

BOOT CAMP 1431

Chapter 1431: Special Mission

The distance couldn't be more than 30 centimeters. This meant that if there were any abnormalities, her brain and body would be able to react quickly and help her leader block any dangers that might endanger her life.

Ye Jian understood the meaning behind Xia Jinyuan's words.

Xia Jinyuan knew that she understood what he meant.

The car sped towards the airport. Xia Jinyuan explained what Ye Jian needed to do these few days and her specific mission clearly.

Due to the importance of this matter, he would be severely punished if he wasn't careful. He maintained a stern and cold expression throughout the entire process. "Ye Jian, this is more important than anything in the past. If something happens in the middle, you might even be expelled from the military."

"Originally, a female soldier from the Nanguang Military District came to carry out this mission. In the end, the military decided to send you... Ye Jian, do you know why?"

Ye Jian heard the seriousness on the palm-sized face. She shook her head. "I don't know."

To her, protecting her leader at the celebration was much more stressful than protecting him overseas. If there were any accidents overseas, she could handle it immediately. But in China..., she couldn't even use a gun.

There was only one thing she needed to consider now. She needed to adjust her mindset quickly and adjust her position to welcome a new round of challenges.

Her voice was calm. There were no emotions in her black eyes. Xia Jinyuan felt that he couldn't see through Ye Jian. He couldn't understand what she was thinking and whether she had any psychological burden on this mission.

It was normal for him to feel burdened. When he received the call from the major general and was ordered to go to the Chinese Academy of Sciences to fetch Ye Jian for the celebration mission, his heart dropped.

This was the first time the Little Fox was carrying out a huge mission in the country!

Also, the Snow Region Brigade never appeared to protect any leader when they were carrying out important missions in the country. Once they were carrying out important missions in the country, they would have a certain purpose.

For instance, this mission was to eliminate an illegal organization!

Xia Jinyuan, who was not in a relaxed mood, continued in a low voice, "The Head has a good impression of you. She thinks that it will be better for you to carry out this mission. You have large-scale combat experience. In addition, you have an advantage over the female soldiers who only carry out special missions in the Nanguang Military Region. You were personally named and requested from the military for this mission."

It turned out that Ye Jian's outstanding performance had left a deep impression on the Head. Even after so long, the Head still remembered her.

While Xia Jinyuan was happy, he also felt that the pressure on Ye Jian would be huge.

His expression was cold. He looked at Ye Jian calmly and didn't miss any changes in her expression. "This mission is a good opportunity for you to train. The major general was very happy when he knew about it but he was afraid that you would feel pressured so he sent me and G3 to fetch you. We will help you with psychological counseling so that you can focus on the mission as soon as possible."

"Do you have any questions?"

Before Ye Jian could reply, Xia Jinyuan added, "Don't ask personal questions. We don't accept them."

Ye Jian, who was listening attentively, suddenly felt happy. Was he worried that she would back off?

"No, I don't have any personal questions." Smiling in her heart, Ye Jian answered seriously, "I will complete my mission perfectly!"

Chapter 1432: What Special Forces

Xia Jinyuan loved Ye Jian's drive. She was like a blade of grass that wouldn't show fear no matter what happened. Hearing that, a smile finally appeared on his cold face. "Very good. If you dare to say that there was a problem, I would have immediately reported it to the military and reevaluated your psychological resistance."

He and Ye Jian were lovers and comrades. They cared about each other's life, but they had to watch over each other in battle.

If anything happened to her, as her comrade, he wouldn't turn a blind eye just because she was his girlfriend. He would deal with her however he wanted. There was no personal relationship between them.

Ye Jian had always known that Xia Jinyuan was a man who was scrupulous in separating public from private interests. She never thought that he would take special care of her during a mission.

At a red light, G3, who was waiting in the parking lot, turned his head and glanced at Ye Jian. He said slowly, "What Q King said represents my thoughts too. If my psychological resistance is weak, I will also have fatal problems during missions."

