

BOOT CAMP 1451

Chapter 1451: Attack

As they chatted, the two cars, including the middle-aged man who was a little scared, got more and more excited. He kept rubbing the corner of his clothes and chewing the Areca in his mouth.

Ye Jian and the rest kept in contact and didn't give them a chance to do anything in the middle of the night.

When they entered a tunnel about three kilometers long, Pigeon's voice came from the earpiece. He reminded Ye Jian, who was in the car in front of them, "It's about time. No cars are passing by here for the time being."

It would take three hours to get on the highway. Even during the National Day period, there were very few cars. In the 90s, there were very few private cars in China. If it wasn't a popular highway, one might not be able to see a car every few kilometers.

The Tongzhou Highway was not a popular road.

The tunnel was dark. Three kilometers was enough time for Ye Jian and the rest to take action.

Pigeon asked, "Are you driving now, or are the people from the South Sea driving?" It was best to let his brother drive..

"Your brother is driving. I trained with him in the past." Ye Jian was still worried about the driver's skills. She didn't think that Pigeon was worried about her and didn't want her to drive.

After all, Xia Jinyuan said that Ye Jian was part of the top car company in the Southern Province. She had trained with the soldiers who needed to be sent to the South China Sea to be driving soldiers.

After hearing what Ye Jian said, he felt relieved. He said to the director, "Don't worry, Ye Jian and the rest will be fine. Nothing will happen to the people in the car. The traffic police are already on standby. After the accident, the ambulance and the traffic police will rush to the scene to settle it."

"All of you are too cautious. What's there to protect an old man like me?. I will have to respond to the assembly hall later. I'm not satisfied with this arrangement." Ever since Ye Jian suddenly left in the bulletproof car they took to the city tower today, the director-general's expression had been bad. Although she was a soldier, she was still young!

He would rather get into trouble himself than let anything happen to the young lady.

Pigeon and T6 couldn't answer these questions. They were following orders and couldn't question the arrangements at the conference hall.

Protecting the leader's safety was also a soldier's duty.

The two heavy-duty cars drove into the tunnel at a speed of 90 km / h. T6 slowed down and increased his driving speed. At the same time, he signaled Pigeon through the rear-view mirror that they would overtake him the moment the accident happened.

A car accident must happen. This would deter the evil cult as it would break their psychological defense and cause them to panic. This would achieve the goal of making these people afraid.

Besides, didn't the other party want to get into a car accident too? They even sent two heavy-duty vehicles. Let's just get into a car accident.

A car accident in the tunnel was slightly better than a car accident outside. At least, with the two sides of the tunnel blocking the road, there would be no signs of a car rushing out of the highway or rushing into the opposite lane.

Also, the tunnel was limited by light. Out of habit, the car would slow down. This reduced the risk factor.

The bullets in the pistol were loaded. Ye Jian gestured to the soldier driving. The window was lowered, and she pressed her earpiece with one hand. Ye Jian counted in a low voice. "One, two, three..." When she counted to ten, a silver-gray car suddenly appeared. It flew past the two heavy vehicles and turned to the side.

Chapter 1452: Well Done

The moment the car rushed out, Ye Jian used the help of the rearview mirror to stretch the black gun barrel out. After calculating the resistance brought by the speed of the car, the bullet shot out of the gun barrel silently.

The entire process took about ten seconds, from shooting to taking back the gun to shutting down the car windows.

Ten seconds was enough for T6 to drive the silver-gray car to the front. Ten seconds was enough for a car accident to happen.

The sharp sound of brakes was heard in the tunnel. It was so sudden and sharp that it hurt her eardrums. Then, the collision sounds of the car hitting the ground and the sound of the wheels rubbing against the ground could be heard. The front wheel that was pierced by the bullets lost its balance and the entire car shook. The car leaned towards the side of the tunnel and sparks flew everywhere.

The people in the car were frightened. They came with their dreams and didn't want anything to happen to them!

