

Bodyguard 4621

Chapter 4621 The Three Pavilions 'Recommendation

Lin Yi didn't go into the details of the adventure. Firstly, it was a long story, and secondly, he would have prepared the baby ginseng, Star Ink milk, and other treasures for everyone, but there was no need to announce it to the public. As the old saying went, "an innocent man will be punished for his crime if he has a treasure." Who knew if there was some sort of surveillance formation in residence number one?

"What happened after that?" The crowd continued to ask eagerly.

"When we returned to zhenduan city from Lufeng forest, we thought we could finally go Back to Black arc city, but we didn't expect to run into the East continent's morning stars Academy, who came to select disciples. The entire dock was cordoned off, and we couldn't leave at all." Lin Yi chuckled.

"East continent's Morning Star Academy?!" Everyone was stunned when they heard the name, except for Hong Zhong and Shangguan LAN 'er, who were a little surprised.

"Then did you guys participate in the selection?" Hong Zhong and Shangguan LAN 'er asked almost in unison. Hong Zhong didn't need to be mentioned. Although Shangguan LAN 'er had never been to the East Province, her family would not miss the most important place among the five sky-class islands, the East Province. What the East Province Academy represented, the others didn't know, but the two of them were absolutely clear.

"I did. I thought that since I had nothing to do, I decided to join in the fun at the square. In the end, I was tacitly regarded as a candidate." Lin Yi shrugged with a bitter smile.

"And the result? What was the result?" The two of them quickly asked.

"The result was obvious. I didn't get chosen, but Xiao Tao was chosen to become the only personal disciple of Donghai's divine nun. It's a godsend, and the other party is a Big Shot at the beginning of the school." Lin Yi smiled.

"Really? That's great, sister Xiao Tao is really amazing!" Shangguan LAN 'er said happily. With her pure nature, she would never anger or laugh at others. She was sincerely happy for Huang xiaotao. After all, Huang xiaotao's life was miserable. Being able to become the personal disciple of a sect-opening powerhouse was a dream opportunity for everyone. This was probably God's compensation for her.

"Lin shaoxia, how did you get eliminated? that's impossible, right?" Hong Zhong's focus wasn't on Huang xiaotao. He'd seen so many people in his life that it was unimaginable. He'd seen at least eighty to a hundred super geniuses, and if there was anyone who could guarantee that they'd stand out among them, it would be Lin Yi without a doubt.

Hong Zhong had been to the East continent, and he'd seen all the geniuses there. In his eyes, Lin Yi's potential and ability were far beyond those geniuses, and it wasn't because they were close, but it was the truth.

If even Huang xiaotao could become the disciple of Donghai's divine nun, then how could Lin Yi, who was at least ten times more talented than her, fail? If that was the case, Hong Zhong could only think that the higher-ups of the Morning Star Academy were out of their minds.

Hearing Hong Zhong's words, Shangguan LAN 'er finally reacted and asked curiously, ""That's right, even my grandfather couldn't stop praising Little Junior Brother, so how could Little Junior Brother not be selected? I've heard from my grandfather that the East Province Academy once wanted to recruit senior brother Gongyang, but he returned after a month and regarded the talented disciples there as weeds. My grandfather's evaluation of Junior Brother is no less than senior brother Gongyang 's!"

"That's right. With boss's aptitude, he actually failed to be selected. This is simply a huge joke. Those people have eyes but failed to see, right?" Qiao hongcai and the others all felt bad for Lin Yi. They didn't know much about the East Province Academy, but there was no way their boss would lose to Gongyang Jie if they compared him to them.

Lin Yi was touched and amused by the angry faces of the crowd. He blinked his eyes and said, "Once I'm selected, I have to go to the East Province like Xiao Tao. I don't really want to go, so ..."

"Oh, so that's how Yingluo is. I knew it. It's impossible that she didn't get chosen, haha!" Only then did everyone come to a realization, and they all laughed endlessly.

"The selection of the Morning Star Academy in the East continent is well-known in the South continent. It's a big deal. You really don't know anything about Xiao Tao here?" Lin Yi asked curiously. From what he understood, Huang xiaotao's situation was the same as a student getting into a famous university in the secular world. It was a real honor, and her school would've publicized it.

"I don't know. I didn't hear anything." Everyone looked at each other and shook their heads.

"My grandfather should know, but every time I asked him, I only mentioned your name. I never specifically asked sister Xiao Tao, so he didn't tell me." Shangguan LAN 'er said thoughtfully.

Lin Yi nodded, but still felt strange. The higher-ups of the North Island must have known about Huang xiaotao's incident. After all, she was an inner disciple of the GreenCloud Pavilion before this, but the strange thing was that the higher-ups were all silent about this. Not only did Shangguan Tianhua not say anything, but even the GreenCloud Pavilion didn't hear anything about it. This didn't make sense. Now that the GreenCloud Pavilion was so weak, it would be good to use Huang Xiaotao's incident to boost their morale ...

"I know a little bit about this." Hong Zhong suddenly opened his mouth. Seeing everyone looking at him in confusion, he smiled and said, "In fact, the East Province Academy comes out every year to select disciples. Not only in the South Province, but also all the Big Sky-class islands, including the middle Island. But you've been here for so long, have you heard of anyone from the three pavilions of the North Island going to the East Province Academy? Or have you ever seen the East Province Academy come to the North Island to select disciples?"

"No, I didn't," Everyone shook their heads. Lin Yi and the others could be explained as having just joined for a short time, but Lu Bianren and the miserable senior brother had been here for so many years and still didn't know anything. This wasn't normal.

"As far as I know, the reason why the East province's Academies don't come to the North Island to publicly select disciples is that they have made an agreement with the three pavilions of the North Island. I don't know the details of the agreement, but I only know a rough idea. Basically, the right of recommendation is handed over to the three pavilions. The East province's Academies don't have to come personally to select disciples, but the higher-ups of the three pavilions will recommend on their behalf." Hong Zhong paused, then looked at Shangguan LAN 'er and said, "The initiator of this agreement is your grandfather, Shangguan Tianhua."

Everyone was stunned, but they were not surprised by this. If the three great pavilions of the North Island were to select a Big Shot who could represent the North Island the most, it would be Shangguan Tianhua. If it were anyone else, even the pavilion Masters of the profound secrets Pavilion and the GreenCloud Pavilion would find it difficult to convince the public.

"In other words, the recommendation of talented disciples to the East Province Academy is only discussed among the higher-ups of the three pavilions, and it has never been announced to the ordinary disciples?" Lin Yi asked, deep in thought.

Chapter 4622 Visiting The King Of Junk

"That's right. Every time a talented disciple from the North Island is recommended to the East Province Academy, they'll say that they're out on a mission. There are two reasons for this. First, although the East Province Academy isn't a traditional sect, in theory, they'll come back one day after studying for a period of time. However, if this matter is made public, it'll certainly make all the disciples of the three pavilions rush like ducks. I believe that everyone will fight to the death for this recommendation. If a sect's disciple is determined to join the East Province Academy, do you think the sect will still have any cohesion and future?" Hong Zhong analyzed.

His words were not groundless. Many sects on the middle Island had the right to recommend, but they did not handle it in a low-key manner like the three pavilions on the North Island. For the sake of so-called fairness, they had always held open competitions. In the end, only a few of the geniuses who had gone to the East Province Academy returned to serve their sects!

The East Province Academy had been their target from the very beginning. A sect was just a springboard for them. Why would they come back to serve this springboard after achieving their goal?

However, being recommended by the three pavilions and going to the East Province were two completely different things! It was like a person in school in the secular world. Everyone wanted to get into a better school, but once they went, they would definitely not return to their original school.

If he was an employee of the company and one day his boss told him to give him a chance to study, the employee would definitely be grateful and return to the company after he finished his studies.

