

Bodyguard 8101

Chapter 8101

Although those teachers who were still proud and reserved did not say anything, they did not object to seeing the princess's condition before making a conclusion.

"My description is not accurate. I'm afraid there is a possibility of misleading you, so I can't say much. Everything will depend on you!"

The old eunuch calmly shook his head and said with a smile, ""If I can see it, I can naturally see it. If I can't, I can't see it no matter what!"

Everyone was secretly angry. Was he underestimating the Alliance Academy?

In that case, you don't have to say anything. We'll just observe it ourselves!

He didn't believe that a Princess couldn't see the problem with her body.

To be able to come to the Alliance Academy, the possibility of him being sick was ruled out. If he was sick, he would look for a doctor. It was useless to come to the Academy. Therefore, his preliminary judgment was that something had happened during his body-tempering process.

in this aspect, the academy's teachers were the experts. it was only reasonable for the princess to come here to seek a solution.

"your highness, may i ask if you're feeling unwell? when did it start, and how long has it been?"

gu fengji appeared to be eager, and directly ran in front of the princess and asked with cupped fists, ""other than that, is it a constant discomfort or intermittent discomfort? if the discomfort was intermittent, how long was the interval between each time? how long does it last each time?"

a series of questions were thrown out, and gu fengji felt that he was very awesome. all of these questions were on point!

As long as the princess could answer them truthfully, it wouldn't be difficult to find the root of the problem!

Unfortunately, the princess on the Black Spirit Ferghana horse had no intention of speaking at all!

The young girl only glanced at Gu Fengji indifferently, and then no longer looked at him.

Gu Fengji's mouth twitched. What was the meaning of this?

Was he not bothered to answer? Or did he not want to answer? Still no way to answer?

He didn't say anything and didn't know anything. What should he do?

"Your Highness, is there any reason why it's inconvenient for you to speak? Why don't we talk about it in private? I don't think I have any problems with that, right?"

Wang BA's eyes lit up. She thought that the princess's discomfort was related to her gender, which was why Gu Fengji didn't get an answer.

As a female teacher, she had a natural advantage in this aspect!

As soon as the words left her mouth, Wang Ba guozi was full of confidence, feeling that she had grasped the main point.

Next, she worked hard and successfully courted the princess to obtain this student with a prominent status.

In the end ... The princess, who was still sitting on her horse, did not even look at Wang Ba, let alone pay attention to her!

Wang Ba waited for a while, and when she saw that the princess still did not respond, she knew that she was dead ...

The degree of this dust and dirt on his face seemed to be even more serious than Gu Fengji 's!

It was true that there would be no harm if there was no comparison. Gu Fengji was still a little glad in his heart at this moment. At least the princess Highness had glanced at him. Compared to Wang Ba and Gao Zi's complete disregard, he had much more face!

The smile on Wang BA's face gradually stiffened. No matter what, she was still an expert at the sea Rift stage and a teacher of the Alliance Academy. This was the first time she had been completely ignored by someone.

However, due to the other party's identity and background, Wang Ba did not dare to say anything.

"Isn't Your Highness a little too arrogant? If you don't want to cooperate, why did you come to our Alliance Academy?"

A middle-aged man with a square face said coldly, ""If you look down on our Alliance Academy, Your Highness, you can find someone you like to treat you. There's no need to be mysterious here!"

"That's right. With your attitude, we don't know and we don't dare to ask. What are we doing here?"

Beside the square-faced guy, another instructor who had a good relationship with him also frowned in support.

"How audacious! How dare you speak to His Highness like that!"

The old eunuch waved the horsetail whisk in his hand and stepped forward with a sharp voice, shouting, ""Director, is this how you manage your teachers?"

"eunuch liu, please calm down. this square-faced teacher is the third-ranked elite teacher of our alliance academy, lei da. he's more straightforward and doesn't mean to be disrespectful to the princess."

the dean explained in a tone that was neither humble nor arrogant. he didn't want lei da to really offend the princess.

this was not for the old lady to eavesdrop, but for the princess!

"hmph! am i wrong? the princess is not even saying anything, how can we treat her? doctors pay attention to what we see, listen, ask, and feel. we warriors just look at it. what can we see?"

Lei da snorted coldly. He didn't care about the pressure from the old eunuch and directly threw a face at the princess.

He had his own reasons for doing so. After all, he was the third-ranked elite teacher of the Alliance Academy. Not to mention how prestigious this identity was within the naduo conferred Empire, if he really couldn't live on because he offended the princess, he could use this identity to transfer to another conferred Empire or even another continent. He could still do well with it.

The princess on the horse sighed and showed a disappointed expression. "I originally thought that the teachers of the naduo Alliance Academy were all very powerful. In the end, they are not as good as they seem. They are not much different from the other mediocre people. They are all of mediocre standard!"

As soon as he said this, all the instructors' faces turned ugly, but they couldn't really refute him.

On one hand, the other party had a noble status. On the other hand, if you wanted to refute, you had to at least state the other party's problem, right?

In other words, a rebuttal had to be reasonable and backed up with evidence. The identity of a Princess was enough to crush you with just words!

"Forget it, I'll give you a chance. Ask whatever you want and I'll answer whatever I can!"

The princess waved her hand and glanced at Gu Fengji, "I can tell you what you asked just now. Recently, when I've been circulating my cultivation technique, the elemental Qi has been showing signs of slackening, and my muscles and bones have been aching unbearably. "

"If you don't circulate your cultivation technique, the above symptoms won't appear. However, your body will be filled with a weak feeling. This feeling of weakness will disappear when you circulate your cultivation technique."

After saying this, the princess looked at Gu Fengji.

"My discomfort is divided into two states, one is circulating my cultivation technique, and the other is not circulating it. They appear alternately. You can say that this is a continuous discomfort, but you can also say that it is intermittent."

Gu Fengji was dumbfounded. What was going on? I've never heard of it!

However, the princess had specially answered the previous question, which meant that she had listened carefully. It seemed that there was a chance to take her in!

"It's indeed a little tricky. I need to think about it!"

Gu Fengji's left hand was crossed over his chest, and his right hand was supporting his chin as if he was deep in thought. Even if his mind was a pile of mush and he didn't have any thoughts, he still had to maintain this posture.

It wasn't that he didn't have any ideas. At least, he was thinking about how to make the princess become his disciple. As for the treatment of those symptoms ... He would think about it when the time came!

Chapter 8102

No one said that it could be cured anyway, so it was normal to fail!

Wang Ba waited for the princess to respond to her, but she didn't. Not only did she not respond to her previous question, but she also didn't even look at her.

He was very hurt!

However, she didn't dare to show her face to the princess. She didn't have Lei DA's status and could only treat the princess with care.

"Your Highness, may I ask about Your Highness's age, attributes, cultivation technique, martial arts technique, and so on? did you encounter any problems in your cultivation before you felt unwell? Or did something unusual happen?"

Another teacher came out to ask, trying to find some clues from these aspects.

The princess answered them one by one with an expressionless face. Age was the admission age for new students of the Alliance Institute, and there was nothing special about it.

it had the water attribute, which was also nothing special.

cultivation methods and martial arts techniques weren't common. they were all high-level things, but there was nothing special about them.

problems and abnormalities in her cultivation were her current symptoms. other than that, there was no other difference.

the teacher was at a loss. he wanted to find the root of the problem, but he found out that the root was the problem itself. how could he play?

looking up at the princess on her horse, the teacher could only sigh in his heart. she was destined to be a student that he could not have!

sorry for the disturbance, goodbye!

"your highness, may i ask how old was the initial cultivation age? how's your cultivation progress?"

Another instructor changed his perspective and tried to see if he could find any problems from the progress of the training.

