

Bodyguard 4471

Chapter 4471 The Rules Are Fair?

From this, it could be seen that the Qitian bodyguard agency's current lead on the points ranking was due to their true strength and not luck.

In fact, the argument of "dog-sh * t luck" itself was illogical. The escort agency parties of the South continent had held this event for more than one or two years, and the competition was so fierce and cruel that it had long surpassed the level of ordinary competitions. Under such circumstances, how could a weak escort agency win all the way to the end with pure luck?

If this situation really happened, it could only mean that all 32 escort agencies in the South continent were inferior, and none of them were truly rich. Otherwise, if there was a truly powerful existence, it would be impossible for them to let a clown become the number one. It would be a shame to the entire South continent escort agency Alliance.

With the sound of a heavy Gong, the fifth round of the escort agency competition finally came to an end. The situation on the points ranking became more and more clear after this round of the law of the jungle.

Without a doubt, the first place on the leaderboard was the heaven's equal bodyguard agency, which was at the peak of its power. With an extremely high score, it left all the other bodyguard agencies behind it in the dust. 1070 points!

After defeating the xuanying escort agency with great difficulty, Qi Wenhan still had the precious right to take the initiative to challenge twice. Naturally, he would not let it go to waste. After some consideration, he finally chose to attack the two middle-level escort agencies and obtained 200 points without any danger. This allowed his points to reach a jaw-dropping four-digit number.

In fact, after seeing the Xuanying escort agency trample over the Four Seas escort agency, Qi Wenhan had the thought of adding insult to injury. However, after experiencing the danger from before, his father, Qi Mingyuan, was afraid that something would go wrong and was determined not to let him go into the battle personally.

The continuous battles had consumed a lot of his strength. If Qi Wenhan didn't fight, it would be hard for him to win against the Furious Four Seas escort agency. Even with Lin Yi as a temporary coach, it wouldn't work unless Lin Yi went into the battle himself.

However, that was impossible. After all, there was another round of challenges for the head of the escort agency. Lin Yi was in the center of the storm, and there were so many people eyeing him with ill intentions.

After Qitian escort agency, Shenfeng escort agency and Tianhong escort agency, the two old-time five major escort agencies, were ranked second and third respectively. Xuanying escort agency, which had made great progress later on, followed closely behind and was ranked fourth.

As for the ambitious Four Seas escort agency, the publicly acknowledged Overlord of the South continent escort agency, they had no choice but to face the awkward situation of being ranked fifth. Even with Boundless Sea's thick skin, when people's eyes swept over him, even if it was just a casual glance, he would still feel a burning sensation and be too ashamed to face anyone.

All of this was because of Lin Yi and the Qitian escort agency!

Boundless Sea's heart was bleeding as he gritted his teeth and cursed. Other than that, there was nothing else he could do. He could only hope that the 'show' that was about to come would be as he wished. While he killed Ling Yi and the Qitian escort agency, he could also allow the four Seas escort agency to regain its glory and continue to sit on the throne of the escort agency.

Although the four Seas escort agency was in an awkward situation, they were able to barely catch the last bus of the five big escort agencies and more or less managed to hold on to their last piece of cloth. The South Gate escort agency was the one who was truly in a miserable state.

Previously, it was still one of the top five escort agencies. Now that the five rounds of competition had ended and they were ranked sixth, they had been squeezed out of the top five escort agencies. They had lost the Halo of being a wealthy family and could only be reduced to a second-rate escort agency in the eyes of the public. They could not even cry.

According to this ranking, it was foreseeable that the structure of the South continent's escort agency Alliance would undergo a huge change in the future. Among them, only two escort agencies would be the real winners, one was Qitian escort agency, and the other was xuanying escort agency.

Among them, the Qitian escort agency's gains were the most exaggerated. This could be seen from the passionate gazes of the stewards of the Chamber of Commerce as they looked at the people from the Qitian escort agency. Many of them were customers of the traditional wealthy families like the four Seas escort agency. However, it looked like they would soon become history.

If nothing unexpected happened, the huge amount of orders that would hit Qitian escort agency after this escort agency meeting would undoubtedly be an extremely exaggerated and astronomical figure. It would be at least several times or even dozens of times more than the previous years!

More orders meant more spiritual jades, and more spiritual jades meant more and more powerful escorts could be recruited. This would rapidly increase their strength and, in turn, obtain more orders.

This was a snowball effect. Once it was on the right track, no one could stop the Qitian escort agency from rising.

However, before that, the Qitian escort agency had to overcome a difficult obstacle, which was the challenge of the next leader of the escort agency.

Just like the fifth round of the escort agency competition, this was also an arena battle where each of them placed a hundred points as a bet. The only difference was that this was a one-on-one challenge specifically for the Golden core stage senior executives of each escort agency and there was no limit to the number of challenges!

This kind of competition didn't test the overall strength of the escort agency. It was entirely up to the individual's performance. Luck played a big part. If one escort agency was unlucky and was challenged by other experts, it was very likely that they would collapse immediately. One match was 100 points, and there was no limit to the number of times. No matter how many points they had, they wouldn't be able to lose.

Even though Qitian escort agency had a frightening four-digit number of points, it was hard to say if they could safely get through this next round. They might fall from the clouds into the abyss. They might be like the sun in the sky a moment ago, but become a short-lived flower in the next moment.

As long as the dust hadn't settled, there were still variables. Although the top five escort agencies were clearly listed on the leaderboard, the existence of the last additional segment allowed "losers" like the South Gate escort agency to have a chance of getting into the top five.

As for who would be ranked among the five biggest escort agencies and who would have the last laugh, everything was still unknown.

"Alright, I'll now represent the judging team to announce the rules for the last round of the challenge." Boundless sea suppressed the hatred in his heart. He stood up and announced to everyone, ""The rules are simple. The first challenger will be decided by drawing lots. He can challenge any of the Golden core stage seniors from any of the escort agencies. The winner of each match can choose to continue the challenge. Of course, he can also choose to forfeit. After the winner forfeits, the right to challenge will be transferred to the loser. If the winner also chooses to forfeit, then the lots will be drawn again."

The crowd broke into a heated discussion. At least on the surface, this rule could be considered fair. At least the challenge had not reached the point of being completely unrestrained and reckless.

Chapter 4472 Targeting

"If the drawing of lots can guarantee fairness and no one secretly tampered with it, it sounds more reliable. Everyone will rely on their own strength and luck, so there's nothing to say." Qi Wenhan was stunned.

He had thought that since the challenge was aimed at his bodyguard agency, it would be as shameless as possible. He did not expect the rules to sound so Grand and irrefutable.

What Qi Wenhan was most worried about was that his own bodyguard agency would be attacked by a targeted joint attack. They would continuously take turns to wear him down. In this case, even an immortal made of iron would not be able to withstand it.

However, according to boundless sea's rules, it basically eliminated the possibility of a tag-team battle, unless someone beat him or Ling Yi and repeatedly challenged them.

However, in this way, the other party was also fighting continuously. They were actually at the same starting line. Whoever became the winner would have to rely on their fists.

"Brother Qi, do the other escort agencies also have Aurous core stage higher-ups?" Lin Yi wasn't that optimistic.

"This ..." Qi Wenhan choked. The little bit of joy and excitement he had felt from winning the fifth round of the escort agency competition instantly disappeared. "I don't know the details, but it shouldn't be much."

"Looks like it. Boundless sea probably came for this from the start." Lin Yi looked at boundless sea, who wasn't too far away, and at the same time at Cheng haonan and the other two, who were looking at him strangely. He didn't know why, but he felt that there was a connection between these two groups of people.

There shouldn't be any connection between the two groups, but Lin Yi's intuition was always right. He could tell something was wrong from the way these people were acting.

