed or scratched, it didn't move. It didn't show any signs of opening. On the other hand, Dai Wuchang, who was dozing off on a table not far away, seemed to be woken up by its scratching.

"What's with all the noise!" "F * ck!" Dai Wuchang cursed in his sleep.

The curly Bear cub was scared out of its wits. It turned its head and ran to the side, only to find Meng Tong waiting for it within two steps. It was so frightened that it quickly turned around again, and in its panic, it hit its head on a stone pillar and fainted.

"Damn, there's still this stupid grizzly bear. I really didn't need to waste any effort!" Meng Tong was immediately amused. Wasn't this the old saying of "waiting for rabbits by the tree"? today was really a day of good fortune. He was destined to have a big feast!

When no one was looking, Meng Tong immediately picked up Curly Bear, who had fainted on the ground, and turned around to enter Meng jueguang's private work room not far away.

Just like the other cave abodes, the private workshop in the spirit Jade Hall also had a forbidden spell. However, to make it easier for Meng Tong to run errands for him, Meng jueguang had specially taught him the incantation to enter and exit this place.

The reason why Meng Tong had carried the curly Bear here was because he had thought about it before. After all, the spirit Jade Hall was heavily guarded. If he carried the curly Bear out, things would become unclear. Not only would he not be able to eat the spirit beast meat that was delivered to his mouth today, he might even be punished.

However, there was no problem in Meng jueguang's personal workplace. Although it belonged to Ling Yu Hall, it was still Meng jueguang's personal space. Under normal circumstances, only Meng jueguang could enter and leave this place.

Meng Tong might not have had the guts to eat spirit beast meat in front of others, but Meng jueguang was different. Not only was he his backer, but the two of them had also had a history of feasting together, so he could rest assured.

When Meng Tong came in with the curly Bear, Meng jueguang wasn't there, so Meng Tong happily took all the food for himself. He immediately threw the curly Bear on the ground and began to work.

Although the cultivators above the heaven class had already fasted, the private workplace of the spiritual Jade Hall was very humane. Not only was there all kinds of washing facilities, there was even a place for a fire. This was obviously to satisfy some people's hunger. Of course, the original intention of this setting was definitely not to let people roast spirit beasts.

This made things much easier for Meng Tong. He couldn't wait to boil the water. He couldn't wait to remove the fur from the curly Bear cub that had delivered itself to his door. However, when he saw the round body on the ground, especially the pair of furry paws, he couldn't help but gulp.

This was a spirit beast that could only be encountered and not sought! Although Meng Tong had had many sumptuous feasts before, this was his first time seeing a Curly Bear, especially one that was a Cub.

After all, curly bears were very rare and belonged to a very rare spirit beast. Even if they were lucky enough to encounter one in the deep mountains and old forests, it would definitely be an adult Curly Bear, not a Cub that appeared alone.

But if he encountered an adult Curly Bear, with Meng Tong's strength, he would be able to feed the bear with his teeth!

While Meng Tong was busy boiling the water, the curly Bear cub that he had knocked unconscious earlier finally woke up. "Wuwu ..."

It turned its round head around and saw the busy Meng Tong. The Cub seemed to realize that it was in a bad situation. When Meng Tong wasn't paying attention to it, it wittily sneaked toward the door. When it was almost at the door, it suddenly sped up and ran out!

Unfortunately, it didn't know that there was a forbidden spell at the door. With a bang, it was forcibly bounced back.

"Yo! You stupid bear cub, how dare you try to escape from my grasp!" Meng Tong was startled when he heard the sound. It was only then that he noticed that the little fellow had woken up so quickly.

"Wuwuwuwu!" The curly Bear cub stood up straight, gritted its teeth, and made a fierce look at Meng Tong. However, while it put on an act, its two short legs kept moving back.

Seeing this, Meng Tong was immediately amused. He crossed his arms and looked at it calmly. "This little shriveled up brat actually knows how to play tricks. There are really all kinds of birds in a big forest!"

Sure enough, the little guy saw that Meng Tong was unmoved. When he quietly approached the door again, he suddenly turned around and rushed out.

However, before it could hit the forbidden spell again, Meng Tong's Big Foot had already landed on its chest. With one kick, it flew back three feet and smashed into the wall on the other side of the room.

Pada! Little Tian was lying on the ground with a clear palm print on its chest. Although it was not killed by the kick, it was seriously injured and on its last breath. It no longer had the lively spirit energy it had before.

After all, Meng Tong was a Sky Class full master. Even if he didn't use his full strength, the Cub couldn't withstand his kick.

