

Bodyguard 8311

Chapter 8311

"Dean Sima, you don't have to be so anxious, right? This King has also heard of the bet. They did indeed agree to a battle to determine the victor, but in the end, it will still depend on the final result of the third round!"

Ouyang Changhong suddenly changed the topic with a smile on his face. "Now that Tang Yungui won a match and got one point, Ouyang Fantong lost a match and lost one point. The difference between the two has reached two points! Tang Yungui's chances of winning are very high!"

"Even if Ouyang Fantong wins five consecutive rounds, she still has to count on Tang Yungui to lose two rounds in a row to win the final victory. The difficulty of this can not be said to not be great. Can't we just watch the end with peace of mind? After all, we're the judges, and we still hope that they can display their normal strength. "

"Wouldn't it affect their condition if we talk about the outcome of the bet now? It's really not desirable!"

Ouyang Changhong had just reprimanded Ouyang Fantong and readily admitted that Tang Yungui had won. It was actually a strategy to retreat in order to advance. It was to delay the completion of the bet between the two of them.

He was still looking forward to the effect of those potions, thinking that perhaps the time of the flare-up had been delayed a bit, thinking that perhaps it would take effect immediately, thinking that perhaps Ouyang Fantong could use this as an opportunity to turn the tables!

indeed, ouyang fantong was two points behind tang yungui. under normal circumstances, the chances of turning the tables were very small. but as long as tang yungui's medicine took effect, anything was possible!

not to mention losing two rounds in a row, it was not impossible to lose five rounds in a row!

lin yi raised an eyebrow and looked at ouyang changhong with a smile. he nodded."since guild leader ouyang has already said so, wouldn't it be unreasonable of me to refuse? fine, let's wait until the end of the third round to decide the outcome of their bet!"

"but then again, just as president ouyang said, tang yungui is already sure to win. as long as he wins four more matches, he can firmly get first place. it doesn't matter if he loses one match. however, ouyang fantong must win all five matches. after winning all five matches, it will still depend on luck!"

"When we lose, guild leader Ouyang won't have anything to say, right? It's just a small bet, so there's no need for you to go so far as to go back on your word, right, guild leader Ouyang?"

Ouyang Changhong's expression turned ugly when he heard that. He snorted and said,""That's natural! My words carry enormous weight, and with us as witnesses, I don't think the two of them will dare to go back on their word!"

Ouyang Fantong had already understood Ouyang Changhong's plan. At this time, he couldn't say whether he should be happy or worried.

He didn't need to honor the bet now, so he had a chance of survival.

But if Tang Yungui was still so fierce and continued to advance triumphantly ... Between waiting for death and dying immediately, wouldn't dying immediately be better?

Now, waiting like this was also torture.

"Alright, we've wasted enough time. Let's start the third round of the competition. The fifth and tenth place contestants, come on stage to debate!"

Ouyang Changhong did not continue to pester him and decisively announced the start of the debate.

Although this was a little overpowering, Hua Yao did not stop him.

Other than Tang Yungui and Ouyang Fantong's match, this was the real first match.

The battle between the fifth and tenth place also set the tone for the order of the competition, followed by the fourth and ninth, the third and the eighth, and so on.

It would be a long time before Tang Yungui arrived.

After the first round, it was the fifth against the ninth again. Ouyang Changhong wanted to have more time for Tang Yungui's medicine to take effect.

Unfortunately, he didn't expect that his medicine couldn't even touch Tang Yungui at all. It was all secretly disposed of by Lin Yi!

Ouyang Changhong wanted to see Tang Yungui's reaction as a joke, but Lin Yi wanted to see if Ouyang Changhong could see Tang Yungui acting up.

It was like you were looking at the scenery on the bridge, but the people upstairs treated you and the bridge as the scenery!

The first round advanced very quickly. The students in the front rankings did not have the confidence to win. They were tied with the same points to begin with. During the debate, the students in the back were not afraid at all. They were basically in a situation where they met their opponents.

It was only when Ouyang Fantong appeared that they had a crushing momentum.

This kid was indeed a bit of a real deal. After stabilizing his emotions, he quickly retorted his opponent until he was speechless and admitted defeat on the spot!

Then, under his and Ouyang Changhong's expectant eyes, Tang Yungui went on stage!

They had hoped to see Tang Yungui's drug take effect and be embarrassed, but unfortunately ... Tang Yungui had won so quickly, even faster than Ouyang Fantong.

Ouyang Fantong was a little flustered. She didn't know if that damn thing could still be used.

If he only acted up after the debate, it would be useless!

"Don't panic. There are still two rounds of debate ... You have to be steady and don't lose. Otherwise, Tang Yungui can win without a fight!"

Ouyang Changhong's expression was calm. He walked to Ouyang Fantong's side and comforted her in a low voice.

In fact, he felt a little guilty. He deeply suspected that the medicine he had used on Tang Yungui had expired.

"I understand. Don't worry, uncle!"

Ouyang Fantong couldn't blame Ouyang Changhong at this time. She could only respectfully agree. Then, she hesitated whether she should vaguely ask if Tang Yungui could still have any problems.

She looked around and knew that this was not the right time. Only then did Ouyang Fantong suppress her thoughts and obediently wait for the next round of debate to begin.

There was no problem in the second round!

The third round was still so easy!

Although Ouyang Fantong had also won three rounds in a row, her face had already lost all color, becoming incomparably pale.

Not only did Tang Yungui not show any signs of flaring up, but he became more and more enthusiastic as he spoke. His momentum soared as he debated, and he could not close his mouth.

And this was already the limit of what Ouyang Fantong could accept!

If Tang Yungui won again in the fourth round, even if they lost the last round, Ouyang Fantong would only be able to tie with Tang Yungui if she won all the rounds!

"Uncle ..."

Ouyang Fantong panicked. She looked at Ouyang Changhong and didn't know what to say. Her eyes were extremely complicated, giving Ouyang Changhong a headache.

This ... If he had known, he wouldn't have come! Even if he came, he wouldn't get involved in this matter!

Now that he was riding a Tiger and couldn't back down, Ouyang Changhong definitely had to save some face in front of the clan's younger generation!

"Don't worry ... There's still time ..."

Unfortunately, Ouyang Changhong could only say such words to brush him off.

If he could, he really wanted to disqualify Tang Yungui. The problem was that he did not have a valid reason. He did not have the final say!

Chapter 8312

Ouyang Fantong was about to cry, there was still time? What time was there! This was already the limit!

Regardless of whether it was good or not, everything had to continue. The fourth round began, and then the fourth round ended!

Without any surprises, Ouyang Fantong and Tang Yungui won their fourth time!

In other words, even if Tang Yungui did not participate in the last round, he was already in an undefeatable position!

"Fan Tong, don't give up, there's still a chance! You must not give up at this time! Do you understand?"

Ouyang Changhong could only use this method to encourage Ouyang Fantong.

Although he had thought of countless ways to help, in the end, he realized that none of them were suitable!

"Uncle ... Do we really still have a chance?"

Ouyang Fantong herself was almost in despair. She didn't believe that Ouyang Changhong's medicine would still work. This was clearly a trap! The one who was being tricked was his nephew!

How did you have the nerve to do it, you bastard!

"Really ... There should be a chance!"

Ouyang Changhong was also quite embarrassed. Now that things had come to this, he could only continue to hold on. Otherwise, what else could he do?

"Alright! There's still a chance ..."

Ouyang Fantong could only hypnotize herself. No matter what, she had to win the last round, or else she wouldn't even have the right to see the end!

In the fifth round, the first few rounds were calm, but when it came to Ouyang Fantong, because of her restless mood, the debate was quite difficult, and she almost lost!

In the end, time ran out, and after the referee's judgment, Ouyang Fantong won by a hair's breadth!

Finally, it was Tang Yungui's turn!

If Ouyang Fantong's eyes could turn into a sharp sword, Tang Yungui would have been riddled with holes!

"The last round, the next round, the theme is the Huaxu pill ..."

Hua Yao announced the final topic of the debate, and the two sides immediately engaged in a close-range debate.

