Coming Home For Christmas #Chapter 18(s2) - Read Coming Home For Christmas Chapter 18(s2)

"When it comes to my family, it doesn't matter who or what's in front of me because loyalty isn't just a word, loyalty to me means /I'll drag you to the gates of hell myself to protect them' ~ Unknown Lacey's POV "I think he had help, Lace" "Meaning?" I drug out not understanding where he's going with this "Meaning that we may have a traitor in our mafia, kid"

T opened the thicker one first to get it out of the way and my eyes widened as my heart damn near stopped when [pulled the contents out of it and I saw several pictures of not only myself and my family on our yacht but also pictures of Logan and I having sx on it Holy st "What the..what the fk? h.how?..how did he get these pictures?"

I ask barely above a whisper as I look through them Chapter 18 - The Truth - Part 2 "We don't know, babe, I remember that day vividly and I don't remember there being any other boats on the ocean or planes in the sky, there wasn't even a f*+g drone out on that day" "Well, someone was clearly out there, Logan" I growl as I rub my forehead in frustration

I can't believe this bastard or whoever it was had the nerve to not only violate our privacy by watching us and our kids but also by taking pictures of us during an intimate moment It honestly makes me feel physically sick to my stomach to know that we were being watched and we had no idea "The first threat from Trevor is on the back of the last picture, kid" Klayton says and I briefly look up at him before I look at the back of the last picture which I quickly regretted when I read the disgusting words written on it "If you don't give me what I want, Klayton then I'm going to kidnap your beautiful, precious principessa and I'm gonna ++ her ass and py raw and then I'm going to torture and kill her all the while filming it for you to watch, I know how much she means to you so don't even think of f*++g with me, trust and believe me, Klayton, I always get what I want and one way or another I will get your mafia, maybe TI still take your precious princesa Lacey and make her all mine, only time will tell, T.L! "Wow, this guy is fg crazy" "You've no idea, Lace" Cassie said while sighing "So."

I started but stopped as I let out a breath "So, what does this asshole want from you, Klay? this can't just be Chapter 18 - The Truth - Part 2. of about the mafia and even if it were, why is he using me to get it? I mean, no offence to Cassidy but usually in situations like this, the evil villain always goes after the mob boss's wife and considering the history you both have got together, I'm surprised he hasn't gone for you" "He knows better than to come for me, sweetheart" Cassie says sternly

"He also knows how much you mean to me, kid and he knows that I'd go to the ends of the world to keep you safe and unharmed but what the gobshite doesn't know is that you're no damsel, so he's in for one hell of a surprise with you, baby girl because as nonno likes to say, messing with Lacey Antonelli is like messing with a box of lit fireworks and expecting not to get burned" Klayton says and I chuckle "So, that's why he's targeting you, Lace, as for what he wants...well, he wants to take over the Antonelli famiglia by killing me and becoming Don" He says and I scoff as I reach for the other envelope and open it

He can't do that, he's not family" I say as I look down at the blood-stained wedding invitation from mine and Logan's wedding in my hand and just like with the picture, there's a creepy and disturbing message on the back of it Wow This guy has got some serious f*+g issues "Actually, Lace...Trevor is my family, although not by choice" Klayton says and I look up at him shocked "What? how?"

"He's my maternal cousin" Chapter 18 - The Truth - Part 2 "Wait, what? auntie Maria's got siblings?" Task him and he nods his head "Yeah, she's got two" You don't say

I always thought auntie Maria was an only child, she very rarely talked about her family and I don't blame her if they're producing rats like this Trevor it "So, your enemy is also your cousin?" "Yeah" "Jesus, this sounds like a damn soap opera" I said while facepalming as they all chuckled Suddenly, a thought hit me and I felt like I had the wind knocked out of me as my mind ran rampant with just this one little thought

"Wait a second, that girl, that Kat girl...I heard you saying earlier that she was your cousin as well" "Yeah, she is" What the fk? "How?...how is she your cousin, Klayton? she's definitely not an Antonelli because I'd know it if she was, so..how?" "That's because she's a Lopez, kid, she's Trevor's sister" Klayton says whilst wincing like he knew I was about to blow a gasket and lose my st and that's exactly what I did "WHAT?" I shouted as I looked at my cousin with a shocked and

What? fk, this isn't good A traitor in the mafia is like having a rat in your home that doesn't make a sound but you know it's there watching you like a creepy stalker, although in this situation, as much as [hate rodents, I'd much prefer to have a rat in my home than a traitor in our famiglia At least with a rat they're easily caught and killed, it's hard to catch and kill a traitor who you know nothing about and by the time you do, it could be too lateNôvelD(ram)a.ôrg owns this content.

horrified expression "That girl is Trevor's sister?" "Yes, she is" Chapter 18 - The Truth - Part 2.7 Oh my god "Calm down, principessa" "Calm down? CALM f+++++g DOWN!" Is he being serious right now? His enemy's sister is living under our roof the same roof all of our family is currently under and he's expecting me to be calm, is he being for real?