After a while, the judging team selected all the Golden core stage senior executives from the list of bodyguards that had been submitted by the various bodyguard agencies and announced it to the public!

Just as the two of them had expected, out of the thirty-two escort agencies, only twelve of them had high-level Aurous core cultivators. It was not even half of the total.

Even though everyone present had some idea of what was going on, they were still shocked when they saw the number and started discussing it.

Out of the 12, Qitian bodyguard agency was the most eye-catching. The young master Qi Wenhan and the honorary bodyguard leader Ling Yi were both famous! However, other than Qitian escort agency, the other five big escort agencies, including the newly rising xuanying escort agency, were not on the list.

The other 11 escort agencies were mostly midstream escort agencies. They were neither too strong nor too weak, and Longzhou escort agency was one of them.

This situation was not difficult to understand. Those powerful escort agencies had many experts among them. Any ordinary escort might have the strength of late golden core stage or above. This was especially so for the four Seas escort agency and the xuanying escort agency. There were more than a handful of perfected golden core stage experts. As a high-level official, if he did not even have the strength of the Yuanying stage, how could he convince the public?

As for the weaker escort companies, they were small in scale and did not have any positions such as junior escort leader, Deputy escort leader, elder, or military counselor. There was no need to set up such a position at all. It would only have the side effect of power dispersion!

Under normal circumstances, a small bodyguard agency would only have one or two more bodyguards under its chief. There would be no other higher-ups.

Although the South continent escort agency meeting was a major event, and most of the escort agencies had sent out their elites, it was impossible to leave no one behind. At least one escort leader had to be left behind to take care of the rear. As a result, among the list of escorts sent by most of the small escort agencies in advance, only the head of the escort was the high-level leader, who was completely a commander with no power.

Since he was the head of the escort agency, he definitely couldn't be a master of the Golden core stage. The strength of the original infant stage was the minimum requirement, so he naturally wasn't on the list of people to be challenged.

Furthermore, there were some other escort agencies that had special circumstances. Like the Qitian escort agency, they had a young escort leader whose strength was most likely at the Golden core stage. However, the problem was that most of them were guarding the rear. They couldn't possibly send people over from thousands of miles away at the last minute, right?

That was not realistic at all. Even if these escort agencies agreed, the meeting would not have to wait that long.

There were no first-class escort agencies, nor were there any low-level escort agencies. The ones most likely to have high-level golden core stage cultivators were those middle-level escort agencies, and Qitian escort agency was the only exception.

This was boundless sea's original intention for this challenge!

With such a rule, an escort agency like the four Seas escort agency, which did not have any high-level Jindan stage cultivators, would naturally be invincible! They could only challenge others, but others could do nothing to them. They could attack and retreat at will.

On the contrary, the twelve escort agencies, including Qitian escort agency, had become the real prey! As long as they were interested, they could pounce on him and take a bite. If it was not enough, they could take a second bite, or even a third bite.

Of course, the premise was that one had to have the strength. If one's strength was not enough, not only would they not be able to bite the meat from the prey, but they would also be trampled half to death, and then they could not blame anyone else.

Qi Wenhan frowned. Although the current situation was not as bad as he had expected, it was not any better. Among the 12 prey on the list, the Qitian bodyguard agency was not only the strongest but also the most eye-catching one. It was almost certain that they would be targeted.

However, Lin Yi didn't look worried at all. Even if he knew that the challenge was aimed at him, he didn't care at all. The only thing he cared about was whether he had a chance to kill Wu baoliang.

"Good, you didn't disappoint me." Lin Yi looked at Wu Bao Liang's name on the public announcement board, and he smiled.

The meeting was about to end, but he still couldn't get the opportunity to fight with Wu Bao Liang. It would be a lie to say that he wasn't anxious at all. After all, who would be willing to waste time in the South continent for Wu Bao Liang?

But now, it was all good. This extra challenge would make him a public target, but it also gave him the chance to challenge Wu Bao Liang. Lin Yi felt that he had gained a lot from this.

In any case, with his current strength, he was absolutely invincible among the Golden core stage. No matter how many people came to challenge him, they would just be giving away points, not worth mentioning at all.

Seeing Lin Yi so calm, Qi Wenhan couldn't help but be speechless. He admired Lin Yi's strength, but he didn't know how strong Lin Yi was. There was no way he wouldn't panic in the face of a storm. However, it was useless to be flustered.

Under everyone's watchful eyes, the challenge for the head of the bodyguard agency officially began. The first thing to do was to draw lots.

The five judges were supervising together. At the same time, there were countless pairs of eyes watching from below the stage to ensure that no one could cheat!

Chapter 4473 Can't Wait

The thirty-two people in charge of the escort agency went up to the stage to draw lots according to the current ranking of the escort agencies to decide who would be the first challenger.

In order to ensure fairness as much as possible, the lot drawing this time was not done openly, but secretly. These people in charge of the bodyguard agency who went on stage to draw the lots did not know what it meant even if they drew the lots. Only after all the lots were drawn and the judging team announced the lots would they know the result.

Therefore, even if it was the last person's turn to draw lots, no one would object. After all, it was the same whether it was the first or the last person's turn.

What surprised Lin Yi and Qi Wenhan was that boundless sea didn't seem to have any intention of playing any tricks during the drawing process.

Although it was indeed difficult to operate in secret under the eyes of so many people, it shouldn't be difficult for this self-proclaimed Overlord of the escort agency in the South continent, right?

Whether it was the process of drawing lots or the result of drawing lots, everything seemed normal. It was just a very simple drawing of lots, and it could be considered fair.

In the end, the representatives of the thirty-two security agencies raised their lots high in the air. Boundless sea represented the judges and announced the results. Everyone's eyes focused on an old man in green.

This person's name was Fang Heng, the head of the black water escort agency.

In terms of experience, he was a veteran in the South continent's escort agency Alliance! He was a senior figure when the Alliance was first established. However, compared to his strong qualifications, the black water escort's strength was really not up to standard. Even if they were not at the bottom, they were at most below the middle level. They had not even entered the top 15. They had nothing to do with being strong.

No one had expected that the right to issue the first challenge, which had attracted so much attention, would fall on the head of the black water escort agency. They did not know what this escort chief Fang would choose.

Although getting the right to challenge for the first time meant getting the first chance to eat meat, in the eyes of most people, the black water escort probably did not have the ability to eat meat. Challenging others might just be giving away points for nothing and even putting himself in danger.

The safest choice was to not challenge anyone. Anyway, their escort agency didn't have any high-level golden core stage cultivators. They could rest easy. Now they were ranked 18th. This result was not bad for the Blackwater escort agency. As long as they maintained their position, it would be a victory.

On the other hand, if the black water escort couldn't hold back their ambition and chose to challenge others, then it was very likely that they would end up being eliminated.

Under everyone's gaze, Fang Heng cleared his throat, took a step forward and said in a clear voice, ""The black water escort has decided to challenge the Longzhou escort agency!"

As he spoke, Fang Heng's eyes swept over Cheng haonan and the others, a bone-deep hatred flashing in his eyes.

The crowd was in an uproar. Was chief Fang crazy to challenge the Longzhou escort agency?

Although the Longzhou escort agency was not a big escort agency and had not performed well before, their performance at the conference was definitely not weak. They were now ranked eighth, which was quite remarkable.

If it weren't for the Super dark horses like Qitian escort agency and xuanying escort agency that attracted everyone's attention, the Longzhou escort agency would probably be in the limelight too. It was definitely not an existence that the Blackwater escort agency could compete with.

"Hehe, I didn't expect that not only is this old escort leader Fang quite old, but he's also quite hot-tempered. He's taking this opportunity to take revenge!" Someone in the crowd laughed.