If something happened to them, they would have no money, no future, and nothing!

"Step on the accelerator and rush out. Quick, rush out!" The young man shouted loudly with bloodshot eyes. He didn't want anything to happen. He was the trusted aide of the Grand Commissioner. The Grand Commissioner had said that this matter was settled. He had money, a lot of money!

The driver was already in a panic. After he heard Ye Jian's shout, he panicked even more. He stepped on the accelerator, but it was too late. The front of the car bumped into the car beside him.

Bang!

A loud crash was heard. The two cars dragged each other for at least 50 meters before stopping.

In the car, the frightened middle-aged man's body was twitching. His lower body was wet. He was so frightened that he lost control of his bladder.

The traffic police and ambulance got onto the highway from another entrance. They pulled the alarm and sped towards the location of the accident.

Ye Jian and the rest passed by the ambulance and police cars. One left the scene of the accident while the other drove towards the scene of the accident.

"When we reach the next toll station, I will drive. Thank you for your hard work." Ye Jian took out the magazine from her gun and said to the driver, "We will be moving on to the next part of the journey. You need to report back to the South China Sea."

The soldier nodded. "Okay, we are still 24 kilometers away from the next exit."

No one mentioned the car accident just now. This was a mission and a very small mission. There was no value in discussing it.

Pigeon's pleasant voice was heard from the earpiece again. Ye Jian's ears started to itch. His voice was good, to begin with. It really sounded gentle.

Ye Jian couldn't help but restrain her expression.

"Well done, Ye Jian. Nine seconds in a row. Beautiful." Pigeon spoke purely to praise Ye Jian. Of course, he had the intention of the director-general too. "The Director said that you're very brave and capable!"

It was a brilliant shot. It didn't give her a second chance to shoot. In comparison, it didn't put her in danger.

She must shoot accurately once. If she needed to shoot twice, not only would the other party be alert, but it also gave them enough time to retaliate. Hence, when the comrades from the Snow Region Brigade were shooting accurately, they would only give themselves one bullet!

Ye Jian pursed her lips and smiled. "Fortunately, they didn't drive fast. It wasn't outstanding."

"It's not good to be so humble at such a young age. The Director has something to tell you."

Ye Jian heard Pigeon speaking the first half of the sentence. Then, the director-general's voice was heard. He was still so amiable. When Ye Jian heard this, the coldness in the corner of her eyes softened.

Chapter 1453: Ye Jian, A Wonderful Person

Officials, the higher they were, the more approachable. Their words had the dignity of a person in a higher position. They also had a friendly side. When they should be strict, they were strict. When they were in private, their attitude was amiable. It showed the spirit and breadth of mind of a person.

The high-ranking officials that Ye Jian had come into contact with were Commander Xia, the major general of the army, the major general of the navy, and the director-general. Every one of them was in a high position. Every one of them was dignified and amiable.

However, she wouldn't lower herself just because they were approachable. She would only respect, fear, and look up to them.

This was a real high-ranking person. Compared to Ye Zhifan, he was much weaker. He was just a provincial government official, but he was already showing his authority. He spoke in a bureaucratic tone as if he was afraid that other people wouldn't know he was a government official. He had power.

In the face of the director's concern, Ye Jian felt warmth in her heart after hanging up the phone. She respected the director-general even more now.

This was the case for those with high positions!

It was also because Ye Jian had come into contact with many high-ranking people when she first started that her future growth would be significantly affected. She was domineering and approachable, making the officers below her especially respect her.

In the end, the highest-ranking official personally wrote her birth characters and gave them to them. They praised her character and talent—she was like a tall mountain. People had to look up to her. People couldn't help but follow her actions and actions. She influenced many generations of soldiers.

At 5:00 PM, the sky was getting dark. Ye Jian and Pigeon received a message from the military telling them that the tunnel accident had been settled. Four criminals were sent to the hospital. Their injuries weren't light, but they wouldn't lose their lives either.