"Klayton some psycho is on the loose looking for me so that he can kill you and you've got his ++g sister here with us...have you lost the fg plot?" I growl at him as I slam my hands down on his desk and stand up from Logan's lap I was so f+g furious like I wanted to hit something or someone hard and the last thing [wanna do is hurt my cousin, his wife or my husband, so, that's why I put some distance between us

"Will you watch your language, Lacey, I won't tell you again" Klayton said through gritted teeth pissing me off even further "Oh, I'm sorry daddy, am I upsetting you by cursing so damn much? maybe, I wouldn't curse if there wasn't a sick, psychotic fk out there threatening my life and his sister wasn't staying under the same roof as me and my family" "Katerina's not a threat, Lacey, I promise you" Klayton said as he stood up and came and stood in front of me He looked down at me and I could see honesty and sincerity in his eyes but I wasn't buying it As the good old saying goes, I wasn't bor yesterday and I'm not gonna believe this girl isn't a threat to me or my family until I see it for Chapter 18 - The Truth - Part 2 7 myself "How do you know she's not a threat, Klayton?" "Because I just do, Lace" Klayton says as he places his hands on my shoulders "She's not our enemy, kid, I swear you can trust her"

"Trust? really?" Task while scoffing "I'm being serious, Lacey, you can trust her" "And how do you know that, hmm? how do you know for sure that we can trust her, Klay? I mean, hell, how do you know that she's not the one who took those damn pictures of us for her creepy brother?"

"How do you know she's not the traitor, hmm? I mean, think about it, she'd be the first guess, right? the most obvious one considering she's Trevor's sister but all she has to do is bat her eyelids and play the innocent and naive card to keep you both believing she's one of us when really she's all for her brother and his familia" I say and Klayton shakes his head "No, you're wrong, Lace, we know we can trust her because she's one of the few people who put their lives on the line to help Klayton rescue Cassius and me when kidnapped me several years ago" Cassie says sounding genuine but like with Klayton, I wasn't buying it

"Or maybe Trevor knew he was done for at that moment so he had his sister infiltrate our mafia to make you think she was some damsel and then he'd have someone on the inside for when he comes after you guys again" Chapter 18 - The Truth - Part 2. wy "You're wrong, Lace" Klayton says whilst looking at me shocked "Am I?..am I really wrong, Klay? think about it, why would she turn her back on her own family? why would she turn her back on her own brother? you don't abandon your family, Klayton, so why did she?" "Because like you said earlier, kid, Trevor is a sick

motherfucker and Katerina witnessed him do a lot of crazy and disturbing st over the years, he f*d her up royally and forced her to witness so much from such a young age...that's why she turned her back on him and sided with us, Lacey because she was mentally and emotionally exhausted and she couldn't take it anymore" He says and I sigh in frustration Sensing how frustrated and tense I was, Klayton grabbed hold of my hand and held it in between both of his "Look Lace, I understand why you'd feel this way and I get it, believe me, I do but I need you to trust me on this, sweetheart" Klayton says whilst looking me in the eyes

"I need you to trust me not just as your Don but as your cousin, your blood...I need you to know that I would never ever in a million freaking years have Katerina anywhere near you or our families and she'd most definitely be six feet under right now if I believed for so much as a millisecond that she was untrustworthy and she was working undercover for our enemies and you know this, Lace..you know better than anyone that I'd never put our family at risk like that...hell, I wouldn't have agreed to make Kat a capo in my mafia if I couldn't trust her" He says and my head immediately snaps up as I look at him in shock "You made her a capo?"

