

Bodyguard 7501

Chapter 7501 What Should I Do?

All the members of the branch, including the two Saint weapon captains who had come to inspect the branch, had become cold corpses!

"What's happening? Why is it like this?"

After Selena screamed, she started to panic again. "What should I do? What can I do?"

In fact, Serena had not joined the new sanctuary organization of her own free will. Instead, she had been forced to become an ordinary holy weapon of the new sanctuary.

Therefore, when she saw that the division had been destroyed and everyone had died, her first thought after the shock was to be subconsciously happy.

However, the joy only lasted for a moment, and it quickly turned into fear and panic!

In order to control a holy weapon like her, the new sanctuary had developed a technique called the blood curse.

As for the specific principles behind it, Serena naturally did not know. In any case, she had to take the antidote every month. Otherwise, she would be better off dead and suffer all kinds of torture!

"What do we do, what do we do? Am I going to be finished too? But I don't want to die!"

Serena looked at the corpses on the ground and could not help but cry. "If you all die, how am I supposed to contact the headquarters? Who am I supposed to ask for my antidote from?"

"I'm only 16 years old ... I've never had a boyfriend ... I don't want to die! I still have so many things I want to do ... Wuwuwu ..."

Serena started to cry as she spoke. Then, as she wiped her tears, she carefully avoided the corpses on the ground and entered the branch to look for clues that could be used.

She had only used the most ordinary holy weapon before, or rather, a killing tool created by the new sanctuary branch. She had been assigned to carry out various assassination missions, so she wasn't too clear about the layout of the branch.

As for the search now, he only wanted to see if there was a way to contact the headquarters!

Only by contacting the headquarters would Serena be able to obtain the antidote and continue living.

It was a pity that Morris and his men had completely destroyed the new sanctuary division. If it were not for the irrelevant buildings around them, they would have even burned the place down.

Serena cried and searched for a long time. Naturally, she found nothing, so her tears started to surge.

It was late at night, and the power system of the branch was damaged. Serena cried and cried, feeling more and more afraid.

Even for an assassin who had killed and seen blood, staying in a house full of corpses in the middle of the night still made him feel terrified.

Feeling helpless, Serena could only leave the branch first. Alone, she wandered aimlessly on the streets in the middle of the night.

What should he do next?

Ever since she had joined the new sanctuary division, Serena had only learned how to kill. She knew nothing else.

Now that there was no source of missions, what should he do?

The blood curse in his body was like a time bomb. If he didn't get rid of it, he could only wait for death.

Could it be that he had to look for other new sanctuary branches?

Damn it, Serena did not know the exact location of the other branches of the new sanctuary organization.

As a member of the lowest level of the new sanctuary, it was ironic that she did not know as much as Morris 'Knight Association.

Initially, this was not a big deal. Whatever information Morris and the others could find out, Serena would be able to find out sooner or later if she spent some time. However, the blood curse in her body was going to flare up in two days!

Time did not allow her to slowly search for other new sanctuary branches!

"Perhaps I should find a place with beautiful scenery, dig a hole for myself, and then buy a coffin to lie in ..."

Serena smiled bitterly and looked up at the deep, dark night sky. "Has everyone already abandoned me? Shouldn't I be on my own now ..."

"Serena?"

Suddenly, a deep male voice rang out beside her ear. It gave Serena, who was sighing, a shock. She thought that the heavens had come to her!

When she turned around, she realized that a tall man covered in a black cloak had appeared beside her without her knowing.

Because of the cloak, he couldn't see the other person's face clearly, but his voice sounded good.

"Who are you? Why do you know my name?"

Serena was nervous. She jumped back and put some distance between herself and the black-cloaked man. She stared at the man in front of her vigilantly and subconsciously put on a defensive posture.

For an assassin who walked in the dark to be sneaked behind by someone without him noticing, it was an unforgivable mistake!

At this moment, Serena could only feel her hair standing on end. If the other party wanted to kill her, wouldn't she have taken her life long ago?

The cloaked man didn't say anything. He only raised his hand and flashed a sign in his palm.

This was the token that represented the status of the Holy envoy in the new Holy region organization!

Serena was shocked, and then a wild joy surged in her heart!

She was just thinking about how to find the organization, but she didn't expect the Holy envoy of the organization to come directly to her door.

The antidote to the blood curse had been found!

Serena did not have the time to think. She quickly knelt down on one knee, bowed, and said, ""Saint soldier Serena greets the Saint!"

This was one of the twelve Holy envoys of the organization. In the past, he had only heard of him. He had never expected to see one with his own eyes today!

"Everyone in your branch is dead, and you're the only one left alive. What happened?"

The black cloaked Saint retracted his palm and did not let Serena get up. Instead, he asked coldly, ""Did you collude with the enemy and cause this situation?"

If something had happened to an ordinary branch, the new sanctuary might not have received the news so quickly.

However, this time was different. Johnathan and Alyssa had come to this branch because they had official business to attend to.

In the end, the two of them never sent back any news, and the headquarters couldn't contact everyone in this branch. Of course, they would suspect that something was wrong.

To be on the safe side, the headquarters had sent the nearest Holy envoy to confirm the situation.

"Lord Holy envoy! I'm innocent!"

Cold sweat broke out on Serena's forehead like a waterfall. If she was suspected of betraying the organization, she would not have to wait for the blood curse to take effect. She would be able to experience the pleasure of living and dying!

"I went out to carry out a mission today. After I returned to the branch, I found out that the branch had suffered a great change. Everyone was dead, and the murderer had long left!"

"I wanted to contact the headquarters, but all the communication devices in the branch have been destroyed, and I don't have a way to contact the headquarters. I'm at a loss for what to do. Fortunately, Lord Holy envoy appeared ... Otherwise, I really don't know what to do!" Zhang xuan said.

This was the truth. If they could not find the organization, Serena would want to dig her own grave!

The black-cloaked Saint looked down at Serena quietly. He did not speak, as if he was weighing the truth in Serena's words.

Serena was on tenterhooks. The atmosphere made her feel very insecure. Then, she thought of the blood curse on her body. She gritted her teeth and said, ""Lord Holy envoy, I have a presumptuous request ... I hope that Lord Holy envoy can give me the antidote to the blood curse, because my Blood Curse will take effect in two days, and ..."

Chapter 7502 Blood Curse Antidote

Of course, there was no need to explain what happened. Serena's previous superior had already died. Who could still give her the antidote?

"You don't have to say anything, I know your situation."

The black cloaked Saint interrupted Serena's words indifferently.

After he found out that the branch had been massacred, he had retrieved the name list of the branch's members and checked the corresponding Blood Curse. Only then did he find out that Serena was still alive.

No one would dare to betray the new sanctuary when they were under the blood curse!

The black cloaked Saint was only trying to scare Serena.

"This is the antidote to the blood curse. Although your branch has been destroyed, you are still a member of the organization. You will continue to serve the organization with all your heart!"

The black-cloaked Saint casually threw out a small bottle with a pill inside.

Serena was pleasantly surprised. She received it in a flurry, and finally heaved a sigh of relief.

"Don't worry, Your Excellency. I will do my best to serve the organization! Even if I have to be crushed to pieces!"

As soon as Serena got the antidote, she immediately expressed her loyalty. As for whether she was sincere or not, only God knew. "Oh right, Lord Holy envoy, which branch should I report to next?"

The branch here was done for, and it was still uncertain if it would be rebuilt. Serena thought that she could only go to the other branches to take a look. It would be even better if she could directly follow this Saint in front of her!