"The reason why you replaced the female soldier in the Nanguang Military District is because this female soldier's psychological resistance has not met the requirements." If not, they wouldn't have exchanged her position so suddenly.

The female soldier felt sad too.

This was an opportunity to train her mentality.

As a special forces soldier, they had to be ready for battle at all times. Once the mission came, they had to get into the zone immediately. There was no time for them to slow down and get used to it.

The major general agreed to Ye Jian's temporary mission because he hoped that Ye Jian could train more before joining the Snow Region Brigade. That way, she would be able to improve her comprehensive ability faster and steadily.

Xia Jinyuan hoped so too.

Before Ye Jian entered the Snow Region Brigade, carrying out missions would only be beneficial to her. It would allow her to be faster and better integrated into the high-intensity combat preparations of the Snow Region Brigade. She would be able to adapt to the life of the Snow Region Brigade.

Tenacious willpower, endurance, strong mental fortitude... All these were necessary conditions for a qualified special forces soldier. Xia Jinyuan hoped that she could adapt to the life of a special forces soldier in advance.

At this moment, Xia Jinyuan was very happy to hear Ye Jian's reply.

His Little Fox would never stop because of difficulties. She would walk forward fearlessly.

Xia Jinyuan looked at Ye Jian quietly and asked, "Ye Jian, do you remember what your goal is?"

She listened to her intently and suddenly heard a question that had nothing to do with the mission. She replied after a moment of silence, "I remember. I want to become a special forces soldier, like you and G3."

Her voice was clear and powerful. It seemed to contain infinite power. G3 couldn't help but smile.

Ye Jian was an extraordinary female soldier in the hearts of all the soldiers of the Snow Region Brigade. They hoped that she would become a member of the Snow Region Brigade and become a comrade so that they could fight together.

"Very good. Ye Jian, remember what you said. Become a special forces soldier like me and G3." Xia Jinyuan raised his eyebrows. A smile appeared on his handsome face. "Ye Jian, we believe in you. All our comrades and the major general of the army believe that you can become a Special Forces soldier like us."

"Then, do you know what kind of special forces soldiers we are?"

Chapter 1433: Elite Unit

The last sentence made Ye Jian's pupils tightened... Was he trying to tell her everything about him, G3, and his mysterious comrades?

The radio in the car was turned off. It was so quiet that the three people's breathing could be heard.

G3 drove calmly. He was not surprised at all.

Before he came, Xia Jinyuan asked the major general if he would tell Ye Jian what kind of special forces they were before entering the capital city.

The major general agreed.

Why did he agree? They both knew it.

This time, the leader that Ye Jian was assigned to protect wasn't an ordinary leader. He was a leader that was investigating big matters. This leader rarely appeared in public but this time, he suddenly appeared... There was a deeper meaning behind this arrangement.

This leader had decided to attend this celebration. The conference hall didn't agree to it, but they had to agree in the end.

Then, with the addition of the Snow Region Brigade, they immediately arranged for a female soldier who wouldn't receive any attention under normal circumstances to provide protection... In the end, the female soldier's psychological resistance didn't pass the test. In the end, the Head appointed Ye Jian to replace the female soldier and protect the leader who was willing to use herself as bait to lure the snake out of its hole.

From this, it could be seen how dangerous it was for Ye Jian to stand beside this leader who used herself as bait to catch all the criminals in one fell swoop. She might even... be sacrificed.

That was because this was a cult that was related to overseas organizations!

Ye Jian sat upright and looked at Xia Jinyuan intently. "Captain Xia, I'm ready. I will listen to every word you say!"

God knows how interested she was in Xia Jinyuan's military unit! Sometimes, she wondered what kind of military unit he was in. How powerful were his comrades that were able to enter this military unit? Would she be able to become a special forces soldier like him?

Now that Xia Jinyuan was going to say it personally, Ye Jian felt a little nervous.

