

Bodyguard 7781

Chapter 7781 Who Doesn't Dare To Say It?

Sima Yun didn't have any objections to su lingyue's decision to transfer him. He took out a token and handed it to Liu Ziyu.

If there really was someone who dared to bully his son, then so be it. In the capital, he, Sima Yun, was truly not afraid of anyone!

Liu Ziyu's face was slightly red. It was not because he was being valued or because he had an expert with him, but because Su Ling's hands were rubbing on his head. He felt very embarrassed!

Aunt!

I'm not a child anymore!

He's just a little skinny, can you not be like this?

It was really embarrassing!

Which family's man would let his elders touch his head so easily?

I also want some face!

He had no choice. It was impossible to resist and refuse directly. He could only quickly bid farewell and leave ...

Heavenly taste Pavilion!

It was known as the number one restaurant in Hongshang Commandery!

Every day, guests would gather, and the people who came and went were either rich or noble. Ordinary people really did not dare to eat in this place.

One was because they couldn't afford it, and the other was that even if they could afford it, they were afraid that they would bump into someone and be killed by the other party!

As the eldest son of the first Prince, Sima Yun Fei, Sima Zhong Xiao's status was one of the highest in the entire capital.

He had a long-term reserved courtyard in the heavenly taste Pavilion. Other than him, no other guests were accepted.

Of course, there were a few people who were treated like Sima Zhongxiao. As a businessman, it was impossible to offend people of similar levels just because of one person.

After dealing with these few people at this level, the heavenly taste Pavilion could basically rest easy in the capital.

Lin Yi had already been brought into the courtyard that Sima Zhongxiao had reserved for him.

The people of the heavenly taste Pavilion had already been informed, so they had already prepared the dishes and drinks in advance.

"Sima Zhong da, you can sit here. It's close to the door, so you can enjoy the beautiful scenery of the courtyard! You've probably never seen such an exquisite landscape in the corners you've stayed in before, have you?"

Just as they reached the hall, a young man couldn't help but make trouble.

At this time, Sima Zhongxiao had not arrived yet. He said that he was arranging the guest list. As for whether that was the case, no one knew.

Lin Yi glanced at the young man indifferently. He looked similar to Sima Zhongxiao, probably someone from the same line.

"Sima Zhongyi, what do you mean?"

Liu Ziyu, who was the last to enter, had a dark expression on his face. He didn't wait for Lin Yi's reply and stepped forward, "Today is first Prince Zhong Xiao's welcoming banquet for cousin Zhong da. Cousin Zhong da naturally has to sit at the head of the table, but you want him to sit at the end? Is this how the great Lord's residence teaches the rules?"

"Liu Ziyu, Who Do You Think You Are? who are you to speak here? Get lost!"

Sima Zhongyi was furious and almost wanted to beat Liu Ziyu up. "How can a lowly bastard like you comment on the matters of our residence?"

"What's wrong? Am I wrong?"

In the past, Liu Ziyu had always been a quiet person in this circle, as if he was invisible.

But today, for Lin Yi's sake, he transformed and went all out. "The upbringing of the great Prince's residence has always been excellent, and Prince Zhongxiao also knows etiquette well. Otherwise, why would he invite cousin Zhong da to a banquet?"

"You, Sima Zhongyi, are targeting cousin Zhong da like this. Those who know will think that you're dissatisfied with cousin Zhong da, but those who don't know will think that you're deliberately making things difficult for Prince Zhong Xiao! Oh, I understand now. You are The Little Prince of the king's residence, born of a concubine. Could it be that you want to seize the position of the Crown Prince?"

"If that's the case, you'd better listen to my advice. You're a Prince born of a concubine. If you behave yourself, you'll be able to live a little longer. If you have the idea of fighting for the throne, then you're courting death!"

These words were extremely harsh!

Sima Zhongyi was Sima Yun Fei's youngest son, but he was not Sima Zhongxiao's younger brother from the same mother. He was the son of a concubine.

If he wanted to become the eldest Prince's son, it would be impossible unless he killed Sima Zhongxiao and his other brothers!

Liu Ziyu's words were too harsh. Sima Zhongyi didn't have such intentions, but how many of his brothers would think that he didn't have such intentions?

Especially Sima Zhongxiao, Sima Zhongyi knew his big brother the best. He looked kind and friendly on the surface, but he was absolutely ruthless and cold-blooded behind the scenes!

If Sima Zhongxiao felt that he was a threat, he might be killed at any time without even knowing how he died.

"You're talking nonsense! Don't make false accusations!"

Sima Zhongyi was a little flustered and his face turned pale.

"Liu Ziyu, move aside. What business do you have here?"

The other young man saw that Sima Zhongyi was defeated by a few words and immediately jumped out to help,""Zhongyi had good intentions. He wanted to let Zhongda sit comfortably and enjoy the scenery. It was originally good intentions, but why did it sound so bad in your mouth?"

"Hehe, I'm a vile person? You, Sima Zhongli, actually have the face to call me a vile person?"

Liu Ziyu was unafraid, and his disdainful eyes swept across everyone present." "Ask your brothers and sisters, who would dare to say that Sima Zhongli of the third Prince's residence is an upright man of indomitable spirit?"

"Who doesn't dare to say it? I, Sima Zhongli, am an upright man of indomitable spirit! Quickly tell him loudly!"

Sima Zhongli was arrogant and felt that the people around him would definitely support him.

He didn't expect that no one would come out to speak for him!

Lin Yi almost burst out laughing!

Just how much was this guy despised? There wasn't even a single person who was willing to speak up for him!

His character was so bad that even his own people would not lie about his good character, as if they were afraid that others would misunderstand and think that they were the same.

If he hadn't seen it with his own eyes, he wouldn't have believed it!

Sima Zhongli was also quite embarrassed. Did you guys have to be so F * cking deceptive?

Normally, they would lie with their eyes open. Now, they couldn't even lie with their eyes closed?

Actually, it wasn't that these people didn't like Sima Zhongli. They usually had fun playing around. If there was no one around in private, they didn't mind telling Sima Zhongli that he was a good man and such.

But now, there were so many people ... Whoever said that they were the same kind of people as Sima Zhongli!

They were all young masters and young mistresses from aristocratic families. Reputation was very important!

The corners of Liu Ziyu's mouth twitched violently. It was with great difficulty that he managed to hold back his laughter. At this time, he had to maintain his imposing manner. If he opened his mouth and laughed, his imposing manner would be completely gone!

Just as Sima Zhongli was feeling embarrassed, Sima Zhongxiao happened to walk in from outside, giving him a chance to take advantage of the situation.

"Big brother is here! Have you posted the thread? Who have you invited?"

Sima Zhongli hurriedly went out to welcome him.

Although he was the third Prince's son, his status was far inferior to Sima Zhongxiao's. He was often fawned over, so Sima Zhongxiao did not feel that there was anything wrong with it.

Chapter 7782 Second Brother's Discipline

"Why are you all standing? sit down first!"

Sima Zhongxiao only slightly nodded his head before passing by Sima Zhongli and entering the hall. He then called for everyone to take their seats, "Basically, all the families have sent their invitations. As for how many people came, it's hard to say! Don't mind them, we can eat first!"

"Big brother, I'm going to kick Liu Ziyu out! This B * stard is simply lawless! You actually dare to drive a wedge between us brothers!"

Sima Zhongyi pulled on Sima Zhongxiao and started to complain. Everyone had heard what Liu Ziyu had said just now. It was only a matter of time before it reached Sima Zhongxiao's ears.

If he didn't explain it clearly now, Sima Zhongyi would probably die when Sima Zhongxiao heard about it from someone else!

This kid had a strong desire to live and was quite clever. He knew how to strike first and explained what had happened in detail,""That's it. Big brother, don't you think Liu Ziyu is despicable? We didn't beat him up, but just chased him out. That's already letting him off easy!"

"Nonsense! Zhong da is today's host and guest, and all of you are just accompanying guests. How can you let the host and guest sit at the last seat while you, the accompanying guests, sit at the top?"

Sima Zhongxiao pretended to be unhappy and smiled at Lin Yi after a few scoldings."Zhong da, don't lower yourself to their level. They're just children. Come, come, come, please take a seat!"

"Big brother, why are you so polite to this bastard child of unknown origin? Who knows if he's here with ill intentions?"