"Yeah, I did" He says with a smile "Why?" "Because she's family and I trust her" He said whilst gently squeezing my hand "Don't think I can trust her, Klay" I said as I looked down at our hands and subconsciously began to trace the eagle tattoo on the back of his left hand with my fingers

"Wait, so..I'm confused, what do we do now? if we've got a traitor in our famiglia then we need to find out who it is ASAP" "Trust me, kid, I've got a group of highly intelligent men working on it as we speak and they're not gonna stop until they find out who it is" Good we Sy ns

"I know...but you will once you get to know her and you see what Cass and I see in her, I promise you, principessa" I looked up into my cousin's eyes and I instantly felt bad when I saw the hurt and tom look in his beautiful brown orbs I wanna believe him and trust his instincts I really do because I know as a mafia Don, he isn't handing out trust like it's candy but how can I? How can I trust his instincts and still feel safe with me and my family here on this island knowing full well that Katerina is also here and she's the sister of Klayton's enemy who is targeting me to get to him? Klayton may trust this girl wholeheartedly but I certainly don't and from now on, I'm gonna be on high alert whenever I'm around her until she can prove me wrong and she proves to me that she can be trusted I swear on my life though that if she does end up proving me right then I'll be the one to end her for good because I'm not gonna tolerate anyone fg with me and my family

"When it comes to my family, it doesn't matter who or what's in front of me because loyalty isn't just a word, loyalty to me means /I'll drag you to the gates of hell myself to protect them' ~ Unknown Lacey's POV "I think he had help, Lace" "Meaning?" I drug out not understanding where he's going with this "Meaning that we may have a traitor in our mafia, kid" What? f++k, this isn't good

A traitor in the mafia is like having a rat in your home that doesn't make a sound but you know it's there watching you like a creepy stalker, although in this situation, as much as I hate rodents, I'd much prefer to have a rat in my home than a traitor in our famiglia At least with a rat they're easily caught and killed, it's hard to catch and kill a traitor who you know nothing about and by the time you do, it could be too late

"Wait, so..I'm confused, what do we do now? if we've got a traitor in our famiglia then we need to find out who it is ASAP" "Trust me, kid, I've got a group of highly intelligent men working on it as we speak and they're not gonna stop until they find out who it is" Good Chapter 18 - The Truth - Part 2 I thought to myself as I looked down at the two envelopes in front of me

A part of me didn't want to open them and find out what this sick bastard had sent to my cousin but the other part of me was intrigued and eager to know what kind of threats he's been making so that I could prepare myself

I placed my hand on the envelopes intending to pull them over to me but I was stopped by my cousin who placed his hand on top of mine "Are you sure you wanna look at these, principessa?" He asks me and I nod my head "Yeah, I'm sure, I need to know what's inside of them Klayton, not just because I want and need to but also because I know it'll play on my mind if I don't look at them" I tell him honestly Klayton and Logan shared a look with each other which made me feel even more nervous as my cousin nodded his head "Ok, fine" Klayton moves his hand away from mine and I nervously bring the envelopes closer to me

BANG!!, BANG!!, BANG!!, BANG!!, BANG!!, BANG!!, BANG!! No, we're not under attack even though my target would beg to differ After [had that stressful conversation with Klayton, Cassie and Logan, I decided that I needed to let off some serious steam, so [came down to my cousin's gun range to fire off a few rounds and hopefully ease some of my stress Not many people know that I can shoot a gun, in fact, only a handful of people know and that's because I'd rather people didn't know because it's none of their business

The target was then pulled forward and just like with all of my others, the head was gone "What the? how? how did you?..shit" Ashocked Katerina stumbled over her words as she looked at my target with wide eyes I smirked as I took off my goggles and ear defenders and looked at Katerina

"Don't underestimate me, Kat, I may look like a sweet and innocent girl who writes books for a living and has got a perfect husband and kids but trust me when I tell you, I'm not to be messed with, especially when it comes to my family, do you understand me?"

Katerina narrowed her eyes at me and her eyes were filled With so many mixed emotions "Klayton's my family and he's someone I love and hold near and dear to my heart..I won't be happy with anyone who makes a fool out of him and betrays him, especially for a scumbag such as your brother" "I'd never do that" Katerina says barely above a whisper and I smile at her "Good, I'm glad to hear it"

I say before leaving the gun range and heading back home I know I probably just came off as being a major bh or a nasty mean girl but right now, I honestly don't care Yesterday, I was a normal woman living a normal life and now, I'm a pawn in a war between two angry warring cousins/mafia Don's You honestly can't make this st up I was walking through the gardens heading back to the mansion when I bumped into Klayton "Hey kid, are you ok?"

