

Bodyguard 9361

Chapter 9361 The End

"Don't be nervous, it's too common to operate behind the scenes. If you do it, I'll do it too! However, this young master isn't as petty as you. No matter what, I'm still the second housekeeper of the Wang family. A hundred thousand and a hundred and fifty thousand is a bit of an insult, so this young master gave two million!"

Lu MU's words shocked everyone present.

Lin Yi raised a brow. It was common to see people do things behind closed doors, but saying it out loud in public like this wasn't common.

The matter hadn't reached the point where it was settled yet, so what was the meaning of this guy taking the initiative to expose himself?

Just as he was feeling puzzled, a commotion suddenly broke out in the distance. Under the escort of the second Steward and a group of Wang family servants, the long-renowned young miss of the Wang family finally appeared in front of everyone for the first time.

And then, Lin Yi was dumbfounded.

It was as if he'd been struck by lightning, his eyes fixed on the Miss as she got closer and closer. It was as if he'd fallen into a spell, and he didn't react for a long time.

"Lin Yi bro! Lin Yi bro!"

Wang shiqing sensed his change and pinched him secretly, but Lin Yi didn't react at all. He was still looking at her like a fool.

Wang shiqing was speechless. This miss was beautiful, but Lin Yi bro was a man who had seen the world. He wasn't that horny, and he wasn't even as good as the other candidates who obviously had impure motives.

Lin Yi's undisguisable look of infatuation, unsurprisingly, made the Miss feel disgusted. She didn't say anything, but the look of disgust in her eyes was enough to explain everything.

The second housekeeper immediately understood and scolded, ""Where did this lecher sneak in from? Why aren't you throwing it out?"

The guards were about to attack.

At this moment, the long-lost Smoking Man suddenly appeared and said lazily, ""In any case, he's someone I chose to come in. I'll throw him out after I'm done. Otherwise, I'll lose face."

With one sentence, all the guards immediately stopped.

Not only was the Smoking Man their boss, but he was also their instructor. In their hearts, he was even more prestigious than the second Butler.

Even the second housekeeper was well aware of this, so he hesitated for a moment.

Lu mu seized the opportunity to interject, "commander Yan, you're wrong. Your reputation is important. However, the young lady represents the reputation of the entire Wang family!" In her own inner court, the young miss was actually offended by an uncouth person of unknown background. Wouldn't she become the laughingstock of the Wang family if this news spread?"

"Your face or the entire Wang family's face, which is more important?"

Even the Smoking Man was caught in a dilemma when faced with such a direct statement. Lin Yi finally came back to his senses and stared at the Miss, asking, ""You're Tang Yin?"

"She's Tang Yun sis?"

Wang shiqing was stunned, finally understanding why Lin Yi lost his composure.

She'd been pestering Lin Yi to tell her about Tang Yin the past few days, and she knew quite a bit about their relationship even if he didn't tell her everything.

She understood Lin Yi's feelings for Tang Yin, and his determination to find her.

He didn't expect the famous miss Wang to be the Tang Yin Lin Yi bro was looking for!

Lin Yi would never be wrong about this-there couldn't be two people that looked so similar in this world!

He was sure that the person was Tang Yun!

Miss Wang frowned slightly, but still gave an answer that shook Lin Yi's heart, "I'm tang Yin, what's up?"

That one sentence was enough to prove everything, but it was obvious that she didn't recognize Lin Yi at all.

Wang shiqing blurted out, ""Aren't you the young miss of the Wang family? How could he be surnamed Tang?"

Lu mu chuckled, "eldest miss is the granddaughter of the Wang clan head, what's so strange about having a different surname?" However, since the young miss has returned to the Wang family, with how much the patriarch values her, it's only a matter of time before she returns to her family name. "

As he spoke, he waved his feather fan and had the air of a scholar.

This explained a part of Lin Yi's confusion, but it also brought about a bigger mystery. What was the relationship between Tang Yun and the Wang family?

Tang Yin felt uncomfortable under Lin Yi's burning gaze, but she didn't kick Lin Yi out for the sake of the Smoking Man. She said impatiently, "Hurry up and start."

"Yes, yes."

The second housekeeper nodded and immediately introduced the candidates to Tang Yun. The first one to be introduced was the elegant young master, Lu mu. Although he did not boast about it, most of his words were flattering. It was obvious that he was catering to Tang Yun's preferences. The spirit Jade was indeed in place.

In comparison, although the two people at the back of the line did not say anything bad, their content was a lot more perfunctory. This was a typical case of not giving the right spiritual Jade.

As for the brawny man who didn't give the spiritual Jade, he was directly brushed off with a sentence.

When it was Lin Yi's turn, the housekeeper was just about to give the kid a piece of his mind when Tang Yin cut him off with a finger. "That's it. I know who to choose. He will do."

Lin Yi's heart was happy for a moment, but it quickly sank.

Because the person Tang Yun was pointing at was not him, but Lu mu, who claimed to have stuffed two million spirit Jade into his hands and deliberately acted like a young master of the Confucians.

Before Lin Yi could say anything, someone else interrupted-it was the candidate who'd been silent for a long time, Zhuang Yan.

"This is not fair! There was something shady about this. He said that he had given the second Butler two million spirit Jade! The others had also stuffed their spiritual jades in! I'm the only one who's open and aboveboard!"

The brawny man, Zhuang Yan, was interrupted by the gloomy second housekeeper, "You can eat whatever you want, but you can't say whatever you want. In our Wang clan, we need evidence to speak."

"Brother Zhuang Yan, you're really innocent and cute. I was just joking to ease the atmosphere. Anyone with a brain wouldn't take it seriously, right?" Besides, everyone knows that the final decision is in the hands of the young miss, so what's the point of bribing the second Butler?"

Zhuang Yan was speechless.

Lin Yi, who was watching coldly from the side, saw it clearly. It was a trap from the start, a trap to lure Zhuang Yan into and expose his brainless nature. This Lu mu really did put in a lot of effort to get close to the Miss.

Lin Yi didn't care much about it at first, but now that the Miss of the Wang family had become Tang Yun, he couldn't give the position to anyone else, especially someone as scheming as Lu Song!

"I also think it's unfair. Bodyguards are based on ability, and the final candidate should be based on ability."

Lin Yi's words had just ended when Tang Yin's strong reaction came. "I have the final say in my bodyguard's matters. It's not up to a group of outsiders to tell me what to do. You can leave now."

Chapter 9362

"But ..."

"But what? The young miss had already personally spoken, yet she still wanted to twist the facts? I'll give you some good advice, a person should know their own limits and know how to accept their fate. If you think about unrealistic things all day long, you'll suffer a backlash sooner or later. Go home and think about it. "

Although Lu mu was still trying his best to maintain his image as a young master of the scholarly faction, the smugness on his face was clearly no longer visible.

This plan he'd been planning for a long time had finally succeeded-as long as he could become Tang Yin's bodyguard, he'd have a hundred percent chance of taking her down!

After all, she was just a young girl with no experience in the martial arts world. If the soft approach didn't work, he would use the hard approach. As long as he could stay by Tang Yun's side, he would succeed sooner or later!

"Men, please ask them to leave. If they're unwilling, then change it to shooing them away. Our Wang family's inner courtyard isn't a place that just any Tom, Dick, or Harry can enter!"

The second Butler made a prompt decision to hit him while he was down.

This time, with Tang Yun's support, the guards had no choice but to follow the order.

Lin Yi looked at Tang Yin, and a bold idea hit his brain. He wanted to attack instinctively, but the Smoking Man stared at him coldly.

Although the Smoking Man admired him, in the end, he was still standing on the Wang family's side.

Just as Lin Yi was about to lose control, a familiar female voice came from the distance, "Hold on,"

A charming woman came into his sight-it was Tang Yun's birth mother in the secular world, Yuming!

