

Bodyguard 4411

Chapter 4411 The Opening Of The Event

This time, even song Lingshan, Cheng Yiyi, Xu Shihan, and Ying Ziyu didn't let him go. They didn't care about their image as girls at all as they rushed up and started punching and kicking Chentian. It was a scene that made one's hair stand on end. If Lin Yi was here, he'd probably have to think twice and never mess with these girls again.

In less than three minutes, Wu Chengtian was beaten beyond recognition. In the chaos, his clothes were torn to pieces, and his hair was messy. He looked like he had just been abused, and the crowd laughed so hard that they almost fell to the ground.

"Brothers and sisters, please go easy on me, or I'm going to call the police!" Chentian said, his face full of grievance. Luckily, he was a physical practitioner-he wouldn't die from a beating, and the others wouldn't really kill him, of course. But this image was too embarrassing, and if someone took a picture of him and posted it, how was he supposed to face the world in the future ...

"He deserves it! Who asked you to delay the military intelligence? you're really too unreliable to only tell me such an important piece of news at this time!" Everyone cursed at him, but no one sympathized with him.

It'd been a whole day since they received the package-any normal person would've brought it up right away, but Chentian was different, he'd waited until now to bring it up!

"I just said it a little late. I didn't really forget about it. Why are you guys so nervous?" Wu Chengtian scratched his head speechlessly. From the moment he received the delivery, his attention had been on this Central Express delivery, thinking about what was going on behind the scenes. In fact, if it wasn't for the flash of inspiration just now, he would have forgotten about it already ...

"It's been more than 20 hours. You call this just a little late?" Everyone snorted and ignored him. They gathered in a circle and said excitedly, ""Come, come, come, let's talk about how we should reply to boss Lin Yi."

"It's very simple. Everyone just has to write a letter, then put them together and send them out." Fatty Lai suggested.

"That's right, that's right. Everyone should write a letter. Write as many as you want. I've decided. I'll start with 50000 words!" Ziyu said, full of ambition.

" 50000 words? Sister Ziyu, do you think you're writing a novel?" Everyone burst into laughter.

"That's right. 50000 words is too much. It's too thick to write 50000 words on a piece of paper. Other people might not even be willing to send it. I think 30000 words should be enough." Xu Shihan said seriously.

Everyone was floored-your 30000 was a thick stack, too, how much better than Ziyu's 50000?

Moreover, there were so many people present. If everyone wrote 30000 words, that would add up to a few hundred thousand words. How thick would the paper be? the central Express delivery company would probably go crazy, right?

"30000 words is too much, we should all be more realistic. If we really make a few hundred thousand words, even if Lin Yi received it, he'd have to go into isolation for days to read it ..." Lingshan couldn't help but laugh.

"Yeah, sis-in-law Lingshan's right." Everyone nodded in agreement and asked, "Then what do you think is the most appropriate word limit?"

"Well ..." Song Lingshan thought about it seriously for a long time, and finally said slowly, "How about 20000 words?"

I'll go! A large number of people in the audience instantly collapsed. Each and every one of them didn't know whether to laugh or cry. After all that talk, even you started with 10000 words?

"I can't help it, it's been a year since we last met, there's too much I want to talk about ..." Lingshan stuck out her tongue in embarrassment.

It'd been a whole year, and there were so many things that couldn't be explained in a thousand words. Women were emotional creatures, and no matter what it was, they'd want to share it with the man they loved. Even Song Lingshan was no exception.

For the sake of the length of the letter, everyone gathered together and discussed it for a full hour before they finally reached a consensus. One by one, they got a pen and paper, found a place, and began to write at a high speed. It was a tense atmosphere as if a big exam was approaching.

As for what these guys were going to write, Lin Yi would only know when he received it at Sky Class Island. Of course, there was a possibility that he wouldn't receive it-for example, the letters these guys wrote were too heavy and thick to be sent by express delivery ...

Sky Class Island, South continent, demon cold Sea area.

Demonic cold city, which was already noisy, was particularly crowded today. The high-profile escort agency event in the South continent had finally officially begun today.

Although it was an escort agency event in name and seemed to have nothing to do with most people, in fact, many escort agencies had a status far above ordinary logistics organizations in the chaotic South continent Sea area.

Due to the lack of a unified and powerful official force, many escort agencies, to a large extent, also played the role of maintaining order in the sea areas of the South continent. Their existence was an indispensable deterrent to all kinds of small fries, including Pirates.

In fact, although the South continent's Sea area was a chaotic place, there was a big difference in the degree of chaos between each area. Often, the sea area with a powerful escort agency was relatively stable, while the sea area with weak or even no escort agencies was extremely chaotic.

For example, the demonic cold Sea area had always been the most orderly Sea area in the South continent because of the existence of the four Seas escort agency, which had always occupied the top position.

Another example was the wind arc Sea area. Because of the fifth-ranked heaven's equal bodyguard agency, although its order was not as good as the demon cold Sea area, it was not to the point of being unmanageable.

However, there were no decent and powerful escort agencies in the Zhen Duan Sea area. Therefore, the degree of chaos in the Zhen Duan Sea area was far beyond that of the demon cold Sea area and the Yu Luo Sea area. It had always been a gathering place for many Pirates. Even if the Pirates were brazenly discussing robbery, no one dared to meddle in their business. This was because seven out of ten people in the surrounding area might be Pirates, and the remaining three might be brokers who specialized in selling stolen goods for the Pirates.

Therefore, without the existence of these escort agencies, the situation in the sea area would be far more chaotic and cruel than it was now. It was very likely that it would be a mess, and even a slightly prosperous city like the demon cold city would not be seen.

Therefore, all the most powerful escort agencies in the South continent's Sea area would be gathered at the five-year South continent escort agency event. It was not just a simple industry gathering, but a core event that everyone in the South continent's Sea area paid great attention to.

Chapter 4412 Dealing With The Robbery

The result would not only determine the ranking of the escort agencies, but also the future power structure of the South continent's Sea area. In the following year, which Sea area would be safer and more dangerous would depend on the direction of this event.

At this time, people from all walks of life had already gathered in the huge square. At first glance, there were people from all kinds of sects and forces. Many of them were invited to watch the ceremony, and many of them came to watch the fun spontaneously. However, the most conspicuous people present were the bodyguards from the bodyguard agency.

Lin Yi looked at the dazzling array of flags and listened to Qi Wenhan's explanation. He couldn't help but feel surprised. Although the five biggest escort agencies were hosting this event, there were actually thirty-two escort agencies participating!

In other words, almost all the escort agencies in all the seas of the South continent had appeared at the scene. The reputation of the South continent's escort agency meeting was indeed well-deserved.

There was only one ultimate goal in this event, and that was to determine the five strongest escort agencies. There were 32 escort agencies present, but they had to compete for only five spots. The difficulty of this was obvious.

Lin Yi was only thinking about Wu baoliang before and didn't put the South continent escort party in his heart, but it seemed like it wouldn't be easy for Qitian escort agency to keep their top five spot.

In the middle of the square, a stage was temporarily set up. The space was not big, and there were only five seats on it. However, the people in each seat were all sitting upright. Although they did not make a sound, the aura of the five people was enough to suppress the entire scene. They had the air of experts without a doubt.

Among them, Qi Wenhan's father, Qi Mingyuan, was one of them. Needless to say, this was the judging team formed by the five major bodyguard agencies.

"Thank you, everyone, for coming. I'm the head of the four Seas escort agency, boundless sea. On behalf of the five big escort agencies, I pay my respects to all the heroes present!" The burly man sitting in the middle of the five people suddenly stood up and cupped his hands. His voice was like a great Bell and like a thunderclap, it actually drowned out the noise of so many people in the square, and the square became quiet.

