

Bodyguard 9011

Chapter 9011

Lin Yi raised his eyebrows and turned around. The one who spoke was a young man in his twenties. He was quite strong, already in the mid-stage of the shattered Sea realm.

There were four guards behind him. Although none of them were at the heaven breaking stage, they were all at the sea splitting stage. It seemed that they had powerful backgrounds.

"I'm sorry, young master. The last geographical map of our shop was bought by this customer first. Why don't you discuss it with these two?"

The shop assistant didn't want to offend anyone, but he couldn't sell the geographical map to the young man either. First come, first serve was the most basic rule of a shop, and he wouldn't break the rules.

"Discuss what? We want to buy something first, why should we discuss it with others? Bring it over!"

Daniya was not happy. She glared at him and reached out to the clerk to hand over the scroll.

The young man's eyes brightened when he saw Daniya's beautiful face. He took out a folding fan from somewhere and spun it around his fingers a few times before blocking the waiter.

"Young lady, your words are wrong! You guys want to buy it, but you haven't, right? A deal is only when the goods are settled. One of you didn't pay and the other didn't deliver the goods, how can this be considered a deal?"

"Originally, for the sake of this young lady, it's not that I can't give it to you, but this last geographical map is also very important to this young master, so I can't give it to you. How about this, young lady you follow this young master, so that we are all a family, and the geographical map can be used together, isn't it the best of both worlds?"

Lin Yi looked at the young man with a half-smile on his face. He even dared to tease a Supreme expert of the darkness demon beast clan. He probably had nine lives, right? Even nine lives wouldn't be enough!

He had to have a good eye when it came to flirting with girls. If he flirted with girls randomly, he didn't know if his parents had any more brothers. If there were no more offspring, he would be letting them down!

Daniya's shapely eyebrows stood up, and she shouted with a fierce face, "Get lost! This is ours!"

Lin Yi glanced at Daniya, wanting to cover his eyes. Daniya's face was too cute, and she was very good at deceiving people. She might really be in a bad mood right now.

However, her displeasure was reflected on her face. At most, she was fierce, like a little kitten learning from an evil Dragon's Roar. The person who was roared at would have the urge to reach out and rub their face.

The young man clearly didn't see through Daniya's strength and continued to tease her, ""This girl is so beautiful, but her words are quite fierce! Why don't you call me big brother? maybe I'll let you have it!"

Daniya's eyebrows twitched as she turned to Lin Yi. She didn't say anything, but Lin Yi understood what she meant. She wanted to kill this kid, no problem, right?

Killing a few people wasn't a big deal, but Lin Yi wanted to keep a low profile. Whether it was searching for Sima Yunqi and his wife or the star Ink River, it wasn't good to be noticed.

So Lin Yi shook his head decisively and extended his hand to the waiter. "Give me the geographical map, just tell me how much it costs!"

The young man frowned and flipped his fan, trying to hit Lin Yi's palm, but Lin Yi dodged it easily.

"Yo, kid has some strength. No wonder you dare to be so condescending, even daring to stretch out your hand in front of this young master!"

The young man glanced at Lin Yi and laughed awkwardly, "There's nothing this young master can't get if I want it! Who Do You Think You Are to dare to oppose this young master?"

As he spoke, he didn't forget to glance at Daniya. His meaning was clear, not only did he want the geographical map, he also wanted Daniya!

Lin Yi didn't know whether to laugh or cry-he'd just saved his life out of goodwill, but the guy was asking for death!

If he couldn't move the hard armor, it would be weird if Daniya didn't kill him!

"buddy, give me the geographical map. no matter how much this thing was originally worth, and what price you sold it to this kid for, i'll double it!"

the rich were willful!

the young man lifted his chin at lin yi and daniya, indicating that he had money. raise the price if you dare!

how much could a geographical map be worth? there had been a lot of people coming recently, and the price of the geographical map had risen sharply. how much money could it be? perhaps for ordinary martial artists, such a geographical map was something that they could not afford in their entire lives.

however, to the children of the big families, it was just a practical tool and nothing much.

Lin Yi ignored the young man's provocation and looked at the worker seriously, "Doesn't your Pavilion have any rules on the first come, first served order of guests? Or does the fragrant ink Pavilion like to sell items at a high price?"

The one with the highest price would get it, and that was the auction house!

The fragrant ink Pavilion obviously wanted to become a high-quality shop among the cultured people. If word got out that the person with the higher price got it, this reputation would immediately collapse!

The shop assistant didn't dare use his shop sign to mess with Lin Yi-he handed the map to Lin Yi."Guest, you've misunderstood. This kind of thing will definitely not happen in our fragrant ink Pavilion. I originally thought that you would discuss it, but since there's no discussion, this geographical map system is yours!"

The price wasn't a problem-geographical maps were precious items outside, and their prices were rising due to the demand. Lin Yi didn't care about this small amount of money at all, paying for the goods right away.

The young man lifted his fan and blocked the worker's arm, standing between Lin Yi and the worker.

"Hey! The things that this young master has taken a fancy to are already this young master's things. You took this young master's things to sell to others, but did you ask for this young master's opinion?"

Lin Yi almost laughed out loud-it wasn't easy for someone like him to live to this age.

The Clerk's face darkened, and his sly smile disappeared. He said coldly,""Childe, please behave yourself. This is fragrant ink Pavilion. Of course, you have to follow the rules of fragrant ink Pavilion. Nobody could break the rules just because of his status!"

There was indeed a background behind this fragrant ink Pavilion. The shop assistant was used to having confidence. Today, facing the young man's rudeness and rudeness, he naturally displayed a tough attitude.

In the end, the young man snorted disdainfully and gave the waiter a sidelong glance. ""You're just a little shop assistant from fragrant ink Pavilion, what are you doing in front of this young master? Tell him who I am! Let's see if the fragrant ink Pavilion is a place this young master can provoke!"

"Yes, young master!"

One of the young man's guards bowed respectfully. When he turned to the shop assistant, his expression turned proud. "Listen well, my young master is Mei gancai, the young master of the Tianji Mei mansion. He's thinking highly of you by coming to your fragrant ink Pavilion to buy a lousy geographical map!"

"You actually still dare to make excuses here. Do you really think a mere fragrant ink Pavilion is very powerful? Even the master behind you can't afford to offend our Mei mansion, let alone a mere servant of the fragrant ink Pavilion like you!"

Chapter 9012

"I'll give you one last chance. Who do you want to sell this geographical map to? Reorganize your words and speak properly. Don't waste this precious opportunity!"

Lin Yi had never heard of the Tianji Mei mansion, but the fragrant ink Pavilion's worker paled after hearing the Guard's words.

It was obvious that the big boss behind the fragrant ink Pavilion didn't dare to offend the Tianji Mei mansion. The guard didn't speak nonsense. The other party indeed had such strength and confidence.

The consequences of offending the Tianji Mei mansion, a family that even the people behind the fragrant ink Pavilion didn't want to offend, were too serious. The waiter didn't dare to bear the consequences. Even the shopkeeper of the fragrant ink Pavilion would have to kneel down, let alone him.

The young master was very proud, "haha, now you understand my identity, right?" Give me the geographical map and pay me double the price. I'm in a good mood today, so I won't argue with a small fry like you!"

The shop assistant's back was already bent. In the face of a Big Shot that he couldn't afford to offend, his only choice was to admit defeat and compromise. If he dared to resist, the people of fragrant ink Pavilion would probably kill him first to apologize.

Daniya was the same as Lin Yi-she didn't know what the Tianji Mei house was. She curled her lips in disdain, "I've never heard of it. What's the Tianji Mei mansion? We bought the geographical map first, so it's ours. If you dare to snatch something from us, do you believe that I'll beat you into a pulp and cook you with preserved vegetables and pork?"

The shop assistant was shocked. He was already prepared to give the geographical map to Mei gancai, but he didn't expect Daniya to be so fierce and not care about the name of the Tianji Mei mansion.

Could it be that he was also a powerful Dragon with a great background? The Tianji Mei mansion was indeed a top-notch force!

