

Bodyguard 6901

Chapter 6901 Lin Yi's Big Move

The white-haired killer's body was suddenly pushed forward. His speed was already extremely fast, and now it suddenly became a little faster. He was a little dumbfounded for a moment.

Lin Yi used this chance to attack again, using offense instead of defense to buy time! Although he couldn't do anything to the white-haired killer, he was still flustered.

"Well done, lil bro Lin! Hold on for a little longer, I'll be there soon!"

Huang Yuntian was overjoyed. He didn't expect Lin Yi to last several moves under the White hair killer's attack,"Elder Gu, attack the enemy with all your might. Don't tell me that the two of us are not as good as little brother Lin alone?"

Gu Tiannan's face turned red. After being called out by Huang Yuntian, he was too embarrassed to continue playing a supporting role, so he could only cooperate.

In a one-on-one situation, the ghost Face assassin was not Huang Yuntian's opponent. With Gu Tiannan, he was even more cautious and was in danger of being killed at any time.

The wry-faced assassin groaned in his heart-he'd delayed Lin Yi for so long that the White hair assassin should've had enough time to kill Lin Yi, but he didn't expect Lin Yi to be so strong. Not only was he not killed, but he was even able to counterattack!

But now, the ghost Face assassin was in danger and could be killed by Huang Yuntian and Gu Tiannan at any time.

"Don't worry, big brother Huang! I'm more than capable here, and I might be able to kill this idiot before you!"

Lin Yi laughed out loud. He'd figured out the White hair killer's tactics, and it wasn't as hard as before.

The white-haired masked man almost exploded in anger after hearing this. What a miscalculation, what a miscalculation! However, it was no longer realistic for him to go back and help the ghost Face.

Seeing that Huang Yuntian and Gu Tiannan were about to kill the ghost Face killer, several figures rushed out of the smoke!

They were actually the reinforcements of hidden death sect!

"Lil bro Lin, retreat first!"

Huang Yuntian had the upper hand, but he was a cautious man. He wouldn't allow Lin Yi to make any mistakes, "I'll bring up the rear!"

Lin Yi was speechless. He wanted to retreat, but the White hair killer was still there. He could fight with him, but he might expose himself if he turned around and ran.

In terms of absolute speed, Lin Yi was confident that he was faster than the white-haired killer, but the problem was that the white-haired killer was always able to predict the enemy's movements and intercept them first, making it impossible for Lin Yi to guard against.

"Elder Gu, you hold on for a while!"

Huang Yuntian also saw the problem, so he threw the ghost Face killer to Gu Tiannan, and turned around to help, ""Lil bro Lin, hurry up and leave!"

Huang Yuntian's attack was coming. The White hair killer could only give up on Lin Yi and turn to deal with Huang Yuntian. Otherwise, he would be killed by Huang Yuntian before Lin Yi.

Lin Yi let out a long breath of air after he was free, but he didn't leave immediately.

He had come here to annihilate hidden death sect. If he were to leave just like that, wouldn't that be equivalent to admitting defeat?

With someone taking the pressure for him, Lin Yi had time to prepare his big move!

He took out formation flags from the space in the Jade and started setting up formations. One by one, level five and level six formations were completed in an instant.

With Lin Yi's current level of formation skills, he could set up a whole bunch of these in an instant without the help of any ghostly things.

It'd be a bit difficult for Lin Yi to set up a level nine formation on his own, and even with the help of some ghostly thing it'd take a lot of time. But using low-level formations to set up high-level ones was easy and pleasant.

Lin Yi's combination formation was complete when the reinforcements from hidden death sect arrived. Unfortunately, it was only a single trap formation and couldn't be stacked with other level nine formations.

"Brother Huang, let's join forces and take them down one by one!"

Lin Yi called out to Huang Yuntian after finishing the formation.

Huang Yuntian understood tacitly. He left the white-haired killer and turned around to attack the ghost Face killer.

A level nine trap formation was enough to trap a sea-shattering expert. Although Lin Yi's combination formation was still flawed, it wouldn't be easy for people who didn't understand formations to break it.

All he needed now was a little time difference!

With the three of them working together, the ghost Face killer almost cried out. He clearly had the advantage in numbers, so why did he always have to face a large group of enemies alone?

The assassins from hidden death sect who had rushed over to help immediately lost contact with their companions the moment they entered the trapping array. They could only run around like headless flies and attack the trapping array without a care. They tried to break the array by force and break the restrictions of the array.

"Kill!!!"

Suddenly, the sound of fighting filled the air from cloudsmoke Lake. The sounds of fighting were getting closer and closer. Lin Yi realized that the reinforcements from the Alliance were here!

Zhuang Yifan and Huang Yuntian shared the same fate. Just as Huang Yuntian was worried about Lin Yi's life, Zhuang Yifan was worried about Huang Yuntian's safety!

Therefore, after the troops had been reorganized, Zhuang Yifan rushed over at full speed to support them and launched a general attack directly.

However, it was a little too early to act. This was not the gathering point of hidden death sect. If they exposed their team's strength too early, would the assassins from hidden death sect in the swamp still come out?

"Retreat! Hurry up! Retreat!"

The White hair killer shouted, trying to escape Lin Yi's trap formation, "Everyone, scatter and break out of the encirclement! Don't linger!"

The essence of an assassin was to hide in the dark and find the other party's weakness to launch a sneak attack. If the attack failed, they would escape far away instead of fighting with an opponent of the same level.

The white-haired assassin had some confidence in his battle with Huang Yuntian and the others, but now that he saw a large group of enemies approaching, he would be stupid if he didn't run.

"Isn't it too late to run now?"

Lin Yi smiled coldly as he activated the thousand changes of wood and forest. He instantly released hundreds of clones and held back the hidden death sect's reinforcements in the trap formation, not letting them leave easily.

The level nine trap array that was set up in a hurry was naturally not perfect. There was a huge flaw in it and it could not trap so many hidden death sect experts effectively.

However, it was a different story when Lin Yi's clones went up. The people from hidden death sect were immediately forced into a corner.

In terms of strength, Lin Yi's clones were stronger than most of the students. If it wasn't for the fact that he was limited by the number of clones and their defensive capabilities, he wouldn't even need the students "help.

"Haha, well said, lil bro Lin! None of them will be able to escape today!"

Huang Yuntian laughed out loud and threw a punch at the ghost-faced killer, ""You are the first one! I'll be the second one to find you!"

The ghost-faced killer was beaten to death. He had died unjustly. The reinforcements had arrived, but they could not help him.

The white-haired assassin suddenly felt a chill in his heart. He suddenly slapped his chest, and his face turned red as he spat out a mouthful of blood.

Of course, this wasn't suicide. Lin Yi's face turned serious. This was like one of those legendary forbidden moves in the world of practicing-burning one's life to increase one's strength!

Chapter 6902 Three-In-One

Sure enough, the next moment, the white-haired killer thrust his short sword like lightning and drew a strange pattern with the blood in the air. When the pattern took shape, the aura on his body also began to soar. He actually faintly broke through the shackles of the sea splitting stage and entered the heaven breaking stage.

"Not good, my trap array can't trap him!"

"We have to strike as soon as possible, we can't let him continue to level up!" Lin Yi turned around and warned loudly.

"Let's attack together and kill!"

"Die!" Huang Yuntian shouted as he charged at the white-haired assassin.

Gu Tiannan also knew that the situation was urgent, so he gritted his teeth and followed.

The blood pattern in front of the white-haired killer flashed and went into his forehead. As the blood pattern disappeared, his eyes turned blood red. His aura exploded and his body flew into the air, tearing apart Lin Yi's level nine trap formation easily!

The true strength of the heaven breaking stage!

In an instant, the White hair Assassin's powerful aura swept in all directions, breaking the trap formation and destroying Lin Yi's clones.

Huang Yuntian and Gu Tiannan, who were halfway there, flew back at the same time. They could not get close to him!

The difference between half-step heaven breaking and the true heaven breaking stage was definitely not just half a step, but the difference between heaven and earth!

