

Chapter 1611: Pretending to Know Nothing

On the other side, Big Eel saw Ye Jian coming back and was about to go over and ask if she was feeling unwell. Should he let Big Shuttle take a look? Just as he stood up, he pulled Big Shuttle back. "If Azure Bird really has any problems, she will tell us. If she doesn't say it now, it means that she doesn't want us to know. Why do you have to go over and pierce through that layer of paper? Won't it make Azure Bird uncomfortable?"

Big Eel was persuaded. However, it could be seen that although Ye Jian had only interacted with the members of the Storm Commando Brigade for a short time, she was like an old comrade who had been together with them for years.

Ye Jian had always been shy when it came to such matters. If Big Eel went over and asked her, she could find an excuse to hide it, but she would feel uncomfortable.

There was no need to let the entire team know about a normal physiological matter.

After resting, the Storm Commando Brigade set off again. Their speed was faster than before. They were weaker than the Snow Region Brigade. If they didn't grasp the opportunity well, they would be chased and killed by the 'wolves' of the Snow Region Brigade.

The Snow Region Brigade also rushed towards the 'hunting' combat area at the fastest speed. The high-ranking officers in the command center watched as the 44 green and red dots rushed towards the final combat area.

The green dots were Group A, and the red dots were Group B. The amazing thing was that the red and green dots moved at almost the same speed. For a moment, the commanders of the navy and army forces laughed.

Watching the strongest special forces combat was even more exciting than watching a military exercise. Although it wasn't a large-scale confrontation and they didn't even have high-tech equipment, their battle stimulated everyone's primitive desire to win.

"It looks like they will meet in this area. Based on the time, they can only see their own combat area. As for the other party's combat area, they won't be able to go there."

"Based on the time we arranged, they don't have the time to go to the final combat area and inspect it in advance. Now, there are two hours left. It can be seen that both sides have already made arrangements. The two basic combat strategies are the same and very desirable."

"Hahaha, it looks like we underestimated them. We should add another mission." Major General Yang from the army laughed heartily. He looked at the small green dots and felt satisfied.

In terms of time, the Snow Region Brigade controlled it very well. From a strategic point of view, it was worth it. However, when meeting Li Jinnian, who was on par with Major Xia, their time strategy could only be considered a tie.

Now, it was time to see their true capabilities.

The two teams met each other across the lake. Xia Jinyuan used the searchlight to flash across the lake. Then, the same searchlight flashed back.

“The Demon King is an opponent. We fought hard to gain extra time, but he did the same. Both sides actually met!” J5 smiled and sighed. “Now, no one will be able to see the other party’s combat area. Everyone, hurry to the fourth combat area.”

They were now in the fifth combat area.

Xia Jinyuan spread out the combat map and pointed at a crossroads. “Meet them here and rush to the combat area together.” He wanted to ask about Little Fox’s health.

Calculating the time, today or tomorrow should be Little Fox’s special day as a woman. She was carrying 25 kilograms of combat equipment and was drenched in the rain. He wondered how she was doing.

There was no problem with his arrangements for the members of the Snow Region Brigade. The next two tasks needed to be completed together.. Tonight, they would meet up and talk about their experiences.

Chapter 1612: Major Xia Is Heartbroken

After the preheating match ended, they would organize a larger-scale battle. The entire battle would be between the two teams. At that time, it would be even more exciting than now.

At 7:40 PM, the two teams met at the intersection of the fourth combat area. The two teams patted each other’s shoulders and pounded each other’s chests. Their laughter flowed in the night sky.

The two teams didn’t stop when they met. They walked side by side, one on the right and one on the left.

“Impressive. We wanted to hurry up and explore your territory, but you were already there.”

“It’s the same for us. The Demon King arranged for us to go to your territory. In the end, someone flashed a light at us, and the Demon King told us that we can return to the fourth combat area tonight.”

When the members of both sides talked about this, they had helpless expressions.

Li Jinnian, who was walking in front, said to Xia Jinyuan, “I returned empty-handed.”

“Yes, yes,” Xia Jinyuan smiled and said. Occasionally, he would turn his head and look behind him.

“Tonight, the two teams can sit down and have a chat. Let’s hear what you have gained in the past two days.”

Li Jinnian knew that he was in a hurry to find Ye Jian, so he said, "Azure Bird is in the middle of the team. She's not feeling well."

