

Bodyguard 4501

Chapter 4501 The Xuanying Escort Agency

"That's right. With your great contribution, even a million spiritual jades would be far from enough to thank you. However, the escort agency is in need of spiritual jades now. It's impossible to gather so many spiritual jades in a short time. Rather than being forced, it's better to let young hero Ling become a part of the escort agency. Otherwise, your title of honorary escort leader would be a little undeserved." Qi Mingyuan advised her sincerely.

"Head of escorts, brother Qi, you're treating me like an outsider by saying this. With our friendship, do you really need to involve so many benefits? Moreover, my purpose for fighting for the bodyguard agency this time was to kill Wu baoliang. Now that Wu baoliang has been beheaded, I can retire after my success. You really don't have to do this. " Lin Yi said, shaking his head.

"Young hero Ling, everyone knows that the Qitian bodyguard agency relied on you to become the leader of the agency. This is no longer your personal matter. It concerns the reputation of the entire agency. If we mistreat you, the Qitian bodyguard agency will be criticized by others behind our backs." Qi Mingyuan's face was serious as he said, ""Besides, we're only giving you 20% of the shares. It can bring us closer to each other and won't cause the bodyguard agency to suffer any losses. We're the ones who're at a great advantage."

At this point, Lin Yi didn't know how to refuse. He couldn't just say that he didn't care about the reputation of the Qitian bodyguard agency at all and just push away the 20% shares, could he?

Lin Yi could keep his pockets clean, but it would be troublesome for Qi Mingyuan and Qi Wenhan. After all, they had to thank Lin Yi heavily. If Lin Yi didn't accept the dry shares, they would have to give him spiritual Jade, but the problem was that they didn't have that much spiritual Jade!

Lin Yi wasn't a stubborn person. He wouldn't let his friend be in such an awkward situation. It was just as Qi Mingyuan said-even if he took twenty percent of the shares, as long as he didn't touch it or actively participate in the security agency's decisions, he wouldn't let Qitian Security Agency suffer any losses. It was the best of both worlds.

"All right, but I have to make one thing clear. I can accept the 20% dry shares, but I have to give brother Qi full authority to manage it. After all, I won't be staying in the South continent for too long, and I won't be able to participate in the bodyguard agency's Affairs in the future." Lin Yi said helplessly.

"Well said. Come, everyone, let's raise our glasses to the new owner of our bodyguard agency!" Qi Mingyuan was overjoyed. He immediately called for a toast and the atmosphere became lively again.

When Qi Wenhan first proposed to give Lin Yi twenty percent of the shares, he was worried that Lin Yi would climb up the ladder. Losing a few spirit Jade wasn't a big deal, but it would affect the security agency's decision-making. However, Lin Yi's return of favor made his worries disappear.

Giving twenty percent of the shares to Qi Wenhan and making it clear that he wouldn't be involved in the agency's business meant that Lin Yi would just be a hands-off manager in the future. As long as he paid the dividends regularly, everything would be fine. This was the best result for the Qitian bodyguard agency.

They didn't have to lose anything, and they could further tie Lin Yi down. Not to mention Lin Yi's various magical abilities, just the Hong Chamber of Commerce behind him was enough to benefit the Qitian bodyguard agency.

After all, Qitian bodyguard agency was at the peak of its development, and the Hong Chamber of Commerce behind Lin Yi was the one who could let it rise to 90000 li in one go. Just this return alone was worth the 20% of shares he gave out.

"Since everyone is so fond of me, then I will be impolite to refuse." Lin Yi raised his cup and finished it in one gulp under the cheers of the crowd.

At that moment, a few people entered the hall, ignoring everyone's strange looks. The leader laughed heartily as he walked in front of Lin Yi and the others, "Head escort Qi, young hero Ling Yi, it's rare for everyone to be in such a good mood. Can you count this Zhao in?"

The man was the head of the xuanying escort agency, Zhao Shanying. The few people behind him were the core members of the agency.

"Haha, escort leader Zhao is a rare guest that we can't even invite. Of course, we'll warmly welcome you!" Qi Mingyuan laughed. He did not need to think much to know why Zhao Shanying and the others had come. This guy was here to express his goodwill.

The new structure of the South continent's escort agency Alliance was very clear. The Qitian escort agency was the leader of the five major escort agencies, followed by the shenfeng escort agency, the Tianhong escort agency, the xuanying escort agency, and the four Seas escort agency. The Qitian escort agency, the new Overlord, was undoubtedly the one with the most say.

Among the remaining escort agencies, the Holy Wind escort agency, Tianhong escort agency, and four Seas escort agency were all well-established. Only the xuanying escort agency was a newly-promoted one. It was difficult for it to make a name for itself alone. If it was pushed aside by the Alliance, it might not be able to gain much even if it became one of the five biggest escort agencies. Under such circumstances, Zhao Shanying had to find a strong ally.

The Qitian bodyguard agency was the best choice in Zhao Shanying's heart.

Firstly, this ally was the new Overlord of the escort agency and was definitely strong. Secondly, the other party was also a new force, and there was a big gap between them and the other traditional wealthy families. If Qitian escort agency wanted to achieve great things, they would definitely need a reliable ally who could support them. Xuanying escort agency fit this position perfectly.

Therefore, in the eyes of both Qi Mingyuan and Zhao Shanying, Qitian escort agency and xuanying escort agency were getting closer to each other. It was a win-win situation for both parties. That was why Zhao Shanying took the opportunity to come to the celebration party to support them. Qi Mingyuan, on the other hand, welcomed them with a smile and did not reject anyone.

As an Overlord, Zhao Shanying had to have a ruthless side to him, but he was smooth in front of Lin Yi and the others. He was able to get close to them with just a few words, but the person he praised the most wasn't Qi Mingyuan, the escort leader, but Lin Yi, who left a deep impression on him.

Heroes understood each other, and Zhao Shanying respected Lin Yi a lot. If he wasn't so interested in Lin Yi, he wouldn't be willing to lower his status and come to support the Qitian bodyguard agency even if he wanted to form an alliance with the xuanying bodyguard agency.

Of course, he didn't know if there was any deeper meaning behind this praise, but Lin Yi didn't believe that a hero like Zhao Shanying was just a fan. It'd be more accurate to say that he was trying to kill him.

Based on his guess, Zhao Shanying was trying to drive a wedge between him and the Qi father and son when he got close to the Qitian bodyguard agency. The words 'outstanding service' were enough to leave a fatal knot in both parties' hearts.

However, the relationship between Lin Yi and Qitian bodyguard agency wasn't something that outsiders could understand!

Chapter 4502 There's A Use Even If You Die

He didn't know if Zhao Shanying had such intentions, either-maybe he had a more emotional side to him, and he just liked Lin Yi.

The celebration party ended with both the host and the guests enjoying themselves to their heart's content, and everyone left after that. However, Lin Yi noticed that Qi Mingyuan and Zhao Shanying had found a private room to have a late-night talk, clearly to finalize the future partnership between the two escort agencies. This was a major event that could affect the entire southern continent's escort agency Alliance, but it had nothing to do with Lin Yi. It was just as he said-he had no interest in getting involved in the affairs of the escort agency.

The South continent escort agency meeting ended, but the escort agencies didn't leave. On the contrary, the people in charge of the escort agencies were excited.

According to the rules, the Alliance meeting of the South continent's escort agencies would be held tomorrow. In this meeting, there would be representatives from hundreds of Chamber of Commerce in the South continent's Sea area. Large orders would be finalized in the meeting tomorrow.

This was a feast to split the fruits of victory. The higher the ranking, the more benefits the escort agency would receive. Without a doubt, Qitian escort agency would be the biggest winner.

But all of this had nothing to do with Lin Yi anymore. The only thing he needed to do now was to rest and recover, and return to the North Island after he was done here.

