

Bodyguard 4381

Chapter 4381 A Banquet Invitation

"What ... What should we do?" Honest Chai's eyes almost turned black and he fainted. His face was deathly pale, without a trace of blood.

"Don't be anxious. Although we can't punish Wei Zhaotong this time, he definitely can't be the branch manager. He can't continue to stay in the black arc branch either, so he's not a big threat to you." Lin Yi consoled.

"Really?" Honest Chai hurriedly asked.

"It's true. Hongzhong has already said that the worst outcome this time is that Wei Zhaotong will be recalled back to the headquarters in Nakajima and become an ordinary Deacon of the Chamber of Commerce. However, he will have to personally make a trip to the headquarters in Nakajima next and strive to severely punish Wei Zhaotong. As for whether he will succeed or not, we will only know when the time comes. " Lin Yi nodded.

"Recall Nakajima to be a Deacon of the Chamber of Commerce?" Only then did honest Chai let out a long sigh of relief. He said with lingering fear, "That's fine. Otherwise, if he continues to stay here as the branch manager, I really won't be able to live. "

"Hehe, you don't have to worry too much about this. Not to mention that Wei Zhaotong has been recalled back to Nakagama, even if he were to stay here, he wouldn't be able to touch a single hair on your head. After all, we're here. Not to mention that Hong Zhong will personally go to the headquarters in Nakagama. The final outcome is still unknown. What I said just now was only the worst case scenario." Lin Yi smiled as he patted honest Chai's shoulder.

"Oh, oh. That's good, that's good." Honest Chai was afraid that Lin Yi and Hong Zhong would just leave him to the side and not care about this matter, but after hearing this, he finally ate a pill of reassurance and could be a little more at ease.

"Just relax, Hong Zhong isn't an ordinary character that's easy to fool. No matter how strong Wei Zhaotong's backing in the headquarters is, this matter definitely won't be left unsettled." Lin Yi smiled. Hong Zhong didn't say it clearly in the letter, but Lin Yi could guess what he was thinking.

Hong Zhong's visit to the Nakajima headquarters this time, to put it bluntly, was to bargain with the higher-ups of the headquarters. He would either deal with Wei Zhaotong further, or make those higher-ups make concessions in other aspects. It might not be completely satisfactory, but one of the two must be done.

Lin Yi immediately replied to hongzhong. There were only two sentences in the letter. First, he had no problems on his side and everything was up to hongzhong. Second, honest Chai, the Vice manager of the Xiao Luo branch, could be of use.

With their mutual understanding, Lin Yi believed that these two sentences would be enough for Hong Zhong to understand what he meant. No matter what, honest Chai was a useful talent, and he didn't have any background. Now that Hong Zhong was short of people, he might as well help him.

As for how to deal with Wei Zhaotong, according to Lin Yi's personality, he would naturally eliminate all evil. This kind of heartless scum, it was best to kill him with a stick. But he could understand Hong Zhong's helplessness. After all, he was a member of the Hong Chamber of Commerce, and had a backer in the Nakajima headquarters. He couldn't be killed as he pleased.

Since Hong Zhong had stepped in to take over this matter, Lin Yi wouldn't say anything no matter what the result was. He would return the favor. Hong Zhong trusted him without reservation, and Lin Yi naturally trusted him 100% as well.

Besides, he was only the honorary Vice President of the Hong Chamber of Commerce. He didn't have the power or the obligation to deal with Wei Zhaotong, and there wasn't any personal grudge between them. He only acted this time because he couldn't stand this kind of shameless villain. As for how the Hong Chamber of Commerce would deal with him, Lin Yi couldn't care and didn't want to care.

After telling honest Chai to mail the letter, Lin Yi spent the next two days chatting with Xinyan and Xiaotao, as well as getting people to gather information. It had been a few days since the Morning Star Academy's selection in the crescent Sea area, and it was about to end soon. He didn't have much time left with the two girls.

Lin Yi planned to keep them company until the two girls left-after all, they'd be thousands of miles apart from each other in the future, and he didn't know how long it'd be before he'd be able to see them again. However, something happened-Butler song from the Qitian bodyguard agency came.

"Young hero Ling, can I invite you to the Qitian bodyguard agency? everyone in the agency is looking forward to seeing you. Do you have time?" Steward song cupped his hands and said with a smile.

"Butler song, I'm a nominal bodyguard of the Qitian bodyguard agency. I can just get someone to send a message over. Why would I trouble you to invite me personally?" Lin Yi couldn't help but be surprised.

In terms of strength, this housekeeper song was the second-in-command of the bodyguard agency. In terms of status, he was not inferior to Qi Wenhan, the young master. For such a person to personally invite him, this was already a very serious matter.

"Young hero Ling, you're too kind. With your status and the great kindness you've shown to the bodyguard agency, you should at least be invited by the young master. It's already impolite of you to let this old man come." Housekeeper song smiled apologetically. "However, the head of escorts is back today, so the young master can't leave at the moment. Therefore, this old man can only invite you on his behalf. Please forgive me for my rudeness."

"You're too kind, Butler song. I really can't stand what you've said. In that case, let's go over now." Lin Yi replied immediately.

Since the head of escorts was back, he'd invited Lin Yi to meet him at this time. Xinyan and Huang xiaotao were with their Masters at the moment, and there wasn't anything important at the Hong Chamber of Commerce. Lin Yi was free, so it wouldn't be a bad idea to go to the Qitian bodyguard agency and meet the head of escorts.

"That's great, please!" Butler song was overjoyed. He quickly sent someone back to the bodyguard agency to report the news while he accompanied Lin Yi back. He even deliberately kept his body behind Lin Yi as a sign of respect.

Lin Yi was the Qitian bodyguard agency's benefactor, the honorary Vice President of the Hong Chamber of Commerce, and had a close relationship with the disciple of Donghai's godly nun. A person like him was a big deal no matter where he went. Normal people wouldn't even be able to get him to join them, but Lin Yi's quick response made him feel honored even as the Qitian bodyguard agency's butler.

After passing through a few streets and alleys, the two of them arrived at Qitian escort agency. At this time, the agency was decorated with lanterns and colored lights. There were three to three layers of people in the crowd. Everyone's face was full of joy, and it was a rare festive scene.

Lin Yi couldn't help but be surprised at this scene. Wasn't it just the head of escorts coming back? he wasn't an outsider, was there a need to be so Grand?

However, from the faces of the bodyguards in the agency, it could be seen that the joy came from the bottom of their hearts. It was not a forced smile. It could be seen that this head of bodyguards, whom they had never met before, was definitely not a simple person. This was what the people really wanted. At least on this point, Qi Wenhan was still far from his father.

Chapter 4382 Preparing To Participate

"Please wait a moment, young hero Ling." "Let's go," Butler song said and quickly walked into the bodyguard agency. A moment later, a large group of people came out. The leader was a burly man who had a strong and domineering aura. He could be said to be imposing without being angry, making people unconsciously feel fear.

The people who accompanied this burly man were the young master, Qi Wenhan, and the housekeeper, song. Without a doubt, this burly man was the head of the Qitian bodyguard agency, Qi Wenhan's father, the head of the bodyguards, Qi Mingyuan!

"Hahahaha, young hero Ling Yi, I've long heard of your name. It's a pity that I've been busy with work. Otherwise, I would have flown back a long time ago to thank you in person. I, Qi Mingyuan, thank you on behalf of the entire bodyguard agency, for your great kindness. I will never forget you!" Qi Mingyuan cupped his fists and laughed heartily.

Lin Yi couldn't help but praise him in his heart. This man might look rough and boorish, but he had a natural sense of pride in his actions. He could even close the distance between strangers in an instant. It wasn't a coincidence that Qitian bodyguard agency became one of the top five bodyguard agencies in the South continent under his leadership. There was a reason for it.