"That makes sense. What about the second reason?" Everyone asked.

"The second reason is, of course, to conceal one's strength and bide one's time. The more talented disciples a sect can recommend to the East Province Academy, the more powerful they will be in the future. Since it's confirmed that these disciples will return to the North Island in the future, it's natural to hide them and use them as a trump card!" Hong Zhong couldn't help but smile and ask.

"I see!" Everyone nodded one after another. The reason why a trump card was a trump card was because it could make people feel fear when they couldn't figure out the actual situation. Once it was taken out and known by everyone, not only could it not take the initiative, but even the deterrent force would be greatly reduced.

"Little Junior Brother, did you break up with sister Xiao Tao after that?" Shangguan LAN 'er returned to the main topic.

"That's right. Xiao Tao left with Donghai's divine nun, while I returned to black arc city alone. Coincidentally, I met the Pirates from before along the way and snatched the goods back. I went back to confront Wei Zhaotong and then agreed to participate in the South continent escort meeting with the Qitian escort agency. You should know about this, right?" Lin Yi asked.

"I know, I know. They said that you killed the heretic practitioner, Wu Bao Liang, at the Grand meeting. As a result, you provoked the West Mountain old sect and they chased you all over the world." Shangguan LAN 'er said, and Lu bianren and the others also nodded.

"I've heard of the West Mountain sect's name. It's said that he's the number two figure in the West Mountain evil sect, an unfathomable evil cultivator in the opening stage. It's really incredible that you could escape from him." Hong Zhong couldn't help but sigh.

Only when one had reached a certain level could one truly understand how terrifying a sect-opening powerhouse was. He was much more clear about the difficulty of this than the others who were ignorant.

"Hehe, in fact, this is mainly due to luck. Originally, I couldn't escape from his pursuit with my strength, but I managed to escape to the southern island by chance. He didn't dare to continue going deeper. After all, the spirit beast clan is not to be trifled with. So, I simply hid in the southern island to cultivate. It was only recently that I completely broke away from the surveillance of the old sect of West Mountain, and I was able to escape and come back." Lin Yi said briefly. As for the part about the five poisons swamp and the Dragon of five evils, he didn't need to tell them in detail.

"To be able to hide in the southern island for so long and come out unscathed, that's not simple at all. It's not something that can be summed up by luck. The hardships and hardships are not something that ordinary people can endure. Young hero Lin, this old man respects you!" Hong Zhong praised.

"Little Junior Brother (boss), let's toast to you!" Everyone chimed in.

"Thank you, everyone. Come, let's drink this cup together!" Lin Yi laughed as he finished the drink.

"By the way, I have a letter for you, Lin shaoxia. I was in a hurry just now, so I didn't bring it. I'll give it to you tomorrow." Hong Zhong suddenly said.

"A letter? What letter?" Lin Yi didn't know how to react.

"It's from the transportation company under the central Chamber of Commerce. It's written that the recipient is you, Lin shaoxia. But I don't know why it's in my hands." Hong Zhong was confused. Lin Yi had been missing in the South continent for a while, and it wasn't strange that the letter didn't reach him, but it was strange that it had reached him out of nowhere.

If Lin Yi didn't tell him about it, it meant that the rising central Chamber of Commerce had investigated his relationship with Lin Yi. It was a very unsettling feeling.

Hong Zhong was still worried that there might be a conspiracy behind this, but Lin Yi's calm and collected self froze after hearing the story. He didn't react for a long time, and everyone looked at each other, wondering if he'd eaten something weird ...

Lin Yi took a long while to come back to his senses. Everyone was looking at him with worried faces. He suppressed his excitement and shook his head, "Oh, I'm fine. Elder Hong, I've been waiting for this letter for a long time. I'll go and find you tomorrow morning."

He couldn't be blamed for losing his composure-the moment he heard the words "central Chamber of Commerce," he knew that this was the reply he'd been waiting for from the common world!

After hearing the news, Lin Yi couldn't help but feel a little out of his mind. Fortunately, he had already told them about his experience in the South continent, and everyone's curiosity was finally satisfied. Because Shangguan LAN 'er had to rush back before midnight, the banquet didn't last long. Seeing that it was about time, everyone dispersed.

Lin Yi didn't rest after sending everyone off. His mind was filled with the letter that Hong Zhong mentioned, and he couldn't stop his excitement. However, he still had some restraint and didn't go to the Hong Chamber of Commerce with Hong Zhong. Instead, he went to the secret base of the king of junk alone with the food and wine he had reserved.

It'd been so long, but this place hadn't changed at all-the king of junk was busy writing something like a mad demon when Lin Yi came in with the food and wine, and Lin Yi just stood behind him, not noticing anything at all.

Chapter 4623 Letter From The Secular World

Lin Yi smiled and didn't disturb the king of junk. He just quietly read the things he wrote down. There were all kinds of strange symbols and extremely complicated calculation formulas. Lin Yi was just a half-baked forger, so he couldn't understand it at all. He could only roughly tell that the guy was improving the formula, and it was related to the weapon he was forging.

At this moment, the situation in the tool-casting pool had not changed at all. It was still that unsightly lump of iron, and it still maintained a state of neither warmth nor fire. Occasionally, one or two bubbles would appear in the pool, but most of the time, it was like a pool of still water, and there were no signs of it being formed.

"Something's wrong! It was wrong! There must be a problem here, but where is the problem?" The king of junk suddenly frowned and mumbled, looking worried.

"Eat something first. It might help if you change your brain a little." Lin Yi said as he placed the food next to him.

"Hmm, that's good." Rag King nodded without looking back and started gobbling down the food and wine, his eyes still fixed on the paper. It took half an incense's time for him to finish the food and wine before he finally realized what was going on. He turned to Lin Yi, surprised, "You're back!"

"Hehe, you finally saw me. If it was someone else with bad intentions, you would have died many times over. You have to be more alert in the future." Lin Yi didn't know whether to laugh or cry.

"Hehe, I couldn't help it. I was distracted." The king of junk rubbed his head and laughed.

"I'm really sorry. I've been away for more than a year. You were clearly forging for me, but from beginning to end, it was you who had to suffer. I'm really sorry." Lin Yi's heart was filled with guilt as he looked at the disheveled King of junk.

However, the king of junk didn't think much of it. He was surprised by Lin Yi's words, "Eh? Two years had passed? I didn't even know ..."

"Ugh ..." Lin Yi felt even guiltier. The king of junk had been guarding this pool for his entire life, never stepping out of it. He even forgot about the time. Lin Yi was touched, "I've made you suffer because of my matter. "

"Ha? You're talking about this? brother Lin, you're looking down on me too much. Patience is a required course for weapon forging Masters. Staying here is not a form of torture, but a rare cultivation experience! Even if this didn't happen, I've already planned to do something that would test my patience. It hasn't even been two years, so how can this be?" The king of junk looked indifferent.

Lin Yi looked at the king of junk in disbelief. It did sound like he was telling the truth, but it was also possible that he was just trying to comfort Lin Yi. No matter what, he was still touched.

"Come, for your patience and perseverance, I'll toast you!" Lin Yi didn't say anything, all his words were wasted in the wine.

"I told you it's nothing ..." King of junk laughed, but he still clinked glasses with Lin Yi and drank the whole glass.

"By the way, brother Wang, what are you writing? it looks very profound." Lin Yi asked curiously as he filled up the cup.

"Oh, this is an improvement plan that I've thought of during this period of time. It might be able to break the current stalemate and add a very practical new feature to the weapon after it takes shape. However, I haven't completely figured it out yet. According to this progress, it will take some time. Anyway, it's just a waste of time. It's not a bad thing to think of more ways to try it out. Don't you think so, brother Lin?" The king of junk laughed.

