

Bodyguard 4451

Chapter 4451 The Final Match

Even boundless sea didn't dare to do it so openly. He'd said that he wanted to be fair and just. Besides, he wasn't the only one making decisions at the escort party. There were still four other judges, and Qi Mingyuan was one of them. When the time came, they'd definitely stand up to object.

"This might be a little troublesome, but it's not a big problem. From what I know, among the higher-ups of the Qitian bodyguard agency, only Qi Wenhan and Ling Yi are golden core stage experts. The others are not. So, once you issue a challenge, the one to fight will either be Qi Wenhan or Ling Yi." Boundless sea laughed.

After suffering such a huge loss in the hands of Ling Yi, he had done his homework on the Qitian bodyguard agency for the past two days. He knew the entire agency like the back of his hand.

"Only these two? that's easy! Qi Wenhan is the young master in charge of the bodyguard agency, so he can't do it himself. That leaves Ling Yi!" Long kuiba immediately became happy again, but at the same time, he couldn't help but feel ashamed. He had been an old rival of Qitian escort agency for so many years, but his understanding of them was not as deep as boundless sea 's. The other party was indeed the Overlord of the escort agency in the South continent.

"Hmph, it doesn't matter even if Qi Wenhan goes up personally. At most, we'll just beat him down and force Ling Yi out!" Wu Bao Liang's face was full of arrogance.

He didn't even care about people like Qi Wenhan. He didn't even care about Ling Yi, who had crippled old Kong. He was only here to avenge Cheng qiantian, but since he had offended him today, he had to kill him.

Thinking of tomorrow's situation, Cheng haonan and the other two couldn't help but look at each other and laugh, as if they had just won a great battle, feeling extremely proud.

Cheng haonan did it for revenge, Wu baoliang did it to vent his anger, and long kuiba did it for the rise of Longzhou escort agency. As long as they followed the established script, the three of them had at least a 90% chance of achieving their goal, or even more!

"Yes, that's all I can help you with. You must grasp this opportunity and Don't Let Me Down." Boundless sea smiled.

"Don't worry, escort leader hai. As long as we follow the plan, Ling Yi will definitely die. The Qitian escort agency won't be able to be happy for long!" Long kuiba and the other two nodded their heads in unison and then said their goodbyes, "It's getting late. The three of us will take our leave now. Escort chief hai, you can just wait to watch the show tomorrow. "

"Alright, take care." Boundless sea laughed as he sent the three out the door. Watching the three leave with pride, the corner of his mouth suddenly curved into a mocking smile. "A bunch of country bumpkins."

To be honest, the head of the escort agency had only thought of challenging this special rule on the spur of the moment when he saw Cheng haonan and the other two. At first glance, it seemed that other than the Qitian escort agency and Ling Yi agency, the Longzhou escort agency would benefit the most from this special rule.

This was because Wu Bao Liang's strength was only at the Golden core stage on the surface, but his internal strength could fight against a master of the middle stage of the nascent Soul Stage. It was difficult to find a second person like him in the other escort agencies. In the competition where only golden core stage Masters could participate, this guy was undoubtedly an unsolvable big killing weapon. It was difficult for other escort agencies to compete with him.

Under such circumstances, the Longzhou escort agency would naturally have the last laugh. By then, not only would they be able to trample on the Qitian escort agency, but they would also be able to take advantage of this situation to rise to the top. It was even possible that they would be able to compete with the traditional big families like the four Seas escort agency.

But what kind of person was boundless sea? He was the one who had single-handedly turned the four Seas escort agency into the Overlord of the South continent. How could he be so stupid as to make the wedding dress for others? Especially three strangers who obviously had bad intentions?

Whether it was Cheng haonan, Wu baoliang, or long kuiba, they couldn't be considered idiots. It was just that if these three were put together with boundless sea, they really could only be the ones who had been sold and were still counting the money. Their power and tactics weren't on the same level.

The reason why he proposed this special rule was naturally to deal with Ling Yi and achieve the goal of killing him with a borrowed knife. On the other hand, it was to clear the obstacles for the four Seas escort agency.

Based on the results of the past South continent escort events, the strongest was the four Seas escort agency. Especially since this was their home ground, boundless sea had long since regarded the first place as something within his grasp.

However, boundless sea had never imagined that the tournament would suddenly break out of his control from the second round onward, to the point where it had evolved into this awkward situation. Seeing that the final round of the competition was approaching, it was obvious that he had no choice but to use some strong medicine. In the end, Cheng haonan's group of three had just happened to come forward.

In boundless sea's eyes, these three people from the Dragon Boat escort were clowns, but they were also a knife ready to cut. Not only could they kill Lin Yi, but they could also destroy the new Qitian escort.

Once the Super dark Horse, Qitian bodyguard agency, was no longer in the way, which of the remaining bodyguard agencies would be a match for the four Seas bodyguard agency?

As for the Longzhou escort agency, it would swallow a large amount of points from the Qitian escort agency. Even if they became the new dark Horse in a short time, so what?

Boundless sea wasn't worried about this at all. If that really came to pass, he only needed to expose Wu Bao Liang's identity as a black magic cultivator and the Longzhou escort agency would collapse on its own. Let alone becoming the new leader of the escort agency, even if they were surrounded by a whole group of escort agencies, they might not even be able to survive.

After all, the escort agency was a righteous force recognized by the South continent. Which righteous force would use a heretic practitioner as their trump card? wasn't this courting death?

So no matter what, boundless sea felt that he was in an undefeatable position. As for Cheng haonan and the other two, they were just pitiful bugs that he had sold and were still helping him count the money ...

The night passed uneventfully. When the sun rose the next day, moleng square was once again crowded with people. The number of people who came from all directions to watch was obviously more than twice as many as the previous two days! Everyone knew that today was the final round of the conference. The mystery of who would have the last laugh and become the new bodyguard agency Overlord would be revealed today.

This time, as usual, it was boundless sea who came forward to announce the rules of this round.

There wasn't much room for change in the final round. The judges had already discussed it. Even the onlookers who had a deeper understanding of the escort agency event in the South continent could guess it in advance.

However, among the many people in charge of the bodyguard agency present, someone still raised his doubts. They were not like the others who were here to watch the show. They had to completely understand the rules of the competition beforehand and were not allowed to have any doubts. Otherwise, the entire bodyguard agency would be at a disadvantage.

"Escort leader hai, since each escort agency only has the right to challenge and be challenged twice, can we reject the other party when they challenge us?"

Chapter 4452 Raising A Question

One of them stood up and asked, while the other one also asked loudly, ""Also, everyone knows that you should pick the soft persimmons to pinch. What if everyone chooses the same opponent and conflicts with each other?"

"It's very simple. If any escort agency is challenged, they can't refuse the challenge until they have used up all their challenge rights twice. If there are more than one escort agency challenging at the same time, the challenged party will choose their opponent." Boundless sea replied.

With that said, everyone no longer had any doubts. They all became alert and at the same time, they secretly sized up the other bodyguard agencies, thinking about their next countermeasures.

In this last round of the competition, the bodyguard agency's strength was important, but there was one more important thing. The selection of opponents was the key to victory and defeat. There was no room for any negligence.

But just as everyone was rubbing their hands together, thinking that the competition was about to begin, Boundless Sea suddenly added another rule. It was the rule he had told Cheng Haonan and the others about challenging the head of the escort agency.

As soon as he finished speaking, the crowd was still busy digesting the new rule. The other four judges sitting on the high platform were completely confused and puzzled.

This challenge rule wasn't even on the list of rules they had discussed before. They hadn't even heard of it. They didn't think Boundless Sea would suddenly do this in front of everyone. He was clearly acting first and reporting later!

