

Bodyguard 4481

Chapter 4481 Try It!

"Hehe, actually, you won't kill me no matter what I say, right?" Lin Yi, on the other hand, smiled calmly without a hint of fear or nervousness. It was as if the loss didn't affect him at all, not only mentally, but physically as well. He looked like he was in his best condition.

Not only the audience, even Wu Bao Liang was a little stunned! He said that he was going easy, but the violent sand thousand explosion fist just now was actually at least 70% of its power, which was enough to kill an early Yuanying stage master, let alone a mere middle jiedan stage master.

Even if he knew that Ling Yi was not an ordinary mid-stage golden core cultivator, in Wu Bao Liang's opinion, even if Ling Yi did not die, he would definitely be seriously injured. It was possible for him to force his way up to the arena, but how could he still be so confident and calm? Could it be that this guy was born an actress? even at this time, he could still act so flawlessly?

Wu baoliang couldn't help but be suspicious, wondering if Lin Yi was just trying to be mysterious, but he didn't show it on his face.

"He won't kill you? Hehehehe, kid, where did you get your confidence from? I can still challenge the Qitian escort agency if I kill you, and I'll still get the points. Do you really think that anyone can stop me?" Wu Bao Liang sneered in disdain.

"I do, I can." Lin Yi nodded seriously.

As soon as his voice fell, the crowd burst into laughter. Wu Bao Liang was laughing so hard that he was convulsing, as if he had heard a big joke. He couldn't stand up for a long time.

He had just been beaten to a pulp, and in the blink of an eye, he dared to say that he could stop him in all seriousness. This kid's skin was really thick to a certain realm!

"Interesting! This is really interesting!" Wu baoliang laughed and pointed at Lin Yi, "Then you can gamble your life to stop me. This time, I won't hold back!"

"Sure, I'll try." Lin Yi smiled faintly.

With the order of the judge, the second Battle between the two officially began. This time, Wu Bao Liang was the first to launch an attack.

The black smoke started to spread out again. Wu Bao Liang didn't want to fight with Lin Yi anymore. He used his ultimate skill as soon as he got up. The black smoke engulfed Lin Yi instantly. The situation was exactly the same as before.

Qi Wenhan and the others were worried. They believed in Lin Yi and had confidence in his strength, but they were still worried when facing Wu baoliang's strength.

Lin Yi's first reaction was the same as before—he kept dodging and dodging, agilely avoiding the sand.

Seeing this scene, Wu Bao Liang couldn't help but laugh again. He thought that the other party had figured out some good move to counter his violent sand thousand explosive fist, which was why he was so confident. As it turned out, he didn't change at all.

In the face of his violent sand thousand explosive fist, unless it was an expert with a great deal of strength who could break through it head-on, any other tricks would be seeking death. No matter how brilliant his body technique was, could he completely avoid so many violent sand currents? Even if he could avoid it for a moment, could he avoid it forever?

This was the arena, after all, and there wasn't much space for him to Dodge. After being surrounded by so many violent sand currents, it was inevitable that he'd fall into the vortex. Lin Yi's last encounter was a living example, and this time would be no exception.

Lin Yi, however, seemed to be oblivious to it as he continued to Dodge with all his might. Because of his previous experience, he was clearly more skilled at dodging this time, and he managed to hold on for a longer time in the black smoke and sand. Unfortunately, it was all in vain.

In the midst of Wu Bao Liang's evil laughter, Lin Yi was once again trapped in the sand Whirlpool. According to the previous experience, the biggest danger would come next. This time, Wu Bao Liang didn't have any intention of holding back.

"Go to hell, explode!" Wu Bao Liang suddenly shouted, and the sand Whirlpool that surrounded Lin Yi suddenly stopped, as if time had stopped. Then, every sand particle started to tremble and explode one after another.

He'd experienced it himself-every grain of sand here was as powerful as high explosives in the mortal world, and there were thousands of them exploding!

From this point alone, the name of the violent sand thousand explosion fist was already very modest and low-key.

The continuous explosions shook everyone's nerves again. They were all looking forward to the scene of Lin Yi being sent flying again, and those who had a little sympathy started to mourn for Lin Yi.

However, the expected Lin Yi's figure didn't appear for a long time, and the crowd couldn't help but start discussing. It looked like he was in a worse state than last time-he probably didn't even have a corpse left.

However, at this moment, on the stage that was covered in black Qi and sand, a huge flame suddenly soared into the sky. In an instant, it illuminated the entire arena, making everyone dazzled.

What was going on? Everyone could not help but look at each other. At this moment, Wu Bao Liang's face suddenly changed. Something was wrong!

"He didn't f * cking die?" Wu Bao Liang finally realized something, and his face instantly turned extremely ugly. Without hesitation, he once again controlled the black gas to sweep up the yellow sand in the sky. The violent sand thousand explosion fist once again surged up, and went straight for the giant flame.

The deafening sound continued, and the ground shook. The entire square seemed to be shrouded in a natural disaster. For a moment, everyone's expression changed drastically, and they were in a panic.

No one knew what was going on in the arena, but those with better eyesight, like Qi Mingyuan, boundless sea, and Zhao Shanying, could tell that Lin Yi wasn't going to lose as easily as he did last time- he was going to counterattack.

Sure enough, the black sand that Wu Bao Liang once again set off was no longer unstoppable. It was actually blocked by the huge flame, unable to move an inch forward.

That was not all. At this time, the giant flame was still growing at an extremely fast speed. In a short moment, it had already occupied half of the field with Wu Bao Liang's Black gas and sand, and they were evenly matched!

Wu baoliang finally lost his composure-he could see Lin Yi's shadow in the huge fire, like a fire god descending to the world. He couldn't help but be in awe.

This scene, Wu Bao Liang saw it, and so did the crowd. They suddenly exclaimed and were in an uproar!

What was going on?

Chapter 4482 Wild Flame Thousand Explosive Fist

Under the illumination of this huge flame, Wu Bao Liang, who was originally hidden in the black gas and sand, also faintly revealed a human figure. This allowed the audience to see the true appearance of the two opponents for the first time.

Half of the arena was filled with black smoke and sand, while the other half was filled with flames. This was the scene on the arena at this moment. It gave everyone a shock and a huge sense of oppression, making them unable to speak for a long time.

In the face of such a shocking power, not to mention those Jindan stage experts, even the group of Yuanying stage experts from the escort agency couldn't hide the shock on their faces. They couldn't help but break out in cold sweat.

If they were the ones standing in the arena, they wouldn't be able to take it, no matter if it was Wu baoliang or Lin Yi. They might even lose their lives.

At this moment, everyone had the same question in their hearts. Were the two abnormal guys on the stage really Jindan stage experts? Had the world gone crazy?

"It's the same move?" Off stage, Zhao Shanying was suddenly in a daze. At the same time, Qi Mingyuan, boundless sea, and the others on the judging team could tell.

Although the two sides of the ring looked completely different at first glance, if one carefully observed and sensed, they would find that the moves of both sides were actually the same. Even if they were not exactly the same, they must be from the same root. If one had to describe it in detail, it could be considered two versions of the same move.

The people who saw the clues were only shocked, but Wu Bao Liang himself, as the person involved, was already in a state of shock at this moment, and he was going crazy!

"How is that possible? How can this kid also know the violent sand thousand explosive fist?" Other people would at most guess and doubt, but Wu Bao Liang himself could clearly feel that the move used by this kid in front of him was clearly a replica of his violent sand thousand explosive fist!

