

BOOT CAMP 1921

Chapter 1921: Captain Xia Restrained Himself Too Much

It was a good thing that both of them could handle it. They liked to study first before making a move. At first, Ye Jian was a little stiff but her face was completely red. In the end, she gradually became aroused.

“Xia Jinyuan....” she said softly. Like a spell, it overwhelmed the man who was trying hard to restrain himself. Suddenly, he sucked on the skin below her collarbone. He didn’t want to let go for a while.

Ye Jian, who was stimulated, no longer only wrapped her arms around his neck. Instead, she went under his armpits and grabbed his shoulders.

“The last few appetizers...” Xia Jinyuan was enchanted by her soft voice. His eyes were red. He moved his body down and approached Ye Jian’s chest.

Ye Jian didn’t let him down. She panted softly, saying, “I’m too full. Captain Xia, I can’t bear the responsibility.” She could feel the biggest change happening in his body.

“If you’re reluctant, you can help me. Use... your hands to help me.” After he said that, he lowered his head. The white blanket undulated.

Xia Jinyuan got what he wanted after 26 years.

He said that he would only have a ‘taste’, and he really did stop after having a ‘taste.’ He didn’t continue to ask Ye Jian to use her hands to help him. Recently, Xia Jinyuan had been restraining himself too much. Xia Jinyuan, who could feel his blood boiling, got his release through fiction and other methods.

Ye Jian felt his body suddenly tremble. After a while, she felt that her legs were wet.

Ye Jian knew what it meant. She bit her lower lip as her body started trembling. Although she didn’t go too far, she couldn’t control herself either.

After both of their bodies trembled slightly, they could only breathe softly in the bedroom. Although they didn’t go all the way and they didn’t even go below their navels, this was the first time they were so close. It was enough for them to reminisce.

Her face was so hot that it felt like steam was rising off the top of her head. She closed her eyes and adjusted her breathing. It was too exciting, and she could not calm down for a while.

Xia Jinyuan didn’t move. He had one more thing he wanted to do, but he didn’t expect himself to be so useless. The little fox only bit his Adam’s apple once before it ended!

‘Was he that sensitive? Or was he not persistent enough?’

At the thought of this, Major Xia couldn’t help but narrow his eyes. Wasn’t it a little too fast? Had it even been an hour?

An hour should be enough. An hour was just right. After all, this was the first time he was intimate with the little fox and the first time he was intimate with a woman.

He had read relevant books before. A man like him who had not even had his first time would usually end very quickly. If it was normal for him to finish in about ten minutes, then lasting an hour was definitely impressive!

Xia Jinyuan was no different from other men when it came to the topic of his 'ability'. He wanted to last long. He didn't want his lover to feel that the duration was too short.

After five minutes, Ye Jian, who was drenched in sweat, poked the motionless man and asked softly, "Aren't you going to change your pants?"

Xia Jinyuan didn't move. He lay there lazily.

After waiting for a while, he still didn't move. Ye Jian poked his shoulder again. "I'm sweaty all over. I want to wash up. If you don't want to move, you should give way for me.."

Chapter 1922: Acting Like We're Strangers

Ye Jian didn't expect that the man lying on the bed was thinking about two things. Firstly, he was wondering if the duration of their session was acceptable. Was it okay? Was it decent? Secondly, he was frustrated at himself for being useless.

That was because he wanted Ye Jian to use her five fingers to help him with the activity for the night. In the end... he resolved the issue himself and it became the regret of the night!

The third time she poked his shoulder, Ye Jian felt that her legs were getting more and more sensitive. She had no choice but to remind him again, "If you don't get up now, the blanket will get all wet. You..." She bit her lower lip and lowered her voice. "... Aren't you feeling uncomfortable too? You're wearing wet pants. Get up and change first."

"I don't want to move. I don't feel uncomfortable either." Major Xia continued to lie on his stomach. His voice was hoarse as he said softly, "I still want to continue... I still want to continue until dawn. I still want..."