This way, everyone thought that this was the result of a joint discussion by the judges. If they stood up to question it now, not only would they publicly slap their faces and offend Boundless Sea and the Four Seas escort agency, they might even have to bear unexpected consequences. If the event went out of control because of this, no one could afford to take the risk.

Thinking about that, although Zhao Bufan and the others had ugly expressions, they suppressed it. After all, this extra challenge rule didn't cause them any loss and might even be an opportunity.

Other than the Qitian escort agency, the other five big escort agencies, including the four Seas escort agency, did not have any high-level golden core stage cultivators at all. They were all traditional wealthy families. The strength of a golden core stage cultivator was at most considered average or even below average among the escort agencies. They could not even at least convince the masses, so how could they become high-level leaders like the escort leaders?

As a result, boundless sea suddenly added a new challenge rule. As long as they didn't do anything stupid, they naturally wouldn't lose points. On the contrary, if they could find the weak ones, they could earn extra points. In other words, they were in the position to benefit from it, so why not?

Among the crowd, only Qi Mingyuan's expression changed after he heard the whole story. The other five escort agencies did not have any golden core stage senior executives, but his Qitian escort agency did!

If Qi Mingyuan couldn't even smell the conspiracy behind boundless sea's sudden move, then he would be too slow. In fact, the first thought that popped into his mind was that boundless sea was targeting the Qitian bodyguard agency!

It wouldn't have been so bad if there was a limit to the number of challenges, but the problem was that boundless sea had clearly said that any participant could challenge him, and there was no limit to the number of challenges.

The sinister intentions behind it were obvious!

Qitian bodyguard agency only had Qi Wenhan and Lin Yi, and they were the only two people who could take on the challenge. Although there were few golden core stage cultivators who could match up to these two, a Tiger couldn't hold up against a pack of wolves. Their Qi would run out one day. They were confident that they could win the first two or three rounds, but what about the rest?

Unlimited challenges. If they really did it this way, as long as the two of them were exhausted, the other bodyguard agencies who were eyeing them covetously could continue to challenge them until the end of the meeting. It would not matter if they fought for an entire day.

As long as they did not kill both of them, the other escort agencies could continue to challenge them and gain points from them. In that case, no matter how great the advantage Qitian escort agency had previously, these points would not be enough to compensate for the losses ...

Qi Mingyuan, who was on the stage, had already thought of this. Naturally, Qi Wenhan, who was below the stage, had also thought of this. Furthermore, he was 100% sure that this plot was not aimed at him, but at Ling Yi!

The tallest tree in the forest was bound to be destroyed by the wind. Previously, Ling Yi had been in the limelight during the competition all by himself. He had turned the Qitian escort agency into a super dark Horse and trampled the four Seas escort agency under his feet. Boundless sea had long been furious from embarrassment. Now that he had suddenly done this, who else could he be targeting other than Ling Yi?

"This guy claims to be fair and just, but this challenge rule is clearly aimed at us. He wants us to wear us out to death by taking turns. He can't compete fair and square, so he used such a despicable method. It's too sinister!" Qi Wenhan couldn't help but grit his teeth.

Qi Wenhan didn't know that in the eyes of the other party, they didn't even need to take turns to fight. They only needed Wu Bao Liang to take care of him and Ling Yi. As long as they left one alive, they could farm points however they wanted. No one could stop them!

"Looking at the judges" expressions, Boundless Sea must've added this rule at the last minute. This guy, isn't he a bit too reckless?" Lin Yi couldn't help but frown. Everything else aside, this place was full of conspiracy. It didn't feel good to be targeted.

"That's right. Why didn't dad say anything about such a big thing?" Qi Wenhan mumbled.

Before he could finish his sentence, Qi Mingyuan suddenly stood up on the stage. He was one of the five judges after all. How could he not retaliate at all when faced with such malicious rules? Qi Mingyuan was not a coward.

"Escort leader hai, there seems to be an imperfection in the challenge rules for the leader of the escort agency. It needs to be supplemented." Qi Mingyuan cleared his throat and said.

There was a sudden uproar. Everyone looked at each other in confusion. In the past, it was the people-in-charge of the bodyguard agency who asked this question. Why was it Qi Mingyuan's turn to make the judgment this time? he was one of the rule-makers of the game. How could he not know?

For a moment, everyone's gazes became contemplative. The smart ones had already noticed that there was something fishy about this.

"Oh? Does chief escort Qi have any objections?" Boundless Sea raised an eyebrow. He knew that Qi Mingyuan wouldn't be so willing to take a loss and would definitely retaliate. However, he had already prepared an excuse, so he wasn't worried at all.

"The point of unlimited challenges is a little too rigorous for the competition of the Grand meeting. It's easy for people to find loopholes. If there are opportunists who take advantage of this to gain points wantonly, where will the fairness of the Grand meeting be?" Qi Mingyuan questioned righteously.

Chapter 4453 Wheel Tactic

Now that things had come to this, he knew that it was unrealistic to completely deny this rule. The only thing he could do now was to minimize the negative side to him.

"Farming points?" Boundless sea pretended to laugh and shook his head. "Escort leader Qi, you're thinking too much. All the participants must be limited to the Golden core stage. As a higher-up of the escort agency, if you can't beat an opponent of the same level and even get your points deducted, then you're too incompetent, right? What's the point of keeping such an incompetent high-level manager? it's a good thing for all the escort agencies to get rid of this trash as soon as possible!"

"Escort leader Hai's words are too much. If it was a limited number of one-on-one matches, then there's nothing to say about the loss. However, if it's a tag-team battle, no matter how strong you are, you'll eventually get tired. If you can't even guarantee the fairness, then what's the point of this competition?" Qi Mingyuan laughed coldly.

Seeing everyone nod their heads, boundless sea couldn't help but be taken aback. He looked at Qi Mingyuan again. He didn't think that this guy who used to be a martial artist would actually have such sharp words.

"Oh? Since you're so agitated, could it be that your family's interests have been damaged and you're afraid that the Qitian escort agency's golden core stage higher-ups will become a breakthrough point for others? It's one of the five biggest escort agencies, why are you so unconfident?" Boundless sea asked with interest.

"Escort leader hai, you're thinking too much. I'm just purely judging the matter as it is. I have to fulfill my duty as a judge." Qi Mingyuan replied sternly.

"Alright, since you've put it that way, I'll take the matter as it is. The purpose of all the competitions held by the escort agencies in the South continent is to test and improve the strength of the major escort agencies. Any situation that may be encountered in the real world can be included in the competition. This is the principle. I'm sure you don't have any objections, chief Qi?" Boundless sea said.

"No, I didn 't," Qi Mingyuan shook his head.

"Then let me ask you, when your Qitian escort agency is delivering goods, will you be attacked by Pirates and bandits one after another? They wouldn't be so reasonable as to discuss a one-on-one fight with your bodyguards and decide the winner in one round, would they?" Boundless sea sneered.

The audience burst into laughter. Who would want to be a pirate if they were reasonable? let alone one match to decide the outcome, even one-on-one was nonsense. They had always been bullying the few with numbers!

"This ..." Qi Mingyuan suddenly choked. He was stunned for a moment before he said,""Even so, since it's a fair and just competition, the rules can't leave such an obvious loophole. Wouldn't that be letting people blatantly farm points?"

"Hehe, chief escort Qi, you keep talking about loopholes and accumulating points. Aren't you feeling too guilty? are you afraid that your Qitian bodyguard agency can't do it?" Boundless sea didn't hide his mockery."The South continent's Sea area is a place where the strong prey on the weak. Let's not talk about whether there's really a loophole for people to gain points. Even if there is, everyone can make use of the rules reasonably. In the end, there will only be one result: the weak will become weaker, and the strong will become stronger. It makes everyone more clear who is stronger and who is weaker. There's nothing wrong with this, right?"

