

Bodyguard 9821

Chapter 9821 Power

Facing the unprecedented joint attack of the five Giants, they had no power to resist at all. Even if some people didn't believe it and wanted to challenge it, stand up and shout, or even use this opportunity to soar into the sky, it was just a thought in the end.

If he really had such prestige and strength, such a person would have already made a name for himself or been recruited by the five Giants. How could he still be left behind at the bottom?

Although the repeat school was very big and was filled with people from all walks of life, one shouldn't forget that the pavilion of heavenly secrets was one of the Big Five.

If Lin Yi was a true dragon, how could he hide from the pavilion?

At the end of the day, these things were just daydreams for the lower class salted fish-if someone really did decide to do something, they'd drown them with their saliva without even needing Lin Yi and the other five to show up.

As for the 13 heroes who barely had the qualifications ...

At this moment, they were more obedient than anyone else. They had no choice, the assistants of the five big bosses were sitting in their house.

If they cooperated, they could still call each other brothers, but if they said no, there was a high probability that they would be completely removed from the repeat school before the next day, leaving no trace at all.

Even tyrant, one of the five Giants, had no choice but to lower his head, let alone them.

However, no matter what, it was not an easy task to integrate the huge repeat school.

Even with Lin Yi leading the five giant corporations, it wasn't going to be smooth sailing. From the day the Union was announced, all sorts of killings and rebellions were happening in the repeat schools.

That was until Lin Yi announced the training camp.

The entire repeat school returned to peace overnight. Those who were the fiercest, especially those who had reached the advanced stage of the consummate level of the big shots, immediately quieted down.

At this moment, no amount of benefits could compare to an invitation to the training camp.

Especially after Banshi Luo personally announced that she would be the special instructor of the training camp, the high-end combat forces who were originally eager to make a move spontaneously became defenders of order.

Someone even declared that whoever made life difficult for Lin Wuju would be making life difficult for him.

Blocking one's path to wealth was like killing one's parents. At their level, blocking someone's fortune was even more so the annihilation of their entire family!

As a result, the most crucial group of troublemakers all changed sides, and the integration of the retained students was greatly accelerated. In less than ten days, the various large and medium-sized forces led by the 13 heroes had reached an agreement with the five Giants. The results were remarkable!

This time, a certain someone could no longer sit still.

Under his constant pressure and threats, the board finally showed their fangs in front of Lin Yi for the first time.

"The trial?"

Lin Yi couldn't help but wonder as he looked at the letter in his hand-it said to go to the school for a public interrogation!

Even Hong Baxian, who was a veteran of the martial world, was dumbfounded. "There's such a thing as a Court Judge in the school?"

"Of course there is, and it's very ancient. It even existed before the Academy. To a certain extent, it's one of the founders of the Academy, just like the Tian family. The only difference is that the latter is a super family with an orderly inheritance, while the former is just an unknown organization."

The one who spoke was elder Yan Chen of the heaven secret Pavilion.

The day Lin Yi announced the merging of the five, the intelligence Department was officially formed. Under Tianji's instructions, all members of the pavilion joined in building the main structure of the Department.

As for Yan Chen, his old friend, he was sent to Lin Yi's side as a full time assistant to the head of the intelligence Department.

"The trial is too low-key, so low-key that not many people are aware of its existence. However, please don't misunderstand, this is not a dispensable Department."

"As one of the founders, there's no legal cap to its authority. It's almost on par with the Tian family!" Yan Chen warned.

Everyone gasped in shock.

In Jianghai Academy, the Tian family's existence was akin to that of an Emperor. Now that someone had suddenly told them that there was another existence that was no less powerful than the Emperor, anyone who heard this would be dumbfounded.

Shen Yifan was puzzled, "but isn't the Board of Directors under the Tian family's traditional sphere of influence?" Could they go against the Tian family after the trial?"

Anyone with eyes could see how much Tian Xiangyang valued Lin Yi.

Especially now that Lin Yi had completed the entire repeat school, it was the time when he was most valuable to Tian Xiangyang. His status was probably no less than the Emperor Xu Anshan who controlled the Academy.

How could Tian Xiangyang allow the Board of Directors to attack Lin Yi at a time like this?

Even if he wanted to kill the donkey after the grinding was done, this was not the way to kill it. He had not even done anything yet. He could not kill the donkey and snatch it from him to grind, right?

Yan Chen shook his head. "Although the enforcement Union is now under the jurisdiction of the Board of Directors in name, in reality, it's a fourth party independent of the school board, the Academy, and the repeating students."

In the beginning, it was supposed to have the power to monitor and judge all three factions within Jianghai Academy. According to the original plan of the founders, this was supposed to be a super-Department with infinite power!"

"Then how did it become like this?" Qiu sanniang asked curiously.

Everyone coughed.

In consideration of the fact that she was a girl present, they were particularly restrained in their words and did not easily reveal vulgarities. On the contrary, Qiu sanniang herself was very carefree, without the slightest awareness of being a girl.

Even Yan Chen couldn't help but hold his forehead with a strange expression. ""In the early years, it was indeed at the fourth pole, and its strength had even expanded far beyond the other three sects. It had vaguely become the first pole of the Academy."

"That's the path to death. "

Lin Yi commented.

Everyone nodded. As an independent Department of the supervision and judgement division, once its strength grew too much, it would inevitably lead to an infinite expansion of power, which would inevitably lead to the dissatisfaction of the other three parties.

It even caused public anger.

"That's right. Because the trial court stretched out its hand too far, it was abolished by the Board of Directors of the Tian family and the other two parties. The trial court was ruled to fall apart. The experts under the Tian family either died or fled, or were simply incorporated by the other three families."

Yan Chen sighed. "Since then, the once-popular trial has become what it is now. Although it was not directly abolished, it is basically an empty shell."

Whether it's the School Council, the student council, or the repeating school, we won't give them a chance to rise again. This is one of the most important things that we've agreed on at Jianghai University!"

"If that's the case, then what's the meaning of this letter?" Shen Yifan and the others couldn't help but ask.

An organization that existed only in name, sending a letter to the top face of the retained students, and even saying that Lin Yi would be publicly interrogated ... This sounded very funny.

Chapter 9822 Power

"This probably isn't the Tian family's intention," Yan Chen analyzed. "It's most likely that they saw the progress of our school's reorganization and couldn't sit still any longer. That's why they're doing this."

"Then ... We don't care?"

Lin Yi frowned slightly. As the person in charge of the whole school, he was so busy that his feet didn't even touch the ground. There were so many things that he had to rely on his clones to solve.

Even though the group of staff led by Shen Yifan had already taken shape, it would be considered very good if they could help him with more than 90% of his daily affairs.

However, the problem was that integrating the retained schools was an unprecedented event. Almost everything they had encountered had no precedent, especially when it involved the interests of various forces.

Even if he'd made a lot of plans, when it came to real life, he still had to make decisions himself.

Under such circumstances, he couldn't be bothered to deal with a clown who looked like he was trying to scam him.

The verdict was that they were poor people, and in terms of strength, they didn't even have the right to talk to Lin Yi as an equal. They wanted him to go through public questioning with that attitude?

Lin Yi wasn't planning on letting them have their way-he wasn't their father, after all.

Shen Yifan said,"it doesn't seem like we can ignore it. There are people on the internet spreading conspiracy theories and slandering you for having an impure motive for organizing the training camp. The Wang family's descendants who entered the camp are also interpreted as you using the chickens to lay eggs and colluding with outsiders to hinder the Academy's resources. The repercussions are quite big."