"That's not strange. No one would be able to take this lying down. In the first round of the escort battle, all five of their elite escorts were killed by the Longzhou escort agency. It's a serious blow to the Blackwater escort agency!" An insider explained.

"The competition has always been so cruel, there's nothing to be surprised about. Since you can't afford to lose, then you might as well not come!" Someone sneered.

"That's right. With the black water escort's strength, if they take the initiative to approach the Dragon Boat escort, they'll be trampled on again. Is this old man stupid?" Someone sneered and echoed.

"Tsk, tsk. This time, the black water escort is really in trouble ..." The people around them nodded.

The discussions below the stage rose one after another. There were sneers, sympathy, gloating, and indifferent bystanders. All in all, people who watched the show did not mind making things worse. 99% of the people present did not think the black water escort agency would win.

Fang Heng's expression was as cold as water when he heard these discussions.

In the first round of the escort battle, because of Longzhou escort agency's ruthlessness, the entire Blackwater escort agency had suffered a great loss. They had lost more than half of their experts. They were absolutely irreconcilable. How could they take this lying down?

This time, he had decided to go all out. It didn't matter how many points he had. It was a rare opportunity, and the only thing he wanted now was revenge.

Fang Heng was a little impulsive, but he was a veteran of the South continent and was not stupid. The challenge of the leader of the bodyguard agency was a rare opportunity for revenge.

If the five-on-five competition was a test of the overall strength of the escort agency, the Blackwater escort agency would naturally be no match for the Longzhou escort agency. However, it was a one-on-one battle now, so it was a different story.

Fang Heng pulled over the last elite escort of the black water escort agency, Lao Ai, an expert at the consummate level of the gold core realm. He excitedly and nervously gave him instructions for a long time before finally seeing him off on the stage. Whether he could wash away his previous humiliation or not, success or failure depended on this move.

Looking at the Challenger from the black water escort agency on the stage, Cheng haonan, long kuiba and Wu Bao Liang looked at each other and suddenly laughed with ridicule.

From the beginning to the end, they didn't put the black water escort in their eyes at all. They killed as they pleased. It was like this in the first round, and it would be no exception now.

The three of them were still worried about how to get the right to challenge. They didn't expect the black water escort to give them the opportunity in the blink of an eye. The heavens were really helping them!

"The two of you, who do you think we should send?" Long kuiba immediately asked.

He was a master of the nascent Soul Stage, so he was naturally not on the list of challengers. However, Cheng haonan and Wu baoliang were both perfected golden core cultivators, and they were both on the list of high-level personnel submitted by the Longzhou escort. Cheng haonan was the second escort leader, and Wu baoliang was the military counselor.

Of course, although the Challenger sent by the black water escort agency was an expert in the great circle of the Golden core stage, he was not taken seriously by the three of them at all. Whether it was Cheng haonan or Wu baoliang, it would be like killing a chicken with a butcher's knife and making a mountain out of a molehill!

Any elite escort from Longzhou escort agency would be enough to solve the problem, but the rules did not allow it!

"Although this kind of trash is not worth mentioning, we must win the right to challenge this time. We can't afford to lose. Be it you or me, we can't underestimate our enemy!" Wu baoliang and Cheng haonan looked at each other and said.

Chapter 4474 Who's Going To Fight?

"Counselor Fang is right. So, which of you two will go up?" Long kuiba looked at the two of them and said.

"I'll do it then. Counselor Fang's martial arts skills are all extraordinary and unpredictable. It's hard for him to hide his strength. He might scare Ling Yi when he makes his move later. If he refuses to accept the challenge when we're challenging Qitian bodyguard agency, it'll be a lot more difficult. Counselor Fang, you should conserve your true Qi and use it on Ling Yi later." Cheng haonan suggested.

"Alright, let's do this then." Wu Bao Liang nodded his head, at the same time, he looked at Cheng Hao Nan in surprise.

He thought that since this guy wanted to avenge Cheng Qitian, he would personally deal with Ling Yi! After all, only by killing the enemy with one's own hands could one feel great satisfaction, but he did not expect that the opportunity would be pushed to himself, which was really a bit surprising.

Little did he know that this was the true nature of Cheng haonan's cunning. He did want to kill Ling Yi, but he didn't want to do it himself. After all, Ling Yi's status and connections were there. Even if it was up to fate in the arena, Cheng haonan didn't want to get involved in such grudges. Thus, it was the safest to kill Ling Yi with Wu Bao Liang's knife.

Wu Bao Liang didn't think of this little thought at all, and he wouldn't even think about it.

Unlike Cheng haonan, who was full of schemes, he was a pure evil cultivator. He would kill whoever he encountered without considering the consequences. At most, he would just change places and continue to hide like before.

After the three of them finished their discussion, Cheng haonan immediately represented the Longzhou escort agency and slowly walked up to the ring to accept the challenge.

"He's actually letting this guy fight? Aren't you overestimating the black water escort?" Qi Wenhan was stunned when he saw this.

Qitian bodyguard agency and the poisonous eye mercenary group were old enemies. Even if he had not personally fought with Cheng haonan, he at least knew the rough Strength of this guy. On the surface, he was a perfected golden core, but in reality, he was probably not much weaker than his father.

Letting someone like Cheng haonan deal with a mere Jindan stage expert, wasn't that bullying?

Lin Yi was surprised as well, but he didn't say anything. He focused on observing Cheng haonan's every move.

Because of Cheng Qitian, this person was bound to be his enemy. However, this guy had never fought before, so he never had the chance to see through his strength. This was an opportunity.

Whether it was Qi Wenhan or Lin Yi, they both thought that this would be an easy battle. After all, Cheng haonan was the boss of the poison eye mercenary group. If he didn't even have this much strength, then it would be a big deal.

However, this match took a full five minutes. In the end, the Challenger from the black water escort agency was kicked off the ring by Cheng haonan by one move, ending the battle.

Everyone from the black water escort agency, especially their head of escorts, Fang Heng, turned ashen at the sight. They did not even need to get close to take a closer look to know that their escort who had been kicked off the stage was dead without a doubt. His chest had been pierced through by the kick, leaving only a huge bloody hole that ran through his heart.

Fang Heng's vision turned black and he fainted on the spot. The people around him were in a flurry and the entire black water escort was in a mess.

Not only did they lose 100 points, but the escort on the field was the last elite of their Blackwater escort agency. All of their elites had died at the hands of Longzhou escort agency. How were they going to survive?

Cheng haonan looked at the scene arrogantly from the ring and grinned discreetly. However, to keep a low profile, he didn't make any big talk. Otherwise, all his previous efforts would have been in vain.

Throughout the entire process, Cheng haonan did not display any overwhelming strength. The feeling he gave people was that of an ordinary expert in the great circle of the Golden core stage, nothing more! He just didn't want to scare Ling Yi.

"Hehe, this act is pretty good. If we didn't know that he was the boss of the poison eye mercenary group, we might really have been fooled." Lin Yi smiled.

"But he still didn't complete his act. If they were really on the same level, how could his last kick be so clean? he didn't even leave the other party a breath?" Qi Wenhan pouted and said.

"Let's see what they're going to do next. I think it's time for me to go on stage. " Lin Yi smiled faintly.

"Ha?" Qi Wenhan was stunned for a moment before he reacted. He quickly said, ""Brother Ling, Cheng haonan is no small matter. If they really want to challenge him, I'll go."

"You're his match?" Lin Yi asked.

"Uh ..." Qi Wenhan choked. He wanted to be more unyielding, but in the end, he could only honestly say, ""No, although I haven't fought him directly, I know my own limits. It's more appropriate for my father to deal with him personally."