Ouyang Fantong's face was ashen. She had completely lost hope because Tang Yungui was still sneaky with his words. He did not have any problems with not being able to speak!

He had failed!

Thinking of the scene of her kneeling down and calling him father, Ouyang Fantong wanted to die!

Ouyang Changhong frowned and narrowed his eyes at Tang Yungui.

He knew of the Huaxu pill's pill formula. It was also a rather controversial pill formula.

The focus of the controversy, other than the ratio of the medicinal herbs in the pill formula, was also a taboo person named the Youyou, Zhang Xu!

He was also a genius Alchemist who had created many pill recipes and once had a high reputation on the sub-Island.

The Huaxu pill was one of his creations, but he was proven to be a spy for the darkness demon beast!

Think about how a genius who was praised to the clouds suddenly found out that he was an enemy. How would those who had praised him feel?

Of course, it was to knock him down from the clouds and make his name a taboo!

The pill formulas left behind by Zhang Xu had also been modified a lot. It was only after they were completely unrecognizable that they were passed down. As a result, these pill formulas had many areas that were worthy of controversy!

As time passed, no one mentioned Zhang Xu's taboo name, and he gradually became unknown. Those controversial pill formulas also became pill formulas of unknown origins.

However, the alchemy Association of the martial Union had information and records of this. Hence, Ouyang Changhong was very clear that even though a long time had passed, a taboo was still a taboo!

Tang Yungui did not know this!

During the debate, Tang Yungui naturally corrected the unreasonable parts of the pill formula according to what he had learned and restored the original formula of the Huaxu pill to a high degree!

"Stop! Principal Hua! Don't you think that it's a little inappropriate to choose Huaxu Dan as the topic of discussion?"

Ouyang Changhong revealed a smile and glanced at Hua Yao. ""The juniors may not be clear, but could it be that principal Hua is also not clear? What do you think will happen if the pill recipe Tang Yungui is talking about is circulated and becomes popular again?"

Hua Yao's expression turned grave. This was indeed his oversight.

Zhang Xu's name had been lost for a long time, and the juniors really didn't know him.

There was originally no problem with using the Huaxu pill formula as a topic of debate. After all, there were many controversial points on the medicinal herbs of this pill formula. Any one of them could be debated for half a day, and it would exhaust all the time.

He didn't expect Tang Yungui to be able to read the medicinal properties of the pill recipe under Lin Yi's guidance. It was a method that pointed directly to the origin of the great Dao!

Especially for these low-level pill formulas, one look was all it took to restore the original Zhang Xu's pill formulas!

If the name was taboo, then the original pill formula was naturally taboo as well!

"guild leader ouyang, aren't you being too serious? it was just a simple academic discussion ... forget it, this old man didn't think it through!"

hua yao wanted to argue, but when he saw the sneer on ouyang changqing's face, he simply gave up!

"principal hua, you are indeed thoughtless in this matter. however, i will not blame you. tang yungui has lost this debate!"

ouyang changqing did not continue to point his spear at hua yao. instead, he suddenly pointed at tang yungui."principal hua, you should be very clear that the pill formula has become like this. tang yungui's loss is already a very light punishment!"

if they were not convinced, things would probably get out of hand!

Hua Yao was furious, but he had to lower his head. He had to calm Lin Yi and Tang Yungui down.

Lin Yi frowned-he hadn't really paid much attention to the Huaxu pill, and he didn't know what went wrong.

And so, Lin Yi didn't say anything right away. He searched through his sea of consciousness for the pill medicine records.

Lin Yi's collection of books was vast, and there were all kinds of unique secrets. It didn't take long for him to find out what Huaxu dan was and what was behind it.

After understanding the whole situation, Lin Yi realized that Tang Yungui's restoration of the recipe would indeed trigger some people's nerves!

"Principal Hua, there's no need to say anything else. Let's just do as guild leader Ouyang says!"

Lin Yi waved his hand, signaling for Hua Yao to stop."Tang Yungui has lost this round!"

He did this to protect Tang Yungui and to avoid Hua Yao's misjudgment.

In comparison, these were the more important things. It was a debate that had nothing to do with the overall situation. It was no big deal to give up!

Tang Yungui wasn't convinced, but he calmed down immediately when Lin Yi spoke.

He wouldn't even hesitate if Lin Yi asked him to give up his spot and admit defeat, much less in a small debate!

Hua Yao was still a little unwilling. "I didn't prepare this topic at first. President Ouyang, you strongly requested for Tang Yungui and Ouyang Fantong to compete first. They were not even authorized, so one of the prepared topics was missing. It was arranged at the last minute, so it is inevitable that there will be some omissions!"

"what do you mean? principal hua, are you trying to push the blame onto this lord's head and make this lord take the blame for you? hehe, it's not that i can 't, but it's hard to say if i can take the blame for this!"

ouyang changhong coldly laughed a few times and put on a tough attitude.

Chapter 8313

"Alright! This matter ends here!"

Lin Yi interrupted the two with a cold face.

Because the more they fought, the worse it would be, so it was best to stop now!

"Dean Hua, if you can trust me, then let me handle this!" Lin Yi said.

Hua Yao opened his mouth to say something, but didn't in the end. He only nodded at Lin Yi, his eyes filled with guilt.

Tang Yungui had originally been sure to win. It was his negligence that had caused so much trouble.

As Tang Yungui's master, Lin Yi had to step aside no matter how guilty he felt.

"A wise man submits to circumstances. Dean Sima is a wise man. He knows what to do and when to let go!"

Ouyang Changhong looked at Lin Yi with a smile, a mocking smile on his face. "Since Dean Sima has taken the initiative to admit defeat, this matter will end here. However, Tang Yungui has violated a taboo. In addition to the normal outcome of the battle, one point will be deducted as punishment!"

On the side, Ouyang Fantong was overjoyed!

After Tang Yungui lost this round, his points would be equal. If one more point was deducted, he could turn the tide!

It didn't matter how he won, whether it was an unfair or even shameful victory, as long as he could beat Tang Yungui!

If he lost, he would lose all his face, but if he won, at least it wouldn't be so embarrassing ... Even if the way he won was a little embarrassing, it didn't matter!

"Uncle is wise and should be punished like this. Otherwise, how can we warn the people who come later? In this nephew's humble opinion, this was already considered a light punishment! As for punishment, he can only learn his lesson by being more severe, right?"

Ouyang Fantong was no longer satisfied with winning the bet.

He could not wait to jump out and fan the flames. He wanted to take the opportunity to kick Tang Yungui out of the five-person quota!

In this way, Tang Yungui would have nothing to do with the competition for the only gold apprentice alchemy apprentice test!

Without Tang Yungui, Ouyang Fantong felt that she was invincible!

"Shut up! What is your status? You dare to come and talk nonsense and meddle in this big matter?"

Hua Yao was extremely dissatisfied. He couldn't vent his anger on Ouyang Changhong, but he didn't have any scruples about Ouyang Fantong. He immediately glared at her and scolded her, not giving her any face.

Ouyang Fantong's face turned white, and she immediately shrank back.

After all, he was still a student of the fu Yao apothecary school, and Hua Yao's prestige was deeply rooted in his heart.

This was especially so considering that the placings this time around belonged to the Fuyao apothecary school. If he were to really anger Hua Yao and was expelled ... There would be no placings left for him at all!

"Principal Hua, you are so impressive. Do you have any opinions about our Ouyang family?"

Ouyang Changhong coldly glanced at Hua Yao, expressing his desire to protect Ouyang Fantong, ""Or could it be that this seat's decision has caused principal Hua to be very dissatisfied? If you're really dissatisfied, just say it. There's no need to scare the younger generation!"

"So what if this old master is dissatisfied? Tang Yungui has already admitted defeat, but you still want to take advantage of him. Your good nephew wants to take advantage of you even more. Do you really think I'm afraid of your Ouyang family?"

The old man stiffened his neck and took out an imposing manner as if he was going to cut off all means of retreat and fight to the death. He had the intention of scaring people.