"You don't have to go to the other branches. Before the reconstruction of this branch is completed, you have to listen to my command!"

The black-cloaked Saint pondered for a moment, then ordered, ""The most important thing now is to find out who is attacking and killing our people! The reason they chose this branch was probably because it was the shortest! In other words, the enemy is probably nearby!"

"Of course, it could also be because the strength here is weak, so this is the direction you need to work hard in. Investigate the matter clearly! Perhaps this wasn't a coincidence, but a long-planned operation by some force! If we don't investigate it as soon as possible, there might be a next time!"

Serena was a little dumbfounded. It was quite in line with her expectations to listen to the saint's orders directly. However, to investigate the truth behind the destruction of the branch ...

How could they investigate this?

Would they be killed immediately after they found out?

After all, she was just an ordinary holy weapon, and her strength was extremely weak. Moreover, she was a sixteen-year-old little holy weapon who hadn't had a boyfriend. Was it really appropriate for her to do such a dangerous thing?

The other party could even kill a Foundation Stage expert, wouldn't she be just delivering herself to him if she went?

"Do you understand?"

The black-cloaked saint's tone became impatient when he saw that Serena was kneeling on one knee without any reaction.

"I understand! Don't worry, Lord Holy envoy, I'll do my best to investigate the truth ..."

Serena quickly nodded in agreement so that the Saint would not be displeased and her days from now on would be even more difficult. ""But, Your Excellency, how should we investigate this matter?"

Even though she had agreed, Serena did not have the slightest bit of confidence in herself. She could only brace herself to ask for instructions!

"This is something you need to consider. Do you need me to teach you everything? Then what use do I have for you?"

The black-cloaked Saint snorted coldly and threw down a card. "This is my number. If you discover anything, contact me at any time!"

Without waiting for Serena's response, he turned around and disappeared.

In fact, he did not expect Serena to be able to find out the truth. He made such an arrangement only because Serena was the only survivor in this branch.

It wasn't good for him to arrange for her to go to another branch, so he just randomly found something for her to do.

If they could really find some clues, that would be an unexpected surprise!

Serena caught the card in a daze. There was a series of numbers printed on it, but there was no other information.

Well, at least when the blood curse expired, he wouldn't die because he couldn't find the antidote!

Thinking of this, Serena felt a little happier.

Well, he didn't need to dig his own grave for the time being.

Serena, who was in a better mood, randomly found a place to take a nap. Then, she began to carry out the mission assigned by the Saint, to find clues about the destruction of the branch!

As a qualified assassin, Serena did not master any other skills other than killing techniques, especially intelligence gathering.

Thus, she could only wander around seriously to hide the confusion in her heart.

After wandering around for an entire day, Serena did not know where she had run to. Seeing that the sky was getting dark, she began to think about where to sleep.

"The ruling Sword Knight Association is recruiting trainee Knights, male or female! Those below the age of 25 who have the ambition to become a glorious Knight of Justice and have good fighting ability can go to the Norman building to register and participate in the selection!"

Selena passed by a Street and happened to see an LCD screen playing such a recruitment advertisement. She was suddenly moved.

Since he did not have the ability to find any clues, he might as well join the sword of sanctions Knight Association. Then, he could use the Knight Association's channels to inquire about the news of the new sanctuary branch.

When an ordinary person saw this recruitment advertisement, they would only think that it was a gimmick come up with by some cosplay organization. What era was it now? were there still Knights?

However, Serena was different!

After all, she was a member of the new sanctuary organization. Even though she was only a holy weapon of the lowest level, she had heard of the sword of judgment.

Although it wasn't very loud, people could still hear it!

This is it! He could also solve the problem of food and accommodation!

Serena made up her mind. Perhaps the problem of food and lodging was what she was really concerned about. However, on the surface, her reason was naturally to work for the Saint!

"Uncle, how do I get to the Norman building?"

Serena pulled a passer-by aside and smiled adorably. ""I want to go there. Can you show me the way?"

"Which part of me looks like an uncle? Call me big brother!"

When the passerby saw that Serena was a rather cute girl, he immediately put on a kind smile. He was obviously a person in his forties, but he was smiling like an eighteen-year-old bright boy. It was disgusting!

The corner of Serena's mouth twitched twice. She thought to herself, "although I'm young and I haven't studied much, I should still be able to notice that you're lying to me, right?" Do you really think I'm blind?

"I'm sorry, can you tell me more about it?"

Although he was complaining in his heart, he immediately changed his words. With a sweet smile, the passerby immediately melted.

"You're such a good girl. What are you going to the Norman building for? Look, it's getting dark. Why don't big brother take you out for a meal, and then come to my house to rest, okay?"

The passerby immediately turned into a strange uncle who tricked children with a lollipop.

It was a pity that he did not know Serena's true identity. If he had known that he had hooked up with an assassin from the new sanctuary, he would probably have peed his pants on the spot!

Chapter 7503 Applying For A Job

The veins on Serena's forehead throbbed slightly. Things had not been going well these two days. Why did she meet a pervert just by asking for directions?

Should I just kill him?

Hmm ... There are still a lot of people around. Should I trick him into a remote alley and kill him?

After thinking about it, he decided to forget it. He was unfamiliar with this place, and there was no reward for killing him.

The passerby did not know that he had just returned from the gates of hell. He was still jabbering on about how he wanted to bring Serena home.

Although she was only 16 years old, she had been practicing martial arts and sports for a long time. Her figure was not inferior to that of a 20-year-old girl!

The places that should be big were definitely big enough, and the places that should be small were definitely slender!

For the convenience of the mission, she was wearing tight-fitting clothes. Her figure was as hot as a top model, and she attracted a lot of attention on the road.

The passerby had been paying attention to Serena from the start. When he saw her taking the initiative to ask for directions, he thought that it was a blessing from heaven. Hence, he started to flirt with girls crazily.

"Uncle! That's enough! Hurry up and tell me how to get to the Norman building!"

Serena lost her patience. She grabbed the wrist of the passerby and threatened him in a low voice while gritting her teeth, "If you continue to talk nonsense, do you believe that I will kill you?"

The passerby felt a sudden force on his wrist, as if he was being held by a steel hoop, and there was a huge pain as if it could be broken at any time.

At this moment, how could he still care whether Serena called him big brother or uncle?

He opened his mouth and wanted to scream, but Serena took out a piece of bread from the paper bag he was carrying and stuffed it into his mouth at lightning speed, making him unable to make a sound.

"If you dare to make a sound, don't even think about getting your hand!"

The passerby whimpered twice in a low voice, his eyes revealing a strong sense of fear.

Serena snorted and loosened her grip on his wrist slightly. Then, she stared at him with a warning look and slowly pulled out the bread.

When the other passersby saw Serena and the passerby's appearance, they thought that they were close. Other than being envious and jealous of the passerby's luck with women, no one suspected that there was something fishy going on.

The male passerby wanted to cry but had no tears. Why was such a cute girl actually a female T-Rex?

I can't afford to offend you!

As soon as the bread left his mouth, the passerby did not care about the bread crumbs in his mouth. He quickly told Serena the location of the Norman building and even gave her the route clearly, afraid that Serena would be dissatisfied.

In fact, the Norman building was not far from here. It was just two streets away, so it was not troublesome.

Serena was overjoyed to hear this. She had no interest in getting entangled with this passerby. After sending him away, she immediately ran towards the Norman building.

The sky was already dark. What if the Association over there got off work?

Hmm ... I wonder if the Knight Association has such a thing as knocking off?

In any case, Serena had to be on standby 24 hours a day in the new sanctuary division. If there was a mission, she had to set off immediately.

