

Bodyguard 4641

Chapter 4641 A Familiar Voice

It wasn't just the West Island's special envoy. Lin Yi looked around and realized that there were quite a number of Masters on the West Island as well. They weren't any weaker than the North Island. Yuanying and golden core stage Masters could be seen everywhere. Of course, there weren't many xuansheng stage Masters like Feng Lu-at least they wouldn't be in a busy city like this.

After exchanging a few pleasantries, Feng Lu led the group to the island owner's Palace, which was the most central area of the Western Island. The scenery along the way could be said to be the most prosperous place on the Western Island.

The main streets were connected in all directions, with all kinds of buildings. There were busy markets and luxurious shops everywhere they passed, and the overall feeling was no less than that of the middle Island, especially the beautiful buildings. It was even better than the middle Island. After all, the West Island was a gathering place for female practitioners, and women were more obsessed with beauty than men.

This was Lin Yi's first time on the Western Island, and he was naturally curious about this legendary base camp of female practitioners. He couldn't help but look around as he walked-this place was mostly made up of female practitioners, but it wasn't as if there weren't any men. He could see some men in the streets and shops.

While Lin Yi and the group were looking around, the people from the Western Island were also looking at them. The female cultivators here were a lot more passionate than they thought, some even blowing kisses at Lin Yi and the group.

"I thought the West Island was a country of women. I didn't expect the proportion of men to be so high. Although it's less than the number of female cultivators, it's about the same as the proportion of female cultivators in the North Island. It's just that the two are reversed." Lin Yi asked, surprised.

"Little Junior Brother, you still don't know, but on the West Island, men have no human rights. Only by relying on female cultivators can you live, so don't run around, in case someone takes a fancy to you and takes you home as a male servant!" Shangguan LAN 'er squinted her eyes and smiled mischievously.

"Ha? A waiter?" Lin Yi blinked.

"Hehe, miss Shangguan is just joking. Don't be nervous, special envoy Lin." Feng Lu laughed and explained, ""However, our Western Island is dominated by female cultivators, just like your northern island is dominated by male cultivators. The powerful experts here are mostly female cultivators. Although there are male cultivators, their numbers are very small. Most of the male cultivators are not very strong, and some are even ordinary people, so they can only rely on female cultivators to survive."

"Then what if we have the same strength? the female will have a higher status, right?" Lin Yi couldn't help but ask.

"That's right, there are many things here that only female cultivators can do, and there are also some high-end occasions that only female cultivators can enter. Unless male cultivators have the island master's personal approval, it's useless no matter how strong they are. " Feng Lu said without any hesitation.

"I see." Lin Yi nodded. He had a general understanding of the island now. This was a feminist society, but not an absolute one. In a real feminist society, there was no room for men to stand out, but it wasn't impossible here. As long as you were strong enough, as long as you got the island master's favor, you'd have a chance.

However, Lin Yi was more and more surprised by ning Xuefei's past behavior. Since she grew up in such an atmosphere, ning Xuefei's feminist ideas should be deeply rooted in her. However, she didn't show any signs of this in the previous two encounters. The feeling she gave him was similar to Shangguan LAN 'er, just like an innocent little princess.

"Is ning Xuefei a feminist too?" Lin Yi asked in a low voice.

Any other Sky Class Island native would've been dumbfounded by this new term, but Shangguan LAN 'er had been with Lin Yi for so long, and she'd been talking to him about the common world all the time. She was already used to it, and she smiled, "No, although Feifei is the princess of the West Island, she didn't receive a completely feminist education. It's almost the same as ours."

"Why is that? Isn't she the heir to the West Island?" Lin Yi was surprised. Ning Xuefei was the princess of the West Island, and the Western Island was a feminist society. This meant that she was likely to take over the West Island in the future. Logically, she should've received a feminist education in this case, or how could she hold power in the future?

"She's the heir, after all, and that's why she can't accept a purely feminine education. How else would she be able to deal with the other Sky Class Island Masters? The status of men here is very low, but they're not in other places. If she's really a feminist who's been trained since young, how can she change her mentality? it'll be a big problem!" Shangguan LAN 'er said with a smile, but her words hit the nail on the head.

Lin Yi finally understood-it was just as Shangguan LAN 'er said-a true feminist's worldview was completely incompatible with other people's, but the West Island couldn't be separated from the other sky-class islands. It'd be a big problem if a feminist held all the power, and they'd make enemies on all sides, making their lives difficult.

Lin Yi walked and looked around, and when they were almost at the palace, he separated from Shangguan LAN 'er and the others. Shangguan LAN' er went to rest in the palace first, and the others split up to do their own things. Lin Yi, as the special envoy of the North Island, had to follow Feng Lu to handle some related matters.

A visit from two islands was no less than a diplomatic meeting between two countries, and all kinds of complicated procedures were inevitable. After Lin Yi was done with all the things, he went to find Shangguan LAN 'er.

Shangguan LAN 'er's residence was in the island owner's Palace, and according to the rules, no man was allowed to enter the palace. Lin Yi, however, was an exception-he was the special envoy representing the North Island, and treating him like a normal man would be a slap to the face of the North Island.

Plus, ning Xuefei had told everyone in the palace that Lin Yi was her good friend and they couldn't neglect him. After the guards confirmed Lin Yi's identity, they let him in immediately and even sent someone to lead the way, in case he wandered around the palace alone and went to places he shouldn't go.

Lin Yi was about to knock on Shangguan LAN 'er's door when he heard laughter coming from inside. It was obvious that the people inside were very happy, but there was another girl's voice other than Shangguan LAN' er and ning Xuefei 's, and it sounded very familiar!

Lin Yi froze outside the door as if he'd been struck by lightning!

Chapter 4642 Meeting Han Jingjing Again

An extremely strange expression flickered on his usually calm face. A thought couldn't help but appear in his mind. Was he hearing things?

"LAN 'er, this is the best friend I've told you about many times. The foundation-building and golden core materials I brought to the North Island last time were actually prepared by her!" Ning Xuefei introduced with a smile.

"I already knew about this. She's not only your best friend, but also mine. We've already written to each other so many times that we know each other very well!" Shangguan LAN 'er smiled and took the other party's hand.

"Yes, yes, we're all good friends. The three of us are on the same team!" After the three girls finished speaking, they laughed together and were extremely intimate.

"LAN 'er, that ..." The other girl suddenly stopped talking.

"What's that?" Shangguan LAN 'er looked at her mischievously and exchanged a smile with ning Xuefei. She knew what the other party wanted to say, but she deliberately did not say it.

"That ... Why isn't he here yet ..." The girl blushed and asked.

"Him? Who are you referring to? we have a lot of people here. If you don't tell me who it is, I don't know how to answer you. " Shangguan LAN 'er laughed.

"That's right. If you don't tell me the details, how will LAN 'er know who you're asking about?" Ning Xuefei also teased her. This girl was a natural idiot other than studying all kinds of things. She was rarely seen blushing. This was a rare opportunity.

"It's Lin Yi bro ..." The girl blushed and said.

"Oh, so you're asking about Little Junior Brother. I don't know. He said he went to settle the procedures, and I don't know when he'll be done." Shangguan LAN 'er suddenly rolled her eyes and said to the little Curly Bear, ""How about this, little white, you go and find Little Junior Brother and tell him that there's a cute girl here who's looking forward to seeing her husband. She's almost turning into a husband-gazing rock!"