"Then that's it." Lin Yi smiled and patted his shoulder. "If they're coming for me, brother Qi, you won't be able to do anything. Instead, you'll just die in vain. Don't worry, I don't dare to say much, but I'm confident about this."

"But ..." Qi Wenhan wanted to say something, but Lin Yi's firm expression made him realize that he couldn't change his mind. "Alright then. Brother Ling, be careful. Once you see that the situation is not good, you will jump off the stage. It will only result in a deduction of some points. The bodyguard agency has been able to get to where it is today all thanks to your efforts. We are already very satisfied. Even if we lose everything, it is fine. Brother Ling, your safety is the most important."

"I know," Lin Yi nodded.

On the other side, because of Cheng haonan's victory, the right to challenge fell on the head of Longzhou escort. Long kuiba did not hesitate at all. He stood up and announced, ""We, the Longzhou escort agency, challenge the Qitian escort agency!"

The crowd was in an uproar. The originally lukewarm atmosphere suddenly became lively. The show had finally begun.

The Longzhou escort agency was already ranked eighth! After they won 100 points from the Blackwater escort agency! Their ranking rose by two places, surpassing the South Gate escort agency to sixth place.

If they won points from the Qitian escort agency again, they would enter the top five directly! Making history as one of the top five escort agencies!

"I already guessed it would be like this." Lin Yi smiled and looked at Qi Wenhan before walking up the stage. He had to win this round no matter who his opponent was. The reason was the same as the Longzhou escort.

Cheng haonan and the other two were overjoyed to see Lin Yi on the stage. They were still thinking about killing Qi Wenhan, but Lin Yi went up on stage on his own accord. What an idiot!

"Military counselor, I'll leave this kid to you!" Cheng haonan had an evil smile on his face. In his eyes, Lin Yi was already a dead body.

Chapter 4475 Sent Flying

"Military counselor, don't be in such a hurry to kill him in this round. Let him have a few more challenges. Qitian bodyguard agency has so many points. We can snatch them all one by one!" Long kuiba quickly warned.

The Qitian escort agency had 1070 points. As long as he challenged them 11 times in a row, he would be able to transfer all of these ridiculous points to himself. By then, the Qitian escort agency would be eliminated, and the Longzhou escort agency would become the new Overlord of the escort agency. No one would be able to compete with them!

"That's right, that's right. It's too easy on him to kill him in one go. No matter what, we should at least let him be half-dead eight to ten times first!" Cheng haonan nodded.

"No problem," he said. Wu Bao Liang laughed and said,""This brat was so arrogant in front of me. If I don't beat the sh * t out of him this time, I'm not Wu Bao Liang."

With that, Wu baoliang stood up and walked up the stage. He had a strange evil aura around him, and he stood in front of Lin Yi, not too far away from him. He just looked at Lin Yi with his triangular Yin Yang eyes, not Yin or yang.

At the same time, Lin Yi couldn't help but feel happy as he looked at the guy. He was thinking the same thing-he'd worn out his iron shoes to look for it, but it came back to him without any effort.

"Kid, tell me about the trick you used to hide the tribute, and I can spare your life." Wu baoliang suddenly laughed. He wasn't interested in Lin Yi at all. The only thing that bothered him was the time when he hid the tribute. He couldn't think of any tricks that could hide from his killing everything.

"You want to know? Go guess it yourself, but you don't have much time left. If you go with your doubts, I'm afraid you won't be able to die in peace. " Lin Yi replied with a faint smile.

But Lin Yi didn't let his guard down at all. He had absolute confidence in his strength, but he was never blindly arrogant, nor would he underestimate his opponent. Not to mention, he felt a trace of unusual energy from the other party.

This sorcerer, Wu Bao Liang, was probably not as simple as he had imagined.

"Hehe, kid, you're very arrogant." Wu baoliang laughed unscrupulously and pointed at Lin Yi,"But it's fine. No one can stop me if I want to do something. It's fine if you don't want to tell me about the little trick of hiding the darts now. Later, you will take the initiative to tell me. It's just a little bit of effort."

"Oh, I'll wait then." Lin Yi's face was calm. He was already a dead man in Wu baoliang's eyes, but was Wu baoliang a living person in his eyes?

In terms of strength, both sides were powerful existences that could kill Masters of the Yuanying stage. They were just wearing the cloak of the jiedan stage. Both sides had absolute confidence, but there was one thing, both sides did not know the other's true strength. After all, they had not fought directly, and the little understanding they had before was only hearsay.

The battle hadn't even started, but the atmosphere was already tense. Everyone's eyes were on the battlefield. There were people with good eyesight among them. Not to mention Lin Yi, who was in the limelight, even Wu Bao Liang, who had a strange aura, was not an ordinary person in their eyes.

This battle naturally became the focus of attention. Everyone was secretly speculating in their hearts that since the two people on the stage had such a strong aura, their true strength was naturally no small matter.

After the judge gave the order, a stick of incense was lit on the side of the court as usual. Lin Yi versus Wu Bao Liang, the battle that both sides had been waiting for a long time had officially begun.

To strike first! Lin Yi took the lead and used his butterfly microsteps. His body was like a ghost as he drew a mysterious arc and quickly approached Wu Bao Liang.

"Hehe, such big words. I thought you were very strong. In the end, he's just a mid Jindan small fry. Even if he can jump around, how far can he jump? he's really disappointing." Wu baoliang laughed at the sight, not even trying to Dodge Lin Yi's attack. A dark aura suddenly emerged from his body as he threw a punch.

Since his opponent wanted to fight him face to face, Lin Yi naturally wouldn't let go of this opportunity. With his strength, it was difficult to lose against a full gold core realm master. After all, Lin Yi was never the kind of person who would underestimate his opponent.

His leg was covered in a thick layer of fire, and Lin Yi didn't stop at all. He immediately used the wild fire thousand legs, and this kick was something that normal golden core stage cultivators couldn't handle. It was enough to test Wu Bao Liang's strength.

Bang! Bang! On one side was Lin Yi's thousand raging fire legs, and on the other was Wu Bao Liang's strange black fist. With a muffled sound of bones hitting each other, a layer of turbulent air waves was set off on the stage, and everyone's faces changed. These two people were strong enough!

In the air blast, a figure on the stage suddenly flew backward and finally landed on the edge of the ring. If it wasn't for this person's quick reaction, he would have fallen off the ring directly with a punch into the floor to increase the resistance. In other words, the outcome of this duel was almost decided in a single exchange.

"Brother Ling!" Qi Wenhan's eyes widened, and at the same time, everyone from the Qitian bodyguard agency was shocked. The person who was sent flying was Lin Yi!

Because of all the miraculous things he'd done before, everyone in the Qitian bodyguard agency had unparalleled confidence in Lin Yi, to the point that they'd blindly worshipped him.

After all, this was an existence that could cripple old Kong, a peak early Yuanying stage master. Even Qi Wenhan, a figure with the title of "invincible Jindan," sighed in inferiority. Now, facing a master of the perfect Jindan stage, how could he lose?

However, such an invincible figure was actually sent flying by the evil Wu Bao Liang!

Qi Wenhan didn't believe it. Qi Mingyuan didn't believe it. Butler song didn't believe it. No one in the Qitian bodyguard agency believed it. However, the truth was right in front of them. They had to believe it. Lin Yi didn't seem to be Wu baoliang's match.

Qi Wenhan was so worried that he couldn't afford to lose the points, but he couldn't let anything happen to Lin Yi!

Just like what he'd said before-if he really couldn't do it, he'd just jump off the stage and admit defeat-that would at least guarantee his life, but unfortunately, that wasn't Lin Yi's style.

On the stage, Lin Yi steadied his body and stood up. Other than the numbness in his legs, he didn't suffer any serious injuries. He just looked a little disheveled.

