Chapter 7121 Are You Looking For Death?

"Zhong da, what is our destination or goal this time? We can't just wander around in the jungle like this, can we?"

After walking for a while, Wu yucao suddenly thought of this problem. Although it wasn't impossible to walk around blindly, it was always better to have a goal.

For example, when they entered the forest before, Wu yucao's goal was to kill one or two dark spirit beasts and then return to Luling city to exchange for money and equipment.

Now that Lin Yi didn't lack money, there wasn't much point in just killing dark spirit beasts.

He couldn't possibly do it just to hunt the spirit beasts of darkness and eat roasted meat, right?

'Eh, it's actually not bad to eat barbecue just for the sake of it!'

Wu yucao suddenly felt that her question was a little unnecessary, but Lin Yi was already considering it seriously.

"You're right. It's necessary to set a small goal. For example, how about earning 100 million from him first?"

Lin Yi saw the hostility in the three's eyes and immediately gave a yawn, "Alright, since you're not interested, then tell me what you think!"

Bah! How could he not be interested? He didn't need to work too hard to earn a hundred million Yuan. He could just lie down and sleep!

On the contrary, he still needed to work hard to earn a million Yuan!

Wu yucao and the other two grumbled in their hearts, but they still gave some good suggestions.

"I heard that in the depths of the forest, there are golden core stage dark spirit beasts. With our current equipment and strength, we should be able to go and try hunting them! If we can eat golden core meat strips, our physical strength will definitely increase greatly!"

Ling Hanxue eagerly proposed her idea. Right now, she felt that with the bow in her hand, the world would belong to her!

A Foundation Stage darkness spirit beast was no longer enough to satisfy her requirements, so she directly wanted to hunt a golden core stage darkness spirit beast!

"I feel that our current strength is already on the verge of a breakthrough. If we want to hunt the Golden core stage dark spirit beasts, why don't we wait until we have all broken through?"

Although Chen Zhisheng wanted to agree with Ling Hanxue, his cautious nature made him suggest a more secure plan. ""We should be able to break through successfully after eating the essence of the spirit Beast of Darkness. At that time, we will be more confident in killing the Golden core stage spirit Beast of Darkness!"

It was a pity that the dark spirit beast's inner core could not be directly swallowed. Otherwise, he could have used the wild ox's inner core to enhance his strength.

Wu yucao and the other two weren't clear about how to process the inner core to temper the body, so they could only use the inner core to exchange for money.

"I think what Zhi Sheng said makes sense. Why don't we kill the foundation establishment stage dark spirit beasts in the forest first? after we improve our strength, we can go and kill the Golden core stage dark spirit beasts."

Wu yucao nodded slightly and agreed with Chen Zhisheng's opinion. ""Although you don't lack money, Zhongda, increasing your strength has always been the most basic need. If you don't have anything else to do, how about you make this decision?"

"Alright, I'll listen to you!"

Lin Yi didn't have a goal in mind, and he might just find the valley after walking around in the forest!

However, after he said this, Wu yucao began to overthink again ... Why did she have to listen to him? This was Chen Zhisheng's idea ...

Chen Zhisheng didn't mind at all. He was very happy to see Lin Yi say that. He loved to see Lin Yi accommodate Wu yucao in everything!

Lin Yi didn't know what the two were thinking, he just didn't have a choice ...

After having a target ... It didn't seem to make much of a difference. They were originally wandering in the forest to see if they could encounter any spirit beasts of darkness, and it was the same now.

This was not a game, and the dark spirit beasts would not stay at a fixed location and wait for you to kill them. It was entirely up to luck whether you could encounter them or not!

Therefore, the four of them did not have a clear destination and could only slowly explore in one direction.

However, today was destined to be an extremely lucky day. Not long after they walked, they actually found a spirit Beast of Darkness.

To be exact, it was a spirit Beast of Darkness!

It was a giant black python with a single horn on its head and a thick layer of scales covering the seven-inch area on its back. It also had two small wings, but it was unknown if these two small wings could carry the giant Python's huge body.

In addition to this black python, there was also a small team of seven Youyou who were really lucky today. The dark spirit beasts they encountered were all being hunted by someone!

"Friend, we found this Black Spirit winged Python first. Please don't interfere!"

The seven-man team was in the middle of a confrontation with the giant python, and someone immediately spoke up when they saw Lin Yi's group. In terms of numbers, seven against four had the absolute advantage.

In terms of equipment, four of the seven people had fine grade weapons, and some of them had other fine grade equipment. It was clear that they were in a good financial situation.

If they were to fight, they were confident that they could suppress Lin Yi's group of four without the threat of the giant python. They might just attack and Rob Wu yucao and the others of their equipment.

In the jungle, this kind of thing was not uncommon. After all, this was a battlefield where the strong preyed on the weak. Only when the strength was equal would there be a chance for a fair dialogue!

"What a joke, does your family own this Black Spirit winged Python? I found this forest first, so everything in this forest is mine, including you guys. Do you have any objections?"

Ling Hanxue taunted loudly. She immediately took out her bow and nocked an arrow, waiting for the other party to explode so that they could fight to their heart's content.

Now was the time when her self-confidence was exploding. She was afraid that the world was not in chaos and provoked her opponent. Anyway, she might not necessarily lose if they fought!

"Hehe ... Are you guys looking for death?"

The person who spoke laughed sinisterly, "The Black Spirit winged Python isn't that easy to deal with. With just the few of you, you'll most likely be sent to your deaths. I don't mind letting you try first. If you dare, then come!"

This was a middle-aged man with half-bald hair. His seemingly weak action was actually filled with evil intentions.

Just as he had said, this Black Spirit winged Python was extremely difficult to deal with. It had already reached the peak of the Foundation Stage, and ordinary Foundation Stage cultivators were no match for it.

If not for this, their team would have already attacked. They wouldn't have been in a stalemate until now without being able to find any flaws.

If Lin Yi's side really dared to attack, the half-bald man would be happy to see them act as cannon fodder. They might not be able to hurt the Black Spirit winged Python, but as long as they could drain some of its strength, it would be enough to make it reveal its weakness!

"You're quite sensible! But let me make this clear first. We're going to attack, and this Black Spirit winged Python is our prey. You can't interfere anymore!"

Ling Hanxue was a little disappointed. Although she wanted to test her archery skills, she would not be so unreasonable as to take the initiative to attack the other party. "Is there a problem? If you have a problem, just say it. Don't talk nonsense when the time comes!"

Chapter 7122 Sudden Change In Attitude

"No problem, no problem! If you dare to come, then come. I'll be your prey! At most, we'll go hunt after you're all dead!"

The half-bald middle-aged man chuckled and raised his hand to signal Ling Hanxue to go up! He took his men and retreated a little.

Ling Hanxue's eyes turned to Lin Yi. Although she spoke up just now, Lin Yi was the one in charge of the team now. It was up to Lin Yi to decide whether to help or not!

Lin Yi didn't care about the seven hunters. With Wu yucao's group's strength and equipment, even if they couldn't win against seven people, they could still protect themselves. With him, it wouldn't be hard to kill them.

The Black Spirit winged Python, on the other hand, was the bigger threat to Lin Yi. It didn't move at all during this time, and its two black eyes stared at everyone coldly.

After the half-bald middle-aged man and his group retreated a little, the Black Spirit winged Python's attention turned to Lin Yi's group. It seemed to understand that its next opponents were these four people!

This wasn't strange. At this level, the spiritual intelligence of the darkness spirit beast was not inferior to that of a human. It knew that if it ran away now, it would only be surrounded and chased. Therefore, it coiled into a snake formation and quietly defended.

"Alright, let's capture the prey first!"

Lin Yi looked left and right, signaling for Wu yucao and the other two to deal with the Black Spirit winged Python. He himself kept an eye on the seven people, preventing them from sneaking up on him.

"Alright! Then we'll go!"