The so-called Tianji Mei mansion was actually a great clan on the continent. To be more precise, it was a top-tier clan on the continent.

Just like the starsource continent, the starsource continent was the capital of the continent, and the divination continent was also the capital of the continent.

A clan that was ranked at the top of the continent would be one of the top existences in the entire continent. Therefore, the name of the Tianji Mei mansion would be a well-known figure in the entire continent.

The fragrant black ink Pavilion was only a power within the heaven's secrets Empire under the heaven's secrets continent. Compared to the Mei mansion, it was more than a rank lower. The shop assistant was very clear about this, so he didn't feel any pressure when he admitted defeat.

However, Daniya's words were extremely unyielding. It seemed that her background was even stronger than the Tianji Mei mansion. At the very least, it wasn't inferior to their existence. At this moment, the workers of fragrant ink Pavilion only wanted to cry.

I'm just a shop assistant in the fragrant ink Pavilion! Today is only the last geographical map. You big shots, why do you want to make things difficult for a small shop assistant?

When you Immortals fight, don't involve innocent mortals, okay? I'm just a little guy, and I really can't bear the weight of my life when I'm facing you big shots!

Mei gancai's brows raised, his eyes cold. "Little girl, this young master sees that you have some good looks, so I'm a little more tolerant of you. Don't take politeness as a blessing and take a mile after taking an inch! How could Tianji Mei mansion be mocked by you? Kneel down and apologize immediately, otherwise, this young master will have to ruthlessly destroy the flower!"

Daniya chuckled. If a person wanted to die, they really couldn't be stopped!

She was already prepared to kill these people from the Tianji Mei mansion. What the hell were they? These five people really think they're so great!

After killing them, he might as well raze the Tianji Mei mansion to the ground!

Lin Yi sensed the killing intent in Daniya's heart and couldn't help but sigh. He really couldn't blame Daniya for this. The other party wanted to die, and even he felt that he should kill this stupid kid!

However, it was too high-profile to kill people here. There was no benefit in making a big deal out of it. Not to mention, killing people for a geographical map was making a mountain out of a molehill. It was better to save his life!

"So noisy! The Tianji Mei mansion is so powerful, why would they need to come to the fragrant ink Pavilion to buy a geographical map?"

Lin Yi shouted coldly as he raised his hand and slapped Mei gancai across the face. The crisp sound of the slap made Mei gancai stagger back two steps as he looked at Lin Yi in disbelief!

He had been slapped in public?

How could he endure this?

especially when lin yi's strength was far from mei gancai 's-he was only at the peak of earth creation!
this hurt mei gancai's pride!

his strength was clearly far lower than his, so why didn't he dodge that slap? not to mention dodging, he simply couldn't react in time!

he could clearly see lin yi's palm coming for him, but he couldn't react at all. he didn't think that there was a problem with his strength, but that lin yi did something dirty!

that damned guy! he had to be killed!

"kill him!"

Mei gancai was enraged, one hand covering his slightly swollen face and the other pointing at Lin Yi."Are you all blind? I've been beaten up, so hurry up and kill this brat!"

"Yes!" His guards responded loudly and immediately charged at Lin Yi. However, Lin Yi's butterfly steps allowed him to move past them and instantly appeared in front of Mei gancai. He slapped her again. It was another crisp slap.

"You really don't know what's good for you. I slapped you twice for your own good. If you continue to be so arrogant, I'm afraid your Tianji Mei mansion will have to hold a funeral!"

Lin Yi said as he reached out to grab Mei gancai's collar. Then, he started slapping him continuously, turning him into a pig's head.

From Lin Yi's point of view, this was saving his life. If he didn't beat him up a bit more, he'd be dead for sure if Daniya added a punch or a kick to the already angry megancai!

"Young master!"

The guards paled as Lin Yi disappeared right in front of their eyes, followed by a series of slaps. They didn't need to ask to know what happened.

To be honest, they were extremely shocked-the strength Lin Yi displayed was far from their level, and yet they felt like they couldn't do anything to him.

If they knew Lin Yi's true strength, they wouldn't be so surprised.

Although Lin Yi could only use the full strength of earth-shattering, he was still in the mid-stage of heaven-shattering, and it was a piece of cake for him to slap Mei gancai.

Megancai was already in a daze. His guards wanted to turn back to help, but Daniya took action at the right time and broke their legs!

If it wasn't for Daniya who saw that Lin Yi didn't want to kill them and tried her best to control the killing intent in her heart, these guards wouldn't even be breathing anymore.

Chapter 9013

Ever since she went on a rampage at the sky array sect, and with Lin Yi's injuries, Daniya's heart was filled with more violence. If Lin Yi didn't suppress her, she would probably let herself go.

Lin Yi tossed the pig-headed Mei gancai aside and took the map from the shop assistant. He looked down at him. "I've taken away my things. If you're not satisfied, you can come and find me at any time! But next time, you won't be so lucky. I hope you can remember this lesson!"

After paying the price, Lin Yi waved at Daniya, "Daniya, let's go. There's nothing we need here!"

The shop assistant of fragrant ink Pavilion didn't dare to move or say anything. In his heart, he couldn't wait for these vicious people to leave the fragrant ink Pavilion as soon as possible!

Fortunately, no one had died. If the Tianji Mei mansion's people had died in the fragrant ink Pavilion, they would definitely be implicated! The two could just leave, but the fragrant ink Pavilion would have to face the wrath of the Tianji Mei mansion!

Lin Yi walked two steps and turned around. The wailing people immediately stopped, afraid that Lin Yi was here to kill them.

Lin Yi only threw some money at them, "My companion hit you a little too hard. Take this as medical expenses. You can take it and treat your injuries!"

Both sides of Mei gancai's face had been red from the slap, but after hearing Lin Yi's words, it turned purple, and there was a hint of black in the purple ... He was the young master of the Tianji Mei's residence, when had he ever been humiliated like this?

He swore to himself that he'd teach Lin Yi a lesson, but not now!

A wise man knew better than to fight when the odds were against him, so he didn't even say anything. He was waiting for a chance to take care of Lin Yi and Daniya!

Dogs that bark don't bite, but dogs that don't bark ... Will bite you to death from behind!

Lin Yi didn't bother with Mei gancai anymore. He didn't want to cause trouble, but if trouble came looking for him, he wouldn't be afraid of it!

The two of them left the fragrant ink Pavilion and looked at the people walking to and fro on the street. They had long forgotten about Mei gancai and the others.

"Sima Yi, what should we do now? Even with the map, he still didn't know where the star Ink River would appear. Walking around with a map?"

Daniya wasn't too familiar with human society yet, so she'd have to wait for Lin Yi to make the decision.

Lin Yi didn't know what to do at the moment. After all, he was unfamiliar with the Tianji continent. He didn't know where to start looking for Xing Mohe or Sima Yunki and his wife.

While he was thinking, a capable young man came over and said, ""The two of you don't look like you're from the Tianji Empire. You must be foreigners from other places, right?"

lin yi looked at the young man and nodded, "that's right. we've just arrived at the tianji empire. what business do you have with us?"

"hey, what could happen to me? i'm here to ask if you need any help. if i'm not wrong, you're also here for the star ink river, right? do you feel like you don't know where to start?"

the young man's eyes revealed a hint of hidden slyness, but he did not hide his cleverness at all."to be honest, i'm a middleman in the imperial capital. if you want to know anything, you can just ask me!"

Lin Yi knew about the profession of a wind medium. They collected and sold information on a daily basis. Many forces had their own wind medium, which was the intelligence Department. With Zhang Yiming around, Lin Yi never had to worry about the problem of gathering information, so he never came into contact with any scattered wind mediums. This was the first time a wind medium came to him of their own accord.

It seemed that there was indeed a clear difference between him and the people of the Tianji Empire. It was as if the word 'foreigner' had been engraved on his forehead, right?

"You say it as if you know everything. Do you really know everything?"