Tang Yun's appearance here could still be explained as an accident, but even Wang Yuming was here. Could this be an accident or a coincidence?

"Mother,"

Tang Yun walked up to them, while the second Steward and the servants of the Wang family bowed to her and greeted her.

Wang Yuming looked at Lin Yi for a while before turning away. "Yin, the choice of your personal bodyguard is related to your personal safety, so you can't be careless. Let them compete first."

Lin Yi was overjoyed, but Lu mu was worried, "Madam, I have passed the previous test. There is no doubt about my strength. I am absolutely confident that I can protect the young lady. I swear on my reputation as the 49th Hidden Dragon in Jianghai city!"

"Jianghai Hidden Dragon rank? It sounds pretty powerful. If that's the case, there shouldn't be any problem. Please show me your strength. "

"What do you think, Yin?" Wang Yuming patted Tang Yin's hand.

"Young miss ..."

Lu mu looked at Tang Yun with anticipation, hoping that she would speak up for him. After all, he felt that Tang Yun had a good impression of him, at least among the candidates, she was on his side.

Tang Yun didn't even look at him. She just nodded. "I'll listen to mother's arrangements. "

Wang shiqing made a face at him, gloating. "Don't think too highly of yourself, Tang Yun sis just finds you troublesome, she doesn't like you at all!"

"Little girl!"

Lu mu was furious, but he did not dare to lose his temper in front of Wang Yuming and Tang Yun, so he could only swallow his anger.

Tang Yun, on the other hand, took another look at Wang shiqing. This little girl was probably the one who understood her the most. She pointed at Lu mu without any other intention. She just wanted to quickly finish her sentence.

The only person she had a special impression of was Lin Yi, but this impression was thousands of miles away from a positive one. Subconsciously, she was against him, even detesting him!

But no matter what, Lin Yi still got a chance.

After some simple arrangements, the five bodyguard candidates collectively stood on the martial arts arena in the Wang family's backyard.

The rules of the competition were very simple. There were no rules. Whoever could laugh to the end among the five people would be the final winner!

Because of his arrogant behavior, the elegant young master, Lu mu, became the target of public criticism as soon as he entered the room. After all, he had trampled on the other four, including Lin Yi, from the beginning to the end.

"Everyone, don't be impulsive. You must think clearly about who is the biggest threat now!"

Lu mu hurriedly spoke before anyone else could.

"Young master Lu, you're ranked 49th on the Jianghai Hidden Dragon Roll. Do you think we have a higher ranking than you? of course, you're the biggest threat." Another person scoffed.

"That's wrong!"

Lu mu hurriedly denied it and changed the topic. "The hidden Dragon rank is based on the overall quality, not the actual combat power. In terms of combat power, I am not as good as brother Zhuang Yan, who is one rank below me."

The brawny man Zhuang Yan was instantly amused, "You still want them to focus fire on me first?"

The other two, however, revealed an expression of interest. Regardless of whether they focused on Lu mu or Zhuang Yan first, they would not lose out.

"Brother Zhuang Yan, you've misunderstood. We know each other very well, so it's not that easy for us to play any small tricks. Why don't we take this opportunity to have a good fight? but there are some people who don't know each other very well."

Everyone turned to look at Lin Yi after hearing Lu MU's words.

"Join forces to get rid of this brat first? You're making a mountain out of a molehill. "

Zhuang Yan didn't think much of it. From the beginning to the end, Lu mu was the one he had thought was a big problem.

"He's the one chosen by that Yan fellow. We've all seen his strength. Since this kid is able to catch his eye, are you all that confident?" I don't have any anyway. "

These words made the few of them feel guilty.

They didn't say anything, but their next actions exposed their thoughts. All four of them sent their senses to Lin Yi's head.

"Despicable!"

Off stage, Wang shiqing saw that the situation wasn't looking good and cursed.

No one took her words seriously, but in order to save his image in front of Tang Yun, Lu mu added on.

"This is to hire a personal bodyguard for miss. This person has been acting like a lecherous man since the beginning. It's obvious that he has ill intentions towards miss. It's our duty to eliminate him first so that he doesn't taint miss's eyes."

As they spoke, the Four Masters attacked at the same time, surrounding Lin Yi from four different angles.

True experts often had similar thoughts and didn't need to cooperate with exercises at all. In addition, they already knew each other's Foundation, so they would use killing moves that complemented each other.

The wind increased the fire, and the smoke and sand gathered!

From the audience's point of view, Lin Yi didn't even have the chance to react before he was swallowed up by the overwhelming attacks.

Chapter 9363

"This kid is finished. He won't even have a bit of bone left!"

The surrounding crowd discussed spiritedly, especially the highly skilled guards of the Wang family, who could clearly see the danger within.

Such a terrifying joint attack, if it was them, who were at the great circle of heaven crushing, who went up, let alone face it head-on, there was simply no possibility of a foothold. No matter how many went up, they would all die.

Only the Smoking Man pouted his lips in disgust.

Just when everyone thought that Lin Yi was dead, a faint word came from the wind, ""Just this?"

With that, Lin Yi's figure slowly appeared behind Lu mu, his steps calm and casual as if he was taking a stroll in a courtyard.

Lu mu was instantly scared out of his wits. Both of them were at the great circle of heaven crushing, but from the beginning to the end, he was completely unaware of how the other party had appeared behind him.

In fact, in the perception of the other three, Lin Yi was in the center of the stage the entire time, not moving a single step!

"Divine sense deception? This is impossible!"

Not only Lu mu, everyone on the stage felt that it was unbelievable.

Divine sense deception wasn't a particularly high-end technique, and all of them knew it. But the problem was that in theory, it was only possible to truly complete divine sense deception if one was at least an entire realm higher than the target!

"I'm surprised too," Lin Yi replied faintly, "you guys were tricked so easily. "

That move just now was purely a subconscious attempt, and even he himself did not have much hope. Such a small trick would not have much effect on experts of the same level, but he did not expect that it would directly stun the four of them.

It wasn't hard to understand-these four were all peak heaven-sunders, but in terms of essence spirit, they were miles away from Lin Yi.

Before his sea of consciousness turned into the Wuling sea, Lin Yi's spirit was strong enough to crush people of the same level. Even those who were stronger than him were far inferior.

After becoming Wu Linghai, his strength had a qualitative leap. The divine senses of the same-level Sky Class Island Warriors could not be said to be completely crushed. They could be ignored.

In the earth-class Sea area, people paid more attention to their spiritual sense than in the Xuan-class Sea area. However, even Lu mu, who was the strongest among the four, only had a primordial spirit at the peak of the initial stage of heaven breaking. The others were only at the initial stage of heaven breaking, and there were even some at the sea splitting stage.

Putting everything else aside, Lin Yi's attacks on the primordial spirit level alone were too much for them to handle.

After sensing this huge advantage, Lin Yi naturally wouldn't waste it. He decisively used his spirit sense to charge.

Lu mu, who was the closest to Lin Yi, was sent flying out of the ring by Lin Yi's fist. However, when he landed on the ground, his face changed into that of Zhuang Yan!

Everyone was collectively stunned.

Lin Yi, on the other hand, noticed that the position where Zhuang Yan was standing was now Lu mu 's. A torn talisman disappeared from his hand.

"Death substitution talisman? Like I said, the more good-looking a guy is, the more ill-intentioned he is. He has already targeted Zhuang Yan to be his scapegoat from the very beginning. "

The Smoking Man's unhurried words explained the doubts in everyone's hearts.

The so-called death substitution talisman, as its name suggested, was to make others become his scapegoat. There was a premise to activating this thing, which was to establish a spiritual connection with the target silently.

It wasn't a long or short process, but it was clear that Lu mu used the chance to distract them. If it wasn't for Lin Yi, the dark horse, the other three wouldn't be able to take him down even if they combined their strength.

"A death substitution talisman costs 200000 spiritual jades on the market. The Lu family really doesn't lack money!"

