Chapter 3701 The Result Of The Test

Lin Yi smiled, not planning on explaining the details. After all, li Zhengming had just joined them not long ago, and it was better to keep things a little mysterious.

Li Zhengming used the three pieces of useless Jade he prepared to exchange for a good piece of Jade from Lin Yi before he turned around and left. Lin Yi's voice came from behind, "If Meng jueguang finds anything unusual, you should let me know in advance. Even if you can't be the spy, it's fine. With me protecting you, you won't be at a disadvantage."

"Alright," he said. Lee Zheng Ming felt a warmth in his heart as he nodded his head.

The moment he stepped out of Lin Yi's cave, he suddenly felt that this trip was extremely dangerous, but it was very important. It could even change the trajectory of his life. Joining Lin Yi was a sudden and helpless move, but wasn't it a relief for him, who'd been suffering under Meng jueguang?

After all, no matter how you looked at it, Lin Yi was a much more reliable boss than a lowly and perverted little man like Meng jueguang!

From today onwards, I, li Zhengming, am one of Lin Yi's men.

Lin Yi pinched his chin as he watched li Zhengming leave. The situation had suddenly developed to this point, which even he himself did not expect. If Lee Zhengming did not take the initiative to propose to be a spy, there might be an additional body in the cave at this time.

As for Lee Zheng Ming, he had no choice but to surrender. Although he took the initiative to reveal his biggest secret in order to give others a handle, he did not go into details about many of the details.

For example, why had qiushui Manor been exterminated back then, and why had he, the son of the clan head, managed to escape? also, since his identity token was a fatal weakness, why had he always carried it with him?

If Lin Yi really wanted to dig deeper, he could probably dig out a lot of secrets from this li Zhengming. It might even involve the big secret of qiushui villa. After all, the reason for the elder Council to go to war was no small matter.

However, just like how Lin Yi didn't want to reveal his own secrets to others, it was understandable that li Zhengming didn't reveal these family secrets.

At the end of the day, Lin Yi didn't really care about the big secrets li Zhengming was hiding. As long as li Zhengming didn't betray him and did his job as a spy, it was enough for him. And if Lee Zheng Ming really had a change of heart, just like what he said earlier, with his strength, it would be easy to take Lee Zheng Ming's life, and he would not need to have any leverage in his hands.

Lin Yi believed that li Zhengming wouldn't betray him, at least not in a short period of time. This wasn't a one-sided belief in li Zhengming's so-called loyalty. In the world of cultivation, as long as the temptation was big enough, anyone could throw away their integrity at any time, and Li Zhengming was no exception.

Lin Yi was confident that li Zhengming was rational and smart enough. Smart people would always be able to recognize the reality and know what was the best choice for them.

After leaving Lin Yi's cave, Li Zhengming was immediately called away by the people who had been waiting here for a long time. However, they did not go to Meng Tong's cave under the mountain, but to Meng Jueguang's cave on the opposite mountain.

As soon as he stepped into the cave, he saw a few familiar faces, and Lee Zheng Ming could not help but be stunned.

It wasn't just Meng Jueguang and Meng Tong who were waiting here-Kang Zhaoming and Zhong pinliang from the rising Sky Pavilion were there as well, and what surprised him the most was that even the young master Xu lingchong was there.

Li Zhengming couldn't help but smile to himself. This lineup was the most obvious anti-Lin Yi Alliance in the welcoming new pavilion!

Seeing Li Zhengming come in and looking at his bloody mess, everyone was shocked. Wasn't he just going to test Lin Yi's strength? it wasn't like he was going to fight Lin Yi to the death. Was there a need to be so creepy?

"F * ck! Did Lin Yi beat the sh * t out of you?! Why are you so stupid? it's just a test. Do you need to fight to the death? don't you know how to use your brain?" Meng Tongyi cried out in shock.

While he was gloating over Lee Zheng Ming's misfortune, he was actually rejoicing in his heart. If he had not pushed the mission to Lee Zheng Ming in the heat of the moment, he would be the one in this miserable state now. I'm so F * cking smart!

Li Zhengming rolled his eyes helplessly. If he didn't side with Lin Yi, he would probably be pissed off by this bastard Meng Tong again. He must have been blind to choose this kind of person as his teammate.

"You shut up!" Meng jueguang glared at Meng Tong. If he allowed this guy to continue his sarcastic remarks, he was afraid that Lee Zhengming's heart would turn cold, and he would not work for him in the future.

Turning around, Meng jueguang pretended to be gentle and said, "How is it? What's Lin Yi's strength level?"

Lee Zheng Ming was speechless. If it was any other normal person, the first thing they would ask would be whether his injuries were serious or not. However, this Meng jueguang did not care about his life at all. He did not even mention the spiritual Jade that he promised as a reward!

At the end of the day, Meng jueguang and Meng Tong were both cold-hearted people-now that she thought about it, her decision to join Lin Yi was the wisest decision she'd ever made since she entered the pavilion!

Lee Zheng Ming adjusted his breathing and replied, "Senior brother Meng, that Lin Yi has indeed completed the Foundation Stage, and is now an early stage Foundation Stage master. I'm not his match at all, and if he wasn't afraid of killing me and making things worse, I would've been killed in one move!"

"What? Did that guy really succeed in building his Foundation? Are you sure you're not mistaken?" Meng jueguang was shocked. Xu lingchong and the others were also in disbelief.

Even if Lin Yi really was a practitioner genius, he couldn't possibly have a solid foundation in the common world where the Qi was so thin. He'd only been in the hall for less than a month, and he didn't get any decent training resources. Even his cave was rotten to the point where it couldn't be any worse, and all the good jades he had were taken away by them using useless jades. How could he Reach Foundation Stage in a month?

This was too exaggerated! If he didn't remember wrongly, this had already broken the welcoming new pavilion's record of Foundation establishment in the last several hundred years!

Lee Zheng Ming laughed bitterly and pointed at the injuries on his body, ""Senior brother Meng, I've personally experienced it. How could I be wrong? If he was only a Sky Class full master, he wouldn't be able to beat me up like this, right? At least, I can protect myself

Chapter 3702 Meng Tong's Worry

What's so strange about that? wasn't I defeated by him in one move back then? If Lin Yi really was an early Foundation Stage practitioner, then trash like you should've been killed in one hit, not come back alive!

Meng Tong muttered to himself, but he didn't dare to say anything. After all, this was too embarrassing, and there was no reason to expose one's own scars.

"But if that's the case, why didn't he attack you during the trial? And the aura he usually exudes, he's clearly only at the peak of the Sky Class!" Meng jueguang was still a little confused. Instinctively, he didn't want to believe that this was the truth.

Li Zhengming was slightly surprised. Making these people believe that Lin Yi was an early Foundation Stage master was the first order Lin Yi gave him. As a spy who had just surrendered, he couldn't mess up this first task.

"Perhaps he was just as senior brother Meng had guessed, and wasn't even in the early stage of the foundation building realm?" Lee Zheng Ming said after some thought.

"What do you mean?" Meng jueguang and the others were stunned.

"Because when I was testing him just now, I felt that although he was already an expert in the early stage of the foundation building realm, his aura was not stable. It looked like he had just broken through not long ago, so I guessed that he might have taken the foundation building pill that was awarded to him during the trial, which was why he had just broken through!" Lee Zheng Min said on purpose.

Lin Yi had said that he'd already given the foundation pill to someone else, but people like Meng jueguang didn't know about it. This explanation sounded reasonable.

"Yeah! Your speculation is more logical!" Meng jueguang clapped his hands, "for a Sky Class full master, the foundation pill can't guarantee a 100% success rate, but it can greatly increase the success rate. This means that Lin Yi really got lucky-he accidentally broke through after taking the pill!"