"Greetings, chief escort Qi. You're exaggerating. I've long heard of you, chief escort. Today, I've finally gotten what I wanted," Lin Yi replied with a smile and greeted Qi Wenhan, "Brother Qi, I haven't seen you in a few days. How have you been?"

"How have you been? father is back today, so I presumptuously invited brother Ling over for a gathering. I hope I didn't delay your official business." Qi Wenhan apologized.

"I'm just an idle person. I don't have anything to do. Moreover, chief escort Qi is back. As a nominal bodyguard of the bodyguard agency, even if brother Qi didn't invite me, I would still come and join in the fun." Lin Yi shook his head with a smile.

"Haha, young hero Ling is a straightforward person, just to my liking. If not for the fact that you and Wenhan are of the same generation, I would have become sworn brothers with you!" Qi Mingyuan joked from the side, and the crowd laughed along with him. It was a happy and peaceful scene.

Lin Yi didn't know whether to laugh or cry. Qi Wenhan's father was a wonderful man. He seemed rough but didn't make people feel out of place. He didn't have any restrictions when interacting with him. Instead, he was relaxed and happy. It was rare.

"By the way, I've invited young master Ling here today because I have an important announcement to make to everyone in the bodyguard agency." Qi Mingyuan suddenly said to the crowd in a clear voice. Everyone instantly quieted down and waited for him to continue. He then continued, "As the chief of the Qitian bodyguard agency, I hereby announce that from today onwards, young hero Ling will forever be the honorary chief of the Qitian bodyguard agency!"

As soon as these words were spoken, the entire place was in an uproar. In the entire Qitian bodyguard agency, other than the head of escorts, Qi Mingyuan, there were only a handful of other escorts who could take the position of an escort head. Any escort head was definitely the core of the agency's upper echelons. Their status and treatment were far from what an ordinary escort could compare to.

Qi Mingyuan's gift to Lin Yi, on the other hand, had the word "honor" in front of it. Compared to the actual power of an escort leader, it was more of a status Halo to a large extent. Even so, it still made everyone envious.

Not only did this mean a high position within the agency, but it also meant that if Lin Yi needed it, he could mobilize the Qitian bodyguard agency's power at any time. It was a huge power.

"How can I accept this?" Lin Yi was shocked as well-this wasn't the same as those honorary professorships in the common world. It wasn't just a title, there were huge benefits behind it if they wanted to make a big deal out of it. It was a huge gift for the Qitian bodyguard agency!

"Young hero Ling, listen to me, don't be in a hurry to refuse." Qi Mingyuan smiled and explained,"I'm not doing this to tie you down. With your strength and status, I know that it's unrealistic. I'm doing this purely to express our gratitude to you. This time, the Qitian escort agency was able to regain its reputation and suffer huge losses all because of your strength. It's already very light for us to only give you an honorary escort leader for such a great favor."

"That's right, this is our intention, and it's not a sudden impulse. It's a decision my father made after careful consideration. Brother Ling, you don't have to reject it. " Qi Wenhan, who was at the side, also advised.

"Then ... Alright, it would be impolite for me to refuse." Lin Yi nodded. An honorary escort was just a title, after all. He didn't have to stay at the Qitian escort agency forever, so it didn't matter to him. He already had an honorary Vice President of the Hong Chamber of Commerce, so it didn't matter if he had another honorary escort leader of Qitian escort agency.

"Haha, that's great. Young hero Ling is indeed a straightforward person. That's how it should be!" Qi Mingyuan and Qi Wenhan's faces lit up as they surrounded Lin Yi, "Come, please come in. The banquet has been prepared. Let's have a good meal."

Everyone arrived at the banquet hall, and Lin Yi sat at the head of the table. Qi Mingyuan and Qi Wenhan accompanied him on both sides, and on the table, there were all kinds of priceless delicacies. Just the table of dishes alone would cost at least a thousand spirit Jade.

"Hehe, as the saying goes, 'those who eat others' mouths will have their hands go soft '. Chief escort Qi, it seems that I have no choice but to attend the escort party in the South continent this time." Lin Yi couldn't help but smile.

"This is entirely up to you, young hero Ling. If it's convenient for you to help us, we're naturally more than happy to do so. But if it's not convenient, that's fine too. We can all understand. Young hero Ling, please don't worry about this kind of thing. Otherwise, we'll really feel bad." Qi Mingyuan said seriously.

He was speaking from the bottom of his heart-a melon that was forcefully twisted wouldn't be sweet. He understood this simple logic, and if they forced Lin Yi out of the formation, they'd lose more than they could gain just by making Lin Yi feel uncomfortable, let alone how much of his strength they were willing to use.

"Yes, yes. Brother Ling, there's one more thing I want to tell you. We've found some clues about the matter you asked us to find out." Qi Wenhan said.

"Oh?" Lin Yi's eyes lit up as he raised an eyebrow. "How is it?"

"Wu Bao Liang is indeed still in the black arc Sea area. From what I know, he has never left since he arrived here. He has been staying in black arc city!" Qi Wenhan said.

"Really?" Lin Yi blinked, "Then why didn't we hear anything about him before? It's hard to change a person's nature. With this person's evil style, he should be discovered very soon. "

Chapter 4383 Whereabouts

"In the beginning, we also investigated in this direction and wanted to start with the missing girls. However, after investigating for so long, we realized that there weren't many missing people in the Yue ocean. It was only this chance that we realized that we had walked into a wrong place." Qi Wenhan shook his head and smiled bitterly.

"Misunderstanding? How do you explain this?" Lin Yi was a little surprised. As the saying went, a leopard can't change its spots. Especially since Wu baoliang was an evil practitioner. His training meant that he couldn't turn over a new leaf, unless he stopped training.

"Brother Ling, do you know that Cheng haonan and Cheng Qitian are also cultivating a Yin-plucking technique?" Qi Wenhan asked.

"Of course." Lin Yi nodded. The first person he and Huang xiaotao saw when they came to the crescent sea was Cheng qiitian, and this guy wanted to take Huang xiaotao away as soon as he came. It was impossible for him to forget about this.

"In fact, the father and son didn't cultivate this Yin plucking technique until a military counselor came to the poison eye mercenary group. This technique is the same as the evil technique that brother Ling mentioned that specializes in poisoning women. Only now do we know that this Yin plucking technique was taught to them by the new military counselor. " Qi Wenhan explained.

"Then, could it be that the new strategist of the poison eye mercenary group is one of them?" Lin Yi's heart jumped.

"That's right, it's the Wu Bao Liang that brother Ling is looking for!" Qi Wenhan nodded heavily, "not long after this person came to the crescent Sea area, he got together with the Cheng father and son. He has been living in the poison eye mercenary group and rarely comes out. He is extremely secretive and rarely shows his face. So, very few people know about him. Ordinary people won't pay much attention to him when they see him. You can say that there is no news about him."

"In that case, if he doesn't poison a large number of women, how can he continue to cultivate his evil heart technique?" Lin Yi asked curiously.

"I've asked my informant to find out the exact reason, but we still don't know the specific reason. However, ever since Wu Bao Liang joined the poison eye mercenary group, he was often with the Cheng father and son. According to my speculation, the three of them should be studying the heart cultivation method, and should have improved it, so they don't kill their first daughters in large numbers like before." As Qi Wenhan spoke, he also revealed a piece of gossip, ""Wu Bao Liang's position in the poison eye mercenary group is very high now. The women he usually uses for cultivation are actually shared with the Cheng father and son, so it's very difficult for outsiders to notice!"