"I'm fine, why wouldn't I be?" Task with a smile Klayton narrowed his eyes as he looked at me with a curious gaze before a smirk made its way onto his handsome face "You've been to the gun range, haven't you?" "Mmm-hmm"*

"How many targets did you destroy?" "None" I say whilst tucking a piece of hair behind my ear as Klayton looks at me with a raised eyebrow and an expression like you can't fool me, principessa "How many, cugina?" "Just ten" "Ten?" "Ok, forty"

Klayton once again raises an eyebrow at me and I roll my eyes and sigh "Fine, I destroyed fifty, are you happy now?" Task him and he laughs as he wraps his arms around me giving me a hug "Very, principessa" Klayton said while kissing the top of my head "Do you feel better now?" "Tons better but I'll feel even better once I've seen my babies and got a hug from all of them" I say and Klayton looks at me with guilt swimming around in his eyes "I'm sorry for putting all of this bullshit with Trevor on your doorstep, Lace" Klayton sighed in annoyance and I smiled at him "You haven't put anything on my doorstep Klayton, st like this is just par for the course in our world, I guess" "still, Lace..you shouldn't be dragged into something that's Klayton says as he looks down at me "Well, I have been brought into it and now we have to make the best of it until we can find Trevors stupid ass and end him for good, besides, like you said earlier, Trevor's not gonna know what hit him if he messes with me, I mean, he obviously thinks I'm some weak little woman if he's targeting me instead of Cassie" "Or maybe he's worried for his little boyfriend after what Cassie did to him" Huh "Wait, what? Trevor's gay? actually no, what did Cassidy do to his boyfriend?"

Task feeling confused but also excited for a little bit of gossip Klayton also chuckled at my excitement as he stroked my hair NôvelD(ram)a.ôrg owns this content.

I learned how to shoot a gun many years ago when Carmella told me shooting a gun was a great way to relieve anger and aggression, so we went along to a gun range one day and ever since then, I've been obsessed I was even offered a gun by my grandfather when he found out I'd learned how to shoot one but I turned it down because I didn't feel comfortable having it in my house with my kids there

"First of all, Lace, Trevor's bisexual, he loves both sexes and secondly, he underestimated my wife and thought because she had no clue about the mafia at the time he had kidnapped her that she was just some weak little woman when in reality

she was just like you, a beautiful face with an innocent aura and a Glock in her waistband" He says and I chuckle "What do you mean?" "She shot Trevor's lover in the leg when Trevor mocked her for being just a girl who doesn't know how to shoot a gun" He says and I groan in annoyance

"You men say the dumbest st sometimes" I say whilst facepalming "Hey, I don't, I know better than to mess with my woman when she's Chapter 19 - Just When Things. ~) armed" "That's very smart of you" I say with a chuckle "Anyway, do you know where Logan is?" "He was in the gym the last time I checked, kid"

"Cool, I'm gonna go and see him" "Ok, I'll see you later, cugina" I kiss my cousin on his cheek and he briefly hugs me before walking away I then headed towards the mansion and went down to the basement area which isn't like your average basement It's a really clean area with several large rooms including a gym, two adult entertainment rooms and several storage rooms, there are also several bunkers as well which were designed in case of an attack but I don't think they've ever been used because nobody would dare to ambush us on our own island

Anyway, I headed towards the gym and I almost soaked my panties when I got there and I saw the sight in front of me Logan is punching and kicking away at the boxing bag, he's wearing nothing but a pair of black shorts, he's sweating from head to toe and his muscles, those shredded, delicious muscles of his that I love so much are bulging and rippling with every punch and kick he does f++k me sideways on a motorbike This man is so f+g sexy "You really know how to turn a woman on, don't you, baby?"

I ask earning my husband's attention as he looks over at me and smiles Chapter 19 - Just When Things.) "Come here, wife" Logan commanded me in a husky and dominating voice as he beckoned me to come closer to him with two of his fingers "And what will you do if don't, husband?" I ask with a smirk and he raises an eyebrow at me

"If you don't then I'll punish you" "But I love it when you punish me" "Do you now?" "Mmm-hmm" I say as I walk over to my husband and wrap my arms around his neck I know he's all sweaty but I honestly don't care right now because I need to be close to him "Well, in that case, do you wanna sneak out to our yacht tonight after we've put the kids to bed and have some fun in our cave?" Logan asks as he wraps his arms around my waist and my smile immediately drops "I don't know, babe" "Why not?" Logan asks as he narrows his eyes at me "I don't know, I just don't feel safe on our yacht anymore" "Babe, our yacht is perfectly safe and it's got guards watching it" "I know, it's just..."

