

Chapter 1811: Arrogance And Prejudice

Du Jiayi was a patient person, especially when it came to handling matters and talking in front of her leaders. When she heard this, her expression changed and she looked as if she had been taught a lesson. "You're right, we really lack guts. Although we're cultural soldiers, we're still soldiers. We definitely can't be lacking in courage."

She was an impressive person. She even spoke euphemistically. With just a few words, the leader's impression of her changed. Du Jiayi maintained a polite smile as she stared at Ye Jian and sized her up secretly.

She had a pair of pretty eyes that were dark and clear. Hah, female soldiers liked to pretend to be innocent.

It was a pity that Du Jiayi could not see Ye Jian's face clearly with the cold-resistant mask on.

It did not matter. It was fine as long as she knew her name. Du Jiayi would find out what she wanted to know when she returned to the capital. It was always easy for her to know someone's background.

She originally wanted to make things difficult for Ye Jian but the leader clearly admired her. She could only calm down for now and think about it later.

Ye Jian had seen her in her most disheveled state, so she naturally had doubts about her. Du Jiayi even gave a sharp yet euphemistic reply. Hah, she liked to deal with female soldiers who were rebellious.

There was no rush. Du Jiayi would deal with her swiftly. Ye Jian wouldn't even know who she had offended.

Du Jiayi, who was actively scheming, smiled beautifully as she finished speaking. She kept staring at Ye Jian. It was not a polite gaze but an arrogant and prejudiced gaze.

Ye Jian smiled at her indifferently. Then, she looked at the leader.

"That's right. No matter what kind of soldier you are, as long as you're wearing the military uniform, you're a soldier. You can't discard the reputation of a soldier or the image of a soldier." The leader was very satisfied with Du Jiayi's answer. He looked at her approvingly and said to Liu Yuan, "If there's anything you can do, try to solve it yourself. Don't cause trouble for the army."

A male soldier from the troupe walked over. He might have something to say to the leader, so he greeted Du Jiayi and nodded at Ye Jian with a smile. He said, "Sorry to disturb you." He then helped the leader over.

Liu Yuan answered the leader with a serious expression, "I understand. Don't worry, I won't trouble the army!"

When they left, Liu Yuan immediately said politely to Ye Jian, “Take a rest with us. The male soldiers are shoveling snow now. We’ll take over halfway and shovel the snow together. What do you think?”

Du Jiayi, who had not left yet, seemed to have heard a joke. She pursed her lips and laughed. “As long as the male soldiers aren’t worried about us causing trouble, they should let us know if they need us to help with anything. We won’t tarnish our titles as female soldiers. We also have to let them know that the female soldiers are not to be trifled with!

Her gaze landed on Liu Yuan as she continued with a smile, “Liu Yuan, you can’t be like last time when you fainted before you could even start working. We can’t dishonor the troupe. We have to let the soldiers of the army know that the female soldiers of the troupe don’t just know how to sing and dance. As long as they need us, we can complete the missions handed to us by our superiors.

“Ye Jian, please take care of my comrade. If you have any problems, come and look for me.. If you’re unwell, you have to tell us. You can’t force yourself because of your dignity, understand?”

Chapter 1812: Amazing, My Jian’er

It was fine if Ye Jian did not receive any gratitude after saving someone. She did not save others because she wanted them to express their gratitude. Instead, she saved people for the sake of her duty as a soldier. The problem was that the person whom she saved not only did not thank her but was also tripping her up!

Ye Jian was not a soft-hearted person. She was also not so magnanimous as to forgive Du Jiayi, who kept trying to stir things up. Hearing this, her voice turned cold. She said sternly, “Female soldier, with your intelligence, you can’t always say things that will cause others to misunderstand you.”

Liu Yuan’s eyes shone while Du Jiayi’s face darkened.

Since she had already spoken, Ye Jian would not swallow back the words that were about to come out of her mouth. She stared coldly at Du Jiayi, whose eyes were turning dark. Her tone was sharp and cold as she said, “Am I understanding you correctly? You’re saying that I’m putting on a strong front for my own interest. I saved the bunch of you but you’re saying I’m making my comrades busy themselves around me... You’re saying all these on purpose so that you can tell everyone that I only have such little ability. Do you mean to say that everything I’ve done so far was to put on a performance?”