Of course, with Lin Yi's personality, he couldn't just sit around and do nothing. Even if it was only one night, he would put all his effort into training and trying to break through.

At the same time, in another high-class Inn across the street from the inn where the Qitian bodyguard agency was staying, long kuiba was drinking alone in an elegant room. His face was full of depression.

He couldn't help but feel depressed. The night before, he was still drinking with Cheng haonan and Wu Bao Liang in the same room, fantasizing about the beautiful future of trampling the Qitian bodyguard agency to death and ascending to the throne of the bodyguard agency. Only a day had passed, but things had changed. Cheng Hao and Wu Bao Liang's identity as evil cultivators had been exposed in public, and they had either died or escaped.

But now, the second place that Longzhou escort agency had worked so hard to get had been canceled on the spot. Even whether he could continue to stay in the South continent escort agency Alliance in the future was up to the mood of others. When he thought of the "sharing of spoils" meeting that was going to be held tomorrow, long kuiba was so depressed that he wanted to cry but had no tears. After two cups of wine, he was already in a trance.

The window moved and a gust of cold wind blew in. Long kuiba, who was in a daze, couldn't help but shiver. He subconsciously wanted to get up and close the window. However, when he noticed the sudden appearance of a figure beside him, he was instantly shocked. His tipsy state was instantly wiped clean from his body. He quickly shouted, "Who is it?"

"It's true that a noble person forgets things. Escort chief long, you can't even recognize me so quickly?" With these words, Cheng haonan's appearance finally became clear in long kuiba's eyes.

"Argh! It's you ..." Long kuiba couldn't help but be shocked again. As the evil cultivator who had been pointed out by Boundless Sea on the spot, Cheng Haonan was now a rat on the street that everyone in Demon Cold City wanted to beat. If it were anyone else, they would have escaped in the middle of the night. He didn't expect him to still be here and even dare to come back to find him so brazenly.

"What's wrong? I hope you don't welcome me, Chief Long." Cheng Haonan looked at Long kuiba with a smile that wasn't a smile. Then, he sat down and poured himself a cup of wine, drinking it in a composed manner.

"Why would I? Long kuiba subconsciously looked out of the window again. After confirming that no one had noticed, he sat down again and smiled bitterly at Cheng Haonan." "I knew you were an evil cultivator a long time ago. A man doesn't care about trifles. Good and evil cultivators just use different methods. I'm not some old-fashioned hypocrite. Now that this dogshit thing has happened, it's all because that old man Boundless Sea didn't keep his word. How can I blame you?"

"That's good. Chief Escort Long is indeed someone who makes friends. I didn't misjudge you!" Cheng Haonan nodded, then sighed with hatred, "Al, we were about to succeed, but it's all Boundless Sea and that Ling Yi's fault. They fell short ..."

"That's right, Boundless Sea, Ling Yi, it's all because of these two people!" At the mention of this, Long kuiba was also so angry that he gritted his teeth. "If it wasn't for Boundless Sea's betrayal, this wouldn't have happened. But if it wasn't for Ling Yi, he wouldn't have forced you, vice escort leader Cheng, to use that [body darkening] skill. If that had happened, Boundless Sea would've just assumed that the dead Wu Bao Liang was a black magic practitioner, but you wouldn't have been the one to blame."

"That's right. Wu Bao Liang is dead, so there's no evidence. As long as we don't admit it, it doesn't matter how Boundless Sea tries to testify. But Ling Yi pushed us like this, and now I'm also involved. This is preposterous!" As Cheng Haonan spoke, he drank three cups in a row and sneered with a ferocious expression, "Boundless Sea deserves to die, and this Ling Yi deserves to die even more. I definitely won't let them off!"

"Oh? Could it be that vice-escort leader Cheng has some brilliant plan?" Long kuiba's spirit was immediately lifted. From Cheng haonan's tone, it didn't seem as if he was simply complaining, but rather seemed to have a plan.

Although he wasn't as miserable as Cheng haonan, long kuiba's hatred for Ling Yi and boundless sea wasn't any less than Cheng haonan's. After all, the reason why Longzhou escort agency had fallen to this half-dead state was because of these two people. This was the foundation of his life's work.

"Hehe, if you want to ask, I do have a brilliant plan." Cheng haonan put on a profound smile.

"Quickly tell me!" Long kuiba asked impatiently.

"My brilliant plan is actually very simple. As long as one person takes action, whether it's Ling Yi or boundless sea, they're both dead for sure, hehehehe." Cheng haonan took a sip of his wine proudly.

"Who is it?" Long kuiba's eyes lit up.

"Wu Bao Liang." Cheng haonan glanced at him and slowly uttered three words.

"What? Wu baoliang? Isn't he dead?" Long kuiba was stunned. During the day, in the ruins of the arena, Wu Bao Liang had clearly died. His entire body had been blown up by Ling Yi's wild flame thousand explosive fist. He was obviously dead, could he still be resurrected?

Long kuiba found it hard to believe. However, he wasn't a heretic practitioner after all. Perhaps there really was such a heaven-defying technique that could bring the dead back to life in the heretic practitioner's cultivation technique ...

"That's right, he's dead. " Cheng haonan's words dispelled long kuiba's unrealistic guess. He coldly smiled and said,""But even if they die, they're still useful ..."

"Why do you say that?" After long kuiba heard this, he was stunned. He couldn't help but be confused. "What's the use of that?"

Chapter 4503 Evil Cultivator Master

"Because we have to train together, I have been very close to Wu Bao Liang in the past few years. I know everything about him." Cheng haonan laughed complacently, then said,""He once told me that he had a master who was extremely powerful. All of his heretic practitioner techniques were personally taught to him by his master. Now that his disciple has died in Ling Yi's hands, if his master were to find out about this, do you think he'd let this matter rest?"

"That's definitely not possible!" Long kuiba immediately became excited. His eyes were shining as he rubbed his hands and said,"If it was just an ordinary in-name disciple, it might not be a big deal. But since Wu Bao Liang's cultivation method was taught by his master personally, he is a direct disciple, and his status is the same as his own son. It's impossible for him not to be mad after knowing it."

"Hehe, that's right." Cheng haonan nodded. If his son, Cheng Qitian, died, he would fly into a rage. Now that Wu baoliang was dead, his master would be the same.

"So, vice escort Cheng is planning to find Wu Bao Liang's master?" Long kuiba asked.

"Wrong. It's not a plan. I've already found one!" Cheng haonan laughed complacently.

"Ah? He's so fast? Then wouldn't Ling Yi be dead for sure?" Long kuiba couldn't help but be overjoyed. At the same time, he was also shocked by Cheng haonan's efficiency. Only a few hours had passed since he was chased by those people, and this guy had already contacted Wu baoliang's master. It could be seen how urgent his desire for revenge was.

"Of course, Wu Bao Liang's master is a real devil, even among the evil cultivators, he is a transcendent existence with a fierce reputation! "Don't look at how strong Wu Bao Liang is. In front of his master, this level of strength is not even worth mentioning. Even a xuansheng stage expert would die if he were to meet him. As long as he is willing to help, even a hundred Ling Yis would die without a doubt, hehehehe ..." Cheng haonan nodded his head with a confident look and laughed hideously.

The reason why he took the risk to stay in the demon cold city was to wait for Wu Bao Liang's master to come. When he had this strong backing, he could be unscrupulous and take revenge himself.

"Even a xuansheng stage expert can't fight against it? That's great!" Long kuiba was overjoyed.

The South continent's waters were chaotic, but it was not the core of the Sky Class Island. Although there were all kinds of powerful people, there were only a few who could be considered top masters. A xuansheng stage master could do whatever he wanted, not to mention a xuansheng stage master who couldn't even fight against him.