Pfft! Lin Yi almost burst out laughing. The father and son of the chengs were really something, playing with an outsider like Wu baoliang all day long without being afraid of getting sick!

"I see. But since he's been so secretive about his whereabouts, how did you find him?" Lin Yi asked.

"Hehe, if it wasn't for the cooperation between the poison eye mercenary group and the Dragon Boat escort agency, we might not have found Wu baoliang even if we investigated for another year!" Qi Wenhan laughed.

"Oh? How do you explain this?" Lin Yi was a little confused-an announcement was an announcement, but they couldn't just announce everyone's names, unless they were out of their minds.

"The reason is very simple. The Longzhou escort agency is also participating in the South continent escort agency distinguished meeting. According to the rules of the meeting, all the participating escort agencies are required to provide a list of their participating escorts. We found a new name on the list of escorts provided by the Longzhou escort agency. It is Wu baoliang, whom you are looking for, brother Ling!" Qi Wenhan laughed.

"No wonder!" Lin Yi understood now. At this time, the Dragon Boat escort and the poison eye mercenary group merged. It must be to prepare for the South continent escort event. They wanted to take some Masters from the poison eye mercenary group to participate in the event. This was the purpose of the event. As the military counselor of the poison eye mercenary group, it was natural for Wu baoliang to be included.

This was good-if Wu baoliang stayed in the group, even if Lin Yi knew about him, he wouldn't be able to do anything. After all, he couldn't just charge into the group and kill them all by himself. With Lin Yi's current strength, the success rate was almost impossible.

However, since Wu baoliang was going to attend the meeting, it was a good opportunity. As long as Lin Yi attended, it would be perfectly justifiable to kill him. He could also help Qitian escort agency, killing two birds with one stone.

"It seems that even Wu baoliang is asking me to attend the escort meeting in the South continent. If I refuse, it would be too unreasonable." Lin Yi couldn't help but laugh.

"Haha, it's great that young hero Ling is willing to help us. No words can express our gratitude. Besides, we're all on the same side, so we won't say anything more. Here, put it all in the wine!" Qi Mingyuan and Qi Wenhan looked at each other and smiled. They raised their glasses and toasted each other to show their gratitude.

"Hehe, you may think that I'm helping the bodyguard agency, but in my opinion, the bodyguard agency has given me a chance to deal with Wu baoliang openly. It's a win-win situation, so there's no need to thank me." Lin Yi smiled and drank up.

"Straightforward!" Qi Mingyuan and Qi Wenhan also downed their glasses. Butler song and the others around them also joined in and cheered.

"By the way, brother Qi, did you manage to find out anything about my senior brother Lu bianren?" Lin Yi asked.

"We haven't heard anything about him. After all, there are too few characteristics. Brother Ling, your senior martial brother Lu must be a low-key person who doesn't show his face in public. Even if he does, he won't attract anyone's attention. So, so far, we haven't found any valuable information." Qi Wenhan shook his head and said, ""But brother Ling, don't worry. I've already spread the news. In the future, as long as that senior brother Lu shows up, this side should be able to hear the news. You can just wait for the news with peace of mind."

"Yes, that's the only way for now." Lin Yi was a little worried about Lu bianren, but there was no point in rushing things like finding someone.

The banquet was a happy one for both the host and the guests. Whether it was Qi Wenhan, who they were already familiar with, or Qi Mingyuan, who they just met for the first time, the father and son had the same temperament as Lin Yi. They didn't need to put on any pretense or feel awkward or speechless. They got along naturally as friends, and it was a happy and harmonious relationship.

The meal lasted until late at night before everyone left after having their fill. Under the strong request of Qi Mingyuan and Qi Wenhan, Lin Yi stayed at the Qitian bodyguard agency for two days. During that time, he went out to play with Wang Xinyan and Huang Xiaotao. The selection ceremony of the Morning Star Academy was about to end, and this was a gathering before they parted. On the third day, honest Chai came.

Chapter 4384 Wei Zhaotong's Punishment

"What's wrong?" Lin Yi asked quickly, thinking that something had happened.

"Vice President Hong has sent a letter along with the proposal from the headquarters. Please take a look." Honest Chai couldn't hide the anxiety on his face as he handed the two sealed letters to Lin Yi.

These two letters not only determined Wei Zhaotong's fate, but also honest Chai's fate. No wonder he was so nervous.

"Really? So fast?" Lin Yi was a little surprised. He didn't think much of it before, but this time, he deeply felt the efficiency of the Hong Chamber of Commerce in the crescent Sea area. No wonder they were the second-ranked top Chamber of Commerce on Sky Class Island. Ordinary forces couldn't compare to their efficiency.

Lin Yi said as he took the two letters from honest Chai. They were actually talking about the same thing—just like what Hong Zhong had said in his last letter, the higher-ups of the Hong Chamber of Commerce had officially decided to recall Wei Zhaotong back to Middle Island to be a normal Deacon.

"Wei Zhaotong's punishment has remained unchanged. It seems that the backer behind him values him a lot, to protect him so much!" Lin Yi couldn't help but smile coldly.

"How could this be ..." Upon hearing this, honest Chai's face turned pale, and he was dazed. He didn't know if it was fear or regret, and his mind went blank. He didn't know what to do.

When Wei Zhaotong returned to the headquarters in Nakajima, although he was only an ordinary Deacon of the Chamber of Commerce in name, and was much weaker than him, the deputy manager of the branch, in terms of status and power, he still had someone behind him. If he really harbored a grudge and was prepared to deal with honest Chai, it would only take a few words!

Lin Yi couldn't help but smile at honest Chai's reaction to the end of the world. The guy was an expert at running a business, but he was still a coward. If he didn't have someone powerful backing him up, he'd never be able to make a name for himself.

"Other than the resolution for Wei Zhaotong, there's another matter on this. It's about you." Lin Yi said, keeping her in suspense.

"Ah?" Honest Chai was shocked once again, and he almost fell down on the spot. He stammered in fear and trepidation, "What ... What does it say ..."

"En, it says here that your position as the branch's vice manager is probably no longer safe." Lin Yi frowned slightly, and honest Chai almost fainted from the shock. He smiled and continued, "From the day the headquarters' resolution letter arrives, honest Chai, the original vice manager of the black arc branch, will take over as the branch manager!"

"The branch manager? You want me to be the manager of the branch?" Honest Chai was completely stunned, and then he was instantly overjoyed. He had risen from hell to heaven in an instant. This great sorrow and joy had come too suddenly!

After being the deputy manager of the branch for so many years, it would be self-deceiving if honest Chai said that he didn't have any thoughts of being promoted. However, he also knew that if he wanted to be promoted with his own connections and abilities, it was no different from a fool's dream. Even in his dream, he was secretly thinking about it.

This time, he was forced to step forward and testify against Wei Zhaotong, and was unable to kill the other party with a single blow. He thought that he would be in for a bad time next, and it would be a great fortune to be able to keep his little life. Who would have thought that the position of Branch Manager would directly fall from the sky? this was not just a pie falling from the sky, it was simply a Gold Mountain falling from the sky!

"Not bad. With your ability, you're more than enough to be a Branch Manager. In the future, don't let Hong Zhong down." Lin Yi said with a smile.

The matter was obvious. Hong Zhong had personally made a trip to the headquarters in Nakajima and had a face-to-face confrontation with the higher-ups in the headquarters. Although he hadn't been able to severely punish Wei Zhaotong, he definitely hadn't returned-handed. The branch manager position that had fallen into honest Chai's hands was something he had fought for after dealing with the higher-ups in the headquarters.

"Yes, yes, this one will definitely be loyal to you and will not dare to disappoint you and Vice President Hong's appreciation and promotion." Honest Chai hurriedly swore to the heavens and couldn't hold back his excitement, "That ... Does it say where I'm going to work?"