Du Jiayi’s expression changed drastically!

No one had ever dared to throw her a tantrum at her like this, much less accuse her so boldly! No one had ever criticized her in front of the leaders!

“You...”

She wanted to stop Ye Jian from speaking, but Ye Jian would not give her a chance. "You don't need to explain anything to me. You're a smart female soldier. As a soldier, you should be forward and direct with your words. Don't always say things while hiding the true meaning in between the words.

"Don't tell me that I misunderstood you. After what you said to the leader just now, he would've probably misunderstood me if I hadn't explained myself. I'm being polite to you now. I only confronted you after the leader left. I hope you'll cherish the kindness extended to you by others!"

Liu Yuan, who was dumbfounded, almost laughed out loud.

Amazing, amazing... Too amazing!

Her words made Du Jiayi, who had always maintained a good image in front of the leaders, turn pale. She could not take it lying down.

Ye Jian was not a talkative person. She always knew when she could advance and when she should retreat. She also knew how to deal with people.

It was quite tiring to spend time with someone like Du Jiayi. No matter the occasion, she regarded herself as the only one who could take the lead. The rest could only be supporting roles, and they were all supporting roles who did things according to her wishes.

If anyone dared to cross her, she would definitely take them down as long as she had the dirt on them.

Ye Jian, who had noticed that something was wrong, did not plan to participate in it. This was the matter of the troupe. Even the leaders did not say anything. She was a soldier of the land regiment, so she just needed to watch silently.

However, Du Jiayi should never have stepped on Ye Jian. She even tried to ruin her image.

Ye Jian was a soldier. Soldiers had to protect their image at all times. They could not let others ruin their reputation!

The first time, Ye Jian took a small step back and told Du Jiayi not to push her luck. Perhaps because she had used her silence to tell Du Jiayi that, it made her think that she, Ye Jian, was easy to bully.

If that was the case, she did not mind not being polite to Du Jiayi anymore and directly warning her! She wanted her to restrain herself!

Chapter 1813: Hah, Just You Wait

Although the army had strict discipline, not everyone could be fair and impartial. The higher-ups were indeed biased toward Du Jiayi. It was mostly because she was good at handling matters.

Moreover, every word she said could sway one's heart. She would never violate any rules and get the leaders involved. Naturally, they admired her.

They would not have any interactions after they left the territory. But if Du Jiayi wanted to play dirty, Ye Jian would not let her do it again and again.

Du Jiayi was so angry that she almost fainted.

Hearing this, Liu Yuan, who was extremely relieved, saw that Du Jiayi's eyes were growing increasingly dark. She quickly stood up and said in a low voice, "Forget it, it's just a small matter. Jiayi, don't be angry. Look, I'm not even angry with you."

Back then, Liu Yuan was both shocked and angry when Du Jiayi brought up that old matter that she still could not let go of. It was the only time she had made a fool of herself, and it became something Du Jiayi held against her!

No one liked it when others pointed out their mistakes, and Liu Yuan did not like it either! However, what could she do? Du Jiayi was not an ordinary female soldier.

She had been acting strangely toward Ye Jian from the start. Now that she heard these words, her gloomy expression made her even more scared.

"I'm sorry, Ye Jian. I really didn't mean anything else. I'm a straightforward person. I'm not good with words. Please forgive me if I've offended you." Du Jiayi's gaze was uncertain. After a few seconds, she composed himself. Her bright eyes were filled with sincerity. "I'm very, very sorry. Please forgive me."

Liu Yuan originally thought that it was very satisfying, but now, with Du Jiayi's apology, she felt an extremely cold chill run down her spine.

Based on her understanding of Du Jiayi, the more friendly she was, the more likely it was that she had targeted someone and that person would be in trouble.

Looking at her gaze on Ye Jian, Liu Yuan's fingers were trembling.

