Chapter 5891 Who Doesn't Know How To Act Dumb?

"Young Island master, there really is a misunderstanding! Please give me some time, I will definitely give the young Island master an explanation! She's not only a genius in alchemy, but she also has astonishing talent in medicine. Perhaps Master Li Zao might have a way to treat Island master's injuries. Young Island master, please give us a chance. Our pill Hall will definitely be grateful for Young Island master's magnanimity!" Zheng dongjue no longer had the appearance of a pill Hall's vice Hall Master. He was simply begging for li Zeyu's understanding.

When li Zeyu heard the name of the pill Hall's chief Alchemist, li Zao Yi, he seemed to be slightly moved. If li Zao Yi could really cure his father, li zaixiang, then it wouldn't be important whether he had the yin and yang pill or not.

"Heh ... Zheng dongjue, can you be any more shameless?" Lin Yi sneered. "If li Zao Yi had that ability, he wouldn't have needed to make the yin and yang pill on the ancient battleship. He could've cured Vice President Shang directly. Are you trying to say that Vice President Shang's condition is more serious than Island Lord li 's, and that's why li Zao Yi couldn't cure him?"

Zheng dongjue was about to go crazy. He really wanted to strangle this bastard Lin Yi to death. Why did he always have something to say?

How could Shang Wanyi be the same as li zaixiang? On the ancient warship, Shang Wanyi would have lost his life after 24 hours, but li zaixiang had already lasted for so long. He must be much better than Shang Wanyi, right? If li Zao Yi had agreed to help, he might have had a chance. But after hearing Lin Yi's words, li Zeyu wouldn't believe him no matter what.

As expected, li Zeyu's expression was already extremely ugly. After he glared at Zheng dongjue fiercely, he said to all the people who had been expelled, ""Don't say that I'm unreasonable. It's dark now, so I'll let you stay for one more night. When dawn comes, get out of the northernmost Island. Those who don't leave after the time limit will be killed by the northern Garrison!"

"Yes!" All the North Battlefront guards agreed in unison. Their voices were extremely loud, especially Zheng dongjue. He was already somewhat out of his wits. Now, he was even more frightened and did not know what to do.

Seeing that Li Zeyu was about to leave, Lin Yi took out the extra yin and yang pill and tossed it up and down in his hand, "Brother Cai, brother Shang, since the northernmost Island doesn't welcome us, let's leave. In fact, it's not a big deal. If there's good stuff, do you have to worry about not having a place to sell it? Look at this unique grade Yin Yang pill of mine. If it can't be sold on the northernmost Island, can't it be sold elsewhere?"

Li Zeyu was just about to step out, but he pulled his foot back forcefully. His body turned around like lightning, and his eyes locked onto the black and white pill that Lin Yi was tossing up and down. His head couldn't help but nod bit by bit.

The yin and yang pill! It was indeed the yin and yang pill!

Li Zeyu was about to cry. You have the yin and yang pill in your hands, why are you still talking so much nonsense? With the finished product, who would still care about the damn yang extreme grass and Yin core fruit?

What he didn't know was that Lin Yi didn't just want to stay and participate in the auction, he also wanted to see that Li Zeyu was a reasonable person. If Li Zeyu had come and used his power to suppress people, Lin Yi wouldn't have taken out the Yin Yang pill. At most, he would have asked Hong Zhong to help him bid for the concentration branch and other items. As for whether Li Zai wanted to die or not, it was none of his business!

It was precisely because li Zeyu was reasonable, and there was no other way to get revenge other than to expel him, that Lin Yi took out the yin and yang pill, giving both sides a chance.

"Brother Lin, you're indeed a top alchemy master. You can even refine the yin and yang pill. Amazing, simply amazing!" Li Zeyu's face was filled with awkwardness, and he quickly praised Lin Yi first to save some of his impression.

Lin Yi's lips twitched. He already told li Zeyu that he could make the yin and yang pill. It was too fake to say that he was amazing now. However, it didn't matter. As long as li Zeyu wanted the yin and yang pill, there was room for discussion.

Hahaha laughed dryly a few times. Li Zeyu, the young Island master, also didn't know how to flatter him. He could only change the topic and said, ""Brother Lin, I wonder what price you're offering for this yin and yang pill?"

He didn't ask Lin Yi if he wanted to sell it or not, only asking what price he wanted. He was worried that Lin Yi would say he didn't want to sell it, and he couldn't just Rob him, could he?

However, it was not impossible to snatch it directly. This matter concerned his old man, li zaixiang. As long as there was a glimmer of hope, li Zeyu would definitely do everything in his power.

Lin Yi smiled faintly, "this yin and yang pill isn't for sale. I'm going to attend the auction under the name of the five elements Chamber of Commerce. But we'll be leaving the northernmost Island tomorrow. It seems like we won't have the chance to attend the auction."

Li Zeyu's head was still moving up and down with the yin and yang pill. His face could not help but reveal a slightly embarrassed expression. He thought to himself, you should have taken out the yin and yang pill earlier. Who has nothing better to do than to expel the two large Chambers of Commerce?

"Brother Lin, let's discuss this properly. Why don't you keep the yin and yang Pills first? if you keep them around like this, the value will be affected if they get damaged. Moreover, if you don't keep them in Jade bottles, they'll lose their medicinal properties easily!" Li Zeyu already saw the pill as his own, and he couldn't take it anymore after seeing Lin Yi acting like it was nothing. He subconsciously tried to persuade him.

After saying that, he realized that this was not the main point. The main point was how to buy the pills!

"Oh right! Brother Lin, I think it's a pity that the auction on the northernmost Island doesn't have the five elements Chamber of Commerce and the Wantong Chamber of Commerce. It will definitely make this auction lose its color. So, what happened just now, hehe, what happened just now? How come I can't remember?" Li Zeyu first said it seriously, then it was as if he had lost his memory. Wasn't it just playing dumb? who didn't know how to?

Lin Yi ignored him and turned to Cai Zhongyang and Shang Wanyi, "My two brothers, hurry up and pack up. Since they don't welcome us, we don't have to wait until tomorrow. Let's go back to the ancient warship tonight. We can sleep more soundly on the ship."

Cai Zhongyang and Shang Wanyi couldn't wrap their heads around it. They didn't know how Lin Yi managed to pull out a yin and yang pill, but that wasn't important. What was important was that Li Zeyu obviously wouldn't care about them anymore, and the matter of the Yang extreme grass should be over as well.

The two of them were overjoyed at first, but when they heard that Lin Yi was leaving, they immediately restrained their emotions and calmed down. They were both sly old foxes, who didn't understand such a small thing?

"Brother Lin is right, there's always a place for us to stay. Let's go, Chairman Shang, you should go back and pack up as well!" Cai Zhongyang deliberately sighed and winked at Shang Wanyi.

Chapter 5892 Favor

Shang Wanyi was also dejected. He nodded and said, ""President Cai, I'll go back and pack up first. I'll see you on the ship later."

Li Zeyu wanted to cry but had no tears. Although life was like a play and it all depended on acting skills, but the acting of you two damn old men was too fake, right? Can you please keep that smile on your face?

If he could snatch it by force, Li Zeyu might've just taken it by force. The problem was that the pill was in Lin Yi's hands. He was worried that if he moved, the yin and yang pill would be destroyed by Lin Yi in an instant.

This was the only pill that could save his old man. If it was destroyed because of his impulsiveness, he would not be able to forgive himself.

Luckily, Li Zeyu's brain wasn't bad, and he was a Bachelor as well. He knew that Lin Yi took out the Yin Yang pill to discuss a deal, and that he was only holding back now to get back at him. He simply stepped forward, cupped his fists, and bowed, ""Brother Lin, Vice President Cai, Vice President Shang, Li Zeyu was in the wrong just now. Please forgive him."

As the young master of the northernmost Island, it was not easy for him to do this. If he continued to force Li Zeyu, even if Li Zeyu gave in for Li Zaixiang, he would still hold a grudge in the future. Unless Lin Yi and the others could no longer stay on the northernmost Island, they would definitely suffer from revenge.

