

Bodyguard 4061

Chapter 4061 Half A Star Inkstone

Now that he had woken up, Yu Zhe subconsciously thought that he was still in the secret room. He never thought that he had been moved without anyone knowing. Although it was still an underground secret room, it was not the same room as before.

"Then ... Who are you? Why did you bring me here?" Yu Zhe rejoiced in his heart, but immediately became vigilant again. This couldn't be the rhythm of leaving the Wolf's Den and entering The Tiger's Den, right?

This dark and cold secret chamber looked even more indestructible than Nan Tianba 's, and there was no place to escape. If this mysterious man really wanted to save him, why would he bring him to this place?

"You're quite alert. It seems that I didn't save you for nothing. " The mysterious man paused and suddenly laughed with a deeper meaning, ""To be honest, I admire you very much. It's rare to see someone who can commit treason and kill his master with his own hands in this world. Just from the perspective of heart, you meet my requirements!"

"What do you mean?" Yu Zhe became more and more cautious. He moved back without a trace, trying to keep himself as far away from this mysterious person as possible.

He had indeed killed Nan tianyong with his own hands, but he still felt very guilty about this matter. Normally, he did not dare and was not willing to take the initiative to think about this matter. However, from the mysterious person's attitude, this person was actually very appreciative of this. Wasn't he a pervert?

Seeing Yu Zhe's guarded expression, the mysterious man indifferently said, ""It's nothing. I only saved you because I admire you. Otherwise, you would have been cut into pieces by Nan Tianba in front of everyone! However, don't even think about running away. That's not realistic, and I don't believe you're that stupid to go out and court death. "

Speaking up to this point, the mysterious man's killing intent was almost tangible. Even if it was only for a short moment, the shock it gave Yu Zhe was engraved in his bones and engraved in his heart. This mysterious man in front of him was not an existence that Nan Tianba could match!

Yu Zhe took a deep breath. He finally recognized the current situation. What he thought just now was right. He had just left the Wolf's Den and immediately fell into an even more dangerous Tiger's Den.

"What do you want me to do, Sir?" Yu Zhe asked, staring at the figure in the dark.

The mysterious man didn't say anything, but he threw something over. It fell in front of Yu Zhe with a clink.

Yu Zhe jumped in fright, thinking it was a hidden weapon that could take his life. However, the next moment, his eyes suddenly opened wide, staring at the stone in front of him, unable to move his eyes away.

After a long time, Yu Zhe swallowed a few mouthfuls of saliva and stammered in disbelief, ""This ... This is star ... Star inkstone?"

"You have a good eye. That's right, this is a star inkstone, but you've already used half of it." The mysterious man nodded indifferently.

"Half of it?" Yu Zhe couldn't help but be stunned when he heard this. He carefully observed it under the dim light and realized that this star inkstone was not the one he had seen at the Hong family's business meeting before. Not only was the shape different, but the color and Foundation were also obviously weaker.

Even so, this was still a treasure that Yu Zhe had been dreaming of. The star inkstone could allow a person to perfectly break through to the strongest Jindan stage, and even if half of the star inkstone was used, the auxiliary effect would not be too bad.

Seeing Yu Zhe's greedy expression, which was as if he couldn't wait to swallow the star inkstone, the mysterious man laughed, "As long as you listen to my orders in the future, not only will you be able to keep your little life, this half of the star inkstone will also be yours. How about it?"

"This ..." Although Yu Zhe was about to lose his mind from the star inkstone, he had not completely lost his mind. He hesitated and struggled when he heard this.

"Don't worry, I won't let you suffer any losses. This star inkstone is just a small benefit I'm giving you in advance. That's all. " The mysterious man paused, and then his tone changed, ""Of course, if you don't agree, it's fine. I won't kill you. I'll just return you to your rightful owner and send you back to Nan Tianba."

Yu Zhe shivered and remembered that he didn't dare to go out in his current situation. Without the protection of this mysterious person, he would immediately be dismembered.

Thinking of this, Yu Zhe didn't hesitate anymore. He immediately gritted his teeth and said, "Alright, I agree. What do you want me to do now?"

The mysterious man wasn't surprised at all and said indifferently, "There's nothing for you to do right now. You just need to focus on cultivating here and quickly increase your strength. I'll naturally inform you when I need you. "

"I understand. No matter what, thank you for saving my life. In the future, if you have any instructions, I will do my best to help you!" Yu Zhe immediately vowed and flattered.

Unexpectedly, the mysterious man sneered, "You don't have to give me that. Do you think I'll believe your cheap oath when you're someone who can kill your teacher without even blinking? Remember, don't ever play any tricks in front of me. If there's a next time, I'll make you regret not dying in Nan Tianba's hands. "

After saying that, the mysterious man's figure flickered. No one knew where he went, but he disappeared right under Yu Zhe's eyes.

It was just a simple sentence, but the feeling of being seen through was even more frightening than the killing intent just now.

However, Yu Zhe's attention quickly shifted back to the star inkstone. His various experiences had made him deeply understand that only his own strength was the foundation. Everything else was just floating clouds. This star inkstone was the Golden finger that could allow him to become an expert!

Yu Zhe's disappearance had caused a huge commotion in the three pavilions, but Lin Yi knew nothing about it. He'd been with the king of junk all this while, focusing on his forging business.

It'd been seven days since Zhaoming and Nan Tianba came looking for trouble. The most basic warming up stage was over three days ago, and now it was time for the most important part of forging.

The more powerful a divine weapon was, the higher the requirements for the forger. There could not be a single mistake during the process. Even if there was a slight deviation of half a centimeter or even half a centimeter, the final result might be very different from what was expected.

The ten-thousand-year-old tree crystal, the ancient Pure Land, and other super rare materials were also burned, becoming a pile of complete waste from then on, making people sigh with regret.

It wasn't just Lin Yi who didn't want to see such a tragic outcome, but the king of junk, who viewed forging as his life, didn't want to see it either.

In the past few months, the king of junk had put in a lot of effort into this, even more than Lin Yi, who had provided him with all the rare materials.

He'd racked his brain for countless changes to the forging plan, as well as all the other complicated and arduous preparation work. Lin Yi didn't see it with his own eyes, but he could feel the king's heart and effort.

Chapter 4062 A Problem

The king of junk had been on edge since he started forging. He was personally in charge of every step of the process, and there was no room for any mistakes.

Lin Yi didn't sit around either-it was a rare opportunity to watch the entire process up close. It'd only been seven days, but he'd learned a lot from the king's teachings.

During these seven days, there was no deviation in the process. Everything was going according to the script that the king of junk had planned out, and it was going smoothly. Lin Yi's initial anxiety slowly faded away, and he felt more at ease. He was glad that he didn't find the wrong person.

Everything was difficult at the beginning, and they'd already passed the most important initial stage. The forging was half-done, and Lin Yi thought that he'd be able to keep going smoothly like this, but everything came to an end on the eighth day.

"It ... It's over?" Lin Yi's jaw dropped as he watched the pool calm down. This wasn't what the king of junk had planned for him.

At that moment, even the king of junk was going crazy. Although he could not accurately predict how long the process would take, it was only the eighth day!

According to the experience of many blacksmiths, the more powerful a divine weapon was, the longer the time needed to cast it. For a divine weapon of a slightly higher grade, it was normal to take a few months or even a few years. And this time, super rare materials such as the ten-thousand-year-old tree crystal and the ancient Pure Land were used in the casting, so how could it be weaker than other weapons?

However, it was an indisputable fact that the weapon forging pool had calmed down! Normally, such a situation would only occur when the divine weapon was formed.

However, it was only the eighth day, and looking at the lump in the forging pool, even a ghost would not believe that it was a fully formed divine weapon!

"What do we do now?" Lin Yi's mouth twitched as he turned to trash King. "This thing ... I'm going to use it to smash people?"