"Tsk! You want to fight with me, master Meng Tong, with this little IQ? you really don't know how to spell the word "death"!" "F * ck!" Meng Tong cursed. At that moment, the water was boiling. He picked up the bear cub from the ground and was ready to throw it into the boiling water to shed its fur.

But just as he was about to strike, Meng jueguang's surprised voice came from behind him. "What are you doing?"

"Ninth cousin brother, you're back!" Meng Tong turned around and presented the bear cub to Meng jueguang as if he was presenting a treasure. He said excitedly, "Ninth cousin, what do you think this is?"

Meng jueguang looked at the thing in Meng Tong's hand and was stunned. He suddenly felt that it looked familiar. "This is ..."

"That's right! This was the curly Bear! And it was a rare Cub! I just caught it at the entrance of the Kuangqu. We can have a good meal today!" Meng Tong's face was filled with joy.

However, after hearing this, Meng jueguang's face turned pale. He pointed at Meng Tong and stammered, "This ... This was caught at the entrance of your Kuangqu?"

"Yeah! "This little thing looks smart, but it's actually just a stupid bear. It knocked me unconscious right in front of me. It's like it's delivered itself to our door for us to have a meal ..." Meng Tong thought that Meng jueguang was happy, so he continued to Jabber on proudly.

Chapter 3656 Big Trouble!

But before he could finish speaking, Meng jueguang's palm came flying over his face, beating him up while cursing, "You're the idiot! If you want to F * cking die, then go. Why did you come to my room?! You idiot, do you know what this fellow's background is? you even want to eat it, you really don't know what to write even if you die ..."

"Uh ... Ninth cousin, if you have something to say, let's talk it out. Don 't, don't hit me!" Meng Tong was immediately dumbfounded. Meng jueguang had chased him around the room and beaten him so badly that he had almost suffered internal injuries.

After a while, Meng jueguang's anger subsided a little when he saw Meng Tong's face turn into a pig's head. He looked at the curly Bear cub on the ground and scolded, "It's a good thing I came back in time, otherwise if this little thing was really killed by you, you and I would both die in the mountains, not a good death!"

"This ... It can't be that exaggerated, right? Isn't it just a small Curly Bear?" Meng Tong looked at Meng jueguang with a bitter expression.

"And it's just a Curly Bear cub?" Meng jueguang immediately exploded in anger. "I'll be dragged down to death by you sooner or later, you idiot! Do you even know who its owner is? Its owner is called Shangguan LAN 'er!"

"Shangguan LAN 'er? Who's that?" Meng Tong was still confused.

Meng jueguang looked at him as if he were an idiot and sighed with lingering fear. "You don't know about Shangguan LAN 'er, but you should know about her grandfather, Shangguan Tianhua, right?"

"The pavilion master of the rising Sky Pavilion, Shangguan Tianhua!" Meng Tong almost peed his pants.

He was different from Lin Yi, who was just a regular rookie. Meng Tong had heard a lot about the upper-class people because of his close relationship with Meng jueguang. This Pavilion master, Shangguan Tianhua, was one of the top three big shots on the entire North Island.

"This ... This thing is the spiritual pet of Shangguan Tianhua's granddaughter?!"

After thinking this through, Meng Tong immediately felt that his life was dark. His life was about to come to an end, and he even wanted to eat the spiritual pet of the Grandmaster of the rising Sky Pavilion. Even if he wanted to die, this was not the right way to do it!

"What do you think? If this thing didn't have such a background, if the guards didn't turn a blind eye, would it be able to enter the spirit Jade Hall with its little strength? Do you think everyone is an idiot like you?" Meng jueguang rolled his eyes in annoyance.

If this guy wasn't his relative, Meng jueguang would have even wanted to arrest Meng Tong and turn him in. Once this matter was found out by Shangguan LAN 'er, the beloved daughter of the rising Sky Pavilion's master, he wouldn't even know how he died!

"Then, then what do we do now?" Meng Tong stammered, his face pale.

"It's a good thing you haven't killed this thing yet. Didn't you just say that it knocked itself unconscious? then it shouldn't have suffered any injuries. Let's throw it out and pretend that nothing happened!" Meng jueguang said, taking a deep breath.

In the end, Meng Tong lowered his head even more and said weakly, "It wasn't injured at first, but it woke up halfway and wanted to escape. Then I kicked it ..."

"F * ck!" Meng jueguang was speechless. After checking the little guy's weak breathing, he even wanted to kill Meng Tong!

What kind of pig-like teammates were they!

Unwilling to give up, Meng jueguang pressed on the Cub's chest, but the little fellow began to foam at the mouth. His anger flared up. "Are you F * cking crazy? Is there a need to use such a deadly method to deal with such a small thing?"

