

Bodyguard 8331

Chapter 8331

They did know about The Alchemist badge, but they didn't have it!

After the examination, there should be an apprentice Alchemist's badge being issued. This was the alchemist's badge, but it was the lowest grade.

"Hello! We are all students who are taking the apprentice apothecary examination and have yet to receive our badges. I wonder if you can make an exception and allow us in? It's mainly because I heard that your store has many fine products suitable for alchemists, which can help our assessment go smoothly ..."

Diao mang Tian wanted to say a few good words and sneak in, but the two guards simply ignored him. Instead, they repeated what they had just said with an expressionless face.

Tang Yungui guessed that they wouldn't repeat it a third time. They would probably drive him away ...

At this time, Ouyang Fantong's mouth curved into a smile. He had already foreseen this scene.

He had deliberately brought Tang Yungui and the others here to show off Ouyang Fantong's strength!

"Tang Yungui, Diao Longtian, don't worry. If I can bring you here, I can naturally bring you in!" He said.

Ouyang Fantong's face couldn't hide her pride. She casually took out a golden card and handed it to the guard, "Please take a look at my membership card. Is there a problem with bringing my friends in?"

The two guards glanced at the card, but did not intend to take it. They did not become very respectful either, and just calmly retracted their arms.

One of the guards nodded slightly. "Yes, you can. You have the authority to bring four people in. Please come in!"

Ouyang Fantong ignored the Guard's indifference and kept the Gold Card smugly. She smiled and showed it off to Tang Yungui and the others. "Do you see this? this is the membership card my Ouyang family made for me. Without this little thing, the peerless grade trading company would not even let us in!"

The items in such high-end Chambers of Commerce were all very expensive, and ordinary people could not afford them. That was why there was such a threshold to enter, to prevent people who could not afford to buy things from entering and taking up space!

"Yes, yes, yes, you're the best, you're the best, hurry up and go in! To be honest, I don't really want to go in ... If it wasn't for the fact that you've worked so hard to get this done, I really would have turned around and left!"

Diao Mantian's mouth twitched, obviously not wanting to accept Ouyang Fantong's favor.

Ouyang Fantong just shrugged her shoulders and didn't care too much. He was prepared to throw money to buy some things to bribe the four of them, so there was no need to argue now!

"Alright, let's hurry in! There are a lot of good things waiting for us inside!"

Ouyang Fantong waved her hand and walked in first!

The interior of the Chamber of Commerce was magnificently decorated. Although it lacked elegance, it had the most intuitive luxury.

If Lin Yi was here, he wouldn't think that this was the highest class, but in Ouyang Fantong's eyes, it was.

"Look, every decoration in this Chamber of Commerce is extremely luxurious. I dare say that even the Imperial Palace in the imperial capital is nothing more than this!"

Ouyang Fantong was very proud. Leading the way, she had the feeling of being the Big Brother, "Today, everyone can finally see for themselves. Of course, the most important thing is to buy some equipment. What is the most important thing for us alchemists? It's an alchemy furnace!"

"It's a rare opportunity today, so I'll give everyone an alchemy furnace as a token of my appreciation. Please don't refuse! This is related to the assessment later, so you can't be careless!"

He had been here before, so he knew that the price of the lowest grade cauldron wasn't too high. He could still afford it as a gift!

"Thank you, thank you. It would be impolite for us to refuse!"

The two invisible students immediately expressed their gratitude.

They had never been to such a high-class Chamber of Commerce before. To be able to get a suitable alchemy furnace for free was definitely a big temptation, so they didn't even refuse.

Diao Mantian snorted. "No need. We can buy whatever we want. We don't lack money!"

"What's with the money! This is my way of expressing my sincerity, so please accept it. If you don't accept it, doesn't that mean you haven't accepted me?"

If Ouyang Fantong wanted to continue showing off, she would have to make Tang Yungui and Diao Longtian accept the gifts!

If you don't give him anything, how can he get back at you?

"Senior brother Tang, what do you think?"

Diao Longtian pursed his lips and turned to ask Tang Yungui for his opinion.

Lin Yi wasn't here, and Tang Yungui was his guiding light. It wouldn't be wrong to follow Tang Yungui.

"Since Ouyang Fantong has already put it this way, it's not good to not accept it, so just accept it!"

Tang Yungui nodded and did not take it to heart. At the same time, he reached out and patted Diao Longtian's shoulder.

When their eyes met, Diao mang Tian seemed to have understood something, and he immediately smiled.

That's right, senior brother Tang was the winner now. Whether it was the assessment quota or the bet, he had won against Ouyang Fantong.

In the five-person team, Tang Yungui's position as the leader had been established. It would be very difficult for Ouyang Fantong to rebel!

You can buy people's hearts by giving them something? Diao Mantian felt that Ouyang Fantong was really thinking too much!

A small gift could not shake Tang Yungui's status.

Everyone knew that he wasn't as good as Tang Yungui. His starting point was already lower than Tang Yungui's. His future achievements wouldn't be as good as Tang Yungui's, who had Lin Yi as his master. Who would offend Tang Yungui for Ouyang Fantong?

If he accepted the gift, at most, he would stop laughing at Ouyang Fantong and treat her a little more normally. If he were to show off again, he might return to the state of rejection.

"Ah, Tang Yungui is so straightforward! Then it's decided. Everyone, follow me. Let's directly take a look at the alchemy furnace! They should be here, the ones we're sharing are all on the first floor!"

Ouyang Fantong turned and led the group into a passage on the left. After passing through a corridor, they entered a large room.

There were all kinds of alchemy furnaces inside, all of which were low-grade goods used by alchemy apprentices.

The cauldrons used by true alchemists were all on the second floor and above.

The Gold Card in Ouyang Fantong's hand looked gorgeous, but it was actually just an entry level membership card. It could only bring people around the first floor, not to the second floor.

Therefore, he brought his men here without even looking at the stairs that led to the second floor.

"Come, let's all take a look. The pill furnaces here are all of the best quality. Any one of them can be used as the treasure of a small trading company outside!"

Ouyang Fantong spared no effort to flatter the Chamber of Commerce, which was equivalent to raising his own status.

Tang Yungui and the others hummed perfunctorily and began to browse casually.

There was a saying that Ouyang Fantong was right. The alchemy furnace here was indeed the best of the best for an apprentice Alchemist.

Chapter 8332

Any alchemy furnace could increase the success rate of an alchemy apprentice.

Ouyang Fantong showed off for a while, but seeing that the effect wasn't that good, she restrained herself and looked at the alchemy furnace. Soon, there was an alchemy furnace that caught her eye!

"Waiter, what's the situation with this alchemy furnace? come and introduce it!"

Ouyang Fantong's eyes lit up, and she seemed to be very excited, "The other alchemy furnaces all have a price. Why isn't there a price for this one?"

The alchemy furnace that he had his eyes on was indeed a little special. It was placed in a transparent crystal cover.

Most of the other alchemy furnaces did not have this kind of treatment. They were the kind that were directly placed on the table for the customers to use.

"This alchemy furnace is the best alchemy furnace on the first floor of our shop. It can be considered one of the strongest alchemy apprentices' alchemy furnaces. Its effects and functions can even be compared to the alchemy furnaces used by ordinary alchemists."

The shop assistant came up and explained to Ouyang Fantong, "Apprentice apothecaries can't use the cauldron that ordinary apothecaries use. If the apothecary flame isn't sufficient, the medicinal herbs in the cauldron won't be able to be refined, let alone pill forging!"

"As for this cauldron, it solves this problem. It can be used by apprentice apothecaries all the way until the apothecary level. If you like it, you should buy it as soon as possible!"

This shop assistant's introduction was very detailed, and he even recommended a wave of things, which made Ouyang Fantong's heart beat faster: "Then how much is this alchemy furnace worth?"

The prices of the other pill furnaces were all within Ouyang Fantong's range, so he felt that even if this one was a bit more expensive, it shouldn't be much more expensive than the other pill furnaces.

In the end, the shop assistant's bid was actually twenty times more expensive than the other elixir furnaces!