Seeing this, the other two people in the arena immediately withdrew and retreated, simultaneously withdrawing their hands and assuming the posture of watching the Tigers fight from the mountain.

To their surprise, Lin Yi's body flickered as he charged at the two, making them jump in anger,""Are you F * cking crazy? You're not messing with that Lu guy, but with us?"

As they cursed, the two men did not stay idle. They joined forces and launched a wave of wind and sand blades with an astonishing momentum!

For a moment, the huge ring was enveloped by countless wind blades and sand blades. Even with the support of a special array, the surface of the ring was instantly cut into thousands of holes, and the corners were crushed on the spot. It was a shocking sight.

Logically speaking, it was impossible to receive such a crazy attack, but it was simply a fool's dream to Dodge it. He could only take it head-on.

As long as they dared to resist, they would die!

The two of them showed a sinister smile at the same time. They were from the same sect and were the most famous venomous venerable in the local area. Whether it was the wind blade or the sand blade, they looked murderous on the surface, but the most dangerous thing was the hidden poison!

Once one was injured by it, the poison would immediately spread to the whole body as long as a part of the protective genuine Qi was broken.

At that time, unless the two of them came to their rescue personally, they would definitely die.

But in the face of the wind and sand, Lin Yi used his super butterfly microsteps and flashed back and forth like a ghost.

The key was that he could easily suppress his spiritual sense. The other party could only use their naked eyes to lock on to his position. In the end, they could not see him clearly at all, only a series of blurred afterimages.

From the beginning to the end, the wind and sand blades did not touch him at all.

What AoE attack? it was just a joke in front of Lin Yi!

By the time the two realized something was wrong and wanted to change their moves, Lin Yi's body was already very close to them. A wave of spirit sense shook the two, and they were both knocked out.

Lin Yi was a bit surprised that he eliminated three opponents so easily. Didn't these young warriors of the earth-class Sea area have any defensive items? Even the thickest and shallowest spiritual awareness could casually wreak havoc ... It was a little boring!

Other than Lin Yi, there was only Lu mu left, and he couldn't maintain his elegance in the face of Lin Yi's whirlwind.

Everything happened too quickly, and even the three people that Lin Yi had eliminated felt unreal. They looked at Lin Yi's figure on the stage with fear.

They knew that Lin Yi was strong, but they didn't expect him to be this strong. Even with their strength, they couldn't even last one round!

"Brother Lin Yi, you've really opened my eyes. With your strength, even if you don't have any family background, you might be able to get into the hidden Dragon List. As long as someone is there to help you, I can help you with that."

Lu mu was obviously frightened. If he continued to attack in this manner, he would only invite humiliation, so he turned to make a deal through divine sense.

In other words, as long as Lin Yi was willing to go easy on him, he could guarantee him a spot in the hidden Dragon rank.

Chapter 9364

Lin Yi's lips twitched, "Hidden Dragon rank?" I'm not interested. "

His words made everyone's jaws drop. Being listed in the hidden Dragon List was the dream of countless young talents, and this guy was actually not interested?

Lu mu was also stunned, but he immediately sneered, ""I didn't hear wrong, did I? You're not interested in the hidden Dragon rank? The hidden Dragon rank is the masterpiece of the mayor's mansion, do you know that you're insulting the mayor's mansion by saying that?"

"You're good at accusing people, but stop talking nonsense. Do you want to go down by yourself, or do you want me to help you?"

Lin Yi didn't mind at all, walking towards the man step by step, each step like a hammer smashing into his heart.

With every step he took, his expression became uglier. After seven steps, Lu mu actually vomited a mouthful of blood on the spot!

The Smoking Man in the audience couldn't help but show a surprised expression. "The materialization of aura. This kid is really interesting. He's learning quite fast!"

He couldn't help but be surprised-Lin Yi had stolen the skill from him, and before he saw the attack, Lin Yi's understanding of the solidification of aura was still very vague. It was only when he saw the four guest Masters that he finally broke through the window paper.

Lu mu spat out a mouthful of blood. His face was as pale as a piece of paper. He was forced to stagger back step by step, all the way to the edge of the ring.

There was no way to retreat!

Lin Yi didn't hold back at all and charged forward with his spirit sense.

Just when everyone thought that the winner was decided, a strange smile appeared on Lu MU's face. Before Lin Yi's consciousness could collide with him, he took out a special, snow-white formation talisman.

A profound grade talisman!

Lin Yi's eyes twitched, and before he could react, the entire stage turned into a giant ice sculpture.

At the same time, Lu mu, who suffered the collision of the consciousness, fell into a daze on the spot.

All of a sudden, the entire scene seemed to have frozen.

"Lin Yi big bro!"

Wang shiqing was very confident in Lin Yi, but she still couldn't help but shout out in worry. After all, Lin Yi's whole body was frozen solid, and this was real.

"Hehe, he won't be able to hear you even if you shout yourself hoarse. In order to obtain this profound-grade ice-sealing formation talisman that's a specialty of the Wang clan, this young master has spent a lot of money on it."

Lu mu was the first to recover from his dizziness. He revealed a proud expression, but at the same time, he could not hide the pain in his heart. "That's a whole five million spiritual jades, and they're all being used on that uncouth B * tch. What a F * cking waste of a heavenly gift!"

He wasn't the only one-all the other members of the Wang family were looking at Lin Yi as if he was a dead man.

The words "profound grade talisman" were enough to explain everything, not to mention that this was no ordinary profound grade talisman, but the Wang family's signature profound grade icebound talisman. Its reputation was not just in Jianghai city, but in the entire nearby earth-grade Sea region!

To put it simply, this was the talisman that was closest to absolute zero.

The cultivators here might not have a better understanding of the concept of absolute zero than those in the secular world, but they definitely had a more personal experience and could more intuitively understand the terrifying destructive power of absolute zero on the human body.

To put it bluntly, once a complete heaven crushing expert or even a complete heaven crushing expert was frozen, there was an extremely high probability that they would lose their vitality within tens of seconds.

Lu mu didn't even bother to look at Lin Yi. He turned around and walked down the stage to Tang Yun, ""Young miss, I'll be in your care in the future,"

Tang Yun raised her eyebrows and replied in a weird tone, "You seem to have said it too early."

"Young miss, you really know how to joke."

Lu mu didn't believe it at all. This wasn't the first time he used the mystic ice seal talisman. He used it to kill two masters of the same level before and he believed in it. Let alone one Lin Yi, even ten of them could be killed within the range of the talisman.

However, just as he finished speaking, there was a slight crack behind him.

Soon after, the tiny cracks spread to the entire ice sculpture. Finally, it collapsed with a loud bang and shattered on the ground.

"This talisman of yours is really cold. When the weather is hot, you can use it to make iced watermelons, iced sour plum soup, and so on. It's really amazing!"

Lin Yi's teasing voice came from behind him, giving Lu mu goosebumps. He turned to Lin Yi as if he had seen a ghost, "You, you, you, why didn't you die?"

Lin Yi sighed, "it's just the same level as Iced Watermelon and drinks. It's cool, but you want to freeze me to death? who are you looking down on?"

After he finished speaking, he stretched out his hand and slapped down, causing Lu mu to pounce on the spot.

Everyone was speechless.

Four out of the five candidates had been eliminated, and Lin Yi had the last laugh.

Wang Yuming smiled and whispered into Tang Yun's ear, ""It seems like we can only choose him. Is Yun 'er okay?"

Tang Yin didn't know why, but she was instinctively against Lin Yi-she didn't want to, but she didn't have a choice. She couldn't just ignore the rules of house Wang because of her own preference.

Although she had not been here for long, Tang Yun felt a sense of belonging to the talisman-bearing Wang family, perhaps because of their blood connection. Moreover, this matter concerned Wang Yuming, so she naturally could not act recklessly.

