

Bodyguard 5111

Chapter 5111 Are You Sick?

"Hey, do you even need to ask this kind of thing?" Sun Baixu looked at er goudan like he was an idiot, "Not only this cow, but all the chickens, ducks, and poultry in the nearby villages, leopards, and wild boars in the mountains are all food for my baby. Oh, right, there were a few unlucky people who came here to climb the mountain last time. Actually, my baby likes to drink human blood the most, but I don't want to make a big deal out of it before it fully matures, so I deliberately didn't attack you people."

"You raised this long worm?" Goudan's focus was on the blood-red Bug-half of its body was already out of the ground, and it was at least seven to eight meters tall when it stood upright. If you counted its entire length, it was at least a dozen meters tall.

"Long worm? "Hmph, ignorant fool. This is a bloodcorpse bug that has existed since ancient times. It's just that this thing is too brutal and terrifying. It once caused chaos in the world when it was at its craziest. Therefore, since ancient times, it has been listed as a forbidden beast by the entire cultivation world. We will kill every one we see and no one is allowed to rear it without permission. Unfortunately, our warding off evil sect's ancestor has secretly frozen a few larvae. These larvae are only the size of a finger." The others won't be able to discover it at all. " Sun Baixu said smugly.

Talking to a stupid kid like this was stupid, but it wasn't hard to understand. It was like a perfect piece of art, and anyone would want to show it off to others, but it wasn't a good time yet. So he could only find some satisfaction from er goudan. After all, er goudan was dead to him, and he could say anything to a dead person.

Goudan didn't know what was going on-he didn't even know about the ancient Alliance, much less the warding off evil sect. Sun Baixu was just playing the piano at him.

However, even if he was playing the violin to a cow, sun Baixu still enjoyed it. ""To raise the bloodcorpse bug, I have to constantly feed on the blood essence of all kinds of creatures. This is impossible in the ancient Jianghu. Once discovered, I'll die without a burial place, so I've been waiting for an opportunity, and the best opportunity is to train in the secular world! Hehe, as long as you give me half a year's time, I can raise this bloodcorpse bug into a truly massive monster. At that time, it won't matter even if the ancient Alliance is alarmed. Even if a golden core stage expert comes, he will only be sending himself to death. From then on, I will be the only one in the world!"

Goudan finally understood what he was getting at-he looked sun Baixu up and down, "Are you sick?"

"What did you say?" Sun Baixu was still immersed in his wonderful fantasy, and when he heard those words, he was so angry that his nose was crooked. Such a perfect plan was actually called sick by someone, and it was by such a silly boy who looked so stupid. This was intolerable!

"Are you crazy? do you think you're invincible just because you have this ugly bug? have you been kicked in the head by a donkey?" Goudan's expression was serious-he really did think that sun Baixu was crazy, a serious one at that.

"You're looking for death!" Sun Baixu was furious-he wanted to let this stupid kid live a little longer, even if he couldn't fully understand his grand plan, at least he had to make sure he understood. Who knew that goudan wouldn't listen to him? he pointed at him and ordered the bloodcorpse bug, "Eat him!"

Strictly speaking, the bloodcorpse bug was not a spirit beast in the standard sense. It did not rely on the spiritual Qi of heaven and earth to nourish itself, and it did not have the spiritual wisdom of a spirit beast. However, once it really grew up, it had a terrifying strength that could destroy the world. If one had to give an accurate definition, it was a savage beast.

But even though they didn't seem to have much intelligence, they could still understand simple orders. For example, the dozen-meter-long bloodcorpse bug roared and pounced at Goudan after hearing Sun Baixu's order. Its featureless face was filled with excitement-it loved the blood of all living creatures, especially human blood!

Goudan quickly took two steps back and dodged the bloodcorpse bug's first attack by a hair's breadth. The bug's stinky body brushed past his face, and after missing its attack, it burrowed into the ground-this thing's digging skills were top-notch.

"It's so disgusting," Goudan wiped the stinky liquid off his face-even someone as resilient as him felt like puking. This bug was the most disgusting one he'd ever seen, nothing else.

"You won't feel disgusted after you die." Sun Baixu stood at the side with his arms crossed. He had no intention of personally taking action. To a perfected Foundation establishment cultivator like him, taking action against an ordinary person who only had brute force would be degrading himself. Even if the bloodcorpse bug was far from the legendary invincible level, it was more than enough to deal with an ordinary person.

Goudan ignored him and focused on the ground. The invisible bloodcorpse bugs were a huge threat to him. Even if he had drunk the full version of the Hercules armor, he wasn't a true practitioner. His attacks were strong, but his weak defense was a fatal weakness. If he was attacked by the bloodcorpse bugs, he would be done for.

It was a pity that the place was overgrown with bushes, and the bloodcorpse bugs couldn't be found after burrowing into the ground. If it was Lin Yi, he could use his spiritual sense to lock onto their position, but Goudan didn't have any spiritual sense.

Sun Baixu looked at er goudan's careful face and laughed, "I'm bored anyway. Let me remind you, the bloodcorpse bugs will definitely come out from under your feet, but I can't tell you the exact time. You can try your luck. You might be able to escape."

"Really?" Goudan looked at him seriously and lay down, rubbing his hands together. He didn't look like he was going to run at all-he was going to fight the bloodcorpse bugs to the death.

"Hey, you fool, do you think you're fishing?" Sun Baixu couldn't help but laugh at goudan's actions. Even though it was the stupidest choice to turn around and run, this was the first time he'd seen someone like goudan, who was going to fish up a bloodcorpse bug like that. He was a F * cking idiot.

Chapter 5112 Strength Overpowers Ten

Goudan ignored him-he could tell that sun Baixu was strong, but since he wasn't coming to attack him, he didn't think much of him. The only thing he needed to deal with now was the bloodcorpse bugs that were underground-his thoughts were simple.

Sun Baixu crossed his arms and continued to watch from a distance. In his eyes, er goudan was already a dead man. The bloodcorpse bugs were far from fully grown, but they were not something a normal person could handle, especially with er goudan's stupid way of dealing with them. Sun Baixu knew that even he wouldn't be able to escape unscathed if he were in er goudan's position. After all, the bloodcorpse bugs that were over ten meters tall were no joke.

After a while, the ground under goudan's feet started to move as the bloodcorpse bug roared and shot up into the sky. Its speed and strength were terrifying-just the wind it created was too much for him to handle, let alone face it head on.

"A fool is a fool. He deserves to be eaten." Sun Baixu laughed coldly in disdain. Er goudan was no longer on the ground-he had clearly been devoured by the bloodcorpse bug. The bug only liked to drink blood, but it didn't mind eating people up after growing to this level. This was one of its strongest attacks.

But in the next moment, sun Baixu froze-there was a person on top of the bloodcorpse bug's head. It was er goudan, who had just made a fishing pose.

"He didn't die? What kind of dogshit luck is this?" Sun Baixu was stunned. He thought that the bloodcorpse bug would just swallow er goudan whole, but even so, he didn't think much of him. The fact that he wasn't swallowed could only be said to be luck, and nothing else. He would be thrown off the bloodcorpse bug in the next second, and he would end up the same way.

