

BOOT CAMP 1621

Chapter 1621: The sniper's Throne

In the morning, Ye Jian naturally had to settle her personal matters.

After entering the forest, Ye Jian took the chance when Xia Jinyuan was washing up to settle her matters and clean up.

The forest was very quiet. There was a faint mist surrounding it.

The early birds were already chirping on the branches, playing a song for the couple who could temporarily take a walk together.

Xia Jinyuan didn't mention her personal matters anymore. Instead, he said in a deep voice, "Today and tomorrow will be the most tiring days. Remember the 'captive mission' I told you about? From this afternoon onwards, you have to be careful. Be careful not to be robbed by us."

The 'captive mission' could be said to be the highlight of the competition. It was also the best competition to test the individual's combat ability. Especially last night, all the comrades knew that this was a competition to select the representatives. Individual combat would be more rigorous and fierce.

Xia Jinyuan's reminder made Ye Jian's heart drop. He was right. She needed to be careful. Once she was captured, she might miss the chance to go overseas.

This was not what she wanted.

"There's no need to feel too pressured. Uncle Chen personally trained you. Uncle Chen was the strongest soldier of the previous era. Azure Bird, do you know that it's a blessing for you to learn from that generation of soldiers?"

Ye Jian's gaze changed slightly. Uncle Chen once told her that he carried out a huge mission in his seventies. Out of ten soldiers, only four came back alive.

But from Major Xia's tone, it seemed like Uncle Chen wasn't an ordinary soldier.

Also, Uncle Chen rarely mentioned his military career to her. Besides the day they started their 'inferno training,' Uncle Chen never mentioned his past again.

Most importantly, Uncle Chen was obviously hiding something from her.

Uncle Chen retired from the military in 1997. However, he said that in the 1970s, when he completed his mission, his identity as a 'world sniper' was exposed. To ensure his safety, the military spent three months deploying him. They erased Uncle Chen's identity, and he became a soldier who died for his country internationally.

However, Uncle Chen retired when he was 87 years old!

It had been so long since the 1970s. However, Uncle Chen never mentioned his military career again.

Uncle Chen smiled and said to her calmly, "The past is the past. Some things are only suitable for you to remember."

At that time, she felt that Uncle Chen had something to say. The sorrow in his eyes was so deep that she felt a little sour in her nose. She couldn't ask him anymore. Until now, Uncle Chen was still the most mysterious relative in her heart.

Xia Jinyuan noticed something amiss and asked, "You don't know about Uncle Chen?"

"I know a little, but not a lot. Uncle Chen only told me once about him," Ye Jian said in a low voice. Although he didn't say much, she knew that Uncle Chen must have been very powerful in the past.

Uncle Chen was able to achieve all the amazing sniping skills.

Then, should she ask Major Xia? Since Uncle Chen didn't want to tell her, there must have been a reason. If she insisted on asking, would it be disrespectful to Uncle Chen?

Chapter 1622: The One and Only Soldier King

But when she thought about Uncle Chen's intentional evasion, she felt uneasy.

His identity was exposed... After so many years, it should be fine.

After shifting her gaze, Ye Jian asked, "Major Xia, I want to ask you something. Uncle Chen was an ace soldier. Do you mean the unique ace soldier or the only ace soldier in the military unit?"

"He was the one and only ace soldier. A legend of the sniper world. To this day, the throne of the sniper world still belongs to Uncle Chen. No one can replace him." Xia Jinyuan's expression couldn't help but turn solemn when he mentioned his senior's achievements. His voice was filled with respect. "Uncle Chen can be said to be a legend. A legend that many people can't believe existed."

Ye Jian was shocked. A unique ace soldier! A legend that many people didn't believe existed!

Uncle Chen never told her about this!

Xia Jinyuan was shocked too. He thought that Ye Jian knew everything about Uncle Chen, but her expression told him that she didn't know about Uncle Chen's past achievements!