Lin Yi took the phone and glanced at it-eight out of ten Hot Searches were conspiracy theories.

The number of fans he had before was the same as the number of Blackies now.

There were more people than one or two who were waiting to see him in trouble. There were several water armies behind the scenes, including the city Lord's mansion, the Prince of Nanjiang, and even the Academy's internal members.

Lin Yi had quite a few friends in Jianghai college, but he'd made quite a few enemies as well.

"Let them say whatever they want," Ren Tian 'er interrupted. "It's not like we'll lose a piece of meat. We can't just explain it to them one by one. It'll only make things worse."

In the end, little du Wang gave him a cold comment, ""Idiot."

"Excuse me," Ren Tian 'er was stunned for a moment. "Are you referring to me or those people on the internet?"

"....."

Everyone couldn't help but laugh.

In the end, Lin Yi explained himself, "We're now standing at the forefront of the storm. The gun hits the bird that takes the lead. At this time, all the other forces that can be put on the stage are waiting for an opportunity. Once we reveal any flaws, they will swarm us."

The public opinion on the internet itself is nothing. It's just a matter of a few Hot Searches, but if it's allowed to ferment, we might wake up tomorrow and find that we've become the public's enemy. "

"Is it really that exaggerated?" Ren Tian 'er was dumbfounded.

Shen Yifan laughed bitterly. "It's just that exaggerated. That's why the trial concluded that those people were not ordinary clowns. They dared to jump out at this time to be used by others because they had calculated the pros and cons. This is an open scheme."

"If that's the case, doesn't that mean boss has to go?"

"That's right. "

Lin Yi shook his phone, it was a short message from the Tian family's old man, Tian Xiangyang. The content was very simple, only one word.

Go.

At the same time, in the long-silent round table Council of the judicial Department, the 12 seats were filled with 12 presiding judges. Each of them was hidden under a cross-shaped cloak, and their faces were not visible.

A deep voice sounded.

"Because of the betrayal of the School Council, the Academy, and the repeat students, we, the twelve elders of the magic Court, were forced to give up everything and choose to sleep in the darkness like the Living Dead. Now, our chance to rebuild the sky has come."

"Tomorrow, as long as Lin Yi is judged guilty, we'll be able to take away all of his fate and fortune!"

"This undoubted heaven's chosen will become our most ideal stepping stone. Starting from him, we've been judged to restore the Supreme glory of that year!"

The 12 presiding judges let out a low, cruel sound at the same time.

If there were outsiders present, they would never have associated this scene with the sacred and just judgement Council. They would probably think that it was a secret sacrificial ceremony of some evil god.

The next day, under the live stream of the streamers, Lin Yi walked into the abandoned court.

The twelve presiding judges were arranged in a semicircle, each of them exuding a heavy aura. At first glance, they did look like gods and Buddhas, but these gods and Buddhas were all covered in cross-shaped cloaks and could not see the light.

Lin Yi sat down on the seat in the middle of the court with a calm expression, crossing his legs.

Just as the Chief Judge was about to speak, he saw a group of people enter from behind. He immediately snorted imposingly, ""Other than the specially invited public broadcast personnel, unrelated people are not allowed to enter. Get out!"

"Are we considered unrelated people?"

Tyrant was the first to speak, followed by Yan Chi, Tian Ji, little du Wang Duan she, Wang sanjue from the Wang family, and the head of the bodyguards, Yan Jiang.

He was a hegemon at the consummate level of the realm.

The twelve judges were stunned when they saw the group of people lined up behind Lin Yi.

There were also some top-notch combat forces among them. After all, a starving camel was still bigger than a horse. The trial judge was so powerful back then that even if he was suppressed to the point that he was left with an empty shell, it was not to the extent that he could not even bring out a top-notch combat force.

However, it was only one.

The remaining eleven were all high-end fighters, and they couldn't be considered weak in the outside world, but if they were to fight for real, they were confident that they could control Lin Yi at most.

As for the group of Ultimate Masters behind Lin Yi, they weren't even in their plans.

In other words, even if they had anticipated it, it would be useless because there was no way to deal with it. This was the difference in absolute strength!

As soon as these people sat behind Lin Yi, the internet was boiling.

One could only say that the trial was a joke in front of the repeaters. If it weren't for the fact that they were at the center of the storm, they wouldn't even have the right to let Lin Yi look at them.

The Chief Judge wanted to drive them away, but these guys were just sitting there casually, who could drive them away?

However, he had already said it, and it was too late to take it back. After all, this was a live broadcast on the internet. As the first battle of the judge's comeback, he couldn't just slap himself in the face, right?

The situation was very awkward.

In the end, it was Lin Yi who spoke first, ""If you have any questions, hurry up. I'm quite busy."

"....."

Everyone had weird expressions on their faces, and the Chief Judge choked on his words. A judge placed the most importance on dignity, and Lin Yi had turned the tables on him. Where was his dignity?

The internet was in an uproar.

Chapter 9823 The End

The professional ghostwriters started using this chance to attack Lin Yi for his insolence, while Lin Yi's fans, on the other hand, felt that this was his true nature-a top boss should have the confidence to look down on others.

In front of the head of the repeating school, what was a random Department that came from nowhere?

With Lin Yi's status, it was already a great honor for him to be present in public today. What was it? a bunch of dark people in cloaks who didn't even dare to show their faces? could they really judge Lin Yi?

The two sides quarreled.

The Chief Judge choked for a moment before he finally said coldly, ""Then let's start."

If it had been anyone else, he would've long since fired a judgement shot at them. Just based on this disrespectful attitude, they deserved to die on the spot.

Unfortunately, he didn't dare to.

Not to mention, at Lin Yi's level, a normal trial wouldn't have any effect at all. Even if it did work on Lin Yi, what if tyrant and the others flipped the table?

Once the top-tier fighting force fell out with them, the twelve presiding judges would not even be enough to fill the gaps between their teeth. There was a high chance that Jianghai Academy would no longer have such an establishment.

One of the presiding judges spoke first.

"Lin Yi, you're a new student, and according to the rules, you should be staying at the Council. You've broken the school's rules by coming to the repeat section without permission, and this is your first crime!"

His voice was accompanied by Rolling Thunder, as if a God was giving a warning. Under the special array of the trial, it could easily break through a person's mental defense and induce the most instinctive fear in the target's heart.

No matter how powerful or terrifying a person was, once a crack appeared in their mental defenses, they would not be far from falling.

The name of the judge was not just for show.

"So you're saying that I shouldn't be staying here?" Lin Yi asked with a weird expression.

"Of course not! A new student in the repeat school with an illegitimate name, what a disgrace!"

The elder who spoke was overjoyed. As long as Lin Yi left the repeat division, no matter what reason he used, it would definitely affect the entire division. It might even make all their efforts go to waste.

Of course, they knew that Lin Yi wouldn't give in so easily, but he didn't know how powerful the judges were. As long as they could get Lin Yi to say something, they could add fuel to the fire and make it a rule, and Lin Yi would have no choice but to give in no matter how strong he was.

The word 'judgement' represented the rules of judgement. This was the will of the heavenly Dao!

How could a mere Lin Yi go against the will of the great path?

"I'll go back to the Council then?" Lin Yi smiled. I don't have any objections, but there's a small problem that I need your help with. After all, even if I want to go back, I'll have to get Xu Anshan's approval first. "

"Emperor Xu Anshan?"

The 12 presiding judges were stunned, and they looked at each other.