In the end, he could only reluctantly nod his head.

Lin Yi's heart was finally at ease. He had too many questions, but as long as he could stay by Tang Yin's side, he would be on the first step to success.

As for Tang Yun's memory loss, it wasn't the first time. Even if he didn't know the details, Lin Yi could guess the reason behind it. As long as he had enough time, he'd find a way to solve it.

After the selection of the bodyguard, the next task of the array maid went smoothly. There were no additional tests at all. After a few simple questions and answers, Tang Yun appointed Wang shiqing.

It wasn't just because of the girl's knowledge of formations, but also because Tang Yun liked her cheeky personality.

After all, she was born in the secular world, and Tang Yun couldn't accept the way people were divided into different classes. Wang shiqing, who only wanted to come in and learn secretly, obviously wouldn't be as humble as the others, so she naturally became the most suitable candidate for her.

"In the end, you and your sister managed to take over. Be careful not to get beaten up when you go out."

The Smoking Man said half-jokingly, half-seriously.

Lin Yi nodded slightly. He could tell that the others weren't willing to leave, especially Lu mu and the other candidates. He really had to be more careful in the future. After all, bodyguards could be used up. They only had a chance to come after if they were killed in the middle.

Chapter 9365

"Second Butler, please arrange for their accommodation."

Wang Yuming ordered. Seeing that Tang Yun was already talking to Wang shiqing with interest, she gave Lin Yi a look, "Young hero Lin, can we have a word?"

"Of course."

Lin Yi quickly followed. Compared to Tang Yun, Wang Yuming's appearance was a bigger mystery. He had to find a chance to get to the bottom of it.

The two came to a Pavilion, and Wang Yuming looked at Lin Yi again with a gentle gaze, ""Yi, you're here for Yin, aren't you?"

"That's right, I came here after I got the news that Tang Yin went missing. "

Lin Yi nodded and quickly asked, "Aunt Jun, what are you doing here? What's going on?"

"It's a long story. Actually, you should already know a part of it. me and Yujie, strictly speaking, are all scattered bloodlines of the Wang family. It's just that we don't know about it."

The Yujie she was talking about was naturally Tang Yun's foster mother, Wang Yujie.

Lin Yi wasn't surprised-it was common for the noble houses to split their investments, but the Wang family's move was a little too outrageous. They invested in the common world, and it was a big scheme that made Lin Yi shudder.

"Then why did you suddenly come back here?"

Wang Yu Han wanted to say something but hesitated. After a moment of deliberation, he said, "This matter involves a secret of the Wang family. I don't know much about the details, but I can roughly describe it as an unspeakable change in the Wang family. We need to gather the scattered bloodlines to inherit the foundation of the main family."

"The foundation of the family?"

Lin Yi was surprised. He understood the family strategy of not putting all their eggs in one basket, but it was rare to have spare tires come back and take over the family business.

Normally, if bei tai were to have the slightest bit of improper thoughts, he would definitely be beaten to death by the main clan. In the face of benefits, any so-called bloodline or kinship was nothing more than fleeting clouds, much less when it came to the vast fortune of the talisman patrician Wang clan.

"I was as shocked as you at first, but the Wang family is indeed different from other families, because bloodline is the foundation of the Wang family. If there's a problem with the bloodline inheritance of the main family, no matter how much profit or how much planning you have, it's all just fleeting clouds."

Wang Yu Han paused and asked, ""Yi, you should know how the Wang family managed to develop to its current size, right?"

"Probably because he's good at making talismans," Lin Yi nodded.

"That's right, but there are tens of thousands of talisman-making families in the earth-ranked seas, and there are more than a dozen in Jianghai city. Little Yi, do you know why the Wang family is so outstanding?"

"Because of the deep heritage of the Wang family's ancestral secret technique?"

Lin Yi blurted out but quickly reacted. "Could it be related to the bloodline of the Wang family?"

"It's related to bloodlines. The mystic ice-sealing formation talisman you just experienced can't be made by anyone other than the Wang family's bloodline, not even a publicly acknowledged formation talisman Grandmaster. This is because to make an ice-sealing formation talisman, one needs the Wang family's ice-snow fire talisman!"

Wang Yuming revealed the core secret of the Wang family.

Lin Yi suddenly understood-just like making pills, making talismans required a special fire. In theory, one could use other flames, but the quality of the talismans wouldn't be guaranteed.

"There is a world of difference between talisman flames, and our Wang family's ice-snow talisman flame is one of the best among all known talisman flames. It is also because of this that we have monopolized all the ice-snow attribute talismans in the market. Other talisman Masters have almost no chance of getting their hands on them."

Wang Yuming's face was filled with pride, but it quickly turned to worry."But the problem now is that after a series of unexpected events, there are not many direct descendants left with ice-snow talisman fire, especially the young ones with outstanding talent. If this continues, it will sooner or later evolve into an awkward situation where there is no one to inherit it ..."

"So that's how it is. No wonder the main family took the initiative to call back all of you branch family members who were scattered."

Lin Yi finally understood the whole situation-this was about the survival of the family, and he had to put the conflict between the main house and the branch houses aside for now. Every single member of the Wang family was a precious source of fire.

Once Wang Yuming had said that they had no one to succeed them, the entire Wang family would fall apart in minutes. After all, as a top talisman family, if they could not even produce their own signature talismans, what competition would they have?

"What about aunt Jie? She's back?"

Lin Yi was asking about Tang Yun's foster mother, Wang Yujie. Wang Yuming was of the Wang family's blood, so naturally, Wang Yujie was as well.

Wang Yuming shook her head. "She's still in the secular world. The main family was looking for her at first. Although she inherited the Wang family's blood, her talent was limited. In the end, she could only give up and come to me."

"Good, it's not necessarily a bad thing," Lin Yi sighed.

Even though he still could not understand what kind of crisis the Wang family was facing, he could tell from Wang Yuming's words that the Wang family was in deep trouble. If they were to be dragged into this, it would be hard to predict what would happen.

The biggest problem now was that Tang Yun had already fallen into the center of the whirlpool, whether or not she was aware of it.

Wang Yuming agreed with Lin Yi's judgment, "Yi, Yun 'er may have lost her memories of you, but she's still her, the Tang Yun from your memories. I'm sure she'll remember it one day, so I hope you can stay by her side and protect her for me, okay?"

"Don't worry, aunt Juan. No matter what happens in the future, I'll protect Tang Yun. I won't let her get hurt unless I die," Lin Yi promised seriously.

Wang Yuming looked at Lin Yi in a daze and suddenly bowed deeply, "I'm relieved to hear that. I'll leave Yun 'er in your care in the future. "

Lin Yi quickly helped her up.

At this time, Tang Yun walked over with Wang shiqing. She looked at Lin Yi warily and pulled Wang Yuming back a few steps, frowning, "What did you say to my mother?"

Lin Yi didn't know if he'd seen her like this before-she was on guard against a pervert. "You don't have to be so nervous, right? We're just talking about how we should protect you in the future. "

"Don't give me that. Don't think that you can win my mother's favor with your glib tongue. Let me tell you, that will only make me hate you more!"

Tang Yin tried her best to make a fierce expression, but it didn't do anything to Lin Yi. Instead, it made Lin Yi feel as if he'd returned to the past.

Wasn't this the expression of the commoner School Belle back then?

Chapter 9366

"Alright, Yun 'er, young hero Lin will be responsible for your safety from now on. Don't be rude."

Wang Yuming tried to smooth things over, but seeing that Tang Yun was still unhappy, she added, ""Didn't you want to go to Jianghai Academy? If there's no one to protect me, I won't be able to get through this. "

"He's going to school with me?"Tang Yin asked in shock.

"Go to school?"

Lin Yi was shocked as well-he could tell that Tang Yun's level was no small matter, she was at the complete heaven-breaking realm just like him, but for her to have such a huge increase in level in such a short time, it must be due to some sort of sped up technique. Her Foundation was a lot weaker.