Ye Jian, who was still immersed in the romantic atmosphere, was shocked by his words. "Don't even think about it. Hurry up and get up, Xia Jinyuan." She directly called out his name.

The moment of passion hadn't passed, and Xia Jinyuan could still hear the tenderness in her voice. He wanted to kiss her again but Ye Jian's legs were already moving.

Xia Jinyuan immediately rolled to the side and laughed. "Little Fox, are you trying to act like we're strangers now? You were almost successful in your sneak attack."

After sensing that something was not right, Xia Jinyuan hurriedly picked up the towel beside him and wrapped it around his body before Ye Jian noticed anything. Then, he tried to cover the wet spot on his pants. "I'll go outside to see if there's water. You can go inside and change."

From the side, he could see that her face was turning red again. They had already opened themselves up to each other, but his little fox was still shy... He felt a little uncomfortable now. The wet part made him uncomfortable.

After the incident, Ye Jian indeed acted a little unnatural. During the process just now, she was quite proactive... When she got up just now, she saw the scratch marks she left on his shoulder. It was only when she saw the scratch marks that she became unnatural.

Hearing that he would be going outside, Ye Jian felt relieved.

'When she reached the bathroom, Ye Jian looked at herself in the mirror. She had only taken one glance before she was shocked by her appearance.

Was that really her reflection in the mirror?

Was it really her?

Not only was her face flushed red, but there was even a hint of seduction in the corners of her eyes. Her eyes were even... even more charming as though there were ripples in them.

Her lips were red and plump. It seemed like blood was going to drip out of them. Ye Jian didn't dare to look at herself in the mirror any longer.

How could she be so emotional? She was not as cold as usual!

Ye Jian took a few deep breaths before she managed to recover from her shyness. Then, she slowly lifted her clothes. Her snow-white skin was red. He kissed her chest earlier

After taking a glance, Ye Jian quickly put down her clothes. She wanted to take a shower. After taking off her clothes, she was too embarrassed to look at her own body. She raised her head and let the hot water wash her.

Outside, Xia Jinyuan took out the towel from the water pipe. There was no need to pretend that there was no water anymore. He could sleep with her for the next few hours.

He still needed to wash his shorts. When he returned to the bedroom, he saw that Ye Jian had already laid down and even wrapped herself tightly..

Chapter 1923: Practice Makes Perfect

She had no intention of letting him sleep on the sofa. He knew by looking at the space she left him on the other side of the bed.

Ye Jian, whose face was still red, wasn't sleeping. When she heard him enter the room and close the door, she held her breath. She could feel him coming to the bed and lying down beside her.

"Come and sleep in my arms. I'll hug you."

After taking a cold shower, the man's voice was no longer as hoarse as before. It was still pleasant to the ears.

Ye Jian, who was sleeping sideways, didn't move. Xia Jinyuan, who was talking, moved. He held her shoulder with one hand and pulled her into his arms forcefully. He made Ye Jian turn around and face him.

Looking at her red cheeks, Xia Jinyuan kissed her forehead. "Practice makes perfect. I'll last longer the next time so that you'll enjoy it more."

Ye Jian didn't want to hear these at all!

She didn't want to listen or say anything, She just closed his eyes and ignored him. However, her trembling eyelashes exposed her. Xia Jinyuan's heart was filled with love. He hugged her tightly. There was tenderness in his voice. "Your face is so red. Do you want to wash your face with cold water to cool it down?"

If she did not speak, he would not stop.

"No need. I'll stop blushing if you stop talking." Ye Jian opened her mouth but her eyes remained tightly shut. She buried her head in his arms to stop him from looking at her. "I'm so tired. I want to sleep."

Xia Jinyuan was no longer sleepy. Although he didn't get to ask Ye Jian to help him, he didn't need to think about it anymore.