Just now, she wasn't nervous when she knew that she was going on a life-threatening mission, but she was now.

Xia Jinyuan, who was in a serious mood, was stunned when he saw this. He placed his slender fingers on his forehead and laughed slowly.

This was the Little Fox he loved. She was so brave and pure.

"Our country has two special forces. One is the Snow Region Brigade, and the other is the Storm Commando Brigade. On the battlefield, these two Special Forces are our country's trump cards. If necessary, we will do our best to turn the tide on the battlefield."

After two sentences, Xia Jinyuan saw the light in Little Fox's bright eyes getting brighter. It was brighter than the diamonds under the sun!

Although it was just two sentences, Ye Jian was already overwhelmed by emotions.

The Special Forces were able to turn the tide on the battlefield. This... These were the special forces, elite units among elites!

"The two military units are the secret units that cannot be revealed or known to anyone in our country. No one knows about our existence. No one knows our military unit's name. No one knows the purpose of our existence."

"Flowers under the sun have nothing to do with us. No matter how difficult the mission is, no matter how perfect it is accomplished, as long as you still serve in the military, your rank might not change at all."

Chapter 1434: The Wave Of Beauty

Xia Jinyuan, who was leaning against the car door, was dressed in casual clothes. He looked no different from a successful man who entered a high-class office building.

He was wearing a black long-sleeved shirt that made him look even more elegant and mature. The sleeves of the shirt were rolled up slightly, and his elegant aura had a hint of arrogance.

He didn't wear his military uniform, but he kept the sharpness of a soldier in his bones. Although his every move was still powerful, he lacked the bloodlust of a soldier on the battlefield and had a restrained aura.

When he spoke, he looked at Ye Jian with his deep and dark eyes. His low voice sounded like he was narrating a story. It came slowly and calmly.

In such a calm tone, Ye Jian could hear the beauty of the sea and the unpredictable turbulence in the depths of the sea.

As he spoke, Ye Jian's expression became more solemn.

"Take me, for example. Five years ago, I was a major. Five years later, I am still a major. No one knows about your achievements. No one knows that you saved people. Sometimes, you even hide your nationality on the battlefield. While you live, you don't have any glory. After you died..., other than the Snow Region Brigade and the leaders of the military, no one else knows."

"Every soldier that joins the Snow Region Brigade will write a will in advance and hand it to the military for safekeeping. If they die, these are sent to the soldiers' parents."

"I've been in the Snow Region Brigade for four years. I've already sent two letters. As for the parents of my comrades, they still don't know why their child died. They don't know how great their child was."

“There are no flowers, no banners, no applause, no honor. There are only... people who will always remember their comrades who sacrificed on the battlefield. They will use their entire lives to remember them.”

“Ye Jian, this is Xia Jinyuan’s military unit. A unit that I have sworn my loyalty to! A unit that I have no regrets to be part of! Do you still dare to use me as your target?”

Xia Jinyuan’s voice was still calm.

Ye Jian felt her blood boiling!

Ye Jian looked at the calm Xia Jinyuan. She looked at the man who brought her up and helped her grow. He held her hand and gave her everything without any regrets. Ye Jian raised her eyebrows slowly, looking like a bright sprout. There was a glow and ripples in her eyes. “Captain Xia, I suddenly feel fortunate. I feel fortunate that I used you as my goal and chased after you.”

A special forces soldier hidden by the country. A special forces soldier could turn the tide on the battlefield and turn the entire war situation around. Although they were unknown, they had always been dedicated to their country.

She didn’t ask for anything in return. She didn’t ask for applause or glory from the flag. She just wanted to live up to her military uniform.

Such a special forces unit must be an elite unit!

Uncle Chen had said that the famous and outstanding special force was called the “Elite Special Forces.”

As for those unknown special forces soldiers who sacrificed their lives for their country in exchange for a decisive victory, they were known as the ‘Super Elite Special Forces’!