"Impossible! That was impossible! That's impossible!" The king of junk pounded his head as he paced around the forging pool, muttering to himself.

Lin Yi couldn't help but worry that the guy might just throw himself into the pool after seeing his crazed look. That would be a real death.

Lin Yi thought it was unbelievable as well-the whole plan was designed by the king of junk, but he'd discussed it with him in detail during the process. In order to guarantee success, they had to do a lot of preparation.

The high-grade materials that Lin Yi bought from the northernmost Island had only one purpose in the forging plan, and that was to ensure the stability and success rate of the forging process. The king of junk had even asked Lin Yi to fuse a few sky-grade weapons he didn't use with them because of this.

However, he did not expect that such a result would still come out even after he had made such thorough preparations.

"We ... Are considered to have failed, right?" Lin Yi asked. Reality was cruel, but he had to accept it.

At this time, the king of junk knelt down and put his face on the edge of the pool, giving Lin Yi a big shock. This guy couldn't be thinking too hard, could he? the pool might have calmed down now, but the temperature was still frighteningly high. Even a Foundation Stage master wouldn't be able to handle it.

Just as Lin Yi was about to stop him, the king of junk's eyes lit up. "No, no, I know the reason. We haven't failed yet!"

"You haven't failed yet?" Lin Yi blinked.

"Right! We haven't failed yet. More accurately, we haven't completely failed!" The king of junk was full of energy again, and he pointed at the pool as he explained, "You'll know if you look carefully. The pool hasn't completely cooled down, and the divine weapon hasn't completely taken shape. From the looks of it, if we don't find a way to solve the problem, it will remain in this lukewarm state. We still have room for remedy. "

Lin Yi's spirits lifted. He observed for a while and confirmed what the king of junk said. The God weapon was still changing at a speed that was hard to see with the naked eye. He asked, "What problem?"

"Solve the attribute conflict between the 10000-year tree crystal and the ancient Pure Land!" "Brother Lin, I've told you before that there's a basic requirement for casting a weapon. The materials must be compatible with each other. Even if they're not compatible with each other, we must find a way to neutralize them with other supplementary materials. This is the problem we're facing now," the king of junk said confidently.

"How could this be? The 10,000-year tree crystal has the wood attribute, and the ancient Pure Land has the earth attribute. How could there be a conflict of attributes between the two?" Lin Yi asked curiously. It was common sense that earth and wood grew together.

The king of junk shook his head and said, "wrong. These two materials are too rare. It's difficult to understand their specific origins. So, we have made a mistake on this most basic problem. The 10000-year tree crystal is indeed wood attribute, but the ancient Pure Land is not Pure Earth attribute!"

"If it's not the earth attribute, then what could it be?" Lin Yi was confused. Even if he didn't know the origin, the ancient Pure Land was a standard soil. Could it be some other attribute?

"I once saw an ancient Pure Land in my master's notes. Although it didn't clearly mention its attributes, it did mention that ancient pure lands usually only appear at the mouth of ancient volcanoes!" "Now you understand. Although the ancient Pure Land has the earth attribute, it also has the fire attribute. So, to a certain extent, there is a conflict of attributes with the wood attribute of the ten-thousand-year tree crystal!" The king of junk said excitedly.

Lin Yi understood now and nodded, "no wonder this weird situation happened. If it was just a clash of attributes, it would have failed completely. It wouldn't have continued so slowly. So it's because the earth and fire dual phase of the ancient Pure Land and the wood phase of the ten thousand year tree crystal both clash and coexist."

"That's right. Luckily, my mistake wasn't too fatal. Otherwise, I wouldn't even have the chance to make up for it. If that were the case, I wouldn't have the face to face you, brother Lin." The king of junk said awkwardly.

"Don't say that. Even if it's just for brother Wang's hard work, even if it doesn't succeed, I'm already very grateful to you. How can you say such words to me?" Lin Yi smiled, "since we've already used the ten thousand year tree crystal and ancient Pure Land, there's no way we can follow the previous example. How can there be no mistakes? plus, there's still a chance to fix it now. It's not the time to be sad."

Chapter 4063 Seeking Refuge

"En, brother Lin, don't worry. Since I've already found the crux of the problem, as long as I can solve the problem of the conflicting attributes, I'm confident in my smithing this time!" The king of junk promised.

"That's good, but how are we going to solve this problem now?" Lin Yi asked. The process couldn't be stopped halfway, and the thing inside wasn't even a half-finished product-he couldn't take it out now.

"If I'm not wrong, the state of the weapon-casting pool should continue. However, to be safe, it's better for me to stay here and watch. That's why I can only trouble brother Lin to find a way to get some supplementary materials. Only then can we continue to cast weapons." Trash King said as he took a pen and paper, listing out a list of materials and handing it to Lin Yi.

Lin Yi took it and looked at it,"Are these materials common?"

"Most of them are relatively common, and I should be able to buy them directly, but I'll have to try my luck with two of them. Fortunately, it's not too urgent here, and I'll find a way to control it. Being neither hot nor cold is also a stage of forging. A little longer isn't necessarily a bad thing. " The king of junk analyzed.

"Alright then. I'll think of a way to make up for the materials. I'll leave this to you, brother Wang." Lin Yi moved immediately.

After Hong Zhong went to Middle Island to take up his post, the Hong Chamber of Commerce was now si tsunami's territory. At this moment, there were two familiar faces in the private room. They were the two brothers, Nan Tianba and Nan Tianmen.

"Manager si, we have a presumptuous request. We hope that you can help us find someone."
Nantianmen and nantianba looked at each other and pleaded.

"Oh? Who? Could it be about Lin er? There's no news for the time being, but I've already sent people to investigate. " Si tsunami replied perfunctorily while drinking the high-quality spiritual tea.

"Actually, we already know Lin er's true identity, and we know where he is. This guy is the Lin Yi I told you about before! But we're looking for another person. You've met him before, my unfilial martial nephew Yu Zhe. " Southern sky Gate said awkwardly.

He and Nan Tianba had already searched everywhere they could, but they couldn't find Yu Zhe's figure. Now, they had no choice but to come to si tsunami for help. After all, si tsunami was an invigilator. Letting him borrow shadow Hong group's intelligence to find out Yu Zhe's whereabouts was much better than relying on the two of them to run around.

"Inquire about Yu Zhe? You don't know the whereabouts of your own martial nephews?" Si tsunami was stunned,"since we already know that Lin Yi is Lin er, we should find a way to deal with Lin Yi first. Why do we need to find Yu Zhe?"

"Manager si, you don't know this, but we only found out recently that third brother's murderer wasn't Lin Yi at all, but Yu Zhe's disgraceful disciple!" The southern Heaven Gate roughly told si tsunami what had happened recently.

Si tsunami was amazed by such a complicated inside story. Although the matter of Yu Zhe killing his teacher had caused an uproar recently, it was mainly concentrated in the three pavilions. It didn't spread much in the city square. Moreover, he had been busy reorganizing the Hong Chamber of Commerce and eliminating the imprint left by Hong Zhong's many years of operation. He had no time to pay attention to such rumors.

"I didn't expect this kid to be so rebellious. Fine, I'll send a message to Hong Ying group's old partner in charge of the North Island and ask him to check it out for you. Since the matter has become so big, the eyes and ears scattered in the North Island should take the initiative to pay attention to Yu Zhe's whereabouts." After si tsunami finished speaking, he immediately wrote a note and asked someone to send it out by bird.

Since both of them were on the North Island, the news spread very quickly. In just the time it took to brew a cup of tea, si tsunami received a reply. Unfortunately, the other party's reply was that they had not received any news about Zhe's whereabouts.

Nan Tianba and the southern heavenly gate disciples were extremely depressed. The missing Yu Zhe had become the laughingstock of the two brothers. If they continued to let him go, the prestige they had established in the rising Sky Pavilion would be completely destroyed.