Sima Zhongyi snorted coldly and mocked Lin Yi mercilessly,"In my opinion, we should check his identity. Once we confirm that he is the fake Sima Zhongda, we should cut him into pieces and fry him in oil!"

"Zhongyi is right! I don't think it's necessary to waste time investigating his identity. Just arrest him and torture him. I'm sure we can get him to talk!"

Sima Zhongli had already forgotten about the awkwardness from earlier and was fanning the flames, ""Look at his tender skin, how much torture can he withstand?"

"Nonsense! Zhong da is our brother, what are you all thinking?"

Sima Zhongxiao pretended to scold him, but he didn't do anything. It was obvious that he didn't really want to protect Lin Yi!

Lin Yi laughed coldly to himself, "Zhongxiao bro, is this the child you were talking about?" His mind is so vicious, using all his schemes on his own family. If he is really a child, he is a naughty child who lacks discipline!"

Before Sima Zhongxiao could say anything, Liu Ziyu stood out and said angrily, ""Who dares to touch cousin Zhong da? I don't believe that there's no place in the capital that's reasonable!"

Su lingyue said that someone was bullying Zhong da, so she directly asked speechless to bring people in to kill them!

After all, Liu Ziyu had never done such a domineering thing, so he didn't dare to really make a move. Therefore, he still wanted to argue with reason.

Lin Yi patted Liu Ziyu's shoulder and smiled nonchalantly, Ziyu, you don't have to lower yourself to their level. I'm a gentle person, and I won't force people who don't want to reason with me!"

"Hehehe, I really couldn't tell that you're such a gentle person!"

Sima Zhongli laughed coldly and mocked, "but I can see what kind of person you are. Coward!" You're just a useless coward!"

Those who were not willing to help say that Sima Zhongli's character was good were very enthusiastic in jeering and cheering for Sima Zhongli's words.

Liu Ziyu was slightly startled and somewhat disappointed.

Zhong DA's cousin ... Was he so cowardly?

If that was the case, there was no point in arguing!

Perhaps, it was better to maintain his previous invisible state?

"Ziyu, remember, there's no need to waste your breath on people who don't want to be reasonable. Just fight them!"

Lin Yi didn't argue with Sima Zhongli. He spoke to Liu Ziyu as his body flickered and appeared in front of the two kids.

His right hand moved slightly, and two slaps landed smoothly on the two people's faces.

There was no favoritism, nor a few more slaps. It was just a slap to each of them.

Then, Sima Zhongyi and Sima Zhongli were sent flying!

Lin Yi didn't let them hit the wall, but controlled their strength and angle, making them fly into the crowd.

In the end, he knocked over a bunch of people, which was a small lesson for those guys who made a fuss.

Liu Ziyu was instantly dumbfounded. It turned out that Zhong DA's cousin was not cowardly at all. On the contrary, he was very tough!

This style was inexplicably familiar ... There was no doubt about it!

Just like his aunt su lingyue, they were indeed biological mother and son!

Sima Zhongxiao's face darkened. He'd always thought that he was stronger than Lin Yi, and so he had a sense of superiority in his heart despite his fake appearance.

It wasn't until Lin Yi's two slaps that Sima Zhongxiao realized that sometimes level really didn't represent battle strength!

With Lin Yi's sudden burst of speed, Sima Zhongxiao didn't know if he could block the two slaps if they were to land on his face ...

"Ziyu, did you see that? I can deal with this kind of trash with a slap. There's no need to talk nonsense with them!"

Lin Yi turned around and talked to Liu Ziyu calmly, as if he were just brushing away two specks of dust.

Then, he glanced at the onlookers who were pressed to the ground. ""Do you guys have anything to say? If there is, are you willing to be reasonable?"

The people who were knocked over were in a hurry to get Sima Zhongyi and Sima Zhongli off their bodies and didn't even bother to talk to Lin Yi.

Of course, they didn't dare to talk to Lin Yi, afraid that they'd have to experience what it was like to fly if they said something wrong.

Actually, even if he flew, he wouldn't die, but half of his face was swollen like a pig's head, that was too much. They were all respected members of the royal family in the capital, so wouldn't it be embarrassing to go out?

"Big ... Big mud nest!"

Sima Zhongli got up and pointed at Lin Yi, wanting to seek justice. However, thinking about Lin Yi's ghostly speed, he didn't dare to go forward.

Lin Yi took two seconds to understand what the guy meant by "you dare hit me ..."

Half of his face was like a pig 's, and it was affecting his ability to speak!

Why don't I just beat the other half into a pig's head as well? would that effectively alleviate the symptoms of his difficulty in speaking?

"Zhong da, we're all brothers. It's not good for you to fight like this!"

Sima Zhongxiao coughed lightly and was ready to stand up for justice.

Although the current outcome was different from what he had expected, it was not too different.

"Big brother Zhongxiao, you've also said that we're all brothers. In terms of age, I should be considered their second brother, right?"

Lin Yi's lips curled up, making a face that said, "if you want to be reasonable, then we'll be reasonable,"

"Let's not talk about the fact that you're the one who invited me to the banquet today. I'm the main character. Shouldn't they respect my status as the second brother before they speak or do anything?"

"It's not like you didn't hear what they said just now. They wanted to kill my second brother. If I don't teach them a lesson, the Sima clan's face will be completely lost by them!"

Chapter 7783 Summoned By The Regional King

"It's good that there are no outsiders now. If you wait for the guests from the other clans to arrive and continue to act so unbridled, they will become a joke to others. Big brother Zhong Xiao, do you think I should discipline them?"

Sima Zhongxiao was depressed, speechless at Lin Yi's words. He could only force a smile, "They should, they should be disciplined!"

If he dared to say that he shouldn't, then it would show that he was too narrow-minded and didn't care about the face of the Sima clan.

How could such a person have the nerve to help in the fight for the Crown Prince?

"Big brother Zhongxiao is indeed able to see the big picture. You're different from those disobedient children!"

Lin Yi complimented insincerely before scanning the room with a mocking look. "Today's atmosphere has been ruined by the two of them. I don't have much appetite to taste the food of the heavenly taste Pavilion, so I'll take my leave first! I'll treat big brother Zhongxiao to a meal another day!"

With that, Lin Yi cupped his hands at Sima Zhongxiao and walked out of the hall, "Ziyu, let's go! Don't tell me you still want to stay here and eat?"

"Oh, okay! Cousin Zhong da, wait for me!"

Liu Ziyu really admired Lin Yi. This simple and brutal method made Sima Zhongxiao so angry that he couldn't vent.

Lin Yi may have sounded polite, but he didn't give Sima Zhongxiao any face at all.

Today's banquet had been organized by Sima Zhongxiao in the name of inviting Sima Zhongda to dinner. Since the main character had left, was there a need to continue the banquet?

The most embarrassing thing was that Sima Zhong Xiao had just sent out the invitations to all the families, and now there might be people who have already received the invitations and are on their way. What should they do next?

To make Lin Yi stay?

Sima Zhongxiao really couldn't say it!

Sima Zhongyi and Sima Zhongli weren't easy to deal with. If Lin Yi stayed, there was a 90% chance of conflict.

If things really got out of hand and the Sima clan lost face, Sima Zhongxiao would not be able to bear the consequences!

So ... If they were dismissed, so be it!

"Cousin Zhong da, of the two kids just now, one is the son of the first Prince and the other is the son of the third Prince. If we just beat them up like this, won't there be trouble?"

Liu Ziyu walked beside Lin Yi, a worried look on his face. "Neither of these two kids are good. They lost face in the hands of cousin today. They definitely won't let this go!"

Although he said that, Liu Ziyu was actually quite happy in his heart. He had wanted to beat them up for a long time, but he never had the chance.

Moreover, he wasn't really too worried. After all, compared to his aunt su lingyue's orders to kill him, Zhong DA's cousin had only been slapped twice, so it shouldn't be a big deal.

"It's best if they don't want to let it go. I'm afraid they'll admit defeat and won't dare to find trouble with me again!"

Lin Yi chuckled and shrugged his shoulders, "They're just two brats. I really didn't take them to heart. I was still thinking about how to integrate into the Sima clan, but they took the initiative to come to my door to establish their might. They're really good people!"

Liu Ziyu was instantly speechless. Merging into the Sima clan was equivalent to beating up the son of the eldest Prince and the third Prince?

Using these two princes to establish their might?