In other words, Captain Xia’s unit was the “Elite Special Forces” that Uncle Chen mentioned!

No wonder..., no wonder they rarely appeared. Once they appeared, it would be filled with smoke and blood. Every mission was so difficult that ordinary soldiers couldn’t imagine it. When they went, they were ‘alive.’ When they came back, they stained their military uniforms with blood and ‘died’ in exchange for the safety of their country’s citizens!

Chapter 1435: Holding Hands With His Girlfriend

Just like this time, the leader that Ye Jian needed to protect was very dangerous.

The reason why the Head chose Ye Jian and the major general agreed to it was firstly because of Ye Jian’s outstanding ability and secondly... Ye Jian’s face was tender, fair, and clean. She had a gentle smile on her face, which hid her sharp aura. She was like a harmless university student!

Once danger appeared, Ye Jian would be a target that would attract all danger to herself!

This was why Xia Jinyuan asked the major general to tell Ye Jian what kind of unit the Snow Region Brigade was.

Glory has nothing to do with you, but danger can't leave you.

The girl in front of him was as pretty as a painting. She was so beautiful that even the best masters in the world would find it hard to draw her aura. Not only did she have a spiritual aura, but she also had a fearless spirit that even male soldiers admired. He thought that she would hesitate for a few seconds or be puzzled.

She didn't. Not even for a second. He could even hear the light in her eyes shining brighter than the sun.

Xia Jinyuan smiled slightly. His black eyes were gentle as he stared at the girl he loved.

My girl, your existence is the greatest honor and pride of my life!

"In the past, I already felt that your military unit must be very powerful. Now that I heard you, I feel that it's extraordinary. It doesn't matter if no one knows about our existence. We just need to know each other's existence."

"It doesn't matter if no one knows about our achievements or our existence is unknown. As for flowers, applause, banners, glory... it doesn't matter. I just need to know why I'm wearing the military uniform and why I'm holding a gun."

Ye Jian had just finished speaking when her hand was suddenly grabbed by the man staring at her silently. He didn't hold her hand lightly. Instead, he held it tightly. It was as if he would pull her into his arms the next second.

"The major general hesitated before. He didn't want me to tell you this." Xia Jinyuan didn't move. He just held her hand tightly and smiled. "He's afraid that you would shrink your neck when you learn about us."

"G3 and I promised that you wouldn't shrink back after hearing it. Instead, you would be more interested. We even said that if you were terrified, we would find a way to make you not afraid."

G3, who didn't turn around, smiled and said, "Actually, the two of us never thought that you would be afraid. Neither did we think of a way to make you not afraid."

From this, one could tell how much G3 trusted Ye Jian.

Her hand was still held tightly. Ye Jian wasn't used to holding hands with Xia Jinyuan in front of people she knew. She felt a little awkward, so she struggled a little. She smiled and said, "You trust me too much. What if I don't want to do it? I don't think you can do anything to me."

"We have never considered such a problem." Xia Jinyuan wouldn't let go. She struggled with all her might. He raised his eyebrows and gave Ye Jian a meaningful look. He meant that if she moved again, he would hug her.

A moment ago, Xia Jinyuan was still the official Major Xia. Now, he was the shameless Xia Jinyuan.

Ye Jian glared at him and mouthed silently, "G3 is in the car. Can you control yourself?"

“G3, I’m holding hands with my girlfriend. Do you have any objections?” Xia Jinyuan didn’t like sneaking around. He raised his hand and asked his comrade, “There’s no need to talk. Just nod or shake your head.”

Chapter 1436: Comrades Have To Help Each Other

Sometimes, G3 really felt that it was a little ‘irritating’ to meet such a shameless captain. He asked him if he had any opinions, but he didn’t allow him to speak. He could only nod or shake his head. Wasn’t this telling him that he had to nod?

All right, comrades should help each other!

G3 nodded. Then, he nodded again vigorously to show that he had no objections.

