

Bodyguard 7361

Chapter 7361 You Have To Pay For The Losses

This time, the battle ended very quickly. The people were still the same people, but the situation where they were evenly matched previously did not appear at all. From the beginning, it was a one-sided slaughter.

The little minions of the five tigers stronghold scattered when the tree fell. They wanted to escape. Who would stay and risk their lives?

Remembering the way Lin Yi killed people without leaving a trace, these lackeys couldn't help but feel resentful-why did their parents only give them two legs?

It was not enough at all!

At this time, it was no longer a competition of who was stronger, but who had longer legs and could run faster!

He didn't need to be faster than the pursuer, as long as he could beat his companions!

With someone as a scapegoat, the chances of escaping would naturally be higher!

As the saying goes, 'better a fellow Daoist than a poor Daoist ...' Unfortunately, all the fellow Daoist died in the end, leaving only one survivor, which was the black-clothed man from earlier.

"My Lord! Spare me! I don't dare to do it again! No, no, no, I'm willing to be your master's slave, even if I have to climb a mountain of swords or go through a pot of boiling oil. I only hope that your master can spare my dog life!"

The Man in Black was thrown in front of Lin Yi, and the man, who was on the verge of a mental breakdown, actually hugged Lin Yi's leg and cried, "My Lord, it really wasn't my idea this time! What happened tonight had nothing to do with me. Please forgive me this once!"

Lin Yi, of course, wouldn't take pity on this two-faced man. He kicked the man away easily, "Be honest and cooperate. Answer whatever I ask you. If it's useful, I'll spare you this time. If it's useless, go and accompany your friends!"

"Yes, yes, yes, this lowly one will definitely tell you everything I know and not hold back! What do you want to know, my Lord? just ask!"

The man knelt on the ground after Lin Yi kicked him away, his body trembling slightly as if he was really scared, "Sir, there's just one thing. I'm just a small figure at the bottom of the five tigers stronghold. I don't have access to many secrets, so ... I might not be able to answer your question."

The man didn't even have the courage to lie when faced with Lin Yi's fiendish face. He decided to be honest with Lin Yi, hoping that Lin Yi would have a better impression of him.

"If you can't help with anything and you don't know anything, what's the use of having you?"

Li Yingjian snorted and kicked the Man in Black. ""If you can't satisfy eldest senior brother, I'll skin you alive!"

Li Yingjian had let him go before, but now he was back for revenge. Li Yingjian felt that he had been tricked by this bastard, so he wanted to kill him!

The Man in Black did not dare to resist. He could only endure the pain and continue to kowtow.

"Alright! Let's not waste time in the middle of the night. Tell me, what is your purpose in coming here?"

Lin Yi said faintly. This was a test for the man-he'd already heard about the black gold crystal, and if the man hid it ... He'd be tortured!

If torture didn't work, there was still soul-searching!

"Sir system, our main purpose here is to snatch the black illum crystal! After that, we'll conveniently Rob some other valuables and so on. "

The man didn't hesitate at all and brought up the black gold crystal. Lin Yi nodded to himself. It seemed that this guy was quite cooperative and his words were credible.

"Why are you trying to steal the black illum crystal from us? Who told you that we have black illum crystals?"

Lin Yi continued to ask-this question involved the identity of the mastermind, and the man probably didn't know.

Sure enough, the Man in Black raised his head slightly and revealed a blank look. "I'm not sure. The great leader is in charge of contacting and arranging all these. I really can't interfere! I wouldn't dare to lie to you!"

Lin Yi frowned-the man didn't know about this, after all. He thought for a bit and asked,"Then do you know how your great leader contacted him?"

"...I still don't know!"

The Man in Black's forehead was covered in sweat as he groaned in his heart. If there were a few more questions that he didn't know the answer to, it would be difficult for him to leave here alive!

It seemed that it was impossible to get information about the mastermind from this little minion. If he had known earlier, he would have left one of the five tigers or directly searched the soul of the five tigers 'boss.

It was too late to say anything now. Lin Yi felt a bit of pity and casually asked a few more questions about the five tigers stronghold. This time, the black-clothed man seemed to have grabbed onto a life-saving straw. He said a lot of things, but it was useless!

In the end, the Man in Black was still dealt with by the resentful Li Yingjian. When the small courtyard had completely calmed down, the people from the courier station came looking for him.

"You fought in our relay station and damaged many of our facilities. According to the rules, you have to compensate us for our losses!"

The person who came was a slightly chubby middle-aged man who was said to be the owner of the courier station. His two small eyes flickered, and he did not look like an ordinary person. "I didn't say this casually, it's a common rule everywhere. There's no problem with fighting, but if you break something, you must pay, right? Here's the list, please take a look. If there's no problem, please pay. "

"You're well prepared! I've even made a list!"

Lin Yi laughed coldly and sent out a burst of anger, burning the list into ashes. "I understand the rules of compensation for damages in a fight at the courier station. We will set the price on the spot, and we should pay however much we want. However, I would like to ask, we are staying in your courier station's high-class courtyard. Someone attacked us in the middle of the night, but not only did you not come out to do anything, you did not even give us a warning. I just want to ask, you are not on the same side as the five Tiger stronghold, right?"

The inn owner's face changed-Lin Yi's words made sense.

It was actually very common to fight and kill in the courier station. For example, there would be a fight every three to five days at the place where they ate, and the compensation for the damage would be ten times the price. No matter whether they were Dead or Alive, someone would always bear this debt.

But Lin Yi and the others were in a different situation. They were already living in the courtyard, and the station was responsible for protecting them. If they didn't have any security, it would be no different from sleeping outside.

Therefore, when the five tigers stronghold made their move, whether it was to help, to give a warning in advance, or even to put on a show to persuade them to reconcile, they had done their best. It did not matter whether they could stop the five tigers stronghold from killing, they had to show their attitude!

But what did the relay station do? Wait for the dust to settle and then ask for compensation?

Lin Yi, on the other hand, just laughed. Did she really think she was a fat sheep?

"Sir, we can't interfere with your personal grudges. If they want to seek revenge, we can't get involved. However, the losses you have caused are real, so ..."

The courier station's boss's expression did not change as he continued to talk about the compensation.

Chapter 7362 Who's Compensating Who

"Ha ... You think this young master is easy to bully, right? Colluding with the five tigers camp to Rob your own guests, is this relay a tourist trap?"

Lin Yi laughed coldly and raised his chin, signaling for the owner to look at Wuhu's body. "Look carefully, your business partners are finished. This young master thinks that you should also follow them!"

The relay station owner's expression finally changed. Before this, he had been too focused on asking for compensation. He felt that he was in the right and it was not difficult to get compensation. However, he did not think clearly whether he could provoke a master who could casually kill all the five tigers camp's raiding personnel.

"Uh ... That ... Young master, you've misunderstood. Our relay station is definitely operated with a conscience. We would never collude with bandits to Rob the residents ... We really don't know much about this matter ..."

The relay station owner's forehead was covered with cold sweat. He was also a martial arts practitioner with the great circle of the Golden core stage. However, he was alone and did not have as many people as the five tigers stronghold. Thus, he had always been suppressed by the five tigers stronghold.

If not, why would there be people from the five tigers camp blocking the way and collecting fees in front of the courier station?

This time, they couldn't say that the courier station was colluding with the five tigers stronghold, but they did secretly allow it. If Lin Yi really wanted to pursue the matter, the courier station could be considered an accomplice.

Faced with a team that could easily kill the five tigers of the five tigers stronghold, the courier station's boss finally felt the pressure. It was too late for him to admit defeat!

If he had known, he wouldn't have come to ask for compensation!

Lin Yi continued to smile coldly, "You're trying to get yourself out of this by saying that you're not sure? Do you think I'm stupid? Don't say anything, this young master suspects that you're all in cahoots. Brothers, tear down this black shop!"

Lin Yi was just trying to scare the owner, but the people around him all agreed immediately. They pulled out their swords and bows, ready to fight!

It couldn't be helped-after the battle just now, Lin Yi's prestige was completely established. Even su Yumo subconsciously felt that she should listen to Lin Yi's orders and commands, let alone li Yingjian and the other new disciples.