"You, you can't blame me for this. I didn't use much strength. It was just a light kick. Who knew that a spirit beast would be so weak ..." Meng Tong scratched his head innocently.

In fact, his kick just now was quite heavy. He was afraid that the little thing would continue to make a noise and attract someone outside. That would be a big problem. In the end, with this kick, the trouble was even greater!

Looking at the clear footprint on the Cub's chest, Meng Tong couldn't help but panic. He rolled his eyes and said, "Why don't we just throw it out? no one will know that I kicked it anyway!"

"You're the idiot! Do you think that everyone else is an idiot like you?"

Hearing this, Meng jueguang immediately scolded him and said in disdain, "After they found these footprints, didn't they find someone to compare them with? Let me tell you, with miss Shangguan's personality, even if we turn the entire Ling Yu Hall upside down, she will definitely find the murderer who killed her spiritual pet. At that time, you can just wait for death!"

"Then what do we do?" Meng Tong was so frightened by these words that he wanted to cry but had no tears. He said helplessly, "Why don't we secretly throw it out? No one should be able to find it in the wilderness, right?"

Originally, it would have been a more reliable way to eat the little thing according to his original plan. After all, the bear was nowhere to be found, and even if people wanted to investigate, they might not be able to find Meng Tong.

But now that he knew about this little thing's terrifying background, Meng Tong didn't dare to have such a rebellious thought. At this time, even looking at it was enough to make him shudder, let alone eating it. At this moment, the only thought in his mind was to throw it as far away as possible. It would be best if he could throw it 108000 miles away and never see it again in his life!

Meng jueguang looked at him helplessly. "Throw it into the wilderness? Do you think you can escape like this? Miss Shangguan can mobilize hundreds or even thousands of Masters with just a word-even searching the entire Sky Class island's northern part would be a piece of cake. Besides, how do you know she doesn't have a special way to find a spiritual pet?"

"Then what should we do? The footprint on its chest can't be removed for a while, so we can't push the blame on others, right? Ninth older cousin brother, you must not leave him in the lurch!" Meng Tong said with a sad face.

This time, he was really scared to the point of peeing his pants. If he could escape this calamity, he would probably be traumatized for the rest of his life and would never dare to eat spirit beasts again.

"Frame someone?" Meng jueguang's eyes lit up at these words. He slapped his thigh and said, "That's a good idea!"

"This ... Will this work?" "Ninth cousin, the shoes I'm wearing are issued by the welcoming new pavilion. If they compare the footprints, they'll know that it was done by the newcomers of the welcoming new pavilion. If they call all the newcomers out for comparison, won't I still be unable to escape?" Meng Tong said doubtfully.

"Calling you an idiot isn't an insult to you at all!" Meng jueguang slapped Meng Tong on the head in a bad mood and analyzed, "Even if miss Shangguan knows that it was done by the newcomers of the welcoming new pavilion through the shoe prints, there are so many newcomers, and there are many people with similar shoe sizes to you. As long as you create a preconceived illusion for her, who will suspect you? What an idiot!"

Chapter 3657 Framed Again

"Preconceived? How do we create the illusion that we're the first to enter?" Meng Tong was still confused.

"You're so stupid! Anyway, this little thing is already dying, and who knows when she will die. We just have to throw it into someone else's cave, and when miss Shangguan comes out to look for it, we can lead the way for her. Then, we can catch her with the evidence, and it will become a fact!" Meng jueguang chuckled smugly.

"Oh, right! Ninth older cousin brother is brilliant!" Hearing that there was a way to save himself, Meng Tong suddenly became energetic, but then he frowned and said, "Then who should we frame?"

Meng jueguang pouted. "Isn't it all ready? let me ask you. Who do you hate the most?"

"That goes without saying, Lin Yi!" Realization dawned on Meng Tong. He clapped his hands excitedly and said, "Oh, right! This kid's height is about the same as mine, and his shoe size should be about the same as mine. Moreover, he's mining now and not in the immortal's cave. He's simply born to be our scapegoat!"

"If everything goes well this time, not only can we get rid of suspicion, but we can also kill this blind boy in one step. I'd like to see how this boy will face the anger of miss Shangguan!" Meng jueguang said with a ruthless expression.

"Hehe! Miss Shangguan's background is much more powerful than young master Xu 's, Lin Yi's dead for sure this time!" Meng Tong heaved a sigh of relief and said with lingering fear, "Ninth cousin brother, you're so smart. Otherwise, I would be the one who died this time ..."

"To be able to turn a crisis into an opportunity, that's true wisdom. You better learn from this in the future, kid!" Meng jueguang proudly raised his chin.