In the team, Han Zheng would sometimes bring up the matter between men and women. He had been in many battles. After he started to have sex at the age of 15, he never stopped. To him, women were just like items that could solve his needs. He tossed them away after he used them and never thought more about them.

'When feelings were mentioned, Xia Jinyuan couldn't help but only think about the girl in his arms.

After all, imagination was just imagination. It was completely different from reality. Only after experiencing it would one know what it felt like to be in love.

It was a feeling that made his cerebral cortex quite active. It felt as if his soul was floating.

He had only explored her upper body, yet he already felt this way. Then when he dominated the entire territory, wouldn't he... He shouldn't think about it. However, just thinking about it had evoked a reaction from his body again.

“Are you tired? If you’re tired, close your eyes and rest. Just listen to me speak.” He didn’t want to sleep and wanted to talk to her about his feelings. He gently caressed her shoulder and said in a low voice, “I’ve never felt this way before. Even now, I’m still very excited. Little Fox, did you feel good just now?”

“Did you enjoy it? It should’ve been alright, right? Hearing your low voice really made me excited.

“can still hear it... I used cold water to extinguish the flames in my body when I was showering just now. But they’ve lit up again... Little Fox, I have really fallen deeply for you.”

He had experienced similar seduction attempts countless times. Other than the first time when he was caught off guard and had a slight reaction, there was never another time when he had a reaction. No matter how good a woman’s body was, she was just like a plastic human model in front of him. She would not be able to arouse his interest at all.

Ye Jian was the only one who could make every part of him so sensitive and trigger the most primal urges in his body.

“If you didn’t have to rush for a flight tomorrow, Little Fox, I would have tortured you till dawn.” After saying that, Xia Jinyuan hugged Ye Jian tightly. She seemed to have fallen asleep. He slowly closed his eyes too.

They could sleep now. After waking up, there were still many things that needed to be dealt with. Their relationship would be short-lived as fighting was their life..

Chapter 1924: Hard To Part With

It was already three in the morning when the two of them finally fell asleep. Xia Jinyuan was very tired from leading the troops. When he woke up, he realized that Ye Jian, who was supposed to be in his arms, wasn’t there.

The emptiness in his arms made him a little stunned. If not for the hot scratches on his shoulders, he would have thought that he had a wet dream last night.

There was still half an hour before eight o’clock. Ye Jian ran downstairs and went to the hotel’s breakfast hall to get some porridge, pickles, bread, and other foods. She pushed the door open gently. She didn’t intend to wake the tired man up.

Xia Jinyuan was the one who led the troops during the highlands and mountain training, Demon King Li was the one supporting him. The training was high-intensity and dangerous. As the most authoritative commander of the two teams, Xia Jinyuan was under a lot of pressure during that period.

It wasn’t easy for him to have a good sleep. Ye Jian didn’t have the heart to wake him up so early. She planned to wake him up at 7:50 a.m.

For a soldier, ten minutes was more than enough time to wash up. That would not delay their work.

After putting the breakfast on the coffee table, Ye Jian, who was sweating from her morning run, took out a neatly hung winter uniform from the wardrobe. She entered the bathroom outside.

Xia Jinyuan, who was on the phone in the bedroom, had already noticed Ye Jian entering the room. He put on his clothes and said in a low voice, "Okay, I'll leave in ten minutes. We'll talk in detail when we meet."

The major general of the army was the one who called. The major, who had not even gotten the time to rest, was assigned a mission.

Soldiers like them did not have any so-called rest time. They were always on standby no matter how many days there were in a year. Once they received a mission, they had to rush back immediately no matter where they were.

After ending the call with Major General Lu, Xia Jinyuan opened the bedroom door and walked out. As he listened to the sound of water running in the bathroom, the coldness on his handsome face disappeared and he revealed a gentle smile.

"Little Fox, I'm coming in." The major knocked on the glass bathroom door and smiled. "Pull the curtain so that I can't see."