"En, no matter what, it's still better than this half-dead state. I believe in your strength, brother Wang." Lin Yi nodded-he wasn't even an elementary school student compared to the king of junk in terms of forging. It wasn't hard for him to get some materials, but he'd better go to bed if he had to give advice on something technical like this.

"Sigh, actually, I've come up with a lot of interesting ideas recently. If I can realize them one by one, I can at least upgrade this weapon by several levels. Unfortunately, these ideas require very high precision and control. I'm afraid I can't control it with my current level. What a pity ..." King of junk sighed.

This was probably the highest grade weapon he could forge in his life. Of course, he wanted to be perfect. Unfortunately, perhaps because the material was too high grade, the weapon's requirements for heat control and precision when forming were outrageously high.

"We still have a long way to go. In fact, it's already very rare for us to be able to maintain the current situation for such a long time. If we really can't do it, we'll just treat this as practice. We can still get the materials for forging weapons again. We can start over again," Lin Yi consoled.

"How can we do that? Ten-thousand-year-old tree crystals and ancient pure lands were things that he wouldn't be able to encounter in his next life, so how could he treat them as practice? Don't worry, brother Lin. Even if I can't form it for now, I'm confident in maintaining its current state. As for the method, I'll try it out slowly in the future. I believe that I'll succeed one day!" The king of junk said with a burning gaze.

Lin Yi was taken aback by trash King's confidence, but he nodded with a smile. This guy was a genius in forging, and a one-track minded one at that. He'd picked up a treasure.

The two drank as they talked, and this went on for the whole night. They didn't get drunk, but became more energetic the more they drank, especially the king of junk. Other people had a fountain of ideas after drinking, but this was like peeing after drinking. He came up with a strange idea every now and then, and Lin Yi, the half-baked Lin Yi, was always stunned.

In the end, the king of junk was so excited that he threw Lin Yi aside and started calculating again. Lin Yi didn't know whether to laugh or cry.

Just as he was feeling helpless, the king of junk finally reacted and took a break to say to him, ""Brother Lin, you should go back. I'm enough here. I can go into closed door cultivation to train my patience. This is a good opportunity."

Lin Yi looked at him-it was almost daybreak. He nodded and got up,"Alright, I'll leave it to you then, brother Wang. I'll come and see you in a few days."

Lin Yi didn't return to the pavilion after leaving the secret base, but went straight to the market instead. He couldn't wait to see the letter that Hong Zhong was talking about.

Lin Yi's arrival early in the morning startled Hong Zhong for a moment before he handed the letter to Lin Yi.

Chapter 4624 Emotional

Lin Yi took the letter from Hong Zhong's hands. It was only a few thin sheets of paper, but he felt his hands sink. He had to take a few deep breaths before he could calm himself down and read the letter.

One look and Lin Yi lost control of his emotions once more, his tears almost flowing out.

He'd only been on Sky Class Island for less than three years-this was the same as studying abroad in the common world, and there were plenty of people who didn't return home for two or three years, but Lin Yi was different. Sky Class Island and the common world were on two completely different levels, and they'd meet again one day if they were separated, but it was hard to say if they were separated on two different levels-it might even be forever.

If it wasn't for the central Chamber of Commerce, and the things the ghost said in the five poison swamp, giving Lin Yi hope of going back and forth to the common world, he might have been asking around like he did when he first came.

Lin Yi took another deep breath and tried to control his shaking hands. There were ten sheets of paper, and five of them were split into two. One was for his girlfriend, and the other was for his followers.

Lin Yi was overjoyed when he saw the first sentence. These people were planning to write a letter each and put it together, but there were a hundred thousand words in it. It was a thick stack, and three to five envelopes couldn't fit in it, let alone one.

The central Express delivery guy was dumbfounded when he saw Lin Yi's package. He tried his best to persuade them, and they finally changed their minds. After a long discussion, they came to this-each person said a few words to Lin Yi, then put them together in two packages.

Even so, this letter had to be sent back and forth a few times because it was overweight. He had no choice but to continuously simplify it. Only then did it barely meet the requirements of Central Express!

The two letters in Lin Yi's hands, on the other hand, were already the seventh edition that everyone had spent so much effort on. Writing a letter, something as simple as that, had become more complicated than writing a thesis paper ...

Both letters were covered in different types of handwriting, and everyone had to write a few sentences, even if it was just one or two. They wouldn't let anyone do it for them, and the letter even said that they had a meeting for two days to discuss the style and grammar of the letter. Lin Yi didn't know whether to laugh or cry.

These guys really had so much energy that they had nowhere to use it! Lin Yi shook his head speechlessly, but after thinking about it, the elites of the common world were basically all on Sky Class Island, and the remaining people were the strongest in the world. Other than bullet head who came looking for trouble, no one else dared to mess with them-it was normal to have too much energy.

Everyone explained the conflict in detail, including how Lin Dongfang came out to save the day. Other than that, there were some small things. Even so, Lin Yi still read it over and over again, his mouth curling up involuntarily every time he read it, and he laughed foolishly for a long time.

Hong Zhong had left his room for Lin Yi to avoid suspicion, but he could hear laughter from the room next door from time to time. Once or twice was fine, but it was the same for an hour. Even a man as knowledgeable as Hong Zhong was scared by Lin Yi. He couldn't help but frown and wonder if someone had poisoned the letter.

Otherwise, why would a super-genius like Lin Yi, who was always calm and collected, laugh like an idiot for no reason? There must be a problem!

Lin Yi laughed like a fool for an hour, and hongzhong, who was sitting next door, finally couldn't help but knock on the door. "Young hero Lin! Lin shaoxia!"

"Elder Hong, what's the matter?" Lin Yi finally opened the door after a while.

"Oh, I'm fine. I just wanted to ask if you're okay." Hong Zhong sized Lin Yi up with a weird look on his face, but realized that there wasn't anything unusual about him. Lin Yi looked relaxed, as if a huge burden had been lifted from his heart for years. He looked much more radiant.

Hong Zhong wasn't wrong-this letter did help Lin Yi resolve a huge problem. The safety of everyone in the common world was the most important thing to him, and he had Lin Dongfang to save them. On top of that, everyone here was a rare practitioner in the common world, so there was nothing for Lin Yi to worry about. Even he dan TOU was given a hard time, so there was nothing for him to worry about.

"I'm fine," Lin Yi scratched his head awkwardly before asking, "Oh right, elder Hong, how much do you know about the central Chamber of Commerce? do you know about the letter delivery service they've launched in the secular world?"

"A letter delivery service in the secular world?" Hearing this, Hong Zhong was stunned and said thoughtfully, ""I've heard of this, but I didn't understand it in detail. Could it be that your letter was sent from the secular world?"

"That's right. I won this at the Nakajima auction. I can write a letter to my friends and family in the secular world, and the one in my hand now is a reply letter sent back from the secular world." Lin Yi nodded.

"Yes, although I wasn't at the auction, this matter was still quite sensational. It's said that writing this letter would cost a sky-high price, an outrageous price." Hong Zhong said.

"Back then, the fixed price was a hundred thousand spiritual jades." Lin Yi said with a smile.

"Oh? That's a sky-high price, Lin shaoxia, you're really generous. " Hong Zhong couldn't help but exclaim. 100000 spiritual Jade was enough to buy most of the treasures in the world. Many powerful practitioners would risk their lives for 100000 spiritual Jade, but Lin Yi just used it to write a letter. This kind of courage wasn't something ordinary people could have.

"For someone like me, this letter is much more precious than any natural treasure. Let alone 100000 spiritual jades, I'd definitely think of a way to buy it even if it cost 200000 or 300000 spiritual jades." Lin Yi paused and asked, "the central Chamber of Commerce's letter delivery service to the secular world has never been heard of since the Nakajima auction. You have a lot of connections, old Hong. Can you ask someone to help me ask if this service is still going on? can I still reply to the secular world?"