"Yes," the princess replied again. From the progress she described, there seemed to be nothing worth paying attention to except for his average talent and slightly higher aptitude.

There's nothing wrong with that!

This person had no choice but to retreat in defeat!

Two more people raised some questions, but they still didn't find anything wrong.

Lei da laughed coldly again, "Your Highness, from the current situation, you should be very healthy. There shouldn't be any problems!" Could it be that Your Highness is deliberately mystifying things and is here to test the teachers of our Alliance Academy?"

He almost said that the princess was just bored and looking for trouble!

"your highness, although your status is noble, if you use your status to do as you please, it's somewhat inappropriate, right? everyone, don't worry about her!"

lei da's mouth had a mocking smile.

by saying this, it was equivalent to telling everyone not to give face to the princess and to just quietly watch her performance.

the princess's pretty face showed some displeasure, and then it was full of disappointment. ""since you think this princess is pretending, then just treat it as this princess is pretending! naduo alliance academy, hehe, such a big name, but that's all there is to it!"

"Your Highness, I believe that Your Highness is indeed feeling unwell. It's just that we haven't found the reason yet. In fact, I have also studied medicine. Why don't Your Highness come under my tutelage first, and we can slowly study it?"

One of the top ten teachers ignored Lei da and said that he wanted to recruit the princess.

On the sub-Island, there was also a saying that a great teacher would produce an outstanding disciple. The students under a great teacher would be highly regarded when they went out, but at the same time, it was easier for an outstanding disciple to become a great teacher.

A student with a prominent status had a high chance of bringing a less famous teacher to the top.

For example, the princess in front of him could do this.

The other mentors also expressed their willingness to accept the princess and slowly study countermeasures.

In their eyes, it didn't matter whether the princess was acting or not. What was important was that there was no problem with her identity, so there was no problem!

Everyone was an ambitious teacher and it was normal to pursue something. Lei da couldn't say anything!

If he could use this opportunity to expand his reputation, he might have the opportunity to become a teacher at a higher college in the martial Alliance!

"Your Highness, these are the elite teachers of our Alliance Academy. Each and every one of them is extremely outstanding and has unique views on cultivation. I wonder if your Highness is interested in choosing one?"

The hospital director, who had been watching from the side for a long time, stood up and said, "Of course, if your Highness has any other thoughts, you can also tell us. We can all discuss it. What does your Highness think? Please explain!"

The princess sighed softly and seemed to be a little dispirited. "Alright! Since he was already at the Alliance Academy, he might as well study there for a while first! Which teacher in your Academy has the strongest divine sense? I want to be his disciple!"

As soon as he said that, a few instructors immediately looked disappointed.

They had no choice, they were very clear about the level of their own spiritual awareness!

"Hahahaha, in terms of divine sense, if I say I'm second among all the teachers in the Alliance Academy, I'm afraid no one would dare to say they're first!"

A thin man laughed and stepped out of the ranks. He cupped his fists to the princess and said, "I've sealed off the mountain. I'm ranked fifth among the teachers of the Alliance Institute, and I'm ranked first in the strength of my divine sense. I think it's the most suitable for the princess to become my disciple!"

This guy appeared as if he was invincible but no one refuted what he said. Even Lei TAA agreed with him.

Among all the teachers in the Alliance Academy, the strength of their divine sense was publicly acknowledged to be the best!

However, in terms of combat power, he was still a little lacking. Otherwise, he would not only be ranked fifth.

From Lin Yi's point of view, he had the strongest spirit sense, and his body wasn't weak either, but he was only ranked fifth-he was just a piece of trash!

"You're sealing the mountain and teacher Feng, right? Alright, it's you then!"

The princess glanced around and saw that the other teachers had no objections. This meant that the divine sense of this sealed mountain was indeed very strong, so she nodded in agreement.

"Wait!"

Lin Yi suddenly opened his mouth. Divine sense was his strength, how could he be convinced by others?

Besides, they were here to steal a student, and Lin Yi didn't care who the student was. He didn't care if they were arrogant or not, as long as he could get a kill."Just now, teacher Feng said that no one would dare to claim to be first in the Alliance Institute if he claimed to be second in divine sense strength. I don't quite agree with that because I dare to claim to be first!"

"Your Highness, I've already become Wu Linghai. I'm very confident in my deified soul. If this is your standard of choice, I think I'm the most suitable teacher for you!"

"How audacious! You're just a new teacher without any qualifications, yet you dare to speak here?"

Feng Shan's eyes widened, and a murderous look appeared on his face. ""And you dare to claim to be number one in the strength of your divine sense? Ignorant!"

Regardless of Feng Shan's reaction, the princess's eyes lit up.

Obviously, she knew what Wu Linghai was, so she was tempted.

Chapter 8103

Lei TAA sneered again, "you're indeed an ignorant kid. You think you're great just because you've made Wu Linghai?" It's a pity that Wu Linghai doesn't mean that his deified soul is powerful. After all, there's more than one Wu Linghai in our college, but no one dares to say that his deified soul is stronger than teacher Feng 's. "

Luo caidie, Wang Ba, Gao Zi, GUI Shan, and the others who had just become Wu Linghai had all reported back to the Academy. Wu Linghai was also a teacher, so there was no need to hide it.

In addition to the three new Wu Linghai, there were other instructors who had made Wu Linghai. However, as Lei TAA said, none of them had a stronger deified soul than the one who sealed the mountain.

More importantly, Feng Shan's deified soul sea was also Wu Linghai. However, after forming Wu Linghai, the strength of his deified soul didn't seem to increase much. It only improved in quality, so Feng Shan felt that Wu Linghai wasn't worth mentioning.

"Sima Yi's divine sense is really strong. Don't look at how his body refinement level is only at the great circle of mountain split ... Oh no, he has already broken through to the peak of the initial stage of earth split, but his divine sense far exceeds his body refinement level. He's definitely an expert!"

Luo caidie wanted to speak up for Lin Yi, but the princess rolled her eyes and gave up on the idea of joining Lin Yi's sect.

He was only at the peak of the initial stage of earth splitting realm ... How could he be compared with the other instructors who were at least at the early stage of sea splitting realm?

"Your Highness, there's no need to pay attention to such ignorant villains. I have Wu Linghai too! If I say I'm the number one divine sense teacher in the Alliance establishment Academy, then I'm number one! I'll be first even without Wu Linghai!"

"The reason why I didn't mention Wu Linghai before was that I realized that it wasn't much stronger than my deified soul sea after I achieved Wu Linghai. The Sorcerer tribe's techniques are nothing!"

"after training your deific consciousness, you're no weaker than wu linghai! therefore, wu linghai isn't a capital that can be used to show off!"

feng shan laughed arrogantly."so i am still the best choice for your highness. as long as you are willing, i am honored to be your highness 'teacher!'"

"so, teacher feng has also achieved wu linghai. that's indeed quite amazing!"

the princess's eyes lit up again.

she didn't know that even wu linghai had a difference in strength.

After all, only Lin Yi knew that Wu Linghai could be real or fake.

As a member of the Sorcerer tribe, great Starshine sorcerer couldn't pass on the real Wu Linghai to humans. What he had created were all fake Wu Linghai.

He believed that even Wu Linghai who had achieved his level in other places would be similar to the one created by great Starlight wizard.

Only Lin Yi's was the real Wu Linghai. After all, it was prepared for himself by the Starlight Magus, and there was no way he would cut corners.

However, the princess saw that he was recognized by everyone and had Wu Linghai, so he was indeed qualified to be her teacher.

"Since that's the case, I'll ..."

"Wait!"

The princess was just about to say she'd join the sect when Lin Yi interrupted her. "Your Highness, I still have something to say! Please wait a moment!"