Hearing the knocks, Ye Jian covered her head. After hearing what he said, she immediately raised her hand and pulled the shower curtain. "Go to the other bathroom! I still need two minutes."

"All my toiletries are here. Also, I received a call from the military just now. I need to leave in ten minutes. Time is a little tight." Xia Jinyuan didn't dare to barge in now. He didn't want to get splashed by her. He needed to explain himself first.

Ye Jian knew that he needed to carry out a mission, so she didn't waste any time and let him in immediately.

The sound of water running could be heard from behind the plain-colored waterproof curtain. The major, who was tall and straight, let out a soft sigh as he quickly washed up.

When he was done washing up, the sound of running water stopped. His gaze landed on the military uniform and towel placed on the clothes rack outside the shower area. The young major, who had a dark look in his eyes, took the towel and walked to the shower curtain that was only three steps away from him. He said in a low voice, "I'll put your clothes on for you, okay?"

"W-Why do I need you to help me put on my clothes? I can do it myself! If I let you help me, I won't be wearing anything at all."

Ye Jian's face started burning when she heard that. She started stuttering when she spoke. She was frightened.

After saying that, she realized that she was a little short of breath. She pulled a long face and said in a low voice, "Captain Xia, you can go out and have breakfast first. I'll settle my own matters."

Chapter 1925: Gentle Trap

It was not convenient to put on clothes for others. Besides, it was embarrassing to let others put on clothes for her. Ye Jian would not get herself into another 'embarrassing' situation.

Her face was still burning from last night's incident. If he were to help her put on her clothes, her entire body would be flushed red in broad daylight later!

Xia Jinyuan, who was holding a towel outside, seemed to have understood something. He raised his eyebrows and looked at the dark green winter jacket that was hanging there, as well as her shirt and underwear. His little fox seemed to have misunderstood him.

He smiled and pulled open the curtain slightly. Behind the curtain, Ye Jian got a shock. She thought that he wanted to pull open the curtain and enter. She couldn't help but shout, "Xia Jinyuan, stand there. You're not allowed to.

Before she could say the words 'come in', a towel was handed to her. His voice was soft and seductive as he coaxed her softly. "Wrap the towel around yourself first before coming out. I'll take my clothes out and wear them in the bedroom. Last time, you helped me wear the military uniform. This time, I'll help you."

Ye Jian, who was silently wrapping the towel tightly around her, finally understood what he meant when he said that he was going to help her put on her clothes.

Knowing that her thoughts had gone astray, Ye Jian wanted to stick herself to the wall that was filled with water droplets... What did she say just now?!

How embarrassing!

Wearing clothes for his lover was an interesting thing. Xia Jinyuan held Ye Jian's winter jacket with one arm. He smiled gently and said to her, "Come here, Little Fox."

Ye Jian, who just needed to put on her jacket now, walked up to him and glared at him. "You said something that made me misunderstand."

"You think too much, Don't you know that I'm leaving soon? How can I help you wear them one by one? Just like what you said, if I'm really helping you put on your clothes, you can forget about wearing any for the rest of the day." Xia Jinyuan smiled. When he entered the bathroom earlier on, he did have wild thoughts. However, he still had a mission to complete, so he didn't have the time to be romantic.

He hugged her gently and kissed her forehead. He said softly, "Sometimes, I don't pay attention when I speak. I didn't mean to tease you. It's my fault for leaving a bad impression on you. I'll fix my behavior."

His embrace was very warm, so warm that she did not want to leave. She rubbed her face lightly. "There's not enough time. When do you plan to dress me up?"

He needed to leave, and she needed to leave as well. Their time together had reached the end. Even if she was reluctant, she had to accept it.

This was their choice, and it was a choice that they could never regret.

"Very soon, but I'll need your cooperation." He let go of her arms and gestured for her to turn her back to him. With her hands slightly behind her back, he put her jacket on her.