After hearing what he said, Xu lingchong and the others came to a realization.

The foundation pill was extremely precious to any Sky Class full master-most people would save it for safety, and only use it after they've reached an impossible level of strength. That was the only way to guarantee the success of the foundation.

However, there were also some bold people who couldn't wait to take the foundation establishment pill after obtaining it. Although their success rate was far lower than the first group of people, they still had a certain chance of successfully reaching Foundation establishment.

As far as Meng jueguang was concerned, Lin Yi was obviously the second type of person who got lucky.

To everyone present, the latter was much more convincing than Lin Yi breaking through to the Foundation Stage with his own strength.

Just by relying on one's own strength, one could successfully Reach Foundation establishment? Even young master Xu lingchong couldn't do it, so how could a country bumpkin like Lin Yi Do it? This is bullshit!

"But, no matter what, we can confirm that Lin Yi is already at the early Foundation Stage. What should I do, ninth cousin? It'll be the ranking competition in a day!" Meng Tong couldn't help but ask anxiously.

Lin Yi's success in the Foundation Stage wasn't good news for Xu lingchong and Meng jueguang, but it wasn't a direct threat either. But Meng Tong was different!

Not only was he Lin Yi's biggest competitor in the GreenCloud Pavilion, but he also had a ranking battle with Lin Yi after he lost to him in one move on the first day!

Even though he had won second place in the trial and also had a foundation building pill in his hand, he didn't dare to rashly eat it.

Otherwise, if he failed to break through to the Foundation Stage this time, not only would he waste the precious Foundation Stage pill, but the side effects of the Foundation Stage pill would also increase the difficulty of the next breakthrough. If that happened, he, Meng Tong, would not be able to reach the Foundation Stage in this lifetime without the assistance of better medicinal pills. If that happened, he would really be crying and would not be able to Find A Grave!

"It's all your own fault for being useless. You had a Foundation pill but you didn't dare to eat it. Now, Lin Yi has the upper hand!" Meng jueguang glared at him, but he also understood Meng Tong's concerns. After all, if he were in Meng Tong's position, he would not have dared to take it so easily.

"But ninth older cousin, didn't you also say that in my current state, the success rate of taking the foundation pill is less than thirty percent? How would I dare to eat it!" Meng Tong said with a sad face.

In addition, the success rate of the foundation building pill was less than thirty percent, so he really couldn't be blamed for being timid! Otherwise, with his personality of being in the limelight, he would have the opportunity to break the welcoming new pavilion's record of Foundation establishment first. He might even leave his name in history. It would be strange if he wasn't tempted!

But then again, even if Lin Yi didn't make an exception this year, the new disciples would've broken the past record for the foundational level for sure.

The reason was simple-people like Zhang Liju didn't even have a trial reward as ridiculous as the foundation elixir. Other than the cave and the spiritual Jade, they had to rely on their own hard work to reach the Foundation Stage-they had to rely on their talent and hard work!

In recent years, because of Zhang Liju's care, the three pavilions of the North Island had more than double the amount of resources they had! It was also because of this that the foundation building pill was given to the newcomers of the welcoming new pavilion as a reward!

Otherwise, even if the newcomers had the opportunity to obtain a foundation building pill, they would have to wait until the last month. How could they be given such good treatment in the first month? In the end, they were able to get the foundation elixir so quickly because of Zhang Liju, the record holder!

However, in the past, those people could only look at it and sigh when they didn't have the foundation building pill. Now that these people had the foundation building pill, they were at a loss about when to use it. It could be considered that each of them had their own troubles.

Meng Tong's words touched Zhaoming and pinliang's hearts. Don't forget, they each had a Foundation pill in their hands. They had the same concerns as Meng Tong and didn't dare to take it.

If they were all Sky Class full Masters, they'd be fine with saving up the foundation pills, but with Lin Yi as a precedent, the pressure was on their heads!

After all, the ranking competition was very different from the newbie test. This time, the newbies from all three pavilions were going to fight together. If they were still Sky Class full Masters and had to face Lin Yi, who was only in the early Foundation Stage, then the situation wouldn't look good!

They'd be lucky if Lin Yi didn't take them out one by one, let alone ganging up on him! It wouldn't just be Meng Tong who'd be in trouble then-Zhaoming and the others would be facing a huge threat as well!

Chapter 3703 Killing Intent

In an instant, the entire place was dead silent. Even a young master like Xu lingchong was helpless against Lin Yi, who suddenly became an early Foundation Stage master!

Kang Zhaoming hesitated for a moment before opening his mouth, "Young master Xu, I've heard that there's a type of foundation elixir that can greatly increase the success rate of Foundation establishment if used together with a Foundation elixir?"

Xu lingchong glanced at him and nodded. "That's right. In your current state, the success rate of taking a Foundation pill is only 30%, but if you use a Foundation elixir at the same time, the success rate will be at least 70%. If it's a Supreme grade foundation elixir, the success rate can even reach 90%. It's just that this Foundation elixir has a very short shelf life, and once it's concocted, it must be consumed within a day, so it's very rare to see it on the market, and many times you can't buy it even if you want to, so you have to go through special channels. "

Zhaoming and the others looked at each other, fire in their eyes. A 30% success rate wasn't enough, but a 70% success rate or higher would be much more reliable. Not to mention, if it was a Supreme grade foundation elixir, the success rate could reach 90%!

"Then ... With young master Xu's background and connections, it shouldn't be too difficult to get your hands on this Foundation elixir, right?" "Young master Xu, you know that we all have a huge grudge against Lin Yi. If we don't do anything these two days, we'll be embarrassing you in the ranking competition when we face Lin Yi, who's only at the Foundation Stage," Zhaoming said carefully.

Lingchong muttered to himself for a moment before looking at the hopeful faces of Zhaoming and the others. "How about this, I'll make a special trip to the pill Hall tomorrow. With my face, it shouldn't be a problem to ask them for some Foundation elixir."

"Thank you, young master Xu!" Kang Zhaoming was overjoyed, Zhong pinliang and Meng Tong were also thanking him profusely.

Xu lingchong glanced at Meng Tong. The foundation elixir wasn't anything common, and he wanted to give it to Kang Zhaoming and Zhong pinliang. After all, these two were his direct disciples, and this Meng Tong was at most a supernumerary staff. He didn't have the right to receive the same treatment as Kang Zhaoming and Zhong pinliang.

But thinking about it, his main purpose here today was to deal with Lin Yi, and Meng Tong was the cannon fodder at the front line. If this guy's strength was too weak, it wouldn't be right if he was bullied too badly by Lin Yi. He'd just let him off this time, since it was just a small thing.

Li Zhengming looked on coldly. He thought that Meng Tong was really lucky this time. However, he was not envious of his luck at all. His priority now was to keep a low profile. If he reached the foundation establishment stage too early, he would attract too much attention, which was not a good thing.

What's more, he was born into a prestigious family. As long as he had enough time, it wouldn't be difficult for him to reach the foundation building stage with his own strength. In comparison, although the people in front of him were envious of them for taking Foundation pills and Foundation elixir, there was a natural gap in strength between them and Foundation Stage experts who broke through on their own.

But, if lingchong really did get them the foundation elixir, he'd have to tell boss Lin Yi about it. Even if boss Lin Yi was already at the peak of the early Foundation Stage, he'd still be caught off guard if he suddenly ran into three early Foundation Stage Masters like Kang Zhaoming.

What Li Zhengming didn't know was that even if he didn't tip Lin Yi off, Lin Yi would've received the news in advance. After all, apart from him, Lin Yi also had Zhong pinliang, a spy he planted long ago.