A few minutes later, Serena saw the huge words on the top of the Norman building. This was the Knight Association's headquarters, of course!

Serena had no idea that she had accidentally found the lair of the culprit who had destroyed the new sanctuary organization's branch. She was so lucky!

"Hi, I'm here to be a trainee Knight. Where can i sign up?"

Serena rushed into the building and asked at the front desk, ""You're not late, are you? I've already rushed over as quickly as possible!"

"I'm not late. If you want to register, go in from that side, turn left at the end of the corridor, and go in through the second door on the right!"

The beautiful lady at the front desk maintained her smile as she patiently guided Serena.

In fact, Serena was the only one who came to register today!

The general public didn't take this weird job advertisement seriously at all.

Morris felt that the Knight Association was still lacking in manpower, and their combat power was not enough!

Therefore, after the Knight Association had made a great contribution, they wanted to recruit more people to expand their team. At the very least, they could not lose to the new sanctuary in terms of numbers.

As for the quality ... It was better not to force it ...

It was a pity that they had a bad start. From the first day until now, there was not even a single person who participated in the selection. What was the point of the selection then?

Serena did not know about this. She was worried that she would not be able to get a spot if she was late. So, after thanking the beautiful receptionist, she rushed into the room in a hurry!

Morris put down his finished coffee cup and was about to get up and leave when the door was suddenly pushed open. A little beauty with a hot figure in a tight-fitting sweatshirt rushed in. His eyes immediately lit up.

He sat back down on the chair and raised his head slightly. He gave the most charming smile and said, ""Hello, Beautiful lady. How can I help you?"

Serena pushed the door open and rushed in. When she saw that there were people inside, she immediately remembered that her behavior was very rude and could easily cause her impression points to be deducted. She suddenly felt a little uneasy.

Then, he saw that Morris, who had only one eye, still had to show a kind smile, like a big Bad Wolf looking at a little white rabbit, and he was even more nervous.

"I'm sorry ... I've been rude!"

Serena bowed quickly, then turned around and left the room at lightning speed, closing the door behind her.

Morris 'smile froze on his face. He did not understand what was going on. Could it be that his handsome face had scared that little beauty?

Ah, this damn charm of mine that has nowhere to go!

Morris was a little narcissistic. He was still thinking about whether he should chase after the little beauty and stop her so that she could admire his charm when he heard a rhythmic knock on the door.

"Hello, May I come in?"

The knocking stopped, and Serena's serious voice rang out, "'I'm here to apply to be a trainee Knight of your Knight Association!"

Morris 'mouth twitched.' After all this trouble, you're going back to knock on the door?' Was there a need? He's already in!

She must have been frightened by my stunning looks, so she wanted to go out and calm down, right? En, it was understandable!

"Please enter!"

Morris coughed lightly and used his deep and magnetic voice to call Serena in. "Please take a seat and introduce yourself!"

Serena sat down and lowered her head slightly. "My name is Serena, an orphan. I have been practicing martial arts with my master since I was young. Later, my master passed away and I could only wander around alone. Today, I saw that your Knight Association was recruiting trainee Knights, so I came to give it a try!"

At this point, Serena sneaked a glance at Morris, and then quickly moved away like a frightened deer. "I ... I don't want to be alone anymore, I want to have a lot of friends with me ... And, and I'm really strong, I'm already an Earth Class early phase!"

Serena's words were mostly true. Naturally, there were some key points that she did not say.

Chapter 7504 Trainee Knight

For example, under normal circumstances, her strength would at most be golden class peak, and it would be hard for her to even enter Mystic.

He was now at the initial stage of the earth rank, which was a forced promotion after entering the new sanctuary organization!

Because she was still young, her bones, bones, and muscles still had room for growth, so the new sanctuary-realm's upgrade to her had not reached its peak. She would be even stronger in the future.

"What a pitiful girl. However, your strong character is exactly the kind of person that our Knight Association needs! "From today onwards, you are a member of our Knight Association!"

Morris had a good impression of Serena, who he loved the most. Plus, she was the only one who came to sign up today, and she was also an early Earth Class master. It was just too suitable! Hence, it was decided on the spot.

"Serena, don't worry. We, the Knight Association, are like a big family! We're all like family to each other. If you join us, you won't feel lonely anymore!"

"That's great! I'm really grateful to you!"

Serena crossed her hands and clenched them tightly. She rested her chin on her hand and her face was filled with joy. "Right, I haven't asked you. You are ...?"

"Hehe, I'm sorry! I forgot to introduce myself just now!"

Morris smiled reservedly, maintaining what he thought was his most perfect demeanor, and said, "I am the president of the Knight Association of the sword of sanctions, Morris Norman! This building was named after my family name. Of course, Serena, you can call me by my name. "

"Waa! So it was the president! I'm so honored, I didn't expect the president to personally receive me! I feel like I'm dreaming!"

Serena's surprise and shock were just right, which greatly satisfied Morris 'vanity. As for whether a dream was a beautiful dream or a nightmare, only she knew.

"Haha, Serena, you don't have to be so formal. I've already said that we, the Knight Association, are like family to each other. You can just call me Morris. There's no need to be so distant."

Morris was very happy. In fact, he had come personally because today was the first day of recruitment.

Originally, Morris 'plan was to start from the next day and leave the interview to his subordinates to handle.

I didn't expect to recruit such a beautiful and cute female knight on the first day ... Hmm, it seems that I should continue to guard the city tomorrow. Perhaps I will gain more.

"Okay, Mr. President ... No, Morris!"

Serena readily accepted his advice and immediately changed her words. She did not feel any psychological pressure anyway. "Right, Morris, I ... Can I stay here? Because I don't have a place to stay ..."

Food and accommodation were included. This was Serena's main purpose in joining the Knight Association!

Of course, what she convinced herself to do was to serve the Saint and join the Knight Association to investigate the truth of the branch's destruction.

He had no choice-people would laugh at him if he said something like food and accommodation. He was an Earth Class, why would he need to worry about food and accommodation?

"Of course, no problem! This entire building is mine, you can live anywhere you want!"

Morris heroically waved his hand and immediately said with a smile, ""Our Knight Association's base is underground. There is a special living area there! If you don't mind, you can stay there. If you want to see the scenery outside, I can arrange for you to pick a room on any floor of the building. "

"I don't mind. I'm already very satisfied to have a place to stay. Why would I be picky? "Moreover, it'll be easier for me to integrate into this group if I stay in the Association's living area!"

Serena was overjoyed and could not help but cheer. She quickly calmed down and bowed to Morris."Thank you, Morris! I really don't know what to say to express my gratitude to you. "

"In the future, we're all one family, so there's no need to be so polite with me! You're too polite!"

Morris still maintained his reserved smile, but he was thinking in his heart,'if you're really so grateful and don't know how to repay me, I don't mind letting you devote your life to me!'

"I don't think anyone will come to sign up today. Let's go. I'll take you to the living area to familiarize you."

Morris left as soon as he said he would. He stood up and brought Serena out of the room.

Selena was secretly happy. She did not expect that she would be able to join the sword of sanctions Knight Association so easily!

After she entered the living quarters, it would be even more convenient for her to borrow the Knight Association's resources to investigate the destruction of the new sanctuary branch.

Morris and Serena entered the elevator and used a special card to open the hidden underground floor button.

"Selena, the underground is the base of our Knight Association. Only our members have the right to enter! After you've settled down, I'll get someone to make an identity card for you. You'll only be able to freely enter and exit the base with the card. "

Morris introduced.