If he had not seen it with his own eyes, Wu Bao Liang would never have believed that there was such a thing in the world. The kid in front of him had just been defeated by his violent sand thousand explosive fist a few minutes ago. In the end, he had just turned his head around and actually used a decent version of the violent sand thousand explosive fist. The key point was that this was not just an act. The other party could actually use this to stand as an equal with him ...

Anyone would've gone crazy if they'd heard of this-giving someone a taste of their own medicine-this was only a legend circulating in the Wuxia World. It was impossible for it to happen to a practitioner, much less on this Sky Class Island. In the past, anyone who'd thrown out this kind of theory would've been seen as a madman, drowned in the saliva of the people around them.

But now, Lin Yi had given Wu baoliang and everyone here a huge lesson. They couldn't help but reevaluate the old saying, "there's always someone better."

"Fortunately, I didn't guess wrong. Otherwise, we'd be in big trouble this time." Lin Yi let out a long breath of air as he stood in the middle of the fire, his heart filled with excitement.

To be honest, he'd thought about it countless times in his head, but up until now, he still didn't know if he'd be able to successfully use it. After all, he'd never seen a move like this before, and even if he wanted to learn from it, it wouldn't be easy.

Lin Yi only needed to figure out how to activate the skills like the fiery Eight Trigrams palm and fiery thousand legs, and he could do it with ease. He imitated seventy percent of the skills and created thirty percent of the skills himself.

But this time, the violent sand thousand explosive fist was different. Whether it was Wu Bao Liang's Black Qi or violent sand, Lin Yi couldn't completely imitate them. Other than the core essence of the moves, everything else had to be created on the spot, and this was as difficult as ascending to the heavens.

Fortunately, the five elements and seven attributes weren't just for show. With his great creativity and the fact that he didn't attack directly just now, he went into the black Qi and sand again to observe and feel it. After verifying his guess, Lin Yi finally used the violent sand thousand explosion fist.

Of course, after the change, it couldn't be considered a pure violent sand thousand explosive fist anymore. Lin Yi decided to give it a more appropriate name, violent fire thousand explosive fist.

Wu Bao Liang could only helplessly watch as the opponent's aura became more and more powerful. The giant flames occupied more and more of the arena's territory. Wu Bao Liang could no longer remain calm. If he continued to let this go, his authentic violent sand thousand explosive fist might really lose to this counterfeit version of the opponent.

"Pretentious, he must be pretentious!" Wu Bao Liang suddenly laughed hysterically. His blurry figure that was shrouded in black smoke and sand became more and more strange and evil. He roared, "You idiot, so what if you can imitate it? it's just a facade. Do you think you can scare me like this? Tsk tsk, you don't understand the essence of the violent sand thousand explosive fist at all. You actually used this kind of three-legged cat technique to fight me. You're really hopelessly stupid!"

The crowd couldn't help but frown. Although Lin Yi's sudden move was shocking enough, they still thought that Wu Bao Liang had a higher chance of winning. After all, this was the original. If they were to fight head-on, there was no reason for him to lose to a fake that he just made.

However, after seeing Wu Bao Liang's hysterical appearance, everyone quietly changed their opinion.

In a fight between Masters, the worst thing was to be impatient. It didn't matter if Lin Yi knew this move from the beginning or just imitated it, it didn't matter if he had the shape or the essence, at least from the way Wu baoliang panicked, Lin Yi clearly had the upper hand.

Just as everyone was discussing, Wu Bao Liang's crazy laughter came from the ring again, "Since you want to imitate me, I'll show you mercy and teach you the essence of the violent sand thousand explosion fist. Explode!"

Accompanied by Wu Bao Liang's wild laughter, the familiar loud explosion once again exploded in the air on the ring. Because he did not hold back this time, even the ring that was set up with layers of powerful protective arrays began to feel a little overwhelmed. Cracks visible to the naked eye were actually blown out, and they rapidly expanded, densely covering the entire ring.

Open fire, thousand sand explosion, this was the true essence of the violent sand thousand explosion fist!

Even though Lin Yi's imitations were perfect, Wu Bao Liang didn't believe that Lin Yi could really grasp the essence of this technique. After all, this wasn't a normal technique. Not only did Lin Yi have to master the technique, but he also had to go through specialized training. He had to train for at least a few decades before he had the confidence to succeed.

Wu Bao Liang's confidence was not without reason, because in order to do this, he must first master another crucial pre-martial skill, the killing everything.

Chapter 4483 Turning Defeat Into Victory

Killing everything was the Natal martial skill that Wu Bao Liang had been focusing on since he started cultivating. The principle was to make all the objects within the control range collide with each other and kill each other. This was the prerequisite for cultivating the violent sand thousand explosion fist.

This was because the most crucial part of the violent sand thousand explosion fist's final lethal thousand heavy explosion was to control the sand transformed by thousands of devil Qi to collide with each other and produce an astonishing power. The angle, position, speed, and strength had to be perfectly controlled. Any mistake in any link would lead to failure at the last step.

The difficulty of this could be imagined. Wu Bao Liang believed that his cultivation talent was extremely high. However, even for him, it took him decades of dedicated and bitter cultivation before he could barely grasp the trick and successfully cultivate such an amazing move like the violent sand thousand explosion fist.

It was impossible for anyone to master the violent sand thousand explosion fist overnight, even if they were a heavenly gifted genius.

However, Lin Yi's shout that came from the giant fire instantly overturned Wu Bao Liang's outlook on life. This guy was even imitating this step ...

"Explode!" As Lin Yi's voice fell, a series of explosions came from the giant fire. The power was so shocking that it was even stronger than the original version of Wu Bao Liang.

At this moment, the black sand and the giant flame exploded at the same time. The aftermath and air waves caused by the collision instantly swept through the entire square. A large number of spectators who could not stand still were sent flying, and the scene was chaotic.

At the same time, accompanied by a loud cracking sound, the ring that was meticulously reinforced by multiple protective arrays actually collapsed directly and turned into a pile of ruins.

The whole arena was in an uproar. It was not because the ring had collapsed, but because the winner of the duel had finally been determined. Wu Bao Liang's Black sand was completely unable to withstand the increasingly strong fire. In a short moment, the army was defeated like a mountain, and was directly swallowed up.

"Impossible! "No..." Wu Bao Liang couldn't even finish his sentence. His entire body was blown away by the strong impact of the soaring flame. He fell a few hundred feet away. His whole body was charred black. He was in an unspeakable miserable state.

After a while, the blinding flames dissipated, and Lin Yi's figure slowly appeared in the ruins of the stage. In the afterglow of the light, it was as if a fire god had descended.

Perhaps it was because he just used the wild flame thousand explosive fist, but Lin Yi's aura was no longer as light as before. It was extremely sharp and overbearing, and even someone like boundless sea didn't dare to look him in the eye. He was so overbearing that it was a mess.

"I declare that the Qitian escort agency has won. You may continue to challenge your next opponent!" In the silence of the audience, the executive judge was the first to react and announce the result.

Only then did everyone come back to their senses from the shock. Each of their faces was filled with different expressions, especially Cheng haonan, long kuiba, and boundless sea. These guys thought that Wu Bao Liang had Lin Yi in the palm of his hand. Their faces were ugly, and they couldn't say a word for a long time.

Qi Wenhan and the others burst into cheers. Before Lin Yi went up the stage again, they were prepared to face failure. As long as Lin Yi was fine, they would be satisfied. They didn't expect Lin Yi to be so heaven-defying, using his opponent's ultimate move to knock down his opponent!