"So expensive? Can you make it cheaper?"

Ouyang Fantong was secretly conflicted. Twenty times! []

It wasn't that he couldn't afford it, but the price was a little too high. If he bought this alchemy furnace, he wouldn't have much money left!

After all, he was only a distant relative of the Ouyang family. It was not a problem for him to pretend to be rich, but the problem was that he could only pretend for a while. When he really used his true power ... He was not really rich!

"This young master wants this alchemy furnace!"

Ouyang Fantong still wanted to bargain, but someone on the side directly said, ""The quality of the items from the peerless Chamber of Commerce is guaranteed, but someone still wants to bargain for the good stuff! Hehe! Who knows where this country bumpkin came from! And how did he get into the peerless Chamber of Commerce?"

This laughter was full of contempt and disdain. It was annoying to hear, not to mention the ridicule in those words. Ouyang Fantong was angry on the spot!

One had to know that Ouyang Fantong had spent all her effort to come here to save her dignity!

At this time, there was actually someone who wanted to affect his redeeming of his honor. Of course, he couldn't tolerate it and directly exploded!

"Bah! This young master had his eyes on this pill furnace first. Who Do You Think You Are to dare to fight for it!"

Ouyang Fantong suddenly turned around and saw a young man about his age. He had an arrogant attitude and disdainful eyes. There was a servant beside him, most likely the son of some influential family in the capital.

"What do you mean you saw it first? Have you made a bid? Did you guys make a deal? There's nothing, and you have the face to say that you're fighting for it? I'm bidding now. If you have the ability, then increase the price!"

The young man raised his nose at Ouyang Fantong. This dungeon young master was rich. If you raise the price, this young master will kill you.

This was because Ouyang Fantong looked unfamiliar, so she should be someone from outside the city!

This young man knew almost all the people of the same age in the imperial capital of the spirit bow Empire. Those who he didn't know were definitely nobodies.

Since that was the case, what else was there to say? It's over!

Ouyang Fantong was furious and couldn't help but sneer, "Childish! If the trading company set a price, who would bid against you? Besides, this is something that this young master has his eyes on first, and it's not up to you to interfere! Shop assistant, this young master wants this alchemy furnace!"

At this time, they didn't care about the price, they had to grab it first ... If they really wanted to bid, Ouyang Fantong would definitely lose!

"This young master called out the price first, so stand aside! Shop assistant, this alchemy furnace belongs to this young master. If you dare to give it to someone else, do you believe that this young master will not kill you!"

That young man directly threatened the shop assistant, as if he felt that Ouyang Fantong's importance couldn't even be compared to a shop assistant of the peerless grade trading company!

Of course, the waiter recognized the young man. He immediately smiled respectfully and said, ""Don't worry, young master Huang, the alchemy furnace is definitely yours ..."

In his words, he directly ignored Ouyang Fantong, which offended her!

Ouyang Fantong had been sullen the whole way. She had finally seized the opportunity to show off, but what was this?

Was this a slap in the face?

You made this young master lose face, so this young master will make you lose face!

Ouyang Fantong didn't say anything and directly slapped the boy's face, directly making him dumbfounded!

The servant behind the young man was obviously not very strong. He usually just ran errands with the young man, so he did not react in time!

"You dare to hit me? Are you crazy? You dare to hit me! I'll kill you!"

That young man stupidly raised his hand to cover his face, looking at Ouyang Fantong in disbelief!

Then, the young man realized what had happened. His eyes were filled with disbelief, and his pupils quickly became bloodshot. "This young master will definitely kill you! You're dead!"

What welcomed him was another slap. The slap made him spin on the spot and he spat out two teeth.

Ouyang Fantong was already in a state of anger rising from her heart to her courage. When she found that the strength of the young man and his servant wasn't strong, she simply pounced on them and gave them a violent beating.

It happened so quickly that Tang Yungui, Diao Longtian, and the others didn't have time to react. By the time they wanted to stop the fight, the young man had already been beaten black and blue!

"Ouyang Fantong, what are you doing? Quickly stop! Don't tell me you've forgotten Dean Sima's instructions to not come out and cause trouble?"

A Fuyao student went forward to pull Ouyang Fantong, trying to pull him away, but Ouyang Fantong shook him off!

Now that he had a channel to vent the grievances he had suffered along the way, it was not good for anyone to come!

"I didn't cause any trouble, it's this kid! Even if he beat him up, Dean Sima couldn't say anything! All of you, get out of my way!"

Ouyang Fantong continued to chase and beat him. The young man was not his opponent, so he could only cover his head and run away like a rat. At the same time, he shouted for help!

When the young man went out, there would definitely be guards. It was just that when he came in, the guards were left outside the door, and he had a personal servant who didn't have any fighting power. This was why he was beaten up by Ouyang Fantong without any power to fight back!

"Dean Sima said that if we don't cause trouble, we won't be afraid of trouble! This young master is just following Dean Sima's instructions. This brat came to provoke me, so I'll kill him!"

Ouyang Fantong didn't forget to use Lin Yi's words as a cover as she chased after him. It was clear that she was very afraid of Lin Yi, and even in her rage, she didn't forget to find a way out!

Chapter 8333

Tang Yungui covered his forehead helplessly. Master did say this, but it didn't seem to be what he meant!

It had happened so quickly that Tang Yungui had no time to think about how to deal with it. Then five or six strong men rushed in. They were all powerful warriors.

"Young master! Damned evil thief, you actually dare to attack my young master!"

When the warrior in the lead saw that the situation was not right, he immediately rushed toward Ouyang Fantong with a roar. With one punch, he destroyed Ouyang Fantong's pursuit of the young man, and with a collision, Ouyang Fantong was knocked back a few steps!

"Kill him! Kill this piece of trash!"

Having found his sense of security, the young man's face was swollen. He pointed at Ouyang Fantong and shouted hysterically, ""Don't hold back, you must kill him! No, I can't let him die too easily, I have to cut him into pieces! Also, kill all of his accomplices!"

Ouyang Fantong's face suddenly turned pale. From the simple contact just now, he knew that his strength was nothing compared to the young man's guard. There was no way to fight!

Even if he attacked, he would only be bullied. This was not the time to be unafraid of things. He had to admit defeat!

Tang Yungui, Diao Longtian, and the others were all dumbfounded!

We didn't do anything, and we even tried to persuade them. Why should we be killed? Isn't this a little fair?

"As you command! Don't worry, young master, I won't let them off easily!"

The guard who attacked first revealed a ferocious smile.

Their duty was to protect the young master. Now that the target they were protecting had been beaten into a pig's head, it would be hard to explain when they returned. They might even be punished.

This was all done by these kids. Even without the young master's order, he would not have let Ouyang Fantong and the others off so easily.

"Stop! Do you know who I am?"

Ouyang Fantong's heart was in a mess, but she could only force herself to calm down and try her best to put on an imposing manner, wanting to scare the other party, "I'm a disciple of the Ouyang family! Do you dare to make a move? The Ouyang family won't let this go!"

"Bah! What is the Ouyang family? This young master has never heard of it, kill him! Kill him! A thousand cuts!"

That young man had completely entered a state of hysteria. If it wasn't for the guards stopping him, he would have rushed up to bite Ouyang Fantong to death!

Ouyang Fantong's face turned pale. She was getting more and more flustered when she met someone who wasn't afraid of the Ouyang family.

His family was his greatest source of confidence. With the Ouyang family's name, it would definitely have some face in those conferred empires.

However, the kid opposite him was probably beaten up so badly that he didn't care at all.

Not to mention the Ouyang family, even if the heavens were to come, it would be useless!

"Stop! Who are you people? Didn't the Ouyang family know? Even the royal family of the spirit bow Empire will give our Ouyang family some face!"

Ouyang Fantong kept retreating, her intentions were clear.

A trace of disdain flashed in the eyes of the guards. He dared to cause trouble but did not take responsibility. When he encountered a problem, he wanted to use his family to scare people!