Lin Yi smiled as he looked at the young man. He had a plan in mind-he didn't have any friends or family here, and getting news from the media was a good way to go.

To be honest, Lin Yi regretted bringing Zhang Yiming with him. With Zhang xiaopang by his side, it would be much easier to gather information. It would be much easier to find Sima Yunqi and his wife, as well as the star Ink River.

Now, he could take a step back and find a reliable wind medium for help. There should be a similar effect, right?

"Heh, what are you saying? there's nothing big or small within the Tianji Empire that I don't know with my super hearing! Even if you want to know what color the Empress's underwear is today, I can find it out for you, do you believe me?"

The young man was obviously bragging. He was certain that no one could verify the color of the Empress's underwear, so what if he was just spouting nonsense?

What he didn't know was that if Lin Yi really wanted to verify it, the Tianji Empire's Palace guards might not be able to stop him ... But Lin Yi wasn't interested in doing something so boring.

"Alright, then tell me where the star Ink River is first! If the information is accurate, I can guarantee that you will not have to worry about food and clothing for the rest of your life!"

Lin Yi threw out a random question, thinking that he'd be able to shut the guy up.

However, clairaudient seemed to have expected this and chuckled."This young master, I, clairaudient, am selling information at a genuine price, but you have to ask for something that is real!"

"The Black Star river's location isn't fixed. Before it appears, no one knows where it will appear. I can only tell you that the Black Star River is definitely underground somewhere within the territory of our heaven's Legacy Empire!"

Clairaudient looked around and lowered his voice."If you really want to find the star Ink River in advance, I can tell you a reliable method. As for whether you can do it or not, it will depend on your own ability!"

Lin Yi raised an eyebrow. He didn't know why, but he felt like clairaudient was telling the truth, but there was something fishy about it!

"Tell me!"

Clairaudient chuckled as he rubbed his fingers together. This was an international gesture-no, it was an interdimensional gesture, simple and clear!

Lin Yi was rich, and he didn't mind spending some money. He gave the clairaudient a few gold certificates.

The clairaudient's eyes lit up. A rich guest!

"Alright! I'll say it now, so listen up, you two!"

Shunfeng nimbly put away the gold certificates, leaned over slightly, put his hand to his mouth, and said in a low voice, ""There will be an auction in the imperial capital Tonight. One of the items up for auction is called the six-point star source instrument. Don't be fooled by its unknown name. It is a real treasure!"

"The Black Star River is located deep underground. Before the strange phenomenon appears, no one can find the exact location of the Black Star River. However, the six star source instrument is able to sense the fluctuations of the Black Star River underground!"

"In other words, as long as you can bid for the six-point star source instrument, you will be able to find the location of the star Ink River before anyone else! This information is top secret, and very few people know about it!"

"If you guys have the money, then go to tonight's auction and buy the six-point star source instrument. That way, you guys will definitely be able to find the star Ink River in advance!"

Chapter 9014

Lin Yi's mouth twitched-he didn't know whether to laugh or cry at how confident Shunfeng was!

Obviously, the six-point star source instrument must be real, and the auction was also true, but the so-called top secret was a lot of exaggeration!

If everything went as expected, most of the people at tonight's auction would be there for the six-point star source device. After all, even a news medium like clairaudient knew about this, so how could anyone not know?

If there were people who didn't know, like Lin Yi himself, wouldn't he be targeted by the wind media for information?

If his guess was right, he could probably ask a few people on the way and get information about the auction and the six-point star source instrument. But it didn't matter-that small amount of money was nothing.

"I'll ask you another question. How many people will be bidding for the six-point star source instrument at tonight's auction?"

Lin Yi smiled faintly at the clairaudient, making it clear that he'd seen through everything.

clairaudient chuckled, not feeling the slightest bit embarrassed. in any case, the information he sold was the truth. it couldn't be said that it wasn't just a piece of information because many people knew about it!

the money was already in his pocket, and he wasn't afraid of lin yi taking it back. as the saying went, a strong dragon can't suppress a snake in its own territory.

what he didn't know was that if lin yi really wanted to cause him trouble, no matter if he was a dragon or a snake, he'd just chop him up and make snake soup for the dogs ...

"young master, this is the other information. are you sure you want to buy it?"

clairaudient laughed and stretched out his right hand, rubbing his thumb and index finger, indicating that he would also charge for this information.

lin yi almost laughed out loud-this guy was pretty gutsy! did he think that he was a fat sheep that he could casually stroke?

daniya's face revealed an unkind expression. although she looked cute, in the eyes of a senior wind medium like clairaudient, she felt a sense of danger.

clairaudient immediately laughed and waved his hand, "i'm just joking, i'm just joking. since we're so fated, i'll give you this information for free!"

"i'm not sure about the exact number, but i estimate that at least half of the people tonight are aiming for the six-point star source instrument! it can't be helped, there weren't many people who knew about this, only two of my brothers and i. "

"unfortunately, the three of us brothers are all rumor mongers. i can only sell it to young master, but i can't guarantee how much information my two brothers have sold to people. i think half of the people at the auction will have it!"

the clairaudient didn't feel like he was lying to lin yi at all-he was even a little pleased with himself.

lin yi could only chuckle-this was all within his expectations. the problem was that clairaudient wanted to sell this piece of news for money? was he crazy for money?

"Who is the owner of the six-point star source instrument? If he had such a treasure, why would he take it out to auction? Isn't it good for him to take it to the star Ink River?"

Lin Yi handed two gold certificates to clairaudient as he asked the question.

The clairaudient was overjoyed. He quickly thanked her and took it. Then, he replied with a proper attitude, ""The identity of the person who brought out the item is a secret. We are also investigating, but there is no result for the time being. We should have News Tonight, so I can only answer you at night!"

"As for why he took it out for auction, if i'm not wrong, it should be because the original owner knew that he was not strong enough. After all, the people who are searching for the star Ink River are all experts. If they were to casually join in, they would only end up as cannon fodder!"

"Instead of being beaten into ashes by others, I'd better take this opportunity to put the six-point star source instrument up for auction. I'm sure I can sell it for a sky-high price!"

"Anyway, after the appearance of the Black Star River, I can go there and have a taste of the soup. Even if it's not good, I can use the money from the auction to buy a large number of resources. This business is not a loss!"

Clairaudient's train of thought was very clear. It would be a waste for a person without strength to hold onto the six-point star source instrument. It would be better to sell it in exchange for resources. After this time, the six-point star source instrument would not have much value.

Lin Yi nodded slightly, agreeing with the clairaudient's analysis. It seemed like the device's introduction would've been made public before the auction.

Clairaudient had probably gotten the information that was circulating around, and then looked for a foreigner like him to make a fortune ... In his eyes, I've most likely really become a fat sheep with a lot of money?

Forget it, it's not important!

Lin Yi took out the sketch he drew for Sima Yunqi and his wife and gave it to the clairaudient,""The auction and the six-point star source instrument will end here. I'll give you a New Deal!"

"I'm looking for these two people. As long as you can find their whereabouts, I'll give you as much money as you want!"

Money really wasn't a problem. If he could use money to find Sima Yunqi and his wife, Lin Yi was willing to give all the money he had to clairaudient!

Clairaudient's eyes bloomed with an amazing brilliance. How much money do you want? How bold!

"If you're looking for someone, the price will depend on the difficulty. You're looking for foreigners, right? It shouldn't be easy to find. You'll need at least one million gold certificates!"

The kid thought about it for a long time and decided to ask for an exorbitant price. Since Lin Yi said to ask for anything, he'd just name a sky-high price!

Asking for a sky-high price and paying on the spot!

Even if he didn't get a million gold certificates in the end, he would still make a fortune with 80000 to 100000 gold certificates! Finding someone was the most basic job for a wind medium. Under normal circumstances, dozens or even hundreds of gold certificates would be considered expensive.

Even the most vicious criminals that the Empire had a bounty on were usually only worth ten to twenty thousand gold certificates, and that was only after they were captured or killed. The reward for providing information alone was only one-tenth of the reward for success.