"Alright, wait here for a moment. I'll go ask someone." Hong Zhong agreed without a second word. He immediately turned around and left. The place he was going to was not far from the Hong Chamber of Commerce. It was the central Chamber of Commerce in the inner street of the market.

Since it was the business of the central Chamber of Commerce, instead of asking outsiders, it was better to ask directly. This was more efficient and there would be no mistakes.

Chapter 4625 Business Suspended

Now, the manager of the North Island branch of the central Chamber of Commerce was still si tsunami. Although there was some unhappiness between him and the Hong Chamber of Commerce, and the Hong Chamber of Commerce had clearly put him on the blacklist, the central Chamber of Commerce had risen too fast. Its power was no longer the same as before. It was the third largest Chamber of Commerce after the five elements Chamber of Commerce and the Hong Chamber of Commerce. At this rate of development, it was possible to replace the top two.

Since the central Chamber of Commerce was so powerful, as the manager of the North Island branch, si tsunami's status naturally rose with it. Many high-level executives of the central island headquarters of the Hong Chamber of Commerce proposed a large-scale cooperation with the central Chamber of Commerce. For this, they would not hesitate to whitewash si tsunami's reputation. This was the general trend, and even Hong Zhong could not stop it.

Since the two sides had business cooperation, Hong Zhong naturally wouldn't deliberately make things difficult for si tsunami. After all, he was a friendly businessman. Unless it was a life-and-death feud, he could let go of all other grievances.

What's more, strictly speaking, there was no direct conflict between him and Si tsunami. Si tsunami had only been insensible enough to flirt with Shangguan LAN 'er and ning Xuefei. He had brought it upon himself and had nothing to do with Hong Zhong.

"Oh, isn't this manager Hong? what business do you have here?" Seeing Hong Zhong enter, si tsunami lazily sat on the armchair in the corridor on the second floor and greeted him condescendingly. He was holding a woman in thin clothes on each side. Although she was not the most beautiful woman in the world, her beauty was still considered top-notch.

He'd been in high spirits these days-he was only the manager of the North Island branch of the central Chamber of Commerce, and Hong Zhong was the Vice-President of the Hong Chamber of Commerce, one rank higher than him, but he didn't think much of Hong Zhong. The central Chamber of Commerce was just a tool for central to expand, and in front of a central Chamber of Commerce that could control the sky with one hand, even if the Hong Chamber of Commerce was the second largest Chamber of Commerce on Tianjie Island, what was that?

Of course, even if he didn't like Hong Zhong, he was still an important figure. Si tsunami wouldn't neglect him too much. After all, his North Island branch had many business collaborations with the Hong Chamber of Commerce. If their relationship became strained, it wouldn't be good for him.

Manager si, I haven't seen you for a few days. How are you?" Hong Zhong cupped his hands and smiled faintly. He didn't seem to care about the other party's neglect. Si tsunami looked down on him, but he looked down on si tsunami. In his eyes, si tsunami was just a villain who had achieved success. If he hadn't been lucky enough to get on the boat of the central Chamber of Commerce, this guy would have died in some mass grave.

However, Hong Zhong's shrewdness and self-restraint were not comparable to si tsunami 'S. No matter how much he looked down on him, he could still make the other party feel like he was bathing in the spring breeze. This was the ability of a businessman.

"It's alright. You eat and drink as usual. Most importantly, you're accompanied by beauty. That's how life should be. You look so bored all by yourself. Do you want me to give you one?" Si tsunami laughed.

In the past two years, he had spent a lot of energy searching for beautiful women from all over the world to form a harem. He had been hanging out with this harem all day long, living a drunken life. This was his life's pursuit.

And the higher-ups didn't have the slightest dissatisfaction with his behavior. As long as he could complete the task on time, no one would care about him even if he had a harem of 3000.

"Manager si, I appreciate your kind intentions, but a gentleman does not take what others like. I can't stand such beauty." Hong Zhong smiled and walked to si tsunami. He asked directly, ""I don't come here without a reason. I actually have a favor to ask of you. I want to find out more about something from you, manager si. Is that convenient?"

"No problem, just ask me anything." Si tsunami was still hugging the two beauties casually. He didn't want them to avoid him.

Seeing this, Hong Zhong's eyelids twitched. If he was here to discuss important business, he would definitely turn around and leave without a second word. Talking business with this guy was simply asking for trouble ...

"I would like to ask, is the letter delivery service that your Chamber of Commerce once launched at the Nakajima auction still going on?" Hong Zhong asked calmly.

"You want to send a letter to the secular world?" Si tsunami was stunned when he heard that. He didn't think much and answered directly, ""No, this business has never been launched before. It was just a gimmick made by the Nakajima auction in order to make a name for itself. It was canceled after that."

"Canceled? However, from what I know, this service was initially priced at an astronomical price of 100000 spirit Jade, right?" Hong Zhong couldn't help but feel a little strange.

"A hundred thousand spirit Jade is indeed a sky-high price, but think about it-this isn't just any ordinary delivery business, but a round trip between Sky Class Island and the secular world. The amount of energy and money spent on it is unimaginable. I can tell you frankly that one hundred thousand spiritual jades is a sky-high price, but it's a loss-making business. We were making a loss and selling at that time, so it's enough to make a gimmick. Only a fool would continue to do it!" Si tsunami said indifferently.

"Will this business be relaunched in the future?" Hong Zhong asked, unwilling to give up.

"Who knows? Maybe, maybe not. I'm not in charge of this, so I'm not too sure, but I don't think it will happen in a short time. " Si tsunami was busy flirting with the women around him while he took time to answer.

"I see. Thank you for your explanation, manager si. I still have some matters to attend to, so I won't bother you any longer. I'll take my leave first." Hong Zhong said immediately after he had found out the situation. Since the other party had already said so much, it meant that it was really impossible. It would be a waste of breath to continue asking, and it might even make people suspicious.

"Take care." Si tsunami raised his eyelids and looked at Hong Zhong's back as he left. He suddenly frowned. Why did this old man ask about this? Could it be that he had some friends in the secular world?

With the beauty in his arms, si tsunami was too lazy to continue thinking. Instead of spending time pondering over an old man, it was better to leave the time to his two little beauties. This was more serious!

After returning to the Hong Chamber of Commerce, Hong Zhong told Lin Yi everything that Si Tsunami had told him. Lin Yi couldn't help but feel disappointed, but he had no choice. Since the central Chamber of Commerce didn't want to continue, no matter how many spiritual jades he had, it was useless.

"According to my speculation, the reason why he stopped this business should not be just because of the cost. If it was just because of this, the central Chamber of Commerce would only need to raise the price. This business is completely monopolized by them. No matter how high the price is, there will still be people willing to pay." Hong Zhong analyzed from the perspective of a businessman.

Chapter 4626 Nakajima's Letter

"Right, that makes sense. What do you mean, elder Hong?" Lin Yi quickly asked.

"I think there are two possible problems. Either the technology is not mature yet, or this business is too sensitive and damages the core interests of some people, so it can only be stopped midway. I can't think of any other reason to stop this exclusive monopoly." Hong Zhong speculated.

Monopoly, this was the dream of almost all businessmen. For this, there were many people who would not hesitate to kill. Which Chamber of Commerce would give up their own monopoly?

Lin Yi nodded, deep in thought. This central Chamber of Commerce that suddenly rose up was too mysterious, especially the huge shadow behind it. Just thinking about it made one shiver. Capturing a large number of golden core stage Masters for human experiments, how terrifying was this organization!

The two fell silent for a while, and Lin Yi changed the topic, "By the way, elder Hong, have you been to Nakajima recently?"