Seeing their reactions, si tsunami comforted them, ""Actually, you guys don't have to be too discouraged. That kid Yu Zhe can hide for a moment, but can he hide forever? The Hong Ying group had so many eyes and ears in the North Island. As long as he appeared, they would definitely find him. It was only a matter of time! Also, isn't that Lin Yi already there? although Yu Zhe killed Nan tianyong, there's something wrong with him too!"

Nan Tianba and the two men from the southern Heaven Gate nodded, "We all know that Lin Yi's not a good person. When he impersonated Lin er and took the star inkstone, he was the one who started the conflict. Everything started because of him, or else third brother wouldn't have ended up being killed by his own disciple."

"That's right. That's why I'm prepared to help you deal with him!" Si tsunami suddenly said.

"Gah?" The two couldn't help but look at each other in surprise. Although si tsunami had promised to help find Lin er before, they could see the perfunctory meaning in his words. Why did he suddenly take the initiative?

"You don't have to be so surprised. These two days, your uncle Nantian Aurora Polaris just happened to send me a letter, asking me to help him teach an enemy a lesson. It was made when he died in the secular world as a guide. Can you guess who it is?" Si tsunami had a playful look.

"Don't tell me it's Lin Yi?" The two of them looked at each other.

"That's right, it's this Lin Yi. Speaking of which, this kid really has some conflict with your family. He went against your uncle in the common world, and now he's going against you two. It's rare to see a newbie who's willing to risk his life to attract hatred. " Si tsunami laughed.

Nan Tianba and the other two from the southern Heaven Gate also looked like they had seen a ghost. They immediately reacted and said, "Since uncle's revenge is involved, we can't let this kid go. We'll do as manager si said and get Lin Yi first!"

Si tsunami nodded and said, "now that Hong Zhong has gone to the middle Island, water from far away can't put out a fire near him. It's said that he is in trouble himself, so it's easy for us to deal with Lin Yi. However, we still need to plan this first and find a good opportunity. It's best to let Lin Yi come to us on his own initiative. Otherwise, as the North Island manager of the Hong Chamber of Commerce, I can't go to the welcome new pavilion to fight him."

"Yes, yes. Manager si, you've really thought it through." Southern Heaven Gate agreed.

Si tsunami nodded in satisfaction and said, ""By the way, why are there so few women in the North Island? I want to find a woman to play with, but I don't have one. It's really boring."

Chapter 4064 Ning Xuefei's Arrival

Nan Tianba and Nan Tianmen looked at each other and couldn't help but smile, ""Haha, the North Island is like this. There are no female cultivators here, so it can't be compared to the middle Island. However, if manager si wants to play, we do know a good place."

"Oh? It's better to come now than to pick another day. In any case, this shopkeeper doesn't have anything to do, so why don't we go relax?" Si tsunami was suddenly interested and immediately suggested.

"That's great. Manager si, we brothers haven't had the chance to give you a proper welcome since we're the hosts. It's just nice that we're the hosts this time. Consider it a welcome." The two of them nodded.

For them, si tsunami was a good backer, and they needed to find a way to curry favor with him. Since si tsunami was into this, it was the best.

However, it was only a matter of spending a few spirit jades to be able to get close to such a person. This was something that he could not ask for more.

Since coming to the North Island, si tsunami had been busy cleaning up the influence left by the former Hong Zhong. After holding it in for so long, it was time for him to be unable to hold back his desire. The three of them hit it off and immediately left together.

Although there were no female cultivators on the North Island, the place that Nan Tianba and Nan Tianmen brought si tsunami to was the largest cultivation village around the three pavilions. It was filled with ordinary people and was similar to the secular world. There were all kinds of entertainment places such as restaurants, brothels, and casinos.

Cultivators were also human beings. They also had the seven emotions and six desires. Besides cultivating, they still had various needs. When they needed to indulge, they often came to this cultivator village. The two brothers, Nan Tianba and Nan Tianmen, had long been frequent visitors here.

There was only one common currency on the five sky-class islands, and that was spiritual Jade. Since this was a village where ordinary people gathered, even the best brothels were nothing to the cultivators.

With just a few pieces of spiritual Jade, he could easily play with the top female in both beauty and skill. Although she was only an ordinary woman and not a high and mighty female cultivator, he could make up for the lack of quality with quantity. It was enough for si tsunami to have a good time.

The two brothers, si tsunami and Nan Tianba, were having a good time in the cultivator's village. Shangguan LAN 'er, who was grounded at home by Shangguan Tianhua, finally saw her best friend, ning Xuefei, who had rushed over from the West Island.

It was rare for the two girls to bump into each other, and they both cheered in high spirits, adding a little liveliness to the usually quiet Hua LAN residence.

Ning Xuefei and han Jingjing were close friends who talked about everything. Ning Xuefei and han Jingjing shared the same interests and interests, while she and Shangguan LAN 'er shared the same personality. They talked about almost everything.

"Come, come, come. Little LAN 'er, quickly tell me about the rape. Oh, oh, and about your kidnapping. You didn't even make it clear in the letter!" Ning Xuefei's eyes were shining with excitement.

Even though Shangguan LAN 'er was a heartless person, her face darkened when she heard this. She said in a speechless manner, ""Feifei, you came all the way here just to inquire about this? Aren't you here to comfort me? I'm so sad!"

"Aiya, of course I'm here to comfort you, little LAN 'er. But as your best friend, shouldn't you share such a fun thing with me? I'm just concerned about you!" Ning Xuefei rolled her eyes and tried to argue.

"Alright, alright. You rub salt in my wound every time in the name of comforting people. I'm really defeated by you!" Shangguan LAN 'er had no choice but to surrender.

Although Shangguan LAN 'er pretended to be depressed, she could no longer hold back her smile after a while. She laughed and played with ning Xuefei.

With ning Xuefei pestering her, Shangguan LAN 'er told her everything that had happened recently in detail.

Ning Xuefei, on the other hand, was amazed. Shangguan LAN 'er had not explained it in such detail in her letter, especially when she heard that little white had used a pair of giant scissors to wipe off Xu lingchong's manhood. The two girls laughed and gave a thumbs up, praising little Curly bear's wisdom and ability!

Shangguan LAN 'er had been through both of these incidents recently-whether it was Xu lingchong's attempted rape or her kidnapping, the main character in both cases was the same person, Lin Yi.

"Why does that name Lin Yi sound so familiar?" Ning Xuefei scratched her head and thought for a long time before she suddenly said,""Oh, I've heard of this name when I was on the West Island!"

"Really?" Shangguan LAN 'er was stunned. She liked this little brother of hers a lot, but Lin Yi was still a newbie. It would be reasonable if he was famous in the three pavilions of the North Island, but even ning Xuefei, who was far away on the West Island, had heard of him?

"It's true. I told you in the letter before that I have a good friend from the common world called Han Jing Jing. She always talks to me about Lin Yi, but I don't know if this Lin Yi is the same person you're talking about. " Ning Xuefei tilted her head.

"Eh? I remember that Lil "bro's from the common world too-could it be that the Lin Yi He's talking about with your friend is the same person?" Thinking of this, Shangguan LAN 'er immediately felt that it was very possible. She immediately suggested with interest,""Why don't we go and ask Little Junior Brother now?"

"Hehe, little LAN 'er, aren't you grounded by your grandfather now? how can you go out?" Ning Xuefei laughed.

"If I was alone, Grandpa would definitely not let me go out. But now that you're here, Feifei, as the host, I have to take you out to play. He will definitely agree!" Shangguan LAN 'er said with confidence. She had been bored at home these days and wanted to take the opportunity to sneak out and play.

"Alright, but before I go to Lin Yi, I want to go to the Hong Chamber of Commerce first." Ning Xuefei said.

"Why are we going to the Hong Chamber of Commerce? To buy something? Didn't you just go to the auction on the northernmost Island?" Shangguan LAN 'er asked curiously.