It was fine if she was scolded. That incident was indeed her fault. However, what about Ye Jian? It was fine that Du Jiayi did not thank her, but she even hinted to the higher-up that Ye Jian was just a stubborn female soldier. Du Jiayi kept making things difficult for her!

How could she be like this?!

She would trample on the new recruits from time to time but how could she make things difficult for Ye Jian, who saved their lives?!

Now, Liu Yuan was angry. Du Jiayi even thought that Ye Jian was in the wrong and was targeting her.

'Du Jiayi! Do you really think you're someone important?!

The leader, who was a male soldier, walked over again. Du Jiayi was someone who would destroy peace. She held Liu Yuan's arm and said to Ye Jian, "I'm very, very sorry. I'm very, very grateful."

The leader wanted to go over and see how much snow needed to be shoveled. Without giving Du Jiayi a chance to continue, he came over and said, "Come with us to take a look at the situation with the snow and we'll discuss it with the army."

He reminded Liu Yuan to take good care of Wei Jiayue before leaving.

In the end, the leader was concerned about Ye Jian. "You have to be careful too. The wind has been blowing for a few hours. We have cold-resistant coats that we brought over. Wear a few more clothes and sit next to Liu Yuan and the others to keep warm."

Liu Yuan noticed that Du Jiayi had narrowed her eyes slightly before smiling at Ye Jian. Then, she left with the leader and the male soldiers.

'Ye Jian, just you wait. I wanted to punish you but now... Hah, just you wait.. I'll deal with you slowly.'

Chapter 1814: A Big Background

The smile in her eyes did not shock Ye Jian but made Liu Yuan clench her fists.

She did not know if it was because she was a little emotional but her chest felt so stuffy that she could not relax even after taking a few deep breaths.

From the time Du Jiayi apologized to the time she left, Ye Jian remained calm. Even her aura did not change. Hence, the higher-up did not notice anything amiss when he walked over.

Du Jiayi was not the only one who knew how to destroy a person. Ye Jian, who had lived two lifetimes, also knew how to do it.

One second, she sounded fierce. The moment the higher-up walked over, she smiled. It was precisely because Du Jiayi saw the familiar change in Ye Jian's expression that she apologized again.

This was because she knew that she had encountered a tough character. A tough character who could see through her intentions with a glance!

Just as Ye Jian had said, Du Jiayi was a very smart female soldier. She was many times smarter than the ignorant Ye Ying. When she interacted with such people, she could either give in to them or warn them not to go overboard.

Ye Jian was not a soft-hearted person. She had lived a good life in her previous life. In this life, she wanted to do whatever she wanted.

Of course, as a soldier, she could not do things 'in vain'. Being 'willful' could be one's personality while doing things 'in vain' meant cutting off her own future. She would not do something stupid like cutting off her own future.

She, who had a smile in her eyes, watched as the leader left. She turned her head and saw Liu Yuan staring at Du Jiayi's back with a dark gaze. They had their own conflicts previously, and even she could tell... How could the leader not tell?

“I’ll go with you to see your comrade. The road is cut off now. A small cold can cause problems.” The voice that carried traces of a smile pulled Liu Yuan’s attention back. Ye Jian looked at the female soldier who had a complicated expression on her face. She pretended not to notice anything and looked at Wei Jiayue. She said in a low voice, “There seems to be something wrong.”

Liu Yuan wanted to talk to Ye Jian but when she heard this, she ran over to Wei Jiayue. She saw that the latter was sleeping with Ma Min.

Wei Jiayue, who was sleeping with an oxygen mask on, did not have a fever. However, she looked very tired. Fortunately, the soldiers had already set up the tent that was originally meant for the sentinels. They told the soldiers to sleep here.

After waking the two who were asleep, they helped one of them to the tent.

“Go to the tent to sleep. Watch your feet.” Ye Jian reminded Wei Jiayue, who was so tired that she was staggering. She placed Wei Jiayue’s body weight on her shoulders to make her feel more comfortable.

“Du Jiayi is the daughter of a high-ranking official in the capital. She’s 24 years old this year and has an elder brother who’s nine years older than her. He has influence in the Southern Guang Military Region. We belong to the Southern Guang Military Region’s cultural troupe, so everyone has to give in to her a little. Fortunately, you’re not from the Southern Guang Military Region.

