

BOOT CAMP 1821

Chapter 1821: The Scene Would Be Brutal

Liu Ruoyao was dragged along by him until he was at a loss. His mouth was covered by him, so even if he wanted to ask J5 about it, he could only whimper.

“Why are you still struggling? I’m trying to save you. Behave yourself. Don’t pull a long face at me.” J5 warned him in a low voice. His voice was stern. “Is Ye Jian your girlfriend? Can you pursue her?”

Liu Ruoyao’s mouth was tightly covered, and his eyes were wide open. The howls from his throat were even louder... He had no intention of doing so!

J5 slapped his forehead again. “Shut up. Speak later.”

Long Eagle, who was chasing after them, also said, “You really don’t have anything good to say after you open your mouth. Although you said what we wanted to say, do you think one should be as straightforward as you?”

“Think about it. Ye Jian is a female soldier. She cares about her image. Isn’t it awkward for you to say that in front of everyone? Couldn’t you see that the smile on her face was a little stiff just now?”

Liu Ruoyao reacted and was dragged away by J5.

Seeing this, Long Eagle heaved a sigh of relief. However, he was still a little nervous. Liu Ruoyao didn’t really have feelings for Ye Jian, did he? He was aware that Q King had eyes on Ye Jian, so how could he have feelings for her?

J5 was really troubled. He wasn’t afraid that Ye Jian would feel awkward. He was worried that Q King would punish him!

Among the comrades from the Xueyu unit, only J5 knew what Xia Jinyuan was thinking. He knew about it from the start and was worried for a long time. He was afraid that Major Xia would fall in love with the underaged girl, Ye Jian, and ruin his future.

After that, the Xueyu unit got stronger by the day due to the new soldier. The two of them only saw each other once or twice a year. J5 gradually relaxed.

Now, he couldn’t be more relieved. Ye Jian was already an adult and a cadet. However, she couldn’t be in a relationship openly. If the two of them really did anything, they had to do it secretly.

However, from his understanding of Q King, who was an arrogant man, would he have a secret relationship? With his pride, it was impossible.

Thus, he was relieved that Ye Jian was in the military academy for four years.

After that, she graduated and joined the military unit. According to the rules, there were age restrictions for both men and women to get married. The Xueyu unit had a higher restriction. Even if Ye Jian graduated, hahaha... J5 would laugh whenever he thought about this.

Even if Ye Jian graduated, the two of them could only date and not get married because Ye Jian wasn't at the age set by the Xueyu unit!

It would take more than ten years for Q King to get the girl he liked. If an idiot jumped out and said that he wanted to chase after Ye Jian, J5 would sweat just from thinking about it.

That scene would definitely be brutal!

No, he had to teach the bachelors in the team a lesson. He had to tell them not to have any ideas about Ye Jian. If anyone dared to think about it... the consequences would be dire!

When they were only a few steps away from the tent, J5 let go of Liu Ruoyao. Although he was dragging the shorter scout, he was still exhausted.

Liu Ruoyao, who could finally speak, took off his winter mask and pulled J5 aside to talk. "I don't have those kinds of intentions! You're thinking too much!" He still knew his own worth. He would not pursue Ye Jian!

He was a scout! He had a pair of eyes that were good at reconnaissance. He was not blind!

Chapter 1822: Testing

After resting for three hours, Ye Jian was no longer sleepy. Seeing that her comrades had returned to their tents obediently, she walked to the snow pile that looked like a small mountain. Three hours of shoveling didn't seem to have any effect on it.

"There's too much snow on the ground. There were a few snow slides during the shoveling process. They covered the road that we took so much effort to clear up." Qin Xiu shook his sore wrist gently and looked at Ye Jian. He didn't seem to be in the mood. "Five hours might not be enough. Although they're shoveling snow over there, the situation there is probably the same as what's happening here."

The snow was connected to the mountain. One side was like a pile of sand. While the other side was shoveling, the snow on the top was sinking. As long as the snow on the mountain was cut off from the pile of snow on the ground, there would no longer be any signs of snow falling.