Ling Hanxue let out a cry of joy as she shot out an arrow like a bolt of lightning. Her target was the Black Spirit winged Python's eye. She wanted to use the same trick and directly attack the eye, piercing through the black Spirit winged Python's head and killing it with a single blow!

Chen Zhisheng didn't say anything. He drew his sword, used his shield to protect his body, and rushed toward the Black Spirit winged Python. Wu yucao held her scimitar in reverse and attacked the Black Spirit winged Python from the side in an arc.

The three of them had a tacit understanding and instantly formed a layered attack formation.

However, the Black Spirit winged Python was not like the Black Spirit bison from before. In the face of Ling Hanxue's arrow, it only moved its head a little, and the arrow was sent flying by the horn on its forehead.

The flying arrow was just reflected back, aiming at Chen Zhisheng, who was rushing over. Fortunately, he blocked it with his hand shield. Although he did not receive any damage, he was shocked by the power of the arrow, and his rapid momentum was slightly delayed.

At this moment, Wu yucao was already close to the Black Spirit winged Python. She stomped on the ground and flew into the air. She held her scimitar in a reverse grip and flashed past like lightning, heading straight for the seventh village of the Black Spirit winged Python.

The curved blade that was infinitely close to Supreme grade was extremely sharp, and it immediately broke through the scales, bringing with it a trail of dark purple blood. However, before Wu yucao had time to expand her advantage, she was sent flying by the Black Spirit winged Python's wings. She lost her balance and rolled in the air.

The Black Spirit winged Python hissed and its huge head shot out like a bolt of lightning. Its mouth was like a dark cloud, completely shrouding the Wu yucao in the air. Its long tongue also shot out, trying to grab the Wu yucao and drag it into its mouth!

"How dare you, you animal!"

Ling Hanxue let out a loud shout and shot out three arrows in a triangular formation. One of them was aimed at the snake's tongue, while the other two were aimed at the Black Spirit winged Python's eyes. She was trying to use this tactic to help Wu yucao escape.

Chen Zhisheng, who had stopped for a moment, burst forth with all his strength, and his entire body shot into the sky like a cannonball. He protected his body with his hand shield, and directly slammed it into the black Spirit winged Python's head. The single-handed saber in his hand slashed down, wanting to once again attack the seven-inch spot of the Black Spirit winged Python.

Ling Hanxue's arrows arrived first, but the Black Spirit winged Python was extremely slippery. The attack on Wu yucao was only a feint, and it had changed direction halfway through. Thus, all three arrows missed, not a single one of them hitting!

Wu yucao's heart relaxed, but then her face turned pale with shock. She was still in the air, unable to maintain her balance. The Black Spirit winged Python changed its direction midway, not only avoiding Ling Hanxue's arrow, but also coming face to face with Chen Zhisheng, who had come to save her!

Like Wu yucao, Chen Zhisheng was in mid-air and sprinting at full speed. He could not change his direction at all and could only watch as the snake head appeared in front of him!

Fortunately, he had already made his move. Although the Black Spirit winged Python's position had changed, and he was unable to hit the seven-inch mark, he was still able to meet the Black Spirit winged Python's huge mouth. The blade of the saber ruthlessly struck one of the huge fangs, leaving a mark on it before it bounced back.

Unfortunately, he was too slow to escape from the danger. The huge mouth that followed almost swallowed him. At the critical moment, his hand shield hit the Fang. The huge shock made him spit out a mouthful of blood, but at the same time, he was also sent flying!

The Black Spirit winged Python's fangs were continuously attacked, and it was probably sore from the attacks. It shook its head and did not continue to pursue, but quickly retracted its fangs and coiled back into its snake formation.

Wu yucao and Chen Zhisheng took the opportunity to retreat and temporarily suspend their attacks!

This series of attacks and defenses seemed to take a long time to describe, but in reality, it was only a split second. Those with lower strength would probably blink their eyes and end it before they could even see it clearly!

Cold sweat started to form on Wu yucao's forehead. She did not expect the Black Spirit winged Python to be so difficult to deal with. Ling Hanxue was also a little afraid. She had thought that with the fine grade equipment that she had armed to the teeth, she would be able to easily capture any dark spirit beast in the foundation establishment stage. Who knew that she would almost lose!

As expected, it was not very reliable to hunt golden core stage dark spirit beasts at the moment.

"Hahahaha, what did I say? you're all looking for death, but unfortunately, you didn't die! Do you still want to try?"

The half-bald man laughed, a look of regret on his face. He didn't know if it was because the Black Spirit winged Python wasn't injured, or because Lin Yi's side didn't lose any men.

"Young master Sima, let's get rid of these annoying guys first, then deal with the Black Spirit winged Python?"

Ling Hanxue's face was frosty, and she couldn't vent her anger. She immediately pointed her finger at the half-bald middle-aged man. It was hard to believe that she still remembered to call Lin Yi young master Sima in front of others.

The middle-aged man's expression changed. He suddenly raised his hand and said, "Wait, you called him young master Sima? Are the three of you Wu yucao's team?"

"That's right! Why? Do you have any objections?"

Ling Hanxue laughed coldly as she nocked an arrow on her bow and aimed it at the half-bald middle-aged man. She actually dared to gloat at his misfortune and say that it was a pity that no one in her team died. She simply did not know how to spell the word 'death'!

"So you're the three lucky ones who have joined a noble young master. It seems that your strength is very ordinary. That young master Sima, do you want to take us in as your disciples? I guarantee that we'll be much stronger than these three rookies!"

The half-bald man suddenly smiled at Lin Yi, "How is it? Do you want to consider it?"

Chapter 7123 Laborer Chen Zhisheng

"I'm not interested!"

Lin Yi looked at the man coldly and snorted, "You're too ugly, you're affecting my vision!"

The middle-aged man's smile froze. He was about to explode, but he was afraid of Lin Yi's identity. He didn't know if he was going to do it.

This was especially so when there was a powerful black Spirit winged Python on the side. With the Black Spirit winged Python's intelligence, if they were to start a fight, it would most likely not run away. Instead, it would take advantage of the situation to launch a sneak attack and kill everyone. At that time, everyone would likely die together, and this was not the result he wanted.

"Young master Sima, don't think that just because you have a good background, you can do whatever you want outside. In the jungle, the weak are prey to the strong. Identity doesn't determine everything. After all, if you die outside, your family can't kill everyone, right?"

The half-bald middle-aged man sneered a few times and squinted his eyes as he threatened, "We have the upper hand now. Do you really think we don't dare to kill you?"

"So much nonsense! Try it if you dare!"

Lin Yi said with a cold smile, "Only a prodigal dog would bark from afar and not dare to attack the enemy. What a waste!"

With that, Lin Yi turned to the three. "You guys keep an eye on them and deal with them later. I'll deal with that snake first!"

"You're going to do it alone?"

Wu yucao was a little worried, but Lin Yi only waved his hand and gave her a look of reassurance!

"Brat, you're talking big! I'd like to see how you're going to die!"

The half-bald middle-aged man had a mocking expression on his face. He thought that Lin Yi didn't know what was good for him if he wanted to face the Black Spirit winged Python alone!

However, the next moment, he widened his eyes in shock and felt a chill rising from the bottom of his heart.

Lin Yi's body flashed and he appeared in front of the snake formation like a ghost. The Black Spirit winged Python opened its mouth and swallowed him.

Up until this point, the half-bald middle-aged man still wanted to say that it was as he had expected, but he didn't expect to be eaten by the Black Spirit winged Python so quickly!

However, in the next moment, a black light shot out from the Black Spirit winged Python's neck and circled around it. Then, the huge single-horned snake's head fell with a loud bang, and the entire snake formation quickly loosened. The huge snake's body was still twitching, but its life force was quickly fading away!

The Black Spirit winged Python ... Was done for, just like that?

The half-bald middle-aged man and his six companions were all dumbfounded. They did not know how to describe their feelings!