“Her sister is seven years older than her, and her younger brother is one year younger than her. He’s quite capable too. After graduating from university last year, he joined the provincial government. Du Jiayi is sweet-tongued and knows how to coax others, so she’s quite favored at home.

“You can check which official in the capital has the surname Du. They have two sons and two daughters. You can find out her origin that way. Also, her mother, Madam Li, is a very powerful person. She’ll never let those who bully her daughter off.

“However, this family loves their reputation. They’ll be friendly on the surface.. Just like how Du Jiayi was able to swallow her pride and apologize to you just now despite her anger.”

Chapter 1815: Thunderclap

Ye Jian listened quietly. When she said the words ‘Madam Li’, a dark glint flashed across her deep eyes.

When they were about five meters away from the tent, Wei Jiayue, who was beside Ye Jian’s ear, spoke softly and calmly. Even Liu Yuan did not hear her.

Why was she telling this to Ye Jian? It was because there was only so much she could do to help.

She only hoped that Ye Jian could be more alert in the future.

The Wei family was considered a big family, but they still had to give in to the Du family.

It was unknown when they would be able to shovel the snow away. The Tibetan soldiers were using two tents to ward off the cold.

Liu Yuan, who did not notice anything, walked out of the tent and said to Ye Jian, "It's been hard on you tonight. You've saved so many of our people. Although I can't mention your name in the report and get the army to reward you, I'll always remember that there was a female soldier who took the risk to save others. Thank you, Ye Jian."

Compared to Du Jiayi's gratitude, Liu Yuan's gratitude was much more sincere. She straightened her back and looked at Ye Jian sincerely as she saluted.

"Thank you, Ye Jian!" If she hadn't appeared in time, Liu Yuan and her comrades would not have dared to climb onto the roof of the truck. They would not have been able to save so many people in just three hours.

She had stood at the side, listening to the creaking sounds of the truck but her knees already went weak from fear. Meanwhile, Ye Jian, who was lying on the roof of the car, was so calm and brave. They screamed in fear but she remained calm. She saved everyone.

Du Jiayi was not afraid of Ye Jian. The unit she belonged to was different. No matter how capable Du Jiayi was, she would not be able to create trouble for Ye Jian!

Looking at Ye Jian, who was working hard for them, Liu Yuan felt bad. She bit her lip and seemed to be making a big decision. After a while, she said, "Du Jiayi and I have both been female soldiers for two years. We were good friends for a year. We were good enough friends that we often ate together. After the new recruits joined the army, they sided with her and the conflict between the two of us grew stronger. However, it's just because we have differences in our work.

"Last July, when I got close to Wei Jiayue, our relationship worsened. In the end, I applied to transfer to Wei Jiayue's dormitory and stayed far away from her. When I stayed away, I was able to see Du Jiayi's character more clearly. Even now, we're still not on good terms."

She could not ask Ye Jian to be careful because she knew Du Jiayi well. If she really said anything, it would be difficult for her to be discharged smoothly.

Du Jiayi's behavior just now meant that she had targeted Ye Jian. Hence, it would be bad if Liu Yuan did not say anything.

... Ye Jian must have sensed it. Otherwise, she would not have said such nonchalant words that made Du Jiayi suffer and made the leader praise her.

Regardless of whether Ye Jian knew or not, Liu Yuan could not disregard her conscience.

"It's rare for me not to get along well with others. Du Jiayi is the exception. Luckily, you're not from our military district, so we definitely won't see each other much in the future. If we do, just pretend not to know each other and avoid her."

Actually, Ye Jian was in a mess and not in the mood to listen. However, Liu Yuan was talking about Du Jiayi. Ye Jian had to listen.

This was because Ye Ying's mother-in-law's surname was Li! Her husband's surname was Du!

Sun Dongqing had even complained in the village that Ye Ying's sister-in-law was not easy to get along with!