"Didn't Uncle Chen mention to you that he was a soldier?" Xia Jinyuan frowned. Uncle Chen never mentioned it to her? Why did Uncle Chen not mention anything about his past when he was training Ye Jian?

Ye Jian shook her head gently. "I only know that Uncle Chen was one of ten ace soldiers who went on a mission in his seventies. In the end, only four of them came back alive. Besides that, Uncle Chen never mentioned it again."

“Among the ten ace soldiers, Uncle Chen is the real deal,” Xia Jinyuan added.” In that era, Uncle Chen’s sniping skills and individual combat ability were excellent. The ace soldiers who followed him were all defeated by Uncle Chen.”

That was why he said that Uncle Chen was a unique ace soldier.

Ye Jian, who never knew about Uncle Chen’s personal achievements, was still shocked. “To this day, the throne in the sniper world still belongs to Uncle Chen. No one can replace him.” In 87, Uncle Chen retired from the military. Now, in 99 years, no one has been able to defeat Uncle Chen for 12 years!

It turned out that this was the origin of the ‘world-class sniper.’ However, when Uncle Chen mentioned this matter, he casually told her that it was just a reputation. From his tone, it seemed like everything was fake.

Xia Jinyuan’s gaze turned dark. Ye Jian was Uncle Chen’s only successor. Her sniping skills were taught by Uncle Chen personally. Why didn’t Uncle Chen mention his matter to him?

Could it be...

Xia Jinyuan asked Ye Jian, “Do you know why Uncle Chen retired?”

“Yes, I know.” Ye Jian saw that his expression was a little dark and couldn’t help but lower her voice. “His identity was exposed. To avoid some trouble, the military retired Uncle Chen, and he was declared dead in a matter of three months.”

That meant that Uncle Chen’s identity was still a secret.

Xia Jinyuan’s expression softened a little. That meant that Uncle Chen still told Ye Jian a thing or two. However, he didn’t say much. He said, “Uncle Chen is a legend in the sniper world. Even after he retired, many people looked up to him. Uncle Chen’s matter is a little complicated. Since he didn’t tell you much, he must have his reasons.”

“As for you, you just need to remember that you are a sniper personally taught by Uncle Chen. Don’t embarrass Uncle Chen, understand?” Xia Jinyuan reminded her.. Then, he changed the topic and stopped talking about Uncle Chen.

Chapter 1623: An Old Friend Comes

Uncle Chen didn’t tell Ye Jian because he didn’t want Ye Jian to worry. He wanted to protect her. Hence, he mustn’t mention Uncle Chen’s past to Ye Jian.

Today, he almost made a huge mistake. Since Uncle Chen and Ye Jian were relatives, he thought that Ye Jian should know everything about him.

Ye Jian pursed her lips tightly. Uncle Chen didn’t want to tell her, and Major Xia didn’t want to tell her either... Why did they have to hide it from her? Was Uncle Chen still in danger? What other secrets did Uncle Chen have?

Was it a dangerous secret?

Ye Jian, who had a sharp mind, lowered her eyes. Her thick and long eyelashes covered the complicated emotions in her eyes. She was a little worried.

Xia Jinyuan knew that his words still disturbed Ye Jian.

After the training ended, he would call Uncle Chen immediately and apologize to him.

Far away in Shuikou Village, Uncle Chen opened the wooden door. Under the light, he saw who was knocking. The expression on his resolute face suddenly changed.

“Hello, is this Sun Xueqing’s martyr’s house?” At the door, Commissioner Cai asked politely, “I am looking for her daughter, Ye Jian.”

Uncle Chen sighed softly and said politely, “Yes, please come in.”

After entering the room and sitting down, Commissioner Cai looked at the middle-aged man who was not much older than him. He lowered his head to conceal the doubt in his eyes as he drank his tea. Why did this person... look a little familiar?

He seemed to have seen him somewhere before.

After putting on his clothes and washing up, Uncle Chen looked at the middle-aged man drinking tea. His gaze was dark too.

He knew who he was. He was Ye Jian’s mother’s former comrade. He saw him in a photo.