Lin Yi stopped Hua Yao again and looked at Ouyang Changhong indifferently. "Don't think that you've got something you can use against me. As an Alchemist, researching and optimizing pill recipes is the most basic Instinct. "

"Tang Yungui doesn't know what's wrong with this recipe. He's just analyzing it from the perspective of the medicinal properties and then modifying it. Even if it's spread, how much trouble can it cause?"

"Speaking of which, you're the acting president of the alchemy Association of the martial union branch. You knew that there was something wrong with the pill formula, but you didn't stop it immediately. Instead, you watched the show from the side and only came out to criticize it when there was no turning back ... Ouyang Changhong, do you think those big shots whose nerves were touched would pursue the responsibility of an unknown nobody or pursue the responsibility of you, the acting president?"

Lin Yi's casual words hit Ouyang Changhong's soft spot, and his face changed dramatically.

After that, Lin Yi stopped talking and just watched as Ouyang Changhong continued to examine it! Isn't this right?

Ouyang Changhong really took a careful look and realized that it was really the case!

For example, if the higher-ups wanted to find out who was responsible for the failure of a battle, they would definitely find the commander in charge of the battle, not a small soldier who was charging at the front line!

Even if the soldiers wanted to take the responsibility for their failure, they did not have the qualifications!

"Hehe, Sima Yi, you don't have to scare me with your words. Since that's the case, why are you taking the initiative to admit defeat for your disciple?"

Ouyang Changhong was unwilling. After calming down, he began to counterattack. "According to what you said, you don't have to admit defeat. Isn't it better to continue to win this game?"

"Are you an idiot? Do you still need me to explain this to you? How did you become the alchemy Association's acting president? Did you buy it through your brother's back door?"

"Hmph!" Lin Yi hmphed in disdain, a trace of pity in his eyes. It was the kind of look one gave to an idiot. "Admitting defeat is a clear indication of our attitude. We didn't mean to do so earlier, and if we continue, we'll be making a real mistake! We've already made our stand clear. If you continue to be so aggressive, then I'm sorry!"

When it's time to do it, I'll still fight you to the end!

Ouyang Changhong didn't know what to say. He found that Lin Yi's words made sense, but it just felt weird. It shouldn't be like this!

"Ouyang Changhong, we've already given up on this match. After admitting defeat, we've lost two points in one go. What are you still dissatisfied about? You must know that when doing things, it's better to leave a line of leeway!"

Lin Yi suddenly turned to look at Ouyang Fantong. "Although Tang Yungui lost this round, his final total score is still the same as Ouyang Fantong's!"

When Ouyang Fantong saw that Ouyang Changhong did not refute, she was somewhat disappointed. However, she was satisfied that she did not lose to Tang Yungui.

A draw was better than a failure. It wasn't the first time they had a draw anyway. This was the third time. They would get used to it!

"Although their points are the same, the two of them have already had a direct confrontation, and Ouyang Fantong lost! So, the bet between you can end here. In the quota assessment, you have the same score, but Tang Yungui won the bet!"

Lin Yi probably had a plan in mind. Even if he lost on behalf of Tang Yungui, he had already thought of an excuse to win back the bet. "A bet is a bet. Ouyang Fantong, you're not going back on your word again, are you?"

Hearing this, Ouyang Fantong's face turned white.

Chapter 8314

Didn't you say that it was a draw? why did you suddenly say that this young master lost? You're the one who's acting shamelessly, alright?

Damn it!

"No! I did not lose! If the scores were even, it was a draw! How can it be considered my loss? This didn't make sense! I'm not convinced!"

Ouyang Fantong immediately became anxious. It was clearly a draw, a draw! He definitely didn't lose!

"As expected, he's going back on his word again! It's really as I expected!"

Lin Yi sighed and shook his head, glancing at Wanwan with disdain. So this was the style of the Ouyang family? he had nothing to say!

Ouyang Changhong's skin was thick enough, but he was still triggered by Lin Yi's gaze-he felt his face burning up.

Lin Yi didn't say it out loud, but the meaning was clear-the Ouyang family could change their name to the shameless family!

But today, he had to act shamelessly to the end. Otherwise, if Ouyang Fantong really knelt in front of Tang Yungui, kowtowed, and called him father, Ouyang Changqing would be too ashamed to face anyone!

"Dean Sima, you just said that this Lord was overbearing. In this Lord's opinion, you are the overbearing person, right?"

Ouyang Changhong squeezed out a smile. "Forget it. Let's each take a step back. I won't mention anything about additional punishment, and you can't say anything about a tie either. This round is a draw. How about it?"

Before Lin Yi could say anything, Ouyang Changhong quickly added, "Next, there will be a chance to compete for a place in the gold apprentice alchemy test. Let's leave their bet for that time! Let's not interfere and let them solve it themselves. What do you think, Dean Sima?"

Lin Yi pretended to think for a while before nodding. "Alright, we'll give you face. After all, you're the alchemy Association's acting president. We'll definitely consider your opinion carefully!"

Ouyang Changhong's mouth twitched. He felt that the word "acting" was especially harsh. And what face? If he really wanted to give face, this wouldn't be the result!

Hypocritical!

"Hahahaha, Dean Sima is indeed straightforward. Then it's decided. Let's take a look at the final ranking!"

Ouyang Changhong laughed and ended the conversation. He turned his attention to the five selected students.

Tang Yungui and Ouyang Fantong were still at the top. They had the same points and were tied for first place, but Tang Yungui's name was still at the top while Ouyang Fantong was second.

The third place was still the original third place. This guy's strength was not bad. He had also lost a match, but his points were second only to Tang Yungui and Ouyang Fantong.

However, the fourth and fifth were pushed down. These two were also unlucky. They lost three out of five matches and had completely fallen. As for the two people who had replaced them, they had only lost two matches each.

One of them had lost to Tang Yungui and Ouyang Fantong, while the other lucky one had won against Tang Yungui.

He had lost to Ouyang Fantong and the third-ranked person. In the end, he was about to lose to Tang Yungui. In the end, he had inexplicably turned defeat into victory and used this opportunity to enter the top five!

"The slots for the apprentice apothecary examination have been decided. The five of you will become the representatives of our Fuyao apothecary school and will take part in the apprentice apothecary examination."

Hua Yao looked at the five students in front of him and didn't know what to think. In the past, he might feel proud and gratified, but this time ... When he saw Ouyang Fantong, he felt disgusted!

After a slight pause, Hua Yao continued, "Among the five of you, one of you will be able to take part in the gold rank test. The other four will take part in the silver rank test. If you pass, you will be able to obtain the corresponding title of apprentice Alchemist. If you fail, you will be able to obtain the title of one rank lower!"

"So, you don't have to be nervous. Right now, the five of you are actually the lowest level bronze apprentice Alchemist! Whether or not you can become a silver rank apprentice Alchemist will depend on your own abilities. "

Hua Yao swept past the third to fifth place and his eyes fell on Tang Yungui and Ouyang Fantong. "As for the quota to take the gold apprentice Alchemist test, we'll have to see who among you can get it!"

In his heart, Hua Yao definitely wanted to give the spot to Tang Yungui directly. After all, Tang Yungui had displayed extraordinary strength in three consecutive rounds of competition.

Although Ouyang Fantong and Tang Yungui had the same points in the end, even a fool could see that the gap between the two was huge!

In addition, Tang Yungui was a child raised by the Fuyao pill refining school. Although Ouyang Fantong was a student of the Fuyao pill refining school, she also represented the Ouyang family, so she could not be compared to Tang Yungui.

"Dean, student gives up on competing for the gold apprentice alchemy test!"

"Dean, student gives up on competing for the gold apprentice alchemy test!"

"Dean, student gives up on competing for the gold apprentice alchemy test!"

The three people at the bottom of the rankings cupped their fists and spoke at the same time, giving up this opportunity to improve.

They had also thought it through clearly. Even if they fought, they would definitely not be able to compete with Ouyang Fantong, not to mention Tang Yungui, who was firmly above her!

Instead of going through so much trouble and finally offending two alchemists with a bright future, it was better to obediently hold on to the fruit in his hand, sell a favor, and form a good relationship, which might be beneficial in the future.