As they got closer, the snow-white light shone on the side of her face and Qin Xiu could clearly see that her delicate and plump forehead was as smooth as jade. Further down were her long and black eyelashes. With every blink, they were like a small feather lightly scratching his heart.

Just as he was about to take a closer look at her so that he could engrave her face deeper into his heart, the girl who had been looking up suddenly changed her expression. "Quickly retreat!"

When the soldiers heard this, they retreated without hesitation. Ye Jian pulled Qin Xiu's sleeve and ran away.

Xia Jinyuan, who didn't know that the scouts in the team were so powerful, suddenly retracted his snow shovel. He grabbed one of his comrades on the right and one on the left. He shouted, "Retreat!"

G3 and Li Jinnian reacted quickly and retreated, only to see the snow at the top of the mountain falling. A minute later, the snow started to pile up like sand.

Boom! Boom! Boom! The sound of snow rang out loud, and the scene in front of them instantly turned white. The fine snowflakes instantly blurred each of their faces.

When the snow mist dispersed, it seemed that the mountain and the snow were cut off. A few searchlights shone on the mountain. Xia Jinyuan signaled his comrades behind him to turn off the searchlights. Then, he turned off his own searchlights too.

They could see the light on the other side. It seemed that J5 and the rest weren't resting either. They wanted to clear the road tonight.

Soon, the searchlights on the other side went out too. Ye Jian flashed the searchlight continuously. This was the contact number of the Xueyu unit. She was asking if they were safe.

Everything was safe.

J5 and the rest, who were preparing to rest, heard the commotion and ran out again. Even the female soldiers in the female soldiers' tent ran out. The collapse of the snow was too loud and the ground seemed to be shaking.

"I just contacted my comrades on the other side. They're all fine. The soldiers said that we don't have to worry about the snow on the mountain falling again. We just need to clear a path through this pile of snow," Ye Jian explained to J5. She also explained to Du Jiayi and the rest who were jogging over. They were panting heavily.

Du Jiayi asked Qin Xiu directly, "Reporter Qin, how long will it take to clear the pathway?"

"I'm not sure." Qin Xiu didn't really want to talk to Du Jiayi, so he lowered his voice and said in a hoarse voice, "Let's go with the original five hours."

"Reporter Qin, you know Ye Jian, the female soldier who saved us. Please give me her contact number. I want to thank her." Du Jiayi had a purpose for talking to Qin Xiu. She smiled as she spoke. Because she had just woken up, her voice sounded a little sleepy. She was polite and cute.. It was easy to like her.

Chapter 1823: Can't Promise

However, Qin Xiu seemed to have heard a joke. He looked at her indifferently and replied, "I don't know her. I wanted to interview her but was rejected."

Was that so? Du Jiayi didn't really believe him because she trusted her instincts more. "I see. Sorry to disturb you." If he didn't want to talk about it, then she would investigate it herself.

The leader who woke up with a start wanted to stay and accompany them but J5 politely asked him to return to the tent. He wanted to ask Ye Jian to follow the female soldiers back but when he saw the smile in Ye Jian's eyes, he turned around and left without saying anything.

It was obvious that he would not be able to persuade her.

Qin Xiu also wanted to persuade her, but he was stopped by the faint smile in her eyes. He immediately changed his words. "You can go to the front and help us keep an eye out. If there's still snow on the mountain, we can dodge in time."

It would be good if he could talk to her for a while more. They would have to go their separate ways after the journey was over. He did not know when they would meet again.

He still didn't have her contact information. It was a bit presumptuous to ask now. He might as well go back and ask Uncle.

At this moment, the soldiers from the Mazar military depot had already cleared the road that was blocked by the avalanche. Half an hour later, the slightly yellow but extremely bright car lights shone from the bend. Ye Jian, who hadn't left, looked at the car lights that were approaching. The smile in her eyes deepened.

The road ahead must have been cleared as well.

Ye Jian reminded the soldiers who hadn't turned back. She smiled and said to Qin Xiu, "This is good. You don't have to worry that I'll accidentally reveal your identity."

The headlights of the car were approaching. Qin Xiu took a look before looking away. It was not good. Once the road was cleared, he would head toward Shexian Bay. As for her... she would be returning to her unit.