The relay station's boss was really scared out of his wits this time!

The jungle was a lawless place. The relay station could survive not only because of its own strength, but also because it adhered to the principle of not offending the strong!

Once an expert beyond their tolerance targeted the relay station, it would really be a hopeless situation. There was no other way but to wait for death.

The courier station's boss felt that he was really blinded by lard tonight. He actually dared to come to this group of fiends to ask for compensation. He was really tired of living and had hung himself!

"Little Lord! Little Lord! Listen to my explanation! This matter really has nothing to do with us. The five tigers stronghold is also the enemy of our courier station ... Everyone, calm down, calm down, let's talk this out!"

The relay station owner's legs went soft and he knelt down immediately. He even cupped his hands and begged for mercy, ""I didn't make myself clear when I said compensation just now. I'm not asking for compensation, but for the losses of me and all of you. It's our fault for disturbing everyone tonight, so we have to compensate you well!"

"So that's what happened. In that case, perhaps you relay stations are not conspirators!"

Lin Yi's face was cold as he nodded, "Tell me, how much are you prepared to compensate us?"

The relay station owner secretly wiped his cold sweat and tried to stand up with a smile. At the same time, he stretched out his hands and spread out his ten fingers. "Ten gold certificates ..."

"Brothers, tear down this black shop! They're treating us like beggars!"

Lin Yi didn't wait for the inn owner to finish his sentence and continued to scare him with a straight face. The inn owner's knees, which had just left the ground, dropped back down to his knees.

"Wait! Wait a minute! Don't worry ... What I mean is that ten gold certificates are definitely not enough to express the apology of our relay station! Thus, we will take out a hundred gold certificates as compensation!"

The inn owner was on the verge of tears-ten gold tickets was a huge sum in a corner like this, but he didn't dare test Lin Yi any further, who was obviously not happy with the amount. He raised the price tenfold.

One hundred gold certificates was a hundred thousand. Although it was not the entire fortune of the courier station's owner, it was enough to make him feel as if a knife was being twisted in his heart.

Fortunately, the five tigers stronghold was finished. The boss could take people to eliminate the remaining evil forces and plunder some property on the way.

"Ha ... I'm not an unreasonable person. Since you're so sincere, I'll let this matter go for now!"

Lin Yi turned around and shook his head at Yuanbao."Junior Brother Jin, go and settle the matter of the apology with the relay station's boss."

Jin Yuan Bao answered and walked up to the courier station's boss with his head held high and his chest puffed out. He snapped his fingers and said,""Did you bring it? Show me your sincerity!"

F * cking sincerity!

The inn owner wanted to vomit blood in his heart and wanted to bite this arrogant little fatty to death. However, he had to put on an obsequious smile and said,""No... I didn't bring it with me. Why don't I go and get it now?"

"Let's go, together! This young master was worried that you would sneak away, and where should I go to find you. "

Jin Yuanbao wasn't afraid of this peak-stage golden core practitioner. In his mind, with a big brother like Lin Yi who could kill five top-tier golden core cultivators in seconds, the owner of the courier station wouldn't dare to do anything.

The relay station's boss had originally planned to take the opportunity to escape. Anyway, the people who came to the relay station were all passer-by and could not stay here for a long time. It did not matter if they returned after the situation had passed.

A hundred gold certificates! Of course, he would save it if he could!

Unfortunately, if Jin Yuan Bao followed him, he would not be able to escape! It wasn't impossible to escape after killing Jin Yuanbao, but the problem was that the owner didn't know how powerful Lin Yi and his gang were. He didn't know how the five tigers of the five tigers stronghold died!

Even though Jin Yuan Bao, the little fatty who looked like an idiot, was following him, he did not have the guts to make a move.

He didn't know if he'd made the right decision. Jin Yuan Bao was weak, the kind that the owner could kill with one finger, but would Lin Yi let his men take such a risk?

The entire Inn was under Lin Yi's spirit sense. If the inn owner dared to play any tricks, his spirit sense would crash into him instantly!

At that time, he might not even know how he died.

After sending the inn owner away, Lin Yi asked the others to clean up the battlefield and collect the spoils of war. He then asked Zhang Yiming some questions.

"Your family owns a mine. Do you know what black illum crystal is? It's the thing that they wanted to Rob just now. "

Lin Yi really wanted to know what the black crystal was for-he'd given black wildflower one before, and it was said to be good for body strengthening, but he'd never thought of using it.

Chapter 7363 Obsidian Crystal's Use

In the end, he had been robbed by people one after another. It seemed that the black illum crystal was not as simple as he had thought, and there must be some effects he didn't know about!

"Senior brother Sima, the most precious thing in my family's mine is the Yunying iron ore. It's used to refine weapons and has nothing to do with the black lustrous crystal, so I don't know much about it."

Zhang Yiming scratched his head and felt embarrassed that he couldn't help. He could only try his best to say,"I've heard of the Obsidian Crystal, but I'm not sure. I only know that it's very rare and has a very low production. It's said that there was a piece of Obsidian Crystal in a mine. Yes, there was only one piece in the entire mine!"

Speaking of this, Zhang Yiming extended a chubby finger and emphasized, "It was just that one piece of illusory black crystal. It was later rumored that it was sold for a sky-high price at a high-level auction! I really don't understand why people would spend such a high price to buy this thing. It's said that this thing has a good body tempering effect! I've never heard of it having any other effects. "

There were many things on the sub-Island that had good body tempering effects, such as the inner cores and essence meat strips of the spirit beasts of darkness. The higher the grade of the spirit beasts of darkness, the better the effect. With so much money, wouldn't it be more cost-effective to buy more inner cores and such?

Lin Yi rubbed his chin as he thought about it. What Zhang Yiming said wasn't much different from what he'd known before, so what was the problem?

If it only had the function of body tempering, why would he have to sneak attack and snatch it again and again? With such Great Spirit, it would be more convenient to hunt some Jindan stage dark spirit beasts, right?

"Junior Brother Zhang, are the obsidian crystals really that rare? Besides the one you mentioned, have you heard of any other black crystal?"

Lin Yi didn't think that the black crystal was that rare before, but now that he was interested, what would the people who wanted to steal the black crystal think?

"Eldest senior brother, black illum crystals are really rare. I've only heard of them once, but I'm not sure if there are other black illum crystals!"

Zhang Yiming spread his hands helplessly. If he had the black lustrous crystal, he would take it out and give it to senior brother Sima! In the future, he would be much more awesome than little fatty Jin!

Lin Yi smiled and waved his hand, indicating that it was fine.

From the looks of it, the black gold crystal should have a special function, but Lin Yi and the others didn't know about it yet!

It didn't matter. As long as the person who was secretly coveting the black illum crystal didn't change his mind, he would figure it out sooner or later!

Speaking of which, black wildflower also had a piece of illusory black crystal, but he didn't know if it had been used. Would those people also target black wildflower?

The inner sect disciples would also go out on missions, so he hoped that black wildflower would be safe ...

The next morning, Lin Yi and the group left the inn as if the owner was sending off a God of plague, continuing their journey to the ghost Yin Mountains.

The injured people from last night had been properly treated. They had recovered well and didn't affect their journey. Besides, they had gained a lot last night. In addition to the spoils of war, there was also the one hundred gold tickets extorted from the courier station's boss.

Lin Yi didn't take all the food for himself, and he didn't care for it. He decided to split it equally with everyone. The new disciples all came from well-off families, but they were still in a good mood after getting so much money out of thin air.

With that, Lin Yi's prestige in the team was like the sun in the sky-he was the unshakeable leader, and his words were absolute!

Along the way, they encountered several waves of spirit beasts of darkness. As they went deeper and deeper into the forest, the strength of the spirit beasts of darkness also continued to increase. The few new disciples were no longer able to deal with these spirit beasts of darkness.

If it weren't for Lin Yi, they might have to go back to their sects crying!

But after seeing Lin Yi's power, they were all calm and composed.

There were even some who thought that a Tier 5 quest ... Did not seem that difficult!

Of course, if Lin Yi didn't lead them, they wouldn't even be able to reach their destination before they became the dark spirit beasts "food!"

