

Bodyguard 7761

Chapter 7761 Sending Letters

Unfortunately, su Yumo completely ignored Feng Zhipeng and left without even looking back!

Since Feng Zhipeng could not do it, he could only think of another way!

At the same time, black wildflower, who did not move with Wu yucao and the others, left sword spring sect alone and found the people of the black wilderness clan who were hiding outside.

"That's the situation. There's a possibility that Sima Yi will be killed by the Sima clan. We have to save him!"

Black wildflower briefly explained what happened, and then stated his purpose, hoping that the black wild clan would help him. "I haven't gotten my hands on the plant attribute yet. If anything happens to Sima Yi, our future inheritances will really be cut off!"

"Impossible!"

The manager of the black wild Tribe rejected black wildflower's request, "Although our Kurono family was once one of the four great families, we've long since declined, and no longer have the glory of our ancestors."

"Now, we can only run around like rats, just to recuperate. Are you willing to let our people die in vain?"

"Feng clan, Sima clan, what kind of background and strength do they have? If we get involved, let's not talk about reviving our family, we will be wiped out directly, okay?"

Black wildflower was speechless.

She'd already said everything she needed to say-Lin Yi was in a passive position because of her, but black wildflowers didn't matter in front of the heiye family's manager.

Lin Yi got hurt because of her, he deserved it!

They were dreaming if they thought that the heiye family would help Lin Yi because of this!

Black wildflower's mind almost collapsed when he got such an answer.

She seriously suspected that there was no point in her staying in this rotten family.

The entire heiye family didn't even give her as much care as Lin Yi!

Black wildflower's request for help was rejected, and she was even asked to find a chance to plot against Lin Yi, taking advantage of Lin Yi's misfortune. This made her feel even more hopeless.

When she resentfully returned to the sword spring sect, su Yumo was preparing to use her final trump card.

In order to help Lin Yi, su Yumo had to contact her aunt, whom she had not been in contact with for a long time!

Su Yumo's aunt, su lingyue, had married a direct descendant of the Sima family of Hongshang Commandery.

At that time, su Yumo was still young and did not understand why her grandfather was so angry. Not only did he say that he would kick her aunt out of the house, but he also forbade the SU family from contacting her again!

When she grew up, su Yumo finally understood that the SU family's status on the sub-Island was much higher than the Sima family 's.

Even the most powerful family in Hongshang Commandery was nothing in front of the SU family.

Su lingyue's marriage into the Sima family was definitely a lowly marriage!

This was not a big deal, but the most important thing was ... Su lingyue was engaged, and the other party was not from the Sima clan!

At the thought of this, su Yumo could not help but smile bitterly.

A person who was able to form an engagement with the SU family was naturally not a simple person.

At the SU family's level, they placed a lot of importance on matching social status. Only those super geniuses without any backing would marry into the SU family in order to win over their family.

Su lingyue broke off the engagement and he married her. Old master su almost beat her to death. In the end, he kicked her out of the family and never saw her again.

It was necessary to apologize to the family whose engagement was broken.

It was just that there was some enmity between the two families because of this, and it was not enough to explain to outsiders how much losses they had suffered.

Anyway, in su Yumo's memory, this incident had caused a huge ruckus back then.

Now that she thought about it, su Yumo really admired her little uncle for daring to play such a big game!

The family whose marriage was called off was not an easy one. In their anger and shame, it was possible that they would destroy the entire Sima clan.

In the end, the Sima clan was safe and sound. There must have been some unknown negotiation and compromise behind the scenes. Old master su probably also put in a lot of effort.

After all, su lingyue was his most beloved daughter. Although he shouted that he would kick her out of the house, he would still protect her in his heart.

Therefore, su Yumo felt that the old man wouldn't mind if she contacted her aunt helplessly and asked for her help.

Perhaps he could even use this opportunity to ease the relationship between his aunt and the family. After all, so many years had passed, what knot in her heart could not be untied?

"Grandfather, if you know, it's not that mo' er didn't ask you for help. It's just that distant water can't put out a nearby fire. Furthermore, it's not convenient for an old man like you to interfere with the Sima family's matters, so I asked aunty for help. Don't blame me in the future!"

Su Yumo sealed the letter in a small bamboo tube and mumbled, ""If mo' er can use this to repair the relationship between you and aunty, you might have to thank mo' er ... You'll probably thank him in your heart but scold him on the surface, right?"

As for beating su Yumo up, old master su probably couldn't bring himself to do it.

After all, su Yumo was his most beloved granddaughter. If not for some special reasons, old master su would have kept her by his side every day. Why would he allow her to cultivate in the remote jianchun sect?

"Little Bai, I'll leave the letter to you. You must deliver it to my aunt as soon as possible! Don't go to the wrong place and don't get the wrong person!"

Little white was a Messenger Eagle. It was fast and intelligent. Hearing su Yumo's words, it screeched in dissatisfaction.

As if it was dissatisfied with su Yumo's distrust, it flapped its wings and flew high into the sky, turning into a bolt of White Lightning and disappearing into the horizon.

Watching the messenger Eagle fly into the distance, su Yumo still felt uneasy. After not contacting her for so many years, she wondered if her aunt would help her.

Although little uncle was a direct descendant of the Sima clan, there were a few direct descendants in each generation of the Sima clan. He wondered if little uncle was doing well in the Sima clan.

Not doing well ... Even if little aunt wanted to help, she might not have the ability, right?

However, there was no other way now. He could only make a last-ditch effort!

However, the messenger Eagle had not returned for a few days, and su Yumo's usually calm and cool state of mind was on the verge of collapsing. She spent the entire day thinking, 'is silly Xiaobai lost?'

Or was it taken away by a Big Bird on the way? Or was it made into roasted birds by the hunters?

Furthermore, little white had gone to the Sima clan, but the Sima clan did not want to bother with su Yumo, so they chopped little white up and made dumplings?

The more he thought about it, the more terrifying it became ... He was so anxious!

There were many people who were as anxious as su Yumo, such as Feng Zhipeng. He felt that he would be in trouble as long as Lin Yi was still alive.

He was also wondering why there was no response from the other side even though the news had been sent back for a few days.

Feng Zhi Peng knew that the Feng family would not make a big fuss over a Feng Qian Jin who had been expelled from the family. Especially when they could use the Sima family as a weapon, they would not act rashly.

If it didn't involve the Sima family, Feng Qianjin's death in Lin Yi's hands might cause the Feng family to step out and put pressure on the sword spring sect.

It didn't matter whether he would take revenge or not. It was necessary to get some benefits.

Now that the Sima clan was involved, the Feng clan naturally had to wait and see, and wait to reap the benefits.

Chapter 7762 The Sima Clan Came

"Senior brother Feng, we've already gathered all the fence-sitters in the outer sect. The remaining ones who are loyal to Sima Yi are of no importance!"

Al fan came in to report to Feng Zhipeng. Although he was no longer the third senior brother in charge of the outer sect, he still had his Foundation.

They took advantage of the fact that Lin Yi was in custody, and the core members of Lin Yi's faction were busy saving him, while the others were leaderless. They suppressed and bribed the people, turning the situation around in an instant.

Even though the eldest Senior sister in charge of the outer sect was Ling Hanxue, and the second and third senior brothers were Zhang Yiming and Li Yingjian, the number of people they could command together was probably less than half of Al fan's men.

"Not bad, don't relax, continue to work hard! I want Sima Yi's men to have no place in the sword spring sect. I want them to know that only by following this young master will they have a future. Anyone who goes against this young master should die!"

Feng Zhipeng revealed a vicious smile and squinted his eyes. "As for the inner sect, Xiaji's tyrant Wolf has been crippled, and Donggepi, that trash, won't be of much use even if he goes. Find a way to get in touch with that coward manager, eldest senior brother, and help him gather power in the inner sect."

"Sima Yi has been locked up, and that little girl Wu Yucao has no time to care about the inner sect. Now is the time for that coward to unify the inner sect forces. Tell him that as I said, if he doesn't see the situation clearly, his position as the eldest senior brother in charge of the inner sect will also be over!"