Could it be that The Correct Way to Kill the Black Spirit winged Python was to be swallowed first? But why were the people who were swallowed by the snake fine?

Lin Yi landed lightly on the snake's head and returned the sword to its scabbard. The demonic devouring sword was indeed useful, at least in terms of sharpness. It cut through the snake's head as if it was tofu. There was no resistance at all.

Seeing Lin Yi's spotless body, the half-bald man's heart turned cold-his entire body turned cold.

What kind of strength was this?

In the blood rain that filled the sky just now, there was not a single drop of blood? Was he really a human?

If Lin Yi could, he'd say that he really wasn't a human anymore ... A Yuan spirit wasn't a living person, and he wasn't dead either-he was a Living Dead!

What a sad story!

However, only a Yuan spirit could ignore the Black Spirit winged Python's damage. The full moon slash was just a name Lin Yi came up with on the spot. It was just a random move, and it wasn't anything special.

However, if people asked about it later, it could be used to brag that brother Pi had used the earth-shaking full moon slash to cut off the huge snake's head. It was much more impressive than saying that he had just casually swung it to end the battle!

"Young master Sima is truly unparalleled! This lowly one has opened his eyes today! My respect for young master is truly like the endless waves of the river!"

The half-bald middle-aged man knelt down with a clatter. With a flattering smile on his face, he quickly kowtowed three times. "Today, I have eyes but failed to recognize Mount Tai. I have offended young master Sima. From now on, I am willing to follow young master, be an ox or a horse, go through water and tread on fire, without hesitation!"

Lin Yi's mouth twitched-this guy didn't know what integrity was!

It was still his six companions who were unyielding. They clearly knew that they had offended someone they could not afford to offend, but they still looked on without a change in expression, as if they would not bat an eyelid even if Mount Tai collapsed in front of them.

But just as Lin Yi finished thinking, the half-bald man turned around and gave a look, and all six of them knelt down!

"Young master Sima is truly unparalleled! This lowly one has opened his eyes today! His respect for the young master was like the endless waves of the river! Today, this lowly one had eyes but failed to recognize Mount Tai and offended young master Sima. From now on, I'm willing to follow young master, be an ox or a horse, go through water and tread on fire, without hesitation!"

The six of them repeated what the half-bald man said in unison, and Lin Yi was shocked!

Did these guys rehearsed this beforehand? Otherwise, how could they be so neat and have such a good memory?

Most likely, he had already prepared an excuse to beg for mercy. When the time came, he would change his name so that it would be easier to remember!

As expected, they were a combination of moral integrity with no lower limit!

"Forget it, you guys can get lost! Don't let me see you guys again!"

Lin Yi waved his hand disinterestedly, sending the seven away. He had no interest in killing people who knelt down and begged for mercy!

Anyway, there was no threat, so let them be!

The half-bald man's face was filled with regret as he continued to say that he was willing to follow the young noble. Ling Hanxue glared at him and nocked an arrow on her bow, ""The young master asked you to get lost! If you don't get lost, I'll kill you all!"

The half-bald middle-aged man immediately turned around and ran away without saying a word!

Lin Yi was speechless-what kind of weirdo was this? why was he acting all high and mighty in the first place? Wasn't it better to keep a low profile?

After everyone had left, Chen Zhisheng went to deal with the Black Spirit winged Python's body.

The harvest this time was obviously more bountiful. Not only were there high-grade inner cores and meat strips, but there were also the Black Spirit winged Python's horn, wings, scales, and fangs.

Lin Yi wasn't short on money, but Wu yucao didn't want to throw away all these good things, so Lin Yi didn't object and took them all.

Of course, Chen Zhisheng was the one doing the hard work, and Lin Yi didn't want to expose the Jade space. He didn't even use his storage bag.

After being delayed for a while, the four of them continued to set off. This time, they were not hungry and could not eat new strips of essence meat at the moment. Therefore, they did not rest and continued to look for darkness spirit beasts.

Sure enough, today's luck was extremely good. Soon, they encountered a new spirit Beast of Darkness. Similarly, this was still a spirit Beast of Darkness that was being hunted by someone.

Lin Yi even suspected that the forest was full of hunters-why were there more people than the dark spirit beasts?

Chapter 7124 Ten Times Compensation

If this went on, how would they have the chance to hunt the spirit beasts of darkness?

However, there was no conflict this time. When they saw Wu yucao and the other two, the team immediately retreated. It seemed like Sima Yi's name had already spread throughout the forest. No one dared to look down on their four-man team anymore!

Whether it was the power behind them or their own strength, they had already received real attention!

Generally speaking, people who knew that they couldn't afford to provoke them would be smart enough to give up the idea of confrontation. And those who really dared to provoke them must have enough confidence in their own strength!

But so far, Lin Yi's group of four hadn't met such a person or team yet!

Hence, after a pleasant hunt, the four of them arrived at the warrior's rest stop in the forest!

The warrior's station was located in the depths of the forest. Although it was called a station, it was surrounded by tall wooden walls. It looked more like a small walled city!

"Young master Sima, this is the martial artist rest stop. It is a place for martial artists who are out adventuring to rest. The forest is filled with danger, and it is possible to encounter danger if you sleep in the open. As long as there is a chance, everyone will still choose to come here to rest."

Outside the inn, Wu yucao was giving Lin Yi a simple introduction. "There's also a trading function here. When some people have too much prey and can't carry it with them, they'll choose to sell their prey here and buy some equipment and supplies."

"Although the price of the game is much lower than in Deer Ridge city, and the equipment and supplies are more expensive, the difference is still within an acceptable range compared to a trip to Deer Ridge city."

Ling Hanxue enthusiastically explained. Then, she lowered her voice and reminded, ""Because there are more people here, it's better for us to keep a low profile. Status and power are useless in a place like this. As long as the other party thinks that we are weak and can be bullied, they will swallow us up without blinking!"

"This isn't Luling city, so there aren't any rules that prohibit private fights. You can draw your saber and kill at any time and place, but all damage will have to be paid to the people at the martial artist relay station, ten times the normal price! Whoever doesn't want to compensate will most likely die without a corpse!"

Chen Zhisheng also whispered and looked around to make sure that no one was paying attention, "That's why I said, after we go in, don't put on the airs of a young master of the Sima clan. You should obediently keep a low profile and rest. No one will come to provoke us!"

Lin Yi thought to himself, "when did I ever put on the airs of a young master of the Sima family?" At most, he would just put on a show!

"After hearing what you said, why do I feel that resting at this martial artist rest stop is more dangerous than camping outside? Are you sure you want to go in and rest?"

Lin Yi blinked as he looked at the three curiously.

The three's faces froze, suddenly feeling that Lin Yi's words made sense. They couldn't refute him!

Camping outside might not necessarily lead to encountering dark spirit beasts, and others might not even see it. It was indeed safer than going to the warrior's relay station, provided that the warrior's relay station was really as dangerous as they said.

In fact, what they said was not wrong, but it was not that exaggerated!

Everyone came in to rest. If it wasn't necessary, they wouldn't do anything. After all, the compensation was quite expensive.

There weren't many rich people hunting here, so it might be better to lose and die than to win a fight, because there would be situations where they couldn't afford to lose even if they sold themselves!

Although he said that, Lin Yi still entered the warrior's station with Wu yucao and the others. Who didn't know how to keep a low profile?

In the walled city, the main area was housing. There were a few small houses around which were used for trading. The largest space was the dining hall!

There were thirty to forty tables inside, but there weren't that many people. When the four of them came in, there were only ten or so tables with people eating and drinking.

Lin Yi scanned the area and didn't see anyone familiar. Most of the people he met before weren't here yet, or they'd already gone to rest.

In any case, this was also an opportunity to avoid conflict. If the other party's small teams joined forces, they might have the courage to make a move!

Lin Yi was just thinking that there wouldn't be a conflict when someone stood up and walked towards him.