As night fell, Lin Yi and the group didn't make it to the ghost Yin Mountains yet, and they didn't have any rest stops to stay in, so they could only find a suitable place to camp.

After a night, the people who were on guard did not get a good rest. However, they were lucky and did not encounter any powerful dark spirit beasts.

"The ghost Yin mountain range is in front!"

After another morning, Lin Yi finally saw a mountain range covered in mist.

From a distance, the undulating mountain range was only a faint outline, and it was difficult to see the whole picture. If they really entered the mountain range, it would probably be difficult to see.

It was currently the middle of the day, and the mist in the ghostly Yin mountain range was already so thick, let alone in the morning and evening.

"It seems like ... Someone has already arrived at the ghost Yin mountain range before us! And there are quite a few of them!"

Lin Yi frowned as his eyes fell on a branch that had fresh creases and traces of human activity.

The ghost Yin mountain range had always been deserted. When did it become so lively?

From the traces, the people who came first came in the same direction as Lin Yi, but it was hard to tell if it was one group or several groups.

In the ghost Yin mountain range, there were many spiritual herbs, but no one would come here to collect them because this place was too dangerous!

Whether it was the various dark spirit beasts or the other poisonous miasma, they were all enough to easily take the life of a golden core stage ancient martial art practitioner.

It wasn't worth taking such a risk for a few spirit herbs!

The only thing that was worth risking their lives for was the ruins left behind by the great witch of ghost Yin!

"Senior brother Sima, so many people have come, they should be looking for the ruins, right? Could it be that there's been some reliable news from that place?"

Zhang Yiming whispered in Lin Yi's ear, "The sect sent us out to investigate, so it shouldn't be for no reason, but why didn't they make this clear? If we attract the attention of other powers, I'm afraid the difficulty of our mission will rise again. "

In other words, a rank five mission might become a rank six mission or even higher!

After all, it was much easier to deal with the scattered spirit beasts of darkness and the various dangers in the ghost Yin mountain range than to deal with the organized opponents who were secretly spying on them.

"There's no need to hurry. From the traces left behind, these people probably passed by here last night or early this morning. If we speed up, we might be able to catch up with them!"

Lin Yi pondered for a moment before making a decision. "If the other party is also looking for the location of the ruins, maybe we still have a chance to cooperate. After all, the mission only requires us to find the location, we don't need to enter it."

After completing the mission, he did not need to care about the follow-up actions of those people. He could just return to the sword spring sect to hand in the mission.

Chapter 7364 Another Group Of People

Of course, if there really was something in the ruins that could move Lin Yi, he could go in and fight for it!

"I understand! Then let's speed up!"

Zhang Yiming nodded and took the lead. He said, ""Senior brother, I'll walk in front. If anything happens, you have to save me in time!"

Unfortunately, Zhang Yiming's handsomeness did not last for more than three seconds. Just as he was about to move forward, he turned around and was a little scared.

After all, this was the notorious ghost Yin mountain range! It was not a place to play around.

Lin Yi couldn't help but smile. "If you're afraid, then get back here. I'm not at ease with you being a Scout!"

Zhang Yiming scratched his head and chuckled awkwardly before retreating back to Lin Yi's side. He even tried to defend himself, "Eldest senior brother is right. If I go and become a scout, I might put everyone in unnecessary danger. It's more suitable for me to follow eldest senior brother."

This fellow was naturally ridiculed by his bad friend, little fatty Jin. The two of them started bickering again, while Ling Hanxue silently took on the role of a Scout.

In terms of familiarity and adaptation to the forest, Ling Hanxue was definitely second to none. Even Chen Zhisheng wasn't as good as her, so she didn't need Lin Yi's orders. In the face of potential enemies, Ling Hanxue spontaneously expanded the scope of the search.

Chen Zhisheng, of course, followed closely behind. He spontaneously formed a small two-person group to track the team in front while being alert for possible danger.

"Sima Yi, do you really intend to work with those unknown people? And then we'll leave after finding the location of the ruins?"

Su Yumo was usually a reticent person, but now, she took the initiative to mention the mission."Although the Tier 5 mission only requires us to find the location, if those people's goal is to enter the ruins, there's no point in us returning to the sect, right?"

The sword spring sect had sent out this small team to search for the location of the ruins, but they did not have the intention to do so. After all, the ruins of the great witch of ghost Yin had been a legend for so many years, but no one had ever found it.

If they were really discovered, it would naturally be much safer to send experts to explore, and it didn't matter if they didn't find anything.

But if they found the location and someone else got in first, then there would be no point in them completing the mission. They might not even get any credit for it.

"Not necessarily. We'll just have to adapt to the situation! It's too early to say anything now. "

Lin Yi smiled and shook his head, not giving a definite answer."And the ghost Yin mountain is so big. Although they left some traces, we might not be able to meet them."

The geographical map system and the ancient books in the sword spring sect's library Pavilion had both mentioned that when the fog was at its heaviest in the ghost Yin mountain range, one could not even see their own fingers.

People from the same team might get lost if they were around. At that time, it would be many times more difficult to track down other teams by relying on some traces.

The only thing Lin Yi could rely on was his own spirit sense. He didn't know if the mist in the ghost Yin Mountains had any suppression effect on the spirit sense.

Lin Yi had to at least make sure that he could take care of his team and not lose them without knowing.

Su Yumo was silent for a moment before she acknowledged him and did not say anything else.

As they entered the ghost Yin mountain range, the Black Spirit Ferghana horses' speed became slower and slower. Although they said that they were going to speed up, the entire group couldn't gallop at all. They could only walk slowly as if they were taking a walk on green.

The grayish-white fog was getting thicker and thicker. Although it was not to the point where one could not even see their fingers in front of them, Ling Hanxue and Chen Zhisheng, who were more than 20 meters away in front of them, had already completely disappeared.

Lin Yi would've called them back if he didn't have his spirit sense monitoring them.

He'd thought it'd take a long time to catch up to the group in front, but he'd only walked for twenty minutes before he found something with his spirit sense.

Because of the sub island's suppression of the spirit sense, and the special nature of the ghost Yin Mountains, Lin Yi's detection range was only about thirty meters.

At the same time, Ling Hanxue, who was in front of them, also sent a warning signal, indicating that they had made a discovery.

"Who's there? You're following us sneakily. All of you, get out here! Otherwise, don't even think about leaving this place alive!"

Someone shouted in an unfriendly manner. It was obvious that they had noticed Lin Yi's team at the same time that Lin Yi had noticed them.

To be exact, it should be Ling Hanxue or Chen Zhisheng who had been discovered. Whether Lin Yi and the others were exposed as well, it was hard to say.

"Who are you people? What a big tone, you almost scared me to death!"

Chen Zhisheng, who was in front, snorted coldly and took out his long knife and hand shield in a defensive posture, "I'm right here. If you want to make a move, come and try!"

Ling Hanxue was an Archer, so she was more suited to hide in the dark and kill in one shot. That was why Chen Zhisheng had taken the initiative to attract attention.

As long as the person in front of her showed hostility, Ling Hanxue would be able to attack immediately and weaken the other party's strength in the shortest time possible.

"Do you want to die? It doesn't matter, I'll fulfill your wish!"

The person who had just spoken came back. Chen Zhisheng soon saw the man who walked out of the fog, and his face became clear.

From his appearance, this person was only about 27 or 28 years old. He looked decent, and his figure and temperament were not ordinary. However, there was an unconcealed arrogance on his face.

He looked at Chen Zhisheng as if he was looking at a country bumpkin, full of condescending contempt.

After him, more than twenty people appeared one after another. There were men and women, but they were all young, all in their early twenties and less than thirty years old.

Without waiting for Chen Zhisheng to speak, the man's figure flashed and the knife at his waist was instantly unsheathed. A flash of light cut through the fog and slashed at Chen Zhisheng in an upright posture.

Late-stage golden core!

It was just a casual slash, but it had completely displayed the strength of the other party!

It couldn't be dodged!

Chen Zhisheng's eyes narrowed. He crossed his Sword and Shield in an attempt to resist it head-on. However, he had no confidence in his heart. Would the outcome of resisting head-on be directly killed?