No wonder I've always been rejected by the younger generation of the capital. It's because I haven't beaten up a few princes to establish my might!

Liu Ziyu scratched the back of his head and couldn't help but fall into deep thought.

Lin Yi didn't say anything else and only gave the two bastards a slap each. He really went easy on them. In fact, Lin Yi was thinking that all of Sima Zhongxiao's people would jump out and cause trouble.

It was the same to establish power, but the effect of beating up two people and beating up a group would definitely be a world of difference!

The reason why he wanted to establish his power was to fight for the right to speak in Hongshang Commandery, so that he could use the royal family's power to investigate Wang Xinyan's whereabouts.

Sima Yunqi's second Duke's house was not weak, but Lin Yi had just returned, and it was hard to say how much he could use.

Moreover, Sima Yun was much weaker than the entire Hongshang Commandery.

All in all, Lin Yi wanted to get the important position and the right to speak in the Sima family as soon as possible. He didn't want to develop slowly, so he couldn't take the normal path!

"Ziyu, this is my first time in the imperial capital of Hongshang County. My mood was ruined by those two brats and I didn't even eat. Why don't you accompany me to walk around the imperial capital and find a good place to eat?"

Lin Yi saw that the sky was getting dark-he couldn't go back for dinner, could he?

Therefore, he decided to take a walk around the capital and familiarize himself with the environment.

"Of course there's no problem. Don't worry, cousin Zhong da. I'm very clear where there's good food in the capital!"

Liu Ziyu was very happy. He saw his uncle and aunt, who had raised him since he was young, as his own parents. Now that Lin Yi was back, he wasn't jealous, but happy.

Hence, getting along with Lin Yi and getting closer to him was something she couldn't ask for more.

The two of them left the heavenly taste Pavilion and began to stroll around the capital with Buyu and a few guards who were waiting at the door.

Liu Ziyu was invisible in front of other people, but he was quite talkative when he was talking to Lin Yi.

They talked as they walked, briefly explaining the situation in the capital.

The group found a small restaurant to sit down and eat. The environment here couldn't be compared to the sky flavor restaurant, but the food was pretty good. Lin Yi was satisfied with it.

Liu Ziyu said that he knew the delicacies of the capital like the back of his hand, and it seemed that he was not bragging!

They chatted for a while before a palace guard came looking for them.

"Young prince Zhong da, and young master Liu, His Majesty has summoned the two of you, so he has sent this lowly one here to summon you!"

This guard was well-mannered and had a respectful attitude. He didn't act arrogantly just because he was The King's Man. He clearly knew how important Lin Yi was to Sima zhengxin.

"I've just met Grandpa Wang. Why are we meeting again so soon?"

Lin Yi knew that it was probably because Sima Zhongli and Sima Zhongyi couldn't take this lying down and went to complain to Sima zhengxin.

Strictly speaking, these two kids were Sima zhengxin's grandsons!

To look for Sima zhengxin with half a pig's head on his head, no matter how biased the old man was, he had to show some attitude!

Of course, Lin Yi believed that Sima zhengxin was just putting on a show and wouldn't do anything to him.

To put it bluntly, those two were illegitimate children, and their status couldn't be compared to Lin Yi's.

Especially since Sima Zhengxin had gone through so much trouble to find his son, who had been lost for twenty years. If Lin Yi killed those two brats, Sima Zhengxin would let Lin Yi off lightly for the sake of Sima Yunqi.

"Then I'll have to trouble you to lead the way!"

Lin Yi turned to Liu Ziyu with a smile on his face, "Ziyu, it looks like we're not going to have a good meal today. Let's go for supper later."

Chapter 7784 Attacked At The Border

"If cousin is willing, Ziyu will definitely accompany you!"

Liu Ziyu stood up and cupped his hands, full of respect for Lin Yi.

Those with discerning eyes knew why the king had summoned him. It was rare that cousin Zhong da had just returned to the capital, but he was not the least bit afraid!

On the other hand, Sima Zhengxin was eating desserts in a good mood as Lin Yi and Lin Yi set off for the palace.

The two guys who had complained were sent to the side hall to wait, and then he sent someone to summon the people from the heavenly taste Pavilion to gather.

Although it was a fight between the younger generation, Sima zhengxin was not prepared to turn a big matter into a small one.

Lin Yi wanted to establish his authority, and Sima zhengxin understood that. This grandson's style was to his liking, so he was going to use this to help Lin Yi!

As for the two kids, did they think they'd be able to get back at Lin Yi just by complaining?

Hehe, they were too naïve!

"Your Majesty, an urgent report from the border! The Army of selencopper Commandery from the northern border is invading!"

Sima zhengxin had just finished his dessert and was still holding the bowl in his hand when someone rushed in from outside the hall.

The man knelt on one knee and reported quickly, "Fire sickle city, flower curl city, and Fei Du city are all in a state of emergency. Traces of the enemy have been found. According to horse Scouts, seitong Commandery claimed to have 200000 troops, and they have divided their troops to plunder our borders!"

"What?"

Sima zhengxin was shocked and smashed the Jade bowl on the ground, ""Are those damn selencopper Commandery people crazy? They're actually attacking the border at this time?"

Hongshang Commandery and seitong Commandery had always been at odds with each other, and the war had never stopped.

However, it would usually happen during the autumn harvest, and the goal was clear-to plunder resources!

It was still early autumn, and the war would only cause destruction and not gain much.

Especially the number of troops on the other side, 200000!

This was no longer a war with the purpose of plundering. Instead, they wanted to take over the city and divide the territory of Hongshang Commandery. They even wanted to destroy Hongshang Commandery.

"Quickly gather all the princes and go to Qiushi Hall to discuss this matter!"

Sima zhengxin's face was as calm as water, but he was not too anxious.

"Your Majesty, do we need to gather all the important officials in the hall to discuss the war with Selencopper Commandery?"

An old eunuch standing beside Sima Zhengxin said in a low voice, "Urgent reports from the border can not be hidden from the eyes and ears of those with intentions. If the palace does not react in time, I'm afraid it will be criticized!"

This was a close person who had accompanied Sima Zhengxin since he was young. He would not interfere in military and political matters, but sometimes, this kind of check and supplement was what Sima Zhengxin needed.

"That makes sense. Quickly gather the officials and wait in the main hall for a meeting!"

Sima Zhengxin didn't think much of it and immediately nodded, "My partner, go and keep an eye on them. Tell them not to panic. They claim to have 200,000 soldiers, but in reality, they only have around 50,000 to 60,000 soldiers who can fight!"

"As the king commands!"

Before discussing with the officials, he had to first discuss with the Sima clan.

Sima zhengxin felt a headache just thinking about it. In the face of such a major emergency, he had to first get a unified opinion from the Sima clan.

Otherwise, if they went to the main hall to discuss it directly, it would be troublesome if there were differences in opinions within the Sima clan!

If the Sima clan did not do well, the Feng clan, the Nangong clan, and even the already declining heiyue clan could all come out and ask to ascend the throne and rule the Hongshang Commandery!

It didn't take long for the important members of the Sima clan to gather in the hall of autumn truth.

When Sima Zhongyi and Sima Zhongli saw this, they were secretly happy. They thought that they were all here to seek justice for them!

To be honest, they would never have expected such a big scene!

"Sima Zhong da, you're finished! It doesn't matter if you're the real Sima Zhongda or not. You're finished today, do you know that?"

Sima Zhongli's Red and swollen face had slightly disappeared, and he could hear what he was saying now. He immediately jumped out when he saw Lin Yi and Liu Ziyu, "You beat up your own kind and harmed your brother. You won't have a good life in the future with just these crimes!"

"That's right! Today, in front of all the elders of the Sima clan, we must ask grandfather Wang to punish you severely ..."

Sima Zhongyi also called out, but before he could finish his words, he was kicked by his father!

"Shut up! Go to the side!"

Si MA was mentally exhausted. How could he have such a stupid son?

Almost all of the important people in the Sima clan are here. Do you think it's because of your little children's fight?

What was he thinking?

This is a matter of life and death for Hongshang Commandery, and you're still talking nonsense here!

My position as the Crown Prince will be ruined in your hands sooner or later!

"Third brother, take good care of your son. Otherwise, this King will personally discipline him for you next time!"

Sima You Yun stood up and glanced at Sima Zhongli and his father. His words were plain, but the killing intent hidden within was obvious.