"Yes, I've been there just last month. I even went to find Cai Zhongyang and hou guanqi to ask them to bring me to the heavenly elixir Pavilion. Business is really good!" Hong Zhong said as he looked at Lin Yi. With their relationship, Lin Yi wouldn't hide anything about the heavenly elixir Pavilion from him. After all, Lin Yi was a true ally who could be considered as one of his own. Not to mention, he had asked Hong Zhong to help him deliver the elixirs to the heavenly elixir Pavilion.

"How are they?" Lin Yi quickly asked.

"They? Are you talking about Cai Zhongyang and hou guanqi? Of course, they're still the same. They can't change their lukewarm personalities in their lives. " Hong Zhong deliberately laughed.

"Uh, elder Hong, don't keep me in suspense. You know I'm not talking about them, but them." Lin Yi rubbed his hands together, stunned.

"Hehe, it's true that a hero can't overcome a beauty. Cai Zhongyang and hou guanqi even asked me to bring you the news, but you didn't care at all. You only cared about your two confidants. If they knew about this, their expressions would be very interesting!" Hong Zhong said with a rare mischievous smile.

"Bring me a message? What's the news?" Lin Yi blinked.

"They told me to tell you that master Zhang Liju hasn't been back for the past two years. If he comes back, you'll be the first to know." Hong Zhong conveyed.

"Oh, I know. It's rare that they keep thinking about this. I'll have to thank them when I go to Nakajima next time." Lin Yi nodded, not too disappointed. Liju's whereabouts were always a mystery, but as long as he waited patiently, they'd meet one day.

"As for your two female friends, I don't need to say much. You should read the letter yourself." Hong Zhong chuckled and took out a letter from his sleeve. It was obviously Tian Gang and Xue Li who had dragged him to bring it.

"A letter?" Lin Yi quickly took it and couldn't help but ask, "Then why didn't you give it to me together just now?"

"I wanted to give it to you together, but who knew that you couldn't wait to read the other letter before you snatched it. I was too embarrassed to disturb you. Besides, the letter looks more important and suspicious. I'm afraid you'll get confused if I give it to you together." Hong Zhong spread out his hands.

"Alright," he said. Lin Yi opened the envelope-it wasn't as stuffed as the previous one, and there were only two thin sheets of paper. It seemed to be Tianjie's handwriting.

"Everything's fine "was the first sentence of the letter, which was within Lin Yi's expectations. After all, there was Tianxing, the powerful Vice-Master of Nakajima, as well as Cai Zhongyang and hou guanqi. Anyone who dared to mess with them wouldn't be able to survive the next day.

Other things aside, at least the name of Tian Xing was very popular in Nakajima. He was a legendary figure like Zhang Liju, and his strength couldn't be measured with common sense. He could easily kill a xuansheng stage master when he was only in the original infant stage. Who would dare to mess with such a freakish existence?

Other than that, Tian Gang also talked about the recent situation of the heavenly elixir Pavilion. Before Lin Yi went to the South continent, their business was booming because Lin Yi would regularly send elixirs over. But after Lin Yi went to the South continent, this supply was cut off. The entire heavenly elixir Pavilion's elixir supply could only be supported by Tian Gang alone, and their business was on the decline.

This was something that couldn't be helped. Although Tian Ji could also refine pills, and the quality was pretty good, it was still incomparable to Lin Yi who had Shennong's medicine cauldron. She was able to support the entire heavenly pill Pavilion by herself, and this was a miracle in itself.

Lin Yi couldn't help but feel guilty when he saw this. He should've stored more elixirs before going to the South continent. In fact, he had already done that, but he only provided half a year's supply. He didn't think that he would be trapped in the South continent for so long. It wasn't just Lin Yi who was unlucky, but also tianshuo and the others. How could he bear it?

However, what surprised Lin Yi was that the heavenly elixir Pavilion's business didn't drop as much as he thought it would. Their daily turnover was still around 60000 spirit Jade. This was an unexpected result. Even though it had dropped a lot from its peak, it was still very exaggerated.

After reading the letter, Lin Yi realized that there were two key reasons why the heavenly elixir Pavilion's daily turnover was able to maintain at sixty thousand spiritual jades.

One was due to Tian Gang and Xue Li's good management. After Lin Yi's supply was cut off, Tian Gang's hard work ensured the supply of pills for the heavenly pill Pavilion. Xue Li, on the other hand, had formulated a price increase strategy according to the decreasing supply of Supreme grade pills.

The rarer something was, the more expensive it would be. It was normal to raise the price of Supreme-grade pills, no matter where they were placed. It was abnormal for them to sell them as common goods like the heavenly pill Pavilion. Moreover, Xue Li's strategy was not just to raise the price, but to limit the number of pills she could sell per day according to the last stock available.

Selling only three Supreme-grade elixirs a day was a new gimmick that could attract people, and to a large extent, it helped the heavenly elixir Pavilion retain its popularity.

However, with this alone, they could at most guarantee that the heavenly pill Pavilion would not die. It was still unrealistic to maintain a daily income of 60000. Therefore, there was a second reason, and that was Wei shenjin's care.

Ever since Wei shenjin joined Lin Yi, he'd come to the heavenly elixir Pavilion every two or three days- this was exactly what the snow sword sect higher-ups wanted!

Chapter 4627 There's A Guest

They wanted to use this opportunity to express their goodwill to the heavenly path. Therefore, Wei shenjin was not suspected, but was even more important. Now, he was already the snow sword sect's inner sect Deacon.

It wasn't a high position, but it was a very important springboard. Just like Kang Zhaoming from the North Island, he was now an outer sect Deacon of the rising Sky Pavilion after being a Welcome Pavilion Deacon for a while. His power wasn't small, and although lingchong gave him this position, his future was still bright.

It was the same for Wei shenjin. The position of an inner sect Deacon wasn't very high, but they had the power to purchase things in the inner sect. Even if it was just a small portion, it was definitely not a small business. Without a doubt, all of Wei shenjin's medicinal pills were given to the heavenly elixir Pavilion.

Anyway, the heavenly elixir Pavilion had a good reputation now. Whether it was the quality or the price, they were all very fair. Even if others knew about it, they wouldn't be able to say anything.

It was because of this that the heavenly elixir Pavilion's business was able to maintain at 60000 a day. This was not the work of one person, but the work of Tian Gang, Xue Li, Wei shenjin, and everyone else, including Tian Xing.

Lin Yi was planning to go to the central island as soon as possible, but now that he knew everything was fine, he didn't have to worry anymore. The priority now was not to go to the central island, but to replenish the pills for Tian Gang and the others. He turned to Hong Zhong, "Elder Hong, I'm preparing to concentrate on refining a batch of medicinal pills. When the time comes, I'll have to trouble you to use the Hong Chamber of Commerce's channels to help me bring them over."

"No problem, just a word." Hong Zhong said straightforwardly. Although it was a bit of a private use, he had the power as the Vice President. Not to mention, Lin Yi was the honorary Vice President of the Hong Chamber of Commerce. It was just a channel of goods, no one could say anything.

After chatting with Hong Zhong for a while, Lin Yi didn't stay at the Chamber of Commerce for long. After all, he had just returned to the North Island, and there were many people he had to visit personally, such as Shangguan Tianhua.

Strictly speaking, Lin Yi didn't have much interaction with Shangguan Tianhua, the pavilion master. Other than the meaningful name-calling during the inner sect competition, the other reason was because of Shangguan LAN 'er. Naturally, he was closer to her than the other higher-ups.

Of course, even if that wasn't the case, Lin Yi still respected Shangguan Tianhua a lot. This North Island boss wasn't just respected for his strength, but more importantly, his bearing. Every move he made gave off a majestic feeling, and no matter what position you were in, you'd be subconsciously convinced by a person like this.