"This guy's strength is actually no less than a mid Yuanying stage master!" Lin Yi looked at Wu baoliang from a distance, and his heart shivered.

A person who could challenge a higher realm was already one in ten thousand, not to mention a master of the great circle of jiedan stage who had the strength comparable to the middle Yuanying stage. This kind of thing was simply unheard of and never seen.

Chapter 4476 Devoured By The Black Gas

Lin Yi didn't think that Wu baoliang, this inhumane evil practitioner, would have such exaggerated strength. Even with his mental state, he couldn't help but be shocked!

Lin Yi had always been careful, but he still underestimated his opponent this time. After all, in the minds of normal people, evil practitioners did improve quickly, but they didn't have any Foundation. Most of them were just at a normal level, not to mention fighting someone higher than them.

He didn't know that even among the evil practitioners, Wu baoliang was an anomaly among anomalies. Just like Lin Yi, he couldn't be measured with common sense.

"How is it? It's not too late to regret now. That trick of hiding the tribute, kid, are you going to tell me or not?" Wu Bao Liang slanted his pair of triangular eyes, sneered and said.

"Why are you so persistent? Go and guess!" Lin Yi smiled. Putting aside his identity as an evil practitioner, Wu Bao Liang's determination to get to the bottom of things was rare. People like him who were persistent in their research were usually not simple people. It was clear that he had his Strength For A Reason.

"Hehe, you won't shed tears until you see the coffin, right? Since you're so stubborn, I might as well be a good person this time and fulfill your wish!" As Wu Bao Liang spoke, the black gas that was emitted from his body suddenly became thicker and thicker. It was like a billowing black smoke, and it instantly soared into the sky.

When the crowd saw this, they immediately exclaimed one after another. They looked at each other and began to discuss.

There was no lack of experienced and knowledgeable people among the crowd. If it was another occasion, they might be able to quickly realize that Wu Bao Liang was actually a heretic practitioner, but now, no one could react.

After all, this was a distinguished meeting of the escort agency in the South continent, and all the Masters of the Orthodox cultivation sects were here. Those evil cultivators would die in the light here. Even if they were crazy and wanted to die, they would never dare to come to this place!

After a round of discussion, the conclusion that everyone came to was surprisingly the same. This Wu Bao Liang should be an extremely rare mutated spiritual root attribute!

At least, cultivators with the five common spiritual roots had never seen black gas coming from their bodies. The only ones left were those with mutated spiritual roots.

The world was so big that there were all kinds of strange things, especially in the South continent's Sea area, where Dragons and snakes were mixed together. People of all walks of life could be seen everywhere, and there were hidden dragons and crouching tigers everywhere. It was common for a bunch of mysterious powerhouses to suddenly appear, so everyone had long been used to it.

They would never have thought that Wu Bao Liang, a complete and utter evil cultivator, did not have any mutated spiritual roots at all. He actually dared to show up in the South continent escort agency's distinguished meeting so brazenly, and even dared to fight in the ring so unscrupulously!

Lin Yi was a hundred and fifty feet away from Wu baoliang, and he looked at him warily. The thick black Qi on Wu baoliang's body gave him a strange feeling of fear.

Although he knew that Wu Bao Liang was an evil cultivator, Lin Yi couldn't be sure if the black Qi was a special characteristic of an evil cultivator or if Wu Bao Liang really had some kind of abnormal spiritual roots. No matter what, at least one thing was for sure: this black gas was extremely dangerous.

Lin Yi kept his guard up as he thought back to the scene, trying to analyze it and come up with a plan.

Wu baoliang didn't use his full strength in that punch, but the power was shocking. Lin Yi's fire thousand legs couldn't take it head-on. If he didn't use his Qi to protect himself, he would've lost his entire leg.

Looking at the cold smile on Wu baoliang's face, Lin Yi suddenly felt a sense of danger!

He'd been through a lot of danger since breaking through to the Golden core stage, especially when he'd been up against nascent soul masters, but to be honest, he didn't really feel any danger. On the contrary, unconsciously, he had a tendency to inflate himself.

After all, he was the strongest jiedan stage master who had a perfect breakthrough. Especially when facing Yuanying stage Masters, he almost never suffered a loss, but instead repeatedly gained the upper hand. This situation has been going on for a long time, but any individual would become arrogant. If they were more arrogant, they might even think that they were invincible in the world.

Of course, Lin Yi wasn't that stupid, but he was overconfident too. Otherwise, he wouldn't have thought that he could defeat Wu baoliang before the fight.

But luckily, it wasn't too late to realize that training was training the heart, and if Lin Yi kept on training like this without realizing it, it could very well turn into a heart demon when he reached the nascent Soul Stage or even higher. It'd be hard for him to make any progress, and it'd be a real problem if he went crazy!

So Lin Yi really had to thank this Wu baoliang, for letting him see himself again.

"You're so tough with your mouth, but why don't you dare to make a move? Are you afraid of being beaten? Are you preparing to hide like a turtle?" Wu baoliang saw Lin Yi's expression and grinned, "Since you don't dare to fight, I'll take the initiative to send you on your way. Violent sand thousand explosive fist!"

As soon as his voice fell, the black gas on Wu Bao Liang's body became more and more violent, spreading and almost covering half of the ring. At the same time, where the black gas passed, the yellow sand on the ring and the surrounding ground was suspended in the air, accompanied by a sharp whistling sound, and was sucked into the black gas, forming a monstrous sand. Because the speed was too fast, the sound of the air breaking came one after another, which was really frightening.

Lin Yi's heart skipped a beat. That punch was just a small demonstration of Wu Bao Liang's true strength. Although he hadn't experienced the power of this move yet, he could tell from the strange formation that it was no small matter!

In the black gas and sand, Wu Bao Liang's figure was faintly discernible. Only his pair of triangular Yin Yang eyes remained clear, carrying a trace of inexplicable horror. It was as if a God had descended, making people not dare to look directly at him.

Wu Bao Liang laughed coldly as he punched towards Lin Yi. In an instant, black gas and sand flew towards Lin Yi.

Qi Wenhan and the others were anxious when they saw this. If it was another open space, even if they couldn't fight back, they would at least have a chance to escape.

But this was an arena battle, and the space was so small. The black smoke and sand were overwhelming, and Lin Yi didn't even have the chance to move.

Without a doubt, Lin Yi's body was instantly swallowed by the black sand. The audience cried out in shock. At this time, they couldn't see the situation on the stage with their eyes alone. They could only sense with their divine sense, but even so, they could only get a vague idea at most.

Chapter 4477 Killing Thousand Explosion

Even though the black sand created by Wu Bao Liang could not completely block out divine sense like the sea fog and miasma fog, it could still have a similar effect.

Isolating one's spiritual sense was an extremely exaggerated thing for ordinary cultivators. The vast majority of people would not be able to reach such a height even if they spent their entire lives. This required an extremely high spiritual sense talent, and at the same time, coupled with unending hard work and cultivation, to have a slight chance of doing it.

Everyone sighed. This Wu Bao Liang who suddenly appeared was unknown and had no reputation at all. They didn't expect him to be such a genius!

Lin Yi didn't just give up in the black smoke and sand-this wasn't his style at all. It was hard to see everything around him with his spirit sense, but with Lin Yi's sharp senses and the Jade, he could sense the potential danger ahead of time.

The moment he was covered in the black sand, Lin Yi immediately made a judgment. The black gas's purpose was most likely to block off perception and divine sense, so it shouldn't be too much of a threat on its own. The real fatal thing should be the sand hidden in it.

Therefore, even though it looked extremely dangerous, as long as he could avoid the violent sand currents hidden in the black gas, he should be able to break the opponent's violent sand thousand explosive fist.

