

Bodyguard 7511

Chapter 7511 They Really Sent People Over

Therefore, he only indifferently ordered, ""Since that's the case, you should return to the sword of sanctions first. The organization has already made arrangements to impose sanctions on the sword of sanctions. You can cooperate with them when the time comes."

"Yes! Lord Holy envoy, this subordinate will do his best to cooperate!"

Selena was secretly happy. She did not expect that both sides would ask her to return to the sword of sanctions. It seemed that it was not difficult to be a double agent!

And so, Serena rushed back to the Knight Association in a good mood. She didn't expect to see Lin Yi and Mike already in the helicopter!

Serena was furious!

Why didn't you guys bring me along when you flew back?

I'm not taking up space! Why did he have to drive for so long? he almost had a slipped disc!

In fact, Serena knew that Lin Yi wouldn't bring her back with him. After all, they were not related in name!

If they really came back from the Steffey family together, how would he explain it to Mike? How could he explain it to Morris?

What if their relationship was exposed and the black cloaked Messenger found out? wouldn't that be terrible?

"Serena, where have you been for the past two days? I thought you were not satisfied with the sword of sanctions, so you went to another Knight Regiment!"

Morris smiled when he saw Serena. He raised his hand and said, ""Come over quickly, I'll introduce you to these two."

Lin Yi and Mike both looked at Serena. Mike smiled kindly, while Lin Yi pretended not to know her.

"This is Serena, a trainee Knight that I just recruited. She is only 16 years old, but she already has the strength of an early stage earth rank. She has a lot of potential and will definitely become a pillar of our judgement sword in the future!"

Morris smiled as he introduced Lin Yi and Mike to each other.

Of course, he wanted Lin Yi to give Serena some advice, "Mr. Ling, if it's convenient for you, please take care of these young people and let them grow up faster."

Morris didn't know if Lin Yi agreed or not, and he couldn't press further, so he just introduced the two to Serena.

"This is the Knight Association's junior Knight, mcsterIford. This is Mr. Ling-zero-eight. His strength is unfathomable. Serena, if you have the chance, please ask Mr. Ling for advice. It will be good for you!"

"Yes, President! I'll remember that!"

Serena saw that Lin Yi was acting like he didn't know her, so she went along with it and greeted the two. She was thinking that this pervert was a master beside Mike after all!

As for the new sanctuary, the Lord Holy envoy said that he had already sent people over, so they should also be experts. Who would win in the end?

To be honest, Serena herself was not sure who she hoped would win. If the blood curse had really been lifted, it would be best if the people of the new sanctuary could return in defeat!

If it wasn't dispelled ... Then this damn pervert had better die!

"Mr Ling, what do you think of Serena? Do you have the potential to become an expert?"

Morris didn't give up-he still wanted Lin Yi to be interested in Serena. Of course, it wasn't just about raising her-it'd be even better if he could use her to tie Lin Yi down!

"Not bad, President Morris has good eyes!"

Lin Yi complimented faintly, and Morris "face lit up.

Serena snorted to herself. She thought to herself, 'you pervert, you can even praise someone so perfunctorily. You're not even thinking about it!'

It was too fake!

Should he find an opportunity to inform this pervert that the new sanctuary organization would send someone over?

Just as this thought flashed through Serena's mind, a loud noise came from the elevator!

Boom, boom, boom!

Lin Yi's spirit sense swept over and his lips curled up into a cold smile!

The new Holy region had really sent someone here!

"What's going on?"

Morris was shocked, and then he ran over in anger.

An elevator had been violently smashed down, and the entire elevator shaft had been shaken. The door on this side had also been kicked open with a big hole.

The alloy elevator door was like a piece of dough. It easily split into two, revealing two figures.

"This is the ruling Sword Knight Association? They're actually hiding underground like rats. Wouldn't it be more appropriate to call them the rat Association?"

The two of them slowly walked out of the elevator shaft. One of the women with a cold face sneered and said in disdain, ""This kind of trash organization dares to provoke our new sanctuary? I really don't know who gave them the courage!"

Morris 'forehead was covered in cold sweat, and his eyes were full of fear.

Facing this man and woman combination, he actually couldn't even say a word, and his body was incomparably stiff.

The invisible and terrifying pressure was not like that of a human, but a demon that had walked out of hell!

"Leona, I think the one opposite is the president of the rat Association. What's his name again? Hmm ... I think he's called Morris? That one-eyed guy is easy to recognize. I wonder how many one-eyed guys they have here. If there's only one, it should be him!"

The other blond man was thin. He tilted his head and sized Morris up. He laughed and said, ""What do we do? We seem to have scared this big rat. We won't scare him to death, will we?"

"Ivanov, it looks like we're quite lucky to have found the big rat! I thought I'd have to kill a few rats before I could find him. "

The woman named leona did not stop and walked straight to Morris.

He was clearly a head shorter than Morris, but he had a condescending aura. "You are Morris, right?"

The two of them were talking to themselves, clearly not putting anyone here in their eyes.

Morris 'body was still stiff, and the cold sweat on his forehead was getting denser.

He could already confirm that the two people in front of him were definitely not just at the foundation establishment stage!

A Foundation Stage practitioner could easily crush a Sky Class full master like him, but it wasn't enough to make him this miserable!

Could it be ... An even higher level expert?

Leona frowned. This one-eyed man was too much. Didn't he know how to reply?

She was considering whether she should just kill them directly and report back that the people from the sword of sanctions refused to surrender and resisted fiercely.

Morris felt a chill in his heart. He could feel the faint killing intent coming from the cold-looking woman in front of him. He quickly directed his neck and nodded stiffly.

"It's ... It's me!"

This simple answer had already exhausted Morris.

Leona pouted slightly. She thought she had missed the chance because she didn't attack immediately.

He had no choice. Since he could communicate, he could only waste some time.

"Morris, do you know your crime?"

Leona looked at Morris coldly. Before he could answer, she continued, "Not only did you kill the emissaries we sent, but you also led people to attack our new sanctuary division! Now that the evidence is irrefutable, the two of us are representing the new sanctuary to question our crimes!"

Chapter 7512 You Should Fight Back

"How do you want him to be punished?"

Lin Yi suddenly appeared beside Morris and pulled him behind him. He then asked lazily, "I'm sorry, I was just a little curious, so I came to ask. "

"You are Mike's follower, right? I didn't expect my luck to be so good today. I completed two missions at once!"

Ivanov spoke up suddenly, sizing Lin Yi up with interest before glancing at Mike. "I heard that you're quite strong. It seems that you're not bad. At least, you're much stronger than this one-eyed rat!"

To be able to remain calm in front of two masters was enough to explain many things!

People like Morris could not maintain their normal state at all!

"You flatter me! I'm only slightly stronger than you guys! So what do you want to do by coming here so arrogantly? Are you looking to die?"

Lin Yi looked humble, but he was really humble. In Ivanov's and Leona's eyes, he was just acting cool!

"Hehehe, you really dare to say that! Just a little bit stronger than us? Who Do You Think You Are?"

Leona laughed coldly and looked at Lin Yi disdainfully, "Stand aside first, I'll deal with you later! Morris, I'll cut to the chase and give you two choices!"

"First, in order to punish the crimes that the sanction Sword Knight Association has committed, we will represent the new sanctuary and completely wipe out the sanction Sword Knight Association, just like what you did to the new sanctuary branch. Not even a chicken or dog will be left alive!"

"The second option is to completely submit to our new Holy region and become the Holy Emperor's Lackey. You can bite whoever we want you to bite without any resistance!"