"Brother Lin, you don't have to lower yourself to my level. Because of my old man's injuries, I, your brother, was also anxious and on fire. So, when I heard that the life-saving item was gone, it's inevitable that I would be in a bad mood. If I have offended you in any way, I will treat everyone to a drink and apologize later. This yin and yang pill, no matter how much you ask for, I, Li Zeyu, will buy it!" Li Zeyu's attitude was quite sincere as he stood up straight. He had said everything he could, and now it was all up to Lin Yi's answer.

Lin Yi, of course, knew when to stop-pushing a foot after taking an inch might look like he'd be at an advantage on the surface, but he'd be at a huge disadvantage in reality.

To be honest, Lin Yi had some admiration for this Li Zeyu. At least, when he was in an absolute dominant position, he didn't kill everyone because of his personal feelings. So, he put the yin and yang pill into the Jade bottle and smiled, ""I can understand Young Island Master Li's concern for my father. Otherwise, I wouldn't have taken out the yin and yang pill! For the sake of Young Island Master Li's filial piety, I'll pretend that what happened just now never happened. I won't auction this yin and yang pill. "

When Li Zeyu heard this, he knew that there was a chance. He immediately laughed and said, ""Brother Lin, it's too polite to call him Young Island master. Why don't you just call me by my name, Li Zeyu? It's still very easy to say it. We are all friends, so everything can be discussed, right?"

"Hehe ... Brother Li is indeed a straightforward person." Lin Yi found it funny-the young master's personality wasn't bad, after all, so he changed his words."Since brother Li has said that we're all friends, this yin and yang pill is yours!"

Li Zeyu caught the Jade bottle that Lin Yi threw over, still in disbelief.

The yin and yang pill was in his hands, just like that? He subconsciously opened the Jade bottle to take a look. That's right, it was indeed a yin and yang pill. Moreover, it was a special grade pill with three pill halos. Even the young Island master of the northernmost Island rarely saw such a Supreme-grade pill.

"Brother Lin, how many spirit jade pieces do you need for this pill? Or did he need something in exchange? As long as it's within my means, I'll definitely help you get it. " Li Zeyu suppressed the excitement in his heart. After taking a deep breath, he said solemnly.

Lin Yi smiled faintly,"brother Li, you're treating me like an outsider. This Yin Yang pill is the five elements Chamber of Commerce's compensation for the Yang extreme grass. You said it yourself, we're all friends. There's no point in talking about such small details."

A stalk of yang extreme grass and a unique grade Yin Yang pill, could the value of the two be equal? If it was in a trade fair, even if he were to use 100 stalks of yang extreme grass to exchange for this unique grade Supreme grade Yin Yang pill, people would probably agree as long as he had those 100 stalks of yang extreme grass.

Lin Yi's favor was huge, and Li Zeyu had no choice but to accept it, unless he didn't want to save his old man.

"Brother Lin, since you've said so, then I won't be pretentious. From now on, you're my, Li Zeyu 's, brother. If you have anything, just say it. As a brother, I definitely won't have any second thoughts!" Li Zeyu patted his chest and said solemnly.

It was obvious that li Zeyu was quite serious with his words, and even Lin Yi was slightly moved. A yin and yang pill that was of little importance to him, if it could obtain a person's sincere friendship, was much more valuable than tens of millions of spirit Jade.

"Since we're brothers, then there's no need to say anything more!" Lin Yi also smiled slightly, reaching out his palm to give li Zeyu a clap. The two of them actually had an inexplicable feeling of appreciation for each other.

Li Zeyu's mood was very good, and he took out a Jade tablet and handed it to Lin Yi, ""Brother Lin, I'm not going to give you anything. This Jade card is the auction room Jade card reserved by our extreme north Li family. You can use any of the private rooms from the first to the tenth, even if someone else has already reserved it. In addition, this is also a VIP token of the northernmost Island. As long as you spend anything on the northernmost Island, you can enjoy a 40% discount!"

This was good stuff-at least it provided a lot of convenience, and Lin Yi accepted it without hesitation."Thank you, brother li. I'd like to have a private room to participate in the auction. It would be impolite to refuse!"

"You said it yourself. There's nothing much to say since we're brothers. It's just a jade pendant. If I had to say, this thing isn't even enough to smell the yin and yang pill!" Li Zeyu laughed as he waved his hand. It was only a few sentences, but it was as if he had known Lin Yi for many years. He spoke very casually.

Zheng dongjue looked at li Zeyu's happy expression and carefully came over to ask, ""Young Island master, since the matter just now has been let go, do you think our pill Hall doesn't need to leave? There's also my older cousin and my younger cousin-nephew-grandson ..."

Li Zeyu glanced at Lin Yi. If Lin Yi had the intention to let them go, he wouldn't mind doing them another favor. Unfortunately, Lin Yi turned his head and didn't care about this at all.

In this way, li Zeyu, of course, also understood what to do. His expression suddenly sank and he said, ""Your pill Hall will still have to leave when it's time to. We'll talk about it when the pill God comes in the future. As for the two of them, they dared to deceive and use this young master. Not killing them on the spot is already giving them a lot of face. You'd better pray for good luck!"

He didn't pay any attention to the dazed Zheng dongjue after he finished speaking and smiled at Lin Yi with a fist salute."Brother Lin, I'm in a hurry to go back and save my old man, so I'll take my leave first. I'll come back to chat with you again later."

Chapter 5893 Weird Father And Son

"Brother li, if you have something to do, please go ahead. When the island master recovers, I will pay him a visit." Lin Yi also smiled and cupped his fists. The master of the northernmost Island wasn't someone who just anyone could meet, but to him, it was a very normal thing. He was only paying a visit because of li Zeyu. Otherwise, who would be so happy to find trouble for no reason?

The two of them didn't say anything more. Li Zeyu was indeed in a hurry to go home and save the old man, so he took the yin and yang pill and hurriedly left with the North Battlefront Wei.

Zheng dongjue also left in a daze. He and the people of the hall of alchemy could only stay on the northernmost Island for one night. If they couldn't come up with a solution before dawn, everyone, including li Zao Yi, would be expelled from the northernmost Island by the northern Garrison.

If something like this really happened, his position as the Vice head would be over. He'd be drowned by the insults of the people if he didn't die to atone for his sins. Hou guanqi, who was on good terms with Lin Yi, might be the only person who could stay on the northernmost Island. Zheng dongjue's vice head position might be replaced by hou guanqi when he returned.

He couldn't just sit and wait for death. He had to find a way to reverse the situation. In any case, he could only discuss it with Tong wozha.

After li Zeyu went back, he immediately gave the yin and yang pill to li zaixiang to take. After the medicinal power spread, it took effect very quickly. Especially since this yin and yang pill was a Supreme-grade pill, its effects were even more extraordinary. In less than an incense's time, li zaixiang's injuries had already recovered by 70 - 80%.

Seeing li zaixiang's breath becoming more and more stable and rich, li Zeyu's worries were finally swept away. He was naturally even more grateful to Lin Yi.

If Lin Yi didn't take out the Yin Yang pill, li zaixiang would probably only be able to last for another seven or eight days before he couldn't be saved anymore. To the entire northernmost Island, the island master was an important figure. Even if he didn't care about anything and went into closed-door training all year round, he was still a powerful deterrent to the outside world. Without li zaixiang, li Zeyu knew that he wouldn't be able to support the northernmost Island.

"Old man, have you recovered yet? Are you feeling uncomfortable anywhere?" Li Zeyu had been guarding his father at the side. When he saw li zaixiang open his eyes, he immediately approached him with a smile. However, when he opened his mouth, he forcefully kept his smile and pretended to be unconcerned. He asked casually.

Li zaixiang pretended not to see the fleeting smile on his face. This kid had been like this since he was a child. He would never tell li zaixiang what he was thinking. Li zaixiang could only play along.

"It's alright. I'm almost done. You're not bad this time, kid. You found me the yin and yang pill so quickly. You've improved a little." A faint smile appeared at the corner of li zaixiang's mouth, but it quickly disappeared. He said with a calm expression.