I briefly look down and sigh before looking back at my husband "After seeing those pictures today, I just feel icky, I feel violated, I mean, how do we know this guy hasn't.." Chapter 19 - Just When Things I drifted off when a thought suddenly came to my mind "What? what's wrong?" "Oh my god, come with me" I grab hold of Logan's hand and rush out of the gym with him

"Babe, what's going on?" "Just wait one second" When we arrived at Klayton's office, I searched his drawers for the two envelopes he had shown me earlier and when I found them I looked through every single photo carefully "Lacey, what's going on, love? you're worrying me" "Look at these pictures and tell me what you see" I spread the pictures out on the desk and Logan stood behind me as he looked at each photo "I don't see anything, Lace"

I've been down in the gun range for around half an hour now and I think I may have destroyed the heads of quite a few targets I don't know why I'm aiming for the head but it's done wonders for relieving my anger and I don't plan on stopping just yet or at least that's what I thought "Oh Lacey, I didn't know you'd be here" Chapter 19 - Just When Things Katerina's chirpy voice says and I groaned as I threw my head back The devil never misses a f+g beat, does he?

Urgh!, men "If these photos were taken by someone on a boat or even a plane then they'd be bumpy, right? because of the air or sea but these aren't, they're stationary almost like they were shot right in front of us, not to mention, if you look close enough then you'll see that it looks like someone on our boat had taken them because of how close they are to us" "But the only people on our boat were us, our kids and our staff who have all been vetted, so how's that possible?" "Well, there's more than one way to take a picture, love" Chapter 19 - Just When Things. aa? I say as I look up at my husband nervously

I then picked up the phone and called Klayton asking if he could meet us out on the dock with our grandfather and his tech guy Logan and I then left the office with the pictures in my hand and headed towards our yacht I felt like I was gonna be sick and I hoped to god that I was wrong and maybe whoever took these photos is just someone with a very steady hand but I don't think am wrong because as Logan said earlier nobody else was out on the water or in the sky during our trip, so this is the only viable reason for how these photos were taken "Principessa, what's going on? why did you call us out here?" My grandfather asks me

"Because of these, nonno" T say whilst holding up the pictures and my grandfather immediately covered his eyes "Lacey principessa, put those away before you give your poor nonno a damn heart attack" "Sorry, nonno" I say with a chuckle "What about the pictures, Lace?"

Klayton asks me "I was looking at them again and something seems off with them" "Like what, kid?" "Follow me and we'll find out" All of the men shared a look with each other before following Logan and me onto our yacht We first went to the pool area where the majority of the photos were taken before going up to the top of the boat where the X-rated pictures were taken "Did you guys have this place cleaned?" Klayton asks whilst looking around in disgust "Yes, we did" I say while rolling my eyes "Good, I don't wanna get any of your love gunk all over my Gucci shoes" Oh my god, this man I thought to myself as I facepalmed "Ok, where do you want me?" The tech guy asks and I look down at the photos and see there are two areas where the photos had been taken

"There and there" I pointed to two air vents, one that was in front of where we had s* and one that was on the side The tech guy did his thing and my heart raced as I waited to hear his answer "So, what's the verdict, Eddie?" Eddie looked up at us with a nervous expression and my heart dropped as he made a sign letting me know what I already knew Someone has bugged our yacht with cameras and god knows what else

Sat / think I'm gonna be sick

"Is this your first time here?" "Yeah, it is" It's not but a little white lie won't hurt, right? "It can be kind of daunting coming to the gun range for the first time but you'll get used to it" "I'm sure I will" I say with a smile as I reload my gun

Katerina put on her goggles and ear defenders before loading her gun, she then fired every single shot and I watched as the target was brought forward "Oh shoot, I missed a few" She's a capo and she's missing shots Maybe I'm being a bh right now because of what I've just found out which is messing with my mind but I think Klayton has missed the mark with this girl My cousin expects all of his capos to be crack shots and only to miss a shot if they're injured and here's Katerina missing not one or two but a whole bunch of shots

"How long have you been shooting for, Katerina?" "Oh for several years now, my brother taught me when we were living in Madrid and then Klayton had me retrain under him when I joined his mafia" She says and I nod my head "Right" Chapter 19 - Just When Things. ~ "Look Lacey, I know you don't trust me and I don't blame you..I'd probably feel the same way if the roles were reversed but I promise you, you've got nothing to worry about with me"