Do you really think that your Ouyang family can scare the world? Today, I'll let you see that this young master isn't afraid of the Ouyang family!

The young man was not afraid of the Ouyang family, but the guards were hesitant.

After all, the Ouyang family was also a behemoth, and they were just small figures. If they provoked the Ouyang family and the higher-ups didn't admit it, they would die without a burial place!

"Young master ... The Ouyang clan seems to have some ties with our clan, so it's not too appropriate to kill their descendants ... Furthermore, from their attire ... They seem to be from the NA duo conferred Empire's Fu Yao apothecary school ..."

That servant didn't have much combat power, but he had good eyes!

While the guards stopped the young man, the servant went over and whispered, "Young master, I think that even though it's fine to kill these people, there will definitely be trouble. My family can deal with these troubles, but it will affect young master's status!"

"Rather than killing them, it's better to capture them first. Sometimes, living is more painful than death. Besides, we can use them to gain some benefits and establish young master's prestige!"

The youth's eyes narrowed, and his furious mood suddenly calmed down.

He coldly glanced at Ouyang Fantong, Tang Yungui, and the others. The corners of the young man's mouth revealed a mocking smile, but it affected his wound, and his eyes immediately burned with fire.

"What you said makes sense. This young master can't let this kid off so easily! Arrest them all!"

The young man shouted, and the guards immediately took action. Ouyang Fantong tried to resist, but was ruthlessly beaten up. She immediately became well-behaved and was carried by one of the guards, groaning and groaning.

Tang Yungui shook his head at Diao Longtian and the other two students, indicating that they should not resist. He also opened his arms and made a gesture of not resisting.

The strength of those guards was far superior to the few of them, and they also had the advantage of numbers. Resisting would only be asking to be humiliated.

"There's no need for you to make a move. If you want to arrest us, just do it. We won't resist. However, I have to clarify that we are students of the Fuyao apothecary school. This is just a misunderstanding. I hope that we can talk things out peacefully and resolve this misunderstanding!"

Tang Yungui's expression was indifferent. He looked at the young man neither humbly nor arrogantly. "I heard the shop assistant call you young master Huang just now, so I'll call you that too. Young master Huang, it's definitely wrong for our companions to attack you, but we wanted to stop you, which means that we didn't mean to have a conflict with you."

"This time, the five of us will be representing the fu Yao apothecary school to take part in the apprentice apothecary examination. This is a matter of great importance, and if we have offended you in any way, we are willing to offer you a gift and apologize! Although the one who did it was Ouyang Fantong, we are a team, so we naturally have to bear the responsibility together. "

"Young master Huang ..."

"Shut up! This young master doesn't have time to listen to your nonsense!"

The young man interrupted Tang Yungui impatiently, "This young master has never been beaten like this before. Today, I was beaten by you and even lost two teeth! What's the point of talking to me about the Ouyang clan and the Fuyao apothecary school?"

"This young master is in the right today, and this young master has an unforgiving temper, so what? I'm already giving you a lot of face by not killing you on the spot!"

"That person from the Ouyang family is called Ouyang Fantong, right? Aren't you very arrogant? More arrogance! This young master's name is Huang shulang, remember this!"

As Huang shulang spoke, he stepped forward and kicked Ouyang Fantong a few times. He grabbed her collar with one hand and slapped her a dozen times with the other. Only then did he feel a little refreshed.

After forcefully throwing Ouyang Fantong, who was like a broken sack, to the ground, Huang shulang stood up and laughed a few times. However, he pulled on the wound on his face and grimaced in pain. He then kicked Ouyang Fantong a few more times.

Chapter 8334

"Your bones are quite hard, this young master's hands and feet hurt! Alright! This young master didn't kill you today, but it's not because I want to let you go. You hit this young master, so this matter isn't over! Quickly contact the Sima clan and ask them to prepare a ransom to buy you back!"

Huang shulang used his fingers to rub the scars on his face, a trace of ruthlessness flashed in his eyes. "If the Ouyang family is not willing to pay the ransom, it means that you are an insignificant person. I don't think the Ouyang family would care about whether you are Dead or Alive."

"But don't worry, this young master won't kill you immediately. No matter what, I'll first torture you for ten days to half a month, and then see if you can hold on!"

Ouyang Fantong's mouth was bubbling with blood. It was obvious that her injuries were not light, but her life was not in danger.

He was really regretting it now. He didn't expect that the kid in front of him didn't have much combat power, but the force behind him was so huge.

He didn't even place the Ouyang clan in his eyes, and he didn't even dare to give face to the Fuyao apothecary school. Clearly, his clan was extremely powerful!

It was not worth it to offend such a person!

Especially when Ouyang Fantong was very clear about his status in the Ouyang family. He was just a branch family descendant. Why would the Ouyang family make an enemy out of a family of the same level or even higher level for a branch family descendant?

Don't joke around. Ouyang Fantong would be the first to not believe it.

When Huang shulang said a sky-high price as a ransom, Ouyang Fantong was convinced that she was finished!

Even the Ouyang family couldn't afford such a huge ransom in a short time because no family would have such a huge amount of liquid funds.

Therefore, even if the Ouyang family had one, they would not use it to redeem an insignificant branch family descendant!

"Young master Huang, it's my fault. I apologize to you, I'm sorry! You can scold or hit me if you want, but can you cancel the ransom?"

Ouyang Fantong wanted to be unyielding, but her strength didn't allow it. So, Ouyang Fantong didn't hesitate and admitted defeat on the spot: "Or I can give all my things to young master Huang as an apology. Although it's not a lot, it's still a little token of my appreciation ..."

After experiencing the feeling of kneeling down, kowtowing, and calling her father, Ouyang Fantong was no longer prepared to have any face.

What can face do now? The most important thing was to keep his life.

If she could get Huang shulang's forgiveness by kowtowing and calling him "father," Ouyang Fantong didn't mind kowtowing on the spot. Even a hundred or eighty kowtows wouldn't be a problem!

"Hehehe, hahaha, now you're afraid? You only want to regret it now? It's too late!"

Huang shulang laughed arrogantly and then pulled on the wound on his face, so Ouyang Fantong suffered a few more kicks.

"The ransom can't be any less. If the ransom is paid, you can all go back alive. If not, you'll all be killed!"

He had the air of a Bandit and looked exactly like the head of the kidnappers. This kid might have wanted to do this for a long time, so he was very excited when he spoke and did things!

"Young master Huang, if the five of us want so much, then if it's just me, does that mean I only need one-fifth?"

Ouyang Fantong's eyes brightened. If it could be reduced by eighty percent, then the burden would not be so heavy ...

Although it was still a huge number, it was still better than the original number, right?

"Huang Shao, Huang Shao, I'm actually not familiar with them, I ..."

Ouyang Fantong subconsciously wanted to push Tang Yungui and the others away. But when she saw their disdainful looks, she reacted and quickly shut her mouth. It was too late.

Just now, Tang Yungui had not separated Ouyang Fantong from him. Instead, the five of them had acted as a whole. They had apologized in the name of the five-person group to share Ouyang Fantong's pressure.

But in fact, this whole matter was caused by Ouyang Fantong. Tang Yungui and the other three had suffered an undeserved disaster. In the end, Ouyang Fantong actually wanted to protect herself?

It was simply unsightly!

Huang shulang laughed and said, "stop dreaming. The four of them are just extras. You're the main dish!" The ransom is for you. If it's enough, I'll let you go. If it's not enough, don't even think about running away!"

"Didn't you say you were a team? are you satisfied now?" he turned to Tang Yungui.

"Who's with him? Senior brother Tang, this matter was caused by Ouyang Fantong, we don't care if he dies!"

Diao Mantian was furious. This Ouyang Fantong was really too much. Diao Mantian felt that he was blind to share life and death with this kind of person!

"Forget it. Now that I'm a fish on the chopping block, what's the point of saying all this!"

Tang Yungui waved his hand and stopped Diao Longtian from cursing.

He hadn't been with Lin Yi for a long time, but he was the most grateful to Lin Yi, and so he'd been imitating Lin Yi's every move and even thinking.