Long kuiba was initially worried that Wu Bao Liang's master wouldn't help him. After all, he was an evil cultivator. If he didn't have enough shocking and powerful strength, he would only die if he was surrounded and attacked. However, after hearing Cheng haonan's words, there was nothing to worry about.

"Boundless sea is despicable and shameless. He's also the main culprit behind our deaths. Should we ask this expert to kill him as well?" Long kuiba asked. His hatred for boundless sea was even greater than Lin Yi 's. After all, Lin Yi only killed Wu Bao Liang, but boundless sea destroyed his entire Dragon Boat escort.

"Then forget it. Boundless sea is our personal enemy. Trying to connect him to Wu Bao Liang's death is a bit too far-fetched. Wu Bao Liang's master might not listen to us." Cheng haonan shook his head and said in fear, ""If this expert thinks that we're making use of him, it won't be good,"

"Yeah, that's true. We have an expert backing us up, so I doubt boundless sea will dare to do anything to us. We'll have plenty of chances to take care of him in the future." Long kuiba nodded his head with some regret, but he didn't dwell on this matter. He changed the topic and asked, ""When will this expert come?"

"It should be soon. If I'm not wrong, we should arrive here tomorrow!" Cheng haonan laughed complacently.

"So fast? Could it be that this expert is in the South continent's sea?" Long kuiba couldn't help but be surprised again. He looked at Cheng haonan with a burning gaze. He originally didn't have any thoughts about the South continent escort agency Alliance conference tomorrow. But if he really arrived tomorrow, it would be a very different story.

If they could drag this out until tomorrow, even if they could kill Ling Yi to regain their dignity, at least the Longzhou escort agency would not be able to get any orders. This was because most of the orders in the South continent's waters would be divided up by tomorrow. With the current awkward position of the Longzhou escort agency, they would not even be able to get the soup, let alone the meat.

However, if Wu Bao Liang's master came fast enough and completed the counterattack before the order was finalized tomorrow, the situation would be different.

"No, but according to Wu Bao Liang, the location is not far from the South continent's sea. The reason I was able to contact him so quickly this time was actually because of a special internal method. When Wu Bao Liang came to my place, he was afraid of being hunted down by the people of the three great pavilions, so he told me in advance that if anything happened to him, I would use this secret door to inform his master. It was originally just a preparation for a rainy day, but now it has come in handy. " Cheng haonan explained.

"Good, that's great!" Long kuiba nodded his head repeatedly in joy. His original gloominess and melancholy were swept away and he became excited again. He grinned hideously and said,"F * ck, the root of all this trouble is this Ling Yi. If it wasn't for him, we wouldn't have gone out of our way to ask boundless sea for help, and we wouldn't have given him a handle. We can finally get our revenge."

"That's right, this brat must die. If I don't kill him with my own hands tomorrow, I, Cheng haonan, am not a human!" Cheng haonan said through gritted teeth.

In fact, if it weren't for the fight in the ring during the day, he would've had a high chance of killing Lin Yi. It was just that Lin Yi fell off the ring and he didn't have the chance to do so. If he could ignore the rules and chase after Lin Yi, Lin Yi would've been a cold corpse by now.

However, this regret could be made up for when Wu Bao Liang's master arrived tomorrow.

"Haha, that kid is already destined to be a dead man. For tomorrow's revenge, let's drink!" Long kuiba laughed complacently.

"Well said, cheers!" Cheng haonan also laughed out loud.

While the two were celebrating, the thorn in their side, the target they had to kill, Lin Yi, was in his room breaking through.

In fact, during the day, he had already faintly touched the barrier of upgrading. Although he was not stuck in the middle stage of the jiedan stage for a long time, he was, after all, a master of the jiedan stage who had a perfect breakthrough. The breakthrough was far less difficult than that of ordinary jiedan stage Masters. Basically, as long as the intent realm was reached, the breakthrough was a matter of natural success.

After fighting Wu baoliang three times in a row, and then the even stronger Cheng haonan, Lin Yi had clearly entered this indescribable state.

Chapter 4504 Analyzing Martial Skills

It was Lin Yi's style to get stronger when he met someone stronger-it was only natural for him to break through when he was faced with someone stronger than him in every aspect.

The only regret was that Cheng haonan didn't choose to continue the challenge, which took away all the pressure on Lin Yi and also the feeling of breaking through. It was a pity-if Cheng haonan had continued the challenge, Lin Yi might've broken through during the fight, even if he still wasn't a match for him.

Of course, it was a pity that he couldn't break through in one go, but it wasn't something he couldn't make up for. Since he'd just brushed past the breakthrough during the day, it was simple for Lin Yi-he just had to find a way to get it back. After all, it might seem mysterious, but there were still traces to follow.

Lin Yi clearly remembered that when this feeling first appeared, it was the first time he was knocked off the stage by Wu baoliang. He was simulating the wild flame thousand explosion fist in his mind, and he was only thinking about how to defeat Wu baoliang at that time. He didn't pay much attention to it, but now that he thought about it, the feeling was still very real.

In other words, as long as he re-derived that powerful and oppressive ultimate move, he would be able to stimulate the battle intent in his body, and he would not be far from an official breakthrough.

Lin Yi was at least 60% confident in this and started trying it out without hesitation. However, there was no point in trying it out now. After all, he had completely mastered this move, and there was no pressure on him at all. Naturally, he wouldn't feel the pressure when he tried to use it.

His mind kept going back to the fight he had during the day, and this time, Lin Yi's target wasn't Wu Bao Liang's violent sand thousand explosive fist, but Cheng haonan's entire body that had turned black.

Cheng haonan's strength was in his normal attacks, and he didn't have a killer move like the violent sand thousand explosion fist, but the sight of his strength skyrocketing after his entire body went dark left a deep impression in Lin Yi's mind.

Strictly speaking, the entire body turning dark could not be considered a technique, but a state. It was an extremely powerful state that was even more unsolvable than the violent sand thousand explosive fist.

Because he didn't have the chance to experience it personally like the violent sand thousand explosive fist, nor did he fight with Wu Bao Liang so many times, Lin Yi didn't have a deep understanding of Cheng haonan's entire body darkening state. It was much more difficult to deduce it, not to mention that this state itself was much more complicated than a simple ultimate move like the violent sand thousand explosive fist.

In order to successfully derive a move, one had to at least master its essence, just like the violent sand thousand explosive fist's thousand explosion. If Lin Yi didn't know the principle of the sand explosion, he wouldn't have thought of using fire crystals instead, and naturally, he wouldn't have the violent flame thousand explosive fist.

However, Cheng haonan's entire body had only turned black for a short moment, so it was not easy to grasp the essence of it.

He thought back over and over again, and the fight with Cheng haonan played like a movie in his mind, repeating it over and over again, including Cheng haonan's movements, reactions, and the aura he gave off. He didn't let go of any details on the stage-only then could he find some clues.

He'd used less than an incense's time to reconstruct Wu Bao Liang's violent sand thousand explosive fist, but this time, he spent half a night trying to figure out Cheng haonan's entire body darkening, and he still couldn't get the point.

Could it be that that move was really so impeccable? Lin Yi couldn't help but frown-it was strange that he couldn't even figure it out with his super-strong comprehension.

All of a sudden, a light bulb went off in Lin Yi's head-no, no, the key wasn't after Cheng haonan's entire body turned black, but before!

Although there was a huge difference in strength, Cheng haonan's combat essence had not changed, whether it was before or after his entire body had turned dark. He was still using his normal fists and kicks. The only difference was that his power and speed had increased by a large margin.

In other words, as long as one could understand Cheng haonan's ordinary punches and kicks, one would be able to go with the flow and understand his entire body's darkening. These two were actually related.

After coming to this realization, the difficulty of the deduction dropped by quite a bit. Although Cheng haonan's entire body was blackened for only a split second, Lin Yi had a deep understanding of normal punches and kicks. After all, he was in a deadlock with Cheng haonan for a long time, and he had suffered quite a bit.