Sunfeng'er calculated how much Lin Yi would be able to bargain for. A hundred thousand? Two hundred thousand? If he knew the market, he might give him 50000 to 60000 Yuan. That's not bad!

It couldn't be that he would only give 10000 to 20000 Yuan in the end, right? That would be too stingy!

In the end, Lin Yi tossed three hundred thousand gold to Clairaudient. "No problem! I'll give you 30% as a down payment first, and I'll give you the rest after I get some information. If you're fast and accurate, I don't mind giving you an extra one million!"

"To me, money is never a problem. As long as you can do your job well, I will definitely not treat you badly. But if you take the money and do nothing, or try to fool me with false information, even if all the experts of the entire Tianji continent come together, they will not be able to save your life!"

Lin Yi used both kindness and severity, releasing a bit of pressure and making the Clairaudient's face pale in fear.

"Young master, don't worry. This lowly one has always had a good reputation. I will definitely not do anything that goes against my word!"

The Clairaudient knew that Lin Yi and Daniya weren't normal people, and normal people didn't have the right to fight for the Star Ink River. He adjusted his mentality quickly and got used to Lin Yi's pressure.

Chapter 9015

"Very well, this deposit is for you. As long as you do your best to find out, it won't be returned whether you succeed or not. So, you don't have to think about taking this money and hiding it. It's meaningless. The subsequent rewards are the main reward. You have to be clear about this!"

"one more thing. be discreet when you're looking for them. they're being held hostage. don't make a big deal out of it. if everyone knows about it, don't expect any reward money from them!"

lin yi continued. three hundred thousand gold certificates was nothing, but he spent it to get information. if the guy took the money and left, it would be a waste of his efforts.

"i understand, i understand. young master, don't worry! as long as the people you're looking for are within the tianji empire's borders, i, clairaudient, guarantee that i can help young master find them!"

Clairaudient patted his chest and guaranteed that 300000 gold certificates was indeed a huge sum of money. It was enough for him to live a life of luxury and comfort.

But if he helped Lin Yi find the person, he could get at least 700000 gold certificates. If he moved fast, 700000 gold certificates would become 1.7 million. The 300000 gold certificates were nothing compared to that!

He'd already thought it through-he'd spend a portion of his deposit, and there were plenty of informants in the capital. He'd only need a small amount of money to get information, and once he earned the full amount of Lin Yi's bounty, clairaudient would really be able to retire and become a rich man!

In order to earn this huge sum of money, Shunfeng's ears went all out. After bidding farewell, he immediately went to find his brother and began to search for information.

Because of Lin Yi's last warning, they did it in secret. They didn't make the portrait public and make it look like a bounty. Everything was only circulated in the circle of rumor mongers. If Sima Yunqi and his wife really came to the Tianji Empire, there should be news soon.

Lin Yi and Daniya were walking around the imperial capital, thinking that Mei gancai would bring some powerful people back for revenge. They didn't expect to see no one from the Tianji Mei house.

Perhaps it was because Lin Yi and Daniya's display of strength had stunned Mei gancai? Or was it because there was something else more important, so the Mei family temporarily suppressed their desire for revenge?

No matter what the reason was, Lin Yi didn't care about them at all. He was injured, but he had Daniya with him. Even if one or two masters at the great circle of heaven-Sundering came to the Tianji Mei house, they wouldn't be able to do anything!

after walking around for half a day, the news he heard the most was the auction and the discussion about the six-point star source instrument. as expected ... this news was already known by everyone on the street. clairaudent was selling common goods on the street ...

lin yi and daniya were resting in a teahouse, ordering some tea and snacks to pass time as they waited for the auction to start. he was listening to the soft discussions around him-he didn't know how many times he'd heard this, but he didn't pay much attention to it at first.

"hey, did you hear? the invitation to first-grade restaurant had already been sold for 20000 gold vouchers outside, and there was still no market for it! the auction this time is too popular!"

"what's twenty thousand gold certificates? in the eyes of those big shots, it's not even considered pocket money. for the sake of the six-point star source instrument, two million or twenty million is nothing!"

"Exactly! The problem was that even if you had money now, you wouldn't be able to buy an invitation! The invitations to first-grade restaurant are usually given to big shots with status. Who would give up an invitation for a mere 20000 gold certificates?"

"That's right. Even if someone with an invitation letter were to transfer it, it wouldn't be for the twenty thousand gold certificates, but for a favor! Which one of those who came for the six-point star source instrument this time wasn't a tyrant? If we can get their favor, it'll be worth it no matter how many gold certificates we have!"

Lin Yi was dumbfounded. Invitation? What the hell!

He knew about first-grade house. He had heard of it many times. It was the place where the auction was held. From what he heard, if one wanted to attend the auction, they had to have an invitation letter from them? You can't get in without an invitation?

Thinking about it, because of the Black Star River, the 60% star source instrument would inevitably cause a bombarding effect. Those who were not strong enough or rich enough would not even be qualified to enter the auction.

"Sima Yi, what if we don't have the invitation letter they're talking about? They won't let you in even if you have money?"

Daniya moved closer to Lin Yi and whispered, "How about this? let's find someone who has an invitation and steal it for him."

As a Supreme expert of the darkness magical beast clan, Daniya's Code of Conduct was that the strong should be respected. What was the big deal about snatching an invitation? it wasn't like she was going to kill anyone!

Lin Yi wasn't a Saint-he sighed, "It's best not to. Let's think of other ways first. If it really doesn't work, we'll consider this path!"

It was impossible to buy it. Just as The Idle Man on the side said, those who held the invitation letter were all big shots with a reputation. They would not lose face for a little money. Even if they wanted to transfer it, it must be for the sake of a favor.

Lin Yi didn't want to owe him a favor. It would definitely be useful in the star source continent, but in the heaven's legacy continent, no one would give him face ...

He had no choice but to go to first-grade restaurant to take a look. Perhaps they didn't send all the invitations?

The teahouse was not too far away from first-grade restaurant. After turning three streets, they could see the signboard of first-grade restaurant.

It was only in the afternoon, about two hours before the auction started, but there were already many people loitering at the entrance of first-grade restaurant.

Lin Yi and Daniya were quite a distance away from each other, and he could clearly hear the conversation at the door. His body was at a high level, and his Six Senses were naturally extremely sharp.

"Why can't you just give me an invitation? Are you all looking down on me? Are you afraid that this young master can't afford it?"

The one who spoke was a young man in his twenties. He was quite handsome, but he had a bit of makeup on his face. He wasn't that strong, either. Lin Yi glanced at him and realized that he was a xuansheng stage martial artist ...

In those small countries on the edge of low-level continents, such a young mysterious Ascension stage cultivator should be considered a very talented genius. However, in the capital of the heaven's secrets continent, the heaven's secrets continent, he was not enough.

Now that he thought about it, Mei gancai was already at the sea splitting stage at such a young age. Only then could he be considered a true genius. It was no wonder that he was so arrogant. It wasn't just because of the background of the Mei mansion of Tianji. He also had the capital and confidence to do so.

Lin Yi and Daniya could crush Mei gancai, but that didn't prove that she was the real deal. It only proved that Lin Yi and Daniya were too strong!

"Young master Ximen, it's not that we don't want to give you face. This auction is a little special, and we're just trying to protect you! We're all acquaintances, and we know each other's background. We're all people who open our doors to do business, so how could we possibly reject our customers? don't you think so?"

The representative from first-grade restaurant was a middle-aged man in his forties. His chubby round face gave off the feeling that amiability brought fortune. He looked like the manager or manager of first-grade restaurant.

At this moment, he smiled and bowed to young master Ximen, ""If we miss this opportunity, young master Ximen will always be a distinguished guest of our first-grade restaurant no matter when he comes. This time ... Really, young master Ximen, it's better for you to stay out of this!"

This young master Ximen's clan was also a first-class clan in the Tianji Empire. However, the Ximen clan was not known for their martial prowess. Instead, they were tycoons in business, and their wealth was comparable to that of a country.