Ye Jian wasn't worried about the injuries of the criminals. She just said calmly, "It's not a bad thing to be a fortune-teller. Let's stay and see if we can get any useful clues from them."

Although the criminals were from the same country, they were already on the opposite side of it. They went against justice, broke the law, and harmed the police. To Ye Jian, they were her enemies. The enemies of her country.

If it weren't for the fact that the director-general was in the car, Pigeon would have laughed out loud.

Ye Jian was amazing!

When she wanted to be soft-hearted, she was soft-hearted. When they carried out their Pakistan mission, she saw that the children were afraid, so she rushed into the wolf's den and protected more than twenty children.

When she was ruthless, she was extremely ruthless. She had a sharp mind that could distinguish right from wrong. When facing her enemy, she didn't care if they were old or young. She knew very well that 'being kind to your enemy was being cruel to yourself.' She didn't hesitate when she attacked and didn't regret it at all.

This girl was adaptable, bold, and intelligent. Q King found a treasure!

He dared to say that if the two of them fell out in the future, Ye Jian would definitely have many suitors chasing after her. They would even secretly congratulate Q King for finally getting dumped and allowing Ye Jian to be single again.

"We will get some clues. A young man from the same place is a trusted aide. We will get many useful clues from him," Pigeon said to Ye Jian in a low voice and ended the call.

At this moment, Ye Jian was already driving herself. The soldiers from the South China Sea went away from another exit an hour ago. Ye Jian drove alone behind Pigeon and the rest.

Chapter 1454: A Friend's Wife Cannot Be Bullied

The next exit was Tongzhou. In order to destroy the entire organization, the director-general didn't even care about his own safety. He just told everyone that he would go to Tongzhou.

Ye Jian knew and so did Xia Jinyuan. They set off late and bypassed the highway where the car accident happened. They entered Tongzhou from another entrance and waited for the director-general's car at a rest area on the side of the highway with White Crane and K7.

Wearing a suit and tie, White Crane, who was exuding a cold and aloof aura, raised his head from time to time to glance at Ye Jian and the rest to see if they had arrived. When K7 saw this, his gaze landed on Xia Jinyuan. Her boyfriend was there. Shouldn't he remind his comrades not to be so anxious?

He hadn't seen Ye Jian for a long time.

Last time, she almost couldn't come back after being captured. In order to save him, Ye Jian sneaked into the ST mercenary team and avoided all the eyes and ears to contact him. Undeniably, when he thought that he wouldn't live on, he heard a familiar voice. He was so excited that his heart pounded furiously. The moment he saw Ye Jian, he felt as though he saw an angel. Yes, an angel beaming with holy light.

Sitting in the same row as White Crane, he lowered his head. Then, he flicked the non-existent dust on his body and adjusted his tie. His attire should not be in disarray.

He wanted to remind Xia Jinyuan but now, he was looking forward to Ye Jian's arrival.

Xia Jinyuan noticed the small movements of the two soldiers behind him. They were only happy about Ye Jian's arrival because she was their comrade. They didn't have any other thoughts.

There was no need to remind them. He believed that his comrades wouldn't cross the line.

Even if they did, she wouldn't express it. She would handle it herself. It wouldn't affect their relationship as comrades. She wouldn't let things go in a bad direction.

The time was 5:11 PM. The three people in the car looked up at the exit of the highway almost at the same time. Xia Jinyuan smiled. "It's almost time."

It wasn't a random guess. He knew when Ye Jian got out of the car from the soldiers of the South Sea. Based on the speed of the car and the distance of the entire journey, he could estimate when Ye Jian would reach the highway exit of Tongzhou.

Two minutes later, T6 drove the car out of the special passage. Then, Ye Jian's bulletproof red flag sedan drove out. Two cars appeared in front of Xia Jinyuan.

Pigeon and the rest didn't know that their comrades were waiting in front. They came out of the exit and drove towards the city center.