Every punch and kick of Cheng haonan's kept going through Lin Yi's mind, and the Qi in his body started to stir. This wasn't just pure comprehension-it was a part of his own comprehension. To a certain extent, comprehension was more reliable than comprehension, and it felt more real, so the effect was better.

He didn't know how Cheng haonan did it, but he felt like he'd entered a whole new realm-a whole new physical skill realm.

It was different from martial arts. The foundation of martial arts was true Qi, while the foundation of physical arts was the physical body. In fact, it was somewhat similar to those physical Masters in the secular world!

In today's world of cultivation, including the five big islands, martial arts dominated the world. No matter what level the battle was, it would often end with a few strong moves of martial arts. There were very few people who insisted on using physical skills, but of course, most of these people were former external cultivators.

After all, apart from freaks like Cheng haonan, most people would not specifically practice physical skills, because it required years of hard work. The key was the results of the practice, which were far less impressive than the speed of martial arts.

Spending the same amount of time to master a martial art technique was enough to increase one's combat power by 10 points. However, if it was used on physical techniques, one's combat power might only increase by one point, or even less. The difference was so great that it was obvious which one would be chosen by an ordinary person.

Slow improvement was the greatest disadvantage of body techniques, but at the same time, it had an absolute advantage that no other martial arts technique could compare to. As long as one persisted in cultivating, the power of body techniques could be improved infinitely!

Any martial technique, no matter how powerful and awesome it seemed, was limited by one's strength and realm. After reaching a certain level, it could no longer be improved. Even if one could continue to practice the subsequent moves, the improvement was minimal and could not keep up with the new realm. Therefore, one could only practice a more powerful martial technique and start from scratch.

However, physical skills were different. Up until now, no one had ever heard of anyone being able to reach the upper limit of physical skills! If he continued to cultivate, he would explode and die. This kind of thing basically didn't exist.

Chapter 4505 Super Butterfly Microsteps

In other words, as long as one persevered, from an ordinary person to the Golden core stage, the Yuanying stage, the xuansheng stage, and even the high and mighty Masters of the mountain opening stage, they could always use body techniques against their enemies because of their endless potential. However, this process was also extremely difficult! However, as long as one persevered in their cultivation, they would never fall behind.

All in all, in the same realm, a physical master who was good at physical skills was often stronger than a spiritual master who was good at martial arts, because the Masters of physical skills must be both internal and external! Above Sky Class, there was no way to advance further by only cultivating physical arts, so those who could persist in both physical and spiritual arts were no ordinary ruthless people.

Lin Yi had always been a spiritual practitioner, and it was only natural that all of his trump cards and killing moves belonged to the spiritual category. After all, compared to other Masters of the same level, he had been training for far too short a time.

It had only been less than three years since he entered the sect. This amount of time was negligible for cultivators. As for the cultivation of physical skills, no matter how talented one was, the most important point was that it took a lot of time. This was an objective fact that no one could avoid.

There was no shortcut to mastering physical skills-this was a common view, and Lin Yi had always thought so as well, but after his fight with Cheng haonan today, he realized that while it was still true, it wasn't as absolute as it seemed.

There were techniques to doing anything. Even the simplest action had a corresponding trick, and body techniques were no exception. As long as one could master the essence, it was not impossible to get twice the result with half the effort.

Lin Yi believed that the reason why Cheng haonan's physical skills were so strong wasn't just because he spent a lot of time on it, but more importantly because he had mastered a technique that others couldn't-he'd infused pure Qi into his physical skills!

It wasn't difficult to mix Zhen Qi with ordinary fists and feet. Any cultivator could do it easily, but it was only limited to doing it. Although they were mixed together, the fists and feet were still fists and feet, and the Zhen Qi was still Zhen Qi. The power of the two could not be superimposed, but instead would mutually consume each other. The gains did not make up for the losses.

On Cheng haonan's body, there was no sign of wear and tear. On the contrary, every punch and kick only contained a little true Qi, but it multiplied the power of his punches and kicks, to the point that it could even compete with ordinary martial arts techniques. Such a means of internal and external cultivation could be said to be a divine skill.

Lin Yi hadn't been studying physical skills for a long time, and he didn't have a lot of experience in it, but his assassin background made him a genius in physical skills, and he was also very good at controlling his Qi. With these two conditions, it wasn't impossible for him to learn Cheng haonan's super physical skills.

Even if he couldn't reach Cheng haonan's level in a short time, it wasn't impossible for Lin Yi's physical skills to increase by a few times. Just like now, after countless simulations, he had entered a whole new realm.

"So that's how it is. The root of that guy's powerful physical skills is the use of true energy to stimulate the vitality of his cells in an instant, thus causing the strength of his physical body to soar instantly." Lin Yi let out a long breath, his spirits lifted after thinking it through, "Although he's a complete scumbag, in terms of physical skills, he can be considered a genius."

Cheng haonan was born and raised on Sky Class Island, so of course he didn't know the word "cell," and his understanding of the human body wasn't as scientific as it was in the secular world. Even so, he was still able to do it without knowing anything about it, which was a miracle.

Stimulating cell vitality in an instant was something that happened a lot in the scientific research of the secular world, but on this Sky Class Island, it was a really rare thing. The key was that Cheng haonan not only thought of doing it, but actually did it. The technical content involved was not just a little bit.

The more powerful a cultivator was, the tougher their body would be, and the more powerful their cell vitality would be. However, this did not mean that it was easy to use true energy to stimulate them. There was no effect if the stimulation was small. Once the stimulation intensity exceeded the limit, it was not called stimulating cell vitality, but killing a large number of cells. Success or failure depended on whether one could accurately grasp this degree.

Lin Yi didn't know how a person like Cheng haonan, who knew nothing about cells, was able to do this, but he was sure of one thing-the process must have been extremely difficult.

Even with Lin Yi's high talent and comprehension, along with Cheng haonan's example, it took him a whole night to try it out, making himself cough up blood a few times before he finally managed to control the fire, finally reaching the basic level of the new super physical skill.

"Since this is the principle behind the Super physical technique, then Cheng haonan's entire body turning black should be extreme stimulation!" Lin Yi was overjoyed.

If the normal state of the Super physical technique was the most suitable level of stimulation to the cells of the body, then the level of stimulation of Cheng haonan's whole body in the state of blacken should be the limit of the stimulation that his cells could withstand. Once this limit was exceeded, the cells of the body would be directly killed by the true energy.

In fact, even if the limit was not exceeded, a large number of cells would die after the extreme stimulation because of overdrawing vitality. In other words, one would have to suffer a certain degree of internal injury. This was the price that had to be paid in order to become stronger for a while.

One was a super technique, the other was an ultimate technique. After a whole night of testing, Lin Yi finally had a glimpse of the basics. Once he used it in real combat, his strength would definitely increase by a whole lot.

With Lin Yi's current condition, if he were to fight with Cheng haonan again, the situation would probably be very different from before. Unless Cheng haonan went all out and went into the dark state, Lin Yi wouldn't lose to him even if he didn't use the Super bomb.

Lin Yi didn't stop there after mastering the ultimate Arts and super Arts. He didn't want to just imitate them, he wanted to combine his own strengths and create new ones, just like the wild flame thousand explosive fist.

Compared to the violent sand thousand explosive fist, it was much easier for Lin Yi to combine the Super physical skills with his own specialty. Just like the butterfly microsteps he was thinking of, he could use pure Qi to stimulate his cells and turn it into the advanced version of the Super butterfly microsteps.

Chapter 4506 Why Didn't Anyone Come?

In fact, if necessary, Lin Yi could even turn it into super limit butterfly microstep!

Of course, the burden of going beyond his limits was too great-he'd suffer internal injuries if he used it. Plus, Lin Yi wasn't very familiar with this kind of extreme technique yet, so it was better to avoid it as much as possible.