“I’m sorry to disturb you.” Commissioner Cai didn’t think about who the middle-aged man was anymore. Instead, he took the initiative to say his intention. “I’m here to look for my comrade’s daughter, Ye Jian. May I know who you are?”

Uncle Chen sat down and took a sip of hot tea before replying, “I’m Ye Jian’s uncle. My surname is Chen. Why are you looking for Ye Jian? She’s not at home now.”

Commissioner Cai had already asked around before he came. He knew that Ye Jian had to thank Principal Chen for taking care of her. If it wasn’t for these two people, Ye Jian might have been crippled by her uncle’s family.

“So you’re Principal Chen. Hello, Principal Chen. My surname is Cai. I’m a comrade of Sun Xueqing.” Commissioner Cai saw that he had found the right person and the smile on his face became more sincere. He opened his briefcase and took out a yellowed diary. “These are Sun Xueqing’s belongings. Principal Chen, can you pass it to Ye Jian?”

“The last time I met her in a hurry in Tongzhou, we parted without saying much. When I saw her, it was like I saw Sun Xueqing’s martyr-like demeanor. She inherited her mother’s spirit. She’s an amazing child.”

He even met Ye Jian!

Uncle Chen's expression turned dark again. He didn't take the diary. Instead, he looked at this old friend sharply. "Did Mr. Cai mention her mother to Ye Jian?"

"Principal Chen, don't worry. I know the severity of the matter. I haven't told you anything about Sun Xueqing." Commissioner Cai noticed Principal Chen's sharp gaze. He straightened his body and said sternly, "It looks like Principal Chen knows about Sun Xueqing. I haven't told Ye Jian about this matter because I have many questions."

Chapter 1624: Outstanding

The morning breeze blew in through the open door, bringing with it the chill of winter. With a solemn expression, Principal Chen looked at the open door of the hall and said to Commissioner Cai, "If you don't mind, let's go to the kitchen and have a seat. We can chat while warming up. How about that?"

He wondered if anyone had seen this Mr. Cai when he came to the village. There were a few famous gossip mongers in the village. If they saw him, they might say something.

The village was small. If any strangers entered, everyone would ask them a few questions. This was typical village life. There were no bad intentions nor secrets between the families.

"I don't mind. Please lead the way." Commissioner Cai smiled and stood up first. He had a good impression of Principal Chen. He could see the familiar aura of a soldier from him.

As a retired soldier, he felt that the distance between them was getting closer.

Ye Jian's house was still an old house in the 1980s. It wasn't like the small red-brick houses in the village that were starting to be built. It was covered with mud bricks and white limestone powder. Although it was an old house, it was clean and warm in winter and cool in summer.

The kitchen was used to light a fire and warm up. Normally, Principal Chen would eat here too. He would burn the split firewood and set up an old-fashioned wooden kettle. Commissioner Cai smiled when he saw this. "I haven't seen this kind of kettle in a long time. I saw it in the military unit before."

When they talked about the military unit, Principal Chen, also a retired soldier, smiled. "Our village is still like this. It's convenient and durable. The water that was boiled is delicious too."

The conversation was a little relaxed. There wasn't the coldness and vigilance that they had when they met before. Unknowingly, the firewood was boiling and white mist was rising.

Principal Chen put on his gloves and picked up the water bottle. The water was black from the firewood. He made another cup of tea and passed it to Commissioner Cai. He sighed. "Old Cai, tell me about Ye Jian's mother."

Half an hour later, one called him Old Cai, and the other called him Old Brother.

“Ye Jian looks like her mother, but she’s calmer than her mother. Her aura is more like a soldier too.” Commissioner Cai took a sip of the hot tea that had just been steeped. The tea leaves were self-made too. The fragrance of the tea wafted in the air.

The burning firewood crackled softly. The light from the fire lit up Commissioner Cai’s face and revealed a hint of melancholy on his face. “Although I only met Ye Jian once, I can tell that this child has her own views. She’s exceptionally calm when something happens. She has the courage to make a prompt decision.”