The car drove off without any signs of stopping. Xia Jinyuan knocked on the car window lightly with his slender fingers and said to K7, who was in charge of driving, "The military didn't inform them. They didn't know we were coming. Drive and follow the director-general's car."

He didn't say that they needed to follow Ye Jian's car. They needed to escort the director-general to the hotel first.

"I'll take a taxi and follow Ye Jian," White Crane suggested.

K7 started the car and looked at Xia Jinyuan. He said calmly, "I agree."

Everyone knew that the real danger was not with the director-general, but Ye Jian, who was with the target as bait.

Afraid that his captain wouldn't agree, Baihe added, "The car accident has angered the other party. They have their eyes on the director's car. Now, only Ye Jian and Q King are in the car. With enough manpower to support our comrades, I can go and support Ye Jian."

Chapter 1455: Expectation

Xia Jinyuan, who didn't urge his comrade to drive, smiled. He lowered his head and said in a teasing tone, "Ye Jian, she's not weak."

"It's not a question of whether she's weak or not. What I mean is that since the situation allows it, why didn't she send in reinforcements in advance?" White Crane frowned slightly. He didn't quite understand Xia Jinyuan's actions.

K7, who was biased towards Ye Jian, didn't like to talk much more than G3. He still liked to read forensic science books. He answered for Xia Jinyuan calmly, "Ye Jian's target is Q King. The unit she wants to enter is the Snow Region Brigade too. She wants to join immediately after graduation."

There was no need to explain further. White Crane instantly understood why Q King didn't arrange for him to reinforce Ye Jian. "I see. Then, there's really no need for reinforcements."

She would join the Snow Region Brigade immediately after graduation. Before that, she needed to work hard.

A solo mission was much more dangerous than the current situation.

At least she was in the country now. If anything happened, she could contact them immediately. Once she went overseas to fight alone, she would have no backup. She could only rely on her own strength to advance and retreat. It was impossible to return safely without putting in some hard work.

After knowing Ye Jian's goal, White Crane didn't mention that he was going to support Ye Jian anymore. At this moment, only a few goons appeared and asked Ye Jian to take care of them as practice.

After he figured it out, Xia Jinyuan smiled as the car started moving. "We can't not go and provide support. It's just that we don't need to for now. Later, the three of us will have to meet up with Ye Jian."

The smile on White Crane's face deepened. "I look forward to it even more."

This was even more interesting! From what Q King said, he only planned to provide support silently. He didn't plan to let Ye Jian see them help.

He was ruthless. However, for the sake of his girlfriend's safety, Q King really put in a lot of effort to groom her.

As a comrade, he would definitely cooperate and not drag his comrade down.

K7, who knew which hotel the director-general would be resting in, quickly caught up with Pigeon and reminded him through the walkie talkie as the two cars drove side by side.

Pigeon looked outside and saw Q King waving at him.

"Q King is here." He whispered so as not to disturb the director-general who was talking to his secretary. "The driver is T6. There's another person in the car. I wonder which comrade he is."

T6 glanced at the car when it turned the corner. When he saw Xia Jinyuan, a hint of envy flashed past his eyes.

How good would that be? He could even carry out missions with his girlfriend. That would make their relationship closer.

Jiaxin wanted to join the military, but entering the Snow Region Brigade was impossible for her.

T6 was getting more and more interested in An Jiaxin. He was trying his best to make his presence known. At the same time, he didn't forget to use his military charm to make An Jiaxin, who was influenced by Ye Jian, have more ideas.

At this moment, T6 felt that he needed to make his presence known so that he could coax the girl he liked into the military unit. Then, he would think of a way to put her closer to him. He didn't want to fight side by side like Q King and Ye Jian. He just wanted to meet her during the drill.

The two cars drove through the streets and headed to the hotel where the director-general would be staying.

Chapter 1456: Fighting For Faith

The director-general had two hotels in Tongzhou. The other one was a bait. Ye Jian rushed to this hotel.