Then, he went to the front and carefully tidied her collar. He lowered his eyes slightly and looked at the girl before him. His chest suddenly felt hot, making it difficult for him to lower his head again. A gentle kiss landed on her eyes. Her long and trembling eyelashes swept past his lips and also his heart.

"There are still five minutes left. I can't accompany you to the hospital to bid farewell to Uncle Chen, nor can I accompany you back to school. The Southern Province is not as good as the Northern Province. The weather is cold and humid. There's no heater in the rooms either. If the military has no plans for you after you return, you can go to the capital to accompany Uncle Chen, or you can go directly to the compound.."

Chapter 1926: Delightful

Time never stopped. Out of the ten minutes they had left, they only had three more minutes now. Xia Jinyuan didn't stop reminding her. "Uncle Chen will be discharged in six days. After he's discharged, the military will arrange for him to go to the sniper base in the Southern Province. If you have no problems with your homework, you can accompany Uncle Chen to the sniper base to practice your shooting."

He helped her button up her military uniform. His expression was serious and solemn. "Take care of your body. I'll be going on a long mission this time. I'll temporarily cut off all contact with the country. If you have any urgent matters, you can contact the team directly. The comrades in the team will be happy to help you.

"Han Zheng's father is the head of the Military Arms Department. My family is on good terms with Han Zheng's family. Uncle Han and my father were classmates who graduated from the same military academy. The two families have always been on good terms.

"If you have any problems, look for Han Zheng directly. He won't reject you. You don't have to worry about Du Jiayi's matter. She doesn't have the ability to directly extend her hand to the National Science University.

“You don’t have to worry about what’s going on outside either. Right now, what’s most important for you is to take care of your own matters. Complete your four years of school with excellent results and obtain the title of ‘outstanding student.’”

Ye Jian listened to him attentively. She waited for him to finish before saying, “You too. Take care.”

“Okay.” The separation was right in front of them. After Xia Jinyuan put on the coat for her, he looked at the girl with deep eyes. Then, he hugged her tightly. He buried his head in her neck and took a deep breath. “I’ll leave first. I’ll bring breakfast to the car.”

‘The car that was here to fetch him had arrived. He needed to go.

Ye Jian hugged his waist tightly. When he lifted his head from her neck, she tiptoed and kissed his handsome chin. “See you next time, Captain Xia.”

One second, the two of them were hugging each other. The next second, they let go of each other. Ye Jian turned around and picked up the bread on the coffee table. Xia Jinyuan took his luggage and the bread from her. He smiled at her and opened the door. He didn’t look back and walked away.

Until the moment he left, Xia Jinyuan didn’t mention what he and Principal Chen had previously discussed.

The huge room suddenly felt empty. Ye Jian stared blankly at the door that he closed after leaving. She slowly lowered her head and looked at her hands. Just now, she could still feel his body temperature. Now, her hands were empty... Only his breath still lingered.

“I’ve just left and I miss you already, Captain Xia,” she mumbled with a bitter smile. She only knew what it felt like to be in love after living two lifetimes. Whether it was sour, sweet, bitter, or spicy, she would gladly endure it.

At eight o’clock, Ye Jian left the hotel punctually and headed to the hospital.

On the other hand, Xia Jinyuan was talking to Commander Xia on the phone. “There might be a lot of implications. However, the fact that the military unit obliterated all traces of a martyr is enough to prove that there’s something wrong with this military unit.

“I’ve reported the problem to the military. I just hope that I can get justice for the martyrs who sacrificed their lives for the country. I want to find out the truth and let those people with bad intentions know that they won’t be able to suppress everything forever.”

Commander Xia’s face turned ashen when he heard that. If Xia Jinyuan hadn’t told him, he wouldn’t have known that there was a military unit that dared to wipe away the glory of a martyr!

How bold!

