

Bodyguard 9711

Chapter 9711-

"If only I was a bit stronger."

Lin Yi couldn't help but sigh-if he had Banshi Luo's level of strength, he wouldn't have to worry about this at all. As long as it wasn't a fundamental conflict of mission, any other party would have to take care of his interests.

On the other hand, Lin Yi's strength was still considered first class, and he wouldn't fight to his death unless it was absolutely necessary, but there was still the risk of being schemed against. At most, he would just turn the scheme from the surface to the surface, that's all.

At least one thing was for sure. In the eyes of the King of Qin, who was deeply immersed in his role, he was just a chess piece.

Lin Yi took a deep breath. It'd been a long time since he'd felt like he couldn't control his own fate.

Even in Jianghai college, be it the Council or the repeaters, they were all Masters. Lin Yi's strength wasn't outstanding in comparison, but at least there was a basic order. Even in the repeating school, which was known as the land of no king, there was a basic order, not to mention that she had Banshi Luo behind her.

It was dangerous, but at least it was Lin Yi's own choice.

Unlike now, where he had become the fulcrum of all parties and could be swept away by the general trend at any time, the feeling of having no control over his own body was everywhere.

Naturally, Lin Yi wasn't someone who would just wait for his death. If things continued like this, who could guarantee that Qin Wang wouldn't burn the bridge after he'd outlived his usefulness?

Therefore, he had to take the initiative to break out of this situation and grasp more initiative!

"I need a suitable opportunity."

What Lin Yi didn't expect was that the opportunity came faster than he expected. He'd just returned home from the Xianyang Palace when he saw Dong que.

Lin Yi couldn't help but smile at the worried look on Dong que's face. "Sir, did you come back because you found your conscience and came back to collect my corpse?"

"You're joking, you're joking. "

Dong que was embarrassed. Although it was a rule of conduct in the world of cultivators to kill a fellow cultivator, it was still a bit wrong to put it on the table, not to mention that he had a favor to ask of Lin Yi.

Lin Yi wasn't one to dwell on things like this-he cut straight to the point, "I've already mentioned to the King of Qin that the Yan Kingdom wants to submit. He has also expressed his willingness to accept it. You can take action now. Of course, you must show enough sincerity. After all, the King of Qin is a mighty Lord of a generation. He is not so easy to fool."

"Good, you're indeed a good friend!"

Hearing this, Dong que was overjoyed, but then he was embarrassed,""But now I need your help with something. It's related to the sincerity of our Yan Kingdom to the King of Qin,"

"What sincerity?" Lin Yi blinked.

"Fan Yuqi has betrayed us," Dong que said helplessly."He has already escaped to Xianyang. It seems like he's prepared to seek refuge with the King of Qin."

"....."

Lin Yi spat out old time tea.

What kind of person was Fan Yuqi? If he didn't go through the entire process of Jing Ke's assassination in detail, Lin Yi wouldn't have been able to recall it in a short time.

This person was originally a general of the Qin State. He should have participated in the rebellion of Xuanji and failed, so he fled to the Qin State to escape punishment. In history, the Crown Prince of Yan forced him to die in order to facilitate the killing plan, using his head to express his sincerity to the King of Qin.

Logically speaking, the Yan Kingdom would never let such an important figure escape. Even if Fan Yuqi wanted to escape, he wouldn't take the initiative to escape to the Qin Kingdom. One must know that the Qin Kingdom was famous for its cruel punishment. It wasn't like Fan Yuqi would seek his own death.

But thinking about it carefully, if Fan Yuqi was a cultivator in disguise, then it wasn't so hard to understand why he did this.

This person's situation was the same as Lin Yi's Meng Jia, destined to be an extremely awkward situation, or even worse than Lin Yi's. At least Meng Jia still had a lot of value before the death trap was set up, and he still had room to manipulate things.

But Fan Yuqi's only value was the head on his neck. He didn't even have the right to say no.

Therefore, from his point of view, betraying and escaping was the only option. As for the destination of betraying, of course, he could choose other places, but as an Assassin's baptism, there shouldn't be such a free option. The more relaxed and happy it looked, the more dangerous it would be behind it.

Perhaps there would be a mechanical God advent, and an old monster from the Yan Kingdom would appear and chase him for thousands of miles.

Even if it was Lin Yi, as long as the mission wasn't to kill the king of Qin, he would most likely choose to join the Qin. After all, this was the only place that the Yan camp couldn't easily get their hands on. If the King of Qin was a practitioner, as long as the interests of both sides were the same, they might accept him.

"Once Fan Yuqi is captured and accepted by the Qin state's military, things will become troublesome," Dong que said angrily. "Without his head, we won't be able to gather the sincerity that the King of Qin wants. At that time, it'll be difficult to set up a killing trap."

"You didn't come here to ask me to help you catch him, did you?" Lin Yi looked at him indifferently.

"Your Excellency is a straightforward person, you hit the nail on the head!"

Dong que nodded his head honestly. It was obvious that he was treating Lin Yi as a Grasshopper on the same rope. After all, the evidence of Meng Jia's dark history was in his hands. It could be said that Lin Yi's entire life was in his hands.

Lin Yi looked at him like he was an idiot, "Do I look that stupid?"

If it was before, as long as Lin Yi didn't want to give up, there was a high chance that he'd be pinched by the nose by the other party. Unfortunately, he'd already reached a tacit agreement with the king himself.

As long as he was of value to the King of Qin, he would turn a blind eye to murder and arson, let alone corruption and bribery. If the other party wanted to use this against him, he had made a mistake.

Plus, this was something that came from his identity as Meng Jia, it had nothing to do with Lin Yi at all!

Just like the famous saying, "Wan Wan, the one you want to catch is Lu Xun," what does it have to do with me, Zhou Shu Ren?

Seeing Lin Yi's reaction, Dong que couldn't help but to threaten, "Your Excellency, you have to think carefully. Helping us is actually helping yourself. If we really fail at the last step, it will definitely not be a good thing for you. After all, we are people on the same boat!"

"Oh, really? Did I say I wanted to board your ship?"

Lin Yi's eyes turned cold, and the air around him turned ten degrees colder. It was as if he was being stared at by a giant beast. Dong que's eyes flashed, and he subconsciously wanted to run away.

He'd thought that Lin Yi was only able to survive the two men's assassination because he was lucky enough to make it to the patrol team's arrival, but he finally realized what was going on.

It turned out that the person in front of him was the fierce person who was pretending to be a pig to eat a Tiger!

However, even though Dong que was feeling guilty, there were no weaklings among those who could participate in the Assassin's baptism. He immediately adjusted his attitude.

"I'm sorry, I used the wrong words. What I meant was that since we've already reached a tacit agreement, we naturally have to stick to it. This is good for both you and me. Capturing Fan Yuqi is not only important for us, but also for you, Sir, right?"

Lin Yi couldn't help but think more highly of this guy-he wasn't someone to be messed with, after all.

Chapter 9712 Power

Regardless of whether they cooperated or not, the most important thing was to successfully facilitate the final assassination. However, from the perspective of the King of Qin, even if the other party did not have enough "sincerity," he might not cancel the meeting.

However, the more a trap was set, the more it had to be arranged flawlessly and logically, without leaving the slightest bit of disharmony.

What was interesting about this was that both sides were working together, but they had to make each other fall into the trap step by step, and Lin Yi, who was in the middle, had unknowingly become the key to all of this.

"What do you guys want to do?" Lin Yi raised a brow. I'll say the ugly words first, but if you want me to personally help you catch him, then don't open your mouth. "

"There's no need for that. "

Dong que quickly said, "in fact, we have already sent an assassination team. But after all, Xianyang is an important place of the military country. The patrol team is everywhere. Once they act without permission, it will easily cause trouble. Moreover, you are a popular person in front of the King of Qin. If you come out and cover for us, the trouble will be much smaller."

Lin Yi thought for a moment before finally nodding.