"Haven't I?" I narrowed my eyes at Katerina who smiled back at me as she nodded her head "I'm an Antonelli now in everything but blood" "And your brother? what about him?" I ask feeling my anger rise again "fk my brother, I hate him" Katerina says with so much hatred in her voice but I wasn't buying it just yet

This could be a genuine and honest response or it could be her acting to fool me, only time will tell which one it is but right now I'm not taking any chances "Really? and what about Klayton?" "Like I already told you, Lacey, you can trust me...I'd never betray my cousin or our family" She says and I once again nod my head as I lift my gun up and fire every single round in my chamber

I have never been more embarrassed than I am right now and I don't think I can ever look my cousin, my grandfather or Eddie the tech guy in the eye again after today If you're wondering why, well, let me explain After we'd discovered someone had hidden secret cameras on our yacht to film us, Logan had Eddie look over the entire thing including our bedroom and s*x cave to see if there was any more hidden spyware that we didn't know about So far, no more bugs or cameras have been found, thank god but Eddie has said that he'd like to do a full sweep just to make sure because bugs and cameras can come in all shapes and sizes and it wouldn't take a lot of work to hide them somewhere

“Anyway, like I was saying, in that movie, the police override the bomber's cameras with an image to trick him into thinking everything was normal and going according to his plan when in reality the police were emptying the bus”

Isaid with a contented sigh as I thought about that particular moment in the movie “I haven't seen that movie in so long, I think maybe we should watch it tonight” I say and Logan scoffs

“Maybe not, babe” “Why not?” Task annoyed and what Logan said next left me with my mouth gaping open in shock and my face was beetroot red “Because Lacey, every time we watch a movie, we always end up having s*x and I don't want to have s* with you knowing you'll be thinking of Keanu Reeves when we do it, 50 no, we're not watching it tonight..for god's sake, it's bad enough you still have dreams about Tom Hardy” Js he being serious right now?

"First of all hubby dearest, I don't dream about Tom Hardy, I've always faked those dreams to piss you off and make you jealous” Chapter 20 - Shots Fired Tsay and Logan looks at me with a shocked and angry expression "And secondly, women don't do that, Logan, we're not scoundrels like you men who can think about or picture any hot piece of ass when they're screwing their wives” “If you say so, Lace” Logan groaned and I rolled my eyes

Men are so f*+*g dramatic “So, which option would you guys like?” “What do you think we should do, Klay?” Tasked my cousin who stroked his stubbly chin as he thought “Keep them up and do the second option, Eddie until we can run a trace on them and hopefully find out where the little rat is hiding out” "Ok, Don" Eddie quickly left and we followed not too far behind them

We left our yacht and headed back towards the mansion Where we bumped into my grandparents “Hey guys, where have you all been?” “Hey grams, we were just checking out some things on our yacht and making sure everything's ok” “Is everything ok?” Duke asks and I nod my head “Everything's more than ok, guess what they've got on their boat, Bunny?” “Nonno”

I groaned “What? what's on their boat?” Chapter 20 - Shots Fired. — “A dungeon of filth, Bunny, fifty shades of filth to be exact” Jesus, kill me now “Lacey Olivia Black ne Carpenter” My grandmother gasped "You've got a bm room?"

Bunny said sounding disgusted and disappointed or at least that's what I thought I heard in her voice but it turns out I was wrong "Can Duke and I use it?" "Grams" I gasped "Bunny, what the hell?" Klayton said while laughing "What? you don't get to our age without trying new things in the bedroom, Klayton my dear"

"Grams..." "If there's one tip I can give you youngins is that you should always keep it spicy in the bedroom that way you'll never get bored" Oh my god Am I seriously having this conversation right now? "Bunny's right" My nonno says and that was enough for me "Bye, I'm not staying around and listening to my grandparents talking about s*x"

Isaid before storming off and everyone behind me chuckled I headed inside and went in search of my babies who I haven't seen since lunch Chapter 20 - Shots Fired We've been on the island for a few days now and my kids have enjoyed spending time with our family and enjoying all of the amenities Klayton has had built on this place and trust me there are a lot of amenities here for them to enjoy I expected to find them in either the theatre room, the games room or the swimming pool area but no, I found my kids in the living room playing board games of all things

It creeps me out to think that someone has come onto our yacht and has hidden bugs and cameras to spy on us and the fact that it didn't take them much effort to do it is even creepier to me Anyway, my grandfather and Klayton didn't come into our s* cave but they didn't have to when they briefly saw some of the decor and put two and two together Klayton found it hilarious whereas my poor grandfather was disgusted that his little precious, principessa would be into this sort of thing and this statement alone had me rolling my eyes