To put it bluntly, they were a wealthy merchant family!

In the secular world, perhaps you could do whatever you wanted with money and be the boss wherever you went. However, on the sub-Island, strength was respected. No matter how rich you were, if you didn't have strength, you were just a leek at the mercy of others!

Spend money to recruit experts? How powerful could an expert be if they could be recruited with money?

Thus, even though the Ximen clan appeared to be extremely glorious in the Tianji Empire, in reality, everyone was respectful in front of them. However, behind their backs, there were many people who looked down on them. If they wanted to get out of this predicament, they had to raise the Ximen clan's status.

For example, the participants of this auction were all truly important figures. If one could be among them, not to mention other things, one's face would definitely be boundless.

Young master Ximen wanted to save face, so he came to ask for an invitation. Being rejected so clearly, he was embarrassed.

"What do you mean? Are you looking down on me? Or are you looking down on our Ximen family? This young master wants to participate in the auction today, so just tell me directly if you're going to let this young master in!"

At this point, if the middle-aged man continued to refuse, first-grade restaurant and the Ximen family would completely fall out.

The Ximen family might not be as powerful as first-grade restaurant in terms of martial arts, but their influence in the business world was far greater than first-grade restaurant. Although first-grade restaurant mainly focused on auctions and did not have much interaction with the Ximen family in terms of business, they did not want to suffer inexplicable losses.

Unless they destroyed the Sima clan, first grade house would never want to fall out with the Ximen clan.

"Young master Ximen, it's not that I don't want to give you face, but the rules are clear! In this auction, everyone has tacitly agreed that strength and financial resources are indispensable. The financial resources of the Ximen family are naturally not a problem ..."

The middle-aged martial artist looked at young master Ximen with a troubled expression. He turned around and pointed to a white stone on a table at the door, ""Let's follow the rules. As long as you can crush the strength testing stone here, you will pass the test!"

"First young master Ximen is our distinguished guest. I will give you special treatment. You don't need to crush the strength testing stone. As long as there is a crack on the strength testing stone, you will pass. I wonder what first young master Ximen thinks?"

Lin Yi scanned the White stones with his spirit sense-each one was the size of a goose egg, perfectly oval. There were twenty-three of them in total, and there were some broken stones on the ground-it was obvious that someone had tested them.

The strength testing stone was a tool used by the heaven's legacy continent to test one's strength. In truth, it wasn't anything special. It was just a simple solidifying array set up within it.

According to different needs, the force limit was adjusted to test if it had reached a certain level of power. It was relatively simple.

Success meant that one had reached this level. Failure meant that one had not reached it. As for the difference, it would not be shown to you. Therefore, not many people would use such a simple strength testing stone. It was useless!

However, first-grade restaurant was a very suitable place to test the strength of the participants. Lin Yi had already figured out that the strength-testing stones were only limited to the early stage of the sea-shattering realm, which meant that the lowest level of participants had to be at the sea-shattering realm to participate in the auction. Those below the sea-shattering realm were not allowed to enter.

Young master Ximen's expression was somewhat unsightly. Of course he knew about the strength testing stone and he was also very clear about his own capabilities. Testing him was just asking to be humiliated!

Moreover, none of his guards were at the sea Rift stage. This was how business families were. Even if they had money, they could not recruit many sea Rift stage experts. Although he was the young master, he was not qualified to have a sea Rift stage expert as his guard.

The strongest one beside him was only a martial artist at the peak of the initial stage of earth creation. The others were all martial artists at the mountain opening stage. They could still put on airs among the popinjays in the imperial capital, but at this moment, none of them could fight!

"Young master Ximen, you see we don't have many strength testing stones left and there are still many friends behind who want to try. Why don't you stop snatching from them and give them a chance?"

The middle-aged man didn't take the opportunity to make fun of him. He naturally gave young master Ximen a way out!

Young master Ximen gritted his teeth and forced a smile. "Fine, I'm not feeling well today. I'll go back and rest!"

No strength, no face!

Although young master Ximen was a dandy, he also knew that he would only invite humiliation if he continued to persist, so he went with the flow and left the stage with his guards.

"Everyone, as you can see, the auction this time is a little special. There are still 23 ordinary seats left. We, the first-grade restaurant, have forcibly squeezed out the space. The conditions are simple. If you don't mind, you can give it a try!"

The middle-aged man pointed at the strength testing stone on the table. One strength testing stone represented one ordinary seat. As for the private rooms and the like, they must have been sent out in the form of an invitation letter.

And these ordinary seats, which sounded like temporary seats, were definitely not very private.

It would be troublesome if the good stuff that they managed to bid for was not limited to the six-point star source instrument. No wonder the requirement was to have the strength of the sea splitting stage and above, with at least some ability to protect themselves.

Lin Yi frowned-it wasn't easy to keep a low profile in a position like this!

He wasn't afraid of being targeted, but he was afraid of trouble!

However, this was the only way to participate in the auction. The remaining seats were specially provided for the experts who would come later to avoid offending them and blaming them for not sending them an invitation.

When the seats were all placed, the experts who could not enter would not blame first-grade restaurant. Who asked them to come late?

After young master Xi men, there were more and more sea split stage experts who went up to crush the strength testing stones and obtained seats in the auction. This time, there were indeed many experts who came to the Dark Star River. Soon, twenty strength testing stones were gone, leaving only three left.

Daniya didn't think too much about it and turned to Lin Yi, "Do you want to try?"

If he still didn't make a move, the strength testing stone would be used up!

It was Lin Yi and Daniya's turn, and there were people coming from behind. He wouldn't have a chance if he didn't make a move.

Lin Yi nodded slightly, and Daniya went up and crushed a strength testing stone into powder without a word.

The middle-aged man's waist immediately bent down a bit, and he respectfully saluted Daniya, "Honored guest's strength has already fulfilled the conditions. As long as you have enough capital, you can obtain a seat at tonight's auction. Our requirement is that you must have assets worth more than ten million gold certificates."

Chapter 9017

Although the strength testing stone could only roughly measure the strength, most people in the early stage of the sea chasm realm could only crush the strength testing stone into pieces. Daniya had directly turned it into powder with a relaxed look on her face. She was obviously an expert! The middle-aged man was a man who knew what was good, so his attitude was naturally respectful.

Daniya turned to look at Lin Yi, who threw a storage bag to the man for him to check.

Lin Yi had casually placed around 80 to 90 million worth of gold certificates in his storage bag, which was way beyond the threshold. The middle-aged man was even more respectful after checking.

Rich and powerful people should be respected wherever they went!

"Can we both go in?"

Lin Yi asked as he took the storage bag from the man.

One strength testing stone represented one seat, and everyone before had one each. Lin Yi didn't know if they were all together, but he guessed that he wouldn't be able to escape the fate of being crushed.

As expected, the middle-aged man bowed and smiled. ""I'm sorry, because these seats were added at the last minute so each strength testing stone can only allow one person to enter!"

Lin Yi nodded slightly. As expected, he still had to go and crush the strength testing stone.

Actually, to a Grandmaster, the strength testing stone was merely a small trick. Holding it in the palm of one's hand, one didn't even need to exert any strength, as long as one destroyed a single node, it would be able to cause it to collapse.

The solidified formation inside the strength testing stone was simple and crude in Lin Yi's eyes, but other grandmasters would still need to put in a bit of effort to make a strength testing stone. It'd be a waste if he crushed one himself!

"If that's the case, I'll ..."

Lin Yi didn't take the waste to heart. He took a step forward and was about to pick up the strength testing stone when a strong force pushed him from behind. Lin Yi didn't feel any killing intent, so he wasn't prepared for it and was pushed to the side.

"Dodge! You already have a seat, so don't take up any more space!"

The one who pushed Lin Yi away was a burly man. He was over 2.1 meters tall, and his body was full of muscles, giving off an explosive feeling.

There was a beautiful young woman beside him. She was petite and dainty. Standing beside the burly man, there was a strong contrast, like a beauty and a beast.

