Chapter 5021 Saw A Ghost

"Don't worry, I'm not as shameless as this old man. It's not his lottery ticket, but he still extorted 5000 Yuan from me, and he still looks like he's at a loss!" The buzzcut guy cursed in disdain, put away the 5000 Yuan, and left.

"You little hooligan, who are you calling shameless! You better explain it clearly!" The old man also quickly kept the money, picked up the load, and chased after him while cursing.

The two disappeared into the alley in a matter of minutes, leaving Lin Yi alone in the alley.

"Hehe, this is really interesting. Last time I just left the mountain, I was deceived. Today, I'm still deceived after returning to the secular world. The deception is the same. Do I look like a fool?" Lin Yi shook his head and chuckled.

He'd be an idiot if he couldn't see through such an obvious scam-it was the same as the one he saw on the train back then, the only difference being Xinyan's warning. How could Lin Yi fall for it now that she was on Sky Class Island?

It was obvious that these two were professional scammers from their acting. They saw the ten thousand in Lin Yi's hand, so they set their eyes on him and put on this show.

The two of them were probably still very proud, secretly happy that they had met a fool who could be easily fooled. However, they would know who the fool was soon.

Lin Yi threw the ten third prize lottery tickets into the trash, and a stack of money suddenly appeared in his hand. He had his own ten thousand, and the two men's money as well, making it a total of thirty thousand. He'd been worried about not having enough money to spend before, but now it was enough.

He felt like things were the same, but the people had changed-after what happened, he felt that the common world hadn't changed at all!

Lin Yi put the money away and walked towards the downtown area. To him, the most important thing right now was to find a real estate agent to rent a house and recover his strength as soon as possible.

He hadn't even taken two steps when five people suddenly squeezed their way through the alley. Lin Yi thought that the two of them had realized something was wrong and came back to get even with him, but after a closer look, he realized that it wasn't them at all. It was five gangsters.

The leader was a guy with dyed red hair. He brought a group of people and blocked the way. This alley was a dead end, and the only exit was blocked. Lin Yi couldn't escape even if he wanted to. Of course, this was only a group of hooligans, not the two Foundation Stage experts, so he didn't need to run.

"Kid, I've been a little tight on cash recently. Can I borrow a few dollars from you?" The red-haired guy walked over with big strides. His four underlings were all in their striking poses, acting cool.

"Borrow money?" Lin Yi raised an eyebrow, a half-smile on his face.

"Yes, just borrow money. It doesn't need much. Just borrow ten or twenty thousand. As for how much, it depends on you." The redhead held a cigarette in his mouth and blew out a ring of smoke in a self-satisfied manner.

"Then I'll have to ask clearly. Are you the only one who wants to borrow money, or do the Four Heavenly Kings behind you want to borrow money as well?" Lin Yi said faintly.

"Four great Heavenly Kings?" Red fur turned around and looked at his underlings who were acting cool. His face instantly darkened. These four idiots were holding an umbrella, a fruit knife, and a guitar. The most outrageous thing was that one of them had a pet golden python. Weren't they the Four Heavenly Kings?

The four lackeys didn't realize it at all-they were getting even more excited at Lin Yi's words, as if they enjoyed the title of four kings.

"Yeah, the Four Heavenly Kings also want to borrow money. Kid, you decide." Red fur suppressed the urge to turn around and hit Lin Yi as he looked at him with a dark face.

"You're already one of the Four Heavenly Kings, yet you still need to borrow money?" Lin Yi chuckled and spread his hands,"What a pity. I don't have a single cent on me. Why don't you search me?"

"No money? How come I saw you holding a stack of money on the street just now? kid, we're giving you face by asking you to lend us money. You have to be sensible, understand?" The red-haired man said with an unfriendly expression.

"I did have some money, but those two scammers took it away. I don't have a single cent left on me." Lin Yi said, shaking his head.

The red-haired man still didn't believe it, but the king with the Golden python behind him believed it. He came up and said, ""Red hair, this kid might be telling the truth. I've seen those two people before. They're liars who specialize in scamming people in the countryside. They've recently come to the county. This kid might have been scammed clean by them."

"Why didn't you say so earlier?" The redhead was furious. If he knew this would happen, he would have brought his men to stop the two scammers. There was no risk at all, and he could earn a lot of money.

"Red fur bro, you didn't ask me ..." The Golden python King looked like he was wronged.

"Do I even need to ask this kind of thing? Would it kill you to be a little smarter!" The red-haired thug wanted to kick this stupid underling to death. It was too late to chase after the two scammers now. Since they had succeeded, they must have disappeared immediately to avoid being caught by this spendthrift in front of him.

"Now you believe me?" Lin Yi interjected with a half-smile.

Red fur had believed him already, but the look on Lin Yi's face made him suspicious again. He pointed at the Heavenly King Python, "Go and search him. He might have more on him!"

"Ah?" The Golden python King was stunned. Red fur glared at him and he walked over unwillingly. He reached into Lin Yi's pocket and his face changed immediately. He didn't even dare to look at Lin Yi. He turned around and stammered, "No... I didn't ..."

"No? Did you F * cking search carefully? if he still had money on him, he would have hidden it very well. What's the use of you randomly searching like this?" The red-haired guy scolded.

"That's not it. I mean, he doesn't have a pocket ..." The Golden python King was on the verge of tears.

"Bullshit! Those two pockets aren't pockets!" The red-haired guy wanted to kick him.

"But ... But I can't touch him ... It's empty ..." The Golden python King didn't dare to stand next to Lin Yi anymore. It ran behind red fur and the others as if it had seen a ghost.

The redhead and the others didn't understand and were stunned for a long time before they scolded, "What nonsense are you talking about? useless trash. You can't even do such a small thing. I'll do it myself!"

Red fur said as he walked to Lin Yi's side and reached into Lin Yi's pocket. Even he himself looked as if he had seen a ghost. He'd dug out nothing! Lin Yi was standing there, but he didn't touch anything.

Chapter 5022 A Cheap House

"How did this happen?" The red-haired guy didn't believe it and took out another handful, but it was still empty air. His face instantly turned as pale as the Golden python King.

"How is it? I didn't lie to you, did I?" Lin Yi asked calmly. He was now able to control this Yuan spirit very well. He could make it tangible and illusory at will. As long as he didn't want to, red fur and the others wouldn't be able to touch him even if they were killed.

"Big brother, are you a human or a ghost?" Red fur swallowed his saliva and asked carefully.

"Can you guess?" Lin Yi said with a dark smile.

"It's ... It's broad daylight ... Big brother, are you really a ghost?" The redhead was so scared that he was about to cry. He was originally extorting money, but in the end, he extorted a ghost. Wasn't he courting death?

"Red-haired brother, I heard that a few people have died in this alley before. The yin Qi is especially strong ..." The Golden python King said weakly.

Although red hair and the others had goosebumps, they could at least hold on for a while in broad daylight. However, after hearing this, they were so scared that they peed their pants. They screamed and ran away.

But before they could get out of the alley, a shadow flashed in front of them-Lin Yi had his arms crossed, smiling at them.

Red fur and the others didn't know what to do-they were supposed to block Lin Yi in this dead end, but now it was the other way around. They were the ones stuck in the dead end, and it was unacceptable.

