Chapter 5031 Someone Else To Chase

Lin Yi quickly came up with an idea. It was already night time, and the sky was completely dark. A light blue arc flashed between his fingers, and he heard a crisp "pa" sound from the next room, followed by the sound of tables and chairs crashing. It must've been lengniu who got a shock.

Lin Yi immediately went to knock on the door. "What happened?"

"I'm ... I'm fine. " The tall woman's voice was obviously flustered, but she didn't come to open the door for a while, and it was unknown what she was dawdling for.

Lin Yi blinked-he'd only used the lightning to break the lights, and didn't do anything else. At most, the room was a little darker-was there a need for this lengniu to be so flustered?

He subconsciously sent out his spirit sense to check the situation, but immediately retracted it after discovering the situation inside. Lin Yi's expression was very awkward-so this cold girl didn't buy all these herbs just to boil medicine, she also used a medicinal bath, and now she was soaking in the medicine VAT.

It was just a glimpse through His Spirit sense, but it was much clearer than the naked eye. Lin Yi almost had a nosebleed. This cold girl was usually cold and unapproachable, but he didn't expect her to have a completely different temperament after taking off her clothes. This strong contrast made his heart itch, and no man could resist it.

Lin Yi didn't think of himself as a dirty person, and he wouldn't use his spirit sense to spy on people for no reason. It'd never been this awkward before, and this really was an accident. Fortunately, this lengniu was only in the early Foundation Stage, and her spirit sense wasn't even at the beginner level. She wouldn't have noticed him at all, or she'd have rushed out to kill him.

After waiting awkwardly for a moment, the door finally opened a crack. Although the tall woman was wearing clothes and wrapped up tightly from head to toe, her body was still wet from just coming out of the bath, making people unable to help but let their imagination run wild.

"Why?" The tall lady frowned as she looked at Lin Yi's expression.

"Oh, I heard some movement in your room. Did the light bulb explode?" Lin Yi asked.

"It seems so." The tall lady nodded, but didn't want Lin Yi to go in and help her. She turned to close the door.

"The light bulb in my room broke two days ago, so I bought a few more to change it. Why don't I change it for you? it's so dark and inconvenient, what do you think?" Lin Yi said quickly.

"Well ..." The tall lady hesitated. She didn't want Lin Yi to go into her room, but it was troublesome without light. She was only in the middle of the medicinal bath, and she couldn't clean her wound in the dark, could she?"Alright, then."

"Don't worry, it'll be quick. " Lin Yi finally entered the room. He was very familiar with the room. He used his spirit sense to check it a few times every day to create chance encounters, but this was the first time he actually walked in.

It was the same as his suite-two rooms and one living room. Other than some basic furniture, there was nothing else. It was simple and clean, and it didn't have the warm and cute feeling of a girl's room at all. However, Lin Yi would find it weird if she were to act like a normal girl with her cold personality.

The moonlight shone in through the window, and Lin Yi could roughly see what was going on in the room. He pretended to look for a switch and tried it out before saying, "Are the light bulbs of your lights all broken? It's the same for me last time. The voltage in this place is unstable due to the new circuit. This is the bad thing about the new community, but it's not a big problem. I just need to change the light bulb. "

"Voltage?" The tall woman was stunned.

"Yeah, you don't think so?" Lin Yi looked at him.

"I don't know much about this." The tall woman shook her head. She was obviously a little curious, but she didn't ask.

Lin Yi nodded silently-she wasn't from the common world at all, after all. She'd know something as basic as voltage otherwise, and her reaction was pretty much the same as the Sky Class Island natives.

Lin Yi wanted to use this opportunity to chat a little more, but the tall lady interrupted him, "Then hurry up and change."

"Alright," he said. Lin Yi could only force the words back into his mouth as he smiled bitterly. This cold girl really didn't want to talk to him.

He switched on a light bulb and the room lit up again. Lin Yi turned to lengniu and saw a rare look of surprise on her face, but it quickly became cold again when she noticed his gaze.

"Alright, there's no problem now." Lin Yi said with a smile.

"Thank you," she said. The tall lady's expression was much gentler than before-at least she didn't see Lin Yi as a pervert anymore, but that was it. They were still miles away from getting closer to Lin Yi's expectations.

"It's nothing. It's what I should do. " Lin Yi was a little embarrassed-it was his duty, of course. He was the one who broke the light bulb on purpose, after all, and he wasn't supposed to be the one to change it.

However, after he said this, the tall woman misunderstood him. Thinking of the constant coincidences these days, her face, which was rarely a little better, suddenly turned into an impatient expression that kept strangers away. She immediately said, "Then I won't be sending you off."

"Ha?" Lin Yi blinked, looking at her with a weird expression. This cold girl was too good at kicking him out after changing the light bulbs, not even giving him water to drink? If he really left like this, he didn't even say a few words, and it was even more nonsense to get closer to him. Wouldn't he be doing all this for nothing?

The tall woman just looked at him coldly, without any intention of keeping the guest. Not to mention that she originally had this kind of cold temperament, even if she wasn't, a girl couldn't make a man stay in her room for long at night, not to mention that she was about to continue soaking in the medicinal bath.

"Actually ..." Lin Yi had to force himself to explain what happened last time. Even if he couldn't get closer to her, he had to at least clear up the misunderstanding of her taking photos of him. Otherwise, he'd never be able to talk to this cold girl again.

"You don't have to say anything. You can go after someone else. We're not the same. Don't waste your time, or you'll regret it!" The tall woman said directly.

Lin Yi was completely stunned-he'd done all this just to get close to her, so it'd be easier for him to get information out of her in the future, but he'd never thought of chasing her!

Lin Yi was still in a daze when the man pushed him out and closed the door behind him.

Chapter 5032 The Flower Is Innocent

Lin Yi didn't know whether to laugh or cry as he stood at the door, speechless. The words, however, came back to him-he could use her as an excuse to get close to her!

Speaking of which, wasn't there such a small thing between men and women? in the face of a beautiful woman like this cold girl, a strange man like him trying so hard to get close to her was the most logical reason to pursue her. Otherwise, people would instead suspect that he had ulterior motives. In that case, he would be more vigilant, and it would be harder to get information out of her.

Moreover, it was related to the background of these Tiandao stage experts. If they were just ordinary friends, the cold girl might not have told them. Only after she became one of them could they really get the most detailed truth.

But even though Lin Yi had a lot of female friends, he'd never really wooed a girl before. Ever since he left the mountain, the only one he'd really wooed was Tang Yin, and that was only half-actively, too. She'd always just let things happen naturally, and he didn't spend so much effort to get her back ...

Lin Yi admitted that he had no experience or talent in this area, but in order to figure out the truth, he didn't have a better choice. He could only grit his teeth and make an exception.

Although she had her own motives, it was a good thing that this cold girl was also quite beautiful. She was cold and unapproachable, and it was difficult to get close to her for a while. However, she had a different kind of beauty that made one's heart itch. Even if she was rejected when she pursued her, at least she was pleasing to the eye and not annoying.

"It's decided then. " Lin Yi smiled after making up his mind. He had nothing else to do other than recovering his strength anyway, and he couldn't just focus on recovering his strength. He had to have a balance or it'd be the opposite. The two lived opposite each other, too, so he had nothing to do anyway.