"No, I'm not a husband-gazing rock!" The three girls immediately laughed and joked around.

Little Curly Bear heard this and dragged his weapon out of the door. He jumped in shock when he opened the door and saw Lin Yi standing there like a block of wood, staring into the room. His eyes couldn't help but land on the girl-it was han Jingjing!

The women in the room also didn't expect such a scene to happen, and they were immediately dumbfounded. Because they had been playing with each other just now, their clothes were a little untidy, and they quickly turned their heads to tidy their clothes.

"Lin Yi bro!" Han Jing Jing was surprised and happy to see Lin Yi.

She'd been looking forward to this day for a long time, especially after learning that Lin Yi was bringing a team to the Western Island. She couldn't sleep at all from the excitement, even forgetting to study the forging mechanisms. She just stayed with ning Xuefei every day, her only thought was to see Lin Yi as soon as possible.

Han Jingjing was just surprised, but Lin Yi was completely stunned. He was different from han Jingjing. She knew that he was coming and was mentally prepared, but he was not at all. This kind of joy came too suddenly, and even with his heart, he couldn't digest it all at once. He could only stand there and look at han Jingjing like an idiot.

"Jing Jing isn't a husband-gazing rock, but some people have become a genuine wife-gazing rock!" Ning Xuefei covered her mouth and smiled.

"I say, how long are you two going to look at each other so affectionately? Why don't we clear the area first and let you two watch as much as you want?" Shangguan LAN 'er also joined in.

Han Jingjing's face turned even redder when she heard the two girls 'words. Even her ears were red. Her shyness was so alluring that even ning Xuefei and Shangguan LAN' er could not help but feel envious!

Lin Yi couldn't help but sigh. It'd been two years since he last saw her, and she'd grown into a more beautiful woman-even her aura had matured. She had a little girl's cuteness to her, and compared to the pure and natural girl she was before, she was a lot more attractive to men now.

Lin Yi strode towards han Jingjing and pulled her into his arms, ignoring ning Xuefei and Shangguan LAN 'er's surprised looks.

Han Jingjing let out a soft cry, but after feeling Lin Yi's temperature and heartbeat, the barrier that she had formed after not seeing him for more than two years completely melted away. Her face was pressed against Lin Yi's chest, full of happiness.

Ning Xuefei and Shangguan LAN 'er's eyes lit up as they watched. They'd imagined many different situations where Lin Yi and Han Jing would meet, and they'd always discuss this in their letters. They'd even thought of their lines countless times, but they didn't think that Lin Yi would do this.

Lin Yi and han Jingjing's hearts were connected, and they didn't need to do anything or say anything. A hug was enough for their hearts to be stuck together.

They didn't know how long they held each other, but ning Xuefei and Shangguan LAN 'er were both tired of watching. Lin Yi finally let go of han Jingjing and asked, ""Jing Jing, why are you here?" he asked.

"Hehe, I was already here when I was sent to Sky Class Island, and then I met Fei Fei by chance, so I've been living with her ever since," Han Jingjing smiled sweetly.

"Oh, that's good." Lin Yi couldn't help but feel glad that han Jingjing's fate was much better than Tian Gang and Xue Li 's. Otherwise, if she really met the wrong person, with her ignorant and naturally stupid personality, who knew how much pain she would have to suffer? Lin Yi didn't even dare to think about that situation.

The more pure and kind a person was, the more they would be favored by the heavens. This was the so-called "fool has fool's luck". It could also be considered as the will of heaven.

Lin Yi looked at han Jingjing, then looked at ning Xuefei and Shangguan LAN 'er, and smiled from the bottom of his heart!

Of course, he wasn't thinking about how it would be a blessing if they were together. He was happy from the bottom of his heart. Because of ning Xuefei, han Jingjing had saved him from all kinds of trouble. Because of Shangguan LAN 'er, he could finally reunite with han Jingjing. Wasn't this God's will?

"Lin Yi bro, Jingjing knows about you." Han Jingjing suddenly blinked her large eyes and pursed her lips as she smiled.

"What?" Lin Yi blinked.

"What's so strange about that? there's a little spy, Shangguan LAN 'er. She'll write to us every three or five days to report about you. It's only because you weren't here in the past year and a half that she didn't say much in the letters." Ning Xuefei covered her mouth and smiled.

Chapter 4643 Are You Disappointed?

"I'm not a little spy!" Shangguan LAN 'er immediately retorted.

"Then what are you?" Ning Xuefei squinted and asked.

"I just saw that the two of you were constantly thinking about Little Junior Brother, so I told you some things about him to satisfy your cravings!" Shangguan LAN 'er rolled her eyes and said with her head raised.

"I'm not thinking about it. LAN 'er, don't confuse me with Jingjing, okay? I just asked occasionally." Ning Xuefei's face reddened immediately. Han Jingjing was Lin Yi's girlfriend, it was normal for her to miss Lin Yi, but she only had feelings for Lin Yi, it was far from that level.

"Oh ... I thought you were the same as Jingjing. So you're not. Then why do you ask about it every now and then, Feifei?" Shangguan LAN 'er said with ill intentions.

"I don't say that every few days. LAN 'er, don't talk nonsense!" Ning Xuefei blushed and retorted. She noticed that Lin Yi was looking at her weirdly. She panicked and quickly changed the topic, "LAN 'er, don't talk about me. Think about your own problem first, hehe!"

"My own problem? What problem could I have?" Shangguan LAN 'er said disapprovingly.

"LAN 'er, you're too slow. Lin Yi didn't know about Jingjing when he was in Beidao, so you could be with him every day, but now he's found a woman from the common world. Are you disappointed?" Ning Xuefei teased.

"Why should I be disappointed?" Shangguan LAN 'er looked at Ning Xuefei, then at Lin Yi and Han Jingjing, confused.

"You still don't get it? you can't be with Lin Yi anymore because he has Jingjing!" Ning Xuefei pointed at Lin Yi and Han Jingjing, who were still stuck together even though they weren't hugging anymore.

"Who said I can't? Shangguan LAN 'er was quite familiar with these things. After all, Lin Yi had never hidden anything from her. He had told her about Tenshou Nakajima and Xue Li. "Jingjing is not the only one. He also has sister Xiao Tao. He has more than one girlfriend in Nakajima ..."

"Ah? There's more than one in Nakajima?" Ning Xuefei looked at Lin Yi, surprised. This was the first time she'd heard of this.

"What's the big deal! "Do you think it's all like the feminist doctrine in the West Island? our North Island is dominated by male cultivators. It's normal to have three wives and four concubines ..." Shangguan LAN 'er suddenly blushed and reacted, ""Ya, why am I telling you this? Don't think too much, I'm just simply explaining, I'm not going to do that with Little Junior Brother ..."

"Hahaha, LAN 'er, you're confessing to me. You're so cute!" Ning Xuefei laughed, her eyes darting between Shangguan LAN 'er, han Jingjing, and Lin Yi.

Her mother always said that she was a little careless and not as meticulous as other girls. However, compared to her two best friends, Shangguan LAN 'er and han Jingjing, she felt that it was very normal.

Lin Yi didn't know what to say, and could only stand to the side with a smile. Shangguan LAN 'er, on the other hand, subconsciously looked at han Jingjing, who was also smiling with her lips pursed, not showing any signs of unhappiness at all. She didn't know why, but she suddenly relaxed and muttered to herself, "this feels really weird."