Qi Mingyuan looked at the crowd's reaction and saw that many people nodded in agreement. His heart sank and he didn't know how to refute.

In other places, boundless sea's words might have been criticized for being unjust, but in the South continent's waters, it was a principle everyone followed. Everyone did what they did, so no one would object.

"Of course, nothing can be accomplished without rules. The order of the challenge will be decided by drawing lots. Everyone will compete fairly based on their strength. Why don't we have the other judges raise their hands to vote in front of everyone?" Boundless sea glanced at Qi Mingyuan.

"No need," There was no need to ask about the attitudes of Zhao bufan and the others. From their silent agreement, it was obvious. Even if they voted publicly, it wouldn't change the result. It would only make the rule more confident. However, Qi Mingyuan couldn't just give up like that. He said, ""I just want to add one last point. The high-level escort agency should have a chance to catch their breath during the competition, right?"

The situation was completely under his opponent's control. Qi Mingyuan knew that it was unrealistic to even change the rules, let alone completely negating them. Since things had come to this, he could only fight for it one last time.

"A chance to catch your breath?" Boundless sea's eyebrows twitched, and he retorted, ""Are all the Pirates your family's bodyguard agency encounters so reasonable? Would I even give you a chance to breathe?"

"What's impossible?" Qi Mingyuan retorted, "in reality, the Pirates wouldn't reason with us. However, in reality, a few escorts would come forward to fight. If one of them is exhausted, they can naturally retreat and rest. Is that strange?"

Everyone below the stage nodded their heads. After all, the challenge was for the leader of the escort agency to fight alone. If he was continuously challenged by others and did not have a chance to catch his breath, it would be unreasonable.

"That makes a little sense." Boundless sea saw everyone's reaction and knew that he couldn't go too far. It didn't matter if he gave up a little, so he said, ""If you want to catch your breath, sure, but you can't rest forever. After all, if we really encounter Pirates, anyone who rests for a while will have to go up, or else all of their companions will die."

"Then what time do you think is appropriate, escort leader hai?" Qi Mingyuan said, staring at boundless sea.

"The time it takes for an incense stick to burn, no longer than this." Boundless sea said firmly. He looked disdainfully at Qi Mingyuan from the corner of his eyes. "Do you have any more questions, head escort Qi?"

Qi Mingyuan had wanted to fight for it, but when he sensed boundless sea's ill intentions, his heart suddenly quivered. He was afraid that if this guy didn't talk much with him, he would directly ask the judges to raise their hands to vote. If that happened, he wouldn't try anymore. He would have to stop before he went too far.

"Very good. Since there are no more questions, let's get ready. The fifth round of the escort agency competition will begin immediately." Boundless sea laughed smugly. At the same time, he didn't hide his disdainful look at Qi Mingyuan. A martial artist was a martial artist after all. He actually wanted to argue with him in front of everyone. Why didn't he take a piss and take a look? did he even have the brains?

The crowd was in a heated discussion. They weren't anticipating the next bodyguard agency competition, but the implications behind boundless sea and Qi Mingyuan's sharp exchange were just too thought-provoking.

Chapter 4454 Not Worried, But Happy

At this moment, anyone with a little bit of knowledge could tell that the Qitian escort agency was being specially targeted this time around. The challenge for the head of the escort agency was almost tailor-made for the Qitian escort agency. In the eyes of the other escort agencies, the Qitian escort agency was naturally a piece of fat meat.

After four rounds of competition, Qitian escort agency had a huge lead of 400 points over the second place. Initially, they had almost secured the first place. However, now, the situation had become uncertain again. The existence of the last additional challenge could make any impossible situation become possible.

"Even father can't do anything about it. This is really troublesome." Qi Wenhan's expression turned ugly as he looked at this scene. He scratched his head and turned back and forth.

"Brother Qi, you don't have to worry. There's nothing more to say. We'll deal with whatever comes our way." Lin Yi consoled.

"That's true, but I can't accept the fact that the great situation that you have created with so much effort has been wiped out in such a shameless way!" Qi Wenhan angrily clenched his fists.

It was already a pleasant surprise for Qitian bodyguard agency and him to be last in the Big Five last time, but this time, because of Lin Yi's presence, they were the dark horse with the most support and the highest chance of getting first place. It felt like a dream.

But now, boundless sea's simple challenge rule was going to shatter this dream. Who would be willing to accept this?

"Brother Qi, I don't think there's a need to act like a little girl. Since they're deliberately targeting us, we can just fight them back one match at a time. For us, this is also a rare opportunity to score points, isn't it?" Lin Yi said with a smile.

"But what if they're really so shameless that they're blatantly using a tag-team battle to exhaust us?" Qi Wenhan was still indignant. After a moment of silence, he suddenly said firmly, ""Brother Ling, I can tell that this matter is obviously targeted at you. I'm really sorry. You've competed for our bodyguard agency, but you've been seen as the one who stands out. How about this? if someone challenges you later, I'll be the first to fight!"

After all, he was the young master of the bodyguard agency. Although he was still furious, Qi Wenhan's mental strength was far above ordinary people. He quickly suppressed his anger and regained his calm.

With the situation developing to this point, the rankings and points that were previously the most important to him and the entire Qitian escort agency were no longer as important. Even if they lost today's final battle, it would still be a glorious defeat!

After all, there were many discerning people present. They could tell that the Qitian escort agency was being maliciously targeted. That was why they were pulled down from the top position. At the very least, the previous four rounds of the competition were enough to make the name of the Qitian escort agency deeply rooted in the hearts of the people.

The winner was King and the loser was a Bandit. Although if they lost in the end, it would more or less affect the business of the escort company and even cut off the future prospects of the Qitian escort company, it would not be much worse than the current situation. At most, they would still develop in the Ying Luo Sea area. There would still be a place for them to stand and they would not lose their jobs because of this.

In comparison, Qi Wenhan's biggest worry was Lin Yi's safety.

Lin Yi only agreed to help out in this year's South continent escort party because he was a friend and had made such a great contribution after his repeated begging. If Lin Yi were to lose his life because of this, then the entire Qitian escort company would have to bear the blame.

"Brother Qi, you're the young master who's in charge of the overall situation. How can you personally go up and fight?" Lin Yi smiled and patted his shoulder, "Since you've said that you're coming for me, then I'll have to go first. Otherwise, if I hide like a turtle and don't go, these people will be very disappointed and might even kill you."

"This ..." Qi Wenhan was shocked and speechless. What Lin Yi said wasn't impossible, it was very possible!

According to the rules of the challenge, there was no limit to the number of times a participant could challenge a golden core stage member of a certain escort agency. Even if he couldn't challenge Ling Yi directly, if Qi Wenhan were to fight first, the other party could easily kill him. If they continued to challenge him, Ling Yi would have no choice but to fight.

"So in the end, I'm still the one who has to fight. Instead of taking this meaningless and unnecessary risk, it's better to let me fight directly." Lin Yi said faintly.

"Sigh ..." Qi Wenhan could only sigh deeply and did not say anything else. He did not know what to say.

Just as Lin Yi said, even if he, the young master of the bodyguard agency, went to the front line, he wouldn't be able to change the situation at all. What could he do now?

Qi Wenhan was frowning, but Lin Yi, who was in the eye of the storm, seemed to be completely at ease.

In fact, after Lin Yi heard boundless sea's rules, his first reaction wasn't worry at all. Instead, he was happy!