The calmness he displayed at a time like this really did have a bit of Lin Yi's style.

Diao mang Tian froze for a moment. He felt that Lin Yi was right in front of him, and his heart calmed down a little.

Ouyang Fantong lowered her head in embarrassment. If Huang shulang had agreed to split the ransom, she would not have bothered to offend Tang Yungui and the others. But now, she had gone for wool and come home shorn. She was really annoyed!

"Ouyang Fantong, I'll give you a chance to contact your family and ask them to send the ransom money over. This young master doesn't have much patience. If I can't wait, I might use too much force, and then I won't be able to kill you!"

Huang shulang squatted down and reached out to Pat Ouyang Fantong's face a few times, "Have you thought of who to ask for money from? This young master can help you contact them with a communication formation!"

Ouyang fan wanted to cry but had no tears. Asking his family for such a large ransom? If he didn't do well, his family might just ask him to die ...

They didn't lack a son anyway. They had more than ten brothers. Although he was more talented, compared to the ransom, all of them were nothing!

His only hope was Ouyang Changqing, who had become the substitute Hall Master of the naduo martial Alliance branch!

This uncle could be considered to be quite rich and powerful, and because he was close to Ouyang Fantong, his relationship with her was quite close. He thought about it and decided that he could only ask Ouyang Changqing for help!

Immediately, Ouyang Fantong asked Huang shulang to take out the communication array and directly contacted the first hall master's office of the naduo illusion martial Alliance.

"Uncle, save me! I'm fan Tong!"

Through the communication formation, Ouyang Fantong briefly explained the sequence of events.

With Huang shulang by her side, Ouyang Fantong didn't dare to lie. Of course, this wasn't important. The important thing was to gather a large sum of ransom money: "... Uncle, if there's no ransom, we're dead for sure. Please, on account of our blood connection, lend me a helping hand and save my life!"

He grabbed a blade of grass!

Ouyang Changqing only wanted to curse. This year, the landlord family didn't have any surplus grain, and they wanted him to take out such a large ransom to save Ouyang Fantong? That was impossible!

Chapter 8335

"Fan Tong, just you wait. Uncle will think of a way to save you. I won't give up on you!"

Ouyang Changqing definitely wouldn't pay, but he still had to put in enough effort on the surface. He had to put in the effort, or else it would be hard to explain!

After consoling Ouyang Fantong, he turned off the communication array and then called someone to find Ouyang Changhong to discuss it.

"Chang Hong, do you have any ideas? Although Fan Tong has caused trouble, she is still our Clansman. We can't just watch her die!"

"Big brother, this little bastard can't be helped. He brought trouble upon himself, what does it have to do with us brothers? Just let him die!"

Ouyang Changhong angrily smacked the table. He still couldn't let go of Ouyang Fantong's embarrassing performance in the last assessment: "It's impossible for us to come up with such a large sum of ransom money. Even if we could, we wouldn't use it to save such a waste! Can't we get by in the future?"

Ouyang Changqing shook his head with a bitter smile. "Alright, alright. Let's not talk about this anymore. We definitely can't get the ransom, so we have to think of another way."

"As you know, I've just taken over the martial union branch, and I'm only a substitute Hall Master. The only thing I can manage is the nado conferred Empire area. I can't interfere with the spirit bow conferred Empire, and I don't have many friends I can talk to."

"I've made some inquiries. This time, Fan Tong has offended the Huang family, a top-notch family in the spirit bow Empire. Their power is well-known in the entire continent's martial Alliance. They're not inferior to our Ouyang family in the slightest, and may even be slightly superior."

"Do you think ... The Huang family will sell us face?"

The acting Hall Master of the martial Union's branch was actually quite influential, but Ouyang Changqing didn't have any confidence in that.

"No!" Ouyang Changhong resolutely shook his head. The Huang family didn't even give face to our Ouyang family, so why would they give face to you, big brother? It's better not to humiliate yourself in this matter!"

He was speaking the truth, but it was a bit hurtful to say it out loud ... Ouyang Changqing rubbed his forehead and felt that Ouyang Changhong simply wanted to let go of this mess.

"Brother, why don't we ask Gu Shi and the language of monsters? they seem to have some acquaintances in the spirit bow Empire. Maybe we can ask them to help us."

Ouyang Changhong didn't really just leave them be. At the very least, he had an idea.

Ouyang Changqing felt that what he said made sense and immediately sent someone to invite Gu Shi and the language of the living things over.

When the two of them arrived, Ouyang Changqing personally came out to welcome them. He smiled and cupped his hands. "Vice Hall Master Gu, vice Hall Master Hua, I've invited the two of you here today because I have a favor to ask of you!"

Gu Shi cupped his hands with a cold expression on his face. He initially thought that the position of the acting Hall Master was in his pocket and even asked Ouyang Changqing for help. In the end, it was snatched away by Ouyang Changqing, so it would be strange if he showed a good face now!

Ouyang Changqing felt a little embarrassed in his heart. The reason he had asked Gu Shi to come here this time was also to ease the relationship between them.

The monster language was also very cold. After bowing according to the rules, it didn't seem to want to speak.

No one responded to Ouyang Changqing after he finished speaking. He could only cough and continue.

"It's like this. Sima Yi represented the Fuyao apothecary school and led a team to the martial Alliance to participate in the examination. He passed by the spirit bow Empire's imperial capital and something happened ..."

Ouyang Changqing definitely wouldn't go into detail about the details. He used the spring and autumn writing style to brush over it and only said the final result. "... Now that five students have been detained, and the Huang family has demanded a sky-high ransom, I really have no way to deal with it. I can only ask the two vice Hall Masters to come over and discuss it."

Gu Shi's expression did not change as he replied, "Since it's a student of the fu Yao apothecary school who's in trouble, why don't you look for Hua Yao to resolve it? I'm sorry, but I don't have any other way. You guys do as you see fit! Goodbye!"

After he finished speaking, Gu Shi turned around and left without giving Ouyang Changqing any face.

The corner of Ouyang Changqing's mouth twitched, but he could not hold on to Gu Shi. That would make him seem too incompetent as the acting Hall Master.

Without caring about Gu Shi, Ouyang Changqing turned to the language of artifacts. "Vice Hall Master Hua, I heard that you have some friends in the spirit bow Empire? He seems to be someone of high status. Can I trouble him with this matter?"

The artifact language's face was cold and he did not say anything. He did have a friend in the capital of the spirit bow Empire, but he did not want to help.

He didn't ask Hua Yao to deal with this matter directly, but instead told Ouyang Changqing, so there must be something fishy about it.

At the very least, it would not be as simple as Ouyang Changqing had said. The language of the living things was well aware of this.

Why should he use the language of the transformation realm to help Ouyang Changqing?

Ouyang Changqing saw through the monster language's thoughts and forced a smile. "Vice Hall Master Hua, this matter isn't simple. It also concerns Dean Sima. He led a team to the martial Alliance of the continents, but all five students were captured. How can he not be responsible?"

"If anything happens to these students, Dean Sima will have to bear the blame no matter what happens! Could vice Hall Master Hua bear to watch Dean Sima fall into a difficult situation and do nothing?"

"Moreover, one of the five students is Dean Sima's direct disciple. Dean Sima must be on the move right now to save those students. Vice Hall Master Hua, that's your brother. Aren't you going to help him?"

These words had completely captured the heart of the monster, and he could not help but sigh.

This was also the reason why he didn't leave with Gu Shi. This matter involved Lin Yi, and he needed to get accurate information to be at ease.

If Lin Yi needed it, the beast transformation language would use 100% of its strength.

"Forget it. I'll just contact them and see. As for the result, it's not within my control!"

The artifact language sighed and immediately used the communication array to send a message to his friend in the spirit bow Empire, explaining the situation briefly.

The other party happened to be right next to the communication spell formation. When he heard the message from the language of living things, he quickly replied.

"I'm sorry, brother Hua. Since this matter involves Huang shulang of the Huang family, it's not something I can interfere with. I'm sorry that I can't help you! Although you've mentioned the Ouyang family, the Huang family obviously won't care about the Ouyang family's thoughts!"