"Which military unit are you serving in now? Is it convenient for you to tell me?" Qin Xiu, who originally planned to ask Principal Cao, immediately asked, "I'm really grateful to you this time. Otherwise, I really wouldn't have known how to deal with it. Although I can't repay you with my life, I can write a thank-you letter."

Du Jiayi had reminded him that he could use the same excuse to get Ye Jian's contact information.

"I've been discharged. I'm still a student now." It was normal for cadets to be discharged from the military unit. However, it was abnormal for a freshman to be discharged from the military unit. Hence, Ye Jian smiled bitterly and said, "Something happened and I'm being reprimanded. I'm here to experience the hard work of the soldiers."

When Qin Xiu heard this, he was already smiling. “My uncle is full of praise for you. It seems that what he said about you being the most obedient and best high school student in the Southern Province is untrue.”

It turned out she was a cadet. Qin Xiu smiled from the bottom of his heart. Mrs. Qin prioritized academics.

They didn’t chat for long before Ye Jian stopped. Qin Xiu was a diplomat. He was a powerful diplomat. If she talked too much, there might be loopholes in her story. It was better to keep quiet.

With the arrival of the soldiers from the Mazar military depot, it was even more inconvenient for her to talk to Qin Xiu.

The arrival of the soldiers from the Mazar military depot was undoubtedly good news for the art troupe. Du Jiayi, who had just narrowed her eyes, heard the commotion and was the first to walk out of the tent. Then, Wei Jiayue, Liu Yuan, and Ma Min walked out one after another as well. When they saw the truck, they secretly clapped their hands.

“The leaders are talking. Keep a low profile!” Du Jiayi warned Ma Min in a low voice. Her gaze landed on Ye Jian again.. Then, she looked at Qin Xiu. Did they really not know each other?

Chapter 1824: Jealous

Without giving Du Jiayi a chance to speculate, the leader let her take the lead in putting away the female soldiers’ tent. Meanwhile, the soldiers of the Mazar military depot picked up the frozen construction shovels and began to shovel away the snow that hindered the road leading the way to Kuda Daban.

The snow pile got smaller and smaller. They could hear the sound of each other shoveling snow. G3 threw away a piece of snow that was frozen at the bottom and said to Xia Jinyuan in a low voice, “There are more snow shoveling sounds from the other side. There’s a high chance that someone from the military depot has arrived. We can retreat now.”

It was better for them not to reveal too much during their secret training. At most, they would take another hour to clear the road.

Han Zheng said softly, “If I remember correctly, we’re all soldiers serving in the military. If anyone sees us, they’ll think that we’re undergoing winter training.”

The military would make meticulous arrangements for the training of hidden military special forces soldiers. They would prepare for all the possible problems so that even if the other soldiers saw them, they would think that they were just a special force from the military.

G3 did not agree. They had even patrolled the satellite base that was secretly built with the soldiers of the Mazar military depot. It was better to be cautious.

“Retreat.” Xia Jinyuan agreed with G3. They could indeed retreat now.

He was only worried because Du Jiayi was around.

Now that a few hours had passed, even if anything were to happen, it would have happened long ago. If he were to appear again to confront this hypocritical woman whom he had not seen for almost ten years, it would only cause more trouble due to her narrow-mindedness.

When he met the little fox, he would ask her privately.

Han Zheng felt that it was a pity. He said silently in his heart, “I still want to meet Du Jiayi and talk about what had happened between us back then. I really want to see her be angry but still pretend to be magnanimous.

“Sigh, I really miss it...”

He didn’t escape from Xia Jinyuan’s eyes. Xia Jinyuan turned around and glanced at him coldly. Han Zheng stood up straight and made a gesture to mean that he would keep his mouth shut.

Soon, Ye Jian saw Xia Jinyuan at her 4:17. The snow pile that blocked her line of sight was lifted. Their searchlights shone directly at each other. Their eyes met immediately.

The soldiers from the Mazar military depot, the Kuda military depot, and the 30 Mile Camp were the first to speak. Then, the leader of the rescue team stepped forward... Ye Jian moved to Xia Jinyuan’s side and stood quietly as she watched J5’s long sleeves shake in the air.