The sky gradually turned dark. The neon lights were lit up, adding charm to the dark night. The colorful lights lit up the streets, making the pedestrians feel mysterious.

At 6:00 PM, a hotel in Tongzhou welcomed a distinguished guest. The hotel manager respectfully led the important guest towards the elevator. He lowered his head slightly to show his respect. "This way please. Be careful of your steps. The ground is slightly slippery."

The director-general walked quickly and his expression was extremely serious. After entering the elevator, he immediately said to the soldiers beside him, "The three of you, hurry up and reinforce Ye Jian. I don't want to hear any news that will harm her!"

The criminal stared at the hotel Ye Jian was staying in. He was shocked by the military's arrangement, but he had no right to ask about it. He could only urge Ye Jian's comrades to hurry over.

Xia Jinyuan raised his hand to block the elevator door. After asking the director-general to enter, he smiled and replied, "We will go over immediately to provide support. Don't worry, there won't be any bad news. Also, we believe that our comrades won't put us in danger."

"I believe in you too. This time, you should not be like before. You need to be vigilant and protect yourselves. The military unit is still waiting for you to make contributions. Your comrades are waiting for your return too." The director-general didn't know that the special forces sent this time were soldiers of the elite. The concern in his voice warmed the hearts of every soldier from the Snow Region Brigade.

Every soldier's duty and sacred responsibility was fighting for the country, fighting for faith, and fighting for the leaders who contributed to the country!

In a certain room on the fifth floor of the Tongzhou International Hotel, someone took out a telescope from time to time and carefully observed the entrance and exit of the hotel's cars. When he didn't find his target, he would put down their binoculars and walk around the room angrily.

"She's not here yet. She's not here yet. Did something happen?" He was a little restless. He walked and stopped occasionally.

In the lobby of the hotel, someone was reading a newspaper. Occasionally, he would look up at the entrance of the hotel and then look down at the newspaper in his hand.

When Ye Jian came in alone, she scanned the front of the hall. When she reached the front desk, she had finished observing everything in the hall.

The check-in information had already been registered. She just needed to check in with her room card.

As she passed by the sofa in the lobby of the hotel, Ye Jian slightly nodded and looked towards the sofa.

He had a square face and a beard, and his eyebrows were thick and injured. He was wearing a navy blue jacket and light blue jeans. He was 1.74 meters tall and had a strong build... Ye Jian only needed to look at him from the corner of her eyes to remember his appearance and attire.

Ye Jian slowed down when she saw the man taking things out of his jacket. Then, the square-faced man took out a phone with a blinking screen and answered the call. "I didn't find anything. Is there a traffic jam?"

"You can wait upstairs first. I'll wait downstairs. No matter when they come over, it's fine as long as they come out at night. Finish your work early and satisfy the Grand Commissioner."

When Ye Jian heard the words 'Grand Commissioner,' her gaze turned cold.

The leader of the cult was the 'Grand Commissioner'! He came from a village and didn't study much. He relied on his mouth to recruit believers!

Chapter 1457: Cultivate Her With Hard Work

Ye Jian walked into the hotel room and lowered her head slightly. Her gaze was slightly dark.

The man in the lobby needed to be dealt with and his accomplices in the hotel needed to be dealt with too. Then, how many criminals were staying in this hotel? What would they do next?

Since they wanted to clean up the disaster area of Tongzhou, the police must have made some arrangements. Since the director-general was the bait, the police must have done something.

What was she going to do next?

Ye Jian, who was sitting on the bed, frowned slightly. The major general told her that her main mission was to protect the safety of the director-general's celebration and the safety of the next two days...

Then, the problem came. She wasn't beside the director-general now.

The second mission was to enter a certain village in Guilin and find the police officers' bodies that were brutally dissected. The major general said that this was her follow-up mission.

And now, since she didn't go to protect the director-general and didn't receive any orders to go to a certain mountain village in Guilin, staying alone in the hotel tonight... She was really just a target.