"Understood!" Ai Fan smiled and bowed. Don't worry, senior brother Feng, I think he will understand! It's better to be senior brother Feng's puppet than to get nothing. We don't need to say much about the choice. "

"That's good! You can go! Remember, when it comes to people on Sima Yi's side, continue to maintain high pressure!"

Feng Zhipeng waved his hand casually and sent Ai Fan away. His anxious mood just now was much more relaxed.

Ai Fan bowed and left respectfully. He was not dissatisfied with Feng Zhipeng's attitude.

Although he was the young city Lord of Zhulu city and was not weak, Feng Zhipeng was the young master of the general's family of Hongshang Commandery. A mere Zhulu city could not be compared to him.

If Ai Fan could follow Feng Zhipeng, he would be considered to have found someone to rely on. That was why he was willing to be Feng Zhipeng's dog and do his best for him.

On the other side, Wu yucao and the others gathered together again, each of them looking upset.

"Senior Sister Wu, our current situation isn't very good. The sect's higher-ups have acquiesced to Feng Zhipeng's group's suppression of us. The situation has been worsening these few days. If this continues, I'm afraid that our people's hearts will really fall apart!"

Zhang Yiming frowned and reported, "'I'm the second senior in charge of the outer sect, but in fact, I can't get involved in any of the outer sect Affairs. Most of my men have been poached away, and the rest are my most loyal brothers."

"To be honest, I don't know how much longer they can hold on ... As long as senior brother Sima doesn't come out, our situation will get worse!"

Zhang Yiming looked at Ling Hanxue and Li Yingjian.

Even though he had only mentioned himself, he knew that Ling Hanxue and Li Yingjian were in a worse state than him.

Ling Hanxue had always been focused on cultivation, and her abilities had improved very quickly. Thus, she had not managed any factions.

She'd been pushed to the position of big sis by Lin Yi this time, and if nothing went wrong, she'd be able to slowly build up her prestige.

Unfortunately, with Lin Yi locked up, Ling Hanxue had no chance to show off at all.

Li Yingjian was slightly better off than Ling Hanxue. He had been building a force under Lin Yi's faction before, and their combat power was stronger than Zhang Yiming's.

It was just that he had lost most of his men under the suppression of Feng Zhipeng and Al fan. Now, only some of his trusted subordinates were left.

"These things are not important. There is no need to waste your energy on them!"

Wu yucao waved her hand and said without a care, "Those who stay are our brothers and sisters. It's best for those who can't make up their minds to leave now! When young master Sima returns, they will naturally be filled with regret!"

"When that time comes, even if they want to come back, we won't take them back! The most important thing right now is to think of a way to settle young master Sima's matter!"

The crowd was silent for a moment. Jin Yuan Bao looked at them and said with a bitter smile, "Senior Sister Wu, how can this matter be resolved so easily?"

"The Sima family is the most powerful family in Hongshang Commandery. They haven't said anything yet, so we can't do anything. We can only wait for their decision."

"It's a good thing that elder Qin was mighty that day and displayed the extraordinary aura of an alchemy master. That's why the matter was temporarily suppressed and it also ensured the safety of senior brother Sima during this period of time!"

"We'd better keep a low profile during this time and not cause any trouble for elder Qin! Senior Sister Wu was right. As long as young master Sima was fine, their current predicament would be solved immediately! We can't do anything, so let's just quietly wait for the Sima clan to come. "

Everyone could not help but sigh.

Jin Yuan Bao was right. They had no choice but to wait.

However, when would the Sima clansmen come?

If we keep waiting like this, we won't feel confident!

"My fellow senior brothers and sisters! The brothers outside the mountain Gate have sent news that a flying magical beast has landed, and there is the Sima clan's emblem on it ..."

An outer sect disciple rushed in to report.

Because they had been waiting for the Sima clan, Wu yucao and the others had set up spies in the Sima clan's direction.

It was to get the news as soon as possible.

When they heard that someone from the Sima clan had finally arrived, everyone stood up suddenly and rushed out with complicated feelings.

The disciple who came to report didn't even finish his sentence. By the time he reacted, the person in front of him had already rushed out.

He could only swallow the remaining half of his words.

Lin Yi's people received the news, and so did the others.

Feng Zhipeng and the rest were even earlier, and they were almost at the mountain Gate of the sword spring sect.

Other than that, su Yumo and black wildflower were more concerned about Lin Yi, but they didn't hang out with Wu yucao and the others.

The speed at which they received the news was not slow either, and they basically met each other on the way.

No one was in the mood to exchange pleasantries and simply nodded their heads.

When they reached the mountain Gate, they saw a middle-aged man and woman walking into the sect, accompanied by bu Zuowei and Feng Zhipeng.

Feng Zhipeng's face was full of smiles as he kept talking to the couple.

On the other hand, the sect master, bu Zuowei, seemed to be unable to interject.

When Wu yucao saw the beautiful middle-aged woman among the two, she was slightly stunned.

She felt that he looked extremely familiar and turned around to look at su Yumo.

No wonder he looked so familiar!

The middle-aged lady's appearance and aura were 80% similar to su Yumo 's!

She was just more mature and graceful than su Yumo, but less youthful and cold.

She looked exactly like su Yumo ten to twenty years later!

Chapter 7763 Not Quite Right

If someone were to say that this beautiful middle-aged woman was su Yumo's mother or elder sister, Wu yucao would definitely believe it!

"Little aunt!"

A rare smile appeared on su Yumo's cold face as she quickly walked up to him.

She never thought that the person from the Sima clan would be her aunt, su lingyue!

Although they had not seen each other for many years, their looks and natural kinship allowed su Yumo to confirm the identity of the person at a glance.

Su lingyue's expression was a little unhappy at first, but when she saw su Yumo, she immediately revealed a warm smile.

"Yu mo! I haven't seen you for so many years, and you've already grown up!"

Su lingyue also took two steps forward and pulled su Yumo into her arms. ""When I left home, you were still a little girl, asking me to hug you all day. Now, you've grown into a beautiful girl!"

"Auntie, Yumo misses you so much! But ..."

Su Yumo wanted to put in a few good words for the old master, but she did not know how to start.

Su lingyue also understood and immediately interrupted her with a smile, ""Let's not talk about anything else. Yu mo, come over and meet your uncle, si MA Jack!"

Sima Yun was the middle-aged man who had come with su lingyue, and he was the second son of the current Sima clan leader.

"Yumo greets uncle!"

The smile on su Yumo's face immediately disappeared and she returned to her previous calm and collected self.

She also saluted Sima Yun Qi properly and there was nothing special about it.

Su Yumo didn't have a good impression of the man who had kidnapped her aunt.

For su lingyue's sake, it was good enough to call him uncle!

Of course, Lin Yi's matter still needed her uncle's help, and su Yumo couldn't not give Sima Yun face.

"Good child, no need to be so polite!"

Sima Yunqi was quite enthusiastic. He smiled and stretched out his hand, ""Your aunt often told me about your childhood. She really loved you, but it's a pity that she couldn't see you for so many years!"

Su Yumo snorted to herself. It's all your fault!

Su lingyue reached out and shook her husband's hand.

This matter was a scar in her heart, so Sima Yunqi did not continue after saying it.

However, su lingyue did not regret her decision.

If she could do it all over again, she would still insist on her choice.

She would also bear the pain without hesitation.

"Second uncle and second aunt, there's no rush to catch up with Yu mo. Let's go and deal with that brat who's pretending to be a Sima Clansman first!"

Feng Zhipeng seemed to have known about su Yumo's relationship with the Sima family, so he was not surprised at all.

Come to think of it, this matter had caused a huge ruckus back then!

Although the SU clan and the Sima clan had sealed off the news and did not spread it, that was only targeted at the small powers and the general public.

A force of similar level like the Feng family could not be concealed at all!

"I'm reuniting with Yu mo after a long time. Why are you Feng family people interrupting?"

Su lingyue's face darkened and she didn't give Feng Zhipeng any face. ""You're just a junior, yet you're interrupting the elders 'conversation. Is this how the Feng family taught you?"

Feng Zhipeng immediately backed away in embarrassment and did not dare to refute.

Sima Yunqi's status in the Sima clan was many times more important than Feng Zhi Peng's in the Feng clan!