J5 acted as the leader after receiving Xia Jinyuan’s signal. He wasn’t acting as the officer of the Xueyu unit.

“Du Jiayi is a difficult person to deal with. Did you suffer this time around?” Major Xia asked.

Ye Jian sensed something and raised her eyebrows. “Old acquaintances?”

There was something wrong with the tone of her two words.

Major Xia, who sensed it keenly, turned his head and looked at her. Within a few seconds, he reacted. No wonder it sounded a little strange. It smelled of jealousy.

“We can be considered old acquaintances. It was about ten years ago when I was still living my days as the crown prince. She’s a hypocritical beauty and I have a deep grudge against her.

“How is it? Are you satisfied with my answer?”

Cough... She was satisfied.

Ye Jian felt a little uncomfortable just now from being too jealous.. There were many types of old acquaintances too. Just now, Captain Xia’s tone was so cold but she didn’t notice it!

Chapter 1825: The Special Forces That Walk On A Sharp Blade

After talking to Xia Jinyuan for a while, Ye Jian noticed an inquisitive gaze directed at her.

She couldn't help but raise her eyes slightly to look over. When she saw who it was, she said to Xia Jinyuan, "I wasn't at a disadvantage, but I'm being targeted. It's a disagreement. It's because I don't like saying more than one sentence."

"It's good that you didn't lose out. It doesn't matter if you're stared at." When he heard that she didn't lose out, the smile in Xia Jinyuan's eyes deepened. He said in relief, "Knowing you won't lose to her, I can rest assured in the future."

Although he had not seen Du Jiayi for more than ten years, the woman had the ability to distort right from wrong back then. With the Du family's extreme education, things had probably only gotten worse.

Xia Jinyuan was not worried that he would be recognized. Besides Long Eagle and Liu Ruoyao, who were the main scouts, the rest of the team members were at least 1.85 meters tall. They all wore snow boots, cold-proof clothing, and masks. It would be strange if Du Jiayi could recognize him.

He couldn't spot Du Jiayi from the group of female soldiers either.

But it really made him feel a little helpless. Why was it that Du Jiayi was the one who was trapped? Could it be that she had done too many bad things and started to suffer when she reached a territory where the Du family's protection couldn't extend to?

It was alright if she was unlucky, but she even got the little fox to save her. Indeed, bad people had long lives.

Du Jiayi's gaze landed on Ye Jian. She was standing among a group of tall soldiers from the army. She looked even more slender. It was as if the male soldiers were protecting her and she was being doted on.

Fortunately, she had already seen Reporter Qin, who was calm and composed. Since Ye Jian knew him, Du Jiayi guessed that this female soldier must have some background.

From the looks of it, her first impression of Ye Jian was correct. She was just a normal female soldier who had some ability and could be cruel to herself to climb up the ranks.

If someone like her entered the capital or the military district, would she still want to fight for fame everywhere she went? Ha, she would be beaten back to her original state at any time!

As she thought of this, the fear in Du Jiayi's heart that arose because of Qin Xiu instantly dissipated. As she watched, she even lifted her chin slightly.

When Ye Jian looked over, she saw Du Jiayi raising her chin slightly and looking very arrogant.

She didn't wait for the other party to notice her. She retracted her gaze and stood beside Xia Jinyuan. She waited for J5 to talk to the commander before she talked to G3 and the rest.

Since it was not an official occasion, they could talk privately.

G3 looked at the female soldier who was almost half a head shorter than him. There was a slight trace of joy in his usually grave voice. "Your courage is commendable, and your strength is great."

He looked at the truck that had yet to be pulled up. The entire carriage of the truck was supported by the front of the truck. Although the team had made sufficient preparations, the danger was too great. If they had not made sufficient preparations, there was the possibility of falling off the cliff along with the truck.

Ye Jian climbed into the truck just like that. She was able to save everyone who was trapped inside. She needed to be calm when carrying out the rescue mission.

She was getting closer and closer to the requirements to enter the Xueyu unit. She was reaching the requirements.