"I told you, it's here." Lin Yi said as he looked at him.

"Ah? But according to the rules of our Hong Chamber of Commerce, isn't it a promotion in a different place?" Honest Chai was instantly stunned. At the level of a Branch Manager, no matter who it was, they had to strictly abide by the rules of promotion in different places. This was a dead rule set by the founder, and no matter how strong their background was, there was no exception.

"It's not the same. Your situation is special, so you can only do things on a special basis. Only you know the situation of the black arc branch. If you leave now, the branch manager and vice manager are both new. Not to mention controlling the situation, they might not even be able to clear the accounts. They might even mess up the black arc branch. Even the headquarters can't take such a big risk." Lin Yi shook his head with a smile.

They were both branch managers, but letting honest Chai sit on the ground for a promotion and letting him lead other branches would have completely different effects.

Honest Chai's timid personality was already destined. Once he was transferred to another branch, it would be very difficult for him to control the situation. It was very likely that he would be taken over by his subordinates. He was a dignified Branch Manager, but in the end, he would only be in name.

But it was different here in the twisted arc meeting-he'd been running this place for so many years, and he knew everything from top to bottom like the back of his hand. Especially after the Wei Zhaotong incident, with Lin Yi's help, the prestige he'd built up during this time was enough to control the situation.

"That's true. The situation in the sea here is chaotic and very complicated to begin with. In addition to Wei Zhaotong's mess, there are thousands of things to deal with. Outsiders really can't get started without a year and a half. " Honest Chai nodded his head and heaved a sigh of relief.

Being promoted to a Branch Manager on the spot was already the best outcome for him. Otherwise, if he really had to be transferred outside, he would really be so worried that he wouldn't be able to sleep.

"Alright, you can bring this decision back from the headquarters for everyone to see. In the future, whatever happens to the black arc branch will all be in your hands. I still have things to do at the bodyguard agency, so I won't be going over for a while." Lin Yi said.

"Yes, I promise you won't be disappointed!" After receiving the proposal from the headquarters, honest Chai immediately left in high spirits. Needless to say, after becoming the branch manager, this person's temperament had clearly started to change. At least, he didn't look as timid as before. Although it wasn't obvious, he already had a bit of aura.

Lin Yi looked at honest Chai's back and nodded slightly. He hoped that this guy could take care of things on his own. At the very least, he had to hold onto the branch firmly in his hands. Otherwise, all of Hong Zhong's efforts to fight for him would be wasted.

Lin Yi stayed at the Qitian bodyguard agency because the southern continent bodyguard agency event was about to start!

Chapter 4385 It's Like The Secular World

Since he had promised Qi Mingyuan and Qi Wenhan, Lin Yi naturally wouldn't go back on his word. Even if it was to take this opportunity to deal with Wu Bao Liang, he had to help.

But before leaving, Lin Yi had a small gathering with Wang Xinyan and Huang Xiaotao. This was the last time they would see each other before leaving. The morning of the second day, the Morning Star Academy's giant treasure ship slowly left the Yu arc dock under everyone's eyes.

The three of them went their separate ways from then on, and Lin Yi wouldn't be able to see the two girls again until God knows when.

But if everything went smoothly, and his strength increased quickly enough, he didn't have to wait too long. In the end, the only way to do anything on Sky Class Island was to be strong. Everything else was just a passing cloud.

After the Morning Star Academy left, the bustling black arc city returned to its usual pace. Although it was still chaotic, at least there weren't as many people on the streets and alleys. In comparison, it was much calmer.

The black arc Pier was finally open to the public again. Amidst the hustle and bustle, a mighty ship set sail amidst the shouts of the crowd. Four black and gold characters were floating on the flagship-Qitian escort agency.

The magnificence of this ship was far from comparable to the giant treasure ship of the Morning Star Academy, but it was already a giant compared to the other ships at the dock. It was not a treasure ship in the strict sense, but it already had the initial performance of a treasure ship. It was rare to see it in the Ying Luo sea. It was a display of the strength and Foundation of the Qitian escort agency, one of the five biggest escort agencies in the South continent.

The South continent escort agency meeting was not held at the Xiao Luo Sea area this year, but at the other end of the South continent, the demon cold Sea area, which was thousands of miles away from the South continent.

As one of the five major bodyguard agencies, Qitian bodyguard agency was one step ahead of the other bodyguard agencies. This was because, according to the rules, each of the five major bodyguard agencies had to send one person to be the judge for each event. In turn, a judge team would be formed. This was the privilege that came with status in the pugilistic world.

However, even if they could send a judge, it was impossible to cheat in front of everyone. After all, there were still people from the other four bodyguard agencies holding each other back. None of them could control the assembly as they wished.

The existence of the judges could only ensure that they would not suffer losses. As for the rest, they would only be left with honor and not many substantial benefits.

It would take at least five days to travel from the Yingluo Sea area to the moleng Sea area, no matter how fast they were by sea. However, the Qitian escort agency's flag was hanging there, and a group of experts had come out in full force, so the journey was smooth.

Even the most ignorant Pirates had to retreat at this time, or else they would really be the ones who bumped into the muzzle.

They didn't talk along the way, and Lin Yi and the Qitian bodyguard agency arrived at the moleng Sea region. They entered a high-class Inn in the city, and steward song arranged for them to stay.

The others had nothing to do for the time being, but Qi Mingyuan, the head of the escort, went to work as soon as he got off the ship.

On the surface, it was to let each of the five major bodyguard agencies send a judge, and anyone could go. But in fact, the judge team was actually the summit of the five major bodyguard agencies' minds. This was an unwritten rule over the years. Ordinary people didn't even have the right to speak when they went, and only their respective head of bodyguards could go personally.

Qi Mingyuan needed to be busy, but Qi Wenhan was the young master, so he had nothing to do. Butler song made arrangements for the people in the bodyguard agency, so he just had to wait for the event to start. Similarly, Lin Yi had nothing to do, so the two hit it off and went out for a walk.

During this period of time, Lin Yi's mid-stage golden core was completely consolidated. After all, it was much easier to break through to the Golden core stage than other people, not to mention that with Lin Yi's talent, how could it be measured by common sense?

However, every breakthrough required an opportunity. Lin Yi was only in the mid-stage of the Golden core realm, and he still needed some time to break through to the next level. So, he might as well go out with Qi Wenhan to relax and take a look around the city.

Walking on the main street of the city, Lin Yi realized that it was much more orderly than the one in the North Island. In the sea areas of the South continent that Lin Yi had been to, the chaos in the city was even more chaotic than in zhenduan city. Only the city in the demonic cold city seemed to be in order, no different from the North Island.

He didn't know if this was how it was, or if someone was trying to maintain order because of the South continent escort event, but he didn't see any fights along the street. If it were in black arc city, he'd probably have seen four or five, or even more.

"Eh, there's a lot of people over there. Brother Ling, shall we go over and take a look?" Qi Wenhan suddenly pointed at a merchant Association. Compared to the other merchants on the street, this merchant Association's popularity was obviously at its peak. People were moving up and down, and the popularity of their business was simply stunning.

"Central Chamber of Commerce?" Lin Yi looked at the sign and was stunned. The central Chamber of Commerce gave people the feeling that it rose up in just one night. It was so fast that even the five elements Chamber of Commerce, Hong Chamber of Commerce, and the other old top Chambers of Commerce in Tianjie Island were under a huge impact and threat. He didn't think that there would be one in the demon cold Sea area.

"Yeah, I've heard a lot about it recently, but I've never seen it before. Since I've happened to see it, I'll have to take a good look." Qi Wenhan said excitedly.