The two of them were not on the same level, so he could only accept su lingyue's lesson.

"Lord Sima, I've learned that you and your wife are here, so I've already prepared some wine and dishes. Although they're simple, it's a token of our sword spring sect's sincerity. Why don't you two go and have some first? it'll be good to have a good chat with Yu mo."

As the sect leader, bu Zuowei naturally had to treat Sima Yunqi and his wife well.

The sword spring sect could not afford to offend such an important figure.

Bu Zuowei, who didn't want to get involved in anything, had no choice. If he didn't serve her well, there would be more trouble!

Just thinking about it made his heart feel stifled!

"Thank you for your kind intentions, sect leader bu. However, we are in a rush, so we can only appreciate your kind intentions. In the future, if sect leader bu has time, please come to our Sima clan and treat sect leader bu well."

Sima Yunqi was extremely polite.

However, his expression was still somewhat anxious, as if he was really in a hurry. "May I know where the person you mentioned is? Madam and I want to see him immediately!"

Feng Zhi Peng was overjoyed. He was going to deal with that imposter, Sima Yi, swiftly and decisively!

"Second uncle Sima, he's on the cultivation peak. Sect master bu couldn't reject elder Qin's request, so he locked him up in the cultivation room. This matter is really inappropriate!"

Feng Zhipeng couldn't wait to show Sima Yunqi the way, and he also sneered at bu Zuowei, ""This isn't a punishment for that imposter, it's a reward!"

Bu Zuowei's face instantly darkened. Why did he have to push all the bad things onto his head?

Do I look like I'm easy to bully?

If it wasn't for the Feng family's sake, I would definitely teach you a lesson!

Sigh, so annoying!

"Lord Sima, elder Qin is an Alchemist elder of our sword spring sect. He is one of the few alchemy grandmasters in our Hongshang Commandery. In the entire sub-Island, he is one of the top few."

Although bu Zuowei found it troublesome, he still had to explain this matter. Otherwise, it would be even more troublesome. "Elder Qin's attitude was firm in protecting Sima Yi. I had no choice. I had to give him face."

"If I didn't insist, elder Qin would have let them go. There wouldn't be any imprisonment! Of course, elder Qin loves talent. That Sima Yi is really talented and is definitely an outstanding young man. "

"What a pity ... Why did I suddenly think of pretending to be a member of the Sima clan? This one wrong step will have a huge impact on his future!"

Bu Zuowei easily pushed the blame to elder Qin and helped to defend him with a few words, which could be considered as making up for the blame-shifting behavior.

"Sect master bu, you've worked hard! Let's not talk about anything else. Let's hurry to the cultivation peak!"

Su lingyue seemed to be more anxious than Sima Yunqi.

Feng Zhi Peng found it strange. Was there a need to be so anxious to deal with a fake disciple of the Sima clan?

Moreover, su lingyue was only the daughter-in-law of the Sima family. With Sima Yunki around, she did not seem to have to rush to show off, right?

"Little aunt, about Sima Yi ..."

Su Yumo tugged at su Lingxi's sleeve and asked softly, ""What does uncle think? Did he really have to deal with him seriously? Or will he be lenient?"

When su Yumo saw his aunt and her husband coming together, he thought that his letter would be of some use!

However, Sima Yunki and su lingyue's attitude made her a little uneasy.

He felt that something was wrong!

If they really didn't pursue Sima Yi, the aunt and her husband would have spoken and made their stand clear. There was no need to rush to find Sima Yi!

Perhaps he could drag it out until it was truly determined, let Sima Yi out, and give him a few words of punishment. Then, this matter would be considered over!

Chapter 7764 Long-Lost Son?

Rushing to look for Sima Yi ... Why?

"Yu mo, don't worry. We'll talk about it when we see him!"

Su lingyue didn't explain further. She turned around and urged bu Zuo to lead them to the cultivation peak.

Feng Zhipeng was very friendly as if su lingyue's scolding did not affect him at all. He continued to run in front with a smile on his face.

If he could see Sima Yi being killed by Sima Yunqi with his own eyes, what was the big deal about being lectured by su lingyue?

It didn't matter even if he was scolded for the whole day!

The group of them moved quickly and arrived at the cultivation peak. Elder Qin was already waiting there.

"Grandmaster Qin!"

Sima Yunqi should have known elder Qin. When he saw him from afar, he had already greeted him.

Feng Zhipeng's heart skipped a beat. This was not a good sign!

When the Sima clansmen saw old man Qin, shouldn't they be cold and indifferent, or even directly question him?

"Second young master Sima, long time no see!"

"I didn't expect the second young master to come personally." Elder Qin smiled and cupped his hands in return.

Bu Zuowei muttered in his heart. Did these two know each other before?

However, it didn't seem like they were that close. Otherwise, they wouldn't have addressed each other in such a distant manner.

"Grandmaster Qin, where is Zhong da? Please take me to see him!"

While the two of them were still being polite, su lingyue rushed over. She could no longer hide the anxiety on her face.

Elder Qin was stunned. What was going on?

It seemed to be different from what he had imagined!

"Madam Sima, Zhong da is still in the cultivation room. I've already sent someone to call him out!"

Imprisoning and whatnot was just an excuse.

Who dared to restrict Lin Yi's freedom in elder Qin's territory?

Therefore, when the Sima clansmen came, they just had to call someone over to greet them.

The reason why Lin Yi stayed in there quietly wasn't because he was training.

Instead, he let Fernandes out of the Jade space and let him practice in the training room for a few days.

Fernandes was a little surprised when he first came out.

He was shocked that he couldn't use his true Qi.

However, he got used to it very quickly. After all, he mainly relied on his divine sense to increase his level, and he didn't use much true Qi.

These past few days, Lin Yi had been trying his best to teach Fernandes the arts of body refinement, helping him to make up for his shortcomings.

Those who came out of the nine-story glazed Pagoda had the strongest spiritual sense, and their true Qi was more superficial.

Although its level was close to divine sense, the power it could display was far inferior.

As for the physical body, Fernandes and the other Sea Dragon King's favored had a simplified version of the sea Dragon golden body technique, but they did not make fast progress.

Lin Yi told him to train his body on the sub Island and then go back to the Jade space to train the sea Dragon golden body technique-the effect would be many times better.

Today, Fernandes had just finished a section of body training when he heard elder Qin's in-name disciple knocking on the door outside the training room. "Senior brother Sima, the people from the Sima clan have come to the sect. Elder Qin has invited senior brother Sima out to meet them."

"Alright, I got it. I'll head over now. You can go first!"

Lin Yi replied and was about to put Fernandes into the Jade space when he raised his hand to stop him.

"Captain, is there any trouble? If there's any trouble, let me go! It's just a small matter, how can we let the captain worry about it?"

Fernandes took out his big podao.

He had been holding it in for several days, and now he finally had the chance to loosen up his muscles and bones, so how could he miss it?

"Alright, let's go back. The people here don't know that I can bring people with me. It's hard for me to explain why you appeared out of nowhere!"

Lin Yi didn't plan on letting Fernandes appear in front of everyone yet.

Even if he had to come out, it wouldn't be in this situation.

"What's there to explain? I, Fernandes, will cut down anyone who dares to say anything!"

Fernandes waved his big podao a few times, and his momentum was extraordinary.

But after seeing Lin Yi's glare, she immediately gave in, "Forget it, these small fries aren't worth my time. I'm the captain's hidden trump card, to be used as a secret weapon, right? How can we be exposed so easily?"

"Captain, quickly take me in. I'll definitely hide myself well and not let them discover my ..."

Lin Yi couldn't help but smile-he didn't want to waste any more time on this guy, so he put it away in the Jade space.

Lin Yi tidied his clothes and walked out of the room.

Since the Sima clansmen had come, then he would meet them!

As long as he could make things clear, everything would be fine. If there were any problems, he would just use his hands and not his mouth!

Hmm ... He would most likely make a move, right?

Then, to what extent would it be good to fight?

Let's see their attitude first. If it's not too bad, then show some mercy. Just don't kill them!

With that in mind, Lin Yi walked out of the path to the training room and saw a bunch of people.

Most of them were from the sword spring sect, and only the middle-aged man and woman were unfamiliar. They were most likely from the Sima clan.