“That’s right. This child is more opinionated and stronger than her mother.” Principal Chen nodded. After half an hour of interaction, he could tell that he had a good relationship with Ye Jian’s mother. They were comrades.

Hence, when he mentioned Ye Jian, he was talking about his child. He had the tolerance and love of an elder.

Commissioner Cai recalled the times he interacted with his comrades in the past. There was a smile and sorrow in his eyes. “With such an outstanding child, Hongmei can rest assured in the afterlife. When she died, Ye Jian was only three years old. At a young age, she had no parents. But thanks to you and that senior who passed away helping her and taking care of her she could grow up. If not, this girl would have been crippled by her uncle.”

A vicious look flashed past Commissioner Cai’s eyes.

“Ye Jian is an understanding person. She knows clearly who treats her badly and who treats her well. Her uncle is dishonest, but Ye Jian is a domineering child. She can differentiate between the main and the secondary.”

Chapter 1625: Better Than Lan

“She knows what’s most important to her. She knows what she can give up and what she can put aside for the time being. We took care of her because she’s worthy of being taken care of. She’s talented, responsible, and a child who can achieve great things. If she’s really useless, we wouldn’t have groomed her like this.”

Principal Chen had no intention of taking credit. Instead, he spoke calmly. He wasn’t afraid that Commissioner Cai would misunderstand anything.

That was the truth. Why did Uncle Gen, a Class A Master Sergeant, want to groom Ye Jian? First, it was because of Ye Jian’s mother. Second, it was because Ye Jian had become sensible. She was no longer as weak and useless as before. Third, she had the ability and talent.

He was the same. If Ye Jian weren’t capable and talented, he wouldn’t have risked his identity to groom her.

That was what he thought at that time.

However, the more he interacted with this girl, the more he felt that this girl had a rare and precious quality. She was good and had a righteous heart.

During training, she never complained about being tired. Even when she was in pain, she gritted her teeth and persevered.

As long as he interacted with Ye Jian for a long time, he would know that Ye Jian was a good girl that was loved.

Commissioner Cai didn't know Ye Jian well. However, her resolution had left a deep impression on him. Hence, when Principal Chen mentioned Ye Jian, he felt that this was the real Ye Jian.

"The student surpasses the master. She's better than her mother. This is also Hongmei's wish." Commissioner Cai smiled gently. There was a hint of gentleness in the corners of his eyes, but it disappeared quickly. There was only a hint of sharpness. "It's a pity that Hongmei didn't see it! If she were still alive, she would be so happy to see her child being so promising."

Principal Chen noticed something from his sudden change in expression. He had never seen Ye Jian's mother before, but he heard from Uncle Gen that the ladies from all over the country couldn't be compared to her. After entering the military, there would always be male soldiers who liked her.

Just like Ye Jian, a few days ago, Commander Liu was looking for fun and said that one of the old soldiers from Shanghai got into a university. He asked him about Ye Jian and said that he wanted to woo her.

What was even more ridiculous was that the family of the soldier supported him. They called the office and hoped that the military unit would help their son to woo his girlfriend.

It was a burden for Ye Jian to still remember the past after so many years. Principal Chen patted Commissioner Cai's shoulder. "Ye Jian always goes to the martyrs' cemetery to visit her mother. She's filial and stronger than we thought."

"But there are many things she has to do. For instance, finding the mastermind behind Red Plum's death."

The sad conversation was suddenly filled with sharpness because of Commissioner Cai's words. He was a retired veteran who had stepped into middle age. As the Tongzhou City Public Security Bureau Director, Commissioner Cai looked at Principal Chen with a deep gaze. "Brother, I came here to tell Ye Jian that her mother died because someone revealed her identity."

The firewood was still burning brightly. The heat emitted from it made people feel warm and comfortable.. Occasionally, sparks would fly, and the sparks would flash across the flames for a short while before disappearing.