The unruly master of the Hall of Justice, Gongyang Jie, was arrogant and disdainful no matter who he was facing. However, he only looked at Shangguan Tianhua differently. Perhaps this was the reason why.

Most people were born ordinary, but there were a few who were born to shine, and Lin Yi believed that Shangguan Tianhua was the latter. The big boss might be cultivating now, but he must've been a legendary figure in his younger days.

Early in the morning, Shangguan LAN 'er was practicing calligraphy with Shangguan Tianhua. Practicing calligraphy could calm one's mind and temper one's mind. This was homework assigned to her by Shangguan Tianhua. It was fine even if she did not practice. However, she had to practice calligraphy for two hours every morning. This was something that could not be changed.

Shangguan LAN 'er did not resist. Although it was equally boring, it was better to practice calligraphy than to meditate and cultivate. Moreover, she seemed to be quite talented in this area. Even Shangguan Tianhua, who did not usually praise people, often praised her.

"Little LAN 'er, stop for a moment." Shangguan Tianhua suddenly said.

"What happened to Grandpa?" Shangguan LAN 'er asked curiously. Did the sun rise from the West today, so he could even stop practicing calligraphy?

"Go and make some tea. There will be guests coming in a while." Shangguan Tianhua smiled slightly. Other than her outstanding talent in calligraphy, his granddaughter's talent in the Way of Tea was also something he had never seen before. She was good at everything, but she did not like to cultivate, which made him feel helpless.

"Oh, Wuqing or Xinu?" Shangguan LAN 'er asked. The spiritual tea that Shangguan Tianhua took out was naturally the best spiritual tea that was rarely seen on the market. However, if one really wanted to pay attention to it, there was still a difference between the two. Among them, Wuqing was slightly lower in grade and was usually used to entertain the elders of the three pavilions. As for xinnu, she had to be at least at the level of the three Pavilion Masters.

"Show some tips." Shangguan Tianhua said as he wrote.

"Ah? Who's the one who came this time?" Shangguan LAN 'er was shocked. Lu Jian was her grandfather's most precious spiritual tea. He had spent a lot of effort to collect only a few taels. Usually, even he himself was reluctant to drink it. Only when his relatives and friends came and he was happy to chat would he take out a little bit miserably. He would feel heartache even if he shook a little more. Today, he was actually willing to take out Lu Jian. What was going on?

"Xiao LAN 'er, you know this person." Shangguan Tianhua said, deliberately keeping him in suspense.

"I know him?" Shangguan LAN 'er tilted her head and thought for a while, then guessed, ""Could it be Grandpa Hong? That's not right, Grandpa, you've only been giving him apricot girls to drink before, could it be that he's a Big Shot from the outer island?"

In Shangguan LAN 'er's eyes, only Hong Zhong, her old friend of many years, was qualified to make her grandfather show off his most precious treasure in the entire North Island. Even the other two Pavilion Masters did not have such a blessing, so it could only be a Big Shot from the outer island.

Shangguan Tianhua chuckled, but did not explain. Shangguan LAN 'er could only go and make tea with doubts. After less than an hour, someone outside suddenly touched the formation. When Shangguan LAN' er opened the door with a stomach full of doubts, she was immediately stunned.

"Little Junior Brother, why are you here?" Shangguan LAN 'er opened her eyes wide in disbelief and said in shock.

"Ah?" Lin Yi, on the other hand, was surprised by her reaction. "What's wrong? Is it strange that I'm here to visit Pavilion master Shangguan?"

"No, not at all. But Grandpa is very strange." Shangguan LAN 'er's expression became even weirder.

"What do you mean?" Lin Yi blinked.

"Oh, I don't know." Shangguan LAN 'er blinked her eyes. She suddenly thought that her grandfather might not have prepared the show for Lin Yi, but since Lin Yi happened to come here, she must not let the benefits flow into others' fields. In the end, she would give the show to Lin Yi first. As for the big shots from the outer island, she would think about it later.

Shangguan LAN 'er quickly pulled the confused Lin Yi into the study and turned to Shangguan Tianhua, "Grandpa, Little Junior Brother is here to see you. I'll go get you some tea."

Chapter 4628 A Calligraphy Piece

She gave Lin Yi a look as she spoke, and Shangguan LAN 'er left mysteriously, leaving behind a confused Lin Yi and the familiar-looking Curly Bear.

"Disciple Lin Yi greets Pavilion master Shangguan." Lin Yi greeted Shangguan Tianhua with a disciple's salute. He was a disciple of the GreenCloud Pavilion, but the other party was the pavilion master of the rising Sky Pavilion. The three pavilions of the North Island were one entity, and everyone had to greet Shangguan Tianhua with a disciple's salute.

"You've made a lot of progress after your trip to the South continent. Not bad. " Shangguan Tianhua looked at him and nodded slightly, saying, ""Come and take a look at my calligraphy. What do you think?"

"Yes." Lin Yi was a little surprised by Shangguan Tianhua's friendly attitude, and even a little flattered. However, he had seen a lot in the South continent this time, so he didn't lose his composure.

No matter how powerful Shangguan Tianhua was, he couldn't be stronger than the five-poison Dragon and the giant electric eel, both of which were at the sea Rift stage. Besides, he didn't have any hostility towards Lin Yi, and Lin Yi was only acting so reserved because he respected him, not because he was afraid.

Lin Yi walked to the desk and was attracted to it at first glance. Shangguan Tianhua was writing the same ancient tablet. The content was already extremely profound, and every word and stroke contained Shangguan Tianhua's artistic conception. There was an ancient desolation in the air, making people lose their minds.

Normal people might just find it amazing, but to someone like Lin Yi who had reached a certain level and had a strong ability to comprehend, this was an extremely exquisite inheritance. If they could study it for a long time, they might be able to learn some extremely exquisite martial arts from it.

"I've long heard that Pavilion master Shangguan's calligraphy is unparalleled in the world. It's really an eye-opener to see it today. " Lin Yi said, impressed.

"Hehe, it's rare for you to know how to compliment someone." Shangguan Tianhua smiled.

"No, I'm telling you the truth," Lin Yi said, shaking his head. He respected Shangguan Tianhua, but he didn't like to flatter others-not even the closest elder he had ever met. It was his nature.

"Alright, since you're speaking the truth, as your elder, I have to show my appreciation. How about this, you can pick any calligraphy piece in this study and take it away." Shangguan Tianhua said with a smile.

Lin Yi's eyes brightened-the words were like the person himself, and from a certain perspective, being able to understand Shangguan Tianhua's words meant that he had a chance to learn from him. Of course, the prerequisite was that he had to be talented enough to understand the essence of the words.

Although Lin Yi had the five elements killing intent as a powerful trump card, it didn't mean that he would lose out on it. Besides, the five elements killing intent came from the five poison Dragon. It was fine to use it to kill enemies, but it was impossible to use it to improve his mental state. A human learning the mental state of a beast was simply asking for death. On the other hand, if he could learn something from Shangguan Tianhua, it would benefit him greatly in this aspect.

One's state of mind and one's strength were equally important, especially at the level of the nascent Soul Stage and above. The way of cultivation was gradually from the outside to the inside, and the improvement of one's state of mind was especially important. Shangguan Tianhua was obviously an expert in this area.

"I don't dare to decline the elder's bestowment, so I will respectfully accept it." Since the guy had asked, Lin Yi wasn't going to be polite with him. He pointed at the half-completed tablet on the table."Then this one."

"You have good taste ..." Shangguan Tianhua could not help but laugh."This painting won't do. You're giving it to someone else, and it's not finished yet. Forget it, let Xiao LAN 'er pick one for you before you leave. She's an expert in this field."