Dong que immediately brought Lin Yi to a secret stronghold in Xianyang City. It was quite a big stronghold. Now that the Qin State was about to swallow the whole world, it was not strange for the Yan state to have a stronghold in the city, and it was likely that they had more than one.

However, Lin Yi was locked on by a killing intent the moment he stepped in.

"Could it be a trap? The so-called Fan Yuqi's betrayal was just a cover, and the other party's purpose was just to trick him in and kill him? But what are these people from the Yan Kingdom after?"

A series of thoughts flashed through his mind, but Lin Yi's body moved on instinct. At his level, normal sneak attacks were useless. He wasn't as strong as the King of the Dead, but he wasn't far from it.

A terrifying, pitch-black blade light streaked across the air towards Lin Yi, who had transformed into a Titan Buddha in an instant. However, Lin Yi loosened his grip and caught the blade with his bare hand, blocking the black blade light with one palm.

But before he could relax, the blade light that had been suppressed suddenly bloomed again, and this time it was directly drawn out from Lin Yi's body.

So strong!

Lin Yi was a little surprised-so the disappearance of the blade light was just a smokescreen! The real danger was when the blade light broke into pieces and entered his body!

All the defenses were only for the outside. Even at Lin Yi's level, it was almost impossible to defend against the reverse attack from the inside. In an instant, the Titan Buddha was submerged in the black blade light and turned into a ball of powder.

"Are you crazy?"

Dong que was completely dumbfounded. The heavens pitied him-he really did ask Lin Yi for help, and Fan Yu Qi had indeed defected to Xianyang. Who would've thought that a lunatic from his family would attack Lin Yi without permission, and even kill him with a single blade?

It was F * cking ridiculous!

However, the attacker didn't care about him at all. His figure flashed and appeared 100 meters away. He slashed at the void again, and the whole world darkened for a moment.

Then, the space shattered like a mirror, revealing a real world and an undamaged Lin Yi.

Lin Yi's heart was in a state of shock as he looked at the black-robed figure from afar.

It wasn't like there weren't any Masters who could see through the mirror's illusions-as far as Lin Yi knew, it wasn't just the professional illusion Masters, Banshi Luo, Xiang Yusheng, and the others could do it as well. But this guy just used a knife to break through it-it completely overturned Lin Yi's understanding.

Lin Yi didn't even have time to react as the enemy appeared above his head in the next second. The black blade light that made his scalp numb came down again!

Lin Yi wanted to use the impermanent steps to avoid it, but he decided to take it head on instead.

The golden light and the saber radiance collided. After a moment of stalemate, they were still no match for each other and quickly dimmed. However, a surprised cry came from the opposite side.

Under the flow of the power of time, the golden light immediately became strong again and covered the saber ray. Under the pressure of the darkness that covered the sky, it forcibly created a sky.

"It's alright, not too weak,"

Lin Yi felt as if he had been struck by lightning when his opponent suddenly stopped attacking. He couldn't believe what he was seeing.

Seeing this, Dong que quickly came over and said with an apologetic face, ""I'm really sorry, this one of us is a martial arts fanatic. Seeing that you are a rare master, he was tempted to test you. This is all his personal whim, it has nothing to do with us, please don't take it to heart. "

He'd really be crying if Lin Yi flipped out on the spot.

The key point was that he knew that he was no match for the black-robed madman. If he were to make him unhappy and the other party backhanded him with a knife, this day next year would be his death anniversary.

Lin Yi came back to his senses and suppressed his emotions, "It's nothing. I've done this kind of thing a lot, so I can understand."

"That's good, that's good. "

Dong que heaved a sigh of relief. Afraid of causing more trouble, he quickly went to the main topic, ""Let's not waste any time. Let's get started. According to the tip-off, Fan Yuqi is now hiding in the slums of the city. People come and go there, and it's difficult for outsiders to find him as long as he disguises himself. But the good news is that there aren't many patrols in and out, which is convenient for us to take action."

Lin Yi understood-the guy had obviously made all sorts of preparations, and was only looking for him to buy an extra insurance.

The group of people immediately began to move.

Although there weren't many people participating-less than ten people including Lin Yi-they were all elites handpicked from all over the Assassin's baptism. Other than a freak like Lin Yi, they were all at least big shots at the peak of the late stage of the complete realm. Once they worked together, the pressure was enough to make anyone's heart jump.

The area of the slum in Xianyang was not small, but it was not big for a group of magnates at the consummate level.

The cultivator who played Fan Yu Qi was obviously an expert in concealment. Although he wasn't as unfathomable as ye Zhi Wei, he couldn't be easily discovered when he was hidden in a crowd. Even the usual spiritual awareness search was useless.

The man's aura was no different from a normal person 's-even Lin Yi wouldn't be able to tell the difference, let alone a normal practitioner.

But with the experience of dealing with ye Zhiwei, Lin Yi wasn't completely helpless against a target like this. He was just here to clean up after someone else, after all, and there was no need for him to be so enthusiastic.

The only person Lin Yi cared about right now was the mysterious man in the black robe.

The person didn't make any eye contact or talk to Lin Yi at all, and the black robe had the effect of blocking divine sense, making it impossible for people to see the person's true face, even if it was a man or a woman.

Chapter 9713

Lin Yi, however, had already guessed the man's identity.

"Ten thousand spirits exploring the sea, go!"

On the other side, Dong que had taken action personally. Along with his voice, countless wandering soul-like transparent spirits scattered from under his hand. At first glance, it was quite similar to the fallen Dragon's death and decay. However, the number was similar. The threat of a single wandering soul was far less than that of the fallen Dragon's dead souls.

The fallen Dragon was an existence that came from the netherworld. It was the combination of the evildest and most poisonous resentment. On the other hand, Dong que's spiritual body was essentially just a spiritual body that was transformed from true Qi. Moreover, in order to maintain the quantity, he deliberately weakened the quality. It would affect ordinary people, but to high-level cultivators, it would at most cause them to shiver.

However, it's pretty good for scouting.

Fan Yuqi obviously didn't expect this and his position was quickly locked on. The experts of the Yan camp immediately surrounded him from all directions. Their attacks were merciless. After all, their goal was very clear. They wanted to die.

Lin Yi's eyelids twitched. With his current strength, one or two big shots at the peak of late stage of perfection were nothing to him, but when there were two digits of them, the power was still quite shocking.

Even Lin Yi wouldn't be able to take it if he was in her place.

"Aren't you afraid of dying without a complete corpse?"

Lin Yi speechlessly said, and Dong que chuckled at that. "Don't worry, we have an expert on corpse restoration here. Even if it's broken into pieces, we can put it back together. It'll be as beautiful as life!"

What F * cking life-like?

As he spoke, Lin Yi's attention was focused on the mysterious black-robed man. There was no doubt that this person was the strongest of the group, but he just stood by with his sword in his hands, not intending to attack at all.

But if Fan Yuqi really ran over to him, Lin Yi could only mourn for him. It was obviously a trap.

In the end, after a round of attacks, Fan Yuqi didn't escape to the mysterious man, nor did he die. Instead, he left behind an extremely ridiculous human-shaped doll.

"The Golden Cicada has left its shell! We've been played!"

Dong que's face instantly turned as black as the bottom of a pot. He was sure that the other party was still there just now. It was only when the attack landed that he turned into a doll.

Lin Yi had a playful expression on his face as well-the Golden Cicada shell shedding technique had the special qualities of space ability, a simplified version of space ability. It was quite something.

However, this way, everyone completely lost track of the other party.

"Although it's hard to determine the range of the cicada's escape, it can't exceed 30 miles at most. Moreover, since that guy came to seek refuge with the King of Qin, he won't leave Xianyang City so easily!"

Dong que quickly made a judgment, but then his face changed. He had made too much noise just now. The patrol team was here!