"Yo, kid, your sword is pretty good! Your sword caught my eye, name your price!"

The person was a thin, pale-faced young man. He held an exquisitely-made sword in his hand, and his slender eyes flashed with a sharp light. He looked somewhat evil.

Lin Yi frowned. Shouldn't they be keeping a low profile here?

What was the meaning of this idiot who looked like he was about to die? Do you want to reincarnate earlier?

"Get lost! You can't afford this young master's sword, you don't even have the right to look at it!"

Lin Yi glanced at the young man coldly before finding an empty table and sitting down.

Killing intent flashed across the young man's face. He suddenly sneered, ""There's really a guy who's not afraid of death. It seems that he doesn't know the name of the cold-faced assassin, Shang menxing!"

Lin Yi's mouth twitched. How did this idiot survive until now?

And an assassin with the name cold-faced assassin ... How much did he like cold noodles?

Didn't he know that a nameless killer was a true killer?

Lin Yi concluded that this was an idiot with water in his brain-paying attention to him would only lower his own IQ.

"Everyone, sit down and order food!"

Lin Yi couldn't be bothered with that jinx and beckoned for the three to take their seats.

In fact, they were not hungry now. There were still a lot of meat strips of the essence of the spirit beasts of darkness in their luggage that they had not eaten.

The main reason he came in was to get a feel of the atmosphere at the rest stop ... Of course, this wasn't the truth. The truth was that he wanted to gather information in this place, where good and bad people mixed together. Perhaps someone would know about the Azure sky Valley.

"Little brat, you're looking for death!"

The star of death ... No, it was Shang menxing. With a low shout, he unsheathed his sword at lightning speed!

A limpid light pierced towards Lin Yi's throat like a shooting star, stunning everyone.

Everyone was looking at them with interest, not showing any excitement or fear, as if they were just watching a show. Obviously, they were used to this kind of drama.

Lin Yi didn't move, not even blinking. He completely ignored shangmen Xing's sword. Wu yucao was beside Lin Yi, and she couldn't pretend to not see it.

The curved swords that were infinitely close to the peak grade were unsheathed almost at the same time, and the new moon-like light cut through the space in front of Lin Yi, the crisp sound of metal clashing rang out!

After Shang menxing's all-out attack had been blocked, he retreated a little and immediately attacked again with his sword!

Chapter 7125 Greed

Wu yucao did not show any weakness. She waved her scimitar into a ball of light and fought with shangmen Xing!

The onlookers around them moved their tables and chairs away to make it easier for the two to fight.

This was most likely a conventional rule, in case they broke too many things and couldn't afford to pay for Yingluo. Everyone could encounter this kind of thing, so they helped each other!

The star of death's strength was not bad. He was already at the perfected Foundation establishment realm, but he was still a step away from the half-step golden core realm. Wu yucao was at the peak of the late Foundation establishment realm and was at the final juncture of breaking through to the perfected Foundation establishment realm, so there was not much difference between the two.

On the contrary, in terms of equipment, Wu yucao was better. The long sword of the star of death was just an ordinary item among the fine goods. It could not be compared to Wu yucao's scimitar at all, and it was the same in terms of defensive equipment.

After a few moves, the star of death's face had turned paler. Many cracks had appeared on his longsword during the collision. If they continued fighting, it was very likely that it would be directly broken by Wu yucao's curved sword!

To be honest, the reason why Shang menxing was interested in Lin Yi's demonic sword was because he wasn't satisfied with his own sword!

They thought that Lin Yi's side had fewer people and their strength was average, but who would've thought that they'd hit a wall this time!

"You have some ability! No wonder they're all so arrogant!"

The Shang sect's interest faltered and they leaped out of the battle circle. They looked at the long sword in their hands with some heartache. It was a fine long sword after all! "Brothers, this is a tricky problem. Let's go together!"

Before he finished speaking, more than a dozen people from the two tables around him stood up and took out their weapons at the same time. In an instant, the light of swords flashed, and the cold air was threatening.

All of these people were at least at the mid-Foundation Stage!

It was no wonder that shangmen Xing dared to think about Lin Yi's demonic devour sword. No one else around him stepped out first either-it was clear that shangmen Xing was the strongest team in the field.

If the other teams didn't join forces, they would be able to suppress any one of them.

"Brat, I'll give you one last chance. Take the money and hand over your sword. I'm doing this fair trade, I have no intention of snatching it from you!"

Shangmen Xing sneered and threw a few silver certificates over,""If you know what's good for you, then don't put up any unnecessary resistance. You can see for yourself that I want to Rob the four of you. Even killing men and raping women is not a problem!"

In other words, as long as you have a long sword, and you bought it with money, you should be grateful!

Lin Yi was so angry that he laughed. A few silver notes for a top quality sword? And it was the legendary ominous sword, the demon devouring sword!

"You've never seen anything good before, have you? In your eyes, my sword is only worth this much?"

Lin Yi glanced at the dozen people surrounding him, not taking them to heart at all!

Lin Yi understood that it wasn't that shangmen Xing didn't want to Rob the four of them, but that he was afraid that he'd get too much and make others target him.

With the strength that Wu yucao had shown, in addition to Ling Hanxue and Chen Zhisheng's strong looks, their team would definitely have to pay a certain price if they were to fight to the death.

There were still dozens of people watching the show covetously. If Shang menxing's team won miserably and obtained rich spoils of war, they would probably end up being besieged by everyone.

Don't ask how they knew that they would get a big harvest. Wu yucao and the other two were fully equipped with fine grade equipment. Only a blind person would not be able to see the value of the equipment!

So shangmen Xing was smart enough to only want the demon devour sword. If Lin Yi's team surrendered, they would be able to get what they wanted without using any weapons, and Lin Yi's team would become the target and prey of others after their cowardice was seen through!

Lin Yi could see through all these thoughts in an instant, and he understood why shangmen Xing didn't want his team to suffer.

"Too little? You can name a price! I can consider it, but you'd better not ask for too much, my patience is limited!"

Shangmen Xin also knew that he would not succeed easily, so he continued to speak in a relaxed manner, "If we can resolve this peacefully, then don't resort to violence. After all, we have to compensate for the things we break. There's no need to do so, right?"

"That's right, this young master also feels that there's no need to break things, so everyone should be careful not to break other people's things!"

Lin Yi's lips curled up into a mocking smile as he barked coldly, "Kill them!"

Sometimes, keeping a low profile could avoid a lot of trouble, but when trouble came to them, continuing to keep a low profile would only invite more trouble!

Therefore, when the time was right, showing off his sharp fangs could better intimidate the evildoers and avoid giving the impression that he was easy to bully, which would cause trouble for him.

This was the time to show his fangs!

Chen Zhisheng's Sword and Shield clashed as soon as Lin Yi spoke, blocking everyone in front of him.

Wu yucao lowered her body and sneaked out from Chen Zhisheng's side. Ling Hanxue, on the other hand, tiptoed and flew backward. In mid-air, a bow and arrow appeared in her hand, and she drew the bow and shot out arrows in succession!

Although Ling Hanxue had already pulled away, they were still too close. The arrows did not have the time to reach their maximum attack power.

However, it was also because the distance was too close that the other side was a little flustered when they wanted to react. For a time, their weapons danced wildly, and the dozen or so people were actually suppressed by the three people.

Chen Zhisheng took advantage of the other party's confusion and took most of the attacks. Wu yucao continued to launch fatal attacks from the gaps, while Ling Hanxue's arrows caused chaos.

The cooperation between the three was extremely tacit, and the combat power they displayed was far greater than the strength of the three added together.

Lin Yi was very satisfied with this, but he didn't sit around and do nothing. He used butterfly steps and easily walked through the gaps in shangmen Xing's team. When he got close to shangmen Xing, he unsheathed the demonic devour sword again!

The first time he unsheathed the demonic devour sword, he had already killed the Black Spirit winged Python. The dark spirit beasts behind him didn't even have a chance to attack, and they were easily taken care of by Wu yucao and the others.