G3 glanced at Xia Jinyuan from the rear-view mirror. His body trembled violently... Damn it, Q King’s gaze when he looked at Ye Jian was so sweet that it made his nose burn!

However, it looked enviable.

It seemed like he needed to ask Q King how he should date. Why did he have nothing to say every time he met his girlfriend?

The two of them were either walking quietly together or helping the children in the village to attend lessons. If not, she would be in the dilapidated classroom while he split the firewood silently.

It seemed less intimate than Q King and Ye Jian.

G3 realized that something was amiss. Ye Jian was very reserved. She knew how to keep her distance from Q King in front of their comrades. However, Q King didn’t give her any chance to keep a distance. After they finished talking about serious matters, he immediately took the chance to talk about love.

As for him, he was afraid that he would scare his girlfriend away. Let alone kissing her... he didn’t even dare to hold her hand.

No, no. He had to change. When it was time to attack, he had to attack. How could he be indecisive? Once he attacked, he wouldn’t regret it. His girlfriend was afraid... He wasn’t a beast. What was there to be afraid of?

Xia Jinyuan didn’t know that he had enlightened G3. He raised his eyebrows and said to Ye Jian, “My comrades are very honest. They won’t lie. If he says that he has no objections, he definitely has no objections.”

Good comrade! He knew what to say!

Now, Ye Jian was no longer the young lady who resisted relationships in senior high. After all, she had lived two lifetimes. Although her skin wasn’t as thick as Xia Jinyuan’s, her IQ wasn’t low. She could easily defeat Xia Jinyuan’s little tricks.

She looked at him with a faint smile and said, "You told G3 not to open his mouth and express his opinion. The driver will look away if he shakes his head. Only by nodding will it not affect him from looking in front and driving safely."

Sometimes, when a girlfriend was too smart, her boyfriend would feel pressured.

Xia Jinyuan, whose thoughts were exposed, didn't feel awkward at all. He held her hand and rubbed it gently. The smile on his face got deeper. He leaned over slightly and looked at Ye Jian with a gentle and focused gaze. "Because I don't want to see you embarrassed. That's why I used the captain's privilege to keep my comrades silent."

His voice was low and filled with deep indulgence. Ye Jian's cheeks couldn't help but turn red. "Little Fox, I haven't seen you for a month. Did you miss me?"

...

Not only was his gaze gentle, but it also seemed to be filled with sticky honey. It took Ye Jian a lot of effort to "pull" her gaze out of his.

Then, she pulled one of her hands out of his and covered his handsome and perfect face mercilessly. "Sit properly. Don't affect G3's driving."

This dangerous man... She had seen this face for a few years, but every time she observed him, her heart would beat faster.

Ye Jian could feel her heart beating fast.

Chapter 1437: Everything Has Its Opponent

As for whether she had thought about him or not, Ye Jian felt that there was no need to answer!

She didn't like telling lies. If she told the truth... she would feel embarrassed.

Xia Jinyuan didn't wait for her reply. However, his sexy thin lips curled up. He looked in front and smiled softly. "I miss you. I don't have time to think about you during the day, but I especially want to think about you before I sleep at night."

Ye Jian: "... Think about me before you sleep? Why do I feel that this 'think' is a little impure?"

She thought of him too.

However, she didn't think about him before she went to bed! In the morning, she didn't have much time to think about him. Every day, she stood in the military posture, underwent military training, and had to interact with her classmates... She didn't have much time to think about Xia Jinyuan.

However, every time she walked past the campus, she couldn't help but think about him. Did Xia Jinyuan walk past the place she was walking past too? She felt sweet as she thought about it.

Ye Jian maintained a calm expression. She wasn't affected by his sweet words. Major Xia couldn't help but turn his head and look at his girlfriend. She was sitting upright and had a calm expression on her face. Only her ears were red. He felt a hundred pairs of cat claws scratching his heart.

Needless to say, his Little Fox must have missed him.

G3 saw this and couldn't help but smile.