Lingchong only changed the topic after a round of compliments from the gang. "To be honest, Lin Yi's strength doesn't matter to me. Even if he's an early Foundation Stage master, he's still an insignificant ant in my eyes. But in this test, I found a very bad sign-this ignorant kid is starting to cross my bottom line!"

"What are the signs?" Meng jueguang and the others all perked up their ears.

Xu lingchong glanced at them. "Didn't you notice? I don't know when this kid started to get close to Junior Sister Shangguan LAN 'er."

Meng jueguang and Meng Tong looked at each other. They had the most say in this matter, and they were the ones who had contributed the most to Lin Yi's friendship with Shangguan LAN 'er!

However, they didn't dare to tell Xu lingchong about this matter. What if this young master Xu took his anger out on them? it was better to pretend that they didn't know.

Xu lingchong's face darkened as he continued, "I don't think I need to explain Shangguan LAN 'er's status. Although it's normal for a Princess like her to be curious about someone from the common world like Lin Yi, and there's no lack of stories of rich and beautiful women falling in love with poor men, I won't allow this to happen to Shangguan LAN' er. She's mine, no one else can touch her except me!"

This was the main reason why he had gathered so many people to find Meng jueguang! Otherwise, he wouldn't even need to show himself if it was just to deal with Lin Yi. He could've just sent a message to everyone.

"Young master Xu, it's indeed very dangerous! Lin Yi's a famous Playboy in the common world-take the seven inheritors in charge of teleporting us, for example. They're all beauties, but they're all tangled up with Lin Yi. Miss Shangguan is just an innocent little girl, and it's easy for her to fall for him if he has his eyes on her. It'll be a big problem if she really becomes the son-in-law of the Shangguan family!" Kang Zhaoming added.

Lingchong's face darkened with every word Zhaoming said. By the time he was done, lingchong's face was as dark as water, even filled with killing intent.

Before this, although Lin Yi had publicly gone against him, he'd always treated Lin Yi as an ant. But this time, it involved Shangguan LAN 'er, who he'd long since set his eyes on, and the nature of the matter was completely different!

"Therefore, we must nip this idea in the bud!" "I have to find a way to make Junior Sister LAN 'er hate Lin Yi!" Lingchong said through gritted teeth, "if I can't do that, then I'll have to take the risk and think of a way to get rid of Lin Yi!"

Everyone at the scene shivered in fear. This time, young master Xu was really going to kill them!

"Young master Xu, it's easier to just kill Lin Yi, but it's too risky. We should think of other ways." Pinliang said.

With him as a spy, it didn't matter how exquisite their traps were against Lin Yi, but if they forced Xu lingchong to kill Lin Yi in desperation, the situation would be out of his control.

Chapter 3704 Two Intelligence Reports

With lingchong's power, if he really wanted to do this, then no matter how confident pinliang was in Lin Yi, he couldn't guarantee that Lin Yi would be able to escape. After all, lingchong could easily mobilize a couple of Masters who were stronger than Lin Yi.

Li Zhengming, who was standing quietly on the side, looked at pinliang in surprise. He was worried about the same thing as pinliang, but with his position, he didn't have the right to speak in front of lingchong. He didn't expect pinliang to do it for him.

"Junior martial brother Zhong is right," Meng jueguang agreed. "The three pavilions have always attached great importance to newcomers. If a newcomer is killed, it's very likely that the higher-ups of the law enforcement Hall will come forward. No matter how clean our hands are, I'm afraid that we'll still leave some clues and get into trouble."

Meng jueguang's words were purely out of consideration for himself. After all, Xu lingchong had said this in front of everyone. If he really wanted to assassinate Lin Yi, he, Meng jueguang, would definitely not be able to stay out of it. At that time, the law enforcement Hall might not touch Xu lingchong, but he would definitely be thrown out as a scapegoat and die without a burial place.

"Don't worry, I won't do something like this unless I have to, so you guys better think about how to make Lin Yi hate her!" Xu lingchong glanced at these people and said.

Although he had a strong background, the assassination of a newcomer would not only cost one life, but also the image of the entire North island's three pavilions. If that really happened, even if his grandfather wanted to protect him, he would have to do a lot of work.

Unless he had no other choice, he, young master Xu, would not do such a stupid thing.

Everyone frowned and thought hard for a while. The most experienced of them all, Meng jueguang, suddenly clapped and said, "There it is! I have a good idea!"

"Hurry up and tell me." Xu lingchong hurriedly urged.

Shangguan LAN 'er was his wife-he'd already decided on her long ago, and although he still hadn't gotten her yet, he couldn't just let her hang out with someone like Lin Yi-he had to nip this in the bud!

"Young master Xu, you just said that a noble Princess like miss Shangguan would be interested in someone from the common world like Lin Yi because she's never come into contact with someone like him, right?" Meng jueguang said, deliberately keeping him in suspense.

"That's right, continue." Xu lingchong nodded.

"As the saying goes, when a woman's curiosity is aroused, she's not far from falling for it. Although a tall, rich, and handsome man like you, young master Xu, can completely crush a poor man like Lin Yi, no matter from which aspect, a woman's curiosity is the key to a poor man's success! Therefore, in order to nip this dangerous bud in the bud, the key is to eliminate miss Shangguan's curiosity!" Meng jueguang said, feigning profoundness.

Xu lingchong said thoughtfully, "this is interesting. Then, how do you think we can eliminate her curiosity?" We can't just throw her into the secular world, can we?"

"Hehe, there's no need to go to the common world. It's very easy to kill miss Shangguan's curiosity-we just need to show her the ugly side of Lin Yi, that poor silk man! Didn't Junior Brother Kang just say that this guy has been fooling around with other women in the secular world? we just have to let him expose his ugly side of being a womanizer in front of miss Shangguan, and then everything will be solved!" Meng jueguang said with a smug smile.

"I didn't expect you to be so good at this, old Meng! He's a talent!" Xu lingchong couldn't help but look at Meng jueguang in a higher light. Before this, Meng jueguang was just an insignificant character in his eyes, but after hearing these words, he suddenly realized that Meng jueguang was actually quite smart.

Receiving Xu lingchong's praise, Meng jueguang was instantly overjoyed. He had racked his brains to try to hold on to this big and thick leg, and now he had finally been recognized.

"Then what do you think we should do to make Lin Yi reveal his lecherous side to Junior Sister LAN 'er?" Xu lingchong continued to ask.

Meng jueguang revealed a devious smile as he revealed the plan he had been brewing in his mind.

After Xu lingchong heard this, he couldn't help but clap his hands and laugh. "This is a brilliant plan! I'll leave this matter to you, old Meng. That Lu bianren of your GreenCloud Pavilion has already decided to get lost. After this matter is over, I'll inform the higher-ups and let you take over as the third Pavilion master of the welcoming new pavilion!"

"Thank you for your appreciation, young master Xu!" Meng jueguang was immediately overjoyed. The third Pavilion master of the welcoming new pavilion was a position that he had dreamed of. The senior Steward was only at the bottom level, but if he became the third Pavilion master, he would be a true-blue high-level figure in the welcoming new pavilion.

"But I'll say the ugly words first, only if you do things for me, this young master will say this on your behalf."

Xu lingchong paused for a moment and reminded, ""Also, although it won't be a problem for you to take over the position of third Pavilion master with your qualifications, your strength at the peak of the early Foundation Stage is too weak. You have to be at least at the mid Foundation Stage. If you can't reach this hard threshold, it'll be useless no matter how many people speak up for you. Although Lu bianren's fate has been sealed, it'll still be a few months before he's really kicked out. This period of time should be enough for you to break through!"

"Young master Xu is right. I will do my best and not let you down." Meng jueguang nodded repeatedly.