Don't get me wrong, there's nothing wrong with playing board games, It's just rare you'll catch anyone who was born passed the year 2000 playing with one "Mummy look, we're playing Monopoly"

"Really? where did you find this?" Lask as I walk over to the travel cot and pick up Valentina who was wide awake while her brother was fast asleep Urgh! he's just like his father All of my children are little buggers for sleeping and it takes alot for them to be woken up just like with Logan, so much so that I highly doubt a freight train bursting through the room could wake Vito's little ass up right now "Grams gave us it, she said you, our uncles and our cousins used to play it when you were younger" "Yeah, we did"

"But why, mummy? why didn't you just play a game on the internet instead?" Dayton asks looking and sounding baffled as I chuckle at him "Dayton baby, the internet wasn't like what it is now, actually, I think it was just getting started when I was your age" Chapter 20 - Shots Fired. 4 "So, you had no internet, mum?" Teddy asks sounding shocked and I nod my head

"That's so sad, I can't imagine not having the internet" "It wasn't all bad, Teddy baby, I mean if you think about it, you don't miss what you never had, do you?" "I guess" I bounced Valentina up and down on my lap just as my parents walked into the room with a tray full of snacks and drinks "Lacey baby, I didn't know you were in here, if I did [would've brought you something to drink" "Don't worry about it mom, I just came to spend some time with my babies, that's all, besides, I'm grown, if I want a drink then I'll go and get myself one" I say with a chuckle as I kiss Valentina's face "Are you going to play with us, mummy?" "Oh no baby, I think I'll just sit this one out and watch you guys" "It's a good job mommy's not playing with us, Lo, she gets very competitive with Monopoly" My dad said and I gasped "Daddy, don't lie on my name like that, I do not get competitive"

"Are you scared of us beating you then? is that it?" My dad asked with a smirk I was about to respond to him when my eldest boy joined in with his grandfather's taunting "It's ok, gramps...if mummy is too scared to play then maybe she should sit this game out" Oh these motherfuckers Chapter 20 - Shots Fired. y "Mom, can you take Valentina for me, please? I need to teach these boys a lesson" "That's my girl" My mom smirked as she took my baby girl from me I then sat down on the floor and grabbed one of the little silver game pieces "Game on you two" Klayton's PO "What have you got for me, Eddie?" "I'm still working on it, Don"

For f+s sake "How hard can it be to run a freaking trace?" I growled at him "Normally, it's not that hard but whoever set this up is good and they know every trick in the book to either hide the tracking or divert it through a series of dead ends so that it can't be tracked" "Giving up isn't an option, Eddie" I said through gritted teeth "This asshole has been spying on my cousin and her family for god knows how long and you're not gonna give up until you find something for me, do you understand me?"

"Don't take this the wrong way, Don but did I say I was gonna give up? trust me as a husband, a father, a brother and a son, I can only imagine how you're feeling right now and I know that I'd be just as furious as you are right now if someone was secretly spying on my loved ones" "Good, then use that fury to get me what I want" I started to pace up and down my office as I waited for Eddie to give Chapter 20 - Shots Fired. Jf me some good news Unfortunately, I was met with a groan as he slammed his fists down on my desk just as Logan entered my office "What's going on? why are you groaning?"

"I agree, what's with the groan, I don't like that groan" "It's encrypted" Eddie once again groaned in annoyance

"SO, WHAT'S THE VERDICT, EDDIE? IS THERE ANY SPYWARE IN THAT DUNGEON OF FILTH?" Chapter 20 - Shots Fired. — My grandfather says and I roll my eyes "I thought s*x was perfectly normal and healthy, nonno?" "Normal s*x is normal and healthy, principessa, not whatever you and that husband of yours do in that room, Lacey" Oh my godNôveID(ram)a.ôrg owns this content.