Of course, if Morris had really chosen the second path, the new sanctuary would not be afraid that they would not listen to him. They would naturally have various means to control Morris 'Knight Association.

For example, the Suan ni Blood Curse!

The reason why they didn't choose to exterminate the entire sect was probably because they wanted to collect more test subjects. The center needed more strong test subjects to test the potion and improve their strength.

The value of ordinary people was limited, but these Knights with a strong foundation in martial arts were the most suitable.

"I advise you to choose the second option, which will save us some trouble!"

Ivanov crossed his arms in front of his chest, raised his chin slightly, and said proudly, ""This is your last chance to survive. Don't seek your own death! Of course, I'm actually quite looking forward to you choosing the first path, so that we can have a chance to exercise!"

Morris 'back was already drenched in cold sweat. He really did not know what to say!

If Lin Yi wasn't here, he might really have chosen to surrender. After all, it wasn't too embarrassing to surrender when facing two opponents he couldn't beat.

As for the spirit of chivalry ... It was better to wait until he survived!

"Alright, that's all. You can think about it and give us an answer later!"

Leona's face was cold as she turned to Lin Yi. "Let's take advantage of this time to deal with you, yellow-skinned monkey! I'd like to see just how you're going to be slightly stronger than us!"

"Leona, why don't you let me deal with him? After all, it's better for a beautiful lady like you to maintain your manners!"

Ivanov took a step forward and asked to fight Lin Yi, even going as far as to flatter leona, "A lady only needs to watch from the side and then cheer for me!"

Leona raised her eyebrows. No matter what kind of woman she was, she liked to be complimented on her looks. Leona always had a cold face, but she was still a woman.

"Since you've said so, then you'll deal with him!"

Leona smiled. "As you wish. I'll support you from the side. Remember to finish the battle as soon as possible. We don't need to give Morris, the one-eyed man, too much time to think."

"As you wish!"

Ivanov bowed in a gentlemanly manner before turning to Lin Yi and laughing. "Next, let me see your performance! Don't think that I'm easy to deal with just because I'm thin! I'm telling you, I'm a warrior of the combat race. In front of a warrior like me, I'm sure you won't last more than three seconds!"

Three seconds later, Ivanov shouted in high spirits, ""You're good at escaping, but that won't change the outcome. I'm sure you won't be able to escape for more than a minute!"

One minute later!

"You're really slippery. I admit that I've underestimated you, but that's all! I'm sure you won't last more than five minutes!"

Five minutes later!

"Hell! Are you a Loach? Let's stop here! I'll definitely tear you to pieces!"

Ivanov asserted time and time again, only to be slapped in the face by himself.

In the end, he lost the interest and face to continue his assertion, and gritted his teeth and attacked madly.

Lin Yi, on the other hand, was in a passive position from the start, and nothing changed even after a few minutes.

At first glance, it seemed as if he would be killed by Ivanov at any time. The situation was simply dangerous, and every time, he avoided it by a hair's breadth.

If they were even a little slower, they would be doomed eternally.

People who didn't know what was going on would only think that Lin Yi was being beaten up by Ivanov, but they wouldn't be able to tell that Lin Yi didn't fight back on purpose!

Morris was watching from the side, feeling even more nervous than if he was fighting himself. His clothes were soaked in sweat, and he was worried that something might happen to Lin Yi!

Right now, Lin Yi was Morris' last hope. If Lin Yi failed, the entire ruling Sword Knight Association would be finished!

It was the same for Serena-she was still a new Saint on the surface, but she was secretly worried for Lin Yi, hoping that he could turn the tables!

It wasn't easy to get a chance to escape from the new sanctuary-if Lin Yi died, would she be cursed again and become a puppet of the new sanctuary?

Don't!

Damn pervert, you should counterattack!

Don't just take a beating and not fight back!

I've finally regained my freedom, am I going to lose it now?

The black-cloaked Saint had clearly told Selena to cooperate with the two new sanctuary members. Therefore, it was impossible for them to escape secretly!

It's been almost ten minutes!

Why didn't he even counterattack once?

Damn pervert, you should fight back!

Serena screamed in her heart, hoping that Lin Yi would hear her and unleash his power!

Lin Yi, naturally, couldn't hear the screams in Serena's heart, but his purpose of observing the new sanctuary's elites had been achieved, so there was no need to continue acting.

"It's nothing more than this! Are all the Jindan experts of the new Holy region at this level?"

Lin Yi didn't open his mouth the whole time, giving the impression that he didn't have the energy to talk at all, completely under Ivanov's control.

However, Lin Yi only realized that he was calm and composed after he opened his mouth. He didn't show any signs of the ten minutes of brutal attacks.

Chapter 7513 I'm Afraid This Is Going To Be Troublesome

Could it be that Lin Yi was just testing the waters?

It wasn't that he didn't have the power to fight back, but that he was looking for an opportunity to restrain his opponent?

As she thought about it, Serena's hope was suddenly ignited.

Morris let out a breath of relief. It seemed that Lin Yi wasn't being suppressed, meaning that the Knight Association still had hope.

Ivanov was also furious. He did not go all out in the beginning, and was playing with the mentality of a cat catching a mouse.

However, Lin Yi's ... To be more precise, his own words made him angry, so he kept using more and more power. In the end, he even used his last resort, but it still couldn't do anything to Lin Yi.

This put him in a difficult position!

He wasn't afraid of a powerful opponent, but he was afraid of an opponent he couldn't hit!

You can't beat the other party, but you're convinced of your loss.

You can't hit your opponent, right? what the hell is this?

If this continued, he would tire himself out before he could even hit his opponent.

Lin Yi, on the other hand, saw everything he wanted to see during the process.

He also had a detailed assessment of the strength of the newly created master of Ivanov's team.

It was still the same sentence, although he was a real jiedan stage master, he was much weaker than the ordinary early jiedan stage, only a little stronger than the half-step jiedan stage, so it was not an exaggeration to say that he was a fake jiedan stage master.

"Kid, don't be too arrogant!"

Ivanov roared again and again, attacking Lin Yi with more and more effort. Unfortunately, after a long time, he couldn't even land a single hit on Lin Yi. It was all in the air.

"The experts of the new sanctuary are really powerful. They're able to tear the sky, the earth, and the air apart!"

Lin Yi shook his head. "With your level of skill, you still want to annihilate their entire family? you sure have some balls!"

"Ivanov, there's something strange about this bastard! Let's attack together!"

Leona couldn't stand it anymore and attacked Lin Yi from the side.

Ivanov wasn't willing to give up, but he understood that he couldn't hit Lin Yi at all. Only with Leona's cooperation could he restrict Lin Yi's movement space and successfully hit him at the same time!

When the two of them joined forces, their momentum instantly shook!

Morris and Serena, who had just relaxed, had their hearts in their throats, afraid that they'd see Lin Yi get killed in the next moment.

"Hehe ... The two of them joined forces, but that's all they can do! The observation is over, it's time to end it!"

Lin Yi was still as calm as a butterfly in the middle of the two's attacks. As he spoke, he finally made his first and only counterattack!

Instant kill!

Two fake golden core cultivators were nothing in Lin Yi's eyes. He could kill them with one look!

To be able to make a move was already giving him face!

The situation was reversed in an instant. Morris and Serena were dumbfounded. Their nervous hearts were still beating wildly. It was over?

Why do I still feel a little uncomfortable?

"Mr Ling ... You ... What is your strength? Even a Jindan expert was easily dealt with by you?"

Morris wanted to prostrate himself on the ground and worship Lin Yi. The difficulty of the first ten minutes wasn't important-what was important was that Lin Yi killed two people in his first move!