"Alright, let's go in and take a look." Lin Yi nodded. He was interested in this central Chamber of Commerce, too, especially with the common world's unique products. If he could find out the secret, he might be able to travel between Sky Class Island and the common world freely. It was a huge temptation.

The two followed the crowd as they walked in. They could hear the crowd's praises from time to time. Qi Wenhan was curious about the goods on display, but Lin Yi was a little disappointed.

It was the same as the central Chamber of Commerce's method of making a name for themselves. The items on display here were all common items from the common world, from technological products to practical tools, even food that was unique to the common world. Lin Yi felt like he had returned to the common world. This was like a department store.

Of course, in the secular world, it could only be regarded as a very ordinary department store. It was far from being comparable to those large-scale supermarkets.

But even so, Lin Yi was still quite shocked despite his disappointment. This was Sky Class Island, after all, and these sort of department stores were common in the common world. Bringing all these items to Sky Class Island, however, meant a lot.

Chapter 4386 Mistakenly Going Up To The Third Floor

Qi Wenhan, like everyone else, was very interested in each of these new things brought up from the secular world. He turned around and around in high spirits.

Lin Yi, on the other hand, had a helpless look on his face as he followed behind. A mid-Aurous core stage practitioner was on a Sky Class Island, and yet he was walking around a common world department store with someone-it was intoxicating just thinking about it.

What made people even more speechless was that these ordinary goods that could be seen everywhere in the secular world could be sold at sky-high prices, and there were so many people fighting to buy them. The business was so hot that it was simply unreasonable.

Lin Yi did a rough calculation-just by following Qi Wenhan around, he'd made tens of thousands of spiritual Jade, almost as much as the heavenly elixir Pavilion's income for a day!

One had to know that he was selling Supreme grade pills in the heavenly elixir Pavilion, yet they were still not as good as the ordinary goods in the central Chamber of Commerce. This result was really ridiculous.

In terms of actual value, a random Supreme grade pill from the heavenly elixir Pavilion was enough to buy an entire Street of secular department stores. It could only be said that the rarer an item was, the more expensive it would be. This old saying was not false at all.

Lin Yi and Qi Wenhan chatted as they strolled around. The latter was very interested in these common department stores, but it was mostly out of curiosity. There were very few that caught his eye.

As the young master of the Qitian bodyguard agency, Qi Wenhan had been trained to be an elite since he was young. He was a typical example of this. People like him did not lack the generosity of spending a lot of money, but at the same time, they also had self-control that far exceeded ordinary people.

If he were to squander money like dirt when he saw something new and interesting, no matter how rich he was, there would be a time when he would squander everything. If that happened, Qi Wenhan would no longer be an elite, but a pure prodigal. Qi Mingyuan would not be at ease to hand over the huge Qitian bodyguard agency to him.

Although it was a novelty, Qi Wenhan was only interested in these things that were obviously for fun and had little practical value. If he were to buy them, it could only mean one thing-he was out of his mind.

As long as one had the slightest bit of ambition, they would not spend a large amount of spiritual Jade on a few playthings. Instead of spending it on these things with no practical value, they might as well buy some cultivation-related treasures. Whether it was pills or weapons, any one of them was much more practical than these secular department stores.

The two strolled around the first floor and went up to the second floor after a while-it was a lot quieter than the first floor, though. Lin Yi looked around and realized that the second floor wasn't selling the usual, common items of the Chamber of Commerce, but all sorts of treasures and rare herbs.

"Hehe, the things used to attract people's attention are selling so well, but the truly good things are not being asked for." Lin Yi couldn't help but laugh.

"That's right. It seems like this central Chamber of Commerce is quite ambitious." Qi Wenhan was also an understanding person, and he nodded in agreement.

The central Chamber of Commerce's strategy was very clear. They used the new and unique products of the secular department store to create a huge gimmick and public opinion to attract everyone. However, they were not willing to do so.

Heaven and earth treasures were the main products of the big Chambers of Commerce, and they had the most market and vitality on the Sky Class Island. They could be popular for a while with new things, but they couldn't be popular forever.

Anyone with a discerning eye could see this, and the central Chamber of Commerce naturally knew this as well. Therefore, it had to quickly transform into a mainstream top Chamber of Commerce and even become a real giant while the secular department stores were still being paid attention to.

Although there were not many people buying these treasures, the central Chamber of Commerce had to make up for it. Not only did they have to make up for it, but they had to have more than the other Chambers of Commerce. Only in this way could they truly stand firm and prosper for a long time.

What surprised Lin Yi was that he saw quite a few items on the second floor. They were rare even in the Hong Chamber of Commerce. It was clear that although the central Chamber of Commerce rose overnight, their Foundation was extremely deep. Normal Chambers of Commerce couldn't compare at all.

No matter how it developed in the future, if it continued like this, it would definitely be able to occupy a place on Sky Class Island. It might not be number one, but it would at least be in the top three.

"This central Chamber of Commerce is really aggressive and ambitious." Lin Yi smiled noncommittally, his eyes scanning the rare treasures back and forth, showing no intention of buying them.

Although these things were rare, they were not like the star Ink milk or the Wandu golden core fruit, which could be used by everyone. They had only one use. Unless there were some special circumstances, not only would they not be useful for the time being, but they might not be useful in the future.

Lin Yi was only slightly interested, but Qi Wenhan's eyes lit up. As the young master of the Qitian bodyguard agency, he had more knowledge than ordinary people. Of course, he could tell what was really good.

"Buddy, let me see this heavenly snow vine." Qi Wenhan immediately beckoned a shop assistant over and pointed at one of the items with great interest. He wouldn't buy the secular department stores on the first floor, but he wouldn't hesitate to spend a lot of spiritual Jade on the truly good items.

Lin Yi smiled and walked around alone. He wanted to wait for Qi Wenhan, but he didn't want to disturb him when he saw him chatting with the shop assistant. He turned and went to the third floor.

Compared to the bustling first floor, the second floor already had very few people. However, the third floor was almost empty!

Lin Yi looked around, surprised. There weren't any display shelves here, only luxurious and elegant rooms. They seemed to be places for people to chat and rest. The big customers should be here discussing with the central Chamber of Commerce, but why was there no one here? wasn't the business very popular downstairs?

Lin Yi couldn't be blamed for making such a guess-any normal person would think that way. After all, everything a Chamber of Commerce did was to trade with people, but what Lin Yi didn't expect was that this central Chamber of Commerce was different from the other large Chambers of Commerce he'd seen.

The second floor was deserted, but at least there were some guests. However, there was not a single guest on the third floor. There was only one reason: this place was not open to the public. It was only open to those who were not invited!

Usually, the stairs were always guarded. The people who often came to the central Chamber of Commerce knew this rule, so they wouldn't come here or go to the third floor without permission.

However, in the past few days, because the escort agency meeting in the South continent was about to be held here, it attracted a large number of outsiders, which led to the business of the central Chamber of Commerce, which was already lively, to become even more prosperous.

Chapter 4387 A Misunderstanding!

As Lin Yi had seen, the first floor had too many customers, and a few workers usually couldn't handle it all. They had no choice but to move all the workers there, leaving only one worker to guard the second floor.

And the only worker left was called over by Qi Wenhan for questioning, which allowed Lin Yi to go up to the third floor without any trouble.

Lin Yi was a little surprised to see no one around, but he didn't want to stay any longer. He was about to go downstairs when he heard someone talking in a room not far away.

Lin Yi was shocked. He used his spirit sense to scan the third floor, but he didn't sense anyone. Even if he didn't look carefully, it was just a rough scan, but someone who could hide from his spirit sense must be a rare master.

They were conversing in a private room, and they had to deliberately hide their aura. Who was so mysterious?