And this time, the opponent of the demonic devour sword was no longer a darkness spirit beast, but an unlucky martial artist!

Even his name was called jinx, it could be seen how unlucky he was!

The black light slashed down, dimming the surrounding light. Lin Yi didn't use any exquisite swordsmanship-it was just a normal splitting mountain, but shangmen Xin felt like he was being sucked in, with nowhere to run.

Other than raising his sword to resist, there was no other way!

Shangmen Xing's heart turned cold, but Lin Yi didn't seem to be that strong. He gritted his teeth and swung his sword, parrying Lin Yi's attack with all his might.

However, in the next moment, Shangmen Xing felt the weight in his hand lighten. Under the attack of the demon devouring sword, his high-quality longsword had actually been unable to resist and had broken into a section without a sound!

Chapter 7126 Truly A Black Shop

It was as if the sword in Shangmen Xing's hand was not a high-quality longsword, but a high-quality tofu. It was simply too weak to withstand a blow!

Of course, if it was an undamaged fine grade longsword, the demonic devour sword would need a few more strokes to break it. Lin Yi had used a trick this time, and just happened to cut the gap made by Wu yucao's curved sword, so he easily broke Shangmen Xing's longsword.

The black light was like a hot knife through butter, cutting down without any resistance. Shangmen Xing's pale face still had an expression of disbelief before his life was reaped!

It was too fast!

Everything had happened too quickly!

The battle had just started, and shangmen Xing was killed by Lin Yi in one strike. His teammates were all dumbfounded!

In this kind of fast-paced battle, a moment's daze would only result in death. Wu yucao's curved blade rose like a New Moon, easily taking two lives. Ling Hanxue was even more relaxed, her continuous arrows directly hitting the throats and hearts of the three people.

Even Chen Zhisheng took advantage of the opportunity when his hand shield blocked a long knife and ended an enemy's life.

In the blink of an eye, more than half of shangmen Xing's team had died!

The thick smell of blood filled the air, and even the surrounding audience, who were used to seeing life and death, could not help but feel a chill in their hearts when they smelled it.

The remaining members of Shang menxing's team were terrified. They retreated rapidly as though they had seen a ghost!

It was too brutal!

This four-man team was too brutal!

Who had ever seen a team of the same level of strength, with the weaker side killing two times the number of enemies in an instant?

Wu yucao turned back to Lin Yi, not knowing if she should go after the rest.

The law of the jungle was to eliminate the roots and prevent the enemy from coming back. However, Lin Yi was in charge Now, so she couldn't make up her mind.

If Wu yucao had gone after them directly, Lin Yi wouldn't mind killing the rest, but this look made him sigh. He waved his hand, "They're just some clowns. Ignore them!"

It didn't matter if he wanted to establish his might or intimidate them, the effect had already been achieved. There was no point in continuing to kill.

Wu yucao and the other two replied at the same time, their cold eyes scanning the remaining people before returning to the table Lin Yi had chosen.

The few people who had just escaped from death felt their legs go soft and almost fell to the ground. Then, a middle-aged man who was temporarily pushed forward trembled and cupped his fists, "Many thanks for young master's mercy of not killing us. We are extremely grateful."

Lin Yi only looked at him indifferently and ignored him.

"My young master is kind and doesn't want to kill more people. You should pay attention to yourselves in the future. If you offend us again, don't blame us for being impolite!"

Wu yucao saw that Lin Yi didn't want to talk, so she took up the role of the mouthpiece. "Let's go. Don't stay here and disturb our meal. "

"Yes, yes, yes! Thank you for your magnanimity ... But my companions ... Can you take care of them?"

The middle-aged man was still shaking, but he still asked for Lin Yi's opinion.

The main purpose was naturally not to clean up the corpses of their companions, but to plunder the wealth on their corpses!

Logically speaking, these were all Lin Yi's spoils of war, but he didn't seem to have much interest in them, so the remaining ones were a little greedy, thinking that it would be best if he could get them back.

"Don't take my young master's kindness for weakness!"

Wu yucao's eyes widened and she said coldly, ""Do you need me to say more about the rules? Just because we don't want it doesn't mean you can come and ask for it. Not taking a ransom from you is already showing mercy!"

According to the established rules, if the losing party wanted to live, they had to hand over all their wealth and equipment in exchange for their lives!

Lin Yi didn't have such requirements, so the middle-aged man thought that there would be an exception.

However, Wu yucao spent most of his time in the forest, so how could he be fooled?

The middle-aged man shivered and bowed, begging for mercy. Lin Yi waved his hand impatiently. "Get lost! Don't ever appear in front of this young master again. "

If he dared to be long-winded, he might really be killed!

The middle-aged man came to this realization and quickly scrambled back to his companions. Then, he left the place in a hurry. He didn't even dare to stay for the night. He left the rest stop and entered the forest.

Did she think that Lin Yi was more dangerous than the forest?

After these people left, the people in the courier station walked over with cold faces and said, ""You guys fought here. Although you didn't break anything, you still need to clean it up. You'll have to pay for the cleaning fee!"

Lin Yi's mouth twitched-it was easy to earn money from doing business, after all. The guy was probably lamenting that he didn't break a few tables and plates, right?

"I'll leave the bodies to you. You can take everything they have. Consider it a fee!"

Wu yucao didn't wait for Lin Yi's reply and made her decision, "There's no problem, right?"

There were seven bodies on the ground, including Shang menxing 'S. Lin Yi and the others didn't take any spoils, so in theory, they were still rich.

That Inn's worker finally had a smile on his face as he nodded, "No problem! That's good! In addition, I'll give you a table of wine tonight. Everyone, please enjoy your meal!"

Lin Yi chuckled to himself-did this guy think he'd made a killing, so he wanted some return?

However, this kind of action was equivalent to encouraging the people in the courier station to kill each other. After all, no matter who lived or died, who won or lost, the people of the courier station would always make money!

This was really a black shop!

The surrounding audience whispered to each other, but they ignored the blood and corpses on the ground. They ate and drank as they should, extremely careless.

The people from the courier station quickly came up to deal with the aftermath. Seven or eight people deftly moved the bodies, washed the ground, and removed the smell of blood. In just a few minutes, they had finished cleaning up. The tables and chairs were neatly arranged as if nothing had happened.

Lin Yi was dumbfounded-these were all skilled workers!

It was impossible for an ordinary person to clean it without at least two to four hours.

It was impossible to get rid of all the strange smells in a day or two. He could only admit that he was impressed by this warrior's relay!

After cleaning up, the complimentary food and wine were served. They were not any precious ingredients, but they tasted pretty good!

Lin Yi didn't continue after a few bites-he wasn't hungry and didn't need it, and the word "tourist trap" made him think of human meat buns and stuff ...

Wu yucao and the other two didn't eat much either. Other than not being hungry, it was also because they had eaten the barbeque made from essence strips today. These ordinary ingredients were a little difficult to swallow.

Chapter 7127 Let's Not Compare Backgrounds But Fists

This was the so-called "no harm without comparison"!

After the lightning-like shock, no one dared to lay their hands on the four anymore. There weren't even people around them who dared to sit, all separated by a table or two. They spoke in hushed voices, too, and Lin Yi couldn't help it.

He came here to eat mainly because he wanted to listen to all kinds of talk and collect some information from them. Now, it seemed that he had been too intimidated ...

"If everyone doesn't want to eat, then why don't you all go and rest?"

Lin Yi decided that there was no point in staying any longer, so he ended the dinner. "Rest early and set off early tomorrow!"

"Yes, young master!"

Wu yucao replied seriously and stood up with Ling Hanxue and Chen Zhisheng, following behind Lin Yi.

The accommodation was upstairs. There weren't many people today, so each of them could stay in a room. In this aspect, the prices at the warrior Inn were relatively fair. They weren't too expensive, and were even much cheaper than in Luling city.