"No, I'm going to the Hong Chamber of Commerce to look for a shop assistant!" Ning Xuefei's lips curled up like a kitten.

"Looking for the shop assistant?" Shangguan LAN 'er was even more confused. She looked ning Xuefei up and down and asked curiously, ""Feifei, which little buddy are you looking for? Why are you looking for him?"

"I won't tell you now. We'll talk about it when we find it!" "You'll know when the time comes," ning Xuefei said mysteriously. "He has a lot of good stuff!"

"You're keeping me in suspense again. Since that's the case, alright, I'll go tell Grandpa now and ask him to let us go to the Hong Chamber of Commerce!" Shangguan LAN 'er said excitedly.

Chapter 4065 Nameless Evil Fire

Just as she had said, although Shangguan Tianhua had grounded her, he could not possibly ground Ning Xuefei, who had come from afar. After listening to the two of them, she immediately nodded in agreement.

Although there was a kidnapping incident not long ago, this was still the territory of the three pavilions of the North Island. As long as they took preventive measures, there was no need to worry about the personal safety of the two.

The two of them immediately took the little Curly Bear out and went straight to the Hong Chamber of Commerce on the market Street. It just so happened that today was the opening day of the inner street. The two of them didn't even need to reveal their identities and directly walked into the Hong Chamber of Commerce's Gate along with the crowd.

In the North Island, female cultivators were extremely rare, especially when the two women were both rare beauties. Even if they were mixed in the noisy crowd, they would naturally become the focus of the crowd no matter where they went.

As soon as the two of them entered the Hong Chamber of Commerce, a sharp-eyed waiter left the other guests and welcomed them with a face full of joy, "Ladies, what kind of treasure do you want to buy? do you want me to show you around the shop?"

"No need, I'm looking for one of your Hong Chamber of Commerce's workers!" Ning Xuefei said impatiently.

"Little buddy? Aren't I just a little kid? What instructions does young lady have for this little one?" The shop assistant was slightly stunned, and then quickly smiled politely. Such a beautiful woman came to find him, could it be that he was going to have some luck with women today?

Ning Xuefei pinched Shangguan LAN 'er, who was giggling on the side. She rolled her eyes and said, ""I'm not looking for you, I'm looking for another guy!"

As they were talking, ning Xuefei and Shangguan LAN 'er, who were already the center of attention, became the focus of everyone present. Everyone couldn't help but look at each other. Two beautiful girls who made people drool wanted to find a little shop assistant. What kind of drama was this?

Could this be what people meant by "fresh flowers are destined to be stuck in cow dung"?

"Looking for the shop assistant?" Si tsunami had just returned. Although he was drunk, his strength meant that he wouldn't collapse no matter how drunk he was.

When he heard the melodious female voice from the crowd downstairs, he immediately stuck his head out from the private room on the second floor in a daze. After seeing ning Xuefei and Shangguan LAN 'er, si tsunami's eyes widened instantly.

Holy shit! These two girls were the best!

Although he was previously indulged in the brothel by the two brothers, Nan Tianba and Nan Tianmen, and it was one-on-three, they were only ordinary women after all. They were not comparable to the female cultivators in Nakajima. They were on a completely different level, so si tsunami couldn't enjoy himself to his heart's content.

However, he didn't expect that he would find these two rare girls in Nakajima when he just returned to the Hong Chamber of Commerce. Si tsunami's appetite was suddenly aroused. He looked at the two girls with a lecherous look and pinched his chin as he muttered, "You're here to see the shop assistant? Why would he look for a shop assistant? Could it be that these two women are the mistresses of some young shop assistant?"

At this moment, si tsunami was drunk and lustful. He thought about it in a daze and suddenly felt that it was possible. He had been busy with internal affairs during this period and had not officially visited the three pavilions. It was not surprising that he did not know Shangguan LAN 'er.

Based on his understanding, there were no female cultivators on the North Island, so he ruled out the possibility that these two women were cultivators from the three pavilions. Since these two girls were here to look for some bullshit * t shop assistant, they were definitely lovers!

Damn it, which shop assistant was so lucky to get such a beautiful girl? what a waste of God's gift. Even I, a dignified shopkeeper, don't have such luck.

Thinking of this, si tsunami couldn't help but be tempted. These two women must be ordinary women who have not seen much of the world. Since they were interested in a mere waiter, wouldn't it be easy for him to get them into bed with just a word?

"Wahahaha, the heavens want me to enjoy my luck with women. I really can't stop it!" Si tsunami immediately forced himself to calm down. He couldn't wait to get up and go downstairs. At the same time, he was constantly fantasizing about the wonderful scene of two beautiful women serving him together. That feeling was simply killing him!

At this time, Lin Yi's figure suddenly appeared in the crowd.

Lin Yi came here to buy the materials that the king of junk had given him. Although Hong Zhong was no longer here, these were things that could be bought normally. They weren't like the star inkstone, which was a rare treasure. He thought that si tsunami wouldn't make things difficult for him for such a small matter.

Of course, if si tsunami really did that, Lin Yi could go to other shops to buy it. For example, he could ask Chen heihu for help. However, Chen heihu's business wasn't as big as the Hong Chamber of Commerce. Even if he was willing to help, many of the materials weren't in stock. He had to find someone to buy them at the last minute, which was a little troublesome.

Lin Yi noticed ning Xuefei and Shangguan LAN 'er as soon as he entered the room. The sharp-eyed Curly Bear also noticed Lin Yi immediately and jumped onto Lin Yi's shoulder.

"Little buddy, so you're here. I was just looking for you!" Ning Xuefei's eyes lit up, and she pulled Shangguan LAN 'er over.

Shangguan LAN 'er, on the other hand, had a weird expression on her face. She pointed at ning Xuefei and then at Lin Yi, "Gah? He's the little buddy you're looking for, what a coincidence!"

"What's wrong?" Ning Xuefei looked at Shangguan LAN 'er in confusion.

Shangguan LAN 'er was stunned for a moment, and then said in disbelief, ""This guy here is the one I told you about before, my little brother Lin Yi!"

"Really? How did this happen?" Ning Xuefei was shocked.

Lin Yi looked at Ning Xuefei in shock. Why was she here? He even knows Shangguan LAN 'er? Apart from being shocked, he couldn't help but secretly wonder how this world could be so small that he could even encounter such a thing!

But he noticed the weird looks everyone was giving him, and he realized that there were too many people here. It was better to get the two girls out to somewhere quieter.

However, before Lin Yi could say anything, Si Tsunami had already pushed through the crowd and squeezed his way through with the smell of alcohol.

He was already lustful to begin with, but after seeing Lin Yi's sudden appearance, Si Tsunami became even more excited. Although he had never met Lin Yi before, he had seen Lin Yi's portrait, and Shangguan LAN 'er's words had confirmed Lin Yi's identity for him.

She was still thinking about how to get Lin Yi out, but in the blink of an eye, the kid came to her!

He was already holding back his desire to help the brothers Nantian Aurora and Nantian BA deal with Lin Yi, and now that he saw that the two girls knew Lin Yi, Si Tsunami's heart burned with an unknown evil fire.

Chapter 4066 Are You Kidding Me?

What did Lin Yi do to get these two beautiful girls? Si Tsunami felt that he had to beat Lin Yi up today, no matter if it was for public or private reasons.

"Lin Yi, you're a new member of the pavilion, and you're breaking the rules? how dare you bring two girls out in broad daylight and show up in front of our Hong Chamber of Commerce? what do you think the three pavilions are doing?" Si tsunami shouted with a righteous face. Unfortunately, his pair of lecherous eyes that glanced at the two women from time to time still betrayed his nature.

Previously, when he had gone to the brothel to seek pleasure, he had heard Nan Tianba mention it to the southern Heaven Gate. The three pavilions had always been very strict with their disciples, and they would never allow them to go out and find women from the brothels. Anyone who violated this would be severely punished.