"Thank you. I'll go over and take a look." Xia Jinyuan felt a little anxious when he heard that his girlfriend wasn't feeling well. "I'll look for you later. Sorry."

As he spoke, he turned around and strode towards the back.

Li Jinnian turned his head and looked at his back. The darkness in his eyes faded slightly. He felt that Q King treated the Azure Bird differently. He couldn't tell what was different.

Xia Jinyuan had already walked to Ye Jian's side. Ye Jian was talking to T6. When he came over, T6 wanted to free up his seat. However, he saw his captain holding his girlfriend's hand domineeringly and leaving the team.

T6 pursed his lips and gave his captain a thumbs up.

Xia Jinyuan only had his girlfriend in his eyes. He didn't have the time to look at his comrades. He held Ye Jian's hand in the dark. The coldness caused his heart to sink. Her fingers were cold.

"Is your period coming?" He asked directly. He knew that Ye Jian was shy, so he continued, "I'm your boyfriend. As a man, I know this. As a boyfriend, I should know when my girlfriend's monthly period is, so I can help. How is it now? Are you feeling uncomfortable?"

Ye Jian's expression froze. She didn't know that he knew about this!

"I'm fine." Ye Jian took a deep breath and lowered her head. She whispered, "Don't make a fuss. I don't feel uncomfortable."

He held her hand tightly and said in a low voice, "You're being stubborn. Even Demon King Li realized that your health isn't good. Your hand is cold too. You need to be more careful when your period comes."

Ye Jian felt uncomfortable. Why does he keep mentioning her period? Let's talk about something else.

"If you get drenched in the rain, your hands will get cold. We will split up again after the two tests are completed tomorrow, right?" Ye Jian started to change the topic. "It's different from what I thought. At first, I thought that the two teams would compete together every day."

She was so shy that she avoided talking to him about this topic.

Xia Jinyuan sighed softly. However, there was no other way to take care of this during training. He could only feel his heart aching. "Let me warm your hands.. I will come and cover your feet later."

Chapter 1613: Meeting Her Only

Major Xia wasn't just saying it. He was serious about this matter. Realizing that Ye Jian didn't take his words to heart, the major raised his eyebrows slightly. He didn't say anything. He planned to do it tonight and let her know that he wasn't bluffing.

Ye Jian didn't take it seriously. The two teams will be together tonight. No matter how bold he was, he wouldn't come to her in the middle of the night!

When they arrived at the fourth combat area, it was already slightly past 10:00 PM. The members of the two teams, who had not slept for a few days, were already used to sleeping at night. Together, they found a huge rock that could shelter them from the wind. The two teams spread their rainproof cloth on the ground and split into groups to quickly set up camp. They built a temporary shelter to protect them from the wind and rain.

To them, building a temporary tent that could shelter them from the wind and rain didn't take long. It took less than twenty minutes with forty-odd people working together.

Ye Jian was arranged to sleep in a slightly deeper position. She was a female soldier. When she was training, she could be like a male soldier. However, there were still differences in their lives.

The sleeping bag was a multi-functional sleeping bag that was the same color as the forest combat uniform. It was used to block wind, rain, and cold. If an enemy appeared, they could quickly stand up and hide. It wouldn't affect their agility.

Xia Jinyuan and Li Jinnian were talking. Their voices were low as they spoke about the content of their confrontation.

Ye Jian opened her sleeping bag and glanced at them. Then, she silently opened the sleeping bags of the two and settled them down. Then, she went to settle her personal matters.

Now, she felt much more comfortable and didn't have that faint feeling. She felt relaxed too. She believed that she would be able to recover completely after a good night's sleep.

"She is so diligent. She laid sleeping bags for the two of us." Xia Jinyuan watched Ye Jian leave the team. At first, he wanted to chase after her, but he controlled himself. If he followed her now, Little Fox would blush again.

Also, she just needed to lay a sleeping bag for her boyfriend. Why did she have to do it for Demon King Li too?

Li Jinnian narrowed his eyes and said thoughtfully, "Your relationship with Azure Bird is very good."

"Not bad. After all, I watched her grow up," Xia Jinyuan replied calmly. It could be seen that he understood the deeper meaning behind Demon King's words. However, he didn't want to answer directly for the time being. "She's a soldier with a strong personality. She is a person I've had my eyes on for a long while."