He was about to go up when a group of people came in. Lin Yi thought they looked familiar-they were the hunters he met when he was hunting the dark spirit beasts before he came to the rest stop.

At that time, it could be said that Lin Yi and the others had stolen the other party's prey and were a little angry, but after Wu yucao and the other two showed their strength, there was no conflict and they left obediently. He didn't expect to meet them here.

There were a total of six people on the other side, and their strength and level were basically about the same as Chen Zhisheng and Ling Hanxue, but slightly weaker than Wu yucao. Their equipment was not comparable, and they only had a few pieces of fine grade equipment.

They felt like enemies on a narrow road when they saw the four, but they knew that they weren't as strong as the four of them, so they didn't dare to provoke them and stood aside.

Lin Yi didn't bother with them-they'd never fought before, and there wasn't much hatred between them. As long as they didn't come looking for trouble, they'd just do what they wanted.

The four of them went up the stairs, but it was dark up there. Lin Yi raised his head and saw a big guy coming down-it was a lot darker down the stairs because the light was blocked.

"Yo, if it isn't Chen Zhisheng, the little bastard! Why have you come to the warrior's station again? I'm quite bored today, so I can have some fun with you!"

A big man saw Lin Yi and the others below and suddenly grinned. The stairs made heavy thuds as a small mountain-like figure walked towards Chen Zhisheng.

Chen Zhisheng's face was pale, and his body was a little stiff. He couldn't speak for a while.

Lin Yi frowned, feeling that something wasn't right. Was this big guy Chen Zhisheng's enemy?

It seemed that even if he didn't go looking for trouble today, trouble would still come knocking on his door!

Lin Yi was walking at the front, and he didn't move away when he saw the big guy. If he was Chen Zhisheng's enemy, he might have to block him.

He didn't expect the big guy to ignore Lin Yi and reach out his hand in front of him. He looked down at Lin Yi and slapped Chen Zhisheng's face.

"Looks like you've been doing pretty well recently. You've changed all the junk on you into fine grade equipment, and you're rich? Why didn't you come and show your filial piety to this great master!"

The big guy humiliated Chen Zhisheng without restraint, then turned to Ling Hanxue and said, ""And that Ling Hanxue girl, have you thought about it? when are you coming to the stronghold to be my wife?"

As he spoke, the big guy tried to caress Ling Hanxue's face with his fan-sized palm, but Ling Hanxue dodged his touch by jumping back.

"Stop! If you have anything to say, just come at me! Don't go ..."

Chen Zhisheng was originally a little angry but didn't dare to speak, but at this time, he gritted his teeth and shouted!

However, before he could finish his words, the big man pressed his face and pushed him down the stairs.

Lin Yi reached out his hand to block it, but it was useless. The big guy's strength was shocking, and his body was strong as well. Lin Yi's small body was like an ant trying to shake a tree, he couldn't affect the big guy at all.

Unless it was a life and death battle, Lin Yi really couldn't do anything to this big guy!

"Big guy, try touching my people again!"

Lin Yi's face darkened as he replied coldly, "How dare you be so arrogant in front of me? do you think you are invincible?"

"And what are you? I'm having fun here, you dare to stop me? Don't you know how to spell the word "death"?"

The big guy lowered his head and glared at Lin Yi in disdain. "Look at you, you probably can't even withstand my pinky, right?"

"Hehe, he's the Honorable young master Sima. The power behind him is very strong. You'd better think twice and not provoke the wrong person!"

Among the group of people who had just entered, a woman sneered harshly. "Don't think that you can bully others just because you're strong. You might not be able to afford to offend them!"

The people eating in the hall looked at the mean woman with pity, then tacitly sat further away and continued to watch the show.

Someone muttered, "these people look unfamiliar, are they new?" You don't even know this fiend, and you dare to fan the flames and sow discord. You're really tired of living!"

The mean woman was indeed fanning the flames-she was speaking up for Lin Yi on the surface, but she was actually adding fuel to the fire, trying to get the big guy to kill Lin Yi and vent his anger!

Lin Yi and the others were following the rules of the hunt, but it still made her angry that her food was stolen.

The big guy squinted his eyes at the group before turning back to Lin Yi with a smile. "So it's that young master Sima. Does he have a great background? However, this was a martial artist's courier station. So what if he had a powerful background? In this place, it's not about background, but fist strength!"

At this point, the big man waved his pot-sized fist. It was really big!

In terms of fists, there was probably no one here who was bigger than him.

Chen Zhisheng was pushed to the ground. After he got up, he was inexplicably ashamed and angry, but he did not dare to step forward to get back at him. It was not that he was timid, but the opponent was too strong!

This big guy was not a half-step golden core expert like Bai da, but a real golden core stage expert!

In this forest, there were definitely people at the top of the pyramid.

Most of the people who dared to resist him were crushed to death. Chen Zhisheng was not afraid of death, but this kind of desperate resistance simply made him unable to raise his spirits.

Ling Hanxue, who had always been lively and cheerful, had also fallen silent at this time. She did not dare to show off in the slightest. It was obvious that she was also deeply afraid of this big fellow!

"What kind of person are you, you unrivalled mountain donkey? How dare you touch this young master's follower, and you're so arrogant? You're threatening me with your fists?"

Lin Yi looked at the big guy from the corner of his eyes, putting on a proud face. "I don't even need to use my fists to deal with this stupid big guy. Do you believe that this young master will deal with you right now?!"

Chapter 7128 Not Using A Sword

The audience was secretly excited-the scene of Lin Yi killing shangmen Xing was still fresh in their minds. He was indeed a strong and overbearing master!

Now that he was facing an even stronger and more overbearing Lord, what kind of intense collision would happen? it was simply worth looking forward to!

However, Shang menxing was only at the peak Foundation Stage, he wasn't on the same level as the big guy in front of them. Hence, most of the audience thought that Lin Yi was dead for sure!

Alright, it wasn't just the majority, but all of them!

No one would think that a golden core would lose to Lin Yi, because the main reason for shangmen Xing's death was because his weapon wasn't as good as his opponent 's.

If they were to use the same weapon, it was hard to say who would win and who would die!

"Yo, you're quite arrogant, kid. You dare to act tough in front of me, you're really the head of acting tough! Today, I don't believe that you'll be able to take care of me. Come, come, come, let me see how you're going to deal with me without using your fists!"

The big man tore off his clothes, revealing his rock-like pectoral muscles. He patted his chest twice and said, ""Come on! If you can't deal with me, then I'll deal with you!"

Lin Yi was a little taken aback-this guy called him the head of the show-off gang, and it was a title he hadn't heard in a long time! It sounded so friendly!

"Big guy, are you stupid? He's holding a top-grade longsword, so he doesn't need to use his fists to deal with you. He can just stab you to death!"

The mean woman who had spoken just now spoke again. Her companion felt that something was wrong, but he couldn't stop her. He could only let her continue with her mean words.

The big guy's eyes widened, and he suddenly threw a punch in the air. The violent fist broke through the air, making a slight Sonic Boom. The rapidly compressed air shot out like a visible Cannonball.

The distance between the two wasn't far, and the mean woman was still mumbling non-stop. She didn't guard against the big guy's sudden attack at all, and was hit directly in the face by the wind of the fist. Blood immediately splattered, and her whole body was sent flying.

The might of a single punch was actually so powerful!

Lin Yi couldn't help but be shocked. This was a punch that didn't have any pure Qi-it was a punch that relied on pure physical strength!

The big guy in front of him was indeed terrifying!

If he didn't use his essence Spirit's invisibility, Lin Yi estimated that his essence spirit wouldn't be able to withstand the big guy's fist at all and would be scattered in minutes.

"So noisy! What's the point of a stupid old woman talking so much about what I'm doing? Do you all want to die?"

The big man looked at her coldly, and the mean woman's companions immediately covered their mouths and shook their heads hard.

As for that mean woman, she was already barely breathing. It looked like she was not going to live!