This way, Lin Yi became even more attentive than before. In the past, he'd have to do everything possible to create a chance encounter in order not to make the other suspicious, but now that he was obviously going to pursue her, he didn't even need to create a chance encounter-he could just directly court her.

The next morning, Lin Yi went to knock on the opposite door again. If the door didn't open, he would knock a second time, a third time. He was thick-skinned enough to do that.

Finally, the tall lady opened the door and looked at the flowers in Lin Yi's hand with a strange expression, "What are you doing?"

"I'm giving it to you. " Lin Yi, on the other hand, found it strange. Wasn't it a must for a man to give flowers and chase a beauty? it was a natural thing to do, and it was a must.

It was written in the book of picking up girls that if you gave flowers, it didn't mean that you would be able to win the heart of a beauty, but if you didn't give flowers, then you would have no hope in this life.

Lin Yi's words only made the tall lady even more confused, "Why are you giving me this? This is also breakfast? Do you guys eat flowers?"

Although it was said that flowers were grass, and since humans could eat grass, they could naturally eat flowers as well, but this was too strange, right? Besides, he had been in the secular world for so many days, yet he had never seen anyone eat flowers in public.

Lin Yi didn't know what to say-this wasn't the right thing to say. Who would eat flowers for breakfast?

But he quickly came to his senses-this girl wasn't from the common world, so it wasn't strange that she wasn't familiar with things like this. At least on Sky Class Island, no one gave flowers. The more high-end pursuers gave elixirs or spirit jades, but Lin Yi really hadn't seen anyone give flowers in public.

After all, flowers were only beautiful and had no practical value. Giving flowers was probably a custom unique to the secular world. The cultivation world had always been economical, and the definition of romance was completely different from the secular world.

With that thought, Lin Yi smiled. "As the saying goes, fresh flowers should be paired with beautiful women. The most beautiful flower should naturally be given to the most beautiful person."

To be honest, if he didn't need to get to this cold girl as soon as possible to figure out the situation, he wouldn't even be able to say something so mushy. This was all the advice he'd learned from the book of picking up girls he'd searched online last night, and he'd memorized it all.

Lin Yi was just about to praise the girl for her amazing skills when the tall girl threw the flower into the trash can at the corner of the stairs. "Ridiculous. I don't need it."

"Uh ..." Lin Yi thought about it. The book of ways to pick up girls was prepared for this situation as well, and there were lines to follow. "Why do you have to do this? the flowers are innocent."

"The flower is innocent?" The tall woman was stunned again, and then said, ""What does this have to do with being guilty or not guilty? flowers don't have life. They're not as valuable as any herb. You're really strange!"

"No, no. From the perspective of modern biology, plants and animals are both living beings. In other words, flowers are living beings just like us humans." Lin Yi corrected.

"Modern biology? What's that?" The tall lady was even more surprised now-she looked at Lin Yi as if he was crazy. Was there something wrong with this guy's brain?

"Ugh ..." Lin Yi only just realized what a stupid thing he'd done. He'd tried to discuss scientific problems with the Sky Class Island natives when he was bored, and they'd fought for ten days and ten nights, and neither of them could convince the other. After all, their world views were different from each other, and things like that couldn't be explained in a short time.

And even if this cold girl didn't grow up on a Sky Class Island, she probably didn't grow up much different from one. Discussing modern biology with her was like playing the piano to a cow.

Alright, the book of picking up girls that he had memorized the whole night was for nothing now. He didn't buy it at all!

Lin Yi felt as if he'd returned to Sky Class Island-they couldn't understand common world language at all, and some of their logic was the complete opposite. If they kept on fighting like this, they'd have to be prepared to fight for the rest of their lives.

Seeing that Lin Yi was at a loss for words, the tall lady continued,"I told you last night that you don't have to waste your time on me. I'm different from you. It's impossible for us to be together, so don't try to please me anymore. That's all I have to say. You're on your own now."

With that, Lin Yi got the door shut again as expected-he'd gotten used to it by now, and didn't find it strange.

Chapter 5033 Two More Ghosts

Lin Yi sighed, a hand on his forehead. It seemed that if he wanted to get this cold girl, he wouldn't have to use all the fancy sweet nothings from the book of picking up girls-he had to use the practitioner's Arts, but the practitioner's Arts were easy to find on the internet. Who would he ask for the practitioner's book of picking up girls?

Lin Yi suddenly realized that he could only learn from those idiots. How did Ren Zhongyuan, Bao zuoliang, and the other idiots get Huo yudie and Wang Xinyan back then? And Xu lingchong, how did he get on Shangguan LAN 'er's good side?

Thinking about it carefully, these people, in addition to all kinds of fawning to make people familiar, seemed to give things to others. Of course, at the level of Shangguan LAN 'er and the others, ordinary spiritual jades were definitely not worth it. What was left were all kinds of rare spiritual herbs. If he took a level Seven beautifying pill to chase a girl, he was afraid that any other girl would be able to succeed.

Lin Yi had everything those idiots had, and even things they couldn't get. He had a lot of good stuff in the Jade space, and even if he didn't have it, he could still make it at the last minute. His medicine storage was already starting to take shape anyway.

But the problem was, how were they going to give these things out? This was different from fresh flowers and breakfast-he needed a proper excuse to give it away, after all. He couldn't just give it out for no reason-normal people wouldn't have these things in their hands, and they wouldn't give it away so easily either. The cold girl didn't know that Lin Yi was a practitioner, and a powerful figure at that.

If he suddenly took it out, he would definitely be shocked, but it was hard to say what kind of reaction he would have after the shock. Maybe the cold girl would treat him as an enemy of unknown origin, and that would not be fun.

Lin Yi didn't know what to do-breaking someone's lightbulb wasn't the only thing he needed to do, after all. It wasn't easy to find the right opportunity, and he had no choice but to go with his old plan-sending flowers and food to lengniu every day. He knew it wouldn't do much, but at least he'd get familiar with her, and he'd be able to achieve some subtle effect.

Sure enough, this old-fashioned way of trying to please the cold girl didn't fall for it at all. From the beginning to the end, there wasn't a single time that she didn't refuse to enter.

But Lin Yi didn't care about that-he still paid his respects three times a day, in the morning, in the afternoon, and in the evening.

Lin Yi was still a little worried about the guy's cold personality-what if he really pissed him off and made him angry?

But what surprised Lin Yi was that the lengniu was still unmoved by his solicitations, but her attitude seemed to have softened a little. At least she wasn't as cold and unapproachable as before, and her expression turned from indifference to helplessness every time she saw Lin Yi.

Lin Yi didn't know if this change was good or bad, but he couldn't just give up halfway-he had to do it, even if it wasn't.

But he couldn't keep going like this-it'd been ten whole days since the spirit projection, and Lin Yi's spirit body had recovered from Sky Class late phase to Foundation early phase. It wasn't as good as he'd expected, but it wasn't too satisfactory.

If Nantian Aurora Polaris knew about this, he would be so depressed that he would vomit blood. What the f * ck did he want after recovering to the early stage of the foundation establishment realm in ten days? However, this was only because Lin Yi had the Jade. It wouldn't be so easy for anyone else.

The problem was that lengniu's attitude had only changed from cold to helpless, and Lin Yi still couldn't talk to her. There hadn't been a suitable opportunity for him to take things like herbs and jades to go further, and he'd be lying to himself if he said he wasn't worried at all.