In this world created by the obsessions of the ancient people, all the cultivators who participated in the baptism had spontaneously formed a unified understanding, which was that the patrol team must not be provoked. Once provoked, it was equivalent to going against the fundamental rules of this world, and the end would definitely not be good.

"My identity is sensitive, so I can't show up. I can only leave it to you to deal with it."

Dong que could only look at Lin Yi. At this time, no matter how strong he was, it was not as useful as Lin Yi's identity. After all, Lin Yi was the favorite subject of the king.

Lin Yi nodded. "You guys retreat first. If you see anyone, just tell them there's a thief in my house. We're trying to catch him."

"Alright, to ensure your safety, I'll let Mr. Gao follow you."

The Mr. Gao Dong que was referring to was the mysterious black-robed man who had just attacked Lin Yi.

The protection was fake, the real thing was that he was there to supervise Lin Yi. The only person who could pose a threat to Lin Yi in a 1v1 was this mysterious Mr. Gao.

But this was what Lin Yi wanted. "Then let's split up,"

Dong que then led the group of Masters from the Yan camp and scattered in all directions, while Lin Yi took the initiative to meet the patrol who followed the sound.

One had to admit that being the king's favorite subject was indeed useful-the patrol was respectful the moment they saw Lin Yi, and they were sent away easily without a word.

"What do you say next?"

Lin Yi turned to ask the mysterious black-robed man, but the man didn't say anything. He just turned around and ran out of the city. Lin Yi got the message and used the impermanent steps to follow.

With their speed, it did not take them more than the time it takes for an incense stick to burn to cross the huge city of Xianyang. Soon, they were far away from the city.

As soon as Lin Yi stopped, the girl turned around and sped towards him at an even faster speed, and in the next second, she was in his arms.

"It's been so long and you still haven't come to find me. I'll chop you to death, you heartless man!"

The mysterious person took off her black robe, revealing a beautiful face. It was Chu Mengyao, who he hadn't seen in a long time!

Lin Yi smiled bitterly as he pulled her into his arms. "I didn't know your exact situation, so I didn't dare to act rashly. If you didn't send me a text message to tell me that you were safe, I would have gone crazy."

In fact, Lin Yi had already guessed Mengyao's identity from the first encounter, but he couldn't show it in front of Dong que and the others. Plus, Xianyang City must be under the surveillance of the mysterious King Qin, so he'd been holding back until now.

In fact, Chu Mengyao knew the situation better than Lin Yi and brought him out of Xianyang City.

"Silly!"

Chu Mengyao pouted and rolled her eyes at him. That instant of flirtatiousness made Lin Yi's eyes go blank. He couldn't help but click his tongue. It had been a while since he last saw her. This always arrogant miss was becoming more and more feminine.

Mengyao couldn't help but blush at Lin Yi's lecherous face, a little happy inside but putting on an angry face. "Be honest with me, have you been flirting with Tang Yun all this time?"

Lin Yi quickly begged for mercy, "no, I haven't seen her at all these days. I've been busy fighting with the people from the repeat division every day. Besides, you know her current condition. It's hard to say if she can recover her old memories ..."

"With you by her side, it'd be a miracle if she can't recover," Mengyao spat.

Lin Yi didn't dare answer a question like this-he scratched his head and changed the topic. "Yaoyao, how did you get into the Assassin's baptism?"

"....."

Mengyao naturally knew what Lin Yi was thinking, but she didn't expose him. She sighed, "I'm being watched from all directions all day long, so I don't have any private space. I just wanted to come out for some fresh air. Plus, those people behind me said that my cultivation level is too low and my strength is too weak, so they found an opportunity to send me in. I heard that as long as I can get out alive, I can steadily advance a level."

Chapter 9714 The Power Of The Devil

"You're too weak?"

Lin Yi blinked, thinking back to the surprise attack, "I'll ask something off-topic first. What's your current cultivation level?"

"I'm very weak now. "

Chu Mengyao looked at him and suddenly smiled slyly, "He's only a Paragon. He's nothing at all. "

Lin Yi was speechless-if he couldn't even take out a Big Shot at the peak of the final stage, then what was he, a Big Shot at the mid stage of the final stage?

Come to think of it, Lin Yi thought that he'd had a lot of fortuitous encounters all these years, and the speed of his level up was one in a million, but why was it that it was nothing compared to Mengyao? Mengyao's starting point was much lower than his own.

"Hehe, do you think that you'll die if you compare yourself to others, but you'll throw away your goods if you compare them?"

Chu Mengyao saw Lin Yi's dumbfounded expression and couldn't help but punch Lin Yi a few times. "I've had a lot of opportunities since I came to Sky Class Island, but my level didn't increase that much. It wasn't until they found me and forced me to awaken the Dark Phoenix bloodline that my level started to increase. "

"Who are they?" Lin Yi couldn't help but frown.

It had been a mystery since the first time he'd met Mengyao at the school-it didn't seem like Mengyao was in any danger, and the people around her were all very respectful to her, but Lin Yi's heart was still unsettled.

It was a pity that the gray-robed old man had been inseparable from him all this time, and he had never found a chance to ask him. Now that they had unexpectedly met at the Assassin's baptism, and the gray-robed old man did not follow them in, it was a heaven-sent opportunity.

"A Dark Demon beast," Mengyao said seriously after a pause.

Lin Yi's eyes twitched.

The grey robed old man felt familiar, and now that he thought about it, wasn't it the unique aura of Dark Demon beasts? although the stronger ones could transform into human form without any flaws, Lin Yi had dealt with them many times, and some things didn't even need to be confirmed with his eyes.

"Why did they find you?"

Lin Yi knew all too well how cruel and terrifying these beasts were. Even he didn't want to come into contact with those things now, and it would make his hair stand on end whenever he thought about it.

Chu Mengyao was also confused, "Not long after my Dark Phoenix bloodline awakened for the second time, they took the initiative to look for me. They captured Yan 'er and me and brought us to one of their nests. However, they did not hurt me. Instead, they said that I was their most respected master."

"The most respected master?"

Lin Yi's heart skipped a beat as he recalled the origins of the dark Demon beast clan. "I don't think so ..."

Mengyao shook her head. "I've tried to get to the bottom of it a few times, but I couldn't get a clear answer. In the end, I was worshipped by them, and they piled all kinds of rare resources and opportunities on me. I couldn't digest them at all. Letting me participate in the Assassin's baptism can be considered a rare rest. It's like digesting food after a meal."

"Digestion after the meal ..."

Lin Yi didn't even have the strength to curse anymore-it was true, comparisons were odious. He'd fought the fallen Dragon for this Assassin's baptism, and even had to scheme against ye Zhiwei to barely succeed.

But when it came to Mengyao, it was just an insignificant after-meal meal meal.

She already had the Dark Phoenix bloodline, and with the way she played, it wasn't strange at all for her to reach the peak of a Big Shot in such a short time.

Moreover, if he could retreat unscathed this time, he might be able to take the step that all the Almighties at the great circle of perfection dreamed of and reach the peak of Jianghai city's combat power in one go!

Mengyao added after some thought. "However, they were willing to let me out this time because they were planning something big. If I'm not wrong, it should be targeting the entire Jianghai city!"

Lin Yi was taken aback-was the Tribulation Banshi Luo was referring to the dark Demon beasts?

If the darkness magical beasts really did descend on a large scale, then it would truly be the end of Jianghai city. After all, even though there were many Almighties at the consummate level, there was still a limited number of them, and they couldn't afford to use them all.

At best, only Jianghai Academy had the capital to fight back. However, the conflict between the Academy and the city Lord's mansion was so great that even the fake peace on the surface was about to be broken.

What's more, the school's internal affairs weren't United. Only the Board of Directors led by the Tian family was a bit better. The rest, whether it was the Academy or the school of retained students, were all fighting. If this continued, it would inevitably hurt their vitality.

If the Beast of Darkness chose to launch a large-scale attack at the most critical moment, even Jianghai Academy would not be able to withstand it!

Then, everything would be over.