Lin Yi couldn't help but be curious, but that was all he wanted to do. He didn't want to interrupt their conversation, but a voice from the room stopped him in his tracks.

"These miscellaneous items are in high demand recently. I have to think of a way to get the headquarters to send more from the secular world. Otherwise, the supply will be cut off in two days."

"That's right. Our stock was already running low yesterday. If we don't get them to deliver the goods quickly, we'll definitely run out of supply. That'll be troublesome!"

"Yes, I'll think of a way to urge them again. Fortunately, they will be teleported to somewhere near us, so our branch will be the first to choose. Otherwise, even if they are teleported here, we won't get a chance. We might not even get to drink the soup ..."

"That's right, the headquarters' strategy is brilliant. They've set off a wave of popularity on the five Sky Class islands, making these items a trend on the island, a symbol of status and identity, forcing everyone to buy them. If they don't buy, they'll lose face and won't be able to raise their heads in front of their friends!"

"Hehe, even if we include the teleportation channel, the cost of each item will only be a few dozen spiritual jades at most, but it can be sold for a sky-high price of a few thousand or even tens of thousands. Is there any business more profitable than this in the world?"

"In the words of the secular world, this is called a monopoly. Who asked us to have these things? No matter how high the price is, they can only obediently give away the spiritual Jade, hahaha!"

Lin Yi's heart skipped a beat as he carefully moved closer. Ever since the central Chamber of Commerce appeared, he'd been curious about it, especially the way they brought things from the secular world to the mystery Island. From what these two said, they were probably internal members of the central Chamber of Commerce. They might be able to get some clues.

Lin Yi held his breath and focused, trying his best to hide his presence and blend in with the environment. This was the most important lesson for an assassin, and Lin Yi had always been a master in this field. Even Masters who were an entire realm higher than him wouldn't be able to detect him, let alone those of the same level.

However, before Lin Yi could get close, the two people in the room suddenly quieted down. They stopped halfway through their words, and Lin Yi shivered.

He couldn't stay here for long! Lin Yi didn't have time to react or think-he quickly put on the mask and changed his face, turning to leave.

Unfortunately, Lin Yi was still too slow-two figures appeared and disappeared like ghosts, blocking his way out.

Lin Yi was shocked-just what level were these two masters at? he'd been so careful already, and they still caught him so easily!

The two men in front of him, one masked in black, the other evil-looking, had one thing in common-both of them had a profound aura that Lin Yi's golden finger couldn't detect. This meant that they were both at least nascent soul masters.

But he'd seen his fair share of Yuanying stage Masters-other than the Tian Xing Dao, the pressure they gave him wasn't that great. These two, however, made even the Qi in his body stir-this was something he'd never seen before! These two weren't to be trifled with!

"Who's there? How dare you trespass the forbidden area! MA Tianlang, take him down!" The black-robed man gave the order without a second word. The sinister-looking man named MA Tianlang, who was standing beside him, had a flash of killing intent in his eyes. He immediately exploded.

Lin Yi's heart was in a state of shock when MA Tianlang made his move. He had already felt that these two people were not to be underestimated, but after the opponent made his move, he could finally see their strength clearly. They were actually Super Masters of the xuansheng stage!

Even in the East continent's Morning Star Academy, experts at the xuansheng stage were among the three magnates. Who was this central Chamber of Commerce? how could they encounter such a monster so easily? more importantly, this MA Tianlang seemed to be the subordinate of the Man in Black!

With Lin Yi's mid-stage golden core strength, if his opponents were only nascent soul, even if they were late-stage nascent soul cultivators, as long as he used his ultimate killing move, he still had a chance. He might not be able to kill the two of them, but at least he could escape in the chaos.

But now, his opponent was a xuansheng stage expert who was two stages higher than him. How was he going to deal with this?

No matter how powerful Lin Yi was, he couldn't fight against a mysterious Ascension stage powerhouse with only a mid-stage golden core. Otherwise, the only result would be him being crushed on the spot before he could even react.

"It's a misunderstanding! It was a misunderstanding! 'I'm just a guest"Lin Yi quickly shouted. He couldn't fight now, so he had to make the enemy lower their guard and act according to the situation.

"A guest?" MA Tianlang sized Lin Yi up and confirmed that he was unfamiliar. He also confirmed that there were no guards on the third floor. He believed Lin Yi a little, but he still sneered, "Misunderstanding my ass! Since you've barged into this place, don't even think about leaving!"

With that, MA Tianlang's body floated and appeared behind Lin Yi in the blink of an eye, grabbing Lin Yi's right shoulder with one hand.

Lin Yi couldn't help but break out in a cold sweat as he felt the almost tangible killing intent coming from the opponent's hand. The opponent hadn't even used much of his strength yet, but Lin Yi's Qi was already starting to slow down. He couldn't use his Qi anymore and was no different from a normal person, waiting to be slaughtered. The difference in strength was just too great-he really couldn't fight back at all.

However, Lin Yi still felt a little lucky that the other party only controlled him and didn't kill him directly. Otherwise, he would be a corpse by now.

Chapter 4388 Entering The Dungeon

"Throw him into the dungeon." The Man in Black replied emotionlessly and turned to leave. MA Tianlang brought Lin Yi out of the central Chamber of Commerce through the back door.

Lin Yi looked around quietly, ready to find a chance to create chaos and escape, but the man didn't give him the chance at all. He grabbed his right shoulder and jumped up, his speed leaving no trace behind. The people on the street didn't seem to notice their existence.

Lin Yi's heart sank to the bottom of the valley-he couldn't even use his Qi-he couldn't even think of using it to protect himself, let alone a martial arts technique. His right shoulder was also being held tightly by the enemy-even the slightest movement would turn his right shoulder into dust, let alone escape.

Helplessly, Lin Yi could only give up on resisting and let MA Tianlang grab his right shoulder, obediently letting him carry him away.

After leaving the Chamber of Commerce, MA Tianlang suddenly sped up, and Lin Yi only felt a blur in front of his eyes. He didn't know which corner of the city he was in!

MA Tianlang brought Lin Yi to a commoner's residence. It looked no different from the other buildings around them, and nothing seemed to be different after entering. However, after passing through a few secret doors, the scene was completely different.

In front of them was a long tunnel, dark and without light. No one knew where it led to. MA Tianlang picked up Lin Yi and continued running. After a long time, he finally stopped.

Lin Yi looked around carefully. There was an entrance in front of him, and it seemed to be the prison that the Man in Black was talking about. There were two guards at the entrance, and his golden finger couldn't see through their cultivation level. They were obviously strong, and their auras were far stronger than normal nascent soul cultivators.

Lin Yi couldn't help but shiver at the sight—none of the people he'd come into contact with up until now were easy to deal with. With so many hidden masters, this central Chamber of Commerce couldn't be as simple as just a Chamber of Commerce, could it? What kind of divine being was behind it?

MA Tianlang nodded at the two guards and lifted his leg, kicking Lin Yi into the dungeon before leaving.

There was no candlelight, no fluorite, and the dungeon was completely dark. It was so dark that one couldn't even see their own fingers. They couldn't even see the surrounding situation. They only knew that it was creepy, and ordinary people would probably be scared half to death.

However, Lin Yi was still fine. His right shoulder wasn't grabbed by MA Tianlang, and his body's true Qi was back to normal. No matter what happened, he would be able to protect himself. Moreover, his surroundings were clear to him with his divine sense.

The area of this dungeon was not small. At first glance, it was like a small square. The surrounding walls faintly revealed a trace of the aura of a protective array. It was extremely hard. To break through it with force was wishful thinking for ordinary people. At least, an ordinary Yuanying stage master could not shake it.