The bloodcorpse bug was running around like it was on a rampage, and goudan was on its head, not letting go even if he died.

Sun Baixu looked up with a smile on his face! Five minutes had passed! And the man and the insect were still running around! The smile on sun Baixu's face finally disappeared.

The bloodcorpse bugs were starting to slow down, but goudan was still stuck to them like a plaster. He seemed to be alive and kicking!

After a while, the bloodcorpse bug's roars started to change. It went from being brutal to being miserable, and its roars turned into wails. Sun Baixu couldn't just stand there and watch anymore-he wanted to grab er goudan himself, but before he could do anything, a rain of blood fell from the sky.

Sun Baixu was dumbfounded when he smelled the familiar stench. Goudan had already landed on the ground, and the ten-meter-long bloodcorpse bug was beside his feet. What shocked him was that the mouth of the bloodcorpse bug had been torn apart, and there was a one-meter-wide gap!

"Wayayayayaya!" Sun Baixu exploded in anger. No matter how tenacious the bloodcorpse bugs were, how could they survive when their heads were torn in half?

This was the treasure that he had relied on the most. Whether he could be invincible in the future depended on this bloodcorpse bug that he had brought out by all means. Who would have thought that it would be destroyed in the hands of such a fool? where did this fool get so much strength to tear the bloodcorpse bug into two?

"Disgusting! It's so disgusting!" Goudan didn't feel it at all as he wiped his hands on the leaves-his hands were covered in the bloodcorpse bug's blood and mucus, and it was a nightmare-like feeling that numbed his scalp. Even a rough man like him couldn't handle it.

"How dare you kill my bloodcorpse bugs?" Sun Baixu looked at the bloodcorpse bug that was no longer moving on the ground. He felt dizzy. The treasure that he had put all his hopes and efforts on was gone just like that?

"Of course we have to kill such a disgusting insect. It ate so many chickens and ducks in the village and even stole my cow. How can we let it live?" Goudan didn't know that this thing had taken a few lives-he reached out his hand,"Compensate me."

"What ... What?" Sun Baixu was still a little confused, not knowing what he was doing.

"This is the insect that you raised. Shouldn't you compensate me for stealing and eating so much food? do you think I'm easy to bully?" Goudan frowned. At the same time, he was seriously calculating the amount. So many chickens and ducks were lost in the village, and his family even lost an old yellow bull. He couldn't afford to lose too little money, but he couldn't figure out the exact amount. Maybe he should just take this guy back and make him pay every family he went?

"Ha! Hahahaha!" Sun Baixu started laughing like a lunatic, and just as Goudan was starting to suspect that he was crazy, he reached out and grabbed him, "My grand plan was ruined by a fool. I'm the F * cking fool!"

Goudan didn't have time to defend himself-he didn't have any defensive methods, and he didn't have any strong defense either, so he was in a life or death situation.

"You should die! You should've died long ago. My stupid idea actually led to such a big mistake. You can die now!" Sun Baixu grabbed onto Goudan like a mad man-he wasn't even thinking about what martial arts he should use now, since he didn't need any to deal with an idiot. He just wanted to strangle this idiot to death.

Suddenly, Goudan threw a punch at Sun Baixu's chest.

Bang! Bang! Sun Baixu was instantly sent flying, leaving a glaring trail of blood in the air. He crashed through three big trees before finally falling to the ground. It took him a long time to get up, staggering.

"You ... Who are you?" For the first time, Sun Baixu showed a fearful expression.

Goudan had only shown one thing so far, and that was his strength. This wasn't something they should be afraid of, but now that he was strong enough to tear the bloodcorpse bugs apart, and could even send a Foundation Stage practitioner flying with one punch, they had to treat him differently.

Any ability was extremely terrifying when it reached its peak, even if it was the stupidest brute force. After all, even brute force without any technique could kill someone when it reached a certain level. As the saying goes, one man can overcome ten men.

Chapter 5113 Sent Flying In Succession

"You asked for my name? I'm er goudan. " Er goudan scratched his head with an honest face. He didn't really mention Zhou Jiaming's name to anyone, and everyone who knew him called him er goudan.

"Er goudan? This is a name?" Sun Baixu was already puking blood, and this time, it was even worse. He thought he was the disciple of some hidden master after getting punched by er goudan. The Qi in the mortal world was extremely weak, but it didn't rule out the possibility of some powerful existence. But what kind of powerful existence would give their disciple such a stupid name, er goudan?!

"Why isn't it a name? Are you scolding me, you coward? I'll hammer you to death!" Er goudan was furious-he charged up and was about to punch again. He didn't use all his strength in that last punch, but it was enough to make sun Baixu spit out blood. If he were to use all his strength, he'd probably beat sun Baixu to death, who was at Foundation state peak.

"Coward? Hmph, you actually called me a coward?" Sun Baixu was furious as well-he only became cautious because of what just happened. If he didn't find out who er goudan was, he wouldn't be able to rest easy even if he killed him. Who knew what kind of powerful being was behind this brute force idiot?

But at this point, he could no longer retreat. This fool had killed his bloodcorpse worm and beaten him to the point of spitting blood. Now, he even dared to attack him with more intensity. Did this guy not know how to spell the word 'death'? did he really think that he, a perfected Foundation establishment expert, was easy to bully?

Sun Baixu snorted coldly. With a shake of his sleeves, two pitch-black short blades appeared. They spun rapidly in his hands. From a distance, they looked like two blurry, pitch-black blade shadows that exuded an extremely dangerous aura.

Goudan didn't care-he picked up a tree that sun Baixu had just broken, and swung it over.

Although he looked simple and honest, he was not stupid. He knew that he did not have any fighting skills to speak of, and the most important premise of fighting ten with one strength was that there must be a gap of at least one level between each other. No matter how he looked at it, the person in front of him was not easy to deal with. If he rashly got close, he would easily be at a disadvantage, so he might as well use the big tree to sweep at him from a distance.

"Idiot!" Sun Baixu laughed coldly-he didn't even bother going head to head with the tree. He hid behind the tree trunk, avoiding goudan's view and appearing in front of him. He raised his blade and was about to slit his throat.

Just as he was about to succeed, sun Baixu's knees suddenly sank without any warning. He had actually knelt down for no reason.

"Why?" Goudan blinked, pushing the tree away with one hand and throwing a punch with the other. Bang! Sun Baixu was sent flying again, spitting out another mouthful of blood!

"How could this be ..." Sun Baixu vomited blood as he looked at his knee in disbelief. Why did it suddenly sink for no reason? it felt like he was hit by a stream of vital energy. This fool actually had such an undetectable technique. It did not look like it. Could it be that this guy wasn't an idiot, but an expert who was pretending to be a pig to eat a Tiger?

Goudan didn't care about that-he knew how to take advantage of the situation. Seeing that sun Baixu wasn't dead from the punch, he chased after him with the tree.

"Damn it, I don't believe it!" Sun Baixu did not believe it and stepped forward to meet the attack. Although he was extremely afraid of being hit in the knee, he was still a perfected Foundation establishment cultivator. He would not be so easily scared that he would run away. Most importantly, he did not believe that he could not even defeat a fool. He did not believe it!