The audience showed an expression that everything was within their expectations, and the pity in their eyes became more and more intense. Yingying was really an idiot, she was looking for death and almost implicated her companion.

It was a good thing that The Fiend's attention seemed to be focused on young master Sima, so he let them off for the time being. It was hard to say if they would die later.

"Kid, are you going to use a sword? If you use a sword, I'll beat you up first!"

The big guy seemed to feel that Lin Yi's demonic sword was a threat to him, so he decided to strike first!

"Hmph!" Lin Yi snorted, "you don't even need your fists, let alone a sword?"

"Hahaha, interesting. I can't wait to see what you'll use to deal with me!"

The big guy relaxed. As far as he was concerned, other than that sword, Lin Yi didn't pose any threat to him at all. "If you can't defeat me today, I'll tear Chen Zhisheng apart alive and take Ling Hanxue back to be my wife!"

Chen Zhisheng's body trembled, and his face turned pale. Ling Hanxue's expression wasn't good either. She could only look at Lin Yi with hope in her eyes, not knowing if Lin Yi could really kill this big guy!

Although Lin Yi had displayed his powerful combat strength before, he didn't seem to have fought a head-on battle. He only used tricks.

Assassins indeed didn't need to fight head-on, but the big guy in front of them was a master of the Golden core stage. Under such circumstances, it was impossible to give you the opportunity to assassinate him. There was no other way except to fight head-on!

Would he lose?

Ling Hanxue and the other two weren't very confident. In fact, Lin Yi didn't have much confidence either. He just wanted to try. If it didn't work, he could only use his primordial spirit and use his divine sense to attack the opponent.

If he were to use his primordial spirit when he encountered a slightly stronger enemy ... He was afraid that his soul would be scattered not long after?

"Save your big talk for the future if you still have a future!"

Lin Yi smiled coldly and hooked his finger at the big guy. "Now, I'll show you what I can do!"

"Hahaha, you little thing, do you only know how to talk? If you want to fight, then be more straightforward! I'll let you make the first move, so you won't die without a chance to make a move!"

The big man laughed wildly and patted his exposed muscular chest. "Make good use of your last chance before you die! Don't say that I'm not kind enough!"

"Then I won't be polite!"

Lin Yi grinned and kicked the stairs in front of him.

He was standing three or four steps lower than the big guy, and with the height difference between the two, he could only see the big guy's abdomen.

He could've attacked the big guy's golden core if he'd attacked first, but the big guy was on full alert right now, and it probably wouldn't be effective even if he attacked. So, Lin Yi jumped out and kicked the stairs up.

The big man's feet missed, and his heavy body suddenly sank down. However, this degree of change was not enough to make him panic. He opened his arms and exerted a little force on the handrail of the stairs, using the momentum to rise into the air.

Lin Yi didn't use the demonic blade, and he didn't pull back his right leg that had shattered the stairs. Instead, he went up and sent a thousand kicks!

Although he couldn't use his true Qi, his physical strength alone was enough to use such a low-level martial art technique, and the power was extraordinary!

The big guy in mid-air had nowhere to Dodge and was kicked dozens of times in an instant.

However, Lin Yi was too weak, and the [thousand kick] was a technique that focused on quantity. It was even less powerful after the power was dispersed, so he could only harass the big guy but couldn't hurt him effectively!

At first, the big guy was indeed a little panicked. Seeing this unfamiliar leg technique, he inevitably felt a little uncertain. However, after resisting it for a while, he couldn't help but laugh.

"Hahahaha, this is the method you were talking about? Are you trying to scratch my itch? It's too light to even scratch an itch!"

The big guy used the momentum to float up and landed on the intact stairs, mocking Lin Yi. "Brat, you only know some fancy moves, and you dare to come out and show off. You're quite bold. It's a pity that you've met me today. I'll teach you how to behave!"

Chapter 7129 Shattering The Golden Core

Before he could finish his sentence, the stairs that the big guy had stepped on collapsed again. The attack power of the thousand legs might not be enough to deal with the big guy at the Golden core stage, but it was not much different from the heavy machinery of the demolition team to tear down the wooden stairs.

The big guy felt the ground under his feet empty again, but he wasn't panicking anymore. He was used to Lin Yi's little tricks, and he was getting more and more proud.

"You're only capable of this after so many twists and turns, I really think too highly of you! I'll send you on your way!"

This time, the big guy didn't use the momentum to fly, but let his body fall. At the same time, he swung his arm, which was as thick as Lin Yi's thigh, and his fist was as big as a clay pot, aiming for Lin Yi's face.

Everyone was sure that if Lin Yi took a direct hit, the battle would end immediately. No one under the Golden core stage could take a punch from a big guy with their face and still survive!

Lin Yi's lips curled up into an undetectable smile. The reason why he used the weak thousand legs, other than to tear down the stairs above, was to make the big guy think that he was underestimating him.

In a battle, when one's strength was strong enough to crush the opponent, one could directly crush the opponent without any reason. However, when one's body was weak, one had to take advantage of all favorable factors.

For example, geographical advantage, or the enemy underestimating the enemy, etc. In the end, he would launch a sure-kill attack to win the final victory!

Lin Yi was using a reasonable strategy to close the gap between the two of them!

Limit butterfly microsteps!

With the stairs under his feet, Lin Yi's movements were more than ten times faster than the big guy 'S. He dodged the huge fist with ghostly movements and then twisted his body to attack, getting close to the big guy's body in an instant.

The big guy was sinking quickly, and his hands were attacking Lin Yi. There was no way he could Dodge, but he wasn't worried at all. With the power of the thousand kick, he could just stand there and let Lin Yi attack him!

This was the effect Lin Yi wanted!

This time, he didn't use the thousand kicks, but instead, he used his palm to hit the big guy's dantian. He said he wouldn't use his fist, so he didn't use his fist. He used his palm!

Lin Yi's target was the Golden core, and if he could break the core of the big guy, he'd lose half of his strength. Not only would his strength drop drastically, but his body would also be affected, and he might even die if he was unlucky.

The big guy wasn't afraid of Lin Yi's attack, but it was still a vital part. He subconsciously raised his knee to block Lin Yi's palm, but the next moment, his face changed completely.

Lin Yi's palm was blocked by the big guy's knee at the last moment, and it ended up floating up a little. It didn't hit the Jindan's position, but hit the big guy's upper abdomen.

In an instant, the big man felt as if his knees and abdomen were hit by a huge blunt weapon. The pain surged up like a monstrous wave, invading in waves without end.

Its huge body was also affected by this and was thrown back, further destroying the already broken stairs.

Lin Yi felt that it was such a pity-all his plans and schemes had failed in the end!

It could be seen that in terms of physical fitness and reaction speed, a golden core stage martial artist was indeed ten times stronger than him!

However, from the looks of this attack, there should be a chance to break the big guy's golden core!

Because Lin Yi was using Wu Chengtian's Iron Fist technique!

Normally, a fully formed golden core was very hard to break-even a practitioner of the same level might not be able to do this, let alone a mere Sky Class full foundation like Lin Yi.

However, in Lin Yi's hands, the power of the iron hand technique was completely different. Even without pure Qi, he could unleash an indestructible characteristic. From the big guy's reaction after being attacked, it was clear that this was a move that could seriously injure him!

The big guy felt a suffocating feeling in his chest. The sharp pain in his upper abdomen made him feel suffocated, and he could not control his center of gravity. For a moment, he could only let himself break through the stairs and then free-fall down.

Lin Yi didn't let go of this opportunity. His body flashed and he appeared in front of the big guy in an instant, his palm hitting the big guy's dantian again!

The big guy's face changed, and he threw out a fist to meet the attack, but Lin Yi didn't want to meet it head-on. His body slid past the edge of his fist like water, and his palm didn't change direction, continuing to hit the target.

In the nick of time, the big guy put his other palm in front of his dantian, trying to stop Lin Yi's attack.