To put it more clearly, the Huang family didn't put the Ouyang family in their eyes at all. If they wanted to use the Ouyang family to pressure people, then the ransom wouldn't have happened. It could have been solved from the beginning!

The artifact language's face had always been cold and indifferent, and there was no change after listening to it. However, Ouyang Changqing looked a little unsightly!

"Since vice Hall Master Hua's friend can't help, I'll think of another way. If vice Hall Master Hua has the time, please inform Hua Yao. After all, it's their Fuyao Alchemy School that's in trouble. Tell him to think of a way!"

When Ouyang Changqing saw that the language of the living things was useless, he put on the airs of a substitute Hall Master and waved his hand to send the language of the living things away.

Chapter 8336

The monster turned around and left without even saying goodbye. It was already very restrained that the monster did not flare up on the spot.

The demon transformation language did have to go to the Fuyao apothecary school, and it concerned Lin Yi-there was no room for delay.

Even if Ouyang Changqing didn't say it, the language of the living things would have done it.

After the monster language left, Ouyang Changqing rubbed his head and sent a message to the Huang family ...

Huang shulang kicked Ouyang Fantong's lower abdomen. Ouyang Fantong hunched over and gasped for breath, then let out a series of miserable screams.

It wasn't that he couldn't bear it, but he realized that screaming made Huang shulang happy. The longer he screamed, the longer Huang shulang enjoyed it. He didn't have to beat him up continuously.

If she clenched her teeth and acted tough, Huang shulang would take turns to take care of Ouyang Fantong.

After this kid realized this, he followed the principle of 'a wise man knows when to retreat'. He didn't care if it hurt or not, he just screamed.

"Good-for-nothing, you heard your uncle's reply. What first hall Master of the naduo martial Alliance branch? he's just a piece of trash. It hasn't been long, and he's already said that he can't save you without the money! It seems that you're really a good-for-nothing, even the members of the family don't value you much!"

Huang shulang was very happy. He didn't really want a ransom, he just wanted to have an excuse to torture Ouyang Fantong.

If the Ouyang family had really offered the ransom, he might not have agreed.

After a round of beating, Huang shulang rubbed his wrist and took a break. He said, ""That uncle of yours wants you to find your own family to think of a way. Why don't I give you another chance to contact your Ouyang family?"

"Okay, okay, okay. Young master Huang, don't worry. Our Ouyang family will definitely pay the ransom ... I'll contact my family!"

Of course, Ouyang Fantong agreed. Regardless of the Ouyang family's attitude, it was a good thing to be able to delay time. What if the family happened to have a lot of money and had nowhere to spend it, and could take out the ransom?

What if the family stepped in, and after some mediation, they would release him without even asking for a ransom?

Everything was possible!

Therefore, Huang shulang asked Ouyang Fantong to contact the Ouyang family.

Such high-level big families would most likely communicate with each other, and each of them could communicate with each other through their communication formations, so it was very convenient to send messages.

After the matter was explained, what Ouyang Fantong received was not comfort, but a storm of scolding.

If Ouyang Fantong was in the Ouyang family, she would have been drowned in saliva by now!

Ouyang Fantong's face was pale. She felt that she was most likely going to be abandoned by her family!

However, after the scolding, the person from the Ouyang family suddenly changed the topic."... Although you've caused trouble, you're still a descendant of the Ouyang family. The family won't just stand by and do nothing. We'll find a way to mediate for you ..."

Ouyang Fantong was overjoyed. After expressing her gratitude to her family, she immediately began to show off.

"Young master Huang, you see, our Ouyang family won't give up on me so easily. Don't worry, there will definitely be a proper solution to this matter!"

"And the few of you, it's all thanks to me that you're safe. You should thank me properly. If not for me, you wouldn't have been able to escape!"

He was talking to Tang Yungui and the others. His shameless appearance really made people speechless!

Why didn't he think about who had caused Tang Yungui and the other three to be captured?

Huang shulang's mouth twitched. He felt that this guy was really weird.

Tang Yungui and the others were not willing to give up on him. They were willing to advance and retreat with him, but he always wanted them to take the blame.

Now, he had the nerve to say that Tang Yungui and the others were able to escape because of him. He had never seen such a shameless person!

"Hehe ... Then I have to thank you, young master Ouyang!"

Tang Yungui sneered and rolled his eyes. He didn't bother with Ouyang Fantong.

The four of them had also been beaten up. Fortunately, Huang shulang's main target had been Ouyang Fantong, so Tang Yungui and the others had only suffered some superficial injuries.

"You guys have to thank me! As you can see, the strength and influence of our Ouyang clan covers many conferred empires. If you follow me in the future, I'll definitely treat you well!"

Ouyang Fantong's smugness wasn't over yet, but Huang shulang wouldn't let her be, so he came up and cut her again!

"What are you so proud of? This young master didn't even say anything, what are you so proud of? Are you looking for a beating!"

He paused again, "scream louder!" This young master would like to see if you can be any louder!"

As a result, Ouyang Fantong's scream was raised by an octave ...

Not long after, another message from the Ouyang family came.

Wufu had no choice. The Huang family was too powerful. The Ouyang family's words didn't work, and communication failed.

This was a family that even central didn't want to easily offend, so Ouyang Fantong, you should just leave it to fate and pray for yourself!

As for the ransom, I'm sorry, the family is in a difficult situation at the moment. We don't have extra money to take out as a ransom. We even need to borrow some money to supplement the family.

For the prosperity of the family, Ouyang Fantong, you should sacrifice yourself without hesitation, not drag the family down.

In the end, it was just one sentence: Ouyang Fantong, you can go to hell!

Ouyang Fantong was completely dumbfounded. Was this the attitude a powerful family should have? Your own son was captured, but you didn't come to save him, and you didn't even want to give a little ransom?

Since that's the case, don't give me any hope from the start! What the hell was this?

Ouyang Fantong really wanted to cry. Just now, she was so smug, but now, she was in despair!

"It seems like your Ouyang family really doesn't care about a small fry like you. You can't even bear to take out such a small amount of money ... Fine, I don't lack this little pocket money. It doesn't matter if I have it or not. It's the same with a toy like you!"

Huang shulang really didn't care about the ransom money. He couldn't help but laugh as he spoke. What followed was naturally another round of beating, mixed with Ouyang Fantong's endless remorseful screams.

"The few of you, don't be idle. Entertain them well and let them share their joys and sorrows!"

Huang shulang pointed his whip at Tang Yungui and the others.

He didn't do anything to them before, but now Huang shulang felt that it was time for the guards to give them a good beating to show their friendship!

Although Ouyang Fantong had been beaten, when she heard that Tang Yungui and the others would also be beaten, she was secretly happy and looked forward to it.

It was not interesting for him to be beaten up alone. Tang Yungui and the others had laughed at him. Now that everyone was beaten up together, there was no need to say anything!

Chapter 8337

"Wait, young master Huang, we are students from the fu Yao apothecary school. As I've said earlier, the one leading the team this time is my master. Can you let us contact my master?"

Tang Yungui felt that he had to let Lin Yi know what had happened.

Otherwise, Ouyang Fantong would probably be finished.

"Is your master very rich? They're willing to pay the ransom to redeem you?"

Huang shulang turned his wrist and took the whip. He looked at Tang Yungui with interest. "I've already given you two chances. If you go to your master and he doesn't have the ransom ... This kid is dead!"

The whip was swung like a spirit snake, landing on Ouyang Fantong's body with a crisp sound: "I'm not a patient person. This is my last chance. Without the ransom, I'm going to kill the hostage! The first one will definitely be this idiot!"

Ouyang Fantong panicked-even the Ouyang family couldn't come up with such a huge sum of money in such a short time, let alone Lin Yi!

If he couldn't pay the ransom, wouldn't he, Ouyang Fantong, be the first one to die? How could this be!