A pair of black daggers spun around in his hands, slicing the tree into pieces-he'd used the tree as a cover for his sneak attack, blocking goudan's line of sight as well as his own, so he didn't know when goudan had used that Qi.

But this time, he had learned his lesson. With his strength, he didn't need to be sneaky to deal with a fool who only had brute force. He could directly face him head-on. There was nothing between them that could block his line of sight. This way, no matter what the other party did, he could clearly see it.

Everything was going according to sun Baixu's plan. The tree in er goudan's hand couldn't even withstand a single blow from his knife, and it was cleared in an instant. The two were less than three steps away from each other, and there was no obstruction between them.

Goudan didn't panic at all-since the tree had been dismembered, he might as well just use his fists. This was what he was best at, after all.

Sun Baixu looked at the simple punch in a daze. Although the punch was powerful and seemed unstoppable, he could not sense any true Qi fluctuations. There were no signs of any small movements either. It was just a simple punch.

"It's that simple?" Sun Baixu did not quite believe it and did not respond for a long time. It was only at the last moment that he came to his senses, and the corners of his mouth curled up into a ferocious arc. "Since that's the case, you can die in peace."

He wasn't stupid-even an idiot could tell that Goudan's punch wasn't something to be scoffed at, especially after taking two consecutive punches. Even a Foundation Stage cultivator like Sun Baixu wouldn't let his guard down-fighting him head on might not work, but who said that one had to fight him head on to kill someone?

Right before Goudan's fist exploded, Sun Baixu's body flashed, and he circled behind Goudan like a ghost. This was his signature movement technique-he followed him like a shadow.

At the same time, the two black daggers in his hands were at the back of Goudan's neck, ready to take his head off in the next moment. Sun Baixu had done this too many times-his movements were smooth and flawless, and in terms of strength, he wasn't much weaker than Xue Jianfeng, the number one foundation Stage cultivator in the ancient Alliance.

However, at this moment, something unexpected happened. Just like the sudden sinking of his knees earlier, it was replaced by his arms this time. The two pitch-black daggers deviated from their trajectory at the last moment. Sun Baixu was shocked. What the f * ck is going on?!

Goudan didn't hesitate at all-he didn't feel uncomfortable at all even after his punch missed, and he followed up with an elbow strike on Sun Baixu's cheek. Sun Baixu was sent flying again, howling in pain. This time, he didn't just spit out blood (he even lost his teeth ...

Chapter 5114 Initiator

"Who ... Who are you?" Sun Baixu struggled to get up from the ground, one hand covering his mouth as he looked around vigilantly. After taking two punches and an elbow from er goudan, even a Foundation Stage master like him couldn't take it-he was already heavily injured.

But compared to the injuries, what scared him even more were the two Qi attacks. There were only two possibilities-either er goudan was a master who was pretending to be weak, or he was someone else!

"I told you just now, my name is er goudan. You're not just a lunatic, you're an idiot, aren't you?" Goudan frowned.

"..." Sun Baixu vomited another mouthful of blood. He was a perfected Foundation establishment cultivator, yet he was treated like a fool by a fool. Was there anything else that could be more painful than this?

But this time, he didn't dare to fight him anymore-he'd be beaten to death if it happened again. After looking around carefully, he retreated without warning.

A Grand Foundation Stage cultivator had actually been scared away by a foolish boy from the secular world. It would be extremely embarrassing if this matter were to spread. However, it was fortunate that this was a desolate mountain. Sun Baixu consoled himself in his heart. As long as there was life, there was hope. As long as he recuperated and made a new plan, he would be able to take revenge sooner or later.

"He ran away?" Goudan scratched his head in confusion-he thought that this guy was crazy. Not only did he keep such a disgusting bug, but he also stopped in the middle of a fight. Was he from some mental hospital?

But Goudan wasn't going to let him get away just like that—he chased after him, not because he wanted to kill him, but because he didn't even pay up!

It was just that other than his strength, he didn't have anything else to show off. There was no movement martial arts in his world, and he could only run a little faster than normal people. It was hard to catch up to a Foundation Stage cultivator, even with Sun Baixu's injuries.

"Fortunately, this fool's speed is so slow that it makes one's hair stand on end. Otherwise, we'd have suffered a double loss. Today would really be a disaster!" Sun Baixu looked back as he ran with all his might. He could not help but heave a sigh of relief. However, he immediately frowned again. From the looks of it, the possibility of this fool pretending to be a pig to eat a Tiger was very low. In that case, someone was secretly ambushing him?

Who could this person be? To be able to hide from his perception without making a sound, this person's strength was definitely not weak. Perhaps only the ancient Alliance had such an expert. Could it be that he was the senior brother leading the team of some other ancient sect?

The evil warding sect had many enemies, and so did Sun Baixu. Sun Baixu could not think of anyone who would sneak up on him. He had never wanted anyone to reveal his whereabouts and plans, except for his own brother, Sun Baimei.

Could it be Sun Baimei? Sun Baixu was shocked. He had no idea that his younger brother was already dead. He gritted his teeth as he ran. If that was the case, he would not let his brother go, even if he was his younger brother.

Seeing that Goudan was far behind him, Sun Baixu finally slowed down a bit, but before he could catch his breath, a calm voice came from the front, ""You've only run this far and you want to rest? That's not good, is it?"

Sun Baixu's face turned pale as he looked at the young man leaning against a tree with a faint smile on his face. It was Lin Yi.

"Who are you?" Sun Baixu would be a fool if he could not react in time. He could easily figure out that the person in front of him was the one who had launched a sneak attack on him.

"Here, his brother." Lin Yi said as he pointed at Goudan.

Goudan froze at the sight of Lin Yi, and only reacted after a while. He rushed up to Lin Yi and hugged him, "Boss! When did you come back? Why didn't you tell me?"

"I just returned to the village. Didn't I have a meal with the old man and come out to look for you? you ran so far away that I had to look for you." Lin Yi grumbled with a half-serious smile. It was true that they ran a long distance, but it wasn't hard to find. After all, the bloodcorpse bugs made a lot of noise just now, and Lin Yi had sensed it from far away, which was why he chased after them.

"I don't usually come here, but I'm here to chase this psychopath! Boss, you don't know this, but this psycho has a disgusting bug that steals chickens and ducks. It even ate my old yellow bull and doesn't want to pay. Do you think I can let him off?" Goudan said angrily.

Sun Baixu wanted to cry, but no tears came out-he could endure being called a lunatic, but what made him want to die was that goudan was so persistent in chasing him just to make him pay! Why didn't he say so earlier?!

"Then we really can't let him go-this guy's a big criminal, I'll leave him to you, er goudan." Lin Yi said with a smile.

"Alright, wait for me. I'll be done soon." Goudan replied and pounced on sun Baixu again, full of energy.

Sun Baixu looked at Lin Yi with fear, and when he saw that Lin Yi really didn't want to do anything, he quickly turned and ran. He didn't know who Lin Yi was, and goudan was a strong and stupid kid, so he decided to run.