"We're no match for them. Let's retreat!"

Gu Tiannan suppressed the boiling blood in his chest and shouted as he retreated, "This person is using a forbidden technique. We definitely can't last long. Let's hide for a while and then come back!"

"I can't retreat!"

Huang Yuntian suppressed the frustration in his chest and shouted as he stabilized his body, "We must stop him! If we retreat, not many of the students will be able to return alive today!"

Gu Tiannan really wanted to spit on Huang Yuntian's head. What was a student? It didn't matter even if they died as cannon fodder.

From Gu Tiannan's point of view, if these students could go up and waste the time of the white-haired killer's forbidden move, and make the opponent's heaven breaking period lose its effect as soon as possible, he would definitely do so.

However, Huang Yuntian would never allow such a thing to happen. He was the one who suggested this plan. If all the students were annihilated, he would no longer be the president of the mystic Sea region's Alliance of Academies. He would directly return to the earth Sea region.

This had always been his wish, but he would be punished for it, not to mention being promoted.

Lin Yi frowned. He could escape unscathed, but Huo yudie, ni caiyue, Jiang He hai, Qin Yue, and the others he cared about couldn't!

So Lin Yi didn't care about wasting them, and threw all the attack talismans Wang shiqing gave him to the White hair killer, activating a bunch of defense talismans at the same time.

But then again, the offensive and defensive runes of the sea Rift realm were useless to the white-haired killer at this moment. The offensive runes could not break his defense, but the defensive runes could be easily torn apart. They were basically like tickles to him.

"Big brother Huang, let the students retreat first!"

As long as the students left, Lin Yi would be fine. "We're no match for them. There's no need to send the students to their deaths. "

"Alright!"

Huang Yuntian immediately circulated his true Qi and amplified his voice, ""Yifan, take your men and retreat!"

If they wanted to encircle and annihilate hidden death sect, they had to get rid of the white-haired assassin first. Otherwise, everything would not be able to proceed.

Huang Yuntian's voice was clearly transmitted to everyone's ears. All the noise immediately quieted down, and then, shouts of retreat rang out from everywhere.

Huang Yuntian immediately relaxed. However, the problem in front of him had to be solved. Should they retreat together or continue to fight to the end?

However, in the next moment, Huang Yuntian discovered that the white-haired Assassin's eyes were red, and his mind seemed to be a little muddled. This was because the other party had a powerful and invincible strength, but he could not use it as he wished. He could only attack in a disorderly manner without any strong focus. He was just hitting wherever he pointed.

"This white-haired old man seems to have suffered from the backlash of the forbidden move. Although he has the strength to break out of this situation, his mind is not very clear!"

Lin Yi noticed the problem as well and was excited, "This is the best time to kill him. If we wait for him to wake up, we won't be his match!"

"I noticed it too, but we can't get close to him."

Huang Yuntian smiled bitterly. It was not that he did not want to kill the White-hair assassin, but he was powerless!

"Brother Huang, elder Gu, do you have any more trump cards? If you have it, then don't hide it. If you don't need it now, when will you?"

Lin Yi said as he raised both his hands, a super pill fire bomb forming in his palms. "We might not be able to kill him alone, but with the three of us working together, we might be able to kill him!"

The three of them were actually not weak. When their big moves were stacked together, they would probably be very powerful.

"Good! Then let's give it our all!"

Huang Yuntian began to prepare to use his strongest martial skill.

Gu Tiannan was the same. At this point, he, Huang Yuntian, and Lin Yi were in the same boat. No one could escape, they could only help each other!

Fortunately, the white-haired Assassin's mind was not clear. Otherwise, the three of them would have been killed a hundred times before they could even release their big moves!

Lin Yi dodged a wave of the white-haired killer's subconscious attacks with some effort, his face extremely serious. The Super alchemy bomb in his palm was almost at the limit of his control!

However, this was far from enough!

Although the power of such a super alchemy bomb was powerful, it was still far from enough to deal with the white-haired assassin!

And so, Lin Yi continued to gather them. When the two super alchemy fire bombs were out of his control and were about to explode on their own, Lin Yi put his hands together!

The two super pill fire bombs combined into one!

The bomb exploded, forming a spiral beam of hot light that shot straight at the white-haired killer!

This was Lin Yi's ultimate move, and he'd put his life on the line to push it out. If he'd made a mistake, he'd probably be blown into pieces!

At the same time Lin Yi attacked, Huang Yuntian and Gu Tiannan, who had been accumulating energy for a long time, also activated their strongest martial skills. The three of them completed a perfect wave of coordinated attack!

The veins on Huang Yuntian's forehead bulged, "go to hell!"

The most powerful martial skill was naturally the life-saving ultimate move. After the attack, even the heaven breaker Huang Yuntian had temporarily fallen into a weak state.

If he could not kill the white-haired killer with this move, he would be in great danger if the other party retaliated.

Thus, one could imagine the pressure in Huang Yuntian's heart. He wanted to return to the earth-class Sea region. He did not want to die in the yellow-class Sea region!

The old man, on the other hand, was calm and collected, not nervous or anxious at all-Lin Yi assumed that the old man was probably tired of living ...

Chapter 6903 Helped The Other Party A Great Deal

The attacks of the three men converged in an instant and bombarded the white-haired killer's chest and abdomen.

In order to maximize their power, the three of them had tried their best to minimize their attack range. Therefore, although they did not manage to cover the white-haired assassin, they had directly penetrated his lower abdomen, leaving a bloody arc!

The lower half of the white-haired killer's body fell to the ground miserably. It had been cut in half at the waist.

It was a success!

As Lin Yi was cheering, he suddenly realized that his hands were a bloody mess, leaving only white bones!

Although Lin Yi was in his Yuan spirit form, he had a solid body. It was normal for him to be affected by the Super alchemy fire bomb.

"He's not dead yet! Be careful!"

Huang Yuntian suddenly cried out as he stared at the white-haired masked assassin in the air, ""You can't even kill him like this! Does he have an immortal body?"

"This old thing's life force is really tenacious!"

Lin Yi looked at Huang Yuntian as he healed his injuries, ""Brother Huang, can you launch another attack?"

Although the white-haired killer was not dead yet, he was already an arrow at the end of its flight. If he used another big move, he would definitely die!

"I'm sorry, little brother Lin, I can't hold on any longer ..."

Huang Yuntian smiled helplessly. He also wanted to try again. Unfortunately, the reason why a trump card was called a trump card was that it could only be used when he was trying to save his life. If he could use it continuously, it would not be called a trump card.

Of course, the kid with the Jade space was an exception!

Lin Yi turned to look at Gu Tiannan, but the old man shook his head. His situation was similar to Huang Yuntian's, at most slightly better, able to walk a few steps.

The White hair killer did not have legs, leaving only the upper half of his body floating in the air. Blood was dripping from the lower part of his abdomen.

This was faster than his period, and Lin Yi felt that the white-haired killer would die from blood loss if this continued.

"Haha...Haha...Hahahaha ..."

The white-haired killer suddenly laughed wildly, and his red eyes slowly regained their clarity. "You guys ... Well done! However, you will not be able to escape death today ... All of you will be buried with me!"

Lin Yi's heart trembled. He activated all the remaining sea shattering realm defensive talismans to protect the three of them.

Regardless of whether it was useful or not, it was always a good thing to have an additional layer of defense.

"In your current state, do you still have the ability to attack?"

Lin Yi pretended to be calm as he took out the Black Pearl and pointed it at the white-haired killer. This was his last card. "I'm afraid you'll be finished before you can kill us!"

Lin Yi wasn't sure if the Black Pearl could kill the White hair killer or not. He didn't know if it could kill the White hair killer, which was why he didn't attack. He wanted to buy more time and let the White hair killer bleed more.

"I don't need to do it myself. You'll naturally die without a burial ground!"

The white-haired killer's smile was very strange, and there was undisguisable pity in his eyes. "Pathetic guys, you came at the right time. You came here to die and even helped me a lot. You can't blame anyone else!"