Even though they had been living in seclusion for a long time, they had all secretly thought that Xu Anshan was one of the most powerful people in Jianghai Academy that they could not afford to offend.

This was because they were born emperors, and emperors were also known as the Son of Heaven. They had always been the biological sons favored by the heavenly Dao. If the trial really fell, it would probably fall directly on their heads.

Emperor Xu Anshan was like a natural enemy to the judges!

They couldn't wait to hide from someone like that-why would they go and mess with him for Lin Yi?

"It's your own business how you want to regain your footing in the Academy," the Chief Judge said coldly. "I won't interfere."

Lin Yi didn't say anything, but Wang sanjue, who was behind him, crossed his legs and smiled.

"Then I really have to thank you on behalf of Xu Anshan. It wasn't easy for him to control the overall situation of the Academy, but you had to put a giant crocodile into a small pond. This is going to be fun. I think Xu Anshan will like your gift very much."

"....."

The twelve presiding judges were once again at a loss for words.

Anyone who was in Xu Anshan's position would never want Lin Yi to return to the society.

With Lin Yi's current strength, he alone could change the entire structure of the academy. If he joined forces with Banshi Luo, the former second-in-command Chen Qingnian, and the former third-in-command Zhang Shichang, it would be unimaginable.

On top of that, the repeaters were obviously on Lin Yi's side. Even if they were up against Xu Anshan's entire school, they wouldn't be at a disadvantage.

If Lin Yi really had that kind of thought, it wasn't impossible for him to make a comeback and change the world.

If that really happened, Xu Anshan would definitely be the first to settle the score with them.

The Chief Judge coughed and said, "the situation of this batch of freshmen is special. The Academy has just been reorganized. There are many things that are complicated. It is understandable that they can't come up with a clear Constitution for the time being. Before the Academy gives a clear answer, this ruling will be put on hold."

The internet was in an uproar.

Someone immediately began to sneer, "I've learned it!" This is the art of speaking!"

"It's just a repeated jump. I thought people were different from each other. Only a street thug like me would play this kind of trick. It turns out that these big shots are the same."

"That's good. The one upstairs has the potential to be a presiding judge!"

This time, even the fake reviewers who were trying to smear Lin Yi didn't know what to say. They had racked their brains to come up with those fake posts about Lin Yi, but none of them were as lively as this live teaching!

The hot search that they had spent so much effort to create was trampled under the feet of the presiding judge's art of speech in minutes, and they had no power to resist at all.

At this moment, another presiding judge spoke.

"The person being interrogated is Lin Yi. You've taken in a large number of outsiders without permission, which is a serious violation of the school's rules. You've also greatly damaged the school's reputation and lowered the school's threshold. This has a terrible impact on the entire school's image. This is your second crime."

His words resonated with many of the experts in the Academy.

All this time, the reason why Jianghai Academy was able to maintain its reputation as a sacred cultivation ground was largely due to its strict entry requirements.

Non-Paragon experts were not allowed to enter the academy.

This was the most important aspect of Jianghai Academy.

Even those famous clans in Jianghai city could not get in through the back door. They could only strictly follow the standard. If one could not reach the basic threshold of a Big Shot's perfection, it would be useless no matter how high their status was.

If you can't get into Jianghai Academy, then you'll just be a spoiled brat no matter how much you brag. This was a common understanding in Jianghai.

It was also because of this that even Li MUYANG, the son of the city Lord, had to put up a name in the Academy to avoid being criticized by others.

Chapter 9824 The End

This matter directly affected the interests of everyone in Jianghai Academy!

Now, however, with the large number of disciples from the Wang family moving into the repeat division, even if it was just a temporary residence in name and not an official admission, it still affected Jianghai Academy's image and prestige.

At the very least, in the eyes of outsiders, Jianghai Academy was no longer as unattainable as it had been in the past.

Although many students didn't care about this, many of them felt the real impact. At least when they went out to eat and have fun, the people outside were no longer as respectful to them as before.

"In the past, whenever I mentioned it, it would always be that I know someone from Jianghai Academy. It's a matter of face and everyone around me would be envious.

But now, every single one of them is saying that many of my acquaintances are in Jianghai Academy and that they're not even as strong as I am. The students of Jianghai Academy are no longer the same as they were in the past.

To the vast majority of Jianghai University's official students, this was a real loss.

Not only face, but also inner power.

There had been a lot of complaints like this recently, but the retained students were closed off from the outside world, and it had always been chaotic and lawless, following the law of the jungle where the strong were respected.

As for the Council, Lin Yi didn't care even if someone complained online.

If Lin Yi ignored him, it wouldn't be popular.

Without heat, it naturally wouldn't be able to do anything.

But now, with the opportunity of the public trial, the accumulated resentment finally began to vent, which was much more effective than finding a group of internet trolls to defame him.

There were still a lot of supporters who stood up for Lin Yi, but at least in the school, Lin Yi had truly angered the masses.

"This kid is in trouble."

The clone, Tian si, stood behind Tian Xiangyang and watched the live broadcast. He naturally knew why Lin Yi did this. In fact, it was Tian Xiangyang's decision to accept a core member of the Wang family.

Lin Yi was just a subordinate.

As the leader of the Academy, no one would protect the image and interests of the Academy more than the Tian family. However, with the great calamity in front of them, it was more important to strengthen their strength.

In comparison, Jianghai Academy's so-called awesomeness was not even worth mentioning.

This point, anyone with a little bit of vision for the big picture could understand, but unfortunately, this kind of thing was destined to only be possessed by a very few people. The starting point of most people's thinking was always their own personal interests.

Moreover, although the top figures had already reached a consensus about the Great Tribulation, there were also some specious rumors in the streets.

However, neither Jianghai Academy nor the city Lord's mansion had ever made an official announcement to the public.

Not to mention the general public, even the vast majority of experts who had reached the level of a Big Shot's great circle of perfection were completely unaware of this. They still thought that their days would continue to be so peaceful.

All the families kept silent on this matter. They all had their own plans, but there was one thing in common.

He didn't want to cause public panic too early.

Whether it was for the sake of the big picture or for personal considerations, it was not a good thing to cause public panic too early.

But now, the time had come.

Lin Yi recalled what Tian Xiangyang and Banshi Luo had told him before he came, and he had expected this question.

"The catastrophe is coming. In order to survive, we should unite as many forces as possible. This doesn't seem strange, right? If everyone believes that this is a violation of the Academy's regulations, then I have nothing to say. "

"....."

The presiding judges were all stunned.

They'd thought of all the possibilities of Lin Yi trying to push the blame away, and they'd even thought that Lin Yi might just use the name of the Tian family's head, Tian Xiangyang.

After all, with the Tian family and the school board's support, Lin Yi would only be carrying out orders, and they wouldn't be able to convict him because the Tian family and the Board of Directors had the power to do so.

What they didn't expect was that Lin Yi didn't use the most reliable method, but threw out a big bomb instead.

This was a live broadcast.

The big shots who were watching the live broadcast all burst into laughter, especially the castellan li songzhang, whose expression was even more interesting!

If he had to say which family would be affected the most by the early announcement of the catastrophe, it would undoubtedly be the city Lord's mansion.

If it were any other occasion, if it were someone else, even if they said this, it would be of no use. After all, this kind of empty talk would not be easily believed by anyone with a little intelligence.

Even if they did, they would be suppressed by the city Lord's mansion at the first moment.

However, things were different now.

Not only was it a live broadcast, the person who spoke was Lin Yi. One had to know that on the internet, Lin Yi was almost an iconic figure of Jianghai's top combat power. Even Tian Xiangyang and Li songzhang weren't as influential as him.