After listening to Lin Yi's summary, Chu Mengyao tilted her head and thought for a moment, "According to my observations, they seem to be working together with other larger forces. If they really want to attack, it shouldn't be just the darkness demon beasts."

"A force even greater than the darkness magical beasts ..."

Lin Yi frowned deeply, finally understanding why Banshi Luo was so nervous. If the enemy was only the darkness demon beast family, as long as they didn't send their entire family, Jianghai college would still have a chance to survive.

If a third party was involved, then even Jianghai city's elite school would be buried with it.

Chu Mengyao reached out her hand and touched Lin Yi's furrowed brows, "Alright, don't put on a sour face in front of me. At most, I'll go back and ask for some information. I'll be your spy."

"Your own safety is the most important. Don't take any risks."

"Even if something happens to Jianghai city, it's not my problem alone. There are so many tall people holding up the fort. The sky won't fall. If they suspect you because of this, then the sky will really fall."

"Don't worry, I know what to do. "

Mengyao smiled cheekily, but her face changed all of a sudden. "I haven't seen you for a while. How come you're so good at talking? Did you practice it on another woman?"

"....."

Lin Yi froze. Teacher Kong was right-women's faces could change at will.

It was a good thing that Mengyao knew Lin Yi's character-he was just a Playboy, and wouldn't do anything physical. Otherwise, why would their relationship drag on until now?

In fact, she had wronged Lin Yi. Ever since he came to Jianghai city, Lin Yi had not even flirted with her. He knew that he had too many love debts and didn't dare to mess with other women.

Lin Yi had no choice but to change the topic again. "They all call you Mr. Gao? Don't you know that you're a woman?"

Chapter 9715 Power

The change of topic was too awkward, and Mengyao gave him a pretty look, but she still continued, ""Why don't you guess my identity? I'm quite famous in history."

"Surnamed Gao ... And quite famous?"

Lin Yi's eyes suddenly lit up, "could it be Jing Ke's best friend, Gao Jianli?"

"Smart!" Mengyao's eyes curved into crescents.

"You're a girl, but you've already become the famous Gao Jianli. Why should I become the favored official Meng Jia, who has a bad track record ..."

Lin Yi was getting more and more speechless, but when he thought about what happened to Gao Jianli in history, he became serious again. "Yaoyao, what's your mission?"

The mission was the biggest secret of every baptismal participant. Normally, they would not be honest with each other, but the relationship between the two was an exception.

"After Jing Ke fails to assassinate Qin, I'll avenge him and kill the king of Qin!" Mengyao said seriously.

In history, Gao Jianli had followed this path. He was famous for his attack on buildings. After the Qin Dynasty destroyed six states, he was summoned to the palace by the King of Qin. However, he was a remnant of the Yan Crown Prince Dan, and his close relationship with Jing Ke obviously could not escape the intelligence network of the Qin Dynasty. In case of any accidents, the King of Qin ordered his men to blind his eyes.

In the end, Gao Jianli still put it into action. He quietly poured lead into the building and assassinated the King of Qin while he was entranced by the music. In the end, he failed at the last step and died.

It was a tragic ending-Mengyao's current identity and the unfathomable strength of the Qin King gave Lin Yi a headache.

"Wait, you mean that we can't just kill the king of Qin directly, and we have to wait until Jing Ke's assassination failed before we assassinate him?"

Lin Yi's eyes twitched at the thought.

"That's what I meant," Mengyao nodded helplessly.

"Then your post-meal digestion isn't easy at all," Lin Yi said, speechless.

She thought that she was in an awkward situation, but compared to Mengyao, she felt like a little cutie. No matter what, there was still room to turn things around. Mengyao, on the other hand, didn't have a choice.

If it was just to kill the king of Qin, it would not be so difficult. After all, the entire camp of Yan Kingdom was the foundation. Once this killing plan was formed, no matter how strong the King of Qin was, there would always be a chance to succeed.

However, Chu Mengyao had to wait until Jing Ke failed, and then face the king of Qin and the entire Qin Army alone. That was hell-level difficulty!

Sure enough, the Assassin's baptism was not a child's play. Any one of them was in hell mode, and the four words "nine deaths and one chance of survival" were not just for show.

"I've been thinking about what would happen to me if Jing Ke and the others succeeded in their assassination. "Mengyao tilted her head.

Lin Yi jumped, "please don't think that way. This world is formed by the ancient people's obsessions. Fighting it is fighting the whole world. No matter how strong you are, you can't beat it."

To put it simply, the obsessions of the ancient people, led by Bai Qi, were the gods of creation of this killing God's secret realm. Although they were no longer living beings, the rules of this world were determined by their obsessions.

Lin Yi had more or less touched the threshold of time and space, and his understanding of the world's rules was much deeper than the average person's. Other people might be ignorant and fearless, but he knew that he couldn't fight against it with his current level.

The only way to survive was to follow the rules they had set.

Mengyao's mission seemed to be a suicide mission, but it was still better than going against the world's laws and dying!

Mengyao smiled sweetly at Lin Yi's nervous face. "I'm just lying to you. I'm not a fool who doesn't know anything. Why would I do something so stupid as to seek my own death?"

That being said, there was truth behind every joke. If she had no other choice, she actually wanted to try it.

She didn't believe that she would die Here, not because she had absolute confidence in her own strength, but because she was of great value to the darkness magical beasts. The darkness magical beasts definitely wouldn't let her die in such a place.

Lin Yi saw through it but didn't say it out loud. He smiled, "if it's just you, it's really hard to do it. But with me as a spy, it's still hard. But it's not like there's no chance at all."

"You're going to betray the Qin camp?" Mengyao asked.

"Strictly speaking, I don't belong to any faction. My only mission objective is to survive."

Lin Yi smiled. He did have the thought of working with the king to destroy the Yan camp-it seemed like the most logical choice, after all, but now that he'd met Mengyao, he'd naturally put Mengyao's mission as his priority. It didn't conflict with his own plans anyway.

Mengyao was overjoyed. "That's great! I was worried that I'd have to fight you. If that happened, I'd have to back off."

"I will never cross swords with you in this life."

Lin Yi said seriously, causing Mengyao's girlish heart to overflow. She then returned to the topic, "According to the current situation, it is certain that Jing Ke will succeed in assassinating Qin. However, the most troublesome one is still the king of Qin. He is very powerful, and even if we work together, we may not be able to gain the upper hand. It is even more impossible to kill him under normal circumstances."

"If it's impossible under normal circumstances, then we'll make it abnormal," Mengyao said with a smile.

The two discussed for a while, and after settling on some important details, Mengyao suddenly took out a wooden box and gave it to Lin Yi.

"What is this?"

Lin Yi was surprised. The box wasn't big and it was light, but it made his soul tremble and he subconsciously wanted to run away.

"It's the hollow armor's inner lining, they gave it to me," Mengyao smiled.

"Xu Chen?" Lin Yi's eyes twitched.

"That's right. Legend has it that it's a type of mutant kun. It usually wanders in the cracks of time and space and rarely appears in the world. It's said that its inner core contains the purest energy of time and space, and it's the most precious treasure that countless cultivators dream of. However, the number of void kun is extremely small, and finding them is more difficult than finding a needle in a haystack!"

"Of course, even if you're lucky enough to find them, they can escape into the space-time rift at any time. It's almost impossible to catch them, not to mention that there's a 'kun' in their names. Even if it's just a virtual kun, their individual strength is at the top of all living creatures. It's good enough that ordinary forces don't get devoured by them, let alone catch them."

"Even with the darkness magical beasts" power, they had to set up an inescapable net to catch one, and then give me its inner core. "

Mengyao's explanation made Lin Yi's jaw drop. He couldn't help but click his tongue. "It seems that your status in their eyes is really high."

Chapter 9716

They thought that the dark beasts were only treating Mengyao with respect on the surface, but in reality, they were trying to use her. Now that they heard it, it was hard to say if they were trying to use her, but Mengyao was indeed a high and mighty figure in their eyes.