Unfortunately, it was useless to be anxious. He could only continue to wait. In the end, he did not expect that the opportunity did not come, but two ghosts came instead.

Of course, they were two fake ghosts just like the old man and the crew cut last time. It took boss Huang a long time to finally find two replacements. They were also swindlers who had been in the underworld for many years. They patted their chests loudly when they talked about this, and they looked much more reliable than the old man and the crew cut.

However, boss Huang did not expect that he would be tricked as well. The two men were not professional scammers like the old man and the crew cut. They were just two street punks who knew nothing about trickery. They thought they were just trying to scare people, but little did they know that there were many other tricks up their sleeves.

They couldn't even open the door properly, let alone scare Lin Yi away. They had the keys boss Huang gave them, but they couldn't even find the keyhole after spending a long time studying it ...

"F * ck, what kind of broken door is this? why isn't there even a keyhole?" One of the guys who was pretending to be black impermanence couldn't help but complain.

"Shh!" The other white impermanence quickly covered his mouth and scolded, ""You're too much! We're pretending to be ghosts to scare people. Can you speak so loudly? aren't you afraid of waking people up?"

"What's wrong with waking him up? he'll still be scared to death when he opens the door and sees the black and white ghosts." Heiwuchang laughed and turned to look at white impermanence. ""To be honest, even I'm scared of this outfit. Will he die from this?"

"Do you think other people are as timid as you? you don't even dare to walk alone in the night path. If you can't even scare yourself, who else can you scare?" White impermanence pouted.

"Seriously, do you think this house is really haunted? I heard that this district was an abandoned crematorium, which is why so many houses can't be sold. This place is evil. " Black impermanence looked around. The lights in the corridor were sound-controlled, and they were turned off. The light around him was dim. If he was alone, he would have been scared to death.

"I heard rumors that the crematorium is in the West and this is in the East. How could you believe that kind of nonsense?" White impermanence snorted, but after a pause, he said, ""I heard that this place used to be a mass grave. Many bones were dug out when the house was built, and even the police were alerted."

"F * ck, yours is even scarier!" Black impermanence's heart trembled.

"Alright, don't scare yourself. If there's really a ghost, why would that boss Huang ask us to pretend to be ghosts? Hurry up and find the lock, I want to smash the door!" White impermanence cursed.

The two of them went up and studied it for half a day-even normal people would've been woken up by them, let alone practitioners like Lin Yi!

Chapter 5034 Wasted Again

But Lin Yi didn't plan on opening the door-he'd be scaring the hell out of them when they came in. He'd be sure to leave a shadow in their hearts.

"I found it! He found it! Damn, what kind of lock is this? the keyhole is on the doorknob. Who can see it in such a dark place?" The two of them finally managed to insert the key into the keyhole, and they were overjoyed.

However, before the two of them pushed the door open, black impermanence suddenly felt that something was wrong. He suddenly grabbed white impermanence.

"What are you doing? You scared me to death!" The White impermanence was frightened by him.

"No, don't you think our shadows are a little strange ..." Black impermanence's voice was trembling.

"What's strange about it?" The White impermanence pouted, but when he looked closely, he trembled and stammered, ""This ... Why are there three ... Shadows ..."

They couldn't be blamed for being suspicious. They already had a guilty conscience, and now that three figures had appeared on the door, their first reaction was naturally to think in that direction.

"What ... What should we do?" Black impermanence vaguely felt something behind him. He was so scared that he didn't dare to look back.

"Should we run? This place is too strange!" White impermanence didn't dare to continue holding on. He turned around and tried to escape.

However, before the two of them could turn around, a cold woman's voice suddenly came from behind them. ""Is it very strange?"

"Ah!" The two of them were scared out of their wits. Even the White impermanence was scared out of their wits. The black impermanence simply slammed his head on the door handle, and his head was bleeding.

"What are you guys doing?" It was still that icy cold woman's voice.

"We ... We ..." The White impermanence didn't know how to answer. He bit the bullet and peeked behind him. Sure enough, he saw the vague outline of a woman in white. It was particularly eerie in the dark environment. He was so scared that he peed his pants. He didn't manage to pretend to be a ghost, but he had met a real ghost!

Black impermanence fell to the ground and was right next to The Woman in White. He grabbed her while struggling and suddenly sat up in surprise. ""There's a body temperature!"

"What? Body temperature? Then it's not a ghost, but a living person?" The White impermanence finally reacted. He straightened his back and said, ""I thought of it just now. If it's really a female ghost, how could there be a shadow?"

As the two of them moved, the voice-controlled light at the entrance of the corridor lit up. The appearance of The Woman in White was clearly seen by the two of them. How was this a female ghost? she was clearly an unparalleled beauty that you couldn't find even with a lantern!

"Oh my, and you're a beauty!" Black impermanence got up from the ground and looked at the woman's body with a perverted smile. He gestured and said, "'Pretty girl, you're quite tall. Are you a model? It's not good to come out and act like a ghost to scare people in the middle of the night. Look at my head, it's injured. Tell me, how are you going to compensate me?"

"How? Of course we'll accompany you like that. Don't be afraid, pretty girl. Although we're from the underworld, we still know how to be tender to women. How about we take you out to have some fun? don't be afraid, it's just a casual trip. " The White impermanence laughed and reached out to pinch the woman's chin.

However, before he could reach his chin, a slap came without any warning. With a bang, white impermanence fell to the ground, his mind blank.

Black impermanence looked at his brother in a daze. His first reaction was not to take revenge. Instead, he was curious why this pretty girl was so strong.

"You actually dared to attack! Do you know who I am? I'm the pheasant of xima South Street. Even the brothers in the underworld have to call me master chicken respectfully when they see me. Little girl, do you want to die?" White impermanence staggered to his feet and was about to get angry, but another slap came and he fell again.

This time, the White impermanence was completely stunned and couldn't get up for a long time. The black impermanence was scared out of his wits. Seeing The Woman in White looking at him, he quickly covered his face and begged, "'Don't hit me! Don't hit me!"

"If he's a pheasant, what are you?" The white-robed woman suddenly asked.

"I ... I'm baopi ..." Black impermanence covered his face.

"The skin?" The Woman in White was stunned.

"It's just that the skin is longer there ..." Black impermanence explained carefully.

The Woman in White thought for a moment before she understood. Her face blushed and she immediately kicked the black and white ghosts down the stairs. "Shameless pervert!"

The two rolled away into a ball and disappeared without a trace. The lady in white turned to look at Lin Yi's door and shook her head, "Seeing that you're a good person, I'll help you this time. It's also to return the favor you've done these days. Sigh, so annoying, so this is how men in the secular world chase girls. It's so strange. "

The Woman in White was the cold girl who lived opposite, and she was about to go back to her room when Lin Yi's door opened.

"Thank you," Lin Yi looked at her with a smile. He thought that this cold girl was cold and unfeeling, but it was only now that he realized that she had a heart. Even without her help, he could still scare the two punks away, and they'd probably be in a worse state than they were now. But since this cold girl helped him first, it was still a favor.

"Ah!" The tall lady was shocked-Lin Yi was scarier than she was, even though he didn't say anything."Why did you come out?"

"It's impossible for me not to be woken up by such a loud noise, right?" Lin Yi said with a smile.

"That's true. " The tall woman nodded and suddenly asked nervously,""You didn't hear what I just said, did you?"