I've finally found my son who has been lost for 20 years, and any Tom, Dick, and Harry dares to bully me?

Do you think that I, Sima Yunqi, can't lift my saber?

... Although in reality, it was Lin Yi who bullied others, but from Sima Yunqi's point of view, it was Lin Yi who was bullied!

"Yes, yes, yes. Second brother, please calm down. It's your little brother's fault for not being strict. I'll definitely punish this scourge when I get home!"

Sima Zheng Xin's third son, Sima Yun San, didn't have the self-awareness of a Prince. He bowed to Sima Yun and respectfully saluted, "I promise there won't be a next time. Otherwise, I'll break this beast's legs!"

Sima Zhongli was dumbfounded. No, didn't you guys come to support us?

What was going on?

He didn't even consider that his father was just a concubine's son, an idle Prince. In terms of status, he was not even one-thousandth of Sima Yunqi and Sima Yunfei!

He didn't have any power or influence in his hands, so how could he fight against Si Ma Yun?

Sima Yun San had always maintained a neutral position on the surface, and did not participate in the fights between the eldest and second eldest. Only in the dark would he be in cahoots with Sima Yun Fei.

Who would've thought that Sima Zhongli's foolish son would actually clash with the son that the second Prince had just found?

Are you looking for death?

If Si MA really killed him, he would have nothing to say. He could only pretend that he never had this son!

"Be quiet!"

Sima zhengxin, who was sitting on it, shouted in a low voice, ""Let's cut to the chase. I've gathered you here, so some of you should know what's going on! The seitong Commandery in the northern border is being attacked by an Army of Two hundred thousand soldiers. They are attacking fire sickle city, curl Flower City, and Fei Du city. The border is in a state of emergency. Tell me what to do!"

"Father, I think that there is something wrong with the troops of seitong Commandery. We can't be careless!"

As the leader, Sima Yunfei spoke first, ""In the past, the selencopper Commandery's border battles were all in autumn, and the scale was usually a few thousand people."

Chapter 7785 Fight Or Peace

"But this time, it's suddenly brought forward by several months, and the number of soldiers has increased by a large margin. Your son won't believe it if you say that there's nothing strange about this!"

Sima zhengxin frowned slightly and said, ""So what do you mean?"

"I want to send messengers to negotiate and see what purpose the seitong Commandery has. If we can negotiate, then we will. It's best if we don't use any weapons!"

Sima Yunfei bowed slightly and continued, ""Seitong Commandery has a strong Army. Although our Hongshang Commandery is not weak, we have to admit that if we fight, seitong Commandery's Army will have the upper hand!"

"Our Hongshang Commandery has more enemies than the seitong Commandery. I suspect that the seitong Commandery might contact the black magic Commandery and send troops together. At this time, the seitong Commandery is very powerful. If we fight with all our strength, and the black magic Commandery takes the opportunity to send troops ..."

"Father, our Hongshang Commandery can't afford to fight on two fronts!"

Sima zhengxin pressed his forehead. He didn't like to ask for peace, but he had to admit that what Sima Yunfei said made sense.

The seitong Commandery had sent out their troops at a time when it was not supposed to be. As the saying goes, there must be something wrong when things are abnormal. Maybe they had really joined hands with the black magic Commandery!

These two commanderies were not good friends and often fought in the past. But in the face of interests, it was not strange for them to put aside their former enmity and work together!

"Father, your son has a different opinion!"

Sima Yun stood up and cupped his fists. He looked at Sima zhengxin with determination,""The seitong Commandery is indeed strong, but they are no match for us. Besides, they are the ones attacking us, so the defending side will have the advantage!"

"If we don't even fight and just send an envoy to make peace, won't the seitong Commandery feel that sending troops will be beneficial? If they retreat today, will they make a comeback tomorrow?"

"The most important thing is that seitong Commandery has invaded our territory, burning, killing, and plundering. If we don't react and let them come and go as they please, will there be anyone in Hongshang Commandery who will support our Sima clan in the future?"

"So I think that we must send out our troops as fast as possible to give the seitong Commandery a head-on blow! We can't let them think that we're easy to bully!"

Sima zhengxin nodded his head secretly. What his second son said was more to his liking!

"Second brother, it's easy for you to say that. How are you going to resolve your concerns just now? The unusual timing of the seitong Commandery's attack is most likely a diversion. The black charm Commandery might be waiting for you to send your Army!"

Sima Yun Fei laughed coldly. Not to mention that his proposal for peace made sense, even if it didn't, he would still oppose any of Sima Yun Qi's proposals!

Sima zhengxin was having a headache. He was afraid of such a situation, so he chose to hold the family meeting in Qiushi Hall first.

Otherwise, the Feng clan and the Nangong clan would probably be the first to watch the show in the main hall.

As for whether Hongshang Commandery would be in danger, it was not that urgent anyway. It was more important to watch the Sima clan first!

Brother, if Seton Commandery has really joined hands with the black charm Commandery, do you think it will be useful for us to ask for peace?"

Sima You Yun sneered coldly, his expression carrying a trace of ridicule. As you said, the military power of seitong Commandery is slightly better than ours, but we will offset this advantage when we defend."

"The seitong Commandery alone is already on par with us. Do you think the black magic Commandery will retreat without a fight after joining forces with them? They should take the opportunity to divide our Hongshang Commandery, right?"

"At this time, what price should we pay for the so-called peace negotiation to satisfy the seitong Commandery? Ceding three cities? Five or even ten cities?"

"The selencopper Commandery is satisfied, but so what if it's the black magic Commandery? If he really satisfied all of them, how much money would Hongshang Commandery have left? Will our Sima clan be able to continue to rule Hongshang Commandery?"

Sima Yunfei was furious. He widened his eyes and shouted, ""Don't try to change the concept. Did I say that I'm going to cede my territory and pay? I only said that the vanguard would like to ask the reason why the other party sent their troops and see if we can have a discussion ..."

"Big brother!"

Sima Yun Yun stood up and shouted, cutting off Sima Yun Fei's words, "You want to negotiate, and maybe the Seitong Commandery wants to negotiate as well. But during the negotiation, we will also have to send troops over!"

"Without the backing of force, what right do they have to negotiate? Wouldn't it be better to attack a few cities first and advance and retreat? Once we send a large number of troops over, they can negotiate, but our troops are tied up in the front line of the northern border. Won't the black magic Commandery have the opportunity to attack?"

Sima Yunfei was speechless. If there was no black magic Commandery, it was not impossible to send an Army to negotiate.

But if the black charm Commandery was really involved ... It didn't seem right!

"Second brother, what you said does make sense. But if we fight, we will also face the same problem. If Seitong Commandery and Heimei Commandery secretly join forces, our Hongshang Commandery will not be able to deal with them!"

Sima Yunfei thought for a while before continuing, "War is always the worst plan. Maybe we can negotiate with them while sending envoys to their enemy countries and ask them to send troops for help."

"No matter if it's Seitong Commandery or the black charm Commandery, since they have sent troops to Hongshang, their own countries must be empty. With such an opportunity, their enemy countries may take the opportunity to take a bite! Therefore, Royal father, your son believes that we still need to rely on diplomatic means to deal with this crisis!"

Sima Yunqi retorted again,"father, I think that we have to win a battle first. Only then will we have the room to negotiate. A weak country has no diplomatic ties. If we don't fight or lose, we don't even have the confidence to negotiate!"

"So we can't back down in this battle! Also, if the seitong Commandery and the black charm Commandery have really joined forces, this might be our last chance since they haven't joined forces yet!"

"Only by finishing the battle quickly and defeating the selenbronze Commandery can we defeat them one by one! In the end, we'll complete the perfect counterattack of winning against the strong!"

Sima zhengxin rubbed his forehead. What his two sons said was not without reason. He was a little hesitant about what to choose,""If the others have any thoughts, you can speak up. This is the gathering place of our Sima clan, there's no need to have any scruples!"

The other princes and princesses all started to express their opinions, but there was nothing new. They were just supporting the eldest or the second.

Sima zhengxin heard two sentences and finally made a decision in his heart!

As for how to fight, they could discuss it later in the main hall. However, he was thinking in his heart, who would be the best commander of the army?

Originally, Sima Zhengxin wanted Sima Yun to lead the expedition. This second son was good in both literature and martial arts. If he could make outstanding military achievements, it would be natural for him to be promoted to the position of Crown Prince.