Of course, these measures were only for ordinary people. If it were Masters like central, they would basically exist in name only.

Serena replied perfunctorily, not allowing the atmosphere to cool down. Very quickly, the elevator stopped at the fourth floor.

"This living area has various functional areas such as accommodation, restaurants, training, entertainment, and so on. In theory, it can accommodate about two hundred people living together! However, most of our official Knights have their own families and rarely live here. "

Morris introduced the place to Selena as they walked, like a qualified tour guide."Most of the people living here now are the guards of the base, and there are also some trainee Knights. The total number of people is about 40 people, plus the service staff in the various areas, it won't seem deserted."

"If there is a meeting or action, only the official members will move into the base. There will be more people then. Of course, we still need to continue recruiting trainee Knights. This place might be overcrowded soon!"

"Morris, you're really amazing. Not only did you establish such an amazing Knight Association like the sword of sanctions, but you also provided such a perfect base for the Knight Association. You're really amazing!"

From time to time, Serena would mindlessly flatter him, causing Morris to laugh out loud. He was more and more satisfied with Serena.

"Serena, you can live here from now on! This is the best single room in the living area. Most people have two or three rooms, but because you're a girl, I let you stay in this single room. "

In a short while, Morris brought Serena to a room in the living area."The room card is at the door. If you need anything, you can look for the person in charge here at any time. Of course, you can also come to me directly."

Morris had no intention of going in to sit down. After all, he still had to consider his status as the president. There were other people in the dormitory area. Along the way, there were no less than seven or eight guards or trainee Knights who saluted and greeted him.

Chapter 7505 Internal Rumors

"Thank you, Morris. I'll go in and pack up first!"

Serena did not have the intention to invite Morris in either. The two of them exchanged a few polite words before they bade each other farewell.

The single room was not big, probably less than 20 square meters, but it was well decorated with a single bed, desk and chair, single sofa, TV, small refrigerator, bathroom, hidden wardrobe, and so on. It looked quite good.

Serena was satisfied with this. Compared to the accommodation in the new sanctuary branch, it was even better!

As an assassin, when he arrived at a new environment, he would instinctively search around to see if there were any hidden eavesdropping or recording devices to ensure the safety of the environment.

Selena spent a few minutes to make sure that there were no problems before she finally felt relieved.

It wasn't easy for her to sneak into the Knight Association. Of course, she couldn't waste her time in the room. Hence, after resting for a while, she left the room and began to stroll around the living area.

Before getting down to business, they should at least go to the restaurant for dinner!

Or perhaps dinner was more important ...

"Serena, do you want to have dinner?"

Morris had introduced the restaurant's chef to Serena when he had accompanied her on a simple tour of the restaurant. Thus, when he saw her coming over, he was very enthusiastic. "What do you want to eat?"

"Uncle Martin, you don't have to be so polite. What do you have? just give me some!"

Serena smiled and nodded at the chef, Martin, while she peeked at the food that had been prepared. "That Italy with more sauce, a fruit and vegetable soup, and a lamb horn bun ... This steak looks good, let's have some too!"

"Alright!"

Martin agreed and quickly put the food that Serena wanted on the plate. He also made some desserts. "This is a freshly made strawberry cake and mango pudding. Serena, try it and see if it's delicious! Because it's just a prototype, I'm not going to give it to those kids!"

"Thank you, Uncle Martin! You really are a good person!"

Serena showed eight of her teeth and gave Martin a big smile and a good-person card. Then, she took her plate and found a table to sit down and enjoy the delicious food.

He had to admit that the food here was really good, much more delicious than the new sanctuary division.

Serena was very satisfied with her current life. She even started to feel that there was nothing bad about her joining the sword of sanctions Knight Association from the new sanctuary branch.

In any case, she was not willing to join the new sanctuary, and she did not have any feelings for the members of the branch. If not for the blood curse, she would have really joined the Knight Association.

Serena cut a small piece of steak and put it in her mouth. Feeling the tender, smooth, and delicious texture in her mouth, she closed her eyes in satisfaction. If she ate this kind of steak every day in the future, she should be able to grow taller, right?

Just as she was thinking about such meaningless things, the conversation between the two trainee Knights who had just sat down beside her suddenly attracted Serena's attention.

"Is what you said true? Yesterday, President Morris had brought his men to ... Kill ... Kill ... Many people? The other party was completely annihilated? Really?"

He had deliberately lowered his voice at a few key points, so Serena could not hear him clearly.

However, a few key words such as murder, dead person, and many more, were heard by Serena.

Although she didn't know if he was talking about the new sanctuary division, this was what she was most concerned about right now, so she immediately connected the two.

While Selena was secretly shocked, she quickly perked up her ears and eavesdropped on the conversation. She did not even bother to eat her steak.

"You weren't at the base yesterday, so you don't know. Let me tell you, a lot of things happened yesterday. For example, two foundation building experts from the new sanctuary came to challenge us. They almost razed our Knight Association to the ground!"

The other person's voice was slightly clearer. In addition to Serena's intention to eavesdrop, the content was more complete.

"So exciting? In the end, was it President Morris who dealt with them?"

The previous one also raised his voice slightly, appearing to be very shocked.

Selena was secretly angry. She thought to herself, do you guys know how to chat? The topic just now hadn't ended yet, why did it suddenly change to another topic?

Can't you speak properly?

However, they seemed to have mentioned the new Holy region ... And the foundation building experts ... Forget it, I'll just pay some attention to them. It might be useful, and I can report it to the Holy envoy.

In truth, the two holy weapons that had come to the Knight Association yesterday weren't at the foundation establishment stage. It was just that these two guys had exaggerated a bit.

Rumors were like this. It was easy to be magnified in the process of spreading. Perhaps by tomorrow, it would become two Jindan Masters.

"You're wrong. The president only fought to a draw with one of them. If it wasn't for the help of an expert, our Knight Association would be finished!"

"Waa! The president could actually tie with a Foundation expert? It seemed that the strength of the president had greatly improved again! By the way, who's the expert you mentioned?"

The two of them did not doubt in the slightest that their President Morris really had the ability to fight evenly with a foundation building expert.

"It's Knight Mike's follower. It's said that he's a hidden expert in his family, and he was specially sent to protect Knight Mike!"

Lin Yi didn't know what expression he'd make if he heard this-how did the bodyguard he hired become a servant of the Stratford family?

Of course, in theory, bodyguards and followers did look somewhat similar ...

"Knight Mike? I know. I heard that the new Holy region wants to kill him. Although it wasn't announced publicly, everyone said so in private. The foundation building experts of the new Holy region didn't come for him, did they?"

"That's not the case. I heard that the new sanctuary wants to incorporate our Knight Association. Of course, President Morris would not agree! "Since you know that the new sanctuary has their eyes on Mike, you should also know that our Knight Association is preparing to stand up for Knight Mike and deal with the new sanctuary organization!"

"In that case, yesterday's operation was actually because of Knight Mike? He annihilated the entire new sanctuary division because of his followers?"

When Serena heard this, she finally confirmed that the information she wanted to find out was here. The real murderer she needed to find was also here!

He subconsciously clenched his hands, and the fork and knife in his hands instantly bent out of shape. It was as easy as pinching two strands of noodles.

"Alright, let's not talk about this anymore! As long as we know what we're doing, we can't tell anyone else! Otherwise, we'll all die if they take revenge!"

The two of them lowered their voices and warned each other. Then, they changed the topic. The new topic had nothing to do with the new sanctuary, so Serena did not pay any more attention to it.