Of course, rules were rules, and they were mainly for newcomers. People like Nantian BA from the southern Heaven Gate never took these rules seriously. As long as they were not caught on the spot, it was nothing.

As they had just returned from the brothel, si tsunami subconsciously treated the two girls as prostitutes under the influence of alcohol. After all, there could only be one girlfriend of Lin Yi. How could they come together?

Lin Yi was a cultivator after all. He couldn't find a normal woman as his partner. He should at least find a female cultivator, but female cultivators were very proud. Even si tsunami only had a female cultivator wife at home!

Only the girls in the brothels could do such a thing. However, the girls in the brothels were bold and had many tricks. They could do things more open-minded than this. He himself had just played one-to-three.

"What did you say? I advise you to keep your mouth clean. Be careful of what you say!" Lin Yi's aura went cold.

"Oh my, with your puny strength, you still dare to act tough in front of me?" Si tsunami laughed wildly and pointed at Lin Yi, ""Guest Masters, help this shopkeeper suppress him and inform the pavilion master of the welcome Pavilion to come and take him back!"

As soon as he finished speaking, four mysterious figures appeared around Lin Yi without any warning, surrounding him.

Lin Yi's heart tightened-these four guest Masters were completely different from the ones he'd seen before!

In the Hong Chamber of Commerce, although the guest Masters were hired by the Chamber of Commerce, there were also designated assistants. The original four guest Masters had gone to the middle Island with Hong Zhong. Now, these four were unfamiliar faces who only listened to si tsunami.

However, even if the person was different, to be able to become a guest master of the Hong Chamber of Commerce, he must at least be a master above the Jindan stage. This was without a doubt.

Seeing that Lin Yi didn't dare to do anything, si tsunami smiled even more proudly. He turned to the two girls and said, ""These two beautiful ladies, aren't you selling for spiritual jades? I have plenty of them, and I can guarantee that I'll give you more than a poor kid like him. Why don't you two follow me in the future?"

Ning Xuefei and Shangguan LAN 'er were a little stunned at the sudden change in the situation, but they finally reacted after being teased by the old man in public.

"You old bastard, what did you say I am?" Shangguan LAN 'er could not help but grit her teeth in anger.

"You ... You ... You actually said that we're girls from a brothel? I'm going to kill you!" Ning Xuefei's face turned red with anger. She attacked si tsunami without hesitation.

The two of them were princesses, noble figures who couldn't stand the slightest bit of grievance. Now, they were being publicly insulted as brothel girls?

Seeing that the two women still dared to fight with him, si tsunami was stunned. He subconsciously felt that something was wrong, but he couldn't figure out what was wrong. He immediately greeted them with an obscene smile, ""Haha, you're quite the character. I like little chili peppers like you! But since we're selling it anyway, do you really think that I can't play with it just because that Lin Yi can ..."

As si tsunami spoke, he was about to reach out and touch ning Xuefei and Shangguan LAN 'er. However, before he could do so, five figures suddenly flashed behind the two women. Before si tsunami could see what was going on, he was kicked in the face and flew to the wall more than 100 feet away!

The surrounding crowd quickly moved aside. The four guest Masters saw that the situation was not good. They immediately left Lin Yi and rushed in front of si tsunami, confronting the five people who came out of nowhere.

In the end, the momentum of each person on both sides was actually equal. These five people, each one of them was actually a master of the Golden core stage!

Even if they didn't count Si Tsunami, there were already nine golden core stage experts confronting each other in the arena at this moment. This really shocked the surrounding audience. Golden core stage experts had always been a rare existence. How did so many of them suddenly appear? In a trance, it felt like golden core stage experts were everywhere.

"These people are all core disciples of the rising Sky Pavilion!" Someone in the crowd suddenly exclaimed in a low voice. The disciples of the three pavilions were all dressed differently. As long as one paid a little attention, they would be able to recognize them at a glance.

The hearts of the four guest experts of the Hong Chamber of Commerce thumped when they heard this. Four against five, they were at a disadvantage and didn't dare to act rashly. If the other party was really a core disciple of the soaring Pavilion, then he would be a local tyrant through and through. Once the matter got out of hand, they simply couldn't afford to offend him!

These five masters from the rising Sky Pavilion were naturally arranged by Shangguan Tianhua. Shangguan Lan'er had just been kidnapped not long ago. No matter how forgiving his grandfather was, he could not have not taken any precautions. Moreover, Ning Xuefei, the princess of the West Island, had come, so he had to protect her even more.

Otherwise, if anything happened to Ning Xuefei here, the two islands would be in danger. If they didn't handle it well, it was possible that a war between the two islands would break out.

As the two sides confronted each other, the rising Sky Pavilion master who was the leader of the five looked at the four guest Masters coldly and said, "Audacious fanatic! One of these two young ladies is the daughter of the West Island Lord, and the other is the granddaughter of the pavilion master of my soaring Sky Pavilion. How dare you insult them in public and even try to touch them? I really don't know why the Hong Chamber of Commerce would send such a stupid scumbag to be the manager! I have to give an explanation to the Big Shot above me. If you dare to stop me, then come and try!"

With that, the expert from the rising Sky Pavilion moved his body and appeared directly above si tsunami's head in the next moment. Without saying a word, he grabbed si tsunami's neck with one hand and lifted him in the air.

The four guest Masters were so shocked by the information revealed by his words that they didn't dare to move for a long time. They could only watch si tsunami being abused.

What a joke! One of them had the backing of the West Island master, and the other had the backing of the pavilion master of the soaring Sky Pavilion. Even the Hong Chamber of Commerce headquarters couldn't afford to offend such a terrifying background. Si tsunami was blind enough to come out and flirt with them in public. He was F * cking courting death. He couldn't possibly drag the four of us down with him!

Chapter 4067 Become A Cripple

The four guest Masters were so scared that they didn't dare to move. As for si tsunami himself, although he was tipsy, he could still vaguely hear the two keywords "West Island master" and "rising Sky Pavilion master." He was instantly scared and broke out in a cold sweat. His tipsy feeling was mostly gone.

Unfortunately, he had woken up too late. The other party's strength was at least a lot higher than his, so he didn't give him any chance to resist or struggle at all. Even begging for mercy at this time was just wishful thinking.

He had completely offended the two women and even the big shots behind them with his lecherous act just now!

Under everyone's watchful eyes, the expert from the soaring Pavilion began to trample on si tsunami bit by bit in front of the four Hong Chamber of Commerce's guest Masters.

Ka! Ka! Ka!

Under everyone's watchful eyes, every bone, Meridian, and Meridian in si tsunami's body were ruthlessly destroyed by a tyrannical and powerful genuine Qi until they were completely broken.

In the beginning, si tsunami still had the strength to scream. After a while, he didn't even have the strength to scream. In the eyes of the crowd, he was like a duck that had been strangled. The veins on his forehead popped out as he desperately tried to scream, but he couldn't make any sound.

Looking at this scene, everyone whispered to each other. They could only come up with three words for si tsunami's tragic end: Pathetic, laughable, and pitiful.

Bang! Bang! The expert from the rising Sky Pavilion threw the unconscious si tsunami on the ground and turned to the two women, asking, ""Miss ning, miss Shangguan, do you want to take this man back and deal with him?"

Although the other party was the manager of the Hong Chamber of Commerce's branch, and under normal circumstances, no one had the authority to punish him except for the higher-ups of the Hong Chamber of Commerce's headquarters, but today's matter involved the two young ladies of the West Island and the soaring Pavilion, so si haixiao brought this upon himself. Even if he was brought back and killed, the Hong Chamber of Commerce wouldn't have the face to stop him.

Hearing this, Shangguan LAN 'er and ning Xuefei looked at each other and shook their heads at the same time. They were not cruel people. Although this old bastard was extremely evil, it was already miserable enough to be tortured like this in public. He did not take any advantage of them anyway, so there was no need to pursue him.