He had learned his lesson from the previous two failures. Sun Baixu quickly turned around while carefully using his essential Qi to protect his entire body. This way, even if the other party used their essential Qi to launch a sneak attack, he should be able to block it. However, he did not expect that there would be no essential Qi this time, but a blue electric arc instead.

His entire body went numb without warning, and even with his willpower, he couldn't help but stagger. Goudan, who caught up, punched him in the back without hesitation, and he was sent flying into a ditch tens of meters deep, never to get up again.

Lin Yi used his spirit sense to check and made sure the guy was dead before nodding. He patted goudan's shoulder, "Alright, this guy is already dead. I'll get someone to come over and clear the area. Let's go back."

Sun Baixu was from the ancient Alliance, but this was the common world, after all. It was a big deal if someone died here, and there would be some side effects if he didn't do something about it. But with the supernatural Investigation Bureau, Lin Yi could clear the area with a phone call.

Chapter 5115 A Thousand Punches A Day

"Oh, okay." Goudan had always listened to Lin Yi-he'd done whatever Lin Yi said, ever since he was young.

The two walked back to Starwest village with their arms around each other's shoulders. Lin Yi asked curiously,"Er goudan, I noticed that you've gotten a lot stronger. Who did you learn this from?"

It wasn't a lie-goudan wasn't a practitioner, but he could tell from his fight with sun Baixu that he wasn't just using brute force. Every punch he threw had a sense of skill, and the rare thing was that he didn't just stick to one move-it was from his heart.

To be more precise, goudan wasn't using a fist technique, but a fist intent-a fist intent that could destroy everything.

"Your grandfather." Goudan scratched his head and smiled.

"Really? Why is the old man in such a leisurely mood?" Lin Yi blinked.

From what he remembered, old Lin rarely took the initiative to teach people, especially someone like goudan who didn't look like he had the potential to be a good disciple. He wouldn't do something like this-and on a deeper level, it was a blessing for goudan to be able to live a peaceful life in the mountains, and he didn't want to change his life path. Being ordinary was a blessing.

"He didn't want to teach me at first, but I don't know why I've been getting stronger and stronger over the years. I don't seem to be able to control it and often break things. Your grandfather couldn't stand it, so he taught me a way to control my strength." Goudan grinned.

"What is it?" Lin Yi couldn't help but ask.

"Boxing. A thousand punches a day." Goudan said.

"What kind of stupid idea is this? There's no technical content at all. This old man is too perfunctory, right?" Lin Yi didn't know what to say-if he didn't want to teach him, then he'd teach him properly. Old Lin was just trying to tire the kid out ...

"But it's very useful. At first, he asked me to hit the stone every day. He asked me to use all my strength and only break a little bit of the stone. But I always accidentally broke the stone into pieces. It took me a whole year to barely do it." Goudan explained.

"What happened after that?" Lin Yi nodded-this sounded interesting.

"After that, I changed it to hitting trees. I still asked for only a little bit of it to be broken. Like this, I hit trees for another year." Goudan said honestly.

"What happened after that?" Lin Yi continued to ask, interested.

"After that, it became drawing water. I can't make any splashes or ripples even if I use all my strength. I can't do that even now." Goudan scratched his head.

Lin Yi was shocked at all of this-he patted goudan's shoulder,"If you can do this, you'll be an unparalleled fist Grandmaster. I've only just realized that you're actually a genius!"

The way old Lin taught goudan seemed perfunctory, but the meaning behind it was deep-from hitting rocks to hitting trees to drawing water, every change meant that goudan's grasp and understanding of strength had improved-a full-force strike that couldn't make ripples or splashes in the water was something that even Lin Yi couldn't do right now!

If er goudan could do this, it would mean that his control of fist force had reached an unprecedented level, and he could be called a master of fist techniques.

He'd never thought that goudan was that talented, be it in terms of potential or comprehension-he was below average even among normal people, and Lin Yi didn't think that he'd be able to get this much out of it.

But then again, old Lin's methods only worked on pure and innocent people like goudan-if it was Lin Yi, he wouldn't even be able to punch a thousand times a day, and with all the distracting thoughts in his head, he'd find it hard to fully control and experience the strength of his fists.

Lin Yi was a very smart person, but he might not be able to use goudan's stupid methods to train. After all, he wasn't using his brain, but his body to experience and control everything. Being smart wasn't his strength at this point, it was his weakness.

"I'm not a genius. I'm stupid. Your grandfather said that he could easily do these things in three months. I've been practicing for three or four years and I still haven't seen it." Goudan said, ashamed of himself.

"Listen to his bragging." Lin Yi didn't believe it at all-goudan's achievement was already impressive enough, and old Lin did it in three months? He must have drunk too much ...

"Oh right, Lin Yi bro, why are you back this time? Didn't he say he was going to some Sky Class Island? Was Sky Class Island Fun? Are you overseas?" Goudan asked impatiently.

"Don't rush, I'll tell you slowly. Sky Class Island isn't outside of the country, it's a practitioner's realm that's isolated from our world, and the practitioners there are all very strong ..." Lin Yi patiently explained everything to goudan, telling him everything, whether it was a secret or not. He never hid anything from this little brother of his.

The two walked all the way back to the village, and Lin Yi didn't even finish explaining what happened in the North Island. He regretted it a little-wasn't he being a little too detailed? How long would it take for him to finish telling all of this?

But after thinking about it, the ancient Alliance was settled, and Lin Yi didn't have anything urgent to do for now. He'd planned on staying a few more days in the village since he had nothing to do anyway, and he'd just treat it as telling goudan a story.

For the next three days, Lin Yi was with goudan, and of course, he ate with old Lin and aunt Qing. He tried everything, but he couldn't get anything from the old man. He had to sigh-the old man's skill in snatching food from others was really off the charts!

The only reward was that Lin Yi finally told him everything about the Sky Class island after three days and three nights. Even so, goudan couldn't get enough of it, and he had an excited expression on his face as if he wanted to die with Lin Yi. He'd always wanted to go out to the outside world, but he couldn't go too far away from the West Star Mountain village because of the Gu poison, and he could only fantasize about the Sky Class Island.

Three days later, Lin Yi decided to leave the village. After all, he still had many things to do, and it was already a luxury for him to be able to come back for three days to see old Lin and ER goudan. The most gratifying thing was that he didn't have to fight with old Lin for food for the last farewell dinner, since it was at er goudan's house.

Chapter 5116 Bidding Farewell To West Star Mountain

"Not bad, goudan must've done a lot of good in his past life to have a wife like you." Lin Yi couldn't stop complimenting Yu Yuanyuan-she was the one who prepared the meal.

"Not at all. Aunt Qing's cooking skills are much better than mine. I learned a lot of dishes from her. I'd be satisfied if I could have half of her cooking skills." Yuanyuan smiled as she looked at goudan-she just stayed at home and did some house chores every day, and would go to the fields with goudan and the others. She'd seen the outside world, but she still preferred this simple life-she wouldn't have gotten together with goudan otherwise.

"Aunty Qing's cooking is good, but unfortunately, I don't have the Fortune to eat it ..." Lin Yi sighed, shaking his head.