"They're here!" Lin Yi's eyes suddenly lit up. When he was trying to figure out the Super and ultimate Arts, he felt the stirring sensation again, and when he thought about the Super butterfly microstep, the feeling became even more intense and turbulent.

The originally vast and silent zhenqi in his body began to circulate uncontrollably on its own, faster and faster. Every Meridian in his body became extremely active, and his dantian was in turmoil. This was a sign that he was about to break through!

The sky was getting brighter, and the moment Lin Yi had been waiting for the whole night had finally come.

The sky was bright, and the square became lively again. However, unlike the escort agency event in the South continent three days ago, the number of people gathered here today was much less. After all, there was no competition and no excitement to see. Other than the members of the escort agency and the Chamber of Commerce, no one else would come here to join in the fun.

Of course, the square was now guarded by the bodyguards sent by the new five major bodyguard agencies. Unless they had received an invitation, ordinary people could not sneak in even if they wanted to join in the fun.

After all, they had to sign a large order contract at the meeting today, which involved a lot of trade secrets. Naturally, they couldn't let outsiders in.

The meeting had yet to officially begin, but most of the people present had already arrived. Qi Mingyuan, the new Overlord of the bodyguard agency in the core circle, was in high spirits, chatting and laughing.

None of the people standing around him were ordinary people. Honest Chai, the manager of the Hong Chamber of Commerce's Ming Luo branch, Zhao Shanying, the head of the xuanying escort agency, and the rest of the people were the heads of their respective escort agencies and the bosses of the Chamber of Commerce. They were all important figures. With Qi Mingyuan as the center, a new circle of interest had formed.

On the other hand, the previously popular boundless sea was now completely deserted. There wasn't even a single person around him to support him. Although the four Seas escort agency had managed to keep their position as one of the five big escort agencies, everyone knew that they were in an awkward position. Businessmen were always the most flexible. It was impossible to get them to help them when they were in need.

Looking at Qi Mingyuan and the others, boundless sea's face turned green and purple. He was being ignored in front of so many people. How could he accept this?

It was too embarrassing to continue being left alone like this, and it was easy to become a joke. Boundless sea gritted his teeth and took the initiative to strike up a conversation. This would have been unimaginable in the past, but now, he had no other choice.

However, no matter what, he was still the boss of one of the five big escort agencies. Boundless sea couldn't lower himself to strike up a conversation with an ordinary person. Qi Mingyuan was a core group of people, so he couldn't take the initiative to approach him and ask for a snub. After thinking about it, he could only set his target on the head of the divine Wind escort, Zhao bufan. After all, they had worked together for many years and had a bit of friendship.

"Haha, Zhao ..." Boundless sea walked over and forced a smile, but before he could say anything, Zhao bufan suddenly left with his people, leaving him awkwardly with his mouth wide open. He swallowed the second half of his sentence.

Zhao bufan glanced at him with a smile that didn't look like a smile, then turned to Qi Mingyuan. Qi Mingyuan wouldn't refuse such a Big Shot. The two immediately began to chat, leaving boundless sea alone in the cold wind ...

"This escort leader Zhao really is a wonderful person. Brother Ling, look at that old fogey boundless sea's expression. It's simply too funny, hahahaha!" Qi Wenhan saw this scene clearly, and he couldn't help but hold his stomach and laugh.

"Even though everyone kicks a man when he's down, it's still quite unexpected that the head of the four Seas escort agency, boundless sea, would suddenly fall into such an awkward situation where no one cares about him." Lin Yi shook his head, speechless.

As the saying went, even if a Tiger died, its prestige would still be there. Normally, even if there was a difference, it should not be so miserable. Moreover, the four Seas escort agency had not really collapsed yet. These people were really realistic.

"Hehe, the South continent's sea has always been like this. They only care about benefits and not human feelings. These people change their faces faster than turning a page in a book." Qi Wenhan smiled nonchalantly and looked at Lin Yi carefully. "Brother Ling, did you eat some kind of miraculous pill today? why do I feel like your entire person is a little different? why do I feel especially energetic?"

"No, brother Qi, you must be mistaken." Lin Yi smiled faintly-he'd just broken through to the peak of mid-stage golden core an hour ago, so naturally he was full of energy. He'd always kept a low profile, though, and it was fine for him to keep it to himself.

"Oh, really? "Maybe ..." Qi Wenhan scratched his head in confusion. He didn't ask any more questions because Qi Mingyuan had already led everyone on stage. The South continent escort agency Alliance conference had begun.

As the new leader of the escort agency, Qi Mingyuan naturally had to give an opening speech. However, he was different from the pretentious boundless sea. He only gave a few symbolic words and went straight to the point. He began to host the negotiations for cooperation between the various escort agencies and the various Chambers of Commerce.

All the people in charge of the bodyguard agency were immediately invigorated. They were all eager to try. This was the most important show of the day. Whether their bodyguard agency would have meat or soup for the next five years, or not, would all depend on how many orders they could get today.

However, everyone knew in their hearts that even if it had not officially started, the result was basically already determined. This was because this was a Grand meeting to share the fruits of victory. As the name suggested, only the winners in the top rankings could share the biggest fruits. As for those who had lost their power, they could only be envious.

"Hehe, what I'm most curious about right now is how many orders boundless sea and his Four Seas escort agency will be able to get. Brother Ling, do you want to make a guess?" Qi Wenhan laughed with interest. "In the past, the four Seas escort agency always got 20% of the shares all by themselves. That's what they call being arrogant. But this time, it's going to be tough."

"I can't guess that, but judging from the cold reception he received just now, he must have shrunk significantly this time. The four Seas escort agency won't have a good time in the coming days." Lin Yi smiled and changed the topic, "In comparison, I'm more curious about another thing. Why didn't long kuiba and his Dragon Boat escort come?"

Chapter 4507 Arrival Of The Mountain

"That goes without saying. He was so embarrassed yesterday that he's too ashamed to come again. Anyway, there won't be any orders if he comes." Qi Wenhan pouted.

"That can't be right. Even if he knows that there won't be any orders, his Longzhou escort agency hasn't been removed from the list yet. At such a crucial occasion, even if long kuiba doesn't want to embarrass himself, he should at least send someone to represent him, right?" Lin Yi was still confused.

"Now that you mention it, it's a little strange ..." Qi Wenhan could not help but frown.

As the two of them were talking, there was a sudden clamor at the entrance of the square. Everyone could not help but turn their heads and look. They saw two figures slowly walking towards the center of the venue in the midst of a mess. One of them was long kuiba, and the other was the evil cultivator Cheng haonan who had escaped in public yesterday!

The crowd was shocked. No one had expected that Cheng haonan, the evil cultivator who was hated by everyone, would not run away. Instead, he dared to come back so brazenly. Moreover, he had come to the venue of the meeting where the experts of the escort agency gathered.

Looking at Cheng haonan walking over with an evil smile as if there was no one else around, everyone blurted out at the same time, ""This guy doesn't want to live anymore?!"

"There must be something wrong with this abnormal situation. It seems that things have changed." Lin Yi's face darkened. He didn't believe that Cheng haonan was an idiot who would court his own death. He never had such thoughts before, and after he discovered the intricacies of the Super and ultimate Arts, he didn't even think about it anymore.

Cheng haonan was definitely an extremely shrewd guy. Since he dared to come back so brazenly this time, it meant that he must have something to rely on, and it was something so powerful that he could ignore his identity as a black magic practitioner.

"What's wrong? You guys don't seem to welcome me?" Cheng haonan's gaze slowly swept across everyone's face, his face full of arrogance and pride, not putting anyone in his eyes at all.