With Lin Yi's strength, although he was only a mid-stage golden core cultivator on the surface, he was the strongest golden core cultivator who had broken through perfectly. With all his powerful trump cards, it was more than enough to say that he was invincible among golden core cultivators.

Plus, Lin Yi wasn't like the other Masters-he didn't have to worry about running out of energy, and the Jade space had an endless supply of pure energy. Basically, no matter how many golden core cultivators came at him, they'd all end up the same-killed instantly by Lin Yi and giving Qitian bodyguard agency some points. There was no other possibility.

More importantly, Wu baoliang was the military advisor of the Longzhou escort agency. He was also a high-level in the agency, and a peak golden core at that. He completely fulfilled the rules of challenging the head of the agency. Since other people could challenge Lin Yi, Lin Yi could challenge Wu baoliang too!

This was a very rare opportunity. He had come all the way to the South continent's Sea area and participated in the South continent escort meeting on behalf of the Qitian escort agency. Wasn't it all to deal with Wu baoliang?

Just like how Cheng haonan and the others were having a headache over how to guarantee that they'd be able to fight Lin Yi, Lin Yi was also having a headache over this, but he didn't want to go the wrong way-he'd just go with the flow. It'd be good if they met, but if they didn't, he'd just think of a way later.

Even Lin Yi didn't think that this was a turning point in a situation where luck was needed. Since the guy came to him, why would Lin Yi reject him?

Chapter 4455 How To Challenge

"But ..." Qi Wenhan was still worried. He couldn't think of an effective plan in a short time, but he couldn't just stand by and watch Lin Yi being attacked.

In the worst case scenario, even if he knew that it was useless, he would still take the lead. Even if it meant exchanging his life for his, as the young master of the Qitian bodyguard agency, he had to let everyone know that the people of the Qitian bodyguard agency would not allow anyone to provoke and bully them!

"No buts!" Lin Yi interrupted without hesitation. "Rather than worrying unnecessarily, brother Qi, you'd better calm down and think about the upcoming bodyguard agency competition. That's what you should be doing."

"Uh, alright then. We'll talk about this after the bodyguard agency competition." Qi Wenhan's attention was immediately diverted. No matter how dangerous the challenge for the head of the escort agency was, it was a matter for the future. The most important thing now was how to deal with the escort agency competition.

Putting aside the last additional challenge, which was quite controversial, the fifth round of the escort agency competition was the highlight of the escort agency event in the South continent. Not only would it determine the points and ranking, but the true strength of each escort agency would also be revealed to everyone in this round of competition.

"Five against five. This rule is basically the same as the first round of tribute robbery. The only difference is that there is one less tribute and the scoring method is different." Qi Wenhan quickly analyzed.

"That's right. Although the time limit is the same, it doesn't count as points. It depends on who has the most people alive. The winner will take 100 points from the loser. It doesn't seem like a big difference, but in terms of specific strategies, it's different. We need to make some adjustments." Lin Yi nodded.

"That's right, brother Ling, you're an expert in this field. I'll listen to you whatever you think I should do!" Qi Wenhan humbly asked.

"How am I an expert in this? I was just lucky. " Lin Yi couldn't help but chuckle-he'd only been acting as a coach on a whim, and now he was being treated like a pro ...

"Brother Ling, you don't have to be modest. The battle record is right there. This is irrefutable evidence. There's no use in being modest. Everyone has seen it, right?" Qi Wenhan shouted to the bodyguards beside him.

"Right!" Everyone chimed in in agreement. Lin Yi's guidance in the first round was very effective, and the results weren't bad. Especially when compared to Qi Wenhan, who was the young master of the sect. The two were obviously better.

To everyone, this wasn't just a compliment. It was a huge benefit. According to the first round of robbery, if Lin Yi was in charge, at least half of them would survive. But if Qi Wenhan was in charge, at least half of them would die.

There was a huge difference between coming and going. For the participating bodyguards, it was the difference between life and death!

"Ha ... Alright, alright, alright!" Lin Yi surrendered under everyone's excited gazes, "'I'll do my best to come up with a plan for everyone. This should be fine, right?"

All the bodyguards immediately cheered and jumped for joy, attracting the sidelong glances of the people around them. They looked at each other and thought, "did these guys from Qitian bodyguard agency take the wrong medicine? the fight hasn't even started and they're already celebrating in advance?"

"Brother Ling, quickly tell us how we should deal with this escort agency competition." Qi Wenhan asked impatiently.

"There are two aspects. The sparring is one aspect, and the planning outside the field is another. To some extent, the latter may be more important than the former, because the former is just a tactic, while the latter is a strategy." Lin Yi didn't try to deny it anymore and analyzed it for everyone.

Everyone looked at each other, some nodding as if they understood, but some were completely confused.

"What brother Ling means is that the most important thing is to make good use of the right to challenge twice and the right to be challenged twice?" Qi Wenhan understood immediately.

"That's right. The plan outside the battlefield determines the overall situation. If we can make good use of these four opportunities, we can get twice the result with half the effort and take the initiative. Otherwise, it will be a little troublesome." Lin Yi nodded.

Only then did everyone understand the rules of the escort tournament. It only stated that each escort agency had the right to challenge twice and be challenged twice. However, there was no restriction on who could issue a challenge first or who could issue a challenge to whom. In other words, all of this was up to the escort agency to decide.

In that case, the water in this matter was very deep. For Qitian bodyguard agency, there was nothing much to say about being challenged twice. They could only passively accept the challenge without much choice. However, as for how to use the two challenge rights, they would have to plan it well.

"Who do we challenge? When do you want to challenge me?" Qi Wenhan immediately grasped the key to the problem.

"That's right. As long as we can deal with these two key problems, everything else can naturally be solved." Lin Yi praised.

Qi Wenhan couldn't help but fall into deep thought. These two questions didn't seem difficult, but if he followed his own train of thought, there were only two strategies. One was conservative, and the other was radical.

If they were more conservative, they would naturally pick on the weaker ones. As long as they challenged the weaker escort agencies, with the strength of Qitian escort agency, they could guarantee two victories. As for the remaining two times, they only needed to go all out and fight as hard as they could.

This way, with the first two victories at the bottom, even if they lost the next two matches, they could at least guarantee that they would not lose any points in this round of the escort agency competition.

Due to the huge advantage they had accumulated from the previous four rounds, even if the second-place Divine Wind escort won all four rounds, they would only get 670 points at most, which was the same as Qitian escort agency. In other words, the worst result after the five rounds of competition was to tie with Divine Wind escort for first place. There was nothing unacceptable about that.

This was the most conservative strategy. In addition, there was another more radical strategy, which was to not challenge the small escort agencies, but directly challenge the major escort agencies that could pose a threat to him, such as the second-ranked Divine Wind escort agency. Once he won, he would be the first without any suspense.

Of course, everything had its pros and cons. If he failed, he would have to bear the risk of being overtaken by the elite escort companies. Not only would he not be able to keep the first place, but he might not even be able to get the second or third place.

Chapter 4456 Unprepared

If Qi Wenhan had to choose, he'd choose the first option for safety reasons, but with Lin Yi as his coach, he felt that even if he had to face a rich bodyguard agency, his chances of winning might not be too low.

After all, in the long run, if the Qitian bodyguard agency wanted to rise to power, they would have to have a few real fights with these traditional wealthy families. If they kept retreating, they would only be a fake wealthy family and would never become a real big force.

Moreover, there was another factor that they had to consider. They knew that the challenge to be the head of the bodyguard agency was not beneficial to them, so they had to be prepared. The more points they had, the more confident they would be when it came to the challenge.