"I didn't hear you say it was strange." Lin Yi said with a half-smile.

"That's good. I'm going back. " The tall lady let out a breath of relief, but realized something was wrong after taking two steps. She turned to Lin Yi, her expression unreadable."You heard everything?"

"Yes, you think it's strange, but I think what you said is even stranger. Are you not from the secular world?" Lin Yi asked.

The tall woman was silent for a moment, and then said seriously,""You shouldn't ask about these things, and you can't ask about them either. I advise you to forget what I said, or else you'll get yourself killed!"

"Is it that serious?" Lin Yi wanted to use this chance to get to the bottom of the matter, but the lengniu closed the door right after finishing her sentence.

A good opportunity was wasted again! Lin Yi shook his head helplessly, but he didn't feel disheartened. He'd had too many closed doors these days, and he was prepared for this kind of treatment. He didn't have much hope, so he wouldn't be too disappointed.

Chapter 5035 Gifting Spiritual Jade

Back in his room, Lin Yi's head hurt as he used his spirit sense to check on the room next door. He found that lengniu was still taking medicine and soaking in the medicinal bath. It had been ten days and her injuries still hadn't healed.

If Lin Yi were to help her, her injuries would only take a few minutes. Even if she only took a peak grade four great recovery pill, she would've recovered after so many days. It was a pity that even though she used the ingredients of a peak grade four great recovery pill, it was the least efficient way to boil the medicine. Even with the medicinal bath, it would be good if the effect was one-tenth of it.

Moreover, this was the secular world. There might still be very thin spiritual Qi left in the deep mountains and old forests, but in this city where humans lived, it was equivalent to none at all. This meant that every bit of spiritual Qi consumed was very difficult to replenish in a short time. As such, the little cold girl's recovery speed was naturally even slower.

Lengniu wasn't the only one panicking-even Lin Yi, a bystander, was panicking as well. He couldn't help but shake his head-it'd be great if he'd just said it out loud, and he'd heal her for sure if he wanted to get closer to her as soon as possible. Why did he have to go through all this trouble? This cold chick's personality that kept people at arm's length really harmed both herself and others.

Lin Yi was hesitating if he should find a chance to break through the paper window and heal her when lengniu gritted her teeth and took out something from her bag carefully. It was a spiritual Jade!

However, the color of this spiritual Jade was already very dull-there wasn't much spiritual Qi left in it. If it was on Sky Class Island, people would throw it out like a useless piece of Jade. Only Lin Yi, who had the Jade space, would put it away.

But this useless piece of Jade in Lin Yi's eyes was now a treasure to this lengniu, and she was even acting like she was heartache for it, which really made Lin Yi laugh.

Little cold girl held this piece of spiritual Jade in her hand, gritting her teeth as she absorbed ten percent of the spiritual energy from the world. Finally, with the ready-made spiritual energy supplement, her entire condition was obviously much better, and her face had become a little rosier. However, her injuries were still far from completely healed, and this little bit of spiritual energy from the world could only slightly alleviate the urgent situation at hand.

She was like a traveler walking in the desert. Not only was she injured, but she was also thirsty and tired. The spiritual energy she absorbed was only equivalent to drinking a mouthful of water, which gave her a little more strength to fight against her injuries. If she could not get more follow-up replenishment, the final result would inevitably be that her physical strength could not support it and her injuries would worsen. The end was conceivable.

The secular world was a heaven for ordinary people, but for cultivators who were extremely dependent on the spiritual energy of heaven and earth, even if this place was not hell, it was at least a desert-like existence. The environment was unprecedentedly harsh.

Under normal circumstances, it could still be sustained, but once it was injured like the cold chick, even if the injury itself was not that serious, it would often continue to deteriorate due to the lack of spiritual energy, until it developed to an incurable stage. This was the cruel world.

Although the cold chick had not reached the point of being beyond saving because she had insisted on taking medicine and soaking in medicinal baths, it was still a problem that her injuries could not be fully healed. If she did not get enough spiritual energy to replenish herself, even if her condition did not worsen, there was no possibility of a full recovery in a short time.

She was well aware of this, but she only had this piece of spiritual Jade in her hands, and the spiritual energy was about to be used up. What could she do?

She had to use it sparingly even with such a small amount of spiritual energy. Using 10% of it this time was already an exception. She did not dare to use any more than that, so she could only quickly and carefully put it away.

Lin Yi looked at the scene, deep in thought. From what lengniu said, it confirmed one thing-she wasn't from the common world, and she had a spirit Jade with her. This meant that the place she came from had a lot more spiritual Qi than the common world, and it was impossible for a spirit Jade to form naturally in a place like the common world.

Lin Yi could also conclude that lengniu wasn't from Sky Class Island-she was still a Foundation, after all. If she were from Sky Class Island, the new disciples of the North Island wouldn't even care about a piece of useless Jade with no spiritual Qi, much less treasure it like she did.

Moreover, according to the market price of the Sky Class Island, the value of the fourth-grade great recovery pill's ingredients alone was far more than a piece of spiritual Jade, let alone a piece of useless Jade.

And so, Lin Yi could pretty much guess what was going on in lengniu's place-the Qi was much denser than in the common world, but nowhere near as dense as Sky Class Island. Spirit Jade could be formed there, but it was extremely rare-it definitely wouldn't be as common as Sky Class Island. This was the only way to explain lengniu's situation, and why there were so many Tiandao Masters appearing out of nowhere.

But he didn't know where they came from.

No matter what, Lin Yi was ready to get straight to the point as soon as possible. He was patient, but ten days had already passed. He couldn't waste any more time.

Plus, he'd been trying to please her for so long-even if lengniu didn't say it out loud, she'd already established a sense of acknowledgment in her heart. She wouldn't have chased the two punks away if she didn't do it otherwise-it was time, and Lin Yi thought that even if he did reveal his identity, he wouldn't be treated as an enemy anymore.

The next morning, Lin Yi went to knock on the door as usual. He'd knock quite a few times in the first few days, but now the cold girl would open the door as soon as he raised his hand. They'd developed an unspeakable bond.

As expected, the tall lady opened the door swiftly and was about to reject him out of habit when she realized that Lin Yi's hands were empty, "You're not going to give me anything this time?"

"Hehe, it seems like you still want me to send you back." Lin Yi smiled.

"Who wants to? I'm just curious, why are you knocking on the door?" The tall woman looked at him in confusion.

"You're right. I'm still going to give you something. " A Jade appeared in Lin Yi's hand as he spoke, passing it to the cold girl."I have a beautiful piece of Jade. As the saying goes, a beautiful jade is compatible with a beautiful woman, so I want to give it to you."

"I don't want to!" The tall lady rejected subconsciously, but when she saw the Jade in Lin Yi's hand from the corner of her eyes, she couldn't take her eyes off it anymore. She mumbled in shock,"This ... How could this be ..."

She didn't dare to say the word "spiritual Jade" in front of Lin Yi, but she was sure that it was spiritual Jade, and it was of the highest quality!

Chapter 5036 Coldly

This was a Supreme-grade spirit Jade that could not even be found in their world, let alone in the secular world where the spiritual energy of heaven and earth was so thin that it could not be any more. How could it be in the hands of an ordinary person?

"What's wrong? Was this Jade not good? You really don't want it?" Lin Yi chuckled to himself as he looked at her shocked face.