After a while, the atmosphere turned from pleasant to warm. The three girls were best friends, and Lin Yi was close to all three of them. He even had an unforgettable experience with ning Xuefei on the northernmost Island, so he didn't feel distant from the three girls.

"Jingjing, what have you been doing these two years on the West Island?" This was a topic that couldn't be avoided. Han Jing Jing could find out about Lin Yi through Shangguan LAN 'er, but Lin Yi didn't know about her. Even if he didn't know anything, he could guess that this girl must be researching something. For example, she made an automatic alchemy furnace?

"Hehe, I won't tell you yet. Lin Yi bro, you'll know when you come with Jingjing!" Han Jingjing stuck out her tongue in a cute manner and deliberately kept him in suspense.

"Oh? Could it be that you've discovered some good treasure?" Lin Yi was surprised and immediately urged Han Jingjing to take him there. Ning Xuefei and Shangguan LAN 'er naturally didn't leave them out either. The group immediately rushed to Ning Xuefei's research room, even forgetting about dinner.

Lin Yi's eyes brightened as he stepped into the lab. This wasn't a room, it was a living room, and it seemed like at least five or six rooms were connected. Even an indoor 100m sprint competition wouldn't be a problem in such a big living room. As expected of the research room of the princess of the Western Island.

He looked around and saw all sorts of weird things, all in different shapes and sizes. Lin Yi considered himself quite knowledgeable, but this was like a grandmother entering a Grand View Garden-there was nothing he recognized in the room, and he couldn't help but click his tongue, "Are you guys building a futuristic science and technology Museum?"

This was not an exaggeration at all. Han Jingjing had always liked to study all kinds of things, and Ning Xuefei happened to be in the same line of work. Otherwise, she would not have such a large research room. When the two women met, they got even more out of hand. Almost everything that they did was changed beyond recognition, which was why there was such a scene.

The room was filled with the results of their research. The scope of their research was absolutely outrageous. From cultivation to daily life, they were not lacking in any aspect. Although 99% of them were worthless waste, the rest of the results could be important inventions that could change the entire world.

Han Jingjing was undoubtedly a genius. As the princess of the West Island, ning Xuefei was extremely talented and could use any resources on the West Island at any time. She was trained from a young age and was not any worse than han Jingjing.

One had the typical scientific thinking of the secular world, while the other was an ancient inheritance from a Sky Class Island. One had endless wondrous ideas, and the other had a vast knowledge. The two of them were a perfect match, complementing each other. This was a research team made in heaven!

Lin Yi was getting dizzy from all the weird inventions in the room, while Shangguan LAN 'er and the little Curly Bear were jumping and screaming as if they'd discovered a new world!

Chapter 4644 Automatic Casting Mechanism

It wasn't their first time here, but the last time they came here, there weren't so many things, especially not so many technological products.

It was only after the central Chamber of Commerce appeared that it became popular on Sky Class Island, but these things clearly couldn't be bought from any of the central Chambers of Commerce-every one of them was a unique invention.

"Jing Jing, have you and Xuefei been busy with these things all this time?" After looking around, Lin Yi, like Shangguan LAN 'er, couldn't help but pick up the items one by one and examine them carefully. He wanted to use his own insight to see the specific uses of these items. Of course, these were han Jingjing and ning Xuefei's wonderful ideas. Some of them seemed obvious, but their uses were completely different from what he imagined, while some were completely incomprehensible.

"Of course not. What you're seeing is just the work of Jingjing and I when we're free. It's not our main work!" Ning Xuefei gave han Jingjing a look and said, ""What you're going to see next is the most important result of our two years of research. It's still a half-finished product, but it'll shake the entire Sky Class Island once it's complete!"

"What exactly is it? why are you being so mysterious? hurry up and tell me. What are you keeping me in suspense for?" Shangguan LAN 'er said impatiently. From their previous correspondence, she vaguely knew that the two girls seemed to be researching something, but she had never been clear about it. After all, she was not like ning Xuefei and han Jingjing, who liked to fiddle with research. She was a complete layman in this area.

"Then come with me. I guarantee you'll have your eyes opened!" Ning Xuefei smiled mysteriously and led the way inside. There was actually another room in the huge research room, where she and han Jingjing's core research results were.

"You're acting like a ghost!" Shangguan LAN 'er mumbled to herself, but she did not slow down at all. She followed closely behind ning Xuefei with her little Curly Bear.

"What is it?" Lin Yi's curiosity was piqued.

"Hehe, Lin Yi bro, you'll know once you see it. This thing might be of some help to you." Han Jingjing smiled mysteriously as she pulled Lin Yi's hand and walked in.

"Help me?" Lin Yi froze, not saying a word as he entered the lab.

Although the inner room was not small, it was at least half the size of the outer room. It was not as messy as the outer room and looked much more spacious. There was only one item in total, a huge size.

"What is this? It's actually made of high-grade black iron. Where did you guys get so much high-grade black iron?" Shangguan LAN 'er and the little Curly Bear walked around the box curiously.

She was a person who knew what was good for her. Black iron was a rare item, not to mention high-grade black iron. Where would such a good thing be used to forge divine weapons? using so much high-grade black iron to make a big iron box, this was simply an invincible prodigal!

"Could this be ..." Lin Yi was deep in thought. His attention wasn't on the material, but on the internal structure of the box. The structure inside was extremely complicated, but it felt familiar.

Just as han Jingjing was about to introduce them, ning Xuefei covered her mouth and said mysteriously, ""Guess, let's see if you can guess it! This is Jingjing and I's hard work, and it's specially made for you. If you can't guess it, you're a heartless man. Then we won't give it to you, we'll keep it for ourselves!"

"Heartless rat? It's fine for Jing Jing to say this, but Little Junior Brother didn't do anything to you, Feifei, so why can you say he's a heartless man?" Shangguan LAN 'er looked at ning Xuefei from the corner of her eyes. She was taking revenge for what had happened just now.

"Ah? I ... I'm just saying it for Jingjing!" Ning Xuefei's face reddened as well. She sneaked a glance at Lin Yi and saw that he was looking at the box, deep in thought. She let out a breath of relief.

Han Jing Jing smiled and didn't say anything. Lin Yi looked at the internal structure of the box and pondered for a while,""Could this thing be used to forge?"

After all, he'd been with the king of junk for so long, and he could be considered a half-baked forger, after all. He had a deeper understanding of the craft than a layman, and although he didn't know anything about the structure of the box, he could roughly figure out a few structures that were similar to the forger pool. After all, he'd seen them in the secret base of the king of junk, just that the shape was different.

"Forging?" Hearing this, Shangguan LAN 'er was stunned. She looked at the black iron box again, but was still confused. She could not see what this thing had to do with casting. All the forgers in the world needed to choose a unique casting environment and at the same time, they needed to be equipped with a variety of casting facilities. How could they put it in a black iron box?

"Hehe, Lin Yi bro's so smart, this is the automatic casting mechanism!" Han Jing Jing smiled and admitted.

"Alright, at least you have good eyes. Our efforts were not in vain." Ning Xuefei also nodded.

"That's true ..." Lin Yi found it unbelievable even after getting the answer-he'd never seen anything like this before, and even the king of junk's jaw would drop in shock."Wait a minute, Jing Jing, you said this is an automatic casting mechanism?"

"That's right. As long as the forging formula is set in advance and the corresponding materials are put in, then there's only someone to watch from the side and make some slight adjustments according to the situation. The rest will be controlled by it itself accurately. The operation is even easier than the Shennong medicine cauldron." Han Jingjing chuckled.