"That's for sure. I can't learn all the things ninth older cousin has in my lifetime!" Meng Tong quickly flattered Meng jueguang, who laughed smugly.

Without further ado, the two of them immediately found a black bag that was usually used to store spiritual Jade and put the curly Bear cub inside. Then, they specially found a basket with a lid to carry it on their backs.

Because the small size of the curly Bear cub was on the verge of death and couldn't move, no one could tell from the outside. In addition, Meng jueguang was familiar with this area of the spirit Jade Hall, so the guards didn't suspect anything. The two of them smoothly took the curly Bear cub out.

After leaving the spirit Jade Hall, the two of them headed straight for Lin Yi's cave. Taking advantage of Lin Yi's absence, Meng jueguang had Meng Tong stand guard while he broke the cave's forbidden spell and put the Cub in. He then repaired the cave to its original state.

As most of the new disciples of the GreenCloud Pavilion were Kuangqu in the mines, Xiao ran and Qiao hongcai, who were the only two who did not go to the mines, were immersed in their cultivation because they had obtained a lot of spiritual Jade some time ago. They were completely unaware of what was happening outside.

After doing all this, Meng jueguang and Meng Tong returned to the spirit Jade Hall. However, they did not enter the Kuangqu, but instead stood guard at the entrance of the mining area, waiting for Shangguan LAN 'er to come to them.

According to Meng jueguang's past experience, the curly Bear cub would not be out for more than a day before its owner, Shangguan LAN 'er, would come looking for it.

In fact, any old man who had been in the spirit Jade Hall for years would recognize this young Curly Bear.

This was not the first time it had come to the spirit Jade Hall. Due to the abundance of spirit Qi in the Kuangqu, it was quite attractive to spirit beasts. Especially since the curly Bear was a legendary rare spirit beast that could feed on spirit Jade, the mining area and storage of the spirit Jade Hall were fatal temptations for it. Therefore, in the past few years, the young Curly Bear would find an opportunity to sneak over a few times every year.

And for the sake of its master, Shangguan LAN 'er, everyone in the spirit Jade Hall would turn a blind eye to it. Even if they caught it in the act, they would just laugh it off. However, no one would have thought that it would meet the glutton Meng Tong this year. It was simply fated to have this calamity.

However, perhaps it was because she was already used to the behavior of her spiritual pet, Shangguan LAN 'er, who had always been very nervous about the whereabouts of the curly Bear, did not appear this time. Meng jueguang and Meng Tong were full of anticipation as they waited for Kuangqu to end, but they still did not see the shadow of this young lady.

The two didn't see Shangguan LAN 'er, but Lin Yi came first, but Lin Yi obviously didn't have the interest to talk to them, walking past them.

Seeing that Lin Yi had left, Meng jueguang pouted at Meng Tong and whispered, "I'll continue to wait here. You follow him and keep an eye on him. See what he will do after he finds that little thing. If he wants to throw it out quietly in the dark, you call others to catch him in the act. The bigger the commotion, the better!"

"Alright, ninth older cousin brother is really thoughtful!" Meng Tong responded and quickly followed.

According to a normal person's logic, the first reaction when they found something wrong was to deal with it quietly without anyone knowing, so as not to get into trouble.

Meng jueguang's concern was very reasonable. If Lin Yi really threw the Cub out, everything they'd done would be in vain. They might even bring the trouble back to Meng Tong. If they didn't follow the plan and let the Miss think that Lin Yi was the culprit, it would be troublesome.

With Meng Tong's strength and methods, it was impossible for him to keep an eye on Lin Yi, but fortunately, his cave was right next to Lin Yi 's, so Lin Yi didn't suspect anything even if he followed him.

It wasn't until he entered his cave and saw the black and white little guy on the ground that Lin Yi couldn't help but freeze. "What kind of spirit beast is this?"

The curly Bear was a spirit beast born and raised on Sky Class Island, and because of its small number, even a practitioner wouldn't be able to recognize it. It was perfectly normal for a practitioner from the common world like Lin Yi to not recognize it.

Although he didn't know what kind of spirit beast it was, Lin Yi's intuition told him that this little guy wasn't a threat to him at all, not to mention that it was already breathing more heavily than it was breathing, and it looked like it was on the verge of death.

Lin Yi didn't have time to wonder why the little guy would appear in his cave out of nowhere. He walked over and helped it up, placed his palm on its chest and started circulating the art of Dragon mastery, trying to transfer Qi into it. After all, it was a spiritual being in the world, and he couldn't just watch it die in front of his eyes.