"Wait! Young master Huang, don't listen to them! Who was Sima Yi? there was no use in looking for him! He definitely wouldn't be able to pay the ransom! Young master Huang, I don't want to die! They can contact Sima Yi if they want, but before killing the hostage, can you kill Tang Yungui first? he's Sima Yi's disciple, so kill him first!"

Ouyang Fantong's nature was completely exposed. When she encountered danger, she would let her companion die first!

Even Huang shulang felt that this fellow was extremely shameless and looked down on him!

"Ouyang Fantong, do you still have any shame? You're the one who started this whole thing, and now you still have the nerve to ask senior brother Tang to help you die? Shameless!"

Diao mang Tian cursed angrily, and Ouyang Fantong retorted. The two of them cursed at each other across the air, and the scene was quite lively for a while.

Huang shulang had temporarily stopped beating up Ouyang Fantong and was watching the show from the side.

They were still arguing about whether to inform Lin Yi, but in fact, Lin Yi had already received the news!

The language of existences travelled quickly and arrived at the Fuyao apothecary school at the fastest speed possible. After finding Hua Yao, he briefly explained the situation to her. Hua Yao was shocked, and his first reaction was to contact Lu sanjian.

The capital of the spirit bow Empire was Lu sanjian's territory. If anything happened, he had to be the one to ask.

When Lu sanjian received the message, he was stunned for a moment. Then, he was secretly happy.

He had been worried about not having a place to show off the strength of the host, but now he finally had a place to put it to use!

Although the Huang family was powerful, everyone was developing in the imperial capital and had a good relationship with each other. They would give face to such a small matter!

"Go, invite Dean Sima back! Just say that Hua Yao is looking for him!"

Lu sanjian had just sent Lin Yi off and the meal had taken quite some time before it ended when he received Hua Yao's message.

Lin Yi came back very quickly, and they just parted ways, so they didn't waste time on small talk and went straight to the point, ""Dean Lu, did you say that Dean Hua is looking for me?"

"Yes. Principal Hua asked me to tell you through a communication array that your disciple, Tang Yungui, and the others are now in the hands of Huang shulang of the Huang family. It seems that the Ouyang family's disciples and Huang shulang had a conflict, which led to this situation."

Lu sanjian explained the situation to Lin Yi, "Huang shulang requested for a ransom to save the five students, but this brat is demanding an exorbitant price. The Fuyao apothecary school simply can't gather such a large sum of cash, so I'll let you think of a way first. At least figure out the situation first!"

Lin Yi frowned. Did Ouyang Fantong cause trouble? This kid didn't do it on purpose, right?

Because he had nothing to live for, he dragged people into the water and even buried four students at once?

Lu sanjian stole a glance at Lin Yi, thinking that it was time to show off!

Lu sanjian coughed lightly and said with a smile, ""Dean Sima, actually, you don't have to worry too much. The Huang family's reputation is pretty good, so they shouldn't make things difficult for your students ..."

If these words were heard by Ouyang Fantong, she would definitely split his head in front of Lu sanjian to let him take a closer look. He had already been beaten into a pig's head, and he still wouldn't make things difficult for them?

Lu sanjian also did not know the current situation. Otherwise, he would not have said that. It was a slap in the face!

"Dean Sima, this old man has some friendship with the people of the Huang family, so I can have a few words with them. Why don't this old man accompany you? Maybe we can bring her back!"

"Of course, when we reach the place, we should apologize and admit our mistakes. We should have a better attitude so that they won't be angry and continue to find trouble. What do you think, Dean Sima?"

Lin Yi thought it was a good idea-it'd be much more convenient if he had someone he knew.

Especially since Lu sanjian didn't need Lin Yi's help-he couldn't reject him, it'd mean that he was looking down on him!

He had to go! It was pretty good!

"Sorry to trouble you, director Lu. We're new here, and we don't know where we should go. Without your help, we might not even be able to find the place."

Lin Yi expressed his gratitude casually before continuing, "There's no time to lose. Let's go!"

"Alright, let's go!"

Lu sanjian was secretly happy, thinking that he had helped Lin Yi this time. No matter what, it was still a win, and he had won back the face of the host!

Huang shulang did not hide the fact that he had captured the man and informed Hua Yao of his whereabouts through the communication array.

After that, Hua Yu passed the message to Lu sanjian, and so Lu sanjian had a clear goal in mind-he brought Lin Yi and the two mentors over.

After a short while, Lu sanjian and the others arrived at their destination.

Huang shulang carried Ouyang Fantong in his hand, and then the guards escorted Tang Yungui and the others out.

"Huang shulang, this old man has brought Dean Sima and two teachers from the Fuyao apothecary school here today. I have no ill intentions and only wish to be a mediator for everyone ..."

Lu sanjian looked at Huang shulang as if he was looking at a junior, so he did not speak politely, ""Huang shulang, if you don't want to reconcile, go back and ask your elders. If anyone has time, they can come and have a talk."

"Dean Lu, do you think I'm not qualified to talk to you?"

Huang shulang's eyes were not friendly.

Lu sanjian did not care. Huang shulang was just a junior in his eyes. It was annoying to mess around, but weren't all naughty kids like this?

When the adults came, the little kids could only play!

Just as Lu sanjian was about to act cool, Lin Yi suddenly spoke up, "Who hit my disciple and student?"

His voice was low and cold, evidently not in a good mood. "Who Do You Think You Are? Not only did you imprison my disciples and students, you even dared to injure them!"

Chapter 8338

Tang Yungui and the others had only suffered some superficial injuries. In order to let them share the joys and sorrows with Ouyang Fantong, Huang shulang had asked the guards to clean them up.

"Master! I'm deeply ashamed that I'm incompetent and still have to trouble master to save me!"

Tang Yungui felt ashamed when he saw Lin Yi. He wanted to kneel down and apologize.

"Don't move, Tang Yungui. I have my own points!" Lin Yi waved his hand.

"Hahahaha, a brat who hasn't even grown his hair is actually learning to be someone else's master! Young master, I thought someone would come with the ransom, but it seems like it's impossible now. Why don't we take him down as well? maybe we can get more ransom money!"

One of Huang shulang's guards laughed. This guy was a sea shattering realm master, it was normal for him to look down on Lin Yi.

Huang shulang was also disdainful. He waved his hand casually, indicating that he could do as he wanted.

But just as Huang shulang waved his hand, everyone's vision blurred. Lin Yi disappeared like a ghost and appeared in front of the guard, giving him a big slap without a word.

The guard was dumbfounded. He didn't react at all and was sent flying by Lin Yi's slap.

He spat out a mouthful of blood in mid-air, along with two teeth.

When he landed on the ground, he still did not take any precautions. His head was still stuck on the ground, and he rolled a few times before he stopped.

Everyone looked at the guard in confusion.

A dignified expert at the sea splitting stage was like a fish that had been out of water for a long time. He twitched occasionally, and it seemed that he was breathing less than he was breathing out. He was most likely going to be disabled.

Huang shulang felt a chill run down his spine. In the blink of an eye, it spread throughout his body. He jumped back two steps and hid himself among the guards.

What would have happened if Lin Yi's slap landed on his face?

I can't think about it, I'm going to pee my pants!

"You don't know what you're talking about. Do you have the right to interrupt me when I'm talking?"

Lin Yi turned to Huang shulang with a cold face, "You must be Huang shulang from the Huang family, right? Tell me, what happened?"

Unyielding, cold, and cruel!

This was the impression Lin Yi had left on Huang shulang and the others in a short time. Huang shulang's legs trembled at the cold question!

Lu sanjian was also stunned speechless. He thought to himself, "is this Dean Sima so irascible?" Now shouldn't be the time to talk nicely and try to turn a big problem into a small one?

When it came to peace talks, everyone would smile and show their respective backgrounds, let the people who could speak to them speak, and then compromise and concede.

In the end, everyone would laugh and drink together, letting go of all grudges with a smile?

You came up and gave people a big slap, how are we going to talk about this?

He wasn't here to make peace, but to intensify the conflict, okay?