Xia Jinyuan listened to the conversation between his comrade and Ye Jian. The smile in his dark eyes deepened. He was worried for her and also cheered for her growth at the same time.

As special forces soldiers who walked on the sharp blade of a knife, they would dance with death every time they carried out a mission.. They needed to have courage, perseverance, and calmness... Only then could they defeat death and return to the team in glory.

Chapter 1826: There Won't Be Another Ye Jian

In fact, Qin Xiu was also secretly looking at Ye Jian. However, he was very good at hiding so Ye Jian didn't notice him this time.

As a diplomat, he had the ability to see through people without batting an eyelid. Now that he was using this ability of his, Ye Jian really couldn't detect it.

Otherwise, how could Qin Xiu be the youngest and most promising diplomat?

He looked over several times but Ye Jian didn't notice him. Qin Xiu couldn't help but raise his hand to touch his forehead and smile helplessly.

After the meeting ended, Ye Jian returned to her team and focused her attention on the tall and strong soldiers. She didn't even look at them.

It seemed like she thought of herself as just a stranger who knew a little more about things.

Qin Xiu didn't notice Xia Jinyuan's sharp gaze sweeping over. When he lowered his head, he only glanced at Major Xia for a second before retracting his gaze. Xia Jinyuan thought that this guy looked a little... like Qin Xiu.

Why was he with the troupe?

Also, there was something wrong with the way Qin Xiu looked at Ye Jian. It was as if he was hoping for something.

As a 'soldier king', Major Xia was not someone to be trifled with. He saw Qin Xiu taking a few more glances at Ye Jian.

Perhaps it was because Ye Jian didn't give any response, Qin Xiu didn't look at her anymore. Major Xia didn't think too much since he didn't see it clearly.

In front, the commander thanked J5. Then, the leaders thanked him one by one. The meeting ended after about ten minutes.

The female soldiers from the art troupe were already shivering from the cold. They had to maintain their image while hugging their cold-proof suits. They could only stomp their feet occasionally. When they finally got into the car, Ye Jian heaved a sigh of relief upon seeing them.

Before getting into the car, Wei Jiayue turned around and looked at Ye Jian deeply. Under the urging of her comrade, she stepped into the car. If Du Jiayi made a move, how should she contact Ye Jian?

Should she ask her family to help look into it?

"Come in quickly. I'm almost frozen. If you stand there for a while longer, I'm really afraid that I'll fall straight down in front of the leaders."

"I really want to drink some hot water. Even if it's 70 degrees, it's fine. Right now, I feel that my heart is cold and not hot at all. I'm afraid I'll really die when I get back to the outpost."

As the car swayed, the female soldiers who were not sleepy due to the cold started chatting.

The sky seemed to have brightened up. Sitting at the farthest end, Wei Jiayue drew a small gap in the curtains. In front of them, there was a truck that was going in the opposite direction from them. The female soldier that she admired would also get farther and farther away from them...

Her comrades were talking about her. They all thought that Ye Jian was the best and bravest female soldier they had ever met.

Wu Ziwei, who took humanities, suddenly sighed. "There won't be another Ye Jian."

There wouldn't be another Ye Jian...

There was silence in the car. After some time, Liu Yuan said softly, "There won't be another Ye Jian... but I don't know if Ye Jian will still be around in the future."

The way Du Jiayi looked at Ye Jian was imprinted in her heart. There wouldn't be another Ye Jian... If Du Jiayi really wanted to make things difficult for Ye Jian, there would be no Ye Jian at all.

"I'll be discharged from the army next year. I don't know if I'll be able to see Ye Jian again. This kind of female soldier is really admirable."

"Don't talk about leaving the army.. It makes me feel uncomfortable."

Chapter 1827: Taking Advantage

Discharging from the military was always a topic that a soldier didn't want to talk about. Even Wei Jiayue, who hadn't joined the conversation, couldn't help but frown. When she heard them guessing that Ye Jian was a female soldier from the border troops, she interrupted them with a dark expression. Her comrades were chatting excitedly but she said calmly, "The past is in the past. We just need to remember it ourselves. You all know why I'm saying this."