Although the position of the third Pavilion master of the welcome Pavilion did not seem to have much authority and was insignificant, the three great pavilions had always attached great importance to newcomers. Anyone who had a history in the welcome Pavilion would naturally enter the vision of the high-level figures. As long as they did not make any major mistakes, their future development was bound to be boundless.

In fact, more than half of the elders of the three great pavilions had the experience of being the pavilion master and vice Pavilion master of the welcoming new pavilion. This position was equivalent to an important reserve for the future high-level of the three great pavilions.

Therefore, the appointment and removal of the pavilion master and Deputy Pavilion master had always been extremely cautious. Not only did the elders of the three great pavilions have to unify their opinions, but if there was a conflict of opinions, they would even raise a public discussion in the elders 'Council.

In this process, the connections behind the scenes were naturally very important, but there was also a hard condition, which was that the strength must be above the middle stage of the foundation building realm. Otherwise, if the strength could not surpass the new managers, even if he sat in the position of the third Pavilion master, how could he convince the public?

After that, the few of them chatted for a while, filling in the gaps and filling in the so-called brilliant plan proposed by Meng jueguang before they dispersed. They didn't know that with Zhong pinliang and Li Zhengming as spies, no matter how good the plan was, it would be full of loopholes when used on Lin Yi.

The plan was set, but Meng jueguang hadn't even finished his preparations when the two reports had already fallen into Lin Yi's hands.

Chapter 3705 Little Junior Sister's Date

Looking at the two reports, Lin Yi couldn't help but chuckle. These people were really full of "wisdom"- they wouldn't stop for even a moment! If he didn't plant these two spies in advance, he'd really fall for their trap!

What made Lin Yi happy, however, was that the contents of the two reports were basically the same. This proved that Li Zhengming was really working for him. If Li Zhengming had only given him a perfunctory reply before, then the information would be fake even if he gave it to Lin Yi now. Li Zhengming might even set up a trap to lure Lin Yi into it.

However, now that there were two pieces of information that matched each other, there was no need to worry about this at all.

Zhong pinliang and Lee Zhengming were each other's witnesses without knowing the truth, and they would continue to prove each other's innocence in the future.

Lin Yi would be able to detect it immediately if any of them had any thoughts of betrayal. This was also the reason why he was willing to accept Li Zhengming before. With this double insurance, he wasn't afraid of Li Zhengming's counterattack at all.

The next day, the cave's restrictions were triggered by someone at dawn. Lin Yi went out to find no one, only an exquisitely-made letter on a stone slab.

Lin Yi couldn't help but smile. This was exactly as the Intel said. It went without saying that this letter was from Meng Jueguang.

Lin Yi knew that Meng Jueguang and the others were watching from a distance, and he picked up the letter and returned to his cave.

There were only a few words on the letter, and the handwriting was elegant and pleasant. If Lin Yi didn't know that this was Meng Jueguang's plan, he would've believed that it was a young girl's handwriting.

"Lin Yi Li" bro, from the first time I saw you, I couldn't get you out of my mind. I want to see you, and I have something to say to you. Let's meet in the woods in the afternoon, Shangguan LAN 'er. "

Lin Yi shook his head with a smile-there was a note on the back of the letter."My grandfather is very strict about the gender difference. Destroy it immediately after you see it."

"Hehe ... This group of people is quite thoughtful." Lin Yi couldn't help but laugh.

He believed that at this moment, there should be a similar letter in Shangguan LAN 'er's hands, but the content was different. It should be using his name, Lin Yi, to ask her out to the woods for an afternoon gathering under the excuse that he missed Curly Bear.

And on the back of the letter, there should be a similar note. If he really did so, then the dead would have no proof.

Meng jueguang's plan was actually very simple. He wanted to use Lin Yi's name to trick Shangguan LAN 'er into coming to the woods, and at the same time confess his love to Lin Yi under Shangguan LAN' er's name, creating a misunderstanding and making Lin Yi fall for it!

In his eyes, Lin Yi was a smart and strong man, but that was all there was to him. Especially when it came to sex, normal people's IQ would drop.

Receiving a confession letter out of the blue, especially from a Princess like Shangguan LAN 'er, who had a strong background, would make anyone so happy that they'd fly to the woods for a date right away. They wouldn't even care if the letter was real or fake, and Lin Yi, the lecherous guy Kang Zhaoming called a lecher, was no exception!

And if Lin Yi really went there with his heart full of joy, then when he saw Shangguan LAN 'er in the little forest, if he suddenly said something inappropriate, or even got physical with her, it would be a big deal.

With Shangguan LAN 'er's temper, she'd definitely break up with Lin Yi in a fit of anger, and her grandfather, Shangguan Tianhua, might even be alerted. At that time, even if Lin Yi didn't die, he'd at least be skinned alive!

So, although this plan seemed simple and childish, it was tailored for "lechers" like Lin Yi. It hit the nail on the head and was definitely fatal!

And the danger was that once this plan succeeded, it didn't matter how strong Lin Yi was, because Shangguan LAN 'er didn't care about his strength at all. If he really pissed her off, not to mention an early Foundation Stage master, even a peak late Foundation Stage master would be useless, and he'd still die without a burial place.

The plan was made specifically for Lin Yi, and they were confident that Lin Yi would take the bait, but there were still two key factors to success.

One was that the letter couldn't be left with any evidence, or else even if Lin Yi really took the bait, throwing the letter out would be a hidden danger. So Meng jueguang thought of a way to leave a note on the back.

The other key point was how to trick Shangguan LAN 'er into coming to the woods.

One had to know that Shangguan LAN 'er wasn't a "lecherous Hungry Ghost" like Lin Yi who would fall for a trap so easily. She was the little princess of the three pavilions, the dream goddess of countless young men. There were at least eight young masters like Xu lingchong who were her pursuers.

If they confessed their love to her under Lin Yi's name, she wouldn't even look at them, let alone fall into their trap. Even if she was interested in Lin Yi, she wouldn't go on a date with him in the woods.

This was originally a difficult problem, but Meng jueguang had an idea. He bypassed Shangguan LAN 'er and started with the little Curly Bear, making it much easier.

The little Curly Bear really liked Lin Yi, and this was something that Meng jueguang and the others had seen with their own eyes. Shangguan LAN 'er, on the other hand, indulged the little Curly Bear a lot, and this was something that everyone in the three pavilions knew.

The letter they wrote fell into Shangguan LAN 'er's hands, which was the same as falling into the hands of the little Curly Bear. With how close the little Curly Bear was to Lin Yi, once it heard that Lin Yi wanted to go to the woods with it to play, it would be impossible to stop it. By then, Shangguan LAN' er would have no choice but to go to the woods.

"This Meng jueguang, if he didn't do all these evil things all day long, he could be considered a talent." Lin Yi couldn't help but chuckle.

Meng jueguang's strength wasn't bad, and he was quick-witted and cunning. His methods were also endless, and if he were to focus on the right path, he would definitely become a pillar of the GreenCloud Pavilion in the future. Unfortunately, this fellow had never thought of walking the right path.

Lin Yi put the letter away in the Jade space, saving it for future use. He only left for the forest when it was almost noon. Although he had already known that this was a scheme, Meng jueguang and the others would become suspicious if he ignored it. Thus, the best solution was to beat them at their own game.

Chapter 3706 You're Not Allowed To Tell Anyone

Although the little forest was a very general and vague name, it referred to a fixed forest in the three pavilions. It was located between the welcoming new pavilion and the spirit Jade Hall. It had all kinds of vegetation, water, and stones. The scenery could be said to be fresh and elegant. It had also been specially renovated and was a good place.

After walking around the forest, Lin Yi finally saw Shangguan LAN 'er and her pet, the bear and the owner.