This father and son were the type of people who would die if they didn't act. Fortunately, no one else saw them. Otherwise, they would definitely be treated as a joke and would laugh at them for a year.

Li Zeyu snorted and said, "of course. It doesn't matter who did it. For such a small matter, I can just arrange for someone to go out and settle it. Only you will think it's difficult." Well, since you're fine, I'll go out and play with my friends. What bad luck, I was ready to be the island master, but it seems that the young master in front of the island master will have to live in peace for many more years!"

"Stinky brat, if you want to be the island master, just say it. At most, I'll be the island master of the highest Island, how about it? Do you want to do it?" Li zaixiang glared at his son, but he was very touched.

Although the yin and yang pill wasn't a heaven-defying pill, the two main ingredients were extremely difficult to find, and the refining conditions were also quite harsh. It wasn't something that could be obtained by just anyone.

Although Li Zeyu had said it so casually as if it was a piece of cake, Li zaixiang knew in his heart that things were definitely not that easy. What was even rarer was that this time, Li Zeyu had actually brought back a Supreme grade yin and yang pill. This was the most important thing!

As Li zaixiang had been injured for a long time, he had been suppressing it and delaying it, causing his injuries to worsen. If Shang Wanyi's injuries on the ancient warship were 10%, Li zaixiang's injuries were 90%.

Even if li Zeyu could get a high-grade Yin Yang pill, it would only allow li zaixiang to recover 70 - 80% of his strength. There would never be a chance for him to recover. Even if he could survive this time, his lifespan would be greatly shortened. He might only have 10 - 20 years of life left at most, not to mention the medium and low-grade Yin Yang pills.

Fortunately, li Zeyu had gotten the yin and yang pill from God knows where. It was actually a Supreme-grade yin and yang pill. This made li zaixiang think that not only had his injuries recovered, but after he recovered, his strength might even advance. This was really a blessing in disguise.

Li Zeyu pursed his lips in disdain and said, "old man, you became the owner of the highest Island, but in the end, you still controlled me. In the end, I was the one who took the blame, and you were the one who showed off my power. Tsk, do you really think I'm stupid? I'd better wait slowly. When you're completely finished, then you can be my Island owner."

"Little brat, do you believe that I won't beat you up? I'm so handsome and suave, which eye of yours sees that I'm an old man? In the past, when I saw that you were young, I could bear with it, but now that you're not young anymore, I can't bear it anymore!" Li zaixiang laughed and scolded him. He got up and looked like he was about to beat someone up.

Li Zeyu jumped out with a whoosh. As he ran, he shouted, ""You damned old man, I just saved you and you already want to beat this young master up. If I had known earlier, I would have added some laxatives in the yin and yang pill. I can't shit you to death, damned old man!"

Before he finished speaking, li Zeyu had already rushed out of the courtyard where li zaixiang was. At this time, a happy smile appeared on his face. Looking at li zaixiang's expression, he knew that his injuries were not serious. He could go and play without worry.

In the room, li zaixiang's face also revealed a smile that was extremely similar to li Zeyu 's. If someone could see the smiles of these two people at the same time, they would be certain: These two strange father and son were definitely biological!

Li Zeyu, who was in a good mood, went out of the house, and his trusted Northern Garrison guards followed him. One of them came forward and asked, ""Young Island master, is the island master alright?"

"I'm fine now. This damn old man wanted to beat me up just now. Fortunately, this young master ran fast, or else I would really have been beaten up. You guys keep an eye out for me and see if there's any top-notch footwork or movement technique for escaping. I'll be able to use it next time. " Li Zeyu bragged loudly. After confirming the direction, he walked towards the courtyard where Lin Yi and the others were.

Chapter 5894 Remedial Measures

The North Battlefront Wei who followed him secretly laughed. They were all old members of the Li family. Of course, they knew how this strange father and son got along. However, no one would expose li Zeyu.

He was obviously very filial to li zaixiang, but in front of everyone, he had to act like a disobedient and unfilial son. Furthermore, within the Li family, if anyone said that li Zeyu was filial, he would definitely be angry. But outside, if anyone said that he was filial, he would be very happy. This kind of unpredictable mind, if not for the elders who had followed him for many years, they would definitely think that he was a schizophrenic idiot.

"Young Island master, what should we do with the two guys you locked up? How dare they play with you like a monkey? why don't we just kill them?" The confidant of the North Garrison mentioned Zheng Dongsheng and his son again. They dared to make a fool of the young master of the Li family on the northernmost Island. Li Zeyu was not angry, but the people around him wanted to cut the two men into pieces.

Li Zeyu smacked his forehead. He just remembered that there were still those two bastards locked up. He was in a really good mood, so he didn't have the mood to argue with Zheng Dongsheng and the others. If it weren't for the fact that Zheng Dongsheng and the others were targeting Lin Yi and the others, he might have let them go.

After a little consideration, Li Zeyu immediately decided, ""These two guys are not good people. Tell the brothers who are guarding them to beat them up a few times every day. It's best if they can be beaten to the point that their mothers can't recognize them. En, but don't kill them. When it's about time, feed them a pill. Do you understand what I mean?"

"Understood, this subordinate will pass down the order." As his confidant, this North Garrison guard of course knew what Li Zeyu meant. In the end, he, the young Island master, was still a kind person. For people who offended him, he would only torture them and give them a little lesson.

If it were someone else who was more ruthless, even if they didn't kill the Zheng family's father and son, they would definitely cripple their cultivation first and then cripple them. They might even chop them up and feed them to the dogs in the end.

Li Zeyu thought for a moment and then added, ""Let's do this first. After the auction is over, I'll deal with it according to the situation. Well, I'll ask my brother Lin later and see if he has any ideas. If he wants to kill these two guys, it'll save us a lot of trouble. "

"Understood!" The North guard bowed and agreed, but he was thinking that he should tell his men not to offend Lin Yi, even the people around him. If they offended the young master, they wouldn't die, but they would be in big trouble.

At the same time, Zheng dongjue finally met up with Tong Watai. The excited Zheng dongjue didn't have time to talk nonsense and directly told him the situation. Then, he immediately asked, "Hold on, what do you think we should do about this?"

Tong wuhui frowned slightly and paced back and forth in the room. His plan was perfect, but for some reason, he kept making mistakes and ended up in such a passive situation.

He'd wanted to make a big deal out of Lin Yi's Mountain gaze pill and damage hou guanqi's position in the pill Hall, but he didn't think that Zheng dongjue would lose his place while hou guanqi was still fine.

After Tong wohuai stood still, he bowed slightly to Zheng dongjue and said, "Vice Hall Master, this matter can be serious or not. Let's not talk about how to save master Zheng and young master Zheng first. The first thing we need to deal with is how to resolve the crisis of our pill Hall. If the pill Hall is expelled, then the reputation of the pill Hall will be completely ruined. Even if the hall Master doesn't pursue this matter, we can't continue to have a foothold in the pill Hall."

"I know all of this," Zheng dongjue said impatiently. "Hurry up and tell me what we should do. We don't have much time. If we don't have any countermeasures before dawn, we'll be completely finished!"

"It's precisely because of this that we have to be calm. First of all, vice Hall Master, you have to find Nakajima's connections and ask them to come forward to mediate at all costs. Second, Master Li Zao Yi is also a member of our pill Hall. Although she was implicated this time, she's also not in a good position when the pill Hall is in trouble. She also has to come forward in this matter!"

Zheng Dong didn't wait for Tong wuhui to finish, and interrupted with a frown, "It's not a problem for me to find someone to smooth things over, but I can't persuade li Zao Yi. Besides, if she comes forward, it might not be of much use."

Crouching Tong lowered his head and explained calmly, ""Li Zao Yi's connections might not be as deep as the Vice head 's, but her abilities are there. She's a genius Mystic Alchemist, and there are many people who are willing to accept her favor. Besides, her purpose this time is to attend the auction, and if she doesn't show up, she'll be kicked out. I think she knows how to weigh the pros and cons."

He had to admit that Tong wuhui's analysis was very reasonable. Zheng dongjue had thought that his future was dark, but after listening to his words, he suddenly felt that there was a great chance of redemption.