In the eyes of the general public, his words were undoubtedly the authority!

Unsurprisingly, the internet exploded.

"Grand tribulation? What catastrophe?"

"Is it the end of the world? Could it be that a new doomsday movie has been released, and Lin Wuju is promoting it?"

"No wonder it's getting more and more chaotic recently. All the major forces have gone crazy, and their style of doing things is completely different from before. It makes sense now. I'm afraid a catastrophe is really coming!"

There were all kinds of comments on the internet, and most people were skeptical, but there were also many people who began to react.

Although it was impossible to completely verify something like a catastrophe before it really came, now that the major forces were taking the lead in preparing, the remaining people would soon follow suit.

The panic of the entire city was inevitable.

Looking at the series of urgent messages from Li Songzhang on his phone, the Chief Judge broke out in a cold sweat and quickly said, "Nonsense! Do you think you're fooling a three-year-old? How can there be a catastrophe in a peaceful world? Can you prove it to me?"

Lin Yi smiled, "There's no way to prove it, and I won't waste my energy trying to prove it. I'm just stating the truth. It's fine if you don't believe me."

All of a sudden, the Internet Water Army was mobilized collectively.

All kinds of comical pictures about the catastrophe were spread wildly, trying to define it as a prank to dispel everyone's panic.

The people from Lin Yi group didn't comment.

After Shen Yifan, no one stepped forward to clarify or deny it. It was completely cold treatment.

In other words, I can't be bothered to care what you think.

In fact, as long as he planted the seed of suspicion, Lin Yi's goal would be achieved. As for the rest, he'd just have to let the bullet fly a little longer.

Chapter 9825 The End

The Chief Judge was overjoyed. ""So you're confessing?"

"So what if he does?" Lin Yi raised a brow.

"Then accept the trial and judgment!"

The twelve elders joined forces and didn't give Lin Yi any time to react. The rules of judgement were strengthened by ten times under the influence of the court's formation.

The Chief Judge was a powerhouse at the pinnacle of perfection, and the rule power he mastered was the rule of adjudication.

In the past, the judgement division had been able to show off its power for a period of time because of the ruling rules set by a group of top-tier combat forces. Without saying a word, they would join forces to launch a judgment and ruling, not giving anyone a chance to reason with them.

But now, the strongest fighting force from back then had all died, leaving him, the substitute elder of the magic Court, to survive until now. The originally unremarkable little figure had become the face of the magic Court.

Although he had also entered the ranks of the top combat power and had mastered the iconic ruling rules of the trial, his control of the rules had barely reached the threshold of one percent.

If they were to be singled out, they would be at the bottom of all the top-tier combat forces, only slightly better than the top-tier experts who had cultivation levels but no rules.

However, at this moment, with the help of the other 11 presiding judges and the addition of the magic circle of the magistrate, the power of his judgment was at least comparable to 10% control!

Judge's signature vortex appeared above Lin Yi's head.

For a moment, a storm was brewing.

Everyone broke out in cold sweat for Lin Yi, and the twelve elders were all excited. After so many years of silence, they could finally see the light of day again!

If he wanted to re-establish his position as a judge, he had to start with a top figure who was in the limelight.

Lin Yi was the perfect target.

Even if this verdict couldn't kill Lin Yi right away, it'd be enough to make the entire Jianghai city remember the name of the judge!

One day, people would remember the fear of being sentenced to rule.

But when the judge landed, Lin Yi was still sitting there with his legs crossed, not even blinking.

Even tyrant and the rest of the top combatants behind him did not care.

No one took the 10% control of the ruling seriously.

"Isn't this a little too much?"

"He's so F * cking good at posturing. He's indeed the head of posturing. It's a pity that he'll have to be an idiot if he can't posturing today!"

Two completely opposite attitudes appeared on the internet.

As the person involved, Lin Yi only blurted out two words as he looked at the descending judgement, "Just this?"

Nothing happened after the judgement, not even a piece of Lin Yi's clothes was missing.

The entire place fell into a strange silence.

The twelve presiding judges were collectively dumbfounded. They turned to look at the Chief Judge in unison. This was different from what they had expected. He couldn't have missed, right?

However, li songzhang, who was watching the live broadcast, showed a solemn expression.

The moment judge's Whirlpool descended, he clearly saw the black flames on Lin Yi's body. It was this layer of black flames that swallowed judge, who had 10% control, in an instant!

The last time Lin Yi fought with tyrant and the other two, the crowd had cleared the area beforehand, so no one knew what happened.

Therefore, this was the first time the ultimate perfect domain was revealed to the public.

However, it was unknown how many people would recognize the goods.

Flame Chi shook his head speechlessly at this scene. Judgment was the same as his sin, both second-level laws. Even the principles of the laws were quite similar. Moreover, he also had 10% control over it.

If Lin Yi didn't even react to his sin, then this half-assed judgement that everyone worked together to create wouldn't be any better.

"Do you still want to continue?"

Lin Yi stretched lazily as he enjoyed the expressions of the judges under their cloaks. "If there's nothing else, I'll be going back."

Seeing Lin Yi get up, the elders all turned to the Chief Judge, panicking.

If they let Lin Yi go just like that, the trial would be a complete joke.

If the ancestors buried in the graves saw this scene, they would probably get up and strangle them to death.

Although the trial in the past was tragic, at least it was an existence that made people tremble with fear, and not this comedic star that made people want to laugh ...

"Lin Yi, I admit that you're strong, but just because you survived this doesn't mean you're innocent."

"The person being trialed is Lin Yi. Ever since you joined Jianghai Academy, you've been acting as you please in the Academy, the repeat Academy, and even the city Lord's mansion. You've caused chaos many times, destroying the peace and stability of Jianghai Academy and the entire city."

Everyone was confused.

What was this?

Lin Yi was good at causing trouble, but wasn't it a little too farfetched to say that this was a crime?

The Chief Judge continued, "for a freshman to become the number one of the repeaters in less than a year, anyone with a normal brain would know that this is definitely not normal."

These words resonated with everyone.

If it was only people like Yan Zhongyuan, they would be unprecedented abnormal existences, but no one would be too surprised. After all, peerless geniuses did exist, and most of the time, they were unreasonable.

However, Lin Yi's level of abnormality was far beyond the realm of a peerless genius.

Most people wouldn't believe that there was nothing fishy about it. No wonder there were conspiracy theories.

"So what? I'll cut it out for you guys to see?" Lin Yi said, a strange look on his face.

"It's hard to say what kind of conspiracy is behind this. If you want to prove your innocence, then let me examine you with the heart questioning mirror. Whether you are good or evil, everything will be clear after the mirror. Do you dare to?"

The Chief Judge stared at Lin Yi and laughed coldly.

The heart questioning mirror was a symbolic artifact of the trial court. It was equivalent to the public version of the soul-searching technique.

As long as a person's life story was reflected in the heart questioning mirror, it would be fully displayed, without the slightest omission. Naturally, there would be no more secrets to speak of.

The insidious nature of this move was obvious, but it received the support of the majority.

It was human nature to pry into other people's privacy, not to mention a top figure like Lin Yi.

Ordinary people might just watch for fun, but to an ambitious expert, this was more precious than any cultivation guidance.

Once they understood Lin Yi's core secrets, one of them might be able to replicate the path of his rise and become the next Lin Yi!

Chapter 9826 Power

Even if he took a step back, he would at least be able to find Lin Yi's weakness, which was equally valuable to someone as ambitious as Li Songzhang.