This made him feel a lot more at ease. As long as his position was high enough, Chu Mengyao's personal safety was guaranteed. Although there would still be some hidden danger in the long run, at least it shouldn't be a problem in the short term.

Mengyao gave a standard Versailles smile. "It's alright,"

“.....”

Lin Yi couldn't help but think about how hard it was for him to get something like this, and how this girl just took it for free. It really was hard to explain-the treatment he received was like heaven and earth.

Even so, Lin Yi couldn't help but worry. "You're giving me such a precious thing. What do you say? And what if they ask about it?"

Mengyao didn't mind, "just say that someone took it away during the baptism. As for me, I'll ask them for it when I need it. The dark Demon beasts are so rich. If I don't help them, wouldn't I be wasting all their money?"

"Hmm, you're right."

Lin Yi didn't know what to say anymore, so he didn't stand on ceremony with Mengyao and accepted the hollow venomous gallbladder. He was trying to figure out the threshold of time and space power, and he didn't have a ladder right now. He could only circle around outside the door, and this thing came at the right time.

"Of course," Mengyao said, cocking her nose.

Suddenly, the two's eyelids twitched, and Lin Yi couldn't help but make a meaningful face. "This really didn't take any effort at all, and he even took the initiative to bump into it."

At this time, ten miles away, a slightly embarrassed figure was fleeing at high speed. Several figures were in hot pursuit in the distance. They were Dong que and his group, who had split up earlier.

Fan Yuqi would never have thought that he, who had the godly escape technique of the Golden Cicada shell, would be forced into such a desperate situation. Even though he was already half a step into the gates of the Xianyang Palace, he was still forced to this place.

There were many hidden talents in the Yan Kingdom's camp.

Fortunately, the next time the Golden Cicada sheds its shell, it was almost done accumulating power. As long as it was launched, it could once again shake off the group of people behind it.

"I was too hasty before. I wanted to see the King of Qin as soon as possible, so I revealed my traces and let you guys figure out where I was hiding. But this time, it won't be so simple. I just need to find a place to hide, and you guys can forget about getting close to me even if you're Immortals!"

Fan Yuqi counted down silently and summed up his experience and lessons.

This conclusion wasn't wrong-with his super-class stealth ability, if he didn't predict where he was hiding, it would be impossible for anyone to find him. Even Lin Yi wouldn't be able to do it so easily.

Fan Yuqi didn't panic at all when he saw Dong que and the others getting closer and closer.

It was because the Golden Cicada had already shed its shell.

The only thing that made him feel a little uncomfortable was that five miles ahead, there was a young man and a black-robed man leaning against each other. It was a little uncomfortable to the eyes.

"Bah! There's actually a gay couple in the Asura Mystic realm, how shameless!"

Fan Yu Qi cursed in disdain. Not only did the black robe block his divine sense, it also created the unique aura of a male creature. If not for this, Dong que and the others wouldn't have been unable to tell Chu Mengyao's gender and kept calling her Mr. Gao.

One could only say that the Beast of Darkness had really invested a lot into Mengyao. Anything that didn't look like much was a rare treasure that could only be found by chance on the market.

"The two gay men in front, get out of my way. Don't block my way, or you'll both die!"

Mengyao and Lin Yi looked at each other as they listened to Yuqi's scolding, "What do you mean? Are you talking about us?"

Mengyao was the first to react as she covered her mouth and chuckled. "Aren't we gay in the eyes of others?"

Lin Yi was speechless.

With Lin Yi's current mentality, he wouldn't take anyone's trash to heart, but he couldn't stand people suspecting his sexual orientation.

Seeing that the two of them were unmoved, Fan Yuqi's killing intent became even more intense. He raised his hand and released an extremely strong killing true Qi. "Since you won't let me, then let's die together. I'll satisfy you to be a pair of desperate lovebirds!"

What F * cking desperate couple!

Mengyao was laughing her head off, but Lin Yi's face was as black as the bottom of a pot.

Fan Yu Qi, on the other hand, was stunned. He didn't know why Dong que and the others, who were chasing after him, had slowed down their steps. His killing Qi, which he had casually sent out, was like a clay ox entering the sea when it came into contact with Lin Yi. There was no feedback at all.

The point was that Lin Yi didn't move at all from the beginning to the end, and he subconsciously thought that he was hallucinating. Did he hit Lin Yi just now?

"Could he be an expert?"

Fan Yuqi finally came to his senses. Fortunately, the Golden Cicada had already finished storing power and was about to activate it.

As long as the Golden Cicada successfully leaves its shell, the next second, it would be like a fish in the sea, a bird in the sky!

Unfortunately, a black blade light came at him. He didn't even have the time to react before his head fell to the ground.

Lin Yi looked at Mengyao, who was putting her knife away. "Your saber technique is bold and unrestrained, but there are also hidden mysteries. It has the style of a great master. Are you from a famous teacher?"

"Of course," Mengyao smiled mysteriously.

Her current bladesmanship had faintly surpassed her master, but the framework was still what Li Kaijiang from Beidao had fought for her. So far, she had benefited greatly. Li Kaijiang might not be the strongest Bladesman, but he was definitely the world's top bladesmanship teacher.

"Mr. Gao is indeed invincible!"

Dong que and the others hurried over to collect Fan Yuqi's head and sincerely flattered him.

This guy was like a dog in front of Chu Mengyao, unable to fight back at all, but he was still quite fierce when facing them before, and they couldn't even get close to him.

If not for that, he would not have been able to break through the second siege and escape all the way from Xianyang City.

It was a pity that this guy's sense of direction wasn't very good, and he ran into Lin Yi and Mengyao's hands on his own accord-it was fate.

With the appearance of Dong que and the others, Lin Yi naturally couldn't talk to Mengyao casually anymore, and Mengyao decisively returned to her cold, silent image.

A man's heart was hard to fathom. Before the dust settled in this Assassin's baptism, the two of them still had to maintain a strange attitude on the surface to avoid being used by others.

Not to mention, Mengyao had to hide her gender well. In modern society, women were treated well to a certain extent, but in the world of cultivators, especially in the killer's baptism, women were the absolute vulnerable group.

Chapter 9717

Even if they had the same strength, other people would often choose to target women. If Dong que and the others found out, it would be difficult for Chu Mengyao to maintain her cold and aloof status.

In order to avoid any accidents, Lin Yi even restrained himself from using his spirit sense to communicate. After all, no one knew if there were one or two masters with spirit sense hidden in this group!

Fortunately, everything that needed to be discussed had been discussed just now. All that was left was to lie low and wait for the opportunity to make a move.

"Thank you very much for your help this time. We will meet again in the future."

Dong que did not hesitate and immediately led a group of Yan Kingdom experts away. After all, they were still eye-catching. The longer they stayed near Xianyang City, the more risk they would be exposed.

Lin Yi didn't return to Xianyang City immediately after seeing Mengyao's Black-robed figure disappear into the distance with the others. He found a secret place nearby and set up the nine-story Pagoda.

Since he was already here, of course he would go with the flow and enter closed-door cultivation!

There was still some time before the Yan Kingdom sent their diplomatic mission to the Qin Kingdom, and while none of them would be idle during this time-they'd be doing everything they could to increase their chances of having the last laugh, Lin Yi was the hub that connected the two kingdoms, and he'd been acknowledged by both sides-there shouldn't be any major issues in the short term.

If there was, it was most likely the same as last time, coming for someone and not something. With Lin Yi's strength, he didn't have to be afraid, but it wasn't a bad thing to hide and relax.

Lin Yi took out the void armor's inner container from Mengyao and felt the dense time and space origin Energy inside. His entire soul shuddered instinctively.

Time and space were inseparable. If he had not grasped some superficial power of time in advance, his entire mind would have been sucked in and immersed in it for all eternity until he became a human-shaped statue.

