

BOOT CAMP 2019

Chapter 2019: Unaware

Madam Li hated it the most when people disobeyed her. She loved it when people did what she said. When Ye Ying said that, Madam Li smiled. "What an obedient girl. She looks good and has a good personality too. Director Ye, you are so lucky."

In the face of praise, Ye Zhifan was not overjoyed. He just replied humbly, "I'm flattered. I'm relieved that we didn't make you upset."

He was telling the truth. He initially wanted to bring Sun Dongqing here but later changed his mind. He only brought Ye Ying.

He was really worried that Ye Ying would say something wrong and anger Madam Li. Given Sun Dongqing's protective nature, if she made a fuss on the spot, his relationship with Staff Officer Du would be broken just like that.

Now that he saw Ye Ying's outstanding performance, Ye Zhifan decided that he would rather bring his daughter out in the future than Sun Dongqing.

Seeing that her father was satisfied, Ye Ying heaved a sigh of relief.

She did not know Madam Li's personality, but she knew that there was no elder who did not like obedient and gentle juniors. Therefore, she followed Madam Li's wishes the entire night and did whatever she asked.

In order to enter the military, it was worth being lectured by the wife of a staff officer. Some people would never get lectured by a figure like her in their entire lives, just like that wicked Ye Jian. Heh, she had to scare her the next time they met!

What was so great about wearing military uniforms in military school? As long as Ye Ying wanted to, she would get everything she wanted!

Ye Ying lowered her eyebrows. There was a trace of complacency in her eyes. The corners of her mouth turned up slightly. In Madam Li's eyes, she still looked obedient.

Ye Ying, who was good at pretending to be obedient, only heaved a sigh of relief after seeing Madam Li get into the car and leave. She had been anxious about angering Madam Li when talking to her, considering how she was so high and mighty.

Fortunately, her obedience had won Madam Li's favor.

"Yingying, your performance tonight won you a bright future. It seems that you have improved a lot after leaving the country for half a year." Ye Zhifan looked at his beautiful daughter and thought about her performance tonight. He felt gratified. "I think Madam Li likes you a lot. You should accompany her these few days and learn from her."

After he finished speaking, he frowned and said again, "You've been smarter than Ye Jian since you were young, but your mother held you back! Fortunately, you have your own opinions and didn't ruin yourself! Don't listen to your mother in the future!"

After spending less than two hours with Madam Li, Ye Ying could tell what a true noblewoman was like. As for her mother, she would only embarrass herself in front of Madam Li.

Thank God her father was wise enough not to bring her mother out.

Comparing her mother to Madam Li, Ye Ying started to complain about Sun Dongqing.

If she had a mother like Madam Li, she would never have been suppressed by Ye Jian. She would have the upper hand.

At this moment, Ye Ying understood Ye Zhifan's good intentions. Her beautiful face was filled with gratitude. She said softly, "Dad, thank you. If..."

The phone in her small handbag vibrated. Ye Ying took out her phone, then said, "If it weren't for you, I wouldn't have been able to please Madam Li." She took a glance at the phone, and her expression changed drastically. Her slender fingers hung up the call without hesitation.

Ye Zhifan could tell that something was wrong with her. Before he could ask, Ye Ying frowned and said in disgust, "It's the landlord. I already said that I'll pay the rent when I get back."

Chapter 2020: Other Plans

Ye Ying had been far away in France. Ye Zhifan didn't know what she did there and what she experienced. Moreover, Ye Ying's performance tonight was outstanding. Hence, Ye Zhifan didn't notice his daughter's panic.

On the contrary, because Ye Ying had gone abroad and he controlled her living expenses during that period, he believed her explanation.

"You don't have to go back to France anymore. If there's anything you need, ask your classmates to pack them up and send them back to the country. I'll pay the rent for you." Now that his daughter was confirmed to be joining the military, there was no need for him to give her an allowance.

Ye Ying's heart was beating like a drum. When she saw that he didn't ask further, her expression slowly returned to normal. "Dad, thank you." The attendant drove the car over. Ye Ying, who had a guilty conscience, quickly said, "Dad, the car is here. You drank a lot of wine. I'll drive."

"You're driving?" Ye Zhifan burped in surprise. "When did you learn how to drive? Why don't I know about it?"

Ye Ying's expression changed. She took the car keys from the valet and signaled him to help Ye Zhifan into the car. "I learned it overseas. All my classmates know how to drive, while I was the only one who didn't. I thought that I would have to learn it in the future anyway, so I decided to get an international driver's license. Unfortunately, the international driver's license can't be used in our country. We can only use it overseas."

Ye Zhifan observed that she was very skilled, so he let her be.

It was not bad for a girl to know how to drive. It would be useful to her in the future.

It seemed that his daughter had matured a lot after studying abroad. Otherwise, her performance today would not have been like this.

Ye Ying's palms were sweating. She looked at Ye Zhifan through the rearview mirror. He was resting with his eyes closed. She heaved a sigh of relief and drove the car out of the restaurant.

Before she returned to the country, she had never thought that she would not be going back to France. As a result, there were many things that had yet to be settled in France.

No, no. Since she was going to join the military, she had to settle the matters there properly. She couldn't let any rumors spread back to China.

Clenching the steering wheel tightly, Ye Ying bit her lower lip and sped into the night as if she had made a decision.

Madam Li, who had returned to the hotel, said to Staff Officer Du, "Old Du, what do you think of Director Ye's daughter? I've been paying attention to her for a long time tonight. Although she's not very dignified, she's obedient and can be trained."

Staff Officer Du, who was unbuttoning his military uniform, didn't think there was another meaning to her words. He smiled and said, "She's from a small family. She's not as dignified as a lady from a prestigious family. She's just an obedient girl."

"Don't you understand what I'm saying?" Madam Li glanced at her husband who didn't seem to care about anything and thought of her youngest son. "Our son doesn't want to join the army. He only wants to be in politics with your elder brother. He can't have any problems in politics. He must have the capable Yue family to help him out and a good wife.

"I've seen Director Ye's resume. He's an honest official, and his achievements have been outstanding. He only has one daughter. If you say that we want to give him some useful information, he'll definitely be happy."

Staff Officer Du finally understood what was going on. He frowned and muttered to himself for a while. Then, he shook his head and said, "I still have to properly look into this. I feel that Ye Zhifan is a scheming person. If he hadn't saved Kaiwei, I wouldn't have interacted with him.

"As for his daughter, think it through again. With our family, we don't have to worry about not being able to find a good daughter-in-law. Having the daughter of a director be our daughter-in-law is not good enough. Back then, you suffered so much when you married me. Thinking about it now, I feel like I've let you down."