"Yes, thank you, Pavilion master Shangguan." Lin Yi nodded, thinking that it was the right decision to come here. Shangguan Tianhua's calligraphy couldn't be bought outside no matter how many spirit jades he had, and the fact that he offered to give him one meant that he really didn't see Lin Yi as an outsider.

Lin Yi was right-because of Shangguan LAN 'er, and because of his unprecedented talent, Shangguan Tianhua did want to take him in as a disciple, but he didn't do it in the end. He followed Gongyang Jie's model, which was the most suitable way to train people like Lin Yi.

They weren't master and disciple in name, but they weren't in reality either. In Shangguan Tianhua's eyes, Lin Yi's status wasn't any lower than a personal disciple 's. Giving him these words was just a reminder-as for how much Lin Yi could benefit from it, that was his own business.

As the two spoke, Shangguan LAN 'er had already prepared the spiritual tea. Shangguan Tianhua brought Lin Yi to the tea room he had specially designed, and the two sat opposite each other, while Shangguan LAN' er and the little Curly Bear each took a seat beside them.

"Yup, Zhenzhen, good tea!" Lin Yi only sniffed at it, and before he could even take a sip, all the pores on his body opened up. It was like he'd just been baptized by nature, and he felt great.

It wasn't like Lin Yi hadn't had good tea before-in fact, ever since he didn't lack spirit jades, he'd always kept all sorts of high quality spirit tea in his Jade space, mainly for entertaining friends. Most of them were quite expensive, even tens of thousands of spirit jades for a tael. However, compared to the spirit tea in his cup right now, his so-called high quality spirit tea was like rice stalks!

In the common world, there was a saying that one sip of the bejeweled nectar could prolong one's life-Lin Yi had never heard of it before. After all, it was a myth made up by people, but he couldn't help but believe it now. There really was something as amazing as this in the world!

"This is called showing off, but she's grandpa's precious baby. You can't drink this anywhere else."
Shangguan LAN 'er chuckled as she looked at Lin Yi's intoxicated face.

Shangguan Tianhua smiled, not saying anything. Being in the spotlight was a rare enjoyment for Lin Yi, and it was the same for him as well. Every time he drank tea, his mind would become extremely clear. It wasn't as clear as the state of enlightenment, but it was more or less interesting.

Lin Yi took a sip and closed his eyes for a while before speaking slowly,"The essence of this tea is truly rare. The deep taste may not be fully understood even after tasting it for a year and a half. It is indeed a rare and good tea."

"Oh? You're also involved in the Way of Tea?" Shangguan Tianhua's eyes lit up.

"I can't say I dabbled in it. I don't know how to brew tea, nor do I know how to taste tea. At most, I'm just wolfing down the food and wasting it." Lin Yi laughed at himself-he'd learned how to make tea before, but that was the tea of the common world-it wasn't the same thing as the spiritual tea on Tianjie Island.

Chapter 4629 Two Things

"Hehe, to be able to say such a thing, it can not be considered a waste of God's gift. This cup of tea did not let you drink for nothing." Shangguan Tianhua smiled faintly and said, ""When I was young, I found this tea by chance in the deep mountains and forests. After that, I've traveled through the famous mountains and rivers of the Sky Class Island, and I haven't seen it again. It's only in that place that a few decades will pass before it grows a little. I've been tasting it since I was young, but I haven't been able to fully appreciate the deep flavor. It's hard to find another tea like this in the world."

"So that's how it is. This disciple really came today." Lin Yi said as he took another sip, savoring the aftertaste.

The three people and one bear sat around the table, quietly sipping tea. At this time, even the little Curly Bear, who was always active, was unusually quiet. Although it did not know how to make tea, it could tell good from bad. Shangguan LAN 'er had specially poured it some spirit tea, which would be enough for it to digest for a long time.

After half an hour, when the taste of the dew tip tea had gradually faded, Shangguan Tianhua finally spoke again, ""Tell me what happened to you in the southern island."

"Yes." Lin Yi nodded. His main purpose of visiting Shangguan Tianhua wasn't just to show his respect, but to report what he'd seen in the South continent. Of course, he wasn't talking about the trivial things he'd told them before, but the two big events that might affect the future of Sky Class Island.

It was true that Lin Yi was a disciple of the GreenCloud Pavilion, and in theory, he should report everything to the higher-ups of the pavilion. It was a pity that he didn't have a good impression of them, especially after the fact that residence number one was taken by force. Most of the higher-ups were already standing against him, and if he still went to report to them under such circumstances, wasn't that a bit too low?

On the other hand, Shangguan Tianhua, the pavilion master, was considered Lin Yi's half-teacher, or at least that was what the public thought. Besides, Shangguan Tianhua was really good to him, and in Lin Yi's eyes, he was the most representative of the North Island's top boss.

"The first thing is that there's a huge organization behind the central Chamber of Commerce called central. They specialize in capturing golden core stage experts in the South continent for human experiments. Lu bianren and I were captured by them, but I managed to escape." Lin Yi said after organizing his thoughts.

"Yes, I already know about this. Lu bianren had already reported it." Shangguan Tianhua nodded and said, ""The way this central Chamber of Commerce rose up, its ability to connect with the secular world, and this human experiment are all very suspicious. However, we still can't figure out its intentions. There are no signs of direct conflict so we can only investigate in secret. This matter has already been done by someone. I believe that it's not just us, but other sects and forces are probably doing the same thing."

Someone was doing it? Lin Yi's heart moved-this mission would definitely fall on Gongyang Jie of the Hall of Justice. In the entire North Island, other than the leaders, only this person had the strength and means to investigate the central area.

"The second thing is that the spirit beast clan of the South Island is preparing to expand, or should I say that they are already expanding. They have decided to include the surrounding waters of the South continent into their territory. All human cultivators have to pay taxes to them to ensure their safety." Lin Yi continued.

"There's such a thing?" Shangguan Tianhua's expression changed.

"What's wrong? Could it be that you didn't receive such information before?" Lin Yi couldn't help but find it strange. It'd been at least half a year since he'd mistakenly barged into the spirit beast meet, and they should've started taking action long ago. Could something have happened within the spirit beast clan?

"No, there's no such news. Although our three pavilions have set up intelligence points in the South continent's waters, it's a long journey after all, and the efficiency of intelligence gathering has always been poor. If something really happens, it's possible that the intelligence points will be disabled for a while." Shangguan Tianhua furrowed his brows slightly, then asked in confusion, ""This is a secret of the spirit beast clan. How did you know about this?"

"I accidentally heard this news because I was chased by the old sect of West Mountain and accidentally entered the hinterland of the South Island. I happened to meet them in the spirit beast meet, so I accidentally heard this news. At that time, the public sentiment was stirred up and all the spirit beasts were incited. If I'm not wrong, they will definitely carry out this matter. It's just a matter of time." Lin Yi said with certainty.

"Well, since the disappearance of the king of the spiritual beasts, the spiritual beasts have been a little restless. The Vermillion Bird should be the one in charge of their internal affairs now, right?" Shangguan Tianhua asked.

"Not bad." Lin Yi nodded but didn't go into detail about the spirit beast clan's current situation. First of all, there was no need for that right now, and second of all, this was the spirit beast clan's business, after all, and he still had to consider the feelings of this damn thing.

"Alright. Although this matter won't affect the North Island much for the time being, if the spirit beast clan really does this, they will definitely not be satisfied with just this. At that time, they will definitely take further action. To be on the safe side, we still have to treat this matter with caution. I will remember your contribution on behalf of the North Island's three pavilions." Shangguan Tianhua muttered.

"Your words are too serious. No matter what, I'm still a disciple of the GreenCloud Pavilion. It's only right for me to report this matter. There's no need to talk about any merit." Lin Yi said, shaking his head.