"What's wrong? Haven't you been eating aunt Qing's cooking these past few days?" Yuanyuan asked.

"Lin Yi bro can't beat his Grandpa!" Goudan explained as he gobbled down the food.

"My family's misfortune, I've embarrassed myself." Lin Yi felt that old Lin didn't have any respect for his elders at all-he was already an old man, and yet he was still so quick at snatching food from a junior like him.

"Pfft!" Yu Yuanyuan covered her mouth and laughed. She had come to the Lin House many times to learn cooking from aunt Qing. Old Lin had always been very serious in front of the younger generation. She didn't expect him to have such an old and mischievous side.

"Forget it, let's not talk about these sad things. Er goudan, has the Gu poison's effect on you weakened a lot?" Lin Yi asked.

"I didn 't." Goudan shook his head.

"Then, you stayed in West Star Mountain for three days before, and you were still so lively when dealing with an expert like sun Baixu. If it was in the past, you would have long been exhausted and would have needed to drink the spiritual spring water, right?" Lin Yi asked curiously.

"Because I didn't use my full strength." Goudan said, shocking everyone.

"What? You didn't even use your full strength when you beat sun Baixu up like that? You didn't even use your full strength against the bloodcorpse bugs?" Lin Yi was shocked-he was already shocked when he saw goudan's strength, and he was still alive after the fight-he thought that the effect of the Gu on him was getting weaker, but this wasn't his true strength!

The bloodcorpse bug was already a terrifying monster, and sun Baixu was a Foundation Paragon. Even if Lin Yi had helped him a little in the dark, it was still mostly on Goudan's own strength. If that wasn't his full strength, what would it be like if he went all out?

"No, I still held back more than half of my strength. Otherwise, my body would become as weak as if I'm sick. I have to quickly drink the spring water to relieve it. That feeling is too uncomfortable." Goudan said with lingering fear-this had happened quite a few times when he'd started training, and it was a traumatic experience now. He'd hold back subconsciously no matter what, in case the same thing happened again.

"So, if you were to use your full strength, both sun Baixu and the bloodcorpse bug would have been killed with one punch. Heh, you're a monster." Lin Yi said.

"He's not that strong. " Goudan scratched his head.

"..." Lin Yi didn't know what to say. From the perspective of Sky Class Island, a Foundation peak didn't have the word "strong" in it, but this was the common world. Goudan's words would piss him off if they got out.

Goudan didn't have any concept of these things-in his eyes, Lin Dongfang and Lin Yi were both much stronger than him, and he didn't think that killing sun Baixu with one punch was anything special. In the end, it was because he hadn't really seen the outside world, or he wouldn't have taken it for granted.

"Oh right, I thought of something that might be able to hold spiritual spring water. That way, you'll be able to go out and play more often," Lin Yi's eyes lit up-goudan wanted to see the outside world, and as his big brother, he couldn't just forget about it.

"What is it?" Goudan said happily.

"Wannianchun box. Any medicinal herb or the like can be placed in it and its medicinal properties can be preserved. Perhaps the spiritual spring water can do it too. Let's go and try it." Lin Yi said excitedly.

Whether it was old Lin or er goudan, the spring water was something they couldn't do without. Old Lin was fine, going out for a while wasn't a problem, but er goudan couldn't. Just like he said, once he used all his strength, he would become weak-he couldn't do without the spring water at all. The spring water was very special, and no matter what he used to hold it, it would lose its effect. It was almost impossible to bring it out, but the wannianchun box was worth a try.

At this point, the two of them couldn't care about eating and ran out to test it out. As a result, just as they used the wannianchun box to store a little spiritual spring water, the two of them were immediately dumbfounded. The box was actually leaking!

The wannianchun box could perfectly preserve the medicinal properties of all kinds of herbs, so even if it looked like a normal wooden box, Lin Yi assumed that it had to be a completely sealed box. How else could it preserve the medicinal properties? Who would have thought that it was really just a wooden box? the moment the spiritual spring water was put in, it all leaked out on the spot, not a single drop was left ...

"What should we do?" The two looked at each other for a long time before Lin Yi had an idea. He went to get a bottle of spring water and put it in the wannianchun box. This way, it wouldn't leak out.

In the end, it really didn't leak out. Unfortunately, perhaps because of the isolation of the mineral water bottle, the spirit spring water inside also lost its effect and became no different from ordinary spring water.

Lin Yi was speechless for a long time before shaking his head, "There's nothing I can do about that-it looks like I'll have to upgrade this wannianchun box after I get back to Sky Class Island. I don't think it'll take too long, er goudan, so you'll have to stay in the village for the time being,"

"It's okay, I'm not in a hurry. I can practice my fist techniques in peace like this. " Goudan was a little disappointed, but he wasn't too insistent on going out. Plus, he didn't want to go out before he got home from his training-he'd be embarrassing Lin Yi.

"Okay, I'll come back to pick you up in the future." Lin Yi patted goudan's shoulder-this was his most important little brother, and he had to help him fulfill this wish.

After lunch, Lin Yi said goodbye to er goudan and Yu Yuanyuan, and personally sent old Lin and aunt Qing to Shennongjia ... "

Chapter 5117 Meeting Brother Dafeng

After all, old Lin was his only elder relative-he had to let old Lin take a look at the island since he was planning to make it his base. As for Lin Yi, he went to another place to see Dafeng bro himself.

In the vast ocean, a luxury cruise ship sailed slowly. Its speed was almost reduced to the extreme, and from afar, it did not seem to be moving at all.

"It looks luxurious on the outside, but there's a mystery hidden inside. No one would have thought that such a luxurious cruise ship was actually a branch of the red conch. Brother Dafeng, you're really bold." Lin Yi held onto the railing and looked into the distance-the blue sky and the vast ocean stretched as far as the eye could see. Even with his eyesight, he couldn't find a third item.

"Hehe, boss Lin Yi, don't underestimate my luxury cruise. It's using the most advanced technology, and all communication signals are hidden. Even the satellites in the sky can't detect it. Plus, this is international waters, they can't reach that far." Brother Dafeng chuckled as he followed behind.

"I mean, you actually dared to invite me here. Aren't you afraid of being discovered?" Lin Yi looked at him and said. The people he had to be careful of here were obviously the people from central. Whether it was the red conch or the Firewolf gang, the two were basically the same organization, they were both branches of central. For Dafeng bro, the real danger came from Central's headquarters. After all, he was Lin Yi's spy now.

"Don't worry, boss Lin Yi-this branch is full of trusted people, and they have a lot of power. As long as we don't report it, even the headquarters won't know our exact location," Brother Dafeng said confidently.

"Oh? Do you know the exact location of the headquarters?" Lin Yi asked. Ever since he found the central Chamber of Commerce on Sky Class Island, he'd become more and more interested in central. It was rare for his spirit to be projected back to the common world, and he even wanted to sneak into the headquarters to see what was going on.