If he hadn't seen her treasure this useless Jade so much last night, he wouldn't have thought of this. After all, he'd developed a mindset on Sky Class Island, and subconsciously thought that spirit Jade wasn't worth much. It was just a type of currency, far inferior to all kinds of elixirs. But now it seemed that to little cold girl and the others, a Supreme-grade spirit Jade was even more valuable than elixirs!

"..." The tall woman did not know how to react. Of course, she wanted it. She cherished even a piece of useless Jade so much, let alone a Supreme-grade spiritual Jade that was filled with heaven and earth spiritual energy!

But she couldn't just accept it like that. To be honest, if it was just a normal good thing, she could just take it and return it to Lin Yi with something of the same grade. But this was a Supreme-grade spirit Jade, where could she get something of the same grade?

But she really couldn't bring herself to reject it just like that. It was fine during normal times, but the problem was that she was still recovering from her injuries, and she was in urgent need of spiritual Jade to replenish her spiritual energy. Her useless Jade was about to run out of spiritual energy, and Lin Yi's Supreme-grade spiritual Jade was like coal in the snow!

Just as she was hesitating, Lin Yi stuffed the Supreme-grade spiritual Jade into her hands without a word and went back to his room. This time, the two of them exchanged places, and it was miss Leng's turn to stare at his door.

After a long while, the tall woman looked at the Supreme-grade spiritual Jade in her hand and shook her head helplessly. She muttered to herself, ""This time, I owe him a huge favor. What should I do, what should I do ..."

Although she was having a headache, she really needed this Supreme-grade spiritual Jade. She could only turn around and return to her room. Feeling the extremely abundant spiritual energy of heaven and earth in the spiritual Jade, she was even more puzzled. Where did this guy get this spiritual Jade from?

With this Supreme-grade spiritual Jade to replenish her spiritual energy, she suddenly became full of confidence. For a cultivator, an abundance of spiritual energy meant an abundance of physical strength. Even if the injury was a little more serious and the effect of the medicine was a little slower, it would not be difficult for them to survive in the end. On the contrary, her previous situation had been dangerous.

So Lin Yi's Supreme-grade spirit Jade wasn't just a timely help to her-it was like saving her life, too. This favor was as big as the sky.

The next morning, Lin Yi knocked on her door again, and she looked much better than yesterday.

"Jade can feed people, the old saying is true." Lin Yi looked at her with a meaningful smile.

The tall woman's heart skipped a beat. Did he know that this was a spiritual Jade and that she was healing by absorbing the spiritual energy inside? However, she immediately rejected this idea. What this guy said should be the literal meaning. He was just an ordinary person with no strength, how could he know this?

"I just bought this breakfast from downstairs. Do you want to have some?" Lin Yi said as he handed over a steaming hot breakfast.

"This ..." The tall woman was at a loss for what to do. According to the previous rhythm, she would definitely not want it. However, she had just asked for someone's Supreme-grade spiritual Jade yesterday. How could she have the nerve to reject it? She couldn't possibly say that she would take all the valuable things and give up on the worthless things earlier, right? what kind of person would she be then?

"Eat it while it's hot. Otherwise, it won't taste good when it's cold." Lin Yi advised.

The tall lady hesitated for a long time before taking the breakfast from Lin Yi's hands. Her tone was a little complicated, "Thank you, then."

"You're welcome. This is what I should do. " Lin Yi chuckled before asking, "Oh right, I've known you for so long, but I still don't know what your name is?"

Lin Yi wouldn't have asked this question before-it was asking for a snub, but it was only natural now. He'd already taken the Jade, and he'd done it earlier-he couldn't just keep it a secret.

The tall woman was put in a difficult position for a moment, but in the end, she went along with his wishes and said softly, ""Leng Leng,"

"Leng Leng?" Lin Yi felt that the name was right. He asked, "Then what's your surname?"

"His surname is Leng, and his first name is Leng, Leng Leng." With that, she closed the door and went back to her room. She didn't know why, but she blushed a little when she told Lin Yi her name. It wasn't like this before, it was weird.

Outside, Lin Yi chuckled. He'd gotten the door shut again, but it was clearly different from before. Not only did the guy take the breakfast, he even said his name! The practicing world was really effective!

Although Xu lingchong's method was simple and crude, and it didn't seem to have any technical content, it was still widely used. It really made sense.

As expected, the most important thing for women in the world of cultivation was still strength.

Lin Yi went back, satisfied. He'd completed his mission today, and he'd have to wait for the next opportunity if he wanted to improve. He couldn't do it in one go.

On the other side, coold was eating the breakfast he had sent. She could not help but feel a little different, her mind filled with wild thoughts.

In the small Jianghu of the immemorial era, there was naturally no lack of suitors with her appearance. However, those people would at most be generous and give some cultivation resources. It was the first time she had come across someone who gave her breakfast. Although this matter seemed insignificant, it was rare for her to persist for such a long time.

Unknowingly, Lin Yi was being compared to the ancient suitors. This was something unimaginable before. After all, one was a normal person while the other was a practitioner. What was the point of comparison?

The rare thing was that she had a positive impression of Lin Yi-not only because Lin Yi gave her the Supreme-grade spirit Jade, but also because of his subtle guidance over the past few days. Even a woman like Leng Leng wouldn't think that someone who tried to please her was a bad person for no reason. It was human nature.

However, when she thought of her pursuers in the ancient martial world, her face sank. Although they were generous when they pursued her, and could even pick the stars for her, they were still Kings after all. There was a basic premise for them to curry favor, and that was that it did not conflict with their own interests. Otherwise, they could kill you in a flash, let alone trying to curry favor!

Chapter 5037 Use This To Go Online?

Just like her injury this time, the instigator was a cultivator who had been pursuing her. Just because she accidentally took out a good treasure and he saw it, he actually had the intention to kill her on the spot. If she had not escaped quickly enough, this time, it would not be as simple as an injury, but would have become a corpse that no one cared about.

After comparing the two, Leng Leng felt that Lin Yi, a "normal person" from the common world, was much safer and more reliable. At least he wouldn't be like those practitioners, killing people for no reason, right?

After finishing her breakfast, she shook her head hard to get rid of these thoughts. She clutched the Supreme-grade spirit Jade that Lin Yi gave her and focused on healing. Those people wouldn't let her go so easily-she had to recover as soon as possible.

Although the place she was living in now was hidden, the problem was that she had gone to find people to buy medicinal herbs several times. After a long time, it was likely that people would find out some clues. It would be troublesome if she was blocked by them before her injuries recovered. Fortunately, her item had not been snatched away!

"I'm fine. It looks like I'll be almost fully recovered after today. It's all thanks to this Supreme-grade spiritual Jade of his." He looked at the Supreme-grade spiritual Jade in his hand coldly and revealed a rare smile.

In the blink of an eye, another day had passed. Leng Leng let out a long breath of turbid air, finally thinking that she had recovered. However, before she could stand up, her entire body suddenly staggered and fell back down. She was shocked to find that the injuries in her body that should have recovered had somehow come back again, and it had relapsed again!

And this time, it was even more serious than the beginning!

"What a vicious method!" Lengheng immediately understood that the bastard's method of dealing with her back then was not as simple as it seemed. Her injury was full of twists and turns, and even if it was healed, it would relapse. Moreover, she did not have a sacred healing medicine like the grade four great recovery pill, so it was even more difficult for her to fully recover. She could only rely on her own willpower to survive.