Everyone's eyes involuntarily focused on the head of the four Seas escort agency. Meanwhile, the escorts from the 32 escort agencies began to rub their fists and rub their palms in anticipation, waiting for the next official showdown.

This was the best stage for them to show off. The South continent escort agency banquet was not only for the competition of the top five escort agencies, but also the highest stage for the competition between escorts. To them, this banquet was as important as the imperial examination in ancient times for scholars. It was directly related to their future.

If they could perform well in this event, even if they were previously unknown, their net worth would definitely skyrocket in the future. They might even become the focus of attention and it was possible for them to enter the upper echelons of the bodyguard agency.

"On behalf of the five escort agencies, I hereby announce that the 37th South continent escort agency Grand meeting has officially begun!" Boundless sea was clearly someone who didn't like to waste words. When he spoke, there was no need for any small talk. He went straight to the point.

The entire place erupted into a heaven-shaking cheer. They admired boundless sea's clean and efficient style. To put it bluntly, other than the bodyguards from the thirty-two security agencies, everyone else had gathered here purely to watch the bodyguards from the big security agencies fight each other to the death. They wanted to see the intense battle of blades and blood, not to listen to the nonsense of those so-called important people.

If boundless sea had come up to give an hour's report, then most of the people present would probably have left. Even the bodyguards from the bodyguard agency would have started to doze off.

"The South continent escort agency meeting has been held for so many years. The purpose of this meeting is clear. I believe everyone here knows that it is to take this rare opportunity to test and improve the escort skills of the escort agency members!" Boundless sea paused, then turned to the bodyguards and said,""Escorting is your job and the foundation of your life. If you can't even do this well, how can you be an escort? how can you have a foothold in the South continent's waters? Therefore, in this Festival, all the competitions will be centered around escort. I believe that no one will have any objections to this?"

All the bodyguards from the 32 bodyguard agencies nodded in agreement. This was a distinguished meeting of the bodyguard agencies in the South continent. As bodyguards, they should be competing in their image, temperament, and embroidery. It's not like we're running for the invincible East ...

"Very good. Next, head escort Zhao bufan of the divine Wind escort agency will announce the rules of the first round." Boundless sea nodded at the middle-aged man to his right and then sat back down.

"Everyone, after a discussion, the judging team has decided that the first round of this year's South continent escort event will be a scene simulation, which is closely related to your daily escort. It's the response to robbery!" Zhao bufan finished boundless sea's sentence.

The crowd perked up when they heard this. Just by hearing the name, they could already guess that it would not be easy.

However, they were already mentally prepared. After all, the competition in the past escort agency gatherings had always been extremely bloody and cruel. There had never been no deaths. This had always been the style of the South continent's sea.

Otherwise, such a high-profile escort agency event would only end up with a small fight without any blood. With such a greenhouse competition that could not stand the test, so what if they were finally ranked among the top five escort agencies? would they be able to scare off those ferocious Pirates?

In the South continent's waters, there were only two things that could truly get the right to speak. One was strength, and the other was blood. Without any of these things, one could not think of suppressing those lawless Pirates, and would only become a complete joke.

"The rules are simple. Each agency will draw lots and send four golden core stage bodyguards to escort the goods on the way. The agency that draws the corresponding lot will also send four golden core stage bodyguards to Rob the goods." Zhao bufan announced.

To put it bluntly, it was a four-on-four team fight, but what Lin Yi was curious about was why there was a limit to golden core Masters.

"This rule is actually very normal. Even the most powerful four Seas escort agency has a large number of golden core stage escorts. It's not that they can't afford to hire nascent Soul Stage escorts, but if they send nascent Soul Stage escorts for ordinary escort items, there's no profit for the escort agency, and there's no need to." Qi Wenhan explained.

Chapter 4413 Rewarding Brave Husband

"I see." Lin Yi nodded. Qitian bodyguard agency, for example, had a nascent Soul Master like Butler song, but he was only there to intimidate them. They wouldn't go out personally.

Since it was a scenario simulation, it naturally had to be restored to the most realistic situation. Usually, it was the Golden core stage bodyguards who were sent out. At this time, it was natural that the Golden core stage bodyguards had to be sent out. Otherwise, if all the major escort agencies desperately sent out their strongest experts, it would be meaningless.

If they let Yuanying stage experts fight, even if they won, they would not be able to show the true standard of the escort agencies. The five biggest escort agencies that won in the end would not be able to convince the public.

"The time limit is one joss stick. If the escort party can successfully hold onto the escort item and all four escorts survive within that time, you will get eighty points. Ten points will be deducted for every person the escort party loses. Ten points will be deducted for every person the escort party loses. Ten points will be deducted for every person the escort party manages to survive."

"On the other hand, if the party guarding the tribute can't hold on to the tribute, they will get zero points. In return, the party who robbed the tribute will get eighty points. By the same logic, ten points will be deducted for every person lost by the party. Ten points will be deducted for every person alive on the enemy's side."

"In this round, the 32 escort agencies will each get one chance to guard and one chance to Rob. Together, that will be the total points for this round. Do you understand the rules?" Zhao bufan said to everyone.

"I heard you clearly!" The group of bodyguards responded in unison with great tacit understanding.

"This rule sounds a little cruel." Lin Yi couldn't help but click his tongue. The rules of this first round weren't so much a competition, but a killing spree. They were using points to force you to kill!

In conclusion, regardless of whether it was the guarding party or the robbing party, there was only one general principle for the participating escorts. While ensuring that they could survive, they had to kill their opponents as much as possible. This was because only by doing so could they get high marks!

He'd been to all sorts of competitions and trials ever since he'd come to Sky Class Island, and while they did encourage competition and conflict, there'd never been a competition like this, where you were forced to kill with points.

All of this could only be attributed to the environment and atmosphere. Compared to the killing competition right now, the trial competitions in the three pavilions of the North Island were simply playing house in a greenhouse. It was simply too comfortable and there were no challenges.

It was unknown if it was just a psychological illusion or if it was really the case, but from this moment on, all the bodyguards from the 32 bodyguard agencies suddenly had an additional layer of frightening killing intent on them. The atmosphere suddenly became unusually heavy, as if they were men of sacrifice who were about to go to war. Layers of dark clouds floated in the sky and pressed down on everyone's heads.

"Brother Qi, what are your plans?" Lin Yi looked at Qi Wenhan, then at the other security agencies.

Because the rules of the South continent escort party were different every year, they had only just learned of the rules. The heads of each escort agency were busy arranging their troops.

This was the first round of the competition. Whether they could win the first battle would directly determine the momentum of the escort agency and would indirectly affect the direction of the next competition. Therefore, it was of utmost importance and no mistakes were allowed.

Hearing Lin Yi's question, all the escorts from the Qitian bodyguard agency looked at Qi Wenhan. The head of the escorts, Qi Mingyuan, was on the stage making the judgment, so the arrangement of the troops fell on the young master's shoulders. Everyone's future and fate naturally fell into his hands.

"Good question, brother Ling. Although the format of the competition is different in every South continent escort agency distinguished meeting, the escort agencies that achieve good results in the end all use the same strategy. There are no exceptions." Qi Wenhan smiled mysteriously.

"Oh?" Lin Yi couldn't help but be interested.