Of course, it was easy to say, but to really do it was as difficult as ascending to the sky. This was because the violent sand currents hidden in the black gas were not just one or two, but hundreds or even thousands of them. Moreover, they were extremely fast. It was easier said than done to completely avoid them under the premise that the perception of the divine sense was blocked! Even if he had the jade pendant, it wouldn't do, because there was danger all around him!

However, since he was trapped in the black sand, Lin Yi couldn't just wait for death. No matter how slim the chance was, he had to try.

Using the butterfly microsteps at full force, Lin Yi's figure flickered back and forth under the black veil, like a ghost, drifting erratically.

"You're still not giving up? Then I'll play with you!" Wu Bao Liang's signature cold laugh was particularly ear-piercing in the black smoke and sand.

Before he could finish his sentence, the hundreds of swirling sand currents instantly pounced on Lin Yi from all directions. The sound of the sand breaking through the air became more and more shrill, making one's scalp numb. If it were a timid person, they'd probably be scared half to death, let alone dodging and running around in the black sand.

However, Lin Yi was still calm and composed. Facing hundreds of violent sand currents, normal people would be panicking and not know what to do, but Lin Yi's body was flashing and turning in the middle.

The violent sand currents were coming from all directions, and there was no gap at all, but Lin Yi used his agile movements to squeeze out a gap and successfully avoid the first round of encirclement!

This time, Wu Bao Liang, who was originally a little absent-minded, thinking that he was playing a cat playing with a mouse, was really shocked. The violent sand thousand explosion fist was his strongest trump card. In the past, once he used it, it would definitely be able to easily kill the opponent. Even when facing an original infant stage opponent, it was a hundred times more effective.

He didn't expect that he would encounter such a setback when dealing with a mere intermediate golden core cultivator! No wonder this kid was able to cripple old Kong, a peak early Yuanying stage master. It seems that he does have some skill.

However, he was still far from that!

Wu Bao Liang's triangular Yin Yang eyes were filled with killing intent. The black gas covered the area that he could control with his mind. The sand currents swirled around Lin Yi's body rapidly, forming a huge sand Whirlpool. Lin Yi was right in the center of the whirlpool, unable to move forward or retreat.

Lin Yi had a bad feeling about this-even without touching the sand, he knew that it was extremely dangerous. It wasn't as simple as normal sand.

As long as anything reached its extreme speed, even a small grain of sand could easily kill people. This was the case for picking leaves and Flying Flowers, let alone such a turbulent sand Whirlpool.

In this situation, no matter how agile Lin Yi was, he couldn't get through the vortex unscathed. Before the opponent attacked, the best way to deal with it was to force his way out.

There was no room for hesitation at a time like this-Lin Yi was well aware of this. He channeled his Qi and threw out a wild fire Eight Trigram Palm's thirtieth style. It was his most powerful skill at the moment, and whether he could break out of this encirclement or not depended on this.

BOOM! The crowd outside the arena only heard a sudden explosion. As for what exactly happened on the stage, they could not clearly sense it. They could only raise their heads and look at each other in anticipation.

In the black Qi and sand, Wu Bao Liang's face suddenly changed. This kid actually broke his sand vortex!

At that moment, even Wu Bao Liang couldn't help but look at Lin Yi in a new light. The dodging and dodging earlier could be said to be a trick, but this time, it was completely a head-on collision. Even those peak early nascent soul practitioners wouldn't have such shocking destructive power. This Ling Yi who came out of nowhere was really no small matter.

Lin Yi let out a breath of relief as he opened up a path with his palm. He quickly retreated. If even this didn't work, he would be in real danger today.

With Lin Yi's ultimate trump card, no matter how strong his opponent was, as long as he was given enough time to charge, he'd still be the one laughing in the end.

However, at this time, Wu Bao Liang's cold shout suddenly came from the distance. Explode!

Lin Yi's hair stood on end as he realized that the name of this move wasn't violent sand fist, but violent sand thousand explosion fist. Everything was just a foreshadowing-the word "explosion" was the key, and that was where it really was fatal.

Unfortunately, it was too late for him to wake up now.

BOOM! BOOM! Boom ... Boom ...

A series of loud bangs, like dense firecrackers, instantly resounded throughout the entire mo Leng square. Everyone in the square was shocked and looked at the stage in horror. They were so shocked that they could not close their mouths for a long time.

Because of the black gas, they still did not know what was happening in the ring at this moment. However, there were many people present who were experienced and knowledgeable. Even if they used their toes to guess the power behind such a strong vibration, they could also guess it.

This was definitely not a movement that could be created by an ordinary move. Not to mention the Masters of the jiedan stage, even many of the Yuanying stage Masters present, even the Masters of the middle Yuanying stage, could not help but reveal a look of horror at this moment. Such a huge movement, even if it was them, they may not be able to create it.

Chapter 4478 Lin Yi Lost

Qi Wenhan and the others were all nervous, staring at every movement on the stage. Even if they couldn't see what was going on, they didn't let go of any sign, afraid that something would happen to Lin Yi.

A moment later, a figure fell out of the black gas, and everyone's worry turned into reality. It was Lin Yi.

"Brother Ling! How are you doing?" Qi Wenhan quickly shouted and rushed over. Lin Yi's body was surrounded by black gas, giving people the feeling that he was corroded by the black gas. There were burn marks all over his body, and some places were even bloody. It was a shocking sight.

The entire crowd was in an uproar. This battle that no one could see the true face of actually ended with Ling Yi being thrown off the stage in such a miserable manner. It was somewhat unexpected, but it was still within reason.

Qi Wenhan was at a loss for what to do-he circled around Lin Yi like a headless fly, not knowing what to do.

He didn't know how to treat Lin Yi, and he couldn't even tell what kind of injury Lin Yi was suffering from or how serious it was. He could only watch from the side, rubbing his hands anxiously.

Fortunately, Lin Yi's injuries weren't as serious as they thought. He looked like a mess, but it wasn't a serious injury. At least he could sit up and heal himself.

Of course, this was mainly because he had used a lot of true energy to protect his body, and also because Wu Bao Liang did not want to kill him.

To Lin Yi, as long as he still had the energy to heal, it wasn't a big deal. Especially since he didn't have any serious injuries, it would only take a moment for him to recover.

Lin Yi knew that it wasn't a big problem, but his current state wasn't just miserable in the eyes of the others. He was practically a cripple on the verge of death.

There were wounds all over his body, and they were emitting an ominous black gas. If this wasn't a sign of death, what was it?

The black gas on the ring dissipated, and Wu Bao Liang's figure reappeared in everyone's eyes. Compared to just now, the crowd looked at him with more respect. This was the treatment that a strong person should receive.

"I announce that the Dragon Boat escort has won. You can continue to challenge your next opponent!" The executive judge immediately announced the result.

In this way, Longzhou escort agency directly snatched 100 points from Qitian escort agency, and its ranking moved up from sixth to fifth. As expected, it became one of the top five escort agencies, and the escort agency that was squeezed out was the most popular Overlord of the escort agencies, the four Seas escort agency.

Seeing the real-time change in the rankings, boundless sea, who was sitting in the middle of the judging team, once again had a face as dark as the bottom of a pot. It was so dark that water was about to drip out.

To be honest, whether it was the challenge to become the head of the escort agency or Wu Bao Liang stepping out to deal with Ling Yi, all of this had been planned by boundless sea personally, and it had achieved the desired results. However, the fact that his own Four Seas escort agency had been pushed out of the top five by Longzhou escort agency was definitely not part of boundless sea's plan.

In the beginning, he had planned for the four Seas escort agency to rank second after the fifth round of the escort tournament. Unfortunately, things did not go according to his wishes. The sudden emergence of the xuanying escort agency made his plan bubble. Not only did he fail to rank second, but he had also fallen to the fifth place. Now, he had even made such a mistake!