The atmosphere in the truck was initially quite good. Everyone had survived the disaster and met another powerful female soldier. They were in a good mood to chat but now, the atmosphere was cold. They looked at each other and no longer had the interest to chat.

After a soft sigh, peace was restored in the truck. The heavy sound of the wheels grinding against the snow could be heard.

There was no more talking. If they continued talking and had to confront Du Jiayi, not one of them would have a good ending.

The members of the Xueyu unit were chatting happily. V8 smiled brightly at Ye Jian and said, "Captain knew that you went to save them. He drove at a speed that made everyone scared. After driving for more than three hours, all of us received physical and mental training. Our psychological endurance has increased again."

"Azure Bird, this time, we've trained our courage again. When I got out of the truck, my back was shaking while covered in sweat. I was scared because of Q King."

Listening to their cheerful voices, Ye Jian's lips were curled up. She felt much happier being with her comrades.

J5 looked meaningfully at Major Xia who was sitting beside Ye Jian. He said slowly, "Of course. Azure Bird is the only female soldier on our team. How could Q King not be anxious?"

"If it were me, I would be anxious too."

How could they not be anxious when they knew that their comrade was in danger? Any member of the Xueyu unit would be anxious. Otherwise, why didn't V8 say anything to Xia Jinyuan about his frightening speed on the road? Why didn't any of their comrades say anything to him?

That was because they wanted to rush over as soon as possible as well.

However, they didn't know that Xia Jinyuan drove at such a speed for another reason. Only Han Zheng knew about it.

Hence, Xia Jinyuan got Han Zheng to go to another truck.

Major Xia smiled when he heard J5's words. He pinched Ye Jian's palm and whispered into her ear, "Do you know how anxious I was? I was afraid that you'd be taken advantage of by that woman."

"Stay away from her." His breath reached her ears. It turned out that it was a sensitive spot of hers. Coupled with the fact that she had been freezing earlier, the warmth on her skin now made her feel embarrassed. She quickly recovered her senses. He was so close to her, and as he talked... even her ears felt numb.

They were sitting very close to each other. If she tilted her head, J5 and Liu Ruoyao, who were sitting opposite her, would definitely feel that something was wrong... She was feeling guilty. She was now talking to Xia Jinyuan but the rest didn't know about their relationship.

Xia Jinyuan was a man who was interesting but he was also a little devilish. Seeing this, he raised his eyebrows slightly. He didn't keep his distance but moved closer instead. He grabbed Ye Jian's right hand and said in a low voice, "Heartless little fox, I was so worried. How can you bear to reject me now? At least give me some benefits. For example... come closer and talk to me."

If she really leaned over, he would take advantage of the bumpy ride to move closer and let her kiss his cheek.

He was well-prepared. Otherwise, why would he have taken off his windproof mask and hat when he got into the truck?

He indeed... had those intentions!

Chapter 1828: Not Good, Not Good At All

Now, Ye Jian was no longer the Ye Jian who had thorns all over her body and was always vigilant against everyone. She was no longer the girl who was overwhelmed by panic when Major Xia pressed her down.

After interacting with him for so many years, even fighting and kissing, Ye Jian already had a way to deal with Major Xia's shamelessness.

In the past, when she heard these words, she would definitely blush and remain frozen. But now, after hearing these words, Ye Jian just raised her eyebrows and looked over slightly. She said with hints of amusement, "Captain Xia, you must not be very satisfied with the 'sweetness' that you want. But I'm afraid there's more to say about the previous matter.

"Captain Xia, you were worried that I might suffer because of an old friend of yours. You knew Du Jiayi first, so you understand her. Because you understand her character, you were afraid that she'd get into a fight with me and make me suffer."

Major Xia's eyelids twitched when he heard this. He had a bad feeling.

Then, he saw Ye Jian's faint smile. "Actually, if you didn't know your old friend well, you wouldn't have thought that I'd be at a disadvantage. You wouldn't have rushed over so anxiously."

Major Xia immediately sat upright. Even if the truck jolted, his back was still straight. He didn't dare to be rash.

If Commander Xia were here, he would definitely clap his hands and laugh. He would also say to his daughter-in-law, "This is how we should teach him a lesson. We can't let him have the chance to bully us!"