"The strategy is actually very simple. There will definitely be brave men with generous rewards!" Qi Wenhan looked at the bodyguards around him and lowered his voice. "The old man has told me before that the reward for this competition will not be stingy, so I have been preparing for it a long time ago. Otherwise, why would I need to take so long to gather the three hundred thousand spiritual jades that I paid to the Hong family last time?"

Lin Yi suddenly understood-so he was prepared for this.

"Listen up, everyone. For this round of the competition, regardless of whether you're guarding or robbing goods, anyone from the escort agency will be rewarded with 50000 spiritual jades as long as they enter the ring!" Qi Wenhan announced to the crowd.

All the escorts from the Qitian bodyguard agency gasped at those words. Even Lin Yi was shocked. Fifty thousand spiritual jades was not a small amount. Many escorts might not even have that much savings even if they worked hard for more than ten years. The Qi father and son were going all out!

However, when he thought about it carefully, in such a cruel killing competition, every participant was fighting with their lives. Once they entered the arena, it meant that there was a 90% chance of death. This was not a joke. If there were not enough benefits, who would be willing to risk their lives for no reason?

Only with great rewards would there be men of sacrifice. Not only the Qitian escort agency, but the other escort agencies present also gave generous rewards to the participants. In order to get a good ranking in this year's South continent escort agency meeting, this was the most basic sacrifice.

Of course, to the various bodyguard agencies, this kind of effort was not completely without returns. On the contrary, if they could win the competition and even make a name for themselves, the returns would be far more generous than ordinary people could imagine.

This wasn't referring to the competition's rewards, but rather the large merchant associations that had been specially invited to watch the competition. They had already made verbal promises in advance that many of their next large orders would be signed on the spot with the winning party's escort agency!

At that time, the benefits involved would not be as simple as a few tens of thousands of spiritual jades. It would be an astronomical figure that could affect the rise and fall of any escort agency, even the five major escort agencies.

Not only were these orders extremely profitable, but they also directly determined the market share. It could be said to be of great importance. Therefore, Qi Mingyuan and Qi Wenhan had to spare no expense to win, even if it meant preserving their influence!

Fifty thousand spirit Jade! Faced with such a huge reward, all the escorts from the Qitian bodyguard agency began to breathe heavily. Although the other bodyguard agencies had also offered huge rewards, there were only a few that had reached the figure of 50000 spiritual Jade.

After all, the other escort agencies were not as wealthy as Qitian escort agency, which was one of the five major escort agencies. If one person was given 50000 spiritual jades, the first round of the competition would add up to 400000 spiritual jades, including the four guards and the four robbers. That was almost equivalent to the annual profits of those escort agencies. How many agencies could afford that?

Chapter 4414 Improvising

"Young master, count me in!" Someone took the lead to register.

"I'll go too! I'll go too!" The others were not willing to fall behind and enthusiastically signed up one after another, afraid that these eight spots would be snatched up by others.

Lin Yi couldn't help but smile at the situation-money talks. Anyone with eyes could tell that this was a competition with a high chance of death, putting their lives on the line. But with fifty thousand spirit Jade in front of them, they weren't even afraid of being ghosts anymore.

"Good! My Qitian bodyguard agency's bodyguards are indeed all courageous and knowledgeable people. I didn't misjudge you. How about this, those who are willing to fight first come to me and sign up, then I'll choose the candidates from among them!" Qi Wenhan said with relief.

The power of the spiritual Jade was truly infinite. In just a short period of time, more than a dozen escorts from Qitian escort agency had signed up, far exceeding the eight slots required for the competition. This gave Qi Wenhan more or less room to arrange his troops.

The first battle was directly related to the morale of the entire meeting. Whether they could get a good start was of utmost importance. If possible, each escort agency would try their best to send out strong people. Even if they did not send out their trump cards, they would at least send out first-class experts. However, there was an important premise. These people had to be willing to fight.

After all, unlike the sect, which had absolute control over everything of its disciples, the relationship between the bodyguard agency and the bodyguard was purely a relationship of interest and employment. Just like the usual escort work, whether the bodyguard was willing to take on this job or not was entirely up to the bodyguard's own will. The bodyguard agency could not force it, and they would not force it.

A melon that was forcefully twisted would not be sweet. Let's not talk about whether the bodyguard agency would pay for it. Even if they were forced to go on stage, they would only work without putting in any effort. In the end, the bodyguard agency would be the one suffering the losses.

Therefore, if any escort agency wanted to achieve the best effect of arranging their troops in a battle formation, they could only do what Qitian escort agency did. They used benefits to tempt a group of escorts to take the initiative to fight. Only the best among them would have the strength and motivation to truly fight for the honor of the escort agency.

As the young master of the Qitian bodyguard agency, Qi Wenhan had always been in charge of the overall situation. He naturally knew the strength of these bodyguards like the back of his hand. His eyes swept over the faces of these registered bodyguards one by one, and he had already made a decision in his heart. After all, he had been cooped up in the inn making all kinds of preparations these days. His efforts were not in vain.

"Brother Ling, what do you think?" Qi Wenhan turned to Lin Yi. Although he had a conclusion in his heart, he had to consider Lin Yi's opinion. After all, Lin Yi was his most powerful trump card.

"Hehe, brother Qi, you're the Commander-in-Chief. It's your business how you arrange the troops. Whoever you want to go up should go up. Why are you asking me?" Lin Yi couldn't help but smile.

With his strength, he was undefeatable among golden core stage cultivators. This first round might be a near-death experience for others, but it was no pressure for him. Whether he went or not depended on Qi Wenhan's arrangement. If there weren't enough people, Lin Yi wouldn't have any objections if he went up to make up the numbers.

"Haha, two heads are better than one. Brother Ling, you can help me out too. How about it? are you interested in playing?" Qi Wenhan laughed heartily. To Lin Yi, this kind of competition was really just for fun.

"Brother Qi, what's your plan? if you need me, I'll go." Lin Yi smiled faintly before pausing. "But I'm more concerned about the Dragon Boat escort agency. Will Wu Bao Liang fight in the first round? if he does, brother Qi, you have to leave a spot for me."

Wu baoliang was the secret strategist of the poison eye mercenary group, almost on the same level as Cheng haonan. And now, the poison eye mercenary group was also an important foreign aid for the Longzhou escort agency. So, Wu baoliang was to the Longzhou escort agency, just like Lin Yi was to Qitian escort agency. They were both trump cards.

In order to compete for the position of the five biggest escort agencies, if Longzhou escort agency was determined to win the first round, it was very likely that they would send Wu Bao Liang.

Lin Yi's original intention was to target Wu baoliang at the escort meeting this time. Even if he might not be able to draw the Longzhou escort agency, he wouldn't let this chance go. Otherwise, if he couldn't get rid of Wu baoliang at the meeting, he wouldn't be able to find another chance to deal with this guy later.

"Yes. Before we start drawing lots, all the bodyguard agencies have to submit the name list of the participating bodyguards to the judging panel. I'll tell the old master and ask him to take note of it. If there are any, I'll submit your name, brother Ling. If there aren't any, then forget it." Qi Wenhan nodded.

Although he was determined to win the first round, he didn't plan on letting Lin Yi go up right from the start. After all, he gave Lin Yi the position to use his trump card at the crucial moment. If he used it right from the start, not only would it be a waste of talent, but he'd also expose his trump card, putting him in a passive position in the later rounds.

Besides, Qitian bodyguard agency was one of the five big bodyguard agencies. Even if they were the last place, they still had the ability to win. As long as their luck wasn't too bad, they should be able to get a good start with these first-class fighters in the agency. So, there was no need for Lin Yi to go up for the first round.