If he still didn't understand that Lin Yi was just toying with Ivanov, then Morris was really an idiot!

Mike, who had been invisible, ran over as well. He admired Lin Yi more and more now, and he was thinking about how to get Lin Yi to teach him real kung fu!

"Mr. Ling, you're amazing! I really admire you to death!"

Serena crossed her arms in front of her chest, looking like a fangirl.

Lin Yi's mouth twitched-he didn't know if the girl was telling the truth or not!

But it didn't matter if it was real or fake-Lin Yi didn't care what Serena thought. He was just using her right now!

If Serena was sincere in joining them, and passed Lin Yi's test to gain his approval, then he would treat her as one of his own!

Lin Yi was a broad-minded person, and there were many people who opposed him in the beginning but were later taken in for his own use.

For example, his first opponent, Zhong pinliang, and Dafeng bro from central all became Lin Yi's confidants.

"Selena, go and find out if there's anything on these two people. Find out what their identities are in the new sanctuary."

Lin Yi ordered.

Here, Serena's status was the lowest. As a trainee Knight, it was only natural that she would be ordered around. The few people present did not find it strange.

Of course, Lin Yi wanted her to go because she was from the new sanctuary as well, and she was more familiar with the new sanctuary's identity.

"Yes," Serena replied and ran over happily. She searched the two of them.

She raised her head to look at Lin Yi in shock.

"Mr. Ling, these two people are of high status in the organization of the new Holy region! He's a preparatory Holy envoy!"

What the hell is a reserve Saint?

Lin Yi was speechless-wasn't the rank below Saint the Saint Captain? Why is there a preparatory saint now?

Serena didn't have access to the higher-ups and elites of the new sanctuary, but she'd heard of some small information, like this reserve Saint. She explained immediately after seeing Lin Yi's confused expression.

"I heard that the 12 Holy envoys of the new Holy region all have fixed positions, and below them is the captain of the Holy soldiers! Normally, holy weapon captains are experts below the Golden core stage. If they break through to the Golden core stage, they'll automatically become reserve Holy emissaries!"

"Once a Holy envoy is injured, a reserve Holy envoy will be promoted to become a new Holy envoy. Therefore, in terms of status, a reserve Holy envoy is not a regular position. They are still the captains of Holy soldiers! However, his authority and status are far greater than that of a normal Saint weapon Captain. "

"Compared to the Holy envoy, the power and status are much weaker. Simply put, a reserve Holy envoy is just an informal transitional identity, but it is already noble enough in the new Holy region!"

Morris and Mike were stunned as they listened. They did not understand how Serena knew so many details.

"Serena, who did you hear this from? It's quite like that!"

Morris asked subconsciously.

Serena was shocked. She was afraid that her new sanctuary-realm identity would be exposed!

With the current relationship between the sword of sanctions Knight Association and the new sanctuary, if her identity were to be exposed, Morris would probably kill her immediately.

"Ah? Haha, that's right, who did I hear this from? I can't really remember ... I don't know where I heard these rumors by chance, but I thought it was interesting, so I remembered them ..."

Serena laughed drily. She could not find a good excuse at the moment, so she could only play dumb."Morris, Mr. Ling has killed these two preparatory emissaries. I'm afraid that the Knight Association will be in trouble. The new sanctuary will definitely send out stronger experts!"

Chapter 7514 Dying From Internal Strife

"For example, the twelve Holy envoys above the preparatory Holy envoy are all Masters above the Golden core stage. No matter how strong Mr Ling is, he may not be able to deal with so many people working together!"

"I heard that there's a Chinese saying that it's hard for two fists to fight four hands. Shouldn't we think of a countermeasure and make arrangements earlier? "Otherwise, when the experts of the new sanctuary-realm swarm over, I'm afraid that our Knight Association really won't be able to resist them!"

Serena forcefully changed the topic to avoid being questioned further on the source of the information.

Lin Yi smiled and nodded, "I didn't think you'd know so much about Chinese culture, Serena." Those two phrases were well used! President Morris, please hurry up and have a meeting with the ruling Sword Knight Association to discuss how to deal with this matter. I have a few words with Serena alone. "

Morris was overjoyed, thinking that Lin Yi was really interested in Serena. This was something he was happy to see.

After seeing Lin Yi's mysterious strength, Morris was even more determined to hold on to Lin Yi's leg, even if he had to become an insignificant leg hair on this leg!

"No problem! Mr. Ling, you guys go ahead. I'll go to the meeting with Knight Mike first!"

Morris was observant and pulled Mike away. He also asked the others who had heard the commotion to clean up the bodies and the damaged elevator.

Lin Yi didn't care about that and picked an empty room with Serena before closing the door.

"Mr. Ling, what can I do for you? I'll do my best to complete your orders!"

Serena's face was still full of admiration as she pretended to be Lin Yi's fangirl, "I didn't have the chance to tell you just now. After I contacted the new Holy envoy of the sanctuary, he told me that he would send someone to the Knight Association and asked me to cooperate with their operation."

"In the end, they didn't even contact me after they came over. They directly came to my door! If it wasn't for Mr. Ling, I might have been dragged into this!"

Lin Yi knew that Serena didn't mean what she said. After all, the new sanctuary's goal was to recruit Morris. If he wasn't there, Morris might have chosen to surrender.

As for Serena, she might even add fuel to the fire and persuade them to surrender.

"That's why I asked you to come. The two people who came this time are reserve Holy envoys. Their status is relatively high, so the new Holy region should pay more attention to them. Since there's no news of them, the new Holy region will come to inquire soon."

Lin Yi didn't want to appear in the new sanctuary's line of sight too often yet, so Serena was useful. Instead of waiting for the new sanctuary to ask you, why don't you take the initiative to contact the Saint? it'll be good for you to hide your identity."

"No problem. How do you want me to report to the Saint, Mr. Ling?"

Serena nodded without hesitation. ""Are you saying that they didn't come to the Knight Association? If we cover it up well and erase all traces of their arrival, it's indeed possible to do this. "

"That's not right. You'll be easily exposed if you lie like this. By then, the new sanctuary will immediately know that there's something wrong with you!"

Lin Yi didn't even need to think about it-he rejected right away. "It's basically impossible to hide the fact that the two of them came to the Norman building. There are surveillance cameras everywhere on the streets outside. It's impossible to hide them!"

Serena thought about it and agreed. If her identity as a double agent was exposed, would the new sanctuary let her go?

The answer was definitely no!

"Then what should I say?"

He couldn't tell the truth, could he?

"How about this? you say that the two of them arrived at the Knight Association, but for some reason, they suddenly started quarreling and got into a fight. In the end, both of them were injured and lost their ability to fight, and the people from the Knight Association took advantage of them."

Lin Yi muttered to himself before chuckling, "With their strength, if it wasn't for their internal strife, no one in the sword of sanctions Knight Association would be able to touch them. So, this statement should be able to convince the people of the new sanctuary."

"Will it really work? It doesn't sound very reliable ..."

Serena muttered softly, "how did the preparatory Holy envoys sent out on a mission suddenly start an internal strife for no reason?" What if you don't believe me?"

"You don't have to think too much about it. You don't have to explain why they're fighting among themselves. The Saint above you will find out the reason on his own. No matter how they ask you, just say you don't know."

Lin Yi said faintly.

He'd killed two Saint emissaries in Huaxia before, so there were spots for the new Saint to level up.

As for the two just now, they might be direct competitors, so it was normal to have some friction in the dark.

Of course, he would let the black-cloaked man fill in the gaps in his own imagination.