If it was anyone else who dared to play like this, they would have exploded and died long ago. It could only be said that the Wang clan's Foundation was indeed incomparably deep.

Although Tang Yun's cultivation level was high, her real strength, especially her combat power, was still far from it. She could defeat ten weak opponents under the heaven breaking stage, but she would probably be scared if she met a warrior in the early stage of heaven breaking.

But even so, he was still an expert at the great circle of heaven crushing. Such a character would be an expert no matter where he was placed, so where would he go to learn?

Wang Yuming explained,"that's right. I'm hiring a bodyguard for Yun er to prepare for her trip to Jianghai Academy. After all, you should know that the Wang family's situation is a little tricky. I'm worried about Yun er going out alone."

"What's the background of this Jianghai Academy?"

Lin Yi was confused. He did gather some information to deal with the Nanjiang King, but it didn't include the Jianghai Academy.

The Smoking Man interrupted and explained, ""That's the best academy in the area. The entry requirement for students is to be at the great circle of heaven-breaking, the place where the real geniuses gather. The ones on the list are mostly students of Jianghai Academy. "

"Then ... It doesn't seem that strong?" Lin Yi said after some thought.

"Pfft!"

The Smoking Man almost choked to death on his old cigarette. He pouted and said, ""Kid, don't think that someone like Lu mu can represent the level of the hidden Dragon rank. At most, he is just there to make up the numbers. Those who are really ranked at the top are all monsters. You can win without even seeing them."

Although he said that, it also confirmed Lin Yi's strength, tacitly placing him at the top of the hidden Dragon List.

The Smoking Man reminded Lin Yi when he saw him deep in thought. "You should have noticed it by now, the path to the great circle of heaven crushing is very long, it can't be finished so quickly."

After that, he turned around and left after saying goodbye to Wang Yuming and Tang Yun.

On the other hand, Tang Yin was forced to accept Lin Yi's offer to go to school with her after Wang Yuming's persuasion.

"This is just a formality, don't think too much! From now on, whether it's at home or at school, you can't appear within ten meters of me. It's best if you don't appear in my line of sight. Otherwise, I'll replace you no matter what price I have to pay. Do you understand?"

Tang Yin warned, glaring at Lin Yi.

"But what if the classroom isn't that big?" Lin Yi said helplessly, rubbing his nose.

Tang Yin choked, her face red as Lin Yi looked at her. "Then go and listen to the class outside the classroom!"

"I'm being punished to stand for no reason?"

Lin Yi chuckled.

"Since you're a bodyguard, shouldn't you be standing? Remember, stay away from me!"

Tang Yin's resistance to Lin Yi had gone far beyond the scope of normal understanding-she'd almost lose her composure just by talking to Lin Yi a little. After giving a stiff order, she pulled Wang shiqing away without saying a word.

"Don't worry, Lin Yi bro, I'll help you. "

Wang shiqing turned her head and mouthed to Lin Yi, and Lin Yi smiled at her.

This was an accident-if it weren't for Wang shiqing, he wouldn't have had the chance to meet Tang Yun. Now that the girl was obviously in love with Tang Yun, she could even put in a good word for him in the future.

After all was said and done, Wang shiqing was the luckiest person on this trip to the earth-class Sea area.

Nanjiang Royal Palace.

After reading the intelligence report, a murderous look flashed across Nanjiang King's eyes."That kid really managed to sneak in. It'll be a little troublesome if we want to touch him again."

One of his subordinates, who was dressed as a think tank, chuckled and said,"My Lord, you're overthinking. Although it's not easy to touch the Wang family, that's just a new dog. There are many ways to kill a dog. You don't have to do it in front of the owner."

"Oh? Tell me about it. "

Nanjiang King's interest was piqued. He didn't care much about Lin Yi at first, as it didn't matter if he died or not, but when he thought of you Cl 'er's face when she was fighting for Lin Yi, his killing intent instantly intensified.

There was an even more hidden intention-Lin Yi's aura made him wary, and it was a great humiliation. Killing Lin Yi was the most direct way to wash away this humiliation.

"The Wang family's young miss is entering Jianghai Academy, and hiring bodyguards is definitely a preparation for her entrance. We can't pull any cheap tricks in the Wang family, but once she's in Jianghai Academy, it'll be beyond their reach. After all, Jianghai Academy is a place of absolute neutrality, and it doesn't allow any external forces to interfere."

"Heh, those old fogeys in the Academy."

Nanjiang King sighed with a complicated expression. He had the right to speak in this aspect because he had once wanted to extend his hand into it. In the end, he had suffered a heavy loss and had a deep impression of it.

"We just need to find a reason to let Lin Yi die in the school, and house Wang won't blame us for it. Besides, if that really happened, would house Wang really be willing to go to war for a new dog, even if they didn't care about their reputation? Are the carnivores of the Wang family so innocent?"

The Grand Master waved his feather fan, exuding the air of a wise man.

"But we don't have many people in Jianghai Academy," Nanjiang King said.

"My Lord," the Grand Master laughed, "have you forgotten that your brother is also studying at Jianghai Academy? As far as I know, he's always been in love with the Wang family's young miss. As long as we provide him with some resources, with your brother's talent, wouldn't it be a piece of cake to play with a new servant?"

Nanjiang King hesitated for a moment before finally nodding. ""Alright, I'll let you handle this."

"Understood."

"But remember one thing, don't let Ziheng take any risks, especially don't let him be targeted by the Wang family. If necessary, we can bleed a little, or even cut off an arm, but he can't. Safety first,"

The Prince of Nanjiang was never long-winded, and he would only lose his composure when it came to Jiang Ziheng, his only living relative.

Chapter 9367

The advisor smiled and agreed. "My Lord, don't worry. Not only will second master not have to take any risks, but he might even be able to bring the beauty home and help my Lord."

"Let nature take its course,"

"The Wang family is like a burning oil now. If we really board such a big ship, it's hard to say whether it'll be a blessing or a curse."

In the blink of an eye, three days had passed.

Lin Yi and Wang shiqing followed behind Tang Yun, one on the left and one on the right. The only difference between the two was that the girl was holding hands with Tang Yun, while Lin Yi was ten meters behind her.

Lin Yi couldn't do anything about it-Tang Yin didn't even give him a chance to meet her, let alone talk to her. She only let him follow her from a distance after he came out of school, or she'd call the police if he got too close.

The only good news was that although Tang Yin had lost her memories, at least she was safe now.

"A guard at the great circle of heaven crushing ..."

Lin Yi looked at the group of guards at the front door, speechless. He was already shocked enough to see complete heaven-Sundering guards, and now they were going to go up another level. This school could only be described with one word-rich and inhumane.

The key was the aura of a few of the elite guards-Lin Yi felt that they were even stronger than him!

After a short but thorough inspection, the three passed. This alone raised Lin Yi's evaluation of the school to a whole new level.

Although the whole process was short, it was the first time he had seen such a comprehensive door inspection with his divine sense, the reflection of the array, and even the special array talisman. If there were no formal procedures, it would be as difficult as ascending to the sky for outsiders to sneak in.

At least, Lin Yi wasn't confident.

"A tuition fee of five hundred thousand spiritual jades a year is indeed extraordinary."

Wang shiqing exclaimed.

"And the city Lord's mansion has been providing financial aid for us. If we had to pay for it all on our own, the school fees would've been way more than this. It would've started at three million," Tang Yin smiled.

Wang shiqing stuck out her tongue and thought, how is this school? It's like snatching money to cut leeks. "

"Even so, there are still many people who want to be this leek, but they can't. Because the Academy's threshold is too high, those who haven't reached the great circle of heaven breaking don't even have the qualifications to register for admission."

Tang Yun couldn't help but think back to the time when the ancestor of the Wang family used a secret technique to enlighten her and forcefully raise her cultivation level to the heaven-Sundering Great Perfection. It was a heaven-defying move!