Of course, if it was because of Wu baoliang that Lin Yi decided to go, then it would be a different story.

Qi Wenhan took a pen and paper and wrote down two names of eight people. One of them had Lin Yi on it, and the other didn't. He prepared it for emergencies and walked towards the middle platform with full energy.

At this time, because the drawing of lots was about to begin, most of the thirty-two bodyguard agencies had already prepared a list of eight people and submitted it to the judging team. However, Qi Wenhan did not hand it in immediately. Instead, he ran up to his father, Qi Mingyuan, and said a few words in his ear. Then, he came back down with the list and waited at the side.

Not only Qi Wenhan, but there were also people from the other bodyguard agencies standing guard. They all had one thing in common, they were all from the five major bodyguard agencies.

First, they had to look at the list of participants from the other escort agencies. After knowing the enemy, they could then make a targeted arrangement. This had always been the privilege of the five major escort agencies. This was something that the other escort agencies couldn't even be envious of.

Because there was no one on the judging team, it was useless even if they deliberately delayed. They couldn't see the list of participants from the other bodyguard agencies, so of course, they couldn't target them. They could only rely on their own strength.

Fortunately, the list was submitted before the drawing of lots. So far, no one knew each other's opponents, so it was relatively fair!

Chapter 4415 Lin Yi

It was unlikely that one of the escort agencies would be deliberately targeted to death. At most, the five major escort agencies would make some slight adjustments to their strategy of arranging their troops and formations. They would not specifically target a single agency.

Therefore, everyone turned a blind eye to it and acted as if they were used to it. As one of the five major escort agencies, one had to have some privileges. In the South continent's Sea area, where the strong preyed on the weak, it was already very rare to achieve such fairness. No one was stupid enough to ask for so-called true fairness.

After waiting for a while, Qi Mingyuan finally saw the Dragon Boat escort's name list. He shook his head at Qi Wenhan, indicating that he didn't see Wu baoliang. Qi Wenhan then handed in the list of eight people he had prepared in advance.

Following that, the representatives of the other five big bodyguard agencies handed in their names. Compared to the newly-promoted Qitian bodyguard agency, they were obviously more experienced.

While Qi Wenhan was waiting for the Longzhou escort agency's name list, they were waiting for the Qitian escort agency's name list, as well as their own name list. The biggest competitors of the five escort agencies had always been each other. The threat that the other escort agencies posed to them was far less than that of themselves.

After all thirty-two agencies had submitted their names, Zhao bufan then gathered all the people in charge of the agency on behalf of the judging panel. Under everyone's supervision, they started to draw lots.

Since ancient times, no matter the form of competition, the drawing of lots had always been the segment where dirty tricks were the most likely to appear. It was also the segment where it was the most likely to have underhanded operations. Therefore, everyone paid special attention to this and paid special attention to it.

As a result, the judges from the five big bodyguard agencies weren't the only ones watching the process closely. There were also other invited guests from different forces. If anyone could do anything under the supervision of so many masters, then they'd have to be as strong as Lin Yi.

Very quickly, the results of the draw were announced under everyone's watchful eyes. Putting aside the results of the other escort agencies, at least the Qitian escort agency's draw was not too bad.

The results of the draw were that the opponent for the escort battle was the Wuma escort agency, and the opponent for the escort robbery battle was the Yongxing escort agency.

Fortunately, be it the horse escort agency or Yongxing escort agency, they were not in the top five escort agencies. They were not now, and they were not in the past. Therefore, in terms of overall strength, Qitian escort agency was obviously stronger.

However, Qi Wenhan wasn't happy at all about the result of the draw. Although the strength of these two escort agencies couldn't be compared with the five major escort agencies, they were definitely not weak. In the last escort agency meeting in the South continent, these two agencies were ranked 11th and 13th respectively.

Moreover, the strength of these two bodyguard agencies was very stable. Not only in the last pageant, but they had basically maintained this ranking in almost all the previous gatherings. In other words, among the thirty-two bodyguard agencies, although the Wuma bodyguard agency and Yongxing bodyguard agency were not considered first-class, they were completely worthy of an above-average evaluation.

More importantly, they were different from Qitian escort agency. In order to deal with the main event later, Qi Wenhan had to consider preserving his strength to avoid a lack of stamina. However, neither the horse escort agency nor the Yongxing escort agency would have such an idea. Their typical strategy was to fight to the death in every match and would never deliberately hold back their strength.

To them, the position of one of the five biggest escort agencies was an unreachable dream. The most realistic goal was to maintain their ranking. It was already a great success for them to be able to get into the top ten. Their previous ranking was achieved by fighting to the death with others. This time, they would naturally have to put in their best effort.

Therefore, these two families were definitely tough to deal with. It was no wonder that Qi Wenhan was frowning. This was his first time leading a team to participate in the South continent's bodyguard agency event. If he made a bad start and failed in the beginning, he would be too ashamed to face anyone.

"There's no need to be nervous. We're the strong side, so there won't be any problems if we perform as per normal. They should be the ones who should be nervous. " Lin Yi said as he patted his shoulder.

"Brother Ling is right, I was too caught up in the situation." Qi Wenhan broke out in a cold sweat. He turned to look at the bodyguards and nodded at Lin Yi gratefully.

The general was the courage of the soldiers. The war had not officially started yet, and if even he, the young master, was already in a panic, the impact on everyone's morale could be imagined. If this fear was allowed to spread, perhaps the Army would really be defeated like a mountain.

Lin Yi smiled. He didn't care much about the Qitian bodyguard agency's results, but he wouldn't just watch Qi Wenhan and the others make low-level mistakes. Even if it was for the sake of their friendship, he had to make sure that the Qitian bodyguard agency could maintain its position as one of the five big bodyguard agencies. Otherwise, it would be embarrassing for Lin Yi, who was the trump card of the Qi father and son.

The bodyguards from the 32 bodyguard agencies rubbed their fists and wiped their palms as they looked at the battle arrangement that was announced on the huge notice board. In the end, under the announcement of the judging team, they entered their respective competition grounds one after another.

For every escort agency, there would be two rounds in the first round of the competition-the escort guarding battle and the escort snatching battle. There was no time to adjust between the two battles, and they would start at the same time.

In the huge demonic cold square, the 32 escort agencies each occupied a space. In the center of each space, there was a treasure chest that had been prepared in advance. This was their sealed package, and it could also be said to be their arena.

Eight escorts would go out for the battle. Four of them would guard the escort items and their own ring, while the other four would go to the other escort agency's ring to Rob them.

With the judge's order, the first round of thirty-two matches began at the same time. In thirty-two different venues, two hundred and fifty-six golden core bodyguards began to fight. The atmosphere at the scene was instantly pushed to a peak. The cheers and shouts soared to the sky and were deafening.

The bodyguards on the field were either attacking, defending, confronting each other, or roaming around. Everyone was on guard as if they were facing a great enemy and did not dare to let down their guard. At this time, the busiest people were not them, but the people in charge of the various bodyguard agencies.

Just like Qi Wenhan, because the two duels started at different locations at the same time, it was impossible to take care of both sides at the same time. He really couldn't attend to both sides at the same time. In the end, he had no choice but to ask Butler song for help and let him supervise another escort battle.

Butler song's position in the Qitian bodyguard agency was not below Qi Wenhan 's. With him supervising the battle, the bodyguards didn't dare to neglect him. However, in the face of Qi Wenhan's request for help, Butler song only shook his head and pointed at Lin Yi.

Oh, right! Only then did Qi Wenhan react. He secretly praised uncle song for his brilliance! He was thinking far and wide!