"That's good. It's important for people to know their own limitations. The fact that the three of you can clearly recognize your own shortcomings and withdraw from this competition shows that you have a clear understanding of your own strength. Work hard, and I believe that you will all have a good result!"

Hua Yao nodded with a smile. He was very satisfied with the tactfulness of these three people. At the same time, his eyes also glanced at Ouyang Fantong, meaning that you should be more sensible. You know that you are not an opponent, so why are you still forcing yourself?

Of course, he also knew that Ouyang Fantong would not retreat without a fight. After all, this was related to the bet between him and Tang Yungui. There would be a fight no matter what!

"Principal Hua, in the final contest, this seat feels that there's no need to consider the matters of pill refining, right? After all, in the previous three rounds, they've basically done everything in this area. Why don't we just let them have a duel to decide the winner?"

Ouyang Changhong felt that his nephew's combat power was much stronger than Tang Yungui's, so he suddenly proposed a fight to decide the winner.

If he succeeded, Ouyang Fantong's chances of winning would increase greatly. After all, Tang Yungui's knowledge in alchemy had already proven that he was stronger!

He had to play to his strengths and avoid his weaknesses!

Hua Yao sneered, "President Ouyang, as the alchemy Association's acting president, is it appropriate for you to say such things?" The purpose of this competition is to select the candidates who will take part in the gold apprentice Alchemist test. What are you thinking? Those with higher martial strength will be able to pass the gold rank apprentice Alchemist test?"

Chapter 8315

This kind of words could only be said by a super layman. As the acting president of the alchemy Association, how stupid must he be to say such idiotic words?

Ouyang Changhong was also a little embarrassed. He felt that he had indeed said something stupid.

Lin Yi smiled suddenly, "I heard that gold apprentices are about to start learning alchemy, and those below silver are mainly researching medicine and making some simple potions."

"Since they are taking the gold rank apprentice Alchemist test, their ability to refine pills is more important. How about this, let the two of them compete in pill refining! Success or failure, we'll know at a glance!"

Pill refining could not be faked. If it worked, it worked. If it didn't work, it didn't. One try and you'll know!

Tang Yungui's alchemy level was not only at the level of a gold-grade alchemy apprentice. Even a bronze-grade Alchemist might not be better than him. If he used the heaven and earth Spirit Fire in his body, there was nothing to say.

Ouyang Changhong's heart skipped a beat. He could tell that things weren't as simple as they seemed. If Lin Yi dared to say that, Tang Yungui must have some achievements in alchemy!

He didn't know Tang Yungui very well, and all his judgments were based on Lin Yi's performance.

It was because of this that he felt that something was wrong and immediately wanted to reject the proposal.

He didn't expect Ouyang Fantong to suddenly jump out with joy: "No problem! I think that this is a fair competition, so let's do it this way!"

This guy was the kind of person who forgot the pain after the scar healed.

He had suffered losses time and time again because of his old opinion of Tang Yungui, but he still did not repent. He once again looked at Tang Yungui's alchemy skills with the same old opinion.

From Ouyang Fantong's point of view, Tang Yungui could not even condense an alchemy fire not long ago. It was impossible for him to come into contact with alchemy, so he could not have learned alchemy techniques.

Tang Yungui's control of the pill fire when he was brewing the medicine should have been his peak performance, right?

Ouyang Fantong firmly believed that. She even imagined that Lin Yi suggested a competition to cover up the fact that Tang Yungui's alchemy skills were not good enough!

He felt that his uncle, Ouyang Changhong, would be intimidated by Sima Yi's aura because he did not understand Tang Yungui. In the end, he would object to the alchemy competition ...

Looking at Ouyang Changhong's expression, Ouyang Fantong felt that she was absolutely right!

"Fan Tong, what are you doing? Who are you to interrupt?"

Ouyang Changhong was furious. He felt that Lin Yi was up to something, and he hadn't even figured it out yet, and Ouyang Fantong jumped into the trap herself. How could he not be angry?

"Guild leader Ouyang, you're wrong! They're the ones competing, so they naturally have the right to make suggestions. Although we might not necessarily use it, we definitely can't not let them speak, don't you think so?"

Hua Yao loved to watch the Ouyang family's internal strife, so although he said this with a smile, it sounded like he was gloating over their misfortune!

Ouyang Changhong wanted to say that it was a piece of crap, but when the words reached his mouth, they became, ""Principal Hua's words make sense, I was too impetuous!"

He was the acting president of the alchemy Association, and he just came up with a stupid idea. Now that Lin Yi came up with a reasonable suggestion, and it was approved by Ouyang Fantong ... What could he say?

If he continued, he, the acting president, would really become a joke!

"Then it's decided. The two of you will compete in pill refining on the spot! I'll provide the recipe and the ingredients. The pill will be successfully refined within a reasonable amount of time. The final score will be based on speed and quality!"

Hua Yao quickly made the final decision.

This time, Hua Yao was also cautious.

He considered for a moment and gave out a pill formula. This was a low-level pill formula, and it was not difficult to refine.

In Hua Yao's opinion, Tang Yungui and Ouyang Fantong did not have the ability to refine higher grade pills.

In reality, this pill formula might seem simple to the flower carriage, but to the students, it could already be considered a little difficult!

Normally, only dark gold apprentices would come into contact with and refine this pill. If a gold apprentice Alchemist could successfully refine this pill, it would mean that they had the ability to advance to dark gold apprentice!

However, Hua Yao had a rough idea of Tang Yungui's alchemy skills. The pill recipe that he had taken out basically could not pose a threat to him. But it was hard to say for Ouyang Fantong.

This was also the intention of secretly helping. As for the final result, Hua Yao could only say that he had a little confidence!

When Ouyang Changhong saw the pill recipe, he immediately exchanged glances with Ouyang Fantong.

He didn't know what level Ouyang Fantong's alchemy skills were at, or whether she could make this kind of pill, so he first had to confirm Ouyang Fantong's will.

He was a little hesitant ... Was he not confident?

Ouyang Changhong couldn't see any confidence in Ouyang Fantong's eyes, and his heart immediately sank. He didn't have time to think and immediately raised an objection. "Principal Hua, although this pill formula is a low-grade pill, the difficulty of it is not low among low-grade pills!"

"It's just a competition for the gold apprentice alchemy test, not the dark gold apprentice alchemy test. There's no need for that, right? Why don't you use my pill recipe? it's of moderate difficulty and suitable for them to compete!"

As Ouyang Changhong spoke, he had already taken out a pill formula. This was also a low-grade pill, but it was suitable for gold rank alchemy apprentices to refine. For the students who had just obtained the silver rank assessment quota, it was still a relatively difficult pill formula.

Of course, Tang Yungui and Ouyang Fantong were not included.

Moreover, this pill recipe was one of the Ouyang family's basic pill recipes, and Ouyang Fantong was quite familiar with it. If this was used as a competition, Ouyang Fantong would definitely be the one to gain an advantage!

Hua Yao wanted to object. Everyone knew that Ouyang Changhong's pill recipe was definitely beneficial to Ouyang Fantong, so he couldn't agree to this!

In the end, Ouyang Changhong did not give Hua Yao a chance to speak at all. He immediately said with a smile, ""Principal Hua, as the acting president of the alchemy Association, I should have the qualifications to set a question for this assessment, right? Could it be that principal Hua thinks that I'm not worthy of your respect because I'm just an acting president?"

Hua Yao did not know how to refute him, but he was also unwilling to agree to it. For a moment, he was in a dilemma.

However, just as Hua Yao was hesitating, Lin Yi stepped in to smooth things over. "Guild leader Ouyang, you're thinking too much. Of course, principal Hua wouldn't have such thoughts. As the acting guild leader, it shouldn't be a problem for you to come up with a question. We'll do as you say!"

Ouyang Changhong's recipe had no problems, and Lin Yi had already confirmed it with his spirit sense.

Therefore, for Tang Yungui and Ouyang Fantong, it was just a difference in proficiency. It was nothing!

Chapter 8316

But Tang Yungui was Lin Yi's disciple. Proficiency wasn't important to him at all!