The entire mo Leng square was stunned. They watched helplessly as Cheng haonan and long kuiba stepped into the center of the venue. Qi Mingyuan, who was the champion of this event, finally reacted. His face was gloomy and he was about to give the order to arrest them. Good and evil could never coexist. Cheng haonan, this evil cultivator, actually dared to come here unscrupulously. This was clearly a provocation to him, the new Overlord of the bodyguard agency. It was intolerable.

But before Qi Mingyuan could say anything, boundless sea, who wasn't too far away, had already stood up, his eyes shining. This was a great opportunity in front of him. No matter how awkward and cold he had been, as long as he could get some reputation back from this evil cultivator, everything would be solved.

Boundless sea impatiently slammed the table and angrily said, ""It's broad daylight. How dare a mere evil cultivator like you come back so arrogantly? on behalf of the South continent escort agency ..."

Before he could finish his words, a strong wind suddenly blew over mo Leng square. A mass of extremely thick and heavy black fog descended from the sky with endless evil Qi, which made people's faces change and shudder.

Feeling the powerful pressure from the black mist, everyone could not help but tremble and cry out in shock. The core platform where Qi Mingyuan and the others were on was instantly blown away by the strong wind. For a moment, many experts were thrown off their feet and in a sorry state.

A moment later, the raging wind gradually dissipated, and within the black fog, the figure of an old man slowly appeared. He had green hair and red eyebrows, and his appearance was unspeakably strange.

The old man's sinister eyes swept across the entire scene. He did not exude a powerful heaven-defying aura, but an invisible pressure made everyone hold their breath, especially Qi Mingyuan and the others who were closest to him. They felt as if the qi and blood in their bodies had suddenly frozen, and they felt a bone-chilling coldness for no reason.

"Why does this person look so similar to Wu Bao Liang?" Lin Yi mumbled to himself as he looked at the weird old man from afar.

Wu Bao Liang had a pair of triangular Yin Yang eyes that were different from ordinary people, and the old man who descended from the sky, except for his strange appearance, had a pair of eyes that were very similar to Wu Bao Liang's. Could this person be Wu Bao Liang's relative, or his father?

At this time, no one dared to speak. They all stared at this strange old man. Although he didn't start a fight, everyone could see that this man obviously came with bad intentions.

"Which evil spirit dares to come to the escort agency meeting of the South continent and cause trouble? Cheng haonan, do you think that you can look down on the righteous path just because you have a backer? Hmph, I'll do it on behalf of the heavens today!" While everyone was still in a daze, boundless sea suddenly stood up and roared, immediately pouncing towards Cheng haonan.

This was a rare opportunity to turn things around! If it was just a mere Cheng haonan, even if boundless sea managed to capture him first, it wouldn't be very convincing. But now, there was a strange old man who clearly wasn't to be trifled with. Everyone was so scared that they didn't dare to move. Wouldn't this show just how much courage and responsibility boundless sea had?

Boundless sea discreetly glanced at Qi Mingyuan. Seeing the other's laughable expression, as if he was facing a great enemy, boundless sea felt very pleased.

It was not bad to not know what was good, but it was better to compare the goods. With Qi Mingyuan, the so-called new Overlord of the escort agency, as a comparison, it would highlight his superior image. After today's incident, it would be clear who was more suitable to lead the South continent escort agency Alliance in the future!

With all sorts of wishful thinking in his mind, boundless sea felt his body become a lot lighter. Of course, he wasn't stupid. He only attacked Cheng haonan, who he was confident in. As for that strange old man, who clearly wasn't to be trifled with, it was better to wait until he had a hundred people respond to his call and lead everyone to attack him together.

However, Cheng haonan, who boundless sea had listed as a target to increase his reputation, was looking at him with a smile that wasn't a smile. His arms were crossed, and he didn't seem to have any intention of taking the blow.

"What are you!" An extremely shriveled and ear-piercing shout came from behind him. At the same time, an indescribable force suddenly descended on his back. Boundless sea didn't even have time to recover from his smugness before he was smacked to the ground like a fly. He sank three feet into the ground ...

Hiss! Everyone present couldn't help but gasp. Boundless sea was a peak late nascent Soul Stage expert. In the entire South continent escort Alliance, he might not be one of the best, but he was at least in the top five. They didn't think that he wouldn't even be able to take one move from this strange old man. And from the looks of it, the old man wasn't even using his real power.

A sect-opening powerhouse! Qi Mingyuan and the rest of the people who were slightly more knowledgeable were instantly overwhelmed. Although he had not revealed his full strength, they could already tell from this simple attack that this strange old man was actually an expert in the mountain opening stage!

Chapter 4508 West Mountain Old Sect

In the South continent's sea, where even a xuansheng stage expert could do whatever he wanted, a Big Shot at the beginning stage had appeared. At this moment, everyone was so shocked that they couldn't even close their mouths!

They were all shocked speechless, and their eyes were filled with disbelief. This was not the disciple selection venue of the East Province Academy. How could such an invincible existence suddenly appear ...

In an instant, the people who didn't dare to move were even more afraid to even breathe. Each of them shrank their heads and looked at each other, not daring to make a sound.

Even though they were all experts, if they attacked together, even a xuansheng stage expert might not be able to withstand it. But now that the other party was a high and mighty mountain opening stage powerhouse, it was better to quickly put an end to such unrealistic thoughts. If they really got serious, even if they all attacked together, it would not be enough to kill them.

"The evil cultivator Big Boss of the opening stage, I've really made a big joke today ..." Qi Wenhan's face was ugly and he smiled bitterly. The black fog on this strange old man was much thicker than Wu Bao Liang and Cheng haonan 's, and the evil aura was awe-inspiring. If they still couldn't tell that this person was an evil cultivator, then everyone would have dug out their eyes. After all, there was no use in growing them on the face.

Lin Yi nodded, his face dark and silent. From the moment the strange old man appeared, the whole situation was out of control. Even the unimportant people around were trembling with fear, and with Cheng haonan staring at him with bad intentions, Lin Yi was even more unstable. He was in danger today.

Lin Yi clenched his fists-he couldn't rely on anyone else now, he had to rely on himself. There were so many people here, claiming that good and evil couldn't coexist, and that Cheng haonan was being chased like a rat on the street, but that was then.

With absolute strength, one would have absolute right to speak. With the terrifying strength of this strange old man, it didn't matter whether he was an evil cultivator or not. Because no matter what he said, no one present would dare to resist. Once they resisted, there would only be one end, death.

The situation was more powerful than the people. At this time, no one dared to not bow their heads. Not to mention that the other party was an evil cultivator, even if the other party was the leader of the bandits who had robbed them of all their assets, no one present dared to act rashly. They could only grit their teeth and swallow their blood, obediently burying their heads and pretending to be ostriches.

In the face of an evil cultivator at the beginning of the mountain, it was not sad to pretend to be a grandson, but it would be sad to die.

In the dead silence, boundless sea, who had been embedded in the ground, struggled to get up. His face was covered in blood, and he was panting heavily. After all, he was a peak late nascent Soul Stage expert. Before his opponent got serious, he wouldn't die so easily. Of course, he was a bit miserable, and he had been injured quite badly.

That laughable reputation-building plan from before was instantly thrown to the back of his mind. This time, after boundless sea staggered to his feet, he didn't even look at Cheng haonan. He only dared to sneak a glance at the strange old man, and just like everyone else, he shrunk his neck back, not daring to breathe.

However, boundless sea didn't dare to cause any trouble, but this strange old man's gaze fell on his head. Who asked this idiot to steal the spotlight ...

"You're the host of this bullsh * t conference?" The strange old man looked at boundless sea coldly. His voice was even shriller and more ear-piercing than before, causing everyone to have goosebumps. It was so unpleasant to hear that it was a mess.

However, no matter how unpleasant it was, no one could have any opinions and could only endure it.