The red-haired leader knelt down and said in a sobbing tone, ""Big brother, every debt has a debtor. We're just looking for you to borrow some money. We didn't kill you. If you want revenge, don't come looking for us ..."

"You want me to let you go?" Lin Yi said faintly as he looked at the five.

"Yes, yes, yes. Big brother, you go your way and I'll go my way. We'll mind our own business." The red-haired man and the others nodded their heads vigorously.

"That's fine. As long as you do one thing, I'll let you go. " Lin Yi smiled evilly and pointed at red fur, "I hate people who dye their hair red the most. Four great Heavenly Kings, pull out all his hair for me, and I will be merciful and let you go."

"What?" Red fur was dumbfounded at the words, but the four underlings couldn't wait and pounced on him. Compared to red fur's boss, Lin Yi, the "evil ghost," was much better.

Red hair immediately let out a miserable wail like a pig being slaughtered. The Four Heavenly Kings took turns to pull out all of his red hair. In the end, red hair was pulled bald, and he fainted on the spot, unconscious.

"G-brother ghost, how about this?" The Four Heavenly Kings said carefully.

"Yes, it's much more pleasing to the eye." "Yeah." Lin Yi nodded before asking, "do you guys know where the nearest rental agency is?"

"I know, I know. It's just two intersections East of this Street in front of us." The Golden python King quickly said.

"Good, you're quite tactful. I'll let you off this time, but you'll remember this in the future." With that, Lin Yi disappeared.

The Four Heavenly Kings looked at each other and immediately sat on the ground. They had seen a ghost in broad daylight. They had all peed their pants just now, and even now, their crotches were still wet.

"Why do you think this ghost went to find a rental agency?" The few of them looked at each other and said.

"Do you even need to ask? he's definitely looking for a house to harm people! Haven't you heard that there are ghosts in our County's houses recently? I used to think that it was just a rumor, but now it seems that it's true!" The Golden python King said with certainty.

"Forget it, let's go home. This place is so eerie. I don't dare to stay here any longer." Before they could even catch their breath, the few of them quickly got up with lingering fear and dragged the red-haired man away like a dead dog. They would never dare to come back to this alley again.

He walked two streets East and found a real estate agent, and quickly picked a suite.

The suite was located in a remote, newly opened residential area. There were not many people in the county, so the occupancy rate of such a residential area was naturally not high. Moreover, more than half of the houses belonged to the relocated households. Many of the houses were rented out, and if they could not be rented out, they would simply be left empty.

Lin Yi chose this place because it was remote. He wouldn't want it if it was in the center of a busy city. He wanted to recover his strength in peace, so the fewer people there were, the better.

The agent took Lin Yi to see the house on a bike, and it took half an hour before they reached the place. It was really remote, and the introduction said it was a new development area, but it was just the suburbs. There wasn't even a proper road around, let alone a business street.

Seeing Lin Yi's weird expression, the agent quickly explained, "Don't think that this place is remote, but the environment is good. Look at the Green Mountains and rivers. How can the downtown area be so quiet? we are now pursuing the quality of life, don't you think so?"

"It's obviously a remote and poor place, but you can still talk so much about it. Don't tell me that all of you intermediary professionals are advertising professionals?" "Let's talk about it later," Lin Yi said, smiling.

"Alright, please follow me." The agent was taken aback by Lin Yi's words, and quickly brought him to see the house. It was on the fifth floor, and there was no elevator, so they had to climb the stairs. If Lin Yi didn't tease him, the agent would've said something about low-carbon and healthy living.

"You can go in and take a look, I won't be going in." The agent suddenly stopped at the door, his expression obviously unnatural.

Lin Yi found it strange, but didn't think much of it. He walked in and saw two rooms and one living room. The lighting and layout were good, and it was obvious that the decorations were done carefully. Other than the location being a little remote, everything else was satisfactory.

After walking around the rooms, Lin Yi walked to the entrance and said to the agent, "The house is okay, how much is the monthly rent?"

"Five hundred, pay one for one." The intermediary was very straightforward with his offer. It seemed that he wanted to leave as soon as possible after signing the contract. He did not want to stay a moment longer.

"Five hundred?" Lin Yi, on the other hand, was stunned. A suite like this would cost at least three thousand in the outskirts of Donghai city, and while this small county was far from as developed as Donghai city, Lin Yi estimated it to cost at least eight hundred if not a thousand. Five hundred was a little too low-did he overestimate this small county?

"Five hundred Yuan is too expensive?" The agent blinked as well before looking at Lin Yi. "Then I'll make the decision and lower the price. 450 Yuan, I can't go any lower."

Chapter 5023 The Haunted House

"450?" Lin Yi was even more surprised now-there had to be something going on, and he wouldn't be Lin Yi if he didn't notice anything wrong. He said intentionally, "Are the houses here all so cheap? Then I'll move to another house."

"No, no. Only this suite is cheaper. The other suites cost 800 Yuan." The agent quickly said.

"Why?" Lin Yi asked.

"Well ... This house is a little special, so it's a little cheaper. You can't find a better house anywhere else."
The agent said, avoiding the topic.

"Special? What's special about it?" Lin Yi was surprised-he'd just walked around the house, and he didn't see anything wrong with it. Could it be that the road wasn't clean?

The agent didn't want to say anything at first, but seeing Lin Yi's persistence, he couldn't stop. "I've only heard about it from others. I heard that someone died in an accident during the renovation of this house. He was cut into two by an electric saw. After that, it became haunted. The landlord didn't dare to live in it himself and could only rent it out. That's why the rent is so cheap."

When the agent said this, he felt a chill run down his spine. Even just standing at the door made his hair stand on end and he felt the cold wind inside. If it wasn't for the fact that he had to support his family, he would have run away.

But Lin Yi didn't think much of it-he'd be a ghost himself if there really were ghosts in the world, what was there to be afraid of?

Seeing Lin Yi's silence, the agent assumed that their plan was ruined."How about this? I'll take you to another house. I guarantee that the conditions are not worse than this one. Although the price is a little more expensive, it won't be too expensive. What do you think?"

"No need, let's do it here. Give me the key and I'll sign the contract now." Lin Yi said.

"Ah?" The agent was stunned for a moment, then he immediately took out the contract and the key with joy. He nodded repeatedly and said, ""Alright, you're still the gutsy one. However, ghosts and whatnot are meant to scare yourself anyway. It's fine as long as you don't think about them."

Lin Yi chuckled, signed the papers, paid for the keys, and moved in on the spot. The house was fully furnished, and it didn't really matter if there was nothing-all Lin Yi wanted was a place to meditate and practition. Everything else was fine.

As he meditated and recovered his Qi, he thought about his next step. What Lin Yi was most confused about was when did the common world have such a master?

As soon as it was projected, it encountered a late Foundation Stage and a middle Foundation Stage. This was simply unimaginable in the past. And now, since there were Foundation Stage experts, could there be stronger ones, such as a jiedan stage expert?

Although this level of strength wasn't much on the Sky Class Island, where there were so many masters, it was still terrifying in the common world. After all, the strongest was only sky Class full cultivation in the past, and these people were invincible.