"It's good that you have this awareness, but what's yours is yours. " Shangguan Tianhua laughed nonchalantly, and suddenly asked with interest,""I heard from little LAN 'er that you've already participated in the selection for the Morning Star Academy in the East continent, but you don't want to go?"

After seeing Lin Yi's strength change, Shangguan Tianhua had the intention to recommend him to the East continent. After all, he was the most optimistic about Lin Yi's chances after Gongyang Jie, but he heard about it from Shangguan LAN 'er.

Lin Yi was a little surprised. He looked at Shangguan LAN 'er and nodded,"Well, I don't have this idea for the time being. But when the time is right, I will definitely go to the East Province. Otherwise, I will be looking at the sky from the bottom of a well."

"That's good. I thought you were like Gongyang Jie and didn't care about the East Province." Shangguan Tianhua paused for a moment, then said earnestly,""Although the East continent is full of geniuses, the atmosphere of the Academy is generally too impetuous. For people like you and Gongyang Jie, it's not surprising that you don't like those so-called geniuses. However, the East continent is the peak of the five big islands of the Sky Class after all. There are many hidden dragons and crouching tigers in the generation of experts. Young people should go and try when they have the opportunity."

"I will remember Pavilion master Shangguan's teachings." Lin Yi said seriously.

Chapter 4630 A Grown Woman Can't Be Kept At Home

Lin Yi didn't have much else to say after these two reports. Either it was too trivial, or it was related to his core secrets. Even if he had a good impression of Shangguan Tianhua, and even if he had a layer of relationship with Shangguan LAN 'er, their relationship wasn't close enough for him to tell her everything.

Seeing that Lin Yi didn't continue, Shangguan Tianhua didn't press on and changed the topic, "What do you think of the current three pavilions of the North Island?"

Lin Yi thought about it and replied with four words, "There are many talented people."

"Hehe, you're not wrong. Since you've joined the welcoming new pavilion, there have been a lot of eye-catching figures in the three great pavilions in the past two years. Do you know that those old guys in the elders 'Council have given you guys a nickname?" Shangguan Tianhua said with a smile.

"What code name?" Lin Yi asked, surprised.

"The Golden generation." Shangguan Tianhua said with a smile.

"Ugh ..." Lin Yi was speechless. And the codenames? the elders sure had a lot of free time.

"Although it's exaggerated, it's not too outrageous. You newcomers are very outstanding and eye-catching. Besides you, Xiao ran and Meng Tong are also good. Xu lingchong's strength has made rapid progress in the past two years, so he's also a representative of your golden generation. There's also Yu Zhe and the like, who look good. There's also a guy called MA dang gun, who has been very eye-catching recently. Do you think these people are qualified to be part of the Golden generation?" Shangguan Tianhua called out names one by one.

If he could remember their names, it was an affirmation of their strength. The three pavilions would have one or two talented people from time to time, but it was never like this. Especially someone at Lin Yi's level, it was a rare sight.

Because of the sudden rise of the Golden generation, most people were very optimistic about the prospects of the three pavilions of the North Island. When the Golden generation really grew up, the three pavilions of the North Island would definitely be revitalized again.

"Among these people, I only know Xiao ran's background. He's indeed a rare talent, and he's well-prepared. As for the others, I don't know much about them. Maybe it's because they had some kind of fortuitous encounter, but I keep feeling that their strength improvement is a little strange." Lin Yi said honestly.

"Hehe, aren't you the same?" Shangguan Tianhua could not help but laugh.

"When it's on me and when it's on someone else, these two feelings are completely different. Maybe it's just my illusion." Lin Yi said with a shrug.

Shangguan Tianhua smiled noncommittally. At this time, the taste of the tea had become extremely light. It was important to know when to stop drinking tea, and he obviously could not bear to take out the tip of the tea again. It was his favorite. He immediately said to Shangguan LAN 'er, ""LAN 'er, take Lin Yi to the study to pick a piece of calligraphy."

"Alright!" Shangguan LAN 'er immediately pulled Lin Yi into the study.

A moment later, Lin Yi came out with a strange look on his face, a long, exquisite scroll on his back. He bowed deeply to Shangguan Tianhua, ""Thank you Pavilion master for your kindness. Disciple will take my leave first."

"You can come often in the future. There aren't many people who can make this old man show off, you can be considered one." Shangguan Tianhua nodded slightly, then added, ""Of course, it doesn't come every time. There aren't many left."

"Yes, with your words, this disciple will definitely not be polite with you." Lin Yi smiled as he was sent out of the door by Shangguan LAN 'er and Curly Bear.

When Shangguan LAN 'er came back from sending Lin Yi off, Shangguan Tianhua saw her sneaky look and was suspicious. He asked, ""Xiao LAN 'er, which piece of calligraphy did you choose for him?"

"Well ... It's the so-called truth ..." Shangguan LAN 'er said vaguely, avoiding eye contact.

"What truth? I, your grandfather, have written more than ten incantations, which one did you choose?" Shangguan Tianhua suddenly had a bad feeling about this.

"It's ... It's the one that gives people a headache ..." Shangguan LAN 'er said, pouting.

"Giving people a headache just by looking at it?" Shangguan Tianhua had a bad feeling about this. Suddenly, he shuddered and said in shock, ""Little LAN 'er, did you give him the ten thousand word mantra?"

"Yeah," Shangguan LAN 'er shrunk her neck and nodded.

Shangguan Tianhua almost spat out a mouthful of blood when he heard that. He did not know whether to laugh or cry as he said, ""That's the Shangguan family's ancestral knowledge. Besides, it took me a whole month to copy down 10000 words ..."

"You said you could choose anything from the study. You're the pavilion master of the rising Sky Pavilion. You won't go back on your word, will you?" Shangguan LAN 'er mumbled.

"Renegade? There's no reason to go back on something you've already given away!" Shangguan Tianhua shook his head speechlessly. He could only shake his head and sigh, ""Sigh, it's true that girls are extroverted. Nothing has happened yet, and she's already trying to frame her own grandfather."

"I didn't trick you!" Shangguan LAN 'er blushed and ran over, hugging Shangguan Tianhua's arm and saying, ""Little Junior Brother is not an outsider, so it doesn't matter if you give him the ten thousand word mantra."

"Okay, okay, okay. He's not an outsider." Shangguan Tianhua rubbed his granddaughter's head lovingly and said, ""To be honest, this young man is extraordinary. I thought he would be the next Gongyang Jie. I didn't expect that I had underestimated him. I regret not accepting him as my disciple."

"It's not too late now. In any case, Little Junior Brother hasn't officially acknowledged me as his master yet. Should I go and tell him now?" Shangguan LAN 'er's eyes lit up. If Lin Yi could become her grandfather's disciple, their relationship would be even closer, and she was happy to see that happen.

"That's not necessary, I'm just saying. If Lin Yi really becomes my disciple, it won't be a good thing for him. At least I can't make him reach nascent soul in two years. The only thing I can do now is to give him some advice. " Shangguan Tianhua said, shaking his head.

"Oh, alright." Shangguan LAN 'er could not help but feel a little disappointed. Suddenly, she rolled her eyes and asked, ""Grandpa, are you preparing this for Little Junior Brother?"

"Not bad." Shangguan Tianhua nodded.

"Really? How could you be willing to let Little Junior Brother drink the tip of the tea?" Shangguan LAN 'er was even more surprised. There were only a few people in the world who could make her grandfather show off. No matter how she thought about it, she did not think that her Junior Brother was qualified to do so. After all, even Gongyang Jie had never received such treatment.

"Hehe, a grown girl can't be kept at home. Since little LAN 'er can't wait to let him drink the tea, what can I say?" Shangguan Tianhua looked at Shangguan LAN 'er mischievously and smiled.