Why did Commander Xia recognize Ye Jian as the daughter-in-law of the Xia family after just a few meetings? The reason was simple. Ye Jian could subdue the devil incarnate in the family!

Xia Jinyuan didn't dare to say anything else. He needed to listen to what Ye Jian said before he could speak.

The Xia family was a little weird. There was someone that all the men of the Xia family did not dare to offend, and that was their own wife! The men of the Xia family could do whatever they wanted outside, but when they returned home, they were all filial men who doted on their wives and coaxed them.

It couldn't be helped. They were in the army all year round. It wasn't easy for them to reunite with their wives. If they didn't perform well and dote on their wives... If their wives ran away with someone else, they would be at a huge loss!

Major Xia had inherited this trait of the Xia family so he listened to Ye Jian carefully. He didn't dare to interrupt her.

It was also because he loved and respected Ye Jian that he was willing to lower himself.

"At the end of the day, it's because you know your old friend, Du Jiayi, very well that you were worried about me. If you didn't know her well, based on my understanding of you, you would've definitely remained calm. No matter how worried or nervous you were, you would let me face it alone and not rush over so anxiously.

"Major, am I right?"

Xia Jinyuan didn't dare to say that he wanted to give her a taste of the 'sweetness'. He had to change the topic! If he continued to talk about the 'sweetness', he would only suffer!

"That's right!" If he didn't say that, when would he say it? If he didn't go along with his girlfriend, he would be a fool! Without any hesitation, Xia Jinyuan immediately expressed his absolute approval. "I know her, so I got worried. If I didn't know her, I would've waited for your return at the military depot."

This was the truth..

Chapter 1829: The Most Dangerous Person

The smile on Ye Jian's lips deepened. She believed that he would tell her the truth as long as it involved 'serious matters'.

"We're not afraid of any big waves, not to mention life and death missions. These are things that we have to face. I won't step forward for these matters because they're all things that you have to face as a special forces soldier."

After all, Xia Jinyuan was Xia Jinyuan. Just a few of his words were enough to make Ye Jian stop smiling and listen to him carefully.

“You’re a soldier raised by Uncle Chen and Uncle Gen. They brought you out because they hoped that you would be able to walk further and stand higher in the military world. I’m bringing you along a path that is harder and more dangerous. Every place is filled with thorns. Little Fox, your life is my life. I cherish it very much and can’t bear to see you in danger.

“The more this is the case, the more I have to let go and be cruel. As long as I’m not on a break, I’m just your superior and not your boyfriend. I don’t want any harm to fall on you. I just want to live a long and complete life with you.”

Words of love didn’t have to be about not being able to live without each other and how much one loved the other. Words that could stir up emotions but were easy to forget would not be able to stand against the test of time.

Words of love should be like Xia Jinyuan’s words of love. They were filled with bloodthirstiness and ruthlessness. However, this was only the surface of it. Once this layer was peeled off, one would see his sincerity. He only wanted to have Ye Jian in his life. He wanted to go through storms together and survive the war together.

To be able to withstand the smoke and fire of war, to survive the rain of bullets, and to be tempered with blood was to have a love stronger than gold and to have no regrets in life.

Ye Jian was a female soldier who didn’t like to listen to passionate confessions. Having lived two lifetimes, she had seen too many hypocrites. She preferred realistic things. Hence, Xia Jinyuan’s words could always move her inadvertently.

Major Xia, who was still harboring some thoughts, saw her solemn expression and became more serious. “We need to meet many different people in our lives. Let’s talk about villains today.

“I was worried about you because the most dangerous person has appeared. You have to be careful with a person like that. Otherwise, you’ll become a stepping stone for that person. Especially someone like Du Jiayi, who looks kind on the surface but secretly stabs others behind their backs. You have to be even more careful!

“I’ve known her for a long time. I used to be quite a gangster, and because of my family background, not many people dared to offend me. I had a few good friends who didn’t want to study. Some of them didn’t come from a good family background. One of them has a sister who’s good friends with Du Jiayi. Sometimes, she would hang out with us...”

Xia Jinyuan told her about how Du Jiayi had framed a good friend of hers. As for the cause, it was because his friend had said that the dress she wore that night was not very nice.