"Alright, Mr. Ling, whatever you say. I'll do as you say!"

Serena shrugged her shoulders. There was no danger in this matter. Anyway, the dead could not testify. Even if the Saint wanted to investigate, she would not be able to find out.

She picked up the black cloaked saint's call right in front of Lin Yi, and immediately spoke in a low and nervous tone, "Lord Holy envoy, something has happened!"

"What is it?"

The black-cloaked saint's voice was as indifferent as ever, as if nothing could make him worry. "The people sent by the organization should have arrived at the Norman building by now. Have you seen them?"

"Lord Holy envoy, this subordinate is referring to those two lords!"

Selena felt a little uneasy. She swallowed her saliva and continued, "When the two of them arrived at the sword of sanctions Knight Association, they had just met with the president of the Knight Association, Morris. I don't know what they said, but they suddenly started arguing with each other!"

"Eh? What do you mean by that?"

The black-cloaked Messenger was slightly stunned, and his tone became stern. "Did the two of them quarrel? What are you arguing about?"

Serena rolled her eyes. How would I know what they were arguing about?

She snuck a glance at Lin Yi, but he didn't say anything. "This subordinate was a bit far away and couldn't hear clearly. In any case, the two Daren didn't say much before starting to fight, and they showed no mercy!"

"....."

The black-cloaked Messenger's breathing became slightly chaotic, as if he was angered. He took a deep breath and asked in a deep voice, ""What happened after that? How are they doing?"

"That's what I wanted to say ... The two lords have already fallen!"

Serena wrinkled her nose at Lin Yi, meaning that she'd just blown her own trumpet, and it wasn't her business how things ended!

"Hell! How could such a thing happen? Did the two of them die together?"

The black-cloaked Saint suppressed his anger and growled, ""What the hell is this?

The organization sent them on a mission, and this is how they carry it out?"

"Your Excellency, those two lords did not perish together. Instead, they were seriously injured by each other's attacks. Then, the people from the Knight Association seized the opportunity and killed them in one fell swoop!"

Serena corrected the black-cloaked Saint according to the words she had thought of in advance, ""If it weren't for the fact that the two of you were injured, Morris and the others wouldn't even have the chance to get close, and I really wouldn't be able to help. I'm too weak, and I don't even have the right to make a move! I can only fish at the side. "

Chapter 7515

"I understand ... Your strength is indeed not that great. It's already good enough that you were able to protect yourself and report this to me!"

The black-cloaked Saint quickly calmed down and returned to his previous indifference. ""You've done well in this matter. Continue to hide your identity. That's all for now!"

Without waiting for Serena's reply, he hung up the phone.

Serena snorted at the phone, as if she felt that her performance was really good for being able to deceive the Saint!

"Very good, you do have the potential to become a double agent. Do well in the future, you will have a bright future! Maybe I'll be the new director of the sanctuary or something ..."

Lin Yi said with a smile.

Serena was a little confused. What the hell is a new sanctuary Director?

She had never heard of such a position in the new sanctuary.

She wasn't satisfied with that, and kept pestering Lin Yi to reward her.

As the two of them spoke, the black cloaked Saint Messenger, who had just hung up the phone, turned around and called the Saint Emperor, using a video call.

"Reporting to the Saint Emperor, the two reserve Saint emissaries that were sent to the sword of sanctions Knight Association were killed by the people of the sword of sanctions because of an internal fight!"

The black-cloaked sacred emissary didn't dare to be slow in the face of the sacred Emperor in the video and reported the situation honestly,""This news came from Serena, the only survivor of the previously destroyed branch. She is now lurking in the internal department of the sword of sanctions and can provide us with information."

"Initially, I felt that there was something fishy about this matter and that it might be a trap. However, Serena said that they were seriously injured in the end because of an internal strife, and that was why Morris and the others seized the opportunity to take advantage of them. There is no problem with that."

"What a bunch of trash! If they can't even handle such a small matter, I really don't know what use they have!"

The sage Emperor was extremely displeased. After loudly cursing, he lowered his voice. "These people from the secular world are really trash! When carrying out important missions, there will be internal strife, causing the enemy to benefit. Scum like them deserve to die!"

The black-cloaked sacred emissary was speechless for a moment, not knowing if he should agree with the words of the great Sacred Emperor.

Could it be that the great sage Emperor was not a person of the secular world? But aliens?

That would be too terrifying!

"Reporting to the sage Emperor, this subordinate would like to know if we should still send people to deal with the sword of sanctions. If I'm going, I'm going to lead a team myself to kill them in one shot and let everyone see the consequences of challenging our organization!"

After a moment of silence, the black-cloaked Saint took the initiative to ask for a battle.

"Let's put this matter aside for now. I'll give you an order after I make a decision!"

The sage Emperor waved his hand and praised the black cloaked man a little more before cutting off the communication.

The black-cloaked Holy envoy's strength was considered above average among the twelve Holy envoys. With him leading the team, it should not be a problem to destroy the ruling Sword Knight Association.

The sage Emperor had not immediately agreed because he wanted to report this matter to his superiors.

"Miss LAN, we've lost another two reserve Holy envoys, but it's not because the enemy is too strong. It's because these two idiots had an internal strife, and in the end, the people of the sword of sanctions Knight Association took advantage of it!"

The Saint Emperor connected to LAN xiaoru's video call and complained, ""Trash like them don't even have the qualifications to be promoted. They even dare to ignore the most basic orders. What's the use of having them?"

"That's enough. It's just two Jindan-level preparatory Holy emissaries, we can afford to lose them!"

LAN xiaoru didn't care much and waved her hand casually. ""Or do you mean that you want us to develop a stronger control method? To turn everyone who receives the potion into a puppet, a puppet that we can control?"

The Saint Emperor immediately stopped talking. He was able to improve his strength so quickly because of Central's medicine. If Central's control method was directly used on him, wouldn't he be shooting himself in the foot?

"You are now the sage Emperor. You need to think of a way to educate your subordinates. You can't expect me to think of a way for you!"

LAN xiaoru lightly knocked on the door and smiled, ""I'm developing a new batch of potions. As long as it's successful, I can provide you with more experts to use. So, you have to be more careful and think about how to lead a larger team!"

"I understand. Thank you, miss LAN!"

The sage Emperor gave a slight nod, then asked, "Regarding the ruling Sword Knight Association, should we continue to send people over? We've already sent two groups. If we send more, I think we'll have to send even stronger people. We must try to completely annihilate them!"

"You don't need to ask for my opinion on such a small matter. Just do as you see fit. After all, you are the Saint Emperor of the new Holy region!"

LAN xiaoru didn't seem to want to get involved in too many trivial matters, but she seemed to have thought of something and changed her mind. ""Or you can put aside the matter of the Knight Association for now. The undersea sanctuary is about to open, and it's good to keep them as cannon fodder."

"When the matter with the undersea sanctuary is over, if this Knight Association still exists, you can send someone to deal with them!"

"I understand! Then let them live a little longer!"

The sage Emperor nodded in agreement and continued on this topic, "The preliminary preparations for the event in the sacred zone of the seabed are already in progress. I just don't know how many people will be attracted there."

"Continue to spread the rumors. I believe that those who hear the rumors will be interested and go to investigate! Remember, don't let anyone know that the new Holy region is behind this!"

LAN xiaoru said, "this is the most important thing at the moment, so do it well!" If there's nothing else, let's leave it at that!"

"It's nothing. Goodbye, miss LAN!"

After the Saint Emperor cut off the communication, he turned back to contact the black-cloaked Saint and informed him of the decision to deal with the sword of sanctions.