"You said that killing you would be a great help to you? Then I really don't mind helping you a little more!"

Lin Yi said, but he had a bad feeling. "Why don't you just call all the people from hidden death sect up here? I'll help you all release your souls at once!"

"Hahaha! Do you think I'm lying to you? Big fool Lin, take a good look at the ground!"

The white-haired killer raised his head and laughed wildly. He pointed to the ground and continued to roar, "Can't you tell?"

"It's that pattern just now!"

Lin Yi's face changed, the bad feeling in his heart getting stronger!

Previously, the white-haired assassin had used a mouthful of his blood to draw this pattern and finally raised his strength to the heaven breaking stage.

The pattern on the ground was drawn with the blood of his entire body, and it was hundreds of times larger than before!

What did he want to do with this pattern? The heavens?

No! He had to kill this old man immediately!

Lin Yi's eyes narrowed. He didn't dare to wait any longer and was ready to activate the Black Pearl.

Unexpectedly, the white-haired killer seemed to have lost all his strength. As the last trace of blood in his body flowed out, the other half of his body fell from the air like a broken sack, making a dull thud when it landed.

"It's already too late for you to realize this now! You can't stop us!"

The white-haired killer did not die after landing on the ground. He squirmed on the ground with a strange laugh and tried to support half of his body, revealing two protruding eyes. However, it was obviously a dying struggle.

At this point, let alone the black bead, Lin Yi felt that he could kill the White hair killer with a single finger!

He was a sky breaker master, but he'd suddenly become an ant in the dust. The contrast was too strong, and Lin Yi couldn't react in time.

Was it because of the backlash from the forbidden technique? Or was it because all the blood in his body had been drained?

"Brother Lin, don't listen to this b*stard's nonsense. Without our help, he could've completed the drawing himself!"

Huang Yuntian caught his breath, jumped up and rushed towards the white-haired killer on the ground,""Kill him first. It'll be fine if he dies!"

Although Huang Yuntian was still unable to use a powerful martial skill, he could still use it normally. It was easy to kill this dying guy.

"Ha ... Ha ... Ha ha, naive! Even if you kill me ... I won't be able to save you ... You'll be the ones who die!"

The white-haired killer was still laughing wildly, to the point that he had difficulty breathing. "Without your ... Help, even if I ... Use ... My ... Secret skill ... Temporarily ... Enter the breaking ... Heaven stage, I won't be able to bleed ..."

At this point, the white-haired assassin could not catch his breath. His eyes rolled back and he fell to the ground powerlessly, dead!

Huang Yuntian was dumbfounded, and so was Lin Yi! This is it?

Lin Yi shook his head and looked at the blood pattern. The White hair killer was dead, so what was the use of it?

"Brother Huang, we seem to have really helped him!"

Lin Yi suddenly understood, and his expression turned regretful, "He used a secret technique to enter the heaven breaking stage and will become unconscious. I'm afraid that no one in hidden death sect has the ability to deal with such a violent heaven breaking expert!"

"It's like this! I understand now. If he wants to use his own blood to draw this pattern, he must use the forbidden technique to enter the heaven breaking stage. However, after using the forbidden technique, he won't be able to stay awake to complete this task! In a situation where he has lost his mind, it would be good enough if he didn't kill anyone else, let alone the other people from hidden death sect!"

Huang Yuntian rubbed his brows and felt that this was ridiculous, "The situation that was originally trapped in an endless loop has changed greatly because of our joint attack. However, what is the purpose of this pattern that he risked his life to draw?"

Chapter 6904 Secret Land Opens

"Destroy this pattern!"

Lin Yi shouted and threw out a wild fire Bagua Palm with the icy fire, "Don't worry about what it's doing, just destroy it first!"

With a loud bang, the flames scattered in all directions!

Lin Yi's entire body was sent flying by the impact, and when he stabilized himself, he was already tens of meters away!

However, the blood pattern did not move at all. There was a faint dark red light flowing on it. It was obvious that there was some kind of protective force.

"Lil bro Lin, you can't break through this defense!"

Huang Yuntian's expression was extremely unsightly. Even the death of this white-haired old geezer had caused them to worry, leaving behind a huge problem. "The power on it seems to be equivalent to the defense of the heaven breaking stage! Even if I was at my peak, I wouldn't be able to break it!"

Lin Yi frowned. If he couldn't break it, was he supposed to just watch as something bad was about to happen?

"Hey, since it can't be destroyed, let's hurry up and leave!"

Gu Tiannan finally couldn't help but speak up. Although he was the oldest of the three, he felt that he was still young and had not lived long enough!

It was simply wrong to stay and face this unknown and strange thing. The best plan was to leave this place before anything happened!

"I'm afraid it won't be that easy to leave now!"

Lin Yi shook his head with a serious expression, "the white-haired old man said that he wanted us to die with him. He didn't just say that casually. He really did plan us in."

"Brother Lin is right. Our only chance now is to destroy the blood pattern first!"

Huang Yuntian nodded in agreement. Before he could finish his words, his expression turned ugly, ""Not good! The Great Marsh's Secret plane barrier seems to be about to be broken!"

"Are you sure? Didn't they say that there are still more than ten days before the secret realm opens?"

Lin Yi was shocked as well as he looked at the blood pattern."Could it be that the people from hidden death sect wanted to use this blood pattern to open the secret realm?"

Lin Yi finally understood why hidden death sect chose to gather in such a desolate place like the Great Swamp. If it was just for him, then there was no need. Perhaps the secret realm was their real target.

As for himself, he was just a passer-by at most!

"Using such a violent method to open the secret realm, the danger of entering it will increase by thousands of times!"

Huang Yuntian's expression was a little malevolent,"those bastards from hidden death sect!" All of you should die!"

Although Lin Yi had promised him that he could make the void pill, Huang Yuntian wasn't sure if he could succeed. Thus, the sky scar grass was his only hope!

Unfortunately, with hidden death sect's actions, their hopes seemed to have been dashed.

"Brother Huang, the secret realm has been forcefully opened. What kind of danger will we be in?"

Lin Yi shook his head and pressed his hand on Yuntian's shoulder. What everyone needed to do now was to calm down, not get angry for no reason,""Among us, only you, big brother Huang, know the secret realm better. We'll have to rely on you to escape!"

Huang Yuntian took a deep breath and forced himself to calm down,""You're right! However, my understanding of the secret plane is actually very limited. I only know that in the current situation, we might really be buried with that white-haired old bastard. "

"With our strength, we might have a chance. Let's go now! Maybe there's still time!"

Gu Tiannan consoled her, but his eyes darted around, as if he was looking for a way out.

In fact, he didn't want to stay and talk nonsense at all. If he could, he would definitely run as far as he could. Unfortunately, he wasn't confident that he could make it out.

Only by teaming up with Huang Yuntian, and with Lin Yi, who had all sorts of weird trump cards, would they have the biggest chance of survival.

"It's too late! The space in this area is already in chaos, and there are many spatial cracks. It's safer for us to stand here without moving than to walk around! If we accidentally enter a spatial Rift, we won't be able to come out!"

Huang Yuntian shook his head dejectedly. Now, it was no longer a question of whether he could leave this place alive. "The safest state for the secret realm is for those who have entered the mountain opening stage and below, but now ..."

Currently, it was impossible to determine the number of people in the mystic realm, and their strength was even greater than that of land-opening and mountain-opening stage cultivators.

According to Huang Yuntian, the more people that entered the secret realm, the higher the chance of being killed!

"However, there's a silver lining in this misfortune. The recruitment team has already retreated with the students. If they were still around, not only would we be in greater danger, but they would also have no way of surviving!"

Lin Yi shook his head with a bitter smile. It was a good thing the people he cared about left early, but he didn't know if they left the area in time. "Things shouldn't be that bad. Think about it carefully. If it was really that dangerous, the people from hidden death sect wouldn't have gone crazy and sent all their elites to die in the great Smoky clouds Lake."