Chapter 7786 Expedition Candidates

However, with the threat of the Black Magic Commandery, Si Ma Yun was a little worried about going to war. It was more appropriate to keep him in the capital to deal with the unexpected events in the Black Magic Commandery.

In this case, he could only choose one of his sons or grandsons to be the commander!

"Alright, that's your general opinion. There will be a war with Seitong Commandery! Even if they want to talk, we'll be hurting them and forcing them to take the initiative to talk!"

Sima Zhengxin slapped the armrest of his chair and set the tone for this matter, "Now, why don't you discuss who is more suitable to lead the expedition? Yun Qi is not one of them. There is another task for you to carry out!"

Sima Yun was slightly taken aback, but he didn't ask any questions. He only bowed and acknowledged.

Si Ma Fengfei furrowed his brows in deep thought. The people around him were all discussing in low voices. In fact, they were just following the crowd's opinion and didn't have any opinions.

"Father, between your son and your subject, why don't we choose a commander from the other great clans to lead the Army? This battle won't be easy to fight. With them as the commander, our Sima clan will have more room to maneuver. "

Sima Yun Fei thought for a while before coming up with such a suggestion. Sima Zheng Xin was so angry that his old face turned black.

"You bastard, what are you thinking? Consider defeat before victory?"

Sima zhengxin almost pointed at Sima Yunfei's nose and scolded, ""You're the eldest son of the Sima clan, don't you have any guts? Don't you have any backbone?"

"What do you mean by more room for negotiation? Do you think that they will be the scapegoats for this defeat? Then have you ever thought that if they lead an Army into battle and lose, they will lose some reputation, but what if they win?"

"Hongshang Commandery will change hands! The Sima clan will lose their position as the ruler of Hongshang Commandery. Do you think they will be the ones to take the blame? They can't wait to have the chance to take the blame!"

Sima Yun Fei's face was completely red. He was reprimanded in front of so many people from the Sima clan, he was really embarrassed!

"Father, please calm down. Big brother didn't mean it that way ..."

Seeing that the old man was panting from anger, Si Ma Yun quickly tried to persuade him, "Big brother might think that the other great clans have many talented commanders, so he doesn't want to avoid revenge."

"Forget it!"

Sima Zhengxin sighed and waved his hand weakly, "You're all living too comfortably and have lost some of your courage! In the long run, what hope would the Sima clan have? They will be replaced by the other families sooner or later!"

Everyone was silent. This topic was not easy to talk about, and no matter what they said, it would not be pleasing.

"Yunfei, you are the eldest son of the Emperor. This battle not only concerns the fate of Hongshang Commandery, but also the fate of our Sima clan. If we don't have anyone in charge, the royal family will definitely change hands. You should say something to express your position!"

Sima Zheng Xin was very disappointed in Sima Yun Fei, but he still hoped for some luck. He wanted to see if he would be able to be brave after knowing shame, and suddenly stand up.

Unfortunately, Sima Yun Fei had no idea what shame was. He didn't think that they would win this war, so why would he be willing to die?

"Father, as the eldest son of the Sima clan, I should step forward and take on this heavy responsibility ... Unfortunately, I've been feeling unwell recently. I often feel my back ache and my legs cramp. I can't even ride a horse, let alone go into battle ..."

Sima Yunfei's face was filled with embarrassment. He tried his best to force out an ashamed expression, ""This son truly has the will but not the strength! With such a weak body, he can barely lead the Army. He will only deceive the elites of our Hongshang Commandery, and that is a great sin that can not be atoned for even with ten thousand deaths!"

All in all, he, Sima Yunfei, would definitely not be able to go out to battle unless he didn't care about the Army being casually buried!

Sima Zheng Xin's face turned black and was as gloomy as water. He had completely given up on Sima Yun Fei!

"Since Yunfei is not feeling well and can not lead the battle, why don't we send Zhongxiao? As the eldest grandson of the Sima clan, it's time for me to shoulder the heavy burden of the clan's rise and fall!"

Sima Zhongxiao was overjoyed. He didn't think that he would lose this battle. Even if he did lose, it was not a big deal as long as he could escape safely!

Therefore, he didn't have much conflict with being the commander.

However, before Sima Zhong Xiao could express his opinion, Sima Yun Fei had already shook his head and waved his hand in refusal.

"No, no, no! Father, Zhongxiao has always been a scholar and doesn't put much effort into martial arts. Although he has reached the nascent Soul Stage, his battle strength is not strong. "

"If I lead the Army out, I might make a very bad decision due to my blind arrogance ... So I think it's better to find someone else to lead the Army!"

Sima Yunfei was completely shameless. In his opinion, going to war with the seitong Commandery was basically a death sentence!

Even if he came back alive, he would have to atone for his defeat. He was not willing to go, and of course, he would not let his precious son go!

Well ... If it was Sima Zhongyi, then it would be fine.

This son of a concubine, if he died, then so be it. It didn't matter if he died, but the old man would probably not agree.

If all the Sima clansmen were dead, perhaps Sima Zhongyi would have the chance to lead the Army?

Sima zhengxin almost laughed out of anger. His eldest son was really too smart!

Unfortunately, he was only smart about these small things. He didn't think about it. If he didn't grab this opportunity to perform, what right did he have to be the Crown Prince?

Just because of his dead mother?

A person's death was like a lamp going out. The feelings that should have been there had almost been exhausted after so many years!

The status of the eldest son of the first wife was really nothing!

"Yunfei, since you are so confident, you must have your own opinion on who should lead the Army. Why don't you recommend someone?"

Sima zhengxin's lips curled into a cold smile. These words were said without any smoke or fire, but in reality, he was already on the verge of exploding!

"If father says so, then this son really does have a suitable candidate to recommend!"

Sima Yunfei didn't hear his father's dissatisfaction, but it probably didn't matter if he did. In any case, he wouldn't go to battle even if he was beaten to death.

"Who are you? Tell me about it!"

"Father, this person is right in front of us. He is the son that second brother has just found, my good nephew, Sima Zhongda!"

Sima Yunfei turned around with a smile and opened his palm to Lin Yi, "Of all the people present, apart from second brother, only Zhong da is the most suitable candidate!"

"What a joke! Big brother, what right do you have to say that Zhong da is the most suitable candidate? In terms of age, he was inferior to Zhong Xiao, and in terms of strength, he was also far inferior to Zhong Xiao. Zhong Xiao had received the royal family's elite education since he was young and had achievements in both literature and martial arts. He wasn't by our side since we were young ..."

Sima Yunqi was furious. It was not easy to find his son and you want to send him to the front line?

If anything were to happen to him, even if he killed all of Sima Yunfei's sons, it wouldn't be enough to compensate him!

"Second brother, don't be so agitated. I don't recommend people randomly!"

Si Ma Jun waved his hand and interrupted, "Honorable nephew Zhong DA's martial strength is astonishing, and he likes to fight when he has nothing to do. He definitely has something to rely on, so he'll be like a fish in water once he enters the Army."

"In addition, honorable nephew Zhong da has lived in the mountains and has rich survival experience, so he is naturally very familiar with military operations. The situation in the North is tense, and the three cities are in an emergency. With experience in the mountains and fields, it should be extremely easy to make a round trip. Thus, with honorable nephew Zhong da in command, this battle will definitely be a great victory!"

"As for strategy, if honorable nephew Zhong da is lacking, you can bring along two wise military counselors to assist you. As long as honorable nephew can listen to the military counselor's plans, victory is in sight!"

Sima Yunqi's anger was burning and he wanted to continue to argue but was stopped by Lin Yi!

What a joke, this was such a good opportunity that he could not even get it even if he begged for it. It was not easy for someone to come to his door, so he better not push it away!

"Father, grandfather Wang, if you don't mind, I'm willing to lead the Army!"

Lin Yi cupped his fists and bowed seriously. "I also have some experience in marching and fighting. I have also studied the art of battle formations. In addition, I have several helpers, all of whom are Masters. They will definitely raise the prestige of our Commandery in this battle!"

Sima Yun paused—he just didn't want Lin Yi to be in danger, not that he didn't believe in Lin Yi's abilities!

Not to mention anything else, just the standard of commanding the battle formation before, he knew that his son was a handsome talent!