She was the only person he saw in his entire life. Even if she didn't answer him directly, he still explained a little to Li Jinnian.

This explanation made Li Jinnian's gaze waver a little. Did he only have eyes for her? His heart suddenly felt a little stuffy.

Xia Jinyuan didn't give him any time to think further. Instead, he went back to the main topic. "I've been training at the beach with you. I really thought that you weren't familiar with mountains and rivers. Your commander is too humble. I really thought that you weren't familiar with fighting on land."

"I admire you very much. You managed to bring the Storm Commando Brigade out in just a year. You are well-versed in all kinds of martial arts. You managed to form a new military unit from nothing to becoming an elite. Demon King, you have done a lot of work."

Chapter 1614: Something Big Happened

Li Jinnian stretched his legs and changed into a more comfortable sitting position with a cold expression on his face. He suppressed the impatience in his heart for some reason. After a while, he said calmly, "I was given a military order to train this unit into a sharp knife within two years. It has been exactly one and a half years. I only have half a year left."

"When we were named the 'Storm Commando Brigade,' the military hoped that we would be a unit that could enter the sea and live on flat land. We don't just fight on the surface of the sea. If I relax slightly, Commander Dong won't be able to answer to the military."

After all, Commander Dong eliminated all obstacles to let him, a person without much experience, become the commander of this unit.

When it came to training, Li Jinnian was obviously more talkative than usual. "This February, I brought them to the border between the two countries and the desert for two months of outdoor survival. They gained a lot."

"There are six scouts in our team. Three are from the army, and three are from the navy. Through systematic training, the six of them will exchange their thoughts from time to time. Now, sea and land are no different to the six of them."

"The Storm Commando Brigade has a big feature. Not all the members are from the navy. They are formed by the three armies of the sea, land, and air. Therefore, although our daily training revolves around the sea, we have never slackened our training on land. If not, we wouldn't be qualified to be 'amphibious.'"

His words made Xia Jinyuan nod repeatedly. He could already tell that although the Storm Commando Brigade focused on the surface of the sea, it wasn't like a giant whale on land. After taking off the rubber diving suit and wearing the combat uniform, they were like ferocious tigers released from their cages.

"The military is not only limited to your maritime warfare. 'To be able to enter the sea and be able to move on flat ground' is the military's hope for you. Also...." Xia Jinyuan lowered his voice and smiled. "I have a guess. This unusual competition might be an observation of us by the military."

He had known Li Jinnian for many years. Based on their understanding of each other, the Demon King must have had his suspicions. However, he was a man of few words.

Li Jinnian, who was taking off his helmet, heard this, and a hint of surprise flashed past his eyes. He held the helmet in his hand and gently rubbed the edge of the helmet with his fingers. He said thoughtfully, "It looks like I'm not the only one thinking this way. I feel that the military is selecting elites among the elites."

After he finished speaking, the two of them fell silent. The night was too dark. Even though they were sitting so close to each other, they couldn't see each other's faces clearly. They only felt that the other party's expression was a little tense.

"Elites among elites... It looks like not all the members will be chosen. There are limited slots," Xia Jinyuan said in a low voice. "Now that I think about it, everything makes sense."

This explained why they didn't fight together in this competition. Instead, they split up in front, gathered in the middle, and finally split up again.

One of the goals of consuming their abilities and stimulating their potential was to select people!

A group of outstanding soldiers had a distinction between the top, middle, and bottom. The military wanted the best soldiers! They wanted the best among elites!

Ye Jian, who came back, heard the sentence 'pick the best among the elites.' She couldn't help but raise her eyebrows.. After listening to Xia Jinyuan's last sentence, there was an undisguised surprise in her eyes.

Chapter 1615: Ruthless

What happened?

Wasn't everyone able to go overseas to compete?

Xia Jinyuan was stunned for a moment. He had been paying attention to her movements. When he saw that she didn't move, he apologized to Li Jinnian and hurriedly got up to walk over. He lowered his voice and couldn't hide his worry. "Are you feeling uncomfortable? Do you need some hot water?"

"No, no need." Ye Jian didn't expect him to come over. She hurriedly explained, "I'm fine. I was just a little surprised when I heard what you said."

The major general said that she came to train with the two teams to represent the country overseas.