The dying bear opened its eyes after sensing the Qi Lin Yi was giving it. It cried weakly, "Wuwu

Chapter 3658 Shangguan LAN 'Er

"It seems to be effective." Lin Yi let out a breath of relief. He was worried that his pure energy wouldn't work on it. He used to use his pure energy to heal people and spirit beasts in the common world, but who knew if the native spirit beasts of Sky Class Island had special physiques? it didn't seem that bad now.

He continued to channel Qi into the Cub to heal its injuries, and the Cub's complexion started to look better. After five minutes, its eyes started to roll around, and it regained its former liveliness. It held its round head and looked at Lin Yi curiously.

This little guy was quite cute, and should be very popular with girls!

Lin Yi chuckled at the sight-the dog's energy had recovered, which meant that its injuries were mostly healed. He pulled his hand back.

The little guy, on the other hand, started to wail when Lin Yi stopped giving it Qi. It quickly wrapped its meaty paws around Lin Yi's hands, making sure that he kept them on its chest.

"You want me to continue to give you true energy?" Lin Yi didn't know whether to laugh or cry.

"Wuwuwuwu!" The little guy seemed to understand Lin Yi's words and nodded.

Lin Yi wasn't surprised at all. After all, the pig that was sleeping in his Jade space could understand human language, and it could even write and communicate with people. After all, it was a spirit beast, and its intelligence was much higher than that of ordinary wild beasts, many of which were not inferior to humans.

Seeing that the little guy wouldn't let go of his arm no matter what, Lin Yi had no choice but to go along with its wishes. It wasn't that he couldn't understand why this happened-the little guy probably felt especially comfortable when Lin Yi was giving him energy.

"Little guy, how did you get in?" Lin Yi asked as he continued to channel his Qi into the dog.

"Wuwu?" The little guy, on the other hand, was confused. He held his head in his hands for a long while before shaking his head at Lin Yi.

"You don't even know?" Lin Yi was surprised, but he remembered how weak it was just now and understood. Even if it was awake in that state, it should be numb to everything that happened in the outside world.

"Then who did this to you?" Lin Yi asked.

He had noticed this footprint from the beginning. If he was not mistaken, this kick should be the cause of the little guy's serious injury. From the special shoe print on the little guy's chest, a slight comparison could be inferred that the culprit who kicked the little guy should be a newcomer in the welcome Pavilion. The key point was that the shoe size seemed to be about the same size as his.

The forbidden spell was still in place, and the little guy had just appeared out of nowhere. If Lin Yi still couldn't figure out that someone was setting him up, then he was too slow!

"Wuwu?" The little guy thought for a while and let go of Lin Yi's hand. He ran to the side and made a fierce look, then jumped to the opposite side and gave him a flying kick like how Meng Tong kicked him before. Then he jumped back to his original position and retreated all the way to the wall before falling to the ground.

"Ugh ..." Lin Yi was speechless. The little guy did a very realistic restoration, but the problem was that he still didn't know who kicked him.

"Can you write?" Lin Yi asked with a last bit of hope. If this little guy could write like Skybolt pig, he might be able to answer his questions.

"Wuwuwuwu!" The little fellow immediately shook its head like a rattle-drum. Back then, its master, Shangguan LAN 'er, had wanted it to learn, but it had refused. At its age, it could not wait to play, how could it waste time on learning how to write!

"Alright," he said. Lin Yi shook his head helplessly, giving up on the idea of getting the culprit out of it. Even so, he could pretty much guess that it had something to do with Meng jueguang.

The reason was simple-only a steward would be able to break the forbidden spell and fix it, and the other two steward seniors didn't have any grudges with Lin Yi. The most suspicious person left was Meng jueguang.

But what Lin Yi didn't understand was why he'd spent so much effort on this injured little guy-what was the point of it? Could it be that this little fellow's master was so powerful that he would be in great trouble after he had framed it?

Just as Lin Yi was playing with the little guy, Meng jueguang, who had been waiting in the Lingyu Hall for a long time, finally saw Shangguan LAN 'er. The legendary granddaughter of the pavilion master, a Princess-like existence in the entire Sky Class island's northern part.

The girl's face was as beautiful as a painting. Her white dress made her look even more refined. She was like a fairy walking in the world. Her every frown and smile could move one's heart. However, there was a rare girlish innocence in her pure beauty. This was the little princess of the North Island, Shangguan LAN 'er.

In front of outsiders, Shangguan LAN 'er had always given people the impression that she was pure and obedient, but those who were familiar with her knew that this was only on the surface. If this girl was really anxious, she would also bare her teeth.