Speaking of which, this was also a poor portrayal of the Wang family's current predicament of having no successor.

After all, secret skills often came with a great price. Even with the strength of the Wang ancestor, using such an exaggerated enlightenment would hurt his vitality. If it were not for the situation, no matter how much he liked Tang Yun, he would not do such a thing at all costs.

"It's a good thing that I'm just a maidservant and not an official student. "

Wang shiqing rejoiced. According to the rules of the school, every student could bring a servant and listen with the master, but they didn't enjoy any benefits or authority of the school.

"It's a good thing I'm at the great circle of heaven-Sundering, or I wouldn't have been able to get in. "Lin Yi said, relieved.

The Wang family had arranged for him to be Tang Yin's bodyguard, but from the procedures, he was still a student of the Academy-this was a huge benefit to the Wang family.

It had to be said that as the legendary Wang Bancheng, the Wang family's heritage and spirit were not comparable to ordinary families.

Tang Yin glared at him, speechless, and Lin Yi understood immediately.

It's good that he can't enter.

At this moment, a gentle male voice suddenly came from the front, ""Tang Yin, you're here! Welcome!"

The three of them looked over and saw a young man with a cold aura but a rare hint of warmth. Lin Yi couldn't help but be surprised-his appearance and aura were 80% similar to the Nanjiang King he met a few days ago.

He was the younger brother of the king of Nanjiang, Jiang Ziheng.

"Senior Jiang." Tang Yin nodded.

Jiang Ziheng's eyes swept over her body in appreciation, and his gaze landed on Lin Yi's head, ""This is?"

Lin Yi blinked and didn't answer. He turned to Tang Yin.

Tang Yin replied unwillingly, "He's Lin Yi, a bodyguard my family arranged for me,"

Jiang Ziheng nodded. "As a bodyguard, he took the initiative to keep a distance from you. That's quite self-awareness. However, I still have to remind you to be careful with your words and actions in the Academy in the future. Otherwise, he won't be the only one embarrassed. At the same time, it's related to the face of the entire Wang family, including teacher Wang's face."

Lin Yi didn't say anything, but Wang Shiqing was pissed, "Of course my Lin Yi bro knows what to do and what not to do. Do I need an outsider like you to teach him a lesson? Are you close to us?"

Jiang Ziheng replied with a smile, "the Emperor and I are half teachers. The Wang family and my brother Jiang Long have a close relationship. The two families are on good terms. What's wrong with me being concerned about the Wang family's honor?"

The teacher Wang He was talking about was the Wang family's ancestor, who had sacrificed himself to enlighten Tang Yun.

"Jiang Long?" Lin Yi's eyes twitched. You're the brother of Nanjiang King?"

"Don't worry, I've never gotten involved in my brother's business. As long as you're a good bodyguard for Tang Yin, I'll keep you safe! But remember, you have to know your place. "

The warning in Jiang Ziheng's words was obvious.

"What do you mean by" know your place "?" Lin Yi raised a brow.

"You don't understand?" Jiang Ziheng asked indifferently. What doesn't belong to you will never be yours. Don't have any improper thoughts. This way, you can live a more relaxed life. At least, you won't attract any unexpected disasters for no reason. "

"What if I don't want to know my place?"

"Then there will be someone to help you know your place."

This threat that reeked of gunpowder came out of Jiang Ziheng's mouth. It seemed unusually light and breezy, as if it was an undefeatable truth.

He didn't look at Lin Yi anymore and turned to Tang Yun, "Junior Tang Yun, as the heir of the Wang family, making talismans is your major. Joining the talisman society is a must. Come find me as soon as you're done with the admission."

"You?" Tang Yin asked, confused.

Jiang Ziheng laughed. "Junior, you may not know this, but from this semester onwards, I've officially taken over as the president of the talisman society. I'm here to represent the society and welcome you, junior Tang Yun."

"Then I must really congratulate you, senior."

Tang Yun was shocked. Wang shiqing whispered, ""What's a talisman society? Does it have anything to do with making talismans?"

Jiang Ziheng answered on her behalf, "one of Jianghai Academy's unique features is that we encourage our students to study on their own. As such, we've established many professional societies. The talisman society is one of the oldest and is recognized by the entire school as a veteran society. We hold a recruitment event every year, but not just anyone can get in. Only those with extremely high attainments in talismans and arrays have the chance to pass the recruitment test."

Chapter 9368

After a pause, Jiang Ziheng specially added, "Of course, with the Wang family's Foundation in talismans, Tang Yun doesn't need to take the test. As the president, I can directly take her in without having to take the test,"

"You're pretty good, aren't you?" Wang shiqing was immediately filled with respect.

The other party was speechless for a long time.

Tang Yun was embarrassed. She had never touched talismans before, let alone making them. Even when she was in the Wang family, she was mainly adapting to her realm after the Enlightenment.

She didn't know anything about talisman-making, but she was still far from the real beginner level. Wang shiqing alone could crush her in all aspects.

That was why she was so close to Wang shiqing, partly because they had a good impression of each other, and partly because she treated the knowledgeable girl as her first teacher.

Jiang Ziheng tried to smooth things over. "With Tang Yun's family background, joining the club is only the first step. I've already planned everything for you. You'll be the Vice President in half a year, and I'll be the president in a year. With my help, all the members will be tied to the Wang family's war chariot. I believe Master Wang will be very pleased."

Tang Yin shook her head, "I don't think we should be the president." I'm not good enough. "

"No, it's definitely you."

Jiang Ziheng was full of confidence, acting like an overbearing CEO. "I have the final say in the talisman making society. Come, I'll send you to the new student dormitory."

He led the way, not giving Tang Yun a chance to reject.

As they walked, the passing students all saluted Lin Yi and his group with their eyes, but of course, Lin Yi wasn't the one who was attracting attention.

Tang Yun's beauty and her background as the Miss of the Wang family made her the center of attention. It was only natural for a man to take a second look at her, unless he had a problem with his sexual orientation.

As for the girls on the road, they were more concerned about Jiang Ziheng.

This newly appointed President of the talisman making society was clearly an influential figure in the school. Not only did he have an outstanding appearance and temperament, but he also had a strong backer like the Nanjiang King. More importantly, he was indeed impressive.

Although clubs were spontaneously organized by students, they were guaranteed by the Academy's all-round resources, and their value was higher than any other Guild of the same trade outside the school.

The president of any club in Jianghai Academy was definitely the cream of the crop. He was definitely in the top ten of the hidden Dragon Roll!

As for Jiang Ziheng, he had only been in school for a year!

The speed at which he rose to the top was so fast that he refreshed Jianghai Academy's history. It was no exaggeration to say that he was destined to be recorded in the school's history as a man of the hour.

"What a golden couple. Damn, there's no more chance."

A group of Boys on the Side of the road looked at Jiang Ziheng and Tang Yun walking side by side and wept silently.

However, not everyone was willing to give up. Some of them went to Lin Yi and gave him a spirit Jade card, "Bro, you're Tang Yin's bodyguard, right? There's 50000 spiritual jades in the card, keep it well. "

"What's this for?" Lin Yi blinked.

"Don't think it's too little. 50000 is just an advance payment. As long as you can get me some information about your lady, or create a suitable opportunity for me, I'll make sure you live a good life."

It was a man in a warrior's uniform. He patted Lin Yi's shoulder and quickly left.

Looking at the spirit Jade card in his hand, Lin Yi didn't know whether to laugh or cry. Jianghai Academy was indeed a good place-he didn't even do anything after just entering the school, and he'd already gotten fifty thousand spirit Jade.

"Shameless!"

Tang Yin glared at Lin Yi, not even bothering to hide her disgust.