Chapter 1626: The Mastermind

Just like the fire in Commissioner Cai's eyes, because he didn't get Principal Chen's reply for a long time, the fire in the kitchen turned from bright to dark and finally turned into ashes. There was no longer any starlight.

"Brother, you don't believe me, right?" Commissioner Cai sighed heavily. There was a bitter smile on his face. "That's right. It's been almost twenty years. Who will believe me? I don't believe it. Who will believe what I say?"

Commissioner Cai, who retired from the military and got to where he was today based on his own capabilities, sighed heavily again. It seemed like he wanted to spit out all the sorrows in his heart. "It's been almost twenty years. If Ye Jian didn't appear, I might have lived my life in confusion."

"Before Hongmei left, she said that if she died, she would ask her comrades to take care of her daughter. Brother, we disagreed. We even said that she was overthinking. Who knew that she had a premonition that she would die."

The fire was too strong. Principal Chen took out a piece of firewood and used the ashes to extinguish it. Principal Chen's voice was heard. "When she left the village, Ye Jian's mother already knew that she might not be able to come back."

Principal Chen's expression didn't change much when he heard such a huge matter. He had already learned something from Grandpa Gen.

Commissioner Cai was shocked. He thought that Ye Jian didn't know about it. Now, when he heard that she had noticed it, the fire in Commissioner Cai's eyes started burning again. It was brighter than before.

Principal Chen looked at him quietly and said softly, "Don't worry. Ye Jian will investigate it. However, we hope that she will be able to stabilize her position in the military unit two years after she graduates from the military school before investigating her mother's death."

"She has someone she suspects too. It's just that she can't investigate now." Principal Chen's face was slightly dark as he spoke slowly. His tone was calm but cold. "We will investigate everything, but it's not the right time."

Commissioner Cai couldn't accept it. "Since you already know, why not now? It has been so many years. If we don't investigate further, we might never be able to find the real culprit!"

"If Ye Jian is targeted, she will be hurt. Are you willing to see that?" Principal Chen's words caused Commissioner Cai's gaze to turn sharp. He suppressed his anger.

After taking a deep breath, he asked, "It looks like the mastermind is already standing at a very high position! In the third year after Red Plum died, a group of our comrades retired. We wrote a letter to the town in September and received a reply at the beginning of October that Ye Jian 'died' because she fell into the water."

“At the end of December, we sent a retired comrade to Fujun Town to ask around personally. We also received news that Ye Jian had ‘died.’. After that, we didn’t ask around anymore. We all thought that this was true.”

“When I met Ye Jian in Tongzhou, she told me personally that it was a miracle that she survived unscathed. I knew that someone was secretly stopping us from finding out about Ye Jian. They even bribed our comrades who were sent over to confirm the news so that we could completely believe that the daughter of Red Plum fell into the water and died.”

“That’s why you said that Ye Jian is being targeted now. Once she makes a move, she will be hurt.. This is the last thing we want to see! The mastermind stopped us from meeting Ye Jian because he was afraid that we would tell Ye Jian that there was something suspicious about Hongmei’s death.”

Chapter 1627: Female Special Forces

The more he spoke, the colder Commissioner Cai’s expression became. Principal Chen frowned when he heard this.

He didn’t expect his comrades from Ye Jian’s mother’s military unit to come to Fujun Town! He didn’t expect that the news of Ye Jian dying would be spread!

Three years after her death... Wasn’t that when Ye Zhifan was transferred to Fujun Town?

Principal Chen couldn’t help but say, “The situation is extremely complicated. Someone put in so much effort to stop you from meeting Ye Jian. At the same time, they even instructed Ye Zhifan and his family to cripple Ye Jian so that the truth will never be revealed.”

If her biological daughter didn’t investigate the truth behind her mother’s death, who would?

No one would pay attention to something that happened more than ten years ago. No one would investigate this matter intentionally either! Even if it was Old Cai, he might not have investigated it if he had never seen Ye Jian.

After all, it had been too long. Who would remember?