Just as she thought that the beautiful middle-aged woman beside su Yumo looked very similar to her, the woman who looked like su Yumo rushed over.

That speed was also quite fast!

If it wasn't for the fact that she didn't have any killing intent, Lin Yi would've kicked her out already ...

"Zhong da! You're Zhong da! My poor child!"

Su lingyue rushed to Lin Yi's side, hugged him, and started crying. "Mother finally found you, mother knew you didn't die! My good child! It's mother's fault for taking so long to find you!"

Lin Yi didn't know what was going on-what was this?

If it wasn't for the fact that the woman was crying so miserably, Lin Yi would've sent her flying with a slap!

Of course, Lin Yi wouldn't be able to take it if si Ma Yun was the one crying and hugging him!

He was either sent flying with a slap or a kick!

After all, beautiful women had their advantages, especially when they looked so similar to su Yumo. Lin Yi didn't want to be rash.

Lin Yi was completely dumbfounded, and so were the others!

Especially Feng Zhipeng, the scene where he wanted to kill Sima Yi didn't happen. Why was su lingyue crying while hugging Sima Yi?

This guy looked at Sima Yunqi in a daze and wanted to say, second uncle Sima, you should control your wife!

In broad daylight, in front of everyone's eyes, she was hugging a strange young man and crying. If word got out, it wouldn't be nice!

Unexpectedly, si MA didn't have any intention of disciplining his wife. Instead, his expression was a mixture of surprise, shock, disbelief, suspicion ... And many other complicated emotions.

Feng Zhipeng had never known that a person's expression could be so rich to this extent. It was simply unbelievable!

To be honest, Sima Yunqi didn't even know what he was feeling at this moment.

Looking at Lin Yi's dumbfounded face, Sima Yunqi had a feeling that he had seen him before!

Could it be ... That this Sima Zhongda was really his long-lost son?

Chapter 7765 Acknowledging Family

"Aunty, what's wrong? Why did you say that Sima Yi is your son?"

Su Yumo was dumbfounded as well.

She had asked little aunt to come and save Sima Yi, not to acknowledge him as her son!

Even if he wanted to save her, he didn't have to be so unreliable, right?

"Yu mo, you don't know this, but he's your cousin, Sima Zhongda! He's aunty's biological son!"

Su lingyue's beautiful face was covered in tears.

She couldn't be bothered to wipe it off-she just wiped it off and started rubbing Lin Yi's face, laughing and crying at the same time.

Lin Yi didn't know what to say-was he a toy? Was it fun to rub it?

What happened to su Yumo's aunt? Was su Yumo's aunt allowed to torment people like this?

"Well, Auntie, you must have mistaken me for someone else. I'm definitely not your son! This is a serious matter, don't get it wrong!"

Lin Yi told su lingyue the truth, hoping that she would understand.

You guys want to pick up a son for free, but I don't want to pick up two parents for free!

Lin Yi had been an orphan since he was young, but he had a rough idea of his parents "identities.

It could be said that it was definitely not Sima Yunqi or su lingyue.

"I can't be wrong! Zhong da! You're mother's son, how could mother mistake you?"

Su lingyue wiped her tears, but more tears came out of her eyes.

Lin Yi felt troubled.

"Zhong da, mother has let you down. You were still too young when you left mother, so it's normal that you can't remember! However, mother can prove your identity. Open your lapels and see a cloud-shaped birthmark on your chest. It's very special, and I can tell with a single look!"

Su lingyue was about to hit Lin Yi as she spoke, and Lin Yi was speechless. Aunty, you're a hooligan!

But then again, Lin Yi was still a little shocked!

This was because there was indeed a cloud pattern mark on his chest. It was not a birthmark, but a mark left behind after the Jade space and his body had fused.

Even after he'd reconstructed his body, the mark didn't disappear-it was still on Lin Yi's chest.

The only hope Lin Yi had now was that the shape and color of the mark might be different from a birthmark.

Su lingyue didn't care what Lin Yi was thinking. She couldn't give up halfway since she was already pulling the clothes.

Lin Yi was helpless-he wanted to ask her how she'd feel if they were in different places.

"Si MA, rise! Take a look! Come and take a look!"

Su lingyue shouted as tears streamed down her face. She pulled Lin Yi's shirt open.

Because she had used too much force, her knuckles had already turned white and were constantly trembling, but she seemed to feel nothing!

"It's Zhong da! It really was Zhong da! It's our son, Zhong da!"

Su Yumo peeked at Lin Yi's chest and blushed.

Looking at the young man's chest, she was more or less a little shy.

Was that cloud pattern mark the birthmark that little aunt was talking about?

It's pretty good-looking ... Well, it's the birthmark that's nice, not something strange ...

Sima's eyes reddened as he dashed over and saw the cloud mark on Lin Yi's chest.

His body trembled slightly, clearly extremely excited!

"Zhong da! His son! I've finally found you!"

Sima Yunqi could no longer maintain his composure. He opened his arms and hugged both Su Lingyue and Lin Yi in his arms, "It's been twenty years! We're finally reunited! I, Si Ma Yun, swear that I'll never let you wander outside again!"

Lin Yi felt like ten thousand mud crabs were running through his heart-what the hell was this?!

For no reason, he was forced to acknowledge his son. Have you ever considered my feelings?

Actually, I prefer to be called daddy, okay?

Feng Zhipeng, on the other hand, was even more depressed than Lin Yi!

Lin Yi's heart was racing-he was at least ten times faster than Lin Yi!

After working so hard for so long, not only did it go to waste, it even helped Sima Yi in return, allowing him to find a true backer?

Feng Zhipeng wanted to vomit blood. The frustration in his heart was indescribable!

It was as if he was about to enjoy a delicious meal, but was forced to eat a mouthful of sh * t ...

He wanted to kill someone!

But if I can't ...

Such a dramatic turn of events, the onlookers were unable to react in time.

Wu yucao and the others had made up their minds before they came. If the Sima family made things difficult for Lin Yi, they would risk their lives to save him. At most, they would die together!

Now ... Not only did he not have to die, shouldn't he go and prepare some food for a family recognition Banquet?

The contrast was too great. It was better to calm down and sort it out first!

Su lingyue was very happy, excited, and emotional. However, she calmed down quickly and did not forget about her niece, su Yumo, the benefactor who helped her find her son.

"Yu mo, come here quickly. You know each other, but you still need to get to know each other again! This is your cousin, Sima Zhongda!"

Su lingyue pushed her old company's MA Yunqi away like an old hen protecting her food. She half-hugged and half-pulled Lin Yi to su Yumo, ""Zhongda, this is your cousin, su Yumo. You're all family, so you have to take care of each other! In the future ... Mother will bring you back to see your grandfather!"

After being expelled from the SU family for more than 20 years, su lingyue had never thought of returning to the SU family. She also did not regret choosing Sima Yunqi.

However, after she found her son again, she had the thought of returning to the SU family.

After all, the stage in Hongshang Commandery was too small. For his son's future, he could only return to the SU family to provide a bigger stage for his son!

When parents love their children, they plan far and wide!

Although su lingyue had just found her son, she was already planning for his future!

"Cousin Zhong da!"

The expression on su Yumo's face was a little strange. It was as if she wanted to maintain her usual coldness, but she could not help but feel like laughing.

Lin Yi was helpless-not only did he force himself to have a father and a mother, he even had a cheap sister ... What was wrong with this?

"Silly child, why aren't you reacting? Call her cousin! It's all thanks to your cousin, Yu mo, that I know you're here!"

Su lingyue patted Lin Yi's head and pulled su Yumo over,""That's why you have to thank your cousin, Yu mo. Do you understand?"

"No... Aunty, I think there must be a mistake somewhere ..."

Lin Yi felt that it was best to clarify things.

If they had really set their eyes on him, then wouldn't the real Sima Zhong da lose the chance to acknowledge his ancestors and clan?

In other words, if Lin Yi didn't appear, Sima Yunqi and Su Lingyue would continue to look for Sima Zhongda, and they might even find him soon!

But now that Lin Yi had become Sima Zhongda, of course they wouldn't continue looking for him!