It was related to her good friend’s exam. Her friend accidentally lost the exam admission ticket that she had kept very well. She did not find it even when the exam started.

As a good friend, Du Jiayi was anxious. Just a few minutes before the exam, she was still looking for an exam permit for her friend.

“Du Jiayi also needed to take this exam. Although they were in different exam venues, she worriedly consoled her friend a few minutes before the exam and said that she would think of a solution. She even made a few calls to see if there was a solution. Everyone thought that having a friend like Du Jiayi was worth it!”

When Xia Jinyuan said this, the coldness in his eyes disappeared. “I believed her too. I thought that this little girl was quite loyal.. I told my friend that this kind of girl is even better than other boys and she’s worth befriending.”

Chapter 1830: Definitely Protect You

What was the outcome? It turned out Du Jiayi had stolen the exam admission ticket because her friend said that her dress was not pretty.

It was Han Zheng who accidentally heard about this. Otherwise, no one would believe that Du Jiayi would make her good friend miss the exam just because she had said that her dress wasn’t pretty.

What was even scarier was that Du Jiayi appeared quite anxious for her good friend. Xia Jinyuan’s friend wanted to build connections with her, so he wasn’t bothered about Du Jiayi’s actions that day.

Du Jiayi, who was anxious in front of others, took the initiative to push her friend into a dead-end. She went straight to the examiner and said that her friend had lost her exam admission ticket and was looking for someone with no connections to enter the venue.

“She pretended to help time and again but was in reality pushing her victims to a dead-end. It’s only when you no longer have the strength to retaliate that she would stop and quickly kick you away.

“Such a petty person is the scariest. She’s capable and is able to keep her cool. Yet, she can kill someone without batting an eyelid. Du Jiayi, who was only ten years old at the time, was already so scary back then. Now that ten years have passed, Du Jiayi will be even harder to deal with.”

Ye Jian was flabbergasted when she heard that. Just because her good friend said that her dress was not pretty in front of others, Du Jiayi held a grudge against her friend. Du Jiayi then immediately ruined her friend’s future. She was only ten years old back then.

The two of them sat side by side. The light in the truck was dim. Although Xia Jinyuan couldn’t see Ye Jian’s expression, he knew that she must be surprised.

When Han Zheng told him this back then, he didn’t believe him either.

The little fox said that she didn’t suffer a loss just now. It could be seen that the two of them were evenly matched. Major Xia raised his eyebrows and said calmly, “Come, tell me how you went up against her. Judging from this woman’s personality, she’ll definitely secretly check your identity when she returns from the borders. We need to prepare a countermeasure first.”

He wasn't afraid that Du Jiayi would make a move. He only hoped that she would make a big move and give Officer Du a headache.

Ye Jian felt that there was something wrong with what he said when she heard it. He seemed to want Du Jiayi to investigate her identity. She suppressed her doubts and told him everything about her encounter with Du Jiayi. "I climbed to the roof of the truck to ask about the situation inside. Du Jiayi was the first to speak... After everyone was rescued, she talked to the leader. She was implying that the reason why I climbed to the top of the truck without caring about my own safety was that I wanted to show off.

"I didn't argue with her at first because I didn't want to waste my breath on someone like her. However, she openly came to humiliate me, so I couldn't tolerate it."

However, she didn't expect Du Jiayi to be Ye Ying's sister-in-law.

When Xia Jinyuan heard this, although he didn't laugh out loud, his eyes were filled with smiles. "That's right. With our status, we can't take the initiative to bully them. However, we don't have to tolerate people like Du Jiayi."

"If you have to go against the Du family for me, will you be willing to?" Ye Jian asked casually. However, her left hand was clenched tightly.

She didn't believe that the Du family hadn't made a move in her previous life. Just like what Wei Jiayue said, the Du family was full of prideful people who wouldn't make things difficult for others openly and would only act in secret.

Therefore, she didn't believe that the Du family didn't know that Ye Ying had been making things difficult for her in her previous life. She didn't believe that Ye Ying had the guts to hide the fact that she killed her from her in-laws!