Chapter 1816: In This Life, She Must Have Nothing

Ye Jian's heart was in a mess. In her previous life, she was like a stray dog because of Ye Ying. Ye Ying was a golden phoenix that flew out of the gutter of Fujun Town's Shuikou Village. She made all the relatives who were related to the Ye family and the Sun family think of ways to get close to Ye Zhifan.

As for her, she would always be the target of ridicule. Whenever Ye Ying was mentioned, she would definitely be mentioned. They would say that she was a disgrace to the family.

Why were those people supporting Ye Ying?

It was simple. Ye Ying married into a powerful family and Ye Zhifan became a high-ranking official.

Initially, Ye Ying didn't dare to make things difficult for her. She only warned her not to embarrass the family when she was at home. She also said that her father was very lucky now. If she went back and ruined her father's reputation, the family would want to kill her.

In Ye Jian's previous life, she was timid and weak. She didn't dare to go back to the village after being threatened by Ye Ying. When she was 18 years old, she was scolded when she wanted to take her account book to apply for an identity card. When Ye Ying happily returned to the country after studying abroad, she was chased out. Then, she slowly grew up and learned how to fight back. After that, Ye Ying got married.

As the most miserable days came, Ye Ying suddenly found her most reliable backer. She started to use all her power to make things difficult for Ye Jian.

Ye Jian knew that Ye Ying was the one who caused her to lose her job again and again. She was kicked out and Ye Ying even burned her house.

After finding a job, she could not get her salary. She was chased by hooligans after work in the middle of the night, and at night when she slept, someone unlocked the door... These were the real difficulties.

Ye Ying used to be ruthless. If she had the chance, she would make Ye Ying suffer and leave her with nothing! In the past, she was so humble that she asked the heavens to give her a chance. She even went to Buddha and prayed that Ye Ying would have nothing in the future.

But now... Thinking about her past life, Ye Jian suddenly started laughing. It wasn't genuine laughter but a burst of low and deep laughter filled with hatred. Liu Yuan was so shocked that she couldn't react in time.

The Du family... If the Du family was Ye Ying's in-laws, could Ye Jian cut off Ye Ying's path of climbing up the ladder?

Would Ye Jian be able to solve all her worries and make Ye Ying lose everything in this life?

In Ye Jian's previous life, she had so much hope, but in the end, she did not get what she wanted.

This life... Since the heavens allowed her to return to the starting point and return to the source that could stop all tragedies, how could she let them down? How could she let them down?!

Ye Ying married into a rich family because of Ye Zhifan. How could she be allowed to do whatever she wanted in life?

"Just wait, Ye Ying. The show is finally starting." Ye Jian lowered her head and wiped her tears away. She closed her eyes to calm herself down.

Liu Yuan was shocked by Ye Jian's sudden hostility and could not help but take a small step back. She asked carefully, "Are you... okay? Is it because of Du Jiayi?... Don't be angry. She's like that. You're not in the same army as her. I told her today that she doesn't have the ability to make things difficult for you."

Chapter 1817: Impure Mind

If she didn't know, she would have nothing to fear, unlike Wei Jiayue, who was afraid because she knew.

Ye Jian knew that her emotions were fluctuating just now. There was even a hint of killing intent in her eyes. She had regained her emotions. Although the wind-proof mask covered her smile, her bright eyes could still be seen. "Thank you for your concern. I just happened to think of something. It's not because of Du Jiayi."

"Oh... Oh, that's good, that's good." For some reason, Liu Yuan suddenly felt a little afraid of this female soldier in front of her. For some reason, she felt scared, and she said uneasily, "Then... Then I'm relieved. Go do your work, I... I'll go back to the tent to rest."

Without waiting for Ye Jian to speak, she turned around and returned to the tent anxiously.

Her heart was beating fast, and she could not continue talking to Ye Jian. She had a feeling that she would shoot daggers at her at any moment. It was better... to leave quickly.

She couldn't offend Ye Jian and Du Jiayi.

Liu Yuan's strange behavior didn't put Ye Jian at ease. She turned her head and watched Liu Yuan enter the tent. Then, she stood by the roadside and stared at the male soldiers on the snow mountain.