"Brother Ling, do you have any countermeasures?" Qi Wenhan couldn't think of a better way to deal with the situation and asked Lin Yi for help.

"My strategy is very simple, stop the movement with silence." Lin Yi smiled faintly.

"Ah? How do we stop the movement with stillness?" Qi Wenhan quickly asked.

"Hehe, the rules of the competition didn't state how long it would take to make a decision. We can just bide our time and see how the other teams are doing." Lin Yi said with a smile.

"But what if those soft persimmons that are easy to pinch are all snatched and pinched by others, leaving behind some hard bones that are difficult to gnaw on? what should we do then?" Qi Wenhan couldn't help but worry.

Every escort agency only had two chances to be challenged. Once the opportunity to challenge the weaker escort agencies was snatched away by the other escort agencies, it would be useless for Qitian escort agency to regret it.

"Brother Qi, do you think our Qitian escort agency is considered the strong or the weak among the 32 escort agencies?" Lin Yi looked at Qi Wenhan and asked.

"This ... Of course he's a strong one." Qi Wenhan hesitated for a moment, then said firmly.

"Since you're strong, you should have the temperament of the strong. Taking advantage of the weak is the privilege of the weak. It has nothing to do with us. We should keep a close eye on the real threatening competitors and wait for the opportunity to make a move. This is what we should do." Lin Yi said faintly.

"Brother Ling's guidance is truly enlightening. This little brother has learned a lot!" Qi Wenhan bowed deeply to Lin Yi in front of everyone, as if he had just been enlightened.

Before this, he'd always thought of himself as the last of the five big bodyguard agencies, and didn't have much confidence when facing the traditional rich families. But after hearing Lin Yi's words, he finally realized what was going on and broke out in a cold sweat.

He was ahead of the second place by a whole 400 points. If he had not been maliciously targeted, he would have almost secured the first place in advance. As the young master of such a bodyguard agency, if he did not even have such a bearing, how could he become a great person in the future?

As the two of them spoke, hai Wuliang had already announced the start of the highly anticipated fifth round of the escort tournament!

The moment boundless sea finished speaking, the five people in charge of the escort agencies stood up almost at the same time. They couldn't wait to issue a challenge, and the one they were challenging was the same agency, the ten thousand miles escort agency.

He was ranked 32nd, and his total score from the four rounds was zero!

This was the only bodyguard agency out of all of them that didn't receive a single cent. If one were to say that the weakest of the 32 bodyguard agencies was the ten thousand miles bodyguard agency, then it would definitely be the one.

As a small escort agency that barely qualified to join the South continent escort agency Alliance, their combat power was already so weak that it made people's hair stand on end. After the third round of the loyalty test, all ten participating escorts had defected, and the morale of the escort agency had dropped to the freezing point. From the chief to the ordinary escorts, everyone was in low spirits and lost their souls.

Any passer-by could tell that this ten-thousand mile escort agency was a piece of fat meat. No matter who came, they could take it away in one bite without any difficulty.

The others did not have the awareness of a powerhouse like the Qitian bodyguard agency. It was obvious that they had 100 points. Only a fool would not Rob them!

"It's simply like a vicious dog snatching food. This manner of eating is too ungiving face." Lin Yi couldn't help but smile when he saw the depressed expression on the head's face.

"It's no wonder that they're so nervous. Although every bodyguard agency has two chances to be challenged, the ten-thousand mile bodyguard agency obviously only has one chance. If they miss this opportunity, they won't have another chance." Qi Wenhan nodded.

According to the rules of the South continent's escort agency event, any escort agency that had a negative score would be immediately terminated and disqualified.

The ten-thousand miles escort agency had zero points now, so they could still be challenged by other escort agencies. However, once they reached -100 points, they would be out of the game. Other escort agencies could forget about getting points from them.

Being challenged by five escort agencies in a short while, they instantly became the focus of the audience. Everyone pointed at them and talked about them. This feeling was so depressing that they wanted to die. The ten thousand miles escort agency hesitated for a long time before finally picking a slightly weaker escort agency. The two parties began to fight.

Of course, none of the five escort agencies that jumped out to challenge the ten-thousand mile escort agency were in the top five. After all, they were all wealthy escort agencies. If they were too unsightly, they would be laughed at.

Qi Wenhan looked at Lin Yi gratefully. If it wasn't for Lin Yi's advice, he might have jumped out himself. Even if he couldn't get this opportunity, the Qitian bodyguard agency would become a laughing stock.

The results of the opening match of the escort tournament came out very quickly. The ten thousand li escort agency had no desire to continue fighting. In the face of a Wolf-like opponent, they had no power to resist at all. After giving up 100 points, they were eliminated as expected.

Immediately after that, the eyes of the escort agencies immediately turned to the next soft persimmon. For most of the people in charge of the escort agencies, other than the ready-made points, everything else was fake.

This time, the five major escort agencies remained unmoved. Of course, even if they joined, it would be useless. Unless they were crazy, otherwise, these "popular" escort agencies would not pick them as their opponents. Not only would they not gain any opportunities by joining, but they would also be laughed at. These were all traditional wealthy families with deep foresight. They were not stupid ...

Just as Lin Yi expected, the fifth round of the escort tournament only had the lower-ranked agencies fighting in the first two hours. It was only after two hours that the five big agencies finally made their appearance, and the first to make their appearance was the famous Qitian escort agency.

He didn't take the initiative to attack. Instead, he was challenged by someone. The other party was his old opponent in the first round of the escort battle, the Wuma escort agency.

This time, the Qitian escort agency was caught off guard. After all, according to Lin Yi's strategy, they were going to stay still and wait for the other competitors to make the first move. But now, they had no choice but to fight.

Chapter 4457 Death Warriors

"Is there something wrong with this horse escort? You lost to us in the first round, and now you're biting us like a Mad Dog, and even took the initiative to challenge us. Do you think we're soft persimmons?" Qi Wenhan couldn't help but be angry.

He was a little apprehensive about this Crazy Horse escort agency. Although he had won the first battle, he had paid for it with three lives. It could only be said to be a Pyrrhic victory. If they were to fight again, he really could not guarantee that he would win.

To be honest, the horse escort agency was definitely the type of agency that had more strength than reputation. Although they were ranked eleventh in the last tournament, in terms of strength, they could easily be ranked in the top ten.

"They're probably doing this to make a name for themselves. We're just being used as stepping stones." Lin Yi looked at the points leaderboard-the Wuma escort had 160 points, ranked 13th out of all the escort agencies. It wasn't outstanding compared to their strength, and was just barely passable.

If things continued to develop normally, the best outcome for the horse escort agency would be to squeeze into the top ten. As for becoming one of the five biggest escort agencies, that would be wishful thinking.

He had the strength, but the points he accumulated were not ideal. Seeing that there were not many opportunities, he might as well challenge the highly anticipated heaven's equal bodyguard agency instead of following the usual routine. This was the shortcut to quickly increase his influence!

"A stepping stone? He would dare!" Qi Wenhan's anger grew even more intense. The horse escort agency was like a scar in his eyes. When he thought about the tragic victory in the first round, he couldn't help but feel angry from embarrassment, especially when the other party had actually taken advantage of him and used the Qitian escort agency as a stepping stone!

"Brother Qi, there's no need to be angry. Actually, from their perspective, it's not impossible for them to think this way. First of all, although our points are high, we're just a Dark Horse in everyone's eyes. Our strength has not been truly recognized. Second, our performance in the first round might have made them think that our bodyguard agency's strength is actually just so-so." Lin Yi said with a faint smile.