In the nick of time, Ling Hanxue made her move!

Three arrows were shot at the man from three different directions at the same time, attacking the enemy's critical point!

It also cut off the opponent's route of dodging and continuing to attack. Other than retreating, he could only take the three arrows head-on.

In the face of Ling Hanxue's three consecutive arrows, the man's lips curled into a disdainful sneer.

The saber's momentum didn't change at all. With just two slight swings, it sent all three arrows flying!

The gap between the two sides was too big, so big that he didn't need to deal with it seriously. The so-called choice of whether to take it head-on or dodge was simply a joke!

Lin Yi's expression was serious-this late-stage golden core was stronger than normal late-stage golden core cultivators!

Chapter 7365 Canglan Sect?

As for the people behind him, most of them were in the Golden core stage, ranging from the early stage to the great circle of the Foundation Stage. Only two or three of them were in the great circle of the Foundation Stage.

There were even two Yuanying stage experts among them!

This is a little troublesome!

With so many martial artists, even if Lin Yi used his consciousness to attack, it would be hard to kill them all at once.

Especially since his primordial spirit had not fully recovered, he might not be able to bear such a huge burden all of a sudden.

"Stop!"

Su Yumo let out a clear cry and her longsword arrived first despite launching later. It crossed the distance between the two of them and blocked the saber before it could slash down.

The swords and sabers of both sides clashed, forming a strong air current that spread out.

Chen Zhisheng's back was covered in cold sweat as he quickly retreated. He knew very well that if su Yumo had not made a move, he would not have been able to block that attack.

In fact, even if su Yumo didn't make a move, Lin Yi would have done so. However, he didn't stop her since she rarely took the initiative.

Given su Yumo's capabilities, it was not a problem for her to deal with the man at the late-stage golden core realm.

"Yo, you're quite capable, aren't you? you're the leader of this group of good-for-nothings, right? That braggart just now, it seems like you only know how to hide behind a woman!"

The man with the knife twirled the knife and sneered at Chen Zhisheng, ""You're really a coward. I'm not interested in fighting with women, so I can only spare your life for now!"

Chen Zhisheng's face was red with anger. He wanted to refute, but he had nothing to say!

If one's strength was inferior to others, how could one have the confidence!

This time, if su Yumo had not intervened, he would indeed have been killed by the other party. In fact, if Ling Hanxue's three arrows had not delayed the other party's attack slightly, su Yumo might not have been able to make it in time.

"The people from the Azure water sect?"

Su Yumo looked at the man coldly. Rather than a question, it was more like a statement. "The ghostly Yin mountain range belongs to our Hongshang Commandery. You're trampling on the boundary!"

The canglan sect was not a sect in the Hongshang Commandery, but a sect in the neighboring heimei Commandery. Its status was similar to that of the jianchun sect in the Hongshang Commandery. They were not top sects, and they were located in a remote area.

The ghostly Yin mountain range was the westernmost border of the Hongshang Commandery. If they went further north, they would reach the border of the black charm Commandery, and the canglan sect was in that area.

Therefore, the distance between the sword spring sect and the canglan sect was not far. Although they were sects from two commanderies, in fact, they were closer than the sects from the same Commandery.

The two families would occasionally interact with each other, so su Yumo was able to see through each other's moves with just one exchange.

However, she didn't have any contact with the people from the Azure water sect, so it wasn't easy to say who they were.

"This little girl's eyesight is not bad. You guys are from the sword spring sect, right? Although the sect will be crowned as the sect of which Commandery because of the different regions, in fact, there are not many restrictions on the sect in each Commandery. Let alone coming to the border of the ghostly mountain range, even if we go to the capital of your Hongshang Commandery, who can say anything?"

The saber-wielding man chuckled and raised his eyebrows. "Since you know that we are from the Azure water sect, we won't make things difficult for you. Let that kid come over and kneel down to apologize. Then, take your useless subordinates and leave the ghost Yin mountain range. Then, we'll forget about today's matter!"

Su Yumo's pretty face turned cold, and her originally cold aura became even more threatening.

"Is the Azure water sect that great? Do you think that our sword spring sect is afraid of your azure water sect?"

Su Yumo did not like to talk much, but she had no choice but to continue. "Even if the ghostly Yin mountain range isn't our territory, how dare the Canglan sect speak to the Jianchun sect like that?"

This concerned the reputation of the two sects, so Su Yumo had to be unyielding. If she backed down now, the sword spring sect would have to bow down to the Canglan sect in the future.

"Hahaha, what's the point of saying all these useless things? Don't you have eyes? What's the strength of our side? What's the strength of your side? In this place, whoever has the bigger fist can speak!"

The saber-wielding man laughed out loud and pointed the tip of his saber at su Yumo. "I'm not going to beat around the bush. Don't say that I, Huang chongtian, am bullying you. If you're not convinced, then come and see if my blade is faster or your sword is sharper!"

Su Yumo tightened her grip on her sword and was about to attack. When she could speak with her sword, she preferred to use her sword instead of her mouth!

However, a woman in front of him suddenly said, "Junior Brother Huang, don't be too overbearing. We have a pretty good relationship with the sword spring sect. There's no need to bully these junior brothers and sisters."

Although he was trying to stop Huang chongtian, he felt that something was not right. His words were filled with a sense of superiority.

"I'm cai lingying, an inner disciple of the canglan sect. How should I address you, Junior Sister?"

Cai lingying was one of the two nascent soul realm cultivators. The other was a handsome young man with a proud expression. She also introduced him, "He is my senior brother, Cao Yunqing!"

"I'm su Yumo, an outer disciple of the sword spring sect!"

Su Yumo cupped her hands indifferently. She had no intention of becoming friends with him, let alone showing him any respect.

When Cao Yunqing heard that su Yumo was only an outer sect disciple of the sword spring sect, his face was filled with even more disdain. He raised his chin and did not even want to acknowledge su Yumo.

However, his eyes betrayed his heart. Su Yumo's looks were far above Cai lingying 's, so even though Cao Yunqing looked down on su Yumo's status, he still couldn't help but steal a few glances at her.

Lin Yi chuckled to himself-what the hell was this? acting all high and mighty to attract girls? His methods were really too amazing!

"So you're just an outer disciple of the spring sword sect. What else is there to say? Quickly apologize and get lost, or you'll say that we bullied you!"

Huang chongtian started to talk arrogantly again,""Su Yumo, I'll let you guys off today on account of your looks. Think about it carefully!"

"Aren't we talking on the sword?"

Su Yumo raised her long sword and prepared to continue what she had just done.""Don't tell me you're afraid of me, an outer sect disciple of the sword spring sect?"

"Hey! You're not giving me face, are you? I'm only doing this for Senior Sister Cai's sake ..."

"Don't talk nonsense! Do you dare to fight?"

Su Yumo interrupted Huang chongtian's words with an unyielding attitude.

Lin Yi didn't understand why the girl was so cocky all of a sudden.

"Junior Sister su, are you here to challenge our canglan sect on behalf of the jianchun sect?"

Cao Yunqing suddenly opened his mouth and smiled arrogantly, ""Fine, if you want to fight, I'll fight with you! I'll give you a handicap of two hands!"

As he spoke, he raised his hands and waved them in a pretentious manner. Then, he turned his hands and placed them behind his back. "I won't use my hands. We'll talk about other things if you can beat me!"

Chapter 7366 Lin Yi's Home Ground

If it was another sword spring sect disciple, Cao Yunqing wouldn't have been interested in talking to him. He was one of the higher-ranked inner sect disciples of the Azure water sect. Talking to an outer sect disciple of the sword spring sect would be embarrassing.

However, after taking a few more looks at su Yumo, Cao Yunqing felt that she was getting more and more attractive. He could not help but want to get closer to su Yumo, so he suddenly opened his mouth to ask for trouble.

"Don't use your hands? Aren't you underestimating me too much?"

Su Yumo was secretly furious. With her abilities, it was not difficult for her to enter the inner sect of the sword spring sect!

Although he hadn't advanced to the nascent Soul Stage, the combat power of his special attribute was already strong. It wasn't impossible for him to challenge an early nascent Soul Stage martial artist.