Lin Yi's eyes brightened up as he thought of the king of junk's situation, "Can it control the heat precisely?"

"Of course we can. Controlling the heat is the most basic thing we can do, okay? this automatic casting mechanism of ours can even control a series of environmental factors such as air pressure, humidity, and so on precisely. Only in this way can we ensure that the casting process is absolutely foolproof. How about it? aren't we very good?" On the side, ning Xuefei raised her head proudly.

"That's great! That's great! This problem can finally be solved!" Lin Yi was surprised and happy.

His weapon had been difficult to form. The king of junk had spent almost two years to find a solution. He did not expect han Jingjing and ning Xuefei to come up with such an automatic casting mechanism. It was as if it was tailor-made for him. No wonder they said they could help him!

Chapter 4645 Be Quiet Alone

No matter how experienced a forger was, there would always be a deviation in the control of the fire. Many weapons were flawed because of this, and some even gave up halfway. However, the automatic casting mechanism was different. As long as the casting formula was set correctly, it was almost impossible to make mistakes in this aspect. It just made up for the king of junk's shortcomings in this aspect. He believed that he would definitely be overjoyed when he found out about this.

"Lin Yi bro, don't be too happy yet. Our autoforge mechanism isn't completed yet, it's only a half-finished product ..." Han Jingjing poured cold water on Lin Yi.

"Ha? A half-finished product?" Lin Yi's face froze-was he celebrating too early?

"That's right. Although the general structure is almost complete, there are still some technical problems that haven't been solved. Now, we're just waiting for the electronic components from the central Chamber of Commerce." Han Jing Jing nodded.

"Pfft!" Lin Yi almost choked on his breath. "Ahem, this thing even needs electronic components?!"

"That's right, how else could it be intelligent? this kind of smart chip component is quite difficult to get, and you can't get it on Sky Class Island at all. Fortunately, a central Chamber of Commerce suddenly appeared, providing timely assistance, hehe!" Han Jing said with a smile.

"The central Chamber of Commerce even sells professional chip components like this?" Lin Yi couldn't help but be surprised-the central Chamber of Commerce was setting off a technological boom on Sky Class Island, and they were even selling smart chips! Were they planning on industrializing Sky Class Island?

"Yes, but those smart chip components are too eye-catching, so we didn't dare to order them rashly, afraid that people with ulterior motives would notice. These things are actually very sensitive, and they might leak the secret of our automatic casting mechanism. We have to be careful." Ning Xuefei nodded.

"What about you guys?" Shangguan LAN 'er asked curiously.

"Hehe, I asked Feifei to order some digital equipment from them. Although they are all high-end goods, these things are all consumer goods for enjoyment. No matter how much you buy, no one will suspect anything. The transistors and various electronic devices can be disassembled for use, and the chip components can also be pieced together. I believe there won't be a big problem." Han Jingjing smiled confidently. Her confidence in this aspect was truly unparalleled.

"It's a pity that this central Chamber of Commerce is too slow. We've already reserved for so long, but the digital equipment hasn't been sent to us yet. It's taking its time. I'll get someone to rush it later." Ning Xuefei pouted.

"Oh, could it be that they are deliberately not selling?" Lin Yi's heart jumped.

"Not really. The central Chamber of Commerce does business here, and they have to do it under my mother's orders. They wouldn't be so bold as to refuse to sell it ..." Ning Xuefei stuck out her tongue.

This place was different from the North Island. Although the North Island was controlled by the three great pavilions, the environment was relatively relaxed. Any Chamber of Commerce that had the strength could enter and stay here. However, this was not the case in the West Island. This was a place where women dominated. The overall atmosphere was very United and xenophobic. When doing business here, one had to look at the ning family's face. If they made the ning family unhappy, no matter how powerful the Chamber of Commerce was, they would not be able to establish themselves here.

"Then why?" Lin Yi asked curiously.

"Hehe, it's mainly because the digital equipment that Jing Jing placed an order for are not common goods. Even in the secular world, there are only a few places that sell them. So, they don't have any in stock and can only make a reservation first. It all depends on when they can send it over. This is a privilege that only Feifei has. If it were someone else, they wouldn't be able to make a reservation." Han Jing said with a smile.

"I see." Lin Yi then realized that with the central Chamber of Commerce's current status, no matter how many spiritual jades a normal person had, they could only buy whatever they had. Only people with special privileges like ning Xuefei could make such a special request. After all, if the central Chamber of Commerce wanted to establish themselves on the West Island, they would be able to get anything as long as it wasn't too hard to get. At most, it would be a little troublesome to get the goods individually.

"Oh right, Jing Jing, don't you think that the central Chamber of Commerce is unfathomable?" Lin Yi asked suddenly. I've written to Lingshan and the others in the common world before, and they replied through this central Chamber of Commerce!"

"Yes, they can connect to the secular world. That's really amazing. So after we're done with this automatic casting mechanism, Jing Jing decided to research this next topic. It's just that there's too little information right now, so I can't figure it out in a short time. But since the Central's scientists can achieve it, Jing Jing won't be worse than them!" Han Jingjing clenched her fists in excitement. If there was anything in the world that could make her so excited, it would probably be this unsolvable problem.

"Uh, Jingjing, you're too awesome. You even want to study this?" Lin Yi slapped his forehead, feeling a little dizzy.

He'd only think of getting Zhang Liju's help or sneaking into the central Chamber of Commerce to get the core information, but han Jingjing was the one doing all the research on her own-a genius "mind was truly unimaginable, at least in this area. Lin Yi was miles ahead of han Jingjing.

Although this matter was shocking, when one thought about it carefully, han Jingjing's inventions, including the Shennong medicine cauldron, were all beyond the era and heaven-defying.

If it was someone else, Lin Yi would take it as a joke, but it wasn't impossible for han Jingjing. Who knew, maybe his wish to cross Sky Class Island and the common world would be fulfilled by her!

"Hehe, Jing Jing isn't that bad * SS either!" Han Jingjing smiled shyly.

"Ugh ... Just leave me alone ..." Lin Yi was speechless. He even wanted to research something as crazy as traveling through the mortal world. If that wasn't amazing, then who else in the world was?

"Oh, then let's go out, LAN 'er. He wants to be alone and quietly stay here." Ning Xuefei laughed.

"Sure, sure. Let's let them look at the husband-gazing rock and wife-gazing rock to their heart's content. Let's go eat first. I'm just hungry." Shangguan LAN 'er chuckled and agreed.

"The banquet should be almost ready. You two just have to cuddle here for a while. Don't be too late. The official envoy of the North Island can't be absent from the banquet!" Ning Xuefei made a funny face, then pulled Shangguan LAN 'er out of the door. Curly Bear wanted to play in the research room for a while longer, but the two girls pulled him away by the ear.

Only Lin Yi and han Jingjing were left in the big lab, and they looked at each other awkwardly. The atmosphere suddenly became a little ambiguous ... "

Chapter 4646 Two Missions

Previously, because of ning Xuefei and Shangguan LAN 'er's existence, the two of them had always restrained themselves even though their hearts were burning. However, now that they were alone in the room, the two years of accumulated longing suddenly could not be contained.

"Hug, hug." Han Jing Jing suddenly muttered with a slightly red face.

Lin Yi smiled and pulled her into his arms, the two of them sticking together like glue.