Lin Yi couldn't help but be surprised. Tang Yin May be at the great circle of heaven-crushing, but she was still a fake who had achieved it quickly. The guy in the samurai suit didn't just lower his voice, he even set up a barrier around her. Tang Yin shouldn't be able to hear him.

Unless someone had broken through the barrier and deliberately synchronized their voices with his.

There was no need to guess. This person must be Jiang Ziheng, who was in front of them without making a sound.

This brother had some skills!

Lin Yi smiled, but didn't explain himself as Jiang Ziheng expected. Instead, he put the spirit Jade card away in front of Tang Yun.

"Hey, what do you mean?" Tang Yin was pissed. So What if I do owe you money? You actually dare to accept this kind of spirit Jade, and in front of me?"

Jiang Ziheng took the opportunity to add salt to the wound. "A traitor. Junior Tang Yun, there's a problem with your bodyguard. Get rid of him. I'll find you a reliable one."

Tang Yun was speechless.

She wanted Lin Yi to leave, but she didn't have any authority over him. It was her mother, Wang Yuming, who had the final say. Otherwise, why would Lin Yi follow her here?

"Sowing discord, your senior doesn't seem to be very good,"

Wang shiqing helped Lin Yi fight back.

Jiang Ziheng couldn't help but choke, but it was a pity that he couldn't get angry in front of a little girl, so he could only patiently say, "I'm just stating the facts and don't mean anything else. Little girl, don't go overboard. No matter what, he can't wash away the fact that he accepted spiritual jades, right? Is it too much for me to say that he's a traitor?"

Lin Yi, on the other hand, was calm, ""As a bodyguard, I have to prioritize my employer's safety. If I don't accept his spiritual Jade card, I can't guarantee that he won't have other ideas. Rather than that, I might as well accept it and save myself from being beaten up unexpectedly. Is there a problem?"

Jiang Ziheng choked again and looked at Lin Yi again. "Who can guarantee that you're doing this for Tang Yin and not for your own selfish desires? Can you prove your innocence?"

One sentence put Lin Yi in a difficult position.

It was extremely difficult to prove one's innocence, and even if they did, they'd have to pay a huge price. From Lin Yi's point of view, he'd lose no matter what he did.

The smart Wang shiqing naturally understood that this was a trap and was about to defend Lin Yi when he stopped her, "I don't think I need to prove my innocence to you, right?"

Jiang Ziheng laughed. "You don't have to do that to me, but you have to be responsible for junior Tang Yun, right? how do you explain that?"

Lin Yi didn't say anything and turned to Tang Yin.

Jiang Ziheng laughed in his heart. With Tang Yun's extreme disgust for this person, she would definitely agree.

But Tang Yin shook her head. "Forget it, I'll be more careful next time."

Jiang Ziheng was stunned, "you're letting Tang Yun off so easily?" Don't you want to teach him?"

"What's there to discipline?" Tang Yin asked, confused. It's indeed annoying that he took someone's spirit Jade without permission, but what he said isn't completely unreasonable. We can't convict him for something he didn't do, right?"

"Junior's words are reasonable. "

Jiang Ziheng could only agree with a smile.

Chapter 9369

Lin Yi couldn't help but laugh. He was so sure because he knew what kind of person Tang Yin was.

It was true that Tang Yun didn't know why she hated him so much now. She used to like him, but that didn't change her nature.

Tang Yin was a righteous person. She had her own likes and dislikes, and her temper, but she would never turn black into white. She would even speak up for justice, and that was what made her so cute.

However, Tang Yin's tone immediately changed as she turned to Lin Yi with a cold face. "Don't think that you can do whatever you want just because of this. As long as I find anything out of line, I'll ask my mother to fire you, absolutely!"

"Yes, yes. You're the boss. You have the final say."

Lin Yi raised his hands to show his cooperation, but it became a frivolous act in Tang Yin's eyes, and she snorted coldly.

Nothing was said along the way.

Jiang Ziheng personally sent Tang Yun to the entrance of the female dormitory, but he was forced to stop. He had no choice. The school rules were like this. No matter how famous he was in the school, he couldn't resist the cold gaze of the Auntie sitting at the dormitory door.

Lin Yi couldn't even tell what realm this woman was at, not even with his eyes ...

Wang shiqing naturally stayed with Tang Yun, while Lin Yi could only move to the male student's block on the other side of the dorm.

Lin Yi couldn't help but sigh as he looked at the rows of dormitory buildings. It'd been a long time since he'd had school life.

Although he had often visited various schools on the sub-Island, to be honest, it was very different from the school life in the secular world. Moreover, he had not been a student.

It was only now that he was in a school and living in the dormitory-it was no different from a school in the common world, and the familiar feeling really did make Lin Yi excited.

The only problem was that the dormitory building was in bad shape, worse than any dormitory Lin Yi had ever seen!

Not only was the exterior old, but the facilities inside were also unbearably disdainful. There was no separate bathroom, no separate bathroom, and these were not important. After all, after reaching the great circle of heaven breaking, these things were not important.

More importantly, it was a F * cking six-person room, and it was bunk beds!

To be honest, in this day and age, let alone such a high-level cultivator college, even in ordinary schools, it was rare to see a six-person room. To let a group of heaven crushing perfection experts sleep in the upper and lower bunks, the scene was strange just thinking about it.

However, this was the weird reality.

"213 ? This room number is ridiculous ..."

Lin Yi grumbled as he finished checking in. When he opened the door, he saw that there was already a roommate.

"Hello, I'm Shen Yifan." His roommate smiled and reached out his hand.

"Lin Yi,"

Lin Yi shook his hand and asked, "Brother Shen, are you a local of Jianghai?"

Shen Yifan adjusted his glasses and raised his eyebrows. "How do you know? I don't think I have a local accent just now, right?"

"No, I'm just guessing. Perhaps it's because of the city's natural aura. The people from Jianghai always give off a shrewd vibe. You fit the description."

Lin Yi said with a smile.

Shen Yifan laughed when he heard that and said, 'shrewdness in the air? Was this a good word or a bad one? Alright, I'm indeed a local. The others seem to be a little late. Shall we go out and have a meal first?'

"Sure, you find a place."

Lin Yi glanced at his phone and saw no messages.

One more thing, the connection between this place and the secular world was much closer than anywhere else on Sky Class Island. All kinds of high-tech smart products could be found here, and although smartphones weren't as common as the secular world, it was still something that everyone with a bit of wealth could have.

As Tang Yin's personal bodyguard, he had to make sure that Tang Yin was safe, but she didn't want to cooperate.

Luckily, he had Wang shiqing as a spy, so Lin Yi would know if Tang Yun left the house.

Shen Yifan led the way, and the two of them arrived at the canteen.

Lin Yi couldn't help but smile as he looked at the luxurious interior of the canteen, which was comparable to the Wang family's. "Why do I feel like I'm being discriminated against? This school is good everywhere except for our dormitory. It's like the treatment of the slums. "

Shen Yifan laughed. "It's an old tradition of Jianghai Academy to show off our might. Just endure it for the first year and change dormitories."

"Alright, I'll just take it as remembering the bittersweet."

Lin Yi laughed. He didn't care about these things, and if he really didn't feel comfortable, he still had the nine-story Pagoda to hide from.

"I'm the host, so this meal is on me. "

Shen Yifan suggested.

Lin Yi agreed without hesitation. "Alright, it's my turn for the next meal."

The two arrived at the canteen window, and even Lin Yi jumped at the price. "It's so F * cking expensive!"

It was true that the dishes that could appear here were not ordinary dishes. They were all cooked with all kinds of natural treasures, and even for those at the great circle of heaven breaking, they were greatly beneficial.

However, a bowl of fried rice was priced at 8000 spiritual jade pieces. Was this really not a scam?

According to the price, the 50000 spiritual Jade that Lin Yi had just received was only the price of a normal meal-it wasn't even a Grand meal.