"Good job. Let's not delay any further. I'm going to find li Zao Yi now, and then I'll pay a visit to steward song tonight. As long as steward song is willing to say a few good words to the Li family, perhaps we can ease the relationship between us and young Island Master Li." After coming up with a countermeasure, Zheng dongjue immediately thought of taking action. There was not much time left for him to waste before dawn.

Crouching Tong quickly raised his hand to stop Zheng dongjue, ""Vice Hall Master, please wait a moment. I have not finished speaking."

"Speak!" Only then did Zheng dongjue realize that he had been too eager. He now valued crouching Tong very much, and whether or not he could turn the situation around was of great importance. He did not dare to make any mistakes, so he looked at crouching Tong very seriously.

Crouching Tong slightly sorted out his interrupted thoughts and said, ""Vice Hall Master, if Island Master Li didn't get the yin and yang pill this time, there's nothing we can do anymore. It's because Lin Yi took out a yin and yang pill that we have a chance to redeem ourselves."

Hearing Lin Yi's name, Zheng dongjue frowned and said unhappily, "What, do you think I should go and thank Lin Yi?"

"Of course not. What I meant was that Lin Yi's influence on the Li family of the extreme north will be huge after he takes out the Yin Yang pill. If we just do what we discussed just now, no matter what the end result is, all our efforts will go to waste with just one word from Lin Yi."

To be honest, the Masters of the Zheng family were not lacking in ruthlessness, but they did not have enough shrewdness to cooperate with each other. Although this kind of master was exactly what Tong wo needed, it was really tiring to explain everything in detail.

Chapter 5895 Eyes Open At The Sight Of Money

If it wasn't for Tong wuhui's reminder, Zheng dongjue would never have thought of this. Now that he understood, his expression changed. "What should we do? With that bastard Lin Yi's personality, he wouldn't give up on an opportunity like this!"

"That's why I'm going to talk about the third point. " Wooshang sighed. His goal had always been to target Lin Yi, but now he had to rely on Lin Yi to help him out. As a strategist, he felt a little disheartened.

"Vice head, it's not impossible to get Lin Yi to not stand in our way or even put in a good word or two for us. There are still people in the pill Hall who are on good terms with Lin Yi. Not to mention the independent five elements Chamber of Commerce, Cai Zhongyang, just the first disciple of the God of alchemy, hou guanqi, is enough for Lin Yi to speak for the pill Hall." Woken Tong's train of thought was very clear. He wanted to make use of all the people and relationships he could make use of before dawn. Who cared if they were enemies or friends before?

Zheng dongjian felt as disgusted as if he had eaten a fly. Was he, the Vice Hall Master of the pill Hall, going to ask hou guanqi to speak up for him? A long time ago, he and Zhang Liju's registered disciples were on the surface but on the inside, they weren't. After Lin Yi appeared, their relationship worsened. This time, he even tried to set up Cai Zhongyang and Hou Guanqi. It was fine if Qiuli and Zao Yi came out, but it was a bit boring to ask Hou Guanqi.

Tong Wuhui sighed in his heart. Zheng Dongjue's expression clearly showed what he was thinking. In his view, people who wanted to do big things didn't care about the small things. Being able to yield and stretch was a must. It was definitely a good thing to ask Hou Guanqi for help in such an urgent time. With Hou Guanqi's kind personality, as long as Zheng Dongjue put down his arrogance, there was a 70 - 80% chance that he would come to Lin Yi for the sake of the Pill Hall.

Zheng Dongjue didn't speak, so crouching Tong could only speak, "Vice Hall Master, I know Hou Guanqi. Why don't you let me handle this?"

In fact, the most effective way was for Zheng Dongjue to personally take action. Tong Wozhui had come here secretly, so he would try not to show his face if possible. Moreover, Tong Wozhui's identity meant that he wouldn't have much interaction with Hou Guanqi. Unfortunately, Zheng Dongjue was not responsible enough, so he couldn't do anything.

Zheng Dongjue was secretly relieved when he heard Tong Wuhui's suggestion. He immediately nodded and said, "That's good, then I'll leave Hou Guanqi to you. I'll personally invite him over. If not, we'll split up!"

If it wasn't for the fact that Tong Wuhui's status wasn't high enough to talk to Li Zao Yi directly, Zheng Dongjue might have also handed this matter over to him. Following such a master, Tong Wuhui was now very suspicious whether he was lucky or unlucky.

In any case, now that they had made a decision, the two of them didn't say anything more and went to find their own targets.

Zheng dongjue first went to find li Zao Yi, but unfortunately, li Zao Yi had gone out and hadn't returned. He had encountered such a small probability event, and his luck today was really bad.

He had no choice but to go find steward song first and then talk to li Zao Yi when he came back.

Although it was already late at night, there were still many people who came to visit steward song. Zheng dongjue was also secretly complaining. It just so happened that the people who came back to the northernmost Island were basically all big shots from all sides. In terms of status, none of them was much inferior to the other. He couldn't even cut the queue if he wanted to, so he could only wait obediently.

Fortunately, those who came to visit steward song were basically just paying him a visit. They would leave after pulling some strings. After waiting for more than an hour, it was finally Zheng dongjue's turn.

After entering the living room, steward song sat on the main seat without any intention of standing up to welcome him. Zheng Dong Jue had a favor to ask of him, so he could only smile and quickly step forward to greet him with cupped fists, "Steward song, long time no see. You look more energetic. It seems that your cultivation has improved again!"

Steward song raised his eyes and glanced at Zheng dongjue indifferently. He said in a neutral tone, ""Vice Hall Master Zheng, this old man's aptitude is dull, and I haven't made any progress for many years. I've really made a fool of myself!"

Zheng dongjue let out an "uh" and was immediately choked. The atmosphere of this conversation was not very right ...

"I heard that vice Hall Master Zheng schemed against my Young Island master as soon as he arrived. You're really capable and skillful. Compared to you, I'm really old and useless. Alright, since vice Hall Master Zheng is leaving tomorrow, you should go back and pack your things. This old man is busy, so I'll take it as a farewell!" Steward song said coldly and raised his hand to send the guest off.

Zheng dongjue turned pale with fright. He thought that since steward song was willing to see him, there was still some hope. Why did he want to drive him away without even saying a few words?

"Steward song, we've known each other for many years. If we don't see each other again, won't you feel regretful?" Zheng dongjian's plan might not work, but he was very familiar with dealing with such matters. As he spoke, his body had already rushed forward. Before steward song could say anything to send the guest off, he reached out and held his hand.

A green spirit Jade card was secretly placed into steward song's palm. On the surface, it looked like two old friends who had not seen each other for many years were greeting each other warmly.

The corner of steward song's eyes caught a trace of green on his palm. His face immediately turned as white as snow in spring, and he revealed a smile that Zheng dongjue was familiar with.

"Vice Hall Master Zheng is right. We've been old friends for many years. We might not have the chance to meet again in the future. We should have a good gathering before we leave." With a smile, steward song retracted his hand and put the spiritual Jade card, which was worth five hundred thousand spiritual jade pieces, into his pocket without a trace.

"Someone, serve vice Hall Master Zheng some tea and some spirit fruits and pastries. You're all trash!" Steward song raised his voice and said to the attendant outside the door. Then, he politely said to Zheng dongjue, "Vice Hall Master Zheng, please take a seat. Don't blame this old man for being slow! We've been old friends for many years, so we might not have the chance to talk about interesting things from the past in the future!"

Zheng dongjue's heart was filled with hatred. He knew that this old thing meant that the spiritual Jade card was only enough for him to drink a cup of tea and eat some pastries here, and then everyone could reminisce about the past. As for other matters, it was better not to speak of them.

Fortunately, Zheng dongjue also knew that the old man surnamed song was a money-grubber. As long as there were spiritual jades, he would be able to help.

He had heard that when the shopkeepers of several Chambers of Commerce on the North Island had joined forces to deal with hongzhong, they had only spent a few tens of thousands of spiritual jades to get this old thing to cooperate. Although this matter was kept a secret, it had still spread, and Zheng dongjue believed it without a doubt.