"Wuwu!" Seeing Lin Yi appear, the little Curly Bear couldn't wait and pounced over. Shangguan LAN 'er couldn't even stop its master, so she could only stand aside and sulk.

Shangguan LAN 'er pouted as she watched Lin Yi and the little Curly Bear play for a while, "Hey, what spell did you use on little white to make it so small?"

She'd wanted to ask this question back at the back mountain Hall, but she was interrupted because Lin Yi and Meng Tong were fighting for first place.

"Hehe, young miss, you should be asking this little fellow this question." Lin Yi smiled faintly.

"You think I didn't ask it? This fellow only knows how to double-cross others, it's lost its sense of direction after being slightly bewitched. I've pampered it for so many years, but in the end, it's not as close as you, an outsider!" Shangguan LAN 'er glared at the little Curly Bear and said angrily.

There weren't many female disciples in the three pavilions, and the little Curly Bear wasn't just her pet-it was her closest playmate since she was a kid. Lin Yi, on the other hand, made the little bear feel even closer to her. It was like she'd been stepped in by a third party, and it was a very depressing feeling.

"Wuwuwuwu!" The little Curly Bear was riding on Lin Yi's shoulder, barking at Shangguan LAN 'er.

"You said that Lin Yi's body smells good, and that's why you like to climb on him?" Shangguan LAN 'er rolled her eyes, speechless. "He's not a traitor. Do you think a man like him smells better than me?"

"Wuwuwuwu!" The little Curly Bear seemed to be retorting.

"Really?" Shangguan LAN 'er sized Lin Yi up and down as if she didn't believe him, and when Lin Yi was confused, she blinked and sniffed Lin Yi's body carefully, muttering, "This smell is quite nice, I've never smelled it before ..."

Lin Yi didn't know what to say-the girl's face was less than a centimeter away from his neck, and any slight movement would've made her kiss him on the neck.

Were all the women on this Sky Class Island so open-minded that they were so close to a man they had only met twice?

Feeling Shangguan LAN 'er's breath on his neck, even Lin Yi couldn't help but feel restless. He barely managed to keep his body, but at this time, the little Curly Bear on his shoulder suddenly shook, and Lin Yi subconsciously wanted to catch it, and then the tragedy happened.

Buzzzzzz!

The two of them froze, and after a long while, Shangguan LAN 'er suddenly cried out in shock, her face blushing as she backed off twenty feet away. She pointed at Lin Yi and stammered, "W-why are you moving for no reason?"

Lin Yi shrugged innocently. "It wasn't me who moved just now, it was this little fellow who moved!"

"Ha?" Shangguan LAN 'er immediately saw the little Curly Bear making a face at her and felt helpless. So it was all this little guy's doing!

"You, you're not allowed to tell anyone about this. Otherwise, I'll ask my grandfather to lock you up, pull out your tendons, peel off your skin, and throw you into a medicinal cauldron to refine pills! Do you know that?" Shangguan LAN 'er was stunned for a moment before she changed her expression and glared at Lin Yi fiercely.

This was the first time she'd had physical contact with a boy since she was young, and she'd even kissed Lin Yi of her own accord! It'd be so embarrassing if anyone else found out!

"Yes, yes, I'll pretend nothing happened." Lin Yi nodded in agreement.

His thoughts ... He was thinking about Chu Mengyao. Seeing Shangguan LAN 'er reminded him of that miss. He remembered the first day he went to Songshan city, and he also had an indirect kiss for no reason!

However, Chu Mengyao's reaction was completely different from Shangguan LAN 'er's. Chu Mengyao was puking like crazy, while Shangguan LAN 'er was threatening him not to tell anyone!

Lin Yi couldn't help but be dazed ...

"Yes, yes, nothing happened!" Shangguan LAN 'er quickly replied, then turned to glare at the little Curly Bear, showing her silver teeth, and said, ""I'll deal with you when we get back!"

The little Curly Bear, on the other hand, was riding on Lin Yi's head to entertain itself, completely ignoring her, making Shangguan LAN 'er even angrier.

Although this young miss was a little tsundere, her temperament was not bad, and she did not lose her cuteness! Lin Yi couldn't help but smile as he watched the scene.

If Shangguan LAN 'er was really the kind of pampered young lady who could not stand the slightest bit of grievance, then she would be in deep trouble just now. If she had determined that it was molestation, the consequences would be unimaginable. It was exactly what Xu lingchong, Meng jueguang, and the others wanted!

In order to avoid the awkwardness, Lin Yi continued the topic, "Young miss, actually, the reason why this little fellow is so close to me must have something to do with me treating it when I first saw it."

"You're healing little white?" Shangguan LAN 'er was shocked, but her focus wasn't on how Lin Yi could heal her pet. She quickly asked, "Has little white been injured before?"

"That's right. When I first saw it, it was indeed injured quite badly. I didn't think much about it and healed it, which is why it is so clingy to me." Lin Yi said with a nod.

The little Curly Bear whimpered in cooperation on his neck, confirming his statement.

Shangguan LAN 'er hurriedly took the little Curly Bear and examined it from head to toe. After finding that there were no residual effects, she heaved a sigh of relief and said, ""Why didn't you say so earlier? tell me, which bastard hurt Xiao Bai?"

A few days ago, when she was in the back mountain Hall, she had actually thought about the strange things that happened when she was looking for the little Curly Bear. However, because the little Curly Bear was also confused about the situation that day, it could not explain it at all, so she could only give up and not look into it.

"I'm not sure about that. " Lin Yi said, shaking his head.

Although he could guess that it was Meng jueguang and Meng Tong who had injured the little Curly Bear, it was only a guess without any evidence. Even if he were to pin the blame on the two, it would only end up as a headless lawsuit.

Chapter 3707 A Promise Between The Two

Instead of saying it now to alert the enemy, it was better to hide it first and bury a question mark in this lady's heart, then reveal it at the critical moment. This way, it would have a miraculous effect!

Shangguan LAN 'er couldn't help but feel a little disappointed. Even Lin Yi and the little Curly Bear themselves didn't know who the real murderer was, so even if she wanted to stand up for the little Curly Bear, she didn't know who to vent her anger on.

After looking at Lin Yi for a while, Shangguan LAN 'er suddenly smiled,"For the sake of you saving Xiao Bai, I've decided to recognize you as my Junior Brother! In the future, don't call me big miss, you have to call me little Senior Sister, understand?"

"Ha? Little Senior Sister?" Lin Yi was dumbfounded as he looked at Shangguan LAN 'er with a strange expression.

"Of course, I entered the sect earlier than you. According to the rules, shouldn't you call me little Senior Sister?" Shangguan LAN 'er glared at him, pretending to be fierce, and then said with a proud face,""Come, Lin Yi, Junior Brother, call me Senior Sister!"

F * ck! This little girl really did as she pleased!

Lin Yi was speechless, but Shangguan LAN 'er's logic was right. He had to force himself to say,"Little, little Senior Sister."

Shangguan LAN 'er immediately smiled and pretended to be serious,""That's a good girl. If you encounter any trouble in the future, just come to me, okay? little Senior Sister will stand up for you!"

Lin Yi could only roll his eyes. He was a man, and if he had to rely on this girl, then he'd have lived all these years in vain. But he couldn't refute her on the surface, so he nodded.

However, strictly speaking, this little Senior sister's background was extremely deep, and her backing was much stronger than Xu lingchong 's. She was really a hard-to-come-by strong leg, and might really be of use in the future.

With the existence of the little Curly Bear as a natural bond, the relationship between the two of them had unknowingly become much closer after chatting and laughing for a while. After all, Shangguan LAN 'er's identity was special. Other than the little Curly Bear, she did not have any real friends. The others either kept a respectful distance from her or had ulterior motives like Xu lingchong and the others. It was impossible for them to have any real friendship.