Naturally, Sima Yunfei didn't have good intentions when he recommended Lin Yi. As a father, Sima Yunfei had to object.

But if Lin Yi asked to fight, then he would fully support him!

"Father, what Zhong da said is true. He has a deep understanding of battle formations. If he has the confidence to be the commander, this son feels that it is possible!"

Sima Yun Qi's attitude had a one hundred and eighty degree change. This time, it was Sima Yun Fei's turn to be a little dumbfounded.

No, why did you change your stance without even saying a word?

I've prepared a lot of excuses to say!

It was very uncomfortable to hold it in!

Should I continue? But there was no point in saying it!

Sima Yunfei's thoughts were in a mess. At this time, if the enemy supported him, he should oppose it. He should oppose Sima Zhong da being the commander, right?

No, I was the one who suggested this, and I'm against myself?

Sima Yunfei couldn't help but scratch the back of his head. He decided to calm down and sort out this matter.

Sima zhengxin didn't care what he was thinking, he stood up and laughed, "Good! As expected of a good man from our Sima clan! This is the momentum I want!"

"If that's the case, then Zhong da will make preparations. Tomorrow morning, he will lead the Army! All the provisions, fodder, soldiers, and horses will be prepared by tonight!"

"Many thanks for grandfather Wang's trust. This child will not fail this mission! This time, we will definitely break the Army of selencopper Commandery!"

How troublesome would it be to scheme and scheme against them in the capital, establish his prestige and make a name for himself, and then slowly gain the right to speak?

Seitong Commandery had given him such a good opportunity to obtain military power, which would save him a lot of effort!

Since ancient times, political power came from the barrel of a gun. Whoever had soldiers in their hands would have a louder voice!

As long as he won this battle, Lin Yi's power in Hongshang Commandery would soar!

Everyone looked at each other. It was decided just like that? Wasn't that a little too rash?

Sima Yunfei started to doubt his life as well. He was the one who suggested that Lin Yi lead the battle, but now that it had really happened, he was worried and felt that he should object.

For example, he said that Zhong da had just returned and didn't know anything about military affairs, and that it was easy to kill three armies ...

Speaking of which, this old man was really bold. You dared to let a kid who had never led an Army and had not even investigated his background be in charge of an expedition?

Aren't you afraid of losing all your money?

Sima Yunfei felt very conflicted. He wanted to say these things, but he didn't dare to ...

If he really said it, the old man would probably give him a big slap!

"Very good! This matter is settled, but this is only a decision made within the Sima clan. We still need to discuss it in the main hall. The few of you will go together, the rest of you can leave!"

Sima Zhengxin waved his hand and called for Sima Yunfei and a few others with official positions to go with Lin Yi to the main hall.

The civil and military officials had already gathered in the hall. The Seitong Commandery's Army had invaded the border, so they did not dare to delay and rushed over as fast as they could.

Unexpectedly, the regional King did not come out. He only sent an old eunuch to brief them on the situation.

They waited for Sima Zhengxin to come out with great difficulty and someone immediately came forward and said, "My King! After some discussion, we think that Seitong Commandery has evil intentions by sending out troops at this time. They might join forces with other countries to attack, so this battle is extremely dangerous. If we can avoid it, it's best not to fight!"

The corner of Sima Zhengxin's mouth twitched. He felt a little annoyed. Why were there so many people asking for peace and surrendering?

Just as he was thinking about this, someone else came out and said that they were determined to fight back. They absolutely could not tolerate and breed evil. The whole scene was basically the same as the previous Qiushi Hall.

Sima zhengxin didn't want to see what had happened again, so he lightly knocked on the armrest of the throne a few times. When the main hall had quieted down, he slowly swept his gaze over the officials.

"I have already made a decision on this matter, so there is no need for my beloved ministers to say more. The seitong Commandery's ambition can not be satisfied by peace talks. Therefore, I have decided to send out troops to defeat the 200000 troops of seitong Commandery!"

"This battle will be led by the grandson of the king, Sima Zhongda. He will select twenty thousand elites from the capital's Garrison and thirty thousand elites from the garrison of the counties along the way. We will set off tomorrow morning!"

All the officials were shocked. Lin Yi hadn't been back for long-not even a night had passed. Almost none of the officials had seen Lin Yi before, and they didn't think he was reliable at all!

Before they could object, Sima zhengxin had already made his decision and called for Lin Yi to step out,""Sima Zhong da, step forward to receive the title!"

"I appoint you as the Conqueror general, you will command the Tiger Token, command the three armies, and lead the fight against the SE Tong Commandery! The military power of the king's city is limited. We must leave enough soldiers to deal with the black charm Commandery. Therefore, I allow you to act according to the situation. You can recruit new soldiers on the spot!"

Sima zhengxin announced it himself, and Lin Yi bowed.

The officials wanted to object, but Sima Zheng Xin was determined, so it was useless no matter who objected!

Therefore, they only looked left and right, and in the end, no one stood out!

"Your Majesty, the Conqueror general is young and handsome, but this is his first time leading the Army alone. Should we send a few deputy marshals and military counselors to assist him?"

An old man stepped forward and cupped his fists as he suggested.

He was Feng ruoting, the current head of the Feng family, one of the four great families.

The Grand Commandant of Hongshang Commandery was one of the most powerful people in the capital.

Since Sima Zheng Xin was determined to let the Sima clan be the commander, Feng ruoting couldn't object, so he'd just mix sand in!

The Vice Commander-in-Chief and the military counselor were also one of the most important positions in an Army.

If they cooperated well, they might have a chance to directly strip the Commander-in-Chief of his power!

"The Feng family is one of the few families of the country's generals in Hongshang Commandery. How can we fall behind in such a war? The Feng family is willing to take on the responsibility of the Vice Commander-in-Chief and the military counselor!"

Sima zhengxin laughed coldly to himself. He wanted to invest in advance, right?

Chapter 7788 Change Your Name

As a result ...

If they failed, the Commander-in-Chief would bear the responsibility, but if they won, the Vice Commander-in-Chief and the military counselor would definitely have contributed!

It was really a well-thought plan!

However, for this kind of thing, even though they should give the Feng family some face, Sima zhengxin didn't want to agree.

Who knew if the Feng family's people would enter the Army to seize power or secretly plot against them?

"Lord Feng, thank you for your kind intentions. I have already prepared the candidates for the Deputy general and the military counselor. If the talents of your Feng family are willing to take up this position, then I have some empty positions for Deputy generals."

What a joke, Feng Zhipeng's family still wanted to get credit?

Sure, I can leave some of those insignificant cannon fodder positions for you.

As for the important vice-commander, military counselor, and so on, they could forget about it. They might as well go to bed early!

"Your Majesty, this general said before that I have my own team and can form a group of advisors, so I don't need anyone else to join. This was something that His Majesty had promised this general. "

Lin Yi knew that Sima zhengxin didn't like to reject house Feng directly, so he prepared a way out for him.

Sima zhengxin laughed and was even more satisfied with this grandson, ""That's right, I've already promised you to appoint the general! Grand Commandant Feng is serving the country, and regardless of his position, the position of Deputy general is not bad. Can your Feng family's great talent take a bow or two?"

Feng ruoting's face turned dark. You guys are just acting like this, do you really think I'm blind?

He just didn't want to split the power!

"Hehe, Your Majesty is right. There is no difference in military rank when serving the country. In that case, I will arrange for a few of my sons to report to the Conqueror general tomorrow."

Feng ruoting nodded with a fake smile. He didn't continue to pester her and readily agreed.

If it was vice commander or advisor, he'd definitely send some of the most capable members of the family over-that'd give him a chance to take over Lin Yi's position and strip him of his power.

As for the Deputy general, who he didn't like, he had already planned it out. He would find a few incompetent disciples. They wouldn't have a share in the victory, but they definitely had the potential to cause destruction.

Feng ruoting would never allow the Sima clan to have another general with military power, even if he lost the war with seitong Commandery.

In Feng ruoting's opinion, it was not a big deal to lose the war. At most, they would just give up a few cities to seitong Commandery.

With the power of seitong Commandery, they could not swallow up Hongshang Commandery.

As long as Hongshang Commandery was not destroyed, the Feng family could use this as an excuse to take back the position of the royal family.

When the time came, they would work hard to defeat the selenbronze Commandery and take back their lost land!

Feng ruoting had no objections, and the others also remained silent.