"Say it, say it. What else do you want to say?" Lei TAA sneered. What else can you say? In terms of level, you can't be compared to us at all. In terms of divine sense, you're not as good as Feng Shan either. Even the Wu Linghai that you're so proud of has been sealed off. What else do you have to say?"

This guy's personality was cold and arrogant, and he would only look at people of the same level seriously.

Lin Yi's strength was clear for all to see, and so even though they didn't have any conflicts, he still liked to jump out and fight Lin Yi.

The princess's eyes flashed with disgust.

It wasn't just because Lei da and the others didn't like Lin Yi, but also because Lin Yi interrupted her.

Of course, the main thing was that Lin Yi wasn't strong enough, yet he still wanted to be her teacher.

But the princess herself was pretty well-mannered-she didn't like Lin Yi, but she still nodded."If you have anything to say, you can say it now!"

Wang Ba Gaozi was instantly hurt. 'I was ignored by you from the beginning to the end, but why didn't you ignore that little B * stard Sima Yi?'

Could it be that you can't bear to see me more beautiful than you?

Of course, she only dared to complain in her heart and could not say a single word. Once she said it out loud, the princess would definitely not ignore her anymore ...

"Your Highness! What I want to say is, I know where your problem lies!"

Lin Yi smiled confidently as he continued,"Through my previous observations and the answers His Highness gave to the others, I have a general understanding of the situation."

"Hehe! Pretending to be mysterious! If you really knew the cause of the princess's disharmony, why didn't you say so earlier?"

It was still Lei da who was disdainful of Lin Yi's words, "You didn't say it before, but now you're jumping out when your Highness is about to be sealed off. Who would believe you if you say you don't have ulterior motives?"

"Ha ... It doesn't matter if you believe me or not. I don't need your approval."

He glanced at Lei da and smiled proudly, "As long as Your Highness believes it, it's fine!"

It was still unknown whether the princess believed him or not, but it was undeniable that she was moved!

The most important thing in coming to the Alliance Academy was to find the problem and solve it!

If she really couldn't do it, she would take a step back and find a teacher with a strong divine sense to learn from.

Lin Yi's words hit the nail on the head, and the princess raised her hand. "This Princess would like to hear what you have to say about the crux of the problem. But before that, please explain why you didn't say it earlier. Now!"

Although she was anxious, the princess still maintained a certain level of restraint, giving face to the other teachers.

"Because the princess's illness is a bit special and involves your privacy, Your Highness. It's not convenient to speak directly."

Lin Yi explained unhurriedly, "after all, I wasn't very sure before. I only had some suspicions. It was bad to speak rashly, so I waited for a while. I only confirmed it when the princess mentioned the divine sense. The problem lies here!"

The princess's expression softened. Lin Yi had a point-she knew what was going on between them, and the disgust she felt faded a little when Lin Yi mentioned the divine sense, and she trusted him more.

Of course, if Lin Yi wasn't lying and was just making things up, the negative feelings would multiply. The princess might even be able to use the entire nado conferred Empire to deal with Lin Yi.

"Hehe, you speak as if it's real. Do you think anyone will believe you?"

Wang Ba Gaozi couldn't help but come out to make her presence known.

Anyway, with Lei da and Feng Shan, she wouldn't have a problem being targeted. "You're just trying to be mysterious. The princess is not stupid. She won't be fooled by you!"

"Shut up! Back down!"

The princess had just frowned slightly when the old eunuch, who had been observing her expression, came out directly and scolded Wang Ba loudly, "If you don't have the ability, then stay aside obediently. No one will think you're mute if you don't speak!"

Chapter 8104 The End

The old eunuch didn't dare to offend Lei da, Feng Shan, who was one of the top teachers in the Alliance Academy. However, he wasn't afraid of Wang Ba and Gao Zi, who were nameless and nameless. He could also vent the anger in his heart.

Wang Ba Gaozi's face flushed red, but she didn't dare to refute and could only retreat to the side.

GUI sun reached out and patted her arm to comfort her, but she grabbed a layer of skin and twisted it.

GUI Xun had a terrifying expression on her face, but she could only suppress her fear and not make a sound, afraid that she would disturb the princess and the others.

"Teacher Sima, do you really know the crux of this princess's illness, or did you guess it because I mentioned divine sense? If you really know, please tell me in detail!"

The princess didn't want to cause any more trouble, so she ignored the others and asked directly, ""As for my privacy ... You can decide for yourself if it's important. If it's just a normal situation, just say it."

She was also worried that it would really involve some important privacy, so she left some room for negotiation.

Lin Yi muttered to himself before waving at the princess. "Why don't you invite Her Highness over, and I'll tell you in secret?"

The princess hesitated, but after a slight nod, she gritted her teeth and got off the horse, walking slowly to Lin Yi.

She actually wanted everyone to leave, but she was worried that Lin Yi was just trying to act mysterious and didn't have any real skills, so she didn't say anything.

What if he was really just trying to please the crowd? wouldn't he be laughed at if he took this matter so seriously?

"Your Highness, please come closer!"

The old eunuch was about to scold Lin Yi for his request, but the princess didn't seem to be angry at all.

The princess didn't think much of it. Since it was her privacy, it didn't matter if they were closer.

Lin Yi put a hand to his mouth and whispered into princess's ear.

The princess blushed, not sure if it was because of Lin Yi's approach or if it was because of what he said.

As for what she was talking about, only Lin Yi and her knew.

"How audacious! How dare you profane the princess! Do you know your crime?"

The old eunuch couldn't hold it in any longer. From his angle, he only saw Lin Yi's mouth close to the princess's face, and he subconsciously thought that Lin Yi was using this opportunity to secretly kiss the princess, making the princess's face turn red!

Preposterous, this was simply preposterous!

The princess was such a precious and pampered person, yet she was actually taken advantage of by this kid!

This was immoral! This was the distortion of human nature!

The old eunuch was just about to attack Lin Yi when the princess suddenly hugged Lin Yi, her face filled with excitement.

The old eunuch, who had already begun to move, was instantly petrified. He was as still as a statue.

The others were also dumbfounded, looking at each other, not knowing what to do.

What the hell was this?

Why did he hug her?

So what was the problem with the princess? You want a kiss or a hug?

You should have said so earlier!

I can do this too!

He's really too cheap!

Looking for that kid ... You should be looking for me!

Most of the people had similar thoughts in their minds, but they could not say a word on the surface.

They couldn't just drag Lin Yi away and let them do it themselves, could they?

Luo caidie frowned slightly. She definitely didn't have such thoughts. She just felt that this Princess was a bit improper!

How could he do this?

Under broad daylight, under the eyes of everyone, it was against decency!

"Hehe, pretty boy, you're at an advantage! You're so attractive to little girls. Teacher Feng, you're just an old cured meat, you can't compare to the young fresh meat!"

Wang Ba didn't dare to mock the princess directly, so she used Lin Yi to mock the princess and give Feng Shan a way out.

You didn't lose because of your strength, but because of your age and appearance. It's not a crime of fighting!

Feng Shan's mouth twitched. He wasn't very satisfied with this step, but he had no other choice.

He felt that he was a very charming uncle. How could those young boys compare to him?

"Sima Yi, what did you say to the princess? What kind of bewitching trick is this?"

Lei da wasn't convinced. He felt that Lin Yi did something to stop the princess from sleeping with him.

"Instructor Sima, I'll be your disciple from now on! I'm willing to learn from you, teacher!"

The princess didn't care what the others were saying-her face was still red and excited as she confirmed her decision to join Lin Yi's sect.

Feng Shan's expression changed drastically. He had thought that he would definitely accept this Princess as a student, but he didn't expect that a cooked duck could still fly. Halfway through, it had been intercepted by someone!