Lin Yi was worried about Lingshan and the others the most. He couldn't imagine what would happen to them if they had to face these Tiandao Masters.

However, Lingshan and the others didn't mention anything about the appearance of a tendo master in his last letter. Could it be that these people just appeared recently, or had they always been here, just that no one knew about it?

But Lin Yi didn't really believe that these people were all born and raised in the common world-the Qi here was way too thin, after all, and Sky Class full phase was their limit if they were to just rely on their own strength. It was impossible for them to break through to the Foundation Stage, let alone the late phase of the Foundation Stage-it might even be even stronger.

But if they weren't from the common world, then where did these people come from? they couldn't be from Sky Class Island, right? Lin Yi wouldn't have thought of this before, but with the central Chamber of Commerce, it wasn't impossible.

"I hope they haven't started fighting yet." Lin Yi sighed, worried. He didn't plan on contacting Lingshan and the others right away-his priority was to recover his strength. Even if he couldn't become as strong as his original body, he couldn't be weaker than the two foundation level Masters he'd met.

As for why he didn't contact song Lingshan and the others for now, the reason was simple. Lin Yi knew that once they knew about him, they would come looking for him at all costs. Before he had enough confidence to deal with those two Foundation Stage Masters, he didn't want to drag them into this.

After all, they weren't in the early stage of Foundation-they were in the late stage and mid stage! It didn't matter how many Sky Class full Masters they had! With such a great disparity in strength, the human wave tactic was useless. Only when he had the absolute strength of the corresponding level could he have the capital to fight against it.

Of course, Lin Yi thought of another possibility-if there were Tiandao Masters in the common world, then could it be that song Lingshan and the others, who were Sky Class full Masters, had broken through as well?

But he rejected the thought as soon as it appeared. Lingshan and the others didn't rely on their own strength to reach Sky Class full master-it was Lin Yi's doing. At least, they wouldn't be able to break through in the common world.

After thinking about it for a while, Lin Yi decided to throw away these thoughts. It was useless to think about these things. Since he was back, there was nothing to rush. As long as he could recover his strength quickly, everything was easy.

He sat cross-legged in meditation and trained for the whole day. When it was dark outside, Lin Yi felt that his strength had increased quite a bit. He was at Sky Class late phase at the beginning, but now he was almost at Sky Class late phase peak. It wasn't worth mentioning compared to his original strength, but he had only recovered for a day, and the effect was quite good.

"F * ck, where did this ghost come from?" Lin Yi mumbled as he stretched. To be honest, he was looking forward to it after hearing the agent's words. For someone of his level, things like ghosts and monsters weren't a threat at all. It just made him curious.

It was a pity that from today's experience, the rumor of the haunting was most likely just a rumor. After hearing it, they just laughed it off. There was really no credibility to it.

It was already seven, and the sky was completely dark. Lin Yi got up and was ready to go out for some information.

No matter if it was a big city or a small city, there would always be all kinds of food stalls at night, and these were all places where social people would appear. These people might not be of any other use, but they were definitely well-informed. It was not a bad idea to find these people to get some information.

Chapter 5024 Another Foundation Establishment Cultivator

But just as he was about to open the door, he heard footsteps outside. Lin Yi subconsciously became alert and stopped.

In order to cultivate in peace, he had carefully observed the surrounding environment. There were not many people living in this community, and the building he was in could be counted with his fingers.

Other than the convenience store on the first floor, only the third floor was occupied. On the fifth floor, there was no one opposite the door. The sixth floor above was empty, and even the house had not been renovated, so there would not be anyone there. The same was true for the fourth floor. In that case, why would there be footsteps at this time?

Could it really be haunted? Lin Yi's heart skipped a beat. He didn't open the door, but he still sent out his spirit sense.

The footsteps got closer and closer, and finally stopped outside the door. Lin Yi was still excited at first, but he quickly realized that it was all for nothing. The people who came weren't ghosts, but two living people. He'd just seen one of them during the day, the agent.

Other than the agent, there was also a tall, cold-looking woman. Lin Yi didn't notice her at first, but he realized that she was a practitioner as well, and she was a Foundation early stage practitioner!

It'd only been a day since he'd returned to the common world, and this was already the third foundation Stage practitioner he'd met. Lin Yi couldn't help but wonder-what was going on here?

But this woman seemed to be injured quite badly, her breathing clearly unstable. Normal people wouldn't be able to tell from her face, but it couldn't escape Lin Yi's eyes.

"Miss, the rent of this house is indeed very cheap, but I have to say something first, in case you later Sue us for lying to consumers. If that happens, we'll be wronged to death." The agent said.

"Speak," he said. The tall woman coldly spat out a word.

"To tell you the truth, someone was killed by an electric saw during the renovation of this house, so it's said to be haunted. Although your house is opposite, I still have to tell you in advance that no one believes in ghosts, but I think it's better to believe it than not, don't you think so?" The agent rambled on-perhaps it was because the girl was a beauty, but his attitude towards Lin Yi was much more sincere than it was during the day.

"Ghost? If it dares to come, I'll chop it to death. " The tall woman said coldly. She took the key and walked into the room. She closed the door behind her, leaving the agent standing at the door, not knowing whether to laugh or cry.

This woman was really tough! Lin Yi was speechless. Practitioners were strong, so they weren't afraid of ghosts like normal people, but female practitioners were still women. No matter how strong they were, they couldn't change some of their habits, like being afraid of bugs or ghosts.

However, this female cultivator was obviously an exception. Her words and actions were cold and overbearing, without the slightest intention of being weak.

"Looks like I'll have to find a chance to talk to this cold little girl." Lin Yi mumbled as he pinched his chin. He wasn't coveting the girl's beauty-with all the girls he had right now, he wouldn't be too surprised by her beauty even if she was a real beauty.

The only reason he thought of this was because of the other's strength. Lin Yi didn't believe that this early Foundation Stage practitioner had nothing to do with the two Foundation Stage practitioners from before.

But Lin Yi didn't plan on going to the door immediately. This cold girl was obviously hard to talk to, and she was injured now, so she'd be extra careful around strangers. Going to the door and asking would be asking for trouble.

Plus, Lin Yi's strength wasn't fully recovered yet-a Sky Class late phase peak wouldn't have a problem dealing with an injured early Foundation Stage practitioner, but it wasn't enough to intimidate them. The most important thing for Lin Yi right now was to recover his strength-he didn't want to go head to head with someone unless it was absolutely necessary.

Therefore, if he wanted to ask questions, he had to have a suitable opportunity. Otherwise, if he forced himself to ask, it would only produce the opposite effect.

Lin Yi only pushed the door open when there wasn't any movement from the opposite door. He went to the store downstairs to ask around, only to find out that there weren't any night food stalls nearby, only downtown.

It was a good thing that Lin Yi was fast-it took less than five minutes for him to get there, even when others took half an hour to get there on their e-bike. He'd be even faster if he didn't ask for directions.

As expected, the night food stall was indeed full of people. All kinds of people gathered here, drinking beer and eating barbecue, and bragging to vent their anger. If one was listening, one could definitely know everything as long as they stayed here for two hours.