Lin Yi stood in the ruins of the arena, his eyes finally landing on Wu baoliang. Although this guy was sent flying and looked quite miserable, he was far from being seriously injured to the point of death.

Lin Yi didn't have any intention of holding back when dealing with a heartless bastard like Wu baoliang, but this was his first time using the wild flame thousand explosive fist. It was already good enough that he could successfully use it. He still didn't have full control over this new move, whether it was the power or the timing, it was still lacking.

"It's a pity," Lin Yi shook his head faintly. He felt a little regretful that he couldn't kill this guy in one go, but it didn't matter. He turned to the judges and said loudly, "I've decided to challenge the Longzhou escort agency. "

There was another uproar. The audience couldn't help but feel that they didn't come in vain today. Not only did they witness the heaven-defying strength of two super strong golden core stage experts, but a moment ago, Wu Bao Liang was still stepping on their noses and preparing to trample the Qitian bodyguard agency to death. In the blink of an eye, the situation was reversed. This kind of "repaying kindness and enmity" game had always been the most popular topic of discussion in the streets.

Qi Wenhan and the others didn't have any objections to Lin Yi's decision. Although they were worried that Lin Yi wouldn't be able to continue the challenge, they would make the same decision if they had the strength.

The South continent's Sea area had never been a place of benevolence and righteousness, not to mention that the other party was an old enemy with a deep grudge. If he didn't take this opportunity to stomp him to death, there would be endless trouble in the future.

In comparison, the faces of the people from Longzhou bodyguard agency were much uglier, especially long kuiba and Cheng haonan. They gritted their teeth in hatred. They still couldn't accept the reality that Wu baoliang, who was as strong as a mid-stage nascent soul cultivator, was defeated by Lin Yi?

"What do we do?" Long kuiba looked at Cheng haonan. Because he firmly believed that Wu Bao Liang was an invincible existence, he had never anticipated such a situation. He didn't know how to deal with it.

"There's nothing else to do. I can only do it myself. " Cheng haonan's eyes were cold as he looked at Lin Yi. He wanted to kill Lin Yi with a borrowed knife, but the situation forced him to do it himself. In order to take revenge for his son's death, he had to do it even if he had to be punished later!

"That's good, then I'll leave it to vice escort leader Cheng. " Long kuiba nodded his head. Although he was also an expert at the great circle of the Golden core stage, Cheng haonan's strength was even stronger than Wu Bao Liang 's. If he were to take action, it would definitely be foolproof.

"Wait, I'll do it myself. I was just careless and underestimated the enemy just now. This time, I'm going to kill this bastard!" At this moment, Wu Bao Liang, who was in a sorry state, suddenly stood up and walked over. He gritted his teeth and said. Although he looked rather miserable now, from his current footsteps and state, he still had the strength to fight.

"Are you sure there's no problem?" Long kuiba furrowed his brows, his eyes clearly showing a bit of distrust. Don't look at how he had previously held this so-called military counselor in high regard. It was purely due to the combination of interests. Once this person's value was doubted, naturally, he would not be so kind to him.

Chapter 4484 Who Will Stand At The End

In his eyes, Wu Bao Liang could easily defeat all the Golden core stage experts in the other escort agencies. However, this was already history. Since this guy lost to Ling Yi once, there would definitely be a second time. Moreover, he lost in such a humiliating way. Even if he was the one to fight in the next round, the chances of him winning were not high.

Wu Bao Liang didn't answer, he turned to look at Cheng Hao Nan, waiting for the boss of the poison eye mercenary group to speak.

"I'm confident in the military counselor's abilities. Since he's made such a request, I'll let him deal with this Ling Yi kid himself. " Cheng haonan immediately pushed the boat with the current.

He wouldn't personally take care of Lin Yi unless it was the last resort. Now that Wu Bao Liang wanted to try again, he had no reason to stop him.

After all, no matter if Wu Bao Liang won or lost, it would not be a loss to him. As for the points, that was long kuiba's concern. What the hell did it have to do with him, Cheng haonan?

"This ... Alright, then I'll leave it to you, military counselor." Long kuiba had no choice but to give up. Facing Lin Yi's public challenge, the Longzhou escort agency only had two people they could rely on-Wu baoliang and Cheng haonan.

In the current situation, the stronger Cheng haonan was naturally the more reliable choice, but now that even he had said so, what could he do?

At the end of the day, they were just allies who had come together because of their own interests. As the head of the Longzhou escort agency, Long Kuiba had no binding power over people like Cheng Haonan and could only do as he pleased.

Since Wu Bao Liang was going to fight again, according to the rules, he could get a joss stick's time to rest. During this time, not only could he recover his true Qi, but he could also think of countermeasures and make a move after thinking about it. At the very least, he could always adjust his mentality and not be so impetuous when he went to the battle again.

However, what made everyone's jaw drop was that Wu Bao Liang couldn't even endure for a breath's time, let alone a joss stick's time. After Long Kuiba and Cheng Haonan nodded, they immediately rushed to the ruins of the arena in an aggressive manner.

"Where did you secretly learn this violent sand thousand explosive fist? Impossible, it's impossible for you to know how to kill everything. It's absolutely impossible! This is my unique skill!" Wu Baoliang pointed at Lin Yi's nose in anger.

It was no wonder that he was so excited. Any normal person in his position would probably be driven mad too. To be defeated by someone using the move that he was most proud of, especially when the other party didn't know it in the previous match, but in the next one, he knew it. How could he live?

"All things kill each other?" Lin Yi blinked and shook his head. "I don't know what killing everything is, but there are always people better than you. There are so many strong people in the world, is it rare for someone to use your martial arts? And a unique martial technique? Hehe, you actually believe such lies to a three-year-old? Didn't anyone tell you to eat something to boost your brain?"

"Wayayayayaya! Go to hell!" After being teased by Lin Yi, Wu baoliang was even more pissed off. Before the judge said anything, the black gas around him started to rage. He attacked first.

"You don't look young anymore, but you can't take a joke. Tsk tsk." Lin Yi smiled mockingly as he slowly raised his fist, sending a blazing fire into the sky.

The executive judge was helpless. Looking at Wu Bao Liang's irrational appearance, he didn't dare to stop him for a while. He was afraid that this guy would vent his anger on him. He couldn't bear it.

Originally, because the ring had collapsed, the five big shots of the judging team were still discussing whether to change the venue. However, when they saw the posture of these two people, they immediately stopped discussing it. In any case, even if they changed the ring, it would still end up like this. It was better to let them finish first. They immediately signaled the executive judge to announce the start of the game.

Half of it was filled with black gas and sand, while the other half was filled with flames. The situation was the same as before. The only difference was that Wu Bao Liang couldn't hold it in this time and directly exploded without saying a word.

"If you want to court death, no one can stop you." Lin Yi said with a cold smile.

Even if he had not yet mastered the newly developed wild flame thousand explosive fist, its destructive power was definitely not a joke. If Wu Bao Liang used his full strength, he might have some room to contend with him, but if he was as impatient as he was now, it was no different from courting death.

To destroy it, one must first make it crazy. Wu Bao Liang's current state was a living portrayal of this saying.

Explode! Along with Lin Yi's cold shout, the fire rushed into the sky and instantly swallowed the black sand. Last time, Wu Bao Liang could still struggle, but this time, he didn't even have a chance to struggle. He was crushed by Lin Yi without any suspense.

The soaring flame was getting closer and closer. Even though it was not completely close to his body, the heat was getting more and more unbearable. Wu Bao Liang's eyes suddenly opened wide, and he mumbled a few words, "I see ..."