Now, Cao Yunqing actually said that he didn't need to use his hands? This was simply bullying!

"Senior brother Cao ..."

Cai lingying couldn't help but open her mouth to persuade him, but Cao Yunqing shook his head and held back her words.

"Junior Sister su, I'm the leader of the Azure water sect this time, and you're the leader of the sword spring sect, right? It's normal for us two leaders to exchange pointers!"

Cao Yunqing's proud face revealed what he thought was a gentle smile, "If Junior Sister su loses, you don't have to mind Junior Brother Huang's words. You can follow our Azurewave sect and help out. If there are any benefits, we will naturally not forget to share them with you."

That was because Cao Yunqing wanted to have more time and opportunities to be together after convincing su Yumo. Then, he could use the rest of the people from sword spring sect as cannon fodder.

The ghost Yin mountain range was not a good place. Although the people from the Azure water sect were more than twice as many as the sword spring sect, and their strength was generally higher, it could not be said that they were not injured in the ghost Yin mountain range.

With these cannon fodders, the canglan sect's people could preserve their strength. It was simply killing two birds with one stone!

"I'm sorry! I'm the leader of the sword spring sect this time! This senior brother Cao, if you really want to compare notes, why don't I help you loosen your muscles and bones!"

Lin Yi had been watching the show for quite some time, and he couldn't let su Yumo charge into the enemy lines all the time. He walked up to her and said, ""I'm the sword spring sect's outer sect steward, senior brother Sima Yi. Let's not waste time and just go straight to the point!"

Lin Yi paused for a moment before continuing with a teasing smile, "I wonder if senior brother Cao would tie his hands if I were him?"

Cao Yunqing was slightly stunned, he did not expect such a turn of events!

Su Yumo seemed to be the strongest among the people from the sword spring sect. Why was there another kid at the early-stage golden core realm?

He was actually the eldest senior brother of the outer sect steward of the sword spring sect?

The sword spring sect was going to decline!

Cao Yunqing had wanted to get close to the beauty and show off his strength if he had the chance, making the beauty submit to him. If he had known it was Lin Yi ...

Who the hell has the time to deal with you outer sect disciples?

"You're the eldest senior brother in charge of the outer sect of the sword spring sect?"

Cao Yunqing's heart was filled with panic. She wanted to say that she wanted to fight su Yumo, but she could not bring herself to say it!

Who asked him to say that the leaders of the two sides were going to spar and whatnot? he had dug a hole for himself, so he had to jump into it even if he had to cry!

"Forget it. If you're interested, then let's exchange pointers! If I say I'll give you a handicap of two hands, I'll definitely give you a handicap of two hands. It's the same no matter who it is!"

Cao Yunqing pinched his nose and raised his chin at Lin Yi, ""Come on! I'll let you make the first move, don't say I'm bullying the weak!"

He just wanted to get rid of Lin Yi as soon as possible. If it was su Yumo, he might be able to slowly fight for 300 to 500 rounds, but this kid in front of him ... He could take him down with a single kick!

"Senior brother Cao is magnanimous! Then I won't be polite!"

A strange smile appeared on Lin Yi's face as he burst forth with his butterfly microsteps. His body flickered like a ghost, appearing in front of Cao Yunqing in an instant.

If Cao Yunqing dared to say that he didn't need his hands, it meant that his leg skills were quite good. Lin Yi may have pulled out his sword, but his first attack was a thousand legs!

Although he didn't have true Qi, he could still use fire Qi to activate these modified low-level martial arts techniques.

For a moment, overlapping shadows of his legs shrouded Cao Yunqing in all directions.

If he was kicked, his rather handsome face would probably turn into a pig's head!

Cao Yunqing sneered arrogantly, his eyes full of disdain. It was obvious that he thought that Lin Yi's thousand kick was just a fancy move, not enough to pose a threat to him.

As long as he activated the martial arts technique on his leg, he could easily deal with this early jiedan stage kid in front of him!

There was a huge gap between the early Aurous core stage and the early nascent Soul Stage. There was no way to compare them!

However, just as Cao Yunqing was about to lift his leg, he suddenly realized that something was wrong!

His two ankles were actually wrapped in a few circles of thin vines!

The vine was originally quite loose, so he didn't notice it at all. However, when he was about to kick, the vine suddenly tightened and directly pulled on his ankle.

A moment later, the seemingly tough vines were torn apart by Cao Yunqing's strength, but Lin Yi's thousand legs was already in front of him. It was too late to use his legs to defend and counter-attack!

And because of the delay caused by the vines, it was not easy for Cao Yunqing to Dodge!

Lin Yi's lips curled up into a smile. The vines around Cao Yunqing's ankle weren't something that grew out of him, of course-it was the effect of the green demon Sword technique!

The ghost Yin mountain range was a primitive forest with no signs of human habitation!

The green Devil God's plant attribute could definitely exert 200% of its power in such an environment!

This was Lin Yi's home ground!

Not using both hands? Then I'll let you know why flowers are so red!

Lin Yi laughed to himself as he sped up, half of his targets landing on Cao Yunqing's proud face. He was going to make this kid's face bloom like a peach blossom!

In the nick of time, Cao Yunqing subconsciously used his hands. It could be said to be an instinct, but it could also be said to be the lesser of two evils. Compared to his own face being destroyed, it was more worthwhile to be shameless!

His hands flashed in front of his body in a blocking position, but would Lin Yi let Cao Yunqing succeed so easily?

At some point in time, two thin vines appeared on Cao Yunqing's wrists. When he was about to complete his blocking posture, the two thin vines tugged at him at the same time.

Cao Yunqing's arm stiffened for a moment, then broke the two thin vines.

Unfortunately, in that split second, Lin Yi's legs had already landed on Cao Yunqing's face and body like a storm!

"Ah~~~!"

Cao Yunqing's heart was filled with inexplicable grief and indignation. He couldn't help but let out a scream, and then he slammed heavily into a big tree, shaking off a lot of leaves!

Lin Yi felt that it was a pity. Although he hit Cao Yunqing, this Island version of thousand legs was really powerful. It only made Cao Yunqing lose face, not causing much damage.

Chapter 7367 Too Embarrassed To Make A Move

If he really wanted to kill Cao Yunqing, he would have to use the demonic devouring sword!

"Bastard! I'm going to kill you!"

The water vapor on Cao Yunqing's body suddenly exploded, like the gushing Yangtze River!

An attack that clearly didn't pose any threat had landed on his body and face in the end. Anyone would go berserk if they were in his place!

Moreover, these non-threatening attacks could have been blocked, but they had been hindered by those damn vines once or twice!

No matter how he thought about it, he was extremely aggrieved!

Cao Yunqing didn't care about his manners at all-he wanted to kill Lin Yi to vent his anger!

"Ha ... You just said you'd use two hands, but you couldn't block my attack with both hands. Now you're ready to turn against me?"

Lin Yi sneered, "I didn't use my hands just now. Since you're ready to go all out ... I'm sorry, you did go all out just now. It's okay, I'll use my hands too, so you don't lose too badly!"

Cao Yunqing's face turned red, speechless at Lin Yi's words!

"Bastard! He was a despicable villain who only knew how to play tricks! I'm going to teach you a good lesson today!"

Cao Yunqing immediately changed the topic. Then, without saying anything more, he crossed his palms, and the shadows of his palms stacked on top of each other, bringing with them endless water vapor!

For a moment, Lin Yi felt like he was facing a huge wave in the sea, and he couldn't resist it at all.

And this time, Cao Yunqing was very alert of the vines around him, not giving any chance for them to get close. It was almost impossible for Lin Yi to use these little tricks to affect Cao Yunqing again.

After all, the difference in physical strength between the two of them was too great!

Lin Yi's lips curled into a cold smile-if he couldn't use his little tricks, then he'd use his trump card!

At this time, Cao Yunqing was already a little crazy from Lin Yi's provocation, and most of his energy was still on guard against the surrounding vines, so Lin Yi directly activated the collision of his consciousness!

Cao Yunqing, who was in the early Yuanying stage, could no longer be killed by ordinary spiritual awareness collisions, unless he used a stronger spiritual awareness martial technique like the soul-hooking hand.