There were all sorts of topics, from national affairs to neighborhood gossip-Lin Yi didn't even have to go talk to people, and he'd know everything he needed to know just by eating.

The first thing that could be confirmed was that there was no chaos in the secular world, at least there was no chaos in the social order on the surface. From this, it could be inferred that the cultivators hidden under the social order were not in great chaos either. Otherwise, if the chaos was really out of control, the social order would inevitably be affected, and not as calm as it was now.

In other words, these heavenly Dao stage experts didn't have any major conflicts with the mortal world's original cultivation forces. There were only two explanations for this. Either very few people knew of their existence, or these heavenly Dao stage experts had reached some kind of consensus with the hidden families and ancient sects, and weren't hostile to each other.

No matter which one it was, it wasn't a bad situation for Lin Yi. As long as there wasn't any big-scale conflict, it meant that Lingshan and the others weren't in any trouble yet. After all, there were so many people who were on the same side because of him, and if anything happened to any one of them, it'd alert everyone. The investigation Bureau and all the noble houses would be in chaos, and it wouldn't be as peaceful as it was now.

After coming to this conclusion, Lin Yi could finally relax a little. He still had to figure out the background and intentions of these Tiandao Masters, but at least it wasn't as urgent as he thought it would be. He could wait until he recovered his strength before making any plans.

Other than that, Lin Yi also understood where he was now. He was in a small county in the southwest, a County city called Xima. It was almost the entire Huaxia away from Donghai, and the distance wasn't an ordinary distance.

Moreover, the transportation in this place was not developed. There was no airport or train station. If he wanted to go far, he had to take a bus to the prefecture-level city on the side, where the airport or train station was.

Chapter 5025 The Ghost Is Here

However, this information was only for preparation—he wouldn't be leaving XI MA until he recovered to a certain level of strength.

He stayed at the food stall for two hours, and it was almost ten when he got back to the area. This place was cold and quiet during the day, and it was even quieter at night. There weren't many rooms in the area with their lights on, and even the more timid people wouldn't dare walk at night. Who knew if it was really haunted?

In a crowded place like the downtown area, ghosts were just a joke. But in this dark and quiet environment, once such a thought came to mind, no matter how bold a person was, they would be scared.

But Lin Yi didn't really care. He didn't believe in ghosts, and even if they did, they were just spirits to him. He had one himself, and he'd be scared if he ran into one.

He followed the dark stairs up to the fifth floor and subconsciously looked at the opposite door. If he could have a chance encounter with that cold girl, he might be able to get some information out of her as neighbors, but she must be in closed door Meditation Healing right now. It was unlikely for him to get anything out of her for a while.

Of course, this was only if they met by chance. Lin Yi wouldn't knock on the door on his own initiative. He could use the neighbor's name to hit on her, but with the cold girl's style, she might kill him if she was unhappy. That would be the opposite of what he wanted.

Lin Yi took out his keys and was about to open his door when the opposite door opened. The tall lady stood quietly in the room, coldly sizing Lin Yi up.

Lin Yi jumped-what was wrong with this cold girl, doing something like this in the middle of the night? he was the only one who was brave enough to do this-any other person who was thinking about the haunted house would've gotten a heart attack from the shock. Was this girl staring at him all the time?

The two of them looked at each other and did not speak. After a while, the tall woman asked, ""I heard that your house is haunted?"

"Ha?" Lin Yi blinked and shook his head,"it's probably just a rumor. I don't think there's anything wrong with it. Did it affect you?"

"No, I didn 't," The tall woman didn't say anything more and closed the door.

Lin Yi was left standing at the door, confused. He shook his head and chuckled before entering his room.

Lengniu's sudden move surprised Lin Yi, but he wasn't afraid that she'd see through him. Once his Yuan spirit solidified, not only would normal people not be able to see it, even normal practitioners wouldn't be able to see it. Unless it was someone with a special technique like sun Baimei, he didn't have to worry about his identity being exposed under normal circumstances.

Two familiar faces showed up at the entrance-one was an old man selling vegetables, and the other was a guy with a crew cut. It was the two scammers he'd met earlier that day.

"What the hell? I clearly put the money in my pocket. How did it disappear?" Little Flathead cursed.

"Did you offend some expert again and have them search us for all our money without us knowing? I told you that we can't show off in our line of work. You brat, once you have some money, you go to nightclubs and washrooms. There are so many people in those kinds of places. It's troublesome no matter who you offend. Now, I'm also in trouble with you!" The old man rebuked.

"Master, I've told you thousands of times that I only went to those nightclubs to grope. I didn't do anything else, so how could I have offended anyone? Could it be that you didn't keep your eyes open and lied to someone you shouldn't have?" The man with the crew cut complained.

"Bullshit! I've been in this line of work for decades, how could I be wrong? It must be you who caused this trouble. You don't even know that you've offended someone. You don't have any hair on your mouth, so you can't do things properly. You should be more careful!" The old man continued to criticize.

"Okay, okay, okay, it's all my fault. If I find out which bastard did such an immoral thing, I'll definitely lie to him!" The man with the crew cut teased.

"Just based on this sentence of yours, you'll still suffer losses in the future. You have no memory at all!" The old man gave the man with the crew cut a slap and said after a pause, ""Fortunately, I still have this job tonight. I won't be empty."

"F * ck, this doesn't cost much. It's boring." The buzzcut guy complained. The scam he had done during the day would get him 10000 Yuan, but this kind of work only cost him 300 or 200 yuan. He didn't even want to make this little money.

"You're just thinking of good things! Do you think it's so easy to catch one in a month? if you don't earn this little money at other times, you're going to be left with nothing. " The old man scolded.

"Yes, yes, yes. Food must be eaten bite by bite, and the road must be walked step by step. This should be fine, right? "He's obviously doing something like scamming, but he still looks so uncouth. Those who don't know would think that he's a peasant laborer ..."The crew cut guy shrank his neck helplessly.

"How can I lie if I'm not old-fashioned? Do you really think it's as high-tech as the movies you've watched? only an idiot would believe that!" The old man gave him a kick and urged, ""Hurry up, don't delay the work. After you finish this work, you still have to Scout the place tomorrow."

As they spoke, they walked into a house one after another and went straight up to the fifth floor, stopping in front of Lin Yi's room.

The two of them looked at each other, and the old man immediately began to stick black paper on his face. With his black clothes and the dim light around him, he suddenly became a ball of darkness. Standing in the shadows in the corner, if one didn't pay attention, one really wouldn't notice him. And if one did, it would be even worse. Meeting such a thing in the middle of the night would give one a heart attack!

The man with the crew cut was wearing a shoddy wig and a loose white robe. At the same time, he applied white foundation on his face and smeared a few lines of tomato juice on it. At first glance, it looked like blood. When he made a face, he was even scarier than an old man.

When everything was ready, the old man took out the key and opened the door quietly. The two of them sneaked in. Seeing that there was no one in the living room, they looked at each other and sneaked into the bedroom. Neither of them made any sound of footsteps, and the way they walked was extremely horrifying. At first glance, it looked like they were floating, and it really looked like a haunted place.