Unless it was a xuansheng stage cultivator, or a cultivator at the peak of the original infant stage like the Tian Xing path, who could easily kill a xuansheng stage cultivator, it would be impossible.

"Kid, are you new? What did you do?" At this moment, an overbearing voice suddenly rang out in the darkness.

Lin Yi turned his head to see a man with scars all over his face. He looked scary and had a violent aura around him. One look and you could tell that this guy wasn't someone to mess with.

Other than the man with the scar, there were a lot of other people locked up in the prison. All of them were staring at Lin Yi, some were eager to try, some were gloating, some were just watching coldly-in short, none of them were friendly.

He scanned them carefully and scanned them with his spirit sense. Lin Yi was shocked!

"What are you still doing? Do you have anything good in your hands? quickly take it out and share it with this old man, or else don't blame this old man for being impolite!" The scar-faced man thought that Lin Yi was scared by him and laughed coldly.

As he spoke, the man with the scar also released his Qi. He was at the middle stage of the original level. The other people in the dungeon all showed fear on their faces. It was obvious that their strength was not as high as his. And if there were no accidents, they were also suppressed by him before, so they were scared.

It was a pity that the scar-faced man was overthinking things. A mid-tier nascent soul practitioner was high and mighty outside, and even intimidating in this prison, but Lin Yi still didn't care.

He was the strongest mid-stage golden core cultivator after a perfect breakthrough, and he had all sorts of trump cards, especially the fire-Qi bomb. Lin Yi was never someone you could look at with common sense.

Not to mention the same level Jindan stage Masters, even the early Yuanying stage was nothing in front of him. As for the middle Yuanying stage, it was just a little more effort.

The reason why Lin Yi was so shocked wasn't because of the man with the scar, but because he found someone he'd been looking for in the group of people in the dungeon, Lu bianren!

Lin Yi didn't even dream that Lu bianren would be locked up in this dungeon. No wonder there was no news from him, and no wonder even with the Qitian bodyguard agency's network, they didn't respond at all. It would be a miracle if outsiders could find him after being locked up in this dungeon for years.

When Lin Yi noticed Lu bianren, Lu bianren was also sizing Lin Yi up, but he didn't recognize Lin Yi. After all, Lin Yi was wearing the qiansi mask, and his face was completely unfamiliar to Lin Yi.

Compared to the others who were gloating over his misfortune, Lu bianren's eyes didn't have any malice in them. Instead, there was a trace of pity in them. Every newcomer would be bullied by this man with the scar, and he himself was no exception.

The man was a mid-stage nascent soul cultivator, while Lu bianren was only a mid-stage golden core cultivator-there was a whole realm of difference between them, and he couldn't fight someone of a higher level as easily as Lin Yi could. He couldn't even protect himself in front of the man with the scar, and there was no way he would help a stranger.

The only thing he could do was to show some sympathy. If he dared to jump out and openly oppose them, it would be no different from seeking death. After all, this was a dungeon, and the guards outside basically had a nonchalant attitude towards the things inside. If they really fought, they would die in vain.

The scar-faced man frowned at Lin Yi's lack of reaction. He strode over to Lin Yi and shouted, "I'm talking to you, did you hear me?"

"You're talking to me?" Only then did Lin Yi move his eyes away from Lu bianren, not acknowledging him in public. He turned to the man with the scar and asked faintly.

"Nonsense, you're the only newcomer here. If I don't talk about you, do you think I'm talking about air? Are you F * cking sick in the head?" The man with the scar walked over while cursing.

Chapter 4389 Are You Stupid?

He reached Lin Yi and spread his hands, "Brat, since you are here, then you must follow the rules. Take out all the good things you have. I will say the ugly things first, I am heavy-handed, and if I am not careful, I will kill someone. It will not be good for everyone, so don't force me."

"I'm sorry, I don't have anything on me. " Lin Yi couldn't help but smile,"Even if there is, who the hell are you?"

"Oh? And he's even more awesome?" The man with the scar laughed instead of getting angry. The scar on his face, which was already fierce, became more and more ferocious. He got closer and closer and sneered,""Refusing a toast only to drink a forfeit. Kid, you're asking for it. Don't blame this old man for being merciless!"

With that, the man with the scar reached out and grabbed Lin Yi's body, ready to search him. The other people in the prison watched on coldly, some even gloating.

They had the same unfortunate experience when they were first captured, and now that they saw someone else following in their footsteps, they didn't share the same hatred at all. Instead, they felt that it was only natural. If Lin Yi wasn't bullied by the man with the scar, they would've felt that it was unfair.

From start to finish, no one was optimistic about Lin Yi's chances. The man with the scar was a mid-stage nascent soul practitioner, and this newcomer didn't seem to be a match for him at all, even if he hadn't revealed his strength yet.

He wasn't just looking down on Lin Yi-judging a person by their appearance was a pretty negative phrase, but it made sense a lot of times. After all, there was an old saying,"one's appearance is determined by one's heart."

In the practitioner's world, if a person trained in a profound practitioner's art, their appearance and aura would naturally change. Lin Yi's boorish image was definitely the kind of person who couldn't master it, and his strength wasn't that strong.

Even Lu bianren didn't have high hopes for Lin Yi. A wise man knew better than to fight when the odds were against him. Since Lin Yi wasn't strong enough, he might as well save up his strength first. There was only one word to describe Lin Yi's current situation-it was unwise.

However, the scene that followed made everyone's jaws drop. Even Lu bianren couldn't come back to his senses for a long time.

Without any warning, Lin Yi suddenly threw a wild fire Eight Trigram palm at the man's face. The man had expected this guy to be a pain in the ass and was on guard, but he realized that he didn't have time to react at all. This wild fire Eight Trigram palm made a mid-stage nascent Soul Master spin three times on the spot, completely stunned.

Without waiting for the man to recover, Lin Yi lifted his leg and used a thousand raging fire legs, hitting the man in the back.

BOOM! With a loud bang, the man with the horizontal scar was firmly printed on the wall. Even the entire dungeon trembled. It was only because of the protection array that the whole dungeon was shaking. Without it, the whole dungeon might have collapsed.

The entire place was deathly silent. Everyone's mouths were wide open, unable to say a single word for a long time. Only the sound of gasps could be heard, expressing everyone's current mood.

They had been locked up in this dungeon for at least a few months, and had been used to the bullying of the man with the scar. Strength was above all, and the man with the scar was the strongest. Naturally, he had the final say in this place, and no one could resist.

Of course, there were exceptions in the past. There were always some hot-blooded people who didn't want to submit. However, the end was the same. No matter who dared to resist, they were eventually beaten half to death by the man with the scar. They didn't even dare to let out a fart. The two guards outside didn't care about all this, which helped to boost the man's arrogance.

He had never expected such a scene to appear today. The man with the horizontal scar had kicked an iron plate and was bleeding from his kick!

In an instant, everyone's fear of the man with the scar shifted to Lin Yi. As for the arrogant man with the scar, after he managed to pull himself out of the wall, he was sprawled on the ground, spitting out blood. Everyone looked at him with the same expression-it was a happy sight.

You've been throwing your weight around in the dungeon for so long, you deserve this day with a scar on your face. God really has eyes!

"You ... You're also a nascent soul cultivator?" The scar-faced man spat out a mouthful of blood before recovering. He raised his head and looked at Lin Yi in disbelief.

He was obviously just a rough and boorish man, how could he be such a master? when did Yuanying stage Masters become so low level?

"Hmph!" Lin Yi only hmphed coldly, neither admitting nor denying it.

In the eyes of the other people, the man with the scar was simply asking a useless question. He himself was a master of the middle Yuanying stage, but he was almost crippled in one move. If this ruthless man was not a master of the Yuanying stage, could he be a master of the jiedan stage?