However, Lin Yi didn't want to have a falling out with the Canglan sect now. There were so many of them. If he really killed them all, it wasn't like he couldn't kill them all. After he killed them all, Lin Yi would be finished as well, and his essence spirit would probably be weakened again.

Overdrawing one's divine sense would be extremely disadvantageous to the recovery of one's primordial spirit!

Lin Yi, of course, wouldn't risk his life for a few small fry.

Lin Yi, on the other hand, controlled the strength of his spirit to avoid being detected by Cao Yunqing.

With a light touch, it only made Cao Yunqing's consciousness slightly blurred for a moment, but he did not feel any stronger discomfort. Naturally, it was impossible for him to think that he had been attacked by his spiritual sense.

Using this opening, Lin Yi decided to use his sword-new fire sword technique!

A single spark drilled out from a small opening and quickly turned into a Prairie Fire!

By the time Cao Yunqing came back to his senses, the wave-like attack was already useless, because Lin Yi's sword was right in front of his chest.

If he was stabbed, he would die without a doubt!

Cao Yunqing was scared out of his wits, he changed his move in a hurry and fell into a disadvantageous position.

Lin Yi didn't let him off easily, and he continued to use the green Devil God sword technique in the middle. The plants around him started to pop out.

The flustered Cao Yunqing couldn't care about the plants around him and immediately suffered a loss!

With his hands and feet bound, he couldn't use any skills, and Lin Yi took the chance to send him flying with another flying kick.

The people from the Canglan sect were all dumbfounded, looking at Lin Yi as if he was a monster.

Cao Yunqing was the strongest in their team. Although Cai Lingying was at the same level as him, she was slightly weaker in terms of combat strength.

Right now, the strongest one was being beaten up so badly that he didn't even have the strength to fight back. What should he do?

Lin Yi wasn't too optimistic about it-his current advantage was all thanks to his little tricks. In terms of actual strength, he really wasn't Cao Yunqing's opponent!

Of course, this was under the premise that he didn't fully utilize his spiritual sense martial skill.

"Do you want more? I don't mind teaching you a lesson!"

Lin Yi sheathed his sword and crossed his arms as he looked at Cao Yunqing. He then turned to Cai lingying, Huang chongtian, and the other disciples. "Or rather, which one of you is going to replace him? do you want to fight me?"

Cao Yunqing was so embarrassed and angry that she wanted to continue fighting with Lin Yi, but her heart was lacking confidence.

If this kid had more tricks up his sleeve and he failed again, wouldn't that be even more embarrassing?

Out of wariness towards Lin Yi's methods, Cao Yunqing didn't have the courage to challenge Lin Yi anymore.

"Sima Yi! I'll remember you, this isn't over between us!"

Cao Yunqing was silent for a while. Seeing that his companions did not say anything, he could only say a few polite words, then turned around and walked into the fog.

Cai lingying looked at Cao Yunqing's back in surprise. She didn't expect the proud senior brother Cao to admit defeat like this.

However, on second thought, she somewhat understood Cao Yunqing's thoughts.

It wasn't that Cao Yunqing was afraid of Lin Yi, but he'd already broken his promise in the exchange just now. He'd been slapped in the face again if he tried a second time.

If he attacked a third time, even if he could succeed, Cao Yunqing would not have the face to do it!

His junior brothers and sisters were all watching ... How was he going to survive in the canglan sect in the future?

If no one was watching, Cao Yunqing might just kill Lin Yi without a care!

After thinking it through, Cai lingying cupped her hands at Lin Yi and su Yumo, ""Junior Brother Sima, Junior Sister su, thank you for your guidance! Our green mountains will not change, and the water will flow forever. There will be a time when we meet again!"

Perhaps not too long!

Cai lingying added in her heart. Without waiting for Lin Yi and su Yumo's reply, she turned and left with Cao Yunqing.

The ghostly Yin mountain range was quite big, but it was also quite small. The two groups of people were wandering in this area, and they would meet each other at the corner.

The Azure water sect had lost face this time, and Cao Yunqing didn't have the face to continue pestering them. Once they missed this opportunity, they'd probably come back for revenge.

After the canglan sect's people left, su Yumo said coldly, ""The people of the canglan sect are not to be trifled with. This time, we have offended that Cao Yunqing, so we must be careful!"

Although the girl was expressionless, she was clearly worried about the team.

"We won't cause trouble, but we don't have to be afraid of trouble! If they really want to die, then let them die!"

Lin Yi laughed and consoled su Yumo with a relaxed expression.

In a primitive forest like the ghost Yin Mountains, Lin Yi was like a fish in water with his plant element.

If the canglan sect wanted to play dirty, Lin Yi might not be able to deal with so many people at the same time.

Chapter 7368 A Woman's Intuition

However, if they ambushed them and dealt with them one by one, the people of the Azure water sect would probably go crazy.

He'd let his team hide first, and then he'd assassinate the Azure water sect's people alone. With the range of his divine sense, the plant element, and his jungle combat skills, the sub island's King of Assassins would probably appear!

Su Yumo glanced at Lin Yi, wanting to ask him about the details of his fight with Cao Yunqing ...

For example, how did Cao Yunqing's continuous slight stiffness come about? but the girl seemed to think that she wasn't that close to Lin Yi yet, so she hesitated and didn't say anything.

"Sister Xue, let's not follow the people from the Azure water sect. Let's go in another direction."

Lin Yi raised his voice slightly and spoke to Ling Hanxue who was still hidden in the mist, "There is no possibility of cooperation. Let's just play our own games. The ghost Yin mountain is so big. We might not get anything by following them."

Ling Hanxue's reply came from the fog. She had been hiding at the side all this time and did not reveal herself. If a full-scale conflict broke out, as a shooter, she could provide better fire support.

Chen Zhisheng followed Ling Hanxue in silence, and the team also changed direction.

No one knew where the remains of the great witch of ghost Yin were, so they could only try their luck and bump into it.

Therefore, there was not much meaning in following the people of the Canglan sect. Not to mention that it was easy to get into a conflict, even if there was any discovery, the people of the Canglan sect would be one step ahead.

It would be better to change directions directly, and perhaps his luck would be better.

After half a day, everyone in the team, except for Lin Yi and Su Yumo, was pale. Along the way, they would encounter unexpected dangers from time to time.

It was a good thing that Lin Yi had been taking care of them along the way, and Ling Hanxue and Chen Zhisheng were scouting and clearing the path ahead. They had removed a lot of hidden dangers beforehand, so there were no casualties in the team.

Even so, two of the new disciples had already decided to back out, secretly encouraging Li Yingjian to come and discuss with Lin Yi about retreating.

They thought that Lin Yi couldn't hear them, but in fact, Lin Yi's spiritual sense could even detect breathing, heartbeat, pulse, and other changes, let alone whispering.

Li Yingjian couldn't reject the offer, so he walked slowly to Lin Yi's side and smiled awkwardly, "Senior brother Sima, this Ghost Yin Mountain Range is really too dangerous. Furthermore, there are people from the Azure Willow Sect watching us in the dark. Why don't we go back directly?"

"I'm not afraid. It's just that my junior brothers are not at ease. After all, we are not strong enough. Any danger in the Ghost Yin Mountain Range is enough to kill us!" Although the mission won't be completed if we go back now, we'll still get some rewards ..."

Exploring the ghost Yin Mountains and looking for the ruins of the great witch-even if they didn't complete the mission, they'd get a portion of the points as long as they brought back some local products to prove that they'd been to the mountain. That was why Li Yingjian agreed to come and talk to Lin Yi.

Although it was a little less, it was still an income. The most important thing was that no one was hurt.

"If you want to withdraw, I have no objection. Those who want to leave can go back!"

Lin Yi glanced at Li Yingjian and the new disciples behind him and waved his hand, "I'll continue exploring with those who want to complete the mission. You guys can discuss it among yourselves. If you want to leave, do it early. Don't go any deeper, or it won't be easy to leave."

Li Yingjian choked. He thought to himself, if you don't leave together, who would dare to go back?

The dangers of the ghost Yin Mountains were already deeply rooted in people's hearts, and they'd just witnessed a lot of them. If it weren't for Lin Yi and the others, some of the new disciples would've already died.