Even if it was Tang Yungui's first time making such a low-level elixir, Lin Yi believed that Tang Yungui could do it with his eyes closed!

Even if the opponent was Ouyang Fantong, who was familiar with the recipe, under the same conditions, Tang Yungui would definitely win against Qianqian. This was Lin Yi's confidence!

And so, while Lin Yi didn't mind Ouyang Changhong, Hua Yao obviously couldn't ignore him.

Lin Yi didn't want the stubborn old man to offend anyone and get into trouble with the Ouyang family.

"Very good, Dean Sima is still the most straightforward!"

Ouyang Changhong was stunned at first, but then he laughed out loud.

From Ouyang Changhong's point of view, Lin Yi was already used to admitting defeat!

This meant that Lin Yi was scared. After all, his big brother was already the first hall Master, and he was the president of the alchemy Association. The Ouyang family's power in the naduo illusion martial Alliance branch was greater than the sky.

No matter how unwilling Lin Yi was, he had to give in if he wanted to survive here.

Thinking of this, Ouyang Changhong was very proud.

It seemed that his big brother Ouyang Changqing's attempt to trip Lin Yi up for the Wenyu incident had an impact on him.

He walked to Tang Yungui and Ouyang fan with a smile and patted their shoulders. ""The two of you shouldn't let down Dean Sima's straightforwardness. You must perform well!"

Lin Yi squinted his eyes. With his powerful spirit sense, Ouyang Changhong's small movements couldn't escape Lin Yi's eyes.

Hundan had pretended to Pat their shoulders in encouragement, but in reality, he was secretly sending two wisps of fire-attributed Qi into their bodies.

Ouyang Fantong's fire Qi would be his help, and it would increase the temperature of his alchemy fire in a short time.

It wasn't certain that this would complete the entire alchemy process, but it would greatly shorten the time needed to temper the medicinal materials at the beginning.

When it came to alchemy, this fire attribute Qi would be almost completely consumed. Of course, at that time, it would require the control of the fire, which Ouyang Fantong herself could do.

If he relied on external forces, he might not be able to perform better. Ouyang Changhong had also considered this.

This technique could be considered the Ouyang family's Secret technique. There were no obstacles at all when the two of them used and received it. It was extremely smooth.

When Ouyang Fantong felt the extra fire attribute Qi in her body, she also understood it. Her expression didn't change at all as she began to receive it, and then she gave Ouyang Changhong a tacit look.

The fire Qi that was sent into Tang Yungui's body was the exact opposite. Not only would it not help, but it would also suddenly flare up when Tang Yungui was refining the elixir fire and interfere with the transformation of the elixir fire!

In serious cases, it could even cause a backlash from the pill fire and injure Tang Yungui's meridians!

After all, Tang Yungui didn't know the Ouyang family's method of receiving it. He didn't know how to receive and use this fire-attribute Qi.

This was to let Ouyang Fantong win. Ouyang Changhong had already used everything he could!

Lin Yi knew what was going on, but he didn't stop it. He just looked on coldly, laughing inside.

This was only an ideal situation, but in reality, it was completely different from what Ouyang Changhong had expected.

Ouyang Changhong did not understand what was inside Tang Yungui's body. It was the spiritual fire of heaven and earth!

Did this guy think that he could interfere with Tang Yungui's performance by sending in fire-attributed Qi? What a joke!

After Ouyang Changhong sent this bit of fire-attribute Qi in, it was equivalent to giving a snack to the heaven and earth Spirit Fire to eat, and it was the kind that wasn't even enough to fill the gaps between their teeth!

The most important thing was that Ouyang Changhong would not know what had happened. He might even suspect that he had made a mistake ...

Putting aside Lin Yi, who was just watching the show, Ouyang Fantong was full of confidence after getting her uncle's Secret help. She cupped her fists and bowed, "Please rest assured, uncle. Your nephew will definitely win and take part in the gold rank apprentice Alchemist test. I will bring glory to our Ouyang family!"

"Just do a good job! The Ouyang family doesn't need a mere gold rank alchemy apprentice to add to their glory. When you become a gold rank alchemy Grandmaster in the future, it won't be too late to say this!"

Ouyang Changhong's face was very calm. He waved his hand to signal Ouyang Fantong to go and prepare. Then, he turned to Tang Yungui with a smile. "Little friend Tang, you have to work hard too. You can't embarrass your master, Dean Sima!"

He was sure that Tang Yungui would embarrass Lin Yi, so he was in a good mood.

"Don't worry, President Ouyang. I won't embarrass my master. So, I'm sorry, Ouyang Fantong can't give face to the Ouyang family leader!"

Tang Yungui cupped his hands in response, neither submissively nor arrogantly, as if he did not notice Ouyang Changhong's little gesture.

"Young man, you're really full of vitality! Then let's go! I have high hopes for you!"

Ouyang Changhong smiled and waved his hand. He sighed in his heart that this young man was still too young. He then indicated for Hua Yao to start the competition!

Hua Yao frowned. He didn't know what Ouyang Changhong had done, but his intuition told him that something was wrong. He couldn't see any clues yet.

Left with no choice, Hua Yao could only announce the start of the match with a cold expression.

Then, a staff member brought the same alchemy furnace and herbs to Ouyang Fantong and Tang Yungui.

After Ouyang Fantong got the things, she didn't say anything and impatiently began to sort and refine the herbs.

He wanted to take advantage of the fact that Ouyang Changhong's fire-attributed Qi was still there to speed up his progress!

Furthermore, the speed of pill refinement was also a very important assessment standard!

Under the same quality, speed was the key to victory!

Ouyang Fantong also knew that Ouyang Changhong had done something to Tang Yungui, so he had to seize the opportunity. If he could finish refining the pill before Tang Yungui even started and win ... He was excited just thinking about it!

In this way, he could completely wash away the shame of "tied for first"!

On the other hand, Tang Yungui didn't seem to care about speed at all. He was unhurriedly cleaning the furnace.

Then, he started to use the pill fire to heat the pill furnace, which seemed meaningless.

The corner of Ouyang Fantong's mouth revealed a disdainful sneer. In her heart, she felt that victory was already in her hands, Yingluo, wait! Tang Yungui was using a pill fire?

This didn't make sense. How could Tang Yungui use the pill fire so smoothly? Shouldn't this brat have suffered under uncle's Black Hand?

Ouyang Fantong's heart sank, and she subconsciously looked at Ouyang Changhong ... She complained in her heart, uncle, are you reliable or not? Did he fail every time?

Chapter 8317

He patted Tang Yungui's shoulder every time ... Why don't you just Pat Tang Yungui's head and kill him with one slap?

Ouyang Changhong's expression was ugly. The moment Tang Yungui used the alchemic fire, he knew that he had failed again!

Again!

But the question was, how did he fail? There wasn't any inkling at all!

Did he make a mistake?

It was also possible that he hadn't used it for too long and was out of practice? Or was there something fishy about Tang Yungui? Was it the indestructible body of a Vajra, immune to all poisons and avoiding all evil?

To hell with it!

Tang Yungui didn't know that he had made the uncle and nephew of the Ouyang family doubt their lives. To be honest, he really didn't feel Ouyang Changhong's underhanded methods!

The fire attribute Qi was very well hidden when it entered his body and did not attract his attention at all. However, it could not hide from the heaven and earth spiritual fire in his body.

The heaven and earth spiritual fire realized that a snack had come to its door and was already in its mouth. It reluctantly opened its mouth and casually swallowed the snack without even having the time to emit a little fluctuation.

So Tang Yungui really didn't feel anything. He only focused on following Lin Yi's instructions.

He had been repeating this process recently, and it could be said to be extremely smooth!

Although it was a new recipe and it was his first time making it, the level of the elixir was relatively low. It was not too difficult for Tang Yungui.

It was like a middle school student getting a ten plus-minus question ... Although it was an unfamiliar question, was it that difficult?

"Focus and do your own thing!"

Ouyang Changhong noticed that Ouyang Fantong's attention had been attracted by Tang Yungui, and her hands had slowed down. He immediately warned her with a dark face, not caring if it was a violation of the rules.