Uncle Gen didn’t want Ye Jian to investigate further. If not, he wouldn’t have kept it a secret for so long.

However, if Ye Jian insisted on investigating, he wouldn’t stop her.

Commissioner Cai frowned even more. He fumbled in his pocket and took out a pack of cigarettes. Holding the cigarette, he bent over and lit it by the fire. He smoked a few times before blowing out a string of smoke. He kept thinking about it.

No, he couldn’t let Ye Jian take the risk. He couldn’t let Hongmei’s only daughter take the risk. If something happened to Ye Jian, he wouldn’t be able to answer to Hongmei!

Principal Chen didn’t say anything. Whether they investigated or not... He and Uncle Gen had the same thought. As long as Ye Jian walked far and stood high, they didn’t want her to lose her happiness because of hatred.

“Old Chen, leave Hongmei’s matter to me. If there’s any news, I will tell you in time! I waited for so long before I knew that Hongmei’s daughter was still alive. As long as Ye Jian wants to investigate, I will definitely help her.” Commissioner Cai finished his cigarette without any expression on his face. The high-ranking police commissioner of the Public Security Bureau said in a deep voice, “Hongmei saved my life. Now, it’s time for me to pay with my life! Brother, tell Ye Jian not to move for the time being. Let me do it!”

Principal Chen didn’t say anything else. He just asked, “Why must we investigate?”

“Brother, let me tell you about Hongmei. After you hear it, you will know why I should.” Commissioner Cai’s eyes turned gentle again when he mentioned his comrade who died. He recalled his youth.

That year, the country started to form a female Special Forces unit. It was used to carry out special and dangerous missions that male soldiers couldn’t complete. Red Plum stood out from more than 6000 female soldiers and appeared in their unit in a clean military uniform. She became a flower in the unit.

She was even more skillful than a male soldier. One of her comrades accidentally made a grenade. Just as a major accident was about to happen, Red Plum kicked the grenade away.

One male soldier was bitten by a venomous snake. Without a word, Red Plum helped him and saved the male soldier’s life.

When there was an avalanche, it was Red Plum who dragged two male soldiers who had broken their legs back without caring that she could die.

After entering the desert and encountering a sandstorm, the entire team got lost. It was Red Plum who saved 20 lives!

He would have died at a certain border, but it was Red Plum who risked the rain of bullets to save him. Her calf and shoulder were even pierced by bullets.

Chapter 1628: Punishment

Don’t underestimate Hongmei. She was a female soldier whose bravery and fearlessness made the male soldiers respect her!

“Brother, Red Plum was good. She’s worthy of respect. That year, the prime minister personally gave her a red flag because he knew about Red Plum’s heroic deeds and called the entire army to learn from her.”

As long as Sun Xueqing was mentioned, Commissioner Cai’s sitting posture was the same as when he held a meeting in the military unit in the past. His back was straight, and his legs were slightly crossed. His hand that was holding the cigarette rested on his knee respectfully. There was no need to mention the expression on his face. It was solemn and respectful!

Principal Chen didn’t know much about Ye Jian’s mother. After listening to everything, this world-class sniper was full of respect for this martyr. “So Ye Jian’s mother was really this great! Brave and fearless and not afraid to sacrifice for her comrades.”

“But this child is stronger than Hongmei. Too many emotions won’t influence her!” Commissioner Cai exposed the biggest difference between the mother and daughter. “Hongmei’s most lethal flaw was her soft-heartedness. She’s very soft-hearted and trusts others very easily. She always thought that people are kind, but she ignored the complexity of human nature.”

“Ye Jian is different. Although I only met Ye Jian once, her handling of matters is much better than Red Plum. If Red Plum was able to make a prompt decision in the past, things might not have happened as they did.” Although he didn’t find Ye Jian, Commissioner Cai felt he didn’t make a wasted trip.

As long as Red Plum’s daughter suspected his mother’s death and wanted to investigate, he would be at ease!