"Eh, why are they so conservative? shouldn't a man and a woman be like firewood burning with fire? why are they done after a hug?" Ning Xuefei, the princess of the Western Island, was lying on the crack of the door, her face full of disappointment. She thought that Lin Yi and han Jingjing would have more intimate actions, and even held Shangguan LAN 'er's hand and leaned on the crack of the door for so long, but the two of them didn't do anything other than hugging each other. What a pair of Blockheads.

"Feifei, you're so bad. You want to watch something that's not suitable for children. I can't stand you!" Shangguan LAN 'er said with a look of disdain.

"Alright, since you're so noble, can you stop pushing me? you're so enthusiastic about snatching seats ..." Ning Xuefei glanced at Shangguan LAN 'er, who was lying on her head, and pouted.

The two girls had completely forgotten that Lin Yi was a peak-level early nascent soul cultivator, and his spirit sense was far stronger than anyone of the same level. Even an idiot would notice if the two of them were walking through the door so blatantly, let alone Lin Yi.

The West Island's envoy's residence was not far from the main palace of the island owner. This was a place dedicated to receiving emissaries from all over the world. At this moment, Xu lingchong and Kang Zhaoming had just settled down. For the convenience of their mission, the two of them had specially requested to be arranged in the same room so that they could discuss and act at any time.

Xu lingchong was drinking tea while Kang Zhaoming was pouring tea. Suddenly, a red shadow flashed in from the window and landed on the table in front of the two. Their eyes twitched-it was a blood bat.

The blood bat was the spirit beast used for their internal communication. Under the body of this blood bat that had suddenly appeared, there was a secret code tied to it. It was actually a letter from a mysterious person!

Lingchong and Zhaoming looked at each other. It wasn't strange to receive a secret order like this on the North Island, but they didn't expect to receive it on the West Island. It was unbelievable! And the point was that they had just settled down, and the secret order had come immediately. The timing was so accurate that it was really jaw-dropping!

Xu lingchong and Kang Zhaoming looked at the blood bat on the table and exchanged a look. They seemed to be deep in thought, but now wasn't the time to think about it. Xu lingchong reached out and took the letter. After reading the contents of the mission, his face couldn't help but become weird.

"What's wrong, young master Xu?" Zhaoming asked as he stepped aside. He couldn't read these high-level secret letters at his level-the consequences would be unimaginable if he broke Central's rules.

"See for yourself." Lingchong tossed the letter to Zhaoming. The mysterious man didn't ask for secrecy, and the mission needed him and Zhaoming to complete it together-there was no need to hide it.

Kang Zhaoming quickly took the letter and read it carefully. After a while, he suddenly raised his head and looked at Xu lingchong, saying weakly, "Young master Xu, I don't understand ..."

"Uh, I forgot about this." Lingchong smacked his head, remembering that the code on it needed to be studied before it could be understood. Normal people wouldn't be able to understand it, and Zhaoming wasn't even qualified to learn it.

Zhaoming smiled awkwardly as he handed the letter back to lingchong, waiting for him to continue.

"The higher-ups gave us two tasks. The first task is to find a way to participate in a trial on the West Island and collect a medicinal herb called 'Thunder mystical vine'. This task is quite normal and shouldn't be too troublesome to carry out. However, the second task is a little strange." Xu lingchong pinched her chin thoughtfully.

"What's the second mission?" Kang Zhaoming quickly asked.

"The higher-ups want us to stop Lin Yi from getting close to the people on the island, especially those with power and status. If that happens, we have to do everything we can to stop it from happening. Don't you think this mission is weird?" Xu lingchong asked with a puzzled expression.

The mysterious man had warned him to not touch Lin Yi on his own, or he'd have to bear the consequences. Now that he'd been given this mission, it was clear that they didn't want the West Island to help Lin Yi. What were the higher-ups thinking? lingchong couldn't figure it out at the moment.

The key thing was that he really didn't know how to start with the second mission. Lin Yi was the special envoy of the North Island, and it was normal for him to get close to any of the higher-ups of the West Island. No one could find fault with him, so how was Xu lingchong supposed to ruin it?

She couldn't just go and tell people that Lin Yi was a cunning bastard, could she? it wouldn't be effective, and if she did, Shangguan Tianhua would be the first thing she'd do when she got back to the island!

"The second mission is my specialty!" Kang Zhaoming's eyes lit up after listening to the story.

"Professional? How professional are you?" Xu lingchong was stunned.

"Hehe, it's a bit hard to say, but I won't say it in front of you, young master Xu. Have you forgotten that I'm the best at harming others without benefiting myself? if you ask me to do something big alone, I might not succeed, but if it's just to ruin other people's business, it's simply a piece of cake!" Kang Zhaoming rubbed his hands excitedly. At this point, he was just short of saying that he couldn't do anything right.

"Is this true?" Xu lingchong's heart skipped a beat, but she still said with uncertainty, "But you've tricked Lin Yi a lot before, but I don't think you've ever really tricked him, have you?"

"Ugh ..." Zhaoming's face reddened as lingchong exposed him. He scratched his head, ""It's mainly because the nature is different. I've always wanted to deal with Lin Yi before, but I've always underestimated his strength. But this time, it's different. We don't need to deal with him, we're just ruining his good plan. This is much easier, and I'll think of a way to trick him!"

Seeing how confident Zhaoming was, and how reasonable he was, lingchong had more confidence in him. She nodded. "Well, you'll be in charge of this. If you do well, I'll personally ask the higher-ups for credit for you!"

"Thank you, young master Xu. I won't let you down this time!" Zhaoming was overjoyed!

Chapter 4647 The Banquet On The West Island

Ever since he found out that Zhong pinliang was suddenly promoted to the North Island's special envoy, he'd been holding a grudge in his heart. He'd felt that he was better than Zhong pinliang in every aspect during his two years on the Sky Class Island-why was this kid able to be on the same level as lingchong Xu, while he had to continue being a small fry?

No, Zhaoming couldn't accept it. Every time he saw pinliang's cocky face, he just couldn't get over it!

He finally had a chance to make a name for himself-he had to show his capabilities to the higher-ups, and he'd be able to step on pinliang again!

"En, as for the first mission of collecting the Thunder mystical vine, we're not in a hurry yet. We'll see when the time comes. The most important thing now is for you to keep an eye on Lin Yi." Xu lingchong squinted her eyes and said. Collecting the Thunder mystical vine meant participating in the trial of the West Island. For now, there was no other way but to wait.

"Yes, yes. Young master Xu, don't worry." Zhaoming promised.

While the two of them were talking, a woman's voice suddenly came from outside. This was the steward of the West Island's envoy residence. She had come to inform the North island's people to attend the banquet.

After the people from the North Island gathered, they were immediately led by the steward to the banquet hall in the island master's Palace. A sumptuous banquet had already been prepared here, specially for the people from the North Island to welcome them.

After everyone had arrived, Lin Yi, han Jingjing, Shangguan LAN 'er, and ning Xuefei finally arrived. They were all talking and laughing along the way, making Lin Yi and han Jingjing blush. These two girls were making fun of what they just did.

"Feifei, why are you only here now?" At this moment, a lady stood up from the main seat in the middle of the banquet hall and waved at Ning Xuefei from afar.

Lin Yi looked over and saw that the girl was in her 30s. She was pretty and had a mature and graceful temperament, which was different from young girls like Ning Xuefei. However, what caught Lin Yi's attention wasn't this, but the fact that this girl's strength was reserved. He couldn't see any signs at all. She must be unfathomable!