Chapter 4416 Self-Preservation Strategy

Instead of letting uncle song supervise the battle, it was better to ask Ling Yi for help. On the surface, he was asking for help, but in reality, he was trying to get closer to Ling Yi.

"Brother Ling, I can only entrust this matter to you. You must help this little brother." Qi Wenhan turned to Lin Yi for help.

"Then ... Alright." Lin Yi blinked, but didn't reject the offer.

Although he wasn't as deeply rooted as housekeeper song in the bodyguard agency, with his identity and strength, especially his previous achievements, everyone in the bodyguard agency was in awe of him. It shouldn't be a big deal for him to just supervise the battle.

Besides, Lin Yi was quite interested in this as well-he was used to fighting people himself, but he'd never been a temporary coach before. Today was the perfect day to satisfy his cravings.

Qi Wenhan was in charge of the escort battle, while Lin Yi brought four golden core bodyguards to Yongxing bodyguard agency to Rob and fight.

At this moment, the four escorts from Yongxing bodyguard agency were already on the stage. They were all on guard as if they were facing a great enemy.

Just like what Lin Yi told Qi Wenhan, Qitian bodyguard agency was one of the five big bodyguard agencies after all. The four from Yongxing bodyguard agency were prepared to fight to the death, but they couldn't help but be nervous at this moment. However, the four bodyguards who came with Lin Yi were not nervous at all.

This was how the world was. The more important the battle was, the more critical the situation was. If the enemy was weak, the opponent was strong. This confidence was crucial. If one was afraid before the battle, even if they had a 40% chance of winning, it would be reduced to 30% or even less.

Lin Yi sized up the strength of the four-two were peak late-stage golden core, and the other two were late-stage golden core. Golden core was a relatively strong level, and it was considered balanced.

Unsurprisingly, these should be the best of the best in Yongxing escort agency. Because the escort battle and the escort robbery battle started at the same time and had a time limit of one incense stick, the escort party naturally had a certain advantage over the escort robbery party. Therefore, many escort agencies would put their best men in the escort battle to ensure their scoring rate.

On the other hand, there were four people on his side, one at the peak of the Golden core stage and three at the late stage of the Golden core stage. In terms of pure strength, they were basically on par with the other party. They had neither an advantage nor a disadvantage. As for the direction of the next competition, it would completely depend on the performance of both sides.

"Remember, for the time it takes for half an incense stick to burn, don't make any attacks. At most, make some feints to test the opponent. However, don't get entangled with the opponent. This is a group battle of four people. You must pay attention to protecting each other and not leave any flaws for the opponent." Lin Yi quickly got into the role of a coach.

The four couldn't help but be taken aback. Even if there were duels like this before, no one had ever given him such a detailed strategy before. At most, he'd just stand by and watch. Who would have thought that Lin Yi would be so professional?

They didn't know that Lin Yi was treating himself as a coach from the common world. Everything on the court was done by the players, but a truly brilliant coach would control the flow of the game and decide the final result. It was the same logic.

"But we only have the time for one incense stick to burn. If we don't attack in the first half, I'm afraid that the second half isn't enough, right?" The four people looked at each other hesitantly, and finally, the strongest one, the perfected Jindan stage expert, stepped forward and said.

To be honest, Lin Yi hadn't been in the Qitian bodyguard agency for long, but with his heaven-defying achievements, his dazzling status, and the honorary bodyguard position that chief Qi Mingyuan promised him, the four of them respected Lin Yi a lot and didn't dare to disobey his orders.

However, they were now risking their lives to fight. Whether it was for themselves or for the sake of Qitian bodyguard agency, they had to win this competition. Otherwise, if they did not have this awareness, they would only die faster in the battle given the cruelty of the life-and-death battle.

It was also because of this that they were worried. What if there wasn't enough time and they didn't succeed in stealing the goods? what would they do then?

If they failed, they would not get a single cent. Even if they managed to survive, how could they face the entire escort agency? how could they claim the 50000 spiritual Jade?

After all, they still had to continue working in the bodyguard agency in the future. Everyone was a person who cared about their face. It really didn't feel good to be gossiped about behind their backs or even pointed at in front of them ...

"No, there's enough time." Lin Yi shook his head confidently and analyzed the situation for the four, "Don't get it wrong. This kind of competition may seem like a life-and-death battle, but the key point is not the killing, but the escort item."

"Ah? Aren't we all fighting for the number of heads?" The four of them could not help but look at each other. This first round was supposed to be a robbery, but anyone who had read the rules would know that this was obviously a contest of points based on kills. As for the tribute, it was just a symbolic gimmick.

"Hehe, if it's just a simple fight, don't you think it's too lacking in skill? This kind of simple and brutal strategy is very effective when you have the absolute advantage, but look at the strength of the other side. If you really fight like this, what do you think your chances of survival are?" Lin Yi asked.

"This ..." The four people suddenly choked. They were not fools. The strength of both sides was equal. Once the competition developed in a brutal direction, it was not impossible for the whole team to be wiped out. It would be very rare for two people to survive in the end.

"Remember, this match is not a simple fight. What you need to do is not only kill your opponents, but more importantly, protect yourself. The key to this is the box of sealed items." "According to the rules, whoever gets the escort item will naturally have the initiative," Lin Yi said seriously. "As long as you have the initiative, you'll be able to control the flow of the game and ensure that you'll be able to get points and retreat safely."

Hearing this, the four people's eyes suddenly lit up. They were indeed holding the belief that they would fight to the death, but if they could score points and retreat safely at the same time, who would really complain about their life being too long?

"Escort leader Ling, just tell us what we should do. We'll listen to you." The Golden core Paragon took the lead to express his opinion.

"That's right, that's right, we'll do whatever you say!" Immediately after, the other three also nodded in agreement.

Chapter 4417 Mocking

"It's very simple. Just do as I said. Use the first half of the incense stick's time to probe. When the opponent reveals a flaw, then use all your strength. " Lin Yi paused and pointed at the four bodyguards one by one, "One, two, three, four, remember their numbers and pay attention to my instructions later. When the time comes, you guys will work together to kill whoever I tell you to. There is absolutely no hesitation. Do you understand?"

"I heard you clearly!" The four of them looked at each other and nodded heavily. Then, they turned around and entered the arena with great momentum. Whether they won or lost, it all depended on this one move.

Seeing that the four men from Qitian bodyguard agency were on the move, the four men from Yongxing bodyguard agency, who had been on standby, looked at each other and suddenly became more nervous. They did not know what the other party was planning, but they could at least feel that the other party was definitely up to no good!

"So this is all that the Qitian bodyguard agency is capable of!" On the opposite side of the field, a woman suddenly shouted deliberately. From her dress and the attitude of the people around her, she should be the person in charge of Yongxing bodyguard agency.

Lin Yi looked at her in surprise. It was hard for female cultivators to survive in such a chaotic South continent Sea area, and this woman was the head of the Yongxing bodyguard agency.

"Only by overwhelming everything in a bloody battle can one win to the end. All other conspiracies and tricks are laughable and self-deceiving. Hmph, they don't even understand such a simple truth. It seems like the Qitian escort agency really can't find anyone who can hold up their image. Last time, they were just lucky enough to get into one of the five major escort agencies. They don't deserve their reputation." The woman sneered without hiding anything.

Everyone's attention was immediately drawn to her, and Lin Yi's eyes fell on her as well, but he only smiled slightly, not planning on retorting. He wasn't in the mood to argue with a woman in this situation.