“Although I suspected that Red Plum’s death was suspicious, I have never thought of going back to investigate. After all, seventeen years have passed. Also, a few things happened in Red Plum’s team that year. After sending away Red Plum, the entire team threw themselves into a new mission. I was the same.”

“It was more than half a year when we came back. At that time, I felt that Hongmei’s death was suspicious, but I didn’t think too much about it because of the time issue. This time, when I saw Ye Jian, this child didn’t know much about her mother. It made my heart hurt.”

“Her mother was so outstanding. She dedicated her entire life to the country, but her child doesn’t even know what kind of soldier she was. This shouldn’t be!”

“To let Ye Jian understand her mother better, I went back to the old military unit. However, I realized that there was not much information about Red Plum in the old military unit. I asked those young soldiers... No one knew that there was such a respected martyr who was their senior!”

The sparks in Commissioner Cai’s eyes seemed to have turned red. He clenched his fist placed on his knee and even the cigarette butt that was still burning in his hand.

He was too angry. He didn’t even feel the cigarette burning his palm.

“This is intentional! This is to erase Hongmei’s existence completely! A soldier died for the country, leaving her daughter. Someone not only wants to erase her existence but also wants to cripple her daughter. This person is evil!”

Towards the end, tears were shimmering in the eyes of the police commissioner!

Even Principal Chen gritted his teeth.

If he was serious, those people must be punished!

What on earth was it that even the traces of a person’s existence had to be erased? A soldier who died for the country and had outstanding military achievements became an unknown ordinary person!

How dare they be so bold!

Chapter 1629: Justice Will Not Be Late

Commissioner Cai's voice turned colder. It was like the north wind in the extreme cold. It was so cold that it could chill people's hearts. "If I don't stand up, I will feel guilty towards Hongmei! I will feel guilty towards my conscience!"

"Old Cai, I would like to thank you on behalf of Ye Jian!" Principal Chen's expression was serious. He would not stop Ye Jian from investigating the cause of her mother's death anymore. This was no longer a personal matter!

This concerned the honor of a soldier!

Commissioner Cai heaved a sigh of relief and shook his head. "I can't accept Ye Jian's thanks. I was too careless. I thought about it many times, but I always thought that I was thinking too much. That year, if I persevered a little more, everything might have been different."

He never left his briefcase. He took out a small phone book and passed it to Principal Chen. "This is the contact number of the comrades who were friends with Hongmei in the past. They were comrades that Hongmei risked her life to save. I contacted four comrades who have a certain status now. I will lead the investigation on Hongmei's death."

"When I contacted them, I knew that they suspected that Hongmei's death was not simple. This is their contact information. If anything happens, Brother, you must let Ye Jian continue investigating. You can't stop until you find out the truth!"

Principal Chen took the phone book. "Ye Jian once wanted to investigate her uncle, Ye Zhifan. Later, someone reminded her that someone was supporting him secretly. Old Cai, if you want to investigate, you can start with Ye Zhifan."

"There's also Grandma Ye and her son-in-law, Sun Yaozu. You can investigate them. I think you will find something. However, you have to be careful. We haven't touched these people until now because we are worried. We don't want to alert them and ruin Ye Jian's future."

Commissioner Cai, who had a serious expression on his face, narrowed his eyes slightly. His expression was not only cold but also contained a hint of killing intent. "This person must have an extraordinary status. His family background must be extraordinary too. He's either from the military unit or someone from his family is in the military unit."

"Brother, don't worry. We will take note of it. We won't let anyone find out easily! I'm not afraid of accidents. I just need to seek justice for Hongmei! Justice for a soldier!" Even her past deeds were secretly erased. How could they not be angry?

It was not too late to reveal that there was a problem with Red Plum's death.

The sky was starting to change. Those dusty pasts, those late truths, one day, they would wait for the truth.

Justice will not be late. Persistence is important!

Winter was a cold season. It was a season where everything was sleeping and waiting to wake up. After Principal Chen sent away Commissioner Cai, who came for justice, he stood under the roof for a long time and didn't return to his room. He stared at the sky until it was slightly blue and white before sighing.