"Mentor Lei, you're right. Sima Yi must have used some method to bewitch the princess. This person is simply immoral!"

Wang Ba went along with Lei DA's words and ignored GUI sun's hints.

GUI sun felt that Lin Yi was a Grandmaster himself, and was about to become the princess "teacher. Wang Ba and Gao Zi weren't qualified to deal with Lin Yi.

So, it was fine to play tricks behind Lin Yi's back, but it was best not to fight him head-on.

Letting Lei da seal the mountain and the others charge at the front while Wang Ba Gaozi stabbed him in the back was good, but now that they'd completely offended Lin Yi, Wang Ba Gaozi would be the one to suffer in the end!

Unfortunately, GUI sun's eyeballs were about to fall out from her eye signals, but Wang Ba Gaozi ignored them.

Even if their eyes met, she would pretend that she didn't see anything.

GUI sun felt that the one who was bewitched was not the princess, but Wang Ba and Gao Zi?

It was as if he had been possessed!

He was courting death with his strength!

"That's right, such a morally corrupt person has no right to be a teacher at our Alliance Academy, much less to teach Her Highness! I think we should fire him!"

Another mentor chimed in, and his comments were even more intense. GUI Shan almost cried. This was really a good person!

He sacrificed himself for others without asking for anything in return and jumped out at the critical moment to attract firepower. He was a good person!

Unfortunately, good people don't live long. I hope you have a good life ...

GUI sun felt that with this teammate's help, Lin Yi would most likely target this person first if he wanted revenge in the future. Wang Ba and Gao Zi were safe for now.

However, when Wang Ba Gaozi saw that someone agreed with her, she became even more excited and raised her neck to speak again.

GUI sun really wanted to cry. It wasn't easy for someone to take the Thunder, why do you want to snatch it back?

Fortunately, before Wang Ba and Gao Zi could speak, Lei da spoke first, and he was speaking to the director.

Therefore, Wang Ba and Gao Zi temporarily stopped and wanted to see the director's reaction.

"Principal, Sima Yi has a problem with his moral character. Furthermore, his strength is not even at the level of a mentor in our Alliance Academy. I really don't know how he managed to sneak into the Academy!"

Lei DA's target was clear, "I think that we should expel Sima Yi from the Alliance Academy, so that he doesn't taint our Academy's reputation!"

Chapter 8105

As soon as these words came out, it immediately attracted a lot of agreement.

Most of them didn't have much interaction with Lin Yi, but they weren't happy that the princess wanted to join Lin Yi's sect.

Feng Shan's strength was clear for all to see, but Lin Yi's strength was clear for all to see, no one was convinced!

If he didn't have the strength to occupy the best resources, he would definitely attract the anger of the masses!

The Dean was tempted as well-he'd wanted to kick Lin Yi out anyway, but he needed an excuse.

And now, with the many mentors' petition, it didn't seem to be a problem to go with the flow and agree to it!

"Your Highness! I'm very sorry that something bad has happened. It's our Alliance Academy's mistake to have such an unreliable teacher. I hereby apologize to Your Highness!"

the dean walked up to the princess and formally apologized, and was about to fire lin yi and ask the princess to find a more reliable mentor.

however, the princess did not wait for him to speak. she smiled and waved her hand."principal, you're too polite. there's nothing to apologize for. the alliance academy truly lives up to its reputation. it's unexpectedly good to have such an outstanding teacher like teacher sima!"

the dean's mouth twitched. he thought that the princess was being sarcastic, but he didn't think so ...

"i've already decided that i'll be learning from teacher sima from now on. i'd like to ask the dean to help make arrangements ... well, it seems that there's no need for the dean to show up. i can just directly become teacher sima's disciple, right?" the princess said.

the princess seemed to have suddenly remembered her special privilege. as long as she was a teacher of the alliance academy, she could choose whether or not to study under the other party, regardless of whether they were recruiting new students or not.

how convenient!

the dean laughed awkwardly, thinking,"i was just about to expel sima yi, but you've already set your mind on him ... what should i do about this?"

"That ... Your Highness, Sima Yi is our Academy's new mentor. It has not been officially confirmed whether he will stay in the Academy to teach."

He had no choice but to come up with a reason, hoping to dispel the princess's thoughts. "Why don't we do this? Your Highness, why don't you become a disciple of teacher Feng Shan? Teacher Feng Shan is an extremely famous teacher in our Alliance Academy. His teaching standards have been certified, so there's absolutely no problem!"

"No need, this Princess only wants teacher Sima! Could it be that with this Princess here, teacher Sima still can't be given an official teacher's identity?"

The princess raised her head arrogantly, and a glint flashed across her beautiful eyes. "If that's the case, I don't mind bringing teacher Sima to another Academy. I believe that the other Academies would be very willing to accept such an outstanding teacher!"

This was considered a threat. It was only because the princess' identity was noble enough. Otherwise, if it were anyone else who said this, the Dean would have immediately turned hostile!

The Dean couldn't do anything now that the princess was so determined. He could only bring up what everyone thought was Lin Yi's indecent assault. "Your Highness, you don't need to feel burdened. Tell me the truth, did Sima Yi threaten you? He molested you just now, and everyone saw it ..."

"Director, what are you guys thinking about?"

the princess's expression was a little strange and startled, and then a little embarrassed. "when has teacher sima ever molested this princess? just now, the teacher pointed out some of my private symptoms and the root cause of these symptoms! why is it that in your eyes, it's such a dirty thing?"

"your royal highness, do not be deceived by sima yi's alarmist words. he is most likely just pretending to be mysterious to scare you, he is not really capable!"

lei min frowned and continued to insult lin yi.

lin yi didn't understand-the guy didn't even say anything when the mountain was sealed off, so what was this guy doing dancing around?

are you crazy?

"Don't I know if you're exaggerating or not?"

The princess's face darkened, clearly displeased. "Those symptoms that were not mentioned, you guys didn't even ask about them, let alone see them. However, teacher Sima saw them clearly, and you say that he was deliberately mystifying? Then come and show me how mysterious you are!"

Lei min was suddenly at a loss for words. If he could see it, would he have waited until now?

"Your Highness, may I ask what exactly did Sima Yi say? What's the problem with the princess's phoenix body?"

Feng Shan finally couldn't help but ask.

According to the princess's firm attitude, he knew that he had lost, but he didn't know why he had lost, so he wanted to find out!

He would die in peace!

"Alright. Actually, my problem isn't a secret in the martial Alliance. If someone had paid attention to the reports in the martial Alliance, they would have found out."

The princess raised her head and tucked a strand of hair behind her ear. Her pale face looked crystal clear under the sun, like a porcelain doll that could be broken by a blow.

If this person's status wasn't so noble, he could still be considered a cultivation partner!

This was what many single male teachers were thinking.

Their attention was not even on the illness that the princess was talking about. Instead, their eyes were fixed on the princess's face.

If it wasn't for their weak divine senses, they would have scanned the princess.

Of course, only Lin Yi had the ability to do something like that. Martial artists had elemental Qi to protect their bodies, and they also had protective instruments on them. The higher the status of the person, the higher the level of the instrument.

Forcefully using one's spiritual sense to scan not only consumed one's own spiritual sense, but it was also easy to be devoured by the magic tool.

Lin Yi, on the other hand, wouldn't even bother doing that.

Having too many female confidants was also a problem sometimes. It was not good to look at anyone first.

Seeing one person naked, the others would definitely not be happy.

How about Yushu?

And then Yaoyao?

And then, it was song Lingshan?

Lin Yi felt that the three had seen everything.

It seemed like ... There were more.

He even touched Feng Xiaoxiao.

What a headache.

Lin Yi's thoughts were wild.

.....