However, before they could start to scare people, they were scared out of their wits as soon as they entered the room. The crew cut guy almost fell to the ground, and the old man behind him was squeezed directly into the living room. Fortunately, the coffee table he hit was quite heavy, or else it would have made a lot of noise.

Chapter 5026 Fake Ghost Meets Real Ghost

"What are you doing!" The old man didn't see the situation inside clearly. He patted his flat-headed head and cursed silently.

The crew cut guy still had a horrified expression on his face. He turned his head and pointed into the room, indicating for the old man to take a look himself. In any case, he would not dare to take another step forward.

"It's so loud!" The old man cursed silently. He mustered his courage and poked his head into the room. He only took a glance before he retracted his head. Fortunately, his face was stuck with the black paper. Otherwise, it would definitely be paler than the crew cut.

"Did you see clearly? Is that thing inside even human?" The crew cut guy mouthed.

"Nonsense! Of course, it was a human! But this person is crazy, not sleeping in the middle of the night, but meditating on the bed. I've been in the martial world for decades, but I was almost scared to death by him!" The old man patted his chest with lingering fear.

"Holy shit! How dare he meditate to scare me? I'm going to scare him into a mental illness today!" The guy spat and sneaked in, ready to give Lin Yi a good scare when he came back out again. He pouted at the old man with a weird expression. "It's strange today,"

"What's wrong? I told you to do something and you're so hesitant!" The old man cursed. Under the crew cut guy's desperate signal, he looked inside again and was suddenly stunned. "It's actually that kid from earlier in the day. How could there be such a coincidence in this world?"

"What do we do?" The crew cut guy asked.

"What do you mean? He won't be able to recognize us anyway, and he's wearing makeup, so what's there to be afraid of?" The old man pushed the man with the crew cut and urged, ""Don't dawdle. Hurry up. You go first!"

"Why is it me again?" Buzzcut complained, but he still pretended to float in like a malicious spirit. After all, it didn't matter if he was cheated once or twice. He could only blame his own bad luck for hitting himself against the muzzle every time.

However, before he could take two steps this time, the crew cut guy immediately turned around and ran back as if he had seen a ghost. His face was even paler than before, and he was so frightened that he could not say a word for a long time.

"What now? Are you done or not!" The old man gave him a slap impatiently.

"No... No more ..." The little guy almost cried.

"What's gone?" The old man was stunned.

"He's gone!" The crewcut guy dragged the old man into the room, and the next moment, even the old man's expression became horrified. He had clearly seen the person meditating on the bed just now, but why was there no sign of him at all?

It could be explained that the room was large or had a lot of furniture. Most likely, the person had heard their movements and hidden. However, the problem was that the room was not large at all. There was only a bed and a table in it. There was nothing else. With a casual glance, the situation in the room could be seen clearly. There was no place to hide at all.

The problem was that this was what made people feel horrified. It had only been a short while since the beginning, and a living person had actually disappeared!

"Did that kid escape by jumping out of the window?" The man with the crew cut thought for a while and said. The two of them were guarding the door, so it was impossible for that person to slip out under their eyes. The only possibility was to jump through the window.

"This is the fifth floor, who would jump out of the window for no reason? Look at it yourself, the window was clearly locked from the inside and was never opened!" The old man shook his head.

"Then what's going on? Was I seeing things just now?" The crewcut guy was puzzled.

"You're seeing things, and I'm seeing things too. Is this possible?" The old man pouted and stuck his head in to take a look again. After confirming that there was nothing, his expression became serious. "Is there really a problem with this house? There might really be something dirty there ..."

"F * ck! Don't scare me, master. Boss Huang was the one who made up the story of killing someone with a hacksaw. It's not real. Besides, he's done it so many times in the past and nothing has ever happened. " The man with the crew cut was shocked.

"It's hard to avoid meeting ghosts if you walk too much at night. This old saying is not just made up, maybe there is such a thing? That boss Huang isn't a good person to begin with. What if someone really died in his house?" The old man looked around carefully. He had always been bold, but today, he was really a little scared.

"Then ... Then what should we do ..." The crew cut guy was already very scared. After hearing what he said, his heart trembled even more. His body was tightly pressed against the old man's side, and he didn't even dare to look around.

"What do we do now? Let's hurry up and get out of here, some people have human Dao and some ghosts have ghost Dao. Even if there's really something dirty, as long as we don't provoke it, it shouldn't take the initiative to provoke us. Let's go. " The old man didn't dare to stay for a moment longer. Before he finished speaking, he walked out. At first, he could still hold back a little, but then he walked faster and faster. Soon, it evolved into a desperate escape.

"Wait ... Wait for me!" The crewcut guy quickly ran after them. Once the thought of being haunted came to mind, it would quickly occupy their entire mind. It was already good enough that the two of them could turn around and run away at this time. What's more, some of them were directly scared to death by themselves. That would be an unjust death.

The two of them ran to the door like crazy. However, before the old man opened the door, the crew cut guy subconsciously glanced at the bathroom next to him. As a result, he almost fainted on the spot from fear!

When the two of them had just opened the door and entered, the bathroom next door was closed. But now, it was opened a crack. What was even more shocking was the scene they saw through the crack. There was actually a faint figure inside!

"Mother of God!" The crewcut guy was so scared that his soul was about to come out. He grabbed the old man and put him in front of him. The old man had been hurriedly opening the door, but he was caught off guard and lost his balance. He was directly thrown into the bathroom. Now, the scene inside could finally be seen clearly.

A ghostly figure was floating in the air-it was Lin Yi, who'd disappeared into thin air. His body felt like it wasn't there at all, and he didn't look like a normal person at all. He was floating silently in the bathroom, looking at the two with a blank expression.

The man with the crew cut was scared out of his wits. He hysterically opened the door with all his might and staggered away. In contrast, the old man looked calmer. After being thrown into the bathroom, he did not dare to look back at all. He followed the man with the crew cut and ran out of the room. However, just as he reached the stairs, he lost his footing and rolled down the stairs with the man.

Lin Yi couldn't help but chuckle at the scene. He waited until the two were out of sight before he returned to his room and closed the door.

Chapter 5027 Female Neighbor

To him, this was just a small interlude. Since these two were pretending to be ghosts to scare people, they had to be aware that they were scared by ghosts. They were just pretending to be ghosts, but Lin Yi was a real ghost-he was a real one.

The old man and little flat head rolled from the fifth floor to the fourth floor, but as soon as they got up, they heard Lin Yi's door closing and were scared out of their wits again. Their legs went soft and they rolled from the fourth floor to the third.

It had to be said that the two of them were in good health. After rolling two floors, they were still able to get up. They limped down the building and escaped to the entrance of the brightly lit community. Only then did they stop staggering and sit on the ground in a sorry state.

"Master, I'm really lucky to be able to escape this time. I won't come to this place again no matter how much money you give me." The crewcut boy panted heavily as he was still in shock.

"Let's go back to the countryside. From now on, I'll never come to xima again. It's too dangerous to move to another place." The old man also had a lingering fear.

"Yes, yes, yes, I'll never come to XI MA again!" The man with the crew cut nodded his head repeatedly. He took a deep breath and suddenly asked, ""Master, that was a ghost, right?"

"Nonsense, if he's not a ghost, then what else can he be?" The old man was convinced.