"I was finally able to get a trace on Trevor's location but then it scrambled meaning it's encrypted and I don't have authorisation to access it" "So what? it's a dead end?" Logan asks sounding annoyed "Not necessarily, I can still try and break through it and gain access but that's gonna take me some time" "How much time?" I ask Eddie "I don't know, it could take me days, weeks or even months to do it"

"Then do what it takes and hire whoever you have to, ok..."

money isn't an issue, do you understand me?" "Yes, Don" Eddie said just as my phone pinged I pulled my phone out of my pocket and narrowed my eyes at the weird text I had received from an unknown number "What the fk?" Chapter 20 - Shots Fired. — "What?" Logan asked me and I showed him the text "Have you checked the children?" "Isn't that a line from When A Stranger Calls?" Eddie asks confused

"Yeah, except this isn't a stranger" I said as my phone started ringing "Antonelli" "Hello there, cousin" "Trevor" I say through gritted teeth I then put my phone on the loudspeaker so Logan could hear our conversation and I gave Eddie a heads up to try and trace the call "What do you want?" "Oh you know exactly what and who I want, Klayton" "Well, you're not gonna get either of them Trevor, so you may as well just give up"

"I'm not giving up until I get your mafia and your sexy cousin, Klay..shit, the things I'm gonna do to that delicious, voluptuous body of hers" He says while moaning slightly which pissed me off even further "Motherfucker, I'm gonna kill you" "You'll have to catch me first, Klay" Trevor said in a more serious tone "But until I can get my hands on that sexy cousin of yours, I'm just gonna have to make do with her brat, aren't 17° Chapter 20 - Shots Fired He says shocking the both of us

"What? what are you talking about?" I asked but I was met with silence "Trevor, Trev...Trevor" I look down at my phone and see the call has ended I get Logan and I rush out of my office and head downstairs When we got to the ground floor, we found Lacey and her mom sitting in the living room with all of her kids except for Logan Junior fk, this isn't good

"Hey guys, where's the fire?" An amused Lacey asks us "Hey principessa, where's LJ?" "Lo? he's gone to the kitchen with my dad to get us some.

more snacks..why?" Logan and I rushed into the kitchen while ignoring Lacey who was shouting after us "KLAYTON!!, LOGAN!!, WHAT'S GOING ON?" We ran into the kitchen and we were left horrified when we found my uncle James lying unconscious on the floor and he was bleeding from both his head and his abdomen

I get "Oh my god, DAD!" A panicked and hysterical Lacey shouted as she rushed over to her father "Dad..daddy, are you ok?..0.0h no, h.h.he's been stabbed" Chapter 20 - Shots Fired Sats "Where's Logan Junior? WHERE'S MY fg SON?" Logan growled just as several gunshots were heard coming from outside BANG!!, BANG!!, BANG!

"Oh st, LOGAN!"

"Actually, nonno..." Klayton spoke up only to be cut off by our dramatic grandfather "Oh no, not you as well, Klayton Antonelli, Jesus..god, why are my grandchildren trying to kill me off today?" My grandfather says and I chuckle "You're being over-dramatic, nono" "If you say so, Lacey darling" Eddie finished doing a swoop of the entire room and he could barely look myself or Logan in the eye when he was done but it's ok because I was glaring a hole in my it husband's head as he spoke

"There are no bugs or cameras in this room except for the CCTV which is the same make and model as the rest of the CCTV on your yacht" "Is that so?" I glared at my husband who smirked "Oh hell no, you all were making porn in there?" "That's it, I'm dying, Olivia my love, I'm coming" "So, was Lacey apparently on camera" Oh my god "Shut up, Klayton...Logan, what the hell?" "Don't get angry, babe, it was for our protection"

"More like for your collection, you weirdo" Chapter 20 - Shots Fired. "4 I groaned whilst looking my husband up and down in disgust "Anyway, Mr and Mrs Black apart from what we found on the top and middle deck, the only cameras on this yacht are the CCTV like I said and the nanny cameras" "Oh, thank god" Isighed in relief

"So, what do we do about the other cameras?" Logan asks as we all exit our s*x cave room "As you can imagine, this is a place where I want my family to feel safe and also to feel comfortable roaming around without some creep spying on us" "Well, there are two options, Mr Black..." "Logan, please" Logan says and Eddie smiles "Ok, Logan..like I said there are two options, the first option is that I can remove all of the cameras myself or there's the second option which is that we keep the cameras where they are but we can override the system with an image to trick whoever is watching into believing that they're still operational when in reality they're not, this way no new footage will be captured and we won't trigger Trevor and alert him to know that we're onto him" "What do you mean override it with an image? I don't understand" Lask confused "Have you ever seen the movie Speed?" "Have I? Keanu Reeves was so sexy in that movie"

I said excitedly not realising that I was speaking with lust in my tone which earned me three very angry fake coughs from my family Chapter 20 - Shots Fired. J, Tlooked around at the three men who were glaring at me and I glared right back at them "Oh, don't look at me like that, us women know that you men definitely get a hard-on for John Wick" Tsay while rolling my eyes