Only now did he understand Lin Yi's methods. His violent sand thousand explosive fist used sand to create sand explosions, but Lin Yi's violent flame thousand explosive fist used fire crystals to collide!

According to the legends, any flame that reached a certain temperature could mutate and form high-temperature and powerful fire crystals. Even if they were as small as sand, the destructive power contained in them was absolutely not to be underestimated.

Wu baoliang didn't even dream that Lin Yi's control of fire had reached such a level. Compared to his sand, Lin Yi's fire crystals were more active, easier to control, and more powerful!

No wonder this guy could also use the thousand explosion. No wonder even though it was a counterfeit version of the violent sand thousand explosion fist, its power was far stronger than his own. In an instant, Wu Bao Liang understood everything.

His heart was drowned by endless fear. If he was given another chance to choose, he would never fight Lin Yi again. Unfortunately, he realized it too late.

The glittering and translucent fire crystals had already stuck to his body. These things looked beautiful, but they were the death God's talismans that could take people's lives.

There was a loud explosion, and the entire moleng city trembled. Then, the whole world fell silent.

Everyone's eyes were wide open as they stared at the ruins, waiting for the dust to settle down and reveal the two figures. One was Lin Yi, who was standing with his hands behind his back, and the other was Wu Bao Liang, who was on the ground, breathing out black smoke.

Chapter 4485 He Also Has This Tone

The entire moleng square was silent for a long time. Even the judge did not dare to speak. In a battle of this level, unless it was a life-and-death battle or someone fell out of the ring, the judge would not dare to intervene.

The strange and tense atmosphere lasted for a while, and after confirming that Wu baoliang was dead, the judge finally announced Lin Yi's victory. The crowd finally burst into an uproar.

Everyone's respect for Wu baoliang had shifted to Lin Yi, and it was even more than that.

It could be said that he was lucky to win the previous match, but now he won two matches in a row. Even Wu Bao Liang was killed, and the key was that he died under his own moves. There was nothing to say.

There were so many masters here, not to mention the Golden core stage bodyguards, even if it was the original infant stage, there were only a few who could really suppress Wu baoliang. As for using Wu baoliang's own moves to kill him, it was even more impossible. And yet, such an exaggerated and heaven-defying thing was done by Lin Yi in front of everyone.

Hu! Looking at Wu baoliang's body on the ground, Lin Yi let out a long breath. This way, his trip to the South continent was finally complete.

A lot of things happened in between, and there were a lot of unexpected gains and encounters, but it was undeniable that this mission was a little too long. It was just to capture a black magic practitioner, Wu baoliang, but it took several months from the start to now. Even Lin Yi couldn't help but feel mentally tired.

But if he hadn't gotten stronger in the past few months, he really wouldn't be able to do anything against Wu Bao Liang, who was at mid-nascent soul level. Now, things were going smoothly. Not only did he complete the mission, but his strength also increased a lot because of the wild flame thousand explosive fist.

Wu baoliang was already dead, and Lin Yi's purpose for coming to the South continent escort party was achieved. He could leave now. Besides, he'd already fought with Wu baoliang three times in a row. Even if he won, people would think that he'd used up a lot of pure energy and didn't have much combat power left.

However, Lin Yi was still standing in the middle of the ruins, not moving an inch. He looked at Cheng haonan from afar and said faintly, "I'll continue to challenge the Longzhou escort agency. "

Everyone was speechless, and they looked at Lin Yi with a strange look. This guy wasn't only strong, but he was also so domineering. He just lost to Wu baoliang once, and now he killed Wu baoliang. It was obvious that he was going to take his anger out on the whole Dragon Boat escort!

What they didn't know was that Lin Yi wasn't interested in dealing with the Longzhou escort agency at all. He just wanted to use this opportunity to get rid of the root of the problem, getting rid of Cheng haonan as well.

"Haha, young hero Ling is indeed a quick-witted person. You have a good personality!" Qi Mingyuan laughed as he sat in the judge's seat. If it was anyone else who saw Lin Yi acting on his own, they'd probably feel uncomfortable in his position, but Qi Mingyuan didn't. He'd always been a straightforward person, and Lin Yi's behavior was exactly what he liked.

A real man should be decisive and take revenge. If he were Lin Yi, he'd do the same. As long as nothing happened to the person, it didn't matter if he lost points or not. This was the aura that the Qitian bodyguard agency should have.

In comparison, boundless sea, who was sitting next to Qi Mingyuan, didn't have a good expression on his face. He looked at long kuiba and Cheng haonan with eyes that were spitting fire. He even wanted to skin these two useless B * stars alive!

He didn't hesitate to offend the other judges and thought of all ways to challenge the head of the escort agency just so that the Dragon Boat escort agency would have a chance to deal with Ling Yi and Qitian escort agency.

Previously, Cheng haonan and his gang had also claimed that they would be able to capture Ling Yi easily. In the end, not only did they fail to kill Ling Yi and suffocate the Qitian bodyguard agency, they even boosted their morale and increased their points. Wasn't this akin to shooting themselves in the foot?

If this continued, who would be able to stop the rise of Qitian escort agency? All of boundless sea's plans had been a complete joke.

If the four Seas escort agency wanted to rise up again, the most basic prerequisite was that Longzhou escort agency had to get rid of Qitian escort agency. Then, they had to use their trump card to remove Longzhou escort agency from the list. This way, they could kill two birds with one stone. But now, they couldn't even take the first step. So what if boundless sea got rid of Longzhou escort agency?

The Qitian escort agency was still high and mighty, and no one could shake its position. It was about to take over as the leader of the escort agency, while the four Seas escort agency was about to become history ...

This result made boundless sea want to cry, but there was nothing he could do. He didn't have someone as insane as Lin Yi, and even if he did, the four Seas escort agency wouldn't have the chance to challenge him. They could only watch, unable to do anything.

The only consolation for boundless sea was that the Longzhou escort agency had lost two rounds in a row, so their points had dropped by 200 points. They had just lost all the 200 points they had won earlier, allowing the four Seas escort agency to finally return to fifth place. This was a blessing in disguise.

Boundless sea was frowning, and as the target of Lin Yi's challenge, Longzhou escort was the one in the most serious situation. Not only did they lose Wu Bao Liang, a super peak Jindan stage, but their points were also in danger. The entire Longzhou escort was in a precarious situation.

This time, he had no other choice but to let Cheng haonan fight personally. Even if he wanted to avoid it, he couldn't. Furthermore, Fang Lingyi had presented him with a chance to take revenge, how could he run away?

With a serious expression, Cheng haonan slowly walked up the stage. In order to take care of the audience, they arranged for a spare challenge ring. Although the security wasn't as tight as before, as long as it wasn't like Lin Yi and Wu Bao Liang's earlier attack, it shouldn't be a big problem.

"Since you want to die so badly, I'll be merciful and fulfill your wish." Cheng haonan looked at Lin Yi coldly.

Although he said so, he was still extremely vigilant in his heart. Although Wu Bao Liang's strength was slightly inferior to his, the difference between the two was not much, especially the violent sand thousand explosion fist. Even he had to deal with it carefully. If he was not careful, he would suffer a big loss, and even fail in an easy task.

"Oh, alright, but Wu Bao Liang was also using the same tone just now." Lin Yi looked at him innocently, and the crowd burst into laughter. They were strong, but the people from Longzhou bodyguard agency were all arrogant.