The black-cloaked Saint had no objections to this. After all, the Knight Association was not a big deal in his eyes. He could easily deal with it whenever he had the time. There was no need to rush.

In the basement of the Norman building, Morris was having a meeting with the Knights in the base to discuss how to deal with the possible new round of retaliation by the new sanctuary organization.

"Guild leader, why don't we move? This base has already been exposed. If the new sanctuary comes again, and eighth brother happens to be absent, I'm afraid it will be dangerous. "

Mike looked worried and whispered, ""Our family has some hidden places that can be used as a temporary base. What do you think?"

"Guild leader, I think Knight Mike's words make a lot of sense. A temporary retreat will allow us to better deal with the crisis. It's just like retracting one's fist in order to strike with more strength."

Someone agreed with Mike's suggestion, which attracted more approval.

Chapter 7516

Morris tapped the table rhythmically with his right index finger. He seemed to be in deep thought. After a while, he raised his hand to signal for everyone to be quiet.

"Knight Mike's words do make sense, but if the sword of sanctions were to leave the Norman building, wouldn't that mean that we are afraid of the evil forces?"

Since there was no threat to his life for the time being, Morris began to talk about chivalry again."As Holy Knights, we can't just bow our heads like this! Moreover, we are currently recruiting trainee Knights to increase our strength. How can we just give up our base like this?"

Everyone was speechless. They looked at Morris with a strange expression. Did he really want to die?

The people sent by the new sanctuary were stronger and stronger each time. They had to rely on Ling-zero-eight, who was beside Mike, to survive two times.

As he was thinking, Morris turned to Mike and said, ""Knight Mike, our sword of sanctions is in a difficult situation now. You must stay and help us. This is a true knight!"

Everyone chuckled in their hearts.

Who didn't know that Lin Yi was Mike's bodyguard?

Lin Yi had said that he would be with Mike wherever he was, so letting Mike stay was the same as tying up a master!

What a good scheme!

Mike didn't doubt him. He immediately patted his chest and said, ""Don't worry, guild leader. I'll definitely stay behind to live and die with everyone! I definitely won't run away in the face of battle!"

The Knights at the side exchanged glances and looked at Mike with pity. "Silly child, even the president won't agree to you running away ..."

Of course, with Lin Yi and Mike around, the Knight Association would be much safer. No one objected to it, and they all complimented Mike in tacit agreement.

"Oh right, Knight Mike, I heard rumors about your stefford family when I was in a small town called kirrlutz by the sea. Now that I think about it, it's quite interesting."

The atmosphere became a little more relaxed. One of the beginner Knights seemed to have thought of something. He smiled and said to Mike, "In that small town of kirrlutz, there is a legend that says that your stefford family is a subject favored by their ancestors."

"There's such a legend? How come I didn't know about it?"

Mike was slightly startled, but he immediately became interested. ""I have heard that our ancestors were Napoleon's men. Are the people in that town Napoleon's descendants?"

The ancient families in Europe would pay great attention to their historical origins, but after the stefford family became a giant in navigation in modern history, they no longer talked about this kind of inheritance.

In any case, in the aristocratic circle of Europe, the Steffey family could not do without a place, and they did not need to rely on their ancestors!

"No! According to them, your family has a long history, far from the Age of Napoleon. The natives of kirrlutz are said to be the descendants of the sea serpent King, satt, and your family is the subject of the sea serpent King, satt!"

"Hahaha, even the sea serpent King has appeared. Are you joking?"

Some people laughed and expressed their disbelief, while others laughed and echoed, thinking that this was just a legend used to liven up the atmosphere.

Only Mike was unable to laugh.

In the past, he would not have believed in the Legend of the Sea serpent King, but after the incident on the mermaid Island, it was hard to say ...

Since the legendary mermaids did exist, and even the mermaid's descendant, Justina, had grown up with him, then what was so strange about kirrlutz being the descendant of the sea Dragon King, satt?

And if the people of kirrlutz were really the descendants of the sea serpent King, it seemed to make sense that the stefford family was related to the sea serpent King, satt.

After all, in the great voyage era, only the stefford family's ships had never been attacked by storms and other dangers.

In the past, it was because of the sea calming divine Pearl. Now that he thought about it, where did the sea calming divine Pearl come from? Could it be the treasure bestowed by the sea serpent King?

As he thought about it, Mike was already 70 - 80% convinced. He just didn't understand how this would affect the stefford family.

He would soon know what the impact was!

"The people of kirrlutz are the descendants of the sea serpent King?"

Morris seemed to have heard this news for the first time and was a little surprised. ""I've heard some unverified news recently, and it's related to the sea serpent King."

"Guild leader, are you talking about the rumor about the discovery of the palace? I've also heard of it!"

Another Knight chimed in, ""I thought it was just a rumor, but if the sea serpent King's descendants really do exist, then the sea serpent King Palace might really exist!"

Mike, since your family is a subject of the sea serpent King, there might be information about this in your family's genealogy. Why don't you ask your family to look for this information?"

Morris's eyes lit up. He felt that he had seized a possible opportunity!

"President, this is just a legend. How can you take it seriously?"

Mike smiled bitterly to himself.

Ever since he was young, he had never heard of any such rumors in his family!

So if he suddenly asked someone to investigate, where should he start?

"Knight Mike, you can't say that! If there's only one legend, or if it's really just a legend, when a few legends are connected, then this matter might be true!"

The Knight who had just spoken also felt that this was an opportunity, so he tried his best to encourage Mike, "Recently, the news of the sea serpent King Palace being discovered has spread quite widely. I didn't pay much attention to it at first, but the other famous Knight regiments seem to be very concerned."

"Indeed. Legend has it that there's a great opportunity in the palace of the sea serpent King! If the other Knight regiments want to interfere, our judgement sword can not fall behind!"

Morris pinched his chin, his single eye flashing. Mike, it won't take much effort for you to get someone to search for information. If our sword of sanctions Knight Association can take the initiative, we naturally don't have to worry about our future development."

"Not bad! As long as we can get the treasures in the palace, what are we afraid of? When the time comes, I'll turn them into ashes!"

"We can't just sit by and watch the other Knights get the treasure in the palace. Even if it's fake, we have to follow up with them!"

For a moment, the meeting room was filled with discussions. Everyone wanted Mike to look for information and then let the sword of sanctions participate in the search for the sea serpent King Palace.

Mike was speechless. Weren't they just discussing the threat of the new sanctuary? They were only talking about legends, how did it become that they were going to find the legendary sea serpent King Palace? Were they not worried about the revenge of the new Holy region?

Chapter 7517

"Mike, let's not talk about other things first. If the legend is true, don't you think that you are the best person to obtain the treasures of the sea serpent King Palace?"

Morris' single eye turned, and the corners of his mouth curled up into a very bewitching smile. "Think about it. If your ancestors were really the subjects of the sea serpent King, you would naturally have a better chance if you went to the palace."

"Kirrlutz town is filled with the descendants of the sea serpent King!"

"If we work with them, won't it be easier to get The Kraken king's treasure?" Mike was a little tempted.

There was a precedent for this, and that was Justina!

The descendants of the merfolk found the merfolk Island and activated their merfolk bloodline!

According to this routine, if the people of kirrlutz were really descendants of the sea serpent King, they might be able to activate the sea serpent King bloodline if they found the palace!

At that time, a group of sea dragons would be born ... It was terrifying just thinking about it!