And so, Lin Yi would be The Biggest Loser of the day if he were to do it right-he'd never be able to make a comeback.

Lin Yi looked at the man like he was an idiot."You think I'll agree?"

The Chief Judge snorted coldly and said,"Of course you can refuse, but this proves one thing, you have a guilty conscience. At least you are not a magnanimous person.

If you're just an ordinary student, we can ignore your tracks. As long as you don't leave any solid evidence, I won't interfere.

However, in your current position, your every move will affect the safety of the entire Academy and even the entire Jianghai city. You have the responsibility to prove your innocence to all of us!"

Lin Yi didn't reply, but Wang sanjue was already laughing,"How can I prove my innocence? Take the initiative to look in the mirror?"

"There's an interesting saying in the secular world," the Chief Judge said calmly."With great power comes great responsibility. As the top student of the repeat Academy, does Lin Wuju not have any responsibility for the safety of the Academy?"

Yan Jiangshu, who had a cigarette in his mouth, laughed and said,"This moral kidnapping is pretty good. In this case, shouldn't you big shots of the trial take a photo first to show that you're fair and just?"

The Chief Judge snorted."Every Chief Judge has to look at the heart questioning mirror before taking office. This is the rule of the trial. Don't you know that?"

The other presiding judges echoed in unison.

Yan Chi said faintly, "I've heard of this rule before. However, it's one thing to follow the rule, and it's another thing to not follow it. Moreover, you guys are taking photos behind closed doors. This is completely different from the live broadcast on the internet."

Tyrant burped. "Even if we didn't find any suspicious people, it doesn't mean that they're still selfless after so many years. What if someone changed after taking the position?"

"....."

These words directly poked the lungs of the presiding judges. There was indeed no problem when they first took office, but they had been dormant for all these years. They had colluded with the city Lord li songzhang in private. If this was publicly exposed, they would die without a burial place in minutes.

It was hard to say if Lin Yi had any ulterior motives, but they were definitely traitors!

The Chief Judge had to change the topic. "I'm surprised you two are so protective of Lin Yi. "

"Does the trial Office care about this?"

Tyrant and Yan Chi's faces were filled with hostility.

They were unhappy when they were forced to accept Lin Yi's merger with the Big Five, but after seeing the results these days, they understood that this was the general trend and their dissatisfaction didn't matter.

Plus, Lin Yi had promised to give them all the benefits without any discount.

Especially since the training camp had already been prepared and was about to start, there was a consensus that had already been formed within their respective groups.

Being Lin Yi's ally was far better than being his enemy.

"I don't care who the two of you make friends with. However, if this person has ill intentions and wants to harm our Jianghai Academy or even the entire Jianghai city, you'll have to reconsider, right?"

The Chief Judge was afraid that the fire would continue to burn on his head, so he didn't give the crowd a chance to react and directly said, ""Since this matter concerns the safety of the entire Jianghai city, I've decided to raise the standard of the trial to the highest level and let all the powerhouses in Jianghai city above the late stage of Great Perfection cast a vote.

The minority is submissive to the majority. I hope that Lin Wuju will be tactful and take the initiative to accept the reflection of the heart questioning mirror. Otherwise, the scene will be too ugly and it will be disgraceful. "

After saying that, the 12 chief judges once again exerted their strength at the same time.

Under the power of the magistrate's magic circle, an unprecedented vortex of judgment occupied the sky, and its scale rapidly expanded.

Previously, the power of the whirlpool was only equivalent to 10% of his control. However, in just a short while, the power of the whirlpool had exceeded 20% or even 30%. The key was that it was still growing!

Lin Yi could ignore the ten percent, but it was hard to say when it was above thirty percent.

After all, his ultimate perfect domain did not really make him immune to rule power.

The essence was actually absorption, and as long as it was absorption, there was bound to be a limit. Once the limit was exceeded, it would go out of control and might even cause a backlash.

Moreover, from the looks of it, the control of this judgment was far from just 30%. It was not impossible to control it at 50%!

Tianji, who was behind him, reminded him, "this is the expansion of the rules. The more people participate, the stronger the power of the judgment formed. In history, there has been a precedent of a powerhouse at the pinnacle of perfection being pointed at and killed by thousands of people. We have to be wary of the so-called tyranny of the majority."

Wang sanjue frowned."They only allowed the experts of the late stage of the consummate level and above to vote. This is too F * cking sleazy. How many good people can there be at this level?"

Everyone turned to look at him. He was even scolding himself with those words.

But it was not without reason.

Other than the few people who were on Lin Yi's side, the majority of the high-level combatants, even if they had nothing to do with Lin Yi before, even if they were purely neutral, would vote in favor of him.

After all, everyone wanted to see Lin Yi's secrets, especially for these high-end combat forces. This might be the biggest opportunity in their lives!

Such a vote was no different from the decision of the 12 presiding judges. The result was already determined.

"Then what's the point of talking?" tyrant said directly."Just flip the table."

He didn't have any psychological burden about tearing down this dog-shit trial judge. The strength of the repeat students was King. Without strength, they still dared to make noise and attack. This kind of trash should have died long ago.

With the strength of everyone present, it would be a piece of cake to kill the twelve presiding judges.

It was just that this would leave a permanent stain on Lin Yi's name. Once he was sentenced to death, even the general public who were on his side in their hearts would be suspicious.

In most people's eyes, the most reasonable explanation for such an extreme reaction was that he had been touched on his sore spot and flew into a rage out of humiliation!

Lin Yi himself didn't care about his reputation-he'd never relied on these superficial things to get to where he was today.

However, the problem now was related to the overall situation. Once his image was tarnished, not only would it affect the process of regrouping for the repeat students, but it would also affect the College's Summit.

Pulling one hair would affect the whole body.

Lin Yi gave the people behind him a look to calm down before turning to the judges."No wonder you dared to call me here today. You came prepared."

"You're the one who's here,"the Chief Judge said, narrowing his eyes.

Chapter 9827

Lin Yi smiled,"it doesn't matter. If that's the case, why don't we just make it bigger? since we want to expand the rules, we might as well expand it to the end. Let the entire Jianghai city participate in the voting. I don't think any of you have any objections, right?"

"Hmph, a group of ordinary people with neither strength nor vision, what right do they have to participate in the voting?"

The Chief Judge snorted. "Those stupid lowlifes will only defile the Saints I judge. Instead of letting them vote, it's better to find 10000 pigs. That's more fair!"

The arrogance in his words was not concealed at all.

Lin Yi looked at him strangely-did this Guy Forget that this was a live stream?

However, he was thinking too much. The other party knew who he was talking to, but he didn't care at all.

In fact, even on the internet, there wasn't much response. At most, there were some sporadic abuse, but it was far from the level of a hot search.

For thousands of years, the strong preyed on the weak, and the words "strength is respected" had long been engraved in everyone's bones. Everyone had become accustomed to it.

The strong should be arrogant, and the weak should be lowly.

That was why the Chief Judge was so fearless in front of the live broadcast on the internet!

More importantly, he was the one who controlled the rules of judgement. The size of the trial group was completely under his control. As long as he was here, those lowly commoners would never have the right to taint his sacred court!

"Oh, really? I have a different opinion. "

Lin Yi looked at the Grand Whirlpool above him and smiled, not thinking much of it. "As a person on trial, I'm sure you have the right to make such a small request. I want everyone in Jianghai who has the ability to make their own judgments to be part of this trial!"

"Hehe, it's not even night time yet. Isn't it a little early to dream?"