“I’ll report this to the Military Disciplinary and Military Commission, but everything will have to wait until I have some results from my investigation. If we want to make a move, we have to make sure it’s a big move. Small fights won’t have much effect.”

Chapter 1927: Fury

Hearing the angered Commander Xia closing the document he was reading with a sullen face, the commander in chief, who had not gotten angry for a long time, slapped the desk and said sternly, "Tell Little Ye that I'm here and she doesn't have to worry. I won't let her mother suffer grievances even after she has passed away!

"How audacious! They even dare to erase the past deeds of martyrs. I want to see what kind of monsters are stirring up trouble in this division!" Martyrs were loyal to their country. After sacrificing themselves, they were actually treated this way. If the military didn't resolve this, how would they face those soldiers who used their lives to protect their country's peace?

The morale of the soldiers would fall to rock bottom, and the country would go into chaos. The country was on the rise, so no one could disturb the morale of the soldiers!

"Dad, I haven't told her about this matter yet. The main reason is that I don't want to affect her studies and distract her. I plan to tell her when I have some clues. Please keep it a secret for now."

Initially, Xia Jinyuan wanted to investigate on his own. However, the mission duration this time was too long. After thinking about it, he could only ask the old man for help. With him around, the speed of the investigation would be much faster.

"Investigate in secret first. I'm afraid that they'll be on their guard. It won't be good if they bite back at us when the time comes." He reminded her cautiously. It had been more than ten years since the incident, so it would be difficult to investigate further. Some evidence had already been erased, and the only breakthrough was that this unit did not have records of Sun Xueqing's heroic deeds.

"You can contact Sun Xueqing's comrades who were in the army when she was alive. Commissioner Cai from the Tongzhou Public Security Bureau is also secretly investigating this matter. He and Ye Jian's mother were comrades. He was the one who discovered this when he returned to the army."

Commissioner Cai must have investigated deeply. It would be better to contact him directly to obtain the relevant evidence.

"Leave this matter to me. You and Ye Jian don't need to be distracted. If there's any progress, I will contact you." Commander Xia took note of everything and said a few more words before hanging up the call.

A phone call had stirred up a storm, but at this time, it was still surging in the dark. The surface was still as calm as before, making those who were hiding in the darkness not know that the past was about to be brought to light again. Soon, there would be people digging out the past, revealing the truth.

Ye Jian learned that Commissioner Cai was secretly investigating her mother's death on the day when all the exams were over. Everyone in the class knew that she had gone to the company to work. Before this, everyone needed to prepare for the exams, so they didn't ask too much. After the exams, they couldn't help but ask about the company.

As long as they did not say the number and did not leak secrets, all was good.

After the exams, Ye Jian smiled and replied that she went to the company. The training was many times more difficult than the training in school. Xu Wen ran over. Before she got close, her voice was heard. "Ye Jian, someone is looking for you outside. He said that he's your mother's comrade! The guard checked his identification and is bringing him to the reception room."

"You should quickly head over, then. We'll come and look for you later." The students sitting together heard this and got up one after another. They didn't want to disturb Ye Jian anymore. There was still a class meeting tonight. It wouldn't be too late to ask her at night.

Only Ye Jian had gone to the grass-roots company. Hence, the students were curious.

Ye Jian vaguely guessed that it might be Commissioner Cai whom she met during her last mission. She suppressed the panic in her heart and hurried to the reception room after thanking Xu Wen.

When she arrived, Commissioner Cai was already in the lounge room. Ye Jian pushed the door open and entered. The first thing he said was, "Not bad.. You have the aura of a soldier now!"

Chapter 1928: Thunderclap

Knowing that Commissioner Cai was her mother's comrade, Ye Jian felt close to him when they met again.

She smiled and walked over. "Why are you here? Are you on a business trip?"