The head of the escort agency had actually been squeezed out of the top five. Looking at this awkward ranking on the point leaderboard, boundless sea felt like his face had been completely shattered. He would never be able to go out and meet anyone again ...

But now that things had come to this, it was too late for boundless sea to regret it. The show had only just begun. As long as he followed his plan, the four Seas escort agency still had a good chance of making a comeback.

Boundless sea could only bury his head like an ostrich, constantly consoling himself. Right now, he was only temporarily being stepped on, so a bit of awkwardness was inevitable. However, the one who laughed until the end was the true winner.

At this moment, other than Qi Wenhan and the others who were surrounding Lin Yi, everyone's eyes were focused on Wu baoliang. They only wanted to know one question, who were they going to challenge next?

The twelve escort agencies on the list were all in a state of panic, especially those high-level golden core stage cultivators whose names were on the list. They were afraid that Wu Bao Liang would mention the name of their agency next. Losing points was not a big deal, but they were afraid of losing their lives!

"The opponent I've decided to challenge is still Qitian escort." Wu baoliang sneered from the arena.

As soon as these words were spoken, the entire place was in an uproar again. They had already won once, yet they were still not satisfied. They actually wanted to continue with the challenges. Wasn't it obvious that they were trying to destroy the Qitian bodyguard agency?

Previously, everyone thought that the Qitian bodyguard agency was in the limelight, especially those in the same industry as them. Their faces were full of envy and jealousy that could not be hidden. However, after hearing Wu Bao Liang's words, the envy and jealousy instantly disappeared. Instead, they looked at the Qitian bodyguard agency with a little sympathy.

In front of Wu baoliang and the Longzhou escort agency, Qitian escort agency was not a Dark Horse at all, but a piece of fat meat that was dripping with oil.

From the looks of it, they wouldn't give up until they had a piece of meat in their mouths. Qitian bodyguard agency's tribulation had just begun.

However, Qitian escort agency was the one who was being tortured anyway. It had nothing to do with the others present. They were happy to watch the two escort agencies from the Xiao Luo sea fight each other to the death. There were many people who gloated over their misfortune.

The other judges were all looking at him as if they were watching a good show. Boundless sea, in particular, was laughing coldly. Qi Mingyuan couldn't help but feel anxious. Now that Ling Yi was seriously injured, he definitely couldn't continue to fight. The only golden core stage higher-up left in the Qitian bodyguard agency was Qi Wenhan.

However, even Ling Yi wasn't Wu Bao Liang's match, let alone his own son, Qi Wen han. Wasn't this sending him to his death?

"Escort leader hai, you've racked your brains to come up with such an unfair challenge. Not only will you be criticized for no good reason, but you'll also end up working for someone else while the four Seas escort agency can't get any benefits. Don't you think you're too stupid?" Qi Mingyuan looked at boundless sea coldly.

Even a man made of mud would have some anger, let alone Qi Mingyuan, a formidable character. Now that things had developed to this point, he was not afraid of openly falling out with him.

"I don't really understand what you're saying, chief escort Qi." Boundless sea's expression suddenly changed. He put on an official tone and said, ""The original intention of me proposing this challenge is to test the integrity of the high-level members of each escort agency, in case someone uses their connections and background to deceive the public and ruin the reputation of the entire South continent escort agency Alliance. Is it wrong to only serve justice?"

Chapter 4479 Delay

"We're all smart people, so we know who's right and who's wrong. Escort leader hai, why do you still have to put on an act? My Qitian bodyguard agency might not be having a good time, but your Four Seas bodyguard agency will probably be in for nothing as well. Hmph, Hmph, you're just a villain, yet you're being stepped on by others. How laughable and pathetic!" Qi Mingyuan snorted.

According to the rules of the competition, although the four Seas escort agency, which did not have any golden core senior executives, was in an undefeatable position, it was also difficult for them to get a share of the loot. Only if the winner of the Longzhou escort agency voluntarily gave up the right to challenge and entered the draw again, and won the right to challenge, would they have a chance.

However, the probability of such a thing happening was very low. Therefore, if this continued, the escort agencies such as the four Seas escort agency could only watch helplessly as the points of the Longzhou escort agency rose higher and higher. They could not do anything even if the Longzhou escort agency climbed over their heads.

It was obvious that the four Seas escort agency, which had fallen out of the top five, had become the first victim. Next would be the xuanying escort agency, Tianhong escort agency, and shenfeng escort agency ...

Hearing this, even Zhao bufan and the others started to look at boundless sea with hostility.

Although they were not being chased and beaten like the Qitian escort agency, and their ranking would not be affected too much, the problem was that the Qitian escort agency had suddenly appeared and stepped on their heads. It was one thing, but now even the Longzhou escort agency was stepping on their heads. Who could stand this?

They were one of the five major bodyguard agencies, a high and mighty traditional wealthy family. How could they tolerate such grassroots bodyguard agencies with no background stepping on their heads one after another? did they not want their face?

Everyone suddenly realized that Boundless Sea hadn't just shot himself in the foot. He had also shot them in the foot.

"Hehe, if you insist that I'm targeting your Qitian escort agency, aren't you overthinking it, chief escort Qi? "No matter what you think, I have a clear conscience. The rules of the competition are right here, and it's fair to everyone. As long as you have the strength, everyone has a chance to stand out. If you feel that you've suffered a loss, then it can only mean one thing. You can't blame anyone for your own lack of strength." Boundless Sea was still as righteous as ever.

"Hmph, since escort leader Hai is so unyielding, then I have nothing to say. A word of advice, justice is in the hearts of the people, and a clown will not be able to achieve anything." Qi Mingyuan gave Boundless Sea a deep look, but didn't say anything else.

"I'll return this sentence to your Qitian bodyguard agency. It's a short-lived occurrence. I think it's quite appropriate." Boundless Sea laughed coldly.

Seeing Qi Mingyuan, Zhao Bufan, and the others' unfriendly expressions, Boundless Sea's gloominess dissipated. He couldn't help but sneer in his heart. A bunch of ignorant fools. Do you really think Longzhou escort will have the last laugh? Do you really think that I'm out of my mind?

With Longzhou escort's weakness in his hands, Boundless Sea wasn't afraid of them increasing their points. It didn't matter how many points they had. If they released this bomb, Longzhou escort would lose all their qualifications. They wouldn't be a threat at all.

However, his Four Seas escort agency was currently in sixth place. Even if Qitian escort agency and Longzhou escort agency were both eliminated, they would at most return to fourth place. The other escort agencies would still take advantage of the situation. Before that, he needed to think of a good plan. He, boundless sea, would not do something as stupid as giving others a wedding dress for nothing.

"Uncle song, I'll leave the bodyguard agency to you. I'll go up and meet this Wu Bao Liang." Qi Wenhan's expression was cold. After instructing Butler song, he immediately prepared to go up the stage to fight.

Now that Lin Yi was injured and couldn't go, he was the only one left. If he didn't go, who would?

So this time, neither Qi Mingyuan, who was sitting in the judging team, nor Butler song, who was next to him, had any intention of stopping him. Even if they knew it was dangerous, even if they might be beaten to death, they had to go. The people of the Qitian bodyguard agency were never cowards, not to mention that Qi Wenhan was the young master!

Qi Wenhan was ready to die as he walked towards the stage with determination. Just as he was about to step on the stage, Lin Yi's voice came from behind him, "Brother Qi, please wait."

"Brother Ling?" Qi Wenhan was overjoyed. He stopped in his tracks and turned to Lin Yi with concern, "Brother Ling, how are your injuries? Are you okay?"