She couldn't help but feel scared at this result. Fortunately, she had the Supreme-grade spirit Jade that Lin Yi gave her-at least she still had hope of getting through this. Otherwise, she'd be in despair now. The Qi from the Jade wasn't even enough to fill her teeth.

Even so, the situation was not optimistic for her. The spiritual energy in the Supreme-grade spiritual Jade was abundant, but the spiritual Jade was only so big. The spiritual energy would be exhausted sooner or later. What if her injuries were to relapse by then?

Just as she was worrying, Lin Yi came knocking on the door again, still holding the breakfast he just bought.

Could she accept the breakfast naturally. After a moment of hesitation, she could not help but ask, "Where did you get that piece of Jade? Is there any more?"

"You still want more? That's easy, even if there isn't, I can still think of a way to make it appear." Lin Yi smiled faintly. He saw everything with his spirit sense and naturally knew why she asked that.

"Pfft!" Lengheng was instantly amused-it was like a lotus blossoming on an Ice Mountain, and even Lin Yi was stunned by her beauty. This Lengheng girl's looks weren't ordinary.

Seeing Lin Yi's strange expression, Leng Leng immediately reacted and returned to her usual cold expression with some awkwardness, ""I don't know if you're telling the truth, but no matter what, there's no need to trouble yourself. Although I'm very grateful, I really can't promise you anything. We're really different."

"That's right. I'm a man and you're a woman. This definitely can't be the same. If it's the same, it'll be a mess." Lin Yi said, acting dumb.

"That's not what I meant ..." Coold shook her head helplessly. She wanted to explain but she did not know how to. To be precise, she did not dare to explain rashly. "You'll find out in the future. I'm destined to leave this place. "

"It doesn't matter. I don't care about being together forever. I only care about having it once." Lin Yi said.

Leng Leng's expression changed when she heard that. She said in an unfriendly tone, ""What do you mean? You just want to play with me and that's it?"

"Uh, this is a very famous saying. I didn't make it up, and I didn't mean it that way." Lin Yi said helplessly. This cold girl was quite sensitive-they didn't even have anything going on between them, how could she just play around and let it go ...

"Oh." Only then did Leng Leng's face calm down a little. She looked at Lin Yi with a complicated expression before going back to her room.

Lin Yi smiled nonchalantly. It didn't seem like there was any progress, but as far as he was concerned, it was a great improvement for someone like Leng Leng to say something like this to him.

For the next few days, Lin Yi sent her food every day, and Leng Leng didn't reject him at all. Things like this became easier and easier as long as there was a precedent, and she was getting used to Lin Yi's collection of snacks. She'd be uncomfortable if Lin Yi suddenly stopped sending her food.

However, every time they met, she was a little hesitant to speak. In order to stabilize and recover from her injuries as soon as possible, she needed to absorb a large amount of spiritual energy from heaven and earth in addition to drinking medicine and soaking in medicinal baths every day. As a result, the spiritual energy reserves in the Supreme-grade spirit Jade were getting less and less. If she could not find other spirit jades to replace it, the consequences would be unimaginable.

She wanted to ask Lin Yi where he got the Supreme-grade spiritual Jade from, but she was afraid that he'd really try to get her another one. Accepting one Supreme-grade spiritual Jade was already a huge favor-how was she going to return the favor if he gave her another one? She couldn't just give herself to Lin Yi, could she? she and Lin Yi were from two completely different worlds, that was impossible.

After thinking for a while, she suddenly thought of a compromise. One day, after accepting the breakfast, she suddenly asked,""I heard that we can search for things online. How do we get online?"

"Ha? You want to go online?" Lin Yi blinked, not expecting this cold girl to be this motivated. Practitioners, even if interested in the technology of the common world, would at most just look at it-very few would ask for help like she did.

"Yes, can you teach me? I even bought internet." Leng Leng gestured for Lin Yi to come in-this was something she'd never done before. Lin Yi had only come in once when he changed the lightbulb for her, and even after her attitude changed after receiving the Supreme-grade spirit Jade, she'd never received this treatment.

Lin Yi's face twitched as he followed her into the living room. He hadn't used his spirit sense these past few days, so he didn't know that this Lengleng girl had a huge fishing net hanging on three walls of the living room.

"What are you doing? Use this to go online?" Lin Yi didn't know whether to laugh or cry.

Chapter 5038 So It's You

"Yeah, people say that you can search for things online. I've been researching for half a day, but I still don't know how to use the internet." Leng Leng said in confusion.

"Uh, of course I can't use your net, but I can use it to fish." Lin Yi couldn't help but shake his head with a chuckle. The lengniu must've heard about the internet from somewhere, but she didn't understand the modern technology of the internet at all. She thought it was the fishing net she knew, but how did she get on it? like a Spider crawling on the ground?

"Fishing? "But I heard that you can look things up on the internet ..."Coold's face suddenly looked a little awkward.

"Going online is going online, but that's the internet, not your fishing net. What do you want to find out?" Lin Yi asked.

"I just wanted to check if there's a Jade Market nearby. I want to try my luck because not all Jade is what I want. The kind of Jade I want is very rare." He replied coldly.

Lin Yi chuckled to himself. The spirit Jade you wanted wasn't just rare-it was practically impossible to find in the common world, not to mention a small Jade Market. Even if you flipped the entire common world upside down, you wouldn't find a single piece.

But Lin Yi didn't expose him on the spot. He was a little impatient when there wasn't any progress, and even wanted to be honest, but he wasn't in a hurry now.

As long as he let things develop naturally, the other party would naturally guess his identity one day. This way, it would not be too sudden, and there would not be uncontrollable situations. There was no need to act rashly because of a moment of impatience. After all, it seemed that those experts of the heavenly Dao stage had no intention of endangering the order of the cultivators in the secular world for the time being, and the situation was not that urgent.

"How about this, I'll teach you." With that, Lin Yi took out his phone and started explaining the internet to the cold girl.

To be honest, something like this was a fantasy to a practitioner without any modern knowledge. It was impossible to understand it in a short time. Even when Lin Yi's mouth was dry from explaining, Lengniu was still confused. She couldn't understand what the virtual network was at all.

Lin Yi didn't know what to do after seeing her innocent face, "Forget it, it doesn't matter if you don't understand this thing. As long as you have a general idea of how to use it, it's fine. I'll teach you how to check! You see, you just have to open this browser and type in what you want to find. "

Lin Yi demonstrated it to her hand in hand, and while she still didn't understand much about it, it was much easier than the internet. Her eyes lit up, "This thing is really convenient, but why do these words look so strange? they seem to be missing a lot of strokes. It's really uncomfortable to look at."

"Oh, this is modern Simplified Chinese, a simplified version of ancient traditional Chinese. If you're not used to it, you can just set it to traditional." Lin Yi immediately set it to complex mode.

"It's much more pleasing to the eye this way," Leng Leng nodded, not suspecting anything-she'd assumed that Lin Yi could set it, thinking that both were common characters in the common world!

"I've found the Jade Market you're looking for. There's one in the East District of xima, and it doesn't seem small." Lin Yi handed the phone over to her, and seeing how she was staring at it, he knew that she probably wanted a phone in her heart. After all, this thing was really convenient to use. He suggested, "How about this, I'll take you to buy a phone first, then we'll go to the Jade Market. What do you think?"