"In that case, I'll spare his dog life for now." The expert from the rising Sky Pavilion nodded and retreated behind the two women with a solemn expression.

Looking at si tsunami who was breathing heavily on the ground from a distance, Lin Yi, like the others, couldn't help but be shocked. The high and mighty manager of the Hong Chamber of Commerce was now like a dead dog.

Now that something like this had happened, the Hong Chamber of Commerce would not protect him. In order to give the West Island and the rising Sky Pavilion an explanation, they would even severely punish si tsunami.

All in all, si tsunami, the new shopkeeper who had just taken office, was in high spirits for only a few days. In the blink of an eye, he was finished.

"Little Junior Brother, let's go. Find a place and have a good talk with your Senior Sister. When did you become a little shop assistant of the Hong Chamber of Commerce? why didn't I know anything about it!" Shangguan LAN 'er pouted and said gloomily.

Lin Yi didn't tell her about the northernmost Island, and ning Xuefei kept her in suspense. She was kept in the dark from the beginning to the end and became an outsider. This made her even more depressed than being slandered as a prostitute by si tsunami.

"Yes, yes, I also have something important to ask you!" Ning Xuefei immediately put her unhappiness to the back of her mind and pulled Lin Yi excitedly.

"Then ... Alright." Lin Yi nodded helplessly. The Hong Chamber of Commerce was in a mess, and he wouldn't be able to buy anything for a while, so he could only follow the two ladies for now.

Lin Yi was escorted away by two beautiful girls, one on his left and one on his right. This treatment made everyone drool with envy, especially when they thought about the two girls "deep backgrounds. It made them go crazy with jealousy!

He would be a winner in life with both power and beauty if he got close to any one of them, not to mention one-on-two. This kid looked thin and weak, not like an expert, and there was nothing special about him. Why was he so blessed by the heavens?

Of course, although they were jealous, looking at the five golden core experts of the rising Sky Pavilion who were scattered around the two women and the bloody si tsunami as an example, no matter how unfair they felt, they could only watch and didn't dare to have any other movements.

Compared to Lin Yi's happiness, si tsunami's ending was really bitter. When he woke up from the unbearable pain, a whole day had passed.

When he finally realized the situation he was in, he was so shocked that he couldn't help but take a deep breath. As the manager of the Hong Chamber of Commerce's North Island branch, si tsunami was actually left on the streets of the market and left to fend for himself!

"F * ck! Are you all dead? how dare you treat this shopkeeper like this? I'll have you all scram today!" Being sized up by the passers-by, si tsunami's old face suddenly turned red and he scolded angrily.

Even if he had made such a low-level and laughable mistake yesterday, he was still a shopkeeper. How could he end up as a beggar on the street?

Si tsunami immediately cursed and wanted to get up. However, after struggling to climb up a few times, he found that he couldn't stand up at all. Only then did he react. The tendons and meridians in his limbs had long been broken by someone using true energy. He was now a cripple.

But even so, si tsunami still didn't lose his usual arrogance. He shouted to the passers-by, ""Whoever can come and carry me, as long as you carry me to the Hong Chamber of Commerce, I will reward you handsomely!"

If his words were on the inner Street's open Day yesterday, perhaps some passers-by who didn't know the truth would be willing to try. However, it wasn't the open Day now. Those who could enter and leave here were all people with status and status in the North Island. Si tsunami's stupid "feat" yesterday had long been spread by word of mouth. No one would pay attention to such an idiot.

He shouted at the top of his lungs for a long time. Seeing that the passers-by were still unmoved, si tsunami finally stopped howling in despair. However, he didn't give up. Since no one was willing to carry him over, he would climb over himself!

The inner street was only so big. Even if he climbed all the way from the street to the Hong Chamber of Commerce, it wouldn't be too far. As long as he reached the Hong Chamber of Commerce, it would be his own territory.

While being pointed at by the onlookers, si tsunami gritted his teeth and climbed all the way to the door of the Hong Chamber of Commerce. However, the staff who were flattering him only froze for a moment when they saw him. Then, they looked away, as if they didn't see him.

"You bunch of blind trash, what are you doing there? hurry up and carry this shopkeeper in, do you want to quit?" Si tsunami shouted angrily.

Chapter 4068 All Of Them Are Out Of Stock

However, the people in the store just looked at each other and continued to do their own things. They had no intention of coming over to help si tsunami.

"Hmph! Alright! Very good! Today, I've finally experienced the fickleness of human nature. Didn't you all think that I'm a cripple just because my meridians were broken? I'm telling you, I can recover from this injury by taking healing pills. Even if I can 't, I'm still your manager, and your life and death are still in my hands! Very good, I've seen your performance, none of you will have a good end!" Si tsunami cursed endlessly.

At this time, the shop assistant who was closest to him and had been beaten and scolded by him a few days ago suddenly said, ""We don't know if we'll have a good end, but you definitely won 't. Your matter has already been spread to the headquarters yesterday, and the higher-ups in the headquarters have already dealt with you. In order to give a satisfactory explanation to the West Island master and the rising Sky Pavilion master, you've been completely removed from the Hong Chamber of Commerce and will never be hired again!"

"What? This was impossible! You're talking nonsense! You actually dared to lie to this shopkeeper, do you not want to live anymore?" Si tsunami's body trembled in disbelief, and then he suddenly roared madly.

"Lie to you? Open your dog eyes and see clearly! Such a short-lived Branch Manager like you is really unprecedented in our Hong Chamber of Commerce. You can really be considered the first person in history!" The shop assistant sneered disdainfully and pointed to a notice in the middle of the wall.

It was clearly written on the seal that the higher-ups of the central island of the Hong Chamber of Commerce would deal with si tsunami. The seal was indeed the unique seal of the headquarters. In an instant, si tsunami felt like he was struck by lightning, and his mind went blank.

Yesterday, he was still a high and mighty shopkeeper. Just because of one time of drunken sex, he was actually expelled from the Hong Chamber of Commerce forever?

No matter how dejected si tsunami was, the people of the Hong Chamber of Commerce ignored him and continued to do their own things. Every Emperor had his own officials. What they needed to think about now was when the new manager would take office. As for the idiot si tsunami, he didn't want to die!

In a short moment, si tsunami seemed to have aged decades. He raised his head with great effort and said, ""Even if I'm no longer your shopkeeper, I'm still here to buy medicine, to buy some healing medicine. I'm still your honored guest, right? is this how you treat your honored guest?"

The shop assistant who was closest to him couldn't help but laugh when he heard this. "Honored guest? Don't tell me that not only are your meridians crippled, even your brain has been crippled? Oh right, to be able to do such a stupid thing like yesterday, you don't have a brain to begin with. Then I'll be merciful and give you a reminder. I'm sorry, you've already been blacklisted by our Hong Chamber of Commerce. No matter if you go to the branch or the headquarters, we won't accept you!"

Si tsunami was completely speechless. He looked at the healing elixirs on the display cabinet, but he was helpless.

"A good dog doesn't block the way. I advise you to change a place to lie down. Otherwise, if you affect the business of our Hong Chamber of Commerce, you won't be able to bear the crime." The waiter sneered with an unfriendly expression.

Si tsunami gritted his teeth. If it was in the past, he would have slapped this kid to death. Unfortunately, he was now a useless man who couldn't even walk. No matter how unwilling he was, he could only swallow his anger.

Silently crawling out of the Hong Chamber of Commerce, si tsunami didn't give up. He turned and crawled to the Chamber of Commerce next to him. The most important thing for him now was to quickly buy the Holy healing medicine to cure his injury. Even if it couldn't be cured in a short time, he had to at least stabilize his injury and not let it continue to deteriorate.

Not far from the Hong Chamber of Commerce, even the rich and powerful families knew it. Although their Foundation was not as good as the Hong Chamber of Commerce, the difference was limited.