Chapter 4486 Combat Machine

"Bastard! I'll make you pay the price. I'll make you pay for my son's death today!" Cheng haonan's face, which was already not looking good, instantly turned ashen. However, he was much more shrewd than Wu Bao Liang, so even if he was angry, he would not show it too much. If he was flustered and exasperated, he would only mess up his own position and follow in Wu Bao Liang's footsteps.

"Hehe, then you've got the wrong person." Lin Yi's eyes narrowed. He didn't think that this guy would blame Cheng qiitian's death on him, but didn't mention anything about Donghai's godly nun. He didn't know whether to laugh or cry at this ostrich mentality.

"Hmph, if it wasn't for you, my son would have been in trouble. No matter what, you must die today!" As he spoke, Cheng haonan's originally violent aura suddenly calmed down. Other than his slightly ferocious expression, he looked no different from an ordinary person.

"Then you can try." Lin Yi was still calm, but his heart tightened. He couldn't help but re-evaluate the opponent in front of him. He wasn't afraid of the opponent's anger, but the current state was like a bloodthirsty beast suddenly holding its breath. This was a sign that it was aiming at its prey. It was extremely dangerous.

Although he did not know the exact strength of the other party, it was enough to see that Cheng haonan, the boss of the poison eye mercenary group, was far more difficult to deal with than Wu Bao Liang.

Under Cheng haonan's influence, the overbearing aura that Lin Yi had exuded after killing Wu Bao Liang became reserved and deep once more. His intuition told him that this opponent wasn't someone he could take down in one move, and he had to be careful.

"The fifth challenge between the leader of the escort agency, Ling Yi of Qitian escort agency, versus Cheng haonan of Longzhou escort agency. Let's begin!" After whetting the audience's appetites, the executive judge immediately announced the start of the game.

As soon as his voice fell, the two figures on the ring disappeared at the same time. Everyone's spirits were lifted one after another. It seemed that these two people had adopted the same strategy, to strike first and gain the upper hand.

The speed of the two figures was extremely fast, and there were blurry afterimages everywhere on the stage. For a moment, many people could not even find their real bodies.

The crowd couldn't help but be shocked. This speed had already broken through the limit of a golden core stage master. In their eyes, Lin Yi's strength wasn't strange at all. After all, his heaven defying performance just now was deeply rooted in their hearts! To everyone's surprise, Cheng haonan from Longzhou escort agency was also an expert of this level!

In the previous battle, Cheng haonan had been deliberately hiding his strength, which led to everyone thinking that he was just so-so, but they did not expect that this guy was only in the great circle of the Golden core stage on the surface, but in fact, he was also a monster comparable to a master of the original infant stage.

First, it was Wu baoliang, and now it was Cheng haonan. The crowd couldn't help but discuss among themselves. This unknown Longzhou bodyguard agency was indeed full of hidden talents.

Bang! Bang! While everyone was suspicious, the two people on the stage had already begun their first exchange of blows. Neither of them used their trump cards as soon as they came up, and they were both extremely cautious and alert to test each other's strength.

This guy was indeed very strong! Lin Yi's heart sank. Although it was just a test attack, the 29th form of the wild fire Eight Trigram palm he used was definitely not weak, but it was easily taken by the opponent. It seemed like the opponent was using it with ease. More importantly, the opponent didn't use any powerful martial arts, just normal punches and kicks.

Just from this point alone, it was enough to judge that the absolute strength of this Cheng haonan must be much stronger than Wu Bao Liang. At least, his strength was far from Wu Bao Liang 's.

Wu Bao Liang's strength was only in his violent sand thousand explosion fist. As long as he could break this fatal move, he would find out that his own strength was not that strong. However, Cheng Hao Nan was different. His strength Foundation was much more solid, and his every punch and kick was extremely powerful.

If he didn't have the violent sand thousand explosive fist, this killing weapon, trash like Wu Bao Liang didn't even have the qualifications to fight with him. At most, he would be defeated in a single exchange, without any suspense.

As Lin Yi was feeling the fear, Cheng haonan couldn't help but mumble on the other side as well. After fighting three consecutive battles with Wu Bao Liang, he thought that Lin Yi's Qi would be almost depleted, and he would be considered strong if he had only 50 - 60% of his strength left. He didn't expect Lin Yi to still be full of Qi and not show any signs of fatigue.

"No wonder he was able to kill the military counselor. This kid's strength is indeed extraordinary!" Cheng haonan furrowed his brows.

Unlike Wu Bao Liang, who was a master who pursued powerful martial arts techniques, he was a master of ordinary fists and feet, and he had always been good at it. His Foundation was much deeper than the average person 's, and it could be said that he was well-versed in this. He could easily see through the other party's Foundation with a casual glance.

If Wu Bao Liang's Foundation was 10 points, then this Ling Yi's Foundation was at least 30 points, or even 50 points. They were on completely different levels, especially when both sides 'martial arts techniques were similar. Wu Bao Liang would definitely be completely defeated. No wonder the situation was so one-sided.

After a probing exchange of blows, the threat in each other's hearts suddenly increased by a level. At the same time, they were secretly rejoicing that they had not underestimated their opponent just now. Otherwise, they might have really suffered a big loss, and it would be too late to regret it.

Lin Yi's brain was spinning as he looked at the Cheng haonan, who was still hiding his aura. According to his past experience, the stronger the foundation of a master, the less likely they would reveal their flaws, especially not the kind that could kill them in one hit.

Facing such an opponent, one had to be prepared to fight against a battle Machine, because a battle Machine would not make mistakes, and neither would a person like Cheng haonan.

With that, Lin Yi had very few strategies to choose from-there were only two choices. He could either fight with his stamina and keep tangling with his opponent while making sure he didn't make a mistake until his opponent made a mistake, or he could fight with his full strength and use his killer move to finish his opponent off.

These two choices had their advantages and disadvantages. The former seemed more stable and reliable, but it was extremely difficult. Once their endurance was inferior to the opponent 's, and their side was the first to reveal a flaw, it would be a trap of their own.

As for the latter, it was extremely risky. There were only two possibilities if he used this strategy. Either he killed his opponent in one move, which was the ideal situation, or he let his opponent take it head-on, and then Lin Yi would be in trouble and suffer a fatal backlash.

Chapter 4487 Certain Defeat?

After weighing the pros and cons, Lin Yi quickly came to a decision-he'd try to keep tangling with Cheng haonan for now. He had the Jade space to replenish his Qi, after all, and in terms of endurance alone, no one would dare call themselves the best in the world if Lin Yi claimed to be the second best-even Cheng haonan would have an advantage over him in this aspect.

Plus, Lin Yi's self-control had always been strong, and it wasn't impossible for him to make sure that not a single drop of water leaked out.

The second strategy, on the other hand, was obviously a life-or-death one. Lin Yi had never been a gambler, and he wouldn't gamble his life unless it was absolutely necessary.

With a plan in mind, Lin Yi's next move was clear-he'd use the butterfly microsteps to maintain his body movement while using all sorts of skills he'd learned to deal with his opponent-raging fire Eight Trigram palm, raging fire Fist, raging fire thousand kick, and so on. He'd use all sorts of skills without stopping.

If it was someone else, they'd probably run out of pure energy before they could even kill their opponent. After all, there was a limit to how much pure energy one could have, but Lin Yi didn't have this concern.

On the other hand, Cheng haonan wasn't as extravagant as Lin Yi-he'd basically never used any particularly powerful skills, only using normal attacks to fight back. Although he was just using normal attacks, they were actually pretty powerful-he wasn't at a disadvantage at all, even compared to Lin Yi's skills.

The more Lin Yi fought, the more shocked he was-he'd never encountered a situation like this before. His opponent was only using normal punches and kicks, but he was able to go head to head with Lin Yi at full power! He even seemed to have the upper hand!