Uncle Gen, I'm sorry. He's going back on his words.

He wouldn't stop Ye Jian from finding the truth behind her mother's death. He wouldn't hide the past anymore. Ye Jian must know the truth and help Sun Xueqing find the glory a soldier should have!

It finally started snowing in the mountains in December. It was the first snow of the year. It started snowing around 5:30 AM. At 6:00 AM, it started snowing heavily.

Ye Jian and the rest finally wore the cold-proof clothes and cold-proof pants in their luggage. At first, the military map was easy. Now, it seemed especially bulky. It seemed to affect their sensitivity.

"Everyone, check your equipment, count your bullets, and confirm your accurate shooting positions!" With the command of the two captains, the team members, who looked bloated, moved exceptionally agilely and quickly counted each other's equipment.

Chapter 1630: Don't Be So Amazing, Female Soldier

Next was the 300-meter distance limit of 100 accurate shots. Everyone only had three minutes to inspect, count the bullets, equipment, and confirm the shooting target. They needed to complete it quickly.

No one spoke. The north wind that blew was filled with killing intent. It was intimidating.

The forest was filled with the sounds of guns being checked. Ye Jian smiled slightly while listening to these familiar sounds that made her blood boil.

She liked this sound. It was so bright and lively. She liked the moment when the bullet was fired from the barre, and the recoil came. She felt as if the sound of her bullet was running around her heart. She felt motivated as she listened to it.

"Checked! Clear!"

"Checked! Clear!"

"Checked! Clear!"

In less than three minutes, the team members were already reporting one after another. Li Jinnian, who was leaning against Ye Jian, lowered his head slightly. His cold voice, which was mixed with the north wind, became even colder. "The front is synchronized. In the back, you completed ten bullets before me! According to the calculation of 0.15 seconds for every single bullet, you need to complete changing the magazine and exchanging rifles with me within 15 seconds."

“Yes, I will calculate the time, and the number of bullets fired.” Ye Jian nodded. Her calm voice was filled with confidence. “I will control the time. Don’t worry.”

Ye Jian didn’t feel unfamiliar when she cooperated with the Demon King again.

She held the gun in her hand. In her heart, she only had eyes for the gun in her hand. When she aimed at the target and pulled the trigger, she could feel the gun barrel hitting the back of the bullet shell violently. The gunpowder gas expanded in the bullet shell in an instant. The burning gunpowder produced gas and pushed the bullet with lethal force. Bang! The gun sounded, and the bullet flew out of the magazine. The first bullet was fired!

Yes, that was it. The crosshairs and the gap were placed on a parallel line. The bottom line of the target was formed into a three-point line. Without any hesitation, she pulled the trigger, and the bullet passed through the center of the target.

The bullet flew out and landed on a rock in a perfect trajectory. With a ding, the first bullet was fired.

Some people said that 300 meters was a blind shot within the range of light machine guns. It was a suppression of firepower. However, for a sniper, even if they were holding a rifle, they only had one goal— to shoot accurately!

This was what Uncle Chen had taught her. There wasn’t a single bullet from a sniper that could be wasted. She needed to ensure that every bullet hit the target without missing a single one. She needed to complete her mission 100%.

She remembered everything UncleChen said to her. She would never forget it.

After taking a few steps forward, another gunshot was heard from the forest. It was from Ye Jian’s rifle again. In less than six seconds, she completed her second shot. She hit the target 100%!

“The second bullet was fired,” Ye Jian reminded Li Jinnian in a low voice. At the same time, she moved forward quickly. Even though she carried 25 kilograms of combat equipment, it didn’t affect her mobility or agility.

Li Jinnian was stunned for a second. There was a 300-meter distance limit for 100 accurate shots. One could shoot while walking. Everyone knew that the further the shooting distance, the harder it was to be accurate!

However, she aimed at the target after checking the gun and fired her first shot accurately!