Huang Yuntian's eyes immediately lit up, "that's right, hidden death sect must have a way to deal with this!" We can't let all the elites fall into a dead end!"

"Then what are we waiting for? Let's quickly find the people from hidden death sect and ask them what happened!"

Gu Tiannan waved his arm and urged, "It's not too dangerous now, let's go!" He said.

"Go! I'll lead the way, I've already figured out the assembly point of hidden death sect!"

Lin Yi took the lead and charged towards the swamp where hidden death sect was.

Of course, Lin Yi wasn't leading the way because he was familiar with it, but because he was the only one who could clearly distinguish the spatial cracks in their current situation.

Even without the help of the ghostly thing, Lin Yi could still use the Jade space's warning system to find the correct route.

"There's someone in front! They are assassins from hidden death sect!"

Gu Tiannan suddenly said.

Lin Yi and Huang Yuntian also noticed the five people in front of them. They got into an arrow formation and rushed towards Lin Yi's group.

"Very good, it seems that we have arrived!"

Huang Yuntian's eyes flashed with a sharp light. He extended his body and took the lead, "Lil bro Lin, take a break. Watch me deal with these random soldiers!"

"Brother Huang, be careful! Don't be careless!"

"Remember to leave them alive!" Lin Yi reminded.

This space was relatively stable and there was no danger. All Huang Yuntian needed to do was to kill the five assassins from hidden death sect.

The strongest among them was only at the middle stage of earth splitting. There was also an early stage earth splitting expert and three mountain splitting experts. Although they formed a battle formation, they could not threaten Huang Yuntian, who was half a step to heaven breaking!

"Don't worry, lil bro Lin. It's just a few B * stards, big brother will be able to catch them easily!"

Huang Yuntian laughed and appeared in the battle formation of the five.

Just like what Huang Yuntian had said, these five assassins from hidden death sect were not even worth mentioning to him. He had easily defeated them with just a raise of his hand.

Lin Yi instantly appeared beside the five of them, his spirit sense completely covering their bodies, carefully searching for any differences.

Chapter 6905 Hidden Death Sect's Secret

"Speak! After you open the secret plane, how will you deal with the dangers inside?"

Huang Yuntian stepped on the middle stage earth splitting Assassin's chest and started his interrogation, ""Don't try to test my patience. I have ten thousand ways to make you suffer!"

"If you want to kill me, cut it out already, don't talk nonsense with me!"

Although the mid-stage earth-splitting assassin was being stepped on, he was still quite unyielding. "You want to leave this place alive? You must be dreaming!"

"You're quite stubborn! I've already said, don't test my patience!"

A dangerous glint flashed in Huang Yuntian's eyes. He stomped down and exerted some force on the tip of his foot. A stream of true Qi penetrated into his opponent's chest. Immediately after, waves of fluctuations rapidly spread from his opponent's chest to his entire body.

A series of crisp sounds rang out. The killer's eyes bulged, and his face behind the veil became a little twisted.

"All the bones in your body are broken. How do you feel?"

Huang Yuntian's gaze was as cold as a blade, 'do you still want to continue experiencing the feeling of your muscles and meridians being torn apart?'

"President Huang, why don't this old man deal with the one on the side!"

Gu Tiannan laughed coldly. He waved his hand and summoned the other early stage earth-splitting assassin, "In terms of interrogation, this old man has some experience, and it just so happens that I can let them verify it with each other."

"Then I'll have to trouble elder Gu!"

Huang Yuntian had the same idea. After all, time was of the essence, and they could only save time if they attacked together.

"Then I'll also get one!"

Lin Yi's lips twitched as he grabbed a killer. "Let's interrogate them separately to prevent them from colluding. "

In fact, Lin Yi just didn't want Huang Yuntian and Gu Tiannan to see his spiritual sense.

It was better to hide trump cards like the soul-snatching hand and the soul-searching technique, so that he could win by surprise at the critical moment.

"No need to trouble yourself, I'll tell you!"

The assassin suddenly spoke up, "I'm not begging you to let me go. After I'm done, just give us a quick death!"

"Shut up ..."

The assassin at Huang Yuntian's feet suddenly roared, but he choked on the blood that was gushing out of his throat. His mask was quickly soaked.

"Speak!"

Lin Yi lifted his hand and sent out a few streams of Qi, knocking out the remaining four assassins. "I'll ask them for confirmation later. Don't play any tricks. "

"Hehe, since I'm going to say it, I'm not afraid of your tricks!"

The man didn't wait for Lin Yi to ask, "The greatest danger in the secret realm is an invisible power of rules. It will kill any expert who exceeds the limit. If you want to stay safe in the secret realm, you just have to suppress your strength to the xuansheng stage."

"It's that simple?"

Lin Yi blinked as he looked at the killer in his hand. "If I exceed the mysterious Ascension stage, I will be immediately killed by an invisible force?"

Previously, Huang Yuntian had said that the mountain opening stage was the restricted stage of the secret realm. However, with the incident in hidden death sect, the number of people who could enter had long exceeded the limit. Hence, it was understandable that it had become the Xuan Sheng stage.

"That's right! It's that simple. I've already said what I wanted to say, so just give me a quick death!"

If it wasn't for the fact that he couldn't move his body, he would have committed suicide at the first moment. "I hope you can keep your promise!"

"Don't be in such a hurry to die. Other than the invisible force you mentioned, are there any other dangers?"

Lin Yi's lips curled up-it was rare to find someone willing to cooperate, so he had to ask more, "Hidden death sect went through so much trouble and even made a half-step heaven crushing expert sacrifice himself to break the secret realm's barrier. What is your goal?"

"I don't know!"

The killer's tone was decisive without any hesitation. "I'm just a small fry in hidden death sect. They definitely won't let us know about the matters of the higher-ups. We only need to follow their orders!"

Unfortunately, Lin Yi's sharp senses noticed that the Assassin's eyes flickered a little. He was definitely hiding something.

"Ha ... Since you don't want to tell me the truth, do you want to play for a while before you die?"

Lin Yi smiled and sent out a spirit sense attack without making a sound, "Speak! What is the purpose of hidden death sect?"

The sudden attack shook the killer's essence spirit in Lin Yi's hand, and after Lin Yi shouted, it subconsciously wanted to tell him the secret in its heart.

"In order to retrieve ... Hidden death sect's ..."

Unfortunately, before he could finish, the space around Lin Yi and the others suddenly changed. The smoke around them disappeared, and they were no longer in the muddy swamp.

What he saw was a continuous Green Mountain Range with countless peaks towering into the clouds. Where was the scenery of the Misty Lake?

At the same time, an invisible pressure descended, and the Jade space started to warn Lin Yi that the pressure was enough to kill him!

"A secret realm! Suppress your strength!"

Lin Yi's face paled as he quickly suppressed his strength to the xuansheng stage. He then looked at Huang Yuntian and Gu Tiannan.

Where was he?

"Big brother Huang! Elder Gu!"

Lin Yi was shocked, but there was only a loud shout that echoed in the mountains. The assassin in his hand disappeared without a trace.

Yes, it had dissipated!

It was as if Lin Yi was holding a handful of dust in his hand, blown away by the wind.

To retrieve something from hidden death sect? Can't you just say it before dispersing?

It was to whet people's appetite! No wonder he died without a burial place!

Lin Yi sighed as he pinched his chin.

The spatial barrier between the great cloudsmoke Lake and the secret realm had been broken. That meant that everyone who was within the area had clearly entered the secret realm.

Huang Yuntian and Gu Tiannan were clearly beside him, but they were nowhere to be seen!

Could it be that when everyone entered the mystic realm, they were all randomly sent to a certain location?

As for the assassin from hidden death sect, he was probably here because he had physical contact with Lin Yi.

Unfortunately, although this unlucky guy's strength was restricted, his level was still there, and he couldn't use his true Qi to suppress it. So, as soon as he entered the secret realm, he was killed by an invisible force.

In this case, even if there were students who entered the secret realm, they would not be killed. After all, they were all Xuan Sheng's strength. As long as there were no accidents, their lives would not be in danger.