It was obvious that this new master was not only a master of the Yuanying stage, but at least a master of the middle Yuanying stage. It was absolutely more than enough to deal with him, a man with a scar.

"You ... You ..." The scar-faced man was going to say something to keep up the act, but Lin Yi just glanced at him and he pulled his neck back. The aura he'd gathered up with great difficulty disappeared instantly. He was scared to death, but he still wanted to show off his power. It was a funny look.

"What about me?" Lin Yi's lips curved up a little.

"I'm convinced. I won't provoke you, but don't be too delusional. If you think you can control me from now on, then you're wrong!" The man with the scar stood up unsteadily and said in a tough tone, "I was just caught off guard just now. I'm a master of the middle Yuanying stage. If we really fight to the death, we will only end up with both sides suffering. So I'll take a step back. If I don't provoke you, you don't provoke me either. We'll mind our own business!"

"Are you stupid?" Lin Yi looked at him like he was an idiot and threw a Qi bomb.

This was what he'd been working on-from the moment the guy started provoking him, Lin Yi didn't plan on letting him go so easily. He'd have to at least cripple him if he didn't die.

BOOM! There was another loud noise. The man with the scar suddenly screamed and was once again embedded into the wall. He did not move for a long time.

Everyone looked at each other, thinking that the man with the scar was dead. Unexpectedly, after a moment, the man with the scar suddenly wailed and shakily pulled himself out of the wall again.

His head was full of blood. His head had been blown into a bloody gourd. Looking at the tragic state of the man with the scar, even the people who had been bullied by him could not help but feel a trace of sympathy.

Chapter 4390 The Secret Of The Center

As expected, an evil person needed to be dealt with by an evil person. Heng Scarface, who had always been tyrannical, was simply a lamb waiting to be slaughtered in front of this new demon. He had no power to resist at all and was simply being trampled on.

He'd been injured pretty badly before, and this time, the energy bomb exploded. The scar-faced man couldn't even stand up. He looked at Lin Yi with fear and trepidation in his eyes. He didn't dare to act tough with his mouth anymore. If this demon did something like this again, he'd really have to report to the underworld.

"If I want to kill you, it'll be as easy as turning my hand over. So if you want to keep your little life, don't be an eyesore in front of me." Lin Yi said faintly.

There was no exaggeration in his words. The Zhen Qi bomb just now, firstly, was condensed for too short a time, and secondly, it was not a mixed pill fire bomb. Otherwise, even if it was a middle Yuanying stage master, no matter how strong the vitality of the man with the scar was, he would still be blown into pieces.

The scar-faced man straightened his neck, as if he wanted to talk back, but he backed down after Lin Yi's glance.

He had always thought that he was a ruthless person. He was overbearing outside and was still the same when he was in the dungeon. He had always been the Overlord of the prison. He was the one who bullied others, and no one had ever dared to disobey him. Even those who were blind had become honest after being beaten by him.

He didn't expect that there would be someone more ruthless than him today. Not only was he more powerful than him, but he was also ruthless and decisive. The man with the scar could feel that this person was really a master who killed without blinking an eye. Perhaps he might not kill the innocent like him, but this kind of quiet person was even more terrifying. He really couldn't afford to offend him.

He'd just kicked a big iron board all of a sudden, and his days of tyrannical abuse were over-and he'd been beaten up like this, too! The man with the scar was depressed-a wise man knew better than to fight when the odds were against him, and even an evil man like him would've been scared witless in front of a fiend like Lin Yi. He'd've knelt down already if it weren't for the fact that he couldn't bring himself to do it in front of so many people.

"I have something to ask you. I hope you can tell me the truth. How did you get locked up here? How long have you been locked up here?" Lin Yi pointed at the man with the scar and ordered, "I'll start with you. One by one. "

Everyone's eyes focused on him again. The man with the scar cried, not daring to disobey Lin Yi's order. He leaned on his body and lowered his head, ""I ... Oh no, I'm sun hengbiao. I'm a pirate in the demon cold Sea area ..."

"Pirates?" Lin Yi looked at him and asked, "then how did you get in?" Is the central Chamber of Commerce so responsible that they would send people to eliminate you Pirates?"

In the waters of the South continent, Pirates could be seen everywhere. Because there was no unified jurisdiction to arrest them, they could swagger through the city. It didn't matter even if they talked about their free business in the downtown area of the city. Everyone was used to it. As long as it wasn't their own business, they wouldn't meddle in other people's business.

"Uh ... That's not it ... I, oh no, I saw that the central Chamber of Commerce was very profitable, so I wanted to Rob their ship and make a fortune. Who would have thought that there were so many experts on the ship? two xuansheng stage powerhouses directly boarded and threw me here after beating me half to death ..." Sun hengbiao said with an embarrassed look.

This was the first time the other people in the dungeon had heard him talk about this. They all looked at this guy as if he was an idiot. The central Chamber of Commerce was coming in full force, and normal people would want to hide. This scar-faced man actually dared to Rob their goods. He would be lucky if he didn't get beaten to death!

Sun hengbiao himself had an expression of bad luck on his face. In this demonic cold Sea region, the strength of a mid-nascent soul realm cultivator was definitely not considered weak. Coupled with a group of ferocious Pirates under him, he had always been feared and invincible wherever he went.

Even if the other party's ship also had a nascent Soul Stage master on board, they were not willing to fight to the death with him. After all, it was not worth it to risk their lives with such a fierce pirate for a little spiritual Jade!

However, who would've thought that there would be a Big Shot at the Xuan Sheng stage on the ship of the central Chamber of Commerce? since when did big shots at the Xuan Sheng stage become so worthless? sun hengbiao had actually gone to Rob a Big Shot at the Xuan Sheng stage. If this wasn't bad luck, what was?

The situation was exactly the same as before. He had thought that the other party was a soft persimmon that he could knead at will, but in the end, before he could be arrogant and proud, he was half-dead with a slap ...

Everyone looked at sun hengbiao and couldn't help but laugh. This guy was indeed an idiot. He didn't learn his lesson when he ran into a Big Shot at the xuansheng stage. Now, he ran into this demon. He really deserved to be unlucky.

"How long have you been locked in here?" Lin Yi continued.

"This ..." Sun hengbiao furrowed his brows and thought for a moment before he answered honestly, "About ten months. I'm the one who's been here the longest ..."

Lin Yi looked at the others, and they all nodded. It was true that sun hengbiao had been acting like a tyrant when they came in.

"So you're saying that you're the first one to be caught?" Lin Yi asked.

"No, no, that's not it. Many people came in earlier than me, but they were all taken out." Sun hengbiao shook his head honestly. A pirate leader like him was fierce, but when it came to a tough guy like Lin Yi, he was more obedient than anyone else. This was because they believed in the rule of the pugilist world more than anyone else.

"Bring him out? What do you mean? you've been released?" Lin Yi couldn't help but find it strange-the central Chamber of Commerce was so secretive, and they even brought in a customer like him who didn't do anything bad-they wouldn't be so kind as to let these people go so easily, would they?

Many of the other people in the prison also perked up their ears. Sun hengbiao only knew how to bully them, never mentioning anything like this. Even those who had been locked up for months didn't know much about this, and most of them were as clueless as Lin Yi.

It was rare for sun hengbiao to be forced to speak by this fiend. This matter concerned everyone's future, so everyone naturally had to listen carefully.

"We're just going to let it go? How is that possible?" Sun hengbiao subconsciously pouted his lips, but Lin Yi's glare made him back down. He leaned against the wall in pain as he replied carefully, "I've heard the old people here say that they were taken to do something ... It's called human body ... Oh, right, human experiment. It's a very strange name. I don't understand it, but it's definitely not something good ..."