Even if someone said that it was Sima Zhongda, they might be mistaken for a liar and be chopped up!

That was a story that was even sadder than sadness!

Chapter 7766 We'll Take It As Godblood

"Child, are you not willing to forgive mother? Mother really didn't abandon you on purpose! You've suffered all these years, we'll definitely make it up to you in the future. I just hope you won't be angry at us anymore, okay?"

Su Lingyue didn't understand what Lin Yi was thinking. She thought that Lin Yi was angry and refused to acknowledge her.

The tears that had not dried up gushed out again.

Lin Yi was speechless-he was telling the truth, why didn't anyone believe him?

Bu Zuowei had already recovered from his shock and felt that it was not appropriate for people to watch the Sima family recognize their relatives here. He immediately turned around and shouted,""Everyone, go back and cultivate. Don't stay here!"

Wu yucao and the others wanted to talk to Lin Yi, but they didn't get the chance.

Sima Yunqi and his wife surrounded Lin Yi. Other than su Yumo, no one else could get close.

"Senior Sister Wu, let's go back first. Senior brother Sima should be fine. With those two around, no matter what situation senior brother Sima encounters, victory is within his grasp. We don't have to worry about him!"

Jin Yuanbao mumbled softly beside Wu yucao, truly happy for Lin Yi.

Of course, he was also proud of his own judgment.

At first, in Luling city, Jin Yuan Bao was only interested in befriending Lin Yi because of his status as a Sima descendant, but it slowly turned into worship towards Lin Yi.

At that time, Jin Yuan Bao thought that any random disciple of the Sima family was amazing. He never thought that Lin Yi would be Sima Yunqi's son!

This second master of the Sima clan was considered to be an influential and important figure in the Sima clan!

Compared to ordinary direct descendants, their status was much higher.

As his son, Lin Yi would naturally have an important position in the Sima family.

Wu yucao didn't say anything and just looked at Lin Yi. Lin Yi turned to look at her as well and nodded at her, signaling for them to go back first.

"Alright, we'll go back and wait!"

With Lin Yi's hint, Wu yucao didn't delay any longer and left the peak with her men.

The others naturally did not dare to stay, and very soon, there were only a few people left on this side.

As the owner of the cultivation peak, elder Qin stayed where he was. Bu Zuowei wanted to leave, but Sima Yun didn't say anything. As the sect leader, he had to accompany him.

"Aunty, what happened in the past? Why did Zhong da get separated from you? I've never heard of this before. Grandpa and the others probably don't know either, right?"

Su Yumo saw that Lin Yi was unwilling to acknowledge her, so she changed the topic and tried to untie the knot in Lin Yi's heart.

"Sigh ... This all started 20 years ago!"

Sima sighed and took the initiative to continue the conversation, ""Not long after Zhong da was born, he was attacked!"

"The attackers didn't actually come for our Sima clan. According to our investigation, they were enemies of the SU clan. Because they were afraid of the SU clan's strength, they didn't dare to attack the SU clan and turned their target to Ling Jing."

"It's also my own fault. I was not strong enough and was unable to protect my wife and children. If it wasn't for the help of our Sima clan's experts, that night, my wife and you, Zhong da, might have lost our lives!"

"Although Ling Jing and I managed to keep our lives in the end, we were only severely injured. However, Zhong da was taken away and there was no news of him ever since! After we recovered, we searched for you everywhere, but unfortunately ..."

Sima Yunqi sighed again and patted Lin Yi's shoulder, ""We always believed that you were still alive. After all, you were still young at that time. If they wanted to kill you, they could have done so easily. They didn't have to take you away."

"In the beginning, we were hoping that they would state their conditions. You know, no matter what price we have to pay, we are willing to exchange you for it! It's a pity that after they kidnapped you, there was no more news of them. "

Lin Yi didn't say anything-he really wanted to say that wasn't him, and that he wasn't used to the way she was talking to him ...

"Aunty, you said that the people who attacked you were actually enemies of the SU family?"

Su Yumo waited for Sima Yunqi to finish before she could not help but ask,""Why didn't you tell Grandpa about this? You've blocked the knife for the SU family! No matter what, cousin Zhongda is grandfather's biological grandson. If he knew, he definitely wouldn't stand by and do nothing!"

Su lingyue and Sima Yunqi looked at each other and smiled bitterly. They shook their heads and said,""Yumo, you don't understand. At that time, your aunt had just been kicked out of the family, and your grandfather was still in a fit of anger. Even if I told him about this, I'm afraid he wouldn't help."

"And ... I really didn't have the face to see your Grandpa back then. The SU family was under a lot of pressure because of me, and I know that ..."

"Aunty, you're wrong! Although Grandpa didn't say it, I know that he has always missed you. After you left the family, Grandpa would occasionally pass by little aunt's original courtyard every month and loiter there for a while. "

"As for that courtyard, it still retains its original appearance. There are people cleaning it every day, but no one else is arranged to live in it!"

Su Yumo did not care about this in the past, but now that she saw su lingyue, she realized that her grandfather was never really angry with her aunt!

As expected, there were only children who were angry with their parents, but no parents who hated them!

When su lingyue heard this, she covered her mouth and burst into tears again. When she heard that her father still kept the small courtyard she lived in, her heart felt like it was being cut by a knife and she couldn't stop crying!

He was young and willful and had hurt his father's heart. He was really unfilial!

However, when she saw her loving husband and the Son she had finally found, su lingyue knew that she would not regret her choice!

After that, she felt even more guilty towards her father!

Si MA got up and gently hugged su lingyue. He didn't say anything, but he gave her great comfort.

Lin Yi blinked. He was an outsider, so why did he have to comfort her?

It's over. Did he really think of himself as their son?

House su seemed to have a lot of power, and that should be helpful in finding Xinyan, right?

Not counting the SU clan, the Sima clan was actually not bad. They were the clan in charge of Hongshang Commandery and were much stronger than the sword spring sect.

Lin Yi was trying to find a reason for himself to accept them, even if it meant using them.

Lin Yi couldn't deny that he wasn't Sima Zhongda after seeing how much su lingyue was crying. It would hurt her too much.

Let it be a misunderstanding!

There was nothing bad about acknowledging a Godfather and godmother!

He'd never had the love of parents since he was young, and he felt that this feeling of kinship wasn't bad.

"Zhongda, your mother has had a hard time these past few years. You have to feel more for her in the future."

Sima Yunqi consoled su lingyue for a while before turning to Lin Yi, "Your mother's relationship with your maternal grandfather's family has been cut off for more than twenty years, and you've been missing for another twenty years. She's really been carrying a lot of pain! You might not be able to accept it in a short time, but it's okay. We can take it slowly and get to know each other. "

Chapter 7767 Preparing To "Go Home"

"However, don't hurt your mother's heart anymore! Otherwise, I won't forgive you even if you're my son! Because she's the most important person to me!"

Lin Yi's mouth twitched-what was the point of that?

However, things weren't over yet. As soon as Sima Yunqi finished speaking, su lingyue, who was still sobbing in his arms, suddenly pushed him away. She wiped the tears off her face and pointed at Sima Yunqi angrily.

"Sima Yunqi, what did you say? Don't you dare lay a finger on my son! Do you think I won't fall out with you?"

Everyone was holding back their laughter! Who told you to spread dog food!

Sima Yun was a little embarrassed. He laughed out loud. "No, I'm not making an analogy. I'm saying that I love you!"

[I love you, but you only care about your son ... What's the use of having a son?]

Su lingyue's heart was filled with sweetness, but she still snorted and pushed Sima Yunqi's hand away. She turned around and hugged Lin Yi, "Zhong da, ignore your father. With mother here, no one can bully me!"

As she spoke, she wiped her face on Lin Yi's clothes, wiping away all her tears and snot!

Lin Yi didn't know whether to laugh or cry.

"Father, mother ..." He said.

Lin Yi blurted out awkwardly, continuing before the two could say anything, "Maybe I'm really your son, or maybe this is just a misunderstanding. So, I hope you can continue to find clues to prove the truth of this matter!"

This way, he wouldn't be letting down the real Sima Zhongda, right?

"Good! Of course, no problem! I definitely can't let this matter rest. I must find the people who took you away back then!"