"Alright then." Leng Leng thought for a moment and nodded.

One of the reasons why she agreed so readily was that her relationship with Lin Yi had gotten a lot closer recently, and she wasn't so distant to him anymore, but the more important reason was that she knew her place.

Even for someone like her who could accept new things rather quickly, it was impossible for her to adapt to the secular world all of a sudden from the ancient martial world. The way she spoke and did things were often out of place with the people of the secular world, and she might get lost the moment she left the house.

After all, the distribution of the city here was much more complicated than the little Jianghu in the ancient times. Even if the little Jianghu was the most prosperous area, there were only a few streets. However, there were so many big streets and small alleys here. For an outsider like her who was not used to it, she would get lost if she wasn't careful. It was the same when she bought medicine last time. It was not easy to find her way back.

However, if she had a mobile phone with her, she could look up the map at any time even if she got lost. That would be much more convenient. Until now, she still didn't know that the most basic function of a mobile phone was to make calls. She thought that it was used to search for things online.

The two of them immediately went out. Although they were both cultivators and it was only a matter of minutes before they entered the city, neither of them wanted to break the ice. Therefore, they could only wait for the bus to enter the city at the entrance of the community.

It was a first for her, and even Lin Yi didn't get to experience it often. From what he remembered, she'd never really taken the bus ever since she left the mountain, especially during the peak hour.

It was definitely a sad experience for office workers who had to squeeze into public transport to work, but Lin Yi and Leng Leng found it fresh. What made them speechless was that they'd run into the legendary "bus Wolf" on their rare chance of getting a public transport.

It was crowded on the bus, so physical contact was inevitable, especially for a beautiful woman like coold. Anyone would be willing to rub their bodies against her. Naturally, there were some lecherous hands who took the opportunity to grope her.

Could have never experienced such a thing before. Before his perverted hand could even touch her, she had already turned around and kicked the guy in the crotch. Fortunately, she still remembered the rules of the experiential learning and held back her strength. Otherwise, this kick would have killed him.

The man immediately curled up like a shrimp in pain. A gangster beside him immediately stood up for him and shouted arrogantly, ""You actually dared to kick my pheasant brother, do you not want to live? Who is it? come out and kowtow in apology!"

Lin Yi was amused-weren't these the two from last time, the two who came to pretend to be ghosts?

"So it's you two." Leng Leng turned around and looked at the two of them. Her cold and beautiful face was inexplicably filled with a bit of fierceness. She was not only a girl, but also an expert in the early stage of the foundation building realm. She had seen blood on people's hands.

"Ah? It's you!" Pheasant and baopi were instantly stunned. The car was so crowded that if Leng Leng had not turned around, they would not have been able to see her face clearly. They could only judge from her back that she was a rare beauty. Who would have thought that she was The Woman in White who had kicked them to the ground the last time!

Seeing the chicken duo's cowering expressions, the other people in the car immediately revealed astonished expressions!

Chapter 5039 Chatting

These two hooligans were quite well-known in XI MA city. In the past, they often took advantage of girls on this bus. Most people would be angry at them but would not dare to speak out. They had never dealt with violence with violence like this.

It was strange that the two hooligans were still a little afraid of this girl.

"Climb out of the window and jump down, or you'll have to bear the consequences." Leng Leng looked at the two of them expressionlessly.

"This ..." Pheasant and baopi immediately looked at each other. They wanted to act tough, but when they thought about this woman's combat power, they knew that even if they worked together, they would only be beaten up by her. At this time, they didn't have the courage to say anything. Moreover, Leng Leng was staring at them with such an unfriendly expression. It felt like they were being stared at by an extremely dangerous leopard. They couldn't help but feel their hair stand on end.

"Stop the car! I want to get out of the car!" The pheasant had no choice but to shout at the driver. Since they couldn't afford to offend him, they could only surrender.

"I'm sorry, there's no bus stop here, you can't Park. " The chauffeur said without turning his head.

"F * ck! Stop when I tell you to stop, what's with all this nonsense? believe it or not, I'll bring people to your house every day to block your door!" The pheasant threatened.

"I'll count to three. If you don't disappear, don't blame me for being impolite. " Coold did not care if they stopped the car or not. She immediately started counting, "One, two, three!"

Before he could finish his sentence, Shan Ji and Bao Pi couldn't care less anymore. They jumped out of the window on the side and fell down with bruises all over their faces. Fortunately, the driver had slowed down. Otherwise, the two would have been hospitalized.

The bystanders were dumbfounded at this scene. They were all shocked by Leng Leng. Could this girl be the legendary plainclothes police? she could actually scare two little punks to this extent. She was too brutal!

Leng Leng still looked as if nothing had happened. She even furrowed her brows slightly. The reason why she insisted that the two of them jump off the bus was not only to punish them, but there was also a more important reason. The bus was too crowded.

It was the peak hour in the morning. Even if she used this method to drive the two of them out, the car would still be a mess. With her cold and distant personality, normal people would not be able to get within three steps of her. Now that she was surrounded by people, and even physical contact was inevitable, how could she stand it?

After hesitating for a long time, Leng Leng finally braced herself and moved closer to Lin Yi. She'd rather be closer to Lin Yi than be squeezed by these strangers. At least they were familiar with each other, and she didn't hate Lin Yi.

This unexpected move surprised Lin Yi for a long time-he never thought that this cold girl would come close to him on her own initiative. Lin Yi took in the pleasant scent of her body and thought to himself that he'd squeezed in the right place-this was a pleasant surprise.

The two were pressed up against each other, but Lin Yi didn't try to take advantage of her at all-he knew that lengniu was willing to stick to him because of days of hard work, and if he did anything he shouldn't, he'd ruin the good impression he'd left behind. He wouldn't do something so stupid.

Even Leng Leng herself was surprised by Lin Yi's gentlemanly behavior. In her heart, Lin Yi was a very persistent pursuer, and she thought that he wouldn't let go of a chance like this.

She'd even prepared herself for it-as long as Lin Yi didn't do anything too overboard, she'd just hug him for a bit, but who knew that he'd be so restrained? he didn't even try to take advantage of her at all!

This way, Lin Yi's image in her heart became even more positive and reliable. Leng Leng couldn't help but have a strange thought-this guy seemed to be more reliable than the pursuers in the ancient martial world.

They didn't say a word along the way. When they reached the Urban area, the two of them squeezed out of the bus with all their might. They looked at each other and let out a breath of relief. It was really scary to squeeze in the bus during peak hours. They really didn't know how the office workers who had to squeeze in every day and night survived ...

"It's convenient to take a car, but it's too crowded. " She looked coldly at the bus that was leaving and smiled bitterly. After squeezing through the crowd, she never wanted to take the bus again in her life, not even in her death.

"We had no choice. Who asked us to be so unlucky as to make it to the morning peak? if only we had come a little later. It was a mistake." Lin Yi smiled bitterly as well, "Let's go to the mobile phone store. It seems like it's just a little further ahead."

"Yes." Leng Leng nodded, looking at the busy city area in front of her curiously. She'd been in the secular world for a while now, but she'd never been to the busy city area much. Strictly speaking, this was only her second time, and the first time she was in a hurry and didn't take a good look, she even got lost. This time, with Lin Yi's company, she'd be able to experience the bustling of the secular world.