Serena was originally savoring the food slowly, but after hearing the news by chance, she lost her mood. She finished the food quickly and returned the plate to Martin.

Chapter 7506 Gathering Information

"Thank you, Uncle Martin. Your food is really delicious! I'm stuffed!"

Martin immediately smiled and said, ""That's great. Seeing an empty plate is your greatest compliment to me. Next time, tell me in advance what you want to eat. I'll prepare it for you ... Look at you, you almost ate the fork ..."

It had to be said that beautiful and cute girls were really taking advantage of others. This made Martin ready to give her special treatment!

After exchanging a few pleasantries, Serena changed the topic and asked casually, ""Uncle Martin, is Knight Mike still in the base? I heard the two of them talking about him just now, and I'm curious to get to know him. "

Obviously, it was more appropriate to ask Martin who he wanted to know. After all, everyone in the base would come to the restaurant for dinner.

"Mike? He should still be here. He had come for lunch at noon! But dinner isn't here yet ... That young man is quite handsome, it'll be good for you to get to know him!"

Martin gave Serena a knowing look, winked at her, and continued, ""His room is in the dormitory district's A area. It's number 1022, right? I can't remember clearly, you can go and take a look. "

"It's not what you think! But still, thank you, Uncle Martin!"

Serena tilted her head and made a distressed and helpless expression. Then, she smiled and waved goodbye to Martin.

After leaving the restaurant, Serena rushed to the accommodation area A. She wanted to confirm whether Mike and his entourage were still in the base.

In the end, when she found Mike's room, someone happened to pass by and saw her about to knock on the door. That person told her that Mike had returned to the family.

Serena was a little disappointed. She could only return to her room and wonder if she should inform the Saint of this news.

"Selena, this is your identity card and the rules of our Knight Association. You can take a closer look! The president asked me to tell you that if you want to go out these few days, you can go out and walk around. After a few days of recruiting trainee Knights, you will be undergoing unified training. At that time, you will not be able to enter and leave as you please!"

Serena had just arrived at the door of her room when a guard delivered her identity card and passed on some words from Morris.

After expressing her gratitude, Serena returned to her room and threw the Knight Association's rules on the bedside table. She looked at her identity card and thought for a moment before she turned around and left the room.

Using her identity card to return to the surface, Serena quickly left the Norman building and found a quiet place before she dialed the number of the black cloaked Saint.

In the Knight Association's base, Serena did not dare to use her mobile phone to contact the new sanctuary. Who knew if there was any equipment in the base that could intercept signals?

A qualified killer should never make such a mistake.

"Your Excellency, I am Serena! I think I've found some clues regarding the division's destruction. "

The call was picked up after a single ring. Serena immediately straightened her body and reported solemnly, ""Today, I happened to hear some news about this at the sword of sanctions Knight Association, so I immediately reported it to the Saint!"

"You said you have a clue about the division being destroyed?"

The black-cloaked Saint was silent for a moment before he could not help but repeat it loudly!

He found it just like that?

That's impossible, right?

It wasn't that the black cloaked man didn't investigate this matter, but that he had been investigating it all along!

When he sent Serena over to do this previously, he did not expect her to achieve any results at all!

However, he didn't expect that ... In just one day, there was actually a lead?

Could it be that this Serena really had an outstanding talent in the field of intelligence?

If that was the case, then he would have to train them well!

"Your Excellency, that is indeed the case!"

Serena replied with a serious expression. She looked around carefully and said in a low voice, ""I heard that this matter is related to young master Mike of the stefford family! He's a beginner Knight from the Knight Association of the sword of sanctions. As he's being hunted down by our new sanctuary, he asked for the help of the Knight Association. "

"Our branch is the target of Mike's revenge. As expected, the close distance is one reason. The other reason is that our branch is on the weaker side, lower than the overall strength of the ruling Sword Knight Association."

"Although the appearance of the two Saint weapon captains was an accident, there were also experts among them, so the branch was eventually destroyed!"

The Saint fell silent again. He had never expected the truth to be like this.

The ruling Sword Knight Association?

What kind of trash organization was this!

I heard that even the Guild leader is only a Sky Class full master, let alone the members.

With this kind of strength, the Holy envoy usually wouldn't even look at him in the eye.

Therefore, when sanctum decided to punish the Steffey family, they didn't take Mike's background as a member of the Knight Association into consideration. They were more concerned about the hidden trump card of the Steffey family, which had been around for a century.

However, this kind of small Association that didn't care at all actually had an existence that could kill two foundation building experts?

This was heaven-defying!

However, why had they never heard of such a heaven-defying organization before?

However, Selena's words did not sound like she was lying.

"Who's that expert you're talking about?"

The Saint shook his head with a dumbfounded expression.

"Reporting to Lord Holy envoy, we haven't gotten any concrete information yet! However, it was said that the expert was Mike's follower and had been following him! At this time, they should be reaching the Steffey family's Manor. "

Selena said honestly.

Whoosh! Whoosh! Whoosh!

Mike's follower?

Since when did the stefford family have such a powerful follower?

If there were such followers protecting Mike before, why didn't they show up earlier?

This was big news. It seemed that the assassination of Mike would have to be re-planned!

The Saint knew that the steward of the Steffey family, artil, was a Foundation Stage expert, but he was only an existence on the same level as the two Saint weapon captains!

It was impossible for him to deal with his opponent one-on-one or kill his opponent in a one-on-two battle.

So, this follower was at the Golden core stage?

"I know! The mastermind of this incident was probably Michael from the stefford family! He's the target of our new Holy region's assassination, so it's understandable that he'll take revenge. "

Although the black-cloaked Saint was shocked, his voice remained indifferent. "It's unforgivable for the sword of sanctions Knight Association to be involved in this revenge operation. I'll personally follow up on this matter."

Serena opened her mouth, but stopped.

Although she had just joined the Knight Association of the sword of sanctions, she liked the environment and atmosphere inside, especially chef Martin ... And the food he made.

If the Lord Holy envoy wanted to deal with the Knight Association, wouldn't all of this be destroyed?

Chapter 7507 Assassination Mission

Unfortunately, Serena knew that her words carried little weight. Nothing she said would change the saint's opinion. Moreover, if she were to plead for the sword of judgment, it might have the opposite effect, and she might even get herself into trouble.

"Selena, immediately head to the Steffey family and think of a way to sneak in. Find out the information about the expert beside Mike. If there's a chance, just kill Mike!"

The black cloaked Saint did not care about Serena's life and death at all. He gave the order without hesitation.

It wasn't that it was difficult for Serena to sneak into the Steffey Manor, but it wasn't that easy to kill Mike!

Serena was only at the initial stage of the earth rank. She might not even win a one-on-one fight with Mike, let alone in the base camp of the Steffey family.

Especially since Mike had a follower who was suspected to be in the Golden core stage. He was not someone that Serena, a mere earth-rank killer, could fight against.

However, the black-cloaked man had other intentions. He wanted Serena to alert the enemy and draw out more clues.

"If you can complete the mission, there's no need to mention the reward. I guarantee that I'll recommend you to be the captain of the Holy soldiers. I can even completely remove the blood curse."

After the black-cloaked Saint gave the order, he promised more benefits.

Serena's heart suddenly palpitated. No matter how dangerous it was, it was worth a shot!

The captain of the Holy soldiers was a small matter, but the blood curse was her biggest problem.

Being constantly controlled by the blood curse was worse than death. If he could remove the blood curse, it would be worth it to risk his life!

"Don't worry, Lord Holy envoy. I'll do my best to complete the task given by Lord Holy envoy!"