Everyone has its weakness. Ye Jian was born to subdue Q King!

Xia Jinyuan knew that Ye Jian was shy, so he didn't continue the intimate actions between lovers. He sat properly and listened to her.

"Time is a little tight. I need to speed up." G3 saw that both of them were sitting properly. He looked at the time and frowned. "It's 12:54 now. Q King, we need to contact the airport."

The boarding process had to be done half an hour early. This was a very strict requirement. It couldn't be done even if it was a minute late.

However, Xia Jinyuan's situation was special. The airport had to cooperate fully.

The military had already contacted the airport and asked the airport to prepare for the delay. If there were a delay, they would be able to start work immediately.

Very soon, the airport received a call. Three people with special identities boarded the plane 15 minutes before the plane took off. All departments had to cooperate fully without any mistakes!

"We have arrived at the airport. We will reach the lobby in three minutes." Xia Jinyuan spoke to the person in charge of the airport as he walked. "Yes, we have entered the elevator. We will reach the lobby soon."

It was 1:15 PM. There were still 15 minutes before the take-off time.

The three of them walked out of the elevator. The person in charge of the airport brought the three of them into a special passageway. From the boarding process to boarding the plane, it only took six minutes!

At 1:24 PM, the passengers on the flight to the capital city boarded the plane one by one. The passengers in the economy class put down their luggage and sat in their seats with their seatbelts buckled as they prepared to take off.

In the business area, a few air stewardesses used cloth curtains to block the four seats at the front so that the passengers in the business aisle wouldn't see who would be sitting in them.

Someone's phone beeped. Then, the person picked up the call and said lazily, "Hello." After a while, he said, "Second Brother, I'm sorry. I don't have time for celebrations. I need to go to the capital city to play."

"Lie to you? Why would I lie to you? Zhixiang, Second Brother said that I lied to him. Talk to him."

Chapter 1438: Conspiracy

The sun in the city at the end of September was still scorching. The sunlight was so bright that it was blinding.

Ye Zhifan, who was standing in front of the floor-to-ceiling window of the hotel, lowered his eyes and said with a gloomy look, "The capital city is now under control. Brother-in-law, why are you going to the capital city now? Don't tell me that you went there to watch the celebration!"

"Hey, Second Brother, you're indeed a high-ranking official! How can you guess that?" Ever since his identity was restored, Sun Yaozu had been leading a comfortable life. He was full of fat. He was afraid that other people wouldn't know that he was a wealthy person. There was a gold chain around his neck that was as thick as his little finger. As he bent down and sat down, the gold chain hung down from the side of his neck and shone brightly.

He sat down and winked at Ye Zhixiang, indicating for her to take the phone.

He had nothing to say to his brother who was an official!

Ye Zhifan didn't believe it. He, Sun Yaozu, didn't have the awareness to go to the capital city to watch the celebration. Besides, with his status, did he have the right to watch it live?

"I'm talking to you about serious matters now. Change to a safer place and talk to me." He couldn't say it even if he didn't believe it. If he wanted to get rid of Ye Jian, Sun Yaozu would have to do it.

He just didn't know if this coward would make a move! He hated Ye Jian so much that he wanted to kill her immediately, but he just had to bear with it!

There was no other way. Hou Zi was in the Southern Province, so Sun Yaozu didn't dare to act recklessly.

Grandma Ye repeatedly reminded Ye Zhifan to take care of Ye Jian first. They shouldn't be so anxious so that they would be used by other people.

"Second Brother, I really can't go anywhere else. I'm already boarding the plane. If you called me ten minutes earlier, I could still run to the washroom to have a chat with you." Sun Yaozu, who was too fat, felt cramped sitting in the business-class seat. He moved his body and scolded unhappily, "Damn it, I can't buy a comfortable seat even if I spend money."

Ye Zhixiang was fixing her lipstick with the small makeup mirror. When she heard this, she replied angrily, "I told you to be careful and control your weight!" Although she said that, there was a hint of pride in her eyes.