"This is the reason why I'm not feeling well. I've also guessed that the problem originated from this, but I can't prove it. Even if I can prove it, there's no solution."

At this point, the princess released her divine sense.

The people present were all teachers from the Alliance Academy, and their divine senses were not weak. They immediately discovered the problem.

The princess had actually released two divine senses!

'How ... How is this possible?'

How could a person have two divine senses?

One of the spiritual awareness was at the strength of the original infant stage, while the other was only at the strength of the Golden core stage, and it was even at the early golden core stage!

Lin Yi had never seen anything like this before.

Lin Yi could release two of his own, but the other one belonged to a ghost-it couldn't be replicated.

Chapter 8106

To the teachers present, this level of two divine senses could be said to be weak, but they had never heard of a person who could have two divine senses at the same time!

In addition, although the strength of these two divine senses was relatively weak, they seemed to have a very strong aftereffect!

It was obvious that the princess usually paid a lot of attention to the cultivation of her divine sense.

It could even be said that her body refining strength wasn't very good, perhaps because she usually used her martial arts on her spiritual sense.

"How could this be? What's going on with the princess?"

Everyone was very puzzled, but at the same time, they understood why the princess said she wanted to become a disciple of the teacher with the strongest divine sense.

It turned out that she actually had two divine senses!

It was normal for cultivators to have two attributes, but having two divine senses was unheard of.

Who would create two divine senses for no reason? the strength of the combined divine sense was high!

"Since the princess is willing to tell me, I'll explain the following situation!"

It wasn't that Lin Yi wanted to show off, but the princess didn't really understand either. It might not be clear even if he explained it to her.

As for some of the princess's private symptoms, he naturally would not say anything.

"As everyone can see, Her Highness the princess has two divine senses! As for why? It was because the princess had two seas of consciousness! Doesn't that sound unbelievable? When I found out, I also found it unbelievable! To be exact, it's a deified soul sea and a Wu spirit sea!"

"I don't know how the princess managed to achieve this, but her spiritual sea and Wu Linghai are mutually restricted, which has a certain restriction on her cultivation!"

With that, Lin Yi waved his hand and suppressed one of the princess's consciousness, leaving only the original one. "This divine sense is the princess's own divine sense, and it is also released from her own sea of consciousness."

With that, Lin Yi waved his hand again, releasing the Golden core spirit sense. "And this one is released from the Wu Linghai!"

"If I'm not wrong, when the princess was young, her spiritual sense was particularly outstanding, and you planned to focus on cultivating your spiritual sense, right?"

The princess nodded slightly and was about to answer, but Feng Shan sneered and said, "What you're asking is pure nonsense. The strength of the princess's spiritual sense is so pure and profound, so it's natural that she mainly cultivates the spiritual sense! And she also said just now that she wanted to take a spiritual sense expert as her master!"

This was what pissed Feng Shan off the most-he thought that he was the strongest, but Lin Yi jumped out and said,"Her Highness also said that everything you've said can be found in martial League! If I remember correctly, you're working part-time in the martial League, and you're in a high position at that. It shouldn't be a problem for you to get this information, right?"

"Oh, you're right. And then? If there's nothing else, I'll continue!"

Lin Yi shrugged, his face making it look like he didn't care, "That's why you went to Wu Linghai to cultivate your deified soul! However, there were some mistakes during the process. The deific consciousness sea was originally the Wu Linghai, but the princess kept her own deific consciousness sea and established a separate Wu Linghai!"

Feng Shan's face turned red, just like Princess 's.

He was just about to say that everyone could figure it out when Lin Yi continued,"Eh? Why is teacher Feng Shan's face so red? Could it be that I kissed her too? That's why dirty people will always Think Dirty things. It's obviously not like that, but you have to think that way!"

Lin Yi's words were vague, but Feng Shan's face turned even redder.

"Alright, let's continue! The princess might have been happy when she first became Wu Linghai. After all, the co-existence of the two would be a trump card in the future! Therefore, the princess intends to cultivate both the Sorcerer and the God at the same time. In the beginning, the princess's cultivation may be very smooth, and she can improve both!"

"However, as time passed, the princess discovered that the time and energy required to improve both of them together was twice that of improving one of them! This will take up too much time, and the loss outweighs the gain!"

"so, the princess began to upgrade one of them, but helplessly discovered that after one of them broke through, it could not continue to upgrade. in other words, wu linghai and his deific consciousness can be one level apart, but definitely not two!"

"if both your spiritual sea and wu linghai are at the golden core stage, you can choose one to cultivate to the nascent soul stage. if you want to raise the yuanying stage to the xuansheng stage, you must cultivate both to the yuanying stage. this way, the later cultivation will be more and more difficult. "

"therefore, the princess's recent improvement should be very slow. in addition, her body will have many uncomfortable symptoms because the level of her spiritual sea and wu linghai are not synchronized."

"The symptoms that Your Highness mentioned before are not due to the cultivation technique or martial technique, but because the spiritual sea and the Wu Linghai are not in the same step, which leads to the rejection of the body! If you want to treat it, you have to solve the problem of synchronization between the two. "

The princess was excited and kept nodding.

She might not know the root of the symptoms, but she could feel that there was a problem with the difference in her spiritual sea and Wu Linghai.

Therefore, before she found a solution, she wanted to learn from a teacher with a strong deified soul so that she could improve both her deified soul sea and Wu Linghai quickly.

This was a stupid way to treat the symptoms but not the root of the problem, but it was the only way she could solve it at the moment!

This was because the experts of the divine sense Association of the continent's martial Alliance had all gone out to do something big, so she could only settle for the second-best option, which was to go to the Alliance Institute under the jurisdiction of the naduo martial Alliance branch.

Lin Yi's words to the princess were basically that, but he didn't need to go into so much detail to the princess-she'd understand with just a light tap.

This was why the princess was so excited to make Lin Yi her master.

To be able to see the crux of the problem and explain it in detail, it was obvious that there was some research done and there was probably a solution to it.

Teacher Sima, what you said is correct. Then may I ask if there is a way to solve this princess's problem?"

"Of course!"

Lin Yi nodded with certainty and put his hands behind his back. He smiled at the princess, "Take me as your master and become my disciple. I'll personally teach you the solution!"

What a joke, after all that preparation, Lin Yi just wanted to take this head to make up the numbers!

and so, before the princess took him as her master, lin yi wouldn't tell her how to solve it easily!

"yes!"

the princess nodded without hesitation and was about to acknowledge him as her master.

she'd already decided to become lin yi's disciple, so naturally, she wouldn't have any objections. she wanted to go through the ceremony, but feng shan stopped her.

Chapter 8107 Who Leaked The News?

"Your Highness, don't believe him! This person's strength wasn't strong, so he was most likely a liar! As I've said before, he has a part-time job in martial League. Perhaps he's already collected information on Your Highness, and that's why he knows so much. "

Feng Shan felt that it was embarrassing to let Lin Yi take away a noble student like his Princess like this. He wanted to make a final struggle, "Of course, even if what he said is true, Your Highness shouldn't look for him. I believe that my deified soul is the strongest. I can definitely help you improve the strength of your Wu Linghai and deified soul!"

"That's right. Sima Yi is a liar. Your Highness, please don't believe him ..."

Wangba Gaozi hadn't learned her lesson yet, and jumped out to defame Lin Yi again.

GUI sun stood beside her with a look of despair.

This was really courting death in all sorts of ways, and there was no way to save him!

"Hehe, you're right. Although this person's strength isn't high, he likes to act tough. He even dares to be so presumptuous in front of us. It can be seen that he's the head of acting tough!"

Feng Shan laughed coldly at Wang Ba, mocking Lin Yi.

Lin Yi was speechless-he'd been keeping such a low profile, how did this guy know he was the head of the show?