Chapter 5896 The Elixir God's Successor

Now that he had offered 500000 spiritual jades in one go, which was only enough for a cup of tea, it was obvious that this old thing had grasped his weakness and took the opportunity to raise the price, but Zheng dongjue had no choice but to agree.

After gritting his teeth, Zheng dongjue secretly gave out a Blue Spirit Jade card. He had brought enough spirit Jade for this trip to the northernmost Island, but he had already spent fifteen million spirit Jade on the ancient battleship to trick Lin Yi. Now, he was giving out another one and a half million spirit Jade. Even he couldn't help but feel the pain.

Zheng dongjue forced a smile when he saw that steward song had kept the spirit Jade card with satisfaction. He said respectfully, ""Brother song, I won't say any more nonsense. This matter is really just a misunderstanding. We are old friends. For the sake of our many years of friendship, you must help me!"

Steward song frowned slightly. He was greedy for spirit Jade, but after taking the spirit Jade, he would still do something. Of course, he knew what Zheng Dong was asking him to do, but he couldn't guarantee anything.

As for their many years of friendship? Hehe, without spiritual Jade, who would be friends with you?

"Brother Zheng, on the northernmost Island, everything else is up to you, but this matter concerns the young Island master. I'll be honest with you, this is no longer something I can interfere with. At most, I can help you put in a good word for him. Whether it works or not depends on his mood." Steward song was quite straightforward. Only a fool would ask for more spiritual Jade at this time.

However, when Zheng dongjue heard this, he felt relieved. At least, since steward song had said so, it meant that he would indeed do it and not just give it a perfunctory reply.

Zheng dongjue first expressed his thanks with a face full of gratitude. He then muttered to himself for a moment before saying, "Brother song, I know that it's already very difficult for you to plead with the young Island master, but this little brother still has a presumptuous request. If it's convenient, can brother song help introduce this little brother to the young Island master? there are some things ..."

Steward song immediately looked displeased. "Brother Zheng, I'm only willing to risk offending the young Island master to help you on account of our many years of friendship. If you want to take an inch and ask for a yard, don't blame me for not helping you."

Putting in a good word in front of li Zeyu, it didn't matter whether it would work or not. It wouldn't affect steward song's own status, but if he were to introduce Zheng dongjue to him, there was a great chance that he would bring fire upon himself and make li Zeyu unhappy. This kind of thing, steward song would definitely not do it even if he was beaten to death.

Zheng dongjian spat in his heart, thinking, 'what kind of friendship are you looking at? I'm charging five hundred thousand spiritual Jade for some trashy tea and snacks. You're just a black-hearted old man!'

However, he also understood that after seeing li Zeyu's matter, that song guy would definitely not help. No matter how many spiritual jades he offered, it would not be of any use. Left with no choice, Zheng dongjue could only settle for the next best thing. He cupped his fists and pleaded, "Brother song, then I'll have to trouble you to help me bring a message to the young Island master. Perhaps he'll change his mind after hearing it."

Steward song did some calculations in his heart. This matter didn't matter, so he nodded and said, ""Tell me about it first. It's not bad news. As your brother, of course I'll help you!"

If he had such a brother, Zheng dongjue felt that he would rather be a Lone Star ...

After looking around, Zheng dongjue apologized and approached steward song, whispering in his ear, ""Brother song, actually, Grandmaster Yi, who came from our pill Hall this time, is ..."

When the low voice reached steward song's ears, his expression changed slightly. He asked seriously, ""Is everything you said true?"

"I'm not lying!" Zheng dongjue was also extremely serious. He originally wanted to follow Tong wozha's words and persuade li Zao Yi to come forward and ask someone to help intercede.

But now, he felt that there was no need to go through so much trouble, because he, Zheng dongjue, knew something that even the referee didn't know. Li Zeyu would probably consider it carefully after hearing about it.

"Good! I'll go find the young Island master now. Brother Zheng, you can go back first and wait for my news!" Steward song's lazy appearance was swept away, and his entire aura became sharp.

After he finished speaking, steward song told his men to close the door and refuse all guests. He would not meet anyone today!

"If that's the case, I'll go back and wait for your good news, brother song!" Zheng dongjue quickly got up and cupped his fists. Goodbye!"

After returning, Zheng dongjue went to see li Zao Yi's residence. Whether it was asking her to help look for someone or if her information had been leaked, he always had to mention it vaguely. Unfortunately, li Zao Yi still didn't return.

As for Tong wuhui, he didn't come back either. He didn't know if his meeting with hou guanqi had gone well. It had been so long, so he should have heard back by now.

He suppressed his anxiety and walked back and forth in the room for about the time it takes for an incense stick to burn. Then, a Northern Garrison guard rushed to him and informed him, ""The young Island master wants you to go over immediately!"

Zheng dongjue was overjoyed. He knew that steward song had delivered his message. The 1.5 million spirit Jade had been well spent!

As for whether they were invited over or not, who would care about such a small matter?

Zheng Dong followed the northern Battlefront Wei to the Li family's residence. He had simulated countless ways to deal with the situation, but he still had no confidence in himself.

Suddenly, he felt a little regretful. He should have told this news to crouching Tong before. At least crouching Tong would know how to make better use of this news and how to respond to li Zeyu's questions. Unfortunately, it was too late now.

After arriving at the Li family's house, someone naturally took Zheng dongjue to the living room to see li Zeyu. After Zheng dongjue stepped through the door, he confirmed li Zeyu's position and quickly lowered his head. He bowed respectfully and quickly stepped forward to greet with cupped fists, ""Zheng dongjue greets the young Island master!"

If the dignified vice Hall Master of the pill Hall were to be seen by others with such a submissive appearance, the reputation of the pill Hall would probably not be any less than being expelled from the northernmost Island.

Steward song stood at the side, looking down and pretending not to see Zheng dongjue. Li Zeyu sat on the main seat and lazily waved his hand, ""No need to be so polite. You should know why I called you here, right?"

"Many thanks to Young Island master for your willingness to see me, I am extremely grateful!" Zheng dongjue straightened his body slightly. His eyes were still lowered, and he maintained a humble posture.

"Cut the crap. I originally wanted the divine Alchemist and medical Saint Zhang Liju to come personally before I allowed your pill Hall to enter the northernmost Island again. I didn't expect you to say that the successor of the divine Alchemist and medical Saint is already here. You're not lying, are you?" Li Zeyu looked at Zheng dongjue with some suspicion. If he dared to lie to him again, then the entire pill Hall would not be able to leave the northernmost Island.

Chapter 5897 Hidden Injuries

Zheng dongjue hurriedly bowed and cupped his fists again. He vowed solemnly, "Young Island master, don't worry. Everything I've said is true. If I ever lie to you, I'm willing to be cut into pieces and die!"

Li Zeyu nodded his head. This old man was willing to make such a deadly oath. It seemed that it was not a lie.

"I need to tell my old man about this. You guys wait here!" Li Zeyu did as he thought of it. He turned around and went in after saying this.

Zheng dongjue really wanted to thank steward song, but seeing that he didn't have any intention of moving, he probably didn't want to have any interaction with Zheng dongjue here. Hence, the two of them fell into silence, just standing quietly in the living room, waiting for li Zeyu to return.

Li Zeyu ran to the room where li zaixiang was in seclusion, pushed the door open, and said, ""Old man, I have something to tell you!"

"Brat, don't you know how to knock before you come in? do you really want me to go into Qi deviation again?" Li zaixiang glared and cursed, but he did not mind at all.

Li Zeyu knew that he had just recovered and wouldn't be able to cultivate again for a while. If he had really encountered him in closed-door cultivation, Li Zeyu would definitely not have done this.

"If it's so easy for you to get into Qi deviation out of habit, then you'd better die quickly so that I can ascend to the position of Island master sooner, and save myself from having to search for medicinal pills to save your life all day long." Li Zeyu said nonchalantly. In the aristocratic families outside, which son would dare to speak to his father like this? he would have been punished a hundred times by the Family Law.