"Eldest senior brother Sima, I will definitely follow in eldest senior brother's footsteps. Whether it's climbing a mountain of knives or going into a pot of boiling oil, I will not even frown!"

Li Yingjian laughed dryly. After expressing his loyalty, he said, "This is just the thoughts of the two junior brothers, and I'm only responsible for passing it on. Since eldest senior brother wants to continue searching for the ruins, I will definitely not withdraw! As for them, I'll go and ask them again. If they want to withdraw, then let them go back first. "

With that, Li Yingjian didn't wait for Lin Yi to say anything more-he turned around and passed on Lin Yi's message to the two new disciples.

The two new disciples immediately fell silent upon hearing that Lin Yi and the others weren't going back.

Let the two of them turn back on their own?

Even if they turned back the way they came, it would probably be difficult to get out of the ghost Yin mountain range, let alone go all the way back to the sword spring sect!

This area wasn't a place where the two of them could wander around freely with their strength!

If it wasn't for Lin Yi leading the team, they would've been dead long ago.

Lin Yi didn't really mind after sending Li Yingjian away-it didn't matter if the new disciples wanted to come with him or not.

These people weren't of much help to him anyway, and bringing them along was just helping the newbies. If they really left, Lin Yi would have fewer burdens.

"Senior brother, there's a cliff up ahead. We don't know how deep it is down there. Do you want to go down and take a look?"

At this moment, Ling Hanxue returned from the front and reported, "I threw a stone down to test it, but I didn't hear any echo. I don't know if it's because it's too deep or if it's because of the fog that isolated the transmission of sound."

"Sister Xue, do you want to go down and take a look?"

Lin Yi and Ling Hanxue's way of addressing each other was a little messy.

When no one was around, Ling Hanxue would call him Zhong da. When there were people around, she would call him young master, eldest senior brother, and so on.

Lin Yi, on the other hand, called her sister Xue directly, so it was a little weird to hear them calling each other "big brother" and "sister Xue."

However, since the two of them were indifferent, no one else could say anything. Su Yumo was a little surprised at first, but she got used to it.

There were many broken cliffs in the ghost Yin Mountains, and he'd seen one before, but Ling Hanxue didn't mention going down to take a look, so Lin Yi found it strange.

However, Lin Yi had already found the cliff that Ling Hanxue mentioned, but his divine sense couldn't go down there, blocked by the fog.

So, if he wanted to know the specific situation, he really had to go down.

"I can't say. I just have a feeling ... A feeling that I want to go down and investigate."

Ling Hanxue muttered to herself for a moment, then furrowed her brows and said, ""There seems to be something down there that's worth my attention. I guess it's ... Intuition?"

A woman's intuition?

Lin Yi rubbed his chin and nodded. "Then let's go down and take a look!"

He didn't know how high this cliff was, and he didn't know what dangers were down there. Of course, he couldn't jump down casually, as that would be suicide.

Fortunately, Lin Yi had bought quite a lot of ropes from the central Chamber of Commerce. These weren't ordinary hemp ropes, but made from the veins of dark spirit beasts mixed with the toughest vines in the forest. Although they were only as thick as an index finger, they were extremely tough.

Chapter 7369 Deep Into The Cliff

Ordinary swords could not cut this kind of rope at all. So even if it was used to tie up golden core stage ancient martial art practitioners, there was basically no possibility of breaking free!

This was definitely a must-have item for home travel, exploration, treasure hunting, murder, and arson!

Lin Yi made his decision and ordered his men to retrieve the ropes. He went to the edge of the cliff and found a big tree to secure the ropes.

"Li Yingjian, you take these junior brothers and stay on guard up there to prevent our retreat from being cut off. I'll take the others down to take a look."

Lin Yi thought that there might be something strange down there, so he decided to split up.

Firstly, there was indeed a need for someone to stay behind to prevent the rope from being broken, making it impossible for them to climb up. Also, everyone's Black Spirit Ferghana horses needed to be looked after, so it was necessary to stay behind.

Secondly, these new disciples might not be of much help if they went down. They might even drag him down!

After what happened with the people who tried to leave, Lin Yi decided that he wouldn't use the others as much as possible.

He asked Li Yingjian to stay because he was more mature and was also the leader of the new disciples.

If Li Yingjian didn't stay, the remaining new disciples might just run away if something happened!

Where would they find him then?

Lin Yi didn't like to care about other people's lives before, but the burden of being a big senior brother was on his shoulders-he had to be careful.

"Yes, eldest senior brother. Don't worry. I'll definitely protect everyone's escape route!"

Li Yingjian wanted to go with Lin Yi, but since Lin Yi gave the order, he had to follow it!

Moreover, looking after the rear was also a heavy responsibility, and he couldn't be careless.

It wasn't just Lin Yi-even Li Yingjian didn't have high hopes for the new disciples ...

If he wasn't around, these people might really cause some trouble, and that would be big trouble!

Lin Yi nodded at Li Yingjian and didn't say anything else. He grabbed the rope and slid down quickly.

Su Yumo and the others followed suit and soon, they blended into the thick fog at the bottom of the cliff and disappeared without a trace.

Only the slight vibration of the rope showed that they were still holding on to the rope and continuing to slide down.

The rope Lin Yi prepared was about nine hundred meters long, and normally it should be enough to cover a cliff. In fact, Lin Yi still hadn't reached the bottom when he reached the end of the rope.

"No rope? What to do? Go back?"

Su Yumo, who had come down after Lin Yi, was on top of Lin Yi's head. She felt helpless as she looked down at the endless fog.

Who would have thought that this cliff was actually more than nine hundred meters long?

Was this still a broken cliff? It was a bottomless pit!

Lin Yi's spirit sense went down as far as it could go, and he finally reached the bottom after going through the fog for thirty meters.

That's right!

Thirty meters below was the bottom of the cliff. Because of the fog, people who couldn't see clearly would only feel despair and think that this was a bottomless abyss. In fact, they were really only a little bit away from their target.

It was like a gold mine miner who had worked hard to no avail. When he finally gave up, he didn't know that a gold mine would appear if he continued to mine.

"We've already come down so far, of course we can't just go back. Hold on tight to the rope, I'll jump down and see!"

Lin Yi was confident, but he couldn't say it out loud. He only smiled in response and let go!

"Sima Yi! You're crazy!"

Su Yumo was taken aback. He didn't expect Lin Yi to jump without any hesitation!

With their line of sight blocked, they didn't know how deep it was. Even if it wasn't too deep, who knew if there were any life-threatening traps at the bottom?

He was just going to check out the situation, did he have to risk his life like this?

As soon as the words left her mouth, there was a muffled sound from below, followed by Lin Yi's voice, "Hahaha, I'm fine. I've reached the bottom. I'm only about 30 meters away from you. Jump down!"

Jumping down from a height of 30 meters was not difficult at all for these Foundation establishment stage and even golden core stage ancient martial art practitioners.

Hence, su Yumo let go of her grip immediately after hearing Lin Yi's words and followed him to the bottom of the cliff.

"Sima Yi, are you crazy? How could he do such a dangerous thing? Fortunately, there wasn't any danger. Otherwise, do you think you could have survived?"

Su Yumo reproached angrily the moment she landed. Then, she seemed to realize that there was something wrong with her attitude, so she changed the topic. "You have to understand that you are the leader of our team. If anything happens to you, the entire team will collapse! Do you think we can leave the ghost Yin mountain range without you?"

Lin Yi, of course, wouldn't say that he jumped down because he was confident. He only laughed dryly, "I felt like I was about to reach the bottom, so I jumped down. It turns out that my feeling was right!"

A woman's intuition was very accurate, and of course, a man's intuition could also be used as an example!

Moreover, an outstanding martial artist would have a spiritual sense that was beyond ordinary people. This was not something inconceivable.

Su Yumo couldn't refute Lin Yi's words, so she just snorted and ignored him.

Then, Ling Hanxue and the others also landed one by one.

Lin Yi took the chance to look around and observe the environment.

The place where they landed was an open space, but it was only about 100 square meters near the bottom of the cliff. Further out, it was a jungle formed by lush trees.