Selena turned around and looked in the direction of the Norman building. She could not bear to see that happen.

If they left this place today, they might not have the chance to return ...

After offending the new sanctuary, no matter how powerful Mike's follower was, this place would be annihilated.

After hanging up the phone, Serena let out a soft sigh. Then, she pulled herself together and set off for the Stratford family manor.

Lin Yi and Mike had a helicopter, so they could go back and forth very quickly. However, Serena had to borrow 'someone else's car.

Therefore, it was not until the next night that Serena finally arrived at the periphery of the Steffey family's Manor after a long and exhausting journey.

As a qualified killer, it was not a big problem to sneak into such a large Manor. The general guards were not enough to look after him, so he just had to pay attention to avoid the surveillance cameras everywhere.

But the problem was that this Manor was really a little too big!

Serena had not done her homework beforehand. It was easy to sneak in, but it would be difficult to find someone ...

As she touched it, miss killer found that she seemed to be a little lost ...

Serena hid in the corner of a corner in the blind spot of the surveillance cameras, her cheeks puffed up in worry.

This didn't make sense! How did he lose his sense of direction?

Just this little place, and he was already dizzy?

She peeked out slightly to size up the situation around her. Serena wondered if she should grab someone to ask for directions.

Cough, cough, no, no, he should arrest someone and interrogate him to find out where Mike was!

MMH! That's right, this was it!

Serena nodded her head vigorously, trying to use this method to convince herself that she was not trying to catch someone because she was lost and could not find her way!

Hiya! Just as he was about to look for someone, he saw a person wandering over alone!

Selena was instantly overjoyed. She felt that her luck was really good!

She was definitely a beautiful girl blessed by the heavens!

Looking at the person's appearance, he should be an Asian. Compared to Europeans, he was the thin and weak type.

Most importantly, the other party did not have the aura of an expert. He looked like an ordinary person!

There was no better target than this weak man!

Having made up her mind, Serena observed her surroundings again. After making sure that there was no one else around, she immediately stomped her feet, and her beautiful and slender body shot out like an arrow. In an instant, she arrived in front of her chosen target.

Lin Yi strolled around casually-he'd noticed a woman sneakily entering Stratford with his spirit sense before starting to circle around the manor ... Lost?

Lin Yi thought it was interesting and decided to come over to take a look, but the girl suddenly rushed out!

A sneak attack?

Lin Yi chuckled to himself. He could see Serena's every move with his spirit sense. How could there be a sneak attack?

Not to mention, with Serena's strength, even if Lin Yi closed his eyes and let her attack him, it would be no different from scratching an itch!

"Who are you?"

Lin Yi reached out his right index finger and placed it on Serena's forehead. He didn't seem to be using much strength, but he managed to stop her from moving forward.

An expert!

Serena was taken aback. She immediately realized that she had kicked an iron plate. While she was secretly complaining, she quickly squeezed out a harmless and silly smile.

"Ah? I ... I'm ... I'm that ..."

In a moment of desperation, how could he think of any reasonable excuse? under the influence of ghosts and gods, he suddenly said, ""I'm a call girl ... Someone asked me to serve them, but this place is too big, and I couldn't find a place."

Such a lie full of loopholes, she actually felt that it was not bad when she said it, and even gave herself a thumbs up in her heart.

"Call girl? Your figure is not bad!"

Lin Yi pulled back his finger and rubbed his chin as he looked at Serena with a smile.

The hot figure under her tight clothes was eye-catching, but Lin Yi would never believe that she was a call girl.

"Of course! My body is the best among my companions, otherwise I wouldn't have the opportunity to come to such a good place to take orders. "

Serena suppressed the shyness in her heart and forced herself to raise her head and puff out her chest, trying her best to show off the beauty of her figure. ""I can't talk to you anymore, I still have to go find someone."

Lin Yi's lips twitched. The Steffey family manor was a place where call girls could just come in?

Who let her in? And who was it that found her?

As long as he asked for her name or checked Serena's phone number, he could easily see through her lies.

But Lin Yi didn't plan on doing that. Since the girl liked to pretend to be a call girl, he'd play along with her.

"Don't be in a hurry to leave. I can see that your quality is pretty good. What's the price?"

Lin Yi looked at Serena teasingly, and he could clearly see the faint blush on her fair face.

Serena was both embarrassed and annoyed at this moment. She was not a real call girl, and she had never used this kind of service before. How would she know how the market was?

But if he didn't answer, he was afraid that he would arouse the suspicion of the expert in front of him. He could only force himself to smile and pretend to be experienced. "Three ... Three hundred euros!"

Chapter 7508 Call Girl

In her mind, three hundred euros was already a lot and could buy a lot of things, but she never thought that if a call girl could enter stefford Manor, why would it only be worth three hundred euros?

"So cheap? You only charge 300 euros for such a high-quality call girl? Are you crazy?"

Lin Yi's face was full of shock-it was as if he was telling the truth!

In fact, he didn't know what the real market was like, but since he was sure that the girl in front of him was acting, then everyone cooperated and acted.

Is he sick?

Serena is going crazy. Your whole family is sick! I'm still a Virgin, alright!

"Ah? Hahaha ... Because it's my first time doing business here, I'm only giving you a friendly discount. It won't be so cheap in the future. "

Serena was ashamed and indignant. She forced a smile and tried to remedy the situation."Normally, I'll charge you at least 600 euros ..."

Bah! 600 F * cking euros! I'll only need 600 euros to kill you!

"I see. What are your services? Can you satisfy any request?"

Lin Yi continued to play dumb, slowly leading Serena into the pit she'd dug herself.

"Of course, I'm a professional. There's nothing you can't think of, nothing I can't do!"

Serena was really about to cry. She braced herself and continued to hold on. Then, she wanted to escape from this place as soon as possible. "I'm really going to leave now, I'm sorry ..."

"Don't worry, you haven't found your client, have you? Why don't you tell me who you're looking for and I'll take you there!"

Lin Yi calmly threw out a small killer move, making sure that Serena wouldn't agree to it!

As expected, Serena jumped-she didn't know who Lin Yi was, and it'd be over if she just gave him a random name and got exposed! There was a 99% chance that she'd get caught!

"No need, no need. I can handle it myself. You can go do what you need to do!"

Serena was really begging Lin Yi to leave-she couldn't continue anymore.

"I'm not busy. I just want to relax. Why don't you stop looking for clients? I'll give you 1000 euros. Come and serve me!"

The dagger was revealed!

Lin Yi stared at Serena with a half-smile, waiting to see how she would continue.

The smile on Serena's face froze, and the corners of her mouth twitched slightly."F * ck!"

I don't even have a boyfriend, and I'm serving you?

If it wasn't for the fact that I couldn't beat you, I would've killed you with a knife long ago, you bastard!

"What's wrong? Could it be that he didn't want to earn money? Don't worry, if the service is to my satisfaction, we can do long-term business in the future. I will definitely not make you suffer a loss!"

Lin Yi grabbed Serena's arm and turned around, not giving her a chance to refuse.

Serena struggled, trying to get away from Lin Yi, but with her strength, she was no match for Lin Yi. It was all in vain!

"Wait! Wait a minute! I have an agreement with someone, and I'm a man of my word. Next time, let's ..."

Serena was on the verge of tears. At this moment, she could only blame herself for being so rude!

Of all things to say, she had to say that she was a call girl. Now, she was dumbfounded, right?

"Then tell me who that person is. I'll take you to him. I believe he'll give me face and let me have you."