"I'm alright, there's nothing serious. " Lin Yi grinned. After the Qi treatment, Wu Bao Liang's injuries were almost healed, and they would be completely removed soon.

"That's good, that's good. " Qi Wenhan let out a breath of relief. If Lin Yi really did something bad this time, he'd blame himself to death with his personality. Lin Yi didn't look like he was putting on an act, and he was in a good state.

Nodding to Lin Yi, Qi Wenhan turned around and walked back to the arena. The stone in his heart was finally lifted, and his steps were more relaxed and fearless. Even Wu Bao Liang raised his eyebrows slightly.

"Brother Qi, I'm going to get back my face. Don't fight with me." Lin Yi suddenly said.

Qi Wenhan stopped in his tracks and turned to Lin Yi with a troubled expression. If Lin Yi had used any other excuse, he would've denied it without a second thought.

After all, he was the young master of the agency, and he had the right to decide who should go and who should not. Lin Yi had already given so much for the Qitian bodyguard agency, and he was even injured. How could he let his Savior continue to fight with his injuries? He, Qi Wenhan, would never repay kindness with ingratitude.

But now, Lin Yi said that he wanted to get back at him, which meant that this was a personal grudge between him and Wu baoliang, especially since he had been preparing to make a move on Wu baoliang until today. In this case, even Qi Wenhan couldn't interfere.

"But ..." Qi Wenhan frowned. He didn't know what to say, but he wouldn't allow Lin Yi to go into battle again with his injuries.

"No buts, brother Qi. You have to listen to me this time." Lin Yi interrupted. He didn't have the time to convince Qi Wenhan, so he had to use this method to solve the problem.

Seeing Lin Yi's determined expression, Qi Wenhan was helpless. He couldn't let Lin Yi fight, but he couldn't go against Lin Yi's wishes either. He was in a dilemma.

"Hey, how long are you guys going to dawdle? are you going up or not? Are the people from Qitian bodyguard agency all cowards? don't they even have the courage to fight?" Wu baoliang crossed his arms and made sarcastic remarks in the ring.

Chapter 4480 I Will Spare Your Life!

Of course, he wanted Lin Yi to fight again, but if it was Qi Wenhan, it didn't matter. At most, he'd just have to spend more effort to get rid of the young master of the Qitian bodyguard agency. It wouldn't be a big deal.

Qi Wenhan's face froze, and the veins on his forehead bulged. He was about to go up to the stage to fight, but Lin Yi's eyes swept over him, and he held back.

He'd gotten to know Lin Yi's personality better after spending time with him. He was usually easy to talk to, but he was very opinionated-even ten bulls wouldn't be able to stop him when he decided on something.

"I'll take on Qitian escort agency's challenge again. However, according to the rules, I should be able to rest for the time it takes for an incense stick to burn, right?" Lin Yi said faintly.

"Sure." The judge looked at Lin Yi-there was already someone on the side, counting down the time. It was only half-done, and Lin Yi still had time to rest.

"Hmph, fine, I'll let you live for another half an incense stick." Wu Bao Liang laughed coldly.

He knew how terrifying the violent sand thousand explosion fist was, so he wasn't worried about Lin Yi's recovery at all. It was impossible.

In fact, if he didn't hold back at the last moment, Lin Yi would've been a dead body by now.

"Brother Ling, then I'll leave it to you. But still, don't force yourself. You can lose your points, but nothing can happen to you." Qi Wenhan could only helplessly remind him.

"Don't worry, I know what I'm doing," Lin Yi nodded and closed his eyes again. To others, this was just a last-minute preparation, but they didn't know that after the Qi treatment, Lin Yi had already returned to his peak condition.

The reason why Lin Yi continued to meditate on the ground, other than confusing Wu Bao Liang and the outsiders, was that there was something more important. He was constantly simulating Wu Bao Liang's violent sand thousand explosive fist in his mind!

Wu baoliang was an evil practitioner, and Lin Yi had never really taken him seriously before, but after the battle, he had to admit that this evil practitioner was very strong, especially his violent sand thousand explosive fist. The power was no small matter.

This point could be seen from the fact that Lin Yi's wild fire Eight Trigram palm couldn't completely penetrate the opponent's body. The opponent was only at the peak of the Golden core realm, but the power he used was at the mid-stage of the nascent soul realm. It was so exaggerated that it wasn't inferior to Lin Yi's most relied on wild fire Eight Trigram palm.

More importantly, Wu Bao Liang's violent sand thousand explosion fist was not only powerful, but it was also very practical.

Unlike other killer moves that required the right timing and conditions, as long as the wild sand thousand explosion fist was used, the opponent would have no way to deal with it, whether it was used in a one on one or in a one on many situation, it was a rare and superior choice.

All in all, this was a rare killer move, so Lin Yi decided to keep it for himself!

After suffering from the opponent's killer move, he actually wanted to learn it on the spot. This kind of thing was completely impossible in the eyes of others, there was no way to put it into practice!

Not to mention whether or not he had the attribute requirements to cultivate the other party's killer move, even if the conditions were suitable, how could it be easy to cultivate it?

Other people might only be able to achieve a small success after decades of painstaking cultivation, but you want to achieve success in less than the time it takes for an incense stick to burn? how is that possible? This wasn't water in the brain, it was a brain in the water!

However, it was unrealistic to put it on other people, but it was a different story if it was on Lin Yi, who had five elements and seven attributes, and all of them were true spirit roots.

No matter what his opponent's moves were, Lin Yi could use the skills he already knew, along with the opponent's unique way of activating them. He could slowly deduce and combine them, and after getting familiar with them, he could truly use them as his own.

He'd done this a lot before, and the raging inferno Bagua Palm was one example. To level up quickly, one had to walk on two legs-leveling up was one thing, but one's skills had to evolve as well. Lin Yi was well-versed in this.

Of course, the combination of any martial skill was a very complicated and difficult thing to do. The more powerful the martial skill was, the harder it was to deduce. Even with Lin Yi's rich experience, he had a lot of things to do when facing Wu Bao Liang's violent sand thousand explosive fist.

Again and again, Lin Yi's mind was like a movie, replaying the situation on the stage, taking the violent sand thousand explosive fist apart bit by bit, combining it with his own understanding and comprehension, and putting it back together.

If the conditions allowed it, the best way was to try it out on the spot after deducing it in his mind for a while. Only then would he know if his deduction was successful and where the problem was.

But with so many eyes on him, Lin Yi didn't have the ability to do that. He could only practice it in his mind and use his experience to determine if it was successful or not. It was a really difficult skill, not something normal people could do.

In the end, after countless times of practice, the violent sand thousand explosive fist was finally reassembled successfully in Lin Yi's mind. However, it had a different appearance now. Once he used it, it would be very different from Wu Bao Liang's original violent sand thousand explosive fist.

This was something that couldn't be helped. Until now, Lin Yi still couldn't completely confirm whether the black Qi on Wu Bao Liang's body was a special characteristic of an evil practitioner or some extremely rare spiritual root attribute. So even with his five elements and seven attributes, he couldn't completely imitate the black Qi.

The time it took for an incense stick to burn wasn't long, and as the last bit of ash fell, everyone's spirits rose again. Although 99% of them thought that Lin Yi was dead for sure, there was still a strange excitement to watching a life and death battle like this, and they couldn't stop it.

Wu baoliang looked at Lin Yi from the corner of his eyes and was about to mock him, but Lin Yi stood up and walked up the stage.

"Hmph, at least you know your place." Wu baoliang looked at Lin Yi, who was standing not far from him, and laughed coldly, "Brat, I intentionally held back just now, allowing you to escape. Now, you should have realized the difference in strength between you and me, right? I'll say it one last time. Tell me that little trick and I'll spare your life!"