"I've been wanting to visit you for a long time, but I was afraid that I would disturb your studies. That's why I decided to wait for you to finish your exams before coming over." Commissioner Cai looked at the girl he had not seen for a few months. The more he looked at her, the happier he felt. She was really a good child. While looking at her slender and elegant figure, one could see the valiant and heroic bearing of a soldier. She was dressed in a tailored student uniform, looking just like a healthy and strong pine tree. Although the branches and leaves had yet to fully extend, one could already see the graceful bearing she would have in the future.

Ye Jian invited him to sit down and quickly poured some hot water for him. "I'm sorry. There are no tea leaves in the lounge room. I can only serve you hot water."

"Hot water is good. It's clear and light. There are no impurities. You have to be like a cup of clear water. It's clear and light." Commissioner Cai smiled as he took the cup of water. He gestured for Ye Jian to sit down and said kindly, "You look a little pale but you look energetic. You must be used to military school by now.

"Not bad, not bad at all. You've done your mother well. You're truly a descendant of a soldier!"

When Commissioner Cai heard this, his laughter became even louder. "Good, good, good! It's really good, really good! With a daughter like you, no matter how much Red Plum suffered, she was definitely willing."

"But I can't bear it." Ye Jian took a sip of water. When she looked up again, her expression was a little solemn. "Did you mean what you said last time in Tongzhou? I want to know about my mother. Can I ask you about her anytime?"

Since she said that it was the most suitable place, Commissioner Cai did not think too much about it. He took out some clues he had recently gotten from his briefcase and said, "I've always thought that there were many things wrong with your mother's sacrifice. I've also tried to investigate the matter before, but in the end, I gave up on the investigation due to all sorts of reasons. After I saw you, I felt deeply guilty toward your mother and secretly investigated again.

"Back then, I investigated with another comrade and found the comrade who went on a mission with your mother. I knew about your mother's mission back then... It's all written here. You can take a look."

Chapter 1929 The Lost Past

Opening the folder, she saw a photo of a young woman in an old-fashioned military uniform. She was very familiar with this person. 'This was... her mother. Even though she had only been with her for less than four years, she would always remember how gentle she looked when she told her stories.

Even after another lifetime, her memories were still vivid.

'The lounge room was so quiet that no one seemed to exist. Not even the sound of breathing could be heard.

looked at Ye Jian, who was flipping through the book carefully. When she flipped to the second page, he said in a low voice, *... The mission back then was indeed a mission with no return. Someone used their position to collude with the dark forces. It was easy to open the country's borders and gain profits from it.

"When your mother received the mission, she probably knew that the odds were against her. Before she left, she told us that she had a daughter in her hometown. If she didn't come back, she asked us to take care of her.

"Back then, we had no way of finding out who exactly used their position to open up the country's borders and participate in smuggling and drug trafficking. With our capabilities, were executed secretly."

we couldn't find out who the other party was. Family scandals couldn't be made public. It's the same for national scandals. Most of these activities

'That era was when everything started to evolve. Some people couldn't keep true to their principles and couldn't resist the temptation of money. They started to violate their vows and walked step by step toward sin.

"Look at what your mother's comrade said. He said that your mother used her hometown dialect to shout someone's name before she died. Then, she was ambushed and shot in the chest.

"She was sacrificed just like this..." Commissioner Cai suddenly stopped talking. He silently took out a brown envelope from the other compartment of his briefcase. He placed it on the coffee table and slowly pushed it to Ye Jian. "...Ye Jian, take a look."

As if she knew what it was, Ye Jian retracted her hand suddenly. She glanced at Commissioner Cai, whose expression was dark, and clenched her fist expr When she unclenched her hand, she quickly picked up the envelope as if she had made up her mind.

‘There was a photo inside. Even after more than ten years, the colors were still so bright. It was a bright red flag with some blue leaves. Ye Jian’s eyes were filled with tears. She moved her lips. “...’This is the photo of my mother when she was sacrificed, right? She’s the one lying under the flag, right?’”