Lin Yi didn't even turn his head as he replied calmly, "You don't have to resist. I'm in a good mood today. Maybe I'll give you a little tip!"

Damn pervert! Damn pervert! Who the hell wants your tip! Wouldn't it be better to keep it and buy your own coffin?

Serena was cursing in her heart, but she did not dare to say a word. There was no customer at all. If she spoke nonsense, she would die even faster!

Lin Yi dragged her into an empty room after a while and randomly picked one.

Why are you so impatient? Damn it, can you not be so perverted?

Serena wanted to cry, but no tears came out. She knew that she definitely wouldn't be able to escape. Looking at that pervert's expression, it seemed like he wanted the Overlord to force himself on her!

He had no choice but to treat it as being bitten by a dog ...

At this point, Serena could only comfort herself and plan to kill Lin Yi the moment he let his guard down!

This was the only way to wash away her humiliation!

But in the next moment, Serena was completely dumbfounded. When Lin Yi threw her on the bed, he used a little technique to make her body sore and weak, unable to lift up any strength at all.

Forget about killing, it would be difficult to even scratch an itch for someone!

Not only that, Lin Yi even tore a towel into strips and tied her up, hanging her on a lamp on the ceiling.

"I forgot to tell you, I prefer things like& sex, so you might have to work a little harder ..."

Lin Yi grinned evilly, a whip in his hand!

Serena was certain that she did not see where the whip came from. Could it be that this pervert carried criminal tools with him?

"Don't worry, I'll be very gentle!"

Lin Yi said as he cracked his whip.

Serena, whose mental state had already collapsed to the limit, finally could not take it anymore.

"Stop, stop! I'm not a call girl, I'm lying to you! I'm a good girl ... I've never even had a boyfriend ... You can't do this to me, it's against the law!"

Serena's tears finally stopped flowing, and she begged Lin Yi as she cried, ""I'm telling the truth. Please, don't do this to me! I will be grateful to you, grateful to you for a lifetime! Please let me go!"

Lin Yi chuckled to himself-the girl finally couldn't keep up the act, could she?

However, was it really appropriate to tell her that she had never had a boyfriend?

If you meet a real perverted pervert, it would be a wonder if he would let you go!

"You're not a call girl? Then Who are you? Why are you here?"

Lin Yi was done teasing her and started interrogating her seriously, "Or you're the one who's lying to me now. You look like a call girl to me!"

You're more like a call girl, no! You're a gigolo! Your whole family is a gigolo!

Serena cursed at Lin Yi in her heart, but put on a pitiful face, "I ... I'm just a thief. I wanted to come in and steal something valuable. I had no choice. I'm too poor. I can't even afford to eat!"

At this point, Serena could not help but scold herself. If she had said this earlier, everything would have been fine!

It's good to be a thief. It's reasonable to sneak in and steal things!

Why would she need to do something like being a call girl?

Lin Yi's mouth twitched-this girl really wasn't going to give up until she saw the coffin!

A thief? I'll believe your ghost!

"Whether you're a call girl or a thief, it makes no difference to me! You're already in my hands anyway ..."

Lin Yi laughed evilly on purpose as he lashed out with his whip!

Chapter 7509 I'm A Thief

Selena cried out in pain, still confused. She felt that Lin Yi's words made sense. She was in the hands of a pervert who liked sex; and she was tied up. How could she survive?

Stop dreaming!

"Stop! Stop! Even if he liked to torture people, he shouldn't be so heavy-handed, right? It hurts!"

Serena could not care less now. She wanted to shout louder, perhaps it would attract the attention of others!

It was better to fall into someone else's hands than to be tortured in the hands of this pervert.

In fact, Lin Yi knew how to control his strength with each whip. Although Serena felt pain, her clothes and skin were undamaged, and there were no internal injuries.

It was just that the pain was amplified by Lin Yi's skill!

It was a pity that Serena didn't notice any of this, or she'd understand that Lin Yi wasn't interested in her at all. Why else would he be so casual about it?

"Alright, stop shouting!"

Lin Yi felt that the time was right, so he stopped whipping and wrapped the whip around his arm. "Answer whatever I ask you. Otherwise, this whip will like to have intimate contact with you again!"

"No problem! I'll answer whatever you ask! I'll make sure you're satisfied!"

Serena was very cooperative. While she was crying, she nodded her head suddenly. "But I'm really a thief. Don't blame me for not being satisfied with what I said!"

Lin Yi chuckled-this girl still had a backup plan even at a time like this. She was pretty smart, after all, and didn't look too stupid.

"Whether you're a thief or not, I know in my heart. You saying that you're a call girl is more believable than a thief! Just tell me, Who are you?"

Lin Yi pulled a chair over and put his feet on the edge of the bed as he looked up at Serena, calm and composed. "This is your last chance. If you don't behave, I will make you suffer a hundred times more."

Serena could not believe it. In her opinion, the pain just now was already very strong. A hundred times? Who are you trying to scare?

"I'm really ... Really a thief! How about you send me to the police station? I'm willing to accept the punishment of the law!"

Lin Yi hmphed, and with a wave of his hand, some of Serena's body parts flew into his hand.

Under the divine sense's control, nothing on Serena's body could escape Lin Yi's senses since she didn't have any storage space.

"The sword of sanctions Knight Association's trainee Knight, Serena?"

Lin Yi looked at the card in his hand, a weird expression on his face. "You even managed to sneak into the sword of sanctions? What was his purpose? To kill Mike?"

"The last person on the phone was the Holy emissary ... The Holy emissary of the new Holy region? So, you're from the new sanctuary organization. No wonder you wanted to kill Mike. It all makes sense now."

"But with your mediocre skills, do you think you can kill Mike by entering the manor? Is it possible that all the members of your new sanctuary have died? is that why they've sent you, a lowly member, to carry out such a difficult mission?"

"Or did your organization just want to give up and send a piece of trash to die?"

"What are you talking about? You're the three-legged cat! If you have the ability, let me go. What's the big deal with bullying a girl?"

Serena was a little scared at first-she didn't think that Lin Yi would be able to deduce the truth from something so small.

Although there were some minor details that didn't match, it was enough to make people gasp in surprise.

"Even if I let you go, you won't be able to escape from my grasp!"

Lin Yi threw Serena's things on the bed and continued, "Miss Serena, I should have dealt with you in an even more brutal way. I should have pried open your mouth and obtained the information I needed! However, as I see it, you're just a small fry, an abandoned pawn. Most likely, the new sanctuary doesn't have any important information that they would want you to know. "

Serena was getting angrier, but she couldn't say anything ... Lin Yi was telling the truth!

"Miss Serena, there's no future in following the new sanctuary. It's better to abandon the dark side and join the light. It's much better to follow me than to work for the new sanctuary organization."

Lin Yi didn't really want to get Serena to surrender-he just wanted to get someone from central to betray him out of habit.

"Hehe ... Stop joking. If I betray the new sanctuary organization, I'll suffer a fate worse than death! To be honest, the lesson you taught me just now was not scary at all! What's scary is that once I betray him, I will never have a Day of Peace in the future!"

Serena didn't mention anything about the blood curse, but Lin Yi had his suspicions.

He thought for a bit and grabbed Serena's wrist. He activated the art of Dragon mastery and used his pure Qi to check her body condition.

As expected, he found two strange things.

One of them was the blood curse, and the other was a small chip near his heart!

"If you're willing to forsake the darkness and join the light, I can help you resolve your concerns."

Lin Yi smiled faintly and said with confidence, "This little trick of the new Holy region is not worth mentioning at all!"

"Really?"