But today, she felt like Lin Yi was her friend. There was no ulterior motive, no flattery, and they could just talk about everything in comfort and without restraint. It was not a bad feeling!

Naturally, Shangguan LAN 'er's favorability towards Lin Yi started to skyrocket. As for the hostility she had towards him at the start, it was long gone.

Lin Yi laughed to himself. If Meng jueguang and his gang knew about this, they'd probably die from vomiting blood. Not only did they fail to sow discord between the two, but they even got closer to each other. It was like trying to steal a chicken but losing the rice!

The sky was getting dark, and Lin Yi spoke up before they parted, ""Little Senior Sister, I have a request."

"Just say it, little Senior Sister, I will definitely help you!" Shangguan LAN 'er said heroically as she waved her hand.

"Okay," Lin Yi said after some thought, "can you act like you hate me in front of other people?"

"Why?" Shangguan LAN 'er was stunned. If it were anyone else, they would not even have the time to get close to her.

"I'll keep you in suspense for a while," Lin Yi smiled faintly, "I'll tell you the whole story when the time comes."

Shangguan LAN 'er was a little girl after all, and her interest was piqued by Lin Yi's mysterious behavior, "Alright! I, as the little Senior Sister, will definitely help Little Junior Brother!"

"Then I'll have to thank little Senior Sister." Naturally, Lin Yi was doing this to numb Xu lingchong and the others. Otherwise, if these people didn't see any results, they'd come up with all sorts of weird ideas to cause trouble for him again and again. He'd have to live in peace then, and he still wanted to take a break and cultivate.

The key point was that Zhong Pingliang and Lee Zhengming both mentioned that Shangguan LAN 'er was Xu lingchong's weak spot in the intelligence. If he was pushed too far, he might take the risk and send someone to assassinate him, and that would be a big problem.

Lin Yi was already at the peak of the early Foundation Stage, and he could easily crush all the new disciples in the pavilion, but it was still not enough outside. What if the opponent sent a mid Foundation Stage or even stronger? No matter how careful Lin Yi was, he could still die if he wasn't careful!

"Then I'll take my leave." Shangguan LAN 'er grabbed the little Curly Bear from Lin Yi's shoulder by force and left after saying goodbye. Her steps were full of joy, and she seemed to be in a good mood.

However, perhaps she suddenly remembered Lin Yi's request, as she walked out of the woods, she suddenly stopped, and pretended to be angry and unhappy, but it was a good act.

This little Senior Sister was quite innocent and cute! Lin Yi couldn't help but smile as he looked at the girl's back.

However, although he had successfully gotten closer to Shangguan LAN 'er, Lin Yi didn't have any intention of using her to get a higher position.

After all, his main purpose in coming to Sky Class Island was to find Zhang Liju and heal his seven inheritor girlfriends, as well as Yu Xiaoke, armadillo, and the others. As for these relationships, he didn't care much about them anymore.

Besides, with Lin Yi's personality, using a girl's feelings to get what he wanted was something he wouldn't even think about doing.

The news of Shangguan LAN 'er and Lin Yi parting on bad terms soon reached Xu lingchong and Meng jueguang's ears. Xu lingchong was instantly overjoyed, and Meng jueguang was even more so. It was obvious that their plan had "succeeded"!

Although this plan was made specifically for lechers like Lin Yi, and Meng Jue was 90% sure that Lin Yi would fall for it, he was still overjoyed to see it work.

Don't forget, Xu lingchong had promised him in advance that as long as this matter was handled well, he would come forward and inform the higher-ups on his behalf, so that he could replace Lu bianren in the future and become the new third Pavilion master of the welcoming new pavilion!

With Xu lingchong's profound background, as long as he could convince his grandfather Xu Yuanzheng, who was a big Shot in the elder's Association, to speak up, then no one would be able to compete with Meng jueguang for the position of the third Pavilion master of the welcome Pavilion!

The only thing Meng jueguang needed to do now was to think of every possible way to raise his strength to the hard threshold of the mid Foundation establishment stage before Lu bianren left. This was not a difficult task for him.

For one, he had been stuck at the peak of the early Foundation establishment stage for a few years and had long touched the barrier. Secondly, he had been the senior martial brother of the welcoming new pavilion's manager all these years. He had built up a network of connections from all sides. At the same time, he had also accumulated a lot of cultivation resources. If he gritted his teeth a little, he could exchange them for a Foundation-breaking pill!

Chapter 3708 New Rules

As long as he had the foundation breaking pill, Meng jueguang was confident that he would be able to break through to the mid Foundation establishment stage without any obstacles. At that time, he would be able to take over the position of the welcoming new pavilion's third Pavilion master with great honor!

Putting aside Meng jueguang's smug face, Lin Yi entered the Jade space to stabilize his strength as usual after returning to the cave.

The next day, all the new members of the welcome Pavilion gathered in the main hall early in the morning. Their faces were filled with excitement and nervousness that could not be concealed.

This was because from today onwards, after the one-month adaptation period, they would officially enter the zone. From now on, there would only be one theme left in the welcoming new pavilion, and that was competition!

According to the rules that had been the same for the past few years, from the second month onwards, the new disciples of the three pavilions would begin a brutal and intense ranking competition. Every newcomer around them would become each other's competitor. They would either step on each other or be stepped on by each other. There was no third possibility.

If one's strength was strong enough, then even if one was an unremarkable newbie of the GreenCloud Pavilion, one could still challenge the number one seed of the rising Sky Pavilion in public and trample him under one's feet. After that, one could take all the best cultivation resources for themselves.

On the other hand, if one's strength was too weak, then even if one was a disciple of the soaring Pavilion with a deep background, they would only become a stepping stone for others. After that, they would only be able to endure the worst of the worst cultivation resources in the welcoming new pavilion. They would sink into oblivion and would never be able to make a comeback.

In the end, the weak were prey to the strong in the world of cultivation. Even the relatively mild welcoming new pavilion would only follow the law of the forest. There were no exceptions. The only care they had was that there would be some restrictions when they competed with each other, and it was unlikely that people would die. That was all.

For this, after a month of adaptation, all the rookies were already mentally prepared. Regardless of whether they were strong or weak, they already had a clear idea of what they would face. However, when Pavilion master Hu Yun Feng went up the stage and said his first sentence, the entire place was in an uproar.

"In response to the elder Council's call to increase the strength of the newcomers, from this year onwards, the welcoming new pavilion will no longer have a ranking competition. In its place will be a more comprehensive and fair newcomer assessment. All newcomers, please make your preparations. The specific rules of the assessment can be seen on the board."

What? Cancel the ranking competition system?

All the newbies were in an uproar. Many of them had been preparing for the ranking competition this month, and some of them had even thought about who to challenge. As for people like Meng Tong and Lin Yi who had grudges with each other, they had already shouted that they would take revenge in the ranking competition.

However, he didn't expect that the ranking competition, which had been a traditional mechanism used by the welcoming new pavilion for the past few decades, would be canceled.

When Hu Yun Feng ordered people to put up the rules of the announcement, the rookies present began to discuss.

Lin Yi and the others squeezed forward to take a look. There were six segments to the test, including pressure, defense, spirit medicine, spirit beasts, and combat. The test would last for five months, and points would be given during each segment. The final ranking would be based on the points accumulated.

It was indeed as Hu Yunfeng had said. This newcomer assessment was much more comprehensive than the simple and brutal ranking competition in the past.

However, there was a very important point that quickly caught the attention of Lin Yi and the others.

This newcomer assessment was actually ranked separately by the three pavilions 'newcomers!