Li zaixiang laughed and scolded him. "You brat, you only know how to think about my position as the island master all day. Hurry up and stop talking nonsense. Finish your business and get out of here!"

"Tsk, do you think this young master wants to come to your broken place!" Li Zeyu's face was full of disdain, and he explained the Zheng family and Lin Yi's situation in a simple way.

Li zaixiang finally knew how difficult it was for him to get this Yin Yang pill, but this was a good thing. If Lin Yi didn't turn the extreme yang grass and Yin core fruit into Yin Yang pills halfway through, it would've been easier said than done for him to get a special grade Yin Yang pill. It was just a stalk of yang extreme grass and a Yin core fruit. Even if The Alchemist of the northernmost Island could successfully refine them, the quality could not be guaranteed. It would be very good if there were medium-grade ones.

"You stinky brat, you've dealt with it quite well. Although it's a bit too lenient, it's still the eve of the auction. It's good that no one died." Li zaixiang commented lightly after listening to the story. If he were the island master, Zheng Dongsheng and Zheng Tianqing would have died a long time ago. They would not have such a good life to waste food in prison.

However, Li Zeyu's way of handling things had already made him very satisfied. The northernmost Island had always been positioned as a money-squandering cave. It was necessary to maintain good relations with all forces. A benevolent Island master might not be enough to deter them, but it was enough to maintain the prosperity of the northernmost Island.

"Old man, are you even listening to me? I'm not asking you to talk about how I'm doing, I'm talking about the pill Hall's matters!" Li Zeyu grumbled with a face full of dissatisfaction, but in his heart, he was snickering because of his father's small compliment.

Li zaixiang chuckled, and his aura slowly rose. "He's just a small vice head of the alchemy division, it doesn't matter how we deal with him. Even if Zhang Liju came here personally, he would have to be polite to the Li family of the extreme north! Who the hell was this Zheng guy? Just kill them and feed them to the dogs!"

Li Zeyu immediately rolled his eyes and said, "Damn old man, can't you be more serious? don't drag that idiot with the surname Zheng into this, okay? I'm talking to you about the successor of the divine alchemy doctor, are you really going to kick them out? Isn't this not giving pill God Zhang Liju face?"

"Silly boy, don't you already know what to do? what's there to ask? But if the girl you're talking about is really Zhang Liju's student, you can ask her to give me a diagnosis and see if my injury can be cured. " Li zaixiang said with a smile. He wasn't afraid of Zhang Liju, but he didn't want to offend him.

Li Zeyu was shocked. The old man's injuries had not healed?

"Have you not recovered from your injuries? Even a special grade Yin Yang pill can't cure it?" Li Zeyu's heart was anxious, but on the surface, he still pretended to be unconcerned. It was just that his words had a slight tremble that he himself did not notice, completely revealing his mood.

However, Li Zaixiang could tell what he meant. He felt a slight warmth in his heart and laughed. "Don't worry, I won't pass the island master's position to you so soon. If you want to be the island master, you can just wait and see! Let that girl take a look, it's mainly about some old injuries from the past and some hidden injuries left behind by cultivation. If she's really the successor of the divine Alchemist and medical Saint, these small problems can naturally be cured. "

"Tsk, this young master is still young and strong, can't I wait? What a joke!" Li Zeyu shook his hand disdainfully, but he was greatly relieved in his heart. As long as it wasn't an injury left behind by his previous Qi deviation, it would be fine.

Li Zaixiang waved his hand. "That's enough. Go and invite that girl over to take a look. Then, you can deal with the matters of the pill Hall. There's no need to have any concerns!"

After a slight pause, Li Zaixiang specially reminded, ""No matter what you're planning to do, it's best to inform that refiner Lin Yi first. Someone who can make special class yin and yang pills on his own is definitely not simple, and he might be the next Zhang Liju. And from what you've said, he's a very good friend. Remember, friends who can betray each other because of benefits can be betrayed at any time, so you have to make friends with people like him sincerely. Don't try to use benefits to bind him ..."

"Old man, you're getting more and more long-winded. Do I need you to teach me how to make friends? Don't underestimate me, okay?" Li Zeyu interrupted very impatiently. However, in his heart, he felt that what the old man said made a lot of sense. Otherwise, he would not have waited until he had almost finished listening before he interrupted.

Li zaixiang was slightly stunned, but then he smiled faintly. Indeed, his son had grown up. No matter what, he had to let him think and decide for himself. The future island master of the northernmost Island was not a puppet without his own thoughts. As the Father, he only had to silently watch his son's growth behind his back. When the time was appropriate, he would help him get rid of some trouble that should not appear around him.

After li Zeyu heard that the old man still had many old and hidden injuries, he was already concerned in his heart. No matter what, there was no harm in letting Li Yi come over to take a look, so he casually waved his hand and said, ""Old man, you can play by yourself. I'm going to do something." Then, she hurriedly ran out.

Chapter 5898 Here It Comes Again

Returning to the living room, steward song and Zheng dongjue still maintained the same posture as when he left, almost without the slightest difference. After li Zeyu sat down, he said to steward song, ""Uncle song, why are you still standing? I told you not to be so formal at home. Hurry up and sit down. Otherwise, the old man will beat me up if he finds out!"

Steward song chuckled and said, "young master, you don't have to worry about me. I'm just used to standing. It's uncomfortable to sit. My arms and legs are old. It's better to stand more."

"Uncle song, you're not old. You look much younger than my old man!" Li Zeyu laughed as he said this, and then no longer paid attention to him.

Steward song was the steward of the northernmost Island, and also the steward of the northernmost Li family. Although he was still a servant, li Zeyu had never treated him as a servant. It was just that he had always maintained a very proper attitude. Wherever the Li family was present, he, as the steward, would never sit down, no matter how many times he said it.

Li Zeyu was also used to it. Anyway, he would say it once every time, so it would be quite strange if he didn't say it.

He turned to look at Zheng dongjue and said, "vice Hall Master Zheng, my old man said that he's not feeling well. If what you said before is true, then ask the successor of the divine alchemy doctor to come and treat my old man as soon as possible. We'll know if he's true or not after a try." If it's fake, you should know the consequences!"

Zheng dongjue hurriedly bowed and said, "no problem. I'll go back and get Master Li Zao Yi to come over. He'll diagnose Island Master Li. Young Island master, please wait a moment!"

Of course, he wasn't stupid enough to talk about conditions. As long as li Zao Yi could cure li zaixiang, everything that had happened before would be written off.

Moreover, this was much better than letting li Zao Yi show her face in public and use favors in exchange for a chance to plead for mercy. Zheng dongjue couldn't help but praise his own wit.

After Zheng dongjue left, li Zeyu stood up and said to steward song, ""Uncle song, I'm going out for a while. You wait here. If Zheng dongjue and the others come, you can bring that girl to my old man. I should be back soon."

"Yes, young master!" Steward song bowed respectfully and agreed. He did not ask li Zeyu where he was going and what he was doing. He had done his duty as a servant to the extreme.

Li Zeyu nodded. As he walked out quickly, he didn't forget to say, ""Uncle song, if you have nothing to do, just sit down and have some tea. Don't always stand, I'm tired just by looking at you!"

"Yes, young master, I understand!"

Li Zeyu went out to find Lin Yi, of course. He could have just sent someone to inform him about this kind of small matter, or he could have written a letter and asked someone to deliver it. He was the young master of the northernmost Island, there was no need for him to make a trip personally for such a small matter.

However, he remembered his old man's words-if he truly wanted to make friends, he had to show his sincerity. A mere Zheng family was nothing, and Li Zeyu didn't want to have any grudges with Lin Yi over such a small matter. It was best to talk things out face to face.

Lin Yi heard that Li Zeyu was here again and was a little surprised. This was the first time he came to get the yin and yang pill, and then he came over for a drink. This was the third time today, right? This person was a little too enthusiastic.

No matter what, Li Zeyu was still a decent guy. Lin Yi also felt that he was someone who could be a friend, and so he immediately came out to welcome him.