Selena was suspicious. She didn't believe that Lin Yi could tell anything.

As far as she was concerned, Lin Yi was just bluffing.

"A curse that's similar to being poisoned, and a small chip for positioning."

"You decide what you want," Lin Yi said faintly, "you only have one chance."

"You ... You could tell? My God, if you can help me remove the threat of the blood curse, I'll definitely forsake the darkness and join the light!"

Serena was pleasantly surprised. She no longer doubted Lin Yi's words. He was like a drowning person who was holding on to a straw. She wouldn't let go.

"Please believe me! I didn't want to join any new sanctuary organization at all. I was forced to do this! If I can get rid of the threat of the blood curse, I'll immediately leave the new sanctuary-realm ..."

At this point, Serena paused for a moment, looking a little hesitant. "" ...If you can really do this, I ... I'm willing to serve you ... And let you ... Play with all kinds of things ..."

Lin Yi was speechless-did this girl really think he was a pervert?

However, there was no way to explain this kind of thing. The more you explained, the more people would think you were hiding it.

And so, Lin Yi decided not to say anything and just solve the problem.

The blood curse was a weird poison, but it wasn't a big deal to Lin Yi.

He activated the art of Dragon mastery once again and summoned his true Qi to wrap around the blood curse, pulling it out of Serena's body.

Against an Earth Class like Serena, Lin Yi didn't even need to use the art of heaven's fortune. The art of Dragon mastery was enough.

As for the chip, it seemed to be used to monitor Serena's vital signs and location.

Chapter 7510 Taming Serena

However, if he removed the chip now, it would definitely alert the new sanctuary organization.

"Alright, the poison in your body has been detoxified by me. You don't have to worry about suddenly dying from poison in the future! As for the chip, it won't do you any harm. "

Lin Yi let go of his hand, setting Serena free. "Also, I'm not interested in a little brat like you, so don't think about those useless things."

"Which part of me is small?"

Serena didn't pay attention to any other important points. She was only focused on the word 'little brat'!

She angrily puffed out her proud chest that was wrapped in her tights to show that she was not small at all!

Lin Yi's lips twitched, not sure if he should laugh or cry.

You're indeed not small ... But I said you're young, not small-chested, what do you mean by this?

"Let's get down to business first!"

Lin Yi scratched his forehead with his right index finger, trying to change the topic. "Since your poison has been cured, I need you to go back and be a spy! If the new sanctuary has any missions, send me a message at once!"

"Wait a minute. You said that the blood curse has been lifted?"

It was only then that Serena reacted. The thing that she was most worried about had been resolved by this person in front of her?

He felt it slightly and it seemed to be a little different. However, before the blood curse took effect, there would not be any obvious characteristics.

Serena was not sure if she had really recovered or if it was just an illusion caused by her psychological cue.

"It has indeed been cured. I have no need to lie to you!"

Lin Yi nodded faintly. "I'm not afraid to tell you. My poisoning skills are more than a hundred times better than those of new sanctuary. What's a mere Blood Curse to me?"

With that, Lin Yi pointed at the blood curse that he'd drawn out earlier, and it landed on a nearby Bush.

In the blink of an eye, this shrub completely withered and rotted. There was no need to ask to know that it had been poisoned.

"Did you see that? If I wanted to control you, I could just make some poison, and it would be much more powerful than the blood curse you mentioned. "

Lin Yi's nonsense made Serena believe him.

The truth was right in front of her, and Serena didn't know that it was the blood curse in her body. She was stunned by Lin Yi's words.

"You didn't poison me, did you?"

Serena looked at Lin Yi suspiciously and took two steps back subconsciously, distancing herself from Lin Yi as if it was safer.

After seeing Lin Yi's performance, she believed that Lin Yi could solve the blood curse, but she didn't believe that Lin Yi didn't have a backup plan.

"To be honest, I don't care about your little strength. But of course, the next time you fall under the control of a new Saint, I won't help you. "

Lin Yi shrugged, a relaxed smile on his face."If you're willing to trust me, I'll definitely give you a lot of benefits in the future! It's a hundred times better to be under their control than to follow a new Saint. "

Serena did not want to be involved in these things anymore. If she was really free, it was best to hide her name and stay away from disputes. It was better to be in a good relationship than anything else.

But she was afraid-what if she rejected Lin Yi, and he killed her?

It didn't matter if he said he didn't care, but there were many perverts who turned hostile and killed people. Who knew if the person in front of him was one of them?

"Well ... If the blood curse is really broken, I can help you ... What do you want me to do?"

Serena looked at Lin Yi hesitantly before smiling. "After all, you're my benefactor, and I know how to repay favors!"

"I've already told you. Go back and do as usual. Then, help me pass the message."

Lin Yi didn't care if Serena meant it or not-it was just a casual move he'd made, after all, and he didn't expect it to be of much use.

If there were any surprises in the future, it would naturally be a great gain.

"By the way, what's the purpose of your visit this time?"

"If there's a chance, kill Mike. If there's no chance, investigate the background of the expert accompanying Mike! "The origin of this incident was because our branch was destroyed. I heard from the Knight Association that Mike and the experts around him were the masterminds behind all this."

Serena was rather straightforward. She did not continue to hide anything and said everything she knew in one breath.

It wasn't very logical, but Lin Yi understood what was going on!

The expert beside Mike was referring to him, right?

But how did he become the driving force behind the scenes?

It's that bastard Morris who wants to stand up for himself!

Serena looked at Lin Yi, a little stunned and confused."Hey, you can't be the expert beside Mike, right?"

"How about this, you go back to the Knight Association and contact the Saint you mentioned. Tell them that you failed your mission because you didn't make it into the Steffey Manor, and that you'll have to go back and wait for an opportunity."

"Mike is a beginner Knight of the Knight Association, so he won't always stay in the Steffey Manor. It's also reasonable for you to stay in the Knight Association, because that's the place he likes to go."

"Oh," Serena replied, but she was a little happy in her heart.

The Knight Association's environment was not bad, and the food was delicious. She wanted to stay there forever.

However, would the Holy envoy let the Knight Association off?

After all, the destruction of the new sanctuary division was definitely related to the ruling Sword Knight Association.

After some thought, Serena could not help but remind him, ""After I report the news, the Saint may take action against the Knight Association. Do you need to remind them?"

"Don't worry about it, you go back first!"

Lin Yi didn't mind. The new sanctuary was looking for trouble with the sword of sanctions anyway, and they wanted to take them in. The two messengers were gone, so it was only a matter of time before they got suspicious.

Therefore, it was no longer important whether the new sanctuary branch had been destroyed or not. Regardless, the new sanctuary would not let the ruling Sword Knight Association off.

However, Lin Yi promised Morris that he would help them with the new sanctuary. He wouldn't just sit by and watch the new sanctuary get rid of judgement sword.

Serena had no choice but to follow Lin Yi's instructions and leave the stefford Manor first before rushing back to the ruling Sword Knight Association.

On the way, Serena contacted the black-cloaked Saint again to report the situation. "Lord Holy envoy, this subordinate has arrived at the stefford Manor and discovered that their place is heavily guarded. It's not easy to sneak in, and the security level is still rising."

"Hmm...This means that the stefford family is prepared to resist to the end!"

The black-cloaked Saint was not surprised at all. The new sanctuary organization had already announced that they would definitely kill the Steffey family's young master, Michael, within a month. If the Steffey family did not react, it would be strange if the manor could be easily infiltrated by anyone!

He did not expect Serena to be of any use to him, so the black-cloaked Saint was not disappointed.