With a thick skin, si tsunami climbed all the way into the rich and powerful. He didn't care about the strange onlookers and couldn't wait to shout, ""Men, quickly prepare a Tier 5 Meridian opening elixir for this old man!"

The meridians in his entire body had been shattered by someone's true Qi. To treat such an injury, only a Tier 5 Meridian opening pill had a chance of curing it.

The waiter from the wealthy class society was stunned. After whispering to each other for a while, he did not dare to make any rash decisions. He immediately invited the head of the household, shopkeeper Hao, to come out.

"Oh, isn't this the new shopkeeper si from next door? what a rare guest. What can I do for you today?" On the surface, shopkeeper Hao appeared to be enthusiastic, but anyone could see the mockery hidden in his eyes. From the beginning to the end, he didn't have the intention to reach out to help si tsunami.

Si tsunami held back his anger and said, ""I need a Tier 5 Meridian opening elixir. Please prepare it for me."

"Tier 5 Meridian opening pill? Heh, this is a rare big deal!" Manager Tong's brows twitched, but he immediately said with a regretful expression, ""It's a pity that I don't have any stock of such a rare healing medicine. "

"What? No stock?" Si tsunami almost vomited blood when he heard this. Whether he could cure his injury and find a chance to turn things around, his hope was all on this Level-5 great Qi circulation pill. Even the rich and powerful had such a big Chamber of Commerce. How could they not have it?

He didn't know that it wasn't true that the wealthy metropolises didn't have any in stock. It was just that manager Tong deliberately didn't want to sell it to him.

After winning the auction on the northernmost Island, the Hong Chamber of Commerce was now at its peak. Even the wealthy families had to tolerate such competitors. It was unnecessary to offend the Hong Chamber of Commerce for a stupid waste like si tsunami, and it wasn't worth it.

"If you don't have a grade five great circulation pill, then ... You should have a grade four great recovery pill, right?" Although the effect of the grade 4 great recovery pill was not as good as the grade 5 great circulation pill, it could at least stabilize the injury and solve the urgent need.

Unexpectedly, manager Tong shook his head again. "I'm really sorry. I don't have this either. It was sold out some time ago."

"Also not?" Si tsunami was stunned. If it was worse than the grade four great recovery pill, other healing medicines wouldn't be effective at all for his current injuries.

Si tsunami had no choice but to crawl out of the wealthy society and turn to other Chambers of Commerce. His purpose was self-evident. He still wanted to buy the Level-5 Meridian opening pill and the level-4 Grand recovery pill.

However, a few Chambers of Commerce in a row received the same answer in the end. They had no more stock!

This time, no matter how slow si tsunami's brain was, he finally realized that something was wrong. These Chambers of Commerce were obviously following the Hong Chamber of Commerce's orders and didn't dare to sell the medicine to him.

This result really made si tsunami angry, but he couldn't do anything. A Phoenix that had just landed was worse than a chicken. Businessmen were all snobbish. In his current situation, he couldn't help being bullied by them.

Chapter 4069 Central Chamber Of Commerce

However, si tsunami still didn't give up. Even if he had to crawl all the way, he had to ask all the Chambers of Commerce on the inner street. He didn't believe that all the Chambers of Commerce would let go of a large amount of spiritual Jade and stand on the same side as the Hong Chamber of Commerce.

Finally, the heavens did not let down those who worked hard. When si tsunami was exhausted and about to give up, he saw the grade 4 recover pill on the display cabinet of a shop called the "central Chamber of Commerce."

Si tsunami was overjoyed. Even if he didn't have the grade 5 Meridian opening elixir, the grade 4 great recovery elixir alone was a timely rescue for him.

He quickly climbed into the main door of the central Chamber of Commerce. Si tsunami pointed at the display cabinet and shouted, ""Men, I want that grade four great recovery pill. It's on display. You can't lie through your teeth and pretend that you don't have any more in stock!"

The steward looked at him in surprise and then smiled, ""Customer must be joking. This is a business that is delivered to the door. As a businessman, how can there be a reason to refuse? Since you want it, I'll get someone to pack it up for you. As for the payment method, do you need to use a spiritual Jade card? Or should I ..."

"Of course." Si tsunami took out the spiritual Jade card with great effort and handed it to the steward. He was secretly glad that he had earned a lot of spiritual Jade over the years, which would be the capital for Dongshan mountain to rise again in the future.

However, after a short while, si tsunami was dumbfounded. The spiritual Jade card had been frozen and he couldn't use it at all!

This news made si tsunami spit out blood in front of everyone. All his spiritual Jade was on this spiritual Jade card, which was his life!

Not to mention that he had been crippled, he couldn't even use the spiritual Jade card, which was his only hope. In his despair, si tsunami's eyes turned black and he almost fainted at the entrance of the central Chamber of Commerce.

With the last bit of spirit, si tsunami climbed out of the door in a daze, but he didn't know where to go. There was no way out. He really had no other way.

At this moment, a voice suddenly sounded beside him. ""If you want the pills, come with me."

Si tsunami looked up in the direction of the voice and found that the person who spoke was a mysterious man in a black windbreaker. Even his face was covered by a black bamboo hat, making it impossible to see his face clearly.

"You ... Are you talking to this old man?" Si tsunami had lost all hope, but at this time, he was like a man who had fallen into the water and grabbed the last life-saving straw.

The mysterious man didn't reply. He just lowered his head and looked at him with a profound look before walking away.

Si tsunami was suddenly confused, but he held onto the last trace of luck. Finally, he gritted his teeth and followed with great effort.

In any case, he was nothing now, and he was penniless. He was a complete cripple with a rotten life, so there was nothing to be afraid of.

The mysterious man seemed to be waiting for si tsunami. He deliberately walked very slowly. After the time it took for one incense stick to burn, he finally stopped in front of a Grand and luxurious teahouse. It was called "central Tea Party."

Si tsunami couldn't help but wonder. Looking at the name, could it be the same one as the central Chamber of Commerce?

Speaking of which, as the former inspector of the four forces of the Hong shadow group, si tsunami had specially investigated this central Chamber of Commerce before he came to the North Island.

This was a business that had only recently emerged, but in just a few months, it had quickly taken over all the islands. Even the most competitive Middle Island had its own business.

Si tsunami used the Hong shadow group's intelligence system, but he couldn't find out who the owner of the central Chamber of Commerce was. He only knew that this person was very mysterious and had a very terrifying power.

The central Chamber of Commerce wasn't like the other Chambers of Commerce at all, which grew from small to big. It gave people the feeling that it had only been a few days since it started from nothing. Suddenly, it was like a spring breeze in the night, and thousands of pear trees bloomed. Suddenly, it spread all over the five big islands of the heaven class.

He followed the mysterious man all the way into an elegant private room. When he saw the mysterious man sitting down and facing him, si tsunami nervously said, ""You're looking for me ...?"

The mysterious man didn't say anything. Instead, he took out a Level-5 Meridian opening elixir and placed it on the table in front of si tsunami.

"This ... This is for me?" Si tsunami couldn't help but swallow his saliva. He stared at the Level-5 Meridian opening elixir in front of him. This was the only life-saving elixir that could help him turn over a new leaf.

However, si tsunami wasn't a fool. No matter how much he desired it, he didn't dare to take the Level-5 Grand circulation elixir. He could only rub his hands awkwardly and say, "I ... I don't have any spiritual Jade ..."

"I don't need spiritual Jade. It's for you." The mysterious man said indifferently.

Si tsunami was overjoyed, but he still restrained his greed and said, "This ... I don't think I have any value now. I wonder if you ..."

"You're valuable, you just haven't realized it yet. " The mysterious man interrupted.

"Oh?" Si tsunami was stunned. He didn't quite understand what the other party meant.