Siji said, his voice full of promise. What wouldn't Lin Yi be satisfied with this "father and mother"?

"That's right, Zhong da, how have you been living these years? Where do they live?"

Lin Yi didn't know what to say. Say that I'm actually from Sky Class Island? Did he live in the secular world when he was young?

The number of lies needed to cover up a lie was far more than a lie itself!

Of course, Lin Yi wasn't lying-he just had to accommodate their subjective judgment!

"I wasn't on the sub-Island before, but I followed a senior to a secret realm to cultivate!"

Lin Yi thought about it and decided to describe the Jade space as the secret realm he was in before he came to the sub Island. It wasn't nonsense,"His name is Jiao yazi. He didn't take me as his disciple, but he taught me everything he knew ..."

Elder Qin was the only one who knew Lin Yi's background. He knew that Lin Yi wasn't Sima Zhongda, but he wasn't sure if Lin Yi was telling the truth.

Perhaps Lin Yi really did live like this on Sky Class Island?

Lin Yi didn't mention anything about the ghost-it wasn't that he didn't want it, but he just thought that calling him a senior ghost would make people misunderstand. Elder Jiao sounded more righteous.

If that thing knew what Lin Yi was thinking, it'd be at his beck and call for a couple of days ...

"I see. Elder Jiao yazi's kindness to my son is as heavy as a mountain. If I can see him, I'll definitely thank him properly!"

Sima Yunqi heard Lin Yi's half-true half-false story and was very emotional, ""Zhong da, you're really lucky. You probably ran into elder Jiao yazi when you were taken away, and he saved you and raised you in the secret realm!"

"No wonder we couldn't find a trace of you after so many years! The secret realm is isolated from the rest of the world. If you don't come out, it'll really be difficult for us to meet you again!"

Lin Yi felt that his story was full of mistakes, but in the eyes of Sima Yunqi and the others, it was the most reasonable explanation!

With this, many things could be explained. For example, they couldn't find any news about Sima Zhong da, and there were no traces of the attackers from back then.

Lin Yi's lips twitched a little-as long as you guys are happy, I'll do whatever you want!

"Congratulations to Lord Sima, lady Sima, and young master Sima for your family reunion! To be able to witness this scene with our own eyes is truly the honor of our sword spring sect!"

Bu Zuo stepped forward, cupped his fists, and bowed. His face was filled with joy. "Here, I would like to sincerely apologize to the three of you. The matter of imprisoning young master Sima was really out of our control. After all, it involved impersonating the Sima clan, and we had no choice ..."

"Sect master bu, you don't have to say anything. I can't blame you for this. Not only can I not blame you, but I also have to thank you properly! Thank you, sword spring sect, for our family reunion. Your contributions can not be denied!"

Sima Yun waved his hand and interrupted bu Zuowei. He laughed heartily. "We're friends from now on! If there's anything I can help you with, don't hesitate to ask!"

This was a favor. He would find Sima Zhongda and count it as Sima Yunki owing the sword spring sect a favor. As long as it was something he could do, he would help.

Bu Zuo was overjoyed. This was equivalent to getting a promise from Sima Yunki. It was definitely a great thing for the sword spring sect!

Although Sima Yunki owed a favor in his own name and did not represent the Sima family, there was no difference between Sima Yunki and the Sima family for ordinary matters.

While bu Zuowei and Sima Yunqi were chatting happily, Lin Yi was being pulled by Su Ling.

They had been separated for twenty years, and su lingyue wanted to tell Lin Yi all the things she had been suppressing for twenty years.

Lin Yi was just an audience-he didn't even have a chance to interrupt!

"Zhong da, you really look like your father. That's why I could recognize you at a glance. I didn't even need to check your birthmark. If you don't believe me, take a look for yourself. Don't you look like your father?"

Su lingyue rambled on for a long time before finally comparing Lin Yi's face to si Ma Yun 's.

The two of them were indeed somewhat similar, at least sixty percent. They might not feel it when they met separately, but when they stood together, they felt very similar.

Lin Yi was surprised-what a coincidence!

Was there really someone on the sub-Island who looked like him, with a cloud-shaped birthmark on his chest, and was also called Sima Zhongda?

Could it be that he really had a long-lost brother on the sub Island, just like the Wu Yuhua and Wu yucao sisters?

That would be a ghost!

"Zhong da, come back to the Sima clan with us! Mother will never leave you again! Good child, we must make it up to you for all the suffering you've suffered!"

Su lingyue caressed Lin Yi's face tenderly. "It's not that the sword spring sect is bad, but it's more suitable for us to go home. We will have more resources, cultivation techniques, and so on than we would in the sword spring sect."

As a direct descendant of the Sima clan, he would definitely be much stronger than the second senior brother who was in charge of the inner sect of the sword spring sect!

Lin Yi nodded with a smile after some thought. "Good! I'll listen to mother!"

In any case, they had to find out more about Wang Xinyan. The sword spring sect didn't have much potential, but the Sima family would be able to get more information.

Chapter 7768 Willing To Follow

"But mother, I have some life-and-death friends in the sword spring sect. When I go home this time, can I bring a few people with me to act as guards?"

"Of course you can. You can make your own arrangements!"

Su lingyue didn't even need to think about it and immediately made the decision.

As long as Lin Yi was willing to go home with them, no matter what conditions they had, even if it was the moon from the sky, she would agree to it!

"Thank you, mother!"

Lin Yi thanked him and started thinking about who to bring.

"Yumo," su lingyue turned to ask su Yumo, "would you like to visit the Sima family with aunty?"

Su lingyue really did not care about the sword spring sect.

Even if they wanted to join a sect, there were many more sects in Hongshang Commandery that were more powerful than jianchun sect.

"It's fine, aunty. I'm fine here and I don't want to leave for the time being!"

Su Yumo rejected su lingyue's invitation without hesitation and held her hand with a smile. "However, I'll visit you and uncle when I'm free. I hope you won't find Yumo troublesome."

"How could that be? aunty wants you to be by aunty's side every day! By the way, are you only going to visit your aunt and uncle? Is there anyone else?"

Su Lingjing looked at Lin Yi with a smile.

Lin Yi didn't know what to do. Could it be that su Yumo specially came to visit me?

"Of course, Yumo is going to visit Auntie and uncle!"

Su Yumo's cold face blushed slightly as she added, ""Who else is worthy of my visit other than you guys?"

Su Ling dragged out her "Oh" and did not continue to tease her.

As for why Su Yumo wanted to stay in the sword spring sect, he did not probe further.

With the SU family's influence, it was not a problem to get su Yumo to join a better sect. Any one of them was stronger than the sect in Hongshang Commandery.

However, su Yumo still came to this obscure sword spring sect. There must be a reason!

Since su Yumo did not say anything, su lingyue naturally would not say anything. After all, it was not a bad thing!

"Father, mother, I'm going to find my companions first and discuss the matter of leaving with me. You guys can continue chatting!"

Lin Yi decided to look for Wu yucao and the others since he didn't have anything else to do.

After greeting them one by one, Lin Yi quickly left the cultivation peak and returned to his own residence on the long whisker peak. Wu yucao and the others were all there, including black wildflower who didn't usually go out with them.

"Senior brother Sima!"

"Young master Sima!"

"Little brother Zhong da!"

The few of them stood up and saluted Lin Yi when they saw him. They did say that Lin Yi was a member of the Sima family, but they never said what his identity was.

Now that it was confirmed that he was Sima Yunqi's son, no one dared to act rashly in front of Lin Yi, and their manners were very standard.

Lin Yi laughed and waved his hand, "what's the point?" We are all brothers and sisters here, so don't try to show me such courtesy. Sit down and talk!"

"I told you senior brother Sima wouldn't put on airs with us, but you didn't believe me!"

Jin Yuan Bao chuckled and pulled Zhang Yiming, who was beside him, ""Zhang xiaopang, hurry up and sit down. You're taking up a lot of space by standing beside me, okay?"

"Little fatty Jin! You're the one taking up space! And when did you say those words? Don't you need a draft to brag?"

Zhang Yiming was not to be outdone and immediately retorted, ""It's all thanks to senior brother Sima's magnanimity. Otherwise, he would definitely take care of you, a guy who's spouting nonsense!"