"It's a good thing that Yaoyao didn't use it on her own, or we'd be in big trouble. "

Lin Yi rejoiced, but this might be an unnecessary worry-the dark beasts might've already prepared insurance for Mengyao, no matter how much they invested in her.

However, even though it was dangerous, as long as he could resist this powerful pull on his mind, the benefits he would obtain would be equally huge.

Just a moment of observation and Lin Yi's understanding of time and space deepened. One had to know that these were the profound origins that even Banshi Luo couldn't teach!

To be precise, Banshi Luo could only teach him a few techniques, but he lacked the necessary teaching materials. Even the cleverest housewife could not cook a meal without rice. Even if the entire Jianghai University gathered their forces, they might not even be able to obtain a single void Pearl!

Lin Yi was overjoyed-one day of observation was more effective than a hundred days of meditation!

Time passed day by day, and as he went deeper and deeper into the level of observation, Lin Yi's progress increased by leaps and bounds. But at the same time, there was a problem-the effect of observation was weakening.

If the first day's effect was 100, then the second day's effect was only 90, and the third day's effect was less than 80. Up until now, the effect of one day's observation had dropped to single digits.

It was still more effective than before, but after the huge improvement he'd experienced before, it was a little boring to Lin Yi now.

The key was that time waited for no one.

With their current strength, it wasn't impossible for them to successfully carry out their plan against an existence like the King of Qin, but the chances weren't high.

Unless Lin Yi's strength could undergo a qualitative change in a short period of time.

Lin Yi looked at the hollow bladder in his hand, lost in thought. "Something like an inner liner is probably meant to be eaten ..."

It wasn't wrong-if it was a top-tier Dark Demon beast, he'd just eat it if he wanted to, and it'd just be a bit of a risk, but Lin Yi wasn't a Dark Demon beast.

But then again, if he wanted to have a qualitative change in his control of spacetime power in a short time, this was indeed the only way at the moment.

Lin Yi didn't hesitate for long before putting the gall in his mouth and saying, "Senior ghost, please help me."

"....."

The damn thing was cursing madly in the Jade space. This was related to the origin of time and space, and even he couldn't guarantee anything. But Lin Yi had acted first and reported later, so he had no choice but to fight with all he had.

A huge amount of time and space power wrapped around Lin Yi's body, and a miniature black hole appeared. If it wasn't for Lin Yi's mastery of time and space power and the protection of the damn thing, he would've been sucked in the moment the black hole appeared, leaving nothing behind.

"I really did owe you in my past life!" The demonic thing cursed.

Lin Yi couldn't reply. He grinned with difficulty and focused on absorbing the spacetime power that was pouring out. If he could, he even wanted to absorb the black hole next to him. That would be the real big deal.

Unfortunately, this kind of crazy idea could only be thought about. Not to mention Lin Yi, even Banshi Luo wouldn't dare to do it.

Xianyang Palace.

The Qin King's tall body glowed with a golden light under the sun. The Dragon-shaped totem on his robe seemed to come alive, faintly letting out a deep dragon roar. In the shadow, a low-hanging human silhouette quietly appeared.

"Zhao Gao, how's the matter I asked you to do?" the King of Qin suddenly opened his eyes.

The figure bowed slightly. "My King, the descendants of Lord Wu 'an have agreed to request for the ancestral soul. However, they are not sure if they will succeed."

"It doesn't matter if they're confident or not."

The King of Qin's expression was indifferent. "Your words are divine. What I say is important."

"The king will last for thousands of generations!"

Zhao Gao bowed in agreement and said, "The internal guard has reported that Lord Meng Jia, the son of a concubine, has been missing for more than half a month. Now that the Yan Kingdom's Envoy Group is about to arrive, should we send people to find him?"

The King of Qin shook his head. "There's no need. He'll show himself when the time comes."

A hint of surprise flashed across Zhao Gao's eyes, but he didn't continue to speak and immediately retreated.

However, Lin Yi still didn't show up when the group of Yan Kingdom's envoys arrived in Xianyang City. Dong que and the others even thought that Lin Yi had met with a mishap, which made them suspicious of the upcoming historical meeting.

It was also because of this that the contact between the two countries was full of difficulties. The previous cooperative posture was changed, and both sides were provoking and probing each other. There were even times when negotiations failed and they even parted on bad terms.

The mansion of the Yan Kingdom's envoy.

All the important figures of the Yan Kingdom were present, and the atmosphere was extremely heavy. Everyone's spearheads were pointed at Dong que. After all, he was in charge of contacting Lin Yi, and now that Lin Yi had disappeared, he naturally couldn't escape the blame.

Chapter 9718

Pfft!

A man with a fiery temper suddenly smashed the table into ashes with his palm. He pointed at Dong que's nose and scolded, ""What the hell have you done? You've been staying in Xianyang City, but you can't even keep an eye on a living person. Now, you don't even know if he's Dead or Alive. If you ruin this big plan, can you bear the responsibility alone?"

The rest of the people also chimed in.

Dong que's face and ears turned red, but he didn't know how to respond. He couldn't help it. This was indeed his mistake.

Mengyao was worried as well-she'd guessed what was going on, and she regretted giving Lin Yi the container so quickly. Lin Yi wouldn't have taken the risk if he'd done that.

However, despite her regret, she trusted Lin Yi instinctively. She believed from the bottom of her heart that Lin Yi wouldn't fall for something like this. At most, there would be an accident, but he would be able to turn it into a blessing!

"That's enough,"

A hoarse voice rang out, and the entire place instantly fell silent. Everyone's eyes then fell on a man in the middle. He was the real main character of this trip, the most famous assassin in history, Jing Ke.

Mengyao was one of the strongest in the Yan camp, but compared to this man, there was still a gap in quality.

Even though they were both at the peak of the giant's realm, they weren't on the same level. Mengyao was well aware of this.

Therefore, in the camp of the Yan country, she had always been most afraid of this person!

With his extraordinary strength as the foundation and his identity as the protagonist, Jing Ke was the man of his word in the Yan camp. No one could challenge him, not even Chu Mengyao, Mr. Gao.

Under everyone's gaze, Jing Ke slowly stood up and looked outside the door, ""No need to argue, they're already here."

Everyone was collectively stunned.

Chu Mengyao was the first to react, and her heart was filled with joy. Luckily, the black robe didn't reveal the change in her expression, or else she would've been exposed.

"I'm sorry to have kept you all waiting. "

Lin Yi walked in and cupped his hands to greet everyone-his aura didn't seem to be any different from before. At most, his movements were more natural, and his aura more reserved and deep.

"I don't know where you've been these days." Dong que complained, "you've put me in a bad situation!"

"I was delayed by something."

Lin Yi smiled, his eyes sweeping across everyone before finally stopping on Jing Ke's face, "The King of Qin has allowed the Yan Kingdom's envoys to enter the palace for an audience. It's a good time. Why don't we leave now?"

No one responded, as they were all waiting for Jing Ke's reaction.

After a moment of silence, Jing Ke finally decided, ""Then let's go."

The group of Yan Kingdom experts agreed and immediately set off, ready for the final battle.

However, it was impossible for so many people to enter the palace together. There were only three people who were qualified to follow Lin Yi into the palace to meet the king-the main envoy, Jing Ke, the Vice envoy, Qin Wuyang, and the resident envoy, Dong que.

The rest, including Chu Mengyao, had to find another way to enter the palace. They naturally wouldn't miss the final battle, but their battlefield was destined not to be in Xianyang Palace.

Don't forget that other than the King of Qin himself, there was also a group of experts in the camp of the Qin country who were eyeing them covetously.

Chu Mengyao left with the Yan Kingdom's Masters. At the same time, the Qin Kingdom's Masters outside the Xianyang Palace were also mobilized. Although the main characters of both sides hadn't met yet, the bell of this historical killing game had already rung.