"As long as you promise to work for me with all your heart, then this Tier 5 Meridian opening pill is yours." The mysterious man stated his conditions.

"Alright!" Si tsunami agreed without hesitation. He had nothing now. No matter what he would do for this mysterious man in the future, it would be better than being a useless man waiting for death.

The mysterious man nodded in satisfaction and said,""I heard that you're from the intelligence Department. Not bad, I have an organization in my hands that I'll hand over to you in the future."

"Oh? I'll take responsibility? What do I need to do?" Si tsunami's eyes lit up and he asked quickly.

The mysterious man smiled faintly."It's very simple. Help me find some people who have the potential to grow but have bad intentions. For example, you."

"Ah?" Si tsunami suddenly felt that his brain wasn't working well enough. It was understandable to find someone with potential for growth, but someone with bad intentions? What kind of request was that?

"There's no need to ask why. As long as you agree, I will give you a brand new future. Your status will not be lower than the manager of your Hong Chamber of Commerce branch. As for power, it's even more unimaginable." The mysterious man's tone was calm, but it was strangely alluring in si tsunami's ears.

"Alright, I agree!" Si tsunami nodded immediately.

"Very good. From today onwards, you will be the manager of the North Island Central Chamber of Commerce. Of course, this is only your identity on the surface. As for your secret identity, you will be the leader of the central North Island intelligence team!" The mysterious man said indifferently.

"Ha?" Even though si tsunami had already guessed countless possibilities in his mind, he couldn't help but be shocked after hearing the mysterious man's words.

In that case, could this mysterious person be the owner of the central Chamber of Commerce that he couldn't find out no matter how much he investigated? In the beginning, on the northernmost Island of the heaven stage, the conspiracy against the Hong Chamber of Commerce was said to be led by the central Chamber of Commerce. Si tsunami cooperated from the inside and did a lot of dirty things, but unexpectedly ... "

Chapter 4070 The Woman Behind The Scenes

With just a simple sentence from the other party, si tsunami had turned into a boss again, and he was the leader of the intelligence team? Life was indeed full of uncertainties. This great rise and fall had come too quickly!

Just as si tsunami was so shocked that he didn't know what to say, the mysterious man took out another bottle and placed it next to the Level-5 Meridian opening elixir. He said, ""Drink this bottle of liquid now. It won't affect your body, but you must take the antidote once a month. If you don't have any other thoughts, I will give you the antidote regularly."

"This ..." Si tsunami's heart suddenly sank. There was no free lunch in the world. The mysterious man gave such a great benefit. There were indeed conditions.

"Hehe, there's no use hesitating. Do you think I'll let you leave this room alive if you don't agree after I've told you so much?" As he spoke, the mysterious man's body suddenly exploded with a soaring aura, and even the entire central Tea Party trembled.

Even with si tsunami's experience, he was dumbfounded by this terrifying aura that he had never seen before. Even if he was at his peak, he would be no better than an ant in front of this mysterious man, let alone now that he was a cripple.

There was no choice. Si tsunami could only tremble with fear. He climbed to the table, picked up the bottle of medicinal liquid, and drank it. He didn't dare to have any other thoughts.

"You're quite tactful. Go back and have a good rest. Tomorrow, you'll officially go to the central Chamber of Commerce to take up your post." The mysterious man waved his hand and said.

"Yes, yes, this subordinate will take his leave." Si tsunami excitedly took the Level-5 Meridian opening elixir with one hand while kowtowing to the mysterious man. He crawled out of the private room in retreat. There were already servants waiting at the door to help him change his clothes, take a bath, and recuperate.

After si tsunami left, the inner compartment door of the private room suddenly opened automatically without any warning. The mysterious man's original domineering aura disappeared instantly. He kowtowed to the inner private room respectfully and didn't dare to overstep the boundaries.

"The matter has been settled. He will officially take office tomorrow. During this time, I will personally supervise him." The mysterious man said respectfully.

"Alright, you may leave." It was a female voice that came from the private room.

Yesterday, after leaving the Chamber of Commerce, Lin Yi and the two girls found a clean and tidy restaurant. It wasn't as high-end as the skyward Pavilion's Huayang residence, and it didn't cost hundreds of spirit Jade to cook. It only served ordinary dishes that had nothing to do with cultivation, but it was delicious and had the warmth of a home.

The five core disciples of the rising Sky Pavilion had been following the three of them, constantly monitoring the movements of everyone around them. After the incident with si tsunami, they had to be extra vigilant. If another blind person came to disturb the two young ladies, it would be a dereliction of duty.

However, under Shangguan LAN 'er and ning Xuefei's strong request, they didn't follow into the room. They could only stand by and wait. Only Lin Yi and the two girls were left in the room, along with a little Curly Bear who was busy eating.

"I didn't dare to ask much last time in a hurry, so it's nishidao-miss ning, I've been disrespectful! Thank you for your help in the matter of the northernmost Island. I'm extremely grateful and will remember it in my heart. " Lin Yi raised his cup to thank ning Xuefei.

"Aiya, if I knew you were Lin Yi, I would've saved you even more! This is what I should do!" Ning Xuefei's lips curved up.

Lin Yi was a little surprised. He looked at Shangguan LAN 'er, thinking that she was saying this because she was her best friend.

Ning Xuefei only smiled. She didn't know about Shangguan LAN 'er and Lin Yi when they were on the northernmost Island. She was talking about her other best friend, han Jingjing.

From their interaction earlier, she was sure that this was the Lin Yi that han Jingjing had been thinking about, but she didn't want to break through the window paper just like that. She wanted to give them a big surprise!

"Alright, you two don't have to keep me in suspense anymore. What's up with the little buddy? hurry up and tell me the truth!" Shangguan LAN 'er urged impatiently.

Lin Yi and ning Xuefei looked at each other and told her everything that happened on the northernmost Island. They didn't hide anything anymore.

After listening to how the two had met, Shangguan LAN 'er clicked her tongue in wonder for a long time, and couldn't help but sigh at how small the world was, to be able to let them know each other like this. But then she wondered,""Then, Little Junior Brother, how did you get injured? Is Thule Island that chaotic?"

"Yeah, that's what I was going to ask you-you were injured pretty badly!" Ning Xuefei was also curious. She had a guess, but it was just a guess.

Lin Yi hesitated, but the two girls weren't considered outsiders, and they had a close relationship with him. They wouldn't sell him out, so he lowered his voice and admitted, "I'm sure you've heard about what happened that night, miss ning. Zheng Tianjie's furnace exploded while he was refining pills. In fact, I was the one who did it."

"Ah?" The two women were shocked at the same time. Even if Zheng Tianjie's identity was compared to theirs, it was not much inferior. His death had set off a lot of waves back then.

According to the elders in his family, if it wasn't for the fact that the God of alchemy Zhang Liju personally came out and confirmed that this guy died because of his own accidentally exploding furnace, Zheng dongjue was even prepared to send out the elites of the central island pill Hall. He didn't expect that the source of such a big thing was actually Lin Yi.

After being stunned for a while, Shangguan LAN 'er suddenly praised with great interest, ""Little Junior Brother, you're really amazing. I met Zheng dongjue before when Grandpa took me to Nakajima. He's not a good person. I heard that many girls in Nakajima were harassed by him. Little Junior Brother, you're getting rid of evil for the people!"

Ning Xuefei was confused, "then why did you kill him?" Oh, I know, he must have seen that you have so many Supreme grade pills that you can't buy, so he wanted to snatch them!"

Lin Yi smiled and shook his head, "not really. I'm sure miss ning has an impression of our past. I bid against him at the auction, so I offended him."

He didn't plan to share Tian Huan's matter with the two girls. After all, there was no need. One more person knowing might cause more potential trouble for Tian Huan. It was better to keep it a secret.

"Ah? I remember that the item was still won by him. He's so stingy and sinister. He's really not a good person!" Ning Xuefei frowned.