The Chief Judge couldn't help but laugh as he looked at Lin Yi like he was an idiot. "I admit that you are very strong, but I'm sorry, the magistrate is my territory. I have the final say."

"You're that confident?"

Lin Yi shook his head and pointed upwards. "Why don't we take a look first?"

"You're deliberately mystifying!"

The Chief Judge scoffed. Only the ruling rules could change this ultimate trial, and as far as he knew, Lin Yi didn't know the rules at all. No matter how strong he was, he was just a judge at this moment.

Lin Yi might have a chance if he forced his way out.

As long as he continued to sit in the position of the trialist, he was destined to obediently accept the judgment. At that time, there would only be two results.

Or, he would obey the will of the majority and accept the reflection of the heart questioning mirror, and then there would be no more secrets.

Or, he would be killed by this unprecedented ultimate judgment. There was no third possibility.

However, when he raised his head, he was surprised to find that countless stars had appeared in the judgement vortex, like a sky full of stars!

Each star represented a voters.

He had estimated that even if the entire Jianghai city was covered, it would not exceed a thousand stars. After all, there were only so many high-end combatants in Jianghai city.

But now, there were more than a thousand stars in the sky. There were tens of millions of them!

This was obviously taking into account Lin Yi's words, including everyone in Jianghai who could participate in the vote!

At the same time, the whirlpool of judgement was also growing rapidly. In the blink of an eye, it had already broken through the 50% control barrier and was directly rushing towards 60% or even 70%.

The presiding judges were all dumbfounded.

"How did this happen?"

Everyone turned to look at the Chief Judge, but he was more confused than any of them.

In theory, he was the only one who could control the rules of the adjudication process. However, he had never done something like this before. It was obvious that he would win the game for sure. Dragging tens of millions of ordinary people from Jianghai city into this was simply asking for trouble.

How could he do such a stupid thing?

Of course, this way, the power of the whirlpool of judgment would be greater, and once it fell, it would be even more irresistible.

However, he couldn't guarantee that the lower class people would vote according to his thoughts. Not to mention, he had just said that these lower class people were worse than pigs!

"Could there be other experts who have mastered the rules of adjudication?"

The Chief Judge quickly looked at the people behind Lin Yi, but there was no one.

Due to the uniqueness of rule power, experts who had mastered the same rule power were like residents of the same building. They would more or less sense each other, and this kind of thing could not be hidden easily.

However, including Lin Yi, he couldn't sense any power of the rules of judgement from these people. This was why he was so confident!

Lin Yi smiled, naturally not pointing it out.

Although he didn't know the rules of adjudication, the power of adjudication that his ultimate perfect domain had just absorbed had indirectly established his connection with the rules of adjudication.

Due to the special nature of the ruling rules, he had indirectly gained control of the ruling Whirlpool above him.

Even though it was only a small portion and he would not be immune to it in the end, he could at least change the voting rules.

That was enough.

Behind him, Tianji looked at this scene with deep meaning.

He couldn't see Lin Yi's future, but he could see the outcome of the trial. Even if he didn't know the process, the result was already decided, and that was why he gave Lin Yi the decisive suggestion to come.

But even he was curious-how did Lin Yi Do it?

The perfect realm was Lin Yi's most important trump card, and he didn't tell anyone other than Banshi Luo. He didn't even know what was in the Jade space.

Ever since he had come to the earth-class Sea area, the ghost had entered a semi-dormant state of seclusion and rarely came out.

Even the Jade space went into a semi-closed mode, and Lin Yi let him be after a chat.

In any case, the ghostly thing would not harm him.

At this moment, the whirlpool of judgement above the magistrate had exceeded 70%. Under the condensation of the power of the rules, everything else had to retreat. Everyone seemed to see the origin of the rules of this world.

Lin Yi said to himself.

He had never been able to imagine what it would be like to have rule control over 50%, but now he finally saw it for himself.

Fortunately, this judgment itself only existed for judgment, and before he was judged guilty, it would not have any negative effects on him. Otherwise, if he had to rely on himself to withstand such a terrifying rule attack, it would be a big joke.

"Impossible! That's impossible!"

The Chief Judge was about to go crazy. At this moment, the stars in the whirlpool of judgment began to flash, which meant that the voting had begun!

Chapter 9828 Power

When the stars were bright, it meant that he was not guilty.

The darkening of the stars meant that they were guilty.

According to his previous assumption, the voting would have ended quickly if there were less than 1000 people involved. However, the number of voters had increased to tens of millions, which would take a long time.

The worst thing was that once the vote had started, it could not be changed, even if he was the initiator of the ruling.

He could tamper with the conditions and make Lin Yi 100% guilty, but once the voting process started, no one would be able to interfere.

The ruling system had to be neutral. This was the foundation of the existence of rules.

However, while he could not interfere with the voting process, he could influence the thoughts of the voters.

The Chief Judge sent a text to li songzhang, telling him to mobilize all of his internet trolls to attack Lin Yi on the internet. At the same time, he needed to use the influence of the city Lord's mansion to control the voters behind the scenes!

In the face of the so-called conscience and the threat of reality, most people would still make the right choice.

After all, one had to follow one's heart in order to live.

After receiving the message, Li Songzhang felt that something wasn't right, but this was a rare opportunity to deal with Lin Yi without shedding a drop of blood. He hesitated for a moment before doing it.

With a single command, the huge City Lord's mansion immediately took action, and the entire Jianghai city was jittery.

Compared to the embarrassing situation they were in when Lin Yi came knocking on their door, the atmosphere of the mansion had completely changed.

He was capable and ruthless.

However, what they didn't know was that when the City Lord's mansion moved, the field personnel of the Institute of Repeat Students' Intelligence Department, who had been in position for a long time, also moved.

This was the first group mission since the establishment of the Intelligence Division!

At the same time, in the headquarters of the Intelligence Department of the Hall of Kings in the Eastern District, Tang Yun was speechless as she watched Wang Shiqing's fingers flying across the keyboard.

The first hacker of Sky Class Island.

This was the glorious title that the little girl had given herself.

Tang Yin would've never imagined that she'd be able to teach a real hacker with her measly programming knowledge, especially a Sky Class Island native hacker.

That's right, Wang shiqing wasn't just learning for fun, she had really learned it!

She had a unique talent in making talismans, and even Lin Yi couldn't stop praising her. Making talismans and programming might seem completely different, but there were many principles that were similar.

And because of that, Tang Yun only needed to give a few words of advice and the little girl would be able to deduce many things from it.

Most of the time, it was awkward when the little girl brought up things that even Tang Yin herself was confused about. In the end, she could only say,

The master led the way, but cultivation was up to the individual.

Wang shiqing agreed with him, so she graduated and recommended herself to be the first Information Technology Director of the information Department of the retained students. Just the title alone was enough to highlight a major.

And now, it was time for her to show off her skills as a hacker.

The short message from the first head of the magic Court to li songzhang was intercepted. Together with the video of the city Lord's mansion's coercion taken by the intelligence department's field team, it was directly put on the internet and instantly became a hot search.

Public opinion exploded.

The public was already biased towards Lin Yi, but many people wavered because of their greed.

This was great. The trial concluded that they had become the villain, and the city Lord's mansion had directly become the mastermind behind the scenes. What else was there to say?

The whirlpool of judgement was bright!

When the voting ended, the judgement vortex was like a ray of sunshine on Lin Yi's head, not causing any waves at all.

The presiding judges sat in their seats, paralyzed by fear.

He was finished.

This unprecedented and terrifying judgement didn't only fail to punish Lin Yi, but it also gave him an unparalleled protection!