“Yes, child. The person lying under the flag is Martyr Sun Xueqing. This was taken after she was Commissioner Cai’s voice was filled with sorrow. It had been more than ten years since he last mentioned his comrade who had saved his life. The mention of her sacrifice still made him feel sad.

‘The entire flag was over her mother, covering her from head to toe. Only the faint outline of her body was visible.

She couldn’t see her mother’s face or her mother’s body, but she could see... the blood on the red flag.

“Martyr Sun Xueqing’s comrade who was on a mission with her said that she shouted something in her hometown dialect. It was very short, and it sounded like she was shouting someone’s name.

Unfortunately, there were so many bullets being fired at that time, so he couldn’t replicate what your mother said.

“Which means your mother used this combat dagger to stab a criminal in the eye before she was sacrificed.”.

Chapter 1930 Sudden Appearance

For some reason, Ye Jian’s heart trembled. She looked up at Commissioner Cai suddenly. “The criminal’s eye? Did you catch the criminal?”

Her voice was sharp and urgent.

“Don’t be anxious, child. Drink some water and calm your emotions first.” Commissioner Cai hurriedly got up and passed a cup of warm water to Ye Jian. “You need to listen to me slowly. Then, we’ll find a breakthrough together.”

Ye Jian clenched the photo in her hand tightly. Her hands were trembling as she took the cup. She took two small sips and suppressed the sorrow in her heart. In a hoarse voice, she asked, “I want to know if this criminal has been caught.”

“No. Other than killing a few criminals on the spot, we didn’t catch any criminals with an injured eye. A comrade had heard your mother shouting several times in her hometown dialect. When I found that comrade, he told me that he mentioned it but no one cared. Someone even ran to the dormitory window and warned him not to mention it again.

“He never mentioned it again until he retired from the army. He only brought it up again when I found him some time ago.”

Ye Jian closed her eyes gently. A fierce face flashed across her mind. Sun Yaozu. His eye was injured when her mother died.

Grandma Ye even said that she accidentally got injured while working in the factory outside. As a result, the boss even compensated her a huge sum of money. The villagers said that she received at least a few hundred thousand dollars.

At that time, a few hundred thousand dollars was an astronomical figure to the villagers!

Hometown dialect, stabbing the criminal in the eye... She recalled the vicious gaze that Sun Yaozu used to glare at her when his eye was injured, as well as that year when he kicked her until she fainted.

So that was the reason!

She finally understood. She finally understood why Sun Yaozu hated her so much. Why did Grandma Ye pretend to be kind even though she hated her? Why did she come to the school to create trouble for her in her third year of high school? Why did she bring her parents’ photos over? A look of fear crossed her face.

She finally knew the reason!

Placing the photo of the dagger back on the table, Ye Jian, who was still unstable just now, said in a frighteningly cold voice, “Can you do me a favor? I want to get the report of the tissue on the dagger.”

She had changed so much that Commissioner Cai could not keep up with it. He could not help but ask her, “What do you want the report for?”

“I’d like to do a comparison to see if it matches the person I have in mind.”

Her calm voice was filled with a strong sense of malevolence. She used a calm tone to speak with extreme malevolence. This made Commissioner Cai, a veteran who had seen many things before, feel alarmed.

However, his attention quickly shifted away. He lowered his voice and said, “What did you think of?”

“I thought of the timing that coincided with my mother’s sacrifice. That person also happened to hurt his eye. He used to wear a patch on his eye all day long. I plan to go look for him tomorrow and get some eye tissue back to do a comparison.”

Commissioner Cai rebuked her sternly, “Nonsense! If anyone finds out what you’re doing, Ye Jian, your future will be ruined! Tell me the name of the suspect and I’ll settle the matter.”

She was the only bloodline that Red Plum had left in this world. He had to protect her.

“You can’t stop me. I have to do this personally.” Ye Jian shook her head. There was only unwavering determination in her indifferent expression. “I can only do this myself.”