"I really don't know. It's said that the headquarters 'location isn't fixed. Only the people at the headquarters know the exact location." Brother Dafeng shook his head and said with a bitter smile,"All these years, the central headquarters has let us do whatever we want, and we're also very secretive about it. Other than the routine reports from time to time, we basically have no contact with them. Even if it's a routine report, it's only through satellite communication. To be honest, I still don't know what the higher-ups look like."

"Then can you think of a way?" Lin Yi couldn't help but frown-central was being so careful, even in front of their own organization. It was unexpected.

"To be honest, boss Lin, I've been trying this ever since I received your letter from Sky Class island two years ago. I've tried many ways, but none of them succeeded. The one half a year ago was the closest to success, and the higher-ups were even calling me to meet them at the headquarters, but I don't know why they suddenly stopped me. It's such a pity ..." Dafeng bro couldn't help but sigh.

It wasn't just to get information for Lin Yi-even he was curious about the headquarters himself. Everyone had a thirst for knowledge, and the more mysterious the headquarters was, the more people like him wanted to find out. It was human nature.

"There's such a thing?" "There must be a reason for the sudden halt. Are you getting suspicious?" Lin Yi asked after some thought.

"It can't be!" Brother Dafeng was shocked. He shook his head and said, "That's impossible. If the higher-ups were really suspicious of me, they would've taken action long ago. How could there be no news for half a year?"

"That's true ..." Lin Yi nodded. If central was really an extremely secretive organization, they'd definitely get rid of the roots as soon as they got suspicious. They couldn't just wait for half a year without doing anything. It seemed like he was overthinking things.

"To be honest, boss, your sudden return this time is too surprising. I thought you were joking when you called me before. I didn't expect it to be true ..." Brother Dafeng said with a smile.

"It's been hard on you these past few years. " Lin Yi sighed. Although he didn't ask Dafeng to do anything particularly dangerous these few years, just the sensitive identity of being a spy was already a huge risk even if he didn't do anything. Not to mention, he still had to find a way to find out about Central's headquarters. Every attempt he made before was actually a risk. It was a dangerous job that put his head on his waist, and ordinary people might not be able to withstand such huge pressure.

"What are you saying, boss Lin Yi? this is what I should do." Brother Dafeng chuckled.

Lin Yi patted his shoulder hard. In fact, other than showing that he had full control of the branch, Lin Yi could guess the other reason why Dafeng bro asked him to meet him here-to show his loyalty.

Being a spy was a job that lacked security and a sense of belonging. Dafeng bro was a traitor to central, but to Lin Yi and the others, he might not be fully trusted. After all, no one knew if he would betray them again.

As a spy, the best way to show his loyalty was to provide important information, but because Central's headquarters was too mysterious, Dafeng bro couldn't find any valuable information these years. Now that he was suddenly summoned by Lin Yi, it would be a lie to say that he wasn't worried at all. That was why they met on the cruise today.

This meant that Dafeng bro was showing everything he had to Lin Yi. If he wanted to betray Lin Yi again in the future, these lackeys in the cruise ship branch alone would be a fatal threat. If any one of them leaked information to Lin Yi, he would die without a burial.

Doing things this way was no different from pledging his allegiance. Lin Yi could trust Dafeng bro's loyalty 100%, but he would have to pay a huge price for it. He was walking on a tightrope. If one of the lackeys in this branch wasn't reliable and secretly reported to the central headquarters, he would also die without a burial place.

However, he believed in his control. He was the only one in the entire cruise ship branch who had the contact information with the central headquarters, and even then, it was a one-sided contact. Only the central headquarters could send him orders, and he couldn't call the central headquarters at any time. So, even if there was a traitor among his subordinates, it wouldn't be easy to tip them off. The risk wasn't as high as he thought.

Chapter 5118 Undercover

For brother Dafeng to be able to reach this stage today, it was destined that he couldn't be a fool. He wouldn't do something he wasn't confident in, or else he would have lost his life long ago.

Dafeng bro didn't say it out loud, but Lin Yi knew it.

As the two were talking, a fishing boat suddenly appeared in the distance. Unexpectedly, the fishing boat directly approached them. Seeing Lin Yi's surprise, Dafeng bro smiled and explained, "Boss, don't be surprised. Fishing boats are the best cover at sea. The people who go out for missions usually use fishing boats to go back and forth. It looks like mute and the others have returned."

"Mute?" Lin Yi blinked.

"Yeah, he's a mute Chinese man. I saved him half a year ago from the sea. He used to work in the Special Forces overseas. He's very efficient and sometimes even more useful than Meng gaohai and the others." Brother Dafeng nodded.

"Half a year ago?" Lin Yi's face changed-the timing was too much of a coincidence. "Aren't you afraid that it's a spy sent by the central headquarters?"

"No, boss, don't worry. I'm very cautious about this. This mute is just an ordinary person. He was killed by a tsunami. When I saved him, he was already dead. I tried everything I could and only brought him back to life by electrocution. I also had someone check his background after the incident, and everything was normal. " Brother Dafeng said confidently.

"Caution is the parent of safety," Lin Yi nodded. There was a ladder between the ship and the fishing boat, and a dark-skinned young man with a crew cut walked over quickly. He did look like a Special Forces soldier, and even his steps were filled with courage and experience that normal people rarely had.

Mute walked over and nodded to brother Dafeng. He handed over a folder, but his eyes were scrutinizing Lin Yi.

"Not bad, not bad. You're really good. This file can save our branch a lot of trouble. Go and get your reward." Brother Dafeng opened the file and flipped through it. His face was full of admiration.

"Yes, yes!" Mute replied and looked at Lin Yi deeply before turning to leave.

"You said he's a normal person?" Lin Yi suddenly spoke.

"That's right. Although he was once a Special Forces soldier, isn't he just an ordinary person to cultivators?" Brother Dafeng nodded in surprise.

"Then you've really made a mistake-this is a real early Foundation Stage practitioner, the so-called Tiandao stage in the common world. He may be able to hide his presence well enough to fool Sky Class Masters like you, but it's not realistic for him to hide from my senses. If I'm not wrong, you're a spy sent by central, right?" Lin Yi said indifferently as he looked at Mute.

"What?" Brother Dafeng instantly turned pale with fright.

Mute stopped and turned around, looking at Lin Yi with a guarded expression. "You're Lin Yi?"

"Oh? You know me?" Lin Yi raised an eyebrow.

"This guy is trying to find out everything about Central's headquarters. Is he working for you?" Mute took a look at the shocked and speechless brother Dafeng and continued to ask.

"That's right-they're sending out a Foundation early phase just to investigate a Sky Class full phase like him, and they've been undercover for half a year as well-central really is one of a kind to be this careful."
" Lin Yi smiled faintly.

"Very good, it seems that my mission can end here." Mute suddenly laughed. In order to gain brother Dafeng's trust for the past half a year, he, a dignified expert of the initial stage of the foundation building realm, actually had to be someone's Lackey. If it wasn't for the sake of completing the mission, he would have turned hostile and quit long ago.

"Oh, really? Then can you answer a question of mine? don't worry, it's not a confidential question of your central headquarters, just to satisfy my curiosity. " Lin Yi saw that the other party didn't make a move, so he asked, "If I didn't show up, how long would you have been undercover here?"