Who was the one who leaked the news?

"Your Highness, please reconsider. Sima Yi is really not suitable to be Your Highness 'teacher. In my opinion, Feng Shan is more suitable for Your Highness than Sima Yi!"

Lei da tried his best to persuade the princess. No matter who the princess ended up with, he couldn't let Lin Yi be happy.

"All of you shut up! Stop quarreling here!"

Lin Yi was getting impatient-he just wanted one more kill, why was it so hard?

There were only two of them, including the princess. They were still short of one head. Where would they find the time to waste with them?

Since you said that I'm the head of acting tough, then I'll show you how to act tough. I'll let you see the true skills of acting tough.

Lei da, Feng Shan, and the others didn't understand what they meant by quarreling, but they knew it wouldn't be anything good. They were all angry!

This brat actually dared to make an explosion?

Getting angry in front of the Dean and so many seniors?

Who gave him the courage!

"Hehe, newborn calves are not afraid of Tigers. Since you're so awesome, why don't you prove to us that you have the ability to be Her Highness's teacher!"

Feng Shan sneered and ridiculed, "I'm not talking about your body refining level. Everyone knows about that thing. There's no need to bring it out and embarrass yourself. What you need to prove now is that you can help the princess, not that you're making irresponsible remarks to deceive His Highness!"

"That's right. First of all, you have to prove that you won't mislead the students. Her Highness is not an ordinary person. You have to show your corresponding level first before you are qualified to talk about whether you can be Her Highness's teacher!"

Lei da supported sealing the mountain. In other words, they didn't think that Lin Yi could cure the princess's problem immediately.

Even if they didn't know at first that the Dean was targeting Lin Yi, someone had already secretly explained it to them after they came here.

They knew that if Lin Yi couldn't cure the princess today, the Alliance Academy wouldn't be able to tolerate him anymore!

Today was the day of recruitment, and Lin Yi had put all his time on curing the princess-he didn't have the time to recruit.

When new students had a choice, who would go to an unknown and inexperienced mentor like Lin Yi?

They didn't mind the princess's declaration of going to another school with Lin Yi.

Lin Yi didn't show his ability to heal the princess, so he was expelled by the Alliance Academy. The princess probably wouldn't say anything.

"Ha ... Even if you don't tell me, I will still treat her Highness!"

Lin Yi didn't seem to notice the evil intentions of these guys, and accepted confidently.

From what Lei da and the others saw, Lin Yi was just too young and couldn't take it.

How could the problem of the spiritual sense be so easily solved?

Even if Lin Yi had the ability to solve this problem, it wouldn't be done in a short time.

As long as he made it through today, he'd be done for if he couldn't get three students!

And so, Lei da and the others all smiled at Lin Yi's words.

It's settled!

As expected, this kid was still too young!

From the moment he agreed to treat the princess, Sima Yi, that silly boy, was completely useless!

Lin Yi had a smile on his face as well. Other people thought that healing the princess was a difficult task, at least not something they could do today, but only Lin Yi knew that it wasn't a problem at all!

That was because the princess's Wu Linghai was also from the Starlight great wizard!

He wondered how she had entered the Forest of Illusions and become Wu Linghai with such weak strength.

Well ... It couldn't be considered Wu Linghai's accomplishment. If he had, the current situation wouldn't have happened.

It could only be said that this Princess was a test subject that the Starlight Magus had casually made to test his sudden inspiration.

To put it more bluntly, the princess's Wu Linghai was actually a failed semi-finished product. The Starlight wizard threw it away after playing with it for a while and didn't take it to heart at all.

If he hadn't met her this time, the Starlight Magus probably wouldn't have remembered that there was such a person even in his death.

Lin Yi's confidence came from this.

The one who caused the princess's condition was in the Jade space, and Starlight Magus 'Wu Linghai had become Lin Yi' s. It naturally suppressed the separated Wu Linghai and had the possibility of improving and perfecting it.

Lin Yi had already talked to the Starlight Magus about this. There was no problem with the treatment, and it wouldn't take too much time.

"please step back and leave enough space. i'll immediately solve the princess's weakness in her divine sense."

lin yi waved his hand without hesitation.

lei da and the others were all waiting to see lin yi make a fool of himself and didn't mock him. they cooperated and backed off, leaving a twenty-meter radius of space for lin yi and the princess.

"na duo, should i thank you for the trouble you left behind? if not, i wouldn't have had the chance to take the princess under my wing!"

lin yi extended his spirit sense out and didn't forget to tease the starlight magus.

the starlight great shaman wanted to take the credit, but he was ruthlessly suppressed by the nine neonate before he could finish his words!

If he didn't suppress this temporary worker a few more times, what if he made a comeback?

Lin Yi didn't bother with them and started focusing on the princess's sea of consciousness.

The difference in strength between them was too big, and Lin Yi had to be careful. If he wasn't careful, his powerful spirit sense could destroy the princess's sea of consciousness.

Chapter 8108 Paying Respects To Master

Although he could rebuild the Wu Linghai after it was destroyed, the process would take a lot of unnecessary time.

The princess herself would also appear to be in a state of pain. It was better not to play like this in front of everyone.

The Starlight Magus wanted to offer his help, but Lin Yi rejected him. His Wu Linghai was already Lin Yi's, what else could he do?

It would be done if he could provide some experience points later!

"Your Highness, try to release the consciousness in your deific consciousness sea and Wu Linghai!"

Lin Yi's spirit sense got into position without the princess noticing, and he guided her with words.

His sea of consciousness and Wu Linghai started to surge. The two were like the two sides of a Tai Chi, complementing each other but also clearly separating. However, one side was stronger and the other was weaker, causing the balance to be lost.

What Lin Yi's spirit needed to do was actually very simple. He just needed to build a bridge between the two, allowing his sea of consciousness to break through the barrier and flow from one end to the Wuling sea, and then flow back from the other end.

After one round, the sea of consciousness and the sea of sorcery started to merge. The two gradually blended and converged, slowly blurring the boundary and starting to become one.

For example, the sea of consciousness was clear water, and the Wuling sea was ink. There was a barrier between the two, like a pair of pots. Lin Yi opened two holes in the barrier, forming a circulation on both sides.

And so, the clear water quickly turned into ink.

At the same time, the princess's sea of consciousness and Wu Linghai experienced a qualitative leap under the enhancement of Lin Yi's Wu Linghai.

The whole process didn't last long. Lei da and the others were still watching the show and the sneers on their lips didn't disappear. The princess who was surrounded by them broke through!

After combining the two, the half-finished Wu Linghai became a finished product. Although it was still a simplified version of Lin Yi's Wu Linghai, its power was many times stronger.

Xuansheng stage!

Not only did Wu Linghai advance to the mysterious Ascension stage, but even her body tempering level had also increased!

The sub-Island didn't have a situation where the strength of primordial spirit improved the level of the physical body. The princess was an exception this time.

The conflict between her deific consciousness sea and Wu Linghai had led to problems in her cultivation. However, without knowing the reason, she could only desperately pile resources on her body.

As a Princess, resources were not a problem at all, so her accumulation was only more than MA pijing 's.

This time, with the help of Wu Linghai's phenomenal success, the accumulated resources immediately found a vent, pushing her body cultivation level to the mysterious Ascension stage.

And this only consumed a part of her accumulation. As she cultivated in the future, her strength would rapidly increase further.

One could say that Lin Yi didn't just solve the princess's problem this time, he even raised her talent by a huge amount!

The simultaneous improvement of her primordial spirit and body caused the princess's aura to explode. Whirlwinds started to form in the surrounding space.

Lei TAA, Feng Shan and the others "expressions changed!

Great circle of xuansheng?

Moreover, his spiritual sense and body refinement level had reached the great circle of mysterious Ascension at the same time!