There were four shovels currently being used. Along with the two that Ye Jian brought over, the six of them could shovel the snow together. J5 and the other members of the Xueyu unit was the first batch to shovel the snow. Qin Xiu, the Tibetan soldiers, and the two male soldiers from the cultural troupe were on guard. They stared at the snow mountain that was like a monster in the dark. Once they noticed that the snow was loosening, they would immediately know that the male soldiers were shoveling the snow.

Qin Xiu's gaze would always fall on Ye Jian. Ye Jian, who was always sharp, walked toward him.

The two leaders of the troupe were instructing their soldiers to cooperate with the army soldiers and clear up the road together.

As Ye Jian walked closer, she heard a male soldier saying worriedly, "The Mazar army hasn't arrived yet. I suspect that there might be an avalanche ahead too. Perhaps they're also carrying out a rescue mission."

There was a very large 'S' bend through Mazar Daban. If the inner bend was blocked, they would not be able to see anything.

"There's no need to speculate. There's no saying whether or not there's another avalanche ahead of us. Let's first clear the route between the two cars." The leader locked his brows and looked at the large mountain of snow.

Qin Xiu, who had noticed Ye Jian walking over, lowered his head and said something to the leader before striding over.

Ye Jian looked at Qin Xiu, who wasn't affected by the cold at all. He looked like J5 and the others. She couldn't help but mutter in her heart, 'He looks gentle and refined, like a noble son. Why does he look like a soldier now?'

The other two male soldiers from the cultural troupe were so cold that they were wrapped in two thick layers of cold-resistant clothing. Fortunately, their backs were straight enough. Otherwise, they would really look like brown bears that had gone through winter in the mountains.

"Is there something you need me for?" Qin Xiu asked as he walked over. "Are you worried about when we can get through?"

Ye Jian raised her eyebrows. "You would look at me from time to time. I thought you were looking for me for something." Why would he look at her when he had nothing to say to her?

He only looked at her occasionally and did it unconsciously. Besides, he only looked at her from the corners of his eyes... How did she find out?

Qin Xiu wanted to laugh. As expected of a soldier, her sensitivity was indeed shocking..

Chapter 1818: Definitely Cooperate

It seemed that if he wanted to sneak a few glances at her in the future, he might as well do it openly. If he was discovered, he could still smile and let the matter pass.

Qin Xiu, who always had a clear goal, started thinking about how to get along with Ye Jian.

“There’s indeed something. It’s about my identity.” Since he had already met her here, he couldn’t let it become a wasted trip. Qin Xiu gestured to another corner so that they could continue speaking there. “I have some matters to deal with here. Originally, I came with another interpreter. When I arrived at the 30 Mile Camp and learned that the Nanguang Military District’s cultural troupe was coming, I followed them as a reporter.

“The cultural troupe still thinks that I’m a reporter, so I need your cooperation.”

Ye Jian had a serious look on her face. “I’ll definitely cooperate with you. I regret coming over to look for you now. Actually, I could’ve just pretended to not know you. It’d be more convenient for you to do things that way.”

Pretending not to know Qin Xiu would prevent Du Jiayi from keeping an eye on him.

Speaking of Du Jiayi, Ye Jian couldn’t help but purse her lips tightly. Qin Xiu also had a high status and often appeared on television. It was impossible that Du Jiayi didn’t know Qin Xiu.

“Are you sure that everyone in the cultural troupe thinks that you’re a reporter?” Ye Jian, who had worked with Principal Cao before, couldn’t help but ask.

Qin Xiu pointed at his windproof mask. The smile in his eyes was deep. Although one couldn’t see his handsome face clearly, one could tell from his elegant eyes that he was a handsome and elegant man. He chuckled. “If I hadn’t spoken first, would you have recognized me?”

“I haven’t taken it off at all. It’s too cold. No one wants to get frostbite on their mouth.” Since everyone had their masks on as well, nothing seemed strange about it.

That was true. Ye Jian couldn’t help but smile. The reason why she directly confronted Du Jiayi was the same.

Du Jiayi stared at Ye Jian for a long time.

... She didn’t expect Ye Jian to know a reporter from the national news department! It seemed like she wasn’t simple. That’s right, only someone with a complicated family would dare to go against Du Jiayi.