From now on, Lin Yi didn't even need to do anything himself if anyone dared to attack or defame him. The 70% control of the amulet would teach them a lesson.

But to Lin Yi, it was just an insignificant bonus.

His true gain was the judgment itself!

Originally, he was limited by his own realm. With the upper limit of the tolerance of the ultimate perfect domain, he would definitely not be able to withstand the judgment of this level. If he really wanted to endure it, he would disappear from the world at any moment.

In the end, because of the result of the trial, this judgment had become his protective talisman. Not only did it not have any offensive power, but it had even actively integrated into his ultimate perfect domain.

As the power of judgment was injected, Lin Yi could clearly feel the subtle changes in the perfect territory.

The scattered rule bending powers seemed to have found a backbone and began to revolve around the power of judgment.

He didn't know what the difference was, but as the owner, Lin Yi could feel that this was an evolution, an extremely high level evolution!

It was still unknown what form it would eventually evolve into, but one thing was for sure, it needed to be fed.

It needed all sorts of rule bending powers as nourishment!

"It's alright, this trip wasn't in vain. "

Lin Yi stood up calmly, and tyrant and the others behind him followed. A powerful aura enveloped the entire court, and even the formations were crying out and trembling.

The presiding judges were so scared that they quickly gathered together. The Chief Judge looked frightened. "What do you want to do? Don't mess around, questioning a suspect is the right to do so. We're not targeting you, we're just following the rules!"

"It's good to follow the rules. I like people who follow the rules. "Lin Yi smiled.

"That's right. We are all people who follow the rules. Lin Wuju, you didn't suffer any losses this time. On the contrary, we helped you prove your innocence. Everyone is happy," the Chief Judge quickly added.

Tyrant walked out from behind him. "I can't say that everyone is happy. I think it's a waste that the heart questioning mirror has been idle for so long. Don't you have an old rule in the trial, called 'I reflect on myself three times in a day'?"

"Why don't you all show us in front of everyone?"

"No, this is not how I should use my body. The heart questioning mirror is such an important divine artifact, how can it be used like this?"

The Chief Judge quickly explained, "Moreover, we have already looked at the heart questioning mirror when we were appointed as the presiding judge. There is no need to look at it again!"

"Whether it's necessary or not, it doesn't seem like it's up to you guys to decide, right?" Wang sanjue said unhurriedly.

Yan Chi nodded. "Since you want Lin Wu to take a photo, now that the trial is over, it's your turn to take a photo. That's very reasonable."

"You ... Don't mess around ..."

Seeing the group of top-tier combatants approaching them with hostile expressions, the twelve presiding judges were so frightened that they could not even speak properly.

This was a live broadcast.

Once it was taken, it would be a big problem!

Chapter 9829 Power

This time, even Li Songzhang of the City Lord's mansion couldn't sit still. Once these presiding judges live-stream the Heart Examining Mirror, he would be the first one to suffer.

However, this was not the most serious thing.

The news of him colluding with the Trial Division was all over the internet because of Wang Shiqing, the number one hacker in the Sky Class Island.

Although it would have a huge impact on the reputation of the Castellan's mansion, sitting in Li Songzhang's position would only make him feel a little troubled at most. It would not really affect the overall situation.

At most, it would give Jianghai Academy an excuse to declare war.

Speaking of which, if Tian Xiangyang really wanted to lay his hands on the City Lord's mansion, he would have plenty of excuses. He didn't lack this one at all.

The real hidden danger lay in the way he controlled these people. Ordinary experts naturally could not see the trick, but if it fell into the eyes of a real expert, especially when there was a person like Tianji at the scene, it would be a big problem.

This was directly related to his future plans!

Death.

The twelve judges were still trying to negotiate with Lin Yi in exchange for him giving in.

If they could work for li songzhang, they could naturally work for Lin Yi as well. The trial was a veteran of Jianghai Academy, after all, and it would be quite useful if they were put to good use.

But before they could finish, all of them, including the Chief Judge, died in front of Lin Yi and the others.

His body and soul were destroyed.

"To die so easily, it seems that a lot of effort was put in in advance. This group of fools still don't know."

Tyrant was once again hugging beauties in his arms. He pouted as he looked at the group of people's dead faces.

"That's right." Yan Chi nodded. "He instantly killed a Big Shot at the consummate level. It's clear that he put in a lot of effort."

Any top-notch combat power would not die so easily, especially when it came to using sinister means such as killing curses. Without any special means, no matter how strong the Killing Curse was, it would be suppressed by rule power.

This could only prove that not only was the other party's strength far superior to the Chief Judge's, but he had also put in extra effort.

In addition to the rest of the presiding judges who were at the late stage of the consummate level, the cost of this collective curse alone was an astronomical figure in terms of spiritual Jade!

The other party must have some hidden intentions to go through such great lengths to control an outdated judge. Just thinking about it made one shudder.

Lin Yi couldn't help but look at Tianji.

Tianji had already told him about this outcome, but from the beginning to the end, he had no intention of stopping it.

It was true that these presiding judges must be hiding a secret that was enough to make li songzhang restless, but now was not the time to expose this secret.

Once it was detonated in advance, the situation would very likely slide into an unpredictable abyss in a very short time.

Lin Yi had already given the citizens the necessary preventive measures, so what he needed to do next was to Let the Bullets Fly for a while to make sure he could get twice the result with half the effort.

With the sudden death of the last 12 presiding judges, the court, which was one of the founders of the Academy, came to an end.

Some people sighed, some felt sorry, and some felt regretful.

It was such a pity that she didn't get to see Lin Yi take care of the heart mirror, and the opportunity just flew away.

However, he only dared to grumble in his heart.

If they had to say it out loud in public, especially if Lin Yi were to hear it, they wouldn't dare to do it.

What a joke, these people were forced to their deaths by the trial. If it were them, they wouldn't even have the right to be forced to their deaths by Lin Yi.

What followed was the polarization of online public opinion.

From the results of the trial alone, most of the people were on Lin Yi's side, but many of them didn't really support Lin Yi. They just hated the city Lord's house more.

Now that the storm was over, all the suspicions about Lin Yi started to rise again.

The other group, however, were Lin Yi's hardcore fans.

It was the same as chasing after an idol-once you felt like you were in love with your idol, you'd sink deeper and deeper into it, especially when Lin Yi was a powerful existence.

Such a character had always been well-hidden, and ordinary people had no chance to see him. Even with the advent of the internet age, some big shots would occasionally show their faces on the internet, but they were still high and mighty, leaving only deep respect and awe.

But Lin Yi was different.

He was strong, but he was still the same Lin Yi that treated everyone equally-he treated them the same, no matter how strong or weak they were, even to normal people.

He was polite and natural.

Compared to those top big shots, even if he didn't deliberately cater to the people, he was still full of affinity.

The most important thing was that he had been doing big scenes one after another, and his popularity had been constantly rising.

"Watching Lin Wuju act tough is more satisfying than acting tough yourself!"

This was the simplest way of thinking for the general public, and that was how Lin Yi's hardcore fans came to be.

And so, a war of anti-fans that the common world loved to see was happening in Jianghai city. Even Lin Yi himself couldn't help but sigh.

Times had indeed changed.

However, compared to his side, the city Lord's mansion was the one that was truly in a terrible fix.

At least he had a large number of fans to help him clear his name, but the city Lord's mansion led by li songzhang was completely black.

Even if a large number of spammers were dispatched, they would not be able to wash it.