Even if she was a target, the criminals must know who she was. However, it was obvious that the other party... didn't know who she was. If not, when she passed the square-faced man just now, the other party would have glanced at her. However, he didn't!

For a moment, Ye Jian couldn't understand the military's arrangement.

She didn't understand, but Xia Jinyuan knew. Ever since Ye Jian drove into Tongzhou alone, he had guessed the military's intention.

Using this opportunity to train Ye Jian! This was the military's only intention!

Also, they specially instructed him not to contact Ye Jian immediately. They didn't allow anyone, including Pigeon, to contact Ye Jian. They wanted Ye Jian to be alone and helpless.

Thinking about it carefully, Little Fox had never carried out a mission alone or encountered a situation where she was alone and helpless.

It was fine if she knew about this mission. However, the director-general didn't know the military's intention, so he was worried.

He didn't have any objections to the military's arrangements. Little Fox's goal was to enter the Snow Region Brigade. If she wanted to join as soon as she graduated, the military would be stricter with her.

As Xia Jinyuan thought about this, his expression turned cold. K7 couldn't help but look at him.

"Focus on driving." Xia Jinyuan reminded him calmly without raising his eyes. "There are people walking around and pedestrians running red lights. We will become a laughing stock if we get into a car accident in the city."

Tongzhou International Hotel was located at the side of the busy city. It was bustling with people. When the car entered the busy city streets, it slowed down to avoid bumping into the pedestrians.

White Crane had already seen the flashing neon lights of the "Tongzhou International Hotel." He looked around at the busy streets and frowned slightly. "If they start a fire early, the consequences will be unimaginable."

"Ye Jian won't give them a chance to start a fire." Xia Jinyuan replied immediately. "She won't sit in the hotel and wait. As long as she finds any clues, she will act immediately. Then, the Tongzhou police will ambush them secretly. The entire Tongzhou International Hotel will be under surveillance. No one will give the criminals a chance to start a fire."

Since they already knew that the other party would take action, they just needed to catch them in one fell swoop. Naturally, they needed to be aware of the other party's situation at all times. The police from Guilin City cooperated with the Tongzhou Police. Tonight, Tongzhou International Hotel wouldn't be too peaceful.

Chapter 1458: Brave

Ye Jian didn't know anything, but she knew that the hotel wouldn't be peaceful tonight. She didn't wait in her room and returned to the lobby again. At the same time, she was holding a cup of coffee that was just warm.

The square-faced man was still there, but his expression was getting more and more impatient. From time to time, he would cross his legs and put them down again. The newspaper in his hands was shaking so much that it was rustling. His patience was reaching its limit.

Ye Jian narrowed her eyes as she walked past. When the other party suddenly changed his legs, she walked over stealthily and tripped his leg.

The coffee fell on the square-faced man's clothes. She tripped and staggered a few steps forward. In the end, she fell on the sofa.

"Don't you have eyes?" The square-faced man didn't think that he was wrong. Instead, he started scolding Ye Jian. "Do you know how to walk? Damn it! You splashed coffee all over me!"

Pretending that she had not regained her balance, Ye Jian hurriedly apologized, "I'm sorry, I'm sorry. I didn't pay attention to my feet just now. I'm so sorry. You didn't get scalded, right? If your clothes got wet, I'll compensate you. Or can you go to the washroom to change and I'll hand it to the hotel for dry cleaning?"

Sometimes, when a person was good-looking, they would be treated well. One second ago, the square-faced man, who was still looking fierce, saw the face of the woman who poured coffee all over him. The next second, his attitude changed a lot. Although he was still angry, he didn't scold her anymore. He just said, "Be careful!"

After he finished speaking, he stood up and glanced outside the hotel before walking towards the bathroom.

Ye Jian apologized again. She looked at the back of the square-faced man and smiled lightly. After confirming that he was walking towards the bathroom, she followed him.

Men on the left and women on the right. Ye Jian pushed open the door of the washroom that was still slowly closing. She hung the 'cleaning' sign on the lock of the door of the men's washroom before rushing in.