"Hmph! This bunch of snobbish bastards!" Qi Wenhan snorted coldly. For a moment, he couldn't say anything. It was his fault for not performing well in the first round of guarding the escort battle, which gave the other party an opportunity.

However, even though he was angry, when he really had to face this horse escort, Qi Wenhan still felt a little apprehensive. It was like a Hedgehog with spikes all over its body, making it impossible for him to bite it. Qi Wenhan had no intention of challenging it, but now, the other party was taking the initiative to stick to him. He couldn't even avoid it.

"Now that things have come to this, there's no need to think about anything else. This battle is of utmost importance. As long as we do it well, it'll be enough to deter the other escort companies and make them not dare to act rashly. However, if we make a mistake, the consequences will be unimaginable." Lin Yi said seriously.

Everyone nodded their heads in awe. Their Qitian bodyguard agency had been in the limelight in the previous four rounds of competition, but they had not had a strong record of fighting head-on after all. There were probably many people who were dissatisfied in private, but they did not dare to act rashly because they were not clear about their background.

This time, once the horse escort agency opened up a gap, the heaven's equal escort agency would no longer be an unparalleled Overlord in the eyes of the other escort agencies. Instead, it would be a delicious piece of fat meat. Any escort agency with the slightest bit of ambition would definitely not let go of this excellent opportunity to become famous and would definitely rush up to take a bite.

"Soldiers are trained for a thousand days, but they can only be used in one moment! Brothers from Qitian bodyguard agency, it's time to use you. Just like before, everyone who goes up will be rewarded with 50000 spiritual jades. Those who are willing to fight, step forward!" Qi Wenhan encouraged.

"There are!" Everyone responded in unison and immediately stood out to form a line without any hesitation. Other things aside, at the very least, the Qitian bodyguard agency's sincerity to them, the bodyguards under them, was definitely not inferior to any of the other aristocratic bodyguard agencies. They all had the same thought about risking their lives for the bodyguard agency. It was worth it!

Lin Yi raised an eyebrow at the scene. There were more than thirty escorts here, and all of them were willing to fight for the agency. Even Qitian bodyguard agency couldn't compare to this level of morale, let alone the other bodyguard agencies. It was clear that the cohesion they'd gained over the past two days wasn't just a little bit.

"Very good!" Qi Wenhan was overjoyed and turned to Lin Yi, "Brother Ling, I'll leave the rest to you, including me. Whoever you say will go, and we'll fight as you say!"

"Hehe, brother Qi, you can forget about it. If the young master of the bodyguard agency has to go on stage personally, he will be looked down upon no matter who wins or loses." Lin Yi shook his head and laughed. He looked at the bodyguards and picked five.

One peak-stage golden core, two peak-stage golden core, and two late-stage golden core-this was the lineup Lin Yi picked. They could be considered the first line of the Qitian bodyguard agency, but they weren't the strongest.

Lin Yi was saving his strength on purpose-this was only the first round, and he couldn't just go all out like a gambler. After all, these bodyguards weren't like Lin Yi, who used up most of his Qi after one round and couldn't recover it in a short time. They could only rest off the stage and couldn't fight again.

"Is ... Is this okay?" Qi Wenhan asked in a low voice. In his mind, even a Lion would use its full strength when hunting a rabbit, not to mention the horse escort. They were not easy to deal with. If they underestimated their enemy, they would easily fail.

"No matter if it's possible or not, I've already chosen one. I can't just change people at the last minute, right? this is a great taboo in the military." Lin Yi looked at him with interest.

"Oh, oh." Only then did Qi Wenhan react. He quickly covered his mouth and apologized. He said that he'd leave everything to Lin Yi. If he interrupted now, he'd be eating his own words. Who did he want everyone to listen to?

At this moment, the staff of the event came over to urge everyone to go on stage. The five participating escorts from the horse escort agency were already standing on the stage valiantly and spiritedly.

"F * ck, they're all men of sacrifice. No wonder they're known as a mad escort agency. Everyone in the agency is a mad man who doesn't care about their lives!" Qi Wenhan's eyes twitched.

The other party's battle formation consisted of one complete golden core, one peak late golden core, and three late golden core. In terms of physical strength, there was not much difference between them and his side. However, the aura that these five people emitted seemed to have four words written on their faces-they were not afraid of death.

A death warrior and an ordinary person, even if both sides had the same strength, if they really fought, the death warrior would definitely have a higher chance of winning. This was something inevitable!

Chapter 4458 Nothing Much

Qi Wenhan had suffered this loss during the escort battle. This was the reason why everyone saw the Wuma escort agency as a tough nut to crack.

Qi Wenhan couldn't help but feel a little guilty. The strength of the five bodyguards on his side was on par with the other party, but if they really fought, they might suffer a big loss.

"It seems like this horse escort agency has been brainwashing these bodyguards." Lin Yi was taken aback, but he didn't show any signs of worry.

"Ah? Brainwashing?" Qi Wenhan thought for a moment before he understood the meaning of this word. He nodded heavily and said, "Yes, it's brainwashing. I heard that the entire Wuma escort agency is managed by the military. Three times a day, in the morning, afternoon, and evening, the higher-ups of the escort agency have to give a speech, saying things like loyalty and service to the escort agency ..."

"This kind of opponent is indeed not easy to deal with. The death Warriors are indomitable and unstoppable. Unless one's strength is much higher than them, ordinary experts will be at a disadvantage." Lin Yi nodded, deep in thought. He turned to the bodyguard beside him, "What do the five of you think?"

"I'll follow escort leader Ling's orders!" The five participating bodyguards said in unison.

"Okay, I'll ask something off-topic first. Do you guys usually play games? It's a game that children often play, like a prison in a painting, chasing around in a circle, and so on?" Lin Yi suddenly asked, interested.

"Ha? Make a game?" The five participating bodyguards, as well as Qi Wenhan and the others beside them, were dumbfounded when they heard this.

"Yes, a game. I was thinking that since the other party is so aggressive, how about we play a game with them first?" Lin Yi said seriously.

"Ugh ..." Everyone was speechless. They looked at each other-if it weren't for Lin Yi's amazing performance, they'd be wondering if there was something wrong with this guy's brain.

Finally, under the staff's constant urging, the five participants from the Qitian bodyguard agency walked up to the stage with strange expressions on their faces. Lin Yi, Qi Wenhan, and the others stood beside the stage to watch the fight.

"What's with the slow movement? After all, we're the Super dark Horse of this year's conference. Your Qitian escort agency can't be afraid of our Wuma escort agency because you're feeling guilty, right?" The head of the Wuma escort agency, Wu conglong, who was supervising the battle, opened his mouth and sneered.

Other people might be intimidated by the heaven-defying momentum of the Qitian bodyguard agency, but Wu conglong would not. In all the past events of the bodyguard agencies in the South continent, the Qitian bodyguard agency had never had an advantage over him. It was the same this year. He knew better than anyone how strong the Qitian bodyguard agency was.

"Hehe, it's not an important match anyway. The result has already been decided. We'll just take it slow. What's the matter if it's earlier or later?" Lin Yi smiled faintly.

There was an uproar outside the arena. Judging from the current ranking, the horse escort agency was indeed not even worthy of carrying the shoes of the Qitian escort agency. However, everyone knew that the horse escort agency was a tough nut to crack. Even a traditional wealthy family like the four Seas escort agency did not dare to look down on them. Wasn't this a little too arrogant?

"Hmph, he only got a lot of points by luck. He didn't even fight a decent hard battle. His strength isn't that great, but his tone is quite big!" Wu Cong long was instantly furious.

He was the absolute ruler of the horse escort agency. The moment he was angry, the five men of sacrifice immediately assumed a posture of death. They were like mad Dogs, wishing they could swallow the people from Qitian escort agency alive. An ordinary person would probably be so scared that they couldn't even stand up when standing in front of them.