"One year. If we can't find any substantial evidence in a year, then he's innocent. Of course, there's no need for that now. As long as we find evidence, the undercover plan will automatically become a clean-up plan." Mute grinned. He was in a good mood and didn't mind answering such an insignificant question. Besides, everyone in this branch was already a bunch of dead people in his eyes, including Lin Yi and Dafeng bro. There was nothing to hide from dead people.

Lin Yi and Dafeng looked at each other and shook his head, "It's a pity,"

"What's a pity? It's a pity that you're going to be buried in the sea soon?" Mute revealed a somewhat playful expression. He was a dignified early stage foundation building expert. In this secular world, he was an invincible existence. He simply didn't think that anyone here could escape from his palm.

"It's a pity that I don't know the soul-searching technique. Otherwise, I should be able to find out a lot of useful things through you. Isn't that a pity?" Lin Yi said with a smile.

"You can't be so naïve as to think that you can deal with me, right?" Mute was instantly amused and sneered, ""Although I don't know how you saw through my cultivation level, this doesn't mean anything. There has never been a master in the secular world who can fight against a Foundation establishment cultivator. There has never been one in the past, and there will never be one in the future."

"Tsk, tsk, there must be a limit to your ignorance. Now that the ancient Alliance has emerged, Foundation establishment stage experts are everywhere, and even golden core stage experts are present. You don't even know about such a big event? Ignorance can kill. " Lin Yi said, his face serious.

"This ... How is this possible?!" Mute was instantly shocked when he heard this. In the past six months, he had been focused on being a spy by brother Dafeng's side and had not done anything else. He had never even heard of the ancient Alliance.

"Anything is possible. You should be more careful in your next life." Lin Yi said as he sent a slap across his face.

A Dragon's Roar sounded out of nowhere. Mute was shocked and wanted to jump off the ship to escape. Lin Yi was now an unfathomable figure in his eyes. He didn't dare to make a move before he figured out his strength. Even if Lin Yi was stronger than him, it didn't matter. As long as he escaped and sent the news back to the headquarters, the Masters there would come and take care of him. He just wanted to stay alive.

It was a pity that all of this was destined to be wishful thinking from the moment Lin Yi saw through his background. With Lin Yi's current strength, it might be hard for him to deal with a golden core stage master, but it was a piece of cake for him to deal with a Foundation peak of the same level. As for him, who was only an early Foundation Stage master, it was really just a slap to him.

Chapter 5119 Call Request

Plop! In the end, mute couldn't escape Lin Yi's slap. The killing intent of the five elements was a fatal skill for an early Foundation Stage practitioner like him. After leaving a blood arc in the air, he sank into the sea of corpses. It was easy to kill in the open sea-he didn't even need to destroy the corpse.

"B-boss, that's it?" Dafeng bro couldn't help but gulp. His legs couldn't help but feel weak ever since he found out that mute was a spy, especially when he heard that this guy was a Tiandao master. He was scared out of his wits, but he was slapped to death by Lin Yi in the blink of an eye. This turn of events came too quickly, and he couldn't accept it.

"What else can I do?" Lin Yi looked at him. Although his sudden visit exposed Dafeng bro, it also solved a huge problem for him. It wasn't a bad decision to come here. Otherwise, if this guy found out that Dafeng bro was contacting Wu Chengtian and he wasn't here, it would be a real death.

"It's too scary. The central headquarters actually sent out such an expert to investigate a small figure like me. They really think highly of me!" Brother Dafeng's body trembled with fear and he quickly smoked a cigarette to calm his nerves.

"You'd better hurry up and think about it. See if there are any other suspicious people under you. If there are, quickly take care of them, so that you won't lose your life in the future. " Lin Yi reminded.

Brother Dafeng furrowed his brows and thought for a long time before shaking his head."No, there's only one mute newcomer in the past two years. The others are just some insignificant outer circle. Boss, can you help me take a look again?"

He had been very confident, but after today's incident, he felt uneasy. What if there were other traitors hidden among the cruise ship branch?

"I've already seen the people on the cruise ship when I came up. They're all ordinary people. Even if they're not, they're not very strong. In fact, it's not difficult to understand. This time, the central headquarters has dispatched an early Foundation Stage expert to investigate you, and it's more than enough. Sending other people would be superfluous. Your real trouble now is actually this mute. " Lin Yi frowned.

"Boss, do you mean that after he dies, the central headquarters will still suspect me?" Brother Dafeng was shocked again.

"Yes, we don't know how he contacted the central headquarters, nor do we know what he reported before. With his death, the central headquarters will definitely take action, but the good thing is that he is an early Foundation Stage master." Lin Yi said with a smile.

"What do you mean?" Brother Dafeng didn't understand.

"With his strength of the early Foundation establishment stage, you definitely can't kill him, so central will definitely not place the suspicion on you. It just so happens that the ancient Alliance has come out to the secular world to train. Only the people of the ancient Alliance have the strength to kill him, so central will definitely place their attention on the ancient Alliance." Lin Yi analyzed.

"I see. That's great. I really have to thank this immemorial Alliance for taking the blame for me." Brother Dafeng immediately heaved a sigh of relief.

"But don't be too careless-Central's headquarters might send more people over. Just keep a low profile from now on, and don't contact Wu Chengtian and the others unless there's something important. We'll talk about it after everything's over." Lin Yi said.

"Don't worry, boss. Our red conch's Domestic Branch is a big force. With the current situation, if Central's headquarters really wants to attack me, it's equivalent to uprooting the entire branch. Unless they find solid evidence, they shouldn't be able to do anything to me." Brother Dafeng finally regained his calm and patted his chest confidently.

"Mm, it's still the same. There's nothing wrong with being careful. Remember, remember." Lin Yi reminded him again and again. No matter what, Dafeng bro was one of them, and he didn't want anything to happen to him.

Dafeng bro nodded, but Lin Yi was suspicious. Since when did central have an early Foundation Stage master? It wouldn't be strange if they were from the ancient Alliance, but they were spies sent out half a year ago. How could an early Foundation establishment expert appear in the secular world with the spiritual Qi?

"Boss Lin Yi, do you think I should use this chance to test the central headquarters' reaction?" Brother Dafeng suddenly had an idea.

Lin Yi's eyes lit up-this was a chance! However, he immediately shook his head and said, "this mute is a spy sent by the central headquarters. In theory, you don't know his identity. How are you going to report to the central headquarters?" There's no point in rashly bringing it up. On the contrary, it will only increase your danger for no reason. Once the central headquarters "suspicion of you increases, your situation will not be good."

Since the central headquarters had the ability to send an early stage foundation building expert to spy on them, it would be even easier to take brother Dafeng's life as long as they were determined.

"Yes, yes, I know it's risky, but it's a rare opportunity. Don't you think so, boss?" Brother Dafeng was still extremely excited about this godly idea of his.

"Alright, this is indeed a rare opportunity. What are you going to say? I can't say that I accidentally discovered mute's identity and then accidentally killed him, right?" Lin Yi said.