It would've been hard to imagine if he hadn't experienced it himself, but after a few exchanges, Lin Yi had more or less grasped the essence of his opponent's punches and kicks. The reason why they were so powerful was because they weren't just normal punches and kicks, but they were infused with some pure Qi.

Of course, the amount of true Qi that Cheng haonan had infused into each of his punches and kicks was not much, or else the loss would outweigh the gain. In that case, it would be better to use martial arts techniques. After all, the purpose of martial arts techniques was to maximize the power of true Qi, and the amount of true Qi that Cheng haonan had infused into his punches and kicks was far from the limit of martial arts techniques.

However, although the amount of true Qi that the other party exerted on his fists and feet was small, it was all used on the edge of the blade. Just that little bit of true Qi had caused the power of his fists and feet to be substantially improved, and it was even not the slightest bit inferior to most ordinary martial arts techniques. Such a method was simply a divine skill!

This Cheng haonan was indeed worthy of being the boss of the poison eye mercenary group. To be able to become a formidable character, he was indeed not simple!

Wu Bao Liang's violent sand thousand explosive fist was powerful, but Lin Yi was only afraid of the technique itself. He didn't care much about Wu Bao Liang himself, but now facing Cheng Hao Nan, even if he was his mortal enemy, Lin Yi couldn't help but feel a trace of admiration in his heart. The pressure this person gave him was far above Wu Bao Liang.

He wasn't as powerful as Wu Bao Liang, and the audience didn't feel his strength as clearly as Lin Yi did. They felt that they were on par with each other as they watched the fast-paced exchanges between the two.

Even Qi Wenhan had the same opinion. He couldn't help but feel excited. However, Butler song, who was standing beside him, shook his head discreetly. If this continued, young hero Ling would be in danger ...

It wasn't just him-Zhao Shanying from the xuanying bodyguard agency, Qi Mingyuan, boundless sea, and the rest of the judges were all sharp-it was clear who was stronger in this stalemate. It wasn't obvious, but there was no doubt that Lin Yi was being suppressed by Cheng haonan the whole time!

Qi Mingyuan's worried expression made boundless sea's lips curl up again. As long as Cheng haonan could take care of Lin Yi, the plan would be back on track. Everything would be under control, and the four Seas escort agency would still have the chance to have the last laugh.

Lin Yi's disadvantage wasn't obvious at the start, but as the pace of attack and defense increased, his weakness was revealed.

He had the Jade space to back him up, and he didn't have to worry about using up any Qi, but the problem was that even the most proficient martial arts skill needed to be stored-it just didn't matter how long it took.

Using all sorts of powerful skills continuously allowed Lin Yi to maintain the pressure on Cheng haonan, but at the same time, he unknowingly exposed a flaw that was hard to avoid-rhythm.

Every skill needed to be charged, and this meant that Lin Yi couldn't go too fast in his attacks and attacks-he needed a break in between, and no matter how short the time was, it was unavoidable. Cheng haonan, on the other hand, didn't have to worry about that at all with his normal attacks.

Cheng haonan had obviously caught onto this opening, and so he'd been trying to speed up the tempo- the moment the tempo exceeded Lin Yi's limits, he'd be in complete control.

The current situation was clearly tilting in that direction. More and more people were starting to realize that Cheng haonan had the upper hand all along, and his advantage was rapidly expanding!

Bang! Bang! Lin Yi's heart sank as he looked at Cheng haonan, who was completely unscathed after being blocked by his opponent's ordinary fist.

This was the 30th style of the wild flame Eight Trigram palm, and its power was no small matter. Even Cheng haonan didn't dare to face it head-on just a moment ago. However, he was able to deal with it so easily now. This was the difference in rhythm.

The current rhythm had far exceeded Lin Yi's upper limit. Without time to charge up, a powerful skill like the wild fire Eight Trigram palm lost its original power. This was a very dangerous signal.

At the start of the fight, Cheng haonan's aura was still very reserved, like a beast retracting its claws. But now, Lin Yi could clearly feel the pressure from his opponent getting stronger and stronger, and that extremely dangerous aura was getting more and more obvious. The beast was about to bare its fangs.

No, he had to quickly break away from this rhythm, or he would lose without a doubt.

Lin Yi wasn't an idiot-there was no way he'd stick to his original strategy in a situation like this. It was a dead end, and so he was forced to change his mind and gamble his life!

Lin Yi raised his hand and unleashed two wild fire Eight Trigram palms in a row, and this sudden change surprised Cheng haonan, forcing him back a few feet!

Chapter 4488 Lin Yi Injured

Caution was the parent of safety. Even though he had the upper hand, he did not let his guard down.

However, Lin Yi's next move made Cheng haonan's eyes Twitch. A familiar fiery light shot into the sky-Lin Yi had used the same move that killed Wu baoliang just now!

Although it was a new move, in terms of power, the raging flame thousand explosive fist was even stronger than Lin Yi's raging flame Eight Trigram palm. It was enough to replace it as his ultimate killing move. Now that he was at a life and death situation, it was time to show his strongest card.

The crazed flame thousand explosion fist was extremely powerful, and Cheng haonan was too close to Lin Yi at the moment-he was enveloped in it almost instantly, without any chance to react.

Seeing the two's figures become blurry in the fire, the crowd went into an uproar. The scene of Lin Yi killing Wu Bao Liang with one move had left a deep impression on them, and they changed their minds. So what if Cheng haonan had the upper hand?

The other party had a powerful trump card that could turn the tables. No matter how great the advantage was before, it was just fleeting clouds ...

BOOM! BOOM! BOOM!

Continuous loud bangs reverberated throughout moleng city. After witnessing the three shocking battles, although the crowd was used to such earth-shaking scenes, they still couldn't help but show their respect. After all, if they were the ones to face such a terrifying move, they would definitely die without a doubt. There was no chance of survival.

Everyone thought that the competition would end here, and Cheng haonan would follow in Wu Bao Liang's footsteps. However, at this moment, someone suddenly exclaimed, "Quickly look!"

Following the man's finger, everyone's eyes landed on a figure in the middle of the stage. They couldn't tell if it was Lin Yi or Cheng haonan because they couldn't see his face, but the strange thing was that this person was emitting a faint black aura.

The feeling that this black gas gave people was the same as Wu Bao Liang 's, but the scale was much smaller. Wu Bao Liang's Black gas was overwhelming, but the black gas on this person's body only covered a layer around his body. The specific use was still unknown, but at least the crowd below the stage could see it more clearly.

The wild flame thousand explosive fist was at full power at this moment. However, this figure shrouded in black gas was scurrying back and forth on the stage like a ghost. His speed was truly stupefying.

What made everyone speechless was that even though this figure couldn't completely avoid the thousand-fold explosion, he had managed to avoid more than 80% of it. Even Zhao Shanying, boundless sea, and Qi Mingyuan couldn't help but sigh at his God-level reaction speed!

There was no doubt that this figure shrouded in black Qi was Cheng haonan. Other than the fact that he didn't have a powerful hidden martial art like the violent sand thousand explosive fist, the strength that this guy had displayed in all other aspects was definitely at the Super level. In particular, his physical skills, which were mainly based on ordinary punches and kicks, were even more monstrous, truly intimidating.

Using normal physical skills to go against Lin Yi, who was using all sorts of powerful skills, and even getting the upper hand, suppressing Lin Yi in all aspects-this was already an exaggeration in itself, but now, Cheng haonan had truly shown everyone what it meant to be stronger than the strongest.