The five bodyguards Lin Yi picked out weren't cowards, but it was like a mouse meeting a cat in front of these people. They didn't seem like they were on the same level.

"One of them only got 160 points, which is equivalent to a small number of our passerby escort agency, but you're saying that we're arrogant. I'm really speechless. I can only answer you with two words, hehe." Lin Yi continued to smile back at him, his condescending and calm attitude infuriating Wu conglong.

At this moment, the audience had a completely different impression. Even though the head of the Qitian bodyguard agency was very stubborn, the five participating bodyguards on the field all seemed to be cowering. Instead, they seemed to be frightened by the other party. No matter how they looked at it, it did not seem like the demeanor of the number one bodyguard agency ...

"You have a sharp tongue and you still dare to laugh at me? let's see if you can still laugh later!" Wu Cong long laughed coldly, he suddenly shouted,""Brothers, they are the number one escort agency. They don't have any respect for our Wuma escort agency. What do you think we should do?"

"Whoever dares to insult my horse escort will be crushed to pieces!" The five horse escorts roared in unison.

"He's really been seriously poisoned. This brainwashing, tsk tsk." Lin Yi couldn't help but shake his head and laugh at this scene. He didn't say anything else, because his goal had been achieved, and the competition had officially started.

As soon as the judge gave the order, a long incense stick was lit at the side of the stage. The five horse escorts on the stage could not wait any longer. They roared and pounced on the five men from the Qitian bodyguard agency. In front of their ferocious momentum, the five men from the Qitian bodyguard agency were like quails. They did not have any morale to fight against them.

"Qitian bodyguard agency can't really be a second-rate company, right?" The spectators couldn't help but look at each other, and what happened next further confirmed this suspicion.

In the face of the menacing Wuma escort, the five escorts from Qitian escort agency did not seem to realize that they were the powerhouses from the five big escort agencies. Their reaction was even worse than the weakest ten thousand miles escort agency. They did not even think about fighting back. Instead, they turned around and ran!

The entire place was in an uproar, including boundless sea and the others. Even Qi Mingyuan himself, who didn't know the inside story, was flabbergasted. Not only did he not accept the challenge, but he also turned around and ran. This was the first ever escort agency event in the South continent!

The only consolation was that the five men from Qitian escort agency still had some sense of shame. At the very least, they didn't run off the ring immediately. Instead, they ran for their lives on the ring. If they did, they would be considered out and defeated, and the battle would end there and then ...

Even so, the crowd was still dumbfounded when they saw the chaotic situation in the ring. The five Qitian escorts were being chased around the ring by escort Wuma. They were all fleeing like rats with their hands on their heads without any resistance. They were simply weak.

"Haha, I've said it before. Qitian escort agency is nothing more than this. They only know how to talk but don't even have the courage to fight head-on. They're just rats!" Wu conglong laughed out loud below the stage.

Chapter 4459 Are You Guys Crazy?

He had been a little nervous at first. Although the first round of the battle had caused the other side to suffer heavy losses, they had still lost after all. But now, this worry was immediately thrown to the back of his mind.

Morale was the most important thing in the arena Deathmatch. Once morale was lost, one would not be able to perform no matter how strong they were. They would be at the mercy of others. What morale did Qitian bodyguard agency have left in its current state? If they were not afraid of punishment from the bodyguard agency, the five participating bodyguards would have raised their hands and surrendered long ago!

As Wu conglong laughed proudly, the five Wu Ma escorts on the scene seemed to have received a boost in their spirits. Every move they made became more violent and fierce. Qi Tian, who was being chased by them, was like a small boat in the middle of a huge wave. He was in danger of being destroyed at any time. It was a terrifying sight, and one could not help but feel nervous for them.

"Hehe, this match is already a sure win. It won't even take half an incense's time to decide the victor!" Wu Cong Long's face was filled with confidence, he immediately ordered his assistant, "Hurry up and prepare the name list for the challenge. Go to the judging panel and wait there. Once this is over, submit your challenge application immediately!"

"Head of escorts, who are we going to challenge next?" The Deputy asked.

"Idiot! Of course, I'm still going to challenge Qitian escort agency!" Wu Cong long glared at him and said with a greedy expression, ""He's such an obvious weakling who can easily earn points and make a name for himself. There will definitely be many bodyguard agencies fighting to challenge him later. We can't let others take advantage of him!"

"Yes!" The Deputy finally came to a realization and hurriedly went to prepare.

"Haha, it's a wise move to challenge Qitian escort agency this time. You've gained both fame and fortune. If this continues, you can even look forward to becoming one of the five great escort agencies!" Wu Cong long said proudly.

The situation was so smooth that even he himself could not believe it. It had been his long-cherished wish for many years to become one of the five biggest escort agencies. Initially, there was no hope at all, but he did not expect that the Qitian escort agency would really be a perfect stepping stone. They had delivered themselves to his door!

Wu conglong was looking forward to the outcome of the battle so that he could take advantage of the situation to take advantage of the other party's body. However, after half an incense's time, although the battle was still in chaos, not a single one of the five Qitian bodyguards had fallen.

Not only that, the key point was that these five people had almost no injuries at all!

As the head of the Wuma escort agency, even if Wu conglong wanted to use the Qitian escort agency as a stepping stone to rise to the top, his observation skills were not something ordinary people could compare with. He had already sensed that there was something fishy about this.

Even though they could not tell what the other party was up to, one thing was for sure. The five Qitian bodyguards were not really as timid as mice. They had been instructed to do so.

"Don't waste time. Focus your power and kill one of them first!" Wu Cong long suddenly ordered.

"Yes!" On the stage, escort Wu Ma was already a little impatient. When he heard what was said, he immediately formed a siege formation. It was not very clever, but under the restrictions of the stage, it was enough to easily trap one person in the corner. Of course, the premise of doing so was to temporarily let the other four go.

No matter what, he had to get rid of one first. This way, even if he used up the time it took for an incense stick to burn, it would still be the Wuma escort agency's victory. At the very least, there wouldn't be any accidents.

It was five against one, and the one who was trapped was the weakest late gold core expert of the Qitian escort agency. The drowsy audience was instantly excited. Based on the horse escort agency's usual iron-blooded style, no one could save this poor worm!

A proud expression returned to Wu conglong's face. He did not know what the heaven's escort agency was up to, but in the face of absolute strength, any schemes and intrigues were just a joke.

It was a pity that Wu conglong had forgotten one thing. In terms of the true strength of both parties, the Wuma escort agency did not have any advantage at all. It was just that the Qitian escort agency's previous embarrassing escape had caused him to subconsciously have this illusion.

Even without Lin Yi's orders, the other four Qitian escorts who were left empty on the stage immediately changed their previous cowardly escape and attacked together without hesitation. The speed of their change was jaw-dropping, and their target was the strongest perfect gold core realm expert from the horse escort!

In the blink of an eye, it was still a farce. In the end, the situation on the stage suddenly became extremely tense. Everyone below the stage widened their eyes, afraid to miss this good show.

Originally, it was five against one, but in an instant, it became four against one on each side. This was because the horse escort who was targeted would definitely be too busy to take care of himself. It seemed like they were going to exchange chess pieces.

However, the difference was that if they were to exchange their tokens, the Qitian escort agency would lose their weakest late-stage golden core while the horse escort agency would lose their strongest perfected golden core. No matter how one looked at it, it was a huge loss!