After pushing Lin Yi away, the man reached out to grab the strength testing stone on the table. He and the beautiful lady had been lining up properly, but there were only two strength testing stones left. If they lined up properly, there might be no more places left, so they suddenly stepped out of the crowd, not giving Lin Yi a chance to test.

The burly man's fan-like hand swept across the table. His plan was to snatch the last two power-testing stones, but in the end, he only got one!

Daniya's hand moved like lightning, grabbing one of the strength testing stones before the man could. This was Lin Yi's share, she wasn't going to just watch the man take it away.

"Little girl, your strength isn't bad but you'd better behave yourself in front of this Lord. Hand over the strength testing stone and we can still talk nicely. Otherwise, don't blame this Lord for taking action against women!"

The burly man's face sank and his five fingers closed. The strength testing stone in his palm silently turned into powder and fell down from the gap in his palm.

Lin Yi looked up at the Beauty and Beast duo after he steadied himself, clearly understanding their strength.

The burly man was a warrior at the peak of the early heaven breaking realm. He had a solid foundation. Perhaps even an ordinary mid heaven breaking expert might not be his match. The beautiful young woman beside him was above the great completion of the sea-splitting realm, almost half a step to the heaven breaking realm. She was a warrior who was only one step away from breaking through to the heaven breaking realm.

The combination of these two people was quite powerful, at least on the surface, they were much stronger than the combination of Lin Yi and Daniya. After all, Lin Yi could only show early stage of the shattered Sea realm at most, and if Daniya wanted to hide her strength, no one could see through her.

From the way Daniya crushed the strength testing stone, it seemed to be weaker than the burly man's because the powder of the two was obviously finer than the burly man's.

Daniya played with the strength testing stone in her hand and looked at the burly man with a faint smile. With her cute face, there was an indescribable strange feeling.

"Stupid big guy, do you know what first come, first served is? This is the strength testing stone for my companion. If my companion can't pass the test, then it's your turn to try. Hurry up and back off, don't look for trouble! It won't look good if you get beaten to tears!"

That was what Daniya said, but Lin Yi could clearly see the joy in her eyes, as if she was looking forward to the burly man looking for trouble so she could teach him a lesson!

The burly man was stunned for a moment before he laughed out loud. "Hahahaha, it's been a long time since I've heard such arrogant words! Little girl, you've never heard of this Lord's name, have you?"

"I don't blame you. After hearing my name, if you can still be so calm and repeat what you just said, then you really have the courage!"

"Listen up, my wife and I are known as the life-chasing duo. My name is Meng buzhuai, and this is my wife, Yan Wuming. Are you afraid?"

When they heard the burly man Meng buzhuai announce his family's name, the people behind him immediately began to whisper among themselves. Those who had been beaten to the queue were no longer unhappy and joined in the discussion to enjoy the show.

"So, they are the couple, Meng buzhuai and Yan Wuming, the life-chasing duo Masters. They are indeed as the rumors say, the contrast is obvious!"

"They came late, so they didn't receive the invitation to first-grade restaurant, right? If they had come to the Imperial City earlier, the first-grade restaurant would definitely not have missed the couple ..."

"This is good. The life-chasing duo is both good and evil. They do things according to their personal preferences. Meng never leaves Yan, and Yan never leaves Meng. They will never separate when they attend the auction. They must get the two seats!"

"I don't know the background of that young man and woman. They don't look like they are easy to talk to. If we were to fight them head-on, we will definitely be at a disadvantage. I hope they have some eyesight and hand over the strength testing stone!"

In an instant, discussions started, all of them not thinking that Lin Yi and Daniya could go against the Meng couple.

The life chasing duo was truly famous in the heaven's secrets continent. No one knew about the background of this couple. They traveled all over the heaven's secrets continent and defeated countless experts just by working together.

It was said that this couple had a special joint cultivation method and martial skill that could greatly increase their combat strength. This kind of cultivation method and martial skill was different from battle formations, and was extremely profound. Meng buzhuai's strength was already very strong, and when they joined forces, even late-stage heaven breaking cultivators might not be their opponent.

Moreover, the two of them had special movement techniques. If they encountered a super expert they couldn't beat, they could easily escape. Thus, no one was willing to offend them in the continent!

If such an expert had a hidden background behind him, who would be able to withstand it?

Chapter 9018

Meng buzhuai felt that if he were to announce the name of the life chasing duo Masters, he would definitely be able to suppress Daniya and force her to hand over the strength testing stone. He did not want to bully her, but if there were more seats, he would not mind continuing to line up.

This was exactly what they had done earlier, but they had never expected that the heavenly secret Empire's imperial capital would be filled with experts. In the blink of an eye, the twenty over strength testing stones were about to be used up.

Meng buzhui couldn't wait any longer, so he could only snatch the opportunity to take the test. As for barging into the auction ... He didn't even think about it!

The life-chasing duo was not weak, but how many experts had gathered at the auction this time? If they really broke the rules and caused public anger, even if the couple had the ability to escape, they might not be able to escape from the siege of so many powerhouses!

Daniya blinked, "why should I be afraid?" Could a nickname scare people? Then wouldn't our nicknames scare people to death?"

The Tianji continent's experts might give face to the life-chasing duo, but Daniya and Lin Yi wouldn't. They weren't from the Tianji continent, and they'd never heard of the life-chasing duo.

Daniya wasn't even human. She was an expert from the darkness magical beast clan that came from the node world. Even if he were to kill her for twenty thousand times, he wouldn't be able to scare Daniya!

Meng buzhui's expression turned serious. To be able to completely ignore the name of the life chasing duo Masters, it could only mean that the other party's strength or background was so powerful that they could be ignored. So, who exactly were these two young men and women?

"May I ask who you two are? Try to scare us to death by telling us!"

Meng buzhui cupped his hands. He wanted to hear what name Daniya was going to use. Of course, he wasn't afraid, but he wanted to understand the opponent's background first. As the saying goes, know yourself and know your enemy, and you will win every battle!

Daniya spoke nonsense with a serious face, ""Then listen well, we have given you the nickname" thirty-six heavenly spirits of the endless wilderness "! He is the Tian Ying planet of the 36 heavenly stars, and I am the Tian Hui Xing of the 36 heavenly stars! Have you ever heard of it?"

As if I've heard of it!

The thirty-six dippers was something that Daniya had casually glanced through when she was bored in the astral source continent. She definitely wouldn't be able to recite the thirty-six dippers, so she only remembered a few names and picked two of the better ones to put on a show.

She remembered that there was also the name "Tianji star" at the front, but she remembered that Lin Yi wanted to keep a low profile, so she didn't mention the stars at the front. It was good to pretend that she had a powerful partner hiding it, increasing the mystery.

The corner of Meng buzhuai's mouth twitched. He and Yan Wuming had traveled all over the continent, but when had they ever heard of this so-called thirty-six dippers of the endless chaos? Who the F * ck are you trying to scare?

My limbs are well-developed, but my mind is definitely not simple, okay!

"So it's the Tian Ying planet and Tian Huixing of the 36 heavenly stars! It's an honor to meet you!"

I'm giving you the last bit of dignity by not saying anything after seeing through it! Meng buzhuai felt that he was not a bad person and was a kind person, so he stretched out his hand confidently, "Alright, hand over the strength testing stone! We, the life-chasing duo, don't have any enmity with your thirty-six heavenly generals, so don't ruin the harmony and friendship between the two sides!"

The surrounding audience was dumbfounded. Of course, they had never heard of the endless prehistoric thirty-six dippers and felt that Daniya was just bragging. But after Meng buzhuai said that, it seemed like there really was such a thing?

Are we ignorant?

Daniya wagged her finger with a serious expression, "No, no, it's not the 36 heavenly stars, it's the 36 heavenly stars of the endless primordial era! After hearing our names, you still dare to reach out for the strength testing stone. Do you not put us, the thirty-six dippers of the endless wilderness, in your eyes?"

Meng buzhuai understood that Daniya was pestering them endlessly and looking down on their reputation as the life-chasing duo. He was already a little angry. The couple did things as they pleased. Since they couldn't come to an agreement, they would make a move!