"It's hard to say. Kirrlutz town has been baptized by war and completely destroyed in history! Even the ruins have turned to ash. The current kirrlutz town was rebuilt later, and the people living there have no relationship with the original residents. "

The Knight who had spoken earlier had done some research on this, so he explained,""Compared to this small town that has lost its inheritance, I think your Steffey family is more reliable! Moreover, the people in the town are all ordinary people, so they don't have the ability to find the sea serpent king's palace. "

Mike's interest was piqued. If he could really find The Kraken King Palace and obtain some extraordinary benefits from it, would his strength improve by leaps and bounds like Justina?

Lin Yi brought Serena into the meeting room as he was hesitating.

He wasn't a member of the Knight Association, but Lin Yi's status was extraordinary. No one in the Association would stop him.

Besides, Mike was here, and Lin Yi had the right to protect him. No one could say anything.

"Everyone's having a heated discussion. What's the result?"

Lin Yi knew that they were talking about The Kraken king's palace, but he still asked.

Morris understood that Lin Yi was asking about the new sanctuary. He invited Lin Yi to take a seat and smiled, "Mister Ling might not know, but we are currently discussing matters regarding the sea serpent king's palace,"

She told Lin Yi about the legends and recent rumors, "Mr Ling, we are thinking about how to fight for the treasures in the palace! This way, we can temporarily avoid the revenge of the new Holy region. "

Lin Yi's lips twitched. If the news spread that far, would the new sanctuary just sit by and do nothing? No one would believe him even if he said that!

"Eighth brother, what do you think? It's said that our Steffey family is the descendant of the sea serpent King's vassal, and we're favored by the sea serpent King, so if I were to participate in the contest, would I have an advantage over the others?"

Mike couldn't make up his mind, so he looked at Lin Yi expectantly, waiting for Lin Yi's confirmation.

"You want to go?"

Lin Yi raised an eyebrow and reminded seriously, "Mike, I might have to remind you that you're now the target of the new sanctuary. The sword of sanctions has also been involved in the whirlpool of the new sanctuary. If you participate in this kind of thing, you'll easily be targeted by the new sanctuary!"

A person who was being targeted and said to be killed within a month, couldn't he just stay at home? Why did he have to run around and cause trouble?

"If that's the case, shouldn't we go? Maybe after this adventure, I'll have the ability to protect myself. I won't need you to protect me, eighth brother, and I'll be able to deal with the pursuit of the new Holy region!"

Lin Yi's words made Mike even more determined. "That's why I think we should participate in the fight for the sea serpent King Palace. "

"As you wish!"

Lin Yi shrugged. He didn't mind at all. He was here anyway, so it wasn't hard to protect Mike.

Plus, Lin Yi was interested in this Palace as well.

The gains on the mermaid Island had greatly improved the sea calming divine Pearl. There might be new surprises this time.

Morris was overjoyed. With a mysterious master like Lin Yi joining them, he would have the confidence to fight the other Knight groups for The Kraken king's palace.

As long as the new sanctuary didn't come out in full force, with Lin Yi there, it was basically a sure-win situation!

"With Mr. Ling here, I think we've already won!"

Morris laughed out loud and began to issue orders, ""In that case, let's get ready and set off for kirrlutz as soon as possible! Knight Mike, you should contact the people in your family and help to find some information related to the sea serpent King. "

"There's been a recent rumor that The Kraken king's palace is going to start from kirrlutz town and enter the deep sea to find the palace! There are also rumors that the palace has been discovered, but we have to set out from kirrlutz to enter, so we have to gather in this town!"

Morris spoke as he operated on the tablet, as if he was looking for information in this area. Then, he paused for a moment and continued, ""The other Knight regiments are indeed interested in this matter. There are already several Knight regiments moving towards kirrlutz. We have a lot of competitors!"

Of course, the actions of these Knights would not cause Morris to be afraid.

With Lin Yi as his trump card, he even dared to fight a new Saint. Who was afraid of who?

Morris then assigned some tasks and made various preparations before departure. In less than half an hour, everything was ready, and everyone set off for kirrlutz together!

At this time, in the small town of kirrlutz, many other Knight regiments had already arrived. Unlike Morris's sudden idea, most of them had heard the Legend of the Sea serpent king's palace, so they had come early to try their luck.

When the sword of sanctions Knight Association arrived at kirrlutz, all the inns and hotels in the town had been fully booked by other Knights.

If he wanted to find a place to stay, he could only negotiate with the residents of the town.

"Mr. Ling, I just bought two neighboring houses. We'll be stationed there for now, and we'll decide what to do based on the situation!"

Morris brought his men around the town for a while and used money to buy two houses, solving the accommodation problem of the members of the Knight Association.

A person who could own a fixed asset like the Norman building was indeed rich and did not care about spending a small amount of money.

As expected, they were all children from rich families who treated money like it was nothing!

Of course, Lin Yi didn't care about money. What he wanted was crystals.

"President Morris, you can arrange these things. You don't have to ask for my opinion. I'm just Mike's bodyguard."

Lin Yi wasn't interested in trivial matters, but he knew that Morris was showing him respect.

Chapter 7518

"Then let's go over first!"

Morris chuckled and said, "by the way, Mr. Ling, I've just asked around. It's said that some of the other Knight regiments are recruiting the townsfolk to join their team. They believe that this will increase the chances of entering the sea serpent king's palace and obtaining the treasure." What do you think, Mr. Ling?"

"If the people in the town are really the descendants of the sea serpent King, it might have some effect."

Lin Yi shook his head, "but didn't you guys say it before? this town was destroyed in the war. After it was rebuilt, most of the people who lived here aren't the original residents. Are there any descendants of the sea serpent King among them?"

"I don't think it's very likely that a descendant of the sea serpent King will appear. However, even if the residents of these towns don't have the sea serpent King's bloodline, they have been living in this town that is closely related to the sea serpent King. They might be favored by the sea serpent King!"

Morris stole a glance at Lin Yi before continuing, "Maybe we should also recruit two townspeople to help?"

"If President Morris is willing to recruit, then do so. I have no objections."

Lin Yi's attitude was as if it didn't concern him. He paused for a moment before continuing, "Maybe they can share some of Mike's burden. That's not a bad thing."

It was said that Mike's family was already a subject favored by the sea serpent King, so Morris had high hopes for Mike this time.

In a situation like this, Lin Yi thought that if two more people with the king's favor joined, it would indeed make Mike less conspicuous!

"What Mr. Ling said makes sense! I'll make the arrangements immediately to see if I can recruit one or two residents of the town!"

Morris agreed with an excited expression.

Lin Yi didn't say anything else. They were at the house they bought, so he went in first to take a look.

The two houses were neighbors, and there was a fence between them. The houses in the town were almost the same, and they were quite large. It was a small three-story building with quite a number of rooms, enough to accommodate the Knights of the Sword of sanctions.

After they went in and chose their own rooms, the people Morris had arranged to recruit the townspeople returned with two young men and women.

"Guild leader, the two of them are currently discussing a collaboration with the members of the Thunderbolt Knights. However, the negotiations have fallen apart. I happened to hear about it, so I brought them here."

The Knight who had gone out to look for someone reported to Morris, and everyone finally understood why he had been so fast.

"What are your names? Why did the negotiations with the Thunderbolt Knights break down?"

Morris waved his hand to dismiss the Knight and asked in a friendly manner, ""The ruling Sword Knight Association is much stronger than the lightning Knights. You can discuss your conditions first."

The so-called Thunder Knights did not have a very good relationship with Morris' 'sword of sanctions Knight Association. Although they had not reached the point of fighting each other the moment they met, they were definitely not harmonious.