However, if the members of the Xuan Sea region recruitment team didn't know the problem, they would probably feel threatened and fight back with all their might. If that happened, they would basically die without a burial place.

Lin Yi picked a random direction and started flying.

His top priority was to find Huang Yuntian or Gu Tiannan and meet them.

To be honest, Lin Yi didn't think that the assassin from hidden death sect was telling the truth. If he didn't know this information, he could've died easily if he wasn't prepared.

After a while, Lin Yi stopped on a branch of a big tree, looking at a green snake wrapped around the branches with a strange expression!

Chapter 6906 Strange Phenomenon

Of course, the green snake wasn't that strange. It was just a normal snake, and at most, it was stronger than the snakes in the mortal world because of the spiritual Qi here. But to Lin Yi, it was still a snake.

What Lin Yi found strange was that his spirit sense didn't detect the snake's existence. He only noticed it when he stood on the branch and saw the green snake!

What was going on? Could it be that his divine sense was fake?

Lin Yi raised his hand and grabbed at the air, and the green snake fell into his hand without any resistance.

This was indeed a real snake!

The cold and smooth feeling made Lin Yi uncomfortable, but under his spirit sense, there was nothing in his hand!

There must be a reason for this!

Lin Yi pondered for a moment and threw the green snake away, letting it run away. He then used his spirit sense again.

As expected!

Within the range of his divine sense, there were only mountains, rivers, flowers, and trees. There was no sign of any animal life!

Lin Yi thought that the secret realm didn't have any restrictions on his spirit sense, since his range was the same as usual. It wasn't until he saw the green snake that he realized that there were no animals within his range. This was obviously not normal.

It seemed that if he wanted to find Huang Yuntian and Gu Tiannan, he could no longer rely on his divine sense.

With that in mind, Lin Yi quickly spread his ghost speed wings and flew into the air, looking into the distance. Divine sense wasn't reliable, so he could only rely on his eyes.

"Big brother Huang! Elder Gu!"

Lin Yi couldn't find anything with his eyes wide open, so he shouted in the air. It didn't matter who heard him, it was a harvest,"Is there anyone? Please roar if you hear me!"

Unfortunately, only the echoes of the mountains answered Lin Yi's question. It seemed like there really wasn't anyone nearby.

There was no reason for that! How big was this secret realm? So many people had come in together, but they had not met a single one?

Lin Yi was a little confused, but the next moment, the Jade space gave off a warning sign. He didn't have time to think and used his lightning escape technique, turning into a lightning arc and leaving.

Lin Yi turned around and saw a three-meter tall, pitch-black creature!

Of course, Lin Yi wasn't sure if it was a living thing or not ...

This was because this thing's body looked like a burnt tree that had turned into charcoal.

What the hell was this?

Lin Yi couldn't help but ask, "Can you understand what I'm saying?"

The charred creature was spinning in the air ... It was something like a neck, and its deep eyes were locked on Lin Yi.

It didn't seem to move, but that clumsy-looking body swayed a little and disappeared in front of Lin Yi. When it reappeared, it was in front of Lin Yi.

Lin Yi was shocked and quickly flapped his ghost speed wings to get away, but the dark creature was following him again.

F * ck! It could actually fly?

The reason why Lin Yi was yelling and yelling was because he could fly, so there wouldn't be any danger. He didn't expect to attract this dark monster before he found the person, and it could fly too!

What was even more outrageous was that the strength of this pitch-black monster was actually at the earth formation stage!

Only Lin Yi, with Xuan Sheng's strength, could hold his own against it. If it was someone else, they'd probably be crushed within two or three seconds!

"Stop! Can you understand human language? Can't you speak properly?"

Lin Yi tried to communicate as he dodged.

Unfortunately, the pitch-black monster ignored him. It might really not understand human language.

"Hey, not talking? Do you really think I'm afraid of you?"

Lin Yi landed on the ground with a Swoosh. His agility in the air was no less than the black monster, but he was more comfortable fighting on the ground.

As soon as Lin Yi landed, the black monster chased after him like a parasite.

Wood forest thousand transformation!

Hundreds of doppelgangers appeared in an instant, all of which had the strength of Xuan Sheng. After forming a battle formation, it was more than enough to deal with the black monsters of the earth formation stage!

It seemed that hidden death sect had still concealed some things! Otherwise, where did this thing come from?

However, Lin Yi had tried to increase his strength just now, but the invisible force would descend on him the moment he got close to the mountain-opening period. The assassin wasn't lying about that.

But the enemy probably hid the fact that there were monsters like this in the secret realm that weren't affected by the rules. No wonder he told Lin Yi to suppress his strength so quickly-it was giving Lin Yi a hard time!

If he did not suppress his strength, he would be killed by the invisible force, and if he suppressed his strength, he would not be able to defeat the Dark monster. No matter what he chose, he would die!

This was probably the trap that the killer had set up!

Fortunately, Lin Yi wouldn't die so easily even if he suppressed his strength. As for the others, it was hard to say-who knew how many of these black monsters were there in the secret realm?

Lin Yi's clones were all shattered, but he didn't care. He continued to replenish his pure Qi!

The black monster only lasted for about ten minutes before it was crushed into pieces by Lin Yi's overwhelming numbers. It fell to the ground and stopped moving.

Lin Yi's body flashed and appeared beside the broken black monster. He grabbed an arm-like thing and started studying it.

There was no flesh, blood, meridians, or bones. It was just a piece of black charcoal!

A puppet?

Lin Yi grabbed the black coal, dumbfounded!

No matter how one looked at it, this was not a physical body that a living being should have.

"Pa!"

Lin Yi clenched his fist hard, making a crisp sound. He gently twisted his fingers, and the black powder fell from his fingers.

If Lin Yi didn't see it with his own eyes, he wouldn't have believed that this was a fresh corpse!

Was it really Xuanji? But something was wrong! When Lin Yi attacked earlier, he clearly felt the aura of a living being!

What a strange secret realm! He didn't know how much of it there was left, but Lin Yi put his finger in front of his eyes and studied the black powder, frowning.

Lin Yi released his spirit sense, but he couldn't find any living things in the secret realm. But when he fought the black monster, he could feel that it was a living thing. It was too strange!

Lin Yi didn't get anything after thinking for a while, so he put the half of charcoal into the Jade space. He decided to study it more when he had the chance. It was more important to meet Huang Yuntian right now.

There was also the sky scar grass. Since he had already entered the secret realm, he had to get it!

After a while, Lin Yi arrived at the peak of a mountain. It was the highest point in the area, and he could observe the situation.

Lin Yi had just reached the peak, and before he could find the best spot, four figures suddenly surrounded him from all directions.

Chapter 6907 If You Want To Die, I'll Kill You

"Hahaha, another one has come to our door. It seems that our mission will be completed soon!"

The masked leader laughed as he reached out his hand, aiming for Lin Yi's throat.

The other three masked men in the same clothes didn't say anything. They just laughed strangely.

Lin Yi frowned and looked at the man in surprise. He didn't react in time and just stood there, not making any dodging movements.

"Hahahaha, this kid is scared silly!"

The leader's voice was filled with mockery as his palm was already on Lin Yi's throat. However, the sensation he expected didn't appear as his palm passed through Lin Yi's neck.

"A shadow?!"

The leader of the men in green was slightly startled. He knew that something was wrong and immediately shouted, ""Be careful! This kid is Lin Yi!"

Yun Longshan had become Lin Yi's symbol, and these people were obviously from hidden death sect!

"Great, with you guys around, it'll be much easier than me searching for them myself!" Lin Yi said, a smile on his face.

Before he finished, Lin Yi's right hand appeared behind the man.

Lin Yi didn't use all his strength in case he accidentally killed the man.

However, halfway through the palm strike, the aura of the leading green-robed man suddenly erupted and rose to the peak of the late stage of mountain split!

Was this idiot trying to self-destruct? He knew that he would be killed by the invisible force in the secret realm if he exceeded the mysterious grade ... No, why didn't he die?