"Hmph, do you think we'll be afraid of you? What a joke, eat the meat in your mouth first!" Wu conglong, on the other hand, did not panic or fear. Other people might be afraid of such a situation, but his horse escort agency was not. According to their usual iron-blooded style, they would definitely withstand the pressure and kill the late Jindan expert first before turning around and attacking.

The weakest late-stage Jindan expert couldn't withstand the joint attack of everyone, but the strongest perfected Jindan expert had at least a 50% chance of surviving. Even if he was seriously injured, he would still have the advantage of five against four.

An ordinary person would not dare to take such a risk, but these bodyguards who had been brainwashed by Wu conglong were definitely an exception. After all, they had been trained to be men of sacrifice on the spot.

Lin Yi, who was not too far away from him, smiled at the words, "Is that so?"

"How pathetic and ignorant ..." Wu conglong wanted to retort, but before he could say anything, the five Wu Ma escorts on the stage suddenly retreated. They temporarily let go of the Qi Tian escort who was trapped in the corner and turned to face the four men behind them with a guarded look.

"Are you guys crazy? Why should they retreat now? You even dare to disobey this chief's orders?" Wu conglong was instantly enraged, causing the audience outside to be in an uproar. Disobeying orders was never seen in the Wuma escort agency, but this was clearly a slap to Wu conglong's face. How could he explain this?

Hearing Wu conglong's roar, the five escorts on the stage, especially the one at the perfect gold core realm, couldn't help but shrink their necks in fear. Originally, he had wanted to withstand the pressure and take the opportunity to kill the late gold core expert first. Not only him, every escort on Wu Ma had the same realization.

Chapter 4460 Exchange Strategy

However, he didn't know what he was thinking just now, but his body had inexplicably taken the initiative to avoid it. Even he himself didn't know why.

"Hehe, it seems like this tactic worked." Lin Yi smiled faintly and nodded in satisfaction.

"Brother Ling, what kind of battle tactic is this? How dare they disobey Wu Cong Long's orders, this is too strange, right?" Qi Wenhan asked in disbelief.

In order to prevent any information from leaking out, Lin Yi only told the five participants about the strategy. Everyone else, including him, was kept in the dark.

Not only Qi Wenhan, but everyone present who knew a little about the industry had this doubt. The horse escort agency was famous for being strict with their orders. Under the circumstances where the strength of their escorts was not outstanding, they had relied on this to gain a firm foothold in the South continent's sea. It was not wrong to say that it was their lifeline, but now ...

"It's not like they really dare to disobey orders, but just like how Wu conglong insisted on brainwashing them, we have been brainwashing them since just now, it's as simple as that. " Lin Yi said with a smile.

"Ah? Brainwashing?" Qi Wenhan's expression suddenly became more and more strange. ""How is that possible? brother Ling, you didn't say anything to brainwash me, did you?"

"Brainwashing doesn't necessarily mean that you have to talk. You just have to take action. Everything that the five of us have done since the beginning has been instilling a hint into each other, making them subconsciously firm on a thought." Lin Yi said.

"What idea?" Qi Wenhan scratched his head.

"Brother Qi, if you were in my shoes and you were asked to fight a one-on-one battle with a bunch of scurrying opponents, would you do it?" Lin Yi asked.

"Of course not! Who would be stupid enough to exchange their lives in a one-on-one battle when they know that the other party is inferior to them?" Qi Wenhan subconsciously replied. Then, he slapped his thigh and said, ""Wonderful! It was too wonderful! Brother Ling, you are indeed brilliant!"

"It's not really brilliant. I saw that the other party's morale was high from the start, so it was not good to fight head-on. Thus, I decided to show the enemy that I was weak. As for this, it's actually an unexpected gain." Lin Yi said with a smile.

One's energy would be depleted after the third, and this was the experience left behind by the ancient people. It was used to counter the energetic men of sacrifice of the Wuma escort, and the psychological hint left in the process would make the Wuma escort waver. Even Lin Yi didn't expect this to have such a good anti-brainwashing effect.

"Hehe, brother Ling, you don't have to be so modest. You must have calculated this, which is why our brothers ran away in such a sorry state without caring about their image. This afternoon, Cong long is going to have a headache. Obedience is the foundation of their bodyguard agency. Now that his men are disobedient, let's see how he can still be arrogant!" Qi Wenhan was instantly elated.

"It's not that they're disobedient, but they don't seem to be that obedient. " Lin Yi corrected. It was impossible for the Wuma escort agency to completely disobey Wu conglong's orders.

"It's the same," Qi Wenhan chuckled and said impatiently, ""What do we do next? Is it time to do it in one go?"

"No, it's not the time yet." Lin Yi shook his head faintly. It did seem like they had the psychological advantage, but it was far from enough. The Wuma escort wasn't an easy target, after all. If they pressured them now, it might cause a backlash and have the opposite effect.

"Alright," he said. Qi Wenhan's heart was itching, but since he'd given Lin Yi full authority, he naturally wouldn't say anything. He'd just do what Lin Yi said.

"Bastard! A bunch of bastards! Did you guys just ignore my words? Do you want to go back and receive the family punishment? Hurry up and work together to kill one!" Wu conglong was still furious.

When the five horse escorts heard the words 'family law', they immediately quivered and did not dare to delay any further. They quickly threw away all the distracting thoughts that appeared in their minds and exerted their strength again to besiege Qitian escort in the corner. He was still the late golden core stage escort.

At the same time, the four heaven's equal escorts, who had been emptied, turned their attention to the strongest person on the other side, the perfected golden core realm. The situation was the same as before.

"Kill him! Kill him!" Wu Cong long was afraid that something would happen again, and he shouted loudly.

At the same time, the other four heaven's escorts had already prepared their powerful martial skills. The arrow was already on the string, and at the critical moment, the group of horse escorts, especially the one in the great circle of the Golden core stage, hesitated for a moment. However, under Wu conglong's tyrannical abuse of power, they finally braced themselves and attacked.

"You can come down now." Lin Yi suddenly gave the order, and as the group of Wuma escorts were about to launch their full-powered attack, the trapped escort Qitian jumped off the stage at the last moment, causing all the attacks to miss.

At the same time, it was the perfect gold core realm expert from the horse escort who was attacked by the other four heaven's equal escorts at the same time. In a moment of hesitation, he was hit in his vital parts and died on the spot!

In an instant, the entire place fell silent, and Wu Cong Long's face turned extremely ugly, as black as the bottom of a pot.

Qitian escort agency lost a late gold core expert because jumping off the arena was considered a forfeit. On the other hand, Wuma escort agency lost a perfected gold core expert on the spot.

It was a typical trade strategy, but everyone could see that this time, the Wuma escort agency had suffered a huge loss!

After the long period of time, the morale of the group of horse escorts had almost been worn down. Otherwise, if they were still in high spirits, they would not have been shaken just now, and they would not have hesitated and made mistakes.

But now, they had suffered such a huge loss, especially after being played by the other party. Their morale instantly fell to the bottom, and for a moment, they were somewhat at a loss.

"To appear weak to the enemy, to retreat when the enemy advances, to wear down morale, and to defeat the enemy with one strike, brother Ling, you are truly skilled in military tactics!" Qi Wenhao's eyes immediately lit up. He was a person who knew what was good for him. That was why he could see it so clearly. If it were anyone else, they would probably not understand and think that it was good. They would only think that the Qitian bodyguard agency was clearly in a sorry state. How did they suddenly gain the upper hand?

"Could it be that young hero Ling's strategy from the beginning was to exchange the stones?" Butler, who had been silent on the side, also spoke up.

"That's right. To deal with a tough opponent like the horse escort agency, it's too damaging to use force. This kind of advantageous strategy can break their morale." Lin Yi said with a nod.