The two chubby boys bickered every day, and everyone smiled. The atmosphere returned to its previous state.

Lin Yi smiled as he sat down with everyone. He didn't beat around the bush. "I'm preparing to return to the Sima clan. I don't think the sword spring sect will ever come back again!"

Wu yucao and Ling Hanxue were slightly taken aback. Although this result was within their expectations, it was still a little hard to accept!

Would they never see each other again after they met again?

A faint sadness rose in their hearts as the two looked at each other, both wanting to ask if they could go with Lin Yi.

However, they thought about how this was the Sima clan. Grassroots martial artists like them might not even be qualified to be guards at the door!

They didn't want to leave Lin Yi, but their inferiority made them silent.

Then, Lin Yi's next words made their eyes light up!

"I told them that I wanted to bring a few companions back with me to act as my personal guards. They all agreed, so I came over to ask you guys, who is willing to go to the Sima clan with me?"

Lin Yi paused, his questioning eyes scanning the crowd. "Although it's not fair for you to be guards, in terms of resources and cultivation techniques, the Sima clan should be better than the sword spring sect. Everyone's development will not be limited."

"It's just that it wasn't easy for everyone to gain a firm foothold in the sword spring sect. It's a pity to give up just like that, so I won't force you. You can think about it first. "

They wouldn't be at a disadvantage if they followed Lin Yi, but Lin Yi didn't want to force them. After all, everyone had their own aspirations, and he didn't have the habit of forcefully arranging other people's lives.

"I'm willing to follow young master Sima!"

Wu yucao expressed her attitude without hesitation.

She was just feeling sad that she couldn't be with Lin Yi anymore-why wouldn't she grab this opportunity?

She was afraid that she would lose this opportunity if she said it too late!

"I'm also willing!"

Ling Hanxue followed closely behind and added,""We're a team, and we'll go through life and death together. I'll go wherever you two go. Don't think of leaving me behind!"

As for the manager Senior Sister of the sword spring sect, who cared?

"There's still me, there's still me!"

Zhang Yiming raised his right hand and waved it a few times. "Without senior brother Sima, I would be nothing in the sword spring sect. As long as senior brother Sima doesn't despise me, I will definitely follow you to the end!"

So what if his family had a mine? He was an ATM in the sword spring sect!

Zhang Yiming knew very well who he was relying on to be able to survive.

Now that her backer was leaving, she didn't want to be an ATM again-she could only continue clinging onto Lin Yi.

"If someone like Zhang Xiaopang can follow senior brother Sima, I'll have no problem! I'm in!"

Jin Yuan Bao didn't think much about it either. The Sima clan of Hongshang Commandery was the most respected. If he followed the Sima clan's direct descendants, he wouldn't be bad!

Plus, he already had Sima Yi's tag on him. The moment he stayed in the sword spring sect, without Lin Yi's core members, he would not be far from death!

"I'm willing to follow senior brother Sima and go through fire and water without hesitation!" Li Yingjian bowed respectfully.

Everyone expressed their willingness to go to the Sima family with Lin Yi, leaving only Black Wildflower.

Black Wildflower wanted to follow Lin Yi as well-this was someone who was willing to stand up for her and take on all the trouble for her. How many people could be this responsible in life?

But she couldn't!

She was Black Wildflower, the Black Wildflower of the Heiye clan!

Chapter 7769 Gathering And Parting

Although it had declined, the Heiye clan was once one of the four big clans in Hongshang Commandery. How could she go to the Sima clan and be a guard?

If she really did that, not to mention whether the coffins of the ancestors of the Kurobuchi clan could still be pressed down, at least those who were still alive would come and find trouble with her, and might even vent their anger on the Sima clan!

...The result of venting their anger would not be that the Sima clan would be in trouble, but that the remaining power of the Kurono clan would be finished!

Black wildflower couldn't just sit by and watch this happen.

"I ... I'm not going! I want to stay in the sword spring sect!"

Black wildflower lowered his head and said in a low voice, ""My strength is too weak. I won't be of any use even if I go with them. Moreover, I need the sword spring sect ... So I can't go!"

I can't go, not that I don't want to go!

Lin Yi nodded and didn't try to persuade black wildflower. She had her reasons for making this decision, and there was no need to force it.

"It's alright, it's good to stay in the sword spring sect! If he ran into any trouble, he could ask su Yumo for help. She would stay in the sword spring sect! If you really can't solve it, then send a message to the Sima clan!"

Black wildflower felt a surge of warmth in his heart, but he could only pretend to be indifferent and said, ""Alright, what big thing can it be! Little brother Zhong da, if you miss big sister, you can come back to see her occasionally!"

"If there's a chance, I'll definitely come to the sword spring sect to pay a visit!"

Lin Yi smiled-he didn't know if he'd ever have the chance to come back!

Someone knocked on the door. Lin Yi scanned with his divine sense and realized that su Yumo had come with su lingyue.

"Mother, why have you come alone?"

Lin Yi welcomed su lingyue and Sima Yunqi into their residence, but he didn't see Sima Yunqi. He felt a little strange,""Where did father go?"

"I missed Zhong da, so I came to find you. Your father was chatting with sect leader bu and elder Qin, so he couldn't leave!"

Su Ling held onto Lin Yi's hand and didn't let go. She missed him as soon as they separated because she had been waiting for him for twenty years. Once she found him, she couldn't leave him for even a second.

Helpless, Lin Yi let her pull him as she introduced everyone to her,"Mother, they are my brothers and sisters who have gone through life and death with me. This time, except for black wildflower, the others will come home with us."

"Yes, let's go home!"

Su lingyue nodded and looked at the black wildflower thoughtfully.

There were many people with the surname Sima in Hongshang Commandery, but not all of them were from the Sima clan.

However, there were very few people with the surname heiyue, so few that it was possible that they were only members of the heiyue clan, one of the four great clans!

However, it didn't matter. The Sima clan and the Kurono clan no longer had any interactions. No one knew if they had any grudges in the past. As one of the four great clans that had fallen, they were no threat to the Sima clan at all.

"Zhong da, do you have anything to pack? If not, then let's get ready to leave?"

Su lingyue couldn't wait to bring Lin Yi back to the Sima family. She didn't want to stay in the sword spring sect any longer.

"There's nothing to pack. Do you guys want to go back and pack? If there's nothing important, you don't have to take it!"

"Get ready when we get there," Lin Yi said, turning to Wu yucao and the others.

"Zhong da is right. If there aren't any important items, there's no need to pack up. Once we use them, our Sima clan will prepare everything for everyone!"

Su lingyue treated Lin Yi's people with respect and was very polite. She spoke with a smile and didn't have the sense of estrangement of a superior, "Please take care of my son Zhong da in the future. If you need anything, please let me know. As long as it's within my means, I won't refuse!"

If they were normal guards, su lingyue wouldn't have to try so hard to win them over, but they were Lin Yi's comrades who had gone through life and death with him. They couldn't be treated like normal guards.

"Many thanks, lady Sima!"

Everyone gave their thanks in unison and then said that they needed to pack up a little. They each took their leave and agreed to meet at the mountain Gate later.

"Zhong da, then let's go to the mountain Gate and wait for them. Your father should also be there waiting for us."

Su lingyue was right. When the three of them reached the mountain Gate, Sima Yunqi, bu Zuowei, and elder Qin were already waiting there.

"Zhong da, come here, I want to talk to you!"

Elder Qin saw Lin Yi and took a few steps away from the crowd, wanting to talk to Lin Yi alone.

Lin Yi said his goodbyes to Sima Yunqi and the others, and walked over to greet elder Qin with his fists cupped.

"Zhong da, this matter ... I can't say much. You have to be careful in the future!"

Elder Qin didn't let Lin Yi speak. He knew Lin Yi's background the best, and he was most likely not the real Sima Zhongda, so he couldn't help but be worried.

"When you receive the Sima clan's resources, you must also take on the responsibility of the Sima clan and not owe them anything! This ... Will be helpful to your martial Dao!"

Lin Yi nodded.

Elder Qin's words were vague, but the meaning was actually very clear. It was fine to impersonate Sima Zhongda, but if you accepted the benefits of others, you had to give them the same return.