Being stared at by the strange old man's sinister gaze, boundless sea instantly peed his pants. His knees went soft and he couldn't help but kneel on the ground. He quickly shook his head and stuttered, "No, no... I'm not ... That person is ... Just now, I was impetuous and offended you. Please forgive me, senior ..."

Boundless sea pointed a finger at Qi Mingyuan. He didn't hesitate to sell out the new boss of the escort agency. Everyone looked at him with disdain. Although they didn't dare to go against this evil cultivator leader, it didn't stop them from looking down on this spineless coward. He always spoke with justice, but at this critical moment, he was more obsequious than anyone else.

Seeing the strange old man's evil gaze, Qi Mingyuan's heart clenched, but he didn't say anything. Although he couldn't fight against an existence of this level, he definitely wouldn't be as shameless as boundless sea to kneel and lick his boots in public.

"Alright, no matter who it is, I will temporarily take over this assembly. If there are any dissatisfaction, you can raise it now." The strange old man said with an arrogant expression.

Everyone nodded. No one dared to make a sound at this time. Opposing was courting death. No one present was a fool, and no one would be the one to stand out.

"Not bad, you're quite tactful. Although there are at least eight thousand Masters who have died under my hands, but these years of cultivation, I don't want to go on a killing spree. It's good for you to be honest." The strange old man smiled evilly and added, ""Let me introduce myself. My sect is from West Mountain, and my Daoist name is West Mountain old sect."

"West Mountain old sect?!" The entire moleng square suddenly gasped. If the people still had a trace of unrealistic fantasy in their hearts before, now this trace of fantasy was completely shattered, and no one dared to have any other thoughts.

"What's wrong with the West Mountain?" Lin Yi looked at everyone's shocked expressions and couldn't help but pause. He'd heard of the West Island, but he'd never heard of a West Mountain. Could it be some special place in the South continent sea?

"Eh? Brother Ling, you don't know?" Qi Wenhan, who was beside him, was surprised. He quickly lowered his voice and explained, ""West Mountain is the most famous gathering place for evil cultivators. The most brutal and powerful evil cultivators in the entire Sky Class Island are all gathered in West Mountain, forming a West Mountain evil sect. I heard that the head of the evil sect is called West Mountain old ancestor, and the second head is this old ancestor of West Mountain."

"A gathering place for evil cultivators? There's such a place?" Lin Yi was even more confused-he'd never heard of something like this before. Weren't evil practitioners like rats on the street, always hiding from the light?

Even a chaotic place like the South continent's sea couldn't tolerate the existence of evil cultivators, not to mention the other powerful sects on the sky-class islands. In the understanding of ordinary people, wasn't a publicly existing gathering place for evil cultivators like the West Mountain evil sect waiting for all the major sects to join hands to encircle and annihilate them?

"Yes, they have existed for a long time. I heard that many years ago, the major sects of the middle, North, and West islands even joined forces to encircle and suppress them, but the result was left unsettled." Qi Wenhan shrugged his shoulders and sighed.

"What? The West Mountain evil sect is this strong?" Lin Yi asked in shock.

Chapter 4509 A Chance For Revenge

Although it was said that a sect-opening powerhouse wouldn't be too weak, there were so many powerful sects on the Sky Class Island that weren't to be trifled with. With the huge forces of the middle, North, and West islands United, if they really sent out their top masters, the West Mountain evil sect wouldn't be able to hold on no matter how strong they were, right?

"Well, the West Mountain evil sect is indeed powerful, but it is said that the two sides did not really fight at that time. The Alliance of righteous sects only knows that the West Mountain is roughly between the West Island and the sea of the South continent, but they don't know the specific location. In addition, the environment of that Sea area is extremely dangerous, and it seems that all kinds of profound formations have been set up. The Alliance of righteous sects spent a month there and still could not find the lair of the West Mountain evil sect, so they had no choice but to let it go." Qi Wenhan explained.

He'd only heard about it from someone else, and didn't know much about it. He'd only told Lin Yi the most widely circulated version, but only the person involved knew if it really was true.

"I see." Lin Yi nodded-this made sense. It'd be quite embarrassing if the righteous Alliance couldn't beat the West Mountain evil sect in a direct fight ... It'd be a Sky Class Island version of "six big sects besieging Light Peak ..."

While the two of them were whispering to each other, Cheng haonan had already walked to the side of West Mountain sect master with a smug look on his face. What West Mountain sect master said next made everyone's eyelids Twitch."Cheng haonan is now a disciple of our sect, and I've officially accepted him as my disciple. From what you've just said, it seems like you want to kill him?"

"No, no, no, there's no such thing. Senior, you've misunderstood." Boundless sea was scared half to death and quickly tried to explain himself. He suddenly saw Lin Yi's mocking face from the corner of his eye and immediately shouted, "It's Ling Yi, yes, Ling Yi wants to kill him!"

Everyone was once again speechless. Boundless sea was the only one who could be this shameless. Just now, this guy had clearly wanted to use Cheng haonan to boost his reputation, but now that disaster was imminent, he pushed the blame onto Ling Yi without even blinking.

"Ling Yi?" Looking in the direction boundless sea was pointing, West Mountain old sect's unfriendly eyes landed on Lin Yi. He laughed coldly,"My previous disciple, Wu Bao Liang, died in your hands?"

"Not bad." Lin Yi nodded calmly. He couldn't deny it, and with his personality, he couldn't do that either. After all, he wasn't boundless sea.

"Oh, you dare to admit to your actions, right? I didn't expect you to still be a good man!" West Mountain old sect master's face, which was already strange, suddenly became more and more ferocious and terrifying. He shouted coldly,""Don't you know that he's not only our sect's direct disciple, he's also our sect's nephew?"

"I didn't know at first, but I do now." Lin Yi's expression was still calm-no wonder the two had triangular eyes. So they were uncle and nephew.

Lin Yi's infuriating reply made everyone's expressions turn weird, especially Qi Wenhan, Qi Mingyuan, and honest Chai. They were all breaking out in cold sweat for Lin Yi. Young master Ling was still too young. It wasn't the time to be a hero-he was going to die.

Sure enough, the old Grandmaster of West Mountain was so angry that his face turned ashen, almost the same color as his eyebrows. Black fog suddenly surged out from the top of his head, and the whole sky instantly darkened. It was a doomsday scene with black clouds covering the city.

Just when everyone thought that the West Mountain old sect was going to kill Lin Yi, the dark clouds above their heads suddenly dispersed. The sky was clear again, and the sun was shining brightly.

The killing intent on the body of West Mountain sect master suddenly disappeared. He laughed instead of getting angry."You have a backbone, damn it, you really have a backbone! This nephew of mine is just like you, daring to break down the door and leave the mountain for a trivial matter. I've long said that no evil cultivator who swaggered through the city would have a good end. He has fallen to today's state, and his death is not unjust at all. "

The others weren't the only ones confused-even Lin Yi was taken aback. What did he mean by that?

Everyone thought that this was the rhythm of avenging Wu Bao Liang, but in the end, they actually changed the topic and said that Wu Bao Liang's death was not an injustice. The actions of an expert were indeed unfathomable. This kind of strange thinking of the evil cultivator Big Shot at the beginning of the mountain was even more incomprehensible.

"I also heard that you drove the Dragon Boat escort out?" West Mountain sect master looked away from Lin Yi and asked about something irrelevant, which confused everyone even more.

"No, no, no, I didn't drive him out, I didn't drive him out." Boundless sea was the first to recover from his shock. He quickly said, "The Longzhou escort agency is ranked second. From now on, it will be the six major escort agencies. The five major escort agencies should have been changed a long time ago."

The crowd couldn't help but feel a burst of disdain. Damn it, this guy was too shameless. How could he change the ironclad rules of the southern continent escort agency Alliance just like that? Six F * cking major escort agencies? even at a time like this, he still did not forget to take care of his own Four Seas escort agency. He was really a cunning old fox!