Lin Yi's eyes narrowed as he watched his opponent pass through the thousandfold explosion like a Demon God, getting closer and closer to him. He didn't dare to hold back at all. Without hesitation, he gathered all the fire crystals in the sky and detonated them all at the same time!

It was actually very dangerous. Although the explosion was under Lin Yi's control, he wasn't completely immune to the terrifying damage. He would still be affected by the explosion, but with the fire around him, he was able to protect himself from some damage.

But even so, it was still a dangerous move. He couldn't avoid getting hurt, and it was like he'd lose 800 of his own. He wouldn't do this unless it was the last resort.

However, at this point, he had no other choice.

BOOM! An extremely loud sound shook the entire moleng city. Even the moleng sea at the periphery of the city was stirred up by the huge waves. It was a horrifying scene as if the end of the world was coming. Those who were still stranded in the sea and did not know what was going on were running away like rats, afraid that they would become the sacrifices of the sea.

Even the outer Sea area was like this, and the spectators who were watching at a close distance in the mo Leng square were even more unlikely to be spared. They were affected by the air waves that were gushing out of the ring, and the whole arena was suddenly thrown off its feet. Those who were slightly weaker even spat out a mouthful of blood with pale faces, and suffered internal injuries from the shock.

The escort party in the South continent had been held for so many years, and all kinds of life-and-death duels in the arena had long been commonplace, including eye-catching duels between the strong. However, even a five-on-five team battle had never caused such a terrifying commotion, let alone anyone who could see internal injuries from watching a match.

It had to be said that this year's escort party was destined to be recorded in the history books. At least, golden core stage Masters like Lin Yi, Cheng haonan, and Wu Bao Liang were unprecedented. There would be no one who could stand shoulder to shoulder with them.

In the midst of the chaos, the soaring flames on the ring suddenly dimmed. Then, a figure was seen flying backward and falling into the chaotic crowd, causing a commotion.

"Brother Ling!" Qi Wenhan's eyes twitched as he rushed over to help the man up. It was Lin Yi.

"I'm fine,"she said. Lin Yi forced a smile and looked at Cheng haonan deeply before starting to heal.

In fact, the injury he suffered this time was much more serious than when he was hit by Wu Bao Liang. After all, he had used his true energy to protect himself in advance, and Wu Bao Liang did not use his full strength. However, this time, he suffered a backlash when he used the wild flame thousand explosion fist. Even if he had prepared, he could not be fully prepared, and his injury was naturally much more serious.

Fortunately, the injury this time wasn't a direct hit from Cheng haonan, but from the shock of his own instant thousand-fold explosion. So, as long as he could heal his injuries in time, it wouldn't be a big problem.

The injury was not a problem. The real problem now was what to do next.

Cheng haonan was also injured from the instant thousand heavy blast, but because he dodged quickly, his injuries were much lighter than Lin Yi 's. The fact that he could still stand in the ring was proof of that.

And with the vicious style of the boss of the poison eyes mercenary group, it was impossible for him to stop here!

Chapter 4489 Actually Changed

He also wouldn't let go of this great opportunity to take revenge for his son. Taking advantage of your weakness to take your life, everyone understood such a simple logic.

So Cheng haonan would definitely continue to challenge the Qitian bodyguard agency. The difference in strength was clear for all to see, and Qi Wenhan would be sending himself to his death. This kind of death was meaningless, so Lin Yi had to do it himself!

But the problem was, even if Lin Yi went into battle again, how would he be able to deal with such a strong opponent?

Different from Wu Bao Liang, this Cheng haonan was not only stronger, but more importantly, he was even more difficult to deal with. Facing Wu Bao Liang's violent sand thousand explosive fist, Lin Yi could still take it for himself, and give it a taste of its own medicine. This kind of magical skill could be used against Wu Bao Liang, but it was pure nonsense to use it on Cheng haonan.

Putting aside the fact that Cheng haonan's physical skills weren't limited to just one move, it was impossible to copy in a short amount of time. Even if Lin Yi could do it, it was impossible for him to use this method to compete with his opponent. After all, the difference in their level was too big. They weren't even on the same level.

Attacking the enemy's strength with one's own weakness, wasn't that looking for abuse?

But if he didn't do this, his previous experience had given him clear hints that this strategy of tangling with Cheng haonan wouldn't work. There was only one way left, and that was to use his most powerful killing move to end the battle. Since the wild flame thousand explosive fist didn't work, then he only had one last trump card—a super bomb that combined the refinement fire and pure Qi.

This was the only way Lin Yi could think of, but time was limited. He only had an incense's time at most, and he had to use some time to heal himself. He wasn't sure if he could create a powerful enough super bomb in the remaining time.

However, no matter what, this was the last feasible method. He could only wait until he went on stage and think of a way to delay it.

The situation was critical, and Lin Yi was racing against time to prepare. Qi Wenhan and the others were worried, but they didn't dare to disturb him. They could only wait on the side. If they couldn't, they could only let Qi Wenhan risk his life to save the situation.

At the same time, everyone's eyes were focused on Cheng haonan. Although they had already guessed what he would say, they still needed him to say it himself.

Cheng haonan's gaze swept across everyone, pausing on Lin Yi for a long time before he finally spoke, "I've decided to challenge the Zhenwei escort. "

As soon as Cheng haonan said that, everyone was stunned, especially Qi Wenhan, who was already walking up the stage. When he heard Cheng haonan's words, he staggered and almost fell down. He looked at Cheng haonan in disbelief. As for Qi Mingyuan and the others, they were all shocked and speechless for a long time.

Zhenwei bodyguard agency? Lin Yi, who was sitting cross-legged on the ground, raised an eyebrow. Why would this guy let him go all of a sudden and challenge the Zhenwei bodyguard agency for no reason? Could it be that he had a deep grudge with Zhenwei escort?

Lin Yi didn't know much about this Zhenwei bodyguard agency. He only knew that it was a mid-tier bodyguard agency, neither strong nor weak. They didn't show off their strength, and they didn't have any special style. They were the kind of existence that people would easily forget.

If it weren't for Cheng haonan's sudden mention, not only Lin Yi, but many of the Veterans in the southern continent's escort Alliance wouldn't have remembered that there was such an unknown "invisible" escort company.

After being called out by Cheng haonan, the head of the Zhenwei escort agency was stunned for a long time before he finally reacted. His face suddenly looked as if he had lost his parents. He had no grievances in the past and no grudges in recent days, so why did such a big misfortune suddenly come to his family?

Lin Yi knew that this wasn't a personal grudge-it was Cheng haonan changing his strategy.

Lin Yi didn't have the confidence to take on Cheng haonan, and Cheng haonan, who had just won a match, didn't have the confidence to do so either.

Lin Yi's performance against Wu Bao Liang had left the deepest impression on the others, and at the same time, it was also the most talked about by them-Lin Yi's "giving him a taste of his own medicine." However, Cheng haonan had noticed another important clue-this guy had an undying body like a cockroach, and an endless stream of physical strength and Qi!

Although it was hard to believe, this was indeed the conclusion that Cheng haonan had come up with after his observation. After being defeated by Wu Bao Liang for the first time, he had only rested for the time it takes for an incense stick to burn. When Ling Yi came up again, not only was he not injured at all, but he was also full of true energy.

Especially the latter point, whether it was in the two battles with Wu Bao Liang later or in the battle with himself just now, it was vividly reflected. The feeling that this kid gave people was like a monster with endless true energy, completely unable to be measured with common sense.