Lin Yi's heart trembled. His body flashed, leaving a shadow on the spot. His real body appeared tens of meters away, and his shadow was pierced through by the four men in green from all angles.

Without exception, all four of them had revealed their strength at this moment! It seemed that the most important information had been concealed by the previous killer.

Lin Yi's lips curled up into a half-smile, "I don't think you'll tell me how to maintain the strength to open a mountain in the secret realm, right?"

"Hehe, you have some self-awareness! In fact, this matter is not impossible to discuss. If you surrender, I might consider telling you this secret!"

The leading man in green retracted his arm that had passed through the shadow and said arrogantly, "How is it? Should he surrender? In the secret realm, you can only use Xuan Sheng's strength. Even if you can escape, you can't escape from our hands. Let's save our strength!"

"You're speaking the truth. Why don't you try capturing me first?"

Lin Yi smiled and hooked his finger at the four men. "Your hidden death sect should have investigated me in detail. Even if I only have Xuan Sheng's strength, you are no match for four mere mountain-opening experts."

"It might not work outside, but I think it's very good in this Mystery Land!"

The leader didn't even finish his sentence before he reached Lin Yi's side, closing the distance between them in a single step.

At the same time, the remaining three men in green didn't stay idle either. They didn't slow down at all, following an arc and attacking together, surrounding Lin Yi again.

They had great teamwork!

As expected of the elite assassins of hidden death sect!

Lin Yi's eyes focused as he felt the air around him freeze. He couldn't even move!

Without a doubt, this was the work of the four people in front of him.

Hidden death sect indeed had many secrets!

However, this wasn't enough to pose a threat to Lin Yi. Just as he was about to Dodge and counterattack, an idea came to his mind!

And so, Lin Yi pretended to have difficulty moving, barely avoiding the vital parts and letting the masked man hit him.

Under the continuous attacks, Lin Yi was sent flying into the air before landing heavily on the ground, a pained expression on his face.

To be honest, Lin Yi felt that it was a huge loss for the entertainment industry to not go into acting. When he found his master, father, and mother, he could retire and go back to acting with Xu Shihan.

However, the road was long, and there was no news of his cheap master, Zhang Liju. The transit station his parents were in was an illusory existence. Only by constantly improving and surpassing himself could he take one step closer to his goal.

"Hehe, you're really just stubborn. I thought you were very capable, but you still couldn't withstand a single blow!"

The leader used his pure Qi to restrain Lin Yi, "It would have been better if you had surrendered directly just now, so that you wouldn't have to suffer this pain!"

"Cut the crap. Since I've fallen into your hands, I have nothing to complain about. If you want to kill me, cut me up!"

Lin Yi felt like he was becoming a drama queen as his face twisted in anger. "This young master is being bullied by a dog today. You'd better kill me quickly. Otherwise, if I get the chance, I'll definitely kill you all!"

"Yo, you're quite arrogant, huh? Originally, you were on the must-kill list of hidden death sect. We would not hold back when we meet you. However, you are lucky today. There is still some use in keeping you alive. We will let you live a little longer!"

The leader laughed coldly and kicked Lin Yi, "I heard that you have killed many of our hidden death sect's brothers? Then should I make you suffer a little first and collect some interest?"

"If you have any tricks up your sleeve, just use them. What haven't I seen? Even if you cry out in pain, it's your win!"

Lin Yi hmped in disdain, but he was actually trying to hold back his laughter! If it wasn't for the fact that he was always known as the head of posturing and had studied how to do so when he had nothing to do, he really wouldn't be able to do it now.

One had to know that Lin Yi was in a Yuan spirit form right now. He only disguised himself as a normal physical body so that he wouldn't be discovered. It was impossible for these assassins to harm Lin Yi's yuan spirit form!

Lin Yi was thinking about how to get the man to talk to him while ensuring his safety.

"Aren't we going to kill him immediately? This person's methods are extremely powerful, so I think it's safer to kill him directly!"

The green-robed number two, who had not spoken all this while, moved closer to the green-robed leader and said in a low voice, "There's a lot of people entering the secret realm this time, so there's no need for us to keep Lin Yi alive. We'll kill him now and complete a high-level mission,"

Lin Yi's ears twitched as he heard everything the blue shirt number two said. This bastard was quite mean, wasn't he? The leader had already said that he wouldn't kill, and he still wanted to kill?

"Hey, don't go on and on. Hurry up and kill him if you want to!"

Lin Yi continued his act, but he was confused. These people sounded like they were trying to capture people who entered the secret realm!

What was he doing? However, if he could be taken to see, everything would naturally be clear!

With that thought, Lin Yi continued, "Hurry up and kill me! I'd rather die than submit! I'll never be your captive!"

"You want to die? It's not that easy! We have to squeeze every last bit of value out of you before we can avenge our fallen brothers!"

The green-robed number two immediately exploded. Then I won't kill you! If you die just because you want to, how embarrassing would that be for me!

Chapter 6908 Caught In Disguise

The leading man in green snorted and nodded to green shirt number two, "That's right, if we can capture him alive, we'll have completed our mission. "

Blue shirt number three stepped forward and lifted Lin Yi up, reaching for his belt and holding it in her hand. She said calmly, "If you're still worried, break his limbs."

It was too damaging! Lin Yi cursed in his heart-he'd kill these people once he found out the secret.

"That makes sense. Then let's break this kid's limbs first!"

"Don't fight with me over it," said the second in green coldly, "I love doing this kind of thing!" Hehe, Lin Yi, I'm more violent-if you're in pain, just scream, it's no use!"

Blue shirt number two smiled evilly as she grabbed Lin Yi's arm and twisted it!

Lin Yi let out a grunt, a pained expression on his face.

His arm was suddenly bent at a strange angle.

"Hehe, aren't you very unyielding? It hurts?"

The blue shirt number two grinned evilly as she grabbed Lin Yi's second arm and twisted it, "But your harrumph is quite pleasant to hear, let me hear it again."

Lin Yi furrowed his brows and pretended to grit his teeth, not making a sound. Of course, it was all an act.

He was a primordial spirit to begin with, so no matter how the unparalleled mountain donkey, blue shirt number two, tormented him, it wouldn't hurt. He just had to make his joints invisible.

It wasn't painful at all, but she had to pretend to be in pain and not make a sound ... Lin Yi's acting was superb.

"Tough? You're not calling me anymore? But I like you, it's more interesting to torture you!"

Blue shirt number two smiled evilly as she turned her hand towards Lin Yi's legs. "How is it? If you can't hold on and want to beg for mercy, you might as well say it, but it's no use. "

"Ha ... Didn't you eat? How can you be a killer with such little strength?"

Lin Yi's lips curled into a mocking smile, beads of sweat forming on his forehead as he did so, making it look like he was forcing himself. "So much nonsense. One look and I can tell you're just a small fry. Your level must be very low in hidden death sect, right?"

These words probably hit the blue shirt number two's sore spot. His eyes flashed with a fierce light as he grabbed Lin Yi's left leg with both hands and twisted it like a fried dough twist.

The crisp sound of bones breaking rang out continuously. Lin Yi's face was full of pain, not because of the pain, but because it was difficult to perfectly simulate the series of sounds and conditions!

"That's enough-hurry up and bring Lin Yi back, in case something bad happens!"

The leader waited until Lin Yi's limbs were all broken before urging him coldly, "As long as we can bring him back, we will have made a great contribution, Dead or Alive!"

"You're too cautious. What kind of accident can happen in this place? No matter how long the night is, we can still rest without worry!"

The blue-robed number two snorted disapprovingly, "You guys go and take the people you caught before. We'll go back now."

The green-robed number three and number four responded and went to the back of a huge rock. When they came out, they were carrying three people in their hands. Number three, two, and number four, one.

Lin Yi looked around and saw that they were all young people he didn't know, most likely students from some golden class Sea School.

"Let's go! Pay attention to concealing your tracks. If you can catch a few more on the way back, that would be perfect. "

The leader of the men in green said as he flew down the mountain, "but with Lin Yi here, one of us can take on seventeen or eighteen of them. We don't have to worry too much about those small characters. Be careful, don't let him die!"