"But what did we encounter during the day? It can't be a ghost in broad daylight, right?" The man with the crew cut said, shrinking his neck.

"Who can say for sure what kind of things ghosts are? maybe they can come out and harm people in broad daylight?" The old man curled his lips and replied. Then, he was suddenly shocked. "The money on us disappeared for no reason. The problem should be with this ghost. It won't cling onto us, right?"

"F * ck! Master, don't scare me!" The crewcut boy hadn't even caught his breath before he jumped up in shock.

"Let's go, let's go. We can't stay in this place for another minute. Let's find a Taoist priest to help us. Otherwise, neither of us will survive if we get entangled by it!" The more the old man thought about it, the more afraid he became. He got up and left, ignoring the soreness all over his body.

"But what about boss Huang?" Buzzcut quickly caught up and asked.

"Who cares! If he has the ability, then he can subdue this ghost and let him have his own headache!" The old man scolded.

The boss Huang they were talking about was a small boss in this area, and the landlord of Lin Yi's apartment. He was lazy all day, and suddenly came up with a trick to trick people-pretending to be a ghost!

Although these tenants had only paid a small amount of rent, it was not enough for one to come and leave. He could earn tens of thousands of Yuan a month with this apartment. What business could be easier than this?

However, if he wanted to scare the people away as soon as possible, a rumor about the ghost was not enough. Sometimes, the ghost had to be real, so boss Huang hired the two scammers.

In the past six months, this small business of pretending to be a ghost had been doing very well. Although the money they made each time wasn't much, it was still a thousand or eight hundred Yuan each time. Together, it wasn't a small amount.

"Why haven't the two of them called yet?" Boss Huang had been waiting for the call since early in the morning. It was an agreement between him and the two scammers. As long as they scared the tenants away, he would transfer the money to them immediately. In the past, the two of them would always be very enthusiastic, but it was already noon today, and there was still no movement from them.

In the end, boss Huang could not wait any longer. He took the initiative to call the two scammers, but their phones were turned off.

"I knew these two scammers weren't reliable. I guess they've struck it rich somewhere and don't care about this small business that only costs two or three hundred, right? These two bastards!" Boss Huang finally realized what was going on. He started to make phone calls again while cursing. There were so many scammers and punks nowadays. If the two bastards didn't want to do this business, there would be plenty of people fighting to do it.

After scaring off the two scammers, Lin Yi spent the whole night training. He only left the house when it was almost noon. Xima wasn't that big, and he wanted to spend some time to look around and see if he could find any other Tiandao Masters other than this cold girl, especially those two who had fought before.

Although it was risky to do so, he had to find out his surrounding environment no matter what. As long as he was not too close to Sun Baimei, it should not be a problem to be careful.

Lin Yi had just walked out of his room when the door opposite him opened. The tall lady looked at Lin Yi and said, ""Was there a ghost last night?"

She lived next door and was an expert in the early stage of the foundation building realm. It would be strange if she didn't know about the big commotion caused by the two swindlers last night. After all, she was only injured, not seriously injured and unconscious.

"No, there were two people pretending to be ghosts, but they were scared away by me." Lin Yi said honestly.

The tall lady nodded and went down the stairs without saying anything, with Lin Yi following behind.

It had to be said that although this little cold girl was so cold that she kept people a thousand miles away, her temperament was really good. In addition, her figure was tall and slender, and her back view was pleasing to the eye.

However, Lin Yi was just admiring her. He wasn't the type of person who couldn't move his legs at the sight of beautiful women, not to mention that he had a high immunity to beautiful women now. Even if it was pleasing to the eye, it was just for the sake of looking at.

Just like that, the two walked to the entrance of the district in silence before parting ways. Lin Yi was heading to the Urban area, but the tall lady was heading in the opposite direction. Lin Yi couldn't help but wonder-where was this cold girl planning to go? was she going to the countryside?

He didn't ask too much, though. He went around xima and bought a phone charger. He had a solar power bank in the Jade space, but it wasn't very useful in the house.

Other than that, Lin Yi also bought a SIM card for his phone. His original card was out of service a long time ago, and it was probably deactivated by now. If he wanted to contact Lingshan and the others in the future, he'd have to get a new SIM card-he couldn't use public phones, after all.

Lin Yi couldn't help but sigh as he fiddled with the brand new phone in his hand. He'd bought the SIM card for a couple hundred Kuai for free, so the quality wasn't that great, of course. It was the cheapest Android phone on the market, but it was enough for Lin Yi to study for a while.

He still had Yushu's old clamshell phone in his Jade space. It had only been three years, and this phone couldn't get any more outdated. There were smartphones all over the streets now, and he had to admit that the speed of digital products "generation was too shocking, especially mobile phones!

Chapter 5028 Wasting A Heavenly Treasure

It was the cheapest Android phone, but it had all the functions it needed. Lin Yi spent the whole journey fiddling with it, and he didn't get tired of it even when he got back to his neighborhood. Even if he was a master like the founding Giants, he was still interested in this high-tech product.

Coincidentally, Lin Yi had just reached the entrance when he saw lengniu coming back with a big bag of medicine in her hand-it looked like it was for healing.

It turned out that the little cold girl had gone out to buy medicine, but why didn't she go to Urban area? could it be that she could buy rare medicinal herbs in the countryside that couldn't be bought in the city?

Lin Yi was suspicious, but the ingredients were all wrapped up in yellow paper-he couldn't tell what they were, and he couldn't just ask. He nodded at the cold girl as a greeting.

The tall woman glanced at him and nodded. Then, she walked directly into the community without any intention of speaking.

Lin Yi shrugged helplessly and followed behind her quietly, playing with his phone. They'd met twice today, and he thought he'd at least get to say a few words, but this cold girl kept pushing him away. What could he do?

The two went up the stairs in silence, one after the other, and when they were halfway there, the tall lady suddenly stopped for some reason. Lin Yi was busy fiddling with his phone, and almost bumped into her.

The guy was tall, and he was standing taller than Lin Yi-he'd be hitting his chest directly if he did, and that'd be a big problem. Luckily, Lin Yi reacted in time and stopped, leaving less than ten centimeters between them.

At such a close distance, Lin Yi could even smell the woman's scent, let alone see her clearly. Lin Yi couldn't help but feel embarrassed as he took two steps back, "What's wrong?"

"You secretly took photos of me? Do you believe I'll kill you?" The tall lady glared at Lin Yi.

"Ha?" Lin Yi blinked and followed the girl's line of sight-he realized that his phone was on camera mode, and he'd been fiddling with it the whole time-it really did look like he was taking pictures of this cold girl.

In particular, the cold chick was wearing a skirt that wasn't too long today. With their positions, he really had the opportunity to secretly take a picture of the bottom of the skirt. No wonder she misunderstood!

"Well ..." Lin Yi wanted to explain-if this cold girl thought he was taking pictures of her, he'd be lucky if they didn't fight.

Unfortunately, the other party didn't give him a chance to explain. He coldly warned, ""You'd better behave yourself, or don't blame me for being impolite, pervert!"