"Guild leader Ouyang, please don't interfere with their pill refining! As an adjudicator, I must maintain sufficient fairness and justice!"

Hua Yao's stubborn old man wouldn't let him have his way, so he immediately retorted, "As the alchemy Association's acting president, you should have some quality, right? Acting president Ouyang?"

When the old man was sarcastic and mean, he was also quite impressive. With just two sentences, Ouyang Changhong's eyelids were twitching, and the veins on his forehead were visible, but it was not good to flare up.

"Principal Hua is right, I was too impetuous!"

In the end, Ouyang Changhong had no choice but to pinch his nose and admit defeat.

After all, Ouyang Changhong was indeed the one who did not follow the rules. He had to consider his reputation when it came to matters in the open. It didn't matter if he did it behind the scenes!

After he finished speaking, Ouyang Changhong hated Ouyang Fantong even more.

If it wasn't for this useless thing, I wouldn't have been so embarrassed. As the president of the alchemy Association, was he going to be humiliated by the old man Hua Yao?

If it wasn't for the Ouyang family's face, he would have killed Ouyang Fantong, that good-for-nothing kid!

Ouyang Fantong also knew that she was in the wrong, so she quickly gathered her thoughts and went all out to refine the herbs.

It was just that when one's mind drifted, it wasn't like one could concentrate just because one wanted to!

He was still watching Tang Yungui uncontrollably. He wanted to see if Tang Yungui would suddenly lose control of his alchemy fire. It would be even better if there was a backlash that could kill Tang Yungui!

He thought he was very well hidden, but in fact, his every move was seen by the people on the sidelines.

Ouyang Changhong became even angrier. Hua Yu, on the other hand, shook his head inwardly. He felt that this elite student's heart was not firm enough, and it would be difficult for him to achieve great things!

If an Alchemist couldn't even concentrate when refining pills, what kind of good pills could they hope to refine?

It was already a blessing from the heavens that the furnace didn't explode!

From the looks of it, Ouyang Fantong was currently in the lead. His refining speed was even faster, and in a short time, he had already refined more than half of it. Soon, he could officially start refining pills.

Tang Yungui had done a lot of preparation work and had only just started to refine the medicinal herbs. His progress was far behind Ouyang Fantong 's.

"Dean Sima, your line of alchemy really places great importance on the preparation work! I'm impressed!"

Ouyang Changhong expressionlessly cupped his hands, seemingly trying to find a topic to talk about.

Of course, as long as they didn't deliberately disturb the people who were giving pointers, they could chat on the side.

"Guild leader Ouyang, you're too kind. As the saying goes, sharpening a knife will not delay the work of cutting wood. Furthermore, the preparatory work is the self-cultivation that an Alchemist should have. It can't be considered as a legacy."

Lin Yi smiled indifferently as he poked Ouyang Changhong.

The meaning was clear-your Ouyang family is known as an alchemy family, but you don't even value basic skills and self-cultivation. What a joke!

Ouyang Changhong understood what Lin Yi was trying to say, but he couldn't find anything to say. He remembered that Lin Yi's lectures were all about theories, and he wasn't Lin Yi's match for a glib tongue. He just hmped coldly and didn't say anything else.

Lin Yi's lips twitched-it seemed like he wasn't good at interpersonal relationships!

Later on, he would have to look for books in this area and learn from them. At least he had to make people interested in continuing to chat!

Ouyang Changhong ignored Lin Yi and turned to look at the field again. He was shocked to find that Tang Yungui's refining speed was faster than Ouyang Fantong 's. The gap between the two was quickly shrinking.

And at this time, Ouyang Fantong had the help of the fire attribute Qi that Ouyang Changhong had secretly transmitted!

How could this be?

Looking closely at Tang Yungui's alchemy fire, he realized that this kid's alchemy fire was actually very pure. It was much stronger than Ouyang Fantong 'S. No wonder he had such speed!

This Lin Yi was annoying, but he was quite good at teaching his students. Ouyang Changhong couldn't help but nod to himself.

Tang Yungui remembered Lin Yi's instructions and never used the heaven and earth Spirit Fire in front of outsiders.

However, his alchemy fire had grown together with the heaven and earth spiritual fire. It had been absorbed by the heaven and earth spiritual fire as nutrients for many years. Now that it was released, it was not comparable to the alchemy fire of ordinary people.

If the alchemy fire could be divided into levels, it would be the same as an ordinary person using a yellow level alchemy fire. Tang Yungui's alchemy fire was at least of the black level, and could even touch the edge of the earth level!

The difference between them was obvious!

Plus, Lin Yi's methods and techniques were all the best of the best. No matter how big the Ouyang family was, they couldn't be compared to Lin Yi's methods and techniques from countless books.

It was no surprise that Tang Yungui had won against Ouyang Fantong!

When Ouyang Fantong finished refining the herbs and prepared to refine the elixir, Tang Yungui's progress had already surpassed his. The refined medicinal liquid had already rolled and merged in the alchemy furnace. He had begun a smooth alchemy performance!

Chapter 8318

Ouyang Fantong, who had been paying attention to Tang Yungui, suddenly turned ashen. She subconsciously stopped what she was doing.

The wisp of fire Qi that Ouyang Changhong had secretly helped him with had been exhausted. Not only had he not been able to widen the gap between him and Tang Yungui, but he had also been overtaken!

Ouyang Fantong's mentality had completely collapsed. Her confidence had been hit hard. The medicinal liquid in her hand lost control and directly shattered, turning into nothingness in the pill fire!

Victory and defeat had been decided!

Tang Yungui didn't even need to finish refining the elixir because Ouyang Fantong had already lost!

According to the established rules, if there were no special requirements, the first person to fail in refining the pill would be the loser.

It didn't matter even if Tang Yungui didn't succeed in refining the pill in the end. As long as he could persist for a longer time, he would win!

"I still have important matters to deal with in the alchemy Association. I'll take my leave first!"

Ouyang Changhong's face turned black. He frowned and got up to call out to them. Without waiting for a reply, he flicked his sleeves and left!

He had tried his best to help, but in the end, this was the result. Even if Ouyang Fantong could successfully refine the pill, even if she was not as beautiful as Tang Yungui, Ouyang Changhong could still argue with her. Even if he lost, it would not be too ugly.

But what was he doing now? Disgracing himself was not enough to describe Ouyang Changhong's mood!

Ouyang Changhong did not have the face to stay any longer, so he left before Tang Yungui could finish refining.

This way, he could at least preserve some of the Ouyang family's face ... Even if it was just a little, it was good!

"Guild leader Ouyang, aren't you going to wait for the competition to end? Judging from Tang Yungui's speed, he should be done soon!"

Hua Yao wouldn't really ask Ouyang Changhong to stay. His words were a slap in the face.

As a result, Ouyang Changhong did not stop after he heard that. Instead, he quickened his pace and left the hall of rites in a flash, disappearing outside the door.

The Ouyang Fantong I wanted to see had already finished. She was indeed a good-for-nothing. Who cares if Tang Yungui finished or not?

Ouyang Changhong cursed in his heart.

Hua Yao could not help but laugh out loud when he saw Ouyang Changhong's sorry figure fleeing. The vexation he had felt earlier had instantly dissipated!

"Principal Hua, keep your voice down. Tang Yungui is still refining pills!"

Lin Yi was in a good mood, too, and joked, "If you scare Tang Yungui, you'll be harming him! Even if you don't scare Tang Yungui, it's not appropriate to scare the flowers and plants or the rice bucket!"

"Hahaha, that's right, that's right, this old man was wrong! It's this old man's fault!"

Hua Yao was still laughing happily, but his voice had lowered a lot. He also pretended to apologize. "Dean Sima, Where are the flowers and plants and the rice bucket?"

Ouyang Fantong was very embarrassed and wanted to find a hole to hide in.

There were no potted plants in the hall of rites, so it was not easy to find any flowers or plants!

But, didn't good-for-nothing clearly say it was him, Ouyang Fantong?

"Oh, if you can't do anything, then you're a good-for-nothing if you don't have anything left. We don't know if there's anything, and we don't dare to ask."