"Little girl, don't regret it! I'll make it clear first, we've always advanced and retreated together when facing an enemy. It's the same when facing one enemy, and it's the same when facing ten thousand people. You guys can attack together!"

Meng buzhuai stretched out his hand after he finished speaking. Yan Wuming floated up lightly and sat on his shoulder. The two of them were very different in size, but they did not seem to be in disharmony.

Lin Yi's expression was a little strange. These two ... Could they be the capable Moxie? Four flying swords would be released after the big one?

It turned out that Lin Yi was overthinking. Meng buzhuai and Yan Wuming didn't use swords but knives, the Mandarin Duck knives!

Meng buzhuai's and Yan Wuming's Mandarin Duck sabers were split from the same saber. Then, when they separated their hands, they split into two more monstrosities. They were not four flying swords but four sabers. They were somewhat similar!

The moment he struck, Lin Yi felt as if Meng buzhuai and Yan Wuming had merged into one, and their auras had reached the late-stage of heaven breaking, forming a blade domain around them!

It was indeed powerful! It seemed that the reputation of the life-chasing duo in the heaven's legacy continent wasn't just for show!

Unfortunately, their opponent was Daniya. If they were to really fight, Daniya wouldn't be afraid of their joint knife domain. Not to mention crushing them, it wouldn't be a problem for her to beat them up and make them run away.

Daniya's eyes lit up as if she had seen an interesting toy. She was eager to try out the life chasing duo skill.

The battle between the two sides started at once. In the end, at this critical moment, the middle-aged man from first-grade restaurant suddenly cupped his hands and tried to mediate. "Please slow down. My distinguished guests, please stop!"

Meng buzhui's knife momentum was drawn but not released. He looked at the middle-aged man unhappily. From his point of view, if it wasn't for the fact that first-grade restaurant had no more seats, he wouldn't have to resort to snatching them. Since there wasn't enough space for the auction, they should just change to a bigger venue!

Therefore, first-grade restaurant was not a good thing!

If it wasn't for the fact that he was afraid that there would be too many experts participating in the auction, Meng buzhui would have wanted to tear down first-grade restaurant!

Daniya was also a little unhappy. She was quite interested in Meng buzhui and Yan Wuming's joint cultivation technique, but it was interrupted. If Lin Yi didn't stop her, she would have punched the middle-aged man's brain out first!

"Thank you, thank you!"

The middle-aged man wiped the cold sweat from his forehead. These were all powerhouses that he could not afford to offend. He had no choice but to take the risk and step forward to mediate. It was a huge risk!

They were at the entrance of first-grade restaurant. If there were any shockwaves from the battle between experts of this level that would affect first-grade restaurant, it would be a forced demolition!

If he damaged first-grade restaurant and lost the auction venue, first-grade restaurant would definitely offend countless powerhouses and forces. By then, he would not be able to make up for it even if he died a hundred times!

He had no choice but to risk his life to mediate!

"What do you want to say? Hurry up, don't waste my time!"

Meng buzhuai's face was filled with displeasure and his tone was filled with impatience, "'I'm just following the rules of your first-grade restaurant. Do you have any objections?"

Chapter 9019

"No, no! Thank you, master Meng, for being willing to abide by the rules of first-grade restaurant. I'm very grateful!"

The middle-aged man felt aggrieved, but he had no choice but to smile. "Actually there's no need for the few of you to argue. To others, a strength testing stone represents a seat. But Meng Ye and his wife are different!"

"Who in the heaven's legacy continent doesn't know that the life-chasing duo are one? no matter where they go, the virtuous couple can be considered one person. Thus, one seat is already enough for the virtuous couple! There's no need for another test!"

Meng buzhuai thought about it and agreed. The middle-aged man's words were equivalent to praising the couple, so he immediately revealed a smile on his face.

"At least you're tactful, kid. In that case, one seat is one seat! What do you think, Madam?"

Meng buzhuai turned his head to look at the beautiful young woman on his shoulder, Yan Wuming. She smiled and stretched out her hand to caress the side of his face. "That's good, I'll listen to you!"

The middle-aged man heaved a sigh of relief. He knew that the matter had been settled and that the conflict had been avoided. He immediately handed over the admission ticket that represented an ordinary seat to Meng buzhuai.

As for the steps of verifying the funds, they were directly omitted!

Not to mention the life chasing duo's status, their wealth was definitely not a problem. Who in the Tianji continent did not know that this couple was both good and evil? they did many good things and killed many people.

They often robbed the rich to help the poor, but most of the ill-gotten wealth they robbed would probably be kept for their own use, and the small half would be used to help the poor. Therefore, they definitely had a lot of wealth in their hands!

Lin Yi took the strength testing stone from Daniya's hand and crushed it into a small piece, showing off his sea shattering strength. The middle-aged man gave them two entry passes and announced that there were no more seats for the auction.

Although the people lining up behind them were a little disappointed, there was nothing they could do. Even if some of them were dissatisfied with Meng buzhuai's action of cutting the queue, they didn't dare to say anything. If their strength was inferior, they could only obediently admit defeat. If they could beat the life chasing duo, they could also cut the queue!

The only thing he could do now was to buy, exchange, and Rob those sea Rift realm cultivators who had the admission certificates!

It wasn't long before the opening time. If they wanted to enter, they had to seize the time. Therefore, the people behind them all turned around and left in tacit understanding, each going to find their target.

"Brat, you're from that Tianying planet, right? With just this bit of strength, why did he have to get involved in this? Are you really not afraid of death?"

Meng buzhuai didn't leave. After seeing Lin Yi's test results, he felt that Lin Yi was too weak to even have the right to cause him trouble, "The star Ink River is a good thing. However, there are too many experts coveting it. Those at the sea Rift stage are just cannon fodders. Your woman is stronger than you, but if she wants to protect you, it's inevitable that her hands and feet will be bound!"

"Listen to your master Meng's advice. Just watch the auction and don't think about getting involved. You won't even know how you died. Don't make your woman sad!"

Meng buzhuai wasn't mocking Lin Yi, but he felt that Lin Yi and Daniya's combination was similar to his and his wife's combination, so he just wanted to give them a few words of advice.

Daniya rolled her eyes, "who are you looking down on, big idiot?" Do you think you can understand the thirty-six dippers of the endless wilderness? If I didn't stop you just now, you would be looking for your teeth on the ground, do you know that?"

Meng buzhui and Yan Wuming laughed in unison. Of course, they did not believe Daniya's words, because they had absolute confidence in their combined strength.

"Forget it. Whatever you say. Your Grandpa Meng is a good man who doesn't fight with women!"

When Meng buzhui finished his sentence, Yan Wuming, who was on his shoulder, gave him a light Pat. He knew that his words had accidentally affected his wife. He immediately grinned foolishly and put on an ingratiating look, completely losing his previous imposing manner.

Lin Yi shook his head with a smile. People like this weren't exactly good people, but they didn't seem that annoying either. He hoped that they wouldn't become enemies in the future.

After asking the middle-aged man, Lin Yi and Daniya gave up on loitering around and walked straight into first-grade restaurant's auction venue.

Meng buzhui and his wife also followed them in, waiting for the auction to start. They also took the chance to look around the auction house, in case something happened, they could plan an escape route!

There were three floors in the auction hall of first-grade restaurant. The upper half of the hall was occupied by private rooms. Facing the auction stage was a crystal wall and was blocked by an array. No one could see what was going on inside, be it the line of sight or the divine sense. However, the people in the private rooms were not restricted and could freely look at all the seats below.

There were a total of 18 private rooms, and they were only for the most distinguished guests. This time, it was also a place where the holder of the top-notch invitation issued by first-grade restaurant could enter. Each private room could also bring less than 10 people in.

The second floor had seventy-two compartments. Not only was the area only a quarter of the private room on the third floor, but there was no solid curtain wall in front of it, only an array. The naked eye could still vaguely see the situation inside the compartments. The restriction of divine sense was more like a form.