He needed to get fatter. If he slept with a woman, he wouldn't have any energy left! She didn't want him to have an illegitimate child.

The sweet voice of the flight attendant greeted all the passengers through the broadcast system. Sun Yaozu thought of something and raised his phone so that Ye Zhifan could hear the broadcast.

When he heard the voice, Ye Zhifan confirmed that Sun Yaozu had indeed gone to the capital city. Then, Ye Zhixiang's voice came from the other end of the phone. "Second Brother, if you really have the time, go to the hospital to visit Mom. Now that Mom can speak, as her son, shouldn't you go over and accompany her? I didn't ask you to pay any medical fees. Can't you be more proactive about other things?"

Ye Zhixiang wasn't a good person, but she was indeed filial to Grandma Ye. Her family had money to treat her anyway. She used acupuncture, massage, and so on. It was really effective. Grandma Ye, who couldn't speak at first, was able to speak!

Grandma Ye treated her daughter well. Although she was paralyzed, she could still enjoy life. Some patients in the hospital were envious of her.

As for Ye Zhifan, he was good at keeping up appearances, but it was impossible for him to accompany her every day. If he wasn't vigilant back then, he would have ended up like Ye Xinfan!

Hearing that, he said calmly, "Tell Sun Yaozu that Ye Jian might be investigating how her parents died back then. After you're done playing, think about how to deal with it. As your brother, I don't have to worry about you. Ha, you went out to play without saying anything!"

Chapter 1439: Killing Intent

After he finished speaking, a vicious look flashed past his eyes. He clearly heard Ye Zhixiang's anxious "hello, hello. hello" and hung up the phone. He held his slightly hot phone and laughed softly.

"You want to fight with me? Stop dreaming." He couldn't deal with Ye Jian because he had to care about the military behind her. However, who was Sun Yaozu? He was a... fugitive!

If someone erased his identity for him, he could still let this thing break the law!

Ye Zhixiang felt uncomfortable. Her face was pale as she passed the phone over. Her voice trembled as she said, "My brother said that... that wicked girl is investigating the past. This..."

"Shut up!" Although Sun Yaozu's expression wasn't very good, he was still able to distinguish the venue. He shouted in a low voice to stop his wife from speaking, "Stop talking about family matters on the plane. You'd better be f**king bold! Don't panic over something trivial."

As he spoke, he leaned closer and revealed a proud look on his cunning face. "Didn't Mom say that he's more afraid than us now? Your brother is the most cunning person. He wouldn't be so kind as to inform us and trick you!"

Ye Zhixiang inherited Grandma Ye's selfishness, but she didn't inherit her shrewdness. However, she was as obedient as Old Master Ye. Hearing that, she patted her chest and heaved a sigh of relief. "He scared me to death! I thought..."

Receiving her husband's fierce glare, she didn't say anything else.

A few steady footsteps came from the front, followed by a soft conversation. The curtain that the air stewardess purposely hung up moved slightly. Someone sat down.

The plane was about to take off. The sweet voice of the air stewardess sounded again, reminding all the passengers to check their seatbelts.

Ye Jian fastened her seatbelt and exhaled a breath of hot air. Just as she was about to speak, she suddenly heard a familiar voice behind the curtain. It had been a few years since she last heard it. Her calm face turned cold.

“What?” Xia Jinyuan asked.

G3 looked at her curiously too. The expression on her face changed instantly. There was a hint of killing intent in her eyes... She exchanged glances with Xia Jinyuan. The two of them turned their heads and looked at the curtain.

Ye Jian’s expression changed when a man spoke roughly.

“I met an acquaintance. I didn’t expect him to be on the plane too.” Ye Jian lowered her voice and said coldly, “Our relationship is very bad. I’m afraid he can recognize my voice.”

Xia Jinyuan pursed his lips tightly. There were only a few people who had a bad relationship with Ye Jian.