The bathroom door was locked. The square-faced man, who was taking off his jacket, didn't notice what was behind him. By the time he felt that something was wrong, it was already too late.

Ye Jian moved very quickly. The other party just took off one of his sleeves. She walked over and grabbed the other sleeve. Before the other party could take off his other sleeve, she picked up the other sleeve and covered the square-faced man's head with it.

"Who are you? What do you want?" The square-faced man, whose head was covered, didn't react. He only felt his vision blur. Then, he couldn't see anything.

Ye Jian grabbed his other hand. She grabbed his sleeve and pulled his chin. The square-faced man didn't have any chance to struggle. He fell over his shoulder and was controlled by Ye Jian.

“Mmm, mmm... mmm... Let go! Let go!” The man, who was in pain from the fall, struggled with all his might. He looked tall and strong, but he didn’t have any skills. How could he deal with Ye Jian, who was from the special forces? After struggling for a while, Ye Jian knocked him unconscious.

Ye Jian didn’t feel any sense of accomplishment when dealing with such a person. It was too easy!

About three minutes later, the square-faced man’s voice suddenly came from the washroom. “Damn it, why isn’t he here yet? Will something happen? Will he not come? Why don’t you come out and look for him? Don’t tell me he entered the hotel early, and I didn’t see him.”

“I don’t think so. Don’t you think that you were seeing things?” A voice came from the phone. Ye Jian’s gaze moved slightly as she held the phone and said, “I don’t know. Anyway, I didn’t see anything. Come out and pick me up. Let’s discuss if we should call the Grand Commissioner.”

The voice belonged to the square-faced man.

Chapter 1459: Wisdom and Scheme

On the other end of the phone, the square-faced man’s accomplice breathed heavily. When Ye Jian heard this, a faint light flashed past her eyes.

It was obvious that the other party didn’t act according to their expectations. Not only was he flustered, but his emotions were fluctuating too.

It was a good thing for her.

“The Grand Commissioner has high hopes for us. If we don’t even know how to put out the fire, how will we answer to the Grand Commissioner? We didn’t do anything well. Mr. Charlie will not contact the Grand Commissioner for us.”

The man on the other end of the phone was obviously anxious. He seemed to be about to break something. “Damn it. If we really can’t do it, we can just set the fire at 1:00 AM. Who cares if the director-general has checked in or not! Let’s set the fire first.”

They will set a fire in the hotel at one o’clock in the morning. Mr. Charlie and the Grand Commissioner..., Ye Jian caught the keywords and immediately realized that the square-faced man and the man on the other side of the phone could contact the main target, the Grand Commissioner, through a man called “Charlie.”

In that case, these people were all small characters.

Small people had their own merits too. They were timid, afraid, and easily frightened. Let’s find Mr. Charlie first.

“That’s fine too. We just need to set the place on fire! All right, cut the crap. I’ll come up and look for you.” Ye Jian remembered the square-faced man’s accent. He had a Guilin accent, so Ye Jian’s voice had a Guilin accent.

In her past life, Ye Jian was forced by Ye Ying to the point that she didn't have a fixed home in the country. She lived in Guilin for two months too. At this moment, it really helped her a lot.

"Come up first. I'll pick you up at the elevator." On the other side of the phone, the square-faced man's partner clearly didn't have many ideas. He raised his hand and pulled the curtain again to look at the hotel. Seeing that no cars were driving in, he said, "Come up first. Hurry!"

She needed to know which elevator it was. Ye Jian asked calmly, "Okay, which elevator should I take?"

"The elevator on the fifth floor. Hurry up." The man didn't suspect anything and signaled his' partner to come up as soon as possible. It was already so late, and the target hadn't come up. He didn't know what to do.