Putting everything else aside, the woman's words at least had an effect. The four escorts from Yongxing bodyguard agency were obviously not as nervous as before. Deliberately belittling their opponents might have side effects, but at least it could build confidence. In a situation where their strength was equal, confidence was more important than anything else.

At this moment, the participants from both sides had already stood in their positions. As the staff of the conference lit incense, the first round of the robbery battle between Qitian escort agency and Yongxing escort agency officially began.

A person's reputation was like the shadow of a tree. After all, Qitian escort agency was one of the five major escort agencies. It was only natural that they would have the upper hand in terms of mentality and aura.

In such a situation, the people from Yongxing bodyguard agency thought that the other party would not say anything and directly pounce on them like the autumn wind sweeping away the fallen leaves. However, in reality, the four people from Qitian bodyguard agency were very careful. They maintained a tight formation that allowed them to look out for each other. They watched from afar and confronted them. They did not have the slightest intention of attacking.

"See that? This is your opponent. This kind of cowards who have been muttering for so long without even a single bit of manliness. As the party who robbed the goods, they are like tortoises who only know how to hide in their shells and not dare to move. Is it possible for such a person to be our Yongxing bodyguard agency's opponent? If we can't even beat this kind of trash, we can all go and eat shit!" The woman began to yell again.

The surrounding audience burst into laughter. Although the escort leader of Yongxing bodyguard agency was a woman, her words were far stinkier than other men. Moreover, she did not need to be as particular about bearing as men. No matter how she spoke without thinking, no one would blame her. She was simply infuriating.

The four men from the Qitian escort agency were clearly losing their cool after being provoked so brazenly by this woman. They had come here to fight with their lives on the line, not to listen to this woman's unbridled ridicule. They could not afford to lose face in front of so many people.

Moreover, in front of women, men were naturally a kind of extremely competitive creature. Even if they were beaten to a pulp, they would still pretend to be fat. This was an innate instinct, and it had been written in the genetic map in advance before they were even born.

The four of them couldn't hold back their anger and finally launched their first attack. It was the strongest one in the complete gold core realm who took the lead. However, he was not completely overwhelmed by anger. Although he attacked in anger, he consciously picked the weakest late gold core among the four as a breakthrough point.

Lin Yi watched from the side and didn't stop them. He did tell the four to hold back for half an incense's time, but it wasn't a bad idea to test the waters.

On the other side, the female escort leader of Yongxing bodyguard agency suddenly revealed a sneer of success. Although she was a Shrew, she would not mock and ridicule her in front of so many people without caring about her image. The reason why she deliberately did this was to stimulate the opponent to take the initiative and advance.

The party guarding the escort had a natural advantage. As long as they could spend the time it takes for an incense stick to burn and keep the escort items, they could ensure that they would get points. However, the female escort leader of Yongxing escort agency would not be satisfied so easily.

She had placed her four strongest bodyguards in this escort battle. As for the escort robbery battle, she didn't have any hope at all. Her opponent was the most powerful of the 32 escort agencies, the four Seas escort agency. It would be a fool's dream to get points from them.

This escort battle was of utmost importance to the entire Yongxing escort agency. Not only did they have to score, but they also had to score as many points as possible. Only in this way could they not be outdone by the other escort agencies.

Therefore, it was not enough to just protect the sealed package. She had to think of ways to make the other party take the initiative to advance and make mistakes. Only then could she gain some points from Qitian bodyguard agency. From the looks of it, her provocative strategy was obviously effective.

In terms of individual strength, this expert at the great circle of the Golden core stage from Qitian escort agency was the strongest among the eight people present. The breakthrough point he chose was the weakest late golden core stage among the eight people. At first glance, it seemed very wise. However, since Yongxing escort agency dared to use such a provocative strategy, how could they not have any countermeasures?

"City-burning Inferno!" The four men from Yongxing bodyguard agency suddenly joined hands and formed a seal. Four walls of fire suddenly soared into the sky without any warning, instantly trapping the lone cultivator in the great circle of the Golden core stage. From the looks of it, they wanted to take advantage of this opportunity to annihilate him in one fell swoop!

"Not good, quickly save him!" Fortunately, the Qitian escort still remembered Lin Yi's instructions and didn't let a golden core peak stage take the risk alone. The other three were a step behind, but they could at least provide support.

Thinking of this, the three of them hurriedly joined forces to attack ... "

Chapter 4418 Sit Down And Rest First

With the help of the perfected golden core realm cultivators who were trapped in the fire wall, they finally managed to break through a fire wall and open up a retreat path for their own people.

However, even so, the Golden core Paragon was still in a sorry state. Not only was his body blackened by the other party's fire, but there was also a pungent burning smell on his body, like a coal miner ...

"You're quite something," Lin Yi, who was at the side of the field, frowned. It seemed like the other side came prepared. This combination attack was obviously trained specially. The two sides seemed to be equal in strength, but if they were to fight head-on like this, the four of them had very little chance of winning.

"Yo, you were still cowering and not daring to attack just now. A bunch of thousand-year-old B * stards. Why did you suddenly become a rabbit spirit and run away so quickly?" The woman from Yongxing bodyguard agency put her hands on her hips and continued to sneer at them, causing the crowd to laugh out loud.

The faces of the four men from Qitian bodyguard agency instantly turned as black as the bottom of a pot. If it wasn't for the rules of the competition that prohibited them from taking a step out of the venue, they would have even wanted to grab this B * tch and give her a good beating. But now, even if they had any anger, they could only vent it on the four bodyguards.

However, with the previous lesson, the four people did not dare to act rashly. After all, the other party's burning city move was really not a joke. If the other three people had not rescued him in time, the strongest one of them, the perfect Jindan stage, would have been burned to ashes.

However, if they cowered and did not dare to go up, that woman's words would definitely become more and more unpleasant. Not only would the four of them be embarrassed, but the entire Qitian bodyguard agency would also become a laughingstock. What were they going to do?

The four couldn't help but turn to look at Lin Yi, who was at the side of the field. They could only place their hopes on this honorable escort leader.

Lin Yi, on the other hand, looked at the incense stick-it wasn't even half an incense's time yet, and there was still some time before he expected it to be. He smiled faintly at the four, "Let's do it again,"

One more time? The four of them were all confused, but Lin Yi's calm expression made them feel like they were being influenced by him, and their panic disappeared.

The four looked at each other and nodded. Since Lin Yi asked them to test him again, they had nothing to say. They would try again!

"Hehe, you're barely acting like a man. But this time, I'll make sure you don't get to leave!" The woman from Yongxing bodyguard agency sneered when she saw this.

The previous attack was actually the best opportunity, but the other party managed to escape. It was a pity. He could only say that the other party was not as careless as he had imagined. Even after being taunted and provoked by him, he was still able to maintain the formation to support each other, which led to the failure of the final plan.

However, it didn't matter. They had specially selected Four Masters with fire spiritual roots to practice this move for a whole year. In order to cultivate their tacit understanding, they didn't even allow them to go out to deliver goods. They wanted to show off their brilliance at this South continent escort party.

Although the events of each year's South continent bodyguard agency Grand meeting were different, the essence was the same. There was bound to be a group showdown, because this was the most common situation in the real world. No matter how the situation changed, it could not change much. Therefore, Yongxing bodyguard agency had made preparations for this at all costs.

It was jointly performed by two peak late Jindan stage experts and two late Jindan stage experts. Moreover, they had practiced it together for an entire year. The power of this move, burning city in raging fire, was simply invincible at the level of the Jindan stage. No matter how the other party tried, it was in vain. It was simply a wishful thinking to break through their own defense line!