If it was in the past, no matter where Shangguan LAN 'er went, she would be surrounded by people. However, this time, she came to the spirit Jade Hall alone. The reason was naturally that her spiritual pet often came to the spirit Jade Hall to steal spiritual jades. It would not be good if the news spread out. Even if she did not think for herself, she had to at least consider the image of her grandfather, Shangguan Tianhua.

According to her previous experience, even if the curly Bear cub had slipped into the huge Kuangqu, there were so many guards watching all around. Shangguan LAN 'er could easily find it by asking around, so she was not worried. However, it was different this time.

Many of the guards outside said that they saw the curly Bear cub slip in, but the problem was that none of the guards stationed in the Kuangqu had seen it.

This matter was strange. The people outside had seen it, but the people inside had not seen it. They had searched the entire corridor in the middle of the spirit Jade Hall, but they could not find the little guy's figure. He couldn't have disappeared from the world, right?

This time, Shangguan LAN 'er was really anxious. This was a spiritual pet that had accompanied her for more than ten years. It had been with her almost since it was born. They laughed together when they were happy, and they were sad together when they were in pain. The bond between her and the curly Bear cub was something that ordinary people could not understand.

Although Shangguan LAN 'er was the No. 1 Princess of the North Island, she had no friends!

Chapter 3659 What Did You Just Say?

All the girls around her were trying to please her, and all the boys were pursuing her, so she couldn't have any particularly good friends. Therefore, this Curly Bear became her only confidant when she was lonely!

She couldn't imagine what she would feel after losing this little guy.

Helplessly, Shangguan LAN 'er was even prepared to call the master of the spirit Jade Hall and ask everyone to turn the spirit Jade Hall upside down to find the little guy. At this moment, Meng jueguang, who had been waiting for an opportunity, appeared behind her.

"Miss Shangguan, I'm Meng jueguang, the manager of the welcoming new pavilion. I saw a small Curly Bear here during the day, but I wasn't sure if it was your spiritual pet, so I didn't pay much attention to it." Meng jueguang lowered his head and reported.

"What? You've seen Xiao Bai?" Only then did Shangguan LAN 'er notice Meng jueguang, and she quickly asked, "Where did you see it? Where did it go?"

Meng jueguang pretended to recall for a moment before he said, "At that time, it seemed to want to sneak into the Kuangqu, but it was discovered by a new disciple before it entered the gate. The new disciple kicked it without saying a word. After kicking it half to death, he put it in a bag and took it away, saying that he wanted to take it back to the immortal's cave to roast and eat something ..."

"Roast it?" Hearing this, Shangguan LAN 'er was so scared that she almost fainted. After a long time, she finally caught her breath and said through gritted teeth, ""What's the name of that new disciple? Why didn't you stop him?"

"Please don't be angry, miss Shangguan. That new disciple is called Lin Yi. He's a new wandering practitioner from the secular world. He doesn't have much quality, and he's always been unruly and disobedient. I couldn't persuade him back then, but because of the sect rules, I couldn't do anything to him, so I just let him go ..."

"If I had known that it was the eldest miss's spirit pet, I would have saved the little Curly Bear even if I had to risk being punished by the sect!" Meng jueguang feigned anger.

"Lin Yi? Where was he now? Hurry up and bring me there! If little white loses even half a hair, I'll fight him to the death!" Shangguan LAN 'er changed her image of a pure girl and said aggressively.

"Alright, I'll lead the way for you, young miss." Meng jueguang couldn't help but chuckle to himself. A little girl was indeed a little girl. With just a little provocation, she immediately fell for it.

Meng jueguang led Shangguan LAN 'er straight to Lin Yi's cave. Meng Tong, who had been squatting at the door and staring at Lin Yi, saw the two and hurriedly greeted them.

"Miss, this is the new disciple, Meng Tong. He saw what happened today with his own eyes. I asked him to come back earlier to keep an eye on Lin Yi, in case Lin Yi really barbecued and ate that little Curly Bear. After all, the quality of these practitioners in the secular world can't be guaranteed," Meng jueguang introduced Meng Tong and feigned a sigh.

However, Shangguan LAN 'er was not in the mood to listen to his sigh. She quickly asked Meng Tong, "Is that Lin Yi in the cave? How's my little white? Are you hurt?"

Meng Tong glanced at Meng jueguang and said, "Miss, Lin Yi's been in the cave ever since he came back, but I can't guarantee what happened inside. Maybe he's already eating ..."

"Ah?" Shangguan LAN 'er was frightened by his words and quickly pointed at Meng jueguang, ""Then what are you guys doing? Hurry up and break down the door for me!"

"Yes, sir!" After receiving the order, Meng jueguang raised his hand and destroyed the forbidden spell in Lin Yi's cave. With his strength at the peak of the early Foundation Stage, this was a piece of cake.