Lin Yi chuckled as he continued his nonsense.

Hua Yao also blindly cooperated with him, and the two of them began to seriously argue a few times. At the side, Ouyang Fantong's face was already as dark as water.

I'm feeling so down right now, can't you guys have some sympathy? As the Dean and honorary Dean, was it really good for him to belittle the students like this?

Lin Yi and Hua Yao used their actions to tell Ouyang fan that Tong Tong was fine like this!

So before Tang Yungui finished refining the pill, Ouyang Fantong could only endure the torment of being attacked from all sides. She felt that she would rather die than live. Now, she hoped that Tang Yungui would quickly finish and forget about it!

If you want to die, then die early. It's better to die quickly than to wait for death!

Ouyang Fantong was very envious of Ouyang Changhong. He also wanted to leave, but he didn't have that status.

He didn't dare to leave without the two big shots of the Academy saying anything! If he left, he might not have a spot!

That was why he hated Ouyang Changhong. Why didn't he take him with him when he left, leaving him to suffer here!

Every second felt like a year!

As she was suffering, a pill fragrance spread out. Ouyang Fantong suddenly raised her head.

He realized that Tang Yungui had finished refining the pill. The round pill was already in his palm.

Superior grade!

Although it was a low-grade pill, it would be difficult for an ordinary gold-rank alchemy apprentice to refine a high-quality pill, even if it was a low-grade pill.

Only by frequently refining this kind of medicinal pill and becoming more familiar with it would the chances be higher. However, there was no guarantee that there would be high-quality medicinal pills every time!

Ouyang Fantong looked at Tang Yungui in shock. This kid could not even form a pill fire in the past. How long had it been?

He was actually able to refine high-grade medicinal pills directly?

Didn't that mean that Tang Yungui already had the strength of a gold apprentice, or even a dark gold apprentice?

How did Sima Yi teach him?

Sima Yi was actually this terrifying?

At this moment, Ouyang Fantong fell into a state of envy, jealousy, and hatred again. She envied Tang Yungui for having such an opportunity, envied Tang Yungui for having such a master, and hated Lin Yi for being so insensible. He didn't accept a genius like him but accepted trash like Tang Yungui!

If Sima Yi were to teach him, Ouyang Fantong, with his talent, would he be able to directly reach the level of a bronze rank Alchemist?

Lin Yi didn't know that Ouyang Fantong would have such a stupid idea. He looked at Tang Yungui's pill and nodded indifferently. "It's so-so. There were a few small flaws in your alchemy process. You didn't do it well enough! Otherwise, the quality wouldn't be so ..."

What he meant was that he despised the quality of Tang Yungui's pills.

Surrounded by envy, jealousy, and hate, Ouyang Fantong couldn't help but roll her eyes. It's already of high quality, and you still despise it?

Why, must it be special-grade to be perfect? Look at how smug you are!

Can you die if you don't show off? Can I?

As soon as he finished his thought, Tang Yungui bowed his head respectfully and accepted the lesson. "Shizun's criticism is right! Disciple also noticed those small flaws. Unfortunately, disciple's technique is not skilled enough and my strength is not good enough. I can't make up for them even if I want to!"

"This feeling of having the heart but not being able to do anything, disciple will remember it in my heart. In the future, I will work even harder and not let down master's expectations and teachings! Quickly refine special grade pills!"

Lin Yi said faintly.

Ouyang Fantong's heart was filled with endless jealousy. This was definitely a master and disciple made in heaven! They all F * cking liked to act cool! He's simply the head of posturing big and small! This young master is so angry!

Chapter 8319

"Alright, you know your own mistakes and shortcomings. You should work hard to make up for them in the future. I won't say more!"

Lin Yi nodded in satisfaction. Tang Yungui was indeed a genius Alchemist. When he grew up, he might be another alchemy God!

An alchemy God's disciple teaching a New Alchemy God's disciple should be a good story, right?

As for Lin Yi himself, he didn't want to be a pill God.

Lin Yi didn't have much to think about now-he had to find the girls and go to the transit station.

However, the journey was long.

He couldn't lose his lover, he had to find his parents, and he had to fight for his heart. He had a long way to go, so who had the time to be an alchemy God?

"The result of the competition is obvious. Tang Yungui is the winner. He will be the only gold apprentice Alchemist!"

Hua Yao announced the results with a smile.

He looked at Tang Yungui with a kind expression. This was his own child in Fuyao Alchemy School. The old man was truly happy and gratified to have such achievements.

Ouyang Fantong lowered her head and shrunk her neck, hoping that she could become invisible and everyone would ignore her!

Unfortunately, that was impossible!

After Hua Yao announced Tang Yungui's results, he was happy for a while before he announced the results of the other four. "Besides Tang Yungui, the other four students are also very outstanding. You will be taking the silver apprentice Alchemist test. I hope you will pass it smoothly!"

"Especially Ouyang Fantong, your talent is not bad, I believe you will succeed, don't be dejected! Work harder, you can do it!"

Hua Yao turned to Ouyang Fantong with a smile. You want to be invisible? It was impossible!

These words sounded like an encouragement, but Ouyang Fantong felt that it was a mockery. She had to force out a smile and thank him: "Yes! Student will remember principal's teachings and will definitely do my best to not embarrass the Academy!"

I don't know if the Academy will lose face, but you're about to lose face!

Hua Yao laughed coldly in his heart. His resentment towards the Ouyang family made the old man act like he was adding fuel to the fire. "Ouyang Fantong, since you've lost, shouldn't you settle your bet with Tang Yungui?"

"Our Fuyao apothecary school has always taught our students to keep our promises and keep our promises! This old man doesn't want to see anyone breaking their promise publicly. This kind of behavior is simply tarnishing our Fuyao pill refining school's reputation, and this is absolutely not allowed, do you understand?"

"If such a situation were to occur, this old man will definitely clean up the sect and expel these black sheep. I will return Fuyao apothecary school to its former glory! Ouyang Fantong, do you think what I said is right?"

Ouyang Fantong's forehead was already covered in cold sweat. Although Hua Yao didn't mention any names, everyone knew what he meant!

Without Ouyang Changhong's backing, he, Ouyang Fantong, was nothing!

Wasn't he still being crushed by Hua Yao?

"Yes, yes, yes! The Dean's words were like pearls! The students would remember it in their hearts! I definitely won't disobey the Academy's teachings, I'll definitely be a man of my word!"

Ouyang Fantong didn't have the time to curse in her heart. When did the Fuyao pill refining school teach that one had to keep their word? You're clearly making it up, alright? Who are you trying to fool?

This old man is very bad!

"Very good! You are indeed a good student, this old man is very pleased! Since you're a man of your word, then quickly honor your bet with Tang Yungui! Don't waste any more time!"

Hua Yao was very happy to force Ouyang Fantong. Although it was a bit demeaning for a Dean to do such a thing, it couldn't stop him from being happy!

I'm just happy, so what!

Lin Yi couldn't help but shake his head and smile.

Ouyang Fantong's forehead was covered in sweat. Under Hua Yao's pressure, he really had no choice!

If he could get away with it by going back on his word, he would have done so already. However, it was a pity that with the situation today, he would have to withdraw from the Fuyao apothecary school and give up on this opportunity. Then, he would have to give up on his own reputation and ruin the reputation of the Ouyang clan. Only then would he be able to break this bet!

After weighing the pros and cons, Ouyang Fantong gritted her teeth and made up her mind. She rushed in front of Tang Yungui and knelt down.

Bang Bang Bang Bang ..... After ten consecutive kowtows, Ouyang Fantong felt as if the whole world was spinning, and many little stars were revolving in front of her.

In such a state, it didn't seem difficult to speak ...

"Daddy!"

With the word "father" coming out of her mouth, Ouyang Fantong was naturally ashamed and angry, but her selfish heart also felt a bit relaxed.

From the first round, this bet had become a huge stone in his heart. Now, it was finally removed. Whether it was embarrassing or not, it had already come to this!

Tang Yungui calmly accepted Ouyang Fantong's ten kowtows. After she called him father, he reached out and touched his head with a kind smile. "Hey, good son, get up!"