At this moment, Lu sanjian was in a difficult situation. He also began to regret secretly. If he had known that this master had such a bad temper, he would not have stepped into the muddy water! Wasn't it good to play safe?

But he had no choice. Since he was already here, even if he didn't speak, he wouldn't be able to escape this quagmire!

"Hehe ... Hehe ... Let's talk about this. There must be a misunderstanding ... I ..."

Lu sanjian tried to smooth things over, but Huang shulang did not appreciate it.

"Dean Lu, this is none of your business. Don't say anything. You brought this guy here. I'm already giving you face by not making a fuss about it!"

Huang shulang was a little afraid of Lin Yi and subconsciously vented his anger on Lu sanjian, making old Lu's face turn green.

He was the principal of the Qingshan Alchemy School. Even the head of the Huang family would greet him politely when they saw him.

This little brat's seniority wasn't high, but his temper wasn't small! He almost pointed at Lu sanjian's nose and scolded him!

But Lu sanjian couldn't get angry. It was just like how a friend's brat was rude to you. How could you do anything to the brat? She would probably laugh and say that this child was really lively ...

Lu sanjian glared at Lin Yi, thinking that this was all Lin Yi's fault!

Originally, if we had a good chat, we might have been safe and sound, but now that things have turned out like this, this old man has no choice!

Lin Yi frowned and shouted impatiently, "Huang shulang, I'm asking you a question! What's going on?"

Huang shulang paused, looking at Lin Yi with a guilty look in his eyes. The guard beside him stood up to protect him.

"Impudent! Who the hell are you, how dare you yell at our young master? Do you think that you can be proud of yourself just because you sneaked an attack on our brother? Hand over your life!"

With a loud shout, the guard charged at Lin Yi, while the other two split to the left and right, trying to surround him from both sides.

These three were all in the sea Rift realm as well, but as far as Lin Yi was concerned, their foundations weren't stable.

It was likely that they had forcibly increased their cultivation levels. It was not a problem to scare people with this. If they really wanted to fight, an ordinary warrior at the sea splitting stage was enough to deal with them.

"Incompetent bark!"

Lin Yi's lips curled into a mocking smile as he raised his hand and slapped the man's face.

When the three guards reached Lin Yi's side, they all put their faces on Lin Yi's palm like idiots.

With a whoosh, one flew away, then with another whoosh, all three flew away!

The fate of those three people was no different from that of their seniors. They all rolled on the ground in joy, and then began to Twitch. They were also crippled!

Everyone was silent!

Huang shulang looked at Lin Yi in shock and fear as he trembled.

It was too F * cking brutal!

Those were four sea split realm Warriors! Not four cabbages!

Even if he was a sea shattering realm cultivator, he wasn't someone that just anyone could deal with!

What kind of person was this? Huang shulang felt like he was going crazy!

These four were the most powerful guards around him. The rest were only earth-opening or mountain-opening stage martial artists. Without any guarantee of martial strength, how could he play?

Tang Yungui and Diao Longtian were also trembling, but they were trembling with excitement. It was a completely different matter from Huang shulang!

The person who had displayed his godly might was their master. Of course, they had reason to be excited and excited!

At this moment, they wanted to cheer for their master's might! Master is domineering! Master is awesome!

It was just that they didn't know what Lin Yi's plan was, and they didn't want to mess up his plan, so they held it in.

Ouyang Fantong looked at Lin Yi, who was so calm as if he had just swatted away Four Flies. She couldn't help but feel envious and jealous of Tang Yungui.

Why was it that such a powerful person was always someone else's master?

Chapter 8339

I'm such a genius, why don't I have a master like this who's willing to take me in?

Even if she wasn't on good terms with Lin Yi, Ouyang Fantong had to admit that Lin Yi was too strong!

Thinking about his two uncles ... He was indeed not comparable!

"Dean Sima, isn't this a little too much? Let's talk this out!"

Lu sanjian's forehead was covered in cold sweat. He was the one who had brought them here. If they completely fell out, the Huang family might vent their anger on him in the future!

After all, Lin Yi and the others were just passersby-he'd be in trouble if he stayed here.

Speaking of which, how could this young Dean Sima be so good at fighting?

Alchemists usually focused on alchemy, and in terms of combat power, they were trash among those in the same rank!

However, this Dean Sima's combat strength was simply heaven-defying!

His level was clearly very low, but his moves were so simple and direct that it was a mess ...

Even if Huang shulang's guards were to face a mid-stage sea shattering expert, they would at least be able to last a few rounds. It was impossible for them to be knocked down in a single exchange!

The first one was a sneak attack, but the last three were clearly attacking together, and their performance was worse than the one who was ambushed!

The one who got sneaked on was at least standing still, but the three of them were the ones who got smacked away when their faces touched Lin Yi's palm-the difference was huge!

So, the low-level strength that this Dean Sima had displayed was just a disguise? Then what level was his true strength at?

As Lu sanjian thought of this, he suddenly fell into deep thought ... With such unfathomable strength, could the Huang family really win?

"Audacious ... Impudent! You, you, you ... You actually dare to attack our Huang family's people? who gave you the courage?"

At this moment, Huang shulang was panicking, but he wasn't willing to admit defeat. He pointed at Lin Yi and scolded, "Do you know the status of our Huang family in the spirit bow Empire? Do you believe that I can make it so that you won't be able to walk out of the spirit bow Empire alive with just a word?"

"Ha ... Is that so? Then should I take someone of importance as a hostage or something so that your Huang family will be wary of us and let us leave safely?"

Lin Yi's lips curled up as he looked at Huang shulang,""Among the people here, who do you think is more suitable to be the hostage?"

Huang shulang's body trembled as he realized that he had dug a hole for himself ... Was it too late to change his words?

It was embarrassing to think about it, but he didn't dare to continue fighting Lin Yi. Huang shulang subconsciously hid behind a guard and turned his target to Lu sanjian.

That Sima Yi was too fierce, he couldn't afford to offend him, he couldn't afford to offend him. It was better to find Lu sanjian to earn some face.

"Dean Lu, you're doing this on purpose, right? You want to go against our Huang family, don't you? Look at what you've done. Who did you bring with you? I'm telling you, you're finished! Just you wait, you've reached the end of your position as the director, you're going to be crippled soon!"

Huang shulang felt that this was a beautiful way to change the topic. He could hide his guilty conscience without a trace,""Today, today I'll find someone to fire you from your position as the director. Let's see how arrogant you can still be! Just a mere Dean, did he really think that he was that great? What can you do even if I depose you?"

Dismiss the president?

Lu sanjian's eyes widened, and he was furious!

Does this little brat really think that I don't have a temper?

"Huang shulang! Be careful with your words! When your family head sees this old man, he will also speak politely. You are a junior, no matter how insensible you are, there should be a limit! Did he really think that the Green Mountain Alchemy School was just for show? Do you think you can insult this old master as you please?"

The Huang clan was indeed powerful, but they were not an Alchemist clan!

Therefore, the Huang family's demand for elixirs was huge. Although the Huang family also had its own Alchemist, it was needless to say what kind of Alchemist those who would rely on other families were.

A true alchemy Grandmaster was a Lord-like figure who would be welcomed wherever he went!

Not just any family would be able to recruit them, unless it was one of those mysterious super powerful families!

The Huang family was obviously far from reaching the status of a super family. So, although Lu sanjian did not want to offend the Huang family, he was not afraid if they really fell out with him!

It didn't matter if they broke up completely!

"Hehehe, Lu sanjian, you stupid old man. I've already told you that you're just the Dean of the Green Mountain Alchemy School. You're nothing at all, yet you're still putting on airs in front of me. If you don't believe me, just you wait. I'll get rid of you in minutes!"

Huang shulang and Lu sanjian were trying to divert their attention to avoid direct confrontation with Lin Yi, but it was unknown if Lin Yi's attention was diverted or not. He himself did, and he was having the time to scold Lu sanjian.

When she was feeling guilty just now, she didn't even need to address herself as "this young master," but now, she had to do it again.