If Xia Jinyuan said, she only had a 50% chance of being selected.

Thinking about this, Ye Jian's expression turned serious. There was an unyielding and vicious look on her face.

If there were a need for selection, she would not run away. She would work harder to gain more opportunities. That way, she would not disappoint the major general!

The searchlight on her helmet was turned on. Xia Jinyuan looked at her face worriedly. Yes, she looked better than before. Her lips were slightly pinkish.

“Come and sit for a while. Let’s talk.” If there was really a selection, he naturally hoped that she could go.

In the command center, the major general of the army and the navy commander looked at the two red and green dots representing the captains of the two teams. They had been together for ten minutes. The major general of the army raised his hand and rubbed his forehead. He said helplessly to the navy commander, “Old Dong, why do I feel that it’s not good? It seems like they will make some movement tonight.”

There were some loopholes in the match that was arranged. It was not surprising that they discovered the military’s intention.

The navy commander sighed and said, “Paper can’t cover fire. It has been going on for three days. The captains of the two teams must have many questions in their hearts. Now that they have met and mentioned it to each other, our ultimate goal can’t be hidden. They have already guessed...” Before he could finish his sentence, the navy commander saw the small circle representing Azure Bird approaching.

“This is good. With three brains put together, they must have figured out our intentions.”

When the major general heard this, he immediately looked at the big screen that displayed the data. When he saw it, he laughed. “I’m sure that they have already guessed a little. Now that the three of them are together, they might be discussing this topic.”

Completing the competition overseas next year wasn’t a small matter. It was a matter that concerned the glory and pride of the country, so the military was naturally very cautious. Although there were 44 elite Special Forces soldiers training together, the number of people who could represent the country was limited.

Through observation and comparison, only twenty Special Forces soldiers could represent the country.

Ye Jian took one slot. There were only 19 slots left.

He didn’t inform them in advance. This was the result of a discussion between the Great Hall and the highest-ranking officer of the military. Without them knowing, they would be able to understand more about their comprehensive abilities through this small competition.

If the three of them knew about it... The navy commander sneered. “Basically, these three people are occupying a slot, so it doesn’t matter if they know. As commanders, their analytical ability is naturally better than the other members. If they know, they know.”

Chapter 1616: Not Worthy of This Life

“In that case, for the sake of fairness, we will make it public to all the members.” The major general put away the faint smile on his face and looked at the big screen seriously. “Let them do their best for their personal expedition!”

The navy commander agreed. He nodded and said in a low voice, "There will only be progress if there's competition. There's hope if there's motivation. Let's see which one of them is the master!"

Just like what the two high-ranking officers had guessed, the three of them were indeed discussing this matter. Ye Jian said, "If that's the case, I..." She looked at the two shadows that couldn't be ignored even if it was dark beside her. "I will definitely do my best and become a soldier that can stay."

"All the more, I can't lose." Xia Jinyuan raised his thin lips slightly and gave a faint and confident smile. "The female soldier is staying. As the captain, I can't lose."

Li Jinnian's reply was as simple as usual. "The same."

"Then, there's a very important question. Do we need to tell our comrades? The military didn't give us any clear instructions. It's obvious that they don't want us to know." After Xia Jinyuan finished speaking, his handsome face turned dark. "We need to contact the command center. If not, it's not fair to them. Unless none of us participate."

However, that was impossible.

This was a matter for the captains. Although she didn't have the right to speak, she could still give an opinion. Ye Jian pursed her lips and said, "I'm one of the members too. I know, but the other comrades don't. Just like what Q King said, it's unfair to them."

That was because everyone wanted to represent their country and fight for their country's glory.

"Contact the military."

"Contact the military."

Two voices sounded at the same time. After Xia Jinyuan finished speaking, he looked at Li Jinnian. "Let's contact them now."

Ye Jian stood up. "Then I won't disturb you. I'll go back and rest first. Good night."

The two young majors, who still had things to do, nodded and watched her leave.

Very soon, the navy commander and the major general in the command center received a call from their proud subordinates. Just like what they had guessed, they really called to confirm.

Five minutes later, the members of the Storm Commando Brigade and the Snow Region Brigade knew everything. The sudden news stunned them for a few seconds.

"That's what happened. We guessed it ten minutes ago and called to confirm it with the military. Hence, we will be not only comrades but also rivals."