Thinking of this, Du Jiayi’s eyes darkened even more. Based on Ye Jian’s speech, temperament, and standing posture, Du Jiayi was thinking about the possible family background that Ye Jian came from so that she could have a rough idea of what was going on.

The more she thought about it, the colder Du Jiayi’s eyes became. She felt that Ye Jian’s family background was not simple. No female soldier had such a strong aura like her!

No wonder she was so bold. It turned out that she had a powerful background.

Previously, she thought that she was trying to put on a strong front.

Now, it seemed like that wasn't the case. It was because Ye Jian had the confidence and knew that nothing would happen to her even if she really got into trouble. It seemed as if she would be able to resolve whatever problem came her way. It was precisely because of this confidence and family background that Ye Jian dared to show off like this!

For a moment, Du Jiayi was annoyed at herself for being too careless.

"Go back to the tent and rest. Also, invite that female soldier from the army back to the tent." The leader reminded her in a low voice. "Once the road is cleared, the soldiers will wake you guys up. If we can continue the journey, our plan will remain the same. Otherwise, we can only go back the way we came and wait until spring."

Choosing to come to the northwest during the deep winter was not a wise decision. The journey was too dangerous and would cause more trouble for the various military depots.

How could Du Jiayi, who had specially come over to look for someone, agree to this? After pondering for a moment, she said, "Leader, I think we can continue with the journey. Think about it, regardless of how harsh the environment is, we've already experienced such a huge avalanche. We're not even afraid of that. Isn't this the kind of bravery and courage a soldier should have?"

"I think the best way is to advance, not retreat."

Chapter 1819: Dangerous Person

Du Jiayi was not a woman who would back down when she was feeling troubled. She had always known what she wanted and what she should do to get what she wanted.

There was no doubt that such a person would not be eliminated by society and would forever move along with the times. She would never fall to the bottom.

The scary thing about Du Jiayi was that once she realized that there were people and things stopping her in the process of getting what she wanted, her destructive power was unimaginable.

Hence, such a person was the most dangerous because you would never know what would happen to you the next second. Du Jiayi could even attack her friends and suddenly turn hostile.

Du Jiayi knew what she wanted, and she also knew how to obtain it. She also had the ability to manipulate people, so one had to stay clear-headed at all times when interacting with her. One also had to carefully avoid her minefield, so as to avoid being blasted into ashes one day.

Since Du Jiayi had come here for a purpose, how could she retreat so easily? Furthermore, she had already escaped danger. If she continued to advance, it would deepen the leader's impression of her. Considering how smart Du Jiayi was, she would choose a favorable path for herself.

Obviously, the leader was convinced by her. He looked around, and his gaze landed on Qin Xiu who was talking to Ye Jian. He said in a low voice, "You're right. There are two reporters from the news department."

“Especially that reporter with the surname Qin. Although he doesn’t like to talk much and doesn’t move much, there were a few officers who accompanied him when he met up with us. It can be seen that this reporter Qin has some status in the news department.

“Your brother asked me to give you guidance. Since you’re not afraid, then go ahead. It’s not easy to earn credit as cultural soldiers, but since there’s a chance now, there’s no harm in going for it.”

The higher-ups were acquainted with the Du family and had a good relationship with Du Jiayi’s older brother. Due to this, Du Jiayi’s days in the team would always be better than other soldiers.

After speaking in a low voice, the leader frowned slightly. His voice was even softer than before. “We only know that the person you’re looking for is serving in the border territory, but it might not be the current border territory. It’ll be difficult to find him.”

He did not even know who Du Jiayi was looking for. Since her brother did not tell him, he did not ask much either.

“I’m sorry to have made you worry. This person is indeed not easy to find. However, this was something that was entrusted to me and it’s a matter of loyalty. It doesn’t matter whether I can find him or not. I’m only responsible for going to look for him. I don’t necessarily have to succeed in finding him.”

Du Jiayi said disapprovingly. Aunt Xiao was a sentimental person. This time, she asked Du Jiayi to look for her son. Du Jiayi reckoned that with time, Aunt Xiao would forget about her own request.