What the hell happened? Am I dreaming?

Previously, the princess's body-tempering level had not even reached the great circle of the original level. Now, she had directly reached the great circle of the mysterious Ascension level?

Feng Shan's eyes widened when he sensed the primordial spirit fluctuation.

This divine sense ... Was the most top-notch great circle of mysterious Ascension! In fact, he wasn't any weaker than an ordinary early stage mountain split cultivator!

How did he do it?

It was obvious that Sima Yi, that brat, had not done anything at all. He had only asked the princess to release her divine sense!

This level of guidance ... I can do it too!

The princess stabilized herself a little after breaking through, and ran to Lin Yi excitedly. She kneeled down and bowed to Lin Yi.

The old eunuch in the distance was shocked. This was the princess!

How could he just kneel down and bow to someone?

"Disciple Qin mengzhen pays her respects to master!"

The princess said her name for the first time and kowtowed to Lin Yi with a serious face.

This was no longer an ordinary etiquette between teachers and students in the Academy. This was a true apprenticeship gift!

As long as Lin Yi agreed, he would immediately be Princess Qin mengzhen's master, not just any other teacher!

There could be many teachers, but there would normally only be one true master!

No one had expected Qin mengzhen to suddenly make such a move.

Acknowledging a master was not a joke!

As the saying goes, a teacher for a day is a father for life. Master, master, in a sense, was the same as her father. The relationship between the two of them was much closer than that of ordinary teacher and student.

Lin Yi blinked as well-he just wanted to get three people to stay at the Alliance Academy, he'd never thought of taking in a disciple ...

But come to think of it, whether it was a student or a disciple, Lin Yi would do his best to teach them.

Thus, it didn't matter how he addressed her. He could do whatever Qin mengzhen wanted.

"Since you've become my disciple and acknowledged me as your master, you have to follow my rules. Can you do that?"

Lin Yi muttered to himself before putting on the air of a teacher. "If you can't do it, then just be my student normally. I won't hide anything from you."

"Shizun, this disciple is willing to listen to shizun's instructions! Please accept me as your disciple, master!"

Qin mengzhen had already made up her mind to become Lin Yi's true disciple. This wasn't just to show her gratitude after Lin Yi solved the problem, but more importantly, she had discovered Lin Yi's miraculous ability.

Other people might not understand what happened, but she didn't feel anything at first. However, when she broke through, or rather, when her sea of consciousness and Wu Linghai merged into one, she felt Lin Yi's spirit sense!

It was truly as vast as the sea and unfathomable!

More importantly, her newly born Wu Linghai actually had a natural sense of submission in front of Lin Yi's divine sense ... It was terrifying!

It was clear that Lin Yi was her chance, and she had to grab it no matter what!

Qin mengzhen would not change her mind no matter what others said!

"Alright, since you sincerely want to acknowledge me as your master, I'll accept you!"

Lin Yi nodded-this seemed a little rushed, but neither of them really cared. As long as their relationship was solid, all the other superficial things didn't matter.

The Dean's face darkened. If Qin mengzhen became Lin Yi's disciple, it meant that she would follow Lin Yi no matter if he taught at the Alliance college or not!

With that, firing Lin Yi would become a little troublesome.

Even if Qin mengzhen were to open her mouth, the Dean would have to consider whether or not to expel Lin Yi without receiving the three students.

"Alright, if there's nothing else, you can all disperse!"

Lin Yi's lips curled up into a smile as he waved to the crowd, "Although the result is not what you want, I can't do anything about it. Everyone, go back to your own homes!"

Chapter 8109 Joint Suppression

With that, Lin Yi didn't care how the others reacted and called for Qin mengzhen, MA pijing, and the still-dazed caidie to leave the room.

It was still early. As long as he could find another student to join, he would be able to stay in the Alliance Academy and be a teacher.

Qin mengzhen was there, and it wouldn't be a problem even if he didn't get three, but Lin Yi didn't want to leave behind the bad reputation of relying on his disciples.

"Sima Yi, you're really amazing! I've always thought that I've overestimated you, but I never thought that I'd still underestimate you in the end!"

Luo caidie praised and sighed, ""You've accepted a Princess as a disciple right off the bat. Isn't your starting point a little too high? I've been here for so long, but I've never received a student with such a distinguished status!"

"By the way, you've already accepted two students. How are you going to accept the third? Now that most of the new students have already entered the Academy, how about we just randomly pick up a few along the way?"

Luo caidie really didn't say this casually.

With Qin mengzhen as a living signboard, even if Lin Yi didn't have much of a reputation in the school, he had a good chance of getting a few new students.

Just like what was said before, a great teacher would become a great disciple. Similarly, a great disciple would also increase the teacher's reputation.

Qin mengzhen was an excellent example.

All the teachers of the Alliance Academy went out to welcome her. It was obvious how noble her status was. Among the new students, there might be some who wanted to become the princess's fellow disciples. As for who the teacher was, it didn't matter.

After all, they wanted to get close to the princess, which was the best shortcut for a good future.

"Hmm...That's a good idea, but it's probably too late!"

Lin Yi smiled bitterly. He'd just separated from those guys, and they'd already made their move.

Lin Yi wasn't there, but his spiritual sense was enough to monitor the entire school.

"Everyone, are you all going to let a new junior like Sima Yi suppress you? Especially teacher Feng Shan and teacher Lei da. The face you've lost to Sima Yi is the face of all the teachers of the Alliance College!"

Wang Ba Gaozi spoke very quickly and passionately, even she herself almost believed this reason. "In order not to be completely suppressed by a mere new instructor, I suggest that all the instructors participating in this year's recruitment immediately send people to take the initiative to start recruiting students!"

"As long as we take down all the new students before Sima Yi does, and prevent him from recruiting a third student, we will be able to completely suppress him! When the time comes, the initiative will be in our hands. Whether or not we should give face to Her Highness and keep him in the Academy, it will be up to the Dean!"

Not all of the instructors participating in the recruitment did not have their old students by their side. It was only because some of them had graduated that they would recruit some new students.

And so, they were different from the loner Lin Yi-they had a lot of old students they could use, and it'd be much easier for them to do stuff like that.

For example, to carry out the plan that Wang Ba Gaozi had proposed.

"That makes sense! This is a good idea, count me in!"

Gu Fengji was the first to respond to the call.

Feng Shan was only slapped in the face because he didn't accept the princess as a new student, but Lin Yi took away an old student from him!

Even if he sent Xiao Ma as a spy, he didn't know if it would be effective. Now that he had really lost his face, he needed to get it back as soon as possible!

"I think we can do it!"

"I also think it's fine!"

The other instructors who were participating in the recruitment responded one after another.

They didn't have much to do with Lin Yi, but there was no need for a reason when it came to choosing sides-it was always the bigger picture.

There was no loss in participating. They could also give face to Lei TAA and Feng Shan. If they didn't participate, they would offend them!

So when Lin Yi told Caidie that it was too late, it really was too late.

Before the instructors had returned, they had already sent messages to their respective students through various means, asking them to increase their efforts to intercept the students at the entrance and recruit students.

As long as there was an intention, he would not refuse!

It didn't matter what talent or aptitude he had. Now was the time to fight for kills. He just had to roll up his sleeves and do it!

"Why not? I think that with your level and the appearance of these two, you should be able to move those new people!"

Caidie didn't realize that something was wrong yet, so she thought that Lin Yi's words were strange, "Sima Yi, you have to have confidence in yourself! We're just short of one student. We can easily recruit them with some publicity!"

What she didn't know was that when she said this, those new students who came to report had already been swiftly divided up by the other instructors with lightning speed!

Faced with the active recruitment of these famous, experienced, and powerful instructors, how could the new students reject them?