It wasn’t Ye Zhifan’s voice. It was an unfamiliar voice that he had never heard before. A few seconds later, Xia Jinyuan’s expression turned cold. “Don’t be affected by them. Rest for a while.”

He had already guessed who was sitting behind him. It was someone who almost killed Ye Jian.

Behind him, Sun Yaozu didn’t know that Ye Jian was right in front of him. He continued, “What stupid thing is this? My stomach hurts.”

“Okay, okay. Stop talking. Everyone needs to tie their seatbelt properly. Do you think you’re the only one? I told you to control your weight, but you didn’t listen to me. Every time you take a plane, you nag.”

That was Ye Zhixiang’s voice.

Ye Jian, who was resting with her eyes closed, smiled coldly. She didn’t open her eyes. Although her expression was calm, her hands were clenched tightly.

The two people behind her almost killed her... No matter how calm she was, she would still be affected.

Chapter 1440: Things That Cannot Be Told

Ye Jian’s emotions fluctuated for a moment. By the time she closed her eyes, her emotions had calmed down. She needed to settle the scores from the past. However, she couldn’t stop moving forward because of the past.

Uncle Gen didn't want her to be like this. Uncle Chen didn't want her to be like this either. Xia Jinyuan and the other leaders who had high hopes for her didn't want her to be like this.

In her past life, she was all alone. In this life, there were people who loved her, people who cared about her, people who supported her silently, and beautiful memories. How could she let down this life?

Due to Uncle Gen's influence, Ye Jian, who came with hatred, finally placed her future first. She temporarily put aside the people who harmed her in the past. Before her wings were fully grown, it was best not to move.

Looking at her closed eyes, Xia Jinyuan's expression turned a little dark. Then, he saw her frowning slightly as though she was suffering alone. Xia Jinyuan reached out and held Ye Jian's hand. "If you don't want to see them, leave it to me."

The Ye family was indeed annoying. It was better to just get rid of them.

Ye Jian, who didn't open her eyes, shook her head lightly, indicating that Xia Jinyuan didn't need to appear.

"Why?" Xia Jinyuan asked softly. He rubbed her hands gently. Her hands were beautiful. Her skin was fair and tender. When he held them, they were soft. They could touch the softness in his heart. Unlike his palms and fingers they had a layer of calluses. This was left behind from years of training.

"It's not a good idea to keep the matter over there. It has to be resolved. You stopped me in the past but now, why do you still want to stop me?" Xia Jinyuan lowered his eyes and looked at the girl he loved. He didn't understand why she was so against him helping her settle the Ye family's matter.

After all, Xia Jinyuan was a prominent person. Although he had joined the military, if he really wanted to make a name for himself, who would dare to not give him face?

No matter how powerful the person behind Ye Zhifan was, if he wanted to deal with a provincial office official, would the person behind him stop him?

Would that person dare to go against the Xia family? Before that, they would have to consider whether they were powerful enough!

Ye Jian's eyelashes trembled slightly and her eyebrows furrowed. It was as if there was something she couldn't say. She didn't know where to start.

"Is it inconvenient for you to say anything?" Xia Jinyuan asked again. He couldn't think of any other reason.

There was a hint of seriousness in the air. G3 glanced at Xia Jinyuan and silently turned his head to look out the window. The sky outside was clear and blue. This was the purest scenery.

Ye Jian was as pure and innocent as the blue sky. However, she was mysterious and vast like the sky. People who looked at her couldn't help but admire her.

What difficulties would she have? If she did, it would be... extraordinary.

Thinking about this, G3 quickly turned his head. His gaze was fixed on Xia Jinyuan.

Xia Jinyuan, who was waiting for Ye Jian's reply, looked up and saw his comrade exchanging glances with him. "Speak properly, don't be too anxious."

He nodded.

Seeing this, G3 relaxed and shifted his gaze back to the blue sky. He calmly admired the monotonous and boring sky shadows.