But since she had agreed to it, she had to put in some effort and not be careless.

Besides, the Xia family and the Du family had always been at odds with each other when it came to politics. Aunt Xiao didn’t make a good choice by asking her to look for her son.

The last time she met Xia Jinyuan was ten years ago. Who knew if he still recognized her?

However, if she met him, she would definitely recognize him. Back then, she was bullied by him countless times. Every time there was a group of people, they would never show her any respect and would always band together with that good-for-nothing from the Han family to bully her.

She was so severely bullied when she was young, so her memories of those times were still vivid. She had always wanted to get revenge. Since Aunt Xiao asked her to look for her son, she would.

When the leader heard this, he did not say anything more. Du Jiayi had always been a person full of ideas.. As long as she did not cause trouble, it did not matter.

Chapter 1820: You’re Asking For A Beating

In the middle of the night, the temperature dropped even lower. After three hours of shoveling snow, Ye Jian woke up and called them back to the tent. She warned them sternly that if they continued like this, their limbs would be frozen.

The male soldiers did not get angry after being criticized by her. Instead, they were quite happy although it was not a big deal for them. It was common for them to be woken up in the middle of the night during winter training and run with weights.

Three hours was not a big deal. Furthermore, they were split into three groups. The time they spent working was different depending on the situation. It was three hours for the Xueyu unit and two hours for the Tibetan soldiers. Once the roads were cleared, the soldiers had to drive.

The two male soldiers from the troupe and the two reporters from the news department only worked for an hour.

The Tibetan soldiers could not help but laugh heartily. She was quite protective of her own people.

It was good to have female soldiers on the team. They knew how to protect their comrades.

As they walked towards the tent, J5 started teasing them. "This is bad. Q King will have to worry in the future. He wants us to talk less and work more. He likes to let us work and train while shoveling snow."

Ye Jian said, "That's different. That's the training that the team has to complete. We can divide the workload and work together. We can recover the stamina that we have expended. I don't think that we should shoulder everything just because we're land soldiers. It's better to work together."

"Okay, we'll listen to you. We'll rest now. You should go back to your tent and rest too." J5 agreed readily and reminded her, "You don't have to call us by our code names. You don't know our names either. If you have anything to say, just come look for us and say it."

"You can't say out your code name either. We only have code names and no names. Remember, we can't reveal each other's code name." Hence, when he reminded her, he did not call out her name.

There was information about Ye Jian in the military system. However, it was useless. Even if someone knew her surname, they wouldn't be able to find anything.

The code names of all the members of the Xueyu unit were much more important than their names!

There were also the others in the tent, including the injured leader. It wasn't appropriate for Ye Jian to enter. Hence, she left with her comrades smiling behind her.

After taking two steps, she said, "I'll watch you guys enter the tent."

Her comrades were stunned for a moment before their laughter grew louder. Liu Ruoyao added, "I suddenly feel a sense of bliss. It's like being controlled by my girlfriend!"

As soon as he said this, the laughter of his comrades came to an abrupt halt. Their bright and spirited gazes were all fixed on Liu Ruoyao. It would have been better if he hadn't said anything, but now that he did... Heh! They really did feel that way!

J5 slapped the back of Liu Ruoyao's head and said with a faint smile, "Stealing food from the tiger's mouth, huh? Young man, you're very brave! You're simply courting death."

Whose girlfriend was Ye Jian? Or whose girlfriend could Ye Jian be?

Ha, it was naturally Q King!

How dare this fellow say something like that to Q King's girlfriend whom he had been eyeing for a long time!

How would Liu Ruoyao know? He continued, "I've always been bold. Didn't you say that fair ladies are sought after by gentlemen? Which tiger is so domineering? I want to meet him!"

"Ye Jian, quickly go back to the tent and rest. The reason why we don't let Liu Ruoyao talk is because he really doesn't know how to talk sometimes. He easily offends people when he speaks. He was just talking nonsense just now. Don't take it to heart." J5 dragged Liu Ruoyao, who wasn't afraid of death, into the tent nervously.. F*ck, he didn't want Q King to teach them a lesson!