The humiliation he had suffered from Ouyang Fantong's bullying in the past had been avenged today. Tang Yungui was very happy and his thoughts were much more clear!

Ouyang Fantong's face turned red from being called "good son." She wanted to stand up, but fell to the ground.

The snickering of the other students at the side reverberated in his ears like a large bell, making him feel ashamed and indignant.

Tang Yungui! This young master will definitely kill you! Just wait and see!

He was determined in his heart, but then he felt a little sad. This time, he had lost face for the clan. Would the clan still support him in the future?

Since he was not a direct descendant and could not stand out, the family would not pay attention to him at all!

However, these people who laughed at him, Ouyang Fantong, would never have thought that today's humiliation would become glory in the future!

Even thousands of years later, these spectating students couldn't help but beat their chests and stamp their feet in front of their children and grandchildren, regretting that they didn't call him father like Ouyang Fantong!

"The immortal of alchemy is my foster father!"

This sentence had become Ouyang Fantong's shining capital, and with this "forced" relationship, it had allowed him to stand out in the competition for the Ouyang family's patriarch position.

Little pill immortal was Ouyang Fantong's self-proclaimed title.

After shamelessness, Ouyang Fantong completely let herself go, and she also gained some fame.

The main thing was that Tang Yungui had not retorted. This guy was completely shameless. He still came to kowtow during the new year and the most important thing was that when Ouyang Fantong called him father back then, he had even acknowledged it!

This was something that many people had seen, and they could not deny it.

Tang Yungui was an honest child. Even if he didn't like this "son," a son was still a son ...

Of course, this was a story for later.

At least for now, Ouyang Fantong was still very angry and wanted to take revenge.

Chapter 8320

"Master! It was all thanks to master's cultivation that this disciple has today! Please accept this disciple's bow!"

Tang Yungui turned around and knelt down to Lin Yi. He wanted to kowtow a few times but Lin Yi pulled him up.

"What do you mean? You want to go solo now, so you're here to thank me?"

"You're still far from that, kid-just focus on learning from me, don't do all those useless stuff!" Lin Yi sneered.

"Master, you've misunderstood. I just want to thank you ..." He said.

Tang Yungui was embarrassed and blushed. He quickly shook his head and waved his hands to explain. He looked flustered.

Hua Yao laughed and patted his shoulder. "Alright, alright. What are you so nervous about? your master was just joking. In the future, learn well from your master. In the future, you might become the signboard of our Fuyao apothecary school! This old man has high hopes for you!"

"Thank you, principal!"

Tang Yungui quickly thanked him.

While it was lively here, Ouyang Fantong was dejected. She silently got up and retreated to the side, waiting for the Hua Yao to announce the disbandment ...

Following the conclusion of the examination, the incident that had happened in the hall of propriety seemed to have grown wings, and it quickly spread throughout the entire Fu Yao apothecary school.

Although there weren't many people left in the hall of rites to participate in the final competition, as long as there were people, the news would spread, and it would become more and more ridiculous.

Ouyang Changhong couldn't stand the humiliation and didn't have the face to stay in the Academy, so he left without waiting for the event to end ...

Ouyang Fantong had lost the bet and cried bitterly. She had knelt on the ground, kowtowed and called Tang Yungui "father". She had even hugged Tang Yungui's leg and shouted, "father, I will be filial to you in the future. Father, please teach me alchemy ..."

And what, what, what ...

In short, those rumors that were circulating were enough to make Ouyang Fantong dig a hole in her room and bury herself a hundred times, a hundred times!

So this guy seemed to have autism, as he locked himself in his room the moment he left the hall, not seeing anyone!

This was called hiding in the room and becoming one, regardless of whether it was spring, summer, autumn, or winter!

Of course, Tang Yungui or Lin Yi didn't spread these words to humiliate Ouyang Fantong. This kid was usually very arrogant, and arrogant people would not win people's hearts.

The bet between him and Tang Yungui had started from the first round. Many people knew about it and paid attention to it. Those who failed were expelled from the hall of rites. Naturally, they wanted to know the result.

No information could be kept a secret if they deliberately inquired about it. Moreover, this was not a secret at all, and no one wanted to give Ouyang Fantong any face!

Lin Yi wasn't interested in these small things, and Hua Yao pulled Lin Yi to his office for a private talk after the ceremony.

"Sima, I'm really impressed with your methods of teaching disciples! Although Tang Yungui used to be diligent, he never opened his aperture and couldn't condense the elixir fire. How long has it been since he became your disciple? he's actually changed and impressed me!"

Hua Yao stroked his beard and smiled in relief. "To be honest, on this sub-Island, if you, Sima Yi, are ranked second in terms of teaching disciples, this old man can't think of anyone who would dare to be first!"

"Principal Hua is too kind, this sub-Island is so vast, there are many capable people, my level is far from enough!"

Lin Yi was used to being humble, so he smiled and waved his hand. "Also, Tang Yungui is very talented. If it were someone else, they might not have achieved so much! For example, my other three disciples are not materials for alchemy, so I can only rely on Tang Yungui to pass down my alchemy skills!"

"Hahaha, Sima, you're too humble! Your other three disciples all have their own talents. If you teach them according to their material, you'll show your ability even more! It is this old man's honor to have you in charge of the fu Yao apothecary school!"

Hua Yu stroked his beard and laughed, 'it's the Alliance Academy's loss to give up on a great talent like you! That old thing from the Alliance Academy must have been blind and muddled to have made such a foolish decision! However, this old man also has to thank him. If not for him, Sima, it would have been difficult for you to come to our Fu Yao pill refining Academy!"

This old man's smile was so wide that his eyes couldn't be seen. It was completely like he had picked up a treasure.

After joking around for a while, Hua Yao finally got to the main topic. "Sima, I've asked you to come alone this time because I have something to discuss with you. Now that the five names have been announced, I've already sent someone to report it. According to the usual practice, once the higher-ups receive the report, they will immediately give an order."

"Normally, our Academy will send a high-ranking official and two teachers to bring the five winners to the continent to participate in the next apprentice alchemy assessment!"

"As for the candidates ... This old man wanted to ask you, are you interested in leading a team? There are some things I need to make clear first. It's not a simple matter to lead a team over. The higher-ups of the various apothecary schools are all gathered together, so there will definitely be a lot of sparring!"

"It's not just a private competition. There are also public competitions in this area. The results of the competition will affect the number of apprentice apothecaries for the next year's assessment ... The higher ranked schools will have at least twenty to thirty apprentice apothecaries this time ..."

Lin Yi's mouth twitched. The other school had at least twenty to thirty spots, but the Fuyao apothecary school only had five ... Wasn't this a little too miserable?

Was the difference that big?

"In addition to the competition between the higher-ups, the results of the Academy's assessment also take up a portion of the share. This time, we have Tang Yungui, so passing the gold apprentice Alchemist's assessment should be no problem. It should be more beneficial!"

"If you can go, then the upper echelons 'competition will be a sure win. With that, the number of slots that our Fuyao apothecary school will receive next year will increase significantly ... It's only natural that it will double!"

Other than Lin Yi, no one else from the Fuyao apothecary school would be able to win, including Hua Yao himself. Although he was a Grandmaster, he was only a bronze Grandmaster, the lowest level. He didn't have much of an advantage in the previous years!

As the Dean, he didn't have the advantage if he went personally-it'd be embarrassing if word got out, and so Hua Yao didn't want to bring his own team over easily. With Lin Yi joining this year, not only did his confidence double, his ambition grew as well!

"Take a team to the great continent? No problem!"

Lin Yi didn't even think about it and agreed. He wanted to go to the martial Union and get some information, but Ouyang Changqing didn't allow it.

Now, a pillow had appeared just as he was about to doze off. With his identity as a high-level leader of the college, Ouyang Changqing would have no reason to stop him!

"You have to know, this is for ... What? You're willing to go?"

Hua Yao was still trying to persuade Lin Yi out of habit and didn't pay attention to what Lin Yi said. When he reacted, he was surprised and happy, "That's great! With Sima You personally leading the team, this wave is set in stone!"