The four men from Yongxing bodyguard agency had completely entered the zone after the face-to-face encounter just now. There was a faint fluctuation of true Qi between the four of them, and it was clear that they were connected as one. The scorching fire that was emitted from their bodies seemed as if it would devour them at any moment, giving people an extremely dangerous and ominous feeling.

Compared to before, the four men from Qitian escort agency were obviously more cautious in their probing attack this time. They still chose the perfected golden core realm cultivator as the breakthrough point and chose the late golden core realm cultivator as the breakthrough point. The only difference was that the formation of the four men was more compact this time. It was more convenient for them to take care of each other and at the same time, they were not easily separated by the other party.

City-burning Inferno! Another wall of fire rose from the four islands. This time, it wasn't just the peak golden core stage that was affected. The other three men from the Qitian escort agency were also affected. Although they managed to break out of the wall of fire, they were all covered in a burnt smell and looked extremely pathetic.

The surrounding crowd could not help but point at them. Qitian escort agency was one of the five major escort agencies and they had thought that Qitian escort agency would at least have the upper hand. However, from the looks of it now, they had no advantage at all. They were simply being completely crushed by Yongxing escort agency.

From the looks of it, Yongxing bodyguard agency was likely to become a big Dark Horse this year and replace Qitian bodyguard agency!

"Hmph, Hmph. You don't know what's good for you. I advise the four of you to hide obediently and not move. Otherwise, you will all be burned to black ashes and say that our Yongxing bodyguard agency is going too far. If that happens, it will be embarrassing for everyone, right?" Seeing this, the woman chattered even more, as usual, stimulating everyone's nerves. She was a typical example of someone who wouldn't let go of someone who had the upper hand.

"What do we do?" The four men from the Qitian escort agency gritted their teeth. They could not take this lying down, but they did not dare to act rashly. They had already suffered two losses in a row. The first time, they could say that they had underestimated their enemy, but they could not say the same for the second time. If this continued, they had no chance of winning at all!

"Second brother di, is this going to work? do you have the confidence to kill Shorty number four?" The few of them looked at the perfected golden core realm. This man's surname was di and he was the second son of his family. Therefore, everyone in the bodyguard agency called him second brother di.

As for the Shorty they were talking about, it was the number Lin Yi had called out earlier, the weakest late-stage golden core cultivator.

"It'll be very difficult. Although this Shorty number four isn't much, when he works together with the other three, their cooperation is very tacit. If we attack him, we'll have to deal with all four of them at the same time. If we really want to force him, at least two of us will die first. " Second brother di shook his head helplessly.

Everyone couldn't help but be silent. At least two people from their side had to die in order to replace the weakest late jiedan stage expert on the other side. There was no chance of winning at all. What could they do?

They had no choice but to turn to Lin Yi for help again, only to see him smile and point at the half-burnt incense, still calm, ""It's not time yet, let's sit down and rest. "

Chapter 4419 Establishing The Situation

Ha? The four were dumbfounded, but Lin Yi didn't look like he was joking. They sat down, still skeptical. At this point, if they were to fight it out on their own, they'd all be annihilated. They might as well trust this honorable escort leader.

Following Lin Yi's instructions, the four Qitian bodyguard agency members really did sit down cross-legged in front of everyone. This scene shocked the surrounding people, and they were all confused.

"What is this kid trying to do?" The head female escort of Yongxing bodyguard agency was also stunned.

She had put in a lot of effort for this escort agency meeting in the South continent. Even though she had drawn two of the five biggest escort agencies, the four Seas escort agency and the Qitian escort agency, and her future seemed bleak, it did not stop her from being ambitious. Even if she could not take down the four Seas escort agency, she was definitely going to take down the Qitian escort agency that had delivered itself to her door today!

After the two confrontations, Yongxing bodyguard agency was in a good position. Everyone thought that the outcome of the battle was decided and it all depended on how many people from Qitian bodyguard agency would die. Who would have thought that Qitian bodyguard agency's response would be so unexpected?

Sitting cross-legged ... Could it be that seeing that he couldn't win, he was prepared to admit defeat?

The female escort leader at the side of the stage was confused for a moment. As time passed, the four people from Yongxing bodyguard agency, who were originally full of arrogance, became impatient instead.

Before they went on stage, they had been instructed not to leave the sealed package and take the initiative to attack. Therefore, even if the people from Qitian escort agency were lying down and sleeping, they did not dare to attack without permission.

"Hmph, such a small trick. You're actually playing a psychological attack on me?" The female escort leader thought that she saw through Lin Yi's evil intentions and gave up on her original plan with a cold smile. She waved her hand, "Since they don't dare to go up, then let's go up and kill them all. I'll definitely get 80 points!"

As soon as he said that, the four escorts from Yongxing bodyguard agency were like tigers who had been shackled. They instantly bared their sharp claws and immediately attacked together. They had been waiting for this sentence!

Faced with the menacing and powerful enemy, the four men from Qitian escort agency could not help but feel nervous. Even though they were determined to fight to the death, they were really helpless against the raging fire of the enemy. They had no way of doing anything.

The four of them looked at Lin Yi, but he didn't move at all. As the enemy got closer and closer, they gritted their teeth and stood up. They had no choice but to trade their lives for his. Even if they had to lose two lives, they had to break through Shorty number four!

"Kill!" The four of them suddenly exuded an indomitable and tragic aura. They knew that there was a Tiger in the mountain, but they still chose to venture into the Tiger Mountain. They used their actions to clear the name of the Qitian escort agency. There were no weaklings among the five big escort agencies!

"Ridiculous." The female escort leader of Yongxing bodyguard agency laughed contemptuously. The raging inferno that she had painstakingly trained for a year was the least afraid of fighting head-on with others. It would be fine if you were a Yuanying stage expert, but if you were only a Jindan stage expert, you would be courting death if you fought head-on.

In the four-person formation, the late-stage golden core seemed to be the weakest link, but if he was really used as a breakthrough point, he would not even know how he died.

The audience at the side of the stage could not help but hold their breath. The first round of the competition was a meat grinder of death. It was a four-on-four battle, and no one knew how many of them would survive.

The two sides were about to clash, and Lin Yi's voice suddenly rang out, "Number one!"

The rest of the crowd had no idea what he meant. While they were still confused, they saw the four men from the Qitian escort agency suddenly change their target. They changed their target from the weakest late golden core cultivator to the strongest peak late golden core cultivator!

"Haha, I've never seen such a stupid person. Originally, only two of them would die. This time, your entire Army will be annihilated!" The female escort leader of Yongxing bodyguard agency immediately laughed complacently. She couldn't even break through to the weakest late golden core stage, yet she wanted to go for the strongest peak late golden core stage. If this wasn't courting death, what was it?

However, the woman's laughter had just started when it stopped abruptly. It was as if a duck was suddenly grabbed by the neck, and it was unspeakably funny.

However, the crowd did not find it funny at all. Each and every one of them had their mouths wide open and could not close it for a long time. This was because at this moment, the strongest person from Yongxing bodyguard agency, who was at the peak of the late golden core stage, was actually killed by the combined forces of the four people from Qitian bodyguard agency in one move!

This scene shocked everyone. Even the four men from the Qitian escort agency found it unbelievable.

Previously, he could not even break through the weakest late Jindan stage. In addition, in that instant, the other party did not have the slightest intention of underestimating the enemy and going easy on him. He was still arrogantly burning the city with fire. But why did it become so easy after he changed his target to the strongest peak late Jindan stage?

At first, they thought that at least two of them would die, but now, none of the four people were dead. They were only injured.