"Little white! Little white!" Shangguan LAN 'er rushed in.

Meng jueguang and Meng Tong smiled at each other as if their scheme had succeeded and followed him in.

Now that things had come to this, Lin Yi was dead for sure. Killing Shangguan LAN 'er's pet was a huge sin!

Not to mention in the welcoming new pavilion, even in the entire northern part of the Sky Class Island, he would not be able to gain a foothold! They might even tie him up and hand him over to the spirit beast clan on the southern island, making him pay for his life!

When Meng jueguang and Meng Tong saw what was inside the cave, their jaws dropped.

"Wuwuwu! Wuwuwu!" The dying little Curly Bear was still alive and kicking, hanging onto Lin Yi's body. It didn't look like it was injured at all, and it seemed to be having fun with Lin Yi? What was going on?

"Little white, you're alright?" Shangguan LAN 'er, who had been so frightened by Meng jueguang and his companion that she did not dare to open her eyes, finally reacted at this time. The joy on the young girl's face could not be hidden, and her suspended heart immediately fell to the ground.

"Wuwu!" Seeing Shangguan LAN 'er, the little Curly Bear immediately jumped down from Lin Yi's back and climbed onto Shangguan LAN' er's back with its short legs. It was extremely agile, and it didn't look like it was injured to death.

The two men behind him, Meng jueguang and Meng Tong, could not help but look at each other in shock. Meng Tong exclaimed in disbelief, "F * ck! How was that possible? He's clearly seriously injured and on the verge of death, but I don't even know what I did ... Gah!"

Meng jueguang hurriedly covered his mouth, while Shangguan LAN 'er turned her head to look at him suspiciously, "What did you just say?"

"Uh ..." Meng Tong really wanted to cut off his own tongue. What kind of stupid mouth did he have? how could he let such a thing slip out? This could kill him!

Fortunately, Meng jueguang was quick-witted and hurriedly replied, ""Yup! We saw the situation with our own eyes, how could we not know?"

"Is that so?" Shangguan LAN 'er looked at the two of them doubtfully, but she did not take it to heart. At this moment, the most important thing for her was that the little Curly Bear was fine.

Hu! Meng jueguang breathed a sigh of relief and glared at Meng Tong. Fortunately, this young lady was easy to fool. Otherwise, if the truth were to be revealed, he would be in deep trouble as well.

As for Meng Tong, he was so scared that he almost fell to the ground. He covered his mouth tightly and didn't dare to make a sound.

Worried, Shangguan LAN 'er picked up the little Curly Bear and checked it up and down. Although the little guy was still alive and kicking, the big footprint on its chest was still very obvious. Thinking back to what Meng jueguang and the other two said before, Shangguan LAN 'er couldn't help but stare at Lin Yi angrily, "Hey! Did you kick Xiao Bai's chest?"

"No, when I saw it, it already had these footprints on it." Lin Yi denied, shaking his head.

As he spoke, he sized her up and realized that this young lady was a one in a million beauty, be it in terms of appearance or temperament!

Chapter 3660 See Clearly Next Time

However, there was a bit of innate nobility and coquettishness in her movements. It could be seen that her background must be extremely deep, and she must be the pearl in the palm of some Big Boss.

But this miss reminded Lin Yi of something he'd been wondering about ever since he'd come to the Sky Class Island-the ratio of men to women seemed to be seriously imbalanced, especially in the welcome Pavilion-he'd never seen a single female newbie.

What he didn't know was that the female cultivators of the Sky Class Island were usually concentrated on the West Island. Not only would the local newcomers go to the West Island, but even the women from the secular world would be directly teleported to the West Island.

"It really wasn't you?" Shangguan LAN 'er asked suspiciously. After hearing the two's complaints, she had already assumed that this Lin Yi wasn't a good person, and that he was up to no good with Xiao Bai!

Does this girl have a brain? Lin Yi rolled his eyes speechlessly and called out to the little Curly Bear. The little guy immediately let go of Shangguan LAN 'er and ran back to his body. His actions were so intimate that even Shangguan LAN' er, the owner, was a little jealous.

"Miss, you should be very clear about the intelligence of your pet spirit beast. If I had really kicked it, do you think it would still be so close to me?" Lin Yi looked at Shangguan LAN 'er.

"This ..." Shangguan LAN 'er was suddenly stumped.

Although her little Curly Bear had always been silly and cute, it could at least distinguish between good and bad. It could clearly distinguish who was good to it and who was bad to it. After all, her grandfather, Shangguan Tianhua, had only reprimanded it once back then, but it had held a grudge against it for a long time and refused to get close to Shangguan Tianhua.