Xia Jinyuan stood at the front and announced the news. The earlier he announced it, the better. Why keep it for tomorrow?

“There are limited slots. The military has never told us how many slots there are. You just need to remember that all of you have the chance to bring glory to the country. Whether you can represent the country will depend on your ability!”

Ye Jian, who was standing straight, suddenly remembered what Uncle Gen said when he was alive. “If you are strong enough, you will definitely stand at the highest peak and be admired by everyone.” For a moment, she felt proud. Her eyes, as clear as water, seemed to be burning until they were black and bright. For a moment, they were even brighter than diamonds.

She didn’t need people to look up to her. She just needed to live up to her expectations!

Chapter 1617: Comrades, Opponents, and Lovers

After gathering at the last minute, Ye Jian could clearly feel that the atmosphere had changed. It was like an arrow had been shot. It was filled with killing intent.

“All the best, brother!”

“Okay. Don’t cry when you lose.”

“It looks like we can’t give in to you. We have to see what’s real!”

“Azure Bird, I can’t treat you like a female soldier anymore. If I offended you in any way, please forgive me. I’m a soldier, and I have a mission. It tells me that I must move forward!”

Big Eel stood in front of Ye Jian and looked at her sternly. “From now on, we are comrades and rivals.”

“Yes, Big Eel. From now on, we are comrades and opponents. So, please don’t treat me as a female soldier. A female soldier won’t admit defeat just because she’s a female soldier. A female soldier is a soldier too. She has a fearless spirit!”

Ye Jian smiled at him and answered him seriously.

She was a female soldier, but she had her own beliefs and goals. She was ready to fight for glory!

Standing behind her, Xia Jinyuan smiled. The smile on his handsome and noble face was deep. He looked at his girlfriend with gentleness in his eyes.

After Big Eel left, he took a few steps closer. From a certain distance, the tall man stood quietly and looked at her intently.

“Azure Bird, I’m the captain of the Snow Region Brigade. My codename is Q King. From tonight onwards, you’re my comrade and my opponent. I won’t give in to you just because you’re a female soldier. I won’t give you special treatment because of our relationship either. I’m a soldier. I have my principles and my mission.”

“As for you, as a soldier, you don’t need other people’s modesty or special treatment. I always believe in you. I believe that as a soldier, you will overcome all obstacles and become an outstanding Special Forces soldier.”

As her boyfriend, Major Xia said the same thing to his girlfriend. Look, this was their love. It was a unique love.

They were lovers, comrades, and rivals. Their love in this lifetime would be more exciting than anyone else’s!

Ye Jian turned and looked at the young major who had been encouraging her to grow up. Her bright eyes were like crescent moons.

Thank you, Major Xia. Thank you, Q King. Thank you... my boyfriend. He used his unique method to protect her growth and make her happy.

Not far away, Li Jinnian smiled as he looked at them. He finally understood why he had a strange feeling every time he saw the two of them.

As long as the two of them were together, their smiles and their language, even if they just stood together and didn’t do anything, would create an intimacy that no one could interfere with.

Li Jinnian turned around and returned to his seat without any hesitation. At the same time, he moved his sleeping bag further away to leave more space for the two of them.

They were comrades, rivals, and lovers.

It was late at night. Lying in his sleeping bag, Xia Jinyuan turned his body slightly and hugged Ye Jian’s cold feet tightly with his hands, using his body temperature to warm them.

He wouldn’t give in to her during the competition, but he would do his best to take care of her and make her happy in life.

Ye Jian struggled for a moment but didn’t move after a while. She had already experienced his stubbornness.

He was a man of his words.. He was not joking when he said that he would warm her feet.

Chapter 1618: I Won’t Mind

That night, Ye Jian slept very soundly. Her cold feet seemed to be warmed by a ball of fire. The warmth from her feet passed through her limbs. It was so warm that she realized sweat was on her forehead when she opened her eyes and woke up.

A faint blush appeared on Ye Jian’s face when she realized that her legs were still in his arms. She kicked her feet lightly and tried to pull them out of his arms. The moment she moved, the man opened his eyes. His handsome and cold eyes were like the cold moon that broke through the clouds.

His hand was already holding the rifle. The moment he opened his eyes, Xia Jinyuan entered combat mode.