"Auntie Yan, I'm just taking them around." Ning Xuefei stuck out her tongue and smiled. She hugged the girl's arm intimately and introduced her to Lin Yi, "This is the Vice Island master of our West Island, the famous woman, Yan Xinlan. She's very famous in the five islands of the heaven class, and Aunt Yan has been very good to me since I was young."

"Junior Lin Yi greets Vice Island master Yan." Lin Yi bowed. He was now the special envoy of the North Island, and his every move represented the image of the three pavilions.

This Yan Xinlan was the Vice Island master of the West Island, and she was a famous lady of the five islands. For her to personally attend to them was already a sign of respect for Lin Yi and his group. After all, the North Island didn't send anyone important this time, and no matter how good the relationship between the two islands was, it wasn't enough for the island master of the West Island to lower himself to attend to them. The difference in standards was too big.

"Special envoy Lin is young and promising. Please take a seat." Yan Xinlan nodded and smiled gracefully. She looked at Lin Yi deeply, then looked at Han Jingjing and Shangguan Lan'er who were snuggling up to him. She noticed that even Ning Xuefei was getting closer to Lin Yi. She couldn't help but frown.

As the Vice Island master of the West Island! Yan Xinlan was a typical feminist! In her eyes, a man having three wives and four concubines was shameless, especially when it involved the future successor of the West Island, ning Xuefei.

Of course, this was the time to welcome the North Island's special envoy and announce the long-lasting friendship between the two islands. No matter what, Yan Xinlan wouldn't make things difficult for Lin Yi at this time. She had this much tolerance.

Lin Yi and the others looked at each other and nodded. They all looked at the food on the table and started eating. There was no lack of food on the sea, but it was boring. These were all authentic Western Island delicacies. Lin Yi couldn't help but swallow.

"Hurry up and eat. We're all family here, so don't be so tense!" Ning Xuefei laughed.

Lin Yi and the others looked at each other and started eating. Their table was the main table. Other than Yan Xinlan, ning Xuefei and han Jingjing from the West Island, only Lin Yi and Shangguan LAN 'er from the North Island could sit at the table. The others were not qualified.

Of course, with Gongyang Jie and LAN Tiefu's status and strength, they had no problem sitting at the table. However, they would not show their faces in public, let alone sit at the main table.

Among the five people at the table, Yan Xinlan was the Vice-Master of the West Island, a level higher than Lin Yi and the others. Under normal circumstances, it would be hard to maintain a harmonious atmosphere, but she was a very smart woman. She had a unique advantage in creating an atmosphere. A few warm words and jokes, a few harmless jokes, naturally the atmosphere would be harmonious.

Especially the people at this table. Other than Yan Xinlan herself, the others were all her close friends. They couldn't just let it go at a time like this. The only thing that made Yan Xinlan frown was that ning Xuefei was a little too attentive and friendly to Lin Yi. The princess of the West Island was putting food on Lin Yi's plate in front of everyone. What would people think if they heard this?

Yan Xinlan only frowned at this scene, but when Xu lingchong and Kang Zhaoming, who were sitting far away in the corner, saw it, their faces twitched. F * ck, this was a task that was just given to them by the higher-ups!

They were just thinking about how to drive a wedge between Lin Yi and the higher-ups of the island, and now they saw ning Xuefei putting food into Lin Yi's bowl. How could they accept this?

Ning Xuefei wasn't strong, but she was the future leader of the island. If they let her be so close to Lin Yi, who knew if Lin Yi would be the one calling the shots on the island? lingchong and Zhaoming would be scolded to death by the higher-ups!

"Zhaoming, how do we solve this?" Xu lingchong frowned as he poked Zhaoming. He knew that ning Xuefei and Lin Yi had a personal relationship. After all, Lin Yi had accompanied ning Xuefei to the North Island the entire time. At that time, he thought it was because of Shangguan LAN 'er, but now it didn't seem like that was the case.

Kang Zhaoming nodded his head quietly, his eyes moving back and forth between Lin Yi and ning Xuefei. He would also look at Yan Xinlan from time to time, and his mind was filled with bad ideas. After a while, he suddenly smacked his head and whispered excitedly into Xu lingchong's ear.

"Good, good, good, this move is really sinister and vicious. You're really a talent, kid. Why didn't I think of such a sinister move? Quickly, go and make the arrangements. There's no time to waste!" Xu lingchong was instantly shocked!

Chapter 4648 Family Ethics Drama

He quickly urged Zhaoming to take action. He couldn't help but feel that this guy was really good at everything else, but he was a natural when it came to this kind of dirty work.

Kang Zhaoming smiled evilly and nodded. He stood up and left the table quietly. No one knew what he went out to do, but he came back not long after he left. People who didn't know would think that he went to the toilet.

"How is it?" Lingchong asked without waiting for Zhaoming to sit down.

"Hehe, everything's settled. Young master Xu, just wait and watch a good show later!" Zhaoming smiled, pleased with himself. He was a very happy man when it came to things like this. Lin Yi might be surrounded by pretty girls right now, making all the men in the world envious and jealous of him, but he wouldn't be able to smile anymore soon. He'd just be crying then.

"Alright, I'll give you credit for this!" Seeing Zhaoming's confidence, lingchong felt more at ease. The plan the kid just gave him was indeed devious-it was just enough to make Lin Yi look bad without forcing him into a corner. It was perfect for completing the mission.

No one noticed Xu lingchong and Kang Zhaoming's small actions from the beginning to the end. The welcoming banquet continued, and after three rounds of drinks, the atmosphere became more and more harmonious. Laughter and jokes came one after another, and they toasted each other back and forth. The female officials from the Western Island, in particular, were quite generous. They didn't reject the toasts from the men from the northern island. The atmosphere was a lot more lively than expected, and it was a harmonious scene of the two islands getting close and friendly.

Lin Yi's table, on the other hand, wasn't as open as the others below, but it was still full of laughter and chatter, with the occasional bell-like laughter.

At this moment, a woman suddenly barged in from the main entrance. At first, she did not attract the attention of others. After all, most of the people were a little drunk at this time, and even the guards at the entrance could not help but relax their vigilance. Moreover, this was a woman. The Western part of the island had always been very tolerant of women.

However, what happened next caused the joyous atmosphere in the hall to come to a sudden halt. The girl looked around and walked straight to the main table in the middle, crying as she walked. She stopped beside Lin Yi and cried at him with a bitter face.

After seeing this scene, everyone in the audience chose to keep quiet. They all stared at each other. What was going on?

It wasn't just the crowd-even Han Jing Jing, Shangguan LAN 'er, and ning Xuefei were looking at each other, all of them looking at the girl in surprise before turning to Lin Yi.

Lin Yi didn't know what was going on either. He shrugged helplessly at the girls, not knowing what this girl was up to.

"Who are you?" In the end, it was Yan Xinlan, the Vice Island Lord of the West Island, who broke the deadlock and asked in a deep voice.

"I'm just an ordinary woman. I didn't mean to disturb everyone's fun today, but I really have no choice. The child in my stomach can't be born without a father!" The girl suddenly hugged Lin Yi and cried, "Lin Yi, I've finally found you! You're so cruel, how could you leave us alone like this? how are we supposed to live?"

The words sent the entire place into an uproar as they stared at Lin Yi, dumbfounded. So this North island's special envoy, handpicked by Shangguan Tianhua, was actually such a heartless man!