The tall lady left as soon as she finished speaking, leaving behind a depressed Lin Yi with a bitter smile on his face. He wanted to use this chance to chat a little and ask about the Tiandao Masters after they got to know each other better, but he was mistaken as a pervert. How was he supposed to chat?

However, he couldn't be blamed for this. He had been following behind her and fiddling with his phone. Moreover, he had turned on the camera mode. It would be strange if the other party didn't have any thoughts about it.

He could only smile bitterly and shake his head speechlessly. He waited until the girl entered her room before going back to his room. If he got too close, the cold girl might misunderstand him and even attack him. That would be really bad.

After returning to the room, a strong medicinal smell came from the opposite side very quickly. The medicine should be boiling.

Even if he wasn't a complete master, he was still a Mystic first level refiner. He didn't see the ingredients earlier, but he knew what they were with just a sniff.

"What a waste of such good herbs. I don't know where this cold girl got them from. You can't buy these things in the normal market. Does she have some special connections?" Lin Yi shook his head, confused. He could tell from the smell that these were the ingredients for the great recovery pill!

These herbs weren't very rare on the Sky Class Island, but in the common world where the Qi was extremely thin, they were priceless!

Even with Lin Yi's connections in the common world, it wasn't easy to get one, and this cold girl just went out for a walk and got it. She must have her own connections, maybe from some other Tiandao master.

As a refiner, Lin Yi's heart ached at the smell of the medicine. It was an occupational disease-any responsible refiner would hate this sort of waste, and he was no exception.

However, from the cold girl's point of view, this really wasn't a waste. After all, she wasn't an Alchemist, and she couldn't find an Alchemist friend to help her for the time being. What else could she do other than boil medicine and drink it?

It was just that although there was a certain effect when she decocted the medicinal herbs together, it was completely incomparable to the great cyclic pellet of the fourth grade. The medicinal effect was not even one-tenth of the original. It was not an exaggeration to say that it was a waste of God's gift.

If it wasn't for the misunderstanding earlier, Lin Yi might've come to help out and get some information out of them, but he didn't have that thought at all. He could imagine what would happen if he came to help-it wouldn't be good.

Lin Yi shook his head. It wasn't his money anyway, so there was no point in overthinking it.

For the next few days, Lin Yi focused on recovering his strength. It wasn't as good as he expected, but he was still Sky Class full master. He was much stronger than when he first teleported here, and he didn't have to be afraid of normal Foundation Masters anymore.

The past few days had been peaceful as no' ghost 'came to scare people again. The main reason was that boss Huang could not find a suitable replacement at the moment. Although there were many scammers nowadays, most of them were not as professional as the old man and the crew cut guy. Acting as a ghost to scare people was a test of one's acting skills. If they found an unreliable scammer, it would be a great deal of trouble if they were exposed halfway through.

Of course, even if boss Huang did find a replacement, it would be useless to Lin Yi. At most, he could scare them again. If even the old man and the guy with the crew cut were scared witless, it would only be worse for the other scammers. They might really lose their minds after Lin Yi's prank.

On top of that, Lin Yi would go to the food stall every day after he recovered his strength. To him, this was the best place to understand the situation in Xima. No matter where the wind blew, this place would be heard very quickly. Just like the haunted house he rented, people always talked about it.

Chapter 5029 Approaching The Plan

However, Lin Yi didn't hear any valuable information these past few days. But looking at it from another perspective, no information was still information. This at least meant that the Tiandao Masters weren't doing anything big around Xima.

Otherwise, if something were to really happen, even if normal people couldn't reach their level, there'd still be some rumors and rumors going around-Lin Yi would be able to figure out the truth from those.

Since there wasn't anything here, it meant that these Tiandao Masters weren't in Xi Ma city, or they chose to be low-key like Lengniu. There were two possibilities, and Lin Yi guessed that the latter was the higher up.

Putting the others aside, Sun Baimei would definitely not let him go easily. Even if he was not in the city Urban area Xima, he would definitely be in the surrounding area, waiting for him to give himself away.

With that, Lin Yi's focus was inevitably back to the cold girl-he'd have to start from her if he wanted to get more information.

"If only little Jiu was still here." Lin Yi suddenly thought of Tu Ranran. In the past, no matter what information he wanted to know, she would always be the one to help him investigate. In this aspect, Tu Ranran was a true expert, much more professional than Lin Yi, who was only half-assed. It was a pity that she was unconscious like the other inheritors, so she couldn't help at all.

But while tu Ranran couldn't help, Lin Yi thought of another way-the supernatural Investigation Bureau.

With so many Tiandao Masters appearing in the common world, no matter how well-hidden they were, Lin Yi believed that the investigation Bureau would be able to find some clues with their various channels. They'd definitely have more information than what he'd just projected.

Although Lin Yi didn't want to contact Lingshan and the others yet, it didn't mean that he couldn't get the information from the investigation Bureau! The supernatural Investigation Bureau had their own website, and it'd been three years. Lin Yi wouldn't have thought of this if he didn't have a smartphone that allowed him to access the internet.

He entered the link and entered the login page-he found that his account and password worked just as well, and his phone successfully jumped to the internal page of the website.

"As expected!" Lin Yi's eyes brightened at first glance-the headline was an emergency warning, and that was what he was concerned about.

"According to the latest information, there have been a large number of high-level cultivators moving around recently. Their specific origins are unknown. Be careful and alert. If there is any news, report it immediately. You will be rewarded."

This short headline confirmed Lin Yi's speculations-the practitioners of the secular world hadn't started a conflict with those unknown Tiandao Masters yet, and they'd probably only gotten some clues so far. They hadn't really fought yet, to be exact.

Otherwise, the headlines wouldn't just say that he was a high-level cultivator of unknown origin, but that he was an expert of the heavenly Dao stage!

Lin Yi looked at the time of the announcement-it was a week ago, which was three days before he was projected here. This meant that these Tiandao Masters only appeared recently, and they hadn't done anything big yet. He couldn't tell what their purpose was, and he didn't know if they'd break the rules of the common world.

Other than this emergency announcement, there was no other accurate information about this on the website. It could be seen that although there were many experts of the heavenly Dao stage who had suddenly appeared, they were all very secretive, organized, and disciplined. Even the supernatural Investigation Bureau could not really grasp their whereabouts.

Therefore, one thing that could be concluded was that these people were by no means ordinary individual cultivators. They must have come from a common secret organization. As for what kind of secret organization it was, no one knew.

There was no way he could just rely on external investigation to get the answer-the investigation Department would've done it long ago if it were useful. There was only one way to get the answer from these people, and that was to get it out of them-the foundation establishment lengniu next door was a ready-made target.

Now that things had come to this point, finding out the background and intentions of these Tiandao Masters wasn't just Lin Yi's problem alone-it concerned all the practitioners in the common world. Even if it was just for song Lingshan and the others, Lin Yi had to find a way to figure this out, and he had to resolve it before returning to Sky Class Island. Otherwise, he wouldn't be able to cultivate in peace even if he stayed there.

Lin Yi quietly released his spirit sense to observe the lengniu's movements. He wasn't afraid of her sensing anything-his spirit was only sky Class full phase, but his spirit sense was much stronger. Even if it was twenty times weaker due to the projection, it wasn't something a mere foundation level master could sense.