"Brother Li, it's so late. Is there something wrong?" Lin Yi came out and saw Li Zeyu with a few guards. He immediately cupped his fists and asked.

Li Zeyu didn't stand on ceremony and laughed as he pulled on Lin Yi, "There are some small things. Is it convenient for us to talk inside?"

Lin Yi nodded and let Li Zeyu in. After they sat down, he didn't waste any time and got straight to the point.

Li Zeyu scratched his head and said without beating around the bush, "Brother Lin, it's like this. I want to ask if you have any thoughts on how the pill Hall handled this matter. Because of some unforeseen circumstances, the original decision might be changed. Of course, if brother Lin feels that it's better to maintain the original judgment, I have no objections. "

Lin Yi didn't really care about that—Hou Guanqi had just come to talk to him, asking him to help the pill Hall at a suitable time. After all, Zheng Dongjue couldn't represent the pill Hall, and Li Zeyu was taking his anger out on the pill Hall because of the Zheng family. It was a bit of a waste.

No matter what, the pill Hall was founded by Lin Yi's cheap master. As the saying goes, even if you don't give face to the monk, give face to the Buddha. He was just about to find an opportunity to talk to Li Zeyu about this, but he didn't expect Li Zeyu to come over and mention it directly.

"Brother Li, I won't say anything more, but the hall of pills is one of the few organizations on Sky Class Island, after all, and Island Master Li is fine. It's good that we're even!" Lin Yi smiled as he made his attitude clear. As for the Zheng family, he might as well let them go.

Li Zeyu was immediately overjoyed. "Brother Lin is indeed a generous person. Since that's the case, I will also cancel the punishment of the pill Hall. Oh right, those few guys from the Zheng family, should we just expel them alone?"

Lin Yi really wanted to say that there was no point in going through so much trouble. He could just kill them off, but he could also see that Li Zeyu had no intention of killing anyone during the auction on the northernmost Island. At most, he would just drive them out of the island. Instead of that, he might as well let them go.

After banishing the Zheng trio, Lin Yi was worried that they would go back to Middle Island and cause trouble for the heavenly elixir Pavilion. That would be bad. Although there was still Tian xingdao on Middle Island, he was alone. It was impossible to guard against him, especially when han Jingjing's primordial spirit had not returned. There was no room for any mistakes.

Since that was the case, it was more reassuring to keep them under his nose. In any case, they were just a few small fries who didn't amount to much. There was nothing to worry about. If there was a chance, it would be more convenient to kill them.

"Brother li is a truly benevolent and righteous person. Since the punishment of the pill Hall has been canceled, we might as well let them go and avoid any gossip from the outside. They are just a few insignificant people anyway. It doesn't matter." Lin Yi said with a smile, but in his heart, he was guessing what price Zheng dongjue had paid to make li Zeyu change his mind.

However, li Zeyu personally came over to ask Lin Yi about such a small matter, which made him very touched. This young master was indeed a good friend, and Lin Yi would remember this.

Li Zeyu said a few humble words, which was rare, and then explained,""I wouldn't have forgiven them at first, but that Zheng dongjue told me something. He said that the chief Alchemist of the pill Hall this time, li Zao Yi, is actually the successor of the divine Alchemist and medical Saint. Whether it's alchemy or medical skills, he's quite powerful. If the pill Hall is expelled just like that, the God of alchemy Zhang Liju won't look too good. I asked my old man, and he said that if the girl is real, then we'll give face to Zhang Liju's successor. If she's fake, then we'll double the punishment!"

Chapter 5899 The Recovery Pill

Lin Yi was surprised-he didn't think that lizao Yi would be Zhang Liju's student. No wonder she was so good at pill making at such a young age. Other than her talent, she had the most outstanding inheritance!

In that case, wasn't lizao Yi Lin Yi's junior Sister? Of course, it could also be a Senior Sister. She didn't know if Zhang Liju ranked her according to age or the order of entry. She had to do some calculations in the future-she couldn't just be a Junior Brother everywhere she went, could she?

Li Zeyu didn't wait for Lin Yi's reaction as he stood up and said, ""Yi Yi should be coming to my house soon. My old man still has some old injuries on his body. It's a good time to verify the status of this successor of the divine Alchemist and medical Saint, so I have to go back now. Brother Lin, if you have time, come and find me for a drink and a chat. I'll come and find you when I'm free!"

Lin Yi wanted to tell li zaixiang that he was a good doctor and that he could help him if he needed help, but he remembered that the people from the pill Hall would be visiting tonight. He decided to wait until tomorrow to visit li zaixiang.

After leaving the courtyard of the five elements Chamber of Commerce, li Zeyu rushed home without stopping and just happened to see Zheng dongjue go in with li Zao Yi.

When Zheng dongjue went back this time, lizao Yi also came back. He didn't waste much time and only mentioned that he was doing it for the sake of the pill Hall. Lizao Yi agreed to come over and take a look at li zaixiang. It was unknown whether she was simply kind or simply stupid ... In reality, she simply didn't want the pill Hall's reputation to be damaged.

In any case, Zheng dongjue's goal had been achieved. All his efforts had been done. All that was left was this final tremble. As long as li Zao Yi could show her ability in alchemy and medicine, the crisis of the pill Hall, or to be exact, Zheng dongjue's crisis this time, would be completely resolved.

Li Zeyu was worried about his old man's illness and quickly caught up with li Zao Yi. He didn't even bother to say hello and took her to the back. As for Zheng dongjue, he had better wait in the living room. The backyard of the Li family in the extreme north was not a place that just anyone could go.

When they arrived at li zaixiang's room, li Zao Yi saluted and greeted him. Then, she began to take li zaixiang's pulse. For ordinary injuries, she only needed to look, listen, and ask to cure them. However, for old and hidden injuries, she needed to use her true energy to take his pulse in order to clearly grasp the most detailed situation.

After a while, li Zao Yi let go of li zaixiang's wrist and said with a calm expression, ""There are three old injuries on Island Master Li's body, all of which were caused by serious injuries in his early years. In addition, there are six hidden injuries caused by careless cultivation. These old and hidden injuries can't be cured by ordinary medicinal pills and medical means. In my opinion, only by using the recovery pill and the golden needle acupoint technique, coupled with treatment, can we have an 80% chance of eliminating these hidden injuries."

Li zaixiang clapped his hands and laughed, "Master Li Zao is indeed amazing. You could actually see through my injuries so easily. To be honest, I'm not that clear myself!" Since Master Li Zao has a treatment plan, there shouldn't be any problems with it, right?"

Before li Zao Yi could say anything, li zaixiang said in surprise, ""Wait, Master Li Zao is talking about the recovery pill? Can this kind of pill really be refined?"

"Island Master Li, it seems that you've heard of the recovery pill?" Li Zao Yi wasn't very surprised. As the island master of the northernmost Island, it wasn't strange for him to know about this kind of obscure medicinal pill. "Since Island master knows about the recovery pill, it's even more convenient to talk about it."

Li zaixiang sighed and said,"if it's the recovery pill, I'm afraid it won't be easy to deal with it." The Li family of the extreme north has also collected this recipe, so I know how difficult it is. Even though Master Li Zao is here, I don't think he can refine it, right?"

Li Zeyu had never seen the pill recipe for the recovery pill, so he asked curiously,""Old man, is the grade of the recovery pill very high? Could it be a Mystic level six or seven pill? Or is the main herb too rare?"

Li Zao Yi explained,"the recovery pill's level isn't very high. It's just a Mystic first level pill, barely touching the threshold of Mystic second level. The main ingredient is also okay. It needs two kinds of top quality pills. One is the mystic first level recovery pill, and the other is the Golden seventh level special great recovery pill. Other than that, the other supplementary spiritual medicines are easy to get."

Li Zeyu couldn't help but suck in a breath of cold air. How could this girl say these words so casually? What did he mean by the main medicine was still alright? Supreme grade seventh grade great recovery pill and truth restoration pill, were they that easy to obtain?

Ordinary middle grade or even high grade seventh grade great recovery pills were very common, but Super Grade great recovery pills were very rare, not to mention the truth restoration pill. Even high grade ones were very rare!