However, the view here was extremely clear. There was no fog at all. All the dense fog that could not be dispersed was floating about fifteen meters above.

Lin Yi finally understood why his spirit sense was able to reach thirty meters away-it was because of the empty space below.

Otherwise, he wouldn't have been able to find the bottom of the ghost Yin mountain with his detection ability of only seventeen or eighteen meters.

"Senior brother, it's really strange down there. Could the remains of the great witch of ghost Yin be here?"

Ling Hanxue's pretty face was slightly excited. The strangeness of this place was obvious, and it was quite suitable as a place for cultivation. It was also true that ordinary people would not be able to discover this place.

All in all, it did fit the conditions of the ruins of the great witch of ghost Yin.

"It's hard to say, let's look around first! If we can really find the ruins, then we'll be in luck!"

Lin Yi smiled and waved his hand, signaling for everyone to spread out and start searching at a suitable distance.

However, Lin Yi felt that the ruins of the great witch of ghost Yin wouldn't be so easy to find.

It must be known that there had been people who had come to the ghost Yin Mountains to search, whether it was manpower, resources, or time, they were all incomparable to these people, but in the end, those people had not found anything.

He had only been in the ghost Yin mountain for less than a day, and he had already found the remains of the great witch of ghost Yin?

Chapter 7370 Can't Survive Even If We Work Together

What kind of heaven-defying luck was that!

"Be careful, everyone. Take care of each other. There might be some danger here!"

Lin Yi reminded before entering the forest.

The rest of the people were about seven or eight meters apart, forming a horizontal line and searching together.

He didn't walk far before raising his hand to signal for them to stop.

"There seems to be a spirit Beast of Darkness in front of us. Everyone, gather together and deal with it carefully!"

After the group quickly assembled, there were indeed many gray-black apes on the trees in front of them. Each of them was about two meters tall, and their pupils emitted a dark green light.

A rough count revealed that there were at least 30 of these grey-black apes. Moreover, judging from the aura on their bodies, they were all at least at the Golden core stage!

This was a F * cking nest of powerful dark spirit beasts, apes!

"This is a little troublesome ... There are so many darkness spirit beasts. It won't be easy for us to deal with them!"

Lin Yi didn't know how effective a spirit sense attack would be against these grey-black apes, but even if it was effective, it was still too much pressure to deal with over thirty golden core stage dark spirit beasts at once!

"It's the dark spirit beast, Youtong steel-armed ape. Let's retreat first ..."

Su Yumo was also a little apprehensive. She was not afraid of the dark spirit beasts, but the Youtong steel-armed ape, a dark spirit beast that was difficult to deal with alone, was indeed beyond her tolerance.

The group of people did not make any more sounds and retreated slowly and quietly, trying to leave the jungle first.

However, the Youtong steel-armed apes weren't ready to let these intruders go. They let out sharp howls as they saw Lin Yi's group retreat. They jumped on the branches and caught up to Lin Yi's group in the blink of an eye.

"Don't stop! Get out of the jungle immediately!"

Lin Yi shouted, and the demonic devour sword shone with a black light. He activated the green demonic god sword technique and blocked the first three Youtong steel-armed apes.

Su Yumo didn't say a word. She pulled out her long sword as well, sending out cold air as she fought alongside Lin Yi.

As Ling Hanxue retreated, she drew her bow and nocked an arrow. The vibration of the bowstring was continuous, and in the blink of an eye, a rain of arrows was released from her small body.

Chen Zhisheng, on the other hand, was protecting Ling Hanxue by her side, retreating with her.

As for the two chubby boys, they listened to Lin Yi and ran out of the forest without looking back. They leaned against the cliff and got into a defensive position.

Fortunately, the group did not go too far into the forest and quickly retreated. Although the clearing was small, there were no trees. The movements of The Dark Eye steel-armed apes were greatly reduced.

When Lin Yi and the others gathered together and formed a semi-circle with their backs against the wall, the Youtong steel armed apes stopped at the edge of the forest, as if they didn't continue their pursuit.

"What do you mean? They're just chasing us out?"

Zhang Yiming mumbled to himself and looked up at the fog with a depressed expression,""But it's not that easy for us to leave now!"

The rope was hidden in the fog that was more than 30 meters high and swayed with the wind. The rock wall below was as smooth as a mirror, and there was no place for climbing at all.

Therefore, the only way to get up was to jump!

However, how could he accurately grab the rope in the fog after jumping? that was a big problem!

Plus, whether the Youtong steel-armed apes were willing to let Lin Yi and the others retreat was another question.

"Senior brother, what should we do?"

Ling Hanxue pulled her bow and asked Lin Yi in a low voice,"If we fight, do you have any chance of winning?"

Although Ling Hanxue had always been confident in Lin Yi and felt that no enemy was a problem in front of him, she couldn't help but be worried when facing this group of Youtong steel-armed apes.

After all, it was difficult for two fists to fight against four hands, and there were many heroes who were no match for monkeys!

"These dark eye steel-armed apes seem to have some intelligence. Perhaps I can try to communicate with them?"

Lin Yi wasn't sure if his idea would work-he didn't know if the dark spirit beasts in the Golden core stage had intelligence, but he'd heard about their brutality.

Just as he was thinking about whether there was a possibility of communication, a clamor came from the forest to his left. Then, a group of people sneaked out in a sorry state.

"Azure water sect?"

Lin Yi, su Yumo, and the others were dumbfounded. They didn't expect the people coming out to be the canglan sect's group that had parted ways earlier.

When they saw Lin Yi and the others, Cao Yunqing and Cai lingying couldn't care about anything else and ran over with their people. Then, Lin Yi and the others saw a group of single-horned rhinoceroses chasing after them. They were dark spirit beasts, cloud devouring single-horned rhinoceroses!

What the f * ck!

Were the canglan sect's bastards trying to divert the disaster?

Lin Yi couldn't help but curse in his heart. They hadn't even thought of a plan to deal with the Youtong steel-armed ape here, and now they've attracted a group of cloud devouring single-horned rhinos? Even if you want to die, you shouldn't do it like this!

In terms of numbers, the cloud devouring single-horned rhinoceros was about the same as the Youtong steel-armed ape, with about thirty of them!

Each cloud devouring horned rhinoceros had the strength of an early golden core cultivator.

These disciples did want to drag Lin Yi down with them. If they worked together, they could more or less make up for the numbers, and they would be able to fight the cloud devouring single-horned rhinoceros.

But when he saw the dark eyed steel-armed ape on the other side, Cao Yunqing couldn't help but feel despair!

F * ck!

These cloud devouring single-horned rhinos were already too much for them to handle, and now there were even more you Tong steel-armed apes of similar strength?

He's dead!

It was a pity that Cao Yunqing had no other choice but to bring Lin Yi's team in first.

"Sima Yi, on behalf of the Canglan sect, I propose to temporarily join forces with your sword spring sect to deal with the group of dark spirit beasts in front of us!"

Cao Yunqing's face turned slightly pale, not knowing if it was from exhaustion or fear. After instructing the disciples of the Canglan sect to form a new defensive circle, he continued, ""You've seen the situation before us. If we don't join forces, we'll definitely die!"

"Even if we join hands, we most likely won't survive!"

"Hmph!" Lin Yi snorted, "you think we can handle these two groups of dark spirit beasts if we work together?"

Of course not!

Cao Yunqing rolled his eyes and ignored Lin Yi, even though he was the one who suggested the collaboration ...

"Junior Brother Sima, our cooperation will benefit both sides. With all due respect, perhaps it will benefit you more."

Cai lingying took over the conversation and forced a smile."After all, we have a lot of people. It may be difficult for us to deal with a group of darkness spirit beasts alone, but we have some confidence. If the few of you deal with another group of darkness spirit beasts, won't you all be dead?"

"Who said that we need to deal with those Youtong steel-armed apes? Didn't you see that we were originally at peace with them, but because you attracted the cloud devouring single-horned rhinoceros, they became a little restless?"

Lin Yi didn't object to a temporary Alliance, but if the canglan sect thought that they were helping the sword spring sect and wanted to owe them a favor, then they might as well play on their own!