"This is a price for outsiders. It's purely used to rip people off. It's much more normal if we use the school's academic credits. A big meal will only cost one or two academic credits at most."

Shen Yifan ordered as he explained.

"Points?" Lin Yi asked, surprised. To buy food?"

He knew about the credits. The universities in the secular world generally had a credit system. How many credits could one have to complete before they could graduate? moreover, they had to pay for the cost of the credits. But could these things be used to buy things?

"You haven't collected your credit card yet?"

Only then did Shen Yifan come to his senses."To put it simply, credits are the most hard currency in our college. From buying classes to buying ordinary daily necessities, as long as it's within the college, there's nothing you can't buy."

"Then wouldn't it be useless in the Academy?" Lin Yi asked.

"You can put it that way. If you don't want to be treated as a spendthrift and get ripped off, the greatest use of spiritual Jade here is to buy academic credits. The current official price should be 10000 spiritual Jade per academic credit. The black market price might be a little cheaper, but it's at least 8000 or more."

Shen Yifan paused for a moment before adding, "Oh right, there are benefits for new students. The Academy will transfer 100 free academic points to each new student's account."

"That's a really big deal. "

Ten thousand for one academic point-a hundred points would be a million. It wasn't a small number, especially since there weren't just one or two new students. As far as Lin Yi knew, there were around three thousand new students in each batch.

In other words, just the academic points that the school had given to the new students were worth three billion spiritual jade pieces. This amount was enough to empty out more than 90% of the so-called great families in Jianghai.

Chapter 9370

"What if you use up all 100 points?" Lin Yi asked.

"There are two ways. One is to spend spiritual Jade to buy it. However, as far as I know, there are many restrictions. You can't buy it just because you want to. The rest is to do the school missions issued by the school. Other inter-school competitions will also reward you with academic points, but this requirement is higher. Other than those famous people, ordinary students are not qualified to compete for it."

Shen Yifan adjusted his glasses and said seriously, ""In short, without points, it will be difficult for you to move forward in the Academy, so don't waste it. Also, if you run into a deficit in points, you will be forced to drop out of the Academy. There are many unlucky people like this every year."

While they were talking, Shen Yifan had already ordered the dishes and was about to pay the bill. At this time, he suddenly saw a canteen staff bring out a new dish.

Even through the lid, he could smell the fragrance that seemed to sublimate his soul.

"Golden Buddha Jumps Over the Wall!"

Shen Yifan's eyes lit up, and he quickly added, ""How many points is this? I'm taking it!"

At the same time, another rough voice came from the side, ""Get up! This is mine!"

Following the voice was a broad bald man. There were three other people who appeared together with him, and they were obviously not freshmen.

"Mad Dog King?"

When the surrounding people saw the bald man, their expressions changed and they quickly retreated.

With Jianghai Academy's position, it was inevitable for geniuses to gather, but at the same time, it was also a gathering of weirdos. As long as one had the strength and talent, they would be able to enter, and there were all sorts of eccentric and problematic students everywhere.

This bald man, also known as Mad Dog King, was Wang Gou, a typical example of problematic second-year students.

Shen Yifan was slightly startled when he saw the other party approaching him aggressively, but he immediately returned to normal. "I'm sorry, senior. First come, first served. "

The Royal Hound glanced at him disdainfully, "hehe, first come, first served?" As expected, there are such naive fools everywhere. This world is still too sissy. "

As he spoke, the other three 2nd-year students behind him had already surrounded him, ready to draw their swords.

"As your senior, I'll be merciful and teach you one thing today. There's no first come, first served in this world. Only the strong will win!"

The Royal Hound walked to a spot less than ten centimeters away from Shen Yifan. It looked at him intently and snapped its fingers at the canteen uncle. "Give it to me, "

At the same time, Lin Yi's voice came from the other side, "To go, thank you. "

The group turned around and saw Lin Yi taking out his spiritual Jade card and swiping fifty thousand spiritual Jade into it-exactly the price of the Golden Buddha Jumps Over the Wall soup.

For a moment, the scene was strangely silent for a few seconds.

The canteen uncle was obviously used to the world-he didn't even care about the murderous look in the Royal dog's eyes as he passed the Golden "Buddha Jumps Over the Wall" package to Lin Yi.

Lin Yi weighed it in his hand and extended an invitation to Shen Yifan, "Isn't this dish rare? Let's eat together. "

At that moment, Shen Yifan looked at this guy as if he was looking at a God. He finally smiled and said, ""Alright, then I won't stand on ceremony."

However, things were not that easy. The title of King Hound Mad Dog King was not given to him by others, but by him. Even when he was facing a powerful senior student, he could bite them until they knelt and begged for mercy, not to mention two new students.

Shen Yifan was stopped by force, and the king Hound walked up to Lin Yi with an evil smile on his face."Brat, you're very arrogant. It's always been me snatching other people's share. I didn't expect that there would be a day when I would be snatching from others. Do you really think it's so easy to snatch the meat in my mouth?"

Lin Yi blinked. "Brother, please mind your words. You're making me lose my appetite. If it's really something you've had in your mouth before, it wouldn't be worth fifty thousand spiritual Jade."

"Ha?"

Wang Quan was stunned for a moment and then flew into a rage, ""Don't tell me you think that the school is an ivory tower that no one would dare to touch you?"

Just as he was about to lose his temper, two senior students wearing red armbands on their left arms suddenly appeared in front of him. "What are you guys doing? School hasn't even started and you already want to cause trouble?"

"Disciplinary Committee!"

The Royal dog and the others' eyelids twitched, and they quickly shook their heads in denial. ""No, no. We're old friends. You're just joking, right?"

She even put her hand on Lin Yi's shoulder as if they knew each other very well, and the other three followed suit, putting their arms around Shen Yifan's shoulders.

"Is that so?"

The senior turned to Lin Yi, who was about to answer when Shen Yifan sent him a message through his divine sense. "The Disciplinary Committee is the organization that you can't afford to provoke in the school. You must not have any connection with them. Otherwise, it will be very troublesome in the future if they are filed."

Lin Yi nodded, his face unchanged. "It's been a long time since we last met. They might have been too excited. "

"It's best not to cause any trouble. "

The two from the Disciplinary Committee stared at Lin Yi for two seconds before leaving.

Wang Gou and the others only let out a breath of relief after the two disappeared out of the canteen. They glared at Lin Yi, half feeling lucky and half scared.

"You're smart. Alright, since you're cooperative, hand over the Golden Buddha Jumps Over the Wall to me, and I'll let you off today."

The king Hound said as he reached out for the lunchbox.

"It's good that you're letting me go, but I didn't say I'd let you go, did I?" Lin Yi smiled.

"You F * cking ..."

The Royal Hound was about to fly into a rage when its primordial spirit suddenly shook for no reason. Then, it felt dizzy and lost consciousness.

When he woke up, he was shocked to find that he was no longer in the cafeteria. He had been thrown into the trash together with the other three, and his body was covered in a foul stench.

"W-what's going on?!"

The Royal Hound could not help but be shocked and angry. As the representative of the problematic second-year students, his strength was beyond doubt. Among all the second-year students, he was at least in the top five if not the top three. How could he be defeated by a rookie freshman?

More importantly, from the beginning to the end, he didn't even know how he was defeated.

Not only the King dog, but the other three were also dumbfounded.

On the other hand, Lin Yi and Shen Yifan found a quiet place and started drinking wine around the fragrant Golden Buddha Jumps Over the Wall soup.

"Old Lin, you're a real person. You took down the Mad Dog King and the others just like that. You gave me a fright!"

Shen Yifan exclaimed as he poured Lin Yi a glass of wine.

Lin Yi was also sizing up his new roommate. "Same to you. Old Shen, you are not slower than me. Let's not talk about second brother."

Logically speaking, the shock of his divine sense just now could indeed make the king Hound and the others dizzy for a moment, but it was only for a moment.