His injuries could recover quickly, and his true energy was endless. Even though Cheng haonan had just won a match, he was still not confident in facing such an evil opponent. His opponent was not afraid of exhaustion, but he was!

Although he was an expert in physical skills, the amount of true Qi He consumed with each punch and kick was extremely low, seemingly insignificant, far more than the average expert could bear the consumption. However, once the duration was prolonged, his true Qi would eventually be exhausted.

After that intense fight with Lin Yi, especially when he was forced to use his ultimate dark state at the end, he'd used up at least fifty percent of his pure Qi.

Turning his whole body black was a unique skill that Cheng haonan had been painstakingly cultivating in recent years after turning into an evil cultivator. By stimulating the meridians and acupoints all over his body with evil energy, it would make his already powerful physical skills even more invincible and domineering. It gave people the feeling that he was cheating in an instant. Cheng haonan, in his whole body black state, was enough to crush most of the peak of the middle stage of the nascent soul realm!

Such a powerful move would naturally consume an extraordinary amount of true Qi. Hence, Cheng haonan would usually not activate this state unless he was serious. Firstly, he was afraid that the evil Qi in his body would be noticed by others. Secondly, he was afraid that he would consume too much true Qi, which would cause him to be weak in the future.

And now, Cheng haonan didn't even have half of his pure Qi left, and he was even injured. If he had to face Lin Yi at his peak again, he'd be at a huge disadvantage, and even if he won, he'd be crippled as well. The consequences would be unimaginable.

Knowing that this was a rare opportunity, Cheng haonan didn't dare to continue chasing Lin Yi. He couldn't afford to take the risk!

Chapter 4490 Too Greedy

He could only take a step back and try to get more points from the other escort agencies. After all, with his strength, even if he was not in his best condition, he would still be able to kill as many as they came.

As for taking revenge on Lin Yi, as long as the kid was still in Qitian escort agency, as long as he was still in the Yu Luo sea, it wouldn't be hard for Cheng haonan to find an opportunity in the future. There was no need to take the risk now.

The following developments were as expected, and the situation was completely in Cheng haonan's hands. Although the other high-level golden core stage experts in the other escort agencies were not weak, in front of a monster like Cheng haonan, they were no different from ordinary passers-by. They were often dealt with in a single move, easily and happily.

And in order to conveniently gain points, Cheng haonan even deliberately controlled his strength, only throwing the other off the stage with one move, without the intention of killing the other.

After all, according to the rules of the competition, once the Golden core stage executives of these escort agencies were all dead, they would not be able to accept the challenge, just like the other escort agencies. Naturally, Cheng haonan would not be able to gain any points from them.

Seeing Cheng haonan's consecutive victories, the Longzhou escort agency's points rose, once again pushing the four Seas escort agency out of the top five. Boundless sea looked like he had just eaten sh * T. He wanted to cut this bastard into eight pieces!

He had promised to trample on the Qitian escort agency in one go, but he had stopped halfway through. Instead, he had turned the four Seas escort agency into the biggest victim. Why were these guys so good at scamming people?

However, even though boundless sea was on the verge of exploding in anger, he really didn't know what to do. Even if he was the head of the five judges and had the glory of being the Chief Judge of the escort agency of the South continent's event, he couldn't rashly step out and interrupt the process of the competition unless he had a reasonable excuse.

Unfortunately, Cheng haonan was just following the rules of the competition. Even if boundless sea squeezed out water from his brain, what excuse could he find? It couldn't be a loophole in the rules, right? Wouldn't that be slapping his own face!

Boundless sea was so regretful that his scalp was about to tear off. Lin Yi and the others, on the other hand, were more than happy to see Cheng haonan doing this. After all, no matter how easy it was for him to get points, he still had to use up a bit of Qi. It was just a bit more or less.

The more points he earned, the more Qi He'd use up, and Lin Yi, who'd been meditating, would have more time to create the Super bomb. If Cheng haonan decided not to challenge the Qitian bodyguard agency, it wouldn't be a big deal, but the consequences would be dire if he lost his mind.

This way, Lin Yi and Qi Wenhan were able to sit back and relax. After the two wins and two losses, Qitian bodyguard agency still had 1070 points. Even if Cheng haonan kept accumulating points, it wouldn't be easy for him to catch up.

After all, under the current challenge rules, it was not as easy to gain points as one would think. This was actually a technical problem.

It was true that Cheng haonan could choose not to kill his opponent and repeat the challenge effortlessly. However, the problem was that the escort agencies that he had listed as his targets did not have many points to speak of. Most of them only had one or two hundred points, and some did not even have a hundred points. Once their points hit zero, they would be eliminated unconditionally.

This meant that Cheng haonan could only get 200 points at most from each bodyguard agency, while the weaker ones could only get 100 points. After that, he had to change his target and challenge a golden core stage higher-up at his peak.

Although he was powerful, Cheng haonan was not made of steel. And these golden core experts were able to become the higher-ups of their respective escort agencies, so which one of them was easy to deal with?

Cheng haonan had an easy time earning points at the start, but as he consumed more and more Qi, especially with the injuries Lin Yi left on his body, it became more and more difficult for him to fight an opponent at his peak.

In the beginning, he could easily defeat his opponent in one move, but later on, he had to spend the time for an entire stick of incense to barely win.

For a moment, the atmosphere became quite strange. Everyone could see that Cheng haonan was obviously exhausted, and could not hold on any longer, but no one knew how long this guy could hold on.

After taking down four escort agencies in a row, Longzhou escort agency had a total of 860 points. Even the divine Wind escort agency, which was originally in second place, had been left far behind, let alone the four Seas escort agency. The only suspense left was whether Cheng haonan could make it to the Qitian escort agency!

If he could do this, Longzhou escort agency would replace Qitian escort agency and become the biggest Dark Horse in this year's South continent escort agency event. It would also lock in the position of the Overlord of escort agencies and start a new chapter. If he couldn't do this, the result would be a little intriguing ...

This was because Cheng haonan was already an arrow at the end of its flight. Once he could not maintain his winning streak, he would most likely be targeted by the escort agency that would later obtain the right to challenge. At that time, Longzhou escort agency would most likely have to spit out all the points that they had earned!

"Haha, Cheng haonan can't stop now. He deserves it!" Qi Wenhan's mood brightened as he smiled at Lin Yi.

"Yes, he was indeed a little too greedy. If he had stopped in time when he reached second place, he wouldn't have fallen into such a passive situation." Lin Yi nodded faintly.

"That's right. If he had stopped earlier, he would have been able to preserve enough physical strength and true Qi. With the terrifying strength he had shown before, even if the challenge fell into the hands of other escort agencies, they would not dare to lay a hand on the Dragon Boat escort agency. It could be said that he could rest easy. But now, hehe ..." Qi Wenhan sneered.

This time, he had suffered a great loss at the Dragon Boat escort agency. If he had the opportunity to turn the tables, he would never let this opportunity go. If he didn't find an opportunity to kill Cheng haonan, he would cause endless harm in the future.

As the two of them were conversing, Cheng haonan once again challenged a new bodyguard agency. Faced with the opponent's golden core stage higher-ups at their peak, he could only brace himself and continue to fight. He had no other choice.

At this time, the sky was already dark, and torches were lit everywhere in the square. At the same time, many fluorescent stones had been arranged in advance. The light was not dimmer than in the evening, but much brighter instead, which did not affect the progress of the competition at all.

According to the Grand meeting's arrangement, today was the last day of the Grand meeting. If there were no accidents, the competition would continue until nine o' clock before it would be announced to be over!