That meant that they were on the fifth floor. Ye Jian easily got the information from him and turned the square-faced man's phone to silent mode. She walked out of the washroom and walked towards the fifth floor calmly. After a while, she pretended to be nervous and called the other party. "You better not come to the elevator to wait for me. I don't know why but I'm extremely anxious. Leave a gap in the door, and I'll go to my room to look for you. Don't hang up your phone. If there's anything, we can contact each other immediately."

With the same voice as the square-faced man, Ye Jian went up to the fifth floor. She didn't look at the gap in the room on the left. Instead, she looked at the room on the right.

The man had mentioned that he didn't see any cars driving into the hotel, which meant that their observation spot was facing the hotel road. In addition, the other party was timid, afraid of trouble, and impulsive. Besides observing in his room, she didn't know where else he would go.

She asked him to leave a crack in the door. This was a test to see if he was in the room. The other party didn't reject her but agreed readily. Ye Jian only confirmed that the other party was in the room after asking this question.

Chapter 1460: Plan And Decide

Ye Jian's searching speed was neither slow nor hurried. She walked along the long corridor covered with thick carpet as if she was taking a stroll in a park. Step by step, she walked until she saw a small crack open in the room about five steps away from her.

The other party was a little cautious too. Although there was a small crack on the door, the safety chain inside was fastened to allow him to close the door immediately if anything happened.

Smiling slightly, Ye Jian continued using the square-faced man's accent to contact the other side of the phone. She instructed the other party to take down the safety chain.

Although the man on the other side of the phone didn't see his friend, he didn't suspect anything when he heard the familiar voice. He even said, "You're finally here. I'm sweating."

The sound of someone approaching the door came from the room. Then, there was the sound of the safety chain being taken off. Ye Jian, who had been waiting for this moment, appeared from the side and closed the door. The entire process took around 30 seconds.

In the room, a small and skinny man who was around 1.65 meters tall and around 25 or 26 years old widened his eyes and stared at the uninvited guest. "You! Who are you? What are you doing?"

He was knocked down by Ye Jian. Fortunately, the hotel room was covered with carpet. The man who didn't hurt much got up as he spoke. "What are you doing? You came to the wrong room."

Ye Jian was a young lady who had exquisite and beautiful features. She was dressed in a professional suit. No matter how you looked at her, the young man felt that she was harmless. He didn't feel any danger.

"Contact Mr. Charlie and tell him about the plan." Ye Jian rushed in and held the silver wire that hadn't been wrapped around her wrist for a long time. She turned on the heater in the room and walked past the young man who was only wearing a short-sleeved T-shirt. "Ask how to set the fire at 1:00 AM."

At this moment, the young man realized that something was amiss. When he saw the girl's expression, he felt even more puzzled.

Ye Jian was too calm. It was as if she was chatting with someone she knew. Besides using some strength when she knocked on the door and entered the room, she spoke calmly after entering the room. For a moment, the young man was confused.

When he heard her mention "Mr. Charlie" and setting the fire at one o'clock in the morning, the young man's expression changed. He blurted out, "How did you know?"

"I know a lot. We still need to keep an eye on the director-general." Ye Jian looked around and confirmed that he was the only one in the room. She didn't carry any dangerous weapons, so she sat on the lounge chair leaning against the hotel's window. Her gaze was cold as she looked at the young man with a stern look in her eyes. "If the director-general comes on time, you can set the hotel on fire. If he doesn't come, you should ask Mr. Charlie what to do."

The young man didn't seem like a habitual offender. Ye Jian's words were filled with truth and lies. Coupled with the aura of a strategist, the young man, who felt that it was strange, seemed to have found his backbone. He quickly sat on another round chair and sized up Ye Jian. After a while, he said, "Who are you? Why haven't I seen you before?"

As he spoke, he couldn't help but straighten his body. With vigilance in his eyes, he questioned without much confidence, "Tell me who you are first!"

"The Grand Commissioner has arranged for someone else to help your people at any time. If not, how would I know your plan? The car accident plan during the day has failed. Hence, this time, as long as the target appears, we must succeed! We must not fail!"