However, the big guy was already at a loss from Lin Yi's continuous attacks. He couldn't use his full power and had to split it up again and again. This time, he didn't even use one percent of his power.

Lin Yi, on the other hand, was different. Every attack was targeted and he went all out. With the addition of the iron fist technique, the tables were turned!

With a heavy explosion, their palms were stuck together, landing heavily on the big guy's dantian. He wanted to stop Lin Yi's attack, but Lin Yi took it and hit him.

It was like when two armies were fighting, the vanguard was forced to roll back the bead curtain after being defeated by the enemy to attack the enemy's position. It became a powerful help to the enemy!

The big guy's eyes were wide open, and his face was full of disbelief. Then, he felt a crack appear in his golden core, which slowly began to expand and gradually covered the entire golden core.

An instant later, the Golden core began to collapse, and the big guy's huge body twitched unconsciously. The originally strong power receded like the tide, and an endless sense of weakness completely surrounded him!

At this time, the big man's body had just fallen from the sky. His weak legs could not support his body, and he didn't even have the chance to stagger. He fell to the ground.

Lin Yi, on the other hand, landed lightly on the ground with his hands behind his back. His posture was relaxed, and he had a faint smile on his face-what a master!

In fact, Lin Yi was feeling lucky. The iron fist was strong, but his strength was still a bit weaker!

If the big guy didn't use his hands to block it, but instead focused all his energy into his dantian, tightening his abdominal muscles for defense, Lin Yi really wouldn't be able to break his golden core.

The big guy's palm just happened to be swept away by Lin Yi's crushing force, becoming the last straw that broke the camel's back, successfully shattering his own golden core!

In other words, the big guy was the one who screwed himself over this time ...

The fight was as intense as a spark, and before the debris from Lin Yi's first kick had even fallen, the big guy had already lost!

The audience was dumbfounded. This result was completely beyond their expectations!

Chapter 7130 How Many Years Has It Not Changed?

As for the team of the mean woman who had fanned the flames earlier, their reaction was quite fast. After a moment of shock, they immediately turned around and left quietly!

Although the darkness spirit beasts in the night were terrifyingly powerful, they did not seem to be as terrifying as young master Sima!

After offending such a person, it was better to escape as far away as possible! As for that mean woman, she was heartlessly abandoned by her teammates!

This kind of blind woman, bringing her along would only invite disaster. It was better to let her run her own course. Perhaps after young master Sima used her to vent his anger, he would not be so calculative with them!

Actually, that terrifying young master Sima didn't care about them at all. He was currently looking down at the big guy on the ground with a calm expression.

The big guy had been looking down at Lin Yi all this time, but it was finally his turn!

"Big idiot, are you satisfied with my methods? See that? A big fist doesn't necessarily mean you're powerful. Sometimes, it's more comfortable to slap someone in the face!"

Lin Yi's lips curled into a mocking smile as he continued, "Do you know what will happen to those who touch this young master? He was either dead or crippled! It has been so many years, and this has never changed, but there are still idiots who don't listen to advice and want to try. This young master doesn't know how many people I have killed or crippled, so you don't have to be sad. You are not the first, and I don't think you will be the last!"

The big guy's face was blank-he didn't understand what Lin Yi was saying at all. He was still wondering how he'd lost all of a sudden.

Lin Yi's strength was far from his, so why was he being pushed back time and time again? Furthermore, he did not even have the chance to use his full strength.

It was like a strong elephant being tripped by an ant. How could such a ridiculous thing happen? He really couldn't understand it!

"Hey! Big dumb guy! Are you really stupid?"

Lin Yi tried to pose for a while, but his opponent didn't react at all. It was very awkward, so he went up and kicked the big guy. "Are you dead? If you're not dead, make a squeak!"

"Creak creak creak"

The big guy's mind was still a little confused, and he actually made a sound ... When he reacted, he was so embarrassed that he wanted to die!

Lin Yi's mouth twitched, a little surprised. Was this guy a clown sent by the monkeys to be funny?

"Little brat! If you have the guts, kill me immediately. Otherwise, I'll cut you all into a thousand pieces!"

The big guy's face turned red, and he shouted angrily, ""Don't think that everything will be fine just because you destroyed my golden core! Come, try and kill me!"

The big guy subconsciously squeaked after hearing Lin Yi's words-it was worse than losing his golden core. He'd rather die than suffer such humiliation!

"Big idiot, you dared to touch my people. It's no big deal even if you die. Since you have such a sincere request, I'll fulfill it!"

Lin Yi shrugged nonchalantly and turned to Chen Zhisheng, "This idiot humiliated you just now. Kill him yourself! If you want to torture me more, that's fine, as long as you're happy!"

Chen Zhisheng was at the peak of his emotional state. He was only forced to submit to Lin Yi because of Lin Yi's status and strength, as well as Wu yucao's relationship with Ling Hanxue.

However, at this time, he was truly hot-blooded. Looking at the big guy who bullied him and Ling Hanxue being humiliated, Chen Zhisheng felt very proud. Especially when Ling Hanxue was spared from the big guy's humiliation, it made him feel extremely responsible.

To be honest, Chen Zhisheng really did like Ling Hanxue, but he couldn't protect the person he loved, and in the end, he had to rely on Lin Yi. For a moment, he felt that following Lin Yi from now on wasn't a bad thing ...

"What's wrong? You don't want to fight?"

Lin Yi waved his hand in front of Zhisheng's eyes when he saw him spacing out. "If you find it boring, then forget it!"

"No, it's not that I don't want to fight!"

Chen Zhisheng quickly shook his head. He felt that it was meaningful to deal with the big guy personally to avenge his previous humiliation, but he was still a little apprehensive. "Young master Sima, thank you for giving me this opportunity. However, there are some things that you might not be clear about ..."

Although this big guy was alone, the power behind him was quite strong. This was not the power from the outside, but the power in this jungle!

Basically, no one would choose to offend anyone who entered the jungle. The mean woman from before obviously didn't know the big guy, which was why she said those stupid words to fan the flames.

"It's fine. As long as you're willing, we'll talk after you're dead!"

Lin Yi waved his hand nonchalantly. There were some things that he didn't need to think too much about. He could do what he wanted to do now and think about the future when the time came!

"Chen Zhisheng, if you dare to touch me, I dare you! I guarantee that you'll die without a proper burial!"

The big guy grinned and glared at Chen Zhisheng. He stood up arrogantly. Although he still felt a little powerless, his life did not seem to be in danger.

It seemed that the impact of the Golden core shattering on him was only the weakening of his strength. The strength of his physical fitness guaranteed this guy's recovery ability. At present, he still retained the combat power of the late stage of the foundation building realm, which was about the same as Chen Zhisheng.

However, with the passage of time, the aftereffects of the Golden core shattering would gradually ferment, and the strength of the big guy would be further reduced, and his physical fitness would naturally also weaken.

"You still dare to be stubborn. I can guarantee that you will die without a burial place first. As for what will happen to my people, you won't be able to see it!"

Lin Yi smirked coldly and raised his hand.

The big guy was glaring at Chen Zhisheng and didn't expect Lin Yi's sudden attack. Plus, his strength had dropped too much and his body was too weak to recover, so he was slapped in the face by Lin Yi.

Lin Yi didn't use too much strength this time, but he was only teaching the big guy a lesson, not killing him. He didn't expect the big guy to be sent flying with one slap.

It was a shocking sight-even Lin Yi's thousand legs and iron Fist weren't able to send him flying like this.

Lin Yi was still wondering if he'd used the iron fist technique again, but he realized that the blockhead had done it on purpose!

Taking advantage of the effect of the slap, the big guy directly broke the window and flew out of the dining hall!

It wasn't impossible for Lin Yi to catch up if he wanted to, but there might be big guy's men in this courier station. It would be more troublesome if he helped them. This man's golden core was broken anyway. If he let him live, he would be very sad in the future.