The reason why he did this was not to peep, but to create a more convenient opportunity for them to meet again. After all, there was the misunderstanding from last time. However, it was impossible to build a good relationship if things went on naturally. He had to find a way to take the initiative to court her.

Lin Yi wasn't a master in love, and to be honest, he didn't know how to win a woman's heart, but even if he'd never tasted pork, he'd still seen a pig run. He'd just do what an idol drama would do, and it didn't matter if he didn't do it well. He wasn't going after her anyway, he just wanted to build a good relationship with her.

Lin Yi thought hard for a long time and finally came up with the first chance encounter-buying breakfast.

He knew that most of the cultivators still retained the habits of ordinary people, such as working early and resting late at night, or eating three meals a day. Those who were extremely powerful were already very indifferent to these habits, but those who were not powerful, especially the more emotional female cultivators, would always maintain these habits.

The cold girl was only in the early Foundation Stage-she fit the criteria perfectly, and she was injured as well. People tended to be more sensitive when they were injured, and they'd pay more attention to things they were familiar with-Lin Yi was sure that she'd eat breakfast.

It was probably because she was recuperating these past few days that it wasn't convenient for her to go out. Lin Yi didn't notice her buying breakfast, but this was a good opportunity for him to court her. Buying breakfast for girls wasn't a very technical thing, but it was very effective.

The sky brightened, and Lin Yi noticed that the lengniu next door seemed to be going out. He quickly pushed the door open and came in, meeting her face to face.

Chapter 5030 Continuous Encounters

"Such a coincidence? Are you going out to buy breakfast?" Lin Yi greeted with a smile.

The tall girl didn't even look at him, much less respond. She turned around and went downstairs, leaving Lin Yi with a cold back view.

"Ugh ..." Lin Yi rubbed his nose awkwardly. They didn't say anything when they met before, but at least they nodded. Now, they couldn't even get this treatment. It seemed like the effects of the misunderstanding from last time were still there. It wasn't easy to improve their relationship in a short time, but Lin Yi had no other choice. For the sake of song Lingshan and the others, he could only bite the bullet.

The two went down one after another, and the tall lady didn't go to buy breakfast as Lin Yi thought. She went straight in the direction they went last time.

Could he be buying medicine again? Lin Yi guessed-he'd thought that she'd be gone for at least a long time like last time, but the cold girl only took fifteen minutes this time, with a bag of herbs.

Lin Yi walked in front of her, and when he opened the door with the key, the tall lady followed him. He learned from last time-if he followed her upstairs, he'd be misunderstood as peeking at her skirt again, and he'd die of depression.

"Hey, you haven't had breakfast, right? I bought an extra set for you." Lin Yi turned to lengniu, who was also using her keys to open the door.

The tall woman was stunned for a moment. She looked at the breakfast in his hand in surprise and shook her head, ""No need,"

"You're welcome, I just bought it on the way. About last time ..." Lin Yi didn't finish his sentence before lengniu closed the door, not wanting to talk to him anymore.

"What a personality." Lin Yi could only smile bitterly-this cold girl sure wasn't easy to get close to.

But since he'd made up his mind, he wasn't going to back down so easily. Since he didn't want it earlier, he'd have dinner.

In the evening, a delivery man suddenly knocked on the door opposite. No one answered at first, so he knocked a few more times before the door was finally opened.

"What are you doing?" The tall woman looked at the deliveryman coldly.

"Take ... Take-out." The delivery man was obviously stunned, and his tongue was no longer working.

"What take-out?" The tall woman looked at the thing in his hand in confusion and didn't react for a moment.

"Didn't you order takeaway?" The delivery man was stunned. He carefully checked the room number and asked, ""I didn't remember wrongly ..."

Lin Yi's voice came from behind her, smiling apologetically. "I'm sorry, I ordered some takeaway. I just moved in and I'm not familiar with the place, so I left the wrong room number. "

"So that's how it is. It's 78 in total." The delivery man turned around and passed the food to Lin Yi, his eyes sneaking glances at the tall lady beside him. You wouldn't find a beauty like her on the streets.

Even after Lin Yi paid for the food, the delivery man was still reluctant to leave. He looked back at Lin Yi three times as he walked up the stairs, wanting to take out his phone and snap a few pictures. Unfortunately, Lin Yi and the tall lady were looking at him, so he didn't have the chance.

The tall lady looked at the food in Lin Yi's hands, curious, but didn't ask anything. She turned around and was about to go back to her room.

"Wait a minute, I'm really sorry to disturb you. I just happened to have ordered takeout for two people. How about we eat together?" Lin Yi suggested.

"No need," The tall lady closed the door after speaking, not giving Lin Yi a chance to speak.

Cold chick is cold chick! Lin Yi smiled bitterly-he'd been prepared for this. Not eating breakfast, not eating dinner ... As expected, water couldn't get in.

But then again, even if he just wanted to get close to an ordinary girl from the secular world, it was not possible to succeed by simply bringing breakfast and dinner. It was not so easy in this world, not to mention that this was an expert in the early Foundation Stage.

This seemingly ordinary method had a key to it, and that was patience.

If one couldn't persevere, then this was undoubtedly a stupid method without any technical content. But if one could do this, then it was great wisdom that appeared to be slow. In the end, it would definitely be effective.

People's hearts were made of flesh, especially girls who were generally soft-hearted. Even if they were very wary at the beginning, as long as they persisted for a long time, this person would naturally leave a deep impression in her heart, and this impression was most likely not bad. After all, no one really hated people who tried to please them. It only depended on whether they liked it or not.

In order to get to the bottom of these Tiandao Masters as soon as possible, Lin Yi decided to go all out this time. If the first or second time didn't work, then the third or fourth time. He didn't believe that he couldn't break this ice block of lengniu with his face.

Of course, he was not shy to begin with. Although he had never done such a thing before, it was just that he had never thought of doing it. This time, he had a strong motive, so of course, he was willing to go all out.

One day, two days, three days ... Lin Yi used his spirit to spy on her, creating the perfect chance for a chance encounter every time and bringing her three meals as usual. He didn't know anything about this cold girl, let alone her preferences, so he could only work on her food.

After a while, the tall lady found it strange. It was normal to bump into each other once or twice since they lived opposite each other, but they bumped into each other every day. It was strange.

What the hell was this person doing? Could it be that he had been staring at her room all day long?

The tall woman was puzzled. She couldn't think of any other explanation. After all, she couldn't say that it was a pure encounter. This was fate ...

But even if she had her suspicions, she wouldn't ask. Every time Lin Yi tried to please her, she'd reject him coldly, just like before.

Lin Yi, on the other hand, was starting to panic. The method itself wasn't a problem, but if things continued like this, it might not even work in a month.

The cold girl could afford it, but Lin Yi couldn't afford it himself. A Yuan spirit couldn't stay in the mortal world for too long, and if he just spent a few months on the cold girl, he wouldn't be able to do anything else. Even if it was to get information, he couldn't do it like this.

After thinking for a long time, Lin Yi decided to change his mind. Three meals a day was still a must, but he also had to find an opportunity to speed up the process. If he didn 't, how long would it take to get information out of him if he couldn't even talk to him?