When the two sides met, it was basically:

Yingluo, What are you looking at?

What's wrong with me looking at you?

Let's try another one!

I'll try it!

It was a scene similar to this.

Therefore, there was no psychological pressure at all for Morris to intercept the candidate chosen by the Thunder Knights halfway.

"I'm aedanpolo, and she's Chris. We're both from kirrlutz, you know that!"

The young man was very calm, not at all reserved like an ordinary person in front of a powerful person. "I don't know if we have the sea serpent King's bloodline, but I believe that we are indeed the lucky ones who have been blessed by the sea serpent King. So, it is the right decision for you to seek cooperation with us!"

"Oh? It sounds like there's a story behind it. Why don't you tell us? let's see how you've been blessed by the sea serpent King!"

Morris 'mouth curled up, and a glint of interest flashed in his single eye.' "Don't worry, the sword of sanctions will definitely not be stingy with our capital for useful partners."

"No problem. I'll tell you what happened to me and Chris first!"

He slightly raised his chin and said with a proud expression, "Last summer, Chris and I sailed out to sea and we encountered a storm without any warning. I thought we were done for, but guess what?"

"I guess you all survived!"

Morris chuckled and acted as a qualified sidekick.

However, they were all standing in front of him, and they didn't survive ... Were they ghosts?

He was slightly stunned, and he felt that his words were a little lacking in standard. His expression suddenly became a little embarrassed!

"Of course, not only did we survive, our ship didn't even suffer any damage! If any of the huge waves set off by the storm hit our ship, we would be finished. However, we didn't suffer any damage from the beginning to the end. "

With a serious expression, he said, ""Can you imagine? that terrifying storm set off huge waves around us! We, on the other hand, seemed to be in the eye of the storm the entire time, calmly watching as the storm wreaked havoc and eventually dissipated!"

"From then on, we believed in the legends. Even if we weren't the descendants of the sea serpent King, we were definitely people under his care and protection! If you take us with you, you'll definitely get what you want. "

"It does sound like that!"

Morris nodded noncommittally, as if he did not completely believe in the story. ""Let's talk about your requirements first. I want to see how harsh the conditions you have used to scare away the Thunderbolt Knights are. "

"We only have two requests. The first is money!"

After exchanging a look with Chris, he reached out his hand and said, ""Five million euros! I don't think it's a big number for you, right?"

"You guys sure have a big appetite, but the sword of sanctions doesn't lack money. Five million it is, I can agree to it!"

Morris did not hesitate and decided on the spot, ""What else do you want besides money?"

Although the boss of the Thunder Knights was not as rich as Morris, it was not to the extent that they could not take out five million euros.

Obviously, the second condition was the most important.

"In addition to the five million euros, we also want one-tenth of what we got from the sea serpent King Palace!"

"I'm fine," said aedanpolo calmly.

The members of the ruling Sword Knight Association at the side immediately burst into an uproar!

One-tenth of the harvest? Aren't you afraid of being stuffed to death?

Two ordinary people actually dared to demand such an exorbitant price!

It was no wonder that the Thunderbolt Knights had failed to negotiate with the two of them. If it was someone with a bad temper, they might have directly destroyed them!

"Hehe, you really dare to open your mouth! "We, the Knight Association, have sent so many people. In the end, in addition to five million euros, we will still give you one-tenth of the harvest. Do you think that's appropriate?"

Morris did not get angry, but sneered, ""Or do you think you're so great that we have no chance of success without you?"

Chapter 7519

"Mr. President, please don't misunderstand!"

Chris, who had been silent all this time, suddenly smiled and said, ""Our request is not excessive. One-tenth of the harvest was definitely not a lot! And if we don't play an important role in the whole process, we don't have to take this share!"

Chris's voice was very pleasant, and her tone was very gentle. Listening to her speak gave people a sense of relaxation.

The originally angry members of ruling sword calmed down a lot after hearing the other party's words.

"In that case, it's not impossible!"

Morris pondered for a moment and did not agree directly. ""But one-tenth is still too much. How about this, I'll give you ten million euros, and if you make any outstanding contributions during the operation, I'll give you five percent of the harvest. How about it?"

The Norman building alone was worth hundreds of millions of euros. A mere ten million was nothing to Morris!

A 5% cut with conditions was already the limit he could accept.

If they weren't satisfied, then he would kick them out and let whoever wanted to use them use them!

Mike was still with the sword of sanctions, so it didn't matter if the people of kirrlutz didn't participate.

Besides, in addition to the two of them, he might be able to recruit other citizens of kirrlutz.

"Deal!"

Looking at each other, he reached out his right hand to Morris, "I hope we can work well together!"

Morris was a little surprised. He didn't expect that adianpolo would be so straightforward.

Then, he realized that 5% was probably the bottom line of the two. They were just asking for a sky-high price before, and now that they were satisfied with the payment, they could naturally cooperate.

"Happy cooperation!"

Morris smiled and shook hands with him. "Now I have some confidence in you guys. Maybe you can really be of some use!"

"The same goes for Mr. Guild leader. We have a lot more confidence in your judgement sword! If Mr. President had agreed to our request, we might have been worried that you would kill us!"

Ardiablo laughed and said frankly, "When the strong are facing the weak, if they agree to the weak's conditions without thinking, I'm afraid that they have the intention to silence the weak, right? It's a good thing that Mr. President seems to have Knight's spirit, so we're a lot more at ease. "

Morris finally understood that the conditions that adianpolo had just offered were not only to bargain, but also to test the waters!

Now that he had bluntly said his intention to test them, it imperceptibly made everyone's relationship a little closer. This mind was really clever!

Interesting!

Lin Yi had been watching coldly from the side, not saying a word.

Up until now, he was really interested in these two. Perhaps they would really provide some help in the operation.

"Chris, we're companions from now on. My name is Selena!"

Serena, who was beside Lin Yi, greeted Chris happily after the deal was confirmed.

She seemed to be quite happy to have a young girl as her companion.

Chris smiled in response to Serena's warm greeting. The two of them quickly got along and became close friends who talked about everything.

With the addition of two townsfolk, the team was basically complete. Now, they just had to wait to verify whether the legend was true or not.

That night, the stefford family sent a letter. They didn't find the information Mike wanted, but in the family records, there was indeed a vague mention of the protection of the sea serpent King and nothing else.

The family thought that this sentence might be referring to the sea calming Pearl and could not be used as proof of the sea serpent King's relationship.

Of course, it was already unbelievable that the stefford family possessed a magical treasure like the sea calming Pearl, so it made sense that it was related to the sea serpent King.

Morris was a little disappointed that he could not find any useful information from the Steffey family, but he could do nothing about it.

He could only console himself that at least with Mike and Ling-zero eight, they would be better than the other Knight regiments.

Over the next few days, more and more people came to kirrlutz. There were nearly a thousand Knights and organizations of all sizes.

All the powerful people in Europe seemed to have gathered in this small town.

For fear of being discovered by the new sanctuary, Morris and the others stayed in the house as much as possible and only sent out a few Junior Knights to cooperate with dianpolo and Chris to gather information and buy supplies in the town.

"Mr. Ling, the people from the new sanctuary don't seem to have appeared in this town. Did they not come? Or did you come and hide?"

Morris stood by the window, worried. "Our people haven't found any traces of the new Holy region. Don't they care about what happened in the sea serpent King Palace?"

"Ha ... Isn't it better if they don't come? do you want to fight with the new Holy region here?"

Lin Yi said as he laid back on the sofa, troubled.

According to Central's nature, they would definitely get involved after knowing about the discovery of a miracle!