This was a man who always wore his military uniform, combat uniform, or training uniform. No matter what he was doing at that time, his body would always be in a combat state.

At this moment, Ye Jian quickly pulled back her legs and sat up quickly. She looked like she was preparing to get up and clean up.

It was still early. The gathering time was at 5:30 AM. Ye Jian looked at the time. There were still 15 minutes before 5:00 AM.

Xia Jinyuan hugged her legs and placed them on his chest again. He laid down and didn't get up. He said in a lazy and light voice, "You can still sleep for a while. Don't be anxious. No comrades are getting up now. The sentinels will notice you if you stand alone."

"Little Fox, do you think the sentinel will see me hugging your legs?" Major Xia closed his eyes and whispered slowly. As he just woke up, his low and slightly cold voice had a hint of sexiness. "If you want the sentinel to see you, just sit. I won't mind."

Ye Jian didn't overthink it. She raised her eyes and looked around vigilantly.

The comrades were not up yet. The sentinel was five meters away from them. Fortunately, he didn't notice their small actions!

The major, who had his eyes closed, seemed to know what she was doing. He opened his eyes slowly and smiled. "The sentinel is the scout of the Water Ghost team. Little Fox, do you want to continue sitting?"

How would she dare to continue sitting there?

Ye Jian's heart was beating fast. She was afraid that she would wake her comrades up if she spoke, so she laid down again. She said helplessly to the major who was hugging her legs and refusing to let go, "Hurry up and let go. The sun will rise soon. It's not good to be seen."

"It's still early. There's no need to worry. Why don't you sleep with me a little more?" The major, who had his eyes closed, was magnanimous enough to not worry about being discovered. He even said calmly, "With me around, do you still need to worry about being discovered? Also, if we are really discovered, that's called seeing. They will see comrades taking care of their comrades' bodies," Major Xia spoke forcefully.

He wasn't worried about anything, but she was! Ye Jian didn't dare to move too much. To free her legs, she didn't confront the unreasonable man directly. Instead, she said, "You have to let go of me before I can go over."

When he released his hand, she stood up immediately!

Xia Jinyuan knew his girlfriend well. As long as he released her, she would run away immediately. He even covered her feet because he was worried that his comrades would see them sleeping together... Tsk tsk tsk, would Little Fox be willing?

Don't even think about it. The shy Little Fox would never agree to it.

Chapter 1619: Can We Talk About Dating?

"Let's hug your legs and warm you up. How about that? Are you satisfied with the human furnace?" Major Xia, who saw through her small plan, was unmoved. He just hugged her legs.

Marching multipurpose sleeping bags were different from ordinary sleeping bags. Normally, sleeping bags are designed according to the human body. Their shoulders were wide, and their legs were narrow.

The multi-functional sleeping bag they were using now had sleeves that looked like clothes. It was designed to facilitate the life of soldiers who were marching and could hold their guns quickly when they noticed something amiss.

The sleeping bag was a double-headed zipper. In order to let Ye Jian's legs close to his body, Xia Jinyuan pulled the zipper to his chest and hugged Ye Jian's legs. Hence, if Ye Jian moved slightly, he could feel the wind in the mountain rushing towards his chest.

Hence, he sighed softly and said, "Don't move. My chest is cold. You don't want me to catch a cold too, right?"

She could rest for a while. She was having her period, so she needed to rest well.

Ye Jian knew that he was trying to be pitiful, but she didn't have the heart to do it. She could only whisper, "I'm much better now. Yesterday, my condition wasn't good because I got rained on. Now, I'm fine after sleeping."

"If you don't believe me, I'll come over and let you take a look."

Xia Jinyuan believed her words. When he heard that, he released his hand and sat up. He stretched out his right hand from the sleeve of his sleeping bag and gently touched Ye Jian's face. It was very warm. Her body temperature was indeed much more normal than last night.

As for whether her blood was good or not, she wouldn't know for now. She would only know when the sun rose.

She could finally pull her legs back. Ye Jian heaved a sigh of relief. Her expression became lighter. She didn't stop him from touching her face.

"Do I feel warmer?" She felt the gentle touch of his fingers on her face. It was soft and gentle. It was like a flower gently landing in her heart. It was filled with a flowery fragrance that made her feel sweet. Ye Jian smiled as she looked at the man. The smile on her face was a little deep. "I can't take care of my body during training, but I won't force myself when I'm resting."