The top three of each of the three pavilions would receive either a foundation building elixir or a Foundation breaking elixir, while the fourth to tenth place would receive three spiritual jades. After the tenth place, there would be nothing.

Apart from the redistribution of cave abodes according to their ranking and the top three being able to choose their elixirs, the rules were almost the same as the rookie trial two days ago!

According to reason, it was the same as the previous trial for new disciples. This kind of rule should be a good thing for the naturally weak new disciples of the GreenCloud Pavilion. After all, their strength was generally weak. If they were to compete with the new disciples of the soaring Pavilion and the mysterious Pavilion, they could forget about obtaining rich rewards like the foundation building pill or the foundation breaking pill.

However, don't forget that there was a crucial difference between this newcomer assessment and the newcomer trial at the back mountain. The ranking would directly affect the allocation of the cave abodes!

According to the rules of the ranking competition in the past years, even the GreenCloud Pavilion's newbies could get the best resources, including the cave, as long as they were strong enough. Someone as strong as Lin Yi could even get cave number one!

However, if it was the newcomer assessment now, although it might be a blessing to the weak, it was also equivalent to naturally obliterating their chance to counterattack and surpass the rising Sky Pavilion and profound secrets Pavilion's newcomers!

In other words, no matter how strong a GreenCloud Pavilion newbie like Lin Yi was, he couldn't hope for the number one cave. Even if he could easily crush his opponent, it was useless. The number one cave should belong to the rising Sky Pavilion, and it would always belong to them. Newbies from the GreenCloud Pavilion could never get their hands on it!

In the ranking competition of the past years, the newcomers of the three pavilions were all at the same starting line. Whatever cultivation resources they could obtain were completely based on their own abilities. It was basically fair. However, although the newcomer's assessment this time seemed more scientific with its variety of patterns, it was actually biased towards the rising Sky Pavilion's newcomers!

This was the so-called fairness of the newcomer assessment! Lin Yi couldn't help but smile coldly. He wasn't interested in the number one cave at all, but he was still annoyed.

"This assessment is clearly biased towards the new disciples of the rising Sky Pavilion. No matter how weak they are, they can still enjoy the best cave abodes without any worries. Pavilion master Hu, you have the cheek to proclaim fairness?" Qiao hongcai suddenly called out.

He was a straightforward person who abhorred evil as if it were his enemy. He had dared to question the unfairness on the first day he had come to the welcome Pavilion. So, he naturally wouldn't back down at this time.

This question of his not only resonated with a portion of the GreenCloud Pavilion's new disciples, but even these old men of the mysterious Pavilion also responded one after another. Among them, Dongfang Badao and a few others were the most indignant.

The reason was very simple. Compared to the GreenCloud Pavilion's newcomers, who were naturally weak, these old men of the mysterious Pavilion were generally very strong. If they could challenge someone from another Pavilion, they had enough confidence to pull down these second generation cultivators of the rising Sky Pavilion.

According to the rules of the ranking competition in previous years, if nothing unexpected happened, at least half of the best fifteen cave abodes on the mountaintop would belong to the old man from the profound secrets Pavilion. In other words, the biggest victim of the rules of the assessment was actually the rising Sky Pavilion!

Chapter 3709 New Deacon

Hu Yunfeng didn't seem to be worried at all as he looked at the excited new disciples from the mysterious Pavilion and the GreenCloud Pavilion. Instead, he said calmly, "The rules of the newcomer assessment were approved by the elders Guild. If you have any objections, you can protest to the elders Guild. I will not stop you."

With one sentence, all the newbies were rendered speechless.

The elders Guild was an existence that stood at the peak of the entire North Island. Only a group of newbies who had not even successfully built their Foundation would dare to go to the elders Guild to protest? Even if you want to die, you shouldn't do it this way!

Lin Yi shook his head helplessly. With the elder Council as his backing, Hu Yunfeng had nothing to fear. It could be seen that the three great pavilions were gradually being controlled by the rising Sky Pavilion, and this was indeed true. Otherwise, this assessment rule, which was obviously biased toward the rising Sky Pavilion's newcomers, should not have been passed by the elders Guild.

After a short pause, seeing that the newcomers had stopped talking, Hu Yun Feng nodded in satisfaction and continued, ""However, in order to prevent you all from feeling resentful and saying that the rules are biased towards the rising Sky Pavilion's newcomers, after this assessment, the disciples of profound secrets Pavilion and GreenCloud Pavilion will have one last chance to challenge another Pavilion. As long as they win, they will be able to obtain the other's cultivation cave. I believe you all have nothing to say about this."

The rookies looked at each other before nodding their heads and giving up.

However, there was still something fishy about this. For example, the newcomer assessment would last for five months. In addition to the one month that had already passed, by the time the assessment was over, the newcomer from the rising Sky Pavilion would have occupied the best cave dwelling for half a year. This half a year's time was already completely enough for them to shake off the other two Pavilion's newcomers by a large margin.

However, it was better to have a chance to challenge than nothing. At least, he could hope for the next half of the year. Otherwise, he wouldn't even have the chance to do so.

Lin Yi couldn't help but sigh as he watched the newbies give up. To give him a good beating and then give him a good beating, the troublesome situation that was originally difficult to calm was so easily resolved. Pavilion leader Hu Yunfeng's tactics were truly shrewd and ruthless!

This scene was within Hu Yunfeng's expectations. He paused for a moment before saying, ""Before the start of this year's newcomer assessment, I would like to make an announcement. "As there are more segments in the newcomer assessment, in addition to the two senior brothers in charge of the three pavilions, there must be an additional newcomer Deacon who is in charge of the point statistics and announcement. Of course, this task is laborious and is considered a free service for everyone. It will definitely affect the newcomer's assessment results. Therefore, in addition to the newcomer Deacon's monthly salary, we will give this newcomer 50 assessment points as compensation."

As soon as he finished speaking, the crowd started to discuss again.

They had already voted for the new manager last month. In the end, under Xu lingchong's supervision, Kang Zhaoming's votes far exceeded Zhang Li Xing 's, but it didn't exceed two-thirds. He had to be temporarily vacant.

However, although they were all new deacons, their previous responsibilities were only to be responsible for the distribution of some low-level tasks, and the profit was not considered big. But this time, the new deacons who were responsible for calculating the points could get 50 assessment points as compensation in addition to the regular salary. This made all the newcomers present extremely envious!

One had to know that in the six assessment segments, one could only get 50 to 60 points at most in each segment. There were a few segments where one could not even get 50 points even if they got first place. In other words, being the new Deacon was equivalent to having an additional assessment segment. Furthermore, this segment naturally gave him full marks.

As long as there weren't any major problems in the six tests, this was simply a guaranteed first place!

All of the rookies were burning with passion in their hearts, hoping that this pie that fell from the sky would hit them. However, anyone with a discerning eye could see that this candidate had already been internally selected.

Sure enough, Hu Yunfeng immediately said, ""This position will be given to Kang Zhaoming. He's the number one candidate in the public selection for the new Deacon, and he also won first place in the rising Sky Pavilion in the back mountain trial two days ago. Whether it's his prestige or strength, he's the most suitable candidate for this position. Do you have any objections? If you have any opinions, raise your hands and say it out loud. Don't complain about the shady operation in private later, which will affect the image of our welcome new pavilion!"

The rookies were suddenly woken up by a bucket of cold water. They looked at each other, but no one said a word.

Firstly, according to Hu Yunfeng, Kang Zhaoming did have the right to be the new member's manager, and no one else had the ability to compete with him.

Secondly, the newcomer's test was ranked by the three pavilions, after all. This meant that even if Kang Zhaoming became the new disciple Deacon, the ones who would be affected the most would only be the rising Sky Pavilion's own newcomers, and it wouldn't have much to do with the mysterious Pavilion or the GreenCloud Pavilion.