"Of course not. Boss, didn't you just mention the ancient Alliance? I'll just push all the blame on the ancient Alliance. It's almost time for my routine report, so it shouldn't be too abrupt to mention this matter to them, right?" Brother Dafeng chuckled with confidence.

"That's right, but since we're really going to do it, we'll have to design the wording well. It can't be said to be flawless, but at least it has to be so that no one can hear any flaws." Lin Yi muttered to himself for a moment before his lips curled up. "I have a good idea."

Half an hour later, Dafeng bro brought Lin Yi to his personal office. There was nothing in there other than a desk and a computer.

Dafeng gave Lin Yi a look and turned on the computer. There was only one program on the desktop, "Request for communication."

This was brother Dafeng's only authority. Every month, he could request to report to Central's headquarters. Of course, the decision was not on him. Whether he had this opportunity or not depended on the wishes of the higher-ups.

Ten minutes later, the computer screen suddenly changed into a dark figure. A hoarse voice of a middle-aged man came from the screen, "There are still two days before the routine report. Why did you bring it forward this time?"

Chapter 5120 Making Up Lies

"Ah? Two more days? There might be something wrong with my computer. A few days ago, I almost lost my boat and accidentally got into some water. The dates and other things are probably wrong." Dafeng bro scratched his head awkwardly. Lin Yi was already standing in a blind spot behind the computer, making sure that the other party wouldn't see him.

"Almost capsized? Why did he almost capsize? Didn't you say that your cruise ship branch is impregnable? why can't you deal with a mere natural disaster?" The middle-aged man reproached in surprise.

"My Lord, this is not a natural disaster, but a man-made one." Brother Dafeng's face was bitter as he held it in for a long time before he squeezed out a sentence. "It's a monster!"

"What did you just say?" Although the middle-aged man's face could not be seen clearly, he could tell from his voice that he did not have a good expression on his face. At this moment, the words "are you fucking kidding me?" were written on his face.

"It's true. A ten-meter-long giant bug suddenly emerged from the water and ate people. It was so powerful that our entire cruise ship branch was almost overturned by it. I've been at sea for a long time, but I've never seen such a ferocious and terrifying thing. It's simply unheard of." Brother Dafeng had a look of lingering fear.

Seeing that brother Dafeng's expression didn't seem to be fake, the middle-aged man's voice softened a little and asked, "Speak clearly, what kind of insect is it?"

"I've never seen it before. I think it's called something like a bloodcorpse bug." Brother Dafeng scratched his head and said.

"Bloodcorpse bugs?" The middle-aged man's voice paused for a moment before his tone turned heavy and suspicious. "If you've never seen it before, how do you know it's called a bloodcorpse bug?"

"Because it's being controlled by someone. That person has been riding on its head from the beginning to the end. He claims to be from the ancient Alliance and seems to be someone from the warding off evil sect. Anyway, he looks very powerful. He also said that when this bloodcorpse bug really grows up, he will be able to control the world. I think there's something wrong with his brain." Lin Yi had taught Dafeng everything he knew. Instead of putting the blame on the ancient Alliance, it was better to push the blame on sun Baixu. It was seamless.

"You mean the ancient Alliance?!" The middle-aged man's tone turned serious-it seemed like he'd heard of the ancient Alliance before. This wasn't out of Lin Yi's expectations-with Central's power and information Network in the common world, and the ancient Alliance's incident being blown up like this, it'd be weird if they didn't hear anything about it.

"Yeah, that person even boasted shamelessly that he was a heavenly Dao stage expert. In fact, he's just a fool. Other than his big bug that's a little scary, his strength is simply a mess. Any ordinary man on our side could kill him. And to think that we were scared of him at the beginning. Now that I think about it, it's really embarrassing." Brother Dafeng said in embarrassment and regret.

"An ordinary subordinate killed him?" The middle-aged man was shocked. As the central headquarters was not located here, the only large-scale branch force in the country was the red conch. It was obviously not strong enough, so it was difficult to obtain first-hand information in time. However, he still knew some basic information. There was no doubt that the disciples of the ancient Alliance who came out to the secular world to train were all experts of the heavenly Dao stage.

If brother Dafeng wasn't lying, then the person who dealt with the heavenly Dao stage expert of the immemorial Alliance was definitely not an ordinary subordinate. It was definitely an expert of the same level, and he had already vaguely guessed who it was.

"Yes, a mute I saved with my own hands half a year ago. Although he used to work in the Special Forces overseas, he was just an ordinary person. This kid is very loyal and brave. At that time, all of us were so scared that we didn't dare to move, but he didn't say anything and rushed up to fight with that guy. The two of them and the big bug fought in the sea for a long time, but in the end, no one came up. We were probably all dead. What a pity, it's not easy to find such loyal subordinates." Brother Dafeng said regretfully.

"No one floated up? How did this happen? Didn't you send someone to fish it up?" The middle-aged man's voice suddenly became a little anxious.

"Boss, we made a lot of noise at that time. In the beginning, we fled from the open sea to the shore not far away. When they sank, even the coast police came over. We had to leave quickly, or we would be wiped out." Brother Dafeng said with a bitter face.

The middle-aged man was speechless.

"Higher-up, the day after the incident, I even sent someone back to take a look. There was nothing left. It must have been swept away by the tide." Brother Dafeng said carefully.

"You ..." The middle-aged man obviously wanted to say something but stopped. However, from brother Dafeng's point of view, there was nothing wrong with how things were handled. Even if he was a superior, he couldn't just blame him for no reason. After all, brother Dafeng was the head of the red conch's Domestic Branch. Even if he wasn't a real governor of the border, he was still a top figure in central.

The middle-aged man was silent for a moment before he suddenly said, ""Wait a moment, I'll give you instructions later."

"Yes." Dafeng bro nodded and let out a breath of relief when he saw the other end of the call. He smiled at Lin Yi, who was standing in the opposite corner. They had thought over the story many times, but it still made people break out in cold sweat when they actually said it. They were afraid that they'd accidentally reveal something. But luckily, from the reaction of this person, he probably believed it.

Lin Yi let out a breath of relief as well-he'd successfully cast the bait, but whether or not he'd be able to catch a big fish would depend on the other party's next actions and reactions. He'd done his best, and now he could only leave it to fate.

In the headquarters of the center of the secular world, after the middle-aged man cut off the communication with brother Dafeng, he quickly walked to a secret research room. At this time, a woman was frowning as she observed the human experiments being carried out in the quarantine room. If Wang Xinyan was here, she would definitely be shocked, because this woman was her roommate, LAN xiaoru.

"Professor LAN, bad news." The middle-aged man barged in with a flustered expression.

"What are you panicking for, doctor glasses? you're an old man here. You can't break into the laboratory during an experiment. Have you forgotten this basic rule?" LAN xiaoru glared at the middle-aged man in dissatisfaction.

"Uh ... Yes, I lost my composure." The doctor couldn't help but feel embarrassed.

"Tell me, what made you so flustered?" LAN xiaoru asked.

The bespectacled doctor took a deep breath and said in a deep voice,""Something happened to number one."

"What? Wasn't he sent to investigate Dafeng? How did this happen?" LAN xiaoru's expression changed!