"You've never been here before?" Lin Yi asked.

"I've been here once, but I didn't take a good look. Your secular world ..." Leng Leng was about to blurt it out subconsciously, but she quickly corrected herself when she came to her senses, ""This place is different from my hometown. Mm, I should say it's very different."

"Oh, really? Oh right, I still don't know where you're from, where are you from?" Lin Yi's eyes lit up.

"I ..." Could not know how to answer for a moment. She thought for a long time before she said, ""It should be from Huxi province."

What she said was not a lie. If Shennongjia was used as the exit of the little Jianghu of the immemorial era, its geographical location was indeed in Huxi province.

"Huxi province?" Lin Yi was surprised-he didn't know if the man was telling the truth or not, so he tried, "But your accent sounds a little different from those in Huxi?"

"Ah? Huxi is a big place and there are many accents there. It's normal for them to be different. " Leng Leng was worried that Lin Yi would continue to question her, so she quickly changed the topic, "Why don't you tell me about yourself? what's your name and where are you from?"

Lin Yi blushed. He knew that she was trying to change the topic, but he couldn't help but want to cry. He'd been trying so hard to please her for half a month, and this cold girl finally remembered to ask for his name!

"I'm Lin Yi, my hometown is West Star Mountain village, a small village in a small place, you probably haven't heard of it before. " Lin Yi replied with a smile.

"Oh." Leng Leng nodded and heaved a sigh of relief in her heart. She had finally managed to get through this.

The phone store wasn't far away, and they reached it in no time at all. Looking at all the phone stores, Lin Yi felt like he was back when he was with Tang Yin when she was buying a phone, but now it was a different person-this was a cold girl of unknown origins.

Chapter 5040 Couple's Package

He didn't know how Yunyun and the others were doing, but Lin Yi wanted to rush back to Donghai city as soon as he thought about them.

For one thing, his strength had only recovered to the peak of the early Foundation establishment stage, so he didn't have an absolute advantage against those experts of the heavenly Dao stage. For another, he hadn't figured out the origin and intentions of those experts of the heavenly Dao stage, so how could he go back with a peace of mind?

"You can pick one yourself. I'll give it to you if you like any style." Lin Yi said generously.

"Alright," he said. Leng Leng agreed readily this time. She really did want a phone, but she didn't have that much money on her, so she could only ask Lin Yi to give it to her. After all, in her heart, the value of a phone was nothing compared to a Supreme-grade spirit Jade. Since she accepted the Supreme-grade spirit Jade, a phone was the same.

The two of them walked around the cell phone store. When ordinary people bought a cell phone, they would ask about the brand and configuration, but could obviously did not understand these things. She only had one principle when choosing a cell phone from the beginning, and that was to look good. In the end, she chose an Apple cell phone.

He didn't realize that this cold girl's aesthetic appeal was quite in tune with the secular world! Lin Yi found it funny, but at the same time, he was glad that he'd gotten quite a bit of money from the two scammers. He'd be in trouble if he only had ten thousand.

"Can I go online with this one now?" Leng Leng said, eager to try.

"Not yet. We still need to buy a SIM card. There's a Business Hall nearby." Lin Yi said as he brought her in. He bought her a SIM card, and also opened a couple's service for her, so they could hit each other for free.

"A couple's service ..." Could watched from the side. Although she did not say much, she still felt that it was a little strange. It was only when she saw a young couple who were stuck together and also wanted to do a couple's service that she suddenly came to her senses.

Could it be that the couples here were Dao companions? Leng Leng's gaze on Lin Yi was a little strange. She still didn't understand what "free of charge" meant, but she could guess that this wasn't a service for normal people-only couples would do this.

However, she didn't stop him from doing that. After all, she didn't know anything about this business, and Lin Yi was the one who decided what to do.

Besides, it was just a couple's business, and it wasn't a big deal. In her eyes, everything, including the phone, was just a game, and it wouldn't affect their relationship in real life, so she let Lin Yi Do what he wanted.

After everything was done, she took her phone from Lin Yi's hand and tried using the method Lin Yi taught her before. She was happy that she could find things online-she'd never played this before.

Lin Yi smiled as he watched from the side-even an Ice Queen like lengniu would smile when she saw something interesting. It was rare.

But then again, this cold girl's learning ability was really strong. He had only roughly demonstrated it to her once before, and now that she had changed to a new phone, she could actually fumble around on the internet by herself. Moreover, this was under the premise that she knew nothing about the internet. If it were an ordinary person, they would not be able to get the hang of it so quickly.

Lengleng was having the time of her life surfing the internet, and Lin Yi facepalmed helplessly as he watched her open another gossip site. At this rate, Lengleng could definitely stay online until night fell-she'd be an otaku girl if she were born in the common world.

"You can slowly browse the web pages when you go back. Surfing the internet is just an extra function of the smartphone. I'll teach you the most basic and most important function of the smartphone now, which is to make calls." Lin Yi interrupted.

"Make a call?" Coold was stunned.

"That's right. This is the essence of the existence of mobile phones. As long as you know each other's number, you can call each other even if you are thousands of miles away, just like face to face." Lin Yi said with a smile.

"It's that magical?" Leng Leng was instantly shocked. She even forgot to cover up her tracks. Could this be the legendary thousand mile sound transmitter?

"It's amazing, but you'll get used to it soon. " Lin Yi explained as he demonstrated it to her. With lengniu's strong learning ability, it wasn't difficult at all for her to understand.

"So the thousand mile sound transmitter really does exist, and it can be used by ordinary people without any strength. "If this was in my place, I'm afraid it would have been snatched up like crazy. It's amazing that there's such a powerful item in the secular world ..." Leng Leng could not help but Mutter to herself.

She spoke softly, but Lin Yi still heard her. "Don't you have a cell phone in your place? Huxi province shouldn't be this backward, right?"

"Ah? "No... No, my place is very remote and I've always been isolated from the world, so I've never seen anything like a mobile phone ..." Coold was shocked and quickly covered up to remedy the situation.

"Oh, really? There's such a place in Huxi province. The scenery must be great. I really want to go and see it if I have the chance. " Lin Yi said, half-believing.

"Ugh ... We'll see if there's a chance ..." Leng Leng shook her head with a bitter smile. She wasn't lying, but she was talking about the ancient Jianghu. The scenery was much better than the chaotic world, but how could a normal person like Lin Yi go there?

"There will be a chance." Lin Yi smiled faintly as if there was a deeper meaning to it. He didn't want to get to the bottom of it, since he knew that it was useless to ask now, "I'll teach you the other uses. Other than making calls and surfing the internet, smartphones nowadays have a lot of interesting software and games."

"Really?" Could revealed a surprised expression once again. It was clearly just a small phone, yet it actually had so many magical functions. The secular world was really not simple.

The two naturally came together again when they were teaching, even closer than they were on the bus. Lin Yi couldn't help but be moved by the refreshing scent of the other's body-this feeling of pursuing a girl gave him a different feeling. It was the same as before, but different at the same time.

At this moment, Lin Yi's mind was subconsciously filled with scenes of him getting to know his female friends. Every time they met, it was a beautiful memory. Now, in order to find out the background of these Tiandao Masters, a similar scene played out again, but the main character was Leng Leng, who kept people away.