The newbies of the rising Sky Pavilion had always followed lingchong's orders, and naturally wouldn't object to Zhaoming being the new manager since it was his idea. As for the newbies from the other two pavilions who were not related to this matter, they had no need to step out and seek trouble for themselves.

"No one's saying anything, it seems like you have no objections. It's settled then, from today onwards, Kang Zhaoming will be your new Butler!" Hu Yun Feng immediately announced.

"Thank you, thank you." Kang Zhaoming smiled faintly and cupped his hands towards the newbies. He was so proud of himself that it made the newbies envious. However, it was useless to be envious. Who asked him to have the support of young master Xu lingchong behind him?

There were actually some people who were unconvinced, but they didn't dare to say it out loud. Hu Yunfeng had directly raised his hand to express his opinion. Wasn't that shooting the bird that takes the lead?

Qiao Hong was about to say something when Lin Yi stopped him, shaking his head with a faint smile. This new Deacon position might be a very impressive and lucrative position in other people's eyes, but it was nothing in Lin Yi's eyes!

He would find it a waste of time even if she was his! If he had the time, he might as well go to the spirit jade mine and dig out some useless Jade!

After selecting the new deacons, the next step was to familiarize themselves with the rules, and then the test for the new members. The six segments would be completed in five months, and after looking at the contents of the first segment, Lin Yi couldn't help but chuckle. It was a familiar test-resistance to pressure!

Don't forget, he'd gone through the same test when he was at the Hidden House Summit in the common world. Now that he was going to face a similar scene, it was a piece of cake.

However, even though the situation did not seem too different, in terms of strength, it was completely different from when he was in the secular world. The key points were naturally different, so he still had to be careful.

Chapter 3710 Newcomer's Ranking Competition

The test venue for this segment was not in the welcome Pavilion. The group of newcomers, led by Pavilion master Hu Yun Feng and their respective senior brothers in charge, only arrived at their destination after walking for less than an hour.

Although the destination was the same as the welcoming new pavilion and the Ling Yu Hall, which was a Grand and majestic building, before the new people could even reach it, they could already feel an unprecedented evil Qi and pressure coming from it. The new people with weaker strength even directly staggered and almost made a fool of themselves in front of everyone.

This kind of intimidating aura was exactly the same as the last time they went to the back mountain Hall. However, at that time, they were frightened by the aura of the three elder-level Masters. This time, there was no one in front of them at all, only a vast and magnificent Pavilion.

Compared to the heavily guarded Ling Yu Hall and the back mountain Hall, there was not even a single guard here. Only the huge plaque above their heads announced the Supreme majesty of this place, law enforcement Hall.

Originally, in the imagination of the freshmen, a place like the law enforcement Hall must be filled with experts. The number of guards should be more than the spirit Jade Hall and the rear Mountain Hall. However, the scene in front of them was completely different from what they had imagined.

There was not a single guard, and apart from a few Masters with restrained auras hurrying through the corridors of the attics, there was almost no one else.

But even so, this place still made all the rookies tremble in their hearts for no reason. It was as if all the disguises and psychological defenses had been instantly removed upon arriving here, and all secrets were exposed.

The legendary law enforcement Hall was indeed an unfathomable place!

Lin Yi couldn't help but praise him internally. Even if he just left these newbies here doing nothing, it was already a test to resist pressure.

Compared to the pure Qi pressure in the common world, this pressure was much stronger and more advanced. It was beyond the physical level, and even the spirit couldn't resist the torture. It wasn't something that could be offset by pure Qi alone. Lin Yi believed that most of the people here wouldn't be able to hold on for long before they had a mental breakdown.

"The law enforcement Hall, including the layout of all the surrounding attics, was built as an extremely powerful pressure array. Do you see the high round platform in the middle of the square?"

Hu Yun Feng pointed to a place not far away and said, "That's the place where criminals are executed, and it's also the place where the formation is the most powerful. You'll be taking the first test on that high platform."

Everyone looked at the platform that Hu Yunfeng was pointing at. Apart from being located in the middle of the square, it looked ordinary and there was nothing special about it. However, when everyone looked at it carefully, they felt an inexplicable fear in their hearts, as if they would be devoured by it the next moment.

This place is very dangerous! Putting so many new people who haven't even reached the Foundation Stage in the test, is there really no problem? Those who were not determined enough would probably have a mental breakdown or even go crazy on the spot!

Lin Yi was still confused when he heard Hu Yunfeng say, ""Later, I will specially invite a few Masters of the law enforcement Hall to control the big array on the high platform. But don't misunderstand, I didn't invite them to increase the difficulty of the test. On the contrary, their task is to help you reduce the pressure of the array. Otherwise, none of you present will be able to last more than the time for one incense stick to burn!"

Hu Yunfeng wasn't trying to scare them-if the pressure formation were to be fully activated, even a complete foundation Stage master would bleed from his seven orifices and die in an instant, let alone a bunch of Sky Class Masters.

And in their current state, although the pressure array had not been fully activated, the pressure from the circular platform was definitely not something that the rookies present could withstand. Someone had to control the array to help them reduce the pressure.

A moment later, the newcomers were led by Hu Yunfeng to the side of the round platform. Even though they had not yet reached the platform, everyone clearly felt that it was a lot more strenuous. This kind of place was not something ordinary people could stay in.

No wonder it was often said that anyone who entered the law enforcement Hall would no longer have any secrets to speak of. Although these words were somewhat exaggerated, they were still true to their name.

Thinking about it, even the most powerful master would be exhausted under such pressure. Moreover, the law enforcement Hall had never lacked Masters who were good at spiritual martial skills. If a slight flaw was exposed, they would immediately take advantage of it. The so-called secret would naturally be impossible to talk about.

One thing that made Lin Yi happy was that he was only here for the test, not as a criminal. Otherwise, all his secrets would've been exposed.

At this moment, the Masters from the Hall of Justice that Hu Yunfeng was talking about had arrived. What surprised Lin Yi was that he saw two familiar faces in the group.

One of them was Xu lingchong. This guy wasn't a member of the law enforcement Hall at all. Two days ago, at the back mountain Hall, he had already made things difficult for him. Now, he had appeared here like a ghost. He must be up to no good!

The other person was Shangguan LAN 'er, who he had just met in the woods yesterday. Of course, she also had her little Curly Bear, which was always with her.

After discovering Lin Yi in the crowd, the little Curly Bear immediately whimpered and wanted to pounce on Lin Yi, but it was held back by Shangguan LAN 'er. Today was different from the past, and the entrance examination was about to begin. She couldn't let the little Curly Bear affect Lin Yi's condition.

Not to mention, she'd just promised Lin Yi yesterday that she'd put on a show with him. There were so many people watching, and she had to act as if she hated Lin Yi-she couldn't let Curly Bear get close to Lin Yi.

However, although Shangguan LAN 'er looked disgusted when she saw Lin Yi, there was a hint of warning and worry in her eyes.

The reason why she came today was actually because she was invited by Xu lingchong.

After the act before, lingchong believed that she'd completely broken up with Lin Yi, and so she'd especially invited her to the law enforcement Hall to watch the newbie exam, saying that she wanted to use this opportunity to deal with Lin Yi and win the Beauty's heart!

And with young master Xu's influence, even if he wasn't from the Hall of Justice, it would be easy for him to target Lin Yi. It just so happened that there were acquaintances among the Masters Hu Yunfeng had invited. It was only a matter of a word for them to take the opportunity to punish Lin Yi.

Shangguan LAN 'er had no interest in the law enforcement Hall at first, but after hearing that Xu lingchong wanted to deal with Lin Yi, she couldn't help but worry and followed him here.