It wasn't just the case of the illicit affair. With the hard work of Wang shiqing and the group of retained students, the dark history of the city Lord's mansion was dug out one by one.

Everyone kicks a man when he's down. Under the protection of the repeat students, more and more victims came forward to give their own statements.

The people of Jianghai ate watermelons every day. They ate watermelons from the same store, but the most important thing was that the watermelons were different every day.

The city Lord's mansion's name was still on the hot search list, and even Lin Yi, who lived up to his name, couldn't shake it. It was clear how much public opinion had blown up.

The current governor's mansion was the mastermind behind all evil in Jianghai city's public opinion. It could not be any more evil.

As long as you scold the city Lord's mansion, we're friends.

The city Lord's mansion no longer had any credibility to speak of.

Although this dissatisfaction was only limited to online public opinion and had not yet been projected to the real world, anyone with a discerning eye could see that the foundation of the city Lord's mansion's rule was collapsing.

If not for the presence of Jianghai Academy, this would not have been a problem at all. Li songzhang would have been able to completely suppress them with brute force.

In the face of absolute power, the weak had no right to speak.

Chapter 9830 The End

But he didn't dare to.

This was because Tian Xiangyang had publicly announced that if the city Lord's mansion were to lay their hands on the commoners, the Jianghai Academy would not stand by and do nothing.

Although this was just a verbal promise, li songzhang really didn't have the courage to cross it openly.

Moreover, Tian Xiangyang's attitude wasn't just a verbal one. In order to prevent the situation from getting out of control, the Academy had sent a large number of Masters into Jianghai city, including Lin Yi's Intelligence Department.

If li songzhang dared to make any moves, he might be struck by lightning in the next second!

While the city was in a state of turmoil, Jianghai Academy had finally welcomed an unprecedented event under the warm-ups of all parties.

The Academy's Summit.

From the Tian family to the School Council, the Academic Council, the repeat Department, and other independent departments, all the top combat forces were present!

Countless people were anticipating the grand event that would represent the pinnacle of Jianghai city. Unfortunately, it was not broadcasted live.

This was a matter of course.

After all, this wasn't the kind of trial where the judges had ill intentions to put on a show. This was a Summit that could really decide the future of the top brass. All the topics were top-secret among top-secret, so how could ordinary people know about it, and even broadcast the entire process?

Not to mention ordinary people, even the high-end combat forces in the Academy were not qualified to attend the meeting.

The apex Paragon of the Almighties was the only pass to the summit.

Lin Yi was an exception.

Although there were also people who suggested that it was a little against the rules for him, a powerhouse at the peak of the middle stage of the consummate level, to attend the summit, he ended up being looked at by all the top-notch combat forces as if they were caring for an idiot.

The venue was set on an island, which was the private territory of the Tian family.

Just this point alone had already announced to everyone who the host of the Academy's Summit was.

When Lin Yi arrived with the repeaters, both the school and the Council were already there. They were more cooperative than he was, or at least more supportive.

This was not strange.

The Board of Directors was part of the Tian family's traditional sphere of influence, while the head of the student council, Xu Anshan, was half a member of the Tian family. In terms of relationship, they were indeed closer to Tian Xiangyang than Lin Yi.

With Lin Yi's reorganization of the repeat division, Tian Xiangyang was now in control of the entire Jianghai college.

Lin Yi's group's appearance had attracted a lot of attention, but it was still within everyone's expectations.

What really caused a commotion was the next force to arrive.

Banshi Luo.

The top combat power of the School Council was on guard against a great enemy. The psychological shadow left behind by this person back then was no less than that of Sea King Xiang Yusheng, who had publicly raised his banner to rebel. In fact, it was even more severe!

The Sea King was only rebelling, and at best, he wanted to replace the Tian family's position.

Even if he did succeed, the only thing that would happen to Jianghai Academy was a change in leadership. As long as they knew what was good for them, they would still be able to enjoy the good life.

However, Banshi Luo was different.

This person's idea is to subvert the entire Academy's structure and completely overthrow their group of elite rule. Once he succeeds, all the families with vested interests in the school board, including the Tian family, will fall from the altar.

He had to speak for the grassroots. Even though he had been suppressed in the prison of the Academy all these years, the name Banshi Luo had always been a dream for all the traditional elite families.

Especially with Lin Yi's sudden rise, the half-master class's reputation was greatly boosted!

Even if Lin Yi didn't explicitly say that he'd join a half-master class, his relationship with Banshi Luo was more of a master-friend Alliance.

However, his existence itself had already produced a huge impact on the original structure.

After all, he was the most typical case of a grassroots counterattack!

If it wasn't for his relationship with Tian Xiangyang and the fact that he didn't pick a side between Tian Xiangyang and Banshi Luo, he would have become the target of public criticism. At the very least, these traditional elite families in the school board would never allow him to continue rising!

There were two other people who appeared with Banshi Luo.

One of them was the second-in-command of the half-division, Chen Guo. When Lin Yi fought him, he was still a giant at the peak of the late stage of complete giant, but now he was at the ultimate complete giant, officially stepping into the ranks of the top-tier fighters.

The other one was a valiant red-robed woman, the legendary prison warden of the Academy, Qiu sanniang's idol.

Dongfang Yan.

Neither of these two were easy to deal with. Although Chen Guo had just advanced, with his Foundation, as long as he crossed the threshold, his combat power would definitely be incomparable to that of an ordinary powerhouse at the pinnacle of perfection.

As for the latter, the pressure that he exuded made all the top-notch combat forces on the scene wary even from a distance.

This woman was a real monster.

"Welcome, please take your seat."

Tian Xiangyang took the initiative to stand up and greet Banshi Luo. His tone was not very warm, but it still made everyone present feel shocked.

As Banshi Luo and the other two sat down beside Lin Yi, everyone's eyes focused on Tian Xiangyang, especially the elders of the school board. They were all in disbelief.

They could accept the Tian family's reconciliation with the ocean King, but they couldn't understand why the Tian family had to reconcile with Banshi Luo!

Wasn't this digging his own grave?

However, Tian Xiangyang didn't take the initiative to explain. It wasn't appropriate for them to speak rashly in such a situation. Even if they were dissatisfied, they could only hold it in.

After all, Tian Xiangyang's face was also their face.

If they were to make trouble for Tian Xiangyang at this time, even if they had the confidence to do so, they would only be laughed at by Banshi Luo.

"I heard from sanniang that you want to have a fight with me?"

Dongfang Yan sat directly next to Lin Yi, his long legs resting on the table as if no one was around. Even if he was wrapped up tightly, it still made people instinctively secrete male hormones.

In terms of leg shape, she was even more perfect than Qiu sanniang, and at the same time, more alluring.

"I said that?" Lin Yi's eyelid twitched.

"I'm quite interested. Let's pick a time next time. "

Dongfang Yan smiled meaningfully and turned to tyrant, who was sitting behind Lin Yi, "Fatty, I heard that your wine is pretty good. Would you like a few barrels to try?"

"....."

Everyone looked at tyrant with a strange expression. This was the first time someone had dared to call this guy a fatty in his face.

"Can a woman like you handle it?" tyrant looked at her.

"Even ten of you can't beat me," Dongfang Yan sneered.

"You're not even drunk yet and you're already talking big, you're shameless. "

Tyrant said as he threw three barrels at Lin Yi. These were all his thousand-year-old wine. Other than Lin Yi, this was a rare gift for him.

Dongfang Yan laughed and accepted all of them. He ignored the strange looks from everyone and started drinking in front of everyone.

That was called doing things his own way.