Without any debt, even if something happened in the future, it wouldn't be a big deal!

Elder Qin didn't want to say too much since the others were all on the side. He only added a few simple words, telling Lin Yi to take care of himself and come back to visit when he was free.

"Zhong da, get ready to go!"

After talking for a while, Wu yucao and the rest gathered up. Sima Yunqi and Su Ling got on the Sima family's flying mount and called Lin Yi up.

As for Wu yucao and the others, they were sent to the Sima clan by the flying magical beasts of the sword spring sect. Sima Yunqi's ship could not fit so many people.

Everyone got on their flying beasts, and su Yumo waved at Lin Yi. "Sima Yi, I didn't expect you to be my cousin! Remember to cultivate properly when you get home! I'll find you to spar with, don't disappoint me!"

"Don't worry, cousin. You know my strength. You should work hard on your cultivation. Don't ask me to give you a one-hand handicap when we spar. It'll be embarrassing!"

Lin Yi waved back with a smile. Su Yumo might be talented, but it would be hard for him to catch up to him!

"Yumo, you're so close to my cousin. You can actually get closer!"

Su lingyue suddenly interjected, teasing su Yumo with a faint smile.

Su Yumo's face turned red instantly, no longer as cold as before.

Su Yumo was thin-skinned and could not take the teasing. Su lingyue did not say much and waved goodbye with a smile.

The two flying magical beasts flapped their wings and took off, bringing with them a strong gust of wind as they soared into the sky, instantly flying far away!

"It will take less than two days to fly back to the imperial capital of Hongshang County. Zhong da, if you feel tired, you can take a good rest."

Su lingyue looked at Lin Yi with concern. They'd just taken off and she was already worried that her son would be tired. What a spoiled child!

Chapter 7770 Ambushed On The Way

"I'm not tired. If mother is free, why don't you introduce me to the situation in the capital so that I can be prepared?"

Lin Yi could tell that su lingyue wanted to chat with him, so he gave her a topic to talk about.

Su lingyue was happy.

The one in control of the capital was the Sima clan.

Although she didn't usually pay much attention to government affairs, she knew quite a lot under the influence of her surroundings.

If Lin Yi was interested, she'd tell him everything.

Lin Yi was a good listener, giving a reply or a question from time to time, not forgetting to pull Sima Yunqi into the conversation.

For a moment, the three of them really looked like a happy family of three!

After flying for about half a day, three flying magic beasts came from the distance.

Both of them were moving very quickly, and in the blink of an eye, the black dot in the distance had turned into a black-robed man riding a flying magical beast.

"They're holding eagle-shooting crossbows!"

Sima Yun's expression changed and he immediately controlled the flying magical beast to dive down. At the same time, he shouted to Wu yucao and the others, ""There are enemies, fly down!"

In a battle in the air, one side held the Eagle-shooting crossbow, while the other side did not have any effective defensive means. They could only be beaten and not fight back.

If the flying magical beast was shot, it would be a disaster!

Without the protection of true Qi, even a body-tempering martial artist would find it difficult to withstand the destructive force formed by the acceleration of gravity if they fell from a high altitude!

At the same time, the black robed men on the three flying magical beasts raised their Eagle shooting crossbows and began to fire.

Dozens of arrows shot across the sky like lightning, forming a huge net that covered the two flying beasts on Lin Yi's side!

Fortunately, si Ma Yun was able to sense the danger and dodged in time. The flying magical beast dove down in an irregular trajectory.

As long as they could quickly descend to a low altitude, the threat of falling would be infinitely reduced.

However, after the attackers occupied the sky, their shooting accuracy and accuracy had greatly improved.

This also included the gravity acceleration of the Eagle-shooting crossbow, which further increased its power!

"Get ready! Jump down!"

Si Ma Yun used his weapon to push aside the two arrows and estimated the distance below. He then shouted in a deep voice, "There's a jungle below us. We'll use the treetops as a buffer. Ling Jing, you and Zhong da jump down first!"

On the other side, Wu yucao and the others also heard Sima Yunqi's shout. They also pulled back their crossbows and prepared to jump off the flying magical beast.

Only Ling Hanxue narrowed her eyes slightly. She drew her bow and nocked an arrow. Wind attribute Qi surrounded the tip of her arrow.

Super spinning extreme void arrow!

A beam of white light instantly crossed the distance between the two sides, leaving only a faint vacuum arrow path.

Ling Hanxue's full-power attack, which had been greatly enhanced, had unparalleled power!

The flying magical beast that was the closest in pursuit was caught off guard and was unable to react in time!

Ling Hanxue's super spinning arrow pierced through his chest, and he let out a mournful wail. His body swayed, and he immediately fell head first.

The six men in Black on the back of the flying magical beast were not in a hurry, and they all jumped off the flying magical beast.

The black clothes on their bodies suddenly puffed up like a small parachute, slowing down their descent by a few degrees.

At the same time, the Eagle shooting crossbows in their hands didn't stop firing at Lin Yi and the others.

Ling Hanxue was helpless. Her super-spinning extreme void arrow was not a rapid-fire archery technique, so she could not shoot continuously like a crossbow.

Moreover, the enemy had a lot of crossbow arrows, so they were completely suppressed.

So after the first arrow, she didn't force herself. She quickly waved her longbow to block the arrow and then jumped down with the others.

The two flying magical beasts were forced to act as everyone's shield. They were continuously hit by the Eagle-shooting crossbow arrows that fell like rain. At the same time, they let out sorrowful cries and followed closely behind the flying magical beast of the Man in Black, falling down together!

Lin Yi and the others had already landed on the tree crown of the forest.

Everyone was a powerful martial artist. They either grabbed with their hands or kicked with their feet to slow down the force of the fall. At the same time, they used the force to shift positions and avoid the subsequent pursuit of the crossbow arrows.

Hiding in the branches, the black-clothed man in the air lost his target. The threat of the Eagle-shooting crossbow was immediately reduced by half. It was almost impossible to hit him by randomly shooting.

"Is everyone alright?"

Lin Yi's spirit sense locked onto everyone's position as soon as he landed. He was just asking out of concern.

"I'm fine!"

"I'm fine!"

.....

Wu yucao and the others responded and quickly moved closer to Lin Yi.

Among them, Wu yucao and Ling Hanxue were the fastest. This kind of situation and environment was the model they were most familiar with.

Jin Yuan Bao, Zhang Yiming, li Yingjian, and the others were much worse.

"Zhong da, are you alright?"

Su lingyue nervously observed Lin Yi's body. Although si MA had been protecting Lin Yi from the start, she still couldn't let him go!

"Mother, don't worry. I'm fine! This small matter can't hurt me!"

Lin Yi smiled and waved his hand, shrugging his shoulders to show that he was safe and sound.

"It's good that you're alright. Now is not the time to talk. They're coming down!"

Sima Yunqi raised his head and looked up. The canopy covered the sky and he could not see the scene in the sky.

But there were sounds coming from above-the Men in Black had probably started to descend as well, entering the forest to kill Lin Yi and the others.

"These shouldn't be robbers, but assassins with clear targets. I just don't know who they want to kill! Us husband and wife? Or Zhongda?"

Sima You Yun's eyes flashed with a cold light.

This time, they were in a hurry to find their son, so the couple was dressed lightly in white Arowana clothes. They didn't even bring a guard. Were they being watched?

What's more, these people were simply here for Zhong da? Someone didn't want Zhong da to return to the Sima clan?

In an instant, Sima Yun Qi's mind was filled with countless thoughts.

He wasn't sure which guess was closer to the truth. In short, today was a little dangerous!

"These damn bastards! Yunqi, we can't do this by force. Our primary goal is to protect Zhong da! Let's retreat first?"

Su lingyue wanted to kill all of them, but she was worried that Lin Yi would get hurt.

She had already decided to leave as soon as possible!

"It's too late! They're surrounding us from all directions!"

Sima Yun squinted his eyes. There were six to seven Men in Black on each of the three flying magical beasts, so there should be twenty of them in total!

Now, the twenty Men in Black had spread out around the group. No matter which direction they went, they would be intercepted.