There was no need to talk about better choices if he rejected them. It was more likely that he would not be able to meet a better mentor after he rejected them.

They didn't know that Lin Yi's side was short of people, and so they accepted the offers without hesitation!

Of course, even if he knew that Lin Yi was lacking manpower, he would still have to consider it.

After all, it would be unwise to reject a famous teacher in order to build a good relationship with a Princess whose background was unknown.

As for Lin Yi's reputation?

He had never heard of it.

"How could this be? You really can't recruit any more?"

Luo caidie was busy for a long time. Finally, her eyes widened and she had to accept this fact!

All the new students that could be found already had a teacher, and they did not have any sense of existence to the name Sima Yi.

The sun was about to set, and the Alliance College's recruitment was coming to an end. Lin Yi's side still only had two students, MA pijing and Qin mengzhen.

"Teacher, don't worry! With teacher's ability, even if you don't go to the Alliance Academy, there are many other better Academies you can go to!"

Qin mengzhen didn't mind and consoled Lin Yi, ""This disciple will definitely follow in teacher's footsteps. Wherever teacher goes, this disciple will follow!"

She'd been calling Lin Yi "master" or something like that, but Lin Yi thought it'd be too abrupt in the school, so he told her to do as the Romans do and call him "teacher."

Qin mengzhen only agreed to change the way she addressed him after ensuring that calling him teacher would not change their master-disciple relationship.

MA pijing's face was bitter, and he didn't know what to say.

Qin Meng was truly a Princess. She had the confidence to be willful.

He also believed that if Qin mengzhen stepped in, it wouldn't be impossible for Lin Yi to teach at another school.

The Academy's examination was indeed very strict, but with power, it was normal for there to be some exceptions.

Chapter 8110

Perhaps they'd change things a little, like making Lin Yi prove that he was a teacher first before taking the exam next time.

If Lin Yi really left the school, what was MA pijing supposed to do?

It was rare to have a mentor who could help him break through, and he really wanted to learn from Lin Yi.

Once Lin Yi left, it was hard to say for others, but the impact on MA pijing would be the greatest!

Let's not even talk about whether or not he could return to Gu Fengji's side. Even if he did, he wouldn't be valued, right?

To put it bluntly, he was different from Qin mengzhen. Qin mengzhen could go anywhere with Lin Yi, but how could he go?

"Teacher Sima, it seems like there's no hope of recruiting new students. Perhaps we should think of a way among the old students?"

MA pijing started to think for Lin Yi-it was for Lin Yi's sake, and for his own."For example, the second-year students who have just transferred to the new instructors!"

"Today is the day of recruitment. The senior students have yet to start their classes. The second-year students might not have confirmed their new instructors. If we go to them now, we might have a chance!"

Luo caidie's eyes lit up, and she immediately nodded in agreement,"Right! This was a good idea! Sima Yi, the two new students who were in the same batch as you, the students they accepted, because their previous mentor had fallen, they are in a state of no mentor!"

"If you move faster and finish off one or two students before your two fellow students, you'll be able to completely solve the current crisis!"

They were both new mentors, so caidie felt that Lin Yi had a bigger advantage.

After all, Lin Yi was the person with the highest total score in the tutor's exam, and he even took in a Princess like Qin mengzhen. This should be quite attractive to the students who had lost their tutor, right?

They didn't have a mentor yet, and they didn't even need the approval of their mentor-they could switch to Lin Yi's side with their own approval!

"You guys are thinking too much. When the Dean asked me to participate in the recruitment, he had already asked ning Dali and Zhang Xiaoyi to take over the students! They should be the disciples of my two peers now!"

Lin Yi shook his head. He didn't know that he could take in old students, and so he didn't think of poaching them.

Ning Dali and Zhang Xiaoyi weren't stupid. They knew that the Dean was going to target Lin Yi, so how could they leave any loopholes?

If they waited until now and still hadn't finished accepting the seniors, they wouldn't have the right to stay at the Alliance Academy as teachers!

"Ah? I can 't?"

Luo caidie sighed and immediately clapped her hands as if she had thought of something, "There it is! Sima Yi, why don't I get one of my students to transfer to you?"

"I'm on good terms with my students, so I don't think they'll mind helping me! Just you wait, I'll go make the arrangements!"

Luo caidie was about to run to the students when Lin Yi stopped her.

"Wait! What are you arranging! If you ask your students to change their vote, will they listen to you? If I were your student, I would definitely fall out with you!"

Lin Yi didn't know what to do with caidie's sudden idea and explained, "If you do this, those who know will think that you're helping me, but those who don't will think that you're giving up on them! "When the time comes, even if they revote, they won't be coming to me, but to the other mentors. Who can you go and reason with?"

As mentioned before, the change of mentors for the students of the Alliance Institute was a very serious and serious matter. It would not happen easily.

If an instructor wanted a student to study under another instructor, the student had to agree first.

Lin Yi didn't want caidie Luo to have any conflicts with her students because of him!

"You can't do this or that! What else can we do!"

Luo caidie snorted angrily, ""It doesn't matter if I try. They won't hate me for this!"

"Alright, don't get involved in this matter. I'll take care of it. You don't have to make things difficult for me!"

Lin Yi said this because he had some confidence in himself.

At this moment, the bell rang. It was the Dean summoning the teachers who were recruiting new students to gather!

Lin Yi brought MA pijing and Qin mengzhen to the designated square-the others were already there.

All of the instructors were looking at Lin Yi, MA pijing, and Qin mengzhen with mocking eyes.

Without a doubt, they thought that Lin Yi was ready to pack up and leave!

"Sima Yi, you only managed to recruit two students?"

The Dean was already waiting for Lin Yi, and his heart settled down when he saw that Lin Yi only had MA pijing and Qin mengzhen by his side.

"Should I emphasize the rules of the Alliance Academy to you again? If a teacher doesn't have three students under him, he doesn't have the right to continue teaching at the Alliance Academy!"

"If you only have these two students, then this old man can only say sorry! Also, Your Highness, such a teacher is really not suitable for Your Highness. Why don't I choose another great teacher for Your Highness?"

"Thank you for your concern, principal. However, I have already made up my mind. Wherever teacher Sima is, I will be there!"

However, Qin mengzhen was unmoved. She smiled indifferently and said, ""If the Alliance Academy doesn't want to keep such a powerful person like our teacher, it's your loss!"

Qin mengzhen's attitude was very firm, and the Dean's expression didn't look good.

If the princess could say something nice and give him some face as the Dean, he might consider letting Lin Yi stay.

If the Dean didn't fire Lin Yi, what dignity would he have left?

As an old-fashioned man, he was already displeased with Qin mengzhen's special treatment. Now, his displeasure was doubled!

"Your Highness, whether it's the Alliance Academy's loss or not, I have my own considerations. There's no need for Your Highness to worry! The Academy's rules can't be abolished. Otherwise, who would take the rules seriously in the future?"

The headmaster's face was as dark as water as he coldly said, ""Even if the Emperor of the NA duo conferred Empire is here, he can't interfere with the rules of our Alliance Academy. "Sima Yi didn't meet the admission requirements, so he doesn't have the right to be a teacher at our Alliance Academy! No one can change the outcome of this matter!"

Since Qin Meng didn't give him face, the Dean didn't force her to stay.

In any case, it might not be a good thing to have such a person in the Academy.

He had already done what he could. If the princess was unwilling to stay at the Alliance Academy, the Emperor had nothing to say.

If you want to leave the Alliance Academy with Sima Yi, then I won't send you off!

Qin mengzhen was also unhappy. What was wrong with this old man!

You just can't understand what I'm saying?

His teacher was such an amazing teacher. If other Academies knew about this, they would probably fight over him to the death.