During training and missions, no matter how sick her body was, she had to persevere. This was the tenacious willpower of a soldier. When she was resting, she would adjust her body. She wouldn't let her body not get the rest it deserved.

She needed to be strong, but she would never force herself.

Xia Jinyuan retracted his hand and looked at his girlfriend, who was sitting in front of him. He smiled softly and said, "That's true. It looks like this human furnace worked great last night. I can hear that you are energetic. There shouldn't be a problem."

"I can't bear this for you, so I can only trouble you."

Ye Jian: "... " It's better to change the topic. She didn't want to talk about her physiology at all. However, it was indeed because of him that she slept so soundly last night. She thanked him generously, "Yes, thanks to Q King for taking care of me last night. I'm feeling energetic."

"How are you going to thank me?" Xia Jinyuan didn't give Ye Jian any time to catch her breath. He quickly continued, "I will be happier if you give me some real gratitude. Of course, we can only take note of it now. We will talk about it after the training ends."

After bringing his girlfriend to his team, Major Xia suddenly realized that he could still make use of the free time to talk about love occasionally. This was a good way to kill two birds with one stone!

Chapter 1620: Rubbing His Face Blood

Some of her comrades had already woken up. Ye Jian's heart tightened when she heard the rustling sounds. She looked around quickly. She was afraid that someone had heard their conversation.

At five o'clock in the morning, the sun was shining slightly. Ye Jian noticed that Demon King Li, who was the closest, was now two meters away from them. That meant that she and Xia Jinyuan were the ones occupying this area!

Xia Jinyuan followed her gaze and looked over. His gaze landed on Li Jinnian calmly before retracting.

It was easy to deal with smart people. Although he didn't say his relationship with Ye Jian directly, Demon King Li guessed it. He even pulled away and left enough space for him and Ye Jian.

Demon King, how interesting!

At the same time, he believed that this man wouldn't tell anyone about his relationship with Ye Jian.

As for why he wanted to leak some information to Demon King Li, it was very simple. He realized that the other party had been staring at his girlfriend far too long.

This was not a good sign. He needed to stop it.

Such an outstanding Little Fox didn't lack people thinking about her. He couldn't chase away all the men who were thinking about her, but that didn't stop him from declaring his rights as her boyfriend. Since he knew about it, he must attack and never give his opponent a chance.

As for a love letter, he needed to be wary of it!

Ye Jian didn't know that the man beside her had already silently declared his boyfriend's sovereignty. Seeing that Demon King Li was so far away from them, she heaved a sigh of relief.

Seeing that a few of his comrades were getting up, he immediately said, "If you really want to thank me, we can talk about it later. Remember to pay for it first! Also, I won't collect interest!"

Major Xia wanted to collect some small interest such as a kiss and so on, but he stopped. He was afraid that he wouldn't be able to get back his capital.

He heard his comrade getting up too. He knew that their short time together had to end.

Also, he didn't want everyone to know about his relationship with Ye Jian. Even if he wanted to announce it, he needed to wait for Ye Jian to enter the Snow Region Brigade and achieve some results.

This was the only way to stop everyone from talking.

The members of both teams didn't have the habit of sleeping in. In addition, they knew that this competition was a selection of the best. Everyone was trying their best to fight for a spot for themselves. The competition had already started. If they didn't want to be eliminated, they had to give it their all.

Although they were also giving it their all in the past, they would fight harder now. Hence, she needed to give it her all too.

Ye Jian had already packed her sleeping bag. When she turned around, she saw that Xia Jinyuan had finished packing all his equipment. He said to her, "Take a walk and come back at 5:30 AM."

There was a small stream in front of them. They could wash up easily.

There were still 23 minutes left. Ye Jian saw that Demon King Li was packing up and hadn't gathered his team yet, so she nodded and followed him into the forest. Before she left, she quickly touched her bag and placed one hand in her combat uniform pocket before following Xia Jinyuan.

Her boyfriend noticed her small actions and didn't expose her. He just smiled sexily.

She was really cute. She was so shy that he wanted to tease her.

This wouldn't do. If he continued teasing her, the Little Fox would reveal her hidden 'claws'. If she got angry and scratched his face with her claws, it wouldn't be worth it.