With Lin Yi in the front and Jing Ke and the other two behind, the four of them slowly passed through the heavily guarded corridor and entered the gate of the palace.

"I've been waiting for you for a long time. "

The King of Qin's majestic voice came from the true dragon Throne. There was no one else beside him, only eunuch Zhao Gao, who stood with his hands behind his back.

"Yes!" Jing Ke took the initiative to step forward and bow,"I am afraid."

"You can't even kneel, what's there to be afraid of?"

The King of Qin snorted indifferently. The sky outside instantly lowered, as if a storm was coming.

Jing Ke and the others stood still. True experts were proud to their bones, and would never easily bow to anyone, let alone kneel in front of them. Even if they were pretending to be this person, they would never bow to the other party.

Lin Yi looked on indifferently, while Jing Ke and Qin Wuyang didn't show any strange expressions. Only Dong que suddenly spat out a mouthful of blood, his knees going soft and he was about to kneel on the spot.

His strength in this baptism could not be considered weak, but it was a pity that he was in the center of the storm. It was indeed a bit difficult for him to stand here with his level.

"Trash!"

Before he could kneel down, Qin Wuyang kicked him out of the Great Hall. He fainted on the spot, his chest charred black.

Lin Yi's eyelids twitched. In history, Qin Wuyang was a last minute support, but he didn't expect this person to be so fierce. The strength he revealed in an instant was no weaker than his previous self!

In addition to the unfathomable Jing Ke, these two alone were enough to pose a huge threat to the King of Qin. If things were to develop according to the history, they might really succeed in the end.

This was also normal. If history was destined to repeat itself, the Assassin's side would be doomed to fail, and then this so-called Assassin's baptism would lose its meaning.

Lin Yi even deduced that the ancient people who created this world were more inclined towards the assassins when they set the rules. After all, this was the Assassin's baptism, and if it weren't for the fact that they were so hung up over the history, they wouldn't have formed an obsession that wouldn't dissipate for thousands of years.

Jing Ke took a step forward with a calm expression and said, ""Your Majesty, I have brought Fan Yuqi's head and the map of the country of Yan's Governor. I present it to Your Majesty to show our submission. Please take a look."

They went straight to the point. Both of them were well aware of each other's identity and intentions, so there was no need to hide in such an open situation.

The King of Qin nodded.

Jing Ke immediately stepped forward with the map in his hand, while Qin Wuyang, who was carrying the head of Fan Yu Qi, who had died with his eyes wide open, also followed him.

A peerless killing trap was about to take place, and the air in the Xianyang Palace began to become treacherous.

At this moment, Zhao Gao, who had no presence at all, suddenly stepped forward and said, ""Before that, in order to prevent others from taking advantage of us, shouldn't we first clean up the irrelevant people?"

Lin Yi's heart skipped a beat at the words.

At this moment, the main hall had already been cleared in advance. Besides the King of Qin, Zhao Gao, Jing Ke, and Qin Wuyang, he was the only person left. It was obvious that he was the person who had nothing to do with Zhao Gao's words!

Chapter 9719 Power

As expected, in the next second, four powerful forces descended on Lin Yi's head. Lin Yi's reaction was extremely fast, and he tried to use his perfect five elemental domain to resist them, but it was to no avail.

The perfect five elements domain that had never failed in the past was now as fragile as a piece of paper. It did not even have the ability to resist and was crushed in an instant.

With his domain broken, Lin Yi himself was even more fragile. In front of such a powerful force, even a peak-level du King wouldn't be able to last half a second, let alone a body that had broken through the growth shackle three times!

In the blink of an eye, Lin Yi's body was swallowed up. The field was clean, not a single residue was left.

With Lin Yi's strength, he was easily killed in one move. It would've been unimaginable outside, but look at the lineup in front of them.

The King of Qin was a half-Shi Luo, and Jing Ke was on the same level as him. As for the rest, Qin Wuyang and Zhao Gao, even if there was a difference in strength between the two, they were still at the peak of the giant's realm, and were no weaker than Lin Yi.

Lin Yi didn't die in vain after being targeted by such a super-luxurious lineup.

Even so, Zhao Gao was still worried and added the illusion destroyer incantation, just in case Lin Yi used the sky Mirror to get away with it. The result proved that he didn't.

It wasn't an illusion, it wasn't some kind of smokescreen. Lin Yi had truly disappeared from this world.

Qin Wuyang sneered and said, "it's understandable that we want to kill him. After all, we're from different camps. However, you're all from the Qin camp, yet you still want to kill him. I'm starting to wonder what your mission is."

According to common sense, even if the two of them knew that Lin Yi wasn't on the same side as them, they wouldn't go so far as to team up and kill Lin Yi first. After all, Lin Yi was still in the Qin camp in name, and they could totally use him once before killing him.

They were in such a hurry to get rid of Lin Yi, which meant that their mission wasn't as simple as just getting rid of the opposing camp. Lin Yi's Meng Jia identity must be in the mission's target list.

The King of Qin did not bother to answer. He said indifferently, ""Show me the picture."

Jing Ke immediately continued to move forward with the picture in his hand. Even though both of them already knew what they were going to do next, it was still a classic scene in the history of this game, and it was the common task for both of them to perfectly reproduce it.

The Yan Kingdom's Governor kangtu slowly unfolded in front of the King of Qin. The minds of both sides were focused on the final moment of their meeting. If this was a competition, that dagger would be the starting gun for the referee!

At the same time, the atmosphere outside the palace was also tense.

The experts from both camps had already positioned themselves and were facing each other. As soon as a fight broke out inside, they would immediately take action. It was the common task for each of them to wipe out the opposite camp.

On this matter, some people might try to save their strength, but their killing intent was absolutely real, and they would never fake the match.

After all, if he let any one of them escape, he might fail his mission. At that time, being trapped in the land of the assassins for decades or centuries would be considered a light punishment. There might even be a mission countdown and kill everyone on both sides forcefully. That would be a huge joke.

In the Xianyang Palace, Jing Ke's hand suddenly stopped when he saw that the painting of Dukang of Yan Kingdom was about to be fully unfolded, as if he was hesitating.

"Such cowardice, how can you be worthy of being my opponent?"

The King of Qin snorted coldly and took the map with his own hands. He took the initiative to flip through the map to find Lady Xu's armor, which was said to be indestructible.

However, the moment his hand touched the map, an extremely majestic spiritual sense rushed out from the map and instantly penetrated his sea of consciousness. He was stunned on the spot.

Such a powerful impact of the divine sense was enough to destroy the primordial spirit of any giant at the pinnacle of perfection. Although his level was higher than the ordinary five Giants, like Banshi Luo, he had not taken that step completely. In essence, he was still in the realm of a giant at the pinnacle of perfection.

However, Qin Wang did not die suddenly.

"Do it!"

Jing Ke shouted in a low voice, and the remaining three people on the scene made their moves at the same time. His and Qin Wuyang's target was naturally Qin Wang himself, while Zhao Gao, who was standing guard behind him, had also chosen Qin Wang as his target!

At the most critical moment, this expert from the same camp, who was theoretically the closest to Qin Wang, had actually chosen backstab!

Three masters attacking at the same time, if Qin Wang was still conscious, he would regret killing Lin Yi. With Lin Yi around, the three would at least be a little afraid, and Lin Yi might even help him.

Unfortunately, it was too late to say anything now.

He was too proud and too confident. To be more precise, he was too immersed in his role and regarded himself as the real Emperor of history. He really thought that he could control everything with his words.

He didn't know that everything was just a show.

Three absolutely fatal attacks landed on the completely defenseless Qin Wang at the same time. Although the domain around his body launched an instinctive resistance, in the face of an opponent of this level, this kind of subconscious resistance clearly had limited effect.

The domain shattered, and the flesh and blood on his body were sliced off layer by layer. His internal organs flowed out without restraint, and very soon, Qin Wang was only left with a bare skeleton.