If someone were to disregard the rules and use their divine senses to spy on them, the restriction of the second-floor compartment was far inferior to the third-floor compartment. It would be easily broken through. However, the person who did that would be equivalent to offending the customers of first-grade restaurant and the compartment.

In the past, he would naturally not have such concerns, but it was different today. The people who came were Masters from all sides, and it was not impossible for the truly tyrannical ones to break through the restrictions of the divine sense without any scruples.

Even so, the cubicles on the second floor were quite comfortable. Not everyone could sit inside, so most of the people who came today could only sit in the hall on the first floor.

Originally, there were a total of 300 seats in the hall on the first floor. Because there were more people this time, an additional 200 seats were added at the last minute, filling up most of the empty space and pathways, leaving only a minimum number of roads.

Even the surrounding decorations, flowers, and plants were removed in order to put an extra seat in it. Moreover, it couldn't be a small bench, but a decent chair.

After all, the weakest of the people who came this time were experts above the sea shattering stage. They could get more chairs by placing a small bench there. However, when the auction was over, first-grade restaurant would probably close down ... No matter how powerful one's background was, they couldn't withstand the hatred of so many experts!

Lin Yi scanned the room with his spirit sense and had a rough idea of the situation. He looked at the seat number in his hand and saw that it was in the corner.

It couldn't be helped-the last two or three seats would be at the edge, but Lin Yi didn't care. He thought it was better to sit in the corner, since it wouldn't attract too much attention.

Come to think of it, Meng buzhuai and his wife were right beside Lin Yi and Daniya, and the two of them sitting on the chairs made it seem like there was an iron tower beside them, it was impossible not to attract attention ...

Chapter 9020

Meng buzhuai was tall and burly to begin with. Even when he sat on a chair, he was taller than an ordinary person when he was standing. With Yan Wuming sitting on his shoulder, he was even taller. With such a combination sitting next to him, it was impossible for him to keep a low profile!

"Big stupid guy, you're lucky you're sitting next to us. If you were sitting in front, you'd definitely be beaten up, you know?"

Although the previous incident was already in the past, Daniya still found Meng buzhuai an eyesore. She sat down and started to tease him, ""Weren't you very awesome just now? why don't you go to the front and sit down? try and see if anyone cares about your title as the life-chasing duo!"

Before Meng buzhuai could say anything, Yan Wuming said with a smile, ""Little sister, you didn't get to fight just now. Are you very unhappy? Why don't we have a sparring match after the auction? As for where to sit, you don't have to worry. "

"Let's not talk about the fact that these seats were arranged by first-grade restaurant and that the guest should follow the rules of the host. For us, the front and back are actually the same. No matter where we are, we have a good view. As for you, I guess you'll have to stand up later to see the front, right?"

Daniya could tell that Yan Wuming was laughing at her short height, but Yan Wuming wasn't tall either!

"Tsk, you two only have one seat and can only be stacked together. Where do you get your sense of superiority from? This lady doesn't want to grow taller, or else how could this big stupid guy be so arrogant?"

Daniya was extremely disdainful. She wasn't speaking nonsense. The darkness magical beast race had the ability to shapeshift, so she could become a giant if she wanted to.

However, that would not be cute, so he would not do such a boring thing!

"Alright, stop arguing with him!"

Lin Yi pushed Daniya to a seat on the side and sat between her and Meng buzhuai, separating them as a buffer.

After sitting down, Lin Yi realized that he had thought too simply. Meng buzhuai and Yan Wuming had the advantage of height. After he sat down, they could completely ignore the people in between them and continue to bicker with Daniya.

They didn't mention the sparring anymore, but the two women's bickering continued to escalate. Meng buzhuai couldn't even interrupt, and neither could Lin Yi.

The two of them looked at each other and suddenly smiled. They both felt a trace of helplessness in each other's eyes and actually had a little bit of appreciation for each other ...

Daniya and Yan Wuming's interest was piqued, and the two didn't have any hostility anymore. They were purely enjoying the bickering, and Lin Yi couldn't be bothered to stop them.

If they really had to fight in the end, it wouldn't be a big problem. If they had to fight, then so be it. Daniya wouldn't be at a disadvantage.

After a while, other participants of the auction began to enter the venue. Without exception, all of them had put on a certain disguise.

There were masks, veils, bamboo hats, hoods, and so on, and all of them were guarded against the prying of divine sense. Obviously, they wanted to hide their identities and avoid being targeted after bidding for the six-point star source instrument!

Lin Yi patted his forehead. Everyone was so cautious. It seemed like they were determined to get the six point star source instrument!

The danger was not important, but it was foreseeable that it would not be easy to get the six-point star source instrument! Although he had brought a huge amount of gold certificates, he wasn't sure how wealthy the people of the Tianji continent were. Would there be any trouble?

The more people there were, the higher the price would be. Lin Yi wasn't so arrogant as to think that the money Fei daqiang earned was enough to compare with a top sect, family, or force on the continent ...

How troublesome!

The first people who came in noticed the Iron Tower-like Meng buzhuai and Yan Wuming. Their appearances were rather unique, and any expert from the Tianji continent would have heard of them. Even if they had never seen the life-chasing duo, they could easily recognize them.

However, no one came over to greet them. They couldn't even hide their identities in time, so how could they reveal their identities?

When Meng buzhuai saw the people hiding their faces and figures, he couldn't help but snort and mumble, ""All of you are cowards. If you want to fight for the six-point star source instrument, don't be afraid of others finding out. If you don't even have the courage to face your enemies, how can you be worthy of such a precious treasure like the star Ink River?"

Although he was mumbling, his voice was not soft. Everyone around him heard it. Normally, such offensive words would easily cause public anger. However, everyone present seemed to not hear it and ignored Meng buzhui.

Maybe they didn't want to cause any more trouble, or maybe the reputation of the life-chasing duo was so great that they didn't want to offend the couple unless it was necessary.

After all, if they couldn't kill an expert of this level in one strike and let him escape, there would be endless troubles in the future. Those who had power would probably be constantly assassinated and swallowed up, and it was possible that their entire family would be slowly exterminated.

Don't provoke them unless you're confident!

This was the attitude most people had towards the life-chasing duo Masters, who had no ties to them!

Yan Wuming gently patted the back of Meng buzhui's head, and the tower-like burly man finally shut up and stopped mumbling.

Daniya wasn't in the mood to bicker anymore. She sat down beside Lin Yi and observed the situation, waiting for the auction to start.

The scheduled time arrived very quickly. Without any delay, first-grade restaurant started the highly anticipated auction on time!

The one on the stage was a young woman as beautiful as a flower. She first made a cursory bow, then gently opened her red lips and smiled, "Welcome, distinguished guests, to first-grade restaurant for today's auction. It's our honor to have so many distinguished guests!"

"Let's cut to the chase. In order to not waste our precious guests' time, our auction will begin immediately. Next is the first item. Please have a look!"

A display case rose up on the auction stage, and a soft armor was placed in the case. Under the light, it glowed and looked extremely exquisite. Whether it was the workmanship or the appearance, they were all extremely exquisite. Even without talking about its function, it could definitely be considered a work of art!

"The first item is a classic piece of work by our Tianji continent's top armorist Grandmaster Meng, the peerless soft armor flowing cloud sky armor. There's no need to talk about its exquisite and gorgeous appearance, but its defensive power is the most outstanding point!"

"This top-grade soft armor flowing cloud sky armor is most suitable for women. Not only is it beautiful and outstanding, but more importantly, it can reduce the close-range attack power of early heaven breaking cultivators by fifty percent."

"The flowing cloud sky armor can defend against most of the blades of weapons below peerless grade. It's definitely an excellent life-saving treasure! Of course, it's not limited to women. Men can also wear it as a soft armor, but it's a waste of its exquisite appearance!"

The woman on the stage was obviously the Ace auctioneer of first-grade restaurant. With just a few words, she had clearly explained the advantages and origins of this soft armor, and it had aroused the desire of many people to buy it.