Taking advantage of Shangguan LAN 'er's confusion, Lin Yi had wanted to let the little Curly Bear identify the murderer himself. After all, according to his original speculation, the murderer who kicked it could very well be either Meng jueguang or Meng Tong.

It was a pity that Curly Bear didn't show any obvious hostility to the two since they came in, though it didn't pay them any attention. Lin Yi wasn't sure if it had anything to do with the two.

What Lin Yi didn't expect was that before the bear fell into Meng Tong's hands, he had knocked himself unconscious, and when it woke up, it wanted to run away, but was kicked by Meng Tong. After that, it was in a dazed state and didn't recognize Meng Tong's face, so it naturally didn't show any hostility.

"Then why is Xiao Bai with you? What are you trying to do?" Shangguan LAN 'er saw how close the little Curly Bear was to Lin Yi, and she couldn't help but get angry. What kind of spell did this little guy get into, to be so close to a stranger!

Lin Yi glanced at the two—he knew that if Curly Bear couldn't testify, there was no point in arguing. After all, the girl had already decided to stand against him, and he didn't know what her background was. He didn't know what trouble he'd get into if he continued arguing.

After thinking it through, Lin Yi said, ""I just happened to see it, so I played with it for a while. I don't have any ulterior motives. Since it's your spirit beast, you can just take it away."

"Hmph, you're tactful!" Shangguan LAN 'er snorted. She knew that she had wronged Lin Yi, and felt a little embarrassed, but she still said proudly, "Since you're taking care of Xiao Bai, I won't pursue your responsibility of abducting Xiao Bai! I'm leaving!"

With that, Shangguan LAN 'er called the little Curly Bear and wanted to leave, but the little guy refused to get off Lin Yi's body. Even when Shangguan LAN' er reached out to hold it, it didn't care, its four short legs tightly clinging to Lin Yi's body.

Shangguan LAN 'er was immediately angered, "Hey!" I've been so good to you, but you're not coming with me. Do you want to live with this stranger?"

"Wuwu ..." The little Curly Bear looked at Shangguan LAN 'er pitifully, and then looked at Lin Yi. Under Shangguan LAN' er's angry glare, it finally let go of Lin Yi unwillingly.

"That's good!" Only then did Shangguan LAN 'er's anger turn into joy, and she carried the reluctant little Curly Bear and walked out.

"Wuwuwu! Wuwuwu!" The little Curly Bear lay on Shangguan LAN 'er's shoulder, stretching out its two little paws and calling out to Lin Yi.

Lin Yi was confused, but Shangguan LAN 'er, the owner, understood what the little guy meant. She gave it a smack on the head and said, "You still want him to play with us? Let me tell you, don't even think about it! Letting an unfamiliar male disciple come and play with me, if Grandpa finds out about this, he'll lock me up!"

"Wuwuwu! Wuwuwu!" The little Curly Bear continued to cry out.

Shangguan LAN 'er had no choice but to reply, ""Okay, okay. I'll try to find an opportunity to come here and play in the future, okay?"

"Wuwu!" The little Curly Bear finally stopped and waved its paws at Lin Yi, reluctant to leave.

Lin Yi smiled-the little guy was quite clingy. In comparison, his master was a bit of a tsundere, but he wasn't a bad person. Who knew what would've happened if he were unreasonable?

Carrying the little guy out of Lin Yi's cave, Shangguan LAN 'er glanced at Meng jueguang and Lin Yi, who were following behind her, and said in an annoyed tone,"Why are you two still following this young lady? it's all your nonsense, making this young lady lose so much face!"

"Young miss, please calm down! Maybe we were wrong!" Meng jueguang hurriedly apologized in fear and trepidation.

Meng Tong, on the other hand, decided to hide behind him, not daring to let the little Curly Bear see him. He almost sh * t himself when he saw the little Curly Bear jumping around on Lin Yi's body just now. If the little Curly Bear bore a grudge against him and showed it in front of the Miss, he'd be done for!

Fortunately, the little Curly Bear did not seem to remember him. This made Meng Tong feel relieved. However, he still did not dare to let the little guy see him. What if he attracted its attention and it recognized him?

"If you can't see clearly next time, I'll poke your eyes blind. Who told you to be blind? Do you think I'm easy to fool?" Shangguan LAN 'er snorted in dissatisfaction, but the girl wasn't a schemer-she didn't see that the two were setting a trap for Lin Yi at all, and only lectured them a bit, not really doing anything.

Meng jueguang and Meng Tongxin said, "of course you're easy to fool!" However, he said, "but no matter what, we've also seen some things, haven't we?" The curly Bear is indeed in Lin Yi's cave!"