"This is it? I thought it would be difficult. "

Upon seeing this, Qin Wuyang sneered. For the sake of this scene, they had rehearsed countless times in secret. Not only did they plan how to cooperate with each other, but every sentence, every movement, even their tone and expressions had been carefully designed and calculated to ensure that the King of Qin would fall into the trap.

The killer's baptism had a fierce reputation, especially the King of Qin himself, who gave people a feeling of unfathomability. Therefore, even if they had gone all out, they still did not dare to say that they were very confident, and always thought that accidents could happen at any time.

In the end, this was it?

Everything was dull and boring.

Jing Ke and Zhao Gao looked at each other, but they didn't let down their guard. They repeatedly confirmed that the King of Qin had no chance of survival, and even this was not enough to be safe. They destroyed the last remaining skeleton completely, not even leaving a speck of powder. Only then did they finally feel relieved.

However, it was still too early to be happy.

At this time, the outside was already in a mess, but a small group of golden armored guards entered in a single file. There were only twelve of them, but when they entered together, they gave people the feeling of a thousand men and horses. Even with the strength of the three people, they still felt a sense of oppression.

"What are you minions doing here?"

Qin Wuyang sneered and threw out a palm. The blazing Mystical Fire engulfed the Golden-armored guards on the spot.

Although the soldiers of this world were ridiculously strong due to the obsession of the ancient people, individual strength was still limited. Unless they were up against an entire Army, the strength of the three people present was not to be underestimated.

Chapter 9720 The Power Of The Devil

"Something's wrong!"

Jing Ke's eyelids twitched when he saw the twelve figures being devoured, and he reminded them in a deep voice, ""These are puppets, not real people!"

As the person involved, Qin Wuyang naturally reacted quickly. His heavenly flame was specialized in burning all living creatures. As long as it was a living thing, no matter how strong it was, it was impossible for it to not have any reaction. However, the twelve golden-armored guards in front of him did not seem to have any reaction at all.

"Fine, then I'll melt you all into molten iron!" Qin Wuyang shouted coldly.

Although his strange fire was more effective against living things, it didn't mean that it couldn't deal with inanimate things. As expected, in just a moment, the Golden armored guards were all melted into a pool of molten iron.

However, a strange scene appeared. The molten iron was not lifeless. Instead, it gathered together and formed a familiar human figure in front of the three of them.

The King of Qin!

"Your methods aren't bad, but isn't it too much of a joke if you want to assassinate me with such a small trick?"

The King of Qin, who was formed by the Golden molten iron, made a clanging sound. Not only did it not seem funny and ear-piercing, but it also gave people a feeling of the power of heaven. It was as if he was the representative of the heavenly Dao walking in the human world.

"As expected, it's not that easy."

Zhao Gao felt that it was a pity. He was the one who understood Qin Wang the most among the three of them, so he naturally had a deeper understanding of Qin Wang's fearsomeness than Jing Ke and the other man. That was why he had chosen to backstab without hesitation when the opportunity appeared just now.

It was a pity that he had underestimated the other party's strength.

"Immortal?" Jing Ke narrowed his eyes. "You're still alive even after this? could it be that the law you've touched is immortal?"

At their level, the key to determining their strength was no longer just the strength of their domain or the strength of their physical bodies, but the comprehension and control of the world's origin laws.

For example, time, space, and death.

However, the laws displayed by the person in front of him were clearly unrelated to these. Instead, they were closer to an undying and indestructible fundamental law.

"That's right!" The King of Qin said proudly. "I exist with the heavenly Dao, and I will be immortal!"

Everyone looked at each other, speechless.

These words sounded very childish. If it were any other person, they would definitely think that he was crazy. However, looking back on the situation just now, whether it was from the physical level or the primordial spirit level, this person's soul should have been destroyed. In the end, he was standing in front of them in an even more inexplicable way. There seemed to be no other more reasonable explanation other than immortality.

However, there was a problem.

How could he kill a person who could live forever?

With the combined strength of the three of them, it should not be a problem to suppress this resurrected Qin Wang. However, their most fundamental mission goal was to at least ensure that they killed Qin Wang. What was the use of just suppressing him?

Qin Wuyang and Zhao Gao both had the intention to retreat. They were not perpetual motion machines. If they continued to waste time with an existence that was destined to be unkillable, they would be the ones to die in the end. Instead of that, it was better to take a step back and find a better plan.

"Don't be stupid!"

Jing Ke's words woke him up from his dream. "Even if he has touched the law of immortality, he has only mastered a small part of it at most. He is far from becoming a true immortal. Otherwise, how could we have succeeded just now?"

Qin Wuyang and Zhao Gao reacted immediately, and both of them revealed a look of shame. They were actually frightened by someone at their level, and it was truly embarrassing.

The other party's control over the law of immortality couldn't have exceeded one-tenth at most. Otherwise, he would have long taken that step and become a true Big Shot of laws. He wouldn't have continued to stay at the ultimate perfection realm of a Big Shot.

Moreover, if they really reached that level, it was unknown whether they could even enter the land of Asura. After all, those big shots could already control some of the bottom rules. Once they were allowed in, it would be hard to say who would be in charge of this world.

And since this Qin Wang in front of him was not a true Big Shot of laws, then no matter how domineering the immortal laws he grasped were, there would always be a time when they would be broken.

After all, the two of them were top experts who had touched the edge of the rules. Moreover, there was also Jing Ke, whose cultivation level was not lower than the King of Qin!

"You want to kill undying beings?" the King of Qin scoffed. "Do you have the strength to do so?"

"We'll only know after we fight,"

"You've already revealed your trump card," Jing Ke sneered. "But you haven't seen what my trump card is, have you?"

Qin Wang's immortality was indeed unsolvable, but all the original laws that constituted the world were forcibly dominated. Who knew if Jing Ke happened to have a trump card in his hand that could restrain his immortality!

"Do I need to know?"

The King of Qin still looked as if he was in an invincible position. It was as if in his eyes, Jing Ke was just like the other two, never an existence of the same level that could really threaten his life and death, but just an insignificant cannon fodder destined to be used.

The reply to him was not trash talk, but a full-powered joint attack from Jing Ke and the other two!

This time, he was on guard. Qin Wang finally revealed the true aura of an ancestral Dragon that could swallow the world. In addition, his body was no longer made of flesh and blood, but of Real Steel, so his defense was even more powerful and invincible.

Even when the three of them attacked together, they couldn't shake it at all. From the beginning to the end, it just took the attack head-on and didn't even move!

However, on the other hand, when faced with the restraint of the other two, it would be extremely difficult for Qin Wang to injure either of them. The rule of immortality was inclined towards defense, and it was naturally lacking in strength when it came to offense. Therefore, if Qin Wang wanted to kill, he could only rely on his physical body and domain.

In this way, even if he was powerful, his efficiency would inevitably be greatly reduced. Let alone one against three, even if it was one against one, how could it be so easy to kill an ultimate consummate level killer of a Big Shot?

The figures from all four sides intertwined, and the entire Hall suddenly swayed. However, as if it was supported by the obsession of the ancient people, it actually maintained the overall framework and did not fall, just like a small enchantment.

Outside the palace, it was dark as well. Chu Mengyao weaved through the crowd quickly. With her strength, she could handle a chaotic battle of this level with ease. The only person she was worried about was Lin Yi.

They had a plan, but it was never as fast as changes. The opponents they were facing were getting stronger and stronger, and even Banshi Luo and Tianji, who were good at deduction, wouldn't be able to figure it out, let alone Lin Yi and her.

She was afraid that Lin Yi wouldn't be able to handle it if things changed!

However, she didn't dare to approach the main hall rashly. No matter how the people inside fought, they would be the first to be alert to the people outside. Especially for an important person like her, she would become a target of public criticism if she got even a little closer.

So, she had to wait for Lin Yi's signal.

At this moment, Chu Mengyao's heart skipped a beat. The sky changed color and an unparalleled will suddenly descended behind her.