"Mr. Ling is right! If the new Holy region really appears at this time, I think we really have a chance to give them a hard blow!"

Morris, on the other hand, nodded solemnly. "I've secretly contacted a few Knight regiments that we're on good terms with these days. If someone from the new sanctuary appears, we'll join forces to fight against them. After all, this evil organization is exterminated by everyone!"

Lin Yi shrugged. If the new sanctuary really wanted to fight, even all the Knights in this town combined wouldn't be a match for them!

This was because the so-called experts of these Knight regiments were actually only equivalent to the Holy weapons of the new Holy region or the elite holy weapons!

Not to mention the four Saint generals, eight Saint Masters, and twelve Saint emissaries of the new Holy region.

Just a few preparatory emissaries would be enough to wipe out the entire team here!

"But now, there's no trace of the new sanctuary at all. I'm a little worried!"

"An invisible enemy is the most terrifying!" Morris sighed.

"Alright, there's no point in you worrying about the new sanctuary now. Did you contact the Knights to prepare to join forces to explore the sea serpent Palace?"

Lin Yi didn't want to talk too much about central and the new sanctuary-someone like Morris didn't know how scary they were. It was better to let them focus on the palace.

"I do have such a plan, but I'll have to see how it goes. I just don't know where the palace of the sea serpent King is!"

Morris walked over and sat down on the sofa beside Lin Yi, a bitter smile on his face. "It's said that there's a hidden path leading to the Kraken Palace in this town, and this path will open soon, but I don't know how long it will be!"

Chapter 7520

Just as he said this, the entire kirrlutz town suddenly shook!

"Earthquake?"

Morris was slightly stunned.

This area seemed to have never experienced an earthquake before. After all, this was a small town by the sea. If there was an earthquake, it would be followed by a tsunami, and it would be the end of the world!

"It shouldn't be an earthquake, but a movement from the ocean ... Could it be the road that you mentioned that leads to the sea serpent King Palace?"

Lin Yi extended his spirit sense to the ocean and found something.

On the surface of the sea in the distance, a nine-story glazed Pagoda pierced through the clouds.

The nine-story glazed Pagoda was different from the general Western architectural style. Instead, it was more similar to the style of the eastern Pagoda.

Under the lapis lazuli Pagoda, the waves surged and crashed into each other, which was also the reason for the shaking.

After the huge waves collided, the surface of the sea seemed to be torn apart by an invisible force, and a huge passage of up to 100 meters wide actually slowly led from the nine-story glazed Pagoda to Kirrlutz town!

It was like a miracle created by an expert who had split the sea. It was mighty and spectacular!

Lin Yi didn't think much of it, but these people from the common world were shocked.

The entire kirrlutz town was in an uproar!

At this moment, everyone rushed to the seaside, shouting that the sea serpent king's palace had appeared!

In fact, none of them had ever seen the palace of the sea serpent King, nor did they know what it looked like.

However, the nine-story glazed Pagoda appeared at that moment. Although it was different from the sea serpent king's palace, what else could it be?

The huge passage on the sea seemed slow, but it was actually fast. In just a few minutes, they had already reached kirrlutz.

It didn't seem like much from a distance, but when they got closer, they realized that the walls on both sides of the passage were made of waves, and they were dozens of meters tall!

If it fell, even the giant ship would be overturned.

The excited crowd suddenly lost the ability to speak. They looked at the wave channel that seemed to be made by God, not knowing what to do next.

Many of the Knights had prepared ships to go out to sea in advance. They were prepared to switch to submarines after they were out of the coastal waters, so that they could go deep into the sea to find the sea serpent king's palace.

However, with this, all the preparations were useless!

There was no way to drive a boat through the passage of waves, let alone a submarine!

Did he have to drive or run over?

The silence only lasted for a few seconds before a middle-aged man rushed out. "I'm the descendant of the sea serpent King. I have the care and protection of the sea serpent King. I can definitely do it!"

No one stopped him, and no one followed him.

Everyone's eyes were fixed on his back, wanting to see if the stone they had thrown could find the way!

"I'm next door's Tai Shan ... Hohohoho, hold hold hold hehe "

The middle-aged man stepped into the sea channel, leaving a long line of whizzing sounds as he rushed toward the nine-story glazed Pagoda in the distance.

In the blink of an eye, he turned into a black dot and then disappeared into the channel of waves.

Whether or not he entered the nine-story Pagoda, no one but Lin Yi could tell.

Lin Yi's spirit sense, on the other hand, confirmed that Wufu really did enter the nine-story Pagoda!

"This really is a passageway! It's the passage to the sea serpent king's palace!"

"Then what are we waiting for? Hurry up and charge!"

"Hurry! Otherwise, all the good stuff will be taken away by the first person to enter!"

.....

With the first one, there would naturally be the second and third.

However, under the premise that the situation was unclear, there were more people who were clamoring than those who really rushed forward.

At present, most of the people were still watching, and some Knight regiments had sent vanguards to test the waters. If it was really the sea serpent king's palace, they would send a signal.

However, they did not think about whether there would be a signal that could be sent out after entering the palace of the sea serpent King.

"Mr. Ling, shall we go too?"

Morris did not want to fall behind, so he asked in a low voice, ""Two of the Knight groups I contacted have already entered!"

In the entire kirrlutz town, there were about a thousand outsiders, but less than two hundred had entered. The others were still watching.

If Lin Yi didn't move, Morris wouldn't dare to go over himself. Lin Yi was the source of his confidence.

Morris knew that Lin Yi would follow him if he incited Mike to go in, but that would be the same as threatening Lin Yi!

If they left a bad impression on Lin Yi and he didn't act at the critical moment, wouldn't the entire Knight Division be dead?

"If you want to go in, then go! There shouldn't be any problems!"

Lin Yi himself was curious about the nine story Pagoda.

He didn't expect to encounter so many interesting things on this trip back to the secular world. It was really a surprise!

This nine-story glazed Pagoda was indeed extraordinary!

Because, in Lin Yi's spirit sense, it didn't even exist!

To put it simply, it was like a Mirage, an illusion!

However, those who had passed through the wave passage had indeed entered the nine-story glazed Pagoda.

Could it be that this was a passageway that led to another space?

It was just like the sky Ladder from the secular world to the Sky Class Island. It didn't exist at first, but under certain conditions, it revealed itself and could enter another plane.

Interesting!

Lin Yi really wanted to see what was going on!

Morris was overjoyed. As long as Lin Yi agreed, he would have more confidence.

And so, the people of the sword of judgment Knight Association, including adembolo and Chris, quickly entered the channel of waves.

The 100-meter wide passage could accommodate all members of the sword of sanctions at the same time.

As he approached the exit, he felt a force pulling him forward.

This is even more interesting!

Lin Yi didn't resist and let the force pull him.

Of course, it was easy for Lin Yi to break free as well-he could just turn into a spirit.

It was the same for the others, who were pulled forward quickly.

Fortunately, everyone was mentally prepared and no one tried to resist. Everyone stepped on the sea water and rushed towards the nine-story glazed Pagoda.

Other than Lin Yi, Morris, and a few others, the rest of the Knights couldn't help but shout out to express their excitement!

This feeling of stepping on water and flying was even more exciting than surfing.

"Quickly look! The top of the tower was disappearing! Is the passageway about to close?"

The people on the shore weren't worried at first, but less than ten seconds after Lin Yi and the group went in, the nine-story Pagoda started fading away.

Looking at the width of the channel, it was also slowly shrinking.

By the time everyone realized that something was wrong, the tunnel was already less than 100 meters long and was still shrinking.