"How did you know?" The Butler was standing behind Lin Yi.

"It's very simple. Their city-burning Inferno relies on the tacit understanding between each other. Although the late Jindan stage is the weakest on the surface, his cooperation with the others is the most tacit, which makes him the most difficult to break through. On the other hand, the strongest peak late Jindan stage is the exact opposite, so he is the best point to break through." Lin Yi smiled faintly.

Since he claimed to be a temporary coach, he naturally had to fulfill his duties as a coach. Although he was just standing on the sidelines and doing nothing, he had been observing the other side's flaws.

Before the other party took the initiative to attack, this flaw was not too obvious. But now, it was like a fly on a bald head, obvious.

The female escort leader of Yongxing bodyguard agency's face turned ashen as she watched her own people fall. City-burning fire was a joint attack of four people and could not be used without any one of them. She was finished.

"Young hero Ling is a genius, this old man is impressed." Housekeeper song said with heartfelt admiration. With the situation developing to this point, everyone could see that the overall situation had been decided. One member of Yongxing bodyguard agency had died. Not only had their joint attack been broken, but the sealed package had also been snatched away by the four people from Qitian bodyguard agency. The situation was already over.

"Haha, elder song, you're too kind. I just like the expression on some people's faces when they eat shit." Lin Yi smiled and glanced at the arrogant escort leader.

The gazes of the surrounding people suddenly became contemplative (just now, this female escort leader had publicly declared that she would eat

Chapter 4420 An Uproar

This time, the female escort leader lowered her head in silence, not daring to speak anymore. She didn't even dare to look at the crowd, and sneaked like an ostrich.

In the end, this duel ended with Qitian escort agency's complete victory. They successfully snatched the sealed package. None of their four men died. At the cost of two of them being seriously injured and two of them being slightly injured, they successfully killed two of the other party's men. The final score was sixty points!

This kind of battle record was already considered very high in the entire scene. After all, it was limited to Jindan stage experts. The gap between the escort companies could not be fully reflected, so it was very difficult to have a completely one-sided situation.

One had to know that even the strongest Four Seas escort agency only got 50 points in the escort battle, which was 10 points lower than the Qitian escort agency!

However, when the escort battle and the escort snatching battle were combined, the four Seas escort agency was actually in the lead. This was because they had won the escort battle against the second-string lineup of Yongxing escort agency and obtained 70 points. In total, they had 120 points!

On the other hand, although the Qitian escort agency had performed outstandingly in the escort robbery battle, on the other side, the performance of Qi Wenhan, who was personally in charge of the escort battle, could only be described as pathetic.

The only reason why the escort robbery battle was so spectacular was because of Lin Yi's last-minute command. Otherwise, forget sixty points, they might not even get the escort item. They wouldn't even get a single point and would have to lose a few lives.

Qi Wenhan, on the other hand, didn't have Lin Yi's commanding awareness at all. He was the same as the other escort companies, at most telling them to look out for each other. There were no effective tactics to speak of. Qi Wenhan's only role as the young master was to raise morale.

The strength of the Wuma escort agency was even stronger than that of the Yongxing escort agency. Moreover, the style of this escort agency had always been to fight to the death with others regardless of the cost. Therefore, as long as they had a competition every year, it would always develop in the direction of the most tragic outcome. This time was no exception.

In the end, out of the four people from the horse escort agency, three of them died on the spot, while the remaining one was severely injured and on the verge of death. As for the Qitian escort agency, although they managed to protect the sealed package after much difficulty, they also lost three lives!

In the time it took for an incense stick to burn, six people had lost their lives in succession in the small arena. There was dazzling blood everywhere. Even though everyone had been used to all kinds of killing in the South continent sea and their nerves had long been numb, they still couldn't help but be afraid to look at such a bloody scene.

Qi Wenhan's face turned ashen, and he was speechless for a long time. Although he had thought that this competition would not be so easy, after all, the horse escort agency was publicly acknowledged to be an extremely difficult bone to chew, he had never thought that it would be to this extent!

In order to secure points for the escort battle, he sent all of the best fighters in the agency to the battle. The strength of the team was even higher than Lin Yi's team, but they ended up in such a cruel situation. How could he accept this?

Looking at the ghastly corpse on the ground, not only Qi Wenhan, but the other people in the bodyguard agency also had a serious expression on their faces. They couldn't help but feel sad for the death of their kind. Just a few minutes ago, they were still talking and laughing with each other. But now, they were separated by yin and yang. Moreover, they were killed in front of everyone. This feeling was really creepy.

If they were the ones fighting instead of these people, they would have been dead bodies by now.

It couldn't be helped. This had always been the style of the South continent escort agency meeting. It was extremely bloody and cruel. If any escort agency wanted to stand out, they not only needed to be powerful, but they also had to risk their lives. If they didn't pay a big enough price, how could they stand out?

Qi Wenhan's face was extremely dark. There were only a few top-tier experts in the bodyguard agency, but three of them had died in just one round. This price was too heavy. The only consolation was that they had paid the price of three lives. This round of the bodyguard battle was finally passed without any mishaps. In the end, they had obtained 40 points.

It wasn't a high score, but if you didn't consider the cost, it was barely acceptable. However, it was nothing compared to Lin Yi's battle record.

Not only did Lin Yi bring the four of them back safely, but he also successfully got sixty points. This gave the heavy-hearted Qitian bodyguard agency a shot of adrenaline, and the young master Qi Wenhan, who had been hit hard, was no longer so worried. He thanked Lin Yi repeatedly-Lin Yi had helped him out of a difficult situation.

This was his first time leading a team to participate in the South continent bodyguard agency meeting. It was time for him to show his leadership ability and establish his prestige. If he did not have any outstanding achievements, even if he was Qi Mingyuan's only son, he would inevitably be gossiped about behind his back and it would be difficult for him to truly take over the Qitian bodyguard agency.

But now, Lin Yi was here to save them. Everything else aside, at least in terms of points, it was far beyond their expectations. It was enough to make everyone in the bodyguard agency happy.

The total points for the first round of the escort battle and the escort robbery battle were 100 points. Although it was not comparable to the 120 points of the four Seas escort agency, it was definitely among the best. It was not inferior to the other five major escort agencies at all, and might even be better.

The first round of the competition had ended. When the rankings of the escort companies were announced on the huge bulletin board, the entire venue was in an uproar.

The four Seas escort agency was undoubtedly ranked first, while the two other escort agencies were tied for second place-the divine Wind escort agency and the Qitian escort agency!

The divine Wind escort agency was not a big deal. For so many years, it had always been one of the five major escort agencies and was recognized as a traditional powerhouse. Its strength and Foundation were almost on par with the four Seas escort agency. No one would find it strange that it was ranked second. However, the fact that the Qitian escort agency could also tie for second place really surprised many people.

Although Qitian escort agency was one of the five major escort agencies in name, it was the last company that managed to catch the last bus last time. In the past, it had always been wandering around the top seven or eight.

If it were not for the fact that one of the five major escort agencies, Yuantong escort agency, had internal strife and had all sorts of good luck during the previous competition, Qitian escort agency would not have been able to become one of the five major escort agencies under normal circumstances.

Therefore, in the eyes of most of the insiders, the Qitian escort agency was picked up by pure luck and was definitely not worthy of its name. This time, they were all waiting to see the joke. They even set up a bet on the people who would fall out of the Big Five, 80% and 90%.

They had never expected that the Qitian bodyguard agency would be able to display such strength in the first round of the competition. They did not lose out to the traditional powerhouses at all. If this continued, many of the people present would be bankrupt!