Even though no one dared to make a sound in front of a sect-opening evil cultivator Big Boss for the sake of their lives, everyone still had some integrity in their hearts. But there was nothing to say about someone like boundless sea. This guy had already become the evil cultivator's Lackey. Not only did he not feel ashamed, but he also had a shameless expression on his face, as if he was a man who could bend and stretch ...

"Tsk tsk, you're quite tactful. Get lost." The old sect master of West Mountain smiled sarcastically and turned to Cheng haonan. "My dear disciple, it's time to get down to business. I'll give you a chance to take revenge yourself. Kill that Ling Yi, and then we'll head to the Dragon Boat escort agency together. It's rare for us to come out, and I have a lot of things to do."

When long kuiba heard this, he was overjoyed. When boundless sea said that his Longzhou escort agency would become the number two escort agency again, he wasn't even this excited. After all, this was the true meaning of the question. He had already mentally prepared himself for this, so there was nothing to be surprised about.

But now, the old sect master of West Mountain said that he would take charge of the Dragon Boat escort agency. This was a good thing that he could not even dream of!

Long kuiba was so excited that he almost slapped himself. Damn it, this was a big Shot at the opening stage! So what if he was a heretic practitioner? who would dare to say no?

In the South continent's waters, people often said things like good and evil could not coexist, but from everyone's performance, especially boundless sea 's, it could be seen that the fist was the truth. As long as one was strong enough, evil cultivators could also become the mainstream. Then I'll kill you with one punch!

Chapter 4510 Another Challenge

With the old sect of West Mountain, a Big Shot at the beginning of the mountain, in the future, the business of the Longzhou escort agency would not decrease even a little because of the existence of the evil cultivators. Instead, it would be much more than before. Even the newly-promoted Qitian escort agency would not be able to compete with it.

Business people placed profits above everything else. They didn't care about evil cultivators. As long as they could deter thieves and Pirates, and deliver the sealed package safely and reliable, they would be their first choice.

In the end, the winner was the king. As long as one's strength was strong enough, even evil cultivators were considered justice. The Dragon Boat escort was not a stain, but a blessing that could not be accumulated in a few lifetimes with the old sect of West Mountain, who was a big Shot in the beginning, in charge!

As long as the old sect master of West Mountain was around, no one would dare to provoke the Longzhou escort agency. As long as the flag of the Longzhou escort agency was raised on the ship, even pirates and robbers had to hide far away. Otherwise, if they dared to have any evil thoughts, they would be enemies with the old sect of West Mountain, and even ten lives would not be enough to kill them.

In comparison, it didn't matter whether they recovered or not. With the words of the old sect master of West Mountain today, it would be fine even if Longzhou escort agency didn't join the South continent escort agency Alliance in the future. With a powerhouse in the beginning stage as their leader, they wouldn't have to worry about no business coming to them.

Long kuiba's heart was filled with joy, but he wasn't the center of attention at the moment. It was Cheng haonan and Lin Yi.

Everyone saw the West Mountain old sect master change the topic and didn't say anything about avenging his nephew and disciple, so they thought he was going to let Lin Yi go. They didn't expect that he was saving it for Cheng haonan.

"Yes, this disciple will present Ling Yi's head to take revenge for brother Magus as a gift to acknowledge you as my master!" Cheng haonan was suddenly in high spirits.

Although the identity of the boss of the poison eye mercenary group sounded impressive, in the eyes of the higher-ups, he was not even worth mentioning. Even people like Qi Mingyuan could clearly look down on him, let alone those large sects.

But now, it was different. He would replace Wu Bao Liang as the pro-disciple of West Mountain old sect. This was a deep background that no big Shot would dare to underestimate. From now on, he, Cheng haonan, would welcome a turning point in his life and soar into the sky.

Of course, all of this was thanks to Ling Yi. Cheng haonan's road to success would also start from killing Ling Yi!

Lin Yi remained calm as he watched Cheng haonan arrogantly walk over, while Qi Wenhan and the others were pale with fear.

No matter what, they would always be on Lin Yi's side. They shared the same interests. Qi Wenhan, Qi Mingyuan, and even honest Chai, who was standing among the Chamber of Commerce's representatives, wouldn't betray Lin Yi at a time like this.

But the problem was that they really had no way out. They didn't have to be too afraid of people like Cheng haonan, but what could they use to fight against the old sect of West Mountain, a Big Shot of evil cultivators at the beginning of the mountain?

In terms of strength, all of them combined wouldn't even be able to take one hit from West Mountain old sect. Jumping out at this time was only courting death, but they couldn't just watch Lin Yi get killed by Cheng haonan, could they?

Anyone who'd seen yesterday's battle would know that Lin Yi had been suppressed by Cheng haonan from the start to the end. Even if he used a killer move like the wild flame thousand explosive fist at the end, it wouldn't work. Cheng haonan had absolute power over him, and he was no match for him at all.

It had only been a day, and no one, including Qi Wenhan and the others, thought that Lin Yi would be defeated by Cheng haonan's attack.

However, if he lost again today, his outcome would be very different from yesterday's arena battles. Yesterday, as long as he fell off the arena, he could keep his life. However, today, it would be a fight to the death.

Seeing that Qi Wenhan was about to jump out, Lin Yi quickly reached out and stopped him, ""This is my business, you guys just watch."

Qi Wenhan opened his mouth to say something, but Lin Yi didn't give him the chance. After giving him a look, Lin Yi walked out of the crowd and went to Cheng haonan.

Lin Yi knew very well that he had to get through this. Qi Wenhan and the others couldn't help him at all. On the contrary, if the old sect of West Mountain got angry because of him, it would be a big problem.

"Hehe, you really have a backbone. You actually dare to take the initiative to stand out?" Cheng haonan couldn't help but raise his brows when he saw this scene. He clenched his fist and sneered, ""I'd like to know if you're really not afraid of death or if there's something wrong with your brain. Do you think you can beat me?"

"How do we know if we can win if we don't fight?" Lin Yi asked back with a faint smile, his expression as calm as ever.

Even though the old sect master of West Mountain was fighting not far away, he didn't show any signs of stage fright. His magnanimity really made everyone present speechless. They all thought it was a pity. With this kind of magnanimity, this man would definitely achieve great things in time. It was a pity that he had offended the old sect of West Mountain. He was destined to die young today.

"Wow, you're quite arrogant. Luckily, my memory isn't bad. Otherwise, I would have thought that I lost to you yesterday." Cheng haonan taunted as a layer of black Qi suddenly emerged from his body. His aura suddenly became sharp and overbearing, and he had actually activated the [dark state].

It was obvious that Cheng haonan didn't want to give Lin Yi any chance to fight back. After all, this was his first battle as a disciple of West Mountain old sect. If he couldn't get rid of Lin Yi quickly, he would lose his position in the old sect's heart. He had to give it his all today.

"Ultimate Arts ..." Lin Yi's eyelids twitched. If it wasn't for the West Mountain sect watching him, he would've had the time to have a good fight with Cheng haonan.

After all, the Super and ultimate Arts that he had just developed were both lacking in practice. This was the perfect opportunity for him to do so. Perhaps after this battle, his mastery in this area would improve by leaps and bounds, from the beginner level to the advanced level. However, for now, his life was more important.

Lin Yi shook his head, a little regretful. In the eyes of Cheng haonan and the others, this was a blatant provocation. Anyone who saw their opponent shaking their head at them would probably think the same.

"Hmph, you still dare to act tough even when you're about to die. Among all the people I've met, you're really the leader of acting tough! You really don't even know how to spell the word "death"!" Cheng haonan let out a long howl and his body turned into a ghostly black shadow as he pounced towards Lin Yi. His speed in the dark state was extremely shocking, and even most of the original infant stage Masters wouldn't be able to react in time, let alone a mere Ling Yi.