"Ha? "This is yours, Junior Brother ..." Shangguan LAN 'er's face was full of shock as she looked back and forth between Lin Yi and the woman, covering her mouth in surprise.

Ning Xuefei, on the other hand, looked at the woman who had suddenly appeared with suspicion. She was not as innocent as Shangguan LAN 'er, but han Jingjing had a strange expression on her face. She had grown up in the secular world and had seen all kinds of strange things. She did not expect to see her on Sky Class Island.

All of a sudden, all the pressure was focused on Lin Yi's head, as if he was a traitor. Xu lingchong, who was hiding in the corner, couldn't help but laugh slyly at the situation. It seemed like this trick was quite effective!

This kind of dirty trick was completely rotten in the secular world, used by the rich and powerful, but it was very rare in the simple Sky Class Island. After all, in places like the north and west islands, there were more men than women, and there were more women than men. There were not many men and women who had the chance to get together, let alone using the child in the stomach to blackmail people ...

Seeing this, lingchong felt that no matter how Lin Yi responded, his relationship with ning Xuefei would be destroyed for sure. Zhaoming's move was too evil, this kid was really good at ruining people's business!

Lin Yi wasn't the least bit nervous under everyone's gazes. He circulated his Qi, and the girl let go of him in pain. He looked around, and his eyes fell on Xu lingchong and Kang Zhaoming. His instinct told him that these two were involved in this.

"Lin Yi, come back with me, okay? "I'm begging you, I'll give you anything. It doesn't matter how many women you want to find. I just beg you not to abandon me and our child ..." The woman continued to cry with snot and tears.

Lin Yi frowned-this girl from who knows where was pretty good at acting. She'd be able to win all sorts of awards if she were in the common world.

Hearing the woman's emotional and tearful complaints, everyone's expressions became more and more subtle and strange.

It didn't matter if they were familiar with Lin Yi or not, they could at least see one thing-the guy had a good luck with women, to be exact, it was so good that it made their hair stand on end.

Looking at the women around him, each and every one of them was a rare beauty in the world. What was even more outrageous was that each one of them had a noble identity. If he could get the favor of any one of them, he would die without regrets, let alone so many of them.

If it were any other man present, it would be normal for him to abandon other women if he had close female friends like Shangguan LAN 'er or ning Xuefei by his side. Wouldn't it be unforgivable if he didn't become a heartless man even after that?

Envy, jealousy, and hate-the people from the North Island respected Lin Yi, but all men were on the same side when it came to things like this. A cheater like Lin Yi who didn't know how blessed he was was was their enemy.

After the sudden intrusion of the woman, the originally warm welcome banquet suddenly changed its atmosphere. It inexplicably changed from a diplomatic relationship between the two islands to a family ethics drama.

Chapter 4649 Who's Better Looking?

Everyone held their breath and didn't dare to make a sound, waiting for Lin Yi's reaction. Unexpectedly, the first one to speak was Yan Xinlan. This graceful vice-Island master's face darkened for the first time, and her tone carried some unhappiness, "Special envoy Lin, you can talk about these private matters at home. Don't affect everyone's mood here. Otherwise, you won't be the only one embarrassed. The entire North Island will be embarrassed."

Yan Xinlan was already displeased with Lin Yi's behavior. She was a feminist who hated men hugging each other, especially when it involved ning Xuefei, the heir of the West Island. However, she couldn't do anything about it just now, so she could only suppress her displeasure.

But now that such a mess had happened, she couldn't keep her face as the host anymore. This Lin Yi looked like a rare talent, but she didn't expect him to be a scumbag who abandoned her!

Yan Xinlan's words were equivalent to directly setting Lin Yi's attitude. Although she didn't embarrass Lin Yi, it clearly showed her and the West Island's attitude towards this. Everyone couldn't help but whisper and discuss, pointing at Lin Yi who was still sitting there like nothing had happened. Even at this point, he was still acting. This guy's skin was really thick, no wonder he was the famous acting tough leader!

"Island master Yan is right. Lin Yi, you're a disgrace to the North Island, and you've even embarrassed the outer island. You still have the face to be an official envoy? you've completely embarrassed the North Island!" Kang Zhaoming didn't waste the opportunity and jumped out to scold.

The key to framing someone was not to give the other party a chance to explain. It was to create a preconceived impression and then strike while the iron was hot to make the charges true. In this way, no matter how one explained later, it would be of no help. It would only make things worse and the more one explained, the more one would be looked down upon.

This was the perfect time for Kang Zhaoming to step out and add insult to injury. He might not make Lin Yi Public Enemy, but at least he would be disgraced. No matter who got close to a bastard with such a bad reputation, they would have to consider the pressure of public opinion, not to mention the high and mighty Princess of the West Island.

Lin Yi wasn't in a hurry at all, even though he was about to become a Public Enemy. He turned and looked at Zhaoming and lingchong-these two were the ones behind this.

Lin Yi's glance made Kang Zhaoming's face freeze. He didn't know if it was psychological pressure or aura pressure. It was as if his heart was hit by a heavy hammer. He almost fell to the ground. Even Xu lingchong's face was a little ugly. One look was enough to make them feel a mountain of pressure. Lin Yi had grown to such a terrifying level!

Thinking back to how Lin Yi took out MA dang Qiang's mid-stage nascent soul strength in one move, the two felt even more cold inside. The pride they had just now disappeared. Even if they could make Lin Yi look bad this time, this guy was still a strong enemy that they couldn't underestimate.

But fortunately, this time, he could finally make this bastard suffer a big loss. He would collect some interest first. In the future, when the higher-ups agreed, he would find a way to kill this sworn enemy!

Everyone was watching, and Lin Yi's lips curled up into a playful smile as he looked at the girl who was still acting. It was embarrassing, but it was nothing to him. He had at least a hundred ways to reverse the verdict.

Lin Yi was about to say something, but Ning Xuefei, who was sitting beside him, spoke first. She looked at the girl and turned to Zhaoming, "It's just a one-sided story from this woman. How can you be so sure? Could it be that you already knew the inside story?"

"Isn't it obvious? She came to our door without caring about her face. It's about her reputation and integrity. Which woman in the world would joke about such a big matter?" Kang Zhaoming straightened his neck.

Everyone nodded in agreement. A woman's reputation and integrity were a big deal no matter where they were. It was so in the North Island, and it was even more so in the Western Island where women's rights were Supreme. The women here only had high status, but it did not mean that they did not have the shame that women should have.

"Oh, a woman's reputation is indeed very important, but this Princess will first ask you a question. Do you think I'm more beautiful or she is more beautiful?" Ning Xuefei suddenly changed the topic.

"Gah?!" Kang Zhaoming was stunned, and so was everyone else. They looked at Ning Xuefei and the girl with strange expressions. Ning Xuefei was the standard beauty of the country, and the girl was only average. One was like heaven, and the other was like Earth. The answer was obvious.

Kang Zhaoming didn't know what was going on, but he didn't dare to say anything. This was the West Island's headquarters, if he said anything bad about the West Island's Princess in front of everyone, he'd be asking for death.

Besides, this was a complete lie, and anyone with eyes would know the answer. Even if Kang Zhaoming's brain got water, he wouldn't dare to give a second answer ...

"Of course, the princess is more beautiful." Kang Zhaoming had to answer honestly.

"Since you think that I'm good-looking, that's strange. Let me ask you, if it were you, would you choose me or her?" Ning Xuefei continued to ask.