"I know, you're really long-winded!"

Green shirt number two was a little impatient. Although the leader of the four was the leader of the group, he was clearly not convinced. "You're so troublesome. I really don't know how I made you the captain!"

He was only mumbling so softly that even he couldn't hear it clearly, so he wasn't afraid that the man in green would hear it, but Lin Yi heard it loud and clear!

These two killers didn't get along! I wonder if I can use it to sow discord?

Lin Yi subconsciously wanted to pinch his chin, but then he remembered that he couldn't move around with his limbs disabled!

F * ck! He was really aggrieved. He would definitely kill him later!

Lin Yi didn't expect his chance to come so soon!

When the group passed by a forest, two pitch-black monsters suddenly rushed out and launched an attack.

Although hidden death sect had made ample preparations, they clearly did not manage to avoid the methods of the charcoal monster. Therefore, the four of them were caught off guard and instantly became flustered.

In particular, the three who were carrying people in their hands. In order to ensure the lives of the people in their hands, they dodged with great difficulty and scattered in all directions.

The leading green-clothed man acted as the main force and temporarily held back one of the charcoal monsters. Meanwhile, green-clothed number two and Lin Yi hid far away, not wanting to interfere in the battle.

"Hehe! You'd better die Here!"

After green shirt number two dodged, she hid on top of a big tree and secretly watched the battle from afar. She was even mumbling excitedly, as if she wanted to use the hands of the black charcoal monster to kill the green-clothed leader!

Lin Yi's lips curled up into a weird smile. What a mountain donkey! He really was the scum of hidden death sect!

Indeed, there were all kinds of birds in a big forest. Most of the assassins from hidden death sect that he had encountered earlier were very unyielding and wanted to trick him even before they died. He did not expect to meet such a weirdo today!

Lin Yi took advantage of the fact that the blue-robed girl was focused on the battle in the distance and used his soul-hooking hand to trap her spirit into the Jade space.

"You're lucky that you died so quickly! I don't have time to deal with you right now. I'll deal with your primordial spirit when I have time in the future. "

Lin Yi's body flashed, and he fixed the blue shirt number two's body on the tree. He took off her clothes and muttered, "Fortunately, you're not convinced, you idiot. You've done a good job and died a worthy death!"

If blue shirt number two could hear Lin Yi's words, she'd probably puke blood.

After quickly packing up, Lin Yi took out red dust nature manifestation and disguised himself as someone similar to blue shirt number two. The face was different, but it wasn't a big problem with the mask!

In the blink of an eye, the new blue shirt number two appeared on the tree, alive. The original one was destroyed by Lin Yi's icy fire.

The battle in the distance was coming to an end. Although the two charcoal monsters were very powerful, the strength of the man in green leading them was even stronger. With the help of green shirt number 3 and number 4, it was easy to deal with them.

Lin Yi saw that the time was right and immediately activated the thousand changes of wood forest, creating a clone with all four limbs disabled. He carried the clone back to the arena.

"What are you running for? Do you want to see us make a joke out of ourselves?"

The leader of the men in green destroyed the monster in front of him and laughed coldly. "Do you really think that this broken thing can pose a threat to us?"

Chapter 6909 Secret Code

"Haha, I know you guys can handle it. I don't need to do anything!"

Lin Yi mimicked the blue shirt number two's tone, nonchalant. "Plus, I have to protect Lin Yi, this son of a B * tch! I can't let him die even if you want me to hold him! Otherwise, we wouldn't have captured them for nothing?"

The eyes of the leading man in green were cold. After a while, he snorted, ""I'm really glad that you're willing to listen to my orders!"

Lin Yi shrugged. Just this tone? He couldn't tell how happy he was ...

However, since the leader of the men in green said that, he probably didn't realize that the blue-clothed number two in front of him had been replaced.

Lin Yi let out a breath of relief-he thought he'd been exposed after the cold stare from the man in green!

Lin Yi had already prepared a few contingency plans, thinking of how to attack and how to deal with the aftermath for a long time, but it didn't work!

If you have bad eyesight, can't you go to the center and get a pair of glasses? Why did he have to stare at her like that?

"It's good that you're happy. Let's not waste any more time. Let's hurry back. Otherwise, I'm afraid that I'll accidentally kill this son of a B * tch!"

Lin Yi continued to speak in a carefree manner, completely following the blue shirt number two's style.

"Let's go!"

The leader glared at Lin Yi before flying away.

Lin Yi snorted on purpose and shook his head at the three and four. "You guys go first, I don't want to follow behind him!"

Green shirt number three and four didn't doubt Lin Yi's words. They felt that Lin Yi's behavior was normal, and so they nodded at Lin Yi and followed behind the leader.

The group walked for an hour and arrived at an ordinary mountain peak.

"Dark kill!"

Halfway up the mountain, a fleeting voice suddenly sounded. It was a hidden Sentry from hidden death sect.

The leading man in green did not hesitate and immediately replied, ""Wuming!"

Lin Yi's mouth twitched, rejoicing.

Fortunately, he was disguised as green-robed number two. If he was the leader, he could only pretend to be crazy and act stupid when he encountered this kind of situation where the secret code was exchanged ... And start a fight.

After the hidden sentries got the answer, they fell silent. The leading man in green did not stop and continued to fly up with his men.

"Dark kill!"

When they didn't do much, another hidden Sentry spoke out to probe.

This time, the leader didn't answer, but looked at Lin Yi, who was at the back!

Lin Yi's heart sank. Was he the one to match the code?

Why are there so many problems in hidden death sect?

Although the leader of the men in green had matched the code with "nameless," Lin Yi didn't think that the blue-clothed number two he was impersonating would use the same code!

In that case, was there a need to ask again?

What to do? If he spoke nonsense, he would definitely be exposed!

Acting crazy? Unless the people from hidden death sect were fools!

"Not good, Lin Yi's gonna die!"

Lin Yi had an idea in his desperation. He grabbed the clone in his hand and said gratefully, "Hey, Lin Yi, don't die! We're almost there! Hold on!"

The leader paused-Lin Yi was worth more alive, so it didn't matter if he died!

However, he only died when he reached the ground. It was like taking a bite out of a big meat bun, and before he could even eat the meat filling, the meat filling fell to the ground with a "squeak!"

It was annoying!

Therefore, the leader of the men in green didn't care about the secret code and hurried back.

"What's the matter? Why are you suddenly going to die?"

The leader of the men in green snatched the clone from Lin Yi's hands and checked it carefully, "There's really no aura? Did you F * cking attack him again?"

Lin Yi sweated inwardly-he didn't think that the man in green would care about his life, but he was more worried that the guy might lose his clone in his anger.

"There's no such thing! I've been watching over him carefully, afraid that something might happen to him!"

Lin Yi said as he patted the ground."Quickly put him on the ground. I'll check again. Maybe he can still be saved! Don't shake him, he'll really die if you keep shaking him!"

This was definitely the truth. The leader of the green-clothed men was shaking so hard that it was easy to destroy the clone if he was not careful!

The man in green thought that it made sense and quickly put the clone on the ground, not bothering to be angry anymore. He was about to check it when Lin Yi pushed him away.

"I'll do it!"

The hidden sentries heard Lin Yi's name and ran out, poking their heads out.

"Hey, you guys are quite lucky! He brought Lin Yi back, alive? Oh, he's dead now? It doesn't matter even if I die, it's still a great merit!"

The hidden Sentry came over and laughed, completely forgetting about the secret signal. "This kid is really tough. Our dark kill sect has lost many experts in his hands. We finally killed him today!"

"It's not certain yet, maybe there's hope!"

The green-robed number three didn't comment, but her tone was reserved and proud-it was something to be proud of for being able to catch Lin Yi, "Although it's a great achievement if he's dead, it's still not as useful as being alive. If he can be saved, there will definitely be more benefits."