And so, Lin Yi led the troops, and at the same time, set up his own team.

Lin Yi excused himself using the excuse that he needed to make some preparations with his commander, leaving the others to continue their discussion in the hall.

War wasn't over just by sending out troops to fight. There were also logistical problems such as the transportation of resources, the preparation and distribution of food and money that needed to be discussed and resolved.

In addition, these people also had to discuss how to deal with different situations in the war.

For example, what would happen if they won against seitong Commandery, what would happen if they won a small victory, what would happen if they were in a stalemate, and what would happen if they lost a small battle, a big battle, or a rout.

In any case, there were many things to do. When the Army gathered and set off tomorrow, they might not even be able to finish discussing.

Lin Yi didn't care about this anymore. After leaving the palace, he didn't alert the guards that Sima Yun had sent out and went into the darkness alone.

First, he found a quiet corner and released his divine sense to make sure that there was no one around. Then, he took Fernandes out of the Jade space.

"Captain, where is this place?"

As soon as Fernandes came out, he looked around.

It was just that this place was more remote, and it was night time, so he couldn't see anything.

In any case, every time he came out of the Jade space, he would change places. It was completely different from before, so he was already used to it.

"He's still on the sub-Island. This is the capital of Hongshang Commandery!"

Lin Yi replied casually before patting his shoulder with a serious face. "Fernandes, you stay with me for the time being. I have an important task for you!"

"No problem! Captain, if you have any instructions, just tell me. I, fernÃ¡ndez, will not hesitate to go through water and tread on fire!"

Fernandes was secretly excited. As expected, I am the most important person to the captain!

You see, when there's an important mission, you think of me first!

As a veteran leg hair, it was a great honor to be entrusted with such an important task!

"There's no need to go through fire and water. Let me tell you my current identity first."

Lin Yi cleared his throat and puffed out his chest. "I'm the Prince of the second Prince of Hongshang Commandery. I've just been appointed as the Conqueror general. I'm leading tens of thousands of troops to the border to fight against the enemy."

"The captain is mighty! He had become the Prince of a country and a great general! Tens of thousands of troops! It was too amazing! However, I feel that with captain's strength, a mere Prince general is a bit of a waste of talent. Captain, it's a bit of a waste for you to directly become King!"

Fernandes didn't even blink as he started to praise Fernandes.

Lin Yi's mouth twitched-Fernandes "mouth never got worse!

"Let's not talk about this first. I'm letting you stay by my side because I'm prepared to put you in an important position. You have to be mentally prepared. "

Fernandes was secretly happy. The captain was a Prince and a general. As a senior leg hair, it was only natural for him to be put in an important position. He just wondered if he could be the second general.

Well ... Maybe the second general might be a little out of the question, but the third and fourth generals wouldn't matter either!

As long as it was awe-inspiring!

"Don't worry, Captain. I, Fernandes, am always ready. I'll just wait for the captain's order and attack wherever he points!"

Fernandes puffed out his chest and clapped his hands.

Lin Yi ignored him and continued, "Don't call me Captain in the future. When in Rome, do as the Romans do. Call me general Sima, or just general!"

"I understand! General!"

Fernandes stood at attention and saluted. He didn't know which European country he was from. It was similar to China, but it was completely different from the sub Island.

Lin Yi didn't bother correcting him and waved his hand casually. "Also, your name doesn't really match this place. Others might find it strange, so ... Change your name."

"Sure, general, what name do you think we should change?"

Fernandes didn't really care. It seemed like there were new names everywhere he went, like Ling-zero-eight, Lin Yi, Sima Yi, and so on ...

Chapter 7789 Fei Daqiang

He didn't know which one of the names was real, and he didn't dare to ask ...

He thought to himself that this was most likely a popular method among experts. As a veteran leg hair, of course he had to follow in the footsteps of his thigh and change his name as he pleased!

"Hmm ... Let me think! Your ability to stir up trouble is quite strong, so you'll be called Fei daqiang from now on!"

Lin Yi was a very casual person when it came to naming things, so he didn't put too much thought into it. "What do you think? If you're not satisfied, you can think again. "

"No need, no need. Fei daqiang is good! The original Fernandes was also good, but I think Fei daqiang is more down-to-earth! Well, they're all good, so that's it!"

Fernandes, now called Fei daqiang, seemed to be quite happy with the name. Lin Yi shrugged. "As long as you're happy!"

"Your appearance is also very different from the people here. You still need to change your appearance."

Lin Yi muttered to himself, remembering that one of the pills he'd randomly made when he was researching and testing recipes seemed to be a disguise pill. He decided to search the space in the Jade.

The red dust all creation mask was the best choice, but Lin Yi didn't know when he'd need it.

That was why he decided to keep the red dust all creation mask for the time being.

It didn't take much effort for Lin Yi to find it in the pile of practice pills.

This disguise pill could only change a person's appearance, but it could not hide the unique aura on the person.

Fortunately, true energy couldn't be used on the sub-Island, and no one knew Fei daqiang, so there was no situation where his aura would be discovered.

Moreover, after taking the disguise pill, there would be no change in the shape and the way of movement. People who were familiar with him would be able to recognize him just by looking at his back. It could not be compared with the full transformation of the red dust all creation mask.

To Lin Yi, the appearance change pill was of little value-he'd only made one batch for practice and never made another.

"Take this bottle of disguise pills. There are six pills in total. Each disguise pill can last for three months. It's enough for you to change your appearance and stay here for a year and a half."

Lin Yi took out the Jade bottle and gave it to Fei daqiang, explaining how to use it,"After eating one, you just have to think about what you want to become. It's quite convenient."

Fei daqiang didn't say anything. He took out a disguise pill and threw it directly into his mouth. Then, he chewed it up and swallowed it like he was eating candy.

Lin Yi looked at Fei daqiang with interest as his hair turned black, his pupils changed as well, and his skin turned from pale to bronze.

In this way, he would no longer have the characteristics of a European or American.

In addition, Fei daqiang's facial features had also changed slightly. They seemed to match more perfectly, and the outline was still the same.

If they came, they would probably recognize him, but they wouldn't be sure.

"General, how is it? Did I become more handsome?"

Fei daqiang touched his face narcissistically and took out a mirror to look at himself.

Lin Yi didn't know what to say-when did this guy put mirrors in his storage bag? Was he always so narcissistic in the past?

However, after Fei daqiang's disguise, he was indeed much more handsome than before.

His facial features were perfectly matched, and the outline had a little European temperament, but he looked Asian and looked like a mixed-blood.

As everyone knew, mixed-bloods were generally members of the appearance Association. Now, Fei daqiang was officially one of them.

"Alright, follow me! Let me introduce you to your new companion!"

Lin Yi's lips twitched as he walked towards the second Prince's residence.

Although he didn't have time to go, with his divine sense, he didn't have to worry about not being able to find the way.

He went back to the house and found Wu yucao and the others. They were all waiting for Lin Yi's return, so they gathered together without resting, which saved him a lot of trouble.

"Big sister Wu, I've made you wait!"

Lin Yi greeted them and let Fei daqiang out, "Let me introduce our team's new member. His name is Fei daqiang!"

"Hello, sis Wu! I'm Fei daqiang, please take care of me in the future!"

Fei daqiang stepped forward and saluted very enthusiastically, but he didn't dare to say anything like "it's an honor to work with a beauty like you. "

What a joke, how would he dare to flirt with someone whose thigh called her big sister? You're looking for death!

The others also came forward and introduced themselves one by one. Their attitudes were very friendly.

It didn't matter where this Fei daqiang came from, since Lin Yi brought him here personally and said that he was a new member, they would choose to trust him and accept him unconditionally.

Of course, compared to the trust between Wu yucaao and the others, it was more or less inferior.

"I've already met you. Let's talk about serious business. "

Lin Yi gestured for everyone to sit down after they were done with their introductions. "Emergency report from the border. Seitong Commandery is surrounded by bandits. The three cities in the North are in a state of emergency, so the king's city will send out an Army."

"I am the commander of this Army! He is now the Conqueror general of Hongshang Commandery, and he is in charge of all the affairs against se Tong Commandery!"

"Zhong da ... You ... You're going to lead the Army into battle?"

Wu yucao was shocked. This was too unexpected!

He had just returned to the capital after acknowledging his family, and now he was appointed as the Conqueror general to fight the enemy?