Lu sanjian's expression was gloomy as he sneered, ""Then I'd like to see what you're capable of! The position of the Dean of the Qingshan Alchemy School is indeed nothing special. It's just that it was appointed by the martial Alliance of this continent. Even the great emperor and the hall Master of the martial Alliance branch have no right to dismiss him. "

"You, Huang shulang, have eyes and hands in the sky and can make a decision with a single word. This old man is really in awe and I'll be waiting! I wonder how long you're going to make me wait? This old man is already advanced in age, don't wait until this old man is dead without a result! Speaking of which, this old master has maintained himself quite well. Although I don't have many years left, I should be able to live longer than you, so it's hard to say who will die first in the end. "

The old man Lu sanjian was really angry, so he spoke in a sarcastic and mean tone, no longer looking like a Grandmaster, ""Huang shulang, your Huang family's elders really didn't teach you well! Do you want this old man to teach you how to behave?"

Lin Yi's lips twitched-he shouldn't interrupt old Lu's outburst ... He'd just keep watching.

"That's not right. You, Huang shulang, are even more powerful than the first hall Master of the martial union branch. I'm afraid I'm not qualified to teach you. Why don't you ask the first hall Master to teach you how to be a person?"

Lu sanjian changed the topic and sneered.

"Who are you trying to scare with the first hall Master? If you want to call him over, then call him over. This young master wants to see what can first hall Master do!"

Huang shulang raised his head and laughed arrogantly. As long as he didn't make a move, this guy would immediately turn the world upside down,"My uncle can cripple you with a single word. Even if the first hall Master comes, he'll have to watch. Old man Lu, do you believe me?"

Of course, old man Lu couldn't believe it. If he believed the nonsense of a little brat and admitted defeat, how could he still survive in the spirit bow Empire?

If that happened, Lu sanjian would lose all his face!

Chapter 8340

"Quickly call your uncle over, this old man wants to see how he will cripple this old man! We'll show him how arrogant and despotic the Huang family is! They don't even respect the martial Alliance of the continents!"

Lu sanjian didn't want to continue arguing with this brat. He felt that he wouldn't be able to understand if he continued to argue. It would be easier to deal with the adults of the Huang family.

Huang shulang had been looking for help for a long time. After hearing Lu sanjian's words, he immediately sent a guard home to get help.

The four strongest guards had been taken down by Lin Yi, and he didn't feel any sense of security at all.

After a short while, the Great Hall Master of the martial Alliance's branch and Huang shulang's uncle, Huang He 'an, arrived.

He didn't know if they had been together since the beginning or if they had met by chance.

In addition to these two big shots, there were also dozens of experts from the Huang family. The lineup was huge and the aura was astonishing.

The two sides met and greeted each other. Lu sanjian began to complain.

"First hall Master, the Huang family's Huang shulang is a little too indulgent. He actually said that he wants to dismiss me from my position as the principal! He even disdained the first hall Master! He doesn't put us in his eyes at all!"

"Such a young man really lacks discipline. I'm deeply indignant. Now that you've come in person, first hall Master, please teach him a good lesson!"

Lu sanjian did not give Huang He 'an any face at all.

Huang shulang represented the Huang family. Old man Lu could not tolerate the humiliation just now. What would he do if he were to respond to Huang He 'an now? To spit on his own face?

After the hall Master heard Lu sanjian's complaint, he looked a little embarrassed and felt like he was in a difficult situation.

After hesitating for a moment, the first hall Master laughed dryly and tried to smooth things over. ""Why don't we each take a step back for my sake? it's not a big deal anyway, so taking a step back is a big deal. Why should we hurt our relationship?"

"Hehehe, nothing big? First hall Master, your words are not fair! Don't you see that our people have been injured?"

Before Lu sanjian could say anything, Huang He 'an interrupted with a cold smile. He glanced at the four guards who were still twitching on the ground, and his expression was gloomy.

These were all experts at the sea splitting stage!

Lying on the ground for half a day after being slapped?

This was definitely not because he was not as strong as the others, but because he had been secretly plotted against!

After Huang He 'an thought that he had figured this out, he had already decided that he would not let this matter rest!

"We can't just let this matter go. We've already briefly heard about the specific process when we came here. First hall Master, do you think our Huang shulang was wrong?"

Huang He 'an looked at the head Hall Master with a frown.

Although the question was plain, it was almost like an interrogation.

The first hall Master felt even more embarrassed. In the face of such a forceful question, he should have immediately given a fair response, but in the end, he seemed to not know how to speak.

This attitude made Lu sanjian's heart quiver. He felt that something was wrong.

Even if the Huang family had some strength and face, the first hall Master wouldn't go so far as to do this, right?

This was the Great Hall Master of the martial Union's branch, and he represented the martial Union of this continent. He had the backing of a colossal organization like the martial Union. What was a mere Huang family worth?

In front of martial League, the Huang family was nothing but an ant-like existence. They posed no threat at all!

If the Huang family dared to bare their fangs at martial League, they could destroy them in minutes!

Lu sanjian thought this way because he did not know the reply the blue-robed man in central had given to the Ouyang family. Otherwise, he would not have thought this way!

Was the center strong? It wasn't inferior to martial League, right? In the end, he still didn't want to provoke the Huang family!

It was obvious that the Huang family had a secret that Lu sanjian didn't know about.

"First hall Master, say something ... Could it be that the Huang family has something on you? Is that why you're afraid of them?"

Lu sanjian was anxious, so he spoke frankly!

However, he didn't think about it. If the first hall Master really had something on the Huang family, how could the first hall Master admit it when he asked? Perhaps he would turn around and come to kill them!

The first hall master's expression changed. He shook his head with a bitter smile, but he didn't explain.

This reaction was so abnormal that Lu sanjian was dumbfounded.

What was going on?

"Hahaha, old man Lu, forget it. I've already said that the first hall Master is useless. He's just afraid of my uncle. If I say I want to dismiss you, I can!"

Huang shulang put his hands on his waist and was extremely proud.

With someone backing him up, Huang shulang finally dared to walk out from behind the guards and laughed arrogantly.

"I'll give you two choices now. The first choice is for this kid and that kid to commit suicide as an apology to appease the anger in my heart. After the two of them committed suicide to atone for their sins, the matter would be considered over! As for old man Lu's matter, I'll be magnanimous and not haggle over it. "

The kid Huang shulang was talking about was Ouyang Fantong, and the kid was Lin Yi.

The cause of today's incident was Ouyang Fantong. Huang shulang's anger had already subsided after being beaten up by Lin Yi for half a day, but Lin Yi's appearance and intimidating Huang shulang made him angry again!

The main culprit must be killed!

Lin Yi didn't need to be mentioned, but Huang shulang's heart was still pounding!

Lin Yi's eyes turned cold as his lips curled into a cold smile. Suicide? This little brat's brain hole is quite big! Should I open his skull a little more?

Huang shulang didn't seem to feel Lin Yi's coldness and continued to show off with two fingers, "The second option is that old man Lu is done being the Dean. After he's dismissed, these two brats can cripple their own strength. I'm kind enough to let you guys live. This matter is also over. You can choose for yourself!"

Lu sanjian was enraged. He ignored Huang shulang and pointed at Huang Hean's nose, ""Huang He 'an, this is a good disciple of your Huang family! Who gave you the confidence to humiliate me like this?"

"And this person here is the honorary Dean of the Fuyao apothecary school. He led a team to the martial Alliance to participate in the apprentice apothecary examination, and his students have all registered with the higher apothecary school. Where did your Huang family get the courage to be so arrogant? Aren't you afraid of the martial Alliance's punishment?"

"Lu sanjian, if I give you face, you'll be the Dean of the Green Mountain Alchemy School. If I don't give you face, Who are you? When I toast you, you're just a glass. When I don't toast you, you're just a glass shard! You still dare to make a fuss in front of this Lord!"

Huang He 'an waved his hand disdainfully, as if he felt that Lu sanjian was not worthy of being his equal,""First hall Master, tell me, is Huang shulang's suggestion acceptable? Is there anything that needs to be changed?"