"You're right! When you treat me to a drink, you can't forget about your brother after getting some benefits. "

The hidden Sentry nudged the blue-clothed number three with his shoulder, appearing to be very familiar with her. No one knew if he was really familiar with her or if he was just being natural.

"Definitely, definitely! This is a small matter!"

Blue shirt number three agreed with a smile and continued to watch Lin Yi's act.

Lin Yi's hands looked busy, but his ears were perked up the whole time. He let out a sigh of relief when he heard the conversation between the two-it seemed like he could get away with the secret code!

"He's breathing! It's breathing!"

Lin Yi pretended to be pleasantly surprised when he felt that he was done with his performance."Good, good, this kid is really tough, he's still alive!"

Under Lin Yi's control, the clone moved slightly, its chest rising and falling slightly, but it still looked like it was on the verge of death.

"That's great! It was a false alarm!"

The brows of the leading man in green relaxed, and his hunched back straightened up. "Let's go, quickly send him up, in case he's going to die again. "

"Yes, quickly! I can't let him die in my hands. "

Lin Yi picked up the clone and urged everyone to move forward, "He's hanging on to his last breath right now. Who knows when he'll stop breathing!"

The hidden Sentry at the side scratched his head. He wanted to tell them to match the code before leaving, but he felt that it was a bit unreasonable.

Since he was able to come up here, he must have passed the first hidden sentries 'interrogation. Moreover, he also knew cyan-robed number three, so he didn't continue to ask for secret codes.

There was still a hidden Sentry up there anyway, so there couldn't be any mistakes!

On the surface, Lin Yi seemed to be concerned about the clone in his hand, but he had been secretly paying attention to the hidden Sentry's performance. Seeing that he didn't stop him, he relaxed!

He had finally managed to muddle through this round, so there shouldn't be anything left for him to do, right?

As he thought about this, he had only left for a few minutes when another hidden Sentry shouted from somewhere, ""Dark kill!"

Chapter 6910 Becoming A Leader

Cyan-robed number four didn't wait for anyone to look and took the initiative to answer, ""Must kill!"

As expected, the secret signals were different!

It was the same dark kill, but the answer was completely different!

If one was not from hidden death sect, it would be impossible to get an answer by chance.

Moreover, this kind of question and answer was too deceptive. They all started with dark kill. Even if you knew a few answers, you couldn't be sure which answer should be placed in which hidden Sentry!

Sinister! Cunning!

Lin Yi was glad that he reacted fast enough, otherwise he would've been exposed!

After the third hidden Sentry, they did not encounter a fourth one. The group quickly arrived at a position near the peak and then entered a cave.

There were people checking at the entrance of the cave, but they only checked their identity cards and didn't exchange any secret signals.

Lin Yi followed the pattern and pulled out a tag-one side had the words "dark kill" on it, and the other had complicated engravings.

Lin Yi noticed that everyone's id was different, and he didn't know if they were using this to identify themselves.

"Everyone, you've worked hard. Go in!"

The assassin from hidden death sect was rather polite. He nodded at the leader and the others before stepping aside to let them pass.

Lin Yi was full of confidence-all the clothes he was wearing were from blue shirt number two, the real deal. As long as they didn't ask him to do secret codes, he had no problem dealing with the interrogation!

Under the lead of the man, Lin Yi walked quickly as he observed the area. From the direction they were going, it seemed like they were going down!

There would be forks in the path from time to time, but the leading man in blue did not stop at all. He continued to run forward at a very fast speed as he passed by, looking very familiar.

Lin Yi didn't understand-did hidden death sect come to the secret realm before? How else could he be so familiar with this place?

After a short while, everyone came to a huge cave in the middle of the mountain. Countless stalactites were hanging upside down on the top. Light from an unknown source shone on the stalactites, making them glow slightly.

In the middle of the karst cave, many people were building a round stone platform. The bottom was more than 50 meters in diameter, and there was a slope upwards, so the diameter of the top was currently about 30 meters. If they continued to build it, it would probably shrink further.

There were about a hundred and fifty to a hundred people working there, and Lin Yi didn't know any of them, but they seemed to be golden class students.

There were more than ten assassins from hidden death sect surrounding them. As a monitoring force, with their advantage of being able to display the strength of the mountain opening stage in the secret realm, it was enough to suppress the large number of students.

But once Lin Yi came, the tables would turn!

"Elder! We've caught a few more people, and Lin Yi's among them!"

The leading man in green brought a few people to the bottom of the stone platform and bowed respectfully to a masked man in white,""Lin Yi's still breathing, but he's going to die at any moment. If elder has any questions, please interrogate him as soon as possible!"

"Good job, you guys got Lin Yi! This little brat is very slippery, that's great!"

The white-robed elder looked at the clone in Lin Yi's hand, a faint smile in his eyes, ""This person's death is not to be regretted. There's no need to interrogate him. Hmm ... Let's put him aside for now. When the altar is completed, I can at least contribute a little ..."

Lin Yi's eyebrows twitched-this stone platform was an altar?

In that case, hidden death sect kept his life as a sacrifice?

Lin Yi glanced at the busy golden class sea students-they were probably all sacrifices!

The sad thing was that not only did they build their own altars, but they also had to die on them.

This is indeed hidden death sect's style, asking you to dig your own grave and bury yourself!

"You've made a great contribution this time. When this matter is over, I'll reward you all together. Put them down for now and let them work. Then, you can continue to capture people!"

The white-robed elder waved his hand, not caring about the half-dead clone."I didn't expect to get so much free labor and sacrifices. That saves me a lot of trouble. You guys have to work hard."

"It's not hard! For the sake of hidden death sect, we are willing to sacrifice our lives without hesitation!"

The leader of the men in green quickly expressed his loyalty, and at the same time, his eyes revealed a fanatical excitement.

Lin Yi smiled bitterly to himself. He could only copy the cat and Tiger to avoid giving himself away, but he was already considering whether he should act now.

It was a huge advantage for the people of hidden death sect to be able to display their mountain-opening strength. At the same time, it was also a huge disadvantage!

For example, the masked man in white in front of Lin Yi-his true strength might be about the same as the assassin who risked his life to open the secret realm, half a step to heaven splitter, but he had to suppress it to the mountain split stage here.

When Lin Yi was in the xuansheng stage, he'd killed quite a few mountain Masters. With the thousand changes of wood and forest, it wasn't impossible for him to kill this elder.

If it was outside, it would be hard for Lin Yi to kill a half-step heaven crushing master even if he used all his skills. Now was a good chance!

Lin Yi didn't have time to think it through as the man in green was about to lead them on their way again!

Make a move? Or temporarily endure?

"Let's go! Why are you still in a daze?"

The leader turned around and glared at Lin Yi, "Don't you want to help?"

Saying something like that in front of the white-robed elder was putting Lin Yi in a difficult position-if Lin Yi really was the blue number two, he couldn't lose out!

"How can this be? I'm thinking of how I can be more effective for elder! That's why I was a little distracted. "

Lin Yi laughed and cupped his fists to the elder."Elder, I have an idea. We'll go out and wait for them. It's not efficient to catch them one by one. Why don't we let them walk into the trap?"

"Oh? Tell me what you have in mind. If it's effective, I'll ask for a reward for you!"

The white-robed elder turned to look at Lin Yi and nodded,"If we can speed up the process, your contribution will be significant-it'll be no less than catching Lin Yi!"

F * ck! Speeding up the construction of a broken stone platform is actually more valuable than me? Does your hidden death sect not know how to count?

Lin Yi cursed in his heart, but maintained his calm and respectful attitude. "Elder, this subordinate thinks that we can set up a signal station on the peak of that mountain. It will emit a light that is eye-catching enough to attract people's attention. Those who see it will naturally come this way."

It was like a Lighthouse in the sea. As long as a lost person saw such a guide, they would definitely come out like a moth to a flame.

Lin Yi understood the students very well-they only wanted to take part in a test that wasn't too dangerous, but they ended up in trouble!

As long as they saw the signal Lin Yi was talking about, they would come over to take a look no matter what!