Is there no one else in Hongshang Commandery?

"That's right, big sister Wu. I'm going to lead the Army into battle, and it's not just me. I hope that all of you can follow me into battle. I need your help!"

Lin Yi nodded seriously.

In fact, if he really wanted to reveal his strength, Lin Yi alone was enough to repel the enemy. How could a mere 200000 men compare to the sun-swallowing rats?

"Of course I will follow you, as long as you don't mind me being a burden!"

Wu yucao revealed a gentle smile.

She was afraid that Lin Yi wouldn't bring her along. It would be great if she could go with him.

"Senior brother Sima, if you have anything to say, just tell us. We definitely won't have any objections!"

Zhang Yiming and the others cupped their fists and expressed their opinions. They were even a little excited.

Go to war!

Which man didn't dream of a life in the iron-blooded Army where he could ride a horse and fight a thousand men?

This time, he finally had the chance to realize his dream. It would be a pity to give it up!

Fei daqiang looked at the crowd thoughtfully. He didn't say anything, but he was already muttering in his heart.

That Wu yucao clearly had an ambiguous relationship with the general, so she was someone that they had to pay close attention to!

There was also that Ling Hanxue. She seemed to be quite interesting as well. He could not be careless!

Women with thighs were equivalent to thighs. This was the rule that all experienced leg hair had to understand!

"Good! I won't say too much. This time, the king allowed me to form my own team for the expedition to Seitong Commandery. On the way back, I thought about it and arranged everyone's respective positions."

Lin Yi's eyes swept across the room, thinking that there might be too few of them. "Big sister Wu has a certain level of commanding ability. She will be my vice commander and assist me in the battle."

Chapter 7790 Marshal's Expedition

"Sister Xue's archery skills are unparalleled, and she can adapt well to all kinds of complicated terrain. So, I would like to invite sister Xue to be the commander of the Scout Camp!"

"Li Yingjian is valiant and strong. He can be the main Vanguard and lead the forward strike Battalion to open up a path for the Army!"

"Zhang Yiming, continue to collect information. I'll set up the surveillance camp and you'll be the commander!"

Lin Yi explained after a pause. "Tingfeng camp was previously a new unit that I had set up. But it won't affect your rights and responsibilities."

"In nature, tingfeng camp seems to be similar to the Scout Camp. However, they're actually very different. Sister Xue's Scout Camp is in charge of intelligence during the process of marching and fighting; tingfeng camp is in charge of penetrating into the enemy's rear. Sometimes, they need to collect more intelligence and carry out some schemes!"

It wasn't that they couldn't leave all these things to the scouts camp, but Lin Yi felt that Ling Hanxue and Zhang Yiming's talents were different.

It was only after they had split up that the two of them would be able to better display their talents.

"Yes! Don't worry, senior brother Sima, I promise to complete the task!"

Zhang Yiming was very excited. He stood up and bowed with his fists cupped.

In the past, he was just a humanoid ATM for the outer sect disciples of the Sword spring sect. Who would have thought that he would have such a glorious moment?

It was a newly established military establishment!

He, Zhang Yiming, was one of the commanders!

He would bring honor to his ancestors!

Even Zhang Yiming's father had never been so glorious!

"Zhang xiaopang, don't just promise. Don't drop the ball! Senior brother Sima has given you such an important task, you must be careful!"

Jin Yuan Bao was a little envious, but then he looked forward to it.

Little fatty could be considered to have returned to his old profession. Then, would he continue to manage the Army's wealth and goods as the commander of the rear Army?

Logistics was the most important thing for an Army. As the saying went, the Army had yet to move, and the rations had to go first. Jin Yuan Bao felt that the burden on his shoulders was heavier.

Of course, he should be more important than Zhang xiaopang in the Army!

"I don't need you to say that, of course I know!"

Zhang Yiming rolled his eyes. Because he was still feeling happy, he didn't want to argue with Jin little fatty. Instead, he helped to ask, "Then senior brother, what's little fatty Jin doing?"

Jin Yuan Bao thought to himself, of course he's the commander of the rear Army, what else can he do?

Even so, he still perked up his ears and listened carefully to Lin Yi's announcement.

"Jin Yuan Bao ... Be my military counselor, give me advice, and counsel the military!"

Jin Yuan Bao, military counselor?

Looking at this round little fatty, it was really impossible to associate him with the image of a military counselor who calculated every three steps and made strategic plans to determine victory from a thousand miles away!

"Senior brother Sima, regarding little fatty Jin's arrangements, did you make a mistake? I think it's more appropriate to put him in charge of the cooks 'army unit!"

Zhang Yiming blinked and accidentally blurted out what he was thinking.

With little fatty Jin's image, wasn't he just cut out to be a chef?

What military advisor? He should be a chef!

Jin Yuan Bao's face darkened. Who cared if the cooks 'army unit was suitable?

You, Zhang xiaopang, are more suitable!

Your whole family is very suitable to be a chef!

'But to be a military counselor ...' Jin Yuan Bao felt a little guilty. 'Could it be that I really have this talent, but I've never discovered it before?'

"Ha ... There is no need to doubt. Jin Yuan Bao is very suitable to be the military advisor. He is the young master of the gold yuan bank and is extremely talented in the area of calculation. Strategy is actually the art of calculation. In a battle, if you calculate all the possibilities in advance, you will basically not lose!"

Lin Yi explained with a smile.

Jin Yuan Bao might not have the ability to scheme, but he did not need too many schemes. As long as he could calculate what he needed, it would be fine!

Therefore, Jin Yuan Bao was worthy of the position of military advisor!

"Since senior brother Sima trusts this little brother, then this little brother will definitely do my best to assist senior brother!"

Jin Yuan Bao had inexplicably gained more confidence in himself. He immediately agreed to take on the position of military counselor, and then glanced at Zhang Yiming with a little pride.

So what if you're the Commander-in-Chief of tingfeng camp? I'm the military counselor. I can't control you!

Zhang Yiming rolled his eyes and pretended not to see it.

"The last one is Fei daqiang, who is in charge of logistics, supplies, and so on! Fei daqiang's task is very important, so you must put in more effort!"

Lin Yi reminded him. It was a good idea to give this position to Jin Yuanbao, but to let Fei daqiang be the strategist ... Forget it!

This guy only knew how to act pretentious.

"Don't worry, general Sima. I will not fail you!"

Fei daqiang was full of confidence. He didn't dare to say anything else, but when it came to managing money and food, it couldn't be considered a talent, but an instinct!

Lin Yi nodded and added a few more words, "The expedition this time is a bit urgent, and the Army will set off first. The provisions and supplies may not be complete, so we will need to prepare some on our own."

"I understand! General, just wait and see. This general will definitely not let our brothers go hungry!"

Fei daqiang's eyes lit up. Raising grain, to put it bluntly, wasn't it just collecting military grain? simple!

If he did well this time, he might be able to get the position of general of the broken Phoenix or general of the peaceful Phoenix.

"Alright, let's not talk about anything else. Everyone, prepare well. After a short rest, follow me to the drill ground to count our troops!"

Lin Yi looked at the sky-they'd be setting off tomorrow morning, and he could let the others sleep first.

It took time to gather the troops, and this was on the sub-Island. The soldiers were all body-tempering martial artists. Their levels might not be too high, but the preparation speed was very fast.

If it was the era of cold weapons in the secular world, it would be impossible to mobilize an Army without three to five days of preparation time.

"Senior brother Sima is the Commander-in-Chief of the three armies. It's a little too much for us to call him senior brother in the future! I think we should change the way we address each other from now on!"

Jin Yuan Bao suddenly said, rubbing his smooth chin, feeling a little regretful.

As senior brother Sima's number one military advisor, there should be a long beard on his chin.

Then, he would have something flashy in his hand to show off, such as a fan, a book, and the like. That would be very much like a military advisor!

"What the military counselor said makes sense. Look at me, I'm the one who calls you general!"

Fei daqiang was very proud. The feeling of being one step ahead was quite good!

"There's nothing wrong with calling me general, but this is only suitable for the capital. Once we go to war, we should be calling him Marshal!"

Jin Yuan Bao shook his head. Seeing that Fei da Qiang was a little puzzled, he said a few more words, "In the capital, the Conqueror's general naturally has to be addressed as general. However, when it comes to leading an Army on an expedition, the general is the Marshal. We have to address him as the Marshal."