The crowd was in an uproar when they heard this. They could not help but look at each other. Even Yan Xinlan could not help but frown. What was this girl up to?

"This ... Of course it's you, Your Highness ..." Zhaoming looked at lingchong Xu in confusion and continued to answer. After all, it wasn't a multiple choice question. Even an idiot would know who to choose between ning Xuefei and this girl.

"Fine, if even you know what to choose, then why didn't Lin Yi choose me? Or do you really think Lin Yi's an idiot who can't tell beauty from ugliness?" Ning Xuefei's lips curved into a proud smile.

"This ..." Kang Zhaoming was dumbfounded. What kind of F * cking logic was this? this was completely different from Lin Yi's "dump"!

But he had nothing to say to ning Xuefei's question. Ning Xuefei's words were a little far-fetched, but it wasn't without reason. The thing was, this was the princess of the West Island! How could he have the guts to talk back to her in front of everyone?

It wasn't just Kang Zhaoming-everyone else in the room was dumbfounded. Even the girl who'd been so immersed in her character that she'd forgotten to cry. She could only stare at ning Xuefei, speechless.

Chapter 4650 Acting

Yan Xinlan couldn't help but frown again. Of course she knew that ning Xuefei was protecting Lin Yi, but didn't this further prove that ning Xuefei and Lin Yi had an ambiguous relationship? otherwise, why would she ask such a question in public, and even ask why Lin Yi chose that woman instead of her? this wasn't something the princess of the West Island should say ...

At that thought, Yan Xinlan looked at ning Xuefei's strange expression and paused. She thought about what was going to happen at the birthday party-this girl wasn't trying to tell Lin Yi her feelings, was she?

"Aunt Yan, I think there's something wrong with this woman. We'll capture her and interrogate her severely, including her entire family to see if she's lying! I would like to know who has the guts to come here and frame the special envoy from the North Island. This is to drive a wedge between the friendly relations between the West and North Islands. We can't let our guard down. " Ning Xuefei's tone was cold.

As soon as she said that, the temperature in the room dropped a few degrees. Although ning Xuefei was usually innocent and cute, she was still the inheritor of the West Island after all. Her words held enormous weight here.

Yan Xinlan was taken aback. She had a prejudice against Lin Yi because she hated a hooligan like him. She was afraid that ning Xuefei would be tricked by this hooligan if they got too close. However, since ning Xuefei was speaking to Lin Yi in front of everyone, she couldn't refute her as the Vice-owner. Otherwise, it would be seen as a conflict between the higher-ups of the Western Island. That would be a big problem.

"Men!" Yan Xinlan gave the order and two guards immediately came over. Although they were both women, they were covered in armor and were full of killing intent. Especially since they were able to work in the palace, their strength naturally wasn't weak. Looking at the menacing aura, the woman who came out to frame Lin Yi was scared to the point of peeing her pants.

"Quickly say something! "Didn't you promise me you'd be fine? as long as I put on an act, I'd be able to ..."The girl panicked as she turned to Zhaoming. She'd only put on this act to earn some spiritual Jade, not her life.

But before the woman could finish, Kang Zhaoming rushed up and kicked her head. All her teeth fell out as he raged, "Don't you slander me, you bitch! I know, you must be a spy from another island, not only trying to drive a wedge between the north and west islands, but now you're trying to frame me after failing to frame Lin Yi-what a vicious person you are!"

"Wuwuwuwu ..." The girl's mouth was full of blood, and she couldn't speak at all after being kicked by Kang Zhaoming. Her hair was disheveled as she fell to the ground, wailing in pain. She glared at Kang Zhaoming with eyes full of hatred, as if she wanted to eat his flesh and gnaw on his bones. Unfortunately, there was nothing she could do now.

Kang Zhaoming's reaction was fast. At first glance, it was easy to explain, but most of the people present knew that the truth was out at this point. No matter what was going on behind the scenes, at least one thing was for sure-Lin Yi was framed.

"Special envoy Lin, how do you think we should deal with this?" Yan Xinlan knew that she had wronged Lin Yi, and she felt a little guilty. In this kind of situation, Lin Yi should be the one making the decision. After all, he was the only victim, and she had to give him a satisfactory explanation for the sake of the relationship between the two islands.

Lin Yi looked at the terrified girl on the ground, and then at Zhaoming, who was trying to hide something. He smiled faintly, "The guest does as the host wishes. Your island's people will naturally be dealt with by your Island. I have no objections, not to mention I didn't suffer any losses."

"Good, it's rare to have such bearing at such a young age!" Yan Xinlan couldn't help but look at Lin Yi in a different light as she ordered the guard, "Take her away, give her a warning and let her go."

Yan Xinlan did not plan to investigate further. She could tell that this was most likely a woman who had led a wandering life, otherwise she would not have come here to do such a thing.

Promiscuous women were pitiful to begin with, especially in the Western part of the island where they were looked down upon by the other women. Unless it was absolutely necessary, no one would be willing to do this, so Yan Xinlan did not want to make things difficult for her.

Kang Zhaoming let out a breath of relief. Since Yan Xinlan didn't plan to look into it, then he was fine. He had escaped death at least. There was no evidence anyway, and Lin Yi couldn't do anything to him just because of a little suspicion.

The drama ended here, and Zhaoming was both scared and relieved as he returned to lingchong's side with his head down, afraid to look at anyone.

Lingchong Xu, on the other hand, was depressed. He couldn't blame Zhaoming for what happened today. As far as he was concerned, the plan was perfect, and the result was almost achieved. If it wasn't for ning Xuefei's sudden interference, Lin Yi would've been cursed by tens of thousands of people and become a real scumbag and heartless man!

This ning Xuefei was too biased. She's trying so hard to get Lin Yi out of trouble-this won't do, I have to think of a way to stop her from getting on good terms with Lin Yi! If this continues, the entire Western Island will belong to Lin Yi's family ...

Xu lingchong was helpless, while Kang Zhaoming was speechless. Even the Vice Island master Yan Xinlan was furious just now, but ning Xuefei's words still reversed the situation. What bad luck!

"Young master Xu, I'm sorry to have disappointed you." Zhaoming lowered his voice and apologized. He'd been too full of himself before, and now he really didn't have the face to face lingchong anymore.

"It's not your fault this time, it's our fault for not thinking that ning Xuefei would side with Lin Yi this much. If she really did have an affair with Lin Yi, shouldn't her first reaction be to question him? why would she defend Lin Yi without even asking?" Xu lingchong pinched her chin and smiled bitterly.

"It's too hard to guess a woman's thoughts. Young master Xu, what should we do next? Do you want to quickly think of another way?" Kang Zhaoming asked.

"Yeah, we can't drag this out for too long. It'll be too late by the time Lin Yi and ning Xuefei really get together." Xu lingchong nodded and immediately said, "But not today. They'll definitely be on their guard after this incident. It'll be easy for them to see through us if we do it again. We'll think of a way when we get back. We can't let anything happen again."

"Yeah, that's the only way." Kang Zhaoming nodded helplessly. At the same time, his stomach started to have bad thoughts again ...

After such a farce, the atmosphere of the welcome banquet was a little strange. It was no longer as enthusiastic as before, and it ended hastily not long after. Everyone went back to their rooms to rest.

Lin Yi wanted to stay a little longer with Han Jing Jing, but it was getting dark. It didn't make sense for him to stay in the palace alone. He could only return to the envoy's residence first and wait for the next day to find Han Jing Jing.