Li Zao Yi paused for a moment before continuing,"Actually, the most troublesome thing about the revival pill is its concoction process. It's the same as the yin and yang pill, it requires two people to concoct it. Fortunately, it doesn't require a man and a woman like the yin and yang pill. However, these two alchemists must be extremely powerful. If they don't have the ability to split their attention, it's impossible to concoct it successfully."

Li zaixiang asked with interest, "Master Li Zao, can you elaborate?" Although I have the pill recipe here, I don't have much understanding in this area. "

Li Zao Yi nodded slightly and said, "Island Master Li, don't worry. I was going to explain it to you. To refine the regeneration elixir, first of all, two alchemists must refine and break down two kinds of Supreme-grade elixirs at the same time, and then control the appropriate elixir liquid to merge with each other. Not only can there be no mistakes during the decomposition, but the fusion must also be equal to the other party's amount. As long as there is a little difference, it is likely to lead to the failure of the elixir refinement. In fact, it's not impossible to split your attention to do three things. "

"It seems like there's no way to treat my injury. Let's just forget about this matter!" Li zaixiang shook his head.

Although Li Zao Yi didn't say it, Li zaixiang could vaguely guess that the two of them were so distracted in refining the recovery pill that a little carelessness could lead to a backlash, so he didn't want to force them.

In terms of difficulty, the recovery pill was comparable to a Mystic third level or even a Mystic fourth level pill. However, two Mystic first level alchemists could make the recovery pill, but they might not be able to make a Mystic second level pill, so it was still considered a Mystic first level pill.

Li Zeyu's heart was anxious. Since he knew that his old man had so many old and hidden injuries, if they were not all cured, how could he be at ease?

Chapter 5900 Request For Cooperation

"Master Li Zao, you'll definitely have a way, right? With your pill refining skills, as long as you can find a partner, you should be able to successfully refine the recovery pill, right?" Li Zeyu couldn't care less about concealing his feelings and quickly asked.

Li Zao Yi nodded indifferently and said, "if there's someone who can cooperate with me, then there's no problem. As for the Supreme grade seventh grade recover pill and Supreme grade truth restoration pill, I can also concoct them as long as I have the materials." However, as long as Island Lord Li is willing to offer a price, you should be able to buy these two pills. "

She said that because she knew that Lin Yi made the recovery pill for someone on the ancient battleship. He didn't reveal what quality the pill was, but she was sure that it was special grade. After all, all the pills Lin Yi took out in the restaurant were special grade without exception!

Thinking of Lin Yi, Lizao Yi subconsciously said to Li Zaixiang, "As for the pill refiner, there's another suitable candidate other than me. The island master and young master shouldn't be unfamiliar with him, and that's Lin Yi!"

If Zheng Dongjue hadn't told Li Zhaoyi everything in detail, she might not have known that Li Zeyu and the others knew about Lin Yi. Now that there was that Supreme-grade yin and yang pill, Li Zaixiang and Li Zeyu probably wouldn't reject her when she mentioned Lin Yi.

As expected, Li Zeyu clapped his hands and said, ""That's right! Lin Yi's skill in refining pills is also extremely high. With him and master Lizao working together, it'll be very easy for them to make the recovery pill!"

Li Zaixiang nodded. There was nothing strange about Li Yi and Lin Yi knowing each other. They were in the same boat, and it seemed like their relationship was quite good. In that case, it was necessary to write off the incident with the pill Hall.

Li Zeyu had the same thought as well. He was also considering if Lin Yi didn't pursue the matter with the pill Hall because of Li Zao Yi, but he didn't know that Lin Yi just didn't care about the Zheng family at all.

"If you can get Lin Yi to help you with the pill, then the chances of Island Master Li's recovery will be much higher. If he doesn't want to, then forget it. I'll use the golden needle technique to help you recuperate. It won't be able to heal the old and hidden injuries, but it'll make you feel better." Li Zhaoyi said calmly and looked at Li Zeyu, telling him to hurry up and find Lin Yi.

Li Zeyu smacked his forehead. He was really busy today. If he knew, he would have brought Lin Yi here. He had no choice. He could only continue to make the fourth trip.

Lin Yi had just been reading in his room for a while when he saw Li Zeyu, Young Island Master Li, coming to visit him again. He didn't wait for him to go out and welcome him, but Li Zeyu knocked on the door and came in.

"Brother Lin, I'm sorry to disturb you again. I'm here to ask for your help today, so please don't reject me!" Li Zeyu grabbed Lin Yi's arm and started blabbering.

Lin Yi smiled, "brother Li, just let me know if you need anything. I'll help you if I can. Why don't you tell me what it is first?"

Li Zeyu's face was all smiles as he gave Lin Yi a big thumbs up. "Good brother, good friend! Come, come with me first, I'll tell you in detail on the way!"

She didn't allow Lin Yi to object and pulled him out of the room, explaining the whole situation to him as they walked.

"A recovery pill made with two types of pills as the main ingredients? There's actually such a pill?" Lin Yi heard Li Zeyu's explanation of the revival pill's refining method and asked in surprise.

He really had never heard of such a pill recipe. As expected, the Dao of alchemy was miraculous. There were still too many things to learn!

Li Zeyu didn't have much research on alchemy, and he could only repeat it without discussing the recipe with Lin Yi. He could only chuckle, "Brother Lin's pill refining skills are unquestionable. This time, I'd like to invite you and Master Li Zao to cooperate in refining the recovery pill so that you can treat my old man."

"Brother Li is too kind. I still need to take a look at the pill recipe before I know if I can refine it. If I can help, I definitely won't refuse!" Lin Yi knew what he was doing—he wouldn't really make elixirs, and without an automatic refining system, he wouldn't even be able to make golden class first level elixirs, let alone Mystic first level ones. Cooperating with Li Zao Yi was suicide.

However, the pill recipe of the recovery pill could be used for research. Perhaps he could refine it by himself, just like refining the yin and yang pill. Since he treated Li Zeyu as a friend, then he would of course help him with this kind of favor.

Li Zeyu felt that it was normal for Lin Yi not to take full responsibility. If it was him, he wouldn't make any promises in an unclear situation. It was because of this that Lin Yi seemed to be very serious.

The two soon arrived at Li Zaixiang's room. Li Zao Yi sat on the side calmly and nodded at Lin Yi when he saw him. Lin Yi knew that this might be his Senior Sister or Junior Sister, so he nodded back politely.

"Junior Lin Yi greets the island master!" When he saw li zaixiang, he knew that he was li Zeyu's father. It was not about how similar he looked, but the temperament. It was exactly the same.

Lin Yi treated li Zeyu as a friend, so li zaixiang was naturally his senior, and so his greeting was very respectful.

"Hahaha, nephew Lin is indeed a man of striking appearance. Since you're friends with this stinky brat, there's no need to be so polite. I'll ask you to call me nephew, but if you don't mind, you can call me uncle!" Li zaixiang didn't put on any airs. He stood up and patted Lin Yi's shoulder, smiling and asking him to sit down.

Li Zeyu hmphed and turned to Lin Yi, "Brother Lin, please don't mind him. This old man just likes to be friendly with others. You don't have to worry about him. If you're happy, you can even call him old man Li."

Lin Yi was suddenly happy. This father and son pair were really weird. He saw how li Zeyu cared about li zaixiang and thought that they were just a loving father and filial son, but it wasn't the case at all!

Li zaixiang scolded jokingly before turning to Lin Yi with a serious expression. "Nephew Lin, I've invited you here today because this Master Li Zao suggested that we refine the recovery pill together. If you have any difficulties, just tell me, it's fine."

Lin Yi looked at li Zaoyi in surprise. He thought that li Zeyu wanted to ask him and Li Zaoyi to refine pills together, but he didn't expect that it was li Zaoyi who suggested it.

It seemed that this strange little girl really wanted to refine pills with him. He had thought that after he had rejected her offer to refine the yin and yang pill together last time, she would ignore him.

Maybe it was because Lin Yi told her that he was Zhang Liju's student, so she was curious?
